

Last Building on Earth Chapter 186-190

Chapter 186:

The Ghost Mantis King

The surrounding people formed a huge circle, fighting back with all their strength to resist these elite giant ants who rushed up madly.

Wang Xuan saw that the giant queen ant was swallowed up by the white flames and turned into a huge white fireball, but she did not die immediately, but kept screaming, struggling desperately, and ramming towards Wan Qianying frantically.

It seemed to know that he was going to die, and wanted to drag Wan Qianying along and let her be buried with him.

Wan Qianying knew the horror of her cold fire, and even she didn't dare to touch it at will, so she was busy dodging.

Suddenly the glass mirrors one by one fell into the sky, and there was a crackling sound. These glass mirrors fell to the ground and stacked on each other to trap the crazy giant queen ant.

The giant queen ant slammed into these mirrors, and the sound of shattering continued. The new leader of the Rakshasa no longer had a shy look on his face, but showed a solemn look, and walked slowly forward, carrying in the right hand, the giant queen ant smashed several mirrors, but more mirrors appeared, trapping it in a large number of glass mirrors.

After struggling for dozens of seconds, the giant queen ant finally shook her body and fell down heavily. The white flames burned it completely into a ball of coke from the inside out.

A white scale appeared and fell into Wan Qianying's right hand.

As she said before, with the death of the giant king ant, the hundreds of elite giant king ants who had been besieging everyone frantically showed signs of collapse, and farther away, those bullets that were rushing towards the insect town incessantly. The giant king ant also began to rout.

The people in Insect Town, who had been under enormous pressure, suddenly found that these giant bullet king ants began to collapse. When the pressure lightened, they all instinctively breathed a sigh of relief.

"Has the insect tide receded?"

Everyone was surprised and happy, but in this short period of time, the number of casualties in Insect Town has reached hundreds.

As the bullet ants collapsed, an earth-shattering whistle sounded deep in the north, and the king worm made a sound again. Wang Xuan heard it in his ears and couldn't help raising his head. He faintly felt the whistle of the king worm, and it became even closer, at the end of the deep north, the huge black shadow rising like a hill has reached a height of more than fifteen meters. The original lake was unclear, but now it has become clearer.

All this means that the king insect is slowly approaching the town of insects.

Wan Qianying, Xu Jian and the others all looked up at the huge black shadow that was fifteen meters high in the distance, with a hint of fear in their eyes.

The Eye of Fear in Wang Xuan's forehead can capture the fear in their hearts. This Eye of Fear is very sensitive to the fear of the strong. The stronger the existence, the stronger the fear will be.

Wang Xuan tried his best to see the true face of the black shadow of the lake in the distance, but unfortunately all he could see was a huge black shadow like a hill, and he could only hear a whistling inside. If this is the king bug The body of the worm, how huge is this king worm?

With the whistling of the king worm, a large number of black spiders appeared among the scattered elite giant king ants.

Each spider is as large as a round table, completely black, with six white spots on the back. Contrary to the scattered elite giant king ants, they come surging like a black tide.

Wang Xuan opened the eye of the illustrated book, and immediately captured their information.

The six-star spider, like the Bullet King Ant, is five-star dangerous.

"Sure enough, it's no wonder that Xu Jian and the others have always said that they should preserve their physical strength as much as possible. It seems that this third wave of insects is not so simple, and it does not end by killing this giant queen ant."

Wang Xuan watched the six-star spiders appear like a tide, and the five leaders, including Wan Qianying and Xu Jian, began to speed up and rushed forward to meet these six-star spiders.

Suddenly, there was a burst of screams from the other side, Wang Xuan turned his head to look, but saw a large number of black insects appearing on a small hill on the right, which looked like mantises. The six-star spider surged up from the other side of the small hill at a faster speed, covering the hill in the blink of an eye and encircling it in a fan shape.

Wang Xuan opened the eye of the illustrated book and captured the information of this black mantis.

The name Ghost Mantis, the danger level is five-star, they are mixed with these six-star spiders, one close combat, one long-range attack, cooperate with each other, and the lethality immediately increases.

They looked very crazy, not only attacking Wang Xuan and the others, but even the scattered giant king ants.

He saw a six-star spider spraying spider silk, entangling the giant king ant, and the ghost mantis wielding a pair of sharp black knives, beheading the giant king ant frantically.

And these giant king ants have no fighting spirit and only know to escape. Among them, the elite giant king ants are obviously stronger than them, and they were also killed by the ghost mantis and the six-star spider. After their corpses were eaten by the ghost mantis and the six-star spider, The strength of these ghost mantises and six-star spiders will be improved.

Wan Qianying's right hand connected to the white light, which was the power she mastered. It was called cold light, and it ignited when she touched it. It was very terrifying.

The body of the new Rakshasa leader is surrounded by glass mirrors, which can be attacked and defended, protecting him, allowing him to follow Wan Qianying steadily.

biquge.name

Now Wang Xuan has understood that since these bullet ants have leaders, the spiders and ghost mantises must also have leaders. Just find their leaders and kill them, and the worms will disperse, and the worm town crisis can be lifted.

Of course, after this spider and ghost mantis, there will be new bugs, he doesn't know.

Thirty-one people rushed into the swarms of six-star spiders and ghost mantises. Although some people were injured occasionally, fortunately, they were not seriously injured. Now, except for Wang Xuan, all of them have entered the fusion with the mechanical beast. state, keep moving forward.

The strength shown by Xiaogai is by no means weaker than everyone else. It keeps launching attacks, and neither the six-star spider nor the ghost mantis can resist it.

Its performance aroused the shock of everyone. Except for the five well-informed leaders, no one thought that this mechanical beast could be so powerful.

"There, let's go there—" Wan Qianying suddenly stretched out her hand and pointed to the right in the distance. Wang Xuan noticed that a large number of black spiders appeared on a * about 100 meters in front of them. The spider is larger than the six-star spider. Among these black spiders, there is a giant spider with a body length of five or six meters. It is standing high on the slope. It should be the leader of these spiders. It suddenly made a vertical sound. Screaming, began to move his body, and actively pushed in the direction of everyone.

Wang Xuan saw the black spiders it supported around, with seven huge white spots on its back. These were seven-star spiders that were more powerful than six-star spiders, and the danger had reached five and a half stars.

Among them, the giant spider also has seven white spots on its back. It is the leader of these spiders, the seven-star spider king, the degree of danger, and the six stars.

On a piece of parchment owned by Wang Xuan, one of the six-star dangerous tasks was to hunt down the seven-star spider king.

Now the seven-star spider king appeared a hundred meters away.

Everyone immediately rushed to the right, as long as the seven-star spider king was killed, the spiders would collapse.

Chen Daolin suddenly exclaimed: "What's the matter, there is one over there too!"

Hearing this, everyone looked to the other side, but saw a group of seven-star spiders also appeared about 100 meters away from the left front. Among them, there was another seven-star spider king. At this moment, this seven-star spider Wang is also approaching them with a group of seven-star spiders.

Two seven-star spider kings?

Everyone looked at it, and their hearts were awe-inspiring.

The leader of the dynasty said: "Wan Qianying, do you want to split up the troops and kill these two guys?"

"No, don't disperse, otherwise everyone's danger will increase, don't worry, their target is us, wherever we go, they will follow, don't change direction, continue to the right!"

Wan Qianying continued to rush in the direction of the seven-star spider king on the right as she spoke.

The other leaders respected her intentions and did not object. She followed closely. She guessed right. The seven-star spider king that appeared on the left really commanded a large number of seven-star spiders, and also changed direction and chased after them. move in the direction.

With the appearance of two seven-star spider kings and a group of seven-star spiders, those six-star spiders with five-star danger no longer attacked them, but began to rush towards the direction of insect town together with those ghost mantises.

"These two seven-star spider kings must be killed as soon as possible, otherwise the town will be in big trouble!" Xu Jian turned his head and glanced at the town with a solemn expression.

At a distance of 100 meters, everyone rushed all the way, and soon they killed the group of seven-star spiders on the right. The seven-star spider king screamed, spread his teeth and danced his claws, and started spraying white spider silk at a distance of more than ten meters, covering everyone. Come.

The groups of seven-star spiders that followed it stopped together and fired spider silks one after another. In an instant, the countless spider silks were interwoven into a web, covering the sky and covering the earth.

No one would have imagined that these spiders combined together could still issue such group skills. Once they were covered by the spider webs, it would be troublesome to escape.

The Rakshasa leader lifted his right hand up, and a mirror appeared, blocking the area above his head.

But he couldn't protect everyone in a glass mirror.

The countless cobwebs cover a wide area, and it is too late to avoid even at the speed of everyone. Wang Xuan reacted quickly, and immediately took out a defensive crystal from the Xumi mustard space. went back.

He only has five defense crystals now, each of which is very precious, and he is reluctant to waste it here.

This defensive crystal is very useful, but it is also too precious. Even Wang Xuan only has five now.

Fortunately, among the thirty-one people, several of them had powerful defensive means, and everyone quickly retreated together. The dynasty leader raised his right hand, and the rune on his palm appeared, causing a gust of wind that swept the cobwebs under the cover.

Wan Qianying shot up the white light one after another, igniting the cobwebs and burning them violently.

Wang Xuan controlled two six-meter-long metal tentacles, which revolved and coiled on them, forming a huge vortex.

Chen Daolin summoned the phantom of his own flame and beast, and shot out from his body to resist the spider web under the cover.

Tang Ruoyu, who had been silently following the crowd, danced the white sword in his hand into a sword wheel and guarded it above.

Thirty-one people showed their magical powers, and the spider silk that covered the sky and the earth could not trap everyone.

The crowd had just blocked the covered spider web when Wang Xuan heard a scream from the other side, but it was from among the swarms of spiders and ghost mantises on the other side, a black ghost mantis suddenly appeared, and it was fast. Surprisingly, with a wave of the sharp knife, a blood-stained head flew out into the air.

This scene shocked everyone who saw it.

Among the thirty-one people, the first casualty finally appeared.

The one who was suddenly decapitated was a powerhouse from the Justice League.

She is a woman of about twenty-four or five years old. She is not ugly. She has four third-order alloy equipment and a third-order fine-quality Biying gauntlet. In terms of strength, she is not as good as the peak powerhouse, but It is also much stronger than the normal state.

But now facing the sudden attack of the ghost mantis, it was too late to have any response, and his head was chopped off in an instant, killing him immediately.

The leader of the Justice League looked back in his eyes, let out a roar, shook his body, and rushed over, trying to intercept the mantis.

This praying mantis is not much different from ordinary ghost mantises. Its body is slightly longer, and its head and tail are about 1.5 meters long. However, its whole body is so black that it is faintly glowing with black light. The hard shell on its body looks like it is made of black iron. The opened Eye of the Pokédex captured information about it in an instant.

"Name: Ghost Mantis King, Race: Mantis Clan, Dangerous Degree: ★★★★★★ (six stars), the leader of the Ghost Mantis Clan, is the loyal guardian of the king worm, the whole body is strengthened by the king worm, hard as iron, The agility is high, the shape is like a ghost, and the pair of forelimbs are sharp as knives. The ghost mantis kings all appear in pairs. Although they are both six-star danger levels, the female mantis king will be larger than the male mantis king. stronger."

Upon sensing this information, Wang Xuan's heart shuddered. This turned out to be a six-star dangerous ghost mantis king, hiding among the swarms of ghost mantises, and suddenly launched an attack. Although the woman from the "Justice League" is not weak, she is also very strong. How can I resist, and my head will be cut off in an instant.

The leader of the Justice League was extremely angry, and immediately moved his body, trying to intercept the ghost mantis king.

Wang Xuan caught the information and immediately shouted: "This mantis king is a pair, and there is another..."

Before he could finish his words, there was another scream on the other side. A man from Phoenix was slanted from the shoulder by a black knife, and he almost completely cut his upper body. fall.

Although he is wearing Tier 3 alloy armor and has a mechanical shell defense, he can't resist this knife.

Another mantis king appeared. It was also black, but its size was slightly smaller than the previous one. It was about one meter and two in length. much more powerful.

Wang Xuan immediately understood that this was the male mantis king, and the one just now was the female mantis king.

The two mantis kings are all six-star danger levels, which means that they have the strength to surpass the peak powerhouse, plus the seven-star spider king on the face and another seven-star spider king in the distance on the left, this is four six-stars monster.

Xu Jian let out an angry howl, turned around, and intercepted the male mantis king, and the six beast arms spread out together, frantically attacking him.

The speed of the male mantis king was too frightening, and he shifted in an instant, avoiding Xu Jian's attack, and one of the black big knives swept out sideways.

With a snort, Jiang He suddenly let out a scream, blood spurted out of his chest, and his body fell backwards.

His face was horrified, and he was just about to have his stomach ripped open. For this reason, a huge wound was cut open on his stomach, and he had been severely injured.

When he fell to the ground, he immediately took out a bottle of healing water and drank it in a hurry.

He understands that the situation has suddenly become sinister, and if it cannot be recovered in an instant, he may lose his life in the next step.

Groups of seven-star spiders gathered around, constantly spraying spider silk. If everyone is careless, they will be entangled in spider silk. Although they can break away quickly with their strength, in this danger, as long as Stop for a second and a half, and there will be a catastrophe.

The seven-star spider king's eight legs flicked and suddenly rose into the air. Not only was it capable of spraying spider silk, but its own strength was equally terrifying.

Xiaojiao let out a low whistle, jumped up, stretched out a pair of flame claws, and took the initiative to greet him.

Wang Xuan waved out his metal tentacles and cooperated with Xiaojiao to attack the seven-star spider king.

He has the task of hunting the seven-star spider king, and this seven-star spider king has thrown himself into the net~www.mtlnovel.com~ is exactly what he wants.

Although the two ghost mantis kings in the back were terrifying, there were five leaders, and Wang Xuan believed they could handle it.

Xu Jian, the leader of the dynasty, and the leader of the Justice League took action one after another. Although these two ghost mantis kings were powerful, they were intercepted by them in an instant.

The Rakshasa leader raised his right hand, and glass mirrors appeared, suddenly trapping the female praying mantis king from all directions.

His eyes were faintly glowing, and his right hand clenched tightly. Suddenly, the glass mirrors on this side shrunk toward the center, and the clanging sound could be heard incessantly, madly hitting the female mantis king trapped in the center.

During the impact, the female mantis king was screaming, and the glass mirrors on this side shattered. During the shattering of the mirror, the body of the female mantis king was also shattering, and a large amount of juice was sprayed out.

Many people couldn't help but look at the newly appointed Rakshasa leader.

This looks a bit shy and the new Rakshasa leader seems to have terrible abilities.

All this is just a moment, at least nearly 20 glass mirrors are all shattered, the female mantis king trapped in the center seems to have been subjected to nearly 20 rounds of explosive attacks, changed by the king insect, and is as hard as steel His body couldn't resist it, and in the end, it completely shattered and exploded, and a white scale appeared, submerging into the right hand of the Rakshasa leader.

Killing the powerful female mantis king, this Rakshasa leader seems to have done a trivial thing, and there is no expression on his face.

On the other side, Xu Jian and the leader of the dynasty joined forces and succeeded.

The strength of this male mantis king is slightly weaker than that of the female mantis king. It had just avoided Xu Jian's attack, but was swept in by the strong wind launched by the leader of the dynasty.

Chapter 187

Cannibalism

The ability of the leader of the dynasty to hatch beasts is the power to control the wind. His right hand flicked out, forming wind blades one after another, heading towards the male mantis king who was swept up by the gust of wind.

Although the male mantis king could not be killed in an instant, each wind blade left deep wounds on the male mantis's body, with green juice splashing out.

Xu Jian let out a loud shout, and his six arms suddenly raised at the same time. The six hands joined together to form a strange seal. Then he jumped to the ground, rushed into the gust of wind, and instantly fell on the male mantis king like a thunder.

The power of this attack was so terrifying that even the leaders of the dynasty were taken aback. Xu Jian was like a meteorite that fell from the sky, directly killing the male mantis king, bursting out a large cloud of juice.

"The Star Wants To Retire"

In addition to being smashed to pieces by King Xiongtang, he even blasted a hole in the ground.

The power of Xu Jian's blow made many people widen their eyes and look shocked.

"As expected of the leader of the Mysterious Gang who surpassed his status." This thought flashed through everyone's mind.

The Rakshasa leader and Xu Jian succeeded one after another, and Wang Xuan and Xiaojiao rushed towards the oncoming Seven Star Spider King.

How powerful is the little girl now, the body is protected by the energy shield, and ordinary attacks can't hurt it at all. When it pounces in the air, the flame claws tore the two seven-star spiders open for their master.

The two metal tentacles controlled by Wang Xuan wrapped around his arms, forming a giant arm of monsters more than one meter long. To deal with the six-star dangerous seven-star spider king, he activated the power of blue crystal scales, a pair of monsters. In the giant arm, there is a blue light flickering.

He suddenly accelerated and swayed, avoiding the attack of the Seven Star Spider King, and the little boy turned around and grabbed the Seven Star Spider King from the side.

The seven-star spider king's open mouthparts screamed, and his body slammed, trying to throw Xiaojiao out.

Xiaojiao's pair of flaming claws slammed into the hard shell on its back and didn't let go, the * mouth opened wide, and the metal fangs stretched out, biting the Seven Star Spider King fiercely.

Wang Xuan appeared silently from the other side, seized the opportunity of the Seven Star Spider King to deal with Xiaogai with all his strength, and the beast smashed its head with a huge blow.

A white scale appeared and sank into his right hand, causing the white light in his right hand to fluctuate violently. After that, the energy was absorbed by the light wall, making the light wall in his right hand stronger.

After successfully killing a seven-star spider king, Wang Xuan took out the parchment and took a look. Just like the previous quest to hunt bullet giant ants, he needed to bring the parchment and go to the quest row to receive the reward.

The seven-star spider king was just killed by him, and the seven-star spider king on the left rushed up with a group of seven-star spiders.

The leader of the Justice League led the calm man and several others to greet him.

The four six-star dangerous leader monsters that appeared, they killed three of them in an instant, leaving only the last seven-star spider king, everyone was relieved, as long as the last seven-star spider king was killed, these The ghost mantis and spider monsters will retreat.

At this moment, in Insect Town, a large number of ghost mantises and spiders have appeared, and the siege has begun.

On the four high walls, everyone is desperately resisting, preventing these ghost mantises and spider monsters from entering the town.

The battle situation is very tragic, and the number of the supernatural powerhouses left behind is no more than two hundred. How can they resist these thousands of ghost mantises and spider monsters? Except for the supernatural powerhouses who can barely protect themselves, those adults or some sub-bodies are facing ghosts. Praying mantises and spiders are simply vulnerable.

The screams continued to sound, and each scream represented the passage of life. The screams came from far away, and even Wang Xuan and others who had already penetrated into the north could vaguely hear them.

Hearing this scream, everyone felt anxious in their hearts, and understood that the longer the delay, the more severe the loss of the people in Insect Town.

The leader of the Justice League blocked another rushing seven-star spider king, and Wan Qianying followed closely. Wang Xuan was about to make a move, but seeing that there were two major leaders joining forces, the seven-star spider king would not be able to resist.

Wan Qianying popped up a series of cold fires, and the seven-star spider king was ignited all around. It was trapped by the cold fire and kept roaring. After slashing over, the seven-star spider king was forced by the cold fire and could not avoid it.

Two seven-star spider kings and two ghost mantis kings were killed by them, and everyone was relieved, knowing that this round of insect tide was repelled by them again.

But soon everyone felt that something was wrong, because the spiders around were fleeing, and those ghost mantises not only did not disperse, but surrounded them more and more viciously.

"It seems that there are not only two mantis kings in this ghost mantis, but there are hidden mantis kings around here!" Wan Qianying shouted immediately, two cold rays of light shot out of his eyes, and looked at the ghost mantis rushing frantically around.

The appearance of this ghost mantis king is similar to that of the ghost mantis, especially the male mantis king, which is almost only ten centimeters longer than the ordinary ghost mantis.

At this moment, all around are surrounded by ghost mantis frantically, and it is almost impossible to find the hidden ghost mantis king among them.

Everyone was nervous and formed a circle, ready to resist the sudden appearance of the Ghost Mantis King.

Insect Town in the distance was completely surrounded by ghost mantises, and everyone on each high wall was under enormous pressure.

From the appearance of the insect tide to the present, the number of people who died alone has exceeded 300, and the rate of casualties is constantly getting faster.

Wang Xuanyi frowned while resisting the attack of the oncoming ghost mantis.

Originally, like everyone else, he thought that killing two ghost mantis kings and two seven-star spider kings could temporarily relieve the crisis in Insect Town, but no one thought that there were hidden ghost mantis kings around.

But they couldn't find the hidden ghost mantis king. If they dragged on like this, it won't be long before all the people in Insect Town will die.

"No, I can only try it." Wang Xuan became anxious.

There were many of his friends in Bug Town, including Gu Manyao, Zhao Lei, and others, as well as Cheng Aiguo and Meng Lian who had just arrived in Bug Town. No matter which one died, he didn't want to see them.

As soon as he thought about it, Wang Xuan didn't hesitate any longer. The skin in the middle of his forehead suddenly cracked, and a crystal eyeball popped out.

He activated the Eye of Terror.

In all directions, he can feel a lot of fear power. The eye of fear is hidden in his forehead. It is absorbing these fear power in an endless stream, and it is constantly growing and becoming stronger.

Now he activates the Eye of Terror and is using the Eye of Terror to summon the Green Poison Lord who is far away in Scorpion City.

On that day, he used fear to dominate the green poison lord, and planted a seed of fear in its soul. As long as he was still in Worm Town, he could summon the green poison lord through the fear seed.

This was originally a backhand he buried, thinking that it might come in handy at a critical moment in the future.

Last time, he also killed the three powerhouses of "Rakshasa City" in a row, and he was not afraid of "Rakshasa City" revenge, so he had this idea in his heart.

If the "Rakshasa City" really sent a large number of strong people to deal with him, he decided to take Gu Manyao and others into the Scorpion City, and then use the green poison lord to summon the Scorpion Legion to deal with these "Rakshasa City" people.

This is one of his backers, and it is not a special case, and he is unwilling to use it at will.

But at this moment, he couldn't quickly find the mantis king hidden among the thousands of ghost mantises around him. Wang Xuan was anxious about the safety of everyone in Bug Town, so he could only summon the green poison lord who was far away in Scorpion Town.

Sensing Wang Xuan's call, the green poison lord hidden in the depths of Scorpion City immediately let out a faint scream, responding to Wang Xuan's call to it.

The Green Poison Lord is also one of the Zerg, and is also affected by the King Bug. However, every time the Bug Tide, King Bug will not summon the Zerg from Snake Domain, Centipede Island and Scorpion City. It summons all kinds of Zerg from Zerg Kingdom. Therefore, the Green Poison Lord has been sleeping in the depths of Scorpion City.

Until it was awakened by Wang Xuan, the power of fear that the fear seed erupted immediately invaded the depths of its soul, leaving only one thought left in its soul, that is, to summon all the green poisonous scorpions, defend the town of insects, and resist the attacks of other insect races.

The green poison lord's eyes were faintly glowing with blood red light, and he stood up from the depths of the yellow sand, and his open mouthparts began to whistle.

It began to call out to the green scorpion.

Soon, the green poisonous scorpions in the scorpion city heard the call from the lord, and they climbed out from the bottom of the yellow sand.

Guarding the high wall on the west side are the "Justice League" people, who are being attacked by hordes of ghost mantises.

In a short period of time, less than 500 of the original 600 people died, and many people were panic-stricken and hard to resist.

Suddenly, they found that a green ocean appeared in the direction of Scorpion City, and it kept surging towards them. When they got close, they discovered that it turned out to be a green giant scorpion.

They couldn't resist the ghost mantises alone. Unexpectedly, there were more green poisonous scorpions coming. Everyone gasped and their scalps were numb. The first thought was that the insects couldn't hold back.

The huge green poisonous lord kept whistling. It moved its giant body and approached rapidly. Thousands of green poisonous scorpions followed around it, and from behind the ghost mantis, which was attacking frantically.

These ghost mantises are not on guard against the green poisonous scorpion. After all, both of them belong to the Zerg race. In their opinion, this is the same kind that appeared after being summoned by the king insect.

"It's over, it's over!" On the high wall, a strong man of the Justice League trembled slightly, with a look of despair in his eyes.

Suddenly, an incredible scene appeared, making him unable to help open his eyes wide, almost unable to believe his own eyes.

The green poisonous scorpion surging from the scorpion city actually attacked the ghost mantis from behind.

These ghost mantises had no defense at all, and were suddenly attacked by swarms of green poisonous scorpions, and they were all hit.

The green poisonous scorpion's barbs contain highly poisonous, hooked into the body of the ghost mantis, the ghost mantis roars, struggles violently, and when the poison strikes, they quickly become numb and fall softly, losing the strength to struggle and resist, and can only He watched helplessly as he was eaten by the green poisonous scorpion.

On the high wall on the west side, almost everyone was in despair. No one could have imagined the sudden change. Only one encounter, at least hundreds of ghost mantises were killed by the green poisonous scorpion, making these ghosts besieging everyone on the high wall. The mantis team was in chaos immediately.

They became chaotic, and they thought of turning around to defend against the green poisonous scorpion rushing up from behind. The green poisonous lord had already taken the lead in rushing into them, and their strength was absolutely crushed. These ghost mantises were completely vulnerable to the green poisonous lord. .

The pressure of the Justice League people who were guarding the west wall was greatly reduced. The ghost mantis team that originally attacked them was in chaos. They turned around and fought with the green poisonous scorpion that rushed up behind.

The green poisonous lord screamed, and thousands of green poisonous scorpions spread out to both sides along the west, extending toward the north and south.

On this day, more than 3,000 people who guarded the town of insects were all stunned. No one could imagine that a huge green giant scorpion would dominate thousands of green poisonous scorpions and emerge from the scorpion city. , madly attacking his own kind, hunting those ghost mantises.

How can these insects kill each other?

Everyone was lost in the lake, almost couldn't believe their eyes, and no one knew what was going on.

Through the Eye of Fear, Wang Xuan sensed that the Green Poison Lord was ruling the army of scorpions to help him. He felt relieved and knew that it could be delayed for a while, but the number of green poisonous scorpions that the Green Poison Lord ruled was limited. The worms summoned by the worms are almost endless. No one knows how many species and how many, let alone whether the king worm will summon it if he notices the abnormality of the green poison lord.

Wang Xuan has no absolute confidence in which one is stronger, the power to control fear or the summoning of the king insect.

"In any case, we must deal with the bug wave before the king bug notices the green poison lord, otherwise there will be big trouble."

Wang Xuan took a deep breath, and the two metal tentacles he controlled opened their bows left and right, killing two ghost mantises again.

The circle of twenty-nine people is slowly advancing to the depths of the north, surrounded by the corpses of ghost mantises, and the ghost mantis king who is hiding somewhere has never appeared.

The five leaders all showed anxiety in their hearts. At this moment, they didn't know about the Green Poison Lord and the army of scorpions to reinforce the town of insects. They only knew that if the insect tide dragged on like this, the situation would become more and more sinister.

The last insect wave was also due to similar reasons. As a result, there were only a few hundred people left in the insect town of more than 2,000 people, and more than two-thirds of the people died. The town will be destroyed.

This time, the five leaders also had the experience of the last insect wave, and they had some confidence at first, but at this moment they couldn't find the hidden ghost mantis king, and they began to get impatient.

Deep in the north, another huge whistling sounded.

Wang Zong whistled again, and everyone's heart sank slightly. Wang Xuan raised his head and looked into the distance. The distance between the huge black shadow up to 15 meters and them was once again narrowed. Now he can model The lake could tell that the surface of this huge black shadow seemed to have pits and pits, and it looked like a mass of black matter was accumulating.

It was hard for him to imagine what the true face of this king worm was like.

As the king insects roared, the surrounding ghost mantises suddenly dispersed, and they gave up attacking them, and turned around and rushed towards the direction of insect town.

Everyone was stunned for a moment, Wang Zong's strange howl, let them attack Zong Town?

As the surrounding ghost mantises suddenly dispersed, Wang Xuan found that on the undulating hills in front of him, one by one ghost mantis suddenly appeared.

The size of these ghost mantises is slightly larger than that of ordinary ghost mantises, because of their limited size, it is difficult to distinguish them without looking carefully.

Wang Xuan opened the eyes of the illustrated book from a distance and saw that these are elite ghost mantises, with a five-and-half-star danger level, stronger than ghost mantises, and comparable to the middle powerhouses in the ultimate state.

This group of elite ghost mantises suddenly appeared, followed by one after another.

These ghost mantises are two side by side, one big and one small, the small body length is about one meter two, and the large body length reaches one meter five.

Wang Xuan immediately understood without the eyes of a picture book that the one with a body length of about one meter two was the male mantis king, and the one with a body length of one meter five was the female mantis king.

When everyone saw it from a distance, they all took a deep breath.

No one would have imagined that this kind of six-star dangerous mantis king would appear in groups. From a distance, there are as many as five pairs, that is, ten mantis kings.

"Ten praying mantis kings?" Wan Qianying suddenly became refreshed, as if thinking of something, and said loudly: "This should be the last wave of insects. We kill these ten praying mantis kings, and we should be able to end the insect tide!"

As she spoke, she rushed up first.

Xu Jian, the leader of the Rakshasa, the leader of the dynasty, etc. rushed up one after another~www.mtlnovel.com~ After hearing this, everyone showed an excited look. With their current strength, although the ten mantis kings were terrifying, they might not be able to kill them.

As long as these ten mantis kings are killed, the insect tide can be ended.

After Wang Xuan followed the five leaders, beside him was Tang Ruoyu.

Tang Ruoyu didn't like to talk too much, and kept silent all the time, just followed the team to hunt insects.

She looked at the ten mantis kings appearing in the distance, with a dignified and melancholy look in her eyes.

Among the crowd, she was the only one who did not look excited and happy, but her expression became very dignified.

The five pairs of male and female mantis kings began to scream, and swarms of elite ghost mantises began to attack them.

Everyone attacked with all their strength, especially the five leaders joined forces, which was simply invincible.

The ten mantis kings also began to dispatch, spread out, and then surrounded the crowd in a fan shape.

When the ten mantis kings rushed down the hill and moved towards the crowd, another figure was rising from the back of the hill and came out.

Wang Xuan suddenly frowned when he saw it.

Here comes another mantis.

It's just that this mantis is surprisingly big, twice as big as the largest female mantis king, with a body length of three meters.

The three-meter-long black praying mantis was shrouded in a layer of black light, and its body seemed a little clumsy. It moved its body and slowly climbed up the hill.

Behind it, five pairs of male and female praying mantis kings appeared again, like the stars and the moon, supporting this giant black mantis.

The five leaders also saw it, and everyone changed their faces.

Chapter 188:

The situation is dangerous

The ten mantis kings, the five leaders are not afraid. With their strength, they can be killed. No one would have thought that apart from the ten mantis kings that came up to face, ten mantis kings would appear again, and these ten mantises Among the kings, there is a larger black mantis.

Wang Xuan opened the eyes of the illustrated book, observed and captured the information about the black mantis with a body length of more than three meters from a distance, and immediately the information about the black mantis appeared in his mind.

"Name: Giant King Mantis, Race: Mantis Tribe, Dangerous: ★★★★★★ (six stars), it was originally a female Mantis King, who received the transformation of the king insect, gained the power of the king insect, and grew up For the giant king mantis, it is the messenger of the king worm. It has all the abilities of the female mantis king. The only difference is that it can borrow part of the king worm's power, because it represents the king worm. All ghost mantises, including the mantis king, need Follow its orders."

Wang Xuan was a little surprised when he sensed the information. The danger of this giant mantis was the same as that of the ghost mantis king. It was six-star, but the feeling it caused them seemed to be much more terrifying than the ghost mantis king.

Ten mantis kings surrounded them in a fan shape, headed by the five Wan Qianying, and twenty-nine people also quickly greeted them.

Although the appearance of the giant mantis and the other ten mantis kings surprised everyone, they were not afraid to retreat. The five leaders were all super-strength, and they were unwilling to give up insect town until the last moment.

With a shout, Wan Qianying took the first shot, popping out one after another of cold fire.

The cold fire flew out, and wherever it fell, a violent white flame ignited, and immediately trapped a female praying mantis king.

The new leader of Rakshasa, who was following her closely, was no slower than her. He stretched out his right hand, and one glass mirror rose up in front of him, blocking the other male mantis king who was rushing towards him.

The male mantis king smashed a glass mirror, turned around, and swung two black big knives. He also wanted to attack the Rakshasa leader from the other side. He didn't want the glass mirrors to suddenly appear in all directions. Keep hitting it.

Every time it hits, a glass mirror is shattering, and the male mantis king can't stand the force of the glass mirror shattering and bursting, and the outer shell on the surface of the body is also shattering. Got breathless.

Wan Qianying and the Rakshasa leader attacked one after another, trapping a mantis king each.

Xu Jian kicked his feet, rose into the air, and pounced on the third mantis king.

There was a loud bang, and he punched six fists frantically, colliding with the pair of big knives wielded by the mantis king. Soon the mantis king could not resist, and the surface of the sharp and hard big knife appeared spider web-like cracks. Finally, with a loud bang, the two forelimb knives shattered together.

When the leader of the dynasty raised his right hand, a spinning rune appeared in his palm, and a gust of wind blew into it a mantis king who was attacking him.

The leader of the Justice League waved the two-meter giant blade in his hand, blew a whistling wind, and slammed down into the sky, slashing on a pair of forelimb swords raised by a mantis king. His strength was too strong, and he immediately cut this The pair of large knives raised by the Mantis King sank.

The five leaders shot and blocked a mantis king in an instant, but even with their strength, it was absolutely impossible to kill a powerful mantis king in a single encounter.

The remaining five mantis kings were surrounded by the crowd.

"Little girl!" Wang Xuan shouted, knowing that the situation was not good, let Xiaojiao make a full shot to block a praying mantis king, and he followed suit, activating the giant arm of the beast, and together with Xiaojiao, each blocked a praying mantis at the same time. king.

And the last remaining three mantis kings have already rushed into the crowd.

Tang Ruoyu, Chu Boyu, and Chen Daolin are all strong at their peak. Among the twenty-nine people, apart from the five leaders and Wang Xuan, they are the most powerful.

In this case, they did their part and did their best to resist the remaining three mantis kings.

If you can't stop it, you'll be in big trouble.

Qiu Yuanfeng, Mou Gang, Gongxiao, Sun Yan, Jiang He, the calm-hearted man from the "Justice League", and the two men under Wan Qianying who were wearing two ghost equipment and silver scale equipment, all of them went out of their way to help. Tang Ruoyu, Chen Daolin and Chu Boyu hoped to block the remaining three mantis kings.

They only need to entangle the three mantis kings for a few seconds. With the strength of the five chiefs and Wang Xuan, I believe they can succeed in these few seconds and kill the mantis kings they are blocking.

Since the arrival of the worm tide, the most intense fight broke out at this moment. Almost everyone put in all their strength, and all the ten mantis kings were blocked by everyone.

Wang Xuan stimulated the power of the blue crystal scales, and circles of blue dim light lit up in the giant arms of the demon beasts. He raised the power to the limit that this world can accommodate, and reached the limit level of perfection. He wanted to kill instantly. The mantis king in front of him.

Almost at the same moment, the ground beneath everyone's feet shook violently. The sudden incident shocked everyone, including Wang Xuan and the five leaders.

No one would have imagined that when they were fighting the Mantis King with all their strength, the ground under their feet would suddenly vibrate, and a crack that was more than ten meters long would open from it.

"Boom", the giant python-like monster swept out the huge round body that was more than ten meters long.

With two screams in a row, Jiang He and a powerhouse from Rakshasa didn't have time to react at all. They were swept away by this monster, and their bodies burst and shattered together with the mechanical shell and third-order alloy equipment, and the visceral bones instantly shattered. Splashing, the power of this blow is simply appalling.

The two powerful Realm powerhouses were blown apart by this blow.

"Jiang He!" Gongsun Xiaoyan's eyes widened, and she couldn't help crying.

She and Jiang He had a good relationship, but when she suddenly saw Jiang He was beaten into flesh, she was shocked and her face was full of horror.

The five leaders shook their hearts. Not only did they fail to kill the mantis king who was rushing up to him, but they were confused. The terrifying monster swayed, and most of its body bounced up and slammed on the ground. Among them, the leader of the Justice League Unprepared, he was hit hard.

He groaned, and there was a sound of bone shattering in his body, and he opened his mouth to spurt blood and tumbled and flew out.

Even the powerhouses who surpassed the state of being were hit hard, the rest were horrified, and the team suddenly became chaotic.

The combined mechanical beast of the Justice League leader has an energy shield defense, plus a mechanical shell and a powerful ghost suit, so that he can not die, otherwise he will follow in the footsteps of Jiang He and the powerful Rakshasa. , instantly killed.

The leader of the Justice League is worthy of being a powerhouse beyond the perfect state. He rolled and fell out. Knowing that it was not good, he immediately turned over to the ground and narrowly avoided the big sword attack of the facing Mantis King. He quickly took out a bottle of healing water with his left hand and poured it into his mouth. .

The armor on Wang Xuan's back was cracked, and pieces of pitch-black steel feathers protruded from it, spreading out the ghost wings and blowing a gust of wind.

The sound of "Kick Cha" was crisp, and the big sword that was slashed by the Mantis King was smashed horizontally by his giant beast arm, and it shattered and exploded in an instant. He was hit hard in the head and exploded.

Instantly killed the mantis king, a white scale appeared, submerged in his right hand, Wang Xuan turned around, but found that the new Rakshasa leader was exceptionally calm, not because of this terrifying monster that suddenly burst out from the ground like a giant python. Distracted, he controlled the glass mirrors to smash into the center, almost no slower than him, smashing the mantis king trapped in it into pieces.

This Rakshasa leader had the same thoughts as him, killed the mantis king in front of him, and immediately turned around to intercept the crazy python-like monster.

Wang Xuan's eye of the illustrated book captured the information of this monster at the same moment.

Titan giant earthworm, its body is an earthworm hidden in the soil. It gained the power of the king insect and evolved into a terrifying monster with a length of fourteen or five meters. It is as thick as a bucket. It is not only fast, but also infinitely powerful. Although it is dangerous It is still a six-star, but the combat power it shows is far more terrifying than the Mantis King.

Both are six-star danger levels, but there is a huge gap between their strengths.

Although Wang Xuan and the leader of the Rakshasa were fast, this giant titan was even faster, hitting the leader of the Justice League, and the body of more than ten meters was swept out sideways again. It was too late to dodge and could not resist, and even the hatched beasts that were summoned were blown up in an instant.

From the time this giant titan appeared to the present, it has killed four people in a row and injured one person.

The leader of the Justice League just poured the healing water into his mouth, when the mantis king who missed a hit suddenly bounced, jumped into the air, abandoned him, rushed into the circle surrounded by the crowd, the big knife in his hand fell, The blood-stained head rolled out sideways, the blood on the neck shot up to the sky, and the headless body fell down.

This was suddenly attacked by the Mantis King, and the man who cut off his head was a man from the Justice League. Although he was also a strong man, his strength was not weak, but in the face of the sudden attack of the Mantis King, the reaction was a little late for half a second, and it was immediately a human head. The fate of the landing.

Wan Qianying let out an angry shout. She finally succeeded and burned the mantis king who had been trapped before to coke. Seeing that the man's head was chopped off, she turned around in anger, and the right hand was connected to eject the cold fire to attack the mantis king.

With a "bang", Xu Jian also succeeded, smashing the mantis king he was blocking into a piece of meat.

Wang Xuan and the Rakshasa leader, one activated the giant arm of the beast, and the other summoned a glass mirror to block the mad Titan giant earthworm.

The Titan Giant Earthworm is like an earthworm magnified by a thousand meters.

It swung its body sideways, shattering more than a dozen glass mirrors summoned by the Rakshasa leader.

Wang Xuan circled to the other side of it, the ghost wings spread out, and the steel blade turned into a handle and shot out.

The sound of chi chi was incessant, the steel blade of this handle was extremely sharp, pierced it, and immediately pierced the giant titan earthworm, leaving more than a dozen blood holes on its body.

However, for a giant titan with a body length of more than ten meters, these more than a dozen blood holes are nothing, not even minor injuries. Instead, they are more and more violent, and the open mouthparts are spraying out a muddy yellow substance. , The stench is foul, the upper body is lying on the ground, and the body behind is flapping wildly to both sides.

The Rakshasa leader had a solemn expression on his face, and kept summoning glass mirrors. Every time he was shot, a dozen glass mirrors shattered, but he summoned a dozen glass mirrors again in an instant, blocking its stubbornness. attack.

However, as a result, his physical energy was severely depleted, and his forehead was covered in cold sweat. He quickly took out a bottle of physical strength water and drank it.

Wang Xuan launched a dozen steel feathers, followed by himself, seized the opportunity of the Rakshasa leader to trap this mad titan giant earth, waved the giant arm of the beast, avoided its mouthparts that continuously sprayed the khaki material, and circled around it. to the side and hit it in the head.

Suddenly, it raised its head and collided with the giant arm of the beast that Wang Xuan was hitting.

Purely fighting for strength, Wang Xuan has never been afraid of anyone. Seeing this, he did not retreat, but took a step forward.

"Boom", the fist of the giant arm of the beast hit the head of the Titan Giant Earth, which smashed over, and a large amount of khaki material splashed out. Wang Xuan only felt pungent and pungent, and he didn't know how much khaki material was sprayed on his head, face and body. The blue dim light in the giant arm of the beast lit up, knocking out half of the head that the giant titan had hit.

However, the force of the Titan giant earth's impact was equally powerful. He suffered an unimaginable impact, unable to stabilize his body, and fell backwards.

Chu Boyu let out a muffled groan. There was blood spattered from his chest, but he was stabbed by a mantis king's big knife. If he hadn't retreated quickly, he would have been gutted.

Of the ten mantis kings, four were eliminated by Wang Xuan and the Rakshasa leader, Xu Jian, and Wan Qianying in succession, and the remaining six were even more insane. There were ten mantis kings facing them, approaching them at a terrifying speed. Once these ten mantis kings are surrounded, the situation will become more and more sinister.

As for the giant mantis, who could command all the mantises, it was slower and fell behind the ten mantis kings.

Wang Xuan had just smashed the small half of the head of the giant titan with one punch, and he was also knocked out. Chu Boyu was injured and retreated. The mantis king who had injured him jumped and jumped several meters into the air, slashing with a pair of big swords. He came out and chopped down at Wang Xuan, who fell to the ground.

It saw that Wang Xuan was more terrifying than Chu Boyu, and seized this once-in-lifetime opportunity to kill Wang Xuan with one blow.

Wang Xuan fell to the ground, watching the two large black knives fall towards his neck and waist, how fast his reaction is now, almost at the same time when the two large black knives were about to fall, a pair of monster arms smashed out sideways. .

The blue dim light on the giant arm lit up, and there was a crisp sound. The two large black knives were smashed. Not only did they fail to kill him, but they couldn't withstand the power of the monster's giant arm, and they shattered first. Come on.

His waist and abdomen exerted force, and at the same time as the big knife shattered, he had already stood up from the ground, kicked up, and hit the lower abdomen of the mantis king who fell from the sky.

The green juice splashed out, and the belly of the mantis king burst, and his body was kicked and rolled backwards.

Wang Xuan didn't give it a chance to survive at all, and the ghost wings fired again, and a dozen steel feathers were like sharp swords, piercing the flying mantis king.

The Mantis King is not a giant titan. It was only one meter long and was pierced by more than a dozen steel feathers. Even its head was shattered. It died immediately and fell down.

Wang Xuan killed another mantis king, followed by the leader of the dynasty.

There are ten mantis kings, and there are still four left. One and Xiaojiao are biting each other, one is blocked by Tang Ruoyu and several people, one is entangled by Chen Daolin and several people, and the other mantis king has been blocked by Wan Qian. Ying's cold fire was trapped, and his whole body was swallowed by white flames, and he was about to be burned to coke soon.

And the giant titan, whose head was smashed by Wang Xuan, twisted and twisted with a body as thick as a bucket, Xu Jian jumped up, put his six hands together, formed a fist mark, volleyed, and slammed the titan with a bang. The remaining half of the giant worm's head exploded.

The rotten flesh was flying, Xu Jian heaved a sigh of relief, but he soon felt that something was wrong. The giant titan had lost its head, but did not die. The huge headless body slammed forward.

Xu Jian didn't expect it to be so tenacious. Just after a fist strike, its strength was vented, and it couldn't dodge any longer, and was hit by the giant titan.

There was a brittle sound of broken bones in his body, his chest collapsed in immediately, blood spurted from his mouth, his body was knocked flying, rolled several somersaults in the air, and slammed into a group of elite ghost mantises.

"Chief!" Qiu Yuanfeng was shocked when he saw it in his eyes, and rushed towards the place where Xu Jian fell to prevent him from being seriously injured and losing his ability to protect himself ~www.mtlnovel.com~ being killed by those elite ghost mantises.

After all, he is the leader of the dignified Xuan gang, a powerhouse beyond the perfect state. If he is killed by the elite ghost mantis with only five stars and a half danger, he will die in a humiliating way.

Wang Xuan looked at it and thought that Earthyin's life force was tenacious, even if it was cut into several pieces, it could still survive. This giant titan earthworm was afraid that it had inherited the powerful life force of Earthyin. More violent, this time in big trouble.

The head of the Rakshasa groaned, and he continued to summon the glass mirror to defend against the attack of the mad titan. The surface of the titan's body was as thick as a bucket. As the glass mirror shattered, a large number of crisscrossing appeared. There was a sap of khaki juice flowing out of the wound.

But the Titan giant earth not only did not lose its strength due to the injury, but the more severe the injury, the more terrifying it became.

It waved its giant tail again and pulled it out in the air. The dozen glass mirrors that the Rakshasa leader had just sacrificed were all shattered.

Wang Xuan opened the Xumi mustard seed space and stretched his left hand in. At the same moment, the ghost wings behind him vibrated, and a gust of wind blew up. With the help of this gust of wind, he approached the Titan giant earth again.

This giant titan seemed to know his strength, and the upper half of the body with the smashed head raised up and slammed towards him, trying to knock him away like Xu Jian and inflict heavy damage.

Wang Xuan swung out the giant beast arm on the left. Seeing that he was about to hit the giant titan, he suddenly loosened his left hand, and three crystals appeared in it. He punched the giant titan into the body.

The ghost wings contracted and covered in front of him.

Chapter 189

There was an earth-shattering loud bang, and the upper body of this giant titan suddenly exploded. The rotten flesh mixed with juice splashed all over the place, and at least four or five meters of the body was blown to pieces.

Just now, Wang Xuan took out three exploding crystals, smashed them into the body of the giant titan, and detonated them from the inside. No matter how powerful the giant titan was, it was also blown up to four or five meters of body at this moment.

He had a total of thirty-eight explosive crystals. He used three of them at one time, and then took out three more. He held them in the palm of his hand, and covered his body with ghost wings to resist the aftermath of the explosion. A few meters of the giant titan was bombed to a length of only eight or nine meters, but it was still not dead, and it was still twisting wildly in place. it kills.

Wan Qianying also succeeded at the same moment, burning a mantis king into coke.

On the other side, Xiao Gai, who had been fighting with a mantis king, suddenly let out a faint low whistle. Although its strength was stronger than that of ordinary peak powerhouses, it was still in the face of these six-star powerhouses. Mantis King, the two sides are evenly matched, it can't kill each other, and the other party can't kill it.

Having been unable to kill the opponent, Xiao Gu seemed to feel anger, and suddenly let out a low whistle from her throat, her body was slightly pressed down, and a terrifying energy suddenly burst out from her body.

This energy swept through, and a fiery light suddenly appeared in its body.

This light emerged from its body, passed through the mechanical shell, and floated around its body, forming mechanical parts and metal shells formed of white light.

The sound of "Korcha Kocha" was heard endlessly. The mechanical parts and metal shells that glowed white lighted together to form a giant mechanical arm with a length of more than two meters.

With a "bang", Xiaoguo jumped forward, and as its left claw grabbed out, the giant mechanical arm with a huge white light slammed out.

This scene attracted the attention of many people. Watching the mantis king who was fighting with Xiaojiao was hit by the giant mechanical arm, it exploded from it in an instant, and exploded into thousands of pieces, and the real death was completely dead.

After this blow, the giant mechanical arm formed by the white light disintegrated and disintegrated, and Xiaogai fell to the ground, shaking all over, as if she was exhausted.

The blow just now seemed to drain its strength.

Wang Xuan just took out three exploding crystals again, and when he saw Xiaoguo's blow, his heart moved slightly. He sensed that what Xiaoguo had activated was the power of the broken left arm of the mechanical god.

The crystal of this Mechanic God's left arm draws his blood before it can be integrated with Xiaojiao's powertrain. When Xiaojiao activates the power of the Mechanic God's left arm, he will naturally feel it.

The power of this blow was beyond his expectations.

Seeing Xiaojia lying on the ground, she understood that the blow had drained its power and that it was temporarily unable to fight any more, so she immediately launched a fusion, allowing Xiaojiao to turn into a mechanical shell and attached to the surface of her body.

Of the ten mantis kings, there are still two remaining, and the original thirty-one on their side have now become twenty-four alive.

Qiu Yuanfeng released the remains of the hatching beasts and snakes, and connected with the elite ghost mantises who were madly surrounded, protecting Xu Jian who was severely injured.

Xu Jian quickly took out a bottle of healing water and poured it into his mouth. The wounds all over his body glowed white, and the wounds on his body were healing. He got up and charged towards the giant titan again.

There was more blood flowing from the mouth of the Rakshasa leader, but he did not retreat, and was still controlling a large number of glass mirrors, trapping the mad Titan giant earthworm.

Wang Xuan seized the opportunity again and used the giant arm of the beast to blast three exploding crystals into the monster's body.

In the earth-shattering explosion, the Titan Giant Earth's body was once again blown off four or five meters long. It was originally fourteen or five meters long, and now only a body of no more than five meters is left, twisting frantically.

No matter how tenacious its vitality is, at this moment its attack power, speed, and reaction ability have all begun to decline seriously. The Rakshasa leader was relieved, and felt that the power of the Titan giant earth hitting the glass mirror was attenuated.

Wan Qianying, the leader of the dynasty, and the leader of the Justice League, shot with all their might, killing the last two mantis kings blocked by Tang Ruoyu and Chen Daolin.

The faces of each of them became very ugly. They wanted to kill the two mantis kings at this moment, just because the other ten mantis kings had already approached them within ten meters, and they were about to surround them in the blink of an eye.

Behind the ten mantis kings, there is the commander of all the mantises, the giant king mantis who has obtained the power of the king insect.

Wan Qianying blasted the cold fire out, and the white flames exploded, immediately trapping one of the mantis kings.

A swirling rune appeared in the palm of the right hand of the leader of the dynasty, summoning wind blades one after another, volleying towards the other mantis king.

The leader of the Justice League swung the two-meter giant blade in his hand, cooperated with the leader of the dynasty, and volleyed out from behind, successfully killing one of the mantis kings.

Wan Qianying followed and succeeded, and the mantis king who was trapped by him was swallowed up by the white flames and quickly burned into a pile of coke.

The titan giant earthworm, which was only four or five meters long, finally felt the fear, twisted the remaining body, and wanted to escape from the crack in the ground.

The ghost wings behind Wang Xuan opened, and a gust of wind blew. He kicked his feet and rose into the air. With the help of the gust of wind lifted by the ghost wings, he volleyed to the top of the giant titan. go down.

A large amount of minced meat exploded. In this attack, Wang Xuan pushed the power of the giant arm of the beast to the limit, and completely smashed the remaining four or five meters of the body of the giant titan.

A white scale sleep finally emerged from the tattered stump of the giant titan and fell into Wang Xuan's right hand.

Wang Xuan sighed softly, it was really not easy to kill this giant titan.

The Rakshasa leader wiped the blood from the corners of his mouth, glanced at him, nodded slightly, and seemed to show a shy smile, then turned around and rushed towards the ten mantis kings rushing up.

The original ten mantis kings were finally completely killed by them, and the new ten mantis kings also surrounded them, screaming loudly from their open mouthparts, waving two large black knives, madly rushing towards them. come up.

The five chiefs drank one after another and took the initiative to meet them again. Wan Qianying and the dynasty chiefs all took out a bottle of physical strength water and drank it.

In this insect town world, their power is suppressed. If they want to maintain the power within this limit, they will consume more and more physical strength. They are as strong as them, and they have to drink the power of physical strength to maintain sufficient physical strength.

Wang Xuan felt that the energy of the white light in his right hand fluctuated violently. Although it is also a monster with a six-star danger, the energy in the white scales of the Titan Giant Earthworm is much stronger than that of the Mantis King. , making the light wall tougher.

Everyone fought with the ten mantis kings again, and in the distant insect town, the green poisonous scorpion army ruled by the green poison lord completely surrounded the insect town.

However, they did not attack Insect Town, but protected Insect Town and fought with the ghost mantises that surrounded it.

The number of ghost mantises that appeared is increasing, among them there are a large number of elite ghost mantis, thousands of them are coming, but the green poison lord and the green poison army have resisted their attacks, thousands of people in the insect town. , All were stunned, everyone stopped and stood on the surrounding walls, dumbfounded.

Green poisonous scorpions and ghost mantises continue to die. Although green poisonous scorpions are powerful, their numbers are limited, and the number of ghost mantises and elite ghost mantises that appear is like a tide, endless and endless.

Wang Xuan, who has gone deep into the northern insect kingdom, also understands that he can sense through the green poison lord that this army of green poisonous scorpions will not last long, and they must end this insect wave as soon as possible.

The king bug in the distance roared again, the huge black shadow as big as a hill has risen to 20 meters high, it is once again close to everyone, Wang Xuan can even faintly feel the sound coming from a distance. That Yuruo real terrifying aura.

The king bug is approaching them.

Wan Qianying, Xu Jian, the leader of the Justice League, the leader of the dynasty, and the leader of the Rakshasa made their full shots. As before, they each blocked a mantis king.

Wang Xuan opened his ghost wings, and a dozen steel feathers shot at one praying mantis king, while he attacked the other mantis king.

He wanted to block the two mantis kings at once. He understood the strength of the rest of the people, so he could barely entangle three mantis kings at most. As long as there was one more mantis king, it could cause a lot of casualties to them.

Xu Jian jumped up, let out a long howl, his six arms joined together, formed a fist mark, and volleyed down.

This is his strongest blow. Although he is in this world, he can only exert his ultimate power, which is still extremely terrifying.

Even the mighty Ghost Mantis King could not resist.

With a click, the two large knives of the ghost mantis king shattered together by the fist mark, Xu Jian fell to the ground, and six fists hit the mantis king's body together.

The body of the Mantis King shattered like a lake of paper.

Among the crowd, this time he was the first to succeed.

Behind the ten mantis kings, separated by a distance of more than ten meters, compared to the mantis king, the giant mantis, which seems to be moving slowly, is approaching.

After Xu Jian killed the mantis queen, he immediately targeted the giant king mantis that was approaching within fifteen meters.

Almost at this moment, the giant mantis, which was moving slower than the mantis king, suddenly turned upside down, with two wings growing on its back.

It's just that the wings are too thin, clinging to the back, almost invisible.

Until this moment, the two wings suddenly opened, its limbs propped up on the ground, and suddenly it rose into the air, jumping out of a distance of more than ten meters, and instantly reached the top of everyone's heads.

Qiangyu Xu Jian only felt a flash in front of his eyes, and before he could react, he saw the giant king mantis fall, and two screams accompanied by two splashes of blood appeared.

Xu Jian turned his head, his eyes shrunk slightly, but at this moment, the giant king Mantis swung down the two black swords, and swept a powerhouse in the "Justice League" and Gao Tian in the "Rakshasa" from head to head. Feet, alive and in two halves.

"The Age of Rebirth"

Gao Tian and the powerhouse of the "Justice League" are definitely not weak, but when they encounter this giant mantis, there is no room for parry or dodge.

"brute!"

Xu Jian let out an angry roar, raised his six arms together, and kicked his feet, trying to pounce and block the giant mantis.

Wang Xuan on the other side was also turning around. He had just intercepted the two mantis kings. He never expected that the giant mantis, which was more than ten meters away, was so terrifying, and it would fly with its wings. The previous so-called movement was relatively slow. , all in disguise.

Wang Xuan could no longer resist the two mantis kings in front of him. The ghost wings behind him spread out and turned around, wanting to block the giant mantis king.

His reaction was even faster than Xu Jian's. With a volley and a bang, the giant arm of the beast smashed into a pitch-black sword raised by the giant mantis.

The big sword vibrated, not only did it not shatter like the mantis king's big sword that was hit before, but a special power surged out of it.

This force seemed to be overwhelming, Wang Xuan was lifted by this force, and flew out in a volley.

Purely compared to strength, it was the first time he was overwhelmed.

In his shock, he fell heavily to the ground, and then heard the screams, he understood that another person was killed by this giant mantis.

This time the one who was killed was a powerful man in the dynasty.

Half of the six people who came out of the dynasty have died, and now only the leader of the dynasty, Chu Boyu and the man who used the thunder knife are left.

The giant mantis was too powerful, Wang Xuan, who was rushing towards him, and Xu Jian, who avoided the attack, slashed with the black sword on the left, and could cut people in half.

As soon as Xu Jian fell into the air, he let out a shout, and once again gave out his fist mark and struck in the air.

This time, the giant mantis didn't dodge, but swung a pair of jet-black big knives in reverse.

With a loud bang, the two large black knives slashed into the fist mark that Xu Jian slammed down. Xu Jian groaned suddenly, blood spattered, and two of the six arms were broken and flew out with blood.

The two Mantis Kings, who were originally blocked by Wang Xuan, were now unstoppable, and they rushed over. Mu Gang suddenly let out a terrifying roar. Come in, and then cut out horizontally.

His eyes were round, and his mouth was gurgling, and suddenly his body broke from it, and was cut off by the mantis king.

"Mu Gang!" Gongsun Xiaoyan was trembling slightly all over her body. Just as she was about to release the golden thread, a cold wind suddenly came from behind her. She knew it was not good, so she was busy dodging. come over.

Although she narrowly avoided it, the Mantis King's strength was much stronger than her. The pitch-black sword suddenly changed direction and dragged it sideways.

She couldn't resist any longer, and the jet-black knife cut into her waist and abdomen, and it was about to cut her in half in an instant.

With a sudden bang, the mantis king didn't know what happened, his body suddenly flew out in the air, and a huge transparent hole was blown out in his belly.

This sudden action, it was Wang Xuan who saved Gongsun Xiaoyan's life.

His face was faintly hideous. On the giant arms of the demon beast, the blue light kept flashing, the single wing behind him was raised high, and his feet propped up on the ground at the same time, gliding with the help of the ghost wings, soaring into the air, catching up with this one. The Mantis King, who was blasted out by himself, smashed its head with a blow from the giant arm of the beast and killed it.

The Rakshasa leader followed suit, and the glass mirrors continued to explode, and finally succeeded in smashing the mantis king he had intercepted together with the glass mirrors.

After he succeeded, he turned around immediately, waved his right hand, and the glass mirrors one after another landed in the air, and with a bang, they covered the crazy giant mantis.

When these mirrors landed, the giant mantis was trapped. He wanted to use the method he used to deal with the giant earthworm to trap it to death.

Wan Qianying was only a second slower than him, and successfully used the cold fire to burn the Mantis King into charcoal. Then she turned around and rushed towards the Giant King Mantis.

There are still six mantis kings left. With their strength, they can completely block the killing. Now the most important thing is the giant mantis, and it must not cause more casualties.

More than a dozen glass mirrors squeezed in from all directions, and the wings behind the giant mantis opened again, and suddenly rose into the air, jumping high, trying to fly out of the encirclement of these glass mirrors.

The leader of the Rakshasa was already prepared, and he clenched his hands in the air, and a glass mirror suddenly appeared above the sky, sealing the top so that it could not escape at all.

At this moment, the jumping giant mantis, with a wave of the right forelimb, the jet-black sword suddenly broke away from the body and shot down in the air.

When the incident happened suddenly, the Rakshasa leader was stunned. It was too late to dodge. He barely moved two inches. www.mtlnovel.com~ His mouth clucked, his body staggered and fell back, and all the glass mirrors in all directions shattered instantly.

"Leader—" Chen Daolin saw it in his eyes, his heart skipped a beat, and he rushed towards him in horror.

The jet-black sword on the left side of the giant mantis also threw out horizontally.

This jet-black sword cut horizontally into the body of a strong man from Rakshasa, and cut him in half.

The giant mantis that lost a pair of forelimbs fell to the ground, and everyone was horrified to find that in its body, from the front to the back, a pair of forelimbs with black big knives grew out, like the legs of a centipede, with a full eight handles. A pitch-black sword.

Just as Wang Xuan approached, he saw the giant mantis grow eight forelimbs, his heart froze, and a flower bloomed in front of him, the giant mantis was like a black shadow, carrying a terrifying wind whistling, jumped up.

It was so fast that Wang Xuan felt his heart skip a beat. His eyes of fear were fully activated, and he could only feel the endless fear in the hearts of the people around him. In the soul of the giant mantis in front of him, he could not feel the slightest fear.

Almost in an instant, Wang Xuan growled and barely raised his right arm. Before he could attack, he was slashed by two large black knives.

There was blood splashing out of it, and even the giant arm of the demon beast fused with half-flesh and half-metal couldn't resist it, and was instantly cut into two huge wounds with deep visible bones.

Two other screams sounded. While the giant mantis was slashing Wang Xuan, the remaining jet-black knives were swung out in a row. The two powerhouses from "Phoenix" were just standing together, thinking at this moment. It was too late to dodge, and in an instant, the pitch-black sword pierced, and the body immediately cracked open.

Chapter 190

The Power of the Mechanical God

Wan Qianying saw it in his eyes, let out a snarl, clasped his hands together, and jumped up, a huge white fireball rose from his hands, and smashed it in the air.

This was her full blow, and the power of this white fireball exploded far beyond that of ordinary explosive crystals.

The giant mantis had just severely injured Wang Xuan and killed two "Phoenix" powerhouses, and before it had time to dodge, the remaining jet-black swords waved, facing the incoming white fireball.

The dazzling white light exploded, and immediately a large amount of cold fire splashed on the body of the giant king mantis, and suddenly it burned violently.

Wan Qianying's cold fire is so powerful that it ignites when she encounters something. She immediately controls the cold fire with all her strength and wants to devour the giant mantis.

In the blink of an eye, most of the giant mantis body was swallowed by the white flames. It seemed to know that it was inevitable that it would die, and it became more and more insane. Ying rushed in the direction.

Stronger than Wan Qianying did not dare to resist, and was busy retreating and dodging.

The Rakshasa leader had just drank a bottle of healing water. The wound on his body was glowing, and he was speeding up the healing process. At the same time, he raised his right hand, and the glass mirrors rose from the ground, trying to block the crazy giant mantis.

With a "bang", the giant king mantis devoured by the white flames smashed these mirrors in an instant. Wan Qianying seized this opportunity and leaned to avoid the attack of the giant king mantis.

At this moment, the giant king mantis was on fire, and it became more and more terrifying. No one could stop it. Wan Qianying had just avoided it, but a mantis king had no time to dodge, and was hit by the giant mantis, like a white fireworks that exploded.

Countless white cold fires splashed all over the place, and the mantis king who was hit didn't even have time to let out a scream. In an instant, it rolled in the air and flew more than ten meters away, shattered all over, and died immediately.

The giant mantis collided with the mantis king, swung his body, and rushed towards the crowd. The leader of the dynasty controlled a gust of wind, and while dodging, he slammed out the wind blades one after another.

The leader of the dynasty diddle, and Chu Boyu and Tang Ruoyu were the first to bear the brunt.

At this moment, Tang Ruoyu was teaming up with Chu Boyu and a phoenix who was wearing two pieces of silver scale equipment to trap a mantis king.

Tang Ruoyu kept releasing the tiger claws on the long sword in his right hand. The tiger claws were extremely sharp, and he scratched wounds everywhere on the mantis king.

Chu Boyu controls the green vines one by one, trying to entangle the Mantis King from all directions, interfere with its attacks, and create opportunities for Tang Ruoyu and another perfect powerhouse.

Seeing that Tang Ruoyu was about to succeed, he didn't want the giant king mantis with white flames to appear at the moment. Its speed was too fast, and when Tang Ruoyu and Chu Boyu noticed something was wrong, it was difficult to dodge.

Tang Ruoyu flipped his left hand, and a crystal appeared, which was immediately crushed, and a defensive light curtain appeared, which was the defensive crystal.

With a "boom", the giant mantis slammed into the light curtain of the defense crystal.

The light curtain vibrated endlessly. Although the giant mantis was powerful, it could not break the defensive light curtain in an instant.

Tang Ruoyu, Chu Boyu, and the phoenix's elites seized this opportunity and stepped back, but this defensive light curtain could only last for a moment.

The leader of the Justice League, the leader of the dynasty, and Xu Jian abandoned the mantis king that they had resisted, pulled back, and rushed towards the giant king mantis who was swallowed by the flames.

Originally, they saw that the giant mantis was swallowed up by Wan Qianying's cold fire, and would soon be burned to coke. No one wanted to go to fight it at this time, and they tried to avoid it as much as possible.

But soon they felt something was wrong.

They have a deep understanding of the power of Wan Qianying's cold fire. Even if the steel is swallowed by the cold fire, it should be melted by molten iron. However, although the giant mantis has always been burning with white flames, no matter its speed It's still power, it hasn't decayed at all, but it has become more and more terrifying.

This is completely unreasonable. The only explanation is that the giant king mantis is not afraid of cold fire, and Wan Qianying's cold fire can't kill it at all.

Wan Qianying also quickly discovered this. With a wave of her right hand, the white flame that was burning on the giant mantis body suddenly extinguished and disappeared, but she saw that the giant king mantis was black and faintly glowing, just now. The white flame burned on its body without leaving any traces at all.

This giant mantis is immune to cold fire.

Wan Qianying sucked in a breath of cold air.

The leader of the Justice League swung the two-meter giant blade in his hand to form a circular wheel and volleyed out.

The giant mantis raised a pair of forelimbs and crossed them to block the round wheel.

The two sides collided, and a harsh sound broke out. Xu Jian put his six hands together, formed a fist mark, jumped up, and then volleyed to the next blow.

With a "bang", the fist print hit one of the giant knives of the giant mantis.

The pitch-black sword couldn't bear it, and it shattered, but the other pitch-black sword it was waving slanted out, but Xu Jian couldn't resist it, and fell back with a groan. The mechanical shell and armor cracked together. Blood spurted out.

The giant king Mantis hit Xu Jian hard, and his body moved forward, hitting the leader of the Justice League.

The leader of the Justice League spat out a mouthful of blood, and rolled in the air and fell out.

He fell heavily to the ground, and he struggled again, his face covered in blood, with a faintly twisted look: "If it weren't for the limitation of power, where would it be possible for you to be rampant here, what kind of worm tide is so unfair, why our The power is to be limited, but the power of these monsters will not be affected?"

He really didn't understand that when the powerhouses who surpassed the state of being came here, they were suppressed by the power of the world. They could only exert the strength that was infinitely close to the state of surpassing the state of being, and reached the limit level of the state of being, but they could not break through to the state of being. .

But at this moment, in his opinion, the strength of the giant mantis in front of him is definitely beyond the perfect state, which is why it can be so terrifying.

tomato novel

Why doesn't the power of this world suppress the giant mantis?

The giant mantis slammed into the leader of the Justice League, opened its wings behind it, fluttered into the air, and waved its eight forelimbs together, like an eight-clawed spider, to kill the leader of the Justice League who fell to the ground.

The remaining five mantis kings cooperated with it, together with the surrounding groups of elite ghost mantises, and launched an attack on everyone frantically.

The severely damaged leader of the Justice League never expected the giant mantis to be so powerful, and quickly took out a defensive crystal in his left hand to open it.

This defensive crystal is very precious and rare, even they would not use it casually.

Although Wang Xuan had accumulated more than 30 explosive crystals and more than 30 bottles of stamina water, there were only five defense crystals.

Just after crushing the defensive crystal, the giant mantis volleyed down and was blocked by the defensive light curtain for a moment.

The leader of the Justice League seized this opportunity and rolled to the ground to dodge.

Wan Qianying, Xu Jian, the leader of the dynasty, and others were all attacked by the mantis king, but the giant mantis seemed to have locked on the leader of the Justice League. If he wanted to kill him, the defensive crystal could only block it for a moment. The light curtain disappeared, and it immediately flew into the air again.

The leader of the Justice League took out the healing water and poured it into his mouth, while he took out a defensive crystal again and wanted to crush it. Suddenly a figure flashed in front of him, and a huge pitch-black steel feather spread out, obscuring his vision.

Wang Xuan appeared, and he drank the healing water. The two deep wounds from the giant arm of the beast had healed. The single wing behind him spread high, like a single-winged fallen angel, falling to the ground. Between the leader of the Justice League on the ground and the giant mantis who rushed over, his eyes glowed with strange light, his arms were slightly opened, and a blue light appeared one after another.

Since its own power is suppressed by the power of this world and cannot break through the boundaries of the perfect state, then what about the borrowed power.

In his chest, he integrated Xiaojiao's powertrain, the energy is surging, this medium-state powertrain provides him with powerful physical fitness.

At this moment, in addition to the physical energy provided by this powertrain, he is also sensing a new force within him.

Facing the giant mantis rushing over, Wang Xuan once again waved the giant arm of the beast, and in an instant, one after another, the black sword slashed on the giant arm of the beast.

Inside the giant arm, the blue dim light is erupting, and a harsh sound is heard. The power of the giant mantis is truly beyond the limit of perfection. At this moment, the power that Wang Xuan bursts out is equally terrifying, breaking through the limit in an instant. Inspired by the power of the world.

The ubiquitous power of the world immediately came to suppress it. Wang Xuan groaned and fell back. The power of his giant arms of monsters and blue crystal scales was immediately suppressed by the power of the world, and he felt like he was hit hard.

The giant mantis in front of him, however, was not affected, and he swung the big knife frantically, cutting Wang Xuan into several pieces.

"Wang Xuan—"

Several people saw Wang Xuan's danger, Xu Jian kicked his feet, and wanted to abandon the mantis king who was attacking him in front of him, and wanted to come to save Wang Xuan, but it was too late.

Seeing the giant king Mantis's eight-handled swords fall together, Wang Xuan, who had fallen back, was completely shrouded. The ghost wings behind Wang Xuan created a gust of wind. With the help of this gust of wind, he turned his upper body to the right and left. The giant arm of Warcraft suddenly swept out sideways.

This time, without the power of the blue crystal scales, dazzling white rays of light burst out.

These rays of light gathered around his beast arm, forming metal parts and mechanical shells one by one.

These white glowing parts combine with the shell to form a giant robotic arm over two meters in length.

This is the left arm of the Mechanicus.

It was suddenly used by Xiaojiao before, and a single blow completely destroyed a mantis king. Wang Xuan saw it at that time, and his heart was moved.

Because the power of the mechanical giant arm's blow has faintly surpassed the limit of the state, it is by no means the strength that the master of the state can exert.

But why isn't world power suppressing constraints? Could it be that the power of the mechanical * is not bound by the rules of this world?

This made him think of the Dread King and the Book of Titans for a moment.

These two existences are also not bound by the forces of this world.

All this flashed between his thoughts. When he lost to the giant mantis and was forced to fall back, he was already summoning the powertrain in the induction fusion body to sense the crystal belonging to the mechanical god, and finally Successfully condensed the left arm of this mechanical god.

Compared with the little girl, Wang Xuan was the one who really used blood to activate the Mechanic God's crystal. At this moment, the crystal was sensed, and the Mechanic God's giant arm appeared. It was almost just a thought. He waved it out sideways.

A crisp sound of "Crack", the giant mechanical arm smashed into the forelimb sword of the giant mantis, which was slashed over. This sharp forelimb sword now seemed to be too fragile to be attacked, and it shattered in an instant.

The clanging sound of "Kaocha" was endless, and the smashed forelimbs broke off one by one. The giant mechanical arm smashed from left to right on the side of the giant mantis who was pounced on it.

With a sound of "wave", the giant king mantis, who was unharmed even in the flames, was flowing with black light. , it was completely broken from it, the head was attached to the small half of the body, and it flew straight out.

The power of this blow is simply appalling.

One blow smashed the terrifying giant mantis into two pieces, watching its upper body fly out, Wang Xuan swayed, as if drunk, and rushed forward two steps, the giant arm of the mechanical * outside his left arm, Disappearing, re-turning into streaks of white rainbow light, immersing in his body and disappearing.

The power of the giant arm of the mechanical * can not be suppressed by the power of this world, and it can burst out with power beyond the limit of the state, killing the giant mantis instantly, but the load on Wang Xuan's body is also extremely powerful, and his physical energy is like being hollowed out.

Fortunately, he had the water of physical strength, so he was busy taking out a bottle and drinking it.

A white scale appeared and sank into his right hand. At this point, he was completely confirmed that the giant mantis was dead.

As soon as the giant mantis died, the remaining mantis kings became terrified. Although they were six-star monsters, they had no intention of fighting at the moment, and immediately turned around and fled.

As soon as they fled, the thousands of ghost mantis and elite ghost mantis army began to rout across the board.

Looking at all directions, countless ghost mantises receding like a tide, everyone looked at each other, and there was no blood on everyone's face, only exhaustion.

Even the powerful five leaders are no exception.

Among them, there were already people who were retreating. If Wang Xuan could no longer kill the giant mantis, they would choose to give up, flee back to Worm Town, and leave here.

"The boss has always said that if you help, it will be backfired by the rules, and you will need to pay a huge price, but fortunately, I am allowed to leave when I am in danger, so I don't have to stay here. It seems that the boss has decided to give up the insect town this time. If I escape from here, It's not difficult, but it's a pity that there are more than 3,000 people in Insect Town..."

Among the five leaders, the leader of the Justice League was the first to back off. His thoughts turned and he looked at the other leaders with hesitation. He was about to ask them what they meant, but at this moment, Wang Xuan suddenly launched the mechanical giant. The arm, with a slamming blow, smashed the giant king mantis into two pieces, followed closely, and the mantis king and the ghost mantis fled across the board.

This huge change made him open his mouth slightly, revealing an incredible look.

Although he knew that Wang Xuan was strong, otherwise he would not be able to kill the three messengers who came down from "Rakshasa City" in a row, but he fully witnessed the process of Wang Xuan's fight with the three messengers, and there was a certain element of luck, so he was very lucky.

He thought in his heart that even if Wang Xuan was a little stronger, under the same limit as the perfect state, his strength was limited.

This giant mantis is a super-existent existence, no matter if it is their five leaders or Wang Xuan, they are not enough to fight against it.

Only now did he realize that he had still far underestimated Wang Xuan.

Xiaojiao also used the left arm of the mechanical * to kill a mantis king before, but the strength of the mantis king is far less than that of the giant mantis, and the five leaders can also be killed. Now Wang Xuan also used the left arm of the mechanical god. Killing the giant king mantis can really cause their shock.

Almost everyone was looking at Wang Xuan.

The insect wave came fast and retreated faster. The army of thousands of ghost mantises quickly retreated cleanly, leaving only the corpses on the ground.

Insect wave, is it over?

Wang Xuan's physical strength gradually recovered, and he looked up to the north, but saw the black shadow that was twenty meters tall in the distance, getting bigger and bigger, and it seemed to be closer to them.

A whistling sounded, this time the whistling sound was extremely close to them. From Wang Xuan's hearing, the existence of the whistling whistling was probably only a thousand or two kilometers away from them.

In the distance, there are a large number of undulating hills of varying heights, and between the hills, stands a huge black shadow like a black hill.

The shadow was moving, approaching them, and that roar completely swept through the entire Insect Town and the north.

King bug, here we come.

Originally, everyone was shocked by Wang Xuan's blow just now, but they were all attracted by Wang Zong. They turned around and looked into the distance.

Across a distance of one or two kilometers, this mysterious king worm finally revealed his true appearance.

All those who saw Wang Zong for the first time were instinctively shaken.

They never thought that there would be such a huge bug in this world~www.mtlnovel.com~ This king bug is a giant bug.

Looking at the appearance, it looks like a maggot that has been magnified countless times, but the whole body is dark and dull, and it is so huge that it is inestimable.

The height of light exceeds twenty meters, and the body length spans several small hills, at least more than 100 meters.

Wang Xuan finally understood why Xu Jian said before that they couldn't kill Wang Zong.

Such a behemoth, even if they threw piles of explosive crystals over it, they would not be able to blow it up, let alone kill it with their ability.

Unless you use the Book of Giants.

But between life and death, he will not use it casually.

The king worm let out a strange whistle again, and now Wang Xuan could finally see clearly, the mouthpart opened in front of the king worm was as big as a house, and could easily swallow a group of people.

With this whistling, he suddenly felt the eye of terror in his forehead vibrate.

He has been remotely controlling the Green Poison Lord through the Eye of Fear, and can sense the situation in the insect town, but now, deep in the Green Poison Lord's soul, an unknown force suddenly arises, which is offsetting the fear he planted in the Green Poison Lord. seed.

The Green Poison Lord begins to break free from his grip.

"No, the king bug is summoning the green poison lord?"

Wang Xuan immediately understood what had happened, and his heart was awe-inspiring. The Eye of Fear in the middle of his forehead immediately began to release a powerful force of fear, strengthening his control over the Green Poison Lord.

The two sides were separated by a kilometer or two, using the spiritual soul of the green poison lord as the battlefield, and they fought.

Wang Xuan understands that it is not so much that he is fighting the king bug, but that he represents the power of the fearful king. This is the battle between the fearful king and the king bug.
