

L. Wyatt 1341

Chapter 1341: Defeating Three Vice Island Chiefs

"If someday, I have the fortune to meet Saint Davidson in person, my life would truly be fulfilled," Wyatt Barnes sighed.

Saint Davidson, the Monkey King, in the ancient myths of his former life, was undoubtedly the most revered figure.

"There might be a chance in the future," Elder Fire said, "however, for you right now, that level is far too distant... Don't think too much, just focus on your cultivation."

After Elder Fire spoke these words, his voice faded away as he went on to repair the Jewel Tower.

Wyatt Barnes nodded.

He made the Jewel Tower shrink into the size of a baby's fingernail and then casually inserted it into his ear, securing it inside.

In this way, no matter how he moved, the Jewel Tower would not fall out.

As he stepped out of the room, Wyatt Barnes saw two young girls chatting leisurely together.

Upon seeing Wyatt Barnes emerge, the gaze of the two girls brightened simultaneously.

"You scoundrel, when you returned just now, you rushed back to your room in such a hurry... Did you have an epiphany and made a breakthrough in strength?" Jovie Lee asked curiously.

"Yes."

Wyatt Barnes nodded with a smile, refraining from mentioning the Jewel Tower to the two young girls, for it was far too unbelievable for them.

He would let them learn about it slowly in the future.

"Young Master, have you broken through to the Seventh-Order of the Martial Emperor Realm?"

A deep admiration gleamed on Keer's beautiful face.

"Yes."

Wyatt Barnes nodded again, keeping to himself that he had actually broken through to the Ninth-Order of the Martial Emperor Realm. He feared that mentioning it might just scare the girls.

After spending half a day with the two young girls, Wyatt Barnes finally parted ways with them. "I'm going to find the three Vice Island Chiefs of Crescent Island."

As soon as these words fell, he took his leave.

It happened so quickly, the three Vice Island Chiefs of Crescent Island were currently gathered together.

"Vice Island Chiefs."

As soon as Wyatt Barnes appeared, he proactively greeted them.

"Island Master."

Stratford Chase, including the rest of the three Vice Island Chiefs, inwardly disapproved of Wyatt Barnes, the new master of Crescent Island, but constrained by their vows, they dared not disregard him outright.

However, their address of Wyatt Barnes, the new Island Master, lacked the respectful title "Sir" that they used to add when addressing their former master, Emperor Yonah, with utmost deference.

"Hmph!"

Wyatt Barnes let out a cold snort, his sharp gaze landed on the trio as he said sternly, "It seems that the three of you don't quite take me, the new Island Master, seriously..."

Facing the angered Wyatt Barnes, the three directly ignored him.

"I'll give you a chance... the three of you, join forces and challenge me to a battle. If you can withstand three moves from me without defeat, I will willingly relinquish the title of Island Master of Crescent Island!"

Wyatt Barnes said, "This way, you won't be violating your oath."

Stratford Chase and the others were surprised by Wyatt Barnes's words and looked at each other in astonishment, hope sparkling in the depths of their eyes.

If possible, they naturally did not want to submit to Wyatt Barnes.

"But if you lose... I expect you to respect me just as you did Emperor Yonah," Wyatt Barnes said coldly.

"Agreed," Stratford Chase and the trio replied without hesitation, accepting the challenge right away.

In their view, Wyatt Barnes was simply a 'newborn calf not afraid of tigers'... Defeating them with three moves? It was a fool's dream!

They knew something of Wyatt Barnes's strength.

While not weak, he was still a long way off from their level.

"Hmph!"

Seeing Stratford Chase and the others accept the challenge, Wyatt Barnes snorted softly, and as he raised his hand, an Emperor Grade spiritual bow and arrow appeared, one hand holding the bow, the other gripping an arrow.

The bowstring appeared in an instant, Wyatt Barnes drew the bow in full arc, and then released the arrow from his hand.

Swish!

Immediately, the arrow cut through the air like a bolt of black lightning.

His body followed the arrow!

At the same time, Wyatt Barnes took a big step forward, landed lightly atop the black lightning arrow, accompanying its swift flight. His speed increased ever more, eventually turning into a blur of shadows before the eyes of Stratford Chase and the others.

At that moment, the complexions of Stratford Chase and the others began to grow solemn.

Not to mention anything else.

Just the speed Wyatt Barnes was displaying now matched theirs.

Nevertheless, they still didn't believe Wyatt Barnes could defeat them.

Considering the speed Wyatt Barnes displayed... his strength was, at best, on par with any one of them.

It was nearly impossible to overcome the three of them working together.

Let alone defeating them with just three moves.

"Attack!"

After exchanging glances with each other, the trio simultaneously moved, at a speed not inferior to Wyatt Barnes executing 'Following the Arrow's Path,' they split in three directions, forming an encircling net to sweep towards Wyatt Barnes.

"This is a good opportunity to test how strong my body is now."

Facing the aggressive trio, Wyatt Barnes remained unflustered. Around his body, a faint rainbow-hued light shield slowly emerged, protecting him within.

If one looked closely, they could see that this light shield was made up of rapidly-moving, multicolored Divine Dragons.

Nine Dragons War Sovereign!

Wyatt Barnes is now using a high-grade heavenly defense martial technique that comes with the Nine Dragons War Sovereign.

Once the five-colored light shield rose, Wyatt Barnes's figure came to an abrupt halt.

The arrow under his feet also returned to his hand.

"Court death!"

Seeing Wyatt Barnes stop and put up a layer of defense shield, thinking to withstand their attack, Stratford Chase and the other two couldn't help but sneer, their movements not diminished in the slightest as they swept out like thunder.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

...

Three lightning-fast figures rushed toward Wyatt Barnes from three different directions. Whether it was a fist or a palm, when unleashed, they inevitably set off a series of explosive, thunder-like sounds.

In the blink of an eye, fists and palms landed on the five-colored light shield surrounding Wyatt Barnes's body.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

...

As a series of loud noises spread, generating waves of rolling shockwaves, the five-colored light shield shattered upon impact.

At the same time, the attacks of Stratford Chase and the other two landed on Wyatt Barnes's body.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Two fists and one palm made contact with Wyatt Barnes's body, resulting in three muffled sounds.

Looking at Wyatt Barnes, his expression remained unchanged, calm and collected.

"Is this a body even stronger than the actual body of the Five-Clawed Divine Dragon? All three of them are at the peak of the Martial Emperor Realm... Without using spiritual instruments, their punches and palm strikes, after being diminished by my defense technique, feel like they are merely scratching an itch on me."

Wyatt Barnes's heart trembled as he realized just how terrifying the transformation his body had undergone was.

Wyatt Barnes is more than clear about his current strength.

His 'speed' was able to match that of Stratford Chase and the others because he had used the movement technique 'Arrow Follows Form' from the Emperor Grade martial arts Supreme Falling Star Arrow.

Arrow Follows Form, which he has already cultivated to the 'Glimpse of the Threshold' realm.

And his 'defense', theoretically speaking, should not be capable of stopping the attacks of Stratford Chase and the others as he had not used a defensive technique from Emperor Grade martial arts.

Yet, he managed to stop them.

All of this because his body's inherent defense is very strong.

His body is no longer that of an ordinary human Martial Emperor's, transformed by the Jewel Tower 'from the marrow to the bone'... According to Elder Fire, his body is now even stronger than that of a Five-Clawed Divine Dragon!

It's well known that the Five-Clawed Divine Dragon's physical strength is formidable, even in the Martial Dao Sacred Land.

Within the entirety of the Martial Dao Sacred Land, there are very few whose bodily strength can compare to the Five-Clawed Divine Dragon.

"How is this possible?!"

Stratford Chase and the other two, upon realizing that their attacks were withstood by Wyatt Barnes's body, had their faces change colors, staring at Wyatt Barnes as if they had seen a ghost.

Although a portion of their attacks were mitigated, the strength contained within them was still exceedingly fearsome... They had thought that Wyatt Barnes would either be dead or severely injured.

However, the outcome was completely beyond their expectations, and Wyatt Barnes was unscathed.

Is this still a human?

Could a human body be this freakish?

"Now, it's my turn."

Wyatt Barnes spoke calmly; the sound was plain, but it shocked Stratford Chase and the others, changing their expressions.

By the time they regained their senses, they found that Wyatt Barnes, like lightning, had already shot an arrow, and his figure followed the arrow, quickly moving to a distance.

Seeing this, they breathed a sigh of relief.

However, soon they saw Wyatt Barnes slightly sidestepping, then suddenly turning back, his eyes becoming incredibly sharp as he raised the bow and arrow in his hands.

"Not good!"

Suddenly, the faces of the three changed drastically, hurriedly pulling out their spiritual instruments.

They knew that Wyatt Barnes was about to counterattack.

"First move!"

The three had just grabbed their spiritual instruments and had no time to scatter before Wyatt Barnes' indifferent voice was heard again, causing chills to run through them.

Supreme Falling Star Strike!

At the same time, the arrow in Wyatt Barnes's hands flew out, its speed so fast that Stratford Chase and the others simply could not react in time.

Thud! Thud!

Two splashes of ghastly blood spurted as both Stratford Chase and another Crescent Island Vice Island Chief's shoulders were penetrated, leaving behind two terrifying bloodied holes, continuously gushing blood.

One arrow wounded two men.

The wounded men looked at each other, a bitter smile on their lips.

Their minds understood clearly.

That was Wyatt Barnes showing mercy; otherwise, the last arrow would have gone through their chests instead of their shoulders.

"Second move!"

As the last Crescent Island Vice Island Chief reacted and hastily began to flee, Wyatt Barnes spoke again, and the arrow in his hand shot out once more.

Supreme Falling Star Strike!

Injuring one person with a single arrow was even more effortless than wounding two.

In an instant, the shoulder of the last Crescent Island Vice Island Chief was also perforated.

Two moves defeated three opponents!

With the speed obtained from the movement technique of Supreme Falling Star Arrow, perfected to the first realm 'Glimpse of the Threshold,' Wyatt Barnes's speed matched Stratford Chase and the others.

With his strong body, Wyatt Barnes could withstand the attacks of Stratford Chase and the others.

With the attack technique perfected to the second realm 'Slight Mastery' of Supreme Falling Star Arrow, Wyatt Barnes's attacks simply could not be defended against by Stratford Chase and the others.

"Island Master!"

At this moment, filled with shock, Stratford Chase, and the others were also truly convinced, willingly accepting Wyatt Barnes as the new Island Master of Crescent Island.

They sincerely recognized Wyatt Barnes from the bottom of their hearts.

Chapter 1342: Julia Breakthrough

"There is something I need you to do."

Wyatt Barnes spoke unhurriedly, instructing Stratford Chase and the other two to send men to search for materials to repair the Jewel Tower, "Besides utilizing the power of Crescent Island, we must also draw on the power of the other three major overseas Holy Islands."

"I need to take a long trip soon... I will go inform Mist Hidden Island. As for the other two major overseas Holy Islands, I'll leave them to you."

In Wyatt Barnes' words, there was an undeniable tone.

No sooner had he finished speaking than he left, leaving only his silhouette to Stratford Chase and the other two.

"This new Island Master of our Crescent Island... is terrifying!"

Stratford Chase gasped in shock.

"Yes... it hasn't been long, yet his strength has already far surpassed ours!"

"I suspect he's not human! How could a human withstand our collective strike with just his body?"

The other two Vice Island Chiefs also gasped in shock.

Thinking back to that scene, they felt a profound shock from the depths of their hearts.

When Wyatt Barnes left, his mind was also filled with myriad thoughts.

"Now, my cultivation has broken through to 'Level Nine of the Martial Emperor Realm', but because the 'Mysteries' I comprehend are lacking... just in terms of Origin Force and Mysteries, I am far inferior to Stratford Chase and the other two."

"However, I have cultivated the supreme martial arts 'Supreme Falling Star Arrow'! The body techniques within 'Supreme Falling Star Arrow', having reached 'the threshold of understanding', have made up for our speed difference, allowing my speed to match theirs."

"Moreover... with my current body, as long as they don't use spiritual weapons, I can completely withstand their attacks! Of course, this is also because they haven't cultivated supreme martial arts; if they had and used the attacking techniques within, my body definitely wouldn't be able to handle it."

"Within 'Supreme Falling Star Arrow', 'Falling Star Strike' is the earliest technique I cultivated and also currently my highest-level attack technique... with it, my attack power far surpasses Stratford Chase and the others!"

The recent battle further deepened Wyatt Barnes' understanding of his own strength.

"The urgent task now is to elevate the two 'Mysteries'... Julia mentioned that warriors on Cloud Skies Continent wishing to break through to the 'Transcending Mortal Realm' must first comprehend one of the Emperor Realm Mysteries to 'Level Nine'."

"At that time, using the Level Nine Emperor Realm Mystery as a 'medium', merging all Mysteries into the body with its assistance, to pioneer the 'Saint Veins'."

"Once the Saint Veins are opened, it also signifies a breakthrough to the 'Early Stage of the Transcending Mortal Realm'."

Any warrior of Level Nine Martial Emperor Realm who has comprehended a 'Level Nine Emperor Realm Mystery' is referred to as 'Peak Martial Emperor Realm Powerhouse'."

Just like the three Vice Island Chiefs of Crescent Island.

And the Grand Isle Masters of the three major overseas Holy Islands are also powerhouses of this level.

Upon returning to his mansion, Wyatt Barnes learned that Karina Hanson was in secluded cultivation... according to what the three little guys said, Karina Hanson was attempting to break through to the 'Transcending Mortal Realm'!

"You all get ready... once your Sister Julia comes out of seclusion, we'll return to Cloud Skies Continent," Wyatt Barnes told Little Black, Little White, and Little Gold.

The three little ones lit up at these words.

They had long wanted to leave this wretched place... on Cloud Skies Continent, apart from the strong warriors from the two ancient clans, they seldom encountered anyone stronger than them.

Thus, on Cloud Skies Continent, they thrived like fish in water and could act as they wished.

However, arriving on Crescent Island, they found that there were many on this small island who could defeat them.

In the following period, aside from spending time with two young ladies, Wyatt Barnes devoted his other time to quietly comprehend the 'Fusion Mystery' and 'Sword Mystery'.

Soon, Wyatt Barnes discovered something shocking.

He found that now, whether comprehending 'Fusion Mystery' or 'Sword Mystery', the speed was frightfully fast.

It took only half a month for his 'Fusion Mystery' and 'Sword Mystery' to breakthrough.

And after another two months, both Mysteries broke through again.

"Elder Fire, do you know why this is happening?"

Unable to hold back, Wyatt Barnes asked Elder Fire, feeling that this matter was related to his body undergoing a second 'metamorphosis'.

And Elder Fire's reply was as he had guessed.

His body, having undergone a second metamorphosis, was not only stronger than the 'Five-Clawed Divine Dragon' but even his perceptiveness far surpassed what it had been before, far beyond what ordinary people could compare.

The speed of comprehending 'Mysteries', according to Cloud Skies Continent, depends on the level of 'comprehension ability'.

But in fact, it depends on one's 'perceptiveness'.

Those with strong perceptiveness comprehend Mysteries very quickly... otherwise, very slowly.

This was also why the original Island Master of Crescent Island, 'Emperor Yonah', was able to break through to the 'Transcending Mortal Realm' so quickly without the cultivation resources of the Dragonsmith Clan.

As a Five-Clawed Demon Dragon, the top-tier Five-Clawed Divine Dragon, because of his strong body, had extremely terrifying perceptiveness.

And now, Wyatt Barnes' body was even stronger.

His perceptiveness was naturally even more terrifying!

When Karina Hanson emerged from her seclusion, Wyatt Barnes' 'Sword Mystery' had progressed even further, comprehending the 'Level Eight Emperor Realm Sword Mystery'.

"Julia, did you break through?"

Seeing her youthful face lose some of its childishness and undergo a significant change in demeanor, Wyatt Barnes' eyes lit up.

"Yes."

Karina Hanson smiled and nodded.

"How many Saint Veins did you pioneer?"

Wyatt Barnes asked curiously.

"Ten."

Karina Hanson responded, her smile growing richer as she spoke.

In the early stage of the Transcending Mortal Realm, pioneering ten Saint Veins.

With such talent, even in the Martial Dao Sacred Land, it can be considered exceptional and extraordinary... You should know that whether Martial Artists or Taoist Cultivators at the Transcending Mortal Realm, the more they cultivate, the more Saint Veins they can open.

When Karina Hanson reached the 'initial phase of Transcending Mortal Realm,' she opened up ten Saint Veins.

In her subsequent four breakthroughs, at each level, the Saint Veins she opened were more than the previous ones.

In the middle phase of Transcending Mortal Realm, she could open at least eleven additional Saint Veins.

In the late phase of Transcending Mortal Realm, she could open at least twelve additional Saint Veins.

And so forth.

When Karina Hanson broke through to the 'completion of Transcending Mortal Realm,' she could open at least sixty Saint Veins... Sixty is just a conservative estimate.

In the Martial Dao Sacred Land, whether Martial Artists or Taoist Cultivators, those who open more than fifty Saint Veins, as long as they do not die young or meet unexpected events, breaking through to the 'Saint Realm' is just a matter of time.

Therefore, Karina Hanson felt very satisfied and happy.

You should know.

Although she is an indigenous person of the Martial Dao Sacred Land, she did not cultivate according to the practice methods of the indigenous people of the Martial Dao Sacred Land... Her cultivation method is the same as that of the common continent's Martial Artists and Taoist Cultivators.

She excels due to her deep foundation.

Of course, her cultivation speed is also slow.

However, efforts will ultimately yield rewards... Breaking through to the 'initial phase of the Transcending Mortal Realm' and opening ten Saint Veins is the best reward for her.

"Julia, congratulations."

After being slightly startled, Wyatt Barnes quickly congratulated Karina Hanson and felt happy for her.

Transcending Mortal Realm initial phase, opening ten Saint Veins.

Julia's future is boundless!

"Thank you, Brother Wyatt."

At this moment, the smile on Karina Hanson's face just couldn't be stopped.

Now that Julia had emerged from her closed-door cultivation, Wyatt Barnes also shared with her his plans to return to the Cloud Skies Continent, "This time back, I plan to relocate the Heaven Fortin Sect to 'Crescent Island'."

"Crescent Island, indeed, is the best cultivation place outside of the Martial Dao Sacred Land... With this place as the base, Heaven Fortin Sect will sooner or later become a genuine 'super sect.'"

Wyatt Barnes's plan was agreed upon by Karina Hanson.

She had also grown fond of the 'Heaven Fortin Sect'... During the days when Wyatt Barnes 'disappeared,' she was the acting Sect Leader, managing Heaven Fortin Sect on behalf of Wyatt Barnes.

Packing up and leaving, Wyatt Barnes took two young girls, three little ones, and Karina Hanson together and left Crescent Island.

After leaving Crescent Island, they did not directly return to the Cloud Skies Continent.

Under the leadership of Wyatt Barnes, the group once again set foot on 'Mist Hidden Island', and immediately found the Grand Isle Master of Mist Hidden Island, Lee Don.

"Island Master Don... where is your first Sacrificial Officer Elder 'Redflame'?"

Wyatt Barnes got straight to the point.

Seeing Karina Hanson right next to Wyatt Barnes, Lee Don, who had once witnessed Karina Hanson killing the Grand Isle Master of Coral Island using a Taoist Talisman, did not dare to neglect them, "Elder Redflame was taken away by people from Martial Dao Sacred Land some time ago."

"People from the Martial Dao Sacred Land?"

Wyatt Barnes frowned, "What about the woman he brought back from the Cloud Skies Continent?"

"She was taken away too."

Lee Don said.

"People from the Martial Dao Sacred Land... why did they take them?"

Karina Hanson asked.

"It seems because they were once 'Fire Spirit Bodied'... I'm not clear on the specifics."

Lee Don said.

"I see... it seems that some power within the Martial Dao Sacred Land took an interest in their fire attribute talent."

Karina Hanson nodded, muttering softly as if guessing something.

As a person from Martial Dao Sacred Land, she naturally knew some things that ordinary people were unaware of.

"Julia?"

However, Wyatt Barnes was still clueless and had no idea what was going on.

"Brother Wyatt, Winnie should have been taken in as a disciple by some power within the Martial Dao Sacred Land... That power saw the potential in her once being a 'Fire Spirit Bodied' individual."

Karina Hanson explained.

"The power originating from her 'Fire Spirit Body' is long gone..."

Wyatt Barnes furrowed his brows.

"Brother Wyatt, I mentioned earlier, she was once a Fire Spirit Bodied person."

Karina Hanson interrupted Wyatt Barnes, emphasizing particularly on the word 'was', "Those who were once Fire Spirit Bodied, their bodies would be affected, leaning towards fire attributes."

"Such individuals, whether cultivating fire attribute techniques or fire attribute sacred martial arts... their progress far surpasses ordinary people."

Karina Hanson continued.

"That's how it is."

At this moment, Wyatt Barnes also realized, so it was Winnie's 'talent' that some power within the Martial Dao Sacred Land was interested in.

"Do you know which power from the Martial Dao Sacred Land it is?"

Wyatt Barnes looked towards Lee Don asking.

Chapter 1343: Old Friend 'Callen Spacewood

Even the master of Mist Hidden Island, 'Lee Don', did not know which power from the Martial Dao Sacred Land had taken Winnie Romero away.

This made Wyatt Barnes sigh involuntarily.

"However, what is certain is... Winnie is now safe."

Thinking of this, Wyatt Barnes secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

Immediately afterward, Wyatt Barnes asked Lee Don to help look for materials needed to repair the 'Jewel Tower'.

Whether because of Karina Hanson's methods or the authority of Crescent Island... Lee Don did not dare to neglect Wyatt Barnes' request, immediately instructing to mobilize the entire Mist Hidden Island's resources to search for materials.

When Lee Don learned that Wyatt Barnes had become the new master of Crescent Island, he was shocked for a long time, unable to recover.

At this time, Wyatt Barnes also learned that a group of Martial Emperor Realm powerhouses and Demon Emperor Realm powerhouses from the Cloud Skies Continent had all returned to the Cloud Skies Continent.

"The last trip to Crescent Island, whether it was the three major overseas Holy Islands or the three major mortal continents including the Cloud Skies Continent... all have suffered heavy losses!"

Wyatt Barnes thought to himself.

The scenes that had unfolded before his eyes were still vivid.

The original master of Crescent Island, 'Emperor Yonah', had used sorcery to absorb vital energy and killed eighty-five outstanding young powerhouses from the three major overseas Holy Islands and the three major mortal continents...

Soon, Wyatt Barnes and his companions left Mist Hidden Island.

After leaving Mist Hidden Island, they went directly back to Cloud Skies Continent.

On their journey, Karina Hanson, an early-stage warrior in the Transcending Mortal Realm, led the group at a speed that was much faster than Wyatt Barnes' arrival.

When Wyatt Barnes came, it was the Black Tortoise Martial Emperor 'Colin Yorke' who had rushed them.

Colin Yorke's cultivation was only at the 'fourth level of the Martial Emperor Realm'.

In terms of speed, it was far inferior to Karina Hanson.

With Karina Hanson's speed, in just a few days, Wyatt Barnes and his group had traversed the vast ocean and successfully returned to the Cloud Skies Continent.

Because they were too fast, they did not even alarm the powerful Demon Beasts in the ocean.

After Wyatt Barnes and his group reached the 'North Outer Land' of Cloud Skies Continent, they continued to travel, passing through 'Weak Water River', and safely reached the 'Inner Land' of Cloud Skies Continent.

"Julia, I want to ask the two ancient clans to help me find those materials."

After returning to the Inner Land, Wyatt Barnes said to Karina Hanson.

"It's a small matter."

Karina Hanson laughed nonchalantly, as for her, asking the two ancient clans for help was truly a trivial matter.

"Little Gold, Little Black, Little White... you go and ask the other Demon Emperors, Martial Emperors for help."

Wyatt Barnes then said to the three little ones.

"Alright."

The three little ones' eyes brightened, for them, this was an enjoyable task... if any Demon Emperor or Martial Emperor dared not cooperate, they would have an excuse to make a move.

They had been stifled for too long during their time on Crescent Island.

Wyatt Barnes was still confident in the strength of the three little ones.

Even if they encountered the Cloud Skies Continent's strongest publicly known Black Tortoise Martial Emperor, Shiloh, or the Savage Demon Emperor, they might not necessarily be their match... And since the Black Tortoise Martial Emperor knew them, he would definitely cooperate.

As for the Savage Demon Emperor, having witnessed Karina Hanson's methods, even if he was stronger than them, it's likely he wouldn't dare to not cooperate with them.

After Karina Hanson and the three little ones left, Wyatt Barnes took the two young girls and headed straight for the new location of Heaven Fortin Sect... He had already learned from Karina Hanson the whereabouts of Heaven Fortin Sect's new location.

The new location of Heaven Fortin Sect was a majestic mountain peak, which Karina Hanson also named 'Heaven Peak'.

"I will first take you both back to pay homage to sister Ella Yorke."

Wyatt Barnes extended his hands, holding the hands of the two young girls, leading them toward the original location of Heaven Fortin Sect.

The original location of Heaven Fortin Sect was also the former site of Yin and Yang Sect.

Upon hearing Wyatt Barnes' words, the eyes of Keer and Jovie Lee reddened a bit... At this moment, they could not help but remember the sister who had sacrificed her own life for them.

Feeling the emotional instability of the two young girls, Wyatt Barnes tightened his grip on their hands and comforted them: "If sister Ella Yorke knew that you were still alive and well, she would be at peace even in the netherworld."

Whoosh!!

Wyatt Barnes led the two girls swiftly, like a shooting star streaking across the sky, their speed astonishing.

Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom! Boom!

...

Suddenly, a series of loud noises came, reaching the ears of Wyatt Barnes and the two girls.

The sound grew closer, originating from ahead of where Wyatt Barnes and the two girls were, clearly indicating a battle was taking place.

Initially, Wyatt Barnes had no intention of getting involved.

However, as a resounding voice echoed, it made him abruptly stop in his tracks, his expression turning grave.

"Callen Spacewood, today is your day to die!"

This thunderous roar was also the reason Wyatt Barnes stopped.

"Callen Spacewood?"

Keer and Jovie Lee exchanged glances, both seeing surprise in each other's eyes.

They were not unfamiliar with this name.

They still remembered.

When Wyatt Barnes used to talk about his past experiences, he had mentioned a Third-Rate Power in the eastern region of the Northern Desert of South Outlands on the Cloud Skies Continent.

The third-rate power is a sect called 'Five Elements Sect'.

The Five Elements Sect is divided into Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, and Earth Peaks... among them, the Peak Master of the Wood Peak is named 'Callen Spacewood'.

And their man has quite a relationship with the Wood Peak of the Five Elements Sect.

"Could it just be a coincidence?"

Jovie Lee said.

"Whether it is a coincidence or not, we'll find out if we go take a look."

Wyatt Barnes said, then in the blink of an eye, he arrived at the place where the sounds of fighting were coming from... There, three burly middle-aged men were besieging one person.

Up in the void, the sky and earth phenomenon was tumultuous, with phantom images of ancient azure dragons converging and surging... Such scenes were simply never seen in the four great overseas holy islands.

However, Wyatt Barnes's attention wasn't focused there.

"Peak Master Callen Spacewood!"

Even though he only saw the besieged person's back, Wyatt Barnes recognized him instantly - he was the former Peak Master of the Wood Peak of the Five Elements Sect, Callen Spacewood.

The man who had helped him a lot in the past.

Now, facing the joint attack of the three men, Callen Spacewood was seriously injured, with dangers all around.

If this continued, it wouldn't take long for him to be killed.

After confirming that the person in front of him was Callen Spacewood, Wyatt Barnes disappeared into thin air... and when he appeared again, he was by Callen Spacewood's side.

Boom!

At the same time, a vast rolling shockwave spread out, sending the three men who were besieging Callen Spacewood flying out like arrows released from a bow, looking utterly disheveled.

Along the way, they continuously spat out coagulated blood, staining the sky with its glaring brightness.

After flying a distance, the trio managed to stop themselves, their complexions pale as paper.

It was only after they consumed healing Pill Medicines that their injuries eased somewhat.

"Who... who are you?!"

Following this, the three regained their senses and looked at Wyatt Barnes with fear and wariness in their eyes.

These three were all personal disciples of a Demon Emperor.

But now, they were easily sent flying by one man... It was apparent, this person was an 'Emperor Realm powerhouse'! Either a Demon Emperor or a Martial Emperor.

At this moment, Callen Spacewood also took a healing Pill Medicine and caught his breath.

He had thought he would surely die today, but unexpectedly someone had saved him, and upon recovering, he immediately looked toward his savior, "Thank you for saving me..."

But before he could finish, he was stunned.

The purple-clad young man in front of him, with just one glance, he recognized him... there was almost no change compared to the past.

If there truly was any difference from the past, it would be in his temperament, which now appeared to him as profoundly unfathomable.

"Wyatt... Wyatt Barnes..."

Callen Spacewood looked at Wyatt Barnes incredulously, his tone full of astonishment.

Seeing that Callen Spacewood was shocked and couldn't say his name for quite some time, Wyatt Barnes interrupted with a smile, "Peak Master Callen Spacewood, long time no see... I really didn't expect that when we meet again, you would have reached the pinnacle of the 'Martial Emperor Realm'!"

"What does the pinnacle of the Martial Emperor Realm matter? Compared to you, isn't it still insignificant?"

Callen Spacewood let out a sigh, his gaze complicated.

The first time he met Wyatt Barnes... Wyatt Barnes's strength didn't catch his eye at all.

Even then, with his strength at that time, he could crush Wyatt Barnes with just one finger.

However, he had to admit that he was far inferior to Wyatt Barnes in terms of martial arts talent.

When they parted at the entrance of the 'Martial Emperor's Secret Treasure,' he knew that the next time he saw Wyatt Barnes, he would be shocked... but he never expected that their next meeting would shock him to this extent.

Over the years, he thought his improvement was not bad... and now, he had even broken through to the peak of the 'Martial Emperor Realm'.

One step more, and he would break through to the 'Emperor Realm' and become an 'Emperor level powerhouse.'

But even so, he still couldn't compare to Wyatt Barnes now.

Without needing to think much, he could guess that Wyatt Barnes's current cultivation had already broken through to the 'Emperor Realm'... Otherwise, it would not be possible to send flying the three men besieging him in an instant.

Among these three men, if he only faced one of them, neither of them would be his match.

Yet when the three of them joined forces, he couldn't withstand them.

Just now, he even thought he was surely going to die... but unexpectedly, at the critical moment, someone saved his life.

And this person, was 'Wyatt Barnes'.

"We three are all personal disciples of Lord Savage, the Demon Emperor... But we do not know which Demon Emperor or Martial Emperor Lord you might be?"

One of the burly middle-aged men asked Wyatt Barnes with a cupped fist gesture.

When mentioning 'Savage, the Demon Emperor,' his look was somewhat defiant.

Savage, the Demon Emperor, was one of the two strongest 'Emperor Realm powerhouses' widely recognized on the Cloud Skies Continent... In the Demon Emperor strongholds of the Cloud Skies Continent, he was unrivaled and unparalleled.

As a personal disciple of Savage, the Demon Emperor, he naturally held great pride in his heart.

"Personal disciples of Savage, the Demon Emperor?"

Wyatt Barnes glanced at the three men indifferently and said, "Who I am is still none of your business! However, since you've injured Peak Master Callen Spacewood... your lives, I'll leave for Peak Master Callen Spacewood to decide."

Wyatt Barnes's words were said with a serene tone but were extremely arrogant.

Chapter 1344: Overpowering the Savage Demon Emperor

Hearing the words of Wyatt Barnes, the three personal disciples of the Demon Emperor Savage's face changed in unison.

Arrogant!

Way too arrogant!

This was their only impression of the young man in purple robes before them.

"Peak Master Callen, what do you intend to do with them?"

Wyatt looked at Callen and asked.

"We are the personal disciples of the Demon Emperor Savage... If you dare to touch us, our master will not let you off!"

Before Callen could respond, the three personal disciples of the Demon Emperor Savage had already turned pale and yelled hysterically at Wyatt and Callen.

During this time, one of them even threw out a 'communication jade slip'.

This was all they could do at the moment; they dared not flee.

In front of this figure who was either a 'Demon Emperor' or a 'Martial Emperor', they feared that if they attempted escape, they'd be annihilated in the blink of an eye.

"They even threw out a communication jade slip? Was it for the Demon Emperor Savage?"

Wyatt looked at the three with interest, his expression unchanged, as nonchalant as ever.

Upon hearing Wyatt's words, the three of them changed color simultaneously.

Their previous hysterical screams were meant to attract Wyatt's attention so that he would not notice the 'communication jade slip'.

They did not expect that Wyatt would still notice the communication jade slip.

As their complexion changed, the Origin Force around their bodies surged, and their comprehension of profound principles followed closely, watching Wyatt with caution... In the depths of their eyes, there was a glint of despair.

"Demon Emperor Savage!"

Callen's expression changed. He had been in the 'inland' of Cloud Skies Continent for a while and had heard of the 'Demon Emperor Savage', knowing that he was the strongest Demon Emperor on the Cloud Skies Continent.

He could never have imagined.

The three Demon Emperors he had fought with were actually the personal disciples of the Demon Emperor Savage.

"Let's go, Wyatt."

In an instant, Callen hurriedly used Origin Force to convey his voice to Wyatt, signaling him to escape.

In his view.

Even if Wyatt was already a Martial Emperor, it was impossible for him to contend with the Demon Emperor Savage... The Demon Emperor Savage was, after all, the strongest on the Cloud Skies Continent!

However, Wyatt seemed not to have heard Callen's words, instead looking at the three in front of him with great interest, "It seems you have quite some confidence in your master... In that case, I'll wait here for him to come."

Wait for him to come!

Upon hearing Wyatt's words, Callen's face changed again, and he couldn't help but wonder if Wyatt had gone mad.

On the other hand, the three opposite to him sneered, thinking that Wyatt was seeking his own death.

Time, silently passed by.

Callen, who was originally extremely anxious, gradually became numb.

"Why can Wyatt still remain so calm until now? Could it be he knows the Demon Emperor Savage? And knows that even if the Demon Emperor Savage were to come, he wouldn't attack him?"

Seeing Wyatt's calm demeanor, Callen could only think this way.

As for the thought 'Wyatt can defeat the Demon Emperor Savage', he didn't dare to entertain such a thought from the beginning... because subconsciously, he felt it was impossible.

Time quietly passed.

Half an hour later, Wyatt suddenly looked up, gazing at the sky.

At the same moment, a figure as robust as an ox, resembling a colossal iron tower, appeared before him... It was the 'Demon Emperor Savage' whom he had seen a few times overseas.

"What's the situation?"

As soon as the Demon Emperor Savage appeared, he saw Wyatt, and after frowning, he addressed his three personal disciples.

"Master."

His three personal disciples first respectfully greeted him, then they all looked at Wyatt, saying, "Master, it's him... He wants to kill us!"

"Master, he deliberately waited for your arrival... Clearly, he does not take you seriously."

While 'complaining', they were fanning the flames.

The Demon Emperor Savage's expression darkened upon hearing this.

Recent events at Mist Hidden Island and Crescent Island had resulted in the loss of several outstanding personal disciples... Precisely because of this, he valued the remaining few of his personal disciples even more.

Now, hearing that someone wanted to kill his personal disciples... He was completely furious.

However, although he was enraged, he had not lost his reason.

His gaze started sweeping around, seemingly searching for something.

"No need to look anymore... The person you are worried about is not here."

Wyatt obviously knew what the Demon Emperor Savage was looking for, nothing more than checking if Karina Hanson was at his side or not.

When Karina Hanson killed the Grand Isle Master of Coral Island with a 'Taoist Talisman', the Demon Emperor Savage was also present and witnessed the scene.

As such, he was very wary of Karina Hanson.

"Do you plan to kill my personal disciples?"

Learning that Karina Hanson was not there, Demon Emperor Savage's face turned cold, and he stared sharply at Wyatt, asking coldly.

"Won't you ask me why I want to kill them?"

Wyatt asked with interest.

"No need to ask... Whoever it is, anyone who wants to kill my personal disciples must pay the price!"

Demon Emperor Savage spoke word by word, his eyes filled with ferocity, as if ready to devour his prey.

His character of irrationally defending his own disciples was unmistakably revealed.

"Indeed quite overbearing... Worthy of being the Savage Demon Emperor."

Wyatt Barnes said indifferently, his voice tinged with a hint of mockery.

"Wyatt Barnes, I admit you have decent talent... It's just a pity that in front of me, you amount to nothing!"

The Savage Demon Emperor's expression grew increasingly sullen and contemptuous as he spoke.

"Yes, one should be self-aware... However, I think that 'demons' should be even more self-aware. What do you think?"

Wyatt Barnes's expression remained unchanged, and he asked calmly.

Confronted with Wyatt Barnes, who showed no fear of him, the Savage Demon Emperor's heart jolted with anger, as if a bucket of cold water had been poured over his head, sobering him slightly. He thought to himself, "What does this Wyatt Barnes rely on to be so presumptuous in front of me?"

For a moment, the Savage Demon Emperor began to survey his surroundings again.

Seeing the Savage Demon Emperor's action, Wyatt Barnes couldn't help but laugh.

However, he said nothing more to the Savage Demon Emperor and instead turned to Callen Spacewood, saying: "Callen Spacewood, Peak Master, if you want to kill those three... I'm ready to act on your behalf at any time!"

Upon hearing Wyatt Barnes's words, the three direct disciples of the Savage Demon Emperor's faces changed dramatically.

Callen Spacewood, on the other hand, showed surprise.

At this juncture, Wyatt Barnes still dares to say he wants to kill the three direct disciples of the Savage Demon Emperor?

"Callen Spacewood, Peak Master, if you don't speak... I'll take it as your tacit consent. Since you consent, then I will kill these three people for you, consider it as avenging you."

As soon as he finished speaking, Wyatt Barnes looked at the three direct disciples of the Savage Demon Emperor, his eyes flashing with a chilling light.

"Illusionary tricks!"

The Savage Demon Emperor, now certain there was no one around, came back to his senses and glowered at Wyatt Barnes, shouting lowly.

When he realized that Wyatt Barnes was harboring killing intent toward his three direct disciples, his face drastically changed, and he flew out... Unfortunately, he was too late.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

Accompanied by three explosions, the three direct disciples of the Savage Demon Emperor burst into clouds of blood in an instant, leaving behind three Storage Rings and a pile of fragmented mysteries.

After catching the Storage Rings and the fragments of the mysteries, Wyatt Barnes, with a movement of his hand, used an invisible force to guide them, making them land steadily in front of Callen Spacewood.

Clearly, he intended to give these spoils of war to Callen Spacewood.

"Wyatt Barnes!!"

And just then, the enraged Savage Demon Emperor, now nearly mad with anger, roared and rushed towards Wyatt Barnes.

At this moment, he was like a fierce beast from ancient times, with an open bloody maw... as if he wouldn't rest until he had devoured Wyatt Barnes.

"Hmph!"

Facing the Savage Demon Emperor who charged at him, Wyatt Barnes snorted, his expression unchanged.

Only when the Savage Demon Emperor was right in front of him, and his overwhelming attacks came crashing down, did Wyatt Barnes finally make a move... He simply raised his hand, and a mighty bow appeared out of thin air.

Immediately after, his hand went to the bowstring.

Twang!!

As the bowstring was pulled into a full moon and then released, a thunderous noise spread, accompanied by a massive, rolling shock wave that tore through the sky, meeting the Savage Demon Emperor's attack head-on.

In an instant, the shock wave neutralized all of the Savage Demon Emperor's attacks wherever it passed.

Not only that, but the massive shock wave hit the Savage Demon Emperor, sending him flying.

Only after flying out dozens of meters did the Savage Demon Emperor manage to stabilize himself.

He forcibly swallowed the blood that almost escaped his mouth, and after regaining his breath, he forced the blood back down... Even at this moment, he still tried his best to maintain his image.

However, his pale face betrayed him.

Taking a deep breath and consuming a healing Pill Medicine, the Savage Demon Emperor's injuries eased slightly... When he looked at Wyatt Barnes again, his eyes were filled with nothing but shock and fear.

Now, he completely abandoned the idea of avenging his three direct disciples.

What a joke!

The strength Wyatt Barnes had just displayed was far beyond his reach, and no matter how desperately he fought, he would inevitably meet a tragic end.

So he chose to give up.

Perhaps this way he could escape death.

"Wyatt Barnes, I didn't ask clearly before... now that I think about it, those three must have offended your friend. Your killing them is understandable."

To save his own life, the Savage Demon Emperor took the initiative to soften his stance.

At this moment, his heart was filled with nothing but shock, utter shock.

He had never imagined.

That this purple-robed young man, whom he hadn't taken seriously in the past, had at some point acquired strength far greater than his own... The strength Wyatt Barnes just displayed was far beyond his own capability.

"Since it's a misunderstanding... then let's end this matter here."

Wyatt Barnes said, with no intention of making trouble for the Savage Demon Emperor.

"Yes, yes."

The Savage Demon Emperor nodded again and again, eager for such a conclusion.

"However, there's something I'd like you to help with... I trust you wouldn't refuse, would you?"

Wyatt Barnes got straight to the point.

The two of them, who had been at swords' points just a moment ago, now seemed as though they could sit down together for a tranquil chat.

Which left Callen Spacewood stunned.

"Of course not."

The Savage Demon Emperor quickly shook his head, his face a facade of smiles, and only he knew what lay behind that smile.

"If you put your heart and effort into helping with this matter... afterwards, I'll consider giving you a reward. If you can help significantly, I'm willing to offer a 'Holy Stone' as thanks."

Wyatt Barnes said.

Chapter 1345: Wyatt Barnes, the Peak of the Martial Emperor Realm!

Wyatt Barnes promised the Savage Demon Emperor a 'Holy Stone'.

As long as the Savage Demon Emperor could find the massive amount of materials he needed, he was willing to give the Savage Demon Emperor a Holy Stone... and naturally, the Savage Demon Emperor was overjoyed.

As soon as Wyatt's words fell, he bid farewell and hastily left.

"Bastard, why didn't you kill him?"

Jovie Lee frowned her willow eyebrows, the Savage Demon Emperor's previous arrogant demeanor also made her quite uncomfortable.

"Keeping him alive is a thousand times, a hundred times better than killing him... He is the first Demon Emperor of Cloud Skies Continent, his influence is extraordinary. With his help, the efficiency of searching for materials will definitely be much higher."

Wyatt said.

"With a single command from the Savage Demon Emperor, I'm afraid every 'demon' in the Cloud Skies Continent would work for him to the death."

Keer said softly.

"That's exactly what I'm counting on."

Wyatt nodded, "Whether it's the two ancient clans or the Black Tortoise Martial Emperor... they might be considered among the first and second in terms of their calling power amongst human warriors. However, those proud and unyielding 'demons' won't pay them any heed."

"With the help of the Savage Demon Emperor, naturally, it's a different story."

This was also the reason Wyatt was willing to promise the Savage Demon Emperor a 'Holy Stone'... In the eyes of the demon beasts of the Cloud Skies Continent, the Savage Demon Emperor was undoubtedly an 'emperor-like' existence.

When the Emperor issues an order, who would dare not obey?

Moreover, demon beasts are more efficient than human warriors in searching for materials... Demon beasts naturally live in wild mountains and might have already seen those materials before, and know where they can be found.

To repair the Jewel Tower, Wyatt Barnes put in all his effort and dedication.

Of course, his earnestness and dedication were also because he wanted to repair the Jewel Tower as soon as possible.

According to the Golden Crow 'Elder Fire', even if only repairing the second layer of the Jewel Tower, he would still be able to obtain the celestial treasure 'Splendid Fairy Sword'."

The Splendid Fairy Sword is an attack-oriented celestial treasure, with extraordinary power.

Beyond that, Wyatt also learned.

As long as the second layer of the Jewel Tower is repaired, he could ascend from the first layer for cultivation... The cultivation environment of the second layer of the Jewel Tower is even better.

Beyond that, the passage of time is also more astonishing.

Three days inside the second layer of the Jewel Tower equates to just one day outside.

So, whether it is for the 'Splendid Fairy Sword' or for a better cultivation environment, Wyatt wanted to help Elder Fire repair the second layer of the Jewel Tower as soon as possible.

Callen Spacewood stood by, speechless for a long time.

His gaze landed on Wyatt Barnes, extremely complex.

The unruly youth of yesteryear has achieved such accomplishments today... Even the 'Savage Demon Emperor', hailed as the first Demon Emperor strength in Cloud Skies Continent, is not his match.

"Peak Master Callen Spacewood, how did you provoke the personal disciple of the Savage Demon Emperor?"

Wyatt looked at Callen Spacewood, curiously asking.

"Isn't it because of this spirit sword?"

Callen Spacewood shook the narrow sword in his hand and said with a wry smile.

The narrow sword appeared very ordinary, but it emitted a fierce aura, as if it could tear everything apart.

With just one glance, Wyatt recognized it.

This is an Emperor Grade spirit sword.

Sifting through the memories of the Martial Emperor of Reincarnation, Wyatt quickly learned that this was one of the 'creations' of the Martial Emperor of Reincarnation.

"This sword is indeed a treasure."

Wyatt said with a smile.

"You can see that?"

Callen Spacewood was somewhat surprised because even he only learned of its extraordinariness after wielding the sword.

"Yeah."

Wyatt nodded, then changed the subject, "Peak Master Callen Spacewood, as you wander the Continent on your own, have you not joined any Sect or family?"

"No."

Callen Spacewood shook his head, "After leaving the Five Elements Sect, I didn't want to be constrained... And I've grown accustomed to being idle over the years."

"That's not bad either. However, you still need to be cautious when wandering outside... especially your sword there, you must not easily let others see its extraordinariness, to avoid trouble."

Wyatt reminded.

"In the future, if you grow weary of wandering outside, you're welcome to go to 'Heaven Fortin Sect' anytime... When you arrive at Heaven Fortin Sect, you only need to say that you are my friend."

Wyatt said.

"Heaven Fortin Sect?"

Hearing Wyatt's words, Callen Spacewood's pupils contracted, "You mean Cloud Skies Continent's number one Sect, 'Heaven Fortin Sect'? I've heard that the Sect Leader Wyatt Barnes has gone missing, and Heaven Fortin Sect is searching everywhere for him... don't tell me, you are the Sect Leader of Heaven Fortin Sect."

Although He had already heard that the Sect Leader of Heaven Fortin Sect was also named 'Wyatt Barnes', Callen Spacewood thought it was merely a coincidence.

In his view.

The Wyatt Barnes he knew, no matter how talented, couldn't possibly become the Sect Leader of Cloud Skies Continent's number one Sect in just a few short years.

He only thought it was someone with the same name as the Wyatt Barnes he knew.

Now, hearing Wyatt's words, and recalling the strength Wyatt had just shown... momentarily, he had to link the Wyatt Barnes he knew with the Sect Leader of Heaven Fortin Sect.

"Yes. Heaven Fortin Sect is my sect."

Wyatt Barnes nodded, and as if he remembered something, he continued: "Jaxx Nangle and Demetrius Nangle, the brothers, are now also in the Heaven Fortin Sect."

The Brother Nangle duo, the personal disciples of the Sect Leader of the Five Elements Sect, originally stayed at the cultivation grounds of Yang Hui, the Martial Emperor of Mystic Profound Peak.

According to what Karina Hanson said, they later went to Heaven Fortin Sect.

"I never expected... truly, I never expected, Wyatt Barnes, that you would turn out to be the Sect Leader of the number one sect in Cloud Skies Continent."

Callen Spacewood shook his head with a sigh and then asked with a solemn face: "Wyatt Barnes, your current cultivation... should be above 'Martial Emperor Realm Level Eight', right?"

As far as he knew, Savage was a being at the 'Demon Emperor Realm Seventh-Order'.

"Mhm."

Wyatt Barnes nodded.

Right after that, the two exchanged stories of the past before parting ways.

Before this, Wyatt Barnes introduced the two young girls to Callen Spacewood, which made him sigh with emotion, "Wyatt Barnes, you're truly a winner at life!"

Isn't that so?

Wyatt Barnes, not only is his talent heaven-defying, but at a young age, he has already stood at the pinnacle of Cloud Skies Continent.

Even his two fiancées are one in ten thousand beauties.

After parting from Callen Spacewood, Wyatt Barnes continued with the two young girls towards the original location of Yin and Yang Sect... Now, it still counts as territory of Heaven Fortin Sect.

However, it has now become a division.

This division was managed by two people... On the way there, Wyatt Barnes had already heard about this from Karina Hanson.

Those two people were also the ones who originally did not want to leave.

Fill Bear, Kamari Gold.

"Young Master."

"Master."

Upon seeing Wyatt Barnes again, Fill Bear and Kamari Gold were both somewhat excited... Staying here, they were indeed persistently holding onto the belief that Wyatt Barnes would definitely return.

Now, Wyatt Barnes really did come back.

"Miss Keer, Miss Jovie."

Right after, Fill Bear looked at Keer and Jovie Lee, greeting them respectfully.

Towards Keer and Jovie Lee, he was not unfamiliar; he knew these were his Young Master's fiancées... For these two ladies, his Young Master had even spent effort in the past to search for them, only to come up empty-handed in the end.

"Mistresses."

Reminded by Fill Bear, Kamari Gold also reacted and quickly saluted Keer and Jovie Lee.

Keer and Jovie Lee nodded slightly, squeezing out a hint of a smile on their faces while a sense of eagerness appeared in their eyes.

Seeing the two ladies' urgency, Wyatt Barnes took them to the wooden hut where Ella Yorke's body was laid... With the ice coffin there, Ella Yorke's body was preserved intact to this day.

"Senior Sister!"

Upon seeing the woman in white lying inside the ice coffin, tears fell down the beautiful faces of the two young girls... On their faces, besides guilt, was more guilt.

After all, Ella Yorke died protecting them.

"Senior Sister, the villain has avenged you... You can rest in peace now below the nine springs," Jovie Lee said softly.

"Senior Sister, both Jovie sister and I are doing well... Rest assured, we will live well and not let you down," Keer said with tears that she could not hold back.

Seeing this scene, Wyatt Barnes shook his head with a sigh and stepped out.

In the following days, Wyatt Barnes did not disturb the two young girls, allowing them to accompany Ella Yorke's side... During this time, besides his own cultivation, he also concocted some Pill Medicine for Fill Bear and Kamari Gold.

As people close to Wyatt Barnes, after Karina Hanson became the 'Acting Sect Leader' of Heaven Fortin Sect, they were well taken care of... Therefore, both of their cultivations were not weak.

Ten days later.

Atop the peak of the now-called Heaven Fortin Peak, the original Shadow Peak of Yin and Yang Sect, three figures stood together... It was Wyatt Barnes, Keer, and Jovie Lee.

Before them, stood two conspicuous gravestones.

One of the gravestones belonged to Ella Yorke, while the other belonged to the Vice Peak Master of the Shadow Peak of the Yin and Yang Sect, who also happened to be the master of Keer, Jovie Lee, and Ella Yorke.

This Vice Peak Master of Shadow Peak of the Yin and Yang Sect was also the 'sister' of the Peak Master Kinsley Cooper of the Seven Stars Sword Clan.

Wyatt Barnes had never met her.

However, since she was the master of the two young girls and had treated them well... he still paid his respects to her gravestone as a junior.

Facing Ella Yorke's gravestone, Wyatt Barnes solemnly bowed, "Senior Sister Ella Yorke, thank you... If it weren't for your desperate protection, I might not have been able to see the two young girls."

By the end, Wyatt Barnes bowed deeply.

After burying Ella Yorke, Keer and Jovie Lee stayed by her grave for three months... Throughout these three months, they sat quietly in front of the gravestone, silently watching over it.

This also made Wyatt Barnes' heartache.

Three months was enough time for many things to happen... Wyatt Barnes' strength had further advanced.

In terms of the sword's mystery, he had successfully comprehended the 'Emperor Realm mystery of the sword.'

Regarding the fusion of mysteries, he had comprehended the 'Level Eight fusion of mysteries.'

"Now, I've also stepped into the 'Peak of Martial Emperor Realm'... As long as I can use the sword's mystery as a medium to fuse the two great mysteries into my body and open the Saint Veins, I will be considered as entering the Transcending Mortal Realm," Wyatt Barnes murmured to himself, his lips curving into a smile, showing a joyful expression.

Chapter 1346: The 'Potential' of Integrating Secrets

Wyatt Barnes still couldn't figure out what the situation with 'fusion mystery' was.

Originally, the combination of five Emperor Realm Nature Mysteries formed the 'fusion mystery'... The power of the fusion mystery was so formidable that it could even rival the power of Emperor Realm mysteries!

With his doubts, Wyatt Barnes decided to consult the Golden Crow 'Elder Fire' within the Seven Treasures Jewel Tower.

Upon entering the Seven Treasures Jewel Tower, Wyatt Barnes found Elder Fire sitting cross-legged in the air, eyes closed, unclear whether he was cultivating or resting with his eyes shut.

When Wyatt Barnes came in, Elder Fire had already opened his eyes.

Wyatt Barnes expressed his inner doubts.

"Mystery?"

Elder Fire's eyebrows raised; this was the first time he heard this 'term'.

After all, the cultivation systems in different places varied slightly... Mystery is just a term from the Cloud Skies Continent.

Perhaps, in other mortal continents, it's not called the same way.

"It's this kind of power."

With a lift of Wyatt Barnes' hand, a multitude of colored powers converged to form a multicolored orb hovering in the air, "This is what I call the 'fusion mystery'."

"And... this is the 'Sword Dao mystery'."

Wyatt Barnes lifted his other hand, and a semi-transparent sword emitting a sharp aura hovered just above his palm, continuously rotating.

"So this is what you call the 'mystery'."

Elder Fire glanced at it and nodded, "The 'mystery' you speak of is similar to the 'Five Elements Qi' on the Yan Huang Star... Once the Five Elements Qi is completely integrated into the body, it will ignite one's potential, leading to a dramatic surge in strength."

Hearing Elder Fire's words, Wyatt Barnes' eyes lit up.

What Elder Fire said seemed somewhat similar to the existence and purpose of the 'mystery'.

According to what Karina Hanson said.

Once the mystery is fully integrated into the body, it will open up the 'Saint Veins'... At that point, the mystery will become a part of oneself, no longer independent.

This is the same end different means as what Elder Fire mentioned about the 'Five Elements Qi'.

"This 'Sword Dao mystery' of yours feels like it has reached the limit of the 'Five Elements Qi'. As for this 'fusion mystery', it also seems close to the limit. However, I can clearly feel... it still has a lot of potential that hasn't been excavated."

Elder Fire's gaze settled on the hovering multicolored orb, his brows showing some confusion towards the end of his speech.

"A lot of potential?"

Upon hearing this, Wyatt Barnes' heart skipped a beat, thinking, "Could it be... the current 'fusion mystery' is only 'Emperor Realm fusion mystery'? Can it be elevated to 'Emperor Realm fusion mystery'?"

The more he thought, the more Wyatt Barnes felt it was an exaggeration.

It's too preposterous, right?

The fusion mystery can already compare with the 'Emperor Realm mystery'.

If it could be further enhanced to 'Emperor Realm fusion mystery'... then how strong would it become?

Ten times an Emperor Realm mystery?

What kind of concept is that?

Just the thought made Wyatt Barnes' scalp tingle.

"If possible, I hope you can fully unearth the potential of the 'fusion mystery' before breaking through... When that happens, the benefits you obtain will surpass what most can imagine," Elder Fire said after pondering for a moment.

"Excavate the potential of the 'fusion mystery' even further?"

Wyatt Barnes frowned.

If the 'Level Eight fusion mystery' he currently comprehends is really just 'Level Eight Emperor Realm fusion mystery'... then, to fully exploit the potential of the fusion mystery, wouldn't he need to understand 'Level Nine Emperor Realm fusion mystery'?

From 'Level Eight Emperor Realm fusion mystery' to 'Level Nine Emperor Realm fusion mystery'... Good heavens! How much time would that take?

However, Wyatt Barnes also believed in Elder Fire's words.

Who is Elder Fire?

A Golden Crow! An ancient mythical sunbird from the myths of previous lives!

To put it plainly.

Such an existence had no need to deceive him.

Moreover, he is now the owner of the Seven Treasures Jewel Tower... As the 'Tower Spirit' of the Seven Treasures Jewel Tower, Elder Fire would not and should not harm him, both emotionally and logically.

Taking a deep breath, Wyatt Barnes voiced his concerns.

Understanding the 'Level Nine Emperor Realm fusion mystery' would take too much time.

"The time required is indeed a bit long... However, you can cultivate inside the Seven Treasures Jewel Tower, where time passes slower," Elder Fire told Wyatt Barnes. "Inside the first layer of the Seven Treasures Jewel Tower, two days pass while only one day goes by outside."

"Furthermore... If you can find enough materials, I can repair the second layer of the Seven Treasures Jewel Tower. Then, if you cultivate on the second layer, three days inside will only be equivalent to one day outside," Elder Fire continued.

"It'll have to be that way then."

Wyatt Barnes nodded.

He had decided not to use the 'Level Nine Sword Dao mystery' as a medium to develop the hidden Saint Veins in his body just yet... He would wait until he understood the 'Level Nine Emperor Realm fusion mystery' to proceed.

"Fusion of mysteries... I just hope that you can give me a surprise when the time comes."

Wyatt Barnes comforted himself.

He knew that from the moment he made this decision, he was destined to open up his 'Saint Veins' and break through to the 'Transcending Mortal Realm' later than planned.

At the same time, a strong premonition rose in Wyatt Barnes's heart.

His decision might affect the number of Saint Veins he could open in the future, "This way, there might be a chance to surpass Kamari Gold... Kamari Gold reached Level Eight of the Transcending Mortal Realm, opening up twenty-three Saint Veins."

"Even Julia, when she breaks through to the middle stage of the Transcending Mortal Realm later on, it's unlikely she could open up twenty-three Saint Veins... At most, twenty-two."

The 'Kamari Gold' in Wyatt Barnes's mouth was naturally 'Dominic King'.

It was also the 'Emperor Yonah' who had left Crescent Island and gone to the Martial Dao Sacred Land.

The reason for such confidence is because he is no longer the person he used to be... Now, he has gone through a transformation twice, and his foundation is incredibly solid.

What a joke!

In terms of solid foundations, what could surpass the 'Fusion of mysteries'?

"It's truly exciting... If only I could open up eighty-one Saint Veins."

Wyatt Barnes's eyes flashed as he dreamt a 'beautiful dream' in his heart, a dream that even his subconscious deemed unlikely.

It is known that in the long history of the Martial Dao Sacred Land, only three people have managed to open up eighty-one Saint Veins... Although he has never personally experienced the difficulty, he can guess some of it.

Because of the reminder from Elder Fire, as well as his own determination.

In the following period, Wyatt Barnes focused all his attention on comprehending the 'Fusion of mysteries'... Comprehending the Fusion of mysteries is the only thing he can do for now.

Whether it's his cultivation level or the 'Sword Mastery', they have both reached their limits by now.

He can't improve any further.

"Speaking of which, it's quite a coincidence... The sword mastery insights that originated from that 'sword' character in my mind was fully digested by me when I comprehended the 'Nine Emperor Realm Sword Mastery'."

Wyatt Barnes murmured softly, "It seems that it's time to go back and take another look at that 'sword' character."

"I wonder... when I see that 'sword' character again and gain further insights into Sword Dao, whether the 'Sword Mastery' will continue to improve."

In terms of Sword Mastery, Wyatt Barnes has comprehended the 'Nine Emperor Realm Sword Mastery', which should have been the limit according to common sense.

However, in Wyatt Barnes's view.

That 'sword' character should not be regarded with common sense.

Regarding this, he had profound feelings in the past.

The two little girls stayed by Ella Yorke's side for a full three months, guarding her spirit, until the three months passed, then they stood up and left, returning to Wyatt Barnes's side.

"We're returning to the South Outlands."

Having told the two girls, and after greeting Fill Bear and Kamari Gold, Wyatt Barnes left with the two girls.

Although Fill Bear and Kamari Gold wanted to follow Wyatt Barnes, as soon as they thought of Keer and Jovie Lee, they dismissed the idea... Following right now would be insensitive, wouldn't it?

Wyatt Barnes, along with the two girls, soon passed through the vast and boundless Weak Water River and arrived at the South Outlands smoothly.

"Sigh."

After arriving back in the South Outlands, Wyatt Barnes was struck with sadness and heaved a sigh.

At this moment, he remembered the Gagnon Family, which had been annihilated by the Hanson Tribe... The Gagnon Family where he had once stayed for a while had disappeared in an instant.

Keer and Jovie Lee quietly accompanied him, without saying a word.

At this time, silence spoke louder than words.

If the member of the Hanson Tribe who annihilated the Gagnon Family were still alive, Wyatt Barnes would have killed him immediately to avenge the Gagnon Family... But the problem was that the Hanson Tribe member had already died at the hands of Karina Hanson.

So now, all Wyatt Barnes could do was to remember the Gagnon Family of days past.

"As long as Jadiel Gagnon is still around, the roots of the Gagnon Family aren't broken... This time, when I return, I will help him rebuild the Gagnon Family."

At this point, Wyatt Barnes remembered Jadiel Gagnon.

Jadiel Gagnon, the Second Young Master of the Gagnon Family, was the sole survivor after the family's destruction. He later crossed Weak Water River to the Inner Land, joined the Heaven Fortin Sect, and became one of their members.

With another long sigh, Wyatt Barnes took the two girls and left the North Hill region of the South Outlands.

With his current speed, it didn't take long for him to set foot on a familiar land again.

The Northern Desert!

Back then, when he first left the Great Turdo Dynasty, he came to the Northern Desert, participating in the 'Decennial Martial Meet' held by the Third-Rate Power Grimm Wolf Fortress.

It was at the Martial Meet that he truly stepped onto the stage of the Cloud Skies Continent.

Looking back suddenly, even Wyatt Barnes, who had experienced two lifetimes, couldn't help but feel nostalgic for a while.

Without staying in the Northern Desert, Wyatt Barnes took the two girls back to the Great Turdo Dynasty, to the Black Stone Empire, to the Green Forest Royal Country... and finally, back to the Seven Star Sword Sect.

After years, the residence of the Seven Star Sword Sect, represented by the seven soaring Sword Peaks, had returned to its former state, showing no signs of the 'Sect Annihilation Disaster' it once suffered.

In the high skies, Wyatt Barnes stood there, looking at the seven Sword Peaks, his eyes flickering with reminiscence.

In contrast, the two girls standing by his side had red eyes, their excited bodies subtly trembling... For them, it had been far too long since they had left this place.

When they left, they never imagined.

That this departure would be for over a decade.

Chapter 1347: The Shocking Enzo Hawkins

"Keer, go and see Peak Master Kinsley Cooper... She must have missed you a lot over these years."

Wyatt Barnes said to Keer.

Hearing Wyatt Barnes's words, Keer nodded and with a leap, she entered 'Heavenly Pivot Peak', the foremost among the seven Sword Peaks.

"Bad guy, I want to erect a gravestone for Master and senior sister."

Jovie Lee spoke softly.

Even though she had long learned from Wyatt Barnes that her master at the Seven Stars Sword Clan, 'Jade Elder', and her senior sister 'Chloe Taylor' had died... Being at that place bringing back memories, she couldn't help feeling a sense of sorrow.

"The gravestone, I already took care of it long ago... It's at Jade Elder's former cultivation place."

Wyatt Barnes said.

At the time when the Seven Stars Sword Clan was rebuilt, he and the current Sect Leader of the Seven Stars Sword Clan 'Jadey Inky' among others had erected gravestones for all the former high-ranking members who had passed away.

"Bad guy!"

Upon hearing Wyatt Barnes's words, Jovie Lee felt grief overwhelming her as she threw herself into Wyatt Barnes's embrace, letting her tears flow down and wet his robe.

Wyatt Barnes, however, didn't mind. He hugged Jovie Lee back with one arm and with his other hand gently stroked her smooth back, "Little Jovie... Jade Elder and Senior Sister Chloe Taylor definitely wouldn't want to see you like this."

Comforted by Wyatt Barnes, Jovie Lee's mood gradually recovered.

Then, Jovie Lee and Wyatt Barnes went together to Shimmering Light Peak, to Jade Elder's former place of cultivation.

Jade Elder's former cultivation place had been uninhabited for many years, yet the environment was as it always had been... The flowers and plants were clearly tended to regularly.

"Jadey Inky does have some consideration."

Wyatt Barnes nodded, he knew for sure that it was Jadey Inky who ordered people to keep up the maintenance of this place's flora.

In front of the wooden hut stood two gravestones.

They were precisely the gravestones of the former 'Jade Elder' of Shimmering Light Peak, and her disciple 'Chloe Taylor'.

"Master, senior sister... Bad guy has avenged you and also rebuilt the Seven Stars Sword Clan. Now you can rest in peace below."

Jovie Lee said softly while standing in front of the gravestones, her tears continuously falling and looking utterly pitiful.

Wyatt Barnes stood by the side, looking at the two stone tablets with a somewhat absent gaze.

At this moment, in his mind, scenes from the annihilation of the Seven Stars Sword Clan emerged again... Even now, recalling that scene, his heart couldn't help but tremble.

Although he had avenged them, they could not come back to life... They, had forever left him, left the Seven Stars Sword Clan.

In silence, Wyatt Barnes gave a deep bow toward the Jade Elder and Chloe Taylor's gravestones.

"Jade Elder, Senior Sister Chloe Taylor... rest assured, I will take good care of Little Jovie."

Wyatt Barnes spoke to the two gravestones.

After paying respects to 'Jade Elder' and 'Chloe Taylor', Wyatt Barnes and Jovie Lee left Shimmering Light Peak and returned to the space whence they came.

Upon arriving there, Wyatt Barnes found that Keer had already returned.

By Keer's side stood another familiar figure.

Kinsley Cooper!

Peak Master of Shimmering Light Peak of the Seven Stars Sword Clan.

The current Kinsley Cooper had not changed much from the past... This itself was evidence enough of her good preservation.

You should know that only upon breaking through to the 'Martial Emperor Realm' can one retain eternal youth.

Before the 'Martial Emperor Realm', although the higher one's cultivation, the slower the aging... if no special care is taken, traces of the years will still be left on one's features.

"Wyatt Barnes, are you... really not going to see the Sect Leader?"

Seeing Wyatt Barnes again, Kinsley Cooper's gaze was extremely complex.

Just now, she had heard from Keer about Wyatt Barnes's accomplishments over these years, and understood that Wyatt Barnes was now the Sect Leader of Heaven Fortin Sect, the number one sect in the Cloud Skies Continent.

Aside from being shocked, her heart was filled with shock.

The little guy from the past had, in present day, truly reached the pinnacle of the Cloud Skies Continent.

Recalling the past, she even felt as if she was dreaming.

"If they have knowledge beneath the springs, they would rest with their eyes closed."

Kinsley Cooper thought to herself.

'They', of course, referred to the people of the Seven Stars Sword Clan including the former Sect Leader 'Zeke Foxsong', who had fallen alongside the destruction of the Seven Stars Sword Clan.

"For now, I won't meet... The Seven Stars Sword Clan will always be the Seven Stars Sword Clan."

Wyatt Barnes shook his head and said.

"Hmm."

Kinsley Cooper nodded, obviously understanding the meaning of Wyatt Barnes's words.

It was no doubt his intention not to interfere with the future of the 'Seven Stars Sword Clan'.

If the people of the Seven Stars Sword Clan knew that Wyatt Barnes was now the Sect Leader of Heaven Fortin Sect, the number one sect of the Cloud Skies Continent, they would certainly wish for the Seven Stars Sword Clan to become a subsidiary of Heaven Fortin Sect.

In that case, the Seven Stars Sword Clan would become a vassal to Heaven Fortin Sect, in name only but void of substance.

And that is not what Wyatt Barnes wished to see.

"Master, are you really not leaving with me?"

Keer looked towards Kinsley Cooper, her face full of reluctance to part.

Although her current level of cultivation far surpassed that of Kinsley Cooper, the principle "once a teacher, forever a mother" remained. The grace of past teachings she could never dare to forget throughout her lifetime.

Just now, Keer had urged Kinsley Cooper to leave, but she refused.

"Keer, your teacher understands your filial piety... However, for most of my life, I have been with the Seven Stars Sword Clan, and I have become inseparable from it."

Kinsley Cooper affectionately held Keer's hand and said softly, "When you and Wyatt Barnes have children, remember to come back and visit me."

Hearing Kinsley Cooper's words, Keer blushed with shyness.

Under Kinsley Cooper's gaze, Wyatt Barnes took the two young girls away... In the blink of an eye, they had already appeared above the subordinate nation 'Crimson Heaven Kingdom' under the flag of the Royal Country of Green Forest.

The Crimson Heaven Kingdom was their homeland.

Wyatt Barnes' purpose for returning this time was very simple.

To visit old friends, and also to see if they were willing to leave with them and live on the overseas Holy Island 'Crescent Island'.

This time upon his return, Wyatt Barnes first brought the two young girls to the 'Godly Might Marquis Mansion' in the Imperial City, to visit the two senior marquises.

The reason for referring to them as 'senior marquises' is because the former Godly Might Marquis 'Imran Nigel' had already retired behind the scenes... The current Godly Might Marquis is 'Kanan Nigel', the former Young Marquis, who was also Wyatt Barnes' 'Brother Nigel'.

Time flies, the world changes.

This return brought many emotions to Wyatt Barnes.

Not only did Kanan Nigel have a house full of children, but so did Remi Sinclair and Seeker Sinclair. Worth mentioning is that Darren Lee, who used to be the 'little fatty', now also had three sons and a daughter.

In addition, Wyatt Barnes made a trip to the Royal Palace and caught a glimpse of the old emperor... The once heroic emperor had aged, and in previous years had already passed on the 'throne'.

"Wyatt Barnes, do you know when Princess Irene will come back?"

The old emperor looked eagerly at Wyatt Barnes and asked.

Naturally, the 'Princess Irene' mentioned by the old emperor was the once first beauty of the Royal City of Crimson Heaven Kingdom, Princess Irene.

"I don't know either... But if I see her, I will tell her to come back and visit you."

Wyatt Barnes said.

"Good, good."

Upon hearing this, the old emperor's face was filled with smiles... Princess Irene was his most sensible daughter, deeply beloved by him, even more so than his princes.

If Princess Irene had been a son, he would have passed the 'throne' to her a long time ago.

"My parents really... they actually took Princess Irene away."

Thinking of Princess Irene's whereabouts, Wyatt Barnes couldn't help but smile wryly to himself.

Not only Princess Irene, his father and mother had also taken Remi Sinclair's sister 'Helen Sinclair' away.

When he previously saw Remi Sinclair, Remi had also asked about Helen's whereabouts, but he truly had no idea... To be precise, although he knew that Helen was in the 'Martial Dao Sacred Land', he had no clue as to her exact location within the sacred land.

"It's just a pity that the 'lingering jade piece' inside the 'exquisite jade box' was shattered by me... Otherwise, once I get to the 'Martial Dao Sacred Land', and meet up with the people arranged by my father, I would definitely be able to see my mother, Helen Sinclair, and Princess Irene immediately."

Thinking of this, Wyatt Barnes couldn't stop sighing.

Originally, Lanni Barnes had left a 'lingering jade piece' for Wyatt Barnes with instructions to find someone she arranged in a certain place in the Martial Dao Sacred Land... Unfortunately, the jade piece was damaged, and precisely the most important part was lost.

As such, Wyatt Barnes also had no idea where to find the person his father arranged.

Now, even if Wyatt Barnes were to go to the 'Martial Dao Sacred Land', finding his father would be like looking for a needle in a haystack.

Leaving the Royal Palace, Wyatt Barnes went to the Holy Martial Arts Academy and saw the president 'Enzo Hawkins'.

Enzo Hawkins was his teacher at the Holy Martial Arts Academy back in the day.

Although he hadn't taught him much, he had helped him out a lot, and Wyatt Barnes was always grateful in his heart, so he always regarded him as a 'teacher'.

"You little guy, to what extent has your cultivation reached now?"

Seeing Wyatt Barnes once again, Enzo Hawkins got straight to the point, the thing he was most curious about every time he saw Wyatt Barnes.

"Ninth layer of the Martial Emperor Realm."

Wyatt Barnes said with a smile.

"Pfft!!"

Hearing Wyatt Barnes' words, Enzo Hawkins spat out the tea he had just sipped into his mouth, his face a bit red as he asked, "What... did you say? Martial... Martial Emperor Realm... and at the ninth layer?"

"Yes, Teacher."

Wyatt Barnes nodded seriously.

Enzo Hawkins, after hearing this, looked Wyatt Barnes up and down as if seeing a monster, muttering to himself, "Although I always knew you were an abnormality... I never thought you would be this abnormal!"

"Ninth layer of the Martial Emperor Realm... Isn't that the limits of what martial artists can achieve?"

Enzo Hawkins had long heard that the pinnacle for martial artists was the 'Martial Emperor Realm'... Once someone breaks through to the Martial Emperor Realm, they are considered 'Martial Emperors'.

Martial Emperors are beings who stand at the pinnacle of the Cloud Skies Continent, looking down upon all living things.

To him, a Martial Emperor was an existence of 'legends'.

And now, the young man standing before him, his former 'student'... has become a Martial Emperor, and even reached the 'ninth layer of the Martial Emperor Realm'.

At this moment, he only doubted whether he was dreaming or not.

If it were not for Wyatt Barnes being present and him needing to consider his image, he would have long been unable to resist pinching his own thigh just to see if it would hurt.

Chapter 1348: Return to the 'Sword' Canyon

"In the past, I too believed that the 'nine layers of the Martial Emperor Realm' were the ultimate limit for martial artists... However, the reality is not so."

Wyatt Barnes sighed.

"What do you mean by that? Are you saying there are existences even stronger than 'Martial Emperor' powerhouses?"

Enzo Hawkins asked with wide-eyed surprise.

In his eyes, Martial Emperor powerhouses were legendary, invincible beings.

Yet now, Wyatt Barnes was suggesting... that the 'nine layers of the Martial Emperor Realm' were not the limit? Implicit in his words was undoubtedly the notion that there were existences even more formidable than the 'powerhouses of the nine layers of the Martial Emperor Realm'.

"Teacher, while the nine layers of the Martial Emperor Realm do indeed stand at the pinnacle for us on the Cloud Skies Continent, there exists an even broader world outside of the Cloud Rosy Clouds Continent."

Wyatt Barnes patiently introduced Enzo Hawkins to 'matters' beyond the Cloud Skies Continent... which included the four great overseas Holy Islands, two other mortal continents, and the 'Martial Dao Sacred Land'!

As Wyatt Barnes explained with patience, Enzo Hawkins listened, utterly fascinated.

At the same time, his heart was filled with shock.

"A frog in a well, a frog in a well... Looking at it now, I, Enzo Hawkins, am no different from 'a frog in a well'!"

After hearing Wyatt Barnes's explanation, Enzo Hawkins took a deep sigh and wore a self-mocking expression.

"It should be said that '99 percent' of the people in Cloud Skies Continent are frogs in a well... including my former self."

Wyatt Barnes said with a bitter smile.

"Teacher, the main reason for my return is to ask if you're interested in going to the 'overseas Holy Islands'... There, with the superior cultivation environment and my help, your strength is bound to skyrocket."

Wyatt Barnes's tone was filled with a tempting suggestion, "At the very least, you could break through to the 'Martial Emperor Realm'! Even advancing to the 'Martial Emperor Realm' is not entirely impossible."

"The Martial Emperor Realm?"

Upon hearing Wyatt Barnes's words, Enzo Hawkins's breathing became hurried, "I... Can I really do it?"

"Why not? Don't forget, you are my teacher, Wyatt Barnes!"

Wyatt Barnes said with confident smile.

If it were someone else, he wouldn't dare to be so certain... However, Enzo Hawkins himself had extremely high talent and comprehension. With his help, breaking through to the 'Martial Emperor Realm' was not a difficult task.

Not impossible for the Martial Emperor Realm, either.

Lacking talent?

No problem.

In the memories of the Reincarnated Martial Emperor, there was a record of the location of a 'Millennial Giovanni Stone Milk'.

Once he collects the milk from the 'Millennial Giovanni Stone Milk', it would transform Enzo Hawkins, granting him the ultimate talent of a martial artist from the Cloud Skies Continent.

Lacking comprehension?

Also not a problem.

There are shards of realms and profound mysteries, everything one could ask for...

"Alright! I'll go with you."

Enzo Hawkins's face was filled with smiles, and he said somewhat excitedly, "In my life, Enzo Hawkins has been devoted to the Martial Dao, never marrying, living a solitary life... If my cultivation can breakthrough to the 'Martial Emperor Realm', it would not have been in vain."

Enzo Hawkins, with nothing holding him back, readily agreed to Wyatt Barnes's proposal to leave with him.

Others, however, had varying degrees of attachments.

This led to the situation where Wyatt Barnes arrived with three people, and also left with only adding one more person... That additional person was none other than 'Enzo Hawkins'.

As for those unwilling to leave, Wyatt Barnes respected their choices.

When he has the time in the future, he will come back to see them.

If by then they wish to leave, he would take them away as well.

After leaving the Crimson Heaven Kingdom, Wyatt Barnes and his group arrived above a secluded forest in the Green Forest Royal Country... And in a moment, under Wyatt Barnes's lead, Keer, Jovie Lee, and Enzo Hawkins descended from the sky.

As their feet touched solid ground and they focussed their gaze forward into the canyon, they were entirely stunned.

All of this was because they saw a 'Sword' character on the cliff ahead in the valley. Attracted by the 'Sword' character as if their souls were hooked... The grand 'Sword' character, created in one breath, was precisely the word inscribed by the Sword Saint 'Kieran'.

This 'Sword' character embodied Kieran's understanding of the Sword Dao.

Indeed, because of the superficial understanding of the character '劍' (sword), Wyatt Barnes smoothly comprehended the 'Nine Layer Emperor Realm Sword Mysteries' in a very short time... Nine Layer Emperor Realm Mysteries are also pinnacle mysteries!

"Little Wyatt?"

Suddenly, a familiar voice entered Wyatt Barnes's ears.

"Uncle Romero."

Wyatt Barnes looked toward the red-robed middle-aged man who had been sitting cross-legged with his eyes closed in meditation, now awakened by their presence, and greeted with a slight smile.

The red-robed middle-aged man was none other than 'Taoi Romero'.

He was also 'Winnie Romero's' father.

"They..."

Taoi Romero stood up, going to Wyatt Barnes's side at first notice, looking at Keer, Jovie Lee, and Enzo Hawkins with a mix of confusion in his brows.

"Uncle Romero, she, and she are my fiancées, whom I've mentioned to you before... As for him, he is my teacher from my hometown," Wyatt Barnes said with a smile as he introduced them.

"Hmm."

Taoi Romero nodded and then looked seriously at both Keer and Jovie Lee. When he saw the exceptional beauty of the two women, he couldn't help but sigh in his heart.

Either of the two, in terms of beauty, was not inferior to his daughter 'Winnie Romero'.

"Little Wyatt, where is Winnie? Didn't she come back with you?" Taoi Romero asked.

Upon hearing Taoi Romero mention 'Winnie,' a look of guilt emerged on Wyatt Barnes's face, "Uncle Romero, I'm sorry... I failed to take good care of Winnie."

"What happened to Winnie?!"

Seeing the look of guilt on Wyatt Barnes's face and his apology, Taoi Romero got a bad feeling and his face changed dramatically.

At the same time, the Origin Force surged on his red robe uncontrollably, transforming into a sword-shaped flame, emanating successive fierce auras, as if it could shatter everything.

"Don't worry, Uncle Romero, Winnie is alright," Wyatt Barnes quickly responded, noting that Taoi Romero had misunderstood.

Hearing that from Wyatt Barnes, Taoi Romero's expression eased, and the sword-shaped flame around him retracted, "Then what you meant just now was..."

"Uncle Romero, when I said I didn't take good care of Winnie, it's because..."

Wyatt Barnes interrupted Taoi Romero and recounted the subsequent events.

He concealed the fact that the 'Demon Sealing Monument' was a super sacred artifact well known on the 'Top Ten Sacred Artifact List' from Martial Dao Sacred Land, but apart from that, he omitted no details, sharing everything candidly.

For a moment, Taoi Romero also learned about Winnie Romero's experiences, knowing that she had been taken in by the forces of Martial Dao Sacred Land.

During this period, Wyatt Barnes also explained Martial Dao Sacred Land to Taoi Romero, causing him to be greatly shocked. He felt like a frog at the bottom of a well.

Learning that Winnie Romero was safe and sound, Taoi Romero breathed a sigh of relief.

"Uncle Romero, after some time, once I've taken care of the affairs in Cloud Skies Continent, I will head to the Martial Dao Sacred Land... then, I will look for Winnie as well," said Wyatt Barnes to Taoi Romero. "So, you can rest assured... I will definitely find Winnie."

Wyatt Barnes said the last part with resolve.

"Don't worry. As long as Winnie is alright, she will eventually come back to report her safety," said Taoi Romero.

Wyatt Barnes nodded.

"Eh? Uncle Romero, where is Erhu?" Wyatt Barnes looked around, didn't notice a sixth person present, and couldn't help but turn to ask Taoi Romero.

Erhu was the child from Fill Bear Village.

He was also the only one from Fill Bear Village who knew the 'secret' of this place.

"That lad Erhu is now out and about when he has nothing to do... Nowadays, not only in Green Forest Royal Country, but even within the region of the Emperor Stone Royal Country, he can already be counted as a significant figure," said Taoi Romero with a smile.

Chapter 1349: Invincible Below the 'Transcending Mortal Realm

The perception of Sword Dao contained within the character 'sword' captivated Keer, Jovie Lee, and Enzo Hawkins, immersing them in a state of fascination and deep absorption.

Above the canyon, a seemingly inconspicuous 'small tower' stood atop a branch of the luxuriant verdant trees.

This small tower was none other than Wyatt Barnes's 'Jewel Tower.'

Somehow, Wyatt, who had been cultivating on the first level of the Jewel Tower, awoke.

During this time, he was wholeheartedly comprehending the 'Fusion Mystery'... He tried looking at the 'sword' character in the canyon, but the scenes from before did not reappear.

The 'sword' character no longer extended obscure and complicated information into his mind, so he was unable to retain the Sword Dao perception from the 'sword' character.

"Could it be because I have already understood the 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Sword Mystery'? That's not right... According to Sword Saint Breezy Wind's message, if someone could fully comprehend the Sword Dao perception contained in the 'sword' character he engraved, they would be able to dominate the Martial Dao Sacred Land."

After persevering for a few days without discovering the reason, Wyatt had no choice but to give up and focused on comprehending the 'Fusion Mystery.'

In four months, Wyatt's 'Fusion Mystery' had made two breakthroughs.

The first time, he advanced from 'Level Eight Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery' to 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery.'

At the Nine-Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery, it is comparable to the ordinary Nine-Level Emperor Realm Mystery; once deployed, the strength is akin to the power of ten ancient dragons!

The second time, the Nine-Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery progressed further, breaking through to the 'First Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery.'

And the power had increased by a whole magnitude!

Comparable to the power of twenty ancient dragons.

"The 'First Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery' I have comprehended is ten times that of the ordinary 'First Level Emperor Realm Mystery'... once I comprehend the 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery,' it should also be ten times that of the ordinary 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Mystery'!"

An ordinary 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Mystery' is comparable to the power of ten ancient dragons... Wyatt's 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Sword Mystery' was exactly that.

Yet once Wyatt comprehends the 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery,' the power contained within it could be comparable to that of a hundred ancient dragons.

The power of one hundred ancient dragons...

What kind of concept is that?!

"Even for pinnacle Martial Emperor Realm experts wielding Emperor Grade spiritual weapons and exerting their full power... a strength comparable to sixty or seventy ancient dragons is already considered astounding."

Thinking of this, Wyatt's heart suddenly trembled.

"And I, once I comprehend the 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery'... using only the Fusion Mystery without any other powers, would be able to easily annihilate any peak Martial Emperor Realm beings."

With this thought, Wyatt's breathing became rapid.

To annihilate a full-powered, unrestrained peak Martial Emperor Realm expert with a single Mystery... just the thought of such a scene made even Wyatt himself feel a tingling in his scalp.

"However, I've only just comprehended the 'First Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery'... the 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery' is still far away."

Wyatt soon calmed down.

However, he did not remain calm for long as another thought crossed his mind, "If I use the 'Nine-Level Emperor Realm Fusion Mystery' and integrate it within my body to create 'Saint Veins'... the effect is bound to be even better!"

"I wonder how many Saint Veins I will be able to create when I break through to the Transcending Mortal Realm... It's really something to look forward to."

Wyatt still remembered what Julia once said to him.

According to Julia.

Martial Artists and Taoist Cultivators from the mortal continents possess much stronger foundations than the indigenous people in the Martial Dao Sacred Land... Their cultivation is the sediment of years, and once they break through the Transcending Mortal Realm, their torrential potential erupts uncontrollably.

"Four months?"

After inquiring with Elder Fire, and learning that he had been cultivating for four months, Wyatt was startled, "Has it been that long already? I wonder if Keer and Little Jovie have awakened..."

"Inside the Jewel Tower, four months correspond to two months outside."

Seeing Wyatt hastily stand up, Elder Fire, who was meditating close by, reminded him.

"I almost forgot."

Embarrassed, Wyatt smiled. He had remembered that time within the Jewel Tower differed from the outside world... two days inside equated to one day outside.

Thinking of the young girls, Wyatt's thoughts stirred, and he left the Jewel Tower.

Upon noticing that Keer, Jovie Lee, and Enzo Hawkins showed no signs of awakening soon, Wyatt shook his head, "Given their current state, it seems I need to wait a while longer."

Gazing down at the canyon for a moment and finding Taoi Romero engrossed in cultivation, Wyatt chose not to disturb him and returned to the 'Jewel Tower.'

"Elder Fire, wake me up in half a year."

Wyatt greeted Elder Fire and then sat down cross-legged, continuing his cultivation.

From his earlier observation, Wyatt could tell that it would take a while more for the two girls to awaken... and their awakening after a while would only be their initial awakening.

He had already told them.

After their first awakening, they should familiarize themselves with the benefits the 'sword' character brought to them, then they could start accumulating the Sword Dao perception from the 'sword' character in their minds.

And take their time to comprehend it in the future.

Just as he had done before.

Once their minds were filled with the Sword Dao perception deriving from the 'sword' character, he would take them away.

Enzo Hawkins was also informed beforehand.

Therefore, according to Wyatt Barnes's estimation, it would take at least several more months for the three of them to complete the two steps.

Wyatt Barnes was deeply immersed in cultivation, wholeheartedly devoted to the comprehension of 'merging mysteries'... In his hand, the 'Emperor Realm Nature Mystery fragments' were being rapidly depleted.

Every ten or fifteen days, an Emperor Realm Mystery fragment would crumble apart.

If someone were to witness this scene, they would surely feel pained and even curse Wyatt Barnes for being prodigal.

However, for Wyatt Barnes, all of this was nothing.

Back then, on Crescent Island, the original island master 'Emperor Yonah' used demonic techniques to extract the vital essence of eighty-five robust warriors, turning them into mummified corpses.

Among those eighty-five robust warriors, nearly half were Emperor Realm powerhouses who had nurtured 'Emperor Realm Mystery fragments'.

After their deaths, the Mystery fragments in their bodies all came into Wyatt Barnes's possession.

Thus, this kind of consumption was something that Wyatt Barnes could withstand.

For anyone else, it would likely be a headache.

The path to comprehending 'merging mysteries' was like a bottomless pit... Initially, an Emperor Realm Nature Mystery fragment would break every half a month, but later it became one every ten days.

Later on, one would break every seven or eight days, then five or six days.

Just when an 'Emperor Realm Nature Mystery fragment' began shattering every three days, Elder Fire woke Wyatt Barnes.

"Has half a year passed so quickly?"

Wyatt Barnes regained his senses, showing surprise... In his perception, it felt as though only a few days had gone by.

"Three months have passed on the outside."

Elder Fire reminded him.

"Three months should be about right."

Wyatt Barnes smiled and once again left the Jewel Tower... This time, after he left, he shrunk the Jewel Tower and tucked it into his ear before stepping into the void and descending.

His mood was very good.

After half a year of comprehension, his 'merging mysteries' had advanced two more steps... Now, he had successfully mastered the 'Triple Emperor Realm Merged Mysteries'.

"They're about to awaken."

Glancing at Keer, Jovie Lee, and Enzo Hawkins, as someone who had been through this, Wyatt Barnes could easily tell that their minds were close to being fully imbibed with the sword Dao comprehension originating from the character 'sword'.

Whoosh!

Wyatt Barnes stepped on the void, and a silent surge swept out, following which he shot up into the sky like a rocket.

Reaching an unknown height, a multicolored flame suddenly burst forth from Wyatt Barnes, emitting a majestic and vast aura... It was indeed the 'merged mysteries'!

As the multicolored flames rose, the power of heaven and earth above Wyatt Barnes's head stirred, producing rumbles like muffled thunder.

It didn't take long for 'heavenly and earthly phenomena' to take shape.

A total of forty ancient azure dragon phantoms coiled down, lifelike and majestic as they descended.

"With the strength I can display now... Even if I don't use Emperor Grade martial arts, I'm more than capable of easily defeating peak Martial Emperor Realm powerhouses who haven't cultivated Emperor Grade martial arts!"

Wyatt Barnes flashed a look of determination, murmuring to himself, "If I were to use Emperor Grade martial arts... Below the Transcending Mortal Realm, I am almost invincible!"

Regarding this, Wyatt Barnes was quite confident.

Of course, Wyatt Barnes was being conservative, merely stating 'almost' invincible.

In his view, unless it was a peak Martial Emperor Realm powerhouse who had cultivated the ultimate moves of 'Top-tier Emperor Grade martial arts' to a very high level... otherwise, none could be his match.

And such peak Martial Emperor Realm powerhouses were almost non-existent.

"What a magical world... No, it should be said, a magical planet! Only on the Cloud Skies Continent and its surrounding seas can the power of heaven and earth condense into 'heavenly and earthly phenomena'."

"Once you leave the surrounding areas of the Cloud Skies Continent and reach 'overseas', no matter how strong the force, it will not stir the power of heaven and earth to form 'heavenly and earthly phenomena'."

Wyatt Barnes sighed in admiration.

Not to mention anything else, just this aspect alone he found to be truly magical.

Just as Wyatt Barnes had expected.

A few days later, Keer, Jovie, and Enzo Hawkins woke up one after another.

Their strengths had improved, more or less.

At this time, Wyatt Barnes also prepared to take them away, back to the inland of the Cloud Skies Continent, back to the new location of the Heaven Fortin Sect... He had only heard about the new location from Julia and had not yet visited it himself.

"Uncle Romero, you should leave with us as well."

Wyatt Barnes called out to Taoi Romero, "In the coming time, I plan to relocate the 'Heaven Fortin Sect' to the overseas Holy Island, 'Crescent Island'... The cultivation environment there is much better."

Taoi Romero had heard of Wyatt Barnes's achievements in the inland of the Cloud Skies Continent and also knew that Crescent Island had a very good cultivation environment.

Thus, he agreed to leave with Wyatt Barnes.

"However, if I leave... who will guard this canyon? Erhu is also not here."

Taoi Romero asked.

Chapter 1350: Endless Supply of Materials

"There is no need for you to bother about this, Uncle Romero."

Wyatt Barnes said with a smile.

Under Taoi Romero's puzzled gaze, Wyatt Barnes, floating in the air above the canyon, arranged an 'Inscription Formation' that enveloped the entire canyon.

Now Wyatt Barnes, who has reached the 'Ninth Order of Martial Emperor Realm,' also has his spiritual power at the 'Ninth Order of Martial Emperor Realm'... And thus, the 'Inscription Formation' deployed by such spiritual power is naturally very strong.

Most importantly, Wyatt Barnes placed ten 'Holy Stones' as the power source for the Inscription Formation.

"Unless there are beings above the 'Seventh Order of Martial Emperor Realm'... no one else could possibly break through this Inscription Formation."

After setting up the inscription formation, Wyatt Barnes thought to himself.

What a joke!

This is an Inscription Formation laid out by him using ten 'Holy Stones'!

What are Holy Stones?

They are fantastic items that can help Martial Emperor powerhouses rapidly enhance their cultivation.

Similar to original stones, but incomparable to them.

Wyatt Barnes is so 'generous' not because he is now the Lord of Crescent Island and gets some high-quality Holy Stones from the top-grade original stone mines of Crescent Island every once in a while.

But because Karina Hanson gave him many Holy Stones.

According to Karina Hanson.

Holy Stones are quite common in the Martial Dao Sacred Land.

Of course, although they are common, they are not so easy to obtain... For instance, ordinary Martial Artists or Taoist Cultivators with no background at all, would find it extremely difficult to obtain a Holy Stone.

But with a powerful backing like Karina Hanson, she naturally has quite a few Holy Stones.

The Holy Stones Karina Hanson gave him amounted to thousands, all of better quality than what he originally had.

It was for this reason that Wyatt Barnes took out ten Holy Stones to set up the Inscription Formation without even blinking an eye...

In terms of his previous life on Earth, this was 'rich and whimsical'!

After setting up the Inscription Formation, Wyatt Barnes and his group left the canyon.

A group of four became a group of five.

Leaving the four to practice on their own, Wyatt Barnes led them forward, quickly leaving the Green Forest Kingdom and entering the Black Stone Empire... Continuing northwards, they entered the Great Turdo Dynasty.

Upon reaching the Great Turdo Dynasty, Wyatt Barnes made a trip to the Imperial City.

Originally, he wanted to see if Brian Graham was interested in leaving with him... But when he arrived at the Graham Family in the Imperial City, he was told that Brian Graham and his wife had already left the Imperial City last year.

"I wonder where Brother Graham went."

Wyatt Barnes sighed inwardly.

He had always been grateful to Brian Graham, not for anything else but for the life-saving grace back then.

That grace, even till now, he dared not forget.

"I can only wait till next time to see if I can meet Brother Graham... For now, it's a trip to the Blade and Sword Sect."

With a thought, Wyatt Barnes made a plan.

Blade and Sword Sect is a Third-Rate Power located south of the Northern Desert, and it's the Sect that his childhood friend, Walter Simmons, had joined.

He went to Blade and Sword Sect just for Walter Simmons.

However, upon arriving at Blade and Sword Sect, he learned that... right after he left, Walter Simmons had followed Sword Thirteen and left Blade and Sword Sect.

"Why didn't they come to find me?"

Thinking about the unpleasant experience at Blade and Sword Sect and the promise he made to Walter Simmons and his master before he left, Wyatt Barnes couldn't help but show a bitter smile.

Like Brian Graham, Walter Simmons and Sword Thirteen's whereabouts were unknown.

So, Wyatt Barnes could only take the four back to the Cloud Skies Continent's 'Inner Land'.

"I spent ten months inside the Jewel Tower... which amounted to five months outside. Adding other time, it has been a full half-year since I returned to Cloud Skies Continent."

After returning to the Inner Land, Wyatt Barnes thought, "Half a year... I wonder how they are doing with the materials I asked for."

The materials he asked for were all needed to repair the second layer of the Jewel Tower.

Mobilizing half of Cloud Skies Continent's humans and Demon Beasts to search for materials for half a year, Wyatt Barnes was very curious about their progress.

With Wyatt Barnes' speed, even taking six people with him, they quickly reached the new station of Heaven Fortin Sect.

He originally took four people with him.

However, while passing through the original station of Heaven Fortin Sect, he took the opportunity to bring Fill Bear and Kamari Gold along.

Fill Bear and Kamari Gold in the past did not want to leave because they wanted to wait for Wyatt Barnes to return... Now that Wyatt Barnes has returned, they naturally were willing to leave.

When Wyatt Barnes' party of seven returned to Heaven Fortin Sect, whether it was Karina Hanson or Little Gold, Little Black, and Little White, all had already returned from outside.

In half a year, they had long finished the tasks Wyatt Barnes initially entrusted to them.

Returning to Heaven Fortin Sect once again, looking around at the new surroundings, Wyatt Barnes' heart tightened, and after a long while, he couldn't help but sigh.

The new station of Heaven Fortin Sect, buried underneath is a rich top-grade original stone mine... Considering Cloud Skies Continent, this cultivating environment is already considered good.

Besides the residences of the two ancient clans of the Cloud Skies Continent, there is no third place that can compare to this.

Underneath the residences of the two ancient clans lie top-grade deposits of original stone.

"Sect Leader!!"

Not long after Wyatt Barnes returned, Karina Hanson immediately ordered the summoning of all high-ranking members and disciples stationed at the residence, to pay their respects to Wyatt Barnes, the true leader of the Heaven Fortin Sect.

She was only an 'acting Sect Leader'.

Now, with Wyatt Barnes's return, she returned the title of 'Heaven Fortin Sect' to Wyatt Barnes.

"Three Graham, Pearl Rowan... and you all, long time no see."

Wyatt Barnes looked at the familiar faces nearby and smiled... Apart from Three Graham and Pearl Rowan, the former Vice Sect Leaders, the familiar faces included Handmi Holland, Jadiel Gagnon, and the Brother Nangle, among others.

"Sect Leader."

Seeing Wyatt Barnes again, Three Graham and Pearl Rowan were somewhat excited.

Handmi Holland, Jadiel Gagnon, and others were no exception, all inexplicably thrilled.

Although they had already learned from the Brother Nangle that Wyatt Barnes was safe and sound, seeing Wyatt Barnes truly safe and sound still stirred up some excitement in their hearts.

Wyatt Barnes wasn't surprised that only a few familiar faces remained... because Karina had already mentioned this matter to him.

Back then, due to the arrival of 'Messiah Hanson' from the Hanson Tribe at the Heaven Fortin Sect, faced with Messiah Hanson's formidable power, the Heaven Fortin Sect was on the brink of annihilation... At that time, apart from these few familiar faces, everyone else had defected.

"You are Lucca Lee?"

Wyatt Barnes looked at the unfamiliar face next to Three Graham, guessing his identity.

Lucca Lee was the only person who had just joined the Heaven Fortin Sect shortly before its imminent collapse, yet did not defect.

He was also a friend of Three Graham.

"Sect Leader."

Seeing Wyatt Barnes initiating a greeting, Lucca Lee's face bloomed with joy, feeling that his decision was so wise.

Sometimes, not fearing death isn't necessarily a bad thing.

After giving a command for the high-ranking members and disciples of the Heaven Fortin Sect to disperse, Wyatt Barnes turned to Karina Hanson and asked, "Karina, how much of the materials I wanted have been found?"

"A lot."

Karina Hanson said with a smile, passing a Storage Ring to Wyatt Barnes, "Everything that has been handed over is inside... Now, whether they be humans or 'demons', almost everyone on the Cloud Skies Continent has turned the mainland upside down just to help you, brother Wyatt, find the materials."

"There will be many more materials coming."

Karina Hanson said in one breath.

Upon hearing this, Wyatt Barnes's eyes brightened.

As Wyatt Barnes had previously thought, on the Cloud Skies Continent, those who delivered materials most and most diligently were the Demon Beasts... they had a natural advantage in this aspect.

This pleased Wyatt Barnes.

After sending the materials in his hand into the 'Jewel Tower' to Elder Fire, Wyatt Barnes left the Heaven Fortin Sect to meet the 'Savage Demon Emperor'.

"This is what you deserve."

Wyatt Barnes handed a Holy Stone to the Savage Demon Emperor.

"As long as you're not a flash in the pan, and as long as those demon beasts continue to gather more materials... I will continue to give you the rewards you deserve at my discretion."

Before leaving, Wyatt Barnes meaningfully said this to the Savage Demon Emperor.

The eyes of the Savage Demon Emperor brightened upon hearing this.

Clutching the Holy Stone tightly, he then began to issue orders to his direct disciples... continuing to mobilize the Demon Beasts of the Cloud Skies Continent's mainland to search for all kinds of materials required by Wyatt Barnes.

For this, he even promised.

Any Demon Beast that handed over a substantial amount of materials, regardless of their cultivation level, had the chance to become his 'disciple.'

Although it's only to become the lowest-ranking 'disciple' under the Savage Demon Emperor, there were still countless demon beasts driven mad by it... Gradually, not only the mainland but also the Demon Beasts of the Outer Lands began a craze for searching for the materials needed by Wyatt Barnes.

In addition to finding many materials on the side of the Demon Beasts... the human martial artists also found quite a few.

In the following days, Wyatt Barnes stayed inside the 'Jewel Tower,' earnestly comprehending the 'Fusion Mystery'... the Fusion Mystery was improving every moment.

By his side, Keer and Jovie Lee sat on either side, adding a few notes of tranquility to the atmosphere.

A few days ago, in order to rapidly enhance the strength of the two girls, he revealed the 'mysteries' of the Jewel Tower to them and took them inside the Jewel Tower.

To them, the Jewel Tower was simply too astonishing.

They were not like Wyatt Barnes.

In his previous life, Wyatt Barnes had already heard various versions of ancient mythological legends and knew about the existence of the 'Jewel Tower,' a great treasure of the immortals... Thus, when he first heard about the capabilities of the Jewel Tower, he quickly calmed down.

"Once Keer and Jovie's cultivation improves further, and once the second layer of the Jewel Tower is repaired... I'll take them to the 'Martial Dao Sacred Land' together."

Wyatt Barnes had this plan in mind, which was also why he brought the two girls into the Jewel Tower for cultivation.

While the two girls were cultivating, apart from comprehending the 'Fusion Mystery,' Wyatt Barnes spent the rest of the time transporting materials... continuously delivering an endless stream of materials into the Jewel Tower, to Elder Fire.
