

L. Wyatt 601

Chapter 601: The Distressed Little Gold Mouse

As the two elders of the Bai family departed, Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson became the focus of the field.

However, the attention of the crowd quickly shifted.

Simply because, the people from the Don family had arrived.

"It's the Grand Elder of the Don family!"

"The Grand Elder of the Don family is a presence who has stepped into the 'Enter Void Realm Level Eight'! In terms of strength, he is second only to the family's Elder Ancestor within the Don family."

"I didn't expect that the Grand Elder of the Don family would personally preside over this afternoon's auction."

...

The onlooking crowd started to buzz excitedly.

And Wyatt's gaze also fell upon the five people flying towards them from afar.

At the forefront of the group was an ancient man with white hair, his murky eyes occasionally flashing with radiant light.

From afar, he looked like an ordinary old man.

However, the spiritual power that Wyatt extended told him that this old man was a 'Enter Void Realm Level Eight' entity.

"Is he the Grand Elder of the Don Family?"

Hearing the surrounding discussion, Wyatt easily guessed the identity of the old man.

After all, Wyatt had been in the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire for some time, and had a fair understanding of the Don family in the Eastern Mulberry Empire.

The Don family was the strongest power in the Eastern Mulberry Empire, second only to the Imperial Family.

For a family to be dominant in an empire was undoubtedly rare.

It was said that within the Don family, there were five individuals who had reached or surpassed the 'Enter Void Realm Seventh-Order'.

The strongest individual was a 'Enter Void Realm Ninth-Order' entity.

When he first learned of the strength of the Don family, Wyatt even exhaled in admiration, "The strength of the Don family is comparable even to the Imperial Family of the Eastern Mulberry Empire."

"Ladies and gentlemen!"

At this point, the five-person group led by the Grand Elder of the Don Family landed on the stage. The Grand Elder surveyed the crowd and suddenly spoke.

Immediately, the venue fell silent.

"Today, our Don Family will auction off a demon beast here! An 'Enter Void Realm' demon beast."

The Grand Elder of the Don Family, evidently a man of few words, got straight to the point.

An Enter Void Realm demon beast?

Suddenly, the crowd, whether on the ground or in the air, burst into an uproar.

You should know that once a demon beast breakthrough to the 'Enter Void Realm', they become as intelligent as human beings.

More importantly, Enter Void Realm demon beasts usually hold a sense of their own dignity.

They would prefer death over servitude!

Even humans with greater strength than an Enter Void Realm demon beast would find it almost impossible to subjugate one.

It is for this reason that 'Enter Void Realm demon beasts' are highly valued in the human world.

Now, the Don family is going to auction off an 'Enter Void Realm demon beast'?

A demon beast put up for auction by the Don family cannot be a beast that prefers death to submission.

This kind of demon beast, everyone wants to get their hands on.

Especially those people with limited 'Enter Void Realm' warriors in their powers, their faces turned red with excitement, gearing up to bid for the Enter Void Realm demon beast.

"Enter Void Realm demon beast?"

Wyatt's eyebrows raised slightly, "This Don family is indeed a little capable... unexpectedly able to capture an Enter Void Realm demon beast for auction."

"May I ask Grand Elder Don, what level is this Enter Void Realm demon beast that your Don family plans to auction?"

Soon, someone couldn't help but ask.

"First level Enter Void Realm."

The Grand Elder of the Don Family responded indifferently.

Although it was only a first level Enter Void Realm, it still didn't diminish the enthusiasm of the crowd. Everyone expectantly looked at the Grand Elder of the Don Family.

"Grand Elder Don, where's the demon beast?"

"Yeah, you have to let us see it, right? Otherwise, how do we bid?"

"Right!"

...

The surrounding crowd began to buzz again.

Now, those who spoke out were mostly warriors above the Peep Naught Realm, suspended in the air.

Most of these people were of extraordinary backgrounds and wealthy.

"Everyone, please calm down. A disciple of our Don family will bring the demon beast shortly."

The Grand Elder of the Don Family raised his hand and silenced the crowd.

It has to be said that the Grand Elder of the Don family still held a certain prestige. As soon as his voice trailed off, the scene fell silent once more.

"I thought it was some kind of treasure. Turns out it's just a first level Enter Void Realm demon beast."

Karina frowned slightly, sounding somewhat disappointed.

"Brother Wyatt, shall we go... I have no interest in Enter Void Realm demon beasts."

Karina said to Wyatt.

Wyatt gave a bitter smile.

No interest in Enter Void Realm demon beasts...

It seemed that only Karina was capable of uttering such words.

"Since we're already here, let's see what sort of demon beast the Don Family is auctioning...I'm quite curious about which Enter Void Realm demon beast they've managed to tame."

Wyatt suggested.

"Alright, then I'll join brother Wyatt in generating some buzz."

Karina smiled slightly and nodded in agreement.

Not long after, the sound of wind whistling came from the distance.

Then, a middle-aged man carrying an item covered in red cloth, came flying in, heading straight for the center of the plaza.

Within moments, he landed on the stage.

"Grand Elder."

Then the middle-aged man respectfully handed the object covered with red cloth in his hands, over to Elder Don.

Grand Elder Don nodded, then lifted his hand and directly unveiled the red cloth.

A peculiar small cage appeared in Elder Don's hand.

"Squeak~~"

At that moment, a low squeaking sound came from inside the cage.

A fluffy golden hamster lay helplessly and messily inside the cage, its pair of turquoise eyes looking up at the sky above the central plaza.

Its eyes were filled with excitement.

At that moment, Wyatt Barnes froze, staring blankly at the small golden hamster inside the cage, mumbling to himself in a stunned tone, "Lit...Little Gold!"

"Ladies and Gentlemen!"

At that moment, the Grand Elder of the Don family opened his mouth slowly, "This golden hamster is the Enter Void Realm demon beast that our Don family intends to auction...I suspect that it is a 'Mutant Golden Hamster'."

"Although it's only an Enter Void Realm First level demon beast, it has mastered the 'Second Layer Thunder Realm'!"

As Elder Don finished, his tone became pronounced.

"Enter Void Realm First level, yet it has mastered the 'Second Layer Thunder Realm'?"

Immediately, the gazes of the crowd watching were all lit up.

Such a demon beast had an astonishing level of comprehension.

"Elder Don, I see that it doesn't seem to be doing well...Did your Don family use some drug on it?"

Suddenly, someone with a keen eye asked.

"Correct."

Elder Don nodded, "Our Don family indeed used the 'Stasis Origin Powder' on it! However, this demon beast has a strong will to survive and can be completely controlled with the 'Stasis Origin Powder' to make it work for you."

At this point, Elder Don looked somewhat proud, "The Stasis Origin Powder is a unique secret formula of our Don family... Today, no matter who wins the bid for this demon beast, our Don family will unconditionally supply a hundred years' worth of Stasis Origin Powder."

The moment Elder Don finished speaking, the scene fell silent, with only heavy breathing sounds remaining.

"A hundred years?"

Just then, a cold scoff broke the silence.

"Do you truly think that your Don family can survive for another hundred years?"

An angry and fierce voice carried on, causing the faces of several Don family members, including Elder Don, to drastically shift.

Everyone's gazes were all directed towards the source of the voice.

There, stood a purple dressed young man.

"It's him!"

Soon, someone recognized Wyatt Barnes.

"What does he intend to do?"

A chill surged in many people's hearts.

Even though this purple dressed youth hadn't made a move throughout the event, behind him and the girl accompanying him hid a terrifying powerful figure.

That figure, without even revealing himself, managed to kill a Seventh-Order Enter Void Realm martial artist.

Such prowess had already surpassed the 'Enter Void Realm' category.

"Brat, dare to disrespect our Don family, you deserve death!"

Right then, the middle-aged man standing next to Elder Don bellowed, turning into a streak of light as he charged towards where Wyatt Barnes was.

In no time, two ancient Horned Dragon illusions appeared above the empty space over the middle-aged man's head.

Clearly, this was an Enter Void Realm First level martial artist.

Bam!

The middle-aged man lashed out with his palm, with the ruthless Origin Force condensing into a palm seal. Accompanied by streaks of blue energy, it enveloped Wyatt Barnes.

Once again, an ancient Horned Dragon illusion surfaced in the void above...

First level Water Realm!

Facing the shocking strike of the middle-aged man, Wyatt Barnes showed contempt, and didn't even bother to dodge.

The next moment, Wyatt Barnes lifted his hand, the surging force gathered at his index finger.

Wind Thunder Finger!

Aggressively, Wyatt pointed forward, the First Level Wind Realm and a trace of Thunder Force, accompanied by the force of his finger, transformed into a 'Wind Thunder Finger Force', thrusting towards the middle-aged man's palm seal.

In the empty void above, three ancient Horned Dragon illusions, under the drive of two thousand ancient giant elephant illusions, surged out.

Whiz!

The terrifying Wind Thunder Finger Force effortlessly shattered the middle-aged man's palm seal, piercing through his chest without losing any momentum.

"You..."

The middle-aged man's pupils widened, he raised his hand and pointed at Wyatt Barnes, wanting to say something but ultimately failing to do so.

Bam!

His body shook, accompanied by blood raining down from the sky, he brutally slammed onto the ground, completely lifeless.

Dead!

At that moment, the pupils of all those watching contracted, looking horrified at the purple dressed youth in the void above.

"What a terrifying young man!"

"He looks to be at most twenty-five...yet his cultivation level is already at the 'Enter Void Realm First level', and he has comprehended the 'First Level Wind Realm' and possessed 'A trace of Thunder Force'!"

"Where does such a prodigious martial artist come from? With his strength, he might even be qualified to participate in the 'Dynastic Martial Competition' happening eight months later, right?"

"Among the young people of our Eastern Mulberry Empire, there's not a single one that can match him."

The crowd watching, all heaved a sigh.

They were all left in awe by Wyatt Barnes's talent and comprehension.

"Brat!"

At that moment, a suppressed and deep voice from Elder Don slowly came forth, "You first disrespected my Don family, and now you kill one of our kin... Who exactly are you?"

Chapter 602: Debt Collection!

"What grudge or grievances does my Don Family have with you?"

By the end of the Don Family's Grand Elder's statement, his eyes no longer bore confusion but replaced with a chilling murderous intention.

He intended to completely obliterate Wyatt Barnes if he did not give him a satisfactory answer.

"What is the grudge?"

Wyatt Barnes sneered as his gaze fell on the small cage in the Grand Elder's hand. "You, the Don Family, would dare to torment Little Gold like this, I..."

"Is that Little Gold?"

Before Wyatt Barnes could finish speaking, he was interrupted by Karina Hanson who was beside him.

Karina Hanson had been subtly curious as to why her Brother Wyatt would suddenly lose his composure.

Now, she fully understood.

It turned out that the little golden mouse held captive in the small cage by the Don Family was Little Gold.

"It indeed is a 'Skycross Green-eyed Mouse'. I didn't pay much attention earlier."

For the first time, Karina Hanson carefully examined the little golden mouse and discerned its true nature.

"Squeak~~"

At this moment, two small heads peeked out from under Wyatt Barnes' sleeve.

It was Little Black and Little White, now observing the golden mouse trapped in the cage with complex expressions.

"Little Gold?"

Upon hearing Wyatt Barnes' words, the Grand Elder of the Don Family was taken aback and had a moment of confusion.

Then, Karina Hanson made her move.

Karina Hanson's long sleeve swept, and instantly, an extreme cold wind swept out, enveloping the Don family members.

In an instant, five members of the Don Family, including the Grand Elder, were turned into ice sculptures.

Only the cage in the hands of the Grand Elder was not frozen.

"Squeak~~"

However, the little golden mouse inside the cage was still trembling from the cold.

"Little Gold."

Wyatt Barnes moved and flew down, snatching the small cage.

Whoosh!

The spirit sword was drawn, and easily cut the cage free.

"Little Gold, are you okay?"

Wyatt Barnes rescued the golden mouse, held it in his hand, and examined it attentively with a face filled with concern.

"Squeak~~"

The golden mouse squeaked twice and the origin force voice transmission entered Wyatt's ears, "Wy...Wyatt... I feel awful...I feel so bad..."

"Don't worry, you've just been affected by the Don Family's 'Stasis Origin Powder'...Now, I'll take you to the Don Family and make them hand over the antidote!"

A chill ran down Wyatt Barnes' eyes.

Angry to the extreme, Wyatt Barnes even forgot that he could refine the 'Clear Spirit Pills' that could cure all kinds of poisons.

With the three-ranked red flame that Wyatt Barnes mastered after breaking through to the 'Enter Void Realm', as long as he could find the materials, he could completely refine a 'third-ranked Clear Spirit Pill'.

A third-ranked Clear Spirit Pill could easily counteract any poisonous substance, except for some extremely rare toxins in the Cloud Skies Continent.

While Wyatt Barnes was communicating with Little Gold, he swung his arm and swept it out.

A vast origin force swept out, enveloping the ice sculptures formed by the five members of the Don Family, including the Grand Elder.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

...

Five thunderous sounds nearly echoed simultaneously.

The next moment, the five ice sculptures shattered into tiny pieces that fell all over the ground.

All five members of the Don Family were annihilated!

It was a bloodless execution.

"Julia, accompany me to the Don Family...please."

Wyatt's eyes were tinged with a bit of crimson as he looked at Karina Hanson, his voice filled with a trace of urgency.

"Wyatt, why the formalities... Your concerns are my concerns."

Julia responded with a wry smile and turned to a middle-aged man not far away, speaking softly: "Do you know where the Don Family is?"

"I...I do."

Being stared at by Karina Hanson, the middle-aged man's face changed.

Although he did not want to get involved, under Karina Hanson's intense gaze, he eventually nodded.

"Lead the way."

Karina Hanson calmly asked.

"Yes, yes."

The middle-aged man didn't dare to hesitate and scurried off into the distance.

Are you kidding me?

He had clearly seen the young girl's methods earlier.

She effortlessly sealed five prominent members of the Don Family in ice.

He knew he was not nearly as powerful as the members of the Don Family, so he could not refuse the young girl's request.

Who knew if the young girl would lose her temper because of it...

If she got angry, killing him would be a blink of an eye.

Whoosh!

Wyatt Barnes took the lead and followed the middle-aged man.

And Karina Hanson closely followed him.

As for the others at the scene, they looked on eagerly, keeping their distance and following suit.

"Looks like the Don Family is in trouble today..."

"Indeed, if the young lady gets angry, I'm afraid the Don Family will be permanently removed from our Eastern Mulberry Empire."

"I initially thought there was a powerful entity backing the young lady... It was only after she took action I understood, no one was backing her."

"Her power is terrifying... I'm sure she is a powerful entity from the outside!"

...

A group of onlookers followed Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson while chattering among themselves.

Suddenly, a corner of the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire was abuzz with activity.

"Ladies and gentlemen, this is the residence of the Don Family." said the middle-aged man who was leading the way, pointing to the broad and imposing mansion up ahead.

Whoosh!

With an icy look in his eyes, Wyatt Barnes forcefully barged into the Don Family residence.

"Who's there?!"

The members of the Don family guarding the front gate naturally refused to let Wyatt Barnes barge in.

"Scram!"

Wyatt Barnes, his eyes filled with brutality, flung his arm out with a violent swing. He effortlessly knocked the obstructing guard aside, leaving them seriously injured, before proceeding into the Don Family residence.

Following closely behind, Karina Hanson couldn't help but stick her tongue out, "Wyatt is really angry... It seems like that 'Jade-eyed Sky Rat' holds a position in his heart on par with Little Black and Little White."

Once inside the Don Family residence, Wyatt Barnes acted as if there was no one else present.

Whiz! Whiz! Whiz! Whiz! Whiz!

The two small pythons constantly dashed out, and one after another, the obstructing members of the Don Family fell.

Suddenly, the entire Don Family residence was in complete chaos.

"Run! Run quickly!"

"A devil, he's a devil. He's a devil!"

...

The Don family members, as well as the family's guards, servants, and maids, all scattered and fled.

"Who dares to barge into the Don residence!"

Finally, a stern voice rang out, and a middle-aged man in extravagant attire, his face handsome as jade, hurried over with a dozen or so elders.

"Squeak, squeak~~"

After the man in extravagant attire appeared, the small golden rat on Wyatt Barnes's shoulder struggled to lift its head. It squeaked a couple of times, mimicking human speech with its Origin Force.

"Brother Wyatt, it's him! He was the one who caught me, tortured me in every way, and forced me to swallow that 'Stasis Origin Powder'. Also, the 'Storage Ring' you refined for me was robbed by him."

The small golden rat was extremely furious by the end of it.

"Hand over the antidote to the 'Stasis Origin Powder'!"

Wyatt Barnes turned to the extravagantly dressed middle-aged man and spoke in a grim voice, word by word.

Before the middle-aged man in extravagant attire could respond, one of the older men behind him stepped out and bellowed, "Kid, do you know who you're speaking to? You dare to be impudent in front of our clan chief of the Don Family. You're asking for death!"

As soon as the old man finished speaking, his body's Origin Force surged like a rolling, soaring flame.

"I think you're the one asking for death!"

A cold voice suddenly echoed, reaching the ears of everyone present.

The next moment, an incredibly cold gust of wind swept out, transforming into a violent beast that lunged at the elder.

In an instant, the elder's body froze on the spot, turning into an ice sculpture.

"Ninth Elder."

The face of Clan Chief of the Don Family, the extravagantly dressed middle-aged man, changed. He extended his hand to touch the ice sculpture in an attempt to rescue the elder.

However, as he lifted his hand to touch the ice sculpture, his Origin Force violently gushed out.

Spiderweb-like cracks suddenly formed on the ice sculpture, followed by an explosion that turned it into countless pieces of crushed ice.

The elder who had been frozen inside was completely shattered.

"Ninth Elder!"

The Clan Chief of the Don Family was shocked. What on earth was happening?

"The Ice Realm. It's the Ice Realm! Chief, this little girl has comprehended the Ice Realm."

At that moment, another far-sighted elder looked at Karina Hanson, a trace of apprehension evident in his voice.

The Ice Realm?

The pupils of the Clan Chief of the Don Family shrank, his body slightly trembling, as he recalled information about the 'Ice Realm' that he had once seen in some text.

He finally realized.

He had indirectly caused the death of the Ninth Elder of the Don Family.

"Who exactly are you people?"

The Clan Chief of the Don Family finally realized the severity of the situation. They were evidently well-prepared and ruthless in their actions.

Moreover, the strength of this girl who had comprehended the 'Ice Realm' clearly surpassed his own.

Even though he was a Seventh-order Enter Void Realm Martial Artist, a young girl who seemed to be only fifteen or sixteen years old had outmatched him. This made him feel somewhat maddened.

"Who are we?"

Wyatt Barnes smirked, "Debt collectors!"

"Debt collectors?"

The Clan Chief of the Don Family was initially stunned, until he noticed the little golden rat on Wyatt Barnes' shoulder. His face paled, "It... How did it end up in your hands?"

He did not believe that this small golden rat had been acquired at a high price by these visitors.

"Squeak!"

The small golden rat shouted as it glared at the Clan Chief of the Don Family, much like it was looking at a lifetime adversary.

In the eyes of the little golden rat, this Clan Chief of the Don Family had already become a lifelong enemy.

"In my eyes, Little Gold is my family... And now, my family has been tortured in every way by your Don Family, and was forcibly fed the 'Stasis Origin Powder' by your Don Family!"

Wyatt Barnes' crimson eyes were filled with limitless brutality, and his voice was so deep it sent chills down one's spine.

"Bring out the antidote that will eliminate the 'Stasis Origin Powder's' effect!"

Wyatt Barnes almost shouted out word by word.

"There isn't an antidote to remove the effect of the 'Stasis Origin Powder', only one to suppress it..."

By now, the Clan Chief of the Don Family also realized that the Grand Elder of the Don Family had likely been killed.

Aware of the imminent enormous crisis, he did not dare to hesitate in responding to Wyatt Barnes' question.

A young girl who seemed to be only fifteen or sixteen was even more powerful than him.

From his perspective,

The backgrounds of these two were anything but simple.

They were possibly descendants of powerful forces from 'outside territory,' going beyond the bounds of the major dynasties.

Chapter 603: Purple Copper Alchemy Flame

"There's no antidote for the poison?"

Upon hearing these words from the Don Family Clan Chief, Wyatt Barnes' face turned greatly.

Enraged to the extreme, a thought suddenly cleared in Wyatt's mind, "How could I have forgotten about the 'Clear Spirit Pill'... If I have the Clear Spirit Pill, why do I need the Don Family's antidote?"

In an instant, Wyatt snapped back to reality, his gaze towards the Don Family Clan Chief turned cold again.

"Julia."

Wyatt softly called out.

Just as his words fell, Karina Hanson moved again, waving her hand and releasing a frigid gust of wind that, once again, swept across the room.

Whoosh!

Before the Don Family Clan Chief and the high-ranking family members could react, the cold wind enveloped them, turning them into human-shaped ice sculptures.

Over a dozen ice sculptures stood conspicuously on the spot.

"Little Gold."

Wilting on his shoulder, Wyatt reached out and gently touched Little Gold, smiling as he said, "Go!"

Little Gold's azure eyes glinted, struggling to stand up from its frail form, it charged towards the ice sculptures.

The ice sculpture that was once the Don Family Clan Chief was the first to be shattered by Little Gold.

Right after, the high-ranking family members transformed into ice sculptures also fell prey to the wrathful Little Gold, one by one, they were destroyed.

"Squeak, squeak~~"

When Little Gold returned, the dozen or so ice sculptures no longer existed, leaving only ice shards scattered all over.

Little Gold lowered its head, picked up a piece from the ice shards, and like golden lightning, it returned to Wyatt.

After handing the ice shard to Wyatt, it could no longer hold on and passed out.

Restricted by 'Stasis Origin Powder,' its Origin Force was suppressed. It had just used a lot of its energy, exceeding its current physical limitations.

The overwhelmed state of Little Gold tugged at Wyatt's heartstrings. In response, he handed the shard to Karina Hanson, "Julia, retrieve the Storage Ring from inside."

The Storage Ring inside the shard belonged to the Don Family Clan Chief.

"Okay."

Julia took over the ice shard, moving her hand, the cold ice turned into mist and an antique Storage Ring appeared in her hand, which she then passed back to Wyatt.

"Let's go."

Wyatt called out to Julia and floated up into the air, preparing to leave the Don family mansion.

With the instigator, the Don Family Clan Chief along with a group of high-ranking family members now dead, Wyatt's anger had largely subsided.

Whizz! Whizz!

Wyatt and Karina Hanson came and went like the wind, disappearing from the Don family mansion in an instant.

Near the place where they had been standing, children of the Don Family began to gather from secluded areas.

"The Clan Chief and Second Elder...they're gone just like that?"

Looking at the scattered ice shards, their bodies trembled violently, their faces turning extremely pale.

The sight they witnessed would forever be etched in their memories.

At that moment, they even held their breaths, fearful of being turned into ice sculptures by that devilish girl.

"Quick, report to the Elder Ancestor!"

No one knows who shouted first.

Immediately after, there were people heading towards the depths of the Don family mansion.

"Even if the Elder Ancestor comes, he may not be able to do much...Those two, are simply beyond our Don Family's ability to resist! Even our Elder Ancestor doesn't possess the strength to obliterate the Clan Chief and a group of Elders in the blink of an eye."

A discerning child of the Don Family couldn't help sighing.

True to his words.

When the Elder Ancestor of the Don Family finally arrived, saw the ice shards scattered all over, and learned about what had happened.

Despite being enraged to the extreme, he didn't mention avenging them, murmuring to himself, "This is the disaster of our Don Family...the disaster of our Don Family!!!"

Outside the Don Family Mansion, a crowd had gathered.

These people had all come after Wyatt and Karina Hanson.

However, they didn't dare break into the Don Family Mansion and could only stay outside to wait for updates.

Not long after, from the hurried words of a few Don Family children that left the mansion, they learned about what had happened.

"That young man and that girl killed all high-ranking members of the Don Family, including the Clan Chief? The stronger members of the Don family now only consist of the Elder Ancestor?"

"Looks like, the Don Family is destined to decline... The Elder Ancestor is already hundreds of years old, and might not have many years left."

"Who would have thought that the powerful Don Family would fall into the hands of an Enter Void Realm Demon Beast."

...

For a moment, everyone sighed.

At the same time, remembering that young man in purple and the girl in yellow gave them chills.

In their view.

Messing with those two was no different from dealing with the God of Death.

Now, after leaving the Don family mansion, Wyatt and Karina Hanson didn't go back to the inn immediately.

Instead, they went to the largest drugstore in the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire.

Only after they bought a heap of medicinal herbs, did they return to the inn.

"Wyatt, you're an alchemist?"

Back in their inn's room, Karina Hanson looked at Wyatt preparing the medicinal herbs and taking out a medicine tripod, and was surprised.

"Yes."

Wyatt nodded, and as he lifted his hand, a strand of purple flame ignited in his palm.

If one were to observe closely, they would notice a layer of copper encircling this purple flame, pulsating with the movement of the flame, making it extraordinarily peculiar.

"The Purple Copper Alchemy Flame!"

Standing on the side, Karina Hanson couldn't help but be moved, "Wy...Wyatt, are you... are you a 'Third-Rank Alchemist'?"

The Purple Copper Alchemy Flame was a unique 'Third-Rank Alchemy Flame' possessed only by Third-Rank Alchemists.

Witnessing the Third-Rank Alchemy Flame in Wyatt Barnes's hand, she felt her heartbeat accelerate.

She had seen Third-Rank Alchemists before.

But such a young Third-Rank Alchemist was something she had never seen or heard of before.

"Yes."

Wyatt nodded and immediately suppressed the alchemical flame in his hand, weakening it.

Soon, the purple hue on the edge of the Third-Rank Alchemical Flame gradually transformed into the blue of a Fourth-Rank Alchemy Flame...

Only then did Wyatt Barnes begin to concoct medicine.

What Wyatt Barnes was preparing to concoct was the 'Fourth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill.'

It was not that he did not want to concoct a 'Third-Rank Clear Spirit Pill,' but the ingredients were hard to find.

Moreover, his medicine tripod was a 'Fourth-Rank Spirit Instrument,' which simply could not withstand his Third-Rank Alchemy Flame.

Therefore, he could only suppress his alchemy flame to the fourth rank and concoct the 'Fourth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill'.

The medicinal ingredients he just went to buy were what's needed for the Fourth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill, "Fortunately, the ingredients for a Fourth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill aren't rare...otherwise, I would have to settle for concocting a Fifth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill."

Wyatt sighed slightly inwardly.

Of course, in his opinion, even a Fifth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill should be enough to completely rid Little Gold's body of the power of the 'Stasis Origin Powder.'

Whoosh!

Wyatt's pill concoction techniques were just as good as his magic tool crafting techniques. Within two hours, he successfully concocted a 'Fourth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill.'

After feeding the Fourth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill to the unconscious Little Gold, Wyatt placed his hand on its body, infusing his Origin Force into it to help it dissipate the medicinal power.

At this moment, Wyatt could clearly feel...

The power of the Stasis Origin Powder within Little Gold's body was retreating bit by bit, completely unable to resist the medicinal power of the Fourth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill.

Half an hour later, the power of the Stasis Origin Powder was completely swept away by the domineering power of the Fourth-Rank Clear Spirit Pill, no longer able to stir up any trouble.

Little Gold was finally back to normal.

A smile appeared on Wyatt's face. He gently stroked Little Gold's fluffy back and sighed, "This little guy, always surrounded by trouble...The first time I met it, it was at an auction. This time it disappeared, it was again captured by someone who wanted to auction it off."

"Hiss hiss~~"

At this moment, the two little pythons flew out of Wyatt's sleeves, landing one on either side of Little Gold, extending their little heads to gently rub against Little Gold.

"Squeak ~~"

Moments later, Little Gold woke up, and the first thing it saw were the two little pythons standing on its sides.

"Squeak!!"

Immediately, Little Gold bolted away like a bolt of lightning, staring warily at the two little pythons.

"Hiss hiss~~"

Little Black snake stuck out its forked tongue, elevating its head in front of Little Gold, eyes filled with triumph.

"Squeak!!"

Little Gold's golden fur stood on end as if electrified, with its Origin Force fluctuating around it.

Above its head in the void, two ancient horned dragon shadows appeared, ready to strike.

Not to be outdone, the Little Black snake projected four ancient horned dragon shadows above itself in the void.

On seeing this, Little Gold drooped its head, looking somewhat crestfallen.

Whoosh!

The next moment, Little Gold transformed into a golden light and landed on Wyatt's shoulder, looking like a wronged little wife.

"Hiss hiss~~"

The two little pythons, on the other hand, were extremely smug, turned around and swept their tails toward Little Gold.

Seeing this, Wyatt could not help but smile wryly.

He couldn't help recalling...

Originally, when the two little pythons were weaker than Little Gold, Little Gold had turned its back to them and twerked provocatively at them.

But who could have thought that times have changed; now, the pythons were stronger than Little Gold.

"Wyatt, Little Black and Little White are bullying me."

The voice of Little Gold, sounding like a happy little girl, reached Wyatt's ears, filled with grievance.

"Little Gold, if you hadn't provoked them in the first place, would they be treating you like this today?"

Wyatt gave Little Gold a glance and couldn't help but chuckle.

"Little Gold, you are so cute."

At this moment, Karina approached and reached out to grab Little Gold.

And Little Gold did not resist, allowing Karina to hold it in her hand. Its pair of turquoise eyes twinkled as it carefully studied Karina.

"Th... Thank you sis... for... for helping me get... revenge..."

Suddenly, a soft, childish voice echoed out.

Wyatt was dumbstruck.

He could tell that this was not a voice produced by congealing Origin Force, but was spoken out loud.

"You... you just entered the Void Realm... and you can already speak human language?"

Karina's eyes widened, looking at the fluffy Little Gold in her hand, her pretty face blank.

She was clearly shocked.

"He... hehe... I... am very powerful..."

Little Gold raised its little head, blinked its turquoise eyes, and proudly twisted its fluffy, chubby body.

Making Karina laugh.

Chapter 604: Other Jade Sword Owners

Speaking the language of humans?

Even Wyatt Barnes, now, was shocked by Little Gold's ability.

When Little Gold first entered the 'Peep Naught Realm', it was able to condense the Origin Force into voice, which already astonished him greatly.

You must understand, in the memories of the reincarnated Martial Emperor, only demon beasts that have entered the 'Enter Void Realm' and above know the technique to 'Condense Origin Force into Voice'.

As for 'Speaking Human Language', that is a characteristic of demon beasts in the Cave Void Realm.

The reincarnated Martial Emperor, in his two lives, had never seen a demon beast that had not entered the 'Cave Void Realm', but was able to speak human language.

And now, such an odd creature appeared before Wyatt Barnes's eyes.

"Based on the memories of the reincarnated Martial Emperor... generally, demon beasts in the 'Enter Void Realm' can 'Condense Origin Force into Voice'. 'Cave Void Realm' demon beasts can 'Speak Human Language', and the 'Transforming Void Realm' demon beasts can 'Transform into Human Form'."

Wyatt Barnes intently stared at Little Gold nestled comfortably in Karina Hanson's hand. With a trembling heart, he thought, "As for Little Gold... it was able to condense the Origin Force into voice when it was in the 'Peep Naught Realm'. Now that it has broken through to the 'Enter Void Realm', it can speak!"

"If it keeps on with this pattern... when it enters the 'Cave Void Realm', wouldn't it be able to transform into a human form?"

At this thought, Wyatt Barnes couldn't help but gasp.

"Julia."

Wyatt Barnes turned toward Karina Hanson and asked, "When did Little Black and Little White begin to 'Condense Origin Force into Voice' to communicate with you?"

"In the 'Enter Void Realm'."

Karina Hanson explained, "Almost all demon beasts that enter the Void Realm can condense Origin Force into voice. That's normal... but I can't make sense of why Little Gold can speak the human language."

"Just as I thought."

Wyatt Barnes let out a soft sigh. Little Black and Little White, like normal demon beasts, only began to 'Condense Origin Force into Voice' when they entered the 'Enter Void Realm'.

But Little Gold was an exception.

"Julia, you don't know... when Little Gold first broke through to the 'Peep Naught Realm', it could already condense Origin Force into voice and communicate with me."

Wyatt Barnes added.

"What?!"

Karina Hanson was taken aback once more. She looked intently at Little Gold in her hands, she pondered, "This little fellow is so special? If this continues, wouldn't it be able to transform into a human when it enters the Cave Void Realm and directly become a 'yao'?"

"A 'Yao' of the 'Cave Void Realm'... I've never heard of such a thing."

As she said this, Karina Hanson shook her head, her eyes filled with confusion and puzzlement.

Even she couldn't figure out why Little Gold was so 'special'.

"Looking at it this way, this little critter really is extraordinary."

Wyatt Barnes glanced at Little Gold and sighed.

"Squeak, squeak~~"

Little Gold squeaked twice then turned to the two small pythons, "You... you... you cannot talk... you... you're not as powerful as me..."

Seeing Little Gold dare to challenge Little Black and Little White, Wyatt Barnes couldn't help but shake his head and chuckle bitterly.

Whoosh! Whoosh!

A streak of black and a streak of white lightning flashed past, and Little Gold promptly curled up in Karina Hanson's hands, "Gentle... gentlemen... fight... with words... not fists..."

The words of Little Gold reached the ears of Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson, causing both to pause and smile at each other in surprise.

Where did this little fellow learn these words from?

"Little Gold is quite lucky... This time, we can bring it along to the 'Sword Emperor Treasury'. Maybe it will find its destiny there."

Karina Hanson suggested.

Wyatt Barnes nodded in agreement.

The following two days, Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson did not leave and spent their time in the inn.

Before they knew it, the day they had agreed upon with the other Jade Sword owners had arrived.

And Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson set off toward 'Stag Ridge'.

Stag Ridge, located north of the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire, is a vast range of hills that covers an area dozens of times the size of the Imperial City itself.

"Wyatt, when we meet up with them and reach the 'Sword Emperor Treasury'. When we use the Nine Jade Swords to open the treasury, do you think I should freeze them all into ice pops? That way, no one will fight us for the treasures inside."

Karina Hanson eyes twinkled, her face revealing a devilish grin.

Even though Wyatt Barnes had considered this plan before.

But hearing Karina Hanson say it out loud made him shudder, he thought, "Julia really is a little witch at heart. Thankfully, she is a friend and not an enemy."

"There's no need."

Wyatt Barnes shook his head, rejecting Karina Hanson's plan.

In the recent days, aside from training, he had been thinking about various matters concerning the Sword Emperor's Treasury.

The treasury that belonged to the Sword Emperor was undoubtedly left behind by a sword cultivator who had achieved the rank of martial emperor.

This could be surmised from its name alone.

Generally, the 'treasuries' left behind by martial emperors and martial gods were more or less 'games' they intentionally set up. Though they may contain abundant treasures, there were definitely corresponding tests to access them.

"Back in the day, the Reincarnated Martial God used to be involved in similar 'games'... Once, he purposely set up a treasury, and in the end, everyone who entered it perished!"

These memories sent a chill down Wyatt Barnes's spine.

In the eyes of those powerful martial emperors and martial gods, even the beings at the fourth level of the void realm, the 'Transforming Void Realm', were no different than ants.

The deaths of ants could hardly affect their mental state.

To them, these 'games' they set up were merely a source of entertainment.

"Julia, think about it... Even if there are treasures in the Sword Emperor's Treasury, they certainly won't be easy to get. If they go in with us, they can help us scout the way and we can take fewer risks."

Wyatt Barnes said to Karina Hanson, "If we really encounter some treasures inside, then you can seize them... after all, with your strength, no one among them should be able to match you."

"You are always more thoughtful, Wyatt... Alright, let's do it like that."

Wyatt Barnes's suggestion received Karina Hanson's approval. A smirk appeared on Karina Hanson's face, "I love stealing stuff... When I was a kid, I always stole Iris' toys."

"Iris?"

Upon hearing Karina Hanson's words, Wyatt Barnes was taken aback, "Who is she?"

Karina Hanson's eyes sparkled mischievously, "She's Uncle Woodson's daughter, older than me by half a month... Since childhood, I've taken a great pleasure in nabbing her stuff, and every time, she would cry her eyes out."

Wyatt Barnes was left speechless.

He mourned silently for that 'Iris Woodson'.

Then, Wyatt Barnes took out the Jade Sword, infused his Origin Force into it, setting up a connection with the other holders of the Jade Swords.

"Squeak Squeak~~"

Little Gold peeked its head out under Wyatt Barnes' sleeve, making a couple of squeaks and curiously observing its surroundings.

After two days of rest, Little Gold was in high spirits.

"Hiss Hiss~~"

From under Karina Hanson's sleeve, two little pythons also poked their heads out. They stuck out their tongues and provocatively glanced at Little Gold.

"You two numbskulls can't even talk."

The childish voice of Little Gold finally made sense.

However, its provoking words enraged the two little pythons.

If it wasn't for Karina calming the little pythons, they might have already pounced on Little Gold.

"Little Gold, you can't go on like this... If you continue, next time I won't stop them. I'll let Little Black and Little White have a go at you."

Wyatt Barnes glared at Little Gold. Little Gold cheekily stuck its tongue out then went back inside his sleeve without another peep.

"Little Black, Little White, you two hide as well."

Wyatt Barnes said to the little pythons before calling Karina Hanson, "Julia, let's go over there!"

Both Wyatt and Julia headed north towards Wild Chicken Ridge.

Once they were above a lush mountain valley in the middle of Wild Chicken Ridge, Wyatt Barnes looked down and said, "Julia, let's go down... This is where I agreed to meet them."

Then, both Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson descended into the valley.

At that moment, four people were already waiting in the valley.

These four people were divided into two groups.

One group consisted of two elegantly dressed middle-aged men.

The other group was formed by a sturdy middle-aged man and an elderly man in a blue robe.

When they saw Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson appear, all four were flabbergasted.

A twenty-five-year-old young man and a fifteen or sixteen-year-old girl...

Could this be a pair of siblings who've lost their way?

The four of them didn't believe that these two were also among the owners of one of the Jade Swords.

"Young lady, have you and your brother lost your way?"

The muscular middle-aged man took a step forward, smiled, and asked Karina as if he was dealing with a child.

"You!"

Before Karina could react, Wyatt Barnes standing next to her, exclaimed.

"You are?"

Upon hearing Wyatt's words, the muscular middle-aged man was taken aback as he scanned him from head to toe, "Brother, do I know you?"

"Although you don't recognize me, it seems like we've had more than one exchange previously right? You... you can't even recognize my voice?"

Wyatt Barnes squinted his eyes and said slowly.

As soon as the muscular middle-aged man started speaking, he recognized his voice.

It was indeed the voice of the first Jade Sword owner he contacted, the one with the booming voice.

"You... it's you!"

The muscular middle-aged man finally reacted, he looked at Wyatt as if he'd seen a ghost and then forced a smile: "I really didn't expect you to be this young."

Upon saying this, he glanced at Karina Hanson standing next to Wyatt, growing speechless.

This guy, he brought a young girl along. Does he think the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury' is a place to play house?

"I'm 'Echo Reid.' What's your name, brother?"

The muscular middle-aged man asked.

"Wyatt Barnes."

Wyatt Barnes answered.

"So you are Brother Wyatt... This is 'Elder Cruz,' my senior,"

At this time, Echo Reid introduced the elderly man in a blue robe standing next to him to Wyatt.

"Elder Cruz,"

Wyatt greeted the old man with a smile.

"Hmm."

Elder Cruz merely nodded his head and then ignored him. It was clear that he didn't take Wyatt seriously.

Wyatt didn't mind.

After all, his age was a clear indication for anyone not to pay attention to him.

However, while Wyatt didn't think much of it, Karina Hanson wasn't having that. "Old man, didn't you hear my Brother Wyatt greeting you? What I hate the most is old geezers like you who think you can do anything because you're old!"

Chapter 605: Watching Intently

Wyatt Barnes wanted to interject, but it was already too late.

Julia, the headstrong girl, didn't know how to hold her tongue once she was in the right.

"Mind your words, girl, lest you get into trouble!"

The elder in green robes grimaced, his eyes flickering with a murderous intent as he glared at Karina Hanson.

"Getting into trouble? Old geezer, I..."

Karina Hanson couldn't tolerate the elder's threats and immediately bristled.

"Julia!"

At this moment, Wyatt Barnes gently grabbed Karina's hand and shook his head, his voice emboldened with Origin Force, "There's no need to face off with him... besides, this old codger has some abilities. Once he enters the Sword Emperor's treasure trove and finds something valuable, we can just rob him."

"Killing him now is not worth it."

Wyatt Barnes' words pacified Karina, she huffed, "Old coot, I'll let you off for the sake of my brother Wyatt."

However, a glimmer of excitement shone in Karina's eyes, she whispered to Wyatt, "Brother Wyatt, you're right... we'll let this old fart find the treasures then rob him, enjoy his frustration, and then kill him!"

The resonance of Karina's Origin Force voice sent chills down Wyatt Barnes' spine, making him inwardly mourn for the elder in green.

Who else had this old man offended that he dared to provoke this little witch?

"You!!"

Annoyed by the reprimand of a girl in her teenage years, the elder's face turned beet red, his body trembling with suppressed anger.

Just as the elder prepared to retort, Echo Reid hurriedly intervened, "Elder Cruz, since the young lady has stepped back, there's no need to keep up the argument... just let it go."

"Humph!"

Elder Cruz snorted coldly, but in the end, heeded Echo's advice and ceased his retort.

Wyatt Barnes gave the elder a sidelong glance.

Before Wyatt's spiritual power, the old man's cultivation level was completely exposed.

This old man was at the 'Enter Void Realm Level Eight'.

By power comparison, he was as formidable as the Grand Elder of the Don Family who died at the hands of Wyatt Barnes two days ago.

Meanwhile, tranquillity was once again restored to the valley.

The two middle-aged men in brocade robes standing aside were now thoroughly examining Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson, their eyes filled with an odd light of profound curiosity as they speculated about something.

Whoo! Whoosh! Whoosh!

...

More figures shot down from the top of the valley.

Before long, the remaining five groups of people arrived as scheduled.

These people all arrived in pairs.

When the other five teams noticed the duo of Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson, they couldn't help but be taken aback.

"Are they also possessors of the Jade Sword?"

Many people couldn't curb their curiosity.

"Young man, do you really have a Jade Sword?"

Quickly, someone queried Wyatt Barnes, his face filled with skepticism.

Wyatt Barnes didn't beat around the bush; he casually took out his 'Jade Sword' from the Storage Ring and waved it in front of the skeptic.

The man was immediately silenced.

"Young man, if I were you, I would take an elder along to the Sword Emperor's treasure trove... you are just too impulsive."

A kindly elder in green robes sighed while shaking his head.

The risks of the Sword Emperor's treasure trove were unpredictable and known to all.

Hence, no one dared underestimate the dangers within.

The greatest fear stemmed from the unknown.

Under such circumstances, the stronger your power, the higher your chances of surviving and gaining something valuable inside.

"Thank you for your advice."

Wyatt Barnes appreciated the old man in green's advice with a warm smile, "Rest assured, elder, I have it under control."

"Does everyone else possess a Jade Sword?"

At this time, someone else pulled out a Jade Sword and inquired.

Immediately, each of the other seven groups had one person showcasing a Jade Sword before everyone.

All of the Nine Jade Swords were gathered.

And at that very moment-

"Huh?"

Wyatt Barnes noticed the Jade Sword in his hand was trembling. It was as if it was being drawn to something, desperately trying to break free from his grasp.

And the Jade Sword in the hands of the eight others were having the same reaction.

All Nine Jade Swords were vibrating, pointed in the same direction...

More precisely, they were all focusing on the same 'point'.

"Legend has it that once the nine swords unite, they form a new Jade Sword, leading us to the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure Trove'!"

At this moment Echo Reid, who was holding one of the Jade Swords, spoke up, "Everyone, how about we unite the nine swords right now and set off to the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure Trove' together?"

As Echo finished speaking, he looked around the crowd.

"I don't mind."

Wyatt Barnes shrugged nonchalantly.

"I don't mind either."

"I don't mind."

...

For a moment, aside from Echo Reid who proposed the suggestion, five of the people holding the Jade Sword shook their heads.

Including Wyatt Barnes and Echo Reid, a total of seven people agreed to unite the Nine Jade Swords directly and seek the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure'.

Only two of the people holding the Jade Swords have yet to express their opinions.

One of them was one of the two robed middle-aged men who had come to the valley earlier.

The other was a short, skinny old man with distinctly protruding eyes.

"Huh?"

At this moment, Wyatt Barnes noticed that the robed middle-aged man and the skinny old man suddenly looked at each other, nodding in unison.

It seemed like they had reached some sort of agreement.

Immediately after, Wyatt saw this.

The two robe-clad middle-aged men, the skinny old man, and the elderly woman next to the old man turned their gazes toward him.

More precisely, they were looking at him and Karina Hanson who was by his side.

"What are you trying to do?!" Echo Reid's face changed subtly.

"Nothing... It's just that some people don't deserve to hold the 'Jade Sword'. They should hand the Jade Sword over, and give up two seats."

The robe-clad middle-aged man holding the Jade Sword shook his head as he looked at Wyatt Barnes.

It was as if he was dismissively narrating unimportant matters.

"Exactly!"

The skinny old man who also held the Jade Sword nodded in agreement, "There is a friend of mine, in the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire... I wasn't initially planning to bring him along. However, now that there are two extra places available, I would like to have him join us."

"He is a Seventh-Order of 'Enter Void Realm' being. If we enter 'Sword Emperor's Treasure' together, it would benefit us greatly."

This statement from the skinny old man brought relief to the people whose faces had turned white with shock.

Indeed.

Although they were unsure of the dangers hidden within the Sword Emperor's Treasure, they were certain of one thing.

The stronger you were, the higher your chances of surviving inside.

For a moment, most gazes fell on Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson.

Perhaps in their eyes, a young man in purple around 25 years old and a 15 or 16-year-old girl in a yellow dress – even if these two entered the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure', it would be of no use to them; they would only be dragging them down.

And yet, though others thought so, they kept silent, and simply stepped back to watch events unfold.

This included Echo Reid.

In a moment, Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson were surrounded by the two robed middle-aged men, the skinny old man, and the elderly woman in gray, forming a four-cornered standoff.

Their stares, fierce and predatory, were firmly fixed on the Jade Sword in Wyatt Barnes's hand.

"Kid, if you hand over the Jade Sword now and leave... we can spare your life."

"Correct! If you just hand over the Jade Sword and give up those two spots, we have no reason to harm you."

"Kid, if you know what's good for you, drop the Jade Sword and scram!"

...

The four men looked at Wyatt Barnes, their words filled with threats.

The valley was now fraught with tension like drawn swords ready to strike.

Of course, another five groups were merely present to watch the excitement.

"Elder Brother Ling Tian!"

Standing not far away, Echo Reid furrowed his brow and couldn't bear to look on any longer. He stepped forward, attempting to aid Wyatt Barnes.

"Echo Reid!"

At this moment, the elder clad in blue standing next to Echo Reid stopped him, "Don't meddle in these murky waters! Otherwise, I won't spare you."

Caught off guard, Echo Reid gave Wyatt Barnes a guilty look, sighed, and ultimately withdrew his step.

Wyatt Barnes took in this scene clearly.

At the same time as being touched, he couldn't help but feel a surge of anger...

Of course, his anger was directed towards the elder in blue.

"Elder Brother Ling Tian, hand over the Jade Sword... Whatever is inside the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure' is illusory. Only your own life is real, and the most important!"

Echo Reid's 'Origin Force Consolidated Voice' reached Wyatt Barnes' ears.

Echo Reid was trying to persuade Wyatt Barnes to give up the Jade Sword and leave.

Wyatt Barnes of course knew that Echo Reid had good intentions.

"No matter what, in the presence of so many people here, only you expressed the desire to help me, to advise me... I, Wyatt Barnes, will remember this act of kindness."

Wyatt Barnes nodded at Echo Reid, creating an 'Origin Force Consolidated Voice', then added, "However, it isn't that just any Tom, Dick, or Harry is capable of snatching the Jade Sword from my hand."

Echo Reid was stunned.

He couldn't imagine where this young man got such tremendous confidence from.

A young man who looked to be about 25 years old, even if gifted, could only have possibly just entered the 'Enter Void Realm' as a martial artist at the very most.

As for the other 15 or 16-year-old girl, the fact that she could freely move in the air and defy gravity had already shocked him.

In his view, the girl was at most a budding genius martial artist who just broke through to the 'Peep Naught Realm'.

"Kid, I am giving you five breaths to think about it... If by then you haven't dropped the Jade Sword in your hand, both you and this lass are as good as dead!"

The robe-clad middle-aged man holding the Jade Sword threatened him in a harsh voice.

"You are still young and have your whole life ahead of you... There's no need to lose your life over a mere Jade Sword."

The skinny old man looked at Wyatt Barnes emotionlessly. Despite his calm tone, it was filled with murderous intent.

Even when faced with threats, Wyatt Barnes's expression remained steady, as unflinching as if he were observing the collapse of a mountain.

Then, Wyatt Barnes looked at Karina Hanson by his side and asked with a smile: "Julia, people want to forcibly take our Jade Swords and seize our spots to enter the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure'... What do you think we should do?"

Nobody noticed that the moment the two robe-clad middle-aged men, the skinny old man, and the grey-clothed elderly woman surrounded them, Karina Hanson's eyes revealed a faint glimmer of excitement.

Chapter 606: Nine Swords Combine into One

Now, upon hearing Wyatt Barnes's question, a heart-stirring smile surfaced on Karina Hanson's pretty face.

"What do you think, Wyatt?"

Karina looked at Wyatt Barnes with the clear intention of letting him decide.

Karina didn't even give a second glance to the four people who surrounded them during the whole scenario.

Maybe, in her eyes, these four people were not even worth her attention.

"I think we can 'treat them in their own way'... for instance, let them make the choice: either to abandon the Jade Sword and live, or remain obstinate and die!"

Wyatt Barnes opened his mouth indifferently, and as he finished speaking, his gaze passed those four people who surrounded him and Karina.

Just when Wyatt Barnes stopped speaking.

The onlookers could not resist but feel stunned.

"Has this young man gone mad?"

"He is clearly courting death!"

...

No one had faith in Wyatt Barnes.

Echo Reid furrowed his brow, he wanted to say something, but upon seeing the confidence bursting out from Wyatt Barnes's eyes, he hesitated.

"Where does Elder Brother Ling Tian get such confidence from?"

Echo Reid was filled with curiosity.

Subconsciously, he had a strong intuition.

He always felt, Wyatt Barnes's confidence was not aimless.

Among these four people surrounding Wyatt Barnes, including the two middle-aged men in brocade clothes, the thin old man, and the old hag dressed in grey, when they heard Wyatt Barnes's words, they were stunned for a while.

The thin old man was the first to recover. He yelled angrily, "It seems like you two really don't want to give up the Jade Sword... In that case, let me send you on the road to death!"

As the thin old man finished his words, he thrust toward Wyatt Barnes like a Goshawk sweeping down.

An abundance of Origin Force took shape in his hands, transformed into countless palm impressions forming a heavenly net, and covered down towards Wyatt Barnes.

Whoosh!

Up above the void, ten ancient horned dragon phantoms appeared, making the illusion almost lifelike.

"Enter Void Realm Seventh-Order!"

Wyatt Barnes slightly raised his brows.

"Hmph!"

At that moment, a cold hump abruptly resonated.

It was Karina Hanson beside Wyatt Barnes who made the move, raising her hand to meet the fierce and freezing wind that swept out, confronting the thin old man.

The thin old man's body also stopped abruptly halfway through.

His whole body transformed into an ice sculpture connected to the earth, motionless.

The sky-full of palm imprints was also destroyed by the extremely cold wind and disappeared without a trace.

The valley fell into an unexpected silence.

Everyone was watching the scene in a daze, utterly dumfounded.

For a moment, only the sound of the breeze blowing through could be heard in the valley.

The dignified 'Enter Void Realm Seventh-Order powerhouse,' was turned into an ice sculpture by a simple gesture from a fifteen, sixteen-year-old girl?

"Old man!"

The old hag in grey changed her expression drastically, let out a sorrowful cry, and moved toward the ice sculpture, wanting to rescue the man frozen inside.

"Stop!"

At this moment, the two middle-aged men in brocade clothes changed their expressions and stopped her hastily.

Unfortunately, their reminder was too late.

When the hand of the old hag in grey came in contact with the ice sculpture.

Crack!

A bunch of scary cracks appeared instantly on the ice sculpture, spread all around like a spider web.

When the cracks reached their extreme.

Boom!

The ice sculpture disintegrated into countless pieces and crashed to the ground.

The thin old man's body, who was frozen inside, was shattered along with the ice sculpture.

Even though the old man was dead, he didn't leave even a slightest trace of blood.

This eerie spectacle made the onlookers gasp in shock.

"Old...Old man..."

The old hag was dumbstruck, utterly petrified.

Did she just kill her own husband?

"I'm coming for you!"

Utterly furious, the old hag lost her senses and pounced towards Karina Hanson recklessly, regardless of her own life.

Needless to say, the result was predictable.

The old hag, like her husband, was transformed into another ice sculpture, standing weirdly.

"Hmph!"

With Karina's cold grunt, she gently raised her hand, and touched the ice sculpture, immediately turning the frozen old hag into countless fragments.

The old hag, followed in her husband's footsteps.

"What a frightening 'Ice Realm'!"

Echo Reid's pupils constricted, his heartbeat accelerated drastically.

Now, he finally understood why Wyatt Barnes was so confident.

It turned out that, by Wyatt Barnes's side, there was such a powerhouse.

Killing two 'Enter Void Realm Seventh Order warriors,' was as simple for her as slaughtering chickens or cutting grass.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he would have found it hard to believe.

A girl who appeared to be no more than fifteen or sixteen years old, could have such terrifying cultivation.

Most importantly, the girl only moved twice from beginning to end, the heavenly and earthly force hadn't fully condensed into horned dragon phantom, and she backed off.

Not letting anyone see through her real cultivation level.

"Monster!"

The next moment, Echo Reid had a sudden epiphany.

Once this thought emerged, it could no longer be dismissed.

Demon beasts in the Transforming Void Realm could change shape into human form and were known as 'Demons'.

It was common knowledge.

The most important thing was that, after transforming into human form, demon beasts in the Transforming Void Realm could reshape their appearance once independently.

It was rumored that some strange-tempered demons loved to change themselves into human children.

Outside the territory, a seemingly seven or eight-year-old child may very well be a 'demon' in the Transforming Void Realm, with terrifying strength.

It was not only Echo Reid who thought this way, but many others as well.

"She...she..."

Elder Cruz, standing next to Echo Reid, began to shake subtly.

Recalling his recent clash with the girl, he couldn't help but feel a lingering fear.

If he dared to act at that time, he could only imagine the result.

The way she killed the martial artist at the 'Enter Void Realm Seventh Order', was as easy as cutting grass or killing a chicken...

He didn't think he was much stronger than a 'Enter Void Realm Seventh-Order' martial artist.

As Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson turned their gazes and landed on the bodies of two diplomats around them,

Others also turned their eyes to these two.

At this moment, their gaze was full of pity.

"You... you... were you the ones who caused the massacre two days ago, slaughtering all the high-ranking members of the Don Family including the Clan Chief and the Grand Elder?"

The diplomat holding the Jade Sword, earlier when Julia began to take action, had remembered the incident that happened two days ago, causing huge chaos in the Imperial City of the Eastern Mulberry Empire.

Now, he had no choice but to link that event with the girl in the yellow dress.

Simply because, the method was too familiar.

"I remember now!"

An old man screamed in the crowd, "I heard that two days ago, a terrifying girl who had understood the 'Ice Realm' turned the high-ranking members of the Don Family into ice sculptures and killed them... It's her!"

"I also heard about it...it was said that even a martial artist at the 'Enter Void Realm Level Eight' was killed by the girl."

"It looks like someone is going to have bad luck."

...

The people around whispered to each other.

As for the two diplomats whose complexion greatly changed at the moment and were trembling, they showed no sympathy.

This incident, when traced back to its roots, was caused by these two diplomats. They brought it upon themselves, they can't blame others.

Those who mix in society will have to pay.

"I will give you the Jade Sword, I will give you the Jade Sword...Don't kill me, don't kill me!"

At this moment, the diplomat who held the Jade Sword found it as if he was holding a hot potato, and hastily threw it at Karina Hanson's feet, crying in panic.

"We'll give you the Jade Sword, we'll withdraw from entering the 'Emperor's Sword Vault', we'll leave, we'll leave right now!!!"

The other diplomat glanced cautiously at Karina Hanson. After noticing that Hanson showed no expression, he took a deep breath, and his Origin Force surged beneath his feet, and he blasted into the sky.

The previous diplomat seeing his companion leave, immediately followed suit.

"Elder Brother Wyatt gave you a chance but you didn't treasure it properly."

Karina Hanson began talking slowly. Although her voice was sweet as an oriole, to those present, it was undoubtedly a devil's voice.

Whoosh!

Karina Hanson raised her hand, and an extremely cold wind appeared again, rise to heaven.

Immediately, the two diplomats who had just risen into the sky, stiffened and became two ice sculptures suspended in mid-air, slowly shining under the scorching sun.

And the Origin Force in their bodies was constantly oppressed.

After a while, it was completely depleted.

The two ice sculptures, without the support of the Origin Force, fell down heavily and shattered into pieces of ice.

The valley fell into dead silence again.

Except for Wyatt Barnes, everyone's gaze towards Karina Hanson was full of terror, terror that originated from the soul.

This girl's methods left them completely in awe.

"If she is human, she must be at least a 'Cave Void Realm' strong person! Or maybe, she's a 'Demon' who has stepped into the fourth void realm!"

This was the unanimous thought of the people present.

Wyatt took two steps forward, searched around where the old man's ice sculpture shattered, and turned out the Jade Sword that had originally belonged to the old man.

The Jade Sword was intact.

Needless to say, Wyatt was not surprised.

This Jade Sword, after all, was the key to the Emperor's Sword Vault, left behind by the Martial Emperor.

Unless a strong person exceeds the 'Martial Emperor Realm', it would be extremely difficult for ordinary martial artists to destroy it.

Then, Wyatt picked up the Jade Sword beside Karina's foot.

For a moment, Wyatt had three Jade Swords in his hand.

"Everyone, please bring out your Jade Swords, let the Nine Jade Swords become one, and lead us to the 'Sword Emperor's Vault'!"

Wyatt's gaze swept over the people left from the six groups.

These people, all agreed to unite the Nine Jade Swords just now.

Just now, they did not refuse to unite the Nine Jade Swords, and now, after witnessing Karina's terrifying strength, they did not dare to neglect and loosened their grip on their Jade Swords.

Wyatt also let go of the three Jade Swords in his hand.

Suddenly, the Nine Jade Swords soared into the sky and collided together.

A strong light flashed, forcing everyone to squint their eyes instinctively.

When everyone, including Wyatt, opened their eyes again, a brand-new Jade Sword appeared before them.

This was a green and shiny Jade Sword, emitting waves of sharp aura.

Whoosh!

The Jade Sword quivered and turned itself into a green light, flying towards the south.

Immediately, several figures turned into streamers and followed.

"Let's go!"

Wyatt called Julia and followed the new Jade Sword.

Chapter 607: Realm Fragment

"Brother Wyatt, wait up!"

Just as they were taking off, Karina Hanson called out to Wyatt Barnes.

Before Wyatt could even respond,

"Big head!"

Karina's voice echoed loudly, sweeping through the entirety of Wild Chicken Ridge.

Though Wild Chicken Ridge was vast, Karina's Origin Force-infused voice clearly echoed into every corner.

Whoosh!

Quickly, an enormous figure shot into the sky, standing before Wyatt's eyes.

It was the 'Three-eyed Flame Tiger'!

"Almost forgot about this big fellow."

Wyatt Barnes chuckled.

Then, Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson mounted the back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, letting it bear them along the journey.

Riding on the speed of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, they caught up with the twelve people who had been in front in no time.

Initially, the twelve people were alarmed seeing the colossal Demon Beast coming after them, thinking they had disturbed it.

"Brother Wyatt!"

Noticed by Echo Reid's keen eyes, he was surprised to spot Wyatt on the Demon Beast's back.

Wyatt Barnes smiled and nodded at Echo Reid, "Climb on... it's faster to travel with this big guy than flying by oneself."

However, this moment seemed like Echo Reid was spellbound, staring at the giant beast before him.

"Wy... Wyatt, is this Demon Beast... could it be the Black Stone Empire's National Beast, 'Three-eyed Flame Tiger'?"

Echo Reid swallowed hard, asking with difficulty.

"Yes, it is."

Wyatt Barnes nodded.

Hearing his words, Echo Reid was utterly stunned.

Being from the Black Stone Empire, he naturally knew what the Three-eyed Flame Tiger meant for the Black Stone Empire.

In the Black Stone Empire, the most powerful is none other than 'Prince Yakim'.

Following Prince Yakim, the Enter Void Realm's ninth layer Demon Beast 'Three-eyed Flame Tiger' along with a few strong figures of the Imperial Family were at the same level.

"The Guardian Beast of the Black Stone Empire?"

Suddenly, many people were speechless and amazed.

"They've actually taken away the Black Stone Empire's Guardian Beast?"

Some people couldn't help but bring up this speculation.

In their view,

the maiden in the yellow dress was like a little witch, capable of making anything exaggerated seem not strange at all.

Moreover, with the power of the maiden in the yellow dress, she had nothing to fear from the Black Stone Empire.

Even if she hijacked the Black Stone Empire's Guardian Beast, the Royal Family might not dare to let out a peep.

At Wyatt Barnes' invitation, Echo Reid landed on the back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

"Elder Cruz,"

Echo Reid then beckoned to the elder in the green robe, wanting him to join them on the incredibly spacious back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger.

However, the elder in the green robe just shook his head, declining Echo Reid's kind offer.

What a joke!

Just now, he and the duo had a conflict.

At this point, not to mention that he would feel embarrassed sitting on the other party's Demon Beast, even if he thickened his face to do so, he feared they would shoot him down.

He could sense the hostility in the maiden in the yellow dress.

A day passed by swiftly.

However, the speed of the Jade Sword showed no sign of slowing down.

"Just where exactly is the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure' located?"

After three days and three nights, someone couldn't help but ask.

After flying for three days and three nights, even the toughest among them was feeling a little worn out.

Quite a few longed to sit on the back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger like Wyatt and the others, envying them and wishing they too could get a ride.

However, they didn't dare.

Who knew if they attempted that, the maiden in the yellow dress might turn them into ice sculptures as well.

The sight of the four people killed by the maiden three days ago still haunted them.

"Whew!"

From atop the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, Wyatt Barnes woke up from his cultivation, his eyes twinkling, "My cultivation is finally nearing the bottleneck of entering the 'Second Layer of the Void Realm'...it's time to consume the 'Spiritual Void Fruit'."

As Wyatt Barnes muttered to himself, a translucent and gleaming spirit fruit appeared in his hand.

A rich fragrance wafted out.

"Spiritual Void Fruit?"

Karina Hanson was the first to look towards the spirit fruit, though she looked surprised, she didn't make much of it.

To her right now, 'Spiritual Void Fruit' was of no use.

However, the fact that Karina didn't think much of the 'Spiritual Void Fruit' didn't mean that others didn't care about it.

At this moment, including Echo Reid, everyone's gaze was fixed on the 'Spiritual Void Fruit' in Wyatt's hand.

If it weren't for their dread of the terrifying power of the young girl, they would've long since rushed forward to snatch away the Spiritual Void Fruit from Wyatt's hand.

The Spiritual Void Fruit is a spirit fruit specifically for 'Void Realm warriors'.

Even for 'Void Realm Ninth Layer warriors', consuming it can be immensely beneficial.

Everyone present, except for Karina Hanson, was a Void Realm warrior, and seeing the Spiritual Void Fruit in Wyatt's hand, they were green with envy.

"Squeak Squeak~~"

"Hiss~~"

Currently, even Little Gold, Little Black, and Little White, who were hiding under Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson's sleeves, were restless.

Under everyone's gaze.

Wyatt put the 'Spiritual Void Fruit' in his hand into his mouth and swallowed it in a few gulps.

A warm current, flowed down his throat, into his body.

The colossal medicinal power contained within that warmth, he could sense it clearly.

This Spiritual Void Fruit was precisely what he originally obtained from the hands of Valiant Charlesworth, the pavilion master of the Treasure Pavilion in Thames River City of the Great Turdo Dynasty. He hadn't used it before because he was waiting for the right moment.

The medicinal power of the Spiritual Void Fruit, although not top-notch amongst the fruits specially used by Enter Void Realm martial artists.

But for a First-level Enter Void Realm martial artist, it's undoubtedly mighty.

After breaking through to Enter Void Realm, Wyatt had a plan.

Once his cultivation at the First level of Enter Void Realm stabilized, then take a step further and consume the 'Spiritual Void Fruit' and strive to breakthrough to two levels in a short time.

Directly stepping into the 'Third Layer of Enter Void Realm'!

If it weren't for this, Wyatt would have already consumed the 'Spiritual Void Fruit' when he just broke through to the 'First Level of Enter Void Realm'.

As the saying goes, 'Use the best steel in sword making'. Wyatt was waiting for this moment.

After consuming the Spiritual Void Fruit, Wyatt closed his eyes and began to meditate carefully.

As for chasing the Jade Sword and going to the Sword Emperor's Treasury, with the Three-eyed Flame Tiger as his mount, he wasn't worried at all.

What he can do now is to practice earnestly, to see whether he has time to break through to the 'Third Layer of Enter Void Realm' before entering the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury'.

'Nine Dragons War Sovereign', Earth Dragon Transformation!

Unconsciously, Wyatt was fully immersed in cultivation.

Time quietly slips by.

The 'Jade Sword' that was leading the way in front, was like a tireless machine and flew for day after day.

A month's time passed in the blink of an eye.

At this moment, Wyatt Barnes, who was sitting cross-legged on the back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, finally made a move.

After cultivating for a whole month, Wyatt opened his star-like bright eyes and exhaled a turbid breath.

"Finally."

On Wyatt's face, a sunny smile spread out.

Enter Void Realm Third Layer!

He had broken through.

Filled with immense Origin Force inside his body, especially when he looked internally at the 'Original Infant' in his core which was becoming more ethereal, Wyatt couldn't help but feel excited.

The increase in strength also gave Wyatt Barnes enormous confidence.

You must know that his confidence was more than once shattered by Karina Hanson.

But after breaking through to the 'Third Layer of Enter Void Realm' now, he understands.

Everyone has their own fortune.

Like Karina Hanson.

Her terrible cultivation level today is precisely because of her extraordinary origin.

"In the past, I underestimated the power behind Karina Hanson."

Wyatt's gaze was on Karina Hanson, who was sitting not too far away, meditating with her eyes closed. He sighed in his heart, "Originally, I thought that the power behind Karina could only provide her with various spiritual fruits...Now, from the 'Ice Realm' mastered by Karina Hanson, her forces may be able to provide her with a 'realm fragment'!"

Realm fragment.

In the Cloud Skies Continent, it is something more precious than spiritual fruit.

When the martial artists of Cloud Skies Continent enter the Void Realm, they comprehend the 'strength,' 'realm'... among which 'strength' is just the foundation of 'realm'.

When entering the Void Realm, one comes to comprehend the 'realm'.

According to the memory of the Emperor Stone, Wyatt knew it well.

The 'realm' that Enter Void Realm martial artists come into contact with is actually the 'Enter Void Realm,' commonly known as the 'Initial Stage Realm.'

The Initial Stage Realm is divided into nine layers.

Each subsequent level brings the strength of an additional Ancient Horned Dragon.

And since there's an 'Initial Stage Realm,' there naturally exists a 'Middle Stage Realm.'

The Middle Stage Realm is the colloquial term for the 'Cave Void Realm.'

An Enter Void Realm Nine Layer martial artist who wants to step into the 'Cave Void Realm' must break through on the basis of the 'Nine Layer Initial Stage Realm' and comprehend the 'Middle Stage Realm.'

If this condition isn't met, stepping into the 'Cave Void Realm' will be impossible!

The 'Middle Stage Realm' like the 'Initial Stage Realm' is also divided into nine layers.

A First Layer Middle Stage Realm is comparable to the strength of twenty Ancient Horned Dragons.

Each subsequent level afterward increases the strength of ten Ancient Horned Dragons.

A Nine Layer Middle Stage Realm is comparable to the strength of a hundred Ancient Horned Dragons.

A Cave Void Realm Nine Layer martial artist who wants to step into the 'Transforming Void Realm' must also satisfy similar conditions. He must base himself on the 'Nine Layer Middle Stage Realm' and break through, to comprehend the 'High Stage Realm.'

The High Stage Realm is the colloquial term for the 'Transforming Void Realm.'

A First Layer High Stage Realm is comparable to the strength of two hundred Ancient Horned Dragons.

Each subsequent level afterward increases the strength of a hundred Ancient Horned Dragons.

A Nine Layer High Stage Realm is comparable to the strength of a thousand Ancient Horned Dragons.

And the 'High Stage Realm,' to some extent, is completely detached from the 'Initial Stage Realm' and 'Middle Stage Realm'...

Martial artists who comprehend the 'First Layer High Stage Realm' will produce a 'Realm Fragment' in the depths of their minds, which is similar to the core pill of Fierce Beasts and Demon Beasts.

The Realm Fragment contains the comprehension of a certain High Stage Realm by the martial artist who understood the 'High Stage Realm.'

Such a martial artist is often a being from the fourth Void Realm, the 'Transforming Void Realm'. If they are killed, their opponent will ruthlessly seize their 'Realm Fragment.'

The Realm Fragment is the 'Realm Essence' of Transforming Void Realm martial artists. If it is obtained by other martial artists who comprehend the same realm, they can even use it to speed up the process of comprehending that particular 'realm'.

Although it won't make them sky-rocket, the speed of comprehending that 'realm' will certainly thousandfold a day!

Chapter 608: The Sword Emperor's Treasure

"Julia's current 'Ice Realm', based on my spiritual sense, should undeniably be at the 'Intermediate Realm' level... and at least the Seventh-Order!"

Based on Martial Emperor's lifelong experience, Wyatt Barnes was able to vaguely infer the level of Julia's current mastery of the 'Ice Realm'.

The Seventh-Order Intermediate Realm is equivalent to the power of eighty ancient Horned Dragons...

Julia's strength, regardless of cultivation.

The power of her realm alone was enough to astonish Wyatt.

Regaining his focus, Wyatt didn't continue cultivating. Instead, he pulled Little Gold out from his sleeve and held it in his hand.

"This little fellow is also cultivating."

Looking at Little Gold lying motionless in his hand, Wyatt chuckled.

Finding Little Gold again was undoubtedly a delightful surprise for Wyatt.

What surprised him even more was,

Little Gold, had actually broken through to the 'Enter Void Realm'. Not only that, but he had also grasped the 'Second Layer Lightning Realm'.

After gently placing Little Gold down, Wyatt stood up and walked to stand on the shoulder of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, looking out into the distance.

Ahead of him was an vast expanse of land. Beyond this desolate land, he could faintly see a subtle hint of blue color that was extremely far from his current location.

"Is that... the sea region?"

Wyatt Barnes thought to himself.

A few days later, Wyatt finally confirmed as he stared at the increasingly closer blue stretch, "It is indeed the sea region!"

The distant sea and the azure sky merged into one blur.

"The so-called 'heaven and earth as one color', must be referring to this scene before my eyes."

Wyatt thought to himself.

Another day and night passed.

At this moment, standing on the Three-eyed Flame Tiger's shoulder, Wyatt could feel gusts of sea breeze and the faint scent of sea.

"I've been in this world for many years and yet it's the first time I've seen the 'sea'."

Gazing at the boundless expanse of sea before his eyes, Wyatt sighed to himself.

The Cloud Skies Continent was located in the middle of the endless sea—an understanding Wyatt had derived from the Martial Emperor's memories from the past.

Playing with the endless sea was something even the all-powerful Martial Emperor was reluctant to venture into.

The endless sea was an extremely mysterious entity for those standing at the pinnacle of Cloud Skies Continent.

No one knew what existed beyond the sea.

On the other side of the sea, there might be boundless ocean, another land, or even dangers that even the Martial Emperor had difficulty facing.

Not long after, Wyatt saw the Jade Sword cross the sky and head deep into the sea.

"Won't 'The Emperor's Treasury' be somewhere deep inside the sea?"

At this time, someone couldn't help muttering.

"The Jade Sword has stopped!"

Suddenly, there was another exclamation that grabbed everyone's attention.

Looking out, Wyatt saw,

Far away, the Jade Sword that had been moving forward all along, was hovering in mid-air.

At this moment, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger came to a halt.

For a while, Julia who was meditating on the back of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, and Little Gold, both regained their focus.

"Squeak squeak~~"

Little Gold blinked his sleepy eyes, shivered his body that then turned into a golden light and struck Wyatt's shoulder. He looked around curiously.

"Are we there?"

Julia also came to Wyatt side and together they stared at the Jade Sword in the sky.

The Jade Sword stayed there, rotating endlessly.

Green light filled the air around it.

"Hiss hiss~~"

At this point, two small pythons crawled out from Julia's sleeve, flicking their tongues in excitement.

Suddenly, the Jade Sword moved.

Whoosh!

A flash of green light, and the Jade Sword plunged straight into the calm sea.

With the entrance of the Jade Sword, the tranquil sea surface became chaotic and waves spread out under the sun, casting sparkling reflections.

"Big head, let's go down! Remember to use your Origin Force to protect us."

Julia spoke nonchalantly.

The Three-eyed Flame Tiger nodded, moved his body and swooped down.

At the same time, a milky white light rose above the body of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger. It was Origin Force formed into a protective shield.

As the Three-eyed Flame Tiger's enormous body entered the sea, waves surged up to the sky, creating an astonishing scene.

With the protection of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger's Origin Force shield, Wyatt, Julia, and Echo Reid were not affected by the sea water.

The sea area was completely isolated from the outside by the Origin Force shield, forming two different worlds from where Wyatt stood.

"Over there!"

Suddenly, a sound passed through the sea water.

It was Elder Cruz, who had discovered the trace of the Jade Sword deep in the sea.

Immediately, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger and the rest of the group, plunged deeper into the sea.

A short while later, everyone had entered the inner sea.

Inside the inner sea, everything was pitch black, as if it was night. Glowing creatures could be vaguely seen circling around.

The milky white Origin Force shield rising from the body of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger was like a huge light bulb, illuminating half of the inner sea.

The remaining group, with their own shields of Origin Force, chased after the Jade Sword.

"Is this the deep sea?"

As Wyatt observed the deep sea, he could see some Fierce Beasts from the sea attacking imprudently.

However, these Fierce Beasts were easily killed by the Three-eyed Flame Tiger and others before they could even get close.

For a while, a rich scent of blood lingered in the deep sea.

The Fierce Beasts that could smell the blood were coming in droves, seemingly never-ending.

"Are there no Demon Beasts here?"

Looking at the deep sea engulfed in blood-stained seaweed, Wyatt Barnes could not help but pause.

Logically, if there were Demon Beasts here, they should have already followed the scent of blood.

"Wyatt, of course, there are demon beasts here... But don't forget, demon beasts possess human intelligence. They felt the powerful presence here from a long distance and would not dare to come and invite death."

Karina Hanson replied with a shake of her head and a smile.

Wyatt suddenly realized that the creature beneath his feet was a powerful Demon Beast in the Ninth Layer of the Void Realm.

Ordinary demon beasts would not dare to act recklessly in front of it.

"However, we are still in the 'Outer Sea'. There might be many demon beasts, but the strongest are only the ones that have entered the Void Realm... If we travel more towards the 'Inner Sea', we might even encounter 'Demon Beasts of Cave Void Realm'!"

Karina Hanson added.

"Karina, you seem to be very familiar with the sea?"

Wyatt asked curiously.

He found that when Karina was introducing the sea, she seemed to be familiar with every detail.

"As a child, when my father didn't have time to accompany me, I usually let Ruby take me out to sea to play."

Karina Hanson's face showed a touch of sadness, she sighed, "Over time, the vast sea became a part of my childhood..."

With that, Karina paused and her sad expression faded, "I heard from Ruby, deep in the Inner Sea, there might be some Demon Beasts of the 'Transforming Void Realm'! If one goes further into the core of the Inner Sea, one might even encounter the Demon Emperor."

"Demon Emperor?"

Corners of Wyatt's lips twitched.

According to the information, he had obtained from the memories of the Reincarnated Martial Emperor.

Back then, when the Reincarnated Martial Emperor ventured into the endless sea, he had encountered some Demon Emperors and three Demon Emperors...

One of the Demon Emperors was even near his strength.

Exactly for this reason, the Reincarnated Martial Emperor had decided to return to the Cloud Skies Continent, thinking of the 'unknown' in the endless sea.

"Maybe if the Reincarnated Martial Emperor kept venturing into the endless sea, he might have encountered a Demon Emperor even stronger than him! That's what the Reincarnated Martial Emperor was most worried about."

In Wyatt's view, the choice of the Reincarnated Martial Emperor was undoubtedly wise.

Standing not far away, Echo Reid, hearing Karina's words, turned pale with fright.

This was the first time he realized.

How terrifying the sea could be.

He originally thought that only the beings of the 'outside territory' would surpass the Transforming Void Realm...

Who knew that even the sea could be that way.

Whoosh!

The Jade Sword led the way, with Wyatt and others following behind it.

The deep sea was originally tranquil, and Wyatt's group seemed to break the tranquillity as they swam through.

On their journey, they were enchanted by the sight of the sparkling seaweed and various deep-sea creatures.

"We are still descending."

Wyatt furrowed his brow.

He noticed that among the eleven people on the outside, some of the weaker ones started to have their Origin Force shell vibrating.

The deeper they went into the sea, the greater the pressure.

"You guys, come in."

After awhile, seeing the Origin Force shell of a few people on the verges of bursting, Wyatt said.

Upon hearing, they sighed with relief, one by one they passed through the sturdy shield of the Three-eyed Flame Tiger and landed on its back.

"Thank you."

They turned towards Wyatt with words of gratitude.

Wyatt nodded slightly without paying them more attention.

They didn't take offense.

To them, it was already a great kindness that the young man extended his help to them at this time.

Also, they would need to rely on this 'Three-eyed Flame Tiger' to leave this place. They were in a position of asking for help.

After this realization, they kept their cool.

"We've reached the sea floor."

Suddenly, the old man in the lead stopped in his tracks.

Then, everyone saw that the Jade Sword guiding them was now stationary in the sea, spinning around incessantly, as though it was trying to find the location of the 'Treasure Chest of Sword Emperor'.

The seafloor offered a different view, so stunning that it dazzled the eyes.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, the Jade Sword moved, propelling straight towards the side of the seafloor.

In the path of the Jade Sword, Wyatt and others followed, illuminating the dark seafloor and turning it as bright as daylight.

Soon, a mountain underwater appeared before Wyatt and others.

This mountain was hundreds of meters tall.

On the side facing them stood a magnificent gate.

The ancient and weathered gate stood undisturbed in the depths of the sea, clearly forged from an extraordinary material.

Suddenly, the Jade Sword lost its luster in front of the gate and fell to the ground.

"We've arrived."

Many people's eyes lit up.

"Is this the gate to the 'Treasure Chest of Sword Emperor'?"

Looking at the gate before him, Wyatt's heart trembled slightly.

"Wonder which Martial Emperor left this 'Treasure Chest' here, they are so generous... and they've hidden it in the depths of the sea."

Chapter 609: The Door That Can't Be Opened

The sight of the "Sword Emperor Treasure's gate" situated deep beneath the sea left Wyatt Barnes in awe.

According to the memories of the Reincarnation Martial Emperor...

Even in his time, though he had also played a number of similar 'games', none had been as exaggerated or strenuous as this.

"The Martial Emperor who left behind this 'Sword Emperor Treasure' seems to have been playing a bit too much..."

Perhaps the Martial Emperor who left behind the 'Sword Emperor Treasure' was fond of playing games.

"How do we get in?"

Soon, someone noticed the problem.

Immediately, everyone, including Wyatt, began to scrutinize the massive door of the Sword Emperor Treasure, seeking the method to unlock it.

After a long examination, everyone was still clueless.

"According to rumors, the Nine Jade Swords are the 'key' to open the Sword Emperor Treasure... But not even a single keyhole can be found on this grand entrance."

Someone frowned and remarked.

"Seems like we have no choice but to break in!"

A middle-aged man in blue clothes stepped forward. Origin Force exploded from his raised hand, and his realm shadowed his body, pressing down on the grand entrance to the Sword Emperor Treasure.

Boom!

A huge noise followed, stirring the seawater, making it murky.

At the same time, numerous marine creatures scurried away as if escaping from death.

These marine creatures couldn't even be considered as beasts, having no offensive capabilities.

The man in blue made a significant disturbance with his move, but the door of the Sword Emperor Treasure remained unaffected.

"What a sturdy door!"

The man in blue stared at the door of the Sword Emperor Treasure, his face full of shock.

Though he was a Seventh-Order Enter Void Realm warrior, even at his full force and despite his realm engagement, the grand entrance to the Sword Emperor Treasure showed no response.

"Hmph!"

Standing next to Wyatt, Karina Hanson let out a snort and mocked, "Don't forget, this Sword Emperor Treasure was left behind by a Martial Emperor... Martial Emperors surpass the 'Transforming Void Realm'. The things they leave behind aren't easily destroyed by any Enter Void Realm or even the Transforming Void Realm martial artists, let alone you."

After hearing Karina's words, the middle-aged man in blue gave an awkward smile, "My rash action was indeed like trying to show off one's slight skills before an expert."

"Miss, do you know how to open the door of this Sword Emperor Treasure? If we can't open this door, our journey here today will be in vain."

An elder in green clothes looked at Karina respectfully and asked.

Instantly, everyone turned their eyes toward Karina, except for Wyatt who was still scrutinizing the door of the Sword Emperor Treasure.

In their group, Karina was undoubtedly the most powerful.

Being watched by so many people, Karina frowned slightly in displeasure, "Didn't you hear what I just said? This is a treasure left by the Martial Emperor... Neither a Transforming Void Realm martial artist nor I, who has not yet reached the Transforming Void Realm, can do anything about it."

Everyone felt a bit awkward after hearing her words.

Nonetheless, the young girl's words confirmed one thing for them.

She was not a 'demon'.

If she were a 'demon', she couldn't possibly lack the cultivation of the Transforming Void Realm.

"It seems, this young girl must be a scion from a very powerful faction outside this territory... How potent must it be to have a member reach Cave Void Realm at such a young age?"

Many people had the same thought and felt an unprecedented shock.

This was even more astonishing than if the girl was a 'demon'.

'Demons', however powerful, were still solitary creatures, generally only at the Transforming Void Realm level.

But the sect powerful enough to have fifteen or sixteen years old Cave Void Realm experts, its profound strength could be only imagined.

If that sect indeed had a Martial Emperor, they wouldn't be surprised at all.

A fifteen or sixteen-year-old Cave Void Realm expert, let alone in the Great Turdo Dynasty, had never appeared in the history of any dynasty.

In fact, none of the dynasties had seen a Cave Void Realm expert under the age of thirty.

"Brother Leandro, do you find anything?"

Karina turned to Wyatt Barnes and asked.

Her question came because she noticed a sudden gleam in Wyatt's eyes, and his attention had been fixed on the 'Sword Emperor Treasure' door from the beginning.

"Julia."

Wyatt's eyes flickered as he watched the massive door of the Sword Emperor Treasure. He slowly said, "According to the rumor, the key to open this Sword Emperor Treasure is the Nine Jade Swords... I think we should start with these swords to try and open it."

"Hmph!"

Before Karina could respond, an elderly figure in green, Elder Cruz, who had come along with Echo Reid, had already retorted scornfully, "That's something we all know..."

"Not to mention that there isn't even a keyhole that could accommodate a Jade Sword on the door of the Sword Emperor Treasure... even if there were nine keyholes, the Nine Jade Swords have already merged into one. How would you open it?"

The statement by Elder Cruz gained the approval of many, including Echo Reid.

"Old geezer! When my Brother Leandro is talking, why do you butt in? If you don't want to live any longer, I don't mind helping you with that!"

Seeing Elder Cruz mocking Wyatt, Karina Hanson wasn't pleased and retorted.

From childhood, due to her unique status, aside from one girl her age, she had never had any other friends among her peers.

Other peers always had a reverential attitude toward her, treating her with respect and deference.

Every time she saw others being loved by older siblings, her heart would fill with envy.

That was until she met Wyatt.

Wyatt Barnes didn't treat her like the others who used to be around her, instead he completely treated her like a younger sister, giving her the first experience of a brother's warmth.

From that moment on, she considered Wyatt Barnes as her big brother and enjoyed his care.

Now, someone dares to mock her brother?

Whoosh!

A sudden chill rose around Karina Hanson as she spoke.

The coldness was extreme, engulfing everything.

For a moment, the sea water was turbulent, greatly affected.

After a while, some of the sea water from the seabed even froze into ice pellets, falling downwards.

The quantity of ice pellets was continually increasing.

If this continues, before long the seawater surrounding them at the bottom of the sea would all turn into ice.

"You..."

Elder Cruz's face changed dramatically, only then did he remember how horrifying this girl in yellow was, beyond his ability to handle.

He essentially felt like slapping himself at this moment.

Why did he have to say so much? It was simply asking for trouble.

"Miss, this senior must have had no ill intentions."

Someone looked at Karina Hanson and said softly.

"Yes, this senior was only thinking for the common good of us all, that's why he got a bit impulsive... Please, Miss, calm down."

Many others echoed.

Now, in their eyes, the girl before them was a looming force of death, controlling their fate.

If the girl continued this way, they would undoubtedly end up burying themselves just like the man in green.

The chilling cold was still rising.

It wouldn't be long before the surrounding seawater would turn into solid ice, and they would be frozen within, barely clinging to life.

Unless they choose to leave now, abandoning the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure Vault', and forfeiting everything inside...

So, seeing them leave just like this, how could they be willing?

They had been anticipating this day for a long time.

Now, everyone present hated Elder Cruz to death, if it wasn't for him agitating the situation, would the girl be so furious?

"Elder Brother Ling Tian."

Echo Reid looked at Wyatt Barnes, with a plea in his eyes.

From his perspective,

At this moment, only Wyatt Barnes could quell the girl's anger.

"Let it go, Julia."

Wyatt Barnes gazed coldly at the man in green before looking at Karina Hanson, and said with a smile: "There's no reason to be mad at some people. Just think of their words as farts... Besides, if a dog bites us, we can't bite back right? What's the difference between us and the dog then?"

Wyatt Barnes's words made everyone's eyes look strange.

Elder Cruz's face turned white.

D..did Wyatt Barnes just liken him to a dog?

Julia's lips trembled, revealing a faint smile.

At the same time, the chill that emanated from her body began to recede, but her fury-filled eyes still remained fixated on Elder Cruz, "Apologize to Brother Leandro, or else, die!"

Hearing Julia's anger and domineering words, everyone present was covered in chill bumps.

They didn't doubt the girl's words at all.

They had personally witness her strength.

Elder Cruz's face turned pale.

Make him apologize to a man who just insulted him?

As a Level Eight practitioner who was about to Enter Void Realm, he had his own dignity.

However, upon feeling the killing intent that the girl's eyes were carrying, he couldn't help but tremble.

Especially right now, numerous whispers of Origin Force could be heard in his ears.

These whispers of Origin Force, without exception, were coming from everyone else in the place, all pleading him to apologize.

This time, he clearly violated public opinion.

In the end, Elder Cruz clenched his teeth, took a deep breath, and looked at Wyatt Barnes, "I'm sorry."

Wyatt Barnes nodded lightly.

"Julia."

Just as everyone else breathed a sigh of relief, Wyatt Barnes looked at Karina Hanson, "Pick up that Jade Sword, and hand it to me."

Currently, under this deep sea, Wyatt Barnes figured that his Origin Force shield would not be able to withstand the water pressure.

Therefore, he couldn't pick up the Jade Sword that was on the ground in the entrance of the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure Vault' himself.

Even though she didn't know what Wyatt Barnes was going to do, Karina Hanson soared, her body emanating an Origin Force shield, and she caught the Jade Sword in the blink of an eye.

In the next moment, she was back at Wyatt Barnes's side, handing the Jade Sword to him, "Brother Leandro, what are you going to do with this Jade Sword?"

"Nothing, I just wanted to see if my guess was correct."

Wyatt Barnes smiled faintly.

For a moment, everyone's gaze fell on Wyatt Barnes, curious about what he was going to do.

"Squeak squeak~~"

Little Gold, on Wyatt Barnes's shoulder, looked at the Jade Sword in his hand with its bright teal eyes, showing great interest.

Chapter 610: The Nine Swords Reappear

"Hisss~~"

The two little pythons also did the same, poking their heads out from under Julia's sleeve, staring at Wyatt Barnes with interest.

Now, the focus of all attention, Wyatt Barnes, held the amalgamated 'Jade Sword' in his hand.

Immediately after, he infused his Origin Force into it.

"I hope my guess is correct."

Wyatt Barnes had a thought and subconsciously muttered within.

According to Wyatt's guess, the reason why the jade sword in his hand could transform into nine and then into one, is very likely due to a particular 'Inscription Array' engraved upon it.

Because of this, the Jade Sword could 'merge nine into one'.

This Inscription Array, the Martial Emperor had once encountered, though not completely familiar with it, he knew some of the principles.

Whoosh!

Upon the Jade Sword, as Wyatt's Origin Force fused in, cream-colored flames rose, burning intensely.

"What does he want to do?"

This was the thought of most people present.

"Brother Leandro."

With anticipation mixed in her watery eyes, Karina Hanson looked at Wyatt.

"Hmph!"

As for the elderly man in green robes standing far away, Elder Cruz, he hummed under his breath, a cunning look in his eyes.

"Looking forward to see you humiliate yourself!"

Elder Cruz was somewhat gleeful about Wyatt's forthcoming misfortune.

"Something's happening!"

The originally solemn Wyatt's eyes suddenly lit up, a smile spreading across his face.

The Origin Force of Wyatt that had fused into the Jade Sword indeed found traces of the 'Inscription', and not only one, as many as nine, formed together into a miraculous 'Inscription Array'.

"Exactly the same as the 'Inscription Array' that the Martial Emperor was fortunate enough to glimpse!"

Wyatt breathed a sigh of relief.

It seemed that his conjecture was correct.

"If it can 'merge nine into one', naturally it can 'split one into nine'..."

With a thought, Wyatt sent the Origin Force into the 'Inscription Array', beginning to interfere with the operation of its nine inscriptions.

In a moment.

Whoosh!

The Jade Sword in Wyatt Barnes's hand suddenly shone with an incredibly bright green light, like a blazing sun, making the audience instinctively close their eyes.

Karina was no exception.

When they recovered their senses, they all stared in disbelief.

Heavens!

What had they seen?

In the distance, the youth in the purple robe standing there vaguely seemed to exude a sense of mystery.

Of course, these were just thoughts that spontaneously sprang up in their hearts.

The main thing was indeed the nine Jade Swords in the youth's hand.

"The Jade Sword has split into nine again?"

Everyone looked at each other in astonishment, unable to believe what they had seen.

Some people even rubbed their eyes vigorously, thinking they had seen wrongly. Until they smote their eyes and still saw the nine Jade Swords in Wyatt's hand, they were convinced.

The Jade Sword had indeed split into nine again.

"Brother Leandro, how did you do it?"

Karina's eyes sparkled as she looked at Wyatt Barnes in awe.

Although she held high status, it was the first time she had seen such a miraculous occurrence.

The nine Jade Swords that had once combined into one, had now split again.

"I don't know... I just infused my Origin Force into it and it divided into nine."

The intricacies of the 'Inscription Array' were not known to laymen, only Inscription Masters knew.

Hence, Wyatt just shrugged his shoulders, answering casually, not revealing the truth.

However, Karina was not so easily deceived. She glanced deeply at Wyatt, using the Origin Force to convey her sound: "Brother Leandro, you must tell me how you did it after we leave 'Sword Emperor's Treasure' ..."

"When I picked up the Jade Sword just now, I tried to probe it by infusing the Origin Force, but there was no reaction ... However, when it reached your hand, it instantly turned into nine. You must have done something extra."

Karina finished all at once.

Wyatt grinned wryly.

This girl was indeed sharp to have seen through this.

"Alright, when we come out of the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure', I'll explain everything to you... No, wait! How did you know I could open the 'Sword Emperor's Treasure'?"

By the time Wyatt spoke, he jolted and asked Karina.

You should know, on the door of the Sword Emperor's Treasure, there was only a flat surface, there was no 'keyhole'...

"Brother Leandro, I believe you surely have a way."

Karina said again.

Wyatt was left somewhat speechless.

Did this girl trust him so much?

But it must be said that being worshiped this way felt really gratifying...

Especially worshiped by a 'freak' like Karina, Wyatt felt quite ecstatic.

"Brother Ling Tian, now that the Jade Sword has split into nine, what are you going to do?"

Looking at Wyatt Barnes, Echo Reid asked curiously.

Now, on Echo Reid's face, there was a trace of admiration.

Although Wyatt had made it sound simple earlier.

Still, he understood that everything wasn't as simple as it looked on the surface.

Otherwise, why was Wyatt the only one who thought of doing this?

If the people present were all from the Void Realm and above, it meant that none of them were fools.

"I'm not needed anymore."

Wyatt Barnes shook his head.

Under a sea of astonished gazes, Wyatt Barnes let go of his grip on the Nine Jade Swords.

Then, the Nine Jade Swords shot out, heading directly towards the grand entrance of the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury', transforming into nine streaks of dazzling green lightning...

Almost in the same instant the Nine Jade Swords left his grip.

Under everyone's watchful eyes, nine dazzling white 'holes' appeared abruptly on the door of the Sword Emperor's Treasury.

To be precise, they were nine keyholes.

Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh! Swoosh!

...

The Nine Jade Swords whizzed by over the seawater, resulting in a sharp sword cry.

Soon after, the Nine Jade Swords directed themselves fiercely at the nine keyholes on the door of the Sword Emperor's Treasury and smashed into them.

Clang! Clang! Clang! Clang! Clang!

...

The Nine Jade Swords, perfectly inserted into the nine keyholes.

At that moment, nine streaks of brilliant light flashed past, forcing everyone, including Wyatt Barnes, to shut their eyes instinctively.

When they opened their eyes again, they found that the Nine Jade Swords had fused flawlessly with the door of the Sword Emperor's Treasury...

"Boom~~"

Suddenly, the door of the Sword Emperor's Treasury started to tremble.

A rumbling sound echoed clearly into Wyatt Barnes' ears and everyone else's, as thunderous as the heavens.

The speed of sound propagation in water is in no way slower than in air.

Simultaneously, the door of the Sword Emperor's Treasury began to raise, slowly diminishing from Wyatt Barnes' and everyone else's sight.

"What is that? An Origin Force shield? It's blocking out all the seawater..."

Suddenly, someone exclaimed in surprise.

At this point, everyone clearly saw that, after the door of the Sword Emperor's Treasury had been opened, a semi-transparent shield appeared before them.

Behind the shield, everything was foggy and nebulous, as if covered by dark clouds, making it impossible to see the situation inside.

"Another inscription array!"

Wyatt Barnes' pupils constricted, a slight tremor coursing through his heart.

"Could it be that the 'Martial Emperor' who left the Sword Emperor's Treasury was also a inscriptionist? First it was the magical inscription array of 'Nine Swords into One' 'One Sword Split into Nine', and now we have one that keeps out seawater."

A sigh escaped Wyatt Barnes' heart.

Two kinds of inscription arrays.

The former, even the Reincarnation Martial Emperor of old had never explored it.

For this reason, even the Reincarnation Martial Emperor considered it to be a tremendous regret.

The latter, however, is fairly common.

As long as Wyatt Barnes was strong enough, as long as he had sufficient material, he too could set it up.

"Awesome!"

"It's all thanks to Brother Wyatt."

"Indeed, otherwise we would have to return empty handed today."

...

The people's admiration for Wyatt Barnes was immediately voiced, and they did not hesitate to bestow him with words of praise.

Although, Wyatt Barnes made 'One Sword Split into Nine' sound simple.

But no one present, each sharper than the rest, could not see that it was simply Wyatt Barnes glossing over the truth.

In their eyes.

If Wyatt Barnes had not acted, even if they had reached the door to the Sword Emperor's Treasury, they might never be able to gain access.

"Hmph!"

Just then, Elder Cruz sneered from a distance. He moved his body and was the first to rush towards the translucent shield made up of inscription array, which blocked the seawater.

Elder Cruz's body effortlessly merged into it.

In a blink of an eye, he disappeared from Wyatt Barnes' vision.

Seeing this scene, Karina Hanson's smile faded, a cold gleam flashed in her eyes. "Elder Cruz rushed in before Wyatt who made the biggest contribution... This dying old man, how dare he rush into the Sword Emperor's Treasury ahead of the rest!"

"I hope I never see him again, otherwise, I swear to kill him!"

Karina Hanson's tone was filled with menace towards the end.

And this time, no one pitied Elder Cruz.

Everyone felt that Elder Cruz was overstepping his bounds.

This included Echo Reid.

Echo Reid gave Wyatt Barnes an awkward glance, "Brother Wyatt, sorry about this... Elder Cruz is just like that, I hope you can be forgiving. In the name of fairness, since Elder Cruz was the first to enter the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury', how about I be the last to enter among us?"

"I advise you to stay away from him... If you find any treasures in the 'Sword Emperor's Treasury', that kind of person might kill you first to hoard them for himself."

Wyatt Barnes seemed indifferent.

In his view.

That old gentleman was bound to die sooner or later.

He was just holding back, simply planning to use the old man to clear the path.

Although, that old man was quite the annoyance.

One had to admit, he possessed commendable strength, which would be of great use within the Sword Emperor's Treasury.

Echo Reid sighed, not saying anything else.

"Wyatt, Miss Karina, please."

At this time, the rest of the crowd promptly made way, then turned to Wyatt Barnes and Karina Hanson.

"Karina, let's go in."

Wyatt Barnes nodded at Katrina, and the two of them, accompanied by Little Gold Mouse and the two small pythons, soared towards the semi-transparent shield at the entrance of the Sword Emperor's Treasury.

In this process, Karina's Origin Force surged, enclosing Wyatt Barnes within it. She protected Wyatt Barnes as they traversed the shield, entering the Sword Emperor's Treasury.

Karina, before entering the Sword Emperor's Treasury, didn't forget to leave an instruction to the Three-eyed Flame Tiger, "Big fellow, you best wait here obediently for us to return... if we can't find you when we return, I'll freeze you into another icicle!"

After Karina Hanson's figure disappeared behind the shield, the Three-eyed Flame Tiger outside shivered uncontrollably.
