

L. Wyatt 591

Chapter 591: Three-eyed Flame Tiger

Hearing the Origin Force condensed sounds of the two little pythons, Wyatt Barnes chuckled to himself.

These two little fellows indeed won't admit defeat in front of Little Gold.

Recalling the content of Little Black's childish Origin Force condensed sound just now, Barnes felt a flutter in his heart.

"When we peep into the Void Realm, we will be able to communicate with Sister Julia using the Origin Force condensed sound."

These were the original words of Little Black.

Out of curiosity, Wyatt Barnes extended his mental power, sweeping over the two little pythons.

However, at this moment, Wyatt Barnes discovered something.

Before his mental power could touch the two pythons...

a mysterious force, beyond comprehension, extended from the intricate patterns on their bodies, blocking his mental power.

His mental power was unable to touch the bodies of the two pythons, let alone examine their cultivation levels.

And Wyatt Barnes quickly discovered something else.

The two little pythons seemed completely unaware of the power extending from the complex patterns on their bodies.

One could tell from their reactions.

"The golden patterns on Little Black, and the silver patterns on Little White... I found them extraordinary from the start. Now, they can extend a mysterious power that can resist my mental power!"

Wyatt Barnes shuddered inwardly, shocked.

"You two little fellows, what are your cultivation levels now? Who's stronger?"

Wyatt Barnes asked curiously.

"Brother, I'm stronger, I'm stronger!"

The childish voice of Little Black arrived in Wyatt's ears first, "Brother, I've reached the 'Entry Void Realm Third Layer'... Little White is only at the 'Entry Void Realm Second Layer', it's not as strong as I am."

However, Little White kept its head drooped, not responding.

Wyatt Barnes hurriedly consoled, "Alright, Little White... your talent is no less than Little Black's, you're sure to catch up to him soon."

Upon hearing these words, Little White lifted its head, gently rubbing against Wyatt Barnes' hand, "Brother, I will try my best! I will definitely surpass Little Black."

Listening to Little White's pledge, Wyatt Barnes' gaze turned complex.

He was aware early on that Little Black and Little White would achieve extraordinary feats under Julia's care.

But he hadn't expected that the two little creatures had already broken through to the 'Entry Void Realm', and even reached the second and third layers of the realm.

Completely leaving Little Gold in the dust.

"Little Gold, where on earth are you now?"

He couldn't help but worry about Little Gold.

"Wyatt Barnes, aren't you going to make your selection? There isn't much time left."

Suddenly, Walter Simmons approached Wyatt Barnes and reminded him, who was still playing with the snakes.

"Is there a time limit?"

Wyatt Barnes was taken aback.

"Prince Yakim said earlier that he's giving us half an hour."

Simmons added.

Wyatt Barnes nodded and started circling the treasury.

"What kind of treasury is this, it's all junk... I'm not going to bother picking!"

Just then, Karina Hanson's voice resounded abruptly, causing Wyatt Barnes not to help but smile wryly.

This little ancestor's background was extraordinary. It was even likely that she belonged to a powerful force from 'outside the territory'.

It made sense that she would disdain the items in the Blackstone Empire's treasury.

Everybody else, including Walter Simmons, felt their mouths twitch unwillingly.

Trash?

None of them had the opportunity to select a second artifact.

This girl was given the right to take whatever and as much as she wanted by Prince Yakim, but she was disgusted and didn't even want a single object?

"Comparing with others can really kill any joy you have left!"

The group of young talents couldn't help sighing.

Upon hearing the girl's words, Prince Yakim couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief.

He had been apprehensive when he made that promise, fearing that she would empty the entire treasury.

Now, the girl was repulsed by every item in the treasury. Despite his mixed feelings, Yakim couldn't help but feel a touch of exuberance.

At the same time, he became even more aware of the unusual nature of the girl.

On the other side, Wyatt Barnes searched the treasury but didn't find anything he particularly wanted.

In the end, he chose a type of artifact refining material.

This refining material could be used to make a 'Third Grade Spiritual Artifact'.

The reason he chose it was due to the lack of options and it could be kept on hand just in case.

The half-hour quickly passed by.

Wyatt Barnes and the others each selected an artifact and followed Prince Yakim, leaving the palace that served as the treasury.

"Leandro's Brother, are you heading to the 'Great Turdo Dynasty' next?"

Karina Hanson, walking by Wyatt Barnes, asked like a curious baby.

Wyatt Barnes looked at Karina Hanson, his gaze entirely different than before.

Who knew if this was a real 'Maiden of the Heavenly Mountain'?

The thought of possibly being addressed as 'brother' by the Maiden of the Heavenly Mountain made Wyatt Barnes' scalp tingle, his flesh crawling.

"That... You'll have to ask Prince Yakim about that."

Wyatt Barnes took a deep breath and replied.

Suddenly, Karina Hanson turned towards Prince Yakim, "Uncle Red Mole, when are you going to the 'Great Turdo Dynasty'?"

"Miss, are you planning to go with us?"

Faced with the yellow-dressed girl, Prince Yakim felt a sense of helplessness, but he still managed to squeeze out a smile.

"Yes, wherever Brother Leandro goes, I'll follow!"

Karina Hanson nodded vigorously, extremely excited.

"We're leaving right now."

Prince Yakim sighed as he realized he couldn't get rid of the girl.

Simultaneously, the look he gave Wyatt Barnes was filled with even more astonishment.

He was very curious about how Wyatt Barnes met this fearsome girl.

"Wyatt Barnes, who is she?"

Wyatt Barnes received Walter Simmon's Origin Force Sound Transmission.

He knew that the 'she' Walter Simmons asked about was exactly Karina Hanson.

"I don't know that either."

Wyatt Barnes replied using Origin Force Sound Transmission, his tone tainted with a slight bitterness.

"You don't know? But she called you her brother?"

Walter Simmons was somewhat speechless.

"I met her years ago.... Based on my judgment, her identity is quite complex, she probably comes from the 'outside territory'!"

Wyatt Barnes replied through Origin Force Sound Transmission.

"Outside territory?"

Walter Simmons's pupils shrunk and then he transmitted the Origin Force sound, "No wonder why Prince Yakim is so courteous to her...it seems, she must have disclosed her identity to Prince Yakim, or perhaps Prince Yakim has figured out her identity."

"Maybe."

Wyatt Barnes nodded.

Wyatt Barnes's party of ten acquired an additional member, Karina Hanson, following behind Prince Yakim and two old men, they stepped into thin air.

"Over there!"

Prince Yakim lead the two old men and the party of eleven including Wyatt Barnes, towards the east.

In a moment, they left the royal palace and the Imperial City.

Ahead, a towering, mountainous figure appeared.

At this moment, Prince Yakim stopped.

And Wyatt Barnes and the others also halted.

Just as Wyatt Barnes and the rest were confused about why Prince Yakim had brought them here...

Boom!

The towering mountain in front of them trembled and swayed before their eyes.

And at that moment.

Swoosh!

A humongous figure soared into the sky, and in a blink of an eye, stood among the clouds, approaching Wyatt Barnes and the others.

Roar!

A Demon Beast, big as a mountain, appeared before Wyatt Barnes and the others, it roared towards the sky, emitting a deafening roar.

The clouds in the sky were shaken away by its sound wave.

Among Wyatt Barnes's party members, including Kase Dragonsmith, several warriors of the Eighth Level Peep Naught Realm, couldn't help but change their expressions slightly.

Obviously, they were affected by the Demon Beast's roar.

Now, Wyatt Barnes could see clearly.

The Demon Beast in front was a tiger-like beast, its body as big as a mountain, from afar, it looked like a tiger with a mountainous spine, its body was wrapped in flame-like fur.

"This Demon Beast..."

Out of curiosity, Wyatt Barnes's mental force extended out intending to probe this Demon Beast.

At this moment, a transmission of Origin Force came following his mental force, "You're quite strong, kid. For a mere Seventh-Order Peep Naught Realm, you could resist my sound wave containing Origin Force."

Meanwhile, Wyatt Barnes's mental force was destroyed completely.

"Is that...the third eye?"

Detailed-observing Wyatt Barnes quickly figured out.

A slit suddenly opened between the eyes of this massive demon beast, a pair of alien eyes appeared in his sight.

And in a blink of an eye, this pair of eyes closed again.

"Three eyes...can see through my cultivation level with one glance..."

Wyatt Barnes drew in a breath of cold air. The memories of the Martial Emperor of reincarnation flashed through his mind as he attempted to figure out the details of this Demon Beast.

Soon, he found the answer.

According to the memory of the Martial Emperor of reincarnation.

It should be the...

"Three-eyed Flame Tiger?"

Before Wyatt Barnes had fully thought it through, he heard the mildly surprised voice of Karina Hanson.

"Karina could recognize it?"

Wyatt Barnes was surprised.

Just now, he had found the record about the 'Three-eyed Flame Tiger' in the memory of the Martial Emperor of reincarnation.

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger is a powerful Demon Beast.

An adult Three-eyed Flame Tiger might even seize the opportunity to reach the 'Cave Void Realm'...

It is king among many Demon Beasts ranked under 'monster'.

"Three-eyed Flame Tiger, the third eye, as long as it's open, can see through the cultivation level of any man or Demon Beast that has a lower cultivation than itself...just now, it used its third eye to probe my cultivation."

All the doubts in Wyatt Barnes's mind disappeared.

"Sadly..."

Karina Hanson looked at the distant Three-eyed Flame Tiger, like a little adult, picking faults in her judgment, "your bloodline is impure, in this lifetime you won't be able to exceed the 'Ninth Level of Enter Void Realm'...further progress will be difficult."

Karina Hanson's words enraged the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

"Roar!"

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger shook its hill-sized head, a pair of gigantic pupils, which looked like raging flames, stared tightly at Karina Hanson.

"What? Big guy, are you angry?"

Karina Hanson chuckled, seeming to not take the massive being in front of her seriously.

"Roar!"

Suddenly, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger was totally enraged, it roared and charged forward.

At this very moment, Wyatt Barnes felt a wave of heated breath coming towards him, causing him to not avoid changing his facial expression.

The other young talents also changed their expressions one after another, including the most powerful one, Kabir Inky.

At this moment, a force of gentle giant strength came over and shoved Wyatt Barnes and the others aside.

It was Prince Yakim who did it.

Wyatt Barnes felt a sensation similar to Teng Yun, when he regained his senses, he saw Karina Hanson facing the Three-eyed Flame Tiger alone from his first glance.

Chapter 592: Little Witch

"Julia!"

Facing such a perilous scene, Wyatt's face changed drastically, and he couldn't help but yell out in shock.

He simply didn't have time to wonder why Prince Yakim didn't take Karina Hanson out of the way like everyone else.

Off in the distance, Karina, faced with the Three-eyed Flame Tiger approaching like a ball of fire, remained unfazed.

Right at this moment.

Above the swiftly advancing Three-eyed Flame Tiger, twelve ancient Horned Dragon phantoms appeared, revealing its cultivation level.

Enter Void Realm Level Nine!

Not only that, as Origin Force vibrated throughout the Three-eyed Flame Tiger's body, the nearly solid red energy perfectly merged with its Origin Force, burning like a flame.

At this moment, eight more ancient Horned Dragon phantoms materialised in the void above.

"Level Eight Fire Realm!"

Wyatt's pupils contracted.

Had this Three-eyed Flame Tiger, aside from being a Level Nine Demon Beast, also comprehended the 'Level Eight Fire Realm'?

"Roar!!"

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger lunged towards Karina. Its body, massive as a mountain, was on a completely different scale compared to Karina's.

Compared with the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, Karina seemed like an ant in comparison to a human.

"Did Prince Yakim intentionally leave her behind?"

At this moment, a similar thought arose in the minds of all ten of the outstanding young men, including Wyatt.

They couldn't understand why Prince Yakim had saved them but left the young woman behind.

The next scene, however, left Wyatt completely stunned, "What..."

Now, not only Wyatt, but everyone else except Prince Yakim had their eyes wide open, staring blankly.

God!

What did they just see?

They saw Karina, facing the Three-eyed Flame Tiger carrying the power of twenty ancient Horned Dragons, raise her hand calmly.

Then, everyone clearly saw as Karina gently jumped up. Her wrist, white as jade, protruded out from her sleeves, moving casually to meet the surging onslaught of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

"Roar!!"

With a deafening roar, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger opened its gigantic mouth, intending to swallow Karina whole.

But at that moment...

Karina made her move.

Her lithe figure narrowly dodged the Three-eyed Flame Tiger's cavernous mouth.

Then, she positioned herself at the forehead of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

Whoosh!

The slender jade hand of hers formed a palm that pressed down on the forehead of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

At this moment...

Origin Force materialised within her palm. coalescing into a vortex that spun, causing bouts of wind that swept out in all directions.

In that instant, Wyatt and the others felt gusts of wind sweeping over them, blowing away their robes as they managed to barely stand in mid-air, protected by their Origin Force.

"Such a powerful Origin Force!"

Wyatt's pupils could not help but contract, his heart filled with an inexplicable shock.

Such powerful Origin Force was clearly beyond the 'Enter Void Realm.'

Cave Void Realm?

Wyatt's heart skipped a beat as he looked up, intending to distinguish how many ancient Horned Dragon phantoms had materialised above Karina.

Regrettably, the chilling sensation birthed from the gusts of wind forced him to close his eyes involuntarily in the very next moment.

When Wyatt squinted and managed to look ahead, he saw...

This chilling sensation was also coming from the vortex of Origin Force spinning rapidly in Karina's hand...

Now, terrible waves of icy cold breath were emanating from the vortex of Origin Force.

The air around Karina seemed to have been frozen to the point of almost being still.

"Big guy, I know you Three-eyed Flame Tigers despise 'water' and 'ice' the most... I'll let you have a taste of being frozen to a popsicle," said Karina out of the blue – her voice melodious and sweet, yet chilling everyone's spines at this moment.

Frozen to a popsicle?

Wyatt and the others skipped a beat as...

Karina's palm came down on the Flame Tiger's forehead.

In an instant, a terrifying hurricane swept out, mixed with an extremely cold air...

Meanwhile, the clouds and mist in the horizon were still.

They were completely frozen by the icy coldness.

Wyatt and company simply could not see how many ancient Horned Dragon phantoms had materialised above Karina.

When those clouds and mist started to billow again, Karina and the Three-eyed Flame Tiger came back into everyone's sight.

However, what they saw left everyone, including Prince Yakim, stunned.

"It's truly frozen into a popsicle..."

Looking ahead, Wyatt murmured to himself.

Where Wyatt looked, at a distance, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger was frozen in its tracks.

And now, a thick layer of frost had frozen the Three-eyed Flame Tiger inside, turning it into an extraordinarily unique ice sculpture.

Within the ice sculpture, they vaguely saw the Origin Force throughout the Three-eyed Flame Tiger steadily diminished.

As for the Level Eight Fire Realm within its Origin Force, it had been thoroughly shattered with not a single shred left.

Now, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger was rigid in mid-air, its body slowly descending.

Just then.

Whoosh!

A swift figure instantly moved underneath the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, levitating it in mid-air.

To prevent the Three-eyed Flame Tiger from plummeting.

Otherwise, given the current height where the Flame Tiger was, once it fell, it would surely shatter into countless pieces, along with the ice that has frozen it.

Of course, it was Prince Yakim who saved the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

Prince Yakim ironically looked at a young girl in yellow clothes in the distance.

The seemingly harmless girl, in Prince Yakim's eyes, was equivalent to a devil, "Miss... Miss Julia, this 'Three-eyed Flame Tiger' did not intend to trouble you. Please show mercy."

Prince Yakim's tone was mixed with helplessness.

"Hmmp!"

Karina Hanson held up her head, glanced at the frozen Three-eyed Flame Tiger with indifference, and said faintly: "It's its own fault for wanting to eat me... Uncle Red Mole, if you want to save it, feel free to do so. I won't stop you."

Towards the end, a mischievous smile appeared in Karina Hanson's eyes.

As though she had some cunning plan.

Prince Yakim's face fell, and sighed, "Miss Julia, please stop joking... you used the Origin Force in combination with the 'Ice Realm' to freeze it, causing it to blend into the ice. If I forced my way through the ice, it would surely die."

Karina Hanson's face paused, somewhat surprised, "Uncle Red Mole, I didn't expect you to understand this... Uncle Red Mole, where did you learn this from? As far as I know, the Ice Realm is quite rare."

Seeing Julia steering the conversation, Prince Yakim was at his wits' end. He looked at a young man in purple clothes in the distance for help and said using sound transmission:

"Wyatt Barnes, I beg you to persuade Miss Julia to spare the Three-eyed Flame Tiger... This Three-eyed Flame Tiger is a guardian Demon Beast for our Black Stone Empire's Imperial Family. It holds great significance for our Black Stone Empire."

"Miss Julia's Ice Realm is far too powerful... With the Flame Tiger's strength, it would undoubtedly die within half an hour at most!"

Towards the end, Prince Yakim's voice trembled slightly.

The Ice Realm!

Wyatt Barnes took a sharp intake of breath.

He never would have imagined that Julia had comprehended such a terrifying 'realm'.

The Ice Realm can be said to be the 'upgraded version' of the Water Realm and is superior to many Natural Realms.

There had been an old saying passed down since ancient times:

Ice is made of water, and it's colder than water.

This follows the same principle as 'green comes from blue, but surpasses blue'.

"Julia..."

Wyatt Barnes looked to Karina Hanson.

"Brother Leandro, don't worry."

Before Wyatt could finish speaking, Karina cut him off, having obviously guessed what Wyatt was going to say.

A mischievous smile twinkled even more in those beautiful eyes, "I won't kill this big guy... It was defiant just now, right? So, I'll just freeze it for a quarter of an hour to let it sober up. Let's see if it dares continue being defiant!"

Her tone held a childlike playfulness.

Just a quarter of an hour?

Upon hearing this, Wyatt froze, sympathetically glancing at the Three-eyed Flame Tiger transformed into an icicle.

This big guy, why would it provoke this little witch?

Simply asking for trouble!

Regardless, Wyatt was still astounded

He never thought that Julia would be so powerful...

Earlier, because the clouds in the sky were frozen by Julia's 'Ice Realm', neither he nor anyone else saw how many replicas of the ancient Horned Dragon formed by the power of heaven and earth appeared when Julia made her move.

Despite this, Wyatt was still able to confirm that

Julia's power must be above the third Void Realm - the Cave Void Realm.

Moreover, not just any ordinary Cave Void Realm.

This was apparent from Prince Yakim's 'attitude' when he is in front of Julia.

From the start, he observed Prince Yakim being especially cautious of Julia.

At that time, he thought it was because Julia revealed her background that Prince Yakim acted in such a way.

Now it seems, that's not the case.

"Perhaps, when Julia reached out to pat Prince Yakim's shoulder earlier in front of the 'treasury' of the Black Stone Empire Imperial Palace, she displayed her terrifying strength in front of Prince Yakim..."

Wyatt Barnes had a thought and theorized secretly.

"Could it be... is Julia really like the Maiden of Heavenly Mountain?"

Wyatt Barnes took a look at Karina Hanson and felt a chill down his spine.

Of course, this is just Wyatt's thoughts and he didn't voice them out.

He didn't want to end up like the Three-eyed Flame Tiger - turned into an icicle.

Moreover, this was just Wyatt's wild guess with no real basis.

If Julia really was like the 'Maiden of Heavenly Mountain', how could she be willing to call a greenhorn like him 'big brother'?

All of his thoughts were not feasible when faced with reality.

"Maybe, over the past few years, due to some reasons, Julia's appearance hasn't changed..."

Wyatt quietly speculated.

"However, this large popsicle really is a rarity in this world..."

Returning to his senses, as he looked at the Three-eyed Flame Tiger frozen solid by the ice, Wyatt couldn't help feeling amazed.

"A quarter of an hour?"

Prince Yakim looked up at the Three-eyed Flame Tiger and laughed bitterly.

At that moment, the eyes of everyone present, including the two old men following behind Prince Yakim, were filled with fear and horror when they looked at Karina Hanson.

They couldn't have imagined that this harmless-looking fifteen or sixteen-year-old girl held such a terrifying level of cultivation.

Moreover, she's an untouchable 'little witch'!

Chapter 593: Peep Naught Realm Nine Levels!

"Wyatt Barnes, who is he acquainted with all these formidable figures?"

Walter Simmons glanced at Wyatt, shaking his head, deeply moved.

He had thought that being able to meet his master was a great encounter, something others could only envy.

But Wyatt was even more overstated.

A fifteen or sixteen-year-old girl he met, was a being of 'Cave Void Realm' or above.

If encounters were to be compared.

He's got a more extraordinary one.

"Hiss hiss~~"

Two small pythons prodded their heads out from Wyatt's sleeve edge, their eyes constantly rolling, spitting out snake tongues.

They seemed to be cheering for the girl's act.

A quarter of an hour, for Wyatt and others, passed in a blink of an eye.

But for the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, it was undeniably a great torment.

Though, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger was now frozen and unable to move.

But Wyatt and others still saw a hint of fear flickering in its big, round eyes...

"Miss Julia, a quarter of an hour is up."

A quarter of an hour later, Prince Yakim, who was still carrying the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, looked at Karina Hanson with a helpless wry smile on his face.

He believed.

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger had probably never suffered such a 'punishment' before in its life.

However, he also believed that even if the Three-eyed Flame Tiger was subjected to this punishment, it dared not show any dissatisfaction towards the girl.

This girl simply was not a being the Three-eyed Flame Tiger could deal with.

"Big guy, you remember... from now on, you only have to nod to what I say! If you dare to question me again, beware of me freezing you into a popsicle again."

Karina Hanson glared at the Three-eyed Flame Tiger frozen in the ice. She then made a motion.

Smack!

She just snapped her fingers.

In that instant, the cold ice that imprisoned the Three-eyed Flame Tiger shattered into pieces and turned into mist, dispersing completely between heaven and earth.

"Roar~~"

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger, after escaping from the trap, its mountain-like body started to tremble slightly.

Its pair of eyes looking at Karina Hanson, glinted slightly and then showed fear from its heart.

Now the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, in front of Karina Hanson, was obedient like a little kitten.

Seeing this scene, Wyatt and others sighed in amazement.

In this world where the strong are respected, the powerful can dominate everything.

This Three-eyed Flame Tiger, at first, got angry because of Julia's words, and wanted to swallow her up to prove its majesty.

As a result, it ended up being tortured by her.

Now, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger has been tormented into complete submission, not daring to show any dissatisfaction to Karina Hanson anymore, only fear from the bottom of its heart.

"Everyone, get on the back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, we will set off to Great Turdo Dynasty!"

At this moment, Prince Yakim's words echoed in everyone's ears.

"So Prince Yakim brought us here just to have the Three-eyed Flame Tiger carry us to the Great Turdo Dynasty."

"The Three-eyed Flame Tiger was originally just called by Prince Yakim for transportation... who knew it would encounter this little witch. Speaking of which, it's really unlucky."

"Yeah, this little witch, whoever messes with her is unlucky!"

"Really envious of Wyatt, able to have a relationship with this little witch."

...

The young talents were discussing spiritedly.

By this time, everyone was moving to get on the back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

The body of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger was as huge as a mountain, its back was very spacious, enough to accommodate many people.

"The back of this Three-eyed Flame Tiger... it is as big as a football field."

As Wyatt looked around, he was amazed at the flat space on the back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

"Wyatt."

Karina Hanson was closely following Wyatt, while playing with two small pythons poking out from under Wyatt's sleeve and greeting Wyatt.

At this moment, the look in Wyatt's eyes as he looked towards Karina Hanson was very complex.

Back then, he felt that Karina Hanson was not simple.

But he didn't think much of it.

Who knew that Karina Hanson would have such terrifying strength.

"If Julia is really just over twenty years old and has this cultivation... then her background..."

Wyatt found it hard to imagine.

"Julia."

Wyatt looked at Karina Hanson, and asked uncertainly with his origin force: "How... how old are you this year?"

Upon hearing Wyatt's question, Karina Hanson swung her lively eyes and then replied with origin force: "Twenty-one."

Twenty-one?

Wyatt was stunned.

It took him a moment to react, and he couldn't help but ask: "Then why have you always looked this way... when I first met you, you looked just like you do now. Your appearance has never changed."

Upon hearing this, Karina tossed her little head, looked somewhat helpless, and said: "Wyatt, actually, I don't want this either... but the technique I practice is just like this, I can't help it."

"Only when my cultivation reaches a certain level can I break this 'shackles' of the juvenile face and grow like normal people."

The technique?

Wyatt had a sudden realization.

If all this was due to the influence of the technique, then it made sense.

Of course, if it were other people, they might find it absurd.

Just a technique that can keep a person looking young for years?

Only Wyatt Barnes knew that the capabilities of some of the cultivation techniques are beyond ordinary people's imagination.

Don't speak of the distant ones, let's just talk about the 'Reincarnated Martial Emperor'.

The 'Reincarnated Martial Emperor' cultivated the 'Three Life Reincarnation Secret', which enabled the same soul to live through three lifetimes...

To ordinary people, this is completely unimaginable - a thing that is beyond belief.

But it truly exists.

If there were no accidents, the third lifetime of the 'Reincarnated Martial Emperor' would probably have already begun.

If that were so, there wouldn't be the Wyatt Barnes there is now.

"I see."

Wyatt Barnes breathed a sigh of relief. He finally confirmed that Karina wasn't the 'old witch' or the 'Maiden of Heavenly Mountain'.

"Karina, can you tell me your background?"

Wyatt Barnes asked curiously.

His heart felt like there were thousands of ants crawling inside it. Curiosity about Karina's background stirred within him.

"Hehe... Wyatt, you will know about it naturally in the future. Even if I tell you now, you might not understand."

Karina's answer was ambiguous.

Tell me, but I might not know?

Hearing Karina's answer, Wyatt Barnes didn't object.

You should know that he is not the 'frog at the bottom of the well' that Karina sees.

Perhaps, in Karina's eyes, he was just a 'country bumpkin' who had never left the Great Turdo Dynasty, or a 'naive youngster' who had never been to the outside territory.

However, in fact, he had the memories of two lifetimes of a mighty Martial Emperor.

"That little Karina, trying to keep things mysterious from me ... Perhaps, her background is significantly related to the 'Reincarnated Martial Emperor'."

Wyatt Barnes thought to himself.

According to the 'Reincarnated Martial Emperor's' memories of two lifetimes, during his peak, he had many dealings with the top powers in the Cloud Skies Continent.

In Wyatt Barnes' view, Karina might have come from one of those powers.

Interestingly enough.

Among the top powers, one was led by people with the last name Hanson.

"The Ancient Hanson Tribe!"

According to the Reincarnated Martial Emperor's memory, the 'Hanson Tribe' was one of the oldest clans in the Cloud Skies Continent.

It has stood the test of time.

Only two clans in the Cloud Skies Continent could trace their history back to ancient times...

These two clans have lasted until today, and they are known as 'Ancient tribes'.

The Hanson tribe is one of them.

Remembering this, Wyatt Barnes was sure in his heart and did not question Karina any further.

Just like what Karina said.

If he could become a 'Martial Emperor' or even a 'Martial Emperor' in the future, he would definitely have dealings with several top powers in the Cloud Skies Continent.

Then, whether Karina is a person from that ancient 'Hanson Tribe' or not, he would be able to find out with a simple inquiry.

"Let's go!"

Suddenly, Wyatt Barnes heard Prince Yakim's shouting in his ear.

He saw Prince Yakim instructing the Three-eyed Flame Tiger beneath his feet to leave, but the Three-eyed Flame Tiger stood still and did not move at all.

As if it had frozen solid.

This left the group of young talents somewhat speechless, "Does this Three-eyed Flame Tiger still think it's frozen and can't move?"

"Karina."

Seeing that Prince Yakim's face was getting worse, Wyatt Barnes looked at Karina.

Karina understood his intent and nodded. She then lightly stomped her foot onto the back of the huge Three-eyed Flame Tiger and softly ordered, "Big guy, move! Or else, I'll freeze you again..."

Before the word 'again' was spoken.

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger, as if pumped with chicken blood, suddenly darted out, heading straight towards the Great Turdo Dynasty.

This made everyone present sigh in admiration.

Especially Prince Yakim, a bright light flashed in his eyes.

At this moment, Prince Yakim was even planning to give the Three-eyed Flame Tiger a good lesson when they returned, making it fear him just as much as it feared Karina.

That way, he wouldn't have to worry about the Three-eyed Flame Tiger disobeying him anymore.

You can imagine.

If the Three-eyed Flame Tiger knew about Prince Yakim's thoughts, it would probably faint from fright.

"Karina, accompany Little Black and Little White for a while, I want to cultivate for some time."

After handing the two small pythons to Karina, Wyatt Barnes sat down with his legs crossed and began to cultivate in silence.

'Nine Dragons War Sovereign', Thunder Flood Dragon Transformation!

While cultivating, Wyatt Barnes did not forget to mobilize the 'Soul-melding Fruit' medicinal power within his body, which he combined with the power of the 'Might Void Pill', to enhance his cultivation quickly.

It has to be said, the medicinal power of the Soul-melding Fruit was astonishing.

Seven days later, Wyatt Barnes successfully broke through the bottleneck and entered the 'Level Eight of the Peep Naught Realm'...

Half a month later, he successfully stepped into the 'Level Nine of the Peep Naught Realm'!

At this time, the medicinal power of the Soul-melding Fruit was almost exhausted.

"Peep Naught Realm Level Nine!"

A drastic transformation in his cultivation level in just half a month, made Wyatt Barnes quite satisfied.

When Wyatt Barnes woke up, he temporarily stopped cultivating.

Instead, he began to look around him.

He just realized that almost everyone else was sitting cross-legged and cultivating on the spacious back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger. Even Prince Yakim and the old man beside him were no exception.

Only Karina was hopping around, playing chase with the two little pythons.

Surely enough, she didn't seem like a 'twenty-one-year-old' at all, just like her current appearance suggested.

Chapter 594: Dynasty Capital City

"Now, I have advanced to the 'Peep Naught Realm Nine Layer' and am only one step away from the 'Enter Void Realm'... I should also contact the owners of the other eight Jade Swords," Wyatt Barnes said.

At some point, Wyatt took out a crystal-clear jade sword from his Storage Ring.

This jade sword was the key to the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury', left behind by the Junior Sect Master of the Endless Sect.

Just by its name, one could tell the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury' was a 'treasure trove' left behind by a powerful Martial Emperor.

What's more, it was left by a sword cultivator Martial Emperor.

Without any hesitation, Wyatt, like three years ago, began mobilizing the Origin Force in his hand and activated the 'Voice Transmission Inscription' within the jade sword.

Just then, Wyatt heard an ancient voice, "After three years, you finally reappear... Three years ago, I heard about you from that fellow in the Blackstone Empire."

"Are you... the owner of another Jade Sword?"

Wyatt asked.

"Yes."

The ancient voice, transmitted through the Voice Transmission Inscription, entered Wyatt's ears, crystal clear.

"Where are you from?"

Wyatt asked curiously.

"I am from the Mingfeng Empire."

The ancient voice replied lightly.

"Mingfeng Empire?"

Wyatt hesitated.

"It's not strange that you haven't heard of it... The Mingfeng Empire is far from the Blackstone Empire and does not belong to the 'Great Turdo Dynasty,'" the ancient voice continued.

Last time I heard from that fellow that you will wait until your strength is sufficient, then invite us together to open the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury'?"

"This time, you took the initiative to contact us. Are you ready?"

The ancient voice towards the end became somewhat excited.

It makes sense when you think about it.

Having the key to the Sword Emperor's Treasury laying in his hand for years, now it can finally come into play. This undoubtedly (seeing firsthand) was an exciting thing.

Even looking at all the dynasties, including the Great Turdo Dynasty, or even the 'outside territory', countless warriors would covet the Sword Emperor's Treasury.

Of course, if you don't have the Jade Sword, you might never find the location of the Sword Emperor's Treasury.

Furthermore, even if you have a Jade Sword, without all nine, it's still impossible.

Only when you collect all Nine Jade Swords, can you be guided by the Jade Swords to the location of the Sword Emperor's Treasury and open it.

"Yes," Wyatt replied.

"Good."

The owner of the ancient voice excitedly said, "Let's set a time and place... I'll take responsibility for contacting the other seven people. We'll gather at the appointed place, how about it?"

"Okay," Wyatt readily agreed. "When do you think we should meet and where?"

The owner of the ancient voice suggested, "I roughly know their location... So, let's meet at 'Chicken Ridge' north of the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire three months from now. How about that?"

"Eastern Mulberry Empire? Okay."

"That's settled then. See you in three months," Wyatt agreed.

Wyatt had heard of the Eastern Mulberry Empire.

It was a neighboring empire to the Blackstone Empire, located to the east of the Blackstone Empire. One could reach the 'Eastern Mulberry Empire' by crossing the eastern border of the Blackstone Empire.

"See you in three months," echoed the owner of the ancient voice.

At that moment, Wyatt withdrew the Origin Force he had poured into the 'Voice Transmission Inscription', severing the connection with the other party.

As he was about to put away the jade sword in his hand, suddenly...

Whoosh!

A swift gust of wind whistled past.

In the next instant, the jade sword in Wyatt's hand was snatched away.

Wyatt's face changed suddenly, but when he saw that the person taking his Jade Sword was 'Karina Hanson', he let out a sigh of relief.

"Hmm... Wyatt, this jade sword of yours doesn't look simple," Karina said, blinking her mischievous eyes, glancing at the sword in her hand, then at Wyatt, with a meaningful expression.

"It's just a little trinket, nothing special," Wyatt said with a slight shake of his head, extending his hand to snatch the Jade Sword back from Karina's hand.

Surprisingly, Karina evaded his grab, "Wyatt, you're lying... Would a 'little trinket' have inscriptions? And it's a 'Voice Transmission Inscription' at that."

As she spoke, Karina's eyes were full of cunning as she looked at Wyatt.

"Karina... you can tell there's a 'Voice Transmission Inscription' on it?"

Wyatt hesitated, somewhat taken aback.

For a moment, Karina seemed even more mysterious in his eyes.

"Hehe... I've seen these inscriptions before," Karina giggled.

Wyatt realized.

If Karina truly were from the ancient tribe, the Hanson Tribe, it wouldn't be surprising for her to recognize the 'Voice Transmission Inscription' on the Jade Sword.

The Hanson Tribe does not lack inscription masters, let alone 'Voice Transmission Inscriptions'.

Karina's mischievous eyes continued to turn, a smile playing on her lips as she looked at Wyatt, making it clear that if Wyatt didn't tell her, she wouldn't hand over the Jade Sword.

"Karina..."

Wyatt Barnes forced a smile and then, using his Origin Force to amplify his voice, revealed the origins of the Jade Sword to Karina Hanson.

"The Sword Emperor's Treasury?"

After learning the origins of the Jade Sword, Karina Hanson's quirky eyes twinkled brightly, clearly intrigued by the Sword Emperor's Treasury.

"Brother Wyatt, you're so mean... Are you thinking of leaving me and Little Black, Little White, and heading off on your own to that fun place?"

After returning the Jade Sword to Wyatt Barnes, Karina Hanson spoke in a somewhat disgruntled tone.

A fun place?

Wyatt's lips twitched, and he gave an awkward smile, neither denying nor affirming it.

Even so, the thought had indeed crossed his mind.

"Brother Wyatt, I want to go with you."

Karina Hanson's tone was adamant, leaving absolutely no room for negotiation.

"If you want to go, then we'll go together."

Wyatt Barnes did not refuse.

In his view,

Karina Hanson was a being above even the 'Cave Void Realm', a top-tier powerhouse even within the Great Turdo Dynasty...

If she were to accompany him, his journey to the Sword Emperor's Treasury might become much more relaxed.

It goes without saying, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, a Level Nine Demon Beast of the Enter Void Realm, moved at an astonishing speed.

In just a month's time, it crossed the Imperial City of the Blackstone Empire and the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty, arriving above their destination.

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger stood in mid-air, motionless, as if a gigantic mountain was suspended in the sky.

Atop this towering mountain, a group of people stood in a line, looking down at the vast land below.

"This...this is the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty?"

A handsome youth couldn't help but mutter in awe.

Before them now was a city so vast it dwarfed even the sum of several Blackstone Empire's Imperial Cities.

"This really is the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty! It's definitely the largest city I've ever seen in my life!"

Daniel Chapman exclaimed.

"Indeed, standing in front of the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty, I feel like a 'frog in a well'."

Yorick Price said, gently shaking the folding fan in his hand, his gaze complex.

"Wait until you truly see the young warriors of the Great Turdo Dynasty, only then will you understand what it means to be a 'frog in a well'!"

Prince Yakim said in a low voice, "On my knowledge, many in the Great Turdo Dynasty are no less powerful than Kabir Inky... You all are here for the 'Ten Dynasties Martial Arts Competition' qualifications, but I only have confidence in Kabir."

"Of course, it's not that I'm underestimating your talents... Among you all, Wyatt Barnes and Walter Simmons possess talents that are not inferior to Kabir's. It's just a pity that they are too young! If given more time, they might catch up with Kabir."

Upon saying this, Prince Yakim looked at Wyatt Barnes and Walter Simmons, as if consoling them.

For a moment, most of the gazes in the venue fell on Wyatt Barnes and Walter Simmons.

Prince Yakim's words were reasonable, and most of them agreed.

Of course, there were also those who disagreed.

That person was 'Kase Dragonsmith'!

At this moment, Kase Dragonsmith had a discontented expression.

It seemed like he was indignant because Prince Yakim had not mentioned him.

Wyatt Barnes and Walter Simmons exchanged glances upon hearing Prince Yakim's words.

"Wyatt Barnes, it seems Prince Yakim doesn't favor us."

Walter Simmons used his Origin Force to speak to Wyatt Barnes.

"Then let's prove his judgement wrong with our actions."

Wyatt Barnes shrugged his shoulders, looking completely unconcerned as he replied.

"That's my plan too!"

A confident expression appeared on Walter Simmons' face.

"Let's go there!"

Soon, Prince Yakim gave orders, and spurred the Three-eyed Flame Tiger to fly towards the continuous mountain range to the west of the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty.

The mountain range stretched as far as the eye could see.

After Prince Yakim found a spacious canyon in the mountains for the Three-eyed Flame Tiger to rest, he instructed, "From today onwards, stay here... Once the 'Dynasty Martial Competition' is over, I will bring those who are eliminated here to find you, and we will go back to the Blackstone Empire together."

"Roar~~"

The gigantic body of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger blurted a loud roar, lying down in the canyon, and nodded at Prince Yakim.

It didn't forget to glance at the young girl in yellow dress standing on its side, its gaze showing traces of fear deep within its soul.

"Let's go!"

After settling the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, Prince Yakim and the two elders behind him, together with Wyatt Barnes and others, headed straight for the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty.

The feeling of looking down at the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty from the sky, and then standing outside and looking up at it, was completely different.

"Impressive!"

Wyatt Barnes was awed by the sight of the city that resembled a giant beast.

The entire city exerted an old, vicissitudinous atmosphere. It was as if it was narrating its long history of existence.

"The Great Turdo Dynasty has existed for such a long time that it can't be traced."

Prince Yakim sighed and said, "When our Blackstone Empire and even other empires in the Great Turdo Dynasty hadn't been birthed yet, the Great Turdo Dynasty had already existed."

"The gold checks and bank checks that we use often actually originated from the Great Turdo Dynasty... Regardless of how empires and kingdoms change, as long as the Great Turdo Dynasty exists, the gold and bank checks will never lose their value."

Speaking till here, Prince Yakim looked solemn.

The existence of even the 'Cave Void Realm', when faced with the history of the Great Turdo Dynasty, couldn't help but feel respect from the bottom of its heart.

As the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty, there were strict guards. Not everyone could enter the city as they pleased.

At the main gate of the Capital City, there were two teams of armored guards, registering those who wanted to enter.

Chapter 595: Roaming the Peep Naught Realm

The Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty, not only was the entrance of the city heavily guarded, even the sky above the city had many patrols lined up, swiftly moving past.

The guards in the sky hovered watchfully over the horizon in all four directions, ready to rush out at the slightest hint of trouble.

These sky guards had the ability to fly, suggesting that they were beings of at least the 'Peep Naught Realm'.

This filled Wyatt Barnes with an unfathomable sense of awe.

"This is the foundation of the dynasty... Even the guards who patrol the sky of the Capital are beings above the Peep Naught Realm!"

Wyatt sighed in his heart.

At that moment, he couldn't help but think of his hometown, the Crimson Heaven Kingdom.

In the Crimson Heaven Kingdom, there were only a few martial artists in the entire country who had reached the Peep Naught Realm.

Yet here in the Great Turdo Dynasty, even the gatekeepers and patrolling guards were martial artists of the Peep Naught Realm.

The disparity between the two places was like heaven and earth.

"If the Great Turdo Dynasty could be compared to the most prosperous metropolis on the ancient Earth... Then, the Crimson Heaven Kingdom would be the equivalent of those poor, remote places where it's even difficult to find a proper road."

Such a thought suddenly popped into Wyatt's mind.

Not only Wyatt, but even others like Kabir Inky, were awestruck by these aerial guards despite being surprised by their number.

"So many Peep Naught Realm martial artists are merely the patrol guards of the capital of the Great Turdo Dynasty?"

Daniel Chapman's pupils contracted in surprise.

"No wonder it's said that in the Great Turdo Dynasty, people who reach the Enter Void Realm are as common as dogs, and those who reach the Peep Naught Realm can be found everywhere... I initially thought it was an exaggeration, but now it seems that the statement couldn't be more accurate."

Yorick Price, folding his folding fan, sighed.

Among the crowd, only Karina Hanson, Prince Yakim, Walter Simmons, and Kase Dragonsmith could remain calm.

The composed expressions of the four were clearly seen by Wyatt.

He wasn't surprised at Karina's calmness.

After all, she was someone from the 'outside territory'.

He wasn't surprised at Prince Yakim either.

As the strongest person in the Blackstone Empire, Prince Yakim had undoubtedly visited the Great Turdo Dynasty many times in the past.

However, the calmness of Walter Simmons and Kase Dragonsmith did surprise him.

"Walter, have you been to the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty before?"

Wyatt couldn't help but use his Origin Force to ask Walter Simmons.

"Yes."

Walter responded, "I have been here with my master... As far as I know, Kase should have also visited with my Uncle Master Blade."

Wyatt suddenly understood and it has made sense now.

"Prince Yakim."

At that moment, Daniel Chapman turned to Prince Yakim and asked curiously: "So far, I haven't seen anyone entering or leaving the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty from the sky... Could it be that nobody is allowed to come or go through the air in this Capital City?"

"Sort of."

Prince Yakim nodded.

"Sort of?"

The words from Prince Yakim caused confusion among many people, including Wyatt.

Prince Yakim continued: "In the Great Turdo Dynasty's Capital City, nobody besides the Imperial Family is permitted to pass through the skies."

Wyatt and the others quickly understood.

As the ruling power of the Great Turdo Dynasty, the Imperial Family had undoubtedly embraced imperialism.

Of course, Wyatt believed that if a person who could easily dismiss the Imperial Family of the Great Turdo Dynasty wanted to enter or exit the Capital City via the sky, they would be free to do so.

Facing such a powerful figure, the Imperial Family would probably not dare to utter a peep.

In this world where the powerful are respected, this was just the way things were.

"Let's go!"

Under Prince Yakim's lead, Wyatt and the others started walking towards the main entrance of the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty.

Under the leadership of Prince Yakim, Wyatt and his company went to register their entrance.

"Blackstone Empire, Prince Yakim?"

The guard in charge of their registration looked at Prince Yakim with a surprised expression on his face. After the registration, he handed over fourteen tokens to Prince Yakim.

Each of them received a token, to be used for entering and exiting the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty.

Once they had registered, for the next three years, they could enter or exit the Capital City by simply showing their tokens. There would be no need for any additional registrations.

Under Prince Yakim's lead, Wyatt and others stepped into the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty.

A complex network of crowded roads filled their eyes and left Wyatt and the others dazed.

Being the capital of the Great Turdo Dynasty, the city was bustling and prosperous.

On the main roads, carriages and pedestrians move in a continuous stream.

"Leandro Brother, when are we setting off? There are only two and a half months left until the date you agreed upon with the other owners of the Jade Sword."

Karina's words sounded timely in Wyatt's ears, making him smile a bitter smile.

This girl Julia seemed to have more interest in the 'Sword Emperor Treasure House' than he does.

Of course, he could see it.

Julia was merely looking for a fun time, and wanted to join in the excitement.

"As soon as we get settled, we can go...Is that okay?"

Wyatt responded a little helplessly.

Upon hearing that, Karina's eyes sparkled. She nodded her head, satisfied.

"Let's go for a meal first, then we'll head to a mansion the Blackstone Imperial Family purchased here in the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty."

Prince Yakim informed Wyatt and the others.

No one raised objections.

That the Blackstone Imperial Family owned a mansion in the Capital City of the Great Turdo Dynasty did not come as a surprise to Wyatt and the others.

Under the leadership of Prince Yakim, they casually found a restaurant. After eating.

Wyatt Barnes and his group followed behind Prince Yakim, reaching the residence the Imperial Family of the Black Rock Empire purchased in the capital city of the Great Turdo Dynasty.

The residence was immense, divided into a front and back courtyard.

"The back courtyard has one hundred and eight independent small courtyards... During this time, you will reside in the back courtyard's 'east court', which has twenty independent small courtyards."

After Prince Yakim led Wyatt Barnes and his group to the back courtyard and gave a quick instruction, he left with two elders by his side.

Meanwhile, Wyatt Barnes and his group began to allocate the small courtyards of the east court.

However, none of them rushed to take any courtyard first.

Besides Wyatt, all eyes were hesitantly directed at the yellow-robed young girl by Wyatt's side.

"Julia, you pick first."

Seeing this scene, Wyatt was well aware of the group's thoughts and spoke to Karina Hanson.

"Wyatt, I want to live next to you... I think those two courtyards over there are quite nice, they are close together, shall we stay there?"

Karina's gaze fell on the two connected courtyards in the distance.

The two small courtyards, located in the eastern part of the back courtyard, were surrounded by a variety of plants and trees, which gave off a very secluded and tranquil vibe.

"I don't mind."

Wyatt Barnes shrugged.

In his mind.

No matter which small courtyard they chose, he wouldn't be staying there for long.

He was about to leave with Karina and head to the 'Wild Chicken Ridge' in the Eastern Mulberry Empire to meet up with the other holders of the Jade Sword.

After that, they would proceed to the 'Imperial Sword Treasury'.

By the time they emerged, a significant amount of time would have certainly passed.

"I just hope I can make it back before the 'Dynastic Martial Competition' begins."

In fact, Wyatt Barnes had no confidence that he would be able to return before the 'Dynastic Martial Competition'.

After all, everything within the 'Imperial Sword Treasury' was unknown to him.

Of course, he could choose not to visit the 'Imperial Sword Treasury' at this point.

However, by doing so, he will not have the slightest bit of confidence that he would come out on top in the 'Dynastic Martial Competition', thereby securing a place in the 'Ten Dynasties Martial Meet'.

Just as Prince Yakim said earlier.

There are many talents in the Great Turdo Dynasty who are as strong as 'Kabir Inky'.

If he didn't have any special fortune before the 'Dynastic Martial Competition'.

He was not confident that he could offer a stand-out performance and win a place in the 'Ten Dynasties Martial Meet'.

Although his innate talent has reached its limit after ingesting the Ten Thousand Year Stone Milk, he is still much younger than those nearly forty-year-old talents.

Aged-wise, he is at a marked disadvantage.

He can only compensate through 'Fortune'.

To him, both the 'Imperial Sword Treasury' and the 'Nirvana Pill' can be considered as his blessings.

Right now, he is creating that fortune for himself!

As for what could be obtained from the Imperial Sword Treasury, he had no idea and could only rely on his luck.

As for the Nirvana Pill, he could imagine the benefits it could bring him but he hadn't found the last ingredient - the 'Everlasting Root'.

Therefore, Wyatt Barnes sets his hopes on the 'Imperial Sword Treasury'.

"I hope the Imperial Sword Treasury won't let me down."

Wyatt Barnes muttered.

After Wyatt Barnes and Karina each entered a courtyard, others like Walter Simmons began selecting their own courtyards and settled down.

Normally, they have their meals delivered to them, hence most of them spent their time in the rooms of their courtyards, dedicated to their quiet cultivation without leaving their abodes.

On the third day.

Wyatt Barnes and Karina reached out to Prince Yakim together, Wyatt Barnes cut straight to the chase, "Prince Yakim, I plan to leave the capital city for a while."

"You must return before the Dynastic Martial Competition begins."

Prince Yakim, seeing Karina by Wyatt Barnes' side, didn't ask further questions and immediately agreed.

"Hmm."

Wyatt Barnes uttered in acknowledgement, soon after he and Karina left the mansion together.

"Hiss~~"

At this moment, two small pythons poked their heads out from Wyatt Barnes' sleeves, their eyes filled with a bit of excitement.

They also knew the purpose of Wyatt Barnes' trip.

The two of them are equally interested in the 'Imperial Sword Treasury'.

Two people and two snakes left the capital city of the Great Turdo Dynasty.

"Julia, should we find a Demon Beast for travel?"

Wyatt Barnes looked at Karina, and asked.

"Wyatt, you're so silly...why would we need to go find another Demon Beast."

Karina shook her head, then took the lead and headed straight towards the continuous mountain range to the west.

Wyatt Barnes, as if realizing something, had a strange gleam in his eyes, "I almost forgot...the Giant Woodland Tiger might not listen to me, but it obeys Julia's orders without question."

In the canyon of the continuous mountain range, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger was lying there, ready to have a lazy day.

It was already tired from traveling at full speed.

Especially thinking about how it could get away from that 'little witch', its mood was rather good.

Fwoosh!

Suddenly, a Fierce Beast mistakenly entered the canyon.

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger opened its mouth, roared lowly, and a terrifying suction force rolled out, swallowing the Fierce Beast into its stomach.

After belching contentedly, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger closed its eyes in satisfaction, "Finally, I can take a good nap..."

But at that moment.

"Big guy!"

A melodious voice, like that of a golden oriole, vibrated through the air, causing the large body of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger to tremble.

For a moment.

The entire canyon was trembling along with its body's violent shaking.

Chapter 596: Guilty of Huai Wall

Disregarding the alarming tremors echoing through the gorge, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger raised its head to look at the figure descending from the sky, its huge eyes rounded in shock.

Why has she returned?

I am doomed!

The thoughts boomed in the mind of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

"Big lug, I didn't expect you to miss me so much that my arrival excites you."

The young girl in yellow landed gracefully, standing on the broad back of the Flame Tiger, her eyes twinkling mischievously as she spoke with a slight smile.

Instantly, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger's body stiffened, not daring to shake even a tiny bit.

It didn't want to anger this lady.

If she became displeased and once again used the 'Ice Realm' to trap it in ice, the tiger wouldn't know who to turn to for help.

From beginning to end, Wyatt had been quietly observing the actions of the Flame Tiger.

"This poor thing, is now completely terrified of Julia."

Wyatt couldn't help but to sigh.

"Wyatt, quickly join us."

Julia, standing atop the Flame Tiger, beckoned Wyatt.

Whoosh, whoosh.

Wyatt was still in the air, from underneath his sleeve, two figures, one black and one white, streaked out and landed on the Flame Tiger's back.

They were the two little pythons.

The two nimble pets, now beat him in their descent. Wyatt let out an instinctive sigh.

Previously, their level of cultivation had already surpassed his.

It had been many years since, and despite his adventures, he still couldn't catch up with these two little ones.

"Hopefully, after emerging from the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure Vault', I can finally surpass these two."

Wyatt spoke inwardly while silently cultivating.

The Nine Dragons War Sovereign, Thunder Flood Dragon Transformation!

A month passed by quickly.

At this point, Wyatt had completely exhausted the power of the 'Melting Void Fruit' and his cultivation was approaching the final bottleneck of the Peep Naught Realm.

This was the last bottleneck of the Peep Naught Realm.

As long as Wyatt grasped one 'realm' and broke through this bottleneck, he would officially reach the 'Enter Void Realm', and his power would undergo a monumental transformation.

"In at most a month, I will reach the final bottleneck of the Peep Naught Realm... At that time, what I need to do is to comprehend the 'Wind Realm' or 'Thunder Realm', and step into the 'Enter Void Realm' in one fell swoop!"

Wyatt pledged silently, an intense gaze in his eyes.

"Brother Wyatt, we have reached the Blackstone Empire."

At this point, the voice of Julia, sweet as an oriole, came floating over.

"Julia."

Wyatt suddenly remembered something, "Let this big fellow head to the northeast of the Blackstone Empire... I need to retrieve something."

"Brother Wyatt, what are you going there to take?"

Julia asked curiously.

"I'm not sure yet."

Wyatt shook his head.

Heard Wyatt's words, Julia became even more curious, instructing the Three-eyed Flame Tiger to head northeast of the Blackstone Empire.

"Brother Wyatt, where exactly are you going?"

Julia couldn't help but ask.

"Summer City."

Wyatt slowly answered.

Summer City, well known, it was the place Wyatt had visited before the 'Contest of Young Talents' of the Blackstone Empire had started. He had visited the place on his way to the Great Turdo Dynasty.

It was in the 'Treasure Pavilion' of Summer City, that he had issued a bounty task.

A Level Four spirit sword was offered as a reward for the 'Everlasting Root'.

Initially, his bounty had failed in the Treasure Pavilion at the city of Tkames River City in the Great Turdo Dynasty. On his return, he had not claimed the Level Four spirit sword placed as bounty in Summer City.

He had always thought that perhaps after some time, someone would find the 'Everlasting Root'.

"Now, I don't know if anyone has found 'Everlasting Root'. If not, I'm afraid the Blackstone Empire doesn't have much hope."

Wyatt mourned internally.

Now, he only hoped when he arrived at the Treasure Pavilion in Summer City, what he would retrieve was not the Level Four spirit sword, but the 'Everlasting Root'.

If he could get the 'Everlasting Root', he would give even ten Level Four spirit swords without hesitation.

The speed of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger was extreme, and it quickly reached the surroundings of Summer City.

"Big fellow, just wait for Julia and me here."

Wyatt looked at the Three-eyed Flame Tiger and said.

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger arrogantly raised its head and didn't pay attention to Wyatt.

"Big lug, do you want to be an icicle again?"

Just then, Julia's devilish voice echoed, causing the Flame Tiger to shudder involuntarily, its gigantic head swaying from side to side.

"Since you don't want to, from now on, you will do whatever my brother Wyatt tells you... Did you hear me?"

Julia continued.

At this point, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger could only nod its huge head, not daring to show any resentment.

Wyatt shook his head and smiled, taking Julia and the two little pythons with him as he landed.

Upon entering Summer City, Wyatt and Julia headed straight for the 'Treasure Pavilion'.

"Wow! What a beautiful young lady...Lady, you shouldn't be following this pretty boy, follow me and I'll make sure you live a life of luxury."

Suddenly, a frivolous voice rang out.

On the side of the road, a bald man reeking of alcohol launched himself towards Karina Hanson, his face was filled with a depraved smile.

"Seeking death!"

Wyatt Barnes' face turned grim, ready to take action.

Whoosh!

A whistling sound resounded, Wyatt only saw a black lightning streak past.

Shortly after, the bald man was still midair when his chest detonated, continuously gushing out dazzling and bewitching blood.

The bald man's pupils dilated, his legs stiffened, and he fell straight to the ground, completely silenced.

He's dead!

Whoosh!

The black lightning reappeared, this time landing on Karina's shoulder, revealing its form.

It was Little Black Snake.

"Hiss hiss~~"

Little Black Snake shook its little head triumphantly, flicking about its snake tongue while looking at Karina, as if it was seeking praise.

"Little Black is such a good boy."

Karina Hanson wasn't surprised at all by Little Black Snake's swift action of killing the bald man. She gently stroked Little Black Snake's small head with a face full of adoration.

At this moment, the surrounding people were all looking at this human-snake pair with horror, rushing to keep their distance.

They were deeply scared of provoking these two troublemakers.

Wyatt Barnes gave the bald man's corpse a casual glance, then raised his head to continue walking forward.

Summer City, as usual, was chaotic.

However, due to the bald man's death, Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson became existences that no one dared to provoke easily.

They smoothly arrived at the 'Treasure Pavilion'.

After entering the Treasure Pavilion and climbing up to the second floor, he arrived at the familiar counter. Wyatt Barnes took out half of a jade pendant and handed it to the middle-aged man behind the counter, "I previously offered a Grade Four spirit sword as a bounty for the 'Everlasting Root', has the bounty been claimed?"

The middle-aged man was the same one from before. Hearing Wyatt Barnes' words, he came back to his senses and recognized Wyatt, "Guest, the item you want has not been claimed...Do you wish to continue the bounty, or take back the spirit sword?"

"Take back the spirit sword."

Wyatt Barnes said.

He no longer held any hope of finding the 'Everlasting Root' in the Black Stone Empire.

"Okay."

The middle-aged man took out an exquisite long box from under the counter. Opening it revealed a spirit sword lying quietly inside...

It was the 'Grade Four Spirit Sword' Wyatt Barnes had deposited!

The middle-aged man combined the half jade pendant that Wyatt handed over with the other half in the box, then nodded, "Correct. Guest, this is your bounty item."

With that, the middle-aged man handed the spirit sword to Wyatt Barnes.

Wyatt Barnes took the spirit sword and put it directly into his Storage Ring.

"Guest, aren't you going to check it first?"

The middle-aged man couldn't help but be taken aback at Wyatt's decisive action.

This young man wasn't afraid that the spirit sword was no longer the 'Grade Four Spirit Sword' he had left behind, was he?

One must know that the outward appearance of spirit swords is easily forged.

"No need!"

Wyatt Barnes shook his head and turned to leave the Treasure Pavilion with Karina.

What a joke!

Leaving aside the fact that his spiritual power was enough to directly discern the depth of the spirit sword,

Even if he hadn't used his spiritual power to examine it today, he confirmed as soon as his hand touched the spirit sword.

The spirit sword was indeed the 'Grade Four Spirit Sword' he had casually forged.

After leaving the Treasure Pavilion, Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson had a meal together before leaving Summer City.

Just after leaving the city gates, Karina used her Origin Force to send a sound transmission to Wyatt Barnes, "Brother Wyatt, someone is following us..."

"Hmm."

Wyatt Barnes nodded.

He had noticed long ago.

From the moment he left the Treasure Pavilion, he had noticed that someone was secretly tracking him and Karina.

That person's cultivation level was quite profound.

He was at the 'Enter Void Realm Level Eight'.

"Innocent men might get into trouble because of their possessions. This saying is absolutely correct,"

Wyatt Barnes sighed.

"Brother Wyatt you mean, the person following us is after the 'Grade Four Spirit Sword' we just retrieved from the Treasure Pavilion?"

Karina asked.

"That's the only possibility."

Wyatt Barnes nodded, his eyes flashing, "Moreover, the identity of the other party must be significant.... Possibly even the Pavilion Master of the Treasure Pavilion!"

An existence at the 'Enter Void Realm Level Eight'.

In Summer City, the only person Wyatt could associate this with was the 'Pavilion Master' of the Treasure Pavilion.

As for others, it was unlikely they would have such cultivation.

Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson had just left the city gate not long ago.

Whoosh!

A biting wind swept through, in an instant it arrived at a short distance in front of Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson.

An aged figure appeared before them.

This was an old man, robust in build, with a goat-like beard, and a pair of eyes flashing with greed.

"Pavilion Master of the Treasure Pavilion?"

Although Wyatt Barnes had made a guess, he still asked to confirm.

"You are very smart, to have guessed my identity."

The old man with the goat-like beard, looked deeply at Wyatt Barnes, "However, smart people usually don't live long."

Chapter 597: Ice Realm

"Really?"

Upon hearing the old man's words, Wyatt Barnes retorted with laughter instead of anger.

Seeing the murderous intent in the old man's eyes escalating, Wyatt responded, "Treasure Pavilion, after all, is an infamous industry within the scope of the Great Turdo Dynasty, I did not expect it to produce such a disgrace like you... The reputation of the Treasure Pavilion, sooner or later, will be tarnished by degenerates like you."

"Haha..."

The old man burst into mocking laughter, his face distorted, "As long as I kill you all, who would know that I did it? Who would link your deaths to the Treasure Pavilion?"

"Young man, if there's anyone to blame, it's yourself for not understanding the principle of keeping wealth under wraps... A fourth-rank spiritual artifact isn't something for you to possess!"

The old man spoke with a tone of warning towards the end.

"I don't deserve to possess it, but you do?"

Wyatt Barnes glanced at the old man dismissively and sneered, "Do you really think that everything is under your control now?"

Seeing how composed Wyatt Barnes was, the old man's expression changed slightly as he glanced around.

After ensuring there was no movement in the surroundings, the old man sneered, "Young man, stop trying to mystify! Today, you, this little girl, and the two snake-like demon beasts by your side, all of you must die."

Clearly, the old man had observed Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson's journey all along.

Even the presence of the two small pythons did not escape his notice.

"Then let's see if you're up to the task."

Wyatt took a relaxed sidelong glance at the old man and then looked at Karina Hanson who was standing beside him, "Julia, I'll leave this old fellow to you."

"Don't worry, Brother Wyatt."

Julia nodded, looked at the old man, and said disdainfully with a melodious voice that was filled with coldness, "The thing I hate the most is disreputable old things like you!"

"You little girl is courting death!"

Upon listening to Karina Hanson's words, the old man was furious, his Origin Force fluctuated wildly as he stepped forward, ready to take action.

Above his head, the power of heaven and earth also stirred. Shadows of ancient horned dragons began to form.

Unfortunately, in the next moment, everything turned to dust and disappeared into thin air.

Whoosh!

A chilly gust of wind blew past. The old man, frozen in his forward-stepping posture, was paralyzed on the spot.

Around his body, a thick layer of frost was encasing him, freezing him completely.

For a moment, the old man had been turned into an ice sculpture.

It was subtle, but it could be seen that the fear that was once gleaming in the old man's eyes was now replaced with sheer terror...

Fear that originated from the heart, fear from the depths his soul!

"Running into Julia, he can only count himself unlucky."

Wyatt Barnes thought quietly to himself.

However, Wyatt was still shocked.

Just a moment ago, his eyes were focused on Julia from the beginning to the end, hoping to discern her cultivation level...

Regrettably, before he had time to identify how many ancient Horned Dragon shadows had been conjured above her, the shadows had completely vanished into thin air.

The old man had been put on ice.

"Brother Wyatt, I'm going to look for Big Head... you're in charge of him."

Karina Hanson gave Wyatt Barnes a brilliant smile, and then she stepped into the air, disappearing into the high altitude.

Wyatt Barnes could only shake his head and smile helplessly.

He could see it.

Julia was too lazy to kill the old man...

"Being lazy to this extent, can be considered a realm in itself."

Wyatt Barnes sighed inwardly.

Coming back to his senses, Wyatt's eyes fell on the ice sculpture in front of him and he walked towards it step by step.

Wyatt Barnes' gaze met with the old man's shrunken eyes.

At this moment, the old man's Origin Force had been suppressed, he was completely unable to form a sound wave with his Origin Force to communicate with Wyatt Barnes.

The only thing he could do now was to plead with Wyatt Barnes with his eyes.

"I want you to know... that smart people not necessarily die young."

Wyatt Barnes stood in front of the ice sculpture, showed a sunny and brilliant smile at the old man frozen within, and said.

The next moment.

Whoosh!

Wyatt raised his hand and lightly reached toward the ice sculpture that contained the old man.

Pop!

With a casual slap from Wyatt, the ice sculpture splintered into pieces, and so too did the old man trapped inside.

Boom!

The ice sculpture shattered into a pile of ice, falling at Wyatt's feet.

Looking at the ice shards scattered all over the ground, not stained with a drop of blood, Wyatt couldn't help but sigh, "I once heard a saying... murder can also be an art."

"Today, I've witnessed it."

Wyatt Barnes extracted the old man's Storage Ring from the ice shards, "Fortunately it is not damaged..."

Wyatt placed the ice shards sealing the Storage Ring in his palm.

The fourth rank red flame ignited!

Soon, Wyatt became dumbfounded.

Because he discovered that the shards of ice, and even the Storage Ring within, had been melted by his flame.

The Storage Ring clearly became a part of the ice shards.

"Julia's 'Ice Realm' is too domineering, isn't it? If I knew, I would have given her the ice shard to extract the Storage Ring... Now, both the Storage Ring and ice shard have melted."

Wyatt Barnes felt a pang of regret.

The Storage Ring belonged to the Pavilion Master of Summer City's Treasure Pavilion and certainly contained many good things.

But now, with the disappearance of the Storage Ring, everything inside was gone.

Sighing, Wyatt rose into the air and returned to the back of the Three-Eyed Flame Tiger.

Looking at the harmless-looking girl playing with two small pythons on the side, an inexplicable chill rose in his heart.

"Big guy, head to the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire."

Wyatt commanded the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

This time, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger did not hesitate, nodded obediently, and flew to the east.

As the national demon beast of the Black Stone Empire, it naturally knew the location of the neighboring Eastern Mulberry Empire.

As for Wyatt Barnes, he sat down cross-legged.

He wasn't cultivating, but searching through the memories of the Reincarnation Martial Emperor...

"Ice Realm!"

Now, Wyatt Barnes was trying to understand the Ice Realm from the memories of the Reincarnation Martial Emperor.

As time passed, he gained some understanding of the 'Ice Realm'.

Aside from the power contained within the Ice Realm, its exclusive attribute 'Freeze' was also extremely domineering.

The methods Julia used to freeze the Three-eyed Flame Tiger and the old man were related to the 'Freeze' attribute of the Ice Realm!

Martial artists who comprehend the Ice Realm need only use their Origin Force to activate the Ice Realm and they can freeze a person or demon beast.

Of course, they can only freeze beings of lower cultivation than theirs.

If the cultivation level is the same or higher than theirs, even if they freeze it, it will easily break free.

Once a person of lower cultivation is 'frozen'.

Only a person of equivalent cultivation or higher can unfreeze them.

If a person with lower cultivation rashly intervenes, they might only end up harming the person or demon beast that has been frozen.

"It seems that Julia's cultivation level is higher than Prince Yakim! Back then, even Prince Yakim didn't dare to rashly unfreeze the frozen Three-eyed Flame Tiger."

Knowing all this, Wyatt Barnes couldn't help but sigh.

He also had a profound understanding of the 'Ice Realm'.

The Ice Realm is an odd species among natural realms, not only domineering but also able to easily combat multiple opponents...

Of course, it can only compete against a group of entities with lower cultivation.

"If it's an average Cave Void Realm martial artist, being besieged by hundreds or thousands of Enter Void Realm martial artists and demon beasts, even if they don't die, they would lose a layer of skin! But if it was Julia, a Cave Void Realm martial artist who had comprehended the 'Ice Realm', she could easily freeze these Enter Void Realm martial artists and demon beasts with a wave of her hand!"

Wyatt's gaze suddenly became distant, and an image of Julia against thousands of Enter Void Realm experts appeared in his mind...

Clad in yellow robes, with each gesture, the encircled crowd turned into ice sculptures.

Among the countless ice sculptures, a girl in a yellow dress stood out among the crows, distinguished amongst the masses.

"According to the memories of the Reincarnation Martial Emperor, even after two lifetimes and having seen countless strong individuals, the number of martial artists he encountered who had comprehended the 'Ice Realm' did not exceed ten fingers."

From this, Wyatt realized the rarity and uniqueness of martial artists who had comprehended the 'Ice Realm'.

Coming back to his senses, Wyatt took a deep breath.

Standing up, Wyatt stood on the back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger and began practicing 'Wind Thunder Finger.'

The piercing wind that came from his front gradually made Wyatt feel as if he was a child returning to his mother's embrace.

This feeling was very warm.

Momentum Wind!

Micro Momentum Wind!

The 'Micro Momentum Wind' had now been realized by Wyatt. If he wanted to proceed further, he would have to comprehend the 'Realm of Wind'.

Even the lowest level 'Realm of Wind', namely the 'First Level Realm of Wind', contained far greater power than the 'Micro Momentum Wind'.

Micro Momentum Wind carried the power of two thousand ancient giant elephants.

While the First Level Realm of Wind contains the power of ten thousand ancient giant elephants, equivalent to one ancient Horned Dragon.

As Wyatt merged with the wind, he gradually began to use 'Wind Rolls the Remaining Clouds.' His body completely merged with the wind, moving with the wind.

The 'Wind Rolls the Remaining Clouds' at the perfect realm was executed to the extreme by Wyatt.

Thankfully, the back of the Three-Eyed Flame Tiger was spacious, otherwise, there would be no way for Wyatt to fully exercise 'Wind Rolls the Remaining Clouds'.

Time flew by.

Half a month later, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger stopped in the air.

"Still a bit short."

As the wind blowing in his face disappeared, Wyatt's figure appeared, and he sighed.

Now, he had touched the threshold of the 'Realm of Wind'.

Only one opportunity was needed to comprehend the 'First Level Realm of Wind'.

"Brother Leandro, we've arrived at the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire... There's still one month before the time you originally agreed with the Jade Sword holder. What's your plan?"

Wyatt's eyes flashed, she looked down at the vast city below and smiled, "Let's spend this month in the Eastern Mulberry Empire's Imperial City... We'll head to 'Chicken Hill' in a month."

Karina Hanson had no objection to Wyatt's proposal.

"Big guy, go to 'Chicken Hill' first... Remember to be at my call anytime in the future! Otherwise, you know what will happen."

Karina Hanson gazed meaningfully at the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger couldn't help but shudder.

Chapter 598: The Sixth Transformation 'Earth Dragon Transformation

After parting ways with the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, Wyatt and Karina Hanson set foot in the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire.

The Imperial City, after all, was vast in size, as expansive as that of the Blackstone Imperial City.

Upon entering the city, Wyatt and Karina casually chose a restaurant to eat.

"Ssss~~"

Two little pythons, darting out their forked tongues like lightning, were vying for food on the table in front of Wyatt and Karina, making them both shake their heads in amusement.

"Wyatt, were Little Black and Little White this greedy before?"

Karina asked, looking at Wyatt with a smile.

"Probably."

Wyatt nodded, then called out to the waiter and ordered two more tables of dishes, allowing the two little pythons to eat separately.

"Ssss~~"

The two little pythons were instantly excited.

"Thank you, brother."

"Thank you, brother."

The voices of a young boy and a young girl, resounding with joy, almost simultaneously reached Wyatt's ears. They were the voices of the two little pythons.

Looking at the little pythons eating with enthusiasm, a smile spread across Wyatt's face, but within his eyes, a touch of worry surfaced.

This scene was aptly captured by Karina.

"What are you thinking about, brother Wyatt?"

Karina asked, "It seems like you're worried about something."

Wyatt sighed and told her everything about Little Gold, without any concealment.

There was no need to conceal it, after all.

"Jade-Green Skyward Mouse?"

Karina was surprised, "You actually have a Jade-Green Skyward Mouse with you, Wyatt? Where did you encounter it... This Jade-Green Skyward Mouse is considered a 'descendant of the sacred beasts', its talent and potential are not in the slightest bit inferior to Little Black and Little White!"

"I won it from an auction."

Wyatt replied.

Auction?

Karina looked at him with a peculiar expression.

Acquired from an auction a 'Jade-Green Skyward Mouse'?

Who would be so careless as to auction off a Jade-Green Skyward Mouse?

Even in the 'outside territory', a Jade-Green Skyward Mouse is a rare existence, the appearance of its young usually triggers a bloodbath.

Nobody would casually put a 'Jade-Green Skyward Mouse' up for auction.

"That person thought Little Gold was just an ordinary 'Golden Fur Mouse'."

Anticipating Karina's confusion, Wyatt explained.

Karina nodded with understanding, and then comforted Wyatt, "Don't worry, Wyatt... Little Gold will be fine. The Jade-Green Skyward Mouse, being a mouse species demon beast, is far more intelligent than ordinary demon beasts."

"I hope so."

Wyatt nodded, but the worry in his eyes did not abate in the slightest.

After dinner, Wyatt, with Karina and the two little pythons, found an inn to stay in temporarily.

Usually, besides training, he and Karina would stroll leisurely around the Imperial City.

In a blink of an eye, more than twenty days passed by.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

Fast as the wind, swift as thunder!

Suddenly, an ear-piercing sound of the wind echoed.

Up in the void, as the figure moved like lightning, two thousand phantom images of ancient giant elephants suddenly flickered, immediately dissipating.

And at this moment, the speed of that figure boosted several times in an instant!

Above the void, after the phantom images of the two thousand giant elephants disappeared, a colossal phantom sprawled and descended, bearing its fangs and claws...

It was the phantom image of the ancient Horned Dragon!

"I've finally comprehended the First level of the Realm of the Wind!"

At this moment, the swiftly moving figure halted, revealing his true identity.

A handsome young man with sword-like eyebrows and starry eyes.

The young man, donned in a purple robe, sat cross-legged in mid-air, closing his eyes as if in deep meditation. While murmuring to himself, he unleashed a majestic Origin Force.

In an instant, the surrounding clouds were all swept away.

At this moment, the young man slowly opened his eyes.

"I've finally had a breakthrough!"

His eyes, like dazzling star trails, held a touch of intense joy at the corners of his lips.

Whoo!

As his mind stirred, flames of Origin Force erupted from his body.

Above his head, two phantom images of ancient Horned Dragons condensed and danced in the void.

"Enter Void Realm, First Level!"

This young man in purple was none other than 'Wyatt'.

After a long period, he had finally realized the 'First level of the Realm of the Wind', and had broken through from his cultivation at the peak of the Ninth level of the Peep Naught Realm, into the 'Enter Void Realm'.

"Realm of the wind..."

Wyatt Barnes muttered to himself, his figure moved like it was blending into the wind.

At this moment, he felt like he had become one with the wind between heaven and earth, they no longer existed separately.

"Is this the realm of the wind? Fascinating."

Wyatt could clearly feel that, at this moment, he seemed to borrow the power of the entire wind of nature when utilizing the 'realm of the wind'.

Like a shadow following the body!

Now, Wyatt easily manipulated his martial art techniques.

"Wind Thunder Finger!"

With a lift of his hand, Wyatt pointed out a finger.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, the Origin Force exuded with a whistling sound followed by the 'First level realm of the wind' and the 'thunder', shooting towards the sky and disappearing beyond the clouds.

Above Wyatt's head in the void, three ancient shadow images of Horned Dragons were surrounded by two thousand shadow images of ancient elephants, like stars surrounding the moon.

"If I employ a spiritual tool, my power will be stronger!"

Wyatt stopped moving again, a satisfied smile appearing on his face.

The first realm of the wind.

Enter Void Realm.

This was his current strength.

"Moreover, now that I have broken through to 'Enter Void Realm', I can officially begin practicing the sixth variation 'Earth Dragon Transformation' of the Nine Dragons War Sovereign technique!"

Wyatt's eyes flashed, his mind fully immersed in the memory of the Reincarnated Martial Emperor, specifically on the part concerning the sixth variation 'Earth Dragon Transformation' of the Nine dragons War Sovereign technique.

The Earth Dragon Transformation is not just the sixth variation of the Nine Dragons War Sovereign.

It also includes a high-level defensive martial technique called 'Earth Dragon Protection'!

"The fourth variation of the Nine Dragons War Sovereign technique is the 'Wind Flood Dragon Variation' which aids me in understanding the 'Momentum Wind'... The fifth variation is the 'Thunder Flood Dragon Transformation' which helps me understand the 'thunder'... The sixth variation is 'Earth Dragon Transformation', which helps me understand the 'power of the earth'!"

"The sixth variation also comes with a high-level defensive martial technique 'Earth Dragon Protection'! 'Earth Dragon Protection' will be the first defensive martial technique I will practice after 'Earth Dragon Shield', which can blend with the 'power of the earth' and the 'realm of the earth' to exhibit remarkable defensive power."

A brighter smile appeared on Wyatt's face.

He understood that from the moment he stepped into 'Enter Void Realm', his strength had undergone a monumental change.

"The power of the earth..."

Wyatt moved, walking on air as if he were gliding, aiming for the boundless territory outside the Eastern Mulberry Empire's Imperial City.

Boom!

Wyatt landed on the ground, and with a graceful move, he lay down, his Origin Force rampaging as it continuously merged with the earth.

This was the best method recorded in the 'Earth Dragon Transformation' of the Nine Dragons War Sovereign technique, to initially comprehend the 'power of the earth'.

This was the method discovered by the Reincarnated Martial Emperor.

Back then, the Reincarnated Martial Emperor had lain on the vast earth for three days and nights, only then did he understand the 'Initial Power of the Earth'...

Wyatt's Origin Force ceaselessly surged out, becoming a fulcrum between him and the Earth, forcibly connecting him with the Earth.

One day passed, Wyatt felt nothing.

Two days passed, still nothing.

"In the first life of the Reincarnated Martial Emperor, he understood the 'power of the earth' after lying like this for three days and nights... But now I haven't sensed even a thread of the 'power of the earth' yet, neither have I sensed the seed of 'power'."

Wyatt was a bit helpless.

And so, the third day too passed.

Finally, Wyatt felt a thread of 'power of the earth' and successfully understood the seed of the 'power of the earth'.

The fifth day.

Wyatt's Origin Force was still tirelessly blending with the earth, growing ever more intimate.

"Lying on this boundless earth, my restless heart seems to have calmed down... In front of this vast earth, everything else seems insignificant."

Gradually, Wyatt began to understand the earth more and more.

At this moment, lying on this earth felt like he was lying in his mother's arms...

As night fell, a rich brown aura finally rose from Wyatt.

"Finally I've understood the 'Initial Power of the Earth'!"

A radiant smile appeared on Wyatt's face, at the same moment, he sat up, his Origin Force vibrating, transforming into dragon-shaped Origin Force that swirled around his body.

Within the dragon-shaped Origin Force, traces of brown energy gradually emerged and then fused into it.

Countless dragon-shaped Origin Forces, finally merged with the brown energy, transforming into a layer of defensive energy, wrapping around Wyatt's body.

If looked closely, one would see.

Within this layer of defensive energy, there were traces of brown energy forming into dragon-shaped energy, continuously flowing and darting about inside.

"With my initial understanding of the power of the earth, this high-level defensive martial technique 'Earth Dragon Protection', has also stepped into the 'minor achievement realm'!"

"However, this 'minor achievement realm' of 'Earth Dragon Protection' can only resist attacks from martial artists below 'Peep Nought Realm's Seventh Order'... Only by understanding the 'half-step micro power of the earth' and bringing the 'Earth Dragon Protection' into the 'major achievement realm', can it help me now."

Wyatt was very clear about this.

Defensive martial techniques are not omnipotent, they have many limitations.

"Now, there are only three days left until the owners of the other Jade Swords have agreed to meet... It's time to return."

A thought flashed in Wyatt's mind, he walked on air and returned to the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire.

"Brother Wyatt, have you... broken through?"

As soon as Wyatt returned to the inn, Karina Hanson immediately noticed the change in him.

He was not surprised that Karina Hanson could see through his cultivation, he nodded with a smile.

"Congratulations, Brother Wyatt."

Karina Hanson congratulated Wyatt with a smile.

Chapter 599: Darling?

"In three more days, we will meet with other Jade Sword owners... Brother Wyatt, have you been in touch with them during this time?"

Karina Hanson looked at Wyatt Barnes and asked.

"No."

Wyatt Barnes shook his head.

During this period, he was busy cultivating. He had no time to take care of other things.

"I think that at this time, some of them must have already arrived at the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire... they may even be staying in some of the inns within the Imperial City."

Karina Hanson speculated.

"Maybe... I will contact them when I go back to my room."

Wyatt Barnes nodded and then said, "It's getting late. Let's go to sleep early."

"Okay."

As Karina Hanson went back to her room, her eyes were still filled with excitement.

"This girl is even more excited than I am."

Wyatt Barnes shook his head and laughed.

After returning to his room, Wyatt Barnes's eyes flashed, "Finally, just before entering the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury,' I have managed to elevate my cultivation to the 'Entry Void Realm!'"

After washing up, Wyatt Barnes lay on the bed and pulled out the Jade Sword.

His origin force infused into the 'sound-transmitting inscription' on the Jade Sword.

Suddenly, a familiar bright voice entered Wyatt Barnes's ears, "Brother, you have finally appeared... In a few days, we will be able to meet. I am really looking forward to it."

"I am looking forward to it too."

Wyatt Barnes responded, recognizing who the owner of the booming voice was.

When he was still in the Crimson Heaven Kingdom, he was connected to this person the first time he contacted other Jade Sword owners through the 'Sound-transmitting Inscription' in the Jade Sword.

"I have already arrived at the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire... Where are you guys?"

Another voice came through.

To Wyatt Barnes, this was a completely unfamiliar voice.

It must be one of the other Jade Sword owners.

"I am also in the Imperial City."

"I have not arrived yet but am on my way.... I should be able to arrive at the 'Wild Chicken Ridge' in three days."

"I will arrive at Eastern Mulberry Empire's Imperial City tomorrow."

...

Following that, more voices came through.

These were all from other Jade Sword owners.

"By the way, brother... Are you bringing any friends? According to our agreement, each of us can bring one person into the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury'."

All of a sudden, the owner of the booming voice spoke again, clearly addressing Wyatt Barnes.

"Yes, I am bringing a friend."

Wyatt Barnes answered.

Initially, he was worried that if Julia were to accompany him to the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury,' the other Jade Sword owners would object.

It seems now that it would not be considered abrupt for Julia to accompany him into the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury.'

"However, given Julia's strength, even if she wanted to eliminate others at the moment of opening the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury'... it wouldn't be hard."

Wyatt Barnes thought about Karina Hanson's strength and shivered.

"That's right! If Julia did eliminate everyone else after opening the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury' ... wouldn't we be able to monopolize all the treasures inside?"

At this thought, Wyatt Barnes's breathing started to quicken.

Early the next morning, Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson left their respective rooms and together left the inn to find a restaurant nearby for breakfast.

Soon, the restaurant was filled with patrons.

"I heard, this afternoon, the Don Family will auction a treasure in the central square... We should join in the fun."

"Doesn't the Don Family have its own auction house? Why not auction it there?"

"I'm not sure about that... However, given the pomp and show around it by the Don Family, I guess the item is not ordinary."

"Now that you mention it, I'm interested as well... Let's go together."

...

From the table next to Wyatt Barnes's came several voices discussing.

Three young men in brocade were chatting leisurely.

"Brother Wyatt, shall we also join in the fun this afternoon?"

Karina Hanson's eyes were sparkling, evidently interested in the Don Family's treasure.

"Sure."

Wyatt Barnes nodded, he was also interested.

"If only it were the 'Everlasting Root'..."

Wyatt Barnes sighed inwardly.

However, he knew that was almost impossible.

Even if the Don Family had the 'Everlasting Root,' they would probably not publicize it so much.

The Imperial City's central square in the Eastern Mulberry Empire was undoubtedly like the central square in the Imperial City of the Black Stone Empire, bustling with people.

The Black Stone Empire had held a national 'Youth Talent Competition' in such a place once.

Wyatt Barnes thought to himself.

If the Don Family displayed such grandiosity, then the treasure must be universally recognized and not an unrecognizable 'Everlasting Root.'

After breakfast, they took a stroll around the Imperial City.

All around, Wyatt Barnes could hear news about the Don Family auctioning a treasure in the afternoon.

"We should go earlier in the day to get a good spot."

"If only I were a warrior above the Peep Naught Realm, there would be plenty of spots in the air."

"Yeah, if I were a being of Peep Naught Realm or above, I wouldn't have to fight for a spot on the ground."

...

Wyatt Barnes could hear such remarks everywhere.

"Brother Wyatt, I am getting more and more interested in what the Don Family will be auctioning this afternoon."

Karina Hanson giggled, her eyes, like a flowing river, revealed a trace of cunning.

"If you like it, Julia, I'll buy it for you."

Wyatt Barnes was now rather confident.

Along the way, the wealth of gold and silver he had accumulated had reached a terrifyingly high level.

Over the years, he had looted a fortune not only from here and there but also from the storage rings of those who had died at his hands.

His wealth of gold and silver kept growing.

By now, he barely remembered how much wealth he possessed.

"Wyatt dear, if I were really interested, I would just snatch it...I wouldn't need you to spend any money,"

Karina Hanson winked her playful eyes and said with a smile.

Upon hearing that, Wyatt couldn't help twitching his mouth.

Exactly!

Given Karina's strength, it wasn't a difficult task for her to snatch a treasure from the Don Family of the Eastern Mulberry Empire.

Bear in mind, even Prince Yakim, the strongest of the Blackstone Empire, showed extreme caution in front of Karina.

The most powerful person in the Eastern Mulberry Empire was at most on par with Prince Yakim.

However, Karina was more powerful than eight or nine out of ten of them.

In the afternoon, Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson, accompanied by two little pythons, flew to the central square of the Imperial City of Eastern Mulberry Empire.

"There are so many people."

Gazing down at the central square from above, Wyatt saw oceans of people with heads moving constantly, creating a lively scene.

Now, more than ever, many warriors above the Peep Naught Realm began to appear in the air.

Most of these warriors came to be part of the excitement.

"Today, the lively scene created by the Don Family got me wondering what kind of treasure they are going to auction..."

Someone could not help but express their curiosity.

"No matter what the treasure is, I must get a real good look today."

"The Don Family never caused a sensation. I guess they must indeed have some incredible treasures for auction today."

"I am really excited."

...

More and more warriors above the Peep Naught Realm joined in, with whispers and murmurs coming from everywhere.

Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson stood in the air closest to the center of the square.

Now, a high platform had been set up in the middle of the square.

This platform was newly erected and apparently solely for the auction arranged by the Don family.

Shh!

A young man dressed in regal attire aggressively flew in from a distance and landed not far from Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson.

Wyatt was fine, showing no reaction.

But Karina frowned, turned her head towards the young man in royal attire, and said, "You, go away! Don't stand here and bother me and my brother, Wyatt."

Clearly, Karina considered the airspace where she and Wyatt stood as her private territory.

The young man in regal attire was taken aback by Karina's words. However, when he turned his head and saw her enchanting beauty, he couldn't help revealing a lascivious grin. "Little girl, don't worry. I promise I won't bother you."

"But you're so pretty... give me a smile," he cheekily added and moved closer to Karina.

Meanwhile, he reached out to touch her chin.

Wyatt looked at this young man sympathetically.

He knew this fellow was about to be in hot water.

Just as Wyatt had this thought.

Shush! Shush!

Two ear-piercing sounds rang out.

Two bolts of lightning, one black and one white, flew out from under Karina's sleeves and headed straight towards the young man in regal attire.

The next moment, a blood hole appeared on the young man's throat and chest, gushing out blinding, dazzling fresh blood.

The young man didn't even have the chance to scream before he fell directly to the ground, frozen in his gesture of trying to touch Karina's chin.

Boom!

The young man fell onto the newly erected high platform in the center of the square and lay motionless.

He was dead.

Instantly, the surroundings broke out in muffled whispers.

"Isn't that the Third Young Master of the White Family, Faulkner Buckingham?"

"Yes, it's him! I can't believe Faulkner, who's dominated the Imperial City of our Eastern Mulberry Empire for a while, has met his demise here."

"Yeah, it's quite unexpected."

...

Exclamations of surprise echoed from all directions.

Of course, there were also quite a lot of people who seemed to be delighting in his misfortune.

Obviously, this Faulkner Buckingham had a bad reputation.

"Hiss Hiss~~"

At this moment, the two little pythons returned to Karina's hand and glared at Faulkner's corpse fiercely.

"It's okay, he's dead now," Karina smiled slightly and stroked the little heads of the pythons.

Immediately, they closed their eyes, obviously enjoying the moment.

"Karina, seeing Little Black and Little White so close to you, I'm getting a bit jealous," Wyatt said jokingly.

While Karina understood his joke, the two little pythons didn't.

Shush! Shush!

The next moment, two streaks of lightning, one black and one white, left Karina's hands and landed on Wyatt's shoulders.

"Hiss Hiss~~"

"Hiss Hiss~~"

The two little pythons, flicking their tongues, licked Wyatt's cheeks, as if comforting him.

Chapter 600: Ice Shattered On The Ground

Wyatt Barnes held the two small pythons in his hands, his eyes filled with tenderness.

Now, the little white snake, following the little black snake, has also advanced to the 'Enter Void Realm Third-Order'...

The Third Young Master of the Buckingham family, 'Faulkner Buckingham', at most is a Peep Naught Realm martial artist. In front of the two small pythons, he didn't stand a chance.

He was even killed before he could react.

"Faulkner!"

Just then, the sound as loud as a thunder blast encapsulated with limitless rage was transmitted from the distance.

Wyatt slightly turned his head to see a middle-aged man, flanked by two elders, walking on air and coming towards him. The speed was extremely fast.

The middle-aged man plunged and landed on the central stage in a blink of an eye, holding Faulkner in his arms, wailing, "Faulkner! Faulkner!!"

"It's 'Mullen Buckingham' of the Buckingham family!"

"Looks like today not only Faulkner Buckingham, but also his father 'Mullen Buckingham' came to join the occasion."

"Faulkner probably came with his father but arrived earlier and ended up being killed."

"These young people and girl are in big trouble along with their two snake-like Demon Beasts."

...

The surrounding crowds murmured to each other.

Most people gave Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson, a pitiful glance.

However, Wyatt Barnes seemed to be unaffected. They stood in the air without any change in expression.

Breathing heavily!

At this moment, the two elders brought by the middle-aged man rushed out and stood on either side of Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson, as if preventing them from escaping.

At this moment, Mullen Buckingham finally recovered. As he held his dead son in his arms, he, along with two elders, surrounded Wyatt and Hanson in a triangular formation.

"You dared to kill my son... Today, I will make you pay for it with your blood!!"

Mullen Buckingham gritted his teeth with every word he said.

Mullen Buckingham at this moment was filled with extreme anger.

He had only one child in his life because he was obsessed with the Martial Dao.

Now, because of Wyatt, his son is dead.

"So, you are Lord Buckingham?"

Wyatt Barnes gave Mullen a light glance, "Before you say anything... Shouldn't you first ask us why we killed your son?"

Earlier, if it weren't for Faulkner who tried to molest Karina Hanson, Little Black and Little White wouldn't have made their moves.

"No need!"

Mullen Buckingham snorted coldly, his eyes filled with violent glare. "No matter what the matter is, what the reason is... you have to accompany my son in death since you killed him!!"

As he spoke, Mullen Buckingham's Origin Force raged out and surged.

Above his head in the void, images of ten ancient horned dragon shadows formed, circling and giving a powerful oppressive feeling.

Enter Void Realm Seventh-Order!

"Lord Buckingham of the Buckingham family, he is indeed one of the two strongest beings in the Buckingham family who could match the Elder Ancestor, and he lives up to his reputation."

"Now, Lord Buckingham is infuriated. This young man and girl are probably doomed."

"They were too impulsive, daring to kill Faulkner... Don't they know Faulkner is the apple of Lord Buckingham's eye?"

...

The surrounding people mourned for Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson.

"No matter what the matter is, what the reason is... we have to accompany your son in death?"

Mullen Buckingham's words made Wyatt Barnes's face darken slightly.

"Brother Wyatt, some people can't be reasoned with... for them, power can replace any reason."

Karina Hanson's face was calm, and she was not angry at Mullen Buckingham's words.

Or maybe, she never took Mullen Buckingham seriously.

"Alright. Hanson, you handle this matter."

Wyatt Barnes nodded and stopped talking, watching everything around him with cold eyes.

"Kill them!"

Mullen Buckingham shouted, holding his son Faulkner Buckingham's corpse in one hand and slapping out with the other hand like a giant circular fan.

Boom!

With his origin force gone wild, an increasing wave of raging red energy came out, targeting Wyatt Barnes first, intending to kill him on the spot.

At the same time, above Mullen Buckingham's head in the void, an additional six ancient horned dragon shadows appeared...

Sixth Order Fire Realm!

Rushing!

As Mullen Buckingham's palm struck, Wyatt Barnes only felt a scorching gust of wind, getting stronger and stronger, constantly rising.

In the end, Wyatt Barnes' forehead couldn't help but sweat.

Facing Mullen Buckingham's fierce blow, Wyatt Barnes felt a lot of pressure, but didn't mean to avoid.

He stood unmoving, like a mountain.

"Has this young man gone mad? He's standing there like a fool at a time like this."

Many of the bystanders were shocked.

"Or maybe, he thinks he is going to die anyway today, so he simply gave up resisting... in front of Lord Buckingham, do you think he can live?"

Some people had other thoughts.

"Makes sense."

His words received the agreement of many people.

At this moment, most people looked at Wyatt Barnes with pity in their eyes.

They didn't believe Wyatt Barnes could survive Mullen Buckingham's attack.

For a moment, the atmosphere on the scene was a bit oppressive.

Just then, an abrupt voice broke the oppressive atmosphere.

"You dare to make a move on Brother Wyatt? You're asking for death!"

Under the watchful eyes, the girl in yellow standing in mid-air spoke.

As she spoke, none witnessed her make any noticeable move.

The next moment.

Whoosh!

An extremely cold aura suddenly exploded in the air, blanketing down and making everyone present shiver uncontrollably.

When they came to their senses, they saw a scene they would never forget in their lifetimes.

The figure of the man in purple, who was known by the name of Mullen Buckingham, had become a towering pillar of frost in mid-air.

Along with him was the frozen corpse of Faulkner Buckingham held in his arms.

Everyone present could clearly see.

Mullen's 'Fire Intent' had been entirely suppressed by the layer of frost covering him.

Not just that, the Origin Force around his body was slowly fading away too.

In an instant, all the Origin Force around Mullen's body had vanished.

At that moment, his body, devoid of any support, fell heavily to the ground with the frost covering him.

Thud!

A loud bang resounded as everyone clearly witnessed Mullen, along with the frost covering him, crash to the ground, shattering into countless pieces of ice.

Mullen Buckingham, the second master of the Buckingham family and one of the only two Seventh-Order Void Realm warriors, had fallen dead!

The scene was ominously silent.

More than ninety percent of the people present were staring blankly at the shattered pieces of ice scattered around.

There wasn't a single chunk of ice that remained whole.

"The...the Ice Intent!"

Soon, someone trembled and screamed.

His words jolted everyone out of their daze, and they all turned to look at the girl in yellow floating in the air, fear and awe clear in their eyes.

The girl in yellow, judging by her appearance, was no more than fifteen or sixteen years old.

Initially, when they saw the girl appear, many people were stunned beyond belief.

A girl of fifteen or sixteen, standing in mid-air, undoubtedly meant that she had an understanding of the 'Void Realm' or even higher realms.

This alone was enough to render them speechless.

But now...

The yellow-clad girl stunned everyone once again.

With her words, she had turned a Seventh-Order Void Realm warrior into an icy statue, which then shattered to pieces when it crashed onto the ground, leaving no remains behind.

Such a shocking method would make anyone recoil in fear.

Most importantly, all of this was caused by a young girl.

A young girl they couldn't even see make a move had somehow exterminated Mullen Buckingham of the Buckingham family.

"Did she really make the move herself?"

Many people were doubtful and found it hard to believe this was real.

A girl of fifteen or sixteen years old killed a Seventh-Order Void Realm existence...

Even if they looked 'outside the territory', they were sure that few people could achieve this.

Let alone in this tiny Eastern Mulberry Empire.

"I didn't see it clearly when she made the move... but it's certain that if it wasn't her, it must have been someone hidden around protecting her."

"It seems her identity is not simple. There's a powerful figure lurking around her who could kill the Buckingham's Mullen in an instant."

"That figure must have comprehended the rare 'Ice Intent'. "

"It was said that among the Natural Intentions, the Ice Intent is one of the top-grade ones! Witnessing it today, it lives up to its reputation."

"Too horrible...that she can freeze a person in an instance, turn then into an ice statue and then let it shatter into countless pieces."

...

The people around started discussing among themselves.

Fear was evident in their voices.

Fear of Karina Hanson.

As a matter of course, there were some people with higher cultivation who also saw the fleeting illusions of many ancient Horned Dragons above Karina Hanson's head.

Even though they couldn't see exactly how many ancient Horned Dragons there were.

They were sure of one thing.

That indeed, it was this yellow-clad girl who had frozen Mullen Buckingham of the Buckingham family.

"Sec...second master..."

The two old men who had accompanied Mullen were now standing amongst the shattered ice, their bodies trembling slightly.

The spectacle in front of them was something they had never anticipated.

The second master was one of the strongest members of the Buckingham family, almost on par with their family's Elder Ancestor.

However, in the blink of an eye, he had been killed.

This was something they were still struggling to accept.

"You two are still thinking of staying here to avenge your...second master and third young master, aren't you? Or do you want to get out of my sight?"

Karina Hanson's gaze fell lazily upon the two old men. Her clear voice filled with annoyance.

Upon hearing Karina's words, the two old men felt a jolt, as if struck by lightning.

The next moment, without any hesitation, they hastily escaped, disappearing from the crowd's sight at the central square.

What a joke!

Even the second master was killed in an instant.

If they continued to stay, they'd be courting their own death.

They knew.

Their second master and their third young master had provoked an existence that the entire Buckingham family could not afford to provoke.
