

Last Building on Earth Chapter 18

Wang Xuan felt that he was being pulled by a strong force, and he was about to be pulled along with the steel bars. In the center of the white flower formed by five white scales in his right hand, a surge of energy rose.

The five scales seemed to feel the crisis of their master, and they were all shaking. The back of his right hand burst out with blue veins, like crawling with slender earthworms.

Wang Xuan stabilized his body, instead of grabbing the steel bar back, he took advantage of the situation to stretch the steel bar forward and stab it diagonally. With his strength and the power of this monster, the two forces together are so powerful.

With a snort, the steel bar pierced through the monster's left chest and emerged from the black scales on its back.

Wang Xuan secretly cried out that it was a pity, as long as he went further down, he could stab the monster's heart.

With his left arm up, he blocked the monster's other claw. He only felt his arm vibrate. If he was hit by a hammer, the monster was extremely powerful. Although he had five white scales, he had just obtained Soon, the power of these five scales could not be fully exerted. At this moment, purely talking about power, he was suppressed by this monster.

Wang Xuan only felt that half of his body was pressed down by a boulder, he couldn't breathe, and his heart was horrified. He was about to lift his leg and kick the monster's belly when suddenly his left arm tightened, and he was pulled by a huge force and flew into the air.

This elite monster grabbed his left arm and swung him into the air. Rao Wang Xuankong had all the strength, but he couldn't help smashing the car to the side.

With a loud "bang", he shrank his body, barely covered his head and face with his other arm, and slammed into the front cover of the car.

The front cover of the car was twisted and deformed, and it collapsed into a big pit. Wang Xuan groaned, his throat was sweet, and blood gushed out.

The five white scales in his right hand released energy endlessly, strengthening the skeletal muscles of his body, and only then did he survive the disaster. For an ordinary person, he could be smashed into a ball of meat pie with just one click.

The monster pulled him up again and wanted to continue to smash it out. Wang Xuan stretched out his hands and grabbed the monster's arm. All the power that exploded in his body was concentrated in his hands, and he wanted to twist the monster's arm off.

Suddenly, the monster opened its mouth wide and tilted its head back, but Gu Manyao locked its neck from behind.

Although she was not seriously injured, the ability of the three white scales in her hand was also fully stimulated. She continued to strengthen her body and heal her injuries. Seeing that Wang Xuan was in danger, she rushed up from behind without hesitation, locked the monster's neck, and wanted to Twist its head off.

This elite monster was too fast, her neck was locked by her just now, she turned her body to the left, and her left claws grabbed back, four sharp claws grabbed into her belly, and then dragged it sideways, Gu

Manyao never stopped. Expecting this monster to be so terrifying, it was too late to react and was thrown out sideways by the monster.

Gu Manyao let out a scream, blood spurted out from her belly like a spring, her body hit the ground, and then rolled out, her internal organs seemed to be turned upside down, and she was immediately seriously injured.

At the same moment, Wang Xuan was smashed by the monster again and hit the front cover of the car. The front cover of the car that had collapsed in made a loud noise and was completely distorted.

Wang Xuan spurted blood from his mouth, and grabbed the monster's right arm tightly with both hands. Although he was smashed out again, he also dragged the monster over and twisted the monster's right arm with all his strength.

With the cracking of the bones, the monster's right arm twisted like a twist. It opened its **** mouth and let out a roar. It wanted to bite Wang Xuan, but suddenly groaned and fell forward, but Zhang Haofei suffered the back of its head. thump.

Zhang Haofei used all his strength for this blow, although he didn't knock the elite monster's brains apart, but it also made its eyes turn black, the world was spinning, and after a brief dizziness, it fell forward.

Wang Xuan seized the opportunity, endured the pain that his bones were falling apart, pulled out the steel bar inserted above its left chest, and stabbed it into the monster's left eye.

Under his terrifying strength, the sharpened end of the steel bar pierced the monster's eyeball, penetrated straight into the head, passed through the brain, and emerged from the back of the head.

The monster opened its mouth and let out an earth-shattering roar, swung out its left arm frantically, and slammed its body forward.

Zhang Haofei, who was behind him, just hit the back of the monster's head, and he wanted to make another blow. He didn't want the monster to suddenly go mad, and his left arm slammed into his chest, making a crunching sound. His rib was immediately broken, his chest collapsed, and his body flew upside down.

Wang Xuan didn't have time to pull out the steel bars, so he was busy letting go, and rolled off the front hood of the car. The monster hit the front of the car, and the parked car shook.

Wang Xuan saw it in his eyes, his heart skipped a beat, he was busy getting up from the ground, but he saw that this monster was injured in the brain. Although it did not die immediately, it suddenly went mad and kept attacking the car in front of him, making him dare not approach for a while. .

The surroundings were quiet, only the monster-like roar and the loud sound of hitting the car.

Zhang Haofei and Gu Manyao were both seriously injured, especially Gu Manyao, who had several huge wounds opened in his abdomen. Although the white scales exerted the strongest healing ability, they were hemostasis and healing, but they could not fully recover in a short time.

They fell to the ground. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com looked at the elite monsters who had gone mad. They were all horrified. Because of their serious injuries, it was difficult to get up for a while.

The car that was continuously hit quickly became riddled with holes, all the glass was shattered, and the body collapsed in a large area.

The mad elite monster suddenly stopped, and the remaining one eye glowed with horror, and suddenly stared at Gu Manyao, who was lying on the ground.

It was still wearing the **** steel bar on its head, which looked very strange, so it locked on Gu Manyao and rushed towards her.

Gu Manyao's face changed drastically. She was seriously injured, and it was difficult to move now, let alone resist or evade this monster's attack.

Among them, Wang Xuan was the least injured. Seeing that the monster suddenly stopped going mad and rushed towards Gu Manyao, he was shocked, and immediately kicked his feet on the ground and rushed up at full speed.

The monster just rushed in front of Gu Manyao, when Wang Xuan chased after him, grabbed the half of the steel bar that came out of the back of the monster's head, and pulled it out.

This **** steel bar was pulled out by him, and it was vaguely stained with white brain pulp-like substance.

The monster froze for a moment, hissed and howled in pain, turned and grabbed its left claws back, the four sharp claws cut into Wang Xuan's chest.

With blood pouring from his chest, Wang Xuan groaned, clenching the steel bars with both hands, and with all his strength, he swept out sideways.

The five white scales in the palm of his right hand erupted with a turbulent force, all of which were injected into the steel bar through his right hand. On the surface of the steel bar, a faint white shimmer appeared faintly.

With a thud, the steel bar swept across the monster's forehead, blood splashed out, and the forehead collapsed in immediately.

Wang Xuan heard the crackling sound of bones. The power of this blow was unbelievable. The extremely hard skull of this elite monster was shattered. It swayed, fell down, and finally stopped moving.
