

Last Building on Earth Chapter 166-170

Chapter 166

Rakshasa City Messenger

Seeming to understand what Wang Xuan was curious about, Tang Ruoyu continued, "This ghost car and me..."

When she said this, she paused for a while, and then suddenly turned to leave.

Wang Xuan couldn't help raising his voice and shouted, "What does this ghost car have to do with you?"

Tang Ruoyu turned a deaf ear, just ran with all his strength, and soon disappeared into the wind and sand in the distance.

"This woman is really weird. This ghost car used to be an extremely powerful hatching beast, but she just died in Scorpion City for some reason. Looking at her appearance, it seems that it has something to do with this ghost car?"

Wang Xuan pondered, watching Tang Ruoyu disappear, reached out and touched his chest, the wound that was pierced by the beast had fully recovered, and then saw that the smoke was slowly dissipating in the wind, he turned and walked towards the smoke.

I came to Shi Jin's headless corpse again. This Shi Jin is so powerful and his status in the "Justice League" is not low. It is estimated that he is only under the leader of the Justice League.

However, Wang Xuan didn't regret killing him. Shi Jin's previous blow from the beast was a fatal attack. If he hadn't moved two inches between life and death, he would be dead now.

Since the other party is determined to take his life, he will naturally not show mercy.

As for whether he would offend the "Justice League" because of this, it was no longer in his consideration.

After all, he now represents the "Xuan Gang", and he can be regarded as a big man in the "Xuan Gang", but people want to kill him, but they don't hesitate, don't hesitate, and don't worry about the "Xuan Gang" at all.

On Shi Jin's body, in addition to the exploding helmet, the remaining four pieces of equipment are third-order ordinary quality alloy armor, alloy handguards, and alloy boots. Only the knee pads are not third-order alloy knee pads, but are completely black. , the surface was faintly flowing with black light, Wang Xuan's heart moved, and he was busy opening the eyes of the illustrated book to take a look.

A third-order premium quality ghost kneepad.

There was a hint of joy on his face, and he was busy putting away the four pieces of equipment that had been peeled off, and then took off the intermediate storage belt around his waist, and abandoned the body of Shi Jin here. Get out of here with the little girl.

He originally had a third-order high-quality ghost boots, and now he has obtained these ghost knee pads, he has two third-order high-quality equipment.

The sky is getting brighter in the distance, and the sandstorm is much smaller. After a night of tossing, the sky is finally getting brighter.

After finding a house, Wang Xuan stepped in and let Xiaogao keep watch, while he sat down and rested, took out the storage belt of Shi Jin that he had just obtained, opened it, and poured out everything inside.

In addition to many daily necessities, there are dozens of bottles of high-grade nutrient solution and a large number of crystals. As for the crystal scales, there are only 12 medium crystal scales and 105 small crystal scales.

Put away the crystal scales first, he now has 166 medium-sized crystal scales.

He originally owned 2,025 small crystal scales. When he parted with Gu Manyao and others, he gave all of these small crystal scales to Gu Manyao, Zhao Lei, and Zhang Haofei, and only kept the medium crystal scales. Has 105 small crystal scales.

32 bottles of advanced nutrient solution were exactly what he needed, so he immediately opened a bottle and drank it.

When the advanced nutrient solution entered his throat, it really felt different from the previous primary nutrient solution.

Looking at other materials, there are 5 bottles of primary stamina water, 3 bottles of primary night vision water, 5 bottles of primary healing water, 11 explosion crystals, 7 smoke crystals, 4 flame crystals, 5 lighting crystals, defense. 7 crystals.

Wang Xuan classified them one by one and put them away.

He now has a total of 15 bottles of primary stamina water, 4 bottles of primary night vision water, 11 bottles of primary healing water, 23 explosion crystals, 15 smoke crystals, 11 water flame crystals, and 9 lighting crystals. , 7 defense crystals, 2 tracking crystals.

As for the other maps and spare equipment, he did not count them one by one, but put them away.

Wang Xuan was a little excited when he took out the third-order high-quality ghost knee pads and ghost boots. This was the first time he wore third-order high-quality equipment.

After taking off his normal-quality alloy knee pads and alloy boots, his alloy helmet, alloy armor, and alloy handguards have enhanced hearing, vision, stamina recovery speed, wound healing speed, strength, and instantaneous explosive power, all of which have been increased by 24%. to 22%.

However, after putting on the ghost knee pads and ghost boots, his stamina, physical strength, movement speed and bounce power have all increased to 26%.

"This ghost equipment is still beautiful, the whole body is dark, and there is a faint layer of black light on the surface. The Rakshasa leader is a set of ghost equipment, but I don't know when I will be able to collect five sets."

Wang Xuan pondered, the source of the third-order excellent quality equipment should be obtained from completing the task and obtaining the treasure chest.

But at this moment, he didn't have the heart to think about what task to complete. After putting on the two ghost equipment, he closed his eyes, ignoring the rising sky outside, and concentrated on sensing the white light in his right hand.

Killing Shi Jin to obtain that powerful energy, has been fluctuating violently in the white light of his right hand, and there has been a faint tearing feeling in the right hand. It seems that the white light has absorbed enough energy and cannot be digested. However, this white light is not. It can't really be broken and grow again.

He was stuck in the perfect state, and the energy he obtained was far beyond what he needed, but he couldn't break through.

"Before the adult body couldn't break through, because the white light was defective. Once the energy obtained was too much, it would overflow automatically. Therefore, it is necessary to wake up the hatching beast and change it. The energy will not leak out any more, and it will naturally be able to break through to the perfect state. , but now this energy will not overflow, but it always feels like something is missing and cannot be broken through."

Wang Xuan is feeling with his heart, hoping to find out the reason.

Tang Ruoyu, Shi Jin, and Chu Boyu are not simple characters. They are also strong. Naturally, they all have their own extraordinary circumstances. Obviously represents a breakthrough state, and it is not that simple.

After Wang Xuan felt it slowly, he discovered a special phenomenon.

His white light is like a sealed ball, and the energy inside it can completely burst the ball, and then break through and grow to a higher form, but now this energy is being absorbed by the ball to enhance the formation The light wall of this sphere makes the white light stronger and harder to break through.

"How could this happen? If this continues, the light wall of this white light will only become stronger and more difficult to break through. If you want to break through, you need more powerful energy, and if you absorb more energy, it will be destroyed by light. The wall absorbs, making the light wall stronger, requiring more energy, and so on, this is simply an endless loop."

After Wang Xuan sensed it, he was stunned.

If you look at this endless cycle, the perfect state is simply unbreakable.

"Impossible, the leader of the Rakshasa is above the perfect state. This state is not insurmountable. I just haven't found the key point of breakthrough. Maybe like breaking through the adult body, it is necessary to communicate with the hatching beast and change the characteristics of this white light, so that the light wall no longer absorbs new energy to enhance, as long as this point is solved, it will definitely destroy the light wall, but the energy absorbed by this white light is the original characteristic of hatching beasts, but how to change it, or the key point of the real breakthrough is not. not here....."

Wang Xuan fell into deep thought.

The little girl is like a loyal guard, silently guarding her side.

The distant horizon showed fish belly white, a new day has come.

When a new day came, a group of people appeared beside the giant glass column in the central square of Bug Town.

This group of people are all wearing red belts, which means that they belong to the "Rakshasa" of the five major forces in Insect Town.

The leader is short in stature and wears a third-order ordinary alloy helmet and alloy handguards. In addition, the armor, knee pads and boots are all black, with a faint black light flowing on the surface, and the ghost knee pads and ghost boots obtained by Wang Xuan. Similarly, obviously, these three pieces of equipment are the third-order high-quality ghost suits.

In the entire Bug Town, people who can wear sophisticated Tier 3 equipment are very rare, and they can be counted on one hand.

This short man with three pieces of ghost equipment is the second person in the Rakshasa, and is regarded as Chen Daolin who is only below the five chiefs.

Beside Chen Daolin, there are also five people wearing a full set of Tier 3 alloy equipment, all of them are strong in the Rakshasa, Liu Ming, Gao Tian and Luo Li who met Wang Xuan in the tavern are among them.

Early in the morning, they stood outside the No. 8 elevator, with anxious expressions on their faces, as if they were waiting for someone.

People walked past the square from time to time, most of them were of adult strength, they were in a hurry, and they were all busy with their own affairs.

They waited for about ten minutes, and the door of the No. 8 elevator opened silently.

With excited expressions on their faces, they rushed up to meet them, all showing respect.

Five people filed out of the elevator, and these five people didn't seem to expect a group of people standing in front of them to greet them, and all of them looked respectful, and all of them drowned.

These five people were wearing Tier 2 equipment and looked ordinary. There were adults and sub-body. They didn't have the symbols of the five major powers. They were obviously just a group of newcomers from the first floor.

They froze there, looking at the group of people in front of them with bewilderment. Looking at the equipment of these people, I'm afraid they are all terrifying powerhouses. They just wonder why they greeted them and nodded and bowed their heads in compliment. It's really weird.

Chen Daolin realized that he was not the one he was waiting for, so he waved his hand in annoyance and said, "Come over and register."

Then they gave way and let the five newcomers leave.

These five people were confused. For some reason, the group of people in front of them were staring at them with gloomy expressions. Those eyes were really terrible. When these people saw the equipment they were wearing, they knew that it was not simple. They all jumped violently.

The more they thought about it, the more afraid they became. They were sweating all over, and they walked out tremblingly. After that, someone took them and explained to them the various rules of this insect town and the crystal scales that needed to be paid.

The group of Chen Daolin still waited outside the No. 8 elevator. After waiting for another ten minutes, the elevator door opened again. This time, they did not rush to greet them with a respectful look, but asked first. See clearly who came out inside, so as not to make another oolong.

Only one person came out this time.

This person is also wearing four pieces of second-order sophisticated equipment that ordinary rookies will wear. Only one boot is a third-order alloy equipment, and the logo of Rakshasa is tied around his waist. He is about twenty-six or seven years old, and his cheeks are a little thin. It looks ordinary and belongs to the kind that can be seen everywhere in Insect Town.

Liu Ming, Gao Tian and the others were stunned. They didn't expect to see a ghost today. There was another adult in the No. 8 elevator. It looked like an ordinary member who went down to the first floor, and now he went up to the second floor.

Liu Ming was about to reprimand, but Chen Daolin was stunned, busy taking a step forward, and respectfully said: "Sir, you are finally here."

As soon as these words came out, Liu Ming swallowed the words he was about to rebuke. Although it was a little unbelievable, he understood that the person in front of him with an ordinary appearance and ordinary equipment was the one who came down from above.

He broke out in a cold sweat, but fortunately he didn't scold him just now, otherwise it would be over.

Looking at the group of people in front of him and Chen Daolin saluting him, the thin young man had a smile on his face, and frowned slightly: "What the hell, I told your leader last time, tell him not to When you come here, don't send someone to greet him, I will find him, so I specially put on such a set of ordinary equipment, it's good for you to make it so eye-catching."

Hearing him say this, Liu Ming and Gao Tian finally understood why the big man who came down from above was dressed like an ordinary adult. It turned out that he did not want to attract attention and did it on purpose.

Before, the Rakshasa leader personally greeted him, and Liu Ming and Gao Tian also came for the first time. Among them, only Chen Daolin saw him last time.

"Sir, something happened, so we are all here waiting for you. There are too many people here, why don't we go back first?"

"Huh? What happened?" The thin young man was slightly startled, and walked forward as he spoke.

Chen Daolin and a group of Liu Ming, Gao Tian, and Luo Li were busy following him.

"Yes, with the character of your leader, since he wants you to come pick me up, he should come in person." The thin young man frowned slightly, and there was a hint of doubt on his face.

Chen Daolin said in a low voice: "Sir, this is what I want to report. The leader left Bug Town a few days ago and has not appeared until today."

"Um?"

The thin young man froze and stopped.

"On the 10th of every month, I come down here. Why doesn't he come back? It's impossible."

The thin young man's face was a little ugly. He paused for a while before continuing: "Unless something happened to him."

Chen Daolin nodded and said, "Yes, unless he can't come back, it's impossible for the leader not to come back today."

"He went to Insect Country?" The thin young man turned to look at Chen Daolin.

Chen Daolin shook his head and said, "No, according to our investigation in the past few days, the leader went to Centipede Island and has not returned since then."

"Centipede Island?" the thin young man said: "What could threaten him in Centipede Island? Did you go to Centipede Island to investigate clearly?"

Chen Daolin took Wang Ziren with Yao Tiande and Duan Chen to Centipede Island but died there. The leader sent Lu Bingbing and Li Xing to lead people to investigate the cause of Wang Ziren's death, including himself going to Centipede Island, but now they are all mysterious in Centipede Island. The disappearance, and all the details of their confrontation with Wang Xuan in the tavern.

"Now if you want to know what happened, you only need to catch Yao Tiande and Duan Chen, the two traitors, and interrogate them. But because the Xuan Gang is involved, this Wang Xuan is already an important figure in the Xuan Gang. Yao Tiande and Duan Chen, whom he sheltered, have now joined the Xuan Gang, and we are afraid of provoking a conflict between the Rakshasa and the Xuan Gang, so we can only wait for you, Lord, to make up your mind."

After Chen Daolin finished speaking, the thin young man's face became very ugly.

"There is such a thing... Wang Ziren and these people are dead, that's all. Chen Bin is the leader of the Rakshasa in the insect town appointed by the Rakshasa City. Since he disappeared on the Centipede Island, he hasn't come back today. Most of the time, it's more fortunate than luck, this matter must be investigated clearly, where are Yao Tiande and Duan Chen?"

"Sword Comes"

Chen Daolin said: "After the incident, we have always sent people to surveil. Wang Xuan went to Scorpion City. Yao Tiande and Duan Chen knew they were afraid and did not dare to go out. In this small building, we are afraid of causing conflict, so we have not taken action, everything is waiting for your presence."

This matter involved the Xuan Gang, and even Chen Daolin didn't dare to make an assertion.

"Okay, now you lead the way to take down these two traitors and interrogate them clearly."

Following the thin young man's order, Chen Daolin was overjoyed, the whole person became energetic, and shouted at Liu Ming and Gao Tian: "Immediately take action~www.mtlnovel.com~ Take down those two traitors!"

"Yes!" Liu Ming, Gao Tian, Luo Li and the others all had a faint red tide on their faces.

For the past few days, they have been sighing in their hearts, and each of them felt extremely aggrieved, but they did not mean the above. Just the leader of the Xuan Gang was an existence they did not dare to provoke. Now they finally have an order from above, Immediately they all straightened up.

With Chen Daolin's order, they became murderous, and the five strong men rushed out first, with amazing speed, and in the blink of an eye, they passed through this huge square and went straight to the far right area of the single-family building in the distance.

Almost all the single-family buildings in this area belonged to the main characters of the "Xuan Gang", and even the five-story building like a small castle where the leader of the Xuan Gang lived was in it.

The five major forces are jealous of each other. Without the above orders, even Liu Ming, Gao Tian and others would not dare to trespass in this area on weekdays.

But today is different. They have obtained the imperial decree from above, and the leader of the mysterious gang or the mysterious gang is no longer a cause for fear.

Watching the five great powerhouses take action together and shoot into the distance at full speed, Chen Daolin accompanied the thin young man, taking another core group of Rakshasa core members towards the building. .

At this moment, Yao Tiande and Duan Chen are guarding the three-story building where Wang Xuan lives.

For the past few days, they have been afraid to go out at will, for fear of reprisals.

Although they had obtained the protection of Wang Xuan and joined the "Xuan Gang", they were terrified when they thought of the death of the Rakshasa leader, and they didn't know that this matter would end.

Chapter 167

Invasion of the Xuan Gang (New January, ask for a monthly ticket)

If only Wang Ziren, Lu Bingbing and Li Xing died, they wouldn't be so afraid.

After all, although the powerhouses are big figures in the Rakshasa, their influence of life and death is only limited to the town of insects, while the leaders of the five major forces are not the same. They are appointed by the top, and if something goes wrong, they will attract the top. s concern.

This is what they fear.

At this moment, Yao Tiande and Duan Chen were sitting opposite each other in the hall of the three-story building. In just a few days, both of them lost weight and looked very bad.

"I always feel uneasy, as if something is going to happen." Duan Chen murmured, looking outside.

"Don't worry, it will be alright, I remember Huang Tao said that the time for each force to come down is different, the people of Rakshasa City will come down around the middle of each month, today is only the 10th, and there are still a few days left. Well, besides, it's really just in case... we are forced to tell the whole truth, actually think about it carefully, this Rakshasa leader... was not killed by us, and it's really not our fault."

Yao Tiande said at the end, lowered his voice, and watched around nervously.

Duan Chen took a deep breath and said, "Brother Yao, do you think they will come here to deal with us?"

Yao Tiande shook his head and said, "That shouldn't be the case, they don't have the guts yet. After all, this is the center of the Xuan gang, and the surrounding area is where the big figures of the Xuan gang live. If they enter here to arrest people, it is equivalent to an invasion, and the people of the Xuan gang also It will never be allowed."

"Brother Wang Xuan has been going to Scorpion City for several days, and he hasn't come back to this day, but Zhang Haofei also broke through to the real state yesterday. These newcomers are really amazing, and they have even created several real states. I heard that Zhao Lei It's almost too soon, I went to Centipede Island early this morning, and I heard from him that he is confident that he will make a breakthrough in the next two or three days."

While speaking, Duan Chen shook his head with emotion and said, "It's all our own fault. If we can break through to the perfect state, why should we be trembling and trembling, like a frightened bird hiding here, alas."

While they were chatting, Liu Ming, Gao Tian, and Luo Li, the five great powerhouses, like five sharp arrows, rushed towards their small building.

On the square, people came and went, including some newcomers who had just arrived. They suddenly saw these five big men wearing Tier 3 alloy suits running all the way towards the small single-family building in the south, and they couldn't bear it. Live looking up.

Among these standing people, some people know that this single-family building in the far south is the center of the "Xuan Gang". The leaders of the "Xuan Gang" and some big figures in the gang live here. Now "Rakshasa" The five big men in the middle are rushing towards here at full speed, is there something going to happen?

Liu Ming and Gao Tian traveled very fast, crossed the square, and soon came to the front of the three-story building where Wang Xuan lived, and flashed to the window on the first floor.

They all have their own small buildings. They know that once this kind of building is opened for use, the people inside can lock the door, and it is difficult to break and open the locked door from the outside, but this kind of single-family building is not unbreakable. Yes, for example, all windows are locked inside with a bolt, which is difficult for ordinary people to open from the outside, but it is not difficult for them, as long as the window is opened, they can enter from the window.

At this moment, they approached silently. Gao Tian came to a closed window, stretched out his right hand, and a sword appeared. The sword was surrounded by slender white rainbow lights. The white rainbow light penetrated through the gap between the two windows, and immediately pulled out the plug between the windows. With a flick of the left hand, the window opened.

Yao Tiande and Duan Chen, who were chatting in the hall, were ignorant about their arrival, until a sound suddenly came from a window not far from the hall, and they were pushed sideways. They were startled and looked up. Then, they saw Gao Tian's face.

Terrified, they stood up.

With a sneer on Gao Tian's face, he shook his body, got in through the open window, and fell into the hall.

Yao Tiande's reaction was faster than Duan Chen's. In horror, his first reaction was to turn around and run towards the stairs.

Duan Chen's reaction was slightly slower than his, and when Yao Tiande turned around, he reacted and turned around.

Gao Tian's right hand came from a long body, and the speed was astonishingly fast. For a powerhouse like him, it was just Yao Tiande and Duan Chen. Whether it was movement speed or reaction ability, in his eyes, it was the same as slow motion. Not much difference.

"Traitor! Still want to run away?" He sneered, a few meters away, approached instantly, and grabbed Duan Chen with his right hand.

Duan Chen suddenly let out a loud roar, the earth shield that appeared in his right hand slammed back, and Yao Tiande, who was running in front of him, screamed wildly: "Come on, someone, Rakshasa came to the Xuan Gang to kill— —"

He knew that he and Duan Chen couldn't escape, and the only hope was to alert the powerhouses in the "Xuan Gang", and then there was a chance of survival.

Although Duan Chen's counterattack was fierce, in Gao Tian's opinion, it was not worth the sun. His body suddenly disappeared, and Duan Chen's earth shield attack failed. Leg bones, opened their mouths and screamed, rolled and fell out.

Following Gao Tian, Liu Ming also appeared, his right hand was vitrified, he stood up, and grabbed towards Yao Tiande who was running up the stairs and roaring furiously.

Compared to Duan Chen, he hated Yao Tiande even more.

Luo Li and the other three who followed behind them did not make another move. They walked to the gate and opened the closed gate from the inside.

The five people suddenly appeared and rushed into this area belonging to the "Xuan Gang", which has attracted the attention of others, just because the incident happened suddenly, although people from the Xuan Gang in the surrounding buildings noticed it, but they were all slightly For a moment, I couldn't react for a while.

In other words, no one dared to believe that Rakshasa would have such audacity. You must know that this is not just a provocation, it is almost equal to an invasion, which is equivalent to a declaration of war.

Until Yao Tiande's heart-piercing roar came from a distance, there were many people living in many buildings around this three-story building, and they were all disturbed at this moment.

"What's going on?" The three-story building on the other side, only ten meters away from Wang Xuan's building, was the place where Liu Weijie, who had just returned to Insect Town, lived yesterday.

He had just woken up not long ago, and was closing his eyes to recuperate. He drank a lot in the pub last night, and now his head is still a little uncomfortable.

Yao Tiande's loud roar startled him cleverly, opened his eyes from the bed, and looked out the window in astonishment.

Rakshasa came to the Xuan Gang to kill?

What's the meaning?

He lived on the third floor, walked outside the window, looked down from a height, and immediately saw a few people belonging to Rakshasa with red belts around their waists, walking out of a small building next door, one of them The tall and tall man, he knew, was Gao Tian in the Rakshasa. At this moment, he was holding a person in his right hand and dragged him out like a dead dog.

It was Duan Chen who was dragged to the ground.

Gao Tian stepped on Duan Chen's leg and punched him in the chest again, knocking Duan Chen to death. He fell into a semi-conscious state, lost his ability to resist, and was dragged out by him.

They are now here to arrest Yao Tiande and Duan Chen and go back to interrogate them.

Although Liu Weijie didn't know Duan Chen, he could see that he was from the Xuan Gang.

At this moment, his mind was confused, and it was only after he realized that the people of Rakshasa were actually rushing to the center of the Xuan gang to arrest their mysterious gang?

Is this still great?

Although he and Gao Tian knew each other, he was shocked and angry at the moment. He didn't care to wash up, he immediately pushed open the window in front of him, jumped out of the window, and with a bang, he fell heavily from the third floor to the ground.

At this moment, in Wang Xuan's single-family building, Yao Tiande rushed up the stairs at full speed while roaring. When he saw Liu Ming pounced, he immediately threw a smoke crystal.

The smoke crystal exploded, black smoke billowed, and immediately enveloped the place, making it invisible.

Liu Ming sneered: "Naive."

He was not afraid at all, accelerated quickly, rushed in, and captured his position with the sound of Yao Tiande running on the stairs before, and with a sudden blow, his right arm and the small half of his body on the right were vitrified.

Although Yao Tiande's brain was spinning fast, facing this crushing gap, even the smoky crystal couldn't guard against Liu Ming, and he was immediately approached behind him. A flash of lightning flashed backwards.

Although he knew that he was invincible, at this moment he could only bite the bullet and fight back.

With a "bang", a metal rod with electric light was firmly stuck on the stairs. The stairs were specially made and extremely hard. The rod didn't damage the stairs, but he suddenly felt a tightness in his chest, and he had been caught. Live, involuntarily vacated.

He couldn't help opening his mouth, let out a loud scream, and with a bang, Liu Ming volleyed him up from the stairs and threw it down.

Yao Tiande fell heavily on the carpet in the hall. Liu Ming fell to the ground almost at the same time as him, then stretched out his foot and kicked him in the stomach.

Yao Tiande screamed, his stomach was kicked into a foot pit, his body flew sideways in the air, passed through the door that had been opened in the hall, and fell out of the small building.

This still has to be left alive, Liu Ming has left his love at his feet, otherwise, with his strength as a powerhouse, just this kick can kick Yao Tiande's belly and take his life.

Yao Tiande's mouth was full of blood, and he tumbled and fell out of the door, struggling to get up, but suddenly he sank and was stepped on.

It was Liu Ming who stepped on him.

Liu Ming's face was gloomy with a sneer, and in front of him was Gao Tian who was carrying Duan Chen.

Gao Tian was about to leave while carrying Duan Chen when suddenly a figure flashed in front of him, and a man with an angry face stood in front of him.

"Liu Weijie?" Gao Tian and Liu Weijie are familiar, and the two of them have been drinking together in a pub, but at this moment Liu Weijie's face is full of anger. He didn't even wear third-order alloy equipment, but appeared in a set of cotton pajamas. In front of him, it was obvious that he was in a hurry.

"Gao Tian, are you crazy?" Liu Weijie was angry and shocked. He didn't know about the conflict between Wang Xuan and Rakshasa, let alone who Duan Chen and Yao Tiande were. A Rakshasa person broke into them to arrest people, and his heart was shocked and inexplicable.

"Liu Weijie, don't worry about it, this matter has nothing to do with you, and it has nothing to do with your Xuan gang. These are two traitors of our Rakshasa who hid when your mysterious gang came. We will arrest them now." Gao Tian said as soon as he said that, he wanted to walk away.

Liu Weijie was stunned when he said this, but he believed it a little bit.

Gao Tian held Duan Chen, and just flashed past Liu Weijie, another person suddenly appeared in front of him.

This is a tall, nearly two-meter-tall little giant with a dark complexion. He suddenly stood in front of him, like an iron tower.

"Mu Gang..."

The name appeared in his heart, and he looked up at the sudden appearance of Mu Gang in front of him, his face full of anger.

Mou Gang didn't say a word. He put his hands together and then separated them. A giant hammer full of patterns appeared in each hand. He lifted the giant hammer and smashed it towards Gao Tian.

This giant hammer shot, with a faint wind whistling, and it was threatening.

"Mu Gang, do you dare to strike at me and provoke a dispute between the two parties?"

With a "bang", the giant hammer smashed into the white light, causing Luo Li to stagger and fall back, and his face changed immediately.

"Let's go!" Luo Li shouted lowly, and with a wave of his right arm, a stronger white light rose from above, countering Mu Gang, wanting to let Gao Tian take Duan Chen away.

Later, Liu Ming also mentioned Yao Tiande, who fell to the ground. He wanted to leave, but he didn't want to see a man and a woman not far away. They all had faint anger on their faces, and they rushed towards him with great power. Obviously they are all strong.

The two people who came here were Jiang He and Gongsun Xiaoyan. They were both powerful men who had been introduced to Wang Xuan by Qiu Yuanfeng before, and were big figures in the Xuan Gang.

As the movement here became more and more noisy, it can be said that the important people in the Xuan Gang who stayed behind in Worm Town were all alarmed and gathered here one after another.

Liu Ming, Gao Tian, and Luo Li understood immediately that it was not that easy to leave with Yao Tiande and Duan Chen today.

But they are not afraid, after all, they have the support of the people above them.

Jiang He and Gongsun Xiaoyan slammed a blow, Liu Ming could not resist with one enemy and two, so he could only hold Yao Tiande in front of him to resist, and retreated by himself.

Gongsun Xiaoyan shouted, "Despicable!" With a sway of his body, he suddenly circled behind him. With a wave of his right hand, golden threads appeared one after another, entangled in Liu Ming and Yao Tiande, as if they were entangled in a spider web.

Liu Ming was startled and wanted to dodge his legs, but he found that even his feet were entangled with golden threads. Although he broke the golden threads in an instant, they were all equal powerhouses. After a while, Jiang He's fist hit his left shoulder firmly.

With a "no" sound, Liu Ming grunted, his left shoulder collapsed immediately, his left hand holding Yao Tiande loosened, and Jiang He snatched Yao Tiande away.

He threw Yao Tiande aside, but Jiang He and Gongsun Xiaoyan did not stop, and they joined forces to launch a fierce attack on Liu Ming.

Liu Ming couldn't resist, and he retreated step by step. He quickly groaned, and was entangled by Gongsun Xiaoyan again with a golden thread. The speed was a little slower, and Jiang He punched him in the stomach.

Liu Ming snorted miserably, a mouthful of blood spurted out of his mouth, and his stomach collapsed into a fist pit.

On the other side, Gao Tian, Luo Li and other four were also blocked.

Mou Gang, You Ao, and Xiang Jingnan all came, including Yan Shouzheng, Xu Xuesong, and Tao Lin who returned with Liu Weijie last night. More and more powerful people appeared in the "Xuan Gang", and they were surrounded by them.

Seeing that they dared to break into the Xuan Gang to arrest people, these people were all irritated, and they took action one after another. How could Gao Tian and the other four stop them? Soon Gao Tian groaned, and the sword in his hand was hit by a hammer from Mu Gang, which shocked him, and his left hand suddenly lightened, but Duan Chen, who was holding it, was snatched away by Yan Shouzheng.

Although Yan Shouzheng didn't know Duan Chen, but since he was an important member of the Xuan Gang, he naturally couldn't tolerate the people of Rakshasa being taken away like this.

This hit Xuan Gang in the face.

Yan Shouzheng had just recaptured Duan Chen when he suddenly felt bad, his heart shuddered, and he wanted to turn around when he was busy, when he was punched in the face, groaned, his eyes darkened, he couldn't see anything, even his nose sunk in, The body volleyed out, and then fell heavily to the ground.

This punch almost flattened his face. This was due to the opponent's mercy, otherwise his head would be blown out as long as he increased his strength.

Yan Shouzheng fell to the ground, barely opened his eyes, only Mo Hu could see that it was a short man who suddenly appeared, holding Duan Chen, who had just been snatched from him, in his left hand, with a sneer on his face.

His heart skipped a beat, and he finally recognized it. This is Rakshasa's number two person, Chen Daolin.

Chen Daolin accompanied the thin young man who came down from above, and finally came.

Seeing the melee battle between the two sides, Rakshasa's five men lost to the enemy, and they retreated steadily. He suddenly shot www.mtnovel.com with a single blow and severely damaged Yan Shouzheng, regained Duan Chen, and then threw Duan Chen out, followed by The core members of the group of Rakshasa were busy with two people stepping forward to catch Duan Chen.

"Take it away!" Chen Daolin snorted coldly, then shook his body and swooped at Yao Tiande, who was placed on the ground by Jiang He on the other side.

"Stop!" Another soft drink sounded, and Chen Daolin saw that there was one more person in front of Yao Tiande on the ground, but it was a very feminine-looking young man. It was Qiu Yuanfeng from the "Xuan Gang" who arrived.

Chen Daolin is the No. 2 character in "Rakshasa", and Qiu Yuanfeng, who looks very feminine and male and female, is the No. 2 character in the "Xuan Gang", and is very favored by the leaders of the Xuan Gang.

Chen Daolin saw Qiu Yuanfeng, but did not speak. As soon as he turned around, he wanted to bypass him and grab Yao Tiande behind him.

His goal was to capture Yao Tiande and Duan Chen, and he didn't want to be an enemy of the Xuan Gang.

Although Qiu Yuanfeng had a good temper, he couldn't hide a trace of anger in his eyes at this moment.

Rakshasa and these people are indeed too arrogant. In today's scene, it can be said that the Xuan Gang is completely ignored.

If this tone can be endured, Xuan Gang might as well get rid of the name in Bug Town.

The slaughter and movement here have already alarmed all parties. In the square, a large number of people who were in a hurry stopped, and they stood far away and looked here, and this single-family building, five big The factions each occupy an area, and the elites of the "Phoenix", "Dynasty" and "Justice League" living in separate buildings have also woken up one after another, or watched from afar through the windows, and even more so. What's more, come here from afar to watch the show in person.

Chapter 168

Rakshasa City and the Leader of the Xuan Gang

After the tavern incident, all parties have their own minds, and they are all thinking about a fierce conflict between the Rakshasa and the Xuan Gang. It is absolutely impossible to let this matter go, but they can't guess what the conflict will be. When did it happen, and in what way did it break out.

However, Rakshasa went directly to arrest people today, so it did not give Xuan Gang face, but it was completely beyond everyone's expectations.

Chen Daolin was very fast, and in a flash, he bypassed Qiu Yuanfeng and stretched out his left hand, trying to grab Yao Tiande who was lying on the ground.

Facing his speed, Yao Tiande only felt a flash in front of him, he couldn't even see clearly, let alone dodge or resist.

Qiu Yuanfeng didn't move, he only raised his right arm. On his right arm, there was a mass of foreign body wriggling and protruding, but it was a strange beast about one meter in length. This strange beast had a fish-like body with a cloth surface It is full of scales, with a head like a king cobra, and three feet on each side of the fish.

The snake-headed fish-shaped beast emerged from his right arm, twisted his body violently, and jumped out from Qiu Yuanfeng's right arm as soon as his six feet supported it, slammed into the air, fast as lightning, and thought about it. Chen Daolin, who was going to arrest Yao Tiande on the ground.

At the moment when he was attacked by this strange beast, Chen Daolin felt something, and suddenly shouted angrily: "Snake left?"

There was a hint of surprise in the angry shout. The speed of the snake was beyond his expectations. He couldn't care about grabbing Yao Tiande on the ground. Flames rose from his right arm. The remains of the snake head and fish body were bitten together.

"Snake Relic" is the name of the hatchling beast summoned by Qiu Yuanfeng. This kind of snake relic beast with a snake head and a fish body is very powerful. It is not afraid of flames. It rushed in and let the flames burn around its body. The snake's mouth, revealing two fangs, bit towards Chen Daolin.

Chen Daolin retreated violently, with five fingers on his right hand, a flame of flame spurted out of it, and there was a faint electric light floating on the surface, and when he met the biting snake left, there was a loud sound, and there was a crackling sound with thunder and lightning inside.

This time, the snake left resisted and didn't believe it, and it was like being electrocuted, and it was bounced back heavily.

Qiu Yuanfeng groaned, took a step back, and made a move with his right hand. The snake that bounced back shrank and landed on his right arm again.

The thin young man who came down from above, with his hands on his back, mixed in with the core members of a group of Rakshasa, and he was wearing second-order equipment, which made him look inconspicuous.

He didn't make a move either, he just watched quietly, watching Chen Daolin and Qiu Yuanfeng make their move, and then watching the remaining Rakshasa's ultimate powerhouse lose to the Xuangang powerhouse, Liu Ming spit out two mouthfuls of blood in a row, already injured, Gao Tian The pair of giant hammers thrown up by Mu Gang made his face pale, and his right arm kept trembling. When Mu Gang slammed down with another hammer, he barely blocked it with his sword, his face suddenly turned pale, and he opened his mouth and spit out a mouthful of blood.

"Qiu Yuanfeng, are you really going to provoke a war between us?" Chen Daolin shook back to Qiu Yuanfeng's snake's remains, and instead of attacking, he issued a stern warning.

Qiu Yuanfeng's face was cold. He didn't expect Chen Daolin to be so shameless. It was obvious that the other party invaded the Xuan Gang, injured and captured Yao Tiande and Duan Chen, who were already members of the Xuan Gang. Now he bites back and asks whether they want to pick war on both sides.

"Chen Daolin, you Rakshasa deceive people too much, don't even think about leaving here today!"

Qiu Yuanfeng suddenly raised his voice, and more and more members of the Xuan Gang gathered from all directions. In addition to the ten elites headed by him, there were also core members of their subordinates. There were already as many as thirty or forty people, and they all gathered around them. , surrounded all the members of the Rakshasa who invaded this time, and each of them showed their own hatching beasts, murderous.

Among the top ten powerhouses, in addition to the injured Yan Shouzheng, Liu Weijie, Xu Xuesong, Tao Lin, You Ao, Xiang Jingnan, Gongsun Xiaoyan and others all attacked with all their strength under the orders of Qiu Yuanfeng.

After two screams in a row, Gao Tian and Luo Li snorted and fell heavily, and the expressions of the remaining two rakshasas in the real state changed, they hurriedly retreated, and retreated in the direction of Chen Daolin.

Chen Daolin wanted to help, but was blocked by Qiu Yuanfeng's release of the snake's remains.

Gongsun Xiaoyan was afraid that he would not be able to stop Chen Daolin, who was at his peak, and immediately approached them. Wherever she went, dense golden threads appeared on the ground. .

As long as she can trap Chen Daolin for a moment, with Qiu Yuanfeng's strength, she can hit him hard.

"Stop it all!" Chen Daolin shouted sternly, but unfortunately, apart from his Rakshasa's people, all the powerful Xuan Gang who approached him turned a deaf ear. They had already made up their minds to inflict heavy damage on Chen Daolin and give Rakshasa a severe blow. Lessons are taught, and the viciousness of today can be brought out.

Mou Gang let out an angry howl, spread out his feet, exuding a terrifying aura all over his body, like a wild buffalo, waving a pair of giant hammers, volleying towards Chen Daolin and hitting him head-on.

He was born with divine power and extremely strong strength, much stronger than the normal state. The pair of giant hammers seemed to come alive in his hands, and there was a faint wind in the air. Purely in terms of power, he could already Match the pinnacle of statehood.

Stronger than Chen Daolin, he didn't dare to block hard, so he had to retreat. Qiu Yuanfeng seized the opportunity and released the remains of the snake again.

At the same time, facing Gongsun Xiaoyan, Mou Gang and Qiu Yuanfeng's joint attack, stronger than Chen Daolin, his face also changed.

Not far away, people came one after another from afar, and from time to time, there were strong men wearing Tier 3 alloy equipment. These were all strong men from "Phoenix", "Dynasty" and "Justice League".

They all lived in this building. Now that such a big thing happened here in the Xuan Gang, they were both curious and surprised, and they rushed over to watch the fun.

Chen Daolin dodged to avoid Mou Gang's attack. Mou Gang's giant hammer smashed to the ground, making a loud noise and sparks splashing. With the power of his hammer, even the ground poured with reinforced concrete could smash a big hole. However, the ground here is protected by special strength. This hammer only smashed a white mark on the ground, and the giant hammer bounced back, unable to smash the ground.

Chen Daolin was entangled with the giant hammer that avoided Mou Gang and the golden thread controlled by Gongsun Xiaoyan, and the remains of the snake released by Qiu Yuanfeng rushed towards him.

Chen Daolin couldn't dodge, he clenched his right hand into a fist and volleyed out.

With a loud bang, the flames rose, and a phantom alien beast appeared among them. This alien beast stepped on the flames, and the surface of the body faintly flickered with electric light. This was a special alien beast that controlled both the power of flame and lightning, and was extremely powerful.

This lightning is Chen Daolin's chance, so that his flame beast has the power of lightning at the same time, so he can become the peak powerhouse in the state, and is regarded as the first person under the five chiefs of Insect Town, far exceeding the average. Perfect state.

The snake relic released by Qiu Yuanfeng was blocked by the phantom beast released by Chen Daolin. Qiu Yuanfeng suddenly shouted and took a step forward. With his right hand, he grabbed the snake relic's tail, his right arm merged with the snake relic, and the whole The man seemed to float over from the sky, and the snake left and his right arm turned into a giant two-meter-long blade, which slammed into the sky.

With a snort, the phantom beast released by Chen Daolin was cut in half by this knife. With a look of horror in his eyes, he retreated dangerously. For this reason, the giant blade almost stuck to his face. Kong went down, cut open the armor, and slashed heavily on the ground.

It was only a short while before he was about to be disemboweled by Qiu Yuanfeng.

At the same time that Qiu Yuanfeng suddenly launched this strongest blow, Jiang He quietly came around from the other side, seized the opportunity, and punched out with his right hand.

His hatching beast is quite special. It fuses with his right hand, and it expands as huge as a bear's paw. With a fist blow, it can crack a stone and break a monument.

At this moment, Chen Daolin retreated violently and could no longer dodge. Jiang He's punch was about to hit him in the back, inflicting heavy damage on him, and suddenly he stopped. Flying up like a cloud.

It flew more than ten meters before hitting the wall of a small building belonging to Wang Xuan. He felt a huge force surge up in his chest. He couldn't help but open his mouth, and blood spurted out, as much as he could. on the wall.

Jiang He slid down the blood-stained wall, turned his head in horror, and wanted to see who it was.

It was the thin young man from above who suddenly appeared. He had been watching silently among the core members of a group of Rakshasa, and seemed to have no intention of intervening until Chen Daolin was about to be hit hard by Jiang He, and he finally couldn't bear it. Living.

He swept his body and came to Jiang He's side, grabbed Jiang He's neck, lifted him up and threw him, and then punched him in the chest.

Jiang He vomited blood and fell out. He kept his body and strode forward. Suddenly, he approached Mu Gang, who had just raised his double hammer and wanted to attack Chen Daolin. He stretched out his hands and grabbed the handle of Mou Gang's hammer.

"Be careful, Mu Gang!" Qiu Yuanfeng's heart skipped a beat, and he couldn't help crying.

Purely in terms of strength, Mu Gang has the level of reaching the pinnacle of state. He snorted, and the muscles on his arms swelled violently. Holding the double hammer, he pressed down, trying to make the sudden appearance of thinness. The young man fell to his knees in front of him.

A strange look flashed across the thin young man's eyes, and he suddenly shouted, "Okay!", raised his arms, and raised Mu Gang, who was nearly two meters tall, together with the two giant hammers. Get up, and throw it far away.

This move made all the powerhouses of the profound gang gasp in their breaths.

They are all aware of Mou Gang's strength, who in this insect town can grab him like this and throw him out?

With a "bang", Mu Gang, like Jiang He, slammed onto the wall on one side. Although he was not seriously injured, the original fighting intent in his eyes disappeared, showing a look of horror, looking up at him. This thin young man had an unbelievable look on his face.

It can be said that the opponent overwhelmingly surpassed him in his proudest strength.

After throwing Jiang He and Mou Gang, the thin young man shocked the audience. Chen Daolin led the injured Liu Ming, Gao Tian, Luo Li and others to retreat behind him, while Qiu Yuanfeng, Gongsun Xiaoyan and others led the way. Staring at the thin young man with a surprised expression, his eyes were full of fear.

Everyone is not stupid, and has already vaguely guessed the identity of the other party.

"Xuan Gang..." The thin young man nodded slightly and said: "You are so daring to cover up the traitors of Rakshasa, this account will not be settled with you today, take these two traitors back first, and then investigate everything clearly. Say it again."

Chen Daolin nodded in response, and with a wave of his hand, several core members of the Rakshasa rushed out and surrounded Yao Tiande who had just climbed up from the ground.

The expression on Qiu Yuanfeng's face changed, Gongsun Xiaoyan, You Ao, Xiang Jingnan, Liu Weijie and others all looked at him.

They were asking him if he would block.

The leader of the Xuan Gang was not there, and among them, Qiu Yuanfeng had always been the leader.

Qiu Yuanfeng stared at this thin young man, and Chen Daolin retreated behind him. There is no doubt that this young man's identity is solid. Can he take action against such a character?

In just one breath, the expression on Qiu Yuanfeng's face changed several times, his forehead was covered in cold sweat, obviously two thoughts were intertwined.

Seeing that Yao Tiande was surrounded by several core members of Rakshasa, he was about to shoot at him. Qiu Yuanfeng suddenly swayed, and two core members of Rakshasa immediately fell out.

He turned around and stood in front of Yao Tiande. At this moment, his thoughts changed several times, and he finally made a decision to protect Yao Tiande and Duan Chen to the best of his ability.

Seeing Qiu Yuanfeng make a decision, Gongsun Xiaoyan, You Ao, Xiang Jingnan, Liu Weijie and the others clucked and moved over.

Except for the injured Yan Shouzheng, Jiang He and the others, all the other strong men of the Xuan Gang stood in front of Yao Tiande.

Chen Daolin, Liu Ming, Gao Tian, and Luo Li also rushed out immediately, each showing hatched beasts, and the two sides may clash again at any time.

The thin young man's face suddenly became very ugly, and the actions of Qiu Yuanfeng and others were provocative to him.

"well....."

He suddenly nodded and said two good words in a row. The second good word had not yet been finished. He suddenly disappeared in place, and when he reappeared, he approached Qiu Yuanfeng. He stretched out his right hand and grabbed it towards Qiu Yuanfeng's face.

This time, he didn't hold back, Qiu Yuanfeng's actions really angered him.

There were only five leaders who could catch his eye in Insect Town. Under the leaders were all ants, so killing them would kill them, even Qiu Yuanfeng, who seemed to have a high status in the Xuan Gang, was the same.

Qiu Yuanfeng had been prepared for a long time, and when he saw this thin young man move, he immediately took out the remains of a snake to resist.

Snake opened its mouth, revealing two fangs. Although Qiu Yuanfeng's eyes couldn't capture the movements of this thin young man, Snake could. It has an amazing ability to capture moving objects, and accurately moved towards the thin young man. Grabbing the palm to bite.

As soon as the snake's mouth closed, it bit the palm of the thin young man's grasp, and the venom was released. The thin young man was bitten, but a sneer appeared on his face.

Qiu Yuanfeng suddenly felt that something was wrong, so he wanted to control the snake to retreat, but it was too late. He heard a bang, and the snake's head that bit the thin young man's palm suddenly exploded.

This snake left and Qiu Yuanfeng had their lives crossed. The snake left's head exploded. He let out a groan, and his right hand exploded immediately. The blood was dripping. He wanted to step back. It was too late. grabbed his face.

Gongsun Xiaoyan, Liu Weijie and others who were standing beside Qiu Yuanfeng watched helplessly, but their speed and reaction couldn't keep up, and no one could help him intercept this thin young man.

In terms of shooting speed, this thin young man's speed is even faster than that of Chen Daolin, who is at his peak.

Suddenly, Qiu Yuanfeng's back seemed to be grabbed by an invisible force, and when he dragged it back, the thin young man's five fingers grabbed out of the air, and he was caught in the air, and there was a faint sound of thunder and explosion in the air.

If these five fingers grabbed Qiu Yuanfeng's face just now, Qiu Yuanfeng's head would have exploded into a lump of flesh.

The thin young man missed the blow, frowned, and looked up, only to see Qiu Yuanfeng grabbed by the shoulder and lifted him out, only to avoid the blow just now.

The person who suddenly appeared and pulled Qiu Yuanfeng out was a man shrouded in silver armor. He let go of his hand and put down Qiu Yuanfeng. Qiu Yuanfeng was still in shock. Seeing him, his face was overjoyed, and he said busily, "Leader."

With a gentle smile on his face and a scholarly atmosphere, this person is the leader of the Xuan Gang, but unlike the last time Wang Xuan saw him, he was not wearing casual clothes at this moment, but changed A set of silver scales, obviously, this is a more advanced set than the third-order alloy equipment.

Gongsun Xiaoyan, You Ao, Xiang Jingnan, Liu Weijie and others saluted one after another, and when the leader came, they immediately became much stronger.

The leader of the Xuan Gang waved his hands and motioned them to lead Yao Tiande back, turning him into facing the thin young man in front of him alone.

"Gongyangjun, you've done it this time." The leader of the Xuan Gang stretched his finger to the surrounding buildings, and then pointed to Duan Chen who was caught by several core members of the Rakshasa~www.mtlnovel.com ~ said: "This is the main place of the Xuan Gang, these two are members of the Xuan Gang, you will break in with the people of the Rakshasa to arrest my members of the Xuan Gang?"

Gong Yangjun smiled coldly, and was not afraid of the appearance of the leader of the Xuan gang, saying: "The leader of the Rakshasa is dead, it is suspected that it is related to your Xuan gang. These two Rakshasa traitors are related to the death of the leader of the Rakshasa, but your Xuan gang has nothing to do with it. Cover them up, now it seems that the death of your Xuan Gang and the Rakshasa leader is inseparable from the relationship."

"Devouring the Starry Sky: Sign In to God"

The leader of the Xuan Gang shook his head and said, "Gongyangjun, you are also an emissary representing Rakshasa City, but you are so naive when you say it?"

Gong Yangjun's expression changed, "What did you say?" His right hand was slightly clenched.

The leader of the Xuan Gang ignored his reaction, his face sank, and said: "If you think that the people in my Xuan Gang are related to the death of your Rakshasa leader, you can come to me with evidence, if it is true, I will naturally I won't cover them up, but now you have nothing, just bring people to your door to arrest them, Gongyang Jun, you really don't take our Xuan Gang in your eyes."

When he said this, he paused for a moment, suddenly raised his voice and shouted coldly: "Bring Duan Chen back, who would dare to stop and kill!" At this moment, the bookish air he had always carried disappeared, radiating from the inside out. It was a fierce killing intent.

Following his order, Qiu Yuanfeng, Gongsun Xiaoyan, Liu Weijie, You Ao, Xiang Jingnan, and a group of powerful people behind him roared in unison: "Yes!" They all rushed towards Duan Chen immediately.

The core members of the Rakshasa who captured Duan Chen were only adults, how dared to stop them, all their faces changed greatly, and they retreated one after another.

Chapter 169

The Storm is Coming (The first update today, ask for a monthly ticket)

Chen Daolin and Liu Ming's expressions changed, and Chen Daolin rushed out angrily, trying to intercept them.

Qiu Yuanfeng drank a bottle of primary healing water, his right hand that had just been shattered recovered, and he immediately released the remains of the snake. He cooperated with Gongsun Xiaoyan to entangle Chen Daolin.

The remaining Liu Ming, Gao Tian, and Luo Li were all blocked by others. With the order of the leader of the Xuan Gang, all the members of the Xuan Gang made a ruthless move and killed them.

The recently injured Mu Gang, Jiang He and others also drank the healing water and recovered. The ten great powerhouses shot together. How can Rakshasa resist?

Gong Yangjun's face was extremely ugly. He shook his body and wanted to make a move. Suddenly, the leader of the Xuan Gang took a step and intercepted him. A terrifying aura was released from his body. A monstrous beast stared at him, and as long as he moved slightly, this beast would make a fatal blow.

The power of the leader of the Xuan Gang was beyond his imagination, Gong Yangjun's aura was captured, and he was actually suppressed, and the arrogance just now disappeared.

He originally thought that occupying his identity from above would definitely make the leader of the Xuan gang jealous. In addition, it was also involved in the death of the leader of the Rakshasa. They were only here to take away two inconspicuous characters. The leader of the Xuan gang would not be able to shelter them.

Only now did he realize that he had guessed wrong.

"Stop!" he suddenly roared.

Chen Daolin and the others listened to his order and were busy retreating, but the Xuan Gang did not stop.

Liu Weijie easily injured the Rakshasa member holding Duan Chen and took Duan Chen back.

Chen Daolin wanted to stop him, but Gongyang Jun shouted again, "Stop and hand over the person to them."

Chen Daolin was stunned and glanced at Gongyang Jun with a look of disbelief on his face. He didn't expect Gongyang Jun, who came down from above, to be so pustulous. .

But he didn't dare not to obey Gongyangjun's orders. Without Gongyangjun standing in front of him, how could he dare to be presumptuous in front of the leader of the Xuan Gang.

"Let's go!" Gongyang Jun turned around and was about to leave.

Qiu Yuanfeng and Mu Gang flicked their bodies and blocked them. Mou Gang swung a pair of giant hammers in his hands, and said with a grim expression, "Breaking into my mysterious gang's stronghold, you want to leave now? It's too late."

Gong Yangjun stopped, staring at Mu Gang and Qiu Yuanfeng in front of him, his eyes narrowed slightly, he suddenly turned his head to look at the leader of the Xuan Gang on the other side, with a cold expression of anger on his face, and said, "It seems, Do you want to keep me and kill me, the messenger representing Rakshasa City?"

As he spoke, he took out a crystal from the storage belt around his waist.

In this crystal, there are faint halos flickering.

The leader of the Xuan Gang said softly, "Qiu Yuanfeng, Mu Gang, come back and let him go."

Although Qiu Yuanfeng and Mou Gang were reluctant, they were not allowed to make way.

Chen Daolin was about to leave, and suddenly there was a figure in front of him. It was the leader of the Xuan gang. He was stunned for a moment. He didn't know what the leader of the Xuan gang wanted to do. on the chest.

With a "no" sound, Chen Daolin did not expect that the leader of the Xuan Gang would suddenly attack him. He was caught off guard, the ribs in his chest were all shattered, he opened his mouth and spat out a mouthful of blood, and his body rolled in the air and fell out.

"It should be a capital crime to lead someone to trespass into the Xuan Gang. If something happened to your leader, I will spare you this time. If there is a next time, it will be a death sentence.

Following his shouting, Liu Ming, Gao Tian, Luo Li and others ran away like a bereaved dog with Chen Daolin, who was seriously injured.

"Go away, I'll break your dog's legs if you're slow!" Mou Gang laughed out loud, feeling the bad anger in his heart.

Gong Yangjun left, and instead of going to the place where the Rakshasa leader lived, he went straight to the elevator in the center of the square.

"Chief, you are still the best. As soon as you came forward, these people ran away with their tails between their tails. Unfortunately, they failed to clean up this Gongyang Jun." Liu Weijie smiled and carried some regrets.

Gongsun Xiaoyan rolled his eyes at him and said, "Gongyangjun is the messenger of Rakshasa City. What happened to him? Can you bear the consequences?"

The head of the Xuan Gang had a solemn look on his face, looked at Qiu Yuanfeng, and said, "Immediately send someone to Scorpion City and recall all the people in Scorpion City, especially Wang Xuan, and Gu Manyao and He who went to Centipede Island. Zhang Haofei and the others will be recalled together, the sooner the better."

As he spoke, he took out a crystal and handed it to Qiu Yuanfeng.

Now Zhang Haofei has been promoted to a powerhouse, he is one of the core figures of the Xuan Gang, and the leader of the Xuan Gang also remembers his name.

Seeing that the leader of the Xuan Gang had such a solemn expression on his face, Gongsun Xiaoyan, Liu Weijie and others, who had raised their eyebrows and felt bad, were all shocked.

Qiu Yuanfeng took the crystal and immediately said: "I understand, I will do it myself." After speaking, he turned and ran away.

"Leader, don't they give up on Rakshasa?" Liu Weijie was a little puzzled.

The leader of the Xuan Gang glanced at Yao Tiande and Duan Chen, who had retreated to the side, before sighing: "This Gongyangjun is too young and reckless, the worst thing he did was to know that the Rakshasa leader had an accident, and he was reckless. If he directly broke into my Xuan Gang and wanted to arrest people, he should go back to Rakshasa City to report the situation first, and they will naturally send people down."

"Now he must return to Rakshasa City to report. If the Rakshasa leader really has an accident, it's not a small matter. Naturally, the above must investigate clearly, and I also need to go up there. This matter is not something we can handle anymore. Someone from above will deal with it."

When everyone heard this, they all took a deep breath, and only then did they know that the situation was far more serious than they thought.

Gongsun Xiaoyan suddenly approached, lowered her voice, and whispered: "Leader, if the Rakshasa leader died, it really has something to do with Wang Xuan and the others. Now you let them all come back, why don't you let them die?"

Tan Tan, the leader of the Xuan Gang, said, "If Rakshasa City really wanted to kill him, wouldn't he be able to escape without returning to Insect Town? If he really wants to survive at that point, there is only one way, and that is to prove that he is worth living."

"Okay, do as I say, I'm leaving."

After he finished speaking, he swayed and ran towards the elevator in the center of the square.

Seeing the leader leave, Gongsun Xiaoyan, Liu Weijie and others lost their original excitement and smiles. Everyone felt unprecedented pressure. They understood that what just happened was just a prelude, and the real storm was coming.

In Scorpion City, in a small half-collapsed low house, Wang Xuan sat cross-legged, and the little girl patrolled around, faithfully guarding the place. If any danger appeared, it would immediately wake up its master.

Wang Xuan sensed the white light in his right hand. He killed Shi Jin before and absorbed the energy of his hatching beast. This energy filled his white light. The light wall absorbs the light, making the light wall stronger, which means that if he wants to break through the perfect state, he needs more powerful energy, and it will become more difficult.

Wang Xuan understood that there must be a reason for this. He calmed down at this moment and carefully sensed the white light. After a long time, he let out a sigh of relief and opened his eyes.

The sky outside has brightened, and a new day has arrived.

The sense of tearing in the white light in the right hand has disappeared, but Wang Xuan still has no clue as to how to break through the state.

"How to break through the state..."

Wang Xuan sighed, walked out of the somewhat dilapidated low house, and looked at the scorpion city with broken walls everywhere.

"At the moment, we can only find some scorpions to hunt, and then explore the breakthrough method during the hunting process, I hope it will be helpful."

Wang Xuan pondered, opened the Xumi mustard space on the left, and took out the parchment inside.

He still has seven pieces of parchment to complete, so he unfolded them one by one and read them again.

"Insect Tide Hunter, 6-star difficulty. With my current strength, I can give it a try. Unfortunately, this task needs to be done when the insect Tide breaks out."

"Stealing insect eggs is also a six-star difficulty, but to go to the insect country north of Insect Town. It is said that once the insect tide occurs, it will all emerge from the insect country. This insect country should be a more dangerous place than Scorpion City."

After that, there are also "Hunting the Seven Star Spider King" and "Cerber's Call", which are also six-star dangerous, one address is in the insect country, and the other is the * tower at the end of the insect country.

For the remaining three pieces of parchment, the five-star difficulty "Goblin's Redemption" needs to go to the lower floor, and the "helping others" without difficulty has to go to the underground parking lot.

Putting away the six pieces of parchment one by one, only the last piece of parchment was left with the task of "Finding the Hometown of Mechanical Beasts". Among the seven pieces of parchment, only the address of this task was in Scorpion City.

Wang Xuan thought of going to the insect country several times, but he gave up, and decided to complete the task of "finding the hometown of mechanical beasts" in Scorpion City first, and then if he still failed to come up with a breakthrough way, he decided to enter the insect country to try.

With his current strength, he has the confidence to enter the more dangerous insect country.

"Perhaps only in the case of greater pressure, it is possible to understand the way to break through the state is not necessarily."

Wang Xuan opened the last piece of parchment in his hand in deep thought, and looked at the content of the task of "Finding the Hometown of Mechanical Beasts" of unknown difficulty.

"Go to Scorpion City and look for a strange statue. It seems that there is some problem with the statue."

"This quest is a bit strange, I remember Yao Tiande and the others said that tasks with unknown difficulty like this are quite special, and there may be no rewards, but there is a certain probability that there will be better rewards than six-star quests, so there are many Everyone uses crystal scales to brush this kind of parchment of unknown difficulty in the quest line."

Wang Xuan pondered, the special part of this mission is that there is no detailed location marked on the map. Where is the strange statue mentioned above in Scorpion City?

Thinking back to the time when I entered this Scorpion City, especially last night, I rode the Green Poison Lord all the way, I don't know how far I ran, and I didn't find any withered statues on the way. There is no map instruction now, I have to find it in this Scorpion City. A withered statue is not looking for a needle in a haystack?

"The difficulty of this task is unknown. I feel it is even more difficult than the six-star task. It is too difficult to find an unknown statue in Scorpion City, unless you are lucky..."

Wang Xuan's heart suddenly moved, and he looked at a towering building nearby. Although this building was also dilapidated, the highest roof was still more than ten meters above the ground.

"It doesn't make sense, this task can't be so pitiful, there must be a way."

With a sway of his body, he reached the bottom of the building. The metal tentacles extended to a height of six meters, hooked into a hole in the wall, lifted his body, and went up.

Using two metal tentacles, Wang Xuan quickly rose to the top of the building.

Fall to the top, climb high and look into the distance, hoping to discover something.

"A strange statue... Since it is not marked on the map, this statue should be relatively large. If it is a very small statue, inconspicuous, and does not give any instructions, then this task is purely deceiving. of."

This time, he climbed to a high place and looked around, which really made him see something. Referring to the map of Scorpion City, it can be found that in the west of Scorpion City, you can vaguely see the wreckage of some buildings collapsed there. The yellow sand was submerged, but these exposed wreckages were put together, and from a distance, they looked very much like a liger-like beast lying on the ground.

"How can it be such a coincidence? It just happened to form the appearance of this giant beast, and it is so similar, isn't this the strange image on the parchment?"

Wang Xuan didn't believe in any coincidence, and decided to go to see what happened. Even if he guessed wrong, he would have nothing to lose.

He took out the map of Scorpion City, carefully compared it according to the reference object, and determined the position before jumping off the top of the ten-meter-high building.

"Let's go—" He snorted towards the little guy below, shrugged his right shoulder, and there was a crisp metal friction sound from behind, and the alloy armor on the back on the right cracked from it, black one after another. Steel feathers stick out from it, forming a black wing.

This wing flapped and a gust of wind blew, letting him use this vertical momentum to glide in the air and fly into the distance.

This is how he fused the essence liquid and obtained the special ability ghost wings of the dead powerful hatching beast "Ghost Car".

Although Ghost Wings can't really make him fly in the air, it can glide for a short time. He just jumped from a height of more than ten meters, gliding and flying more than 30 meters before landing on the yellow sand and standing firm.

Naturally, the ability of this ghost wing is not only to assist gliding, but the pieces of sharp steel feathers that form the ghost wing are also a very terrifying weapon.

Putting away the ghost wings, Wang Xuan summoned Xiaojiao, rode on it, held the map of Scorpion City in his left hand, and ordered Xiaojiao to run towards the west of Scorpion City.

I ran wildly all the way, and I didn't encounter anyone again. The sky was completely bright. At this moment, Wang Xuan didn't know that today was June 10th, the day when the messenger of Rakshasa City would come to Wormtown, and he didn't know that Rakshasa would come to Zong Town after that. A fierce conflict broke out with the Xuan Gang.

He believed Yao Tiande's words and always thought that the people from Rakshasa City would come around the 15th of the middle of the month. Even if there was really trouble, it would at least be around the 15th. I hope to be able to break through the state before the arrival of the fifteenth.

A sand scorpion appeared filially and blocked in front of Xiaojiao. Wang Xuan rode Xiaojiao, rushed in, released two metal tentacles, and attacked from the air.

Now that he is powerful, to deal with these sand scorpions, he can kill them while riding a little boy.

The two tentacles hit left and right, killing two sand scorpions respectively, absorbing two white scales, sensing the scales entering the white light on his right hand, and finding that the white light absorbs the energy of these two scales, sending out extremely subtle energy fluctuations, It's almost impossible to notice if you don't look closely.

"It seems that as my strength is getting stronger and stronger, the light wall of this white light is getting stronger and stronger. Now killing this sand scorpion is almost useless."

Wang Xuan frowned, knowing that drawing energy will only make the light wall stronger and more difficult to break through the perfect state, but now there is no way to do it. , comprehend the method of breaking through the state.

These sand scorpions were quickly killed. Every time a white scale was drawn, Wang Xuan would carefully sense the white light in his right hand, hoping to find something different.

With contemplation, constantly sensing the changes in the white light, he rode Xiaojiao all the way to the west. On the way, he encountered several sand scorpion attacks. Wang Xuan was constantly comprehending the induction. The white light and ghost wings have a deeper understanding.

About half an hour later, Wang Xuan asked Xiaojiao to stop. Referring to the map of Scorpion City in his left hand, the place he saw in the distance that looked like a giant beast lying on the ground should be right in front of him.

I was too far away before and I could see a large number of ruins of buildings forming the appearance of a giant beast lying on the ground. Now I walked in, but I could only see a lot of dilapidated buildings that were exposed outside the yellow sand. The appearance of a lying beast.

Riding Xiaojiao and detouring towards these dilapidated buildings, Wang Xuan hoped to find something.

After a circle, I couldn't see any other statues or other useful discoveries, and all I could see were some ruins.

Wrinkling his brows slightly, Wang Xuan took out the parchment again and opened it~www.mtlnovel.com~ It seems that I guessed wrong, how to find this so-called withered statue..."

Wang Xuan looked at the parchment thoughtfully, and suddenly found that the map drawn on it had changed, and the line of text on it had also changed.

"From a distance, this pile of building ruins forms a strange statue. If you find this pile of building ruins, you can see an ancient temple in disrepair. Entering the ancient temple, you will find something."

After that, a red line appeared on the map, representing the direction to the ancient temple.

"I can't think of a mistake, I guessed it right." Wang Xuan showed a smile, followed the red line on the map and looked to the left, and soon among the large number of ruins, he determined the The location of the ancient temple.

If it wasn't for the parchment that introduced it as an ancient temple, it would be impossible to connect it with the ancient temple just by looking at its appearance outside the yellow sand.

Riding Xiaoguo approached, he could only see a few brick walls that were mostly collapsed outside, with half of the tiles covering them. It seemed that as long as another gust of wind would blow them down.

Wang Xuan got off Xiaogai's back and walked in according to the parchment's instructions.

"Is this an ancient temple?" Wang Xuan frowned, looking at the parchment again.

"There is a hidden passage leading to the hometown of mechanical beasts in the ancient temple. If you find the passage, you can complete the task of finding the hometown of mechanical beasts."

"It's that simple, as long as you find the passage here, you can complete the task?" Wang Xuan summoned Xiaoguo, and together with him, began to remove the yellow sand on the ground of the ruined temple, which was mostly collapsed, and will soon be here. A rusted box was dug under the cover of the yellow sand.

Chapter 170

Gathering of all parties (Second update today, ask for monthly tickets and subscriptions)

It was a copper box with patina on the surface.

Different from the copper rust box he found before, this box is very huge, a square box with a side length of about one meter, but the height is very short, no more than 20 meters, it looks very flat and looks very strange.

"Is this a quest reward, or is it a passage to the hometown of mechanical beasts? Where exactly is the hometown of mechanical beasts?"

Wang Xuan looked thoughtful, stretched out his metal tentacles, and carefully lifted the lid of the huge box covered with rust slowly.

The lid was opened to make sure that there were no dangers or traps inside, and Wang Xuancai approached to check.

In this huge box, there are three delicate and small crystals and a piece of rolled parchment. These three crystals are much smaller than ordinary explosion or smoke crystals. Wang Xuan does not need to use the eye of the illustrated book to understand that these three crystals are A crystal is a Mechamon crystal used to equip a Mechamon.

This task is called "Finding the Hometown of Mechanical Beasts", and the appearance of mechanical beast crystals is not expected by Wang Xuan.

The little girl who followed him looked a little excited when he saw the three mechanical beast crystals, raised his tail, and immediately circled around the box, looking very anxious.

Wang Xuan's heart moved, it seemed that these three crystals were a bit complicated, he took them out, opened the eye of the illustrated book, and checked the data of these three mechanical beast crystals.

"Name: Powertrain (medium state), which can be used to activate the heart of the mechanical beast, is the source of power for the mechanical beast, and contains much more powerful kinetic energy than the powertrain in the initial state. Equipped with a powertrain in the medium state, mechanical The speed, strength and reaction ability of the beast will be greatly improved."

The first crystal he looked at was the powertrain of the mechanical beast. After sensing this information, Wang Xuan showed a hint of joy on his face.

The powertrain in the middle state is naturally much stronger than the initial state that Xiaojiao has now. Not only can it greatly improve Xiaojiao's combat power, but once it is combined with himself, the physical fitness he can borrow will also be greatly improved.

"It's really a good thing. No wonder those people spend crystal scales brushing parchment of unknown difficulty. Just this medium powertrain is invaluable."

Wang Xuan excitedly followed to see what the second mechanical beast crystal was.

"Name: Energy Shield Crystal (initial state), mechanical beasts equipped with energy shield crystals (initial state) will receive primary energy shield protection, which can greatly improve the mechanical beast's defense and integrated state defense."

"It's another good thing. Xiaojiao can equip a total of six crystals. Now this energy shield crystal is lacking. This kind of energy shield crystal seems to be very rare. I didn't expect it to come out here."

Wang Xuan understands why Xiaojiao is so excited when he sees these three mechanical beast crystals. He should have sensed the importance of these three crystals to him.

Look at the last mechanical beast crystal.

"Name: Green-patterned leg armor (medium), it can be used to equip the mid-level leg armor of the mechanical beast, which can make the mechanical beast have stronger limbs, faster speed and bounce."

"It's all good stuff, little girl, no wonder you're so excited."

With a smile, Wang Xuan opened the crystal face list in Little Good's Heart of the Mechanical Beast, and took off the initial powertrain crystal and the initial mechanical leg armor.

Then installed the three mechanical beast crystals that were just obtained.

Now all the six slots of Xiaogai's crystal face list are installed with crystals. Among them, the powertrain and leg armor have been upgraded to the medium state, and the remaining mechanical armor, head armor, flame claws and energy shields are the initial state.

After the equipment was completed, Wang Xuan restarted Xiaojiao, only to see Xiaojiao making a screeching sound all over her body, and it quickly took shape. The heart of the mechanical beast in her body exuded a powerful energy fluctuation aura. The result was so powerful that Wang Xuan felt that the tyrannical level of this energy fluctuation was almost equivalent to a peak-level powerhouse standing in front of him.

Immediately following the surface of Xiaogai's limbs, there was a crisp sound, and pieces of green metal appeared, like green scales, covering its limbs, making its limbs thicker and taller, but in comparison, its body and head are slimmer.

Wang Xuan roughly estimated that if Xiaojiao's body armor and head armor could also be replaced with this mid-level green-patterned armor, its body would surpass that of a liger and be close to the size of an ordinary bison.

"Little girl, let me see your current strength."

Wang Xuan drank it lightly. Now Xiaojiao has changed into a medium powertrain, equipped with energy shields and medium leg armor, and his abilities in all aspects have been amazingly improved. He is now very curious about Xiaojiao's current battle force.

Xiaojiao opened her mouth, and suddenly there was a small sound like a low whistle, she turned around, and rushed out.

Wang Xuan let out a light voice. After changing the powertrain of the medium state, Xiaojiao can make a sound?

Looking at the speed at which Xiaojiao rushed out, it was no less than the speed of the peak powerhouses in the state of Tang Ruoyu, Shi Jin and Chu Boyu he encountered before.

The little good man stood up and stretched out his claws. With the change of the powertrain, the flame claws it grabbed rose into flames and grabbed a dilapidated wall.

The wall suddenly collapsed like earth and stone, and there was a burning flame on it.

"It's alright, come back." Wang Xuan looked in his eyes and nodded secretly. Xiaojiao's increased combat power made him very satisfied. The task reward of finding the hometown of mechanical beasts with unknown difficulty made him extremely satisfied. Great luck, I am afraid that even if it is a six-star difficulty task, there may not be such a good reward.

Putting away the two mechanical beast crystals that had just been peeled off, Wang Xuan picked up a piece of parchment paper in the box, which was also one of the harvests of this trip.

Open this parchment, and you can see a line of words.

"Task Name: Mystery of the Origin of Mechanical Beasts (1): Difficulty: ★★★★★★"

"At the bottom of the rusted box, there is an entrance to the hometown of the mechanical beast. Enter it, investigate the mystery of the origin of the mechanical beast, and reward the bronze treasure chest."

"It seems that the bottom of this box is really the entrance to the hometown of mechanical beasts. The difficulty is six stars, and the bronze treasure chest will be rewarded. With my current strength and Xiaojiao, it shouldn't be a problem."

Wang Xuan pondered slightly, and without much hesitation, decided to complete the task and get the reward, but he didn't know what kind of treasures would be found in the bronze treasure chest of this six-star task.

He put away the parchment he had just obtained, and groped for the bottom of the huge box. Sure enough, the bottom of the box could be moved. Wang Xuan lifted the bottom of the box up, revealing a dark square cave below, with a * going down. slide.

"Little boy, get together."

Considering that the current Xiaojiao is too big, it is difficult to get out of this cave, so he summoned Xiaojiao and attached to his body. After fitting, Xiaojiao formed a layer of mechanical metal defensive shell on the outside of his body armor.

With the powertrain in the middle state, Wang Xuan immediately felt the abundant physical energy contained in it. In addition to this double defense, there was also the third layer of defense of the energy shield.

It can be said that his current defense is extremely strong, and ordinary attacks cannot break his three-layer defense at all.

Wang Xuan took out a lighting crystal with his left hand and let it slide down the * of the cave entrance.

The lighting crystal, with a dazzling light, went all the way down the slope. Wang Xuan looked inside. After the * descended for about ten meters, there was a huge pothole. At present, no danger was found.

After confirming, he entered the cave, released metal tentacles, and slid down the slope.

After more than ten meters, he kept his feet on the ground, picked up the glowing lighting crystal on the ground, looked around carefully, and found that a large number of broken mechanical metals were piled up on the ground, which looked a bit like the remains of a mechanical beast.

He rolled up a few of the metal tentacles to check, these mechanical metals may have gone through too many years, and there are spots of rust on the surface.

"It seems that many mechanical beasts have been destroyed here, and there are traces of fierce battles around." Wang Xuan walked forward slowly and saw that there were cracks and deep claw marks on the rock walls on both sides of the cave. It's all covered with moss now, but it can still be vaguely seen that a tragic war once broke out here.

A little curious in his heart, he took out the parchment and found that a map appeared on it, prompting him to go deeper in the direction of the cave.

Wang Xuan didn't dare to be careless about the 6-star dangerous task. Based on past experience, this quest would most likely lead to six-star dangerous monsters like the Green Poison Lord and the Sand Scorpion Lord.

He is now trapped in a state of perfection. For most of the day, he has been thinking about all kinds of possibilities and can't find a way to break through, so he thought of fighting against powerful monsters and challenging his own limits. If he is in a high-pressure state, will it help to break through? ?

This is also a method to try.

There was silence in the cave, only the sound of him stepping on a large amount of mechanical metal piled up below. After he walked about 30 to 40 meters along the cave passage, monsters appeared in the darkness around him and attacked him. .

These are monsters made of mechanical metal. They look similar to mechanical beasts. However, compared with ordinary mechanical beasts, they appear strange in shape. They look like deformed monsters. came up.

Wang Xuan opened the eye of the illustrated book and immediately caught the information of these deformed monsters.

"Name: Mechanical Undead, Race: None, Danger: ★★★★★☆ (five and a half stars), the Mechanical Undead is formed by the death of a large number of mechanical beasts. Formed, although they have no wisdom and only have instinct, but relying on the hard body of mechanical metal, under the action of this special force, they have extremely powerful attack and defense. When encountering them, you must be extremely careful and must not be affected by special forces. Infect."

The mechanical undead with a five-and-half-star level of danger is comparable to a formidable powerhouse, but it is nothing to the current Wang Xuan. He directly released the state of integration with Xiaojiao, released Xiaojiao, and let it move towards these The mechanical undead launched an attack, so familiar with the greatly improved combat power that he had just obtained, he controlled two metal tentacles and killed them.

A faint whistling sound came from Xiaojiao's throat again, and a pair of front claws rose up with dazzling flames. It jumped out, and instantly slammed into a mechanical undead, and its two flame claws caught it. Go in, split the two sides, and tear the body of the mechanical undead apart.

"Okay." Wang Xuan looked in his eyes and praised it lightly. With this performance alone, it was hardly inferior to the powerhouses who reached their peak.

The metal tentacles opened their bows from left to right, and quickly scattered the two mechanical undead. While attacking, he walked towards the depths of the cave passage. The man and the beast eventually disappeared at the end of the passage.

About half an hour after Wang Xuan entered the cave, a voice came from far away from Scorpion City.

This voice is very grand and spread far away, even if it is ten miles or twenty miles away, it can be heard clearly.

"All Xuan Gang members... return immediately!"

"All members of the Xuan Gang, return to Worm Town immediately—"

This repeated sound spread almost to every corner of Scorpion City. A young and feminine man riding on a huge mechanical beast held a small crystal in his left hand and put it to his mouth, while he rode the mechanical beast. Running wildly, repeating the words just now.

This man is an important figure in the "Xuan Gang", Qiu Yuanfeng, he received the order of the leader of the Xuan Gang, took this sound transmission crystal, and began to summon all the members of the Xuan Gang who entered the scorpion city in the scorpion city, and returned to the worm. town.

The sound transmission crystal can spread his voice far away, and those who stayed in the scorpion city hunting monsters and wanted to break through the state of the powerhouse stood up with amazed expressions on their faces.

"What happened? The Xuan Gang actually summoned the members of the Xuan Gang to return to Insect Town?"

Five powerhouses from the "Justice League" had just killed seven sand scorpions and were resting on the ground. At this time, they were very surprised when they heard the sound coming from a distance. Look in the direction of Insect Town.

"Wouldn't it be a worm tide coming?" Some of the five people thought of this possibility.

"Yes, the total population of Zizong Town exceeded 2,000 a while ago. According to past experience, this insect tide may appear at any time."

"If it's a worm tide, why are only people from the Xuan Gang calling?"

There are four elites of the mysterious gang who are hunting a group of sand scorpions. Suddenly the voice came from a distance, their expressions changed, and the leader shouted softly: "Go, Hui Wo Town!"

Not caring to kill the remaining sand scorpions, they immediately turned around and ran towards the direction of insect town.

They are big figures in the Xuan gang. Since they have enjoyed the benefits of the Xuan gang, they are also called back without hesitation if the Xuan gang has something to do.

In Scorpion City, whether it was the strong members of the Xuan Gang, or people from the Rakshasa, Dynasty, Phoenix, and Justice League, they were all alarmed by the sound, and they all looked up, with surprised expressions on their faces, guessing that the Xuan Gang suddenly summoned everyone to return. , but what happened?

"All Rakshasa members, return immediately!"

Suddenly, another voice spread far and wide. Hearing this voice, the faces of the powerhouses of the five major forces showed solemn expressions, and they had a premonition that something major happened in the town of insects.

Not to mention that the people from the Xuan Gang and Rakshasa were ordered to go back, even the Phoenix, Dynasty, and Justice League's elites couldn't help but start preparing to return to Insect Town to see what happened.

At this moment, Scorpion City became lively. The five major forces in Insect Town, most of the powerhouses, were in Scorpion City. After hearing the recall orders from Xuan Gang and Rakshasa, they all guessed that something must have happened in Insect Town. At this moment have returned.

One after another, the powerhouses of the state, riding on their respective mechanical beasts, ran at full speed, rushing towards the direction of insect town.

These mechanical beasts ran wildly on the yellow sand, setting off a trail of dust, like long tumbling dragons, with amazing momentum, concentrating in the direction of Insect Town.

At the same moment, on Centipede Island, south of Bug Town, a group of silver-backed centipedes surrounded seven people and were attacking frantically.

These seven people are Gu Manyao, Zhang Haofei, Zhao Lei, Tie Jun, Li Haotian, Bai Yan and Yu Shanshan.

Gu Manyao didn't make a move, and was looking at the other five people, especially Zhao Lei, who was among the crowd.

Now among the seven of them, not only Gu Manyao has successfully broken through to the perfect state, but Zhang Haofei also succeeded in breaking through yesterday.

He was received by the leader of the Xuan Gang last night, and was assigned a three-story building. He is now qualified to recruit five core members as his subordinates, which made him so excited that he didn't sleep well all night.

Among Wang Xuan's eight-member team, three of them have broken through to the perfect state, and Wang Xuan's performance in the tavern is hardly inferior to that of Chen Daolin, who is at the peak of the state. reason.

This morning, Gu Manyao took into account Zhao Lei's statement that he should be able to break through within a day or two, so he and Zhang Haofei accompanied Zhao Lei to Centipede Island, hoping that he could seize the opportunity to successfully break through within a day or two and become the first among the crowd. The four strong state powerhouses, and then they can go to Scorpion City together.

Eight of them entered the insect town on the second floor from the first floor. Now if even Zhao Lei can be promoted to breakthrough, it means that half of the eight of them can break through, compared to one tenth of the normal adult breakthrough to the perfect state. The probability of two, their probability is much higher. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com

Zhang Haofei didn't deliberately attack or kill these silver-backed centipedes, he just kept moving his figure. Behind him, the upper body of the white-boned skeleton was almost exposed from his body. If this skeleton grows further, will it be able to come out of his body completely one day?

At this moment, Zhang Haofei is using this silver-backed centipede to test himself to be promoted to the perfect skeleton.

The two bone arms and the upper body that appeared outside the body gave his skeleton a more flexible attack method, and its attack distance was also greatly increased.

Seeing that Gu Manyao and Zhang Haofei have successively broken through to the perfect state, Zhao Lei is also fast, Tie Jun, Li Haotian, Bai Yan and Yu Shanshan are very envious, but it is a pity that their hatching beast has not moved, and there is no sign of waking up.

This frustrated the four of them.

While hunting the silver-backed centipede, Zhao Lei kept sensing the white light in his right hand.

Now his white light no longer overflows with energy, as long as he hunts and draws enough energy, he can successfully break through the adult body and be promoted to the powerhouse.

At this moment, a figure suddenly appeared in the distance, the speed was very fast, and it kept approaching them.

They were on the edge of Centipede Island, and when they entered Centipede Island, they were easy to see.

Gu Manyao noticed it, turned her head to look, and immediately recognized it. It was one of the powerful people Qiu Yuanfeng brought to introduce her and Wang Xuan that day, named Jiang He.

"Gu Manyao, Zhang Haofei, the leader has an order, all of you return to Bug Town immediately!"
