

Chapter 94

Marilyn remained where she was. Tears slipped down her face as she looked at Robert walking away. She didn't know what to do.

She thought, "Chase after him? Then what? What will I say?"

The effect of alcohol started to kick in. Robert felt dizzy and went back to his room. Just when he lay down, he received a call from Samuel.

At that time, the other three including Samuel were planted in the Zabinski Group for an internship.

"Robert... No, Mr. Zabinski, I have something to tell you. Today, I saw the general manager of our company sitting with the general managers from the other companies, and they were talking ill of you. They were saying that you fired two elders of the company or something when you just started your job. I—"

"It's okay. Let them talk," Robert interrupted Samuel.

Robert thought of this when he fired Dylan, but he did it anyway. Because he had just taken over the post, he couldn't be softhearted to anyone. Otherwise, these people would really feel that he was a pushover!

He scoffed internally and thought, "They wish to fight me! Bring it on, then. Since I dared to take over as the chairman of Zabinski Group, then I'm not afraid of fighting with all of you!"

At the same time, Gilbert, who left Grand Triumphant Hotel, did not immediately rush to the airport. Instead, he went to Zabel Tower under the leadership of Jacob Zahn, the person in charge of the Zabinski Group's project.

Kendrick, Dylan, Gilbert, Jacob, and two people from the Quesnell family drove to a private restaurant together at 6 p.m.

"Gilbert, I have to count on you to work hard for this trouble."
Kendrick was in the car when he gave a small box to Gilbert.

Gilbert naturally took the box and laughed, "Hahaha. Mr. Zabel, what are you talking about? Although we are doing quick-build construction, sometimes the materials are not transported in time, which delays the construction period for about ten days to half a month. It's normal."

The car stopped at the entrance of the private restaurant. Kendrick, Gilbert, and the others walked into the restaurant while chatting and laughing. They got along very pleasantly.

After ending a business meeting, Carlos happened to see Gilbert and Jacob, the project leader of Zabinski Group. They were talking and laughing with Kendrick as they entered the restaurant.

Carlos frowned slightly and left the restaurant without saying anything.

In the office of the Grand Triumphant Hotel, Carlos stood in front of Robert and placed a tray with delicious food in front of the latter. "Mr. Zabinski, have some food. You drank a lot at lunch."

"Carlos, have you contacted Gilbert and the others? They should have arrived. When can the team come?" Robert felt extremely hungry, so he picked up the fork and started eating.

Carlos nodded and replied, "I've contacted Gilbert five minutes ago. Gilbert has already landed. The project will be ready to start in three days at the latest."

"That's good." Robert nodded while eating, making his words unclear.

Looking at Robert devouring the food, Carlos suddenly said, "Mr. Zabinski, I have some matters to attend to. I need a leave."

"Hmm?" Robert stopped eating upon hearing that. He swallowed the food in his mouth and asked in a clear voice, "A leave? How long?"

"It will take about three months," Carlos replied.

"Three months?" Robert frowned. "Carlos, you know the next three months are very important to us. I need you to help me. The project needs someone to watch over it. Zabel Group will definitely do something during this period. Moreover, I heard the news that after I fired Gabriel and Dylan, some senior executives in the group were very dissatisfied. I have to deal with all these matters."

Carlos showed a troubled look on his aged face. "Mr. Zabinski, I really have something urgent to do."
