

The Love She Didn't Say by Mona

Chapter 36 Can't go back

"Ok." Elena Forbes nodded and let him go. After Joey went out, Elena messaged him about the dinner party in the evening, and then went back into workaholic mode.

On the other hand, Elizabeth Taylor was threatened by an unfamiliar number and walked out of the villa where she was staying, and the first thing she saw, was actually Alston Rivers.

Elizabeth was nervous. She understands that the man showing up here was not a good sign, especially since she previously sent a breakup text to him that said she was abroad.

Elizabeth gritted her teeth and lifted a smile as gentle as possible,

"Alston, why are you here? Where did you get the news of my return, I was hoping to surprise you!"

"Heh," Alston Rivers sneered, "And what a nice surprise!"

He threw the photo in his hand toward Elizabeth Taylor, "Go abroad? Break up? Have no choice? Elizabeth Taylor, you really play me as a fool! You're having so much fun!"

Elizabeth Taylor's face turned pale, she could feel the intense anger and aggressiveness of Alston Rivers when he said this, he really wanted to choke her to death.

She shed tears, "Alston, you misunderstood me, I really didn't lie to you that person, that person threatened me, I was forced."

No sooner had she finished, than she saw her husband walk out through her tears. Her face now turned iron blue.

Elizabeth's heart jumped to her throat, why did Sam Newton come out, she stumbled back, completely at a loss.

She didn't know what she did wrong, why this happened this confrontation, she would never want to experience it. She was all very careful.

Sam Newton's face also turned blue, "Elizabeth Taylor, you claimed you love me, yet your love turns out to be so cheap. I thought I moved you by my heart."

He let out a bitter smile and said to Alston Rivers: "Mr. Rivers, as you can see, I am also a victim, this matter, really has nothing to do with me, if she did not act like she was interested in me, how would I think of living with her for the rest of my life."

Alston's face is still cold, he knows that this Sam Newton in front of him, is also not something good, single-mindedly calculating, pretending to be rich to fool the inexperienced young girl.

And it is clear that he was successful, Elizabeth Taylor, the fool, was just fooled by his wealthy appearance and was completely unaware that all that was a show and all was fake.

But he, Alston Rivers, a real rich man, would be dumped by such a stupid girl, and for a liar, he really can't accept it, how could such a disgusting thing happen to him!

Before arriving here, Alston had already thrown away all the things Elizabeth had given him, he used to treat those things like a treasure, but he never could have thought of this.

Looking at Elizabeth Taylor's sobbing face, he couldn't help but feel a sense of revenge rising in his heart.

Because of her, he did not see Elena's dedication to him for years, taking everything for granted, but after Elena Forbes really let him go, he now noticed how good she was.

However, what can he do, the reality tells him that all this cannot go back, Elena Forbes really seems to leave him, her number and he once again cannot get through.

Chapter 37 Will you marry me

This time, Alston Rivers formally said goodbye to Elizabeth Taylor, burying the memories with her to the deepest.

He cleaned himself up a bit, ready to go to Elena Forbes, he has taken care of all his love debt, after it is time to formalize his relationship with Elena.

In the last life, he did not want to marry her, this life turns out, Elena Forbes doesn't want to marry him to say the least, God is really fair, Alston Rivers thought.

In such a case, if he can get Elena back, he will really treat her well for the rest of his life, after all, she is the one who can sacrifice her own life to keep him alive!

Alston personally went and picked out a bouquet and a very expensive perfume, and then waited for Elena at her company.

And at this time, Elena Forbes who still does not know what she is going to face is driving slowly from home to company.

Her working hours are actually rather random, but she basically follows the schedule in order to give a good example.

When Elena arrived, the first thing she saw was Joey Smith, breakfast in his hand.

She pretended as if nothing had happened, gently and deftly took the breakfast from Joey's hand, and softly said, "Thanks a lot."

Joey smiled at her, "If you have anything else you want to eat, you are welcome to order."

Elena nodded, a bit surprised, after all, Joey's food is really quite delicious, very much to her appetite, these days, she is used to eating what he cooked.

But before Joey is not allowed her to order, and she doesn't know how he accepts now. While she was lost in thought, she heard a deliberate coughing sound, and the familiarity engraved in her soul told her that Alston Rivers was here.

She then turned to look and saw Alston Rivers standing behind her with flowers in his arms. It seems that when she came over just now, there was indeed a person there.

Thinking about it, Elena Forbes was slightly embarrassed, she also didn't expect that she didn't notice Alston Rivers at all.

If she were in her last life, she is completely unable to believe it, but this thing was almost impossible to happen, she really did it, how incredible.

She coughed and asked Alston Rivers, "Hello, Mr. Rivers, I don't know you are here is there something wrong?"

Her company is completely avoiding the Rivers family's investment and interests, so as not to let him find the opportunity to cooperate and the flowers, who went into the hospital and he needs to see?

But that's not right, there's no hospital here, he stops by to see her? It's not like he comes after her as she showed the true face of Elizabeth Taylor, right?

Elena thought that even if he wants to settle scores, he should go to Elizabeth Taylor. She is just an onlooker, and what can these things have to do with her, really boring.

Alston was exasperated by Elena's polite tone, "Elena, I'm here to thank you, and at the same time, I want to say it again, will you marry me?"

In the last life, they were directly going into the city hall, this life waiting so long, it is time they get back together, Alston Rivers rightfully thought.

He is now fully sincere, Elena should accept him, after that, he will have more confidence to face her.

Not like this, with Elena Forbes is so high and he is low, he is really uncomfortable with that.

Chapter 38 We are over

Elena Forbes didn't know what he was thinking. But that holding-the-tramp-card look on his face stung her.

She said coldly, "Mr. Rivers, I've already rejected you before, I think I made it very clear that there is no future between us, and, shouldn't you be very glad that I'm finally not pestering you?"

Alston frowned, "Elena, don't say that, the two of us would have been married for a long time if everything follows accord."

He was still thinking about what happened before, and couldn't listen to a single word that Elena Forbes was saying.

Elena Forbes is a little annoyed when she heard this, she now does not want to waste more time explaining to him, just said: "Alston Rivers, you listen to me carefully, we are finished, don't come to me, I will not come to you, from now on, we are over."

After saying that, she turned around and strode to her company. As for him, who cares. What was he doing when she was fully dedicated to him?

Thinking about the past, Elena Forbes felt a little unbelievable, that kind of life, she actually endured and endured for more than ten years.

Phew, there is so much time, what things she can't do, must have her time wasted on a scum? She is not brain-damaged.

Fortunately, she has now recognized the reality, and completely and utterly stripped Alston Rivers from the bottom of her heart, although the pain is excruciating, it was worth it.

Elena Forbes thought of this giving herself a thumb-up inwardly, good for you, finally like a person.

She went in, not noticing that Joey did not follow her, but stayed behind.

Joey said to Alston: "Mr. Rivers, this is the second time we meet you are still looking good."

Alston frowned, "I know you are the college student that Elena has kept, I can give you more money on the condition that you leave Elena, of course, if you need anything else, just say it."

• Hearing these words, Joey snorted, "Mr. Rivers, I didn't hear wrong, right? These words are actually coming from your mouth, don't you think there is something wrong?"

Alston's face darkened, "You are not qualified to negotiate with me, if you still want to hang around in this place, you'd better listen to me."

Joey laughed, "Mr. Rivers, you know what you look like now? A jealous husband. Why should I have to listen to you, do you know that I already work in Elena's company, she will personally look after me, so you do not need to worry about us what happens after that."

The words "jealous husband" carved into Alston's heart, he was almost losing control,if not for his image, this time he has already punched him.

“Think twice before you said.”Alston’s words were eerie,but Joey Smith was not afraid at all,Elena is behind him.
Moreover, it is said that to seize a person’s heart,we must seize a person’s stomach, Joey Smith feels that he has accomplished the saying well.
Look at Elena’s drooling face, and you will know. Joey waved his hand in a good mood,”Bye-bye, Mr.Rivers,your rose is really pretty,but you do not seem to understand Elena at all,she hates roses the most!”

Chapter 39 Force him to learn Hate roses?Alston Rivers can’t believe it,how was this possible?Clearly,he had asked her before.

No, he seems to be asking what girls generally like, he was chasing Elizabeth Taylor at the time,and at that time his relationship with Elena Forbes was actually not as bad as now until he knew what was on her mind.

Alston pinched the bridge of his nose and tried to throw the rose in his hand into the garbage can,but was shouted at by a sanitation worker next to him,”Young man if you want to throw it away,why don’t you give it to me?”

He thought about it,handed the flowers to the worker,and then watched as he unpacked the bouquet and given to every little kid who passed this way.

The children were overjoyed to get the flowers and expressed their gratitude to him one by one.

Yes,the sanitation worker informed the children that it was this uncle who wanted to give them flowers,only he was a little embarrassed.

So,Alston Rivers was surrounded by these enthusiastic children, and he was a bit overwhelmed.

Although his cold face discouraged the children a bit,looking at the flower in his hands,they still felt that the uncle was a good person,just didn’t know how to express himself.

After that,Alston Rivers immediately drove away.

Although in the end, because of those children, he is a little happy,what he wants is not achieved this happiness in the end, is limited.

Alston drove to the beach to get some air, and turn off the phone, he did not know what he wanted to do for a while, and there is nothing to think about just like this the brain is empty, and it is not bad.

After staying for a whole day, Alston Rivers still didn't want to give up, thinking that the relationship between his mother and Elena was good, he made a phone call and wanted to seek his mother's help.

Caroline Collin flew back from abroad three days later when Elena and Joey had already gone to New Zealand on business.

This time the partner is a big client, and the two people are on the alert, they thought of everything.

Not only that, they even conducted a simulation exercise, of course, this is mainly Elena Forbes in order to train Joey.

By the time the project is successfully completed, Joey is already a qualified regular employee.

Elena Forbes is very satisfied with his ability, the ability to adapt is very strong, catch on quickly, and he is simply a genius.

She felt that if Joey wanted to further his education, he could have gone to that famous college.

In the end, it was his orphan status that limited his development. Elena Forbes is very happy, and Joey Smith himself is happy too.

Although he has been working before, by the class restrictions, he is not able to learn more above, closer to the power center.

Now Elena Forbes is willing to train him with all her might, how can he not be grateful, and even begin to thank the roommate who tricked him into the bar in the first place.

If not for this misadventure, he would not have seen such a good development in this life, right?

Joey Smith sees all this very clearly, what Elena taught him is practical and always can come in handy.

At first, he was even a little afraid to know too much, but Elena Forbes forced him to learn more, thinking about this, he even wanted to laugh.

Others are afraid to teach their students too much, how come she even forced him to learn.

Chapter 40 You know how to cook?

At the end of the day, in order to give them a treat, Elena Forbes took Joey Smith to the market and personally selected the ingredients.

Looking at her, Joey was a little confused, how she even knows how to cook?

"Miss, you, you know how to cook, huh?" Joey said with dumbfounded eyes.

He could totally tell that she was professional and probably even a little tougher than he thought she was.

"I never say I couldn't cook!" Elena Forbes felt that the shocked Joey was really funny.

“Otherwise,when you first came to my place isn’t obvious there were dishes in my kitchen and the kitchenware was all used.”

Joey Smith shook his head, “Yeah, I thought you hired a nanny who cooked!”

Elena Forbes didn’t refute, “Yes,I hired one, but she is generally responsible for washing dishes and cleaning up the kitchen,I will do the food, but afterward,uh,I can’t do it.”

She can cook is just to take care of Alston Rivers,when Alston Rivers does not need it,she has always been a lazy person,and did not want to make it for herself.

And cooking she can tolerate, but she cannot tolerate the clean-up job in the kitchen.

Joey is completely convinced, after all, the last time in her home,as soon as she finished eating,she slipped away,the meaning of escape is simply not too obvious.

Joey carried the bag,Elena got some seasoning, and the two went back to the place where they lived and talked to hotels to use their kitchen.

When Elena was cooking, those hotel chefs even gathered around to watch and let out

Joey had to say, “Sister,you are really great,how can you do everything so well!”

Elena shrugged and looked at him,who had completely failed to notice that himself was like this,and said, “Is that so?But if I remember correctly,you are the standard all-rounder.”

Joey couldn’t hold back his laugh, “Sister,we both should stop,or we will be beaten up by them.”

Elena Forbes looked back at the chefs as if they did hold back their indignance. She did not know that the chefs were suffocated by their flirting.

After the two of them had a wonderful meal,they were ready to fly home immediately and finish the end of the project.

As a result,Elena Forbes helplessly found that they both ate too much,and if they didn’t take long to go on the plane,it must not be very pleasant.

After some deliberation,she finally decided to spend a day in New Zealand before going back. At the time of their leisure,two uninvited guests came to the door of Elena Forbes’s villa.

Caroline Collin is asking Alston Rivers, “Kid,how exactly did you offend Elena?I know,she is so good to you, how can she leave you all of sudden? You must have done something.”

Alston frowned and massaged his temple, “mom, I really didn’t do anything. Just I broke up with Lizzy and Elena said no to my proposal.”

“You proposed?”Caroline Collin was astonished, “You figured it out this time?”

Looking at Alston Rivers nodded, Caroline instead doubted, "This can't be, you are so stubborn, you actually willing to change your minds?" Alston couldn't say he was reborn and explained to his mom what happened in his last life. All he can do was stand there questioning himself.
