

Last Building on Earth Chapter 276-280

Chapter 276

No One Can Match

The black-robed man burst into two pieces, and the storage belt around his waist was destroyed. Wang Xuan took a step forward and tore off the storage belt of the black-robed man he had killed earlier.

Just tucked into his Xumi belt, the black-robed man flashed in front of him, and at least a dozen black-robed men appeared.

Every black-robed man stared at him with a look of anger, anger, shock, and disbelief.

Wang Xuan raised his head and saw the familiar Elder Xuancheng and Rakshasa inside. Elder Phoenix and Elder Wangcheng also appeared. Among the five major cities, Phoenix City had the most black-robed people. The remaining four, and besides the elders in Wangcheng, there are five black-robed men, all gathered here at this moment.

Wang Xuan's guess was right. Elder Xuancheng and Elder Luosha returned to the five major cities and immediately gathered all the remaining elders and black-robed people to gather in Phoenix City to discuss countermeasures. They just didn't expect Wang Xuan to appear alone. There was a trace of surprise and shock in Xiang Wang Xuan's eyes.

"Wang Xuan, you're deceiving people too much!" Elder Xuancheng looked at the two fallen corpses of black-robed men. Although they belonged to "Phoenix City", his black-robed body was still shaking slightly, and he was obviously extremely angry. .

He regretted that he didn't kill Wang Xuan when he was still weak, and now he has become a climate.

His black robe rose up, and the tentacles of octopus stretched out. The elder Rakshasa next to him took a step back and suddenly shouted: "Everyone shot together, suppress him first!" It exploded the enhancement halo one after another, and first enhanced the strength for everyone.

The movement here disturbed the entire Phoenix City, and people woke up one after another, showing their figures, and looking towards this place.

"This Wang Xuan was swallowed by his own hatching beast and turned into a monster. Everyone immediately shot and killed him!"

Elder Phoenix suddenly raised his voice and let out a shout, her voice spread far away.

She is the only woman among the elders of the five cities, and among the five elders, she is the leader.

Following her shout, it spread throughout the entire "Phoenix City", immediately alarming all the super-powerful people in the city.

Suddenly, one after another silhouettes began to pour out from the buildings everywhere.

Wang Xuan didn't speak, but suddenly shot and rushed towards the oncoming elder Xuancheng.

He understands that it is meaningless to explain too much at this moment. In this world, power is justice. As long as this group of monsters can be killed, it will naturally shock other people. At that time, they will believe everything they say, and now they want to explain or convince them. They are impossible.

Elder Xuancheng let out a violent roar, crushing a defensive crystal.

For Wang Xuan, he was also fearful.

With the fear in his heart, Wang Xuan opened the eyes of fear and immediately magnified the fear infinitely.

The people in black robes all around have obtained the enhancement aura, their strength has improved, and they are infinitely close to the seventh form.

A black-robed man from "Phoenix City", with one hand and both arms glowing, released countless luminous threads on it. These threads were woven like spider webs, appearing from all directions, intertwined with a desire to trap Wang Xuan.

A black-robed man from "Wangcheng", a large number of green runes rose up around his body, and these green runes gathered towards Wang Xuan under his control.

The functions of these green runes are similar to Bai Qianxue's rune formation, but there are some differences between the two sides.

Bai Qianxue's rune formation can suppress the speed and strength of the enemy, and these green runes carry a curse, which can affect and interfere with people's thinking, and the effect is similar to Wang Xuan's Eye of Fear.

Wang Xuan is not afraid of these super-extreme powerhouses. Instead, he is afraid of these black-robed people with auxiliary abilities. Once they are allowed to use all kinds of auxiliary abilities, they will be suppressed no matter how strong they are. Before, Xuanzhu could be killed by them. , the main reason is that they were suppressed by the abilities of Bai Qianxue and Mei Xiaosen, which weakened their combat power.

Almost at the same time as Elder Phoenix shouted, Wang Xuan seemed to pounce on Elder Xuancheng, but at the same time as Elder Xuancheng crushed the defense crystal, he stumbled and changed direction.

In order to be able to kill with one blow, Wang Xuan launched the "Ghost Car Night Walk" and the mechanical arm of the **** at the same time.

A large number of luminous metal parts appeared, which combined to form a two-meter-long mechanical arm. With a single blow, this is the power and speed of the seventh form. Live, let alone the black-robed man of the super-state limit level.

The man in black, who was controlling a lot of light and wanted to entangle Wang Xuan, didn't have time to react, so he was blown up by the arm of the mechanical god, and he didn't even have time to scream.

In just a short period of time, three of the six black-robed men in Phoenix City were killed by Wang Xuan.

When activating the arm of the mechanical god, Wang Xuan entered the "Ghost Car Night Walk". In the strange sound, he approached the black-robed man from Wangcheng who was controlling the green rune and killed him.

Two more groups of white light appeared, poured into his body, and concentrated on the outside of his right leg. These energies converged and kept stirring, as if they were about to break through the outside of his right leg and grow new wings.

However, as the ghost car continues to grow and evolve, after the appearance of four wings, the power of the ghost car becomes more and more powerful, and the energy needed to grow further becomes more terrifying. Although Wang Xuan has absorbed the white light, he has not succeeded in growing it. fifth wing.

Quickly took out a bottle of physical strength water and drank it. Wang Xuan put away the arm of the mechanical **** and killed the two men in black robes who could threaten his support. The rest were in an uproar. They all instinctively retreated. At this time, they remembered the defense crystal, and took them out one after another. However, Wang Xuan turned around in the ghost car at night, and deceived the elder Xuancheng.

Outside, a group of super-powerful people appeared, and the powerhouses in Phoenix City were gathering here, but when they saw Wang Xuanshun killing the two men in black robes, fear rose in their hearts.

The eyes of fear that Wang Xuan opened were constantly absorbing the power of fear released by everyone. He killed two men in black robes, and then turned around. The defensive light curtain in front of Elder Xuancheng, who had just crushed the defensive crystal, just disappeared. , Wang Xuan raised his hands.

Elder Xuancheng let out a roar, and the black robe outside his body shattered, revealing the real half-human, half-octopus appearance.

"Fairy Wood"

With the enhancement of Elder Rakshasa's halo, he already possesses the strength of the seventh form.

The elder Wang Cheng on the other side also shot.

Elder Wang Cheng's black robe was close to his body, almost merging with his body, with black scales the size of palms appearing on the surface. His body was elongated, covered with black scales, and quickly turned into a human-shaped scale monster with two sides of his mouth cracked. Under the ear, fangs grew out of it, turned into a big mouth, and let out a roar of filial piety;

At this moment, Wang Xuan was still in the "ghost car driving at night". The energy on the outside of his right leg was surging. He had just drunk the strength of his stamina, and a large amount of his lost stamina was recovering frantically. The eyes opened, and Elder Xuancheng was captured by the power of fear. Although the octopus tentacles that were fully activated bound Wang Xuan, he found that Wang Xuan's body was broken like glass, and what he bound was only a residual image of Wang Xuan.

A giant arm of beast appeared, swept sideways, smashed into a large number of octopus tentacles, and the tentacles burst apart, Elder Xuancheng roared wildly, and flew out involuntarily, his body twisted and deformed, almost folded in half. When he came over, Wang Xuan pushed his body and bumped into the retreating Rakshasa elder on the other side.

Elder Rakshasa's enhanced halo can strengthen the fighting power of the people around him. Wang Xuan locked him early, pushed Elder Xuancheng and bumped into Elder Rakshasa. At a distance of one or two meters, he couldn't keep up with Wang Xuan's speed.

Two metal tentacles appeared silently, from left to right to the middle, entangling the retreating Rakshasa Elder, pulling it back, and swinging out the giant arm of the monster on the left, hitting the Xuancheng Elder first, piercing his body, and then banging Chinese Rakshasa elder.

The elder Rakshasa roared, raised his arms, and an incomparably huge halo exploded. With a bang, Wang Xuan couldn't avoid it this time. With two claws, he cut open the outer mechanical shell of Wang Xuan's body and grabbed it into the flesh and blood.

Two other men in black robes attacked from the left and the right. One of the black robes stretched out a pitch-black python and wrapped around Wang Xuan. come over.

Although Wang Xuan is strong, he is not a strong man in the seventh form after all. These elders and the black-robed man have all tried their best. With so many people shooting together, and with the enhancement aura to improve his combat power, he can't resist no matter how strong he is, and he is immediately injured. .

Feeling that steel claws were grabbed into his body, Wang Xuan turned his upper body without hesitation, the giant arm of the beast swept out horizontally, and the outer ghost wing was as sharp as a knife. The head rolled to the ground.

As soon as the thought moved, the two metal tentacles shrank back, and there was a crisp "snap". The arm of the black-robed man holding the luminous war knife shook, the war knife was hit by the metal tentacles, and the body was also hit by the tentacles, knocking him down. fly out.

Wang Xuan let out a low roar, the power of the demon beasts, the ghost car and the blue crystal scales burst out, blue dim light appeared one after another, his arms shook, and the giant pythons wrapped around his body broke immediately. He got out of trouble, kicked his feet on the ground, the ground collapsed, and the pair of ghost wings behind him shook violently and rose into the air, like lightning hitting Elder Rakshasa.

Two groups of white rays of light appeared from the bodies of Elder Xuancheng and Elder Wang Cheng, and submerged into Wang Xuan's body. The energy in the outer side of his right leg surged, and Elder Rakshasa, who was hit, let out a violent roar. His whole body was covered in blood, and the halo exploded just now. It was a near-self-destructing ultimate move. Although it hurt Wang Xuan, he was also seriously injured.

In just a short period of time, only Elder Phoenix, Elder Rakshasa, and a dozen or so black-robed people are still alive. Other super-powerful people in Phoenix City have gathered around them one after another. Some of these black-robed people have begun to give in. , wants to let other super-powerful players take action and let them act as cannon fodder.

Wang Xuan let these people attack him frantically, and launched the "Mechanical God Arm" again.

This two-meter-long mechanical god's arm was struck from the air, and its power was incredible. Under one blow, a black-robed man from Wangcheng couldn't even scream, and was smashed into flesh by the mechanical god's arm. Immediately die.

Wang Xuan stretched out his arms, completely blasting the upper body of the severely injured Rakshasa Elder, and a white light appeared and submerged in his body.

With the death of Elder Rakshasa, only the last black-robed man remained in the entire Rakshasa City.

Elder Phoenix did not take action, but seized the opportunity and retreated violently.

She saw that the current Wang Xuan was unstoppable. This was already the seventh form of terrifying existence. Only the five major city lords could fight against it. It would be useless for them to rush up to them, but their lives would be in danger. Now the most important thing is Just get out of here and report the situation.

Wang Xuan killed the elder Rakshasa, put away the arm of the mechanical god, and at the same time, seven or eight kinds of attacks came towards him crazily. A blue and white lightning flashed towards him.

It can be said that except for a few people in black robes who are still alive, almost all of them have shot. Of course, there are also a few super-powers who are the fastest and most powerful.

They didn't know why, they believed the words of Elder Phoenix, and seeing Wang Xuan slaughtering the elders and the black-robed people so frantically, they naturally became monsters. They needed to do everything possible to join forces to kill this monster.

In their eyes, Wang Xuan at this moment is a monster.

Fortunately, the elder Rakshasa has died and lost the enhancement aura. The attack strength of these black-robed people has declined, which is equivalent to the level of normal super-extreme powerhouses.

With one enemy, Wang Xuan was unable to confront him head-on, and immediately entered the "Ghost Car Night Walk".

The speed of all attacks is slowing down. Wang Xuan's Eye of Fear emits a powerful force of fear. These people are afraid of themselves. Under the control of the force of fear, they are all affected. .

Wang Xuan's body left a trail of afterimages in the air, avoiding various attacks such as black light, blue and white lightning, and poisonous arrows all over the sky. A metal tentacle volleyed out, carrying a trail of blue dim light. That can fire poison arrows, and the black-robed woman from Xuancheng smashed her head into pieces.

The giant arm of the beast swung out, and driven by the ghost wings, the speed was comparable to the existence of the seventh form. A ghost wing, cut across the neck, and cut off the head.

This battle has become crazy. Under the "ghost car night" and the fear, the gap between Wang Xuan and these black robes at this moment is even greater than the ten of them facing the mysterious master before.

Facing the Profound Master, they were at least double suppressed by Mei Xiaosen and Bai Qianxue, and they were barely able to resist, resist, and even counter-kill. At this moment, these black-robed men who had fallen into fear were infinitely magnified by Wang Xuan's eyes of fear. Fear in the heart, all kinds of actions and attacks are affected.

This kind of battle of the strong, even if the strength is equal, a slight difference is the difference between life and death, not to mention that their strength is not as good as Wang Xuan.

A scream sounded, Wang Xuan sacrificed four ghost wings, turned into nearly a hundred black steel feathers, and instantly pierced the body of a black-robed man who could control the sucker tentacles.

The black-robed man was pierced by nearly a hundred steel feathers and screamed. These steel feathers twisted in his body and split apart in all directions. The black-robed man's body instantly turned into countless pieces and scattered.

This is the last black-robed man in Rakshasa City. With his death, the entire Rakshasa city was occupied by the monsters that hatched beasts. Except for the Rakshasa King who entered the upper world and did not return, the remaining company elders came to the black-robed man. All dead.

Those super-powers who rushed from afar, originally shot in a row, attacking Wang Xuan, never expected Wang Xuan to be so terrifying, their attacks were all in vain, but Wang Xuan even killed Heipao people, it was simply unstoppable. , they were afraid, and under the control of Wang Xuan's Eye of Fear, they began to become dull.

Wang Xuan ignored them. His main goal was to kill all the black robes and the elders of the phoenix, and remove all these monsters.

Soon two more people in black robes died, and now there are only two people in black robes in Xuancheng, Phoenix City, and Wangcheng, and one person in black robes in Justice City, plus Elder Phoenix who has escaped into the crowd.

The seven black-robed men, four of them, like Elder Phoenix, mixed into the surging superpowers from all directions, and were fleeing into the distance. The remaining three black-robed men and a group of superpowers were besieging them frantically.

The more chaotic he was, the more Wang Xuan felt the power of the "Eye of Fear".

The more these people fear themselves, the more powerful his Eye of Fear is. Under the ubiquitous fear, it is difficult for these people to form an effective encirclement attack on him.

With the help of the "ghost car at night", he infiltrated the crowd so that these people could not be besieged, captured the black-robed man, and launched a deadly attack.

He drank a bottle of stamina water again and activated the mechanical arm, and now his remaining stamina water was reduced to only 47 bottles.

The mechanical god's arm accurately smashed a black-robed man, and the remaining two black-robed men who were under siege were quickly killed by him. Now only Elder Phoenix and four black-robed men escaped.

In all directions, there are super powerhouses in Phoenix City~www.mtlnovel.com~ but at this moment, they are controlled and affected by the power of fear. Looking at Wang Xuan, there is a look of fear on their faces, but they still do not hesitate to shoot and move towards He attacked.

Wang Xuan did not fight back, but launched the "ghost car armor", while defending and dodging, by the way, he tore off the undamaged storage belts on the corpses of these black-robed men, and put them in his Xumi mustard seed space.

"These so-called elders and guardians that I killed have all been swallowed up by hatching beasts and turned into monsters. They disguised themselves as humans and controlled the five major cities. They want to turn all of us into monsters, but you are all deceived. —"

Wang Xuan's voice spread far and wide, and while speaking, he rushed forward and rushed into the group of people facing him, chasing the direction that Elder Phoenix was fleeing.

He ignored the crowd's reaction, and whether they believed it or not, it didn't matter now.

As long as these monsters are killed, these people are not stupid, and sooner or later they will understand the truth.

Hearing Wang Xuan's words, the people in Phoenix City showed shocking and inexplicable expressions.

Elder Phoenix said that Wang Xuan was a monster that was devoured by hatching beasts, but now Wang Xuan said Elder Phoenix and the others were monsters. Which one of them is true?

Wang Xuan's speed was terrifying. In the darkness of the night, he shot extremely fast. The direction that Elder Phoenix and the four men in black robes were fleeing was the No. 9 safe zone.

Chapter 277

Amazing harvest

Although some people wanted to shoot at Wang Xuan, but due to the power of fear, the attack stopped a little, and Wang Xuan dodged to avoid them. robe man.

He jumped out of the walls of Phoenix City, caught up with a black-robed man who had fallen to the back, and activated the mechanical **** arm in the air.

The power of the mechanical god's arm is so powerful, the man in black robe was desperate and could not escape, and was instantly killed by the mechanical god's arm.

The only people who are still alive now are the Phoenix elders, two black-robed men from Phoenix City, and one black-robed man from Wangcheng. The other four elders and all the black-robed men are dead.

With a blow of the mechanical god's arm, his physical strength was exhausted, and he immediately took out a bottle of physical strength water and drank it.

He still has 46 bottles of primary stamina water left.

After drinking the water of physical strength, the feeling of being slightly exhausted disappeared immediately, and the lost physical strength was rapidly recovering.

Taking out the storage belt tied around the waist of the black-robed man, Wang Xuan accelerated again.

Originally, Elder Phoenix and a few people in black robes fled in the direction of the No. 9 safe zone at full speed. Elder Phoenix was the fastest and had already rushed out of the forest, approaching the No. 9 safe zone. The three black-robed men who fell behind were just Leaving Phoenix City and seeing Wang Xuan chasing after them, the three men in black robes immediately dispersed and ran wildly in three different directions.

Wang Xuan took out a primary tracking crystal again, activated it, recorded the breath of Elder Phoenix and the three black-robed men, and then selected the black-robed men who continued to pursue them towards the No. 9 safe zone.

The four ghost wings fanned together, generating a huge thrust, and accelerated again, sweeping 20 to 30 meters. In order to speed up the battle, the mechanical **** arm was activated again.

With his own speed and the speed of the mechanical god's arm hitting out from the air, he instantly killed the black-robed man from a distance of more than ten meters.

After getting his storage belt and putting it away, Wang Xuan changed direction and chased the black-robed man running to the left.

The black-robed man who ran to the left was panicking. Although he had already run to forty or fifty meters away, he was quickly overtaken and killed by Wang Xuan, and then chased after the last black-robed man fleeing in the other direction.

The man in black robe had already fled hundreds of meters away. Fortunately, he used the tracking crystal to record the aura of the man in black robe. According to the breath, he found him three minutes later and killed him.

So far, all the black-robed people in the five major cities have been killed by him.

Now, there is only one Phoenix elder left.

With the help of the tracking crystal, Wang Xuan left the forest and entered the No. 9 safe area.

According to the breath, Elder Phoenix passed through the teleportation formation in the No. 9 safe zone.

Wang Xuan entered the teleportation formation, teleported to the central city, and immediately caught the breath of Elder Phoenix.

At this moment, the central city seemed quiet in the night, and there were hardly any people in sight. Wang Xuan followed his breath and chased him to the skill building. Elder Phoenix's breath remained at the stone gate of the primary skill, and then stopped.

Wang Xuan understood, Elder Phoenix should understand that wherever he fled, he might be caught up by him using the tracking crystal. The best way is to escape into the central city and enter the skill stone gate.

No matter how talented Wang Xuan is, even if he catches up to the skill stone gate, the space that everyone enters is unique, and it is impossible for him to find Elder Phoenix in the stone gate.

Wang Xuan looked at the primary skill Shimen, thinking that every ten medium crystals could stay for an hour if he wanted to enter it. With the cunning of Elder Phoenix, no one knew how many medium crystals he paid and how long he would hide inside.

Wang Xuan stopped talking, and sat down with his knees in the middle.

Although Elder Phoenix escaped into the Shimen, he would have to come out sooner or later. He did not believe that Elder Phoenix could stay inside for a few days.

"Ten medium-sized crystal scales in one hour, one hundred in ten hours... Elder Phoenix fled here and chose to hide in the primary skill Shimen, but I don't know how many crystal scales she took out..."

Wang Xuan decided to stay here for a day. After a day, Mei Xiaosen and the others should have also broken through. Now they are betting on how many crystal scales Elder Phoenix took out and how long have they been hiding in the stone gate of this primary skill.

Calm down, open the Xumi mustard seed space, and take out the spoils of war that were harvested from killing the elders and the black-robed people before.

In addition to the damaged ones, this time he got thirteen storage belts.

"These guys should have entered the super state very early, and they are almost under one person in the five major cities. I don't know if there are any good things for such a long time savings."

Because it was night, he was the only one who was silent here, and Wang Xuan had no scruples. He casually opened one of the belts and poured out the contents stored inside.

Counting carefully, there are 416 medium crystal scales, 83 small crystal scales, 67 bottles of advanced nutrient solution, 32 bottles of primary physical strength water, 15 bottles of intermediate physical strength water, 45 bottles of primary healing water, and 3 bottles of intermediate healing water. Water, 5 primary tracking crystals, 12 primary defense crystals, and a large number of explosive crystals, smoke crystals, flame spar, lighting crystals and other materials, because there were too many, he was too lazy to count them.

Among them, he was most interested in a dark cyan fruit. Looking at it with the eyes of the illustrated book, it was the soul-boosting fruit, which could nourish people's spiritual soul.

He had also obtained a soul-boosting fruit before, but he had never used it, because according to the introduction, using this soul-boosting fruit was dangerous, so he didn't dare to eat it casually, and he didn't want to store one in this belt.

After that, the other twelve belts were poured out one by one, and a large amount of materials were piled up, so much that Wang Xuan's eyes flooded. It can be said that the harvest of this trip is simply amazing.

Among them, the number of medium-sized crystal scales he needs most urgently, the number of these thirteen storage belts has reached 7,162. In addition to the 192 pieces he originally owned, the number of medium-sized crystal scales he now owns has reached 7,354 pieces.

The number of small crystal scales is 1438, adding to the 428 he originally owned, it reached 1866.

In addition to this crystal scale, the number of the most important defensive crystals has also reached 109.

As for the number of advanced nutrient solutions exceeding 1,000 bottles, there are 436 bottles of primary stamina water, 213 bottles of intermediate stamina water, 32 primary tracking crystals, 5 intermediate tracking crystals, and the remaining explosive crystals, smoke crystals, etc. He does not have the number. Counting them one by one, there are hundreds or thousands of them according to the small number.

In addition, there are a number of equipment. Wang Xuan's ghost armor has been damaged, and he replaced it with a new ghost armor. The ghost five-piece set was reassembled, and the ghost stealth skill was activated again.

In addition to these, there are also mechanical beast equipment. The various mechanical beast equipment in these thirteen storage belts are gathered together to collect all the medium crystals.

Wang Xuan opened Xiaojiao's crystal face list, took off the initial energy shield crystal, the initial flame claw crystal, and the initial mechanical head armor crystal, and replaced them with a medium energy shield and a medium weapon crystal flame. Claws and mid-level green-patterned mechanical head armor.

Now, all six pieces of Xiaojiao's crystals have become medium, and Xiaojiao's strength has been greatly improved, and Wang Xuan is in a state of integration with Xiaojiao, and his strength has also risen, especially the power of the mechanical god's arm. certain improvement.

He released Xiaojiao to the side and put away all thirteen storage belts. The biggest gain this time was more than 7,000 medium-sized crystal scales.

"With these more than 7,000 crystal scales, you can enter the advanced skill stone gate."

A smile appeared on Wang Xuan's face. He had already mastered both the primary hatching beast skill "Metal Toughness" and the intermediate skill "active metal", and now he was only missing the advanced hatching beast skill.

Every time you master a hatching beast skill, the strength of the beast will be amazingly improved, but if you want to enter the high-level skill Shimen, you need a thousand intermediate crystal scales in one hour.

Now that he has more than 7,000 pieces, he can stay in the high-level skill stone gate for seven hours. He believes that he should be able to comprehend and master the high-level hatching beast skill. At that time, his strength will be improved.

Restraining his mind, Wang Xuan sat cross-legged and began to slowly sense the power of the world everywhere, trying to control it.

Although he had tried it before, he was still not sure enough. Wang Xuan did not dare to directly introduce the power of the world into his body to make a breakthrough like Mei Xiaosen and the others.

He is not yet experienced in controlling the power of the world, and he still needs to keep practicing and trying to accumulate experience.

I don't know how long it has passed, the sky is getting brighter, the night has passed, and people's voices gradually came from outside, and suddenly Xiaojiao let out a low growl, it was guarding the door, intimidating two people who wanted to come in.

The two were a little surprised. They didn't seem to expect to see a giant mechanical dog guarding the door and making a gesture of attacking them.

They stopped and saw Wang Xuan sitting cross-legged inside, suddenly his face changed greatly, and he immediately retreated.

They came from "Phoenix City". They also saw what happened last night in "Phoenix City" from a distance. When they suddenly saw Wang Xuan here, they were so terrified that they immediately shrank back.

The matter of "Phoenix City" last night had already spread throughout the five major cities. Almost all the elders of the five cities and the people in black robes were killed. People were panicking, and there were various discussions about this matter.

The two suddenly saw Wang Xuan in the skill stone gate. After they retreated, the news spread quickly. In a short period of time, everyone in the central city knew that the elders of the five cities and the people in black robes were all killed last night. The murderous demon king Xuan who killed was in the skill building at the moment.

Those who can enter the third floor are all super-powerful, basically the best among human beings, and they will not follow blindly. After calming down, they began to think about it while dealing with the bodies of the elders and those in black robes. From the beginning to the end, think about what Elder Phoenix and Wang Xuan said at the time, which side said the truth.

If Wang Xuanzhen was attacked by the hatching beasts and turned into a monster as they said, why did he only kill the elders and the black-robed people, but did not do anything to them?

Even when they attacked, Wang Xuan only tried to dodge or defend as much as possible, and did not attack a single person. Compared with the elders and the black-robed men who became half-human and half-monsters, Wang Xuan was a normal human being. In comparison, many of them had a faint idea in their hearts. Compared with what Elder Phoenix and the others said, they gradually began to believe in everything Wang Xuan said.

These elders and black-robed people are afraid that they have been attacked by hatching beasts and become monsters, but there is something they can't figure out, that is, if these elders and black-robed people really become monsters, they are still with them. Peaceful coexistence does not strike anyone, which seems to make no sense.

All kinds of inexplicable doubts appeared in everyone's mind. When they learned that Wang Xuan was in the skill building in the central city, a group of people entered the central city soon, and after a while, they gathered outside the skill building.

Since Wang Xuan didn't take action against them last night, he probably won't take action today. They have too many doubts and want to ask Wang Xuan.

Eventually, some people came out, as representatives, ready to enter the building and ask questions.

Among these people, there are You Kai, Sun Yaofei and Yi Wu from "Ghost Town", as well as Mou Xing, Chu Dong and Xi Muxue from "Sand Town". They are all familiar with Wang Xuan and have fought side by side. , of course, among them are Gu Manyao, Zhang Haofei, Zhao Lei, Bai Yan, Tie Jun, Yu Shanshan, and Yao Tiande.

Yu Shanshan and Yao Tiande finally succeeded in being promoted to super status, and came to this third-layer world with the clown mask that Wang Xuan gave them before.

They are all super-powerful now. After these days of hard work, not only have they replaced all third-order flawless quality equipment, but their strength has been greatly improved. When they learned that what happened last night in "Phoenix City" Afterwards, everyone was stunned.

Wang Xuan was attacked by the hatching beast and killed all the elders and black-robed people of the five major cities in one go?

Of course, what corresponds to this rumor is what Wang Xuan said in Phoenix City before, that the elders of the five cities and the people in black robes have long been swallowed up by the hatching beasts and have become monsters.

These two rumors appeared at the same time. For Gu Manyao, Zhao Lei and others, it was naturally an unconditional choice to believe in Wang Xuan.

I believe that Wang Xuan must have discovered the truth, so he killed all these monsters. The only shock is that Wang Xuan's strength is completely beyond imagination.

Zhang Haofei, who originally wanted to wrestle with Wang Xuan, was even more stunned when he heard this, and then kept shaking his head and sighing.

"Pervert... This guy is a pervert..."

Zhang Haofei's eyes were dull, and he shook his head and muttered to himself.

When they knew that Wang Xuan was in the central city, they all rushed over and wanted to see him.

Outside the skill building, more and more people gathered. Wang Xuan, who was in meditation, frowned slightly, opened his eyes, beckoned, and let the little girl who was guarding outside the door retreat.

Zhao Lei took the lead in a single step.

"Wang Xuan, I heard that you killed the elders of the five cities and those black-robed people last night?"

Wang Xuan grinned slightly and nodded.

Seeing Wang Xuan's familiar smile and feeling, Zhao Lei immediately breathed a sigh of relief, realizing that what was in front of him was the former Wang Xuan, and he had not turned into a monster.

Then there are Gu Manyao, Zhang Haofei, Tie Jun, Bai Yan, Yu Shanshan and Yao Tiande, and then you Kai, Mou Xing, Xi Muxue and others.

Seeing that Gu Manyao, Tie Jun and the others were all gathered around to talk to Wang Xuan, You Kai, Mou Xing, Xi Muxue and the others looked at each other with thoughtful expressions in their eyes. Not like being devoured by hatchlings.

So by the same token, if Wang Xuan is normal, are the elders of the five cities and those people in black robes really monsters?

This idea is terrifying, and it makes everyone feel a little chilly. If these elders and black-robed people are monsters, what about the other high-level human beings in the five major cities?

There is also a group of super-powerful people gathered at the entrance of the building. Their strength has basically reached the peak or even the limit level. They are the strongest under the group of Mei Xiaosen, Bai Qianxue and Wu Tian. The elders and the man in black robe were killed, and when Mei Xiaosen, Bai Qianxue and the others were gone, the human beings in the five major cities basically followed their lead.

"Wang Xuan, tell me what's going on? Are the elders you killed really monsters?" Zhao Lei was a little impatient.

Zhang Haofei asked another question of interest to him: "Didn't you say that these elders are all super powers? You can kill them all by yourself. Did you break through the super power?"

Wang Xuan ignored Zhang Haofei's question, but looked at Zhao Lei and said, "Yes, the elders of the five cities, those black-robed people, including the masters of the five cities, were all devoured by the hatching beasts and devoured the human soul consciousness and turned into monsters. But they have been pretending to be human, and their real purpose is only those who have hope of breaking through the superstate."

"When these people want to break through the super state, they will interfere and let them be swallowed by the hatching beasts and become monsters. The Lord of the Five Cities is the monster who successfully broke through, while the elders of the Five Cities and these black-robed men are failures. By."

Listening to Wang Xuan's explanation, the expressions of the people around them changed, and their backs felt cold.

"I know this news from Mei Xiaosen, Bai Qianxue, Wu Tian, Fang Taozhong, and Chang Jing. They are the first to know the truth."

Wang Xuan knew that the gathering outside should be a group of people who are currently at the core of the five major cities, so he no longer concealed it, and made Mei Xiaosen want to seek a breakthrough and find them. A group of people who joined forces to kill was told in detail.

The more these people listened, the more shocked they became~www.mtlnovel.com~ Soon, many people walked in at the door of the building, and many of them were just entering the super-state limit. Compared with Mei Xiaosen and Bai Qianxue, they , it's just a little bit of sharpening savings.

After hearing that the elders of the five cities and the people in Heipao only attacked those who had the hope of breaking through, some of them finally couldn't help but said, "I see, it's no wonder that King Rakshasa tried to test me before."

This is a super-extreme powerhouse from Rakshasa City, but not long after he entered the ultimate level, he completely believed Wang Xuan's words, and in retrospect, his back was full of cold sweat.

As he opened his mouth, everyone was talking about their previous doubts and confusions, including the many confusing behaviors of the elders of the five cities and these black-robed people, which they could not understand before, but now they fully understand.

"They have always used the pretext of being attacked by hatching beasts, so they became half-human and half-monster. I was wondering why they were the only ones who were attacked by hatching beasts and turned into monsters? Because I also experienced it once. Similar situation, but it didn't turn into a monster, because I trusted them too much before, so I didn't think much about it, and now I know that's what happened."

"I think of a terrible thing now. As long as someone breaks through the super state, they will interfere and turn them into monsters, so even the Lord of the Five Cities is a monster. Now that the channel is opened, the world above will not be Are they all monsters like this?"

As soon as this sentence came out, the crowded people here all changed their faces.

Thinking of what Wang Xuan said just now, this possibility is very high, and many people become uneasy.

In particular, this group of people is only inferior to Mei Xiaosen and the others. As long as they have enough savings, they are all hopeful to break through. If everything Wang Xuan said is true, then they will also be the focus of these monsters.

Knowing what these people were thinking, Wang Xuan said, "Except for Elder Phoenix who hid in the stone gate with this skill, I killed the remaining elders of the four cities and the people in black robes, and the Lord Xuan and the Lord of Justice are also dead. As long as everyone can Breaking through to the seventh form, why should you be afraid?"

Hearing what Wang Xuan said, everyone understood why he was staying here. At the same time, they also knew that among the Lords of the Five Cities, Lord Xuan and Lord Justice were both dead, which made them feel shocked again. Wang Xuan's strength has reached the end What level?

Everyone thought that Wang Xuan must be the seventh form of powerhouse, otherwise it would be impossible to be so powerful. If they knew that he was actually just a super form, I am afraid that they would be shocked beyond belief.

"If King Rakshasa or other city lords appear, you don't need to confront them head-on. You are all people who have the hope of being promoted to breakthrough, and you all try to protect yourself as much as possible. As for the monsters like King Rakshasa, I will find a way to deal with them. They." Wang Xuan looked at the group of people in front of him, and knew in his heart that if the fourth-layer world was really full of monsters, then this group of people would be the future and hope of mankind, and whoever died would be a huge loss.

Hearing Wang Xuan's advice, everyone felt something, and nodded slightly, indicating that they understood.

After that, they retreated one after another, said goodbye and left here. After knowing the truth, although the original anxiety disappeared, they felt a huge pressure.

If everything is as Wang Xuan said, then what happened last night is only the beginning. The still alive Rakshasa King, Phoenix City Lord, and King City City Lord will never give up, including if the fourth layer of the world really exists as hatching beasts. The world will not forgive them lightly.

They could almost imagine the **** storms that Wang Xuan and their hopeful human beings would encounter next.

The only thing they can do is to improve themselves as much as possible, break through as soon as possible, and be promoted to the seventh form powerhouse.

Watching this group of people leave with a resolute look in their eyes, Wang Xuan understood that most of them agreed with his words and accepted the fact that the elders and the black-robed men had become hatchling beasts, even if he still had doubts in his heart, but they are not stupid, and they will naturally use their own methods to prove it.

In particular, he just mentioned Mei Xiaosen, Bai Qianxue, Wu Tian and others. These people are the most powerful people in the five major cities except for the elders and Heipao people. As long as you find them and ask, you will immediately know what Wang Xuan said. Is it true or false.

They may not completely believe in Wang Xuan, but they will believe in Mei Xiaosen and Bai Qianxue.

Knowing that Wang Xuanshou was here waiting for Elder Phoenix to come out, everyone retreated one after another, and no one dared to disturb him, including You Kai, Sun Yaofei, Mou Xing, Xi Muxue and others also left, only Gu Manyao, who was closest to him, , Zhao Lei, Zhang Haofei, Tie Jun, Bai Yan, Yu Shanshan, Yao Tiande are still here.

In addition to Gu Manyao and Tie Jun, Zhao Lei and Zhang Haofei all have demon gods sleeping in their bodies, with infinite potential, and they are also the objects that Wang Xuan wants to focus on.

If only the three city masters such as the Rakshasa King are monsters, that's fine. What is really scary now is the unknown fourth-layer world. No one knows how many such beasts are swallowed by hatched beasts in the fourth-layer world, but they identify themselves as human beings.

Wang Xuan took out a lot of mechanical beast equipment. These were the spoils of war he just killed the elder and the black-robed man. He had already collected four medium crystals and some extra medium crystals and gave them to everyone.

After the distribution, Gu Manyao's mechanical beast is very good. Now it has a medium-level thunder and lightning claw, a medium-level energy shield, and a medium-level powertrain. The remaining three are still in the initial state.

Zhang Haofei's mechanical bear beast and Zhao Lei's mechanical horse also obtained two intermediate states, and the rest had four initial states.

Others' mechanical beasts have improved.

Seeing that Zhao Lei and Zhang Haofei were still junior storage belts, Wang Xuan took out the intermediate storage belts and asked them to put them on.

After chatting for a while, Wang Xuan asked about their experience and strength improvement in the past few days.

Zhao Lei and Zhang Haofei have demon gods slumbering in their bodies. In the past few days, the power of demon gods has been stimulated, and their strength improvement is quite terrifying. Gu

Although Man Yao did not have a demon god, but possessed the power of blood erosion, among the crowd, the Iron Army became the weakest.

During the chat, Wang Xuan mentioned the drastic changes in the No. 10 safe zone and the city of the Buddhist country.

He is going to bring everyone into the bumper opportunity.

According to Bai Qianxue, there is a lot of hidden treasures in this Buddhist city. Whether you can obtain the treasures depends on the chance. Even if the totems such as the cyan fox and the ancient tree are not by chance, they may not be able to obtain the treasures.

After that, they talked about the strength reaching the super-state limit, and they can perceive the power of the world, draw the power of the world into the body, and then use the power of the world to temper the body and break through the super-state.

Gu Manyao, Zhao Lei and others listened thoughtfully, and decided to try it out for themselves when they had time.

"However, if you are not fully sure, don't let the power of the world enter your body casually. Once you lose control, your body will not be able to withstand it, and you will immediately explode and die." Wang Xuan warned everyone, mentioning the danger of attracting the power of the world.

Everyone nodded in understanding.

"I decided to wait here for a day. If Elder Phoenix doesn't show up within a day, we'll go to the Buddhist city together."

In the end, Wang Xuan and them agreed on a time to meet at the teleportation channel in the central city, and then let them hurry up to prepare, and try to improve themselves while there is still the last bit of time.

Gu Manyao, Zhao Lei and Zhang Haofei left, and soon the place became quiet again, only Wang Xuan and Xiao Jiao were left.

Everyone knew that he was going to snipe Elder Phoenix here, and no one would approach him at will.

Seeing that no one was disturbed, Wang Xuan entered the meditation again, felt the power of the world, and kept trying how to control it precisely, so as not to make any mistakes. After there were basically no mistakes, he would really introduce the power of the world into his body. Make a superstate breakthrough.

Xiaoguo guarded the door for him. Wang Xuan was meditating, and gradually he had some experience in controlling the power of the world. During meditation, it was difficult to perceive the passage of time. Gradually darkening, it means that time is passing minute by second, and night falls quietly again.

When night fell, one of the ten glass columns in the No. 9 security area, one of the elevator doors of the restored glass column, suddenly opened.

After that, a figure came out of it.

This figure was covered in black robes, and he couldn't see his true face, only showing a pair of eyes.

Those eyes are so terrifying that one can't face them.

He stepped out of the elevator in one step and looked around, suddenly making a slight humming sound, as if he found something strange. At the moment in the No. 9 safe area, there are people in a hurry, all busy with their own affairs. The appearance of this man in black robe has just caught their attention. He has already flickered, swept the ground, and disappeared in the No. 9 safe. District, the speed was so fast that these people opened their eyes wide, showing incredible expressions, and then rubbed their eyes, almost thinking they were dazzled.

The man in black robe left the No. 9 safe area, appeared in the forest, and soon came to one of the ancient cities.

There is a flag on this ancient city with a red belt embroidered on it. This is the "Rakshasa" sign, which represents this ancient city, which is the "Rakshasa City" among the five major cities.

The black-robed man entered the "Rakshasa City", and the inspectors on the city wall noticed it. Just as he was about to reprimand, he suddenly thought of something and closed his mouth again.

In their eyes, the black-robed man represents the supreme identity. Although a terrible accident happened last night, the elders of the five cities and the black-robed man were both killed by Wang Xuan, but now there is another black-robed man. They instinctively, I felt terrified, and I didn't dare to make a sound for a while.

A thought popped into their minds, who would this black-robed man be?

Looking at this ghostly figure that suddenly appeared and disappeared, these people who patrolled the city were not stupid, and they vaguely guessed the identity of the black-robed man.

Although they are only ordinary powerhouses in the super state, they can make them feel dazzled, and they can't even see where the black robe disappeared. There is only one possibility. The strength of the other party is far stronger than the ordinary super powerhouses. The possibility is the seventh form strong.

In Rakshasa City, there is only one person whose strength has reached this level, and that is the Lord of Rakshasa City, the Rakshasa King.

The man in black robe entered the "Rakshasa City", his figure swayed, and he soon appeared in the largest building among them, but

Chapter 278

Rakshasa King

It was quiet here, and he didn't see the person he wanted to see.

"What's going on?" The man in black robe said to himself, no longer hiding his figure, but stepping out with his hands behind his back, his appearance alarmed many people, and soon people appeared in the buildings on both sides.

"who is it?"

Someone asked, and suddenly there was a flower in front of him, and a man in black robe appeared.

The black-robed man naturally exudes a terrifying coercion, which makes this man instinctively one room, and the words behind him cannot be said.

"Where has Elder Rakshasa gone?" The black-robed man's voice was majestic, and his condescending gesture and tone could not be disguised. These people immediately understood who the black-robed man was in front of him.

Thinking of the accident last night, these people are slightly terrified. This day, all kinds of rumors have spread, including rumors about the Lord of the Five Cities, thinking that they, like the elders, have become hatched beasts A monster that devoured the consciousness of the human soul.

At this moment, when they suddenly saw King Rakshasa coming back, they were dumbfounded, and they didn't know how to deal with it.

"Huh?" The Rakshasa King's tone increased slightly, with a faint displeasure inside.

"Elder... they are all dead." Finally, someone dared to say something.

"Dead?" Rakshasa King was startled.

This person is relatively calm. He is one of the group of people who have met Wang Xuan before. His strength is already at the level of the super-state limit. When King Sha and other city lords return, they do not need to fight against King Rakshasa, but to protect themselves. If King Rakshasa asks, they just need to tell the truth. As for King Rakshasa, they will naturally have Wang Xuan to deal with.

Thinking of this, this person recounted Wang Xuan's murder of the elders of the five cities and the man in black last night.

The Rakshasa King stayed on the spot, seemingly shocked by the news. Both the elders of the five cities and the man in black robe were killed? This Wang Xuan has broken through the seventh form?

"Who is this Wang Xuan? Did he break through the super state?"

The Rakshasa King didn't know who Wang Xuan was. For his doubts, these people could only nod their heads. They all thought that Wang Xuan should have broken through and became the seventh form to be so powerful.

After asking in detail what happened last night, after knowing that Wang Xuan was in the central city, King Rakshasa left Rakshasa City.

Although he knew that Wang Xuan was already a powerhouse in the seventh form and killed the elders of the five cities and those black-robed men, King Rakshasa did not return to the fourth-layer world to seek help or assistance, but went straight to the No. 9 safe area and entered the teleportation channel arrived at the central city.

"Interesting, it seems that he knows our true identity." The figure of King Rakshasa fluttered and soon appeared outside the skill building.

Just as King Rakshasa arrived in the central city, Wang Xuan, who was in a state of meditation with his knees crossed, felt a little uneasy. He woke up from the meditation, opened his eyes, and frowned slightly.

With a move from the right hand, Xiaojiao was first called back, entered into a fit state, and then stood up.

Just as he stood up, there was a black-robed man at the door.

The man in black robe stood there quietly, staring at Wang Xuan with a pair of eyes, which contained terrifying majesty.

"It turns out that you are Wang Xuan." The voice of King Rakshasa was a little low, but it was full of terrifying coercion. With Wang Xuan's current strength, he felt an invisible pressure. The black-robed man in front of him felt more than before. The Justice City Lord is even more terrifying. Wang Xuan didn't recognize him as King Rakshasa for a while, but he guessed that he should be one of the city lords of the three cities of Rakshasa, Phoenix and Wangcheng, and said, "Which city are you the city lord?" When one person comes, even if three city lords come at the same time, Wang Xuan is not afraid. Although he cannot fight against three with one, it is not difficult to escape.

"I am the Rakshasa King." The Rakshasa King reported his name and nodded slightly: "Since you have broken through the super state, you are qualified to know my name. I heard that you killed five cities in Phoenix City last night. Elder and Dharma protector?"

Wang Xuan nodded without concealment, and said, "Yes, there is still the last elder from Phoenix City, but it should be soon." The appearance of the Rakshasa King that he had seen before flashed in his mind.

When the white rhino was hunted that day, the Rakshasa King and Xuanzhu appeared. At that time, the Rakshasa King was a metal man with a height of three meters. That should be the true face of the hatching beast in his body. At this moment, he is wearing a black robe, which shows a person class pattern.

"Arrogant..." King Rakshasa's voice was very calm. After he finished speaking lightly, he pulled his right hand, and the black robe wrapped around his body was lifted by him, and he stepped into it.

He suddenly shot, with a fork in his right hand, and came to Wang Xuan. Wang Xuan had been prepared for a long time, two ghost wings appeared on his back, and he moved forward to cover it, and King Rakshasa caught on the ghost wings.

The ghost wings vibrated slightly, resisting the force of King Rakshasa's grasping, Wang Xuan waved his right hand, and a metal tentacle threw out like a poisonous snake.

The Rakshasa King in front of him knew that he had killed the elders of the five cities and the black-robed man, and he dared to kill himself alone. There was only one reason for him, he was full of confidence in his own strength.

This made Wang Xuan very cautious. The current attack is a test, and he wants to see the true strength of King Rakshasa.

With a "snap", King Rakshasa flipped his left hand and grabbed the drawn metal tentacle. Metal material appeared on the surface of the skin of his left hand, and the metal tentacle was drawn on it, making a metal slamming sound.

A metal tentacle was caught, and a second metal tentacle appeared, wrapping around the Rakshasa King.

On the outside of the left and right arms, two more ghost wings appeared, and they were swung horizontally and cut towards the neck of King Rakshasa.

With a stomping, King Rakshasa's body suddenly rose, and a large amount of metal material began to appear on the surface of his body. He stretched his arms and turned into two huge metal arms, grabbed the two ghost wings that Wang Xuan had just stretched out, and gently As soon as he tore it off, with a snort, Wang Xuan groaned and fell back, and the two ghost wings on the outside of his arms were torn apart by King Rakshasa.

"This guy..." Wang Xuan was secretly surprised, the eye of fear on his forehead opened immediately, sensing the fear in King Rakshasa's body, two metal tentacles wound up along his arms, flesh and metal fused, turned into a giant arm of beast, A vague phantom appeared in the body, and there was a faint sound of the vehicle rolling at high speed.

"Ghost Car Night" starts.

The main reason why he can fight against the seventh-form powerhouse in a super state realm is the ability of "ghost car at night"~www.mtnovel.com~ The power of ghost car, the power of beast, and the power of blue crystal scales in the body together With the sound, the two ghost wings behind Wang

Xuan spread out, and the ghost wings that had just been torn on the outside of his arms grew again. The four weeks passed by slowly.

King Rakshasa's body stretched upwards, and soon grew to three meters. From head to toe, his whole body turned into a metallic luster. He turned into a metal man, waving his huge arms, and smashed his head towards Wang Xuan.

With a "porphyry" sound, a large number of afterimages appeared in the air, some afterimages were hit, and immediately shattered, and the real Wang Xuan had already waved the giant arm of the beast and hit the Rakshasa King who was incarnated as a metal man. Belly.

King Rakshasa was also unable to defend against the "ghost car at night". He only heard a bang. He folded in half and was punched and flew out from the door of the building.

This punch was so powerful that it smashed the three-meter-high Rakshasa King twenty to thirty meters away, then fell heavily to the ground, rebounded, and fell again.

The movement here quickly alerted the people in the central city. Although it was night, many people still gathered here. When they saw the three-meter-high metal figures being blasted out, shock and surprise appeared on the faces of these people.

The day when the white rhino was hunted, many people had seen King Rakshasa, and when they saw the three-meter metal man again, they immediately recognized his true identity.

Wang Xuan followed out of the building, and the four ghost wings disintegrated and turned into sharp steel feathers all over the sky, madly shooting towards the Rakshasa King who fell out.

Although the Rakshasa King was knocked out with one punch, Wang Xuan's face was not happy, instead he showed a solemn look.

Chapter 279

Just now he used enough strength to punch, even steel can be shattered, but when he hit King Rakshasa, although he was knocked in half and flew out, there was not a single wound on his body, Wang Xuan had a feeling It feels that King Rakshasa has endured his punch without any injuries.

If that's true, it's scary.

You know, Wang Xuan used enough strength in this punch.

Just as Wang Xuan rushed out of the building, he saw King Rakshasa, who had fallen to the ground, standing tall, and his three-meter-high metal body stood up straight. .

Seeing this scene, Wang Xuan's heart sank, but he saw the Rakshasa King who had turned into a metal man grinning, revealing a mouth full of white teeth, shaking his body, and suddenly his arms seemed to be covered with, like a violent storm attacking him come.

At this moment, Wang Xuan felt dazzled.

The strength of the Rakshasa King in front of him is above the Profound Lord and the Justice City Lord.

Although they are both strong in the seventh form, there is obviously a gap in strength between them.

If Xuanzhu and Justice City Lord are just ordinary seventh-form powerhouses, then the Rakshasa King in front of them is at least the seventh-form powerhouse.

With Wang Xuan's current strength, he couldn't resist it under normal conditions. He immediately activated his four ghost wings and entered the "Ghost Car Night Walk".

A fuzzy phantom appeared in the body, merged with the four wings, and the dark wings stretched back, and there was a strange sound of vehicles being crushed at high speed, and afterimages appeared one by one.

The sound of "Boom Boom" was incessant, every afterimage was blown up by King Rakshasa's giant metal fist as soon as it appeared, and his speed kept up with "Ghost Car Night Walk".

There are more and more super powerhouses gathered in the distance, and the people who stayed in the central city are rushing over one after another, and their eyes show incredible shock.

From their point of view, they can only see that the statue of King Rakshasa has countless arms, madly attacking the void in front of him, while Wang Xuan seems to have become a paper man, and countless paper people are piled up, moving towards Luo The king is approaching.

But these paper people have not yet come into contact with the Rakshasa King, and immediately began to smash.

"Boom", there was a sudden, earth-shattering loud noise, Wang Xuan's body reappeared, his arms stretched out, the two giant arms of beasts and Rakshasa King's metal giant arms collided together, the air wave was emptied, and the huge sound Deafening.

This attack was nothing fancy, Wang Xuan only felt a shock, his body swayed and fell back, he stepped back seven steps in a row, the blood in his chest was surging, and he almost vomited blood, although he had already used a ghost car The power of power, the power of demon beasts and the power of blue crystal scales are still inferior to the Rakshasa King.

The Rakshasa King repelled Wang Xuan and roared again. This is the power he has in his hands. The Rakshasa battle body is invulnerable to swords and guns, and its power is infinite. In the Rakshasa battle body, he seems to be the incarnation of the legendary Rakshasa evil ghost. With a kick of both feet, the three-meter-high Rakshasa battle body stepped forward. Wang Xuan, who was retreating, suddenly found that there were fists swung by huge metal arms in all directions. He had been sealed by the Rakshasa King around him. There is no refund.

There are more and more people gathered at a distance of tens of meters. They dare not get too close. There are even people from the five major cities who have received news. They enter the central city through the transmission channel one after another, and more and more people come over.

The battle of the seventh form of the powerhouse can be said to be a once-in-lifetime, at least they have not seen it with their own eyes, this is the first time.

In their eyes, Wang Xuan and King Rakshasa are all strong men in the seventh form.

Wang Xuan had no choice but to fight recklessly. The "Ghost Car Night Walk" plus "Ghost Sneak" and the giant arm of the monster also waved his fist like a storm, and a large number of light-emitting parts appeared on the left arm. He decided to launch the Mechanicus left arm attack.

The Rakshasa King was too powerful, forcing Wang Xuan to use his strength only to break the force. This was a real fist-to-fist fight. Both sides punched against each other, arm to arm, and the giant arm of the beast slammed into the metal fist, once or twice, Ten, twenty... Soon it was dozens of collision attacks.

Wang Xuan felt that his giant arm of beast couldn't stand it, and the surface of his fist began to crack, and blood was flowing from it.

Even if he has mastered the primary hatching beast skill "Metal Toughness" and the intermediate skill "Reactive Metal", the toughness of the giant arm of the beast has been raised to an astonishing level, and it is still unbearable at this moment. Blood started to splatter everywhere.

Wang Xuan's Warcraft

I can't stand it, but King Rakshasa's Rakshasa battle body is still unscathed. Obviously, the toughness of the Rakshasa battle body exceeds that of the monster arm, and it can withstand repeated attacks by such a terrifying force.

"Boom!" Suddenly, a two-meter-long mechanical god's arm appeared. With a volley from the side, King Rakshasa avoided his head and raised his arm to resist.

The mechanical god's arm hit King Rakshasa's left arm, and there was a faint sound, and King Rakshasa flew out like a kite with a broken string.

Although his Rakshasa battle body was stronger than Wang Xuan's giant arm of beast, it couldn't stand the power of the mechanical god's arm.

Watching King Rakshasa fall sideways for more than 20 meters, Wang Xuan gasped and stopped, his hands were dripping with blood, and the giant arms of the demon beasts were full of terrifying wounds, with bones faintly visible inside.

He took out the water of primary physical strength and the water of primary healing and drank it. The ghost wings on Wang Xuan's back flapped, cooperating with the "ghost stealth" to accelerate and shoot up.

He just rushed to the place where King Rakshasa fell, but he saw King Rakshasa roll on the ground with a crisp "snap", and a metalized leg swept out sideways, blocked by Wang Xuan's giant arm of beast, a heavy The power of the mountain was oppressed, and King Rakshasa stood up again. Wang Xuan noticed that the place where his left arm was hit by the arm of the mechanical **** collapsed into a pothole. Apart from that, there were no other obvious scars.

The heart was secretly shocked, the Rakshasa King was simply a monster, and the defense and tenacity of this metal body was simply against the sky.

The Rakshasa King once again launched a storm-like attack. Countless fists were like raindrops. Although Wang Xuan was barely able to block the "ghost car at night", the giant arm of the beast could not withstand the continuous attack, and more and more cracks appeared on the surface. , even the primary healing water he just drank was too late to heal.

As his strength improved, the power remaining on the surface of the injury became more and more terrifying, and the effect of the primary healing water became worse and worse.

Fortunately, this time he killed the elders and those black-robed people. In addition to harvesting a large amount of primary healing water, there were also 270 bottles of intermediate healing water.

Since the effect of the primary healing water was not obvious, he decided to drink the intermediate healing water.

The four ghost wings opened and shot together, and with the two metal tentacles, they were drawn together, and the arm of the mechanical **** attacked again.

With the help of ghost wings and metal tentacles, this time the mechanical god's arm hit the Rakshasa King's chest directly.

The metal chest immediately collapsed into a pothole, and there was a faint sound of bones breaking. The Rakshasa King rolled in the air and fell back dozens of meters, hitting the wall of a building behind, making a loud rumbling sound.

Fortunately, the buildings in the central city are specially made and are difficult to destroy.

The Rakshasa King slowly fell down the wall, Wang Xuan made a louder gasp, and activated the mechanical arms of the gods. The load on him was extremely heavy, especially the giant arms of the demon beasts, which were scarred and covered with blood.

This time, Wang Xuan took out a bottle of intermediate-level healing water and drank it.

Now he still has 269 bottles of intermediate healing water left.

The healing water entered the body and exerted a huge healing effect. This effect was ten times better than that of the primary one. He immediately concentrated on his arms, and continuously recovered the large number of wounds that appeared on his arms.

The wound on the giant arm of the beast was healing at an astonishing speed, and Wang Xuan stepped at the same time, rushing towards the fallen Rakshasa King.

Even after being hit twice by the mechanical god's arm, the Rakshasa King was finally injured a little this time. His collapsed chest did not recover, and there were broken bones in it.

The passage of time around was slowing down. Wang Xuan entered the "Ghost Car Night Walk" while rushing over. On the surface of the healing monster's giant arm, blue dim lights lit up one after another. When the power sacrifice reached the limit that he could bear, he let out a loud shout and struck with all his strength.

The real terror of the Rakshasa King is his Rakshasa battle body, such as thousands of trials, the King Kong is not bad, and even the attack of the mechanical **** arm cannot cause fatal damage. Now the only thing Wang Xuan can do is to continue to attack, but every time Activating the mechanical arm not only requires a lot of physical strength, but also causes a certain load on his spiritual soul.

After all, this is an attack that exceeds his current ability to withstand. If you want to use it, you need to pay a certain price.

Rakshasa King was hit in the chest by the arm of the mechanical god, and a bone was broken inside

Nodding his head, he roared slightly and wanted to stand up, but he didn't want Wang Xuan to pounce in front of him again.

His Rakshasa battle body defense is too strong, and he can hardly be injured, but it also has the disadvantage that once injured, it is extremely difficult to heal, and even the intermediate healing water has no effect, so he did not take the healing water at all, because these Ineffective against his Rakshasa body.

Wang Xuan appeared again, and the Rakshasa King roared and stretched out his hands. Suddenly, his hands tightened, but he was caught by Wang Xuan.

Wang Xuan mobilized all his strength, pulled King Rakshasa into the air and flew out, smashing to one side of the wall.

There was a loud "bang", and King Rakshasa's body slammed against the wall, making a loud noise.

The walls of the central city are sturdy, and even the totems cannot be easily destroyed. Although both of them can burst out the power of the seventh form and hit the wall, they cannot destroy the wall.

Wang Xuan had just pulled King Rakshasa into the wall, but saw King Rakshasa's body spinning violently, Wang Xuan suddenly felt a force that was spinning like a mountain, and spun his body out.

"Boom", Wang Xuan fell out and brought the Rakshasa King together. The two rolled around together, entangled on the ground, and fought each other frantically.

In close combat, without the help of the "ghost car at night", Wang Xuan was crushed by King Rakshasa in both strength and speed.

With a "hiss", one ghost wing was caught by King Rakshasa, torn apart, and then the second ghost wing.

Wang Xuan groaned, and took another blow to the chest. When it was in danger, the mechanical arm appeared again, hitting King Rakshasa's chest at the same time.

Both sides were hit at the same time, and Wang Xuan rolled over and fell out. Fortunately, the mid-state energy shield he launched cut his strength by half. This is so. After the energy shield was broken, the mechanical shell covering his body shattered, and the ghost armor shattered. It shattered, and the bones in the body were still broken several times, and a stream of blood surged up and spurted out immediately.

The metal chest of the Rakshasa King that had collapsed into a fist pit was hit again, and the fist pit expanded. This time, the ribs in the chest were connected to two fractures, and the body also rolled and fell out.

In addition to the one rib that was broken before, he now has three broken ribs in his body.

Wang Xuan fell out and immediately took out the intermediate healing water and physical strength water and drank it, and the Rakshasa King stood up, ignoring the three broken ribs in his body, and volleyed again.

There was a slight growl in his throat. Originally, he did not take Wang Xuan in his eyes. Even if Wang Xuan became the seventh form of powerhouse, he was still full of confidence. Terrible, Wang Xuan's own strength is nothing, but the real trouble is the mechanical god's arm attack. The power and speed of this attack, even he can't dodge or resist, if it weren't for his Rakshasa body, he would have suffered heavy damage or even a bullet. He was killed by Wang Xuan.

"This human being is too terrifying. In any case, I will kill him today, and I must not let him grow again—"

The Rakshasa King's thoughts turned and he suddenly let out a low roar. He turned his hand and took out a crimson fruit and swallowed it.

As the fruit was swallowed, the surface of his metallized body showed a crimson luster, and the luster rose up and turned into crimson flames, wrapping around him, turning him into a three-meter-high crimson-flame metal giant.

Flames lingered all over his body, and King Rakshasa suddenly raised his head to the sky and let out an earth-shattering roar, stomping his feet suddenly, with a loud bang, the ground shook, and he rose into the air like a flame giant, jumping dozens of meters, and then turning down, locking on Wang Xuanpu down.

Even if he hunted the white rhinoceros that day, he didn't use this fruit. Until now, he obviously regarded Wang Xuan as a real undead enemy, and he would kill him at all costs.

With his roar, terrifying power surged down, and the space in all directions suddenly increased in temperature and became unbearably hot.

Wang Xuan saw that the space around him was stalemate, and the heat wave was rolling in. It became difficult for him to move. He looked up at the Rakshasa King who was volleying down. He understood that he could not bear the blow. His arms were about to burst open. Even if his arms could bear it, his body couldn't bear it.

Without thinking too much, he also let out a low roar, waved his left arm, and bursts of white light beamed from it. The rays of light gathered together to form countless metal parts. These parts combined to form a two-meter-long mechanical giant arm.

The mechanical **** arm was activated again, and there was a faint blue light flickering in it.

, Wang Xuan also used the strongest power, which contained the power of blue crystal scales, and with a full blow, greeted the Rakshasa King who was blown down by the volley.

The glowing Mechanic God's arm collided with the Rakshasa King rushing down into the sky, and slammed into the swirling flames. The Rakshasa King was roaring, and a pair of metal arms came together, resisting the rushing Mechanic God's arm, both sides. Face-to-face confrontation at a distance of twenty or thirty meters in the air, this was the collision of the strongest force on both sides, and only a loud bang was heard.

The powerful mechanical **** arm was scattered from it, and suddenly exploded into countless luminous parts.

The Rakshasa King opened his mouth and let out a roar, blood spurted out from it, and his body flipped backwards in the air.

Wang Xuan looked up and looked in his eyes, and his heart skipped a beat.

The Rakshasa King was so powerful that he broke the arm of the mechanical god?

This is the first time since possessing the mechanical arm.

The Rakshasa King fell into the sky, Wang Xuan stepped forward, and a pair of monster arms hit the Rakshasa King again.

What he attacked was King Rakshasa's collapsed chest, and there was another crackling sound from inside.

With the blow just now, King Rakshasa vomited blood, and his body became much weaker. Wang Xuan seemed to have no effect, but the cracked mechanical arm could no longer be used for the time being.

Once again, King Rakshasa was sent flying, and Wang Xuan jumped on him closely, looking for his collapsed chest and hitting him frantically.

As long as his chest is smashed, this terrifying Rakshasa battle body can be broken.

The Rakshasa King's chest continued to collapse, and blood continued to seep out from his mouth.

Suddenly, Wang Xuan felt that the giant arm of the beast he slammed down seemed to be sucked by a force, and he hurriedly tilted his head back, still a step late, he was hit on the face, and his eyes were immediately blurred, blood splattered, and his nose bone was broken. , with blood spurting from both his ears.

If it weren't for the triple defense of the helmet, the mechanical shell, and the neutral energy shield, plus he leaned back to avoid part of the force~www.mtlnovel.com~ just this blow would have broken his head.

Wang Xuan flew out heavily, and the Rakshasa King roared and climbed up. With a huge right hand, he grabbed Wang Xuan's head and smashed it to the ground.

The ground of the central city is as hard as iron, and it is almost impossible to destroy it. This blow will immediately crack Wang Xuan's brain.

Between life and death, the arm of the mechanical **** could not be used, Wang Xuan watched the ground enlarge in front of him, his heartbeat was like a drum, a pair of giant arms of monsters turned up and grabbed the giant arms of Rakshasa King, four ghost wings slapped the ground, and his legs went to the ground. A dazzling blue light lit up all over his body.

Perhaps sensing the danger of Wang Xuan, this time the blue crystal scales erupted with the strongest power, which was unbelievably powerful, causing Wang Xuan's whole body to tear his muscles and spurting a lot of blood.

Roar--

With a roar, Wang Xuan spurted blood from his seven orifices, his body went up, his head hit the collapsed chest of King Rakshasa, and he was pushed into the air and flew up.

The Rakshasa King's eyes showed an unbelievable look.

One after another blue dim light, like a small snake, followed Wang Xuan's arms and legs up, converged on the top of his head, and finally burst out.

boom!

The muffled thunder sounded, and Wang Xuan flew up to a height of thirty or forty meters against King Rakshasa.

In the entire central city, nearly a thousand people have gathered in a short period of time.

At this moment, everyone opened their eyes, raised their heads, and looked at the air.

Time seemed to freeze at this moment.

With the end of the muffled thunder, everyone saw a large amount of blood sprayed in the air, and a large amount of blood and internal organs burst out from the back of the Rakshasa King.

With this blow, Wang Xuan's head went straight through his chest and emerged from his back.

The two rose to the limit and began to fall.

Chapter 280

King Kong is not bad

With a "bang", the two fell to the ground together, splashing blood all over the ground.

The hanging hearts of nearly a thousand people fell to the ground with the two of them, and it seemed that they also fell. Many people could not help but open their mouths slightly and let out a sigh of relief.

King Rakshasa fell to the ground, blood all over his body, a huge transparent hole appeared in his chest, and his body shrank like a deflated ball.

Wang Xuan's head was covered in blood, and just after the blow, the power of the blue crystal scales erupted like never before. With his current physical strength, he couldn't bear it. The whole body was covered with terrible cracks, deep into the bones, and a lot of blood could not stop the madness. gushing down.

If it weren't for the fact that he had obtained the two hatching beast skills, "Metal Toughness" and "Active Metal", his body had been strengthened twice by the blue crystal scales and the hatching corpse solitary liquid, and he had just exploded on the blue crystal scales. In an instant, he had exploded and died.

Busily took out a bottle of intermediate healing water and drank it, and at the same time waved the giant arm of the beast again and smashed it towards the head of the fallen Rakshasa King.

The Rakshasa battle body was broken, and the Rakshasa King's body was rapidly shrinking, returning to its normal appearance from three meters.

As he recovered, he quickly reached for his storage belt, apparently wanting to get the healing water.

It's just that he was severely injured, especially the combination of the broken Rakshasa's battle body and the side effects of eating the red fruit. The situation is very serious. Just when Wang Xuan's head hit, the power of the blue crystal scales not only broke him. His Rakshasa fighting body even damaged the internal organs in his body, and the bones were shattered everywhere. It was difficult for him to raise his hand now, let alone keep up with Wang Xuan.

Just as his hand reached into the storage belt, Wang Xuan's fist volleyed down.

There was a low growl in his throat, looking at Wang Xuanchao's fist hitting his head and face, Rakshasa King's eyes filled with resentment, and the face of a normal human was distorted, looking extremely terrifying.

With a sound of "hum", Wang Xuan's fist fell and hit the Rakshasa King's face firmly, but it made a sound like hitting a bell, with a buzzing vibration.

Wang Xuan was stunned, but saw King Rakshasa's face full of grimness, his face was like golden paper, he crushed a golden yellow crystal in his hand, and released a golden wave of light, which stretched along his right hand and dyed his whole body with golden yellow.

Wang Xuan's fist hit his face that was dyed golden yellow, making a sound of gold and iron hitting, and King Rakshasa was unharmed.

Wang Xuan's eye of the picture book was activated, and immediately captured the information of this broken golden yellow crystal.

The diamond crystal, once used, can form a diamond indestructible defense within three seconds, immune to all attacks.

It can be said that in the next three seconds, King Rakshasa is invincible, and no one can hurt him.

King Rakshasa crushed the diamond crystal, and the golden light wave went upward, instantly forming a bell-shaped shield to protect him.

After entering the protection of the three-second Vajra Indestructible Shield, the Rakshasa King immediately took out a few bottles of intermediate-level healing water and poured it into his mouth.

Wang Xuan knew that it was not good, and punched several times in a row, not only failed to open the shield of the diamond, but was directly bounced off by it.

Watching the Rakshasa King in the shield drank the healing water, the wound on the surface of the body was healing at a speed visible to the naked eye. After drinking a few bottles of the intermediate-level healing water, the effect was astonishing.

The broken bones were reborn, and the flesh and blood reunited. The Rakshasa King let out a roar of filial piety and stood up. The indestructible shield of the King Kong outside was shattered and disappeared. Three seconds had passed, and all the injuries on his body had recovered, and a horrible aura erupted all over his body again. , let out a wild laugh, stomped his feet, the ground shook, stepped forward, and once again became a dragon and a tiger, and rushed over.

Wang Xuan's face changed slightly. He didn't know what level the other party had recovered to. If he really recovered completely, it would be a big trouble, because although the injury he had just received had recovered, the mechanical arm that had been broken up could not be healed. It can only be recovered slowly by waiting for it to recover, and it cannot be used for the time being.

Four ghost wings appeared, entered the "Ghost Car Night Walk", pulled out the afterimage to dodge, the Rakshasa King fell into the air, Wang Xuan's giant beast arm swung sideways, and suddenly a huge metal arm appeared, throwing his beast giant into the air. Arm pressed.

The Rakshasa King's body stretched upwards, his skin continued to metallize, and he once again showed his Rakshasa fighting body.

The original Rakshasa battle body was broken and the vitality was severely damaged. After drinking a few bottles of intermediate healing water, at least half of it was recovered in just a few seconds.

Although it was unable to reach the peak state just now, it was possible to use the Rakshasa battle body again.

The giant metal arm pressed against Wang Xuan's giant arm of Warcraft, and another piece of metal waved over.

The "wave" sounded crisply, and Wang Xuan's afterimage shattered. He had already circled to the other side, punching both of his fists, hitting King Rakshasa from the side.

The sound of metal impact sounded. Although the battle body of Rakshasa had attenuated, it was still not a monster that could be broken open. King Rakshasa turned around, stretched out his hands and grabbed Wang Xuan's arms. With a bang, he lifted Wang Xuan up and smashed him. out.

Wang Xuan shrank his body, kicked his feet, and kicked the Rakshasa King's chest, but the Rakshasa King was only in pain and not hurt. He let out a violent roar, suddenly let go, clenched his fist, and then swung his arm out, hitting Wang Xuan's face with a sudden sound. .

Wang Xuan could not completely avoid it, his face was covered in blood, and his body flew out of the sky.

Knowing something was wrong, it launched the "Ghost Car Night Walk" at the same time as it flew out.

Sure enough, King Rakshasa was chasing after him, as if his arms were covered with his fists like a violent storm. The afterimages of Wang Xuan were shattered one by one, and each afterimage was smashed as soon as it appeared, and finally the "ghost car at night" arrived. At the limit, Wang Xuan could no longer dodge, and was punched in the chest.

This punch broke through the triple defense, burst open his chest, shattered his ribs, ruptured his internal organs, the power of the ghost car, the power of monsters, and the power of the blue crystal scales all seemed to sense the danger of Wang Xuan, and they exploded together to offset the Rakshasa. The power of Wang's punch, otherwise, just this one blow can break him into two pieces and kill him on the spot.

Unable to activate the mechanical arm, even if King Rakshasa's strength is slightly attenuated, he is still stronger than Wang Xuan. Whether it is speed or strength, he is completely crushed.

When Wang Xuan fell out, he took out the healing water and crushed a defensive crystal.

A defensive light curtain appeared, and with a sound of "wave", King Rakshasa came up and was blocked by the defensive light curtain.

Wang Xuan took a sigh of relief and was busy drinking a bottle of intermediate-level healing water to recover from his injuries. The four ghost wings on his body folded together to form a "ghost car armor".

The defensive light curtain can only last for a moment, and in the next second, King Rakshasa waved his arms and launched a storm-like attack again.

Countless fists were madly hitting the "ghost car armor", and the steel feathers covering Wang Xuan's body were constantly vibrating slightly, relying on mutual resonance to offset the attack of the Rakshasa King.

Wang Xuan used the "ghost car armor" for all-round defense, delaying time, wanting to wait for the recovery of the mechanical god's arm, and at the same time open the Xumi mustard seed space and take out the book of giant gods.

In the state where the mechanical **** arm cannot be used, now he is not the opponent of King Rakshasa, and the only way now is to force the Book of Giants.

In order to fight against the monster with the power of decay, he had tried the Book of Giants. Although he had never successfully summoned it, he also gained some new insights into the use of the Book of Giants.

This Book of Giants can not only summon some kind of mysterious existence hidden in the depths of the endless darkness, it is also a treasure in itself. Before, it relied on the light released by the Book of Giants to resist the rotten power of strange babies.

Although the defense of the "Ghost Car Armor" is strong, in the face of the crazy attack of the Rakshasa King, it can't support it. The steel feathers on the surface sink down, forming a large number of dense pits. The seventh form of the Rakshasa King is strong. The terrifying power of the attackers and the strength of the Rakshasa fighting body could blow open the "ghost car armor" at any time, and beat Wang Xuan into a ball of meat sauce.

Wang Xuan had just taken out the Book of Giants, and was about to spray blood at it to stimulate the Book of Giants, when suddenly King Rakshasa let out a low roar and raised a huge metal arm.

A pale light appeared above, turned into a huge sword energy, and slashed down in the sky.

With a loud bang, this sword energy slashed into the giant metal arm raised by King Rakshasa.

Rakshasa King's Rakshasa battle body is invulnerable to swords and spears, although this sword energy is powerful, it cannot hurt his skin.

The giant metal arm raised by the Rakshasa King had just blocked the sword energy. Wang Xuan, who had been attacked by the stormy fist, immediately felt the pressure lightened. He looked up and saw a woman with a single eyelid appear. A two-meter white giant sword.

There was a white tiger lying on this giant sword, and it was just her sword that slashed a terrifying sword qi into the sky and was blocked by King Rakshasa.

The woman who suddenly appeared was Tang Ruoyu.

She and Wang Xuan entered the third floor together before, entered the central city, and each entered the skill stone gate test. After that, the two sides went their separate ways and never met again.

Wang Xuan didn't know where Tang Ruoyu went and what he did these days. He couldn't imagine that he was in danger and was forced to help himself. Tang Ruoyu appeared when he could only fight with the Book of Giants.

The power of the sword just now was at least the power of the super-state limit.

When the sword was blocked, Tang Ruoyu's expression remained unchanged. It seemed that all this was within her expectations. The two-meter giant sword in her right hand shook, and the white tiger lying on it volleyed out.

The white tiger that jumped out let out a roar, and instantly swelled up to seven meters.

The seven-meter giant tiger pounced on the three-meter-tall Rakshasa King, but the Rakshasa King couldn't resist, and was thrown on his side and fell out.

Wang Xuan immediately put away the book of giant gods, and the ghost cart returned to its normal four ghost wings.

"Roar-"

King Rakshasa let out a roar, raised his arms, and with a bang, the giant white tiger that fell on him immediately shattered and disappeared, Wang Xuan appeared at the same moment, and the giant arm of the beast slammed towards him.

King Rakshasa swayed to avoid, Tang Ruoyu clasped the long sword in both hands, and slashed from the other side.

This time, outside her body, the phantom of the Mohu White Tiger appeared, and the shattered white tiger image returned to her body and merged with her body.

King Rakshasa couldn't dodge this time, so he stretched out a hand and grabbed the long sword that slashed Tang Ruoyu.

There was blood splattered, and the Rakshasa King suddenly groaned, and was busy letting go and retreating, with a look of surprise in his eyes, staring at Tang Ruoyu, and then looking at his hand.

A wound appeared on his palm, which was just scratched by Tang Ruoyu's long sword.

Rakshasa's body was invulnerable, and even Wang Xuan's giant arm of the beast could not hurt him, but Tang Ruoyu's sword scratched his metal palm.

The wound on the battle body is equivalent to being broken, and his combat power will immediately decline. The Rakshasa King is busy taking out a fruit from the storage belt and swallowing it.

Swallowing this fruit, it immediately showed a special effect, so that his Rakshasa battle body remained in its original state, and did not disappear because of the wound.

Tang Ruoyu swung the two-meter long sword in his hand, and the sword qi was horizontal and vertical. The white tiger phantom outside her body continued to expand, and gradually turned into a 100-meter-long giant tiger phantom, like a hill. Covering this area, everyone felt a heavy pressure in the air.

Wang Xuan looked at Tang Ruoyu with a hint of surprise in his eyes.

Tang Ruoyu did not break through the super state and became the seventh-form powerhouse, but the strength she exerted at this moment had surpassed Mei Xiaosen and Bai Qianxue, and reached the level of the real seventh-form powerhouse.

It can be said that if Wang Xuan didn't use the arm of the mechanical **** and the Book of Giants, the strength he could exert was nothing more than that.

"King Kong Is Not Bad Dazhai Master"

"Tang Ruoyu is really unfathomable, this strength has improved too fast."

In shock, Wang Xuan cooperated with her attack and shot from the other side.

The Rakshasa King was caught in the attack of the two sides, and the situation changed subtly again.

Tang Ruoyu's white tiger giant sword was almost unstoppable, and the Rakshasa King's Rakshasa fighting body was somewhat unable to withstand it, and soon several wounds were added to the surface of the body.

There is a wound in the Rakshasa battle body, even if the injury is not serious, and the special fruit is maintaining the battle body effect, but the strength immediately declines, and his current Rakshasa battle body begins to appear unstable.

He didn't dare to put away the Rakshasa battle body to recover his injuries. Without the battle body, Wang Xuan and Tang Ruoyu joined forces to kill him in a single face-to-face. Even if the defensive crystal could only defend against one side, he no longer had a second diamond crystal.

Wang Xuan seized the opportunity and took advantage of Tang Ruoyu to swing his sword again. King Rakshasa was a little afraid, and did not dare to block as hard as before. He was busy dodging, and was punched by Wang Xuan from behind.

With this punch, King Rakshasa's back immediately collapsed into a fist pit.

This is the first time, which means that the defense of Rakshasa King's Rakshasa battle body has weakened a lot.

At this moment, more and more people gathered in the central city, and soon there were more than a thousand people. After a while, Gu Manyao also appeared.

Seeing Wang Xuan, Tang Ruoyu, and Queen Rakshasa in the melee, she didn't hesitate to show a two-meter-long black machete, jumped up, and rushed up.

She knew that the three of them were extremely powerful, but she was not weak now. While rushing up, she launched the blood erosion of the treasure in the center of the black scimitar.

The power of blood erosion erupted, immediately showing blood-red silk threads on the black scimitar, and as soon as it was shot, a knife Qi that was several meters long shot out of the air, and cut towards the Rakshasa King.

She is not stupid, she knows that her current strength is not as good as Wang Xuan, Tang Ruoyu and King Rakshasa, and she dare not approach, so she does not approach, but is separated by a dozen meters, slashing the sword in the air.

It's just that the saber qi she exhaled was too weak for the Rakshasa King, and he ignored it at all, letting the saber qi slash his Rakshasa body.

Gu Manyao looked at it, secretly horrified.

Following Zhang Haofei and Zhao Lei also appeared.

The two appeared in the crowd, and when they saw this scene, they were taken aback and rushed out of the crowd.

"Don't approach casually!" Wang Xuan issued a reminder to stop drinking, and also shook his figure to intercept King Rakshasa, so that he would not free up his hands to attack Gu Manyao.

He understands that although Gu Manyao's current strength is not weak, it is not enough to intervene in their battle of this level.

Zhao Lei did not shoot immediately, but raised his right hand, a cross crack appeared on it, and an eyeball appeared inside.

He opened the "Sacred Scar" and "Holy Eye", wanting to peek at the weakness and bottom line of King Rakshasa.

In Zhang Haofei's body, a skeleton appeared, and his whole body made a crunching sound of bone friction. Like Gu Manyao, he didn't dare to approach casually, but separated a little distance and emitted white light blades, which interfered with the Rakshasa King.

Although their attacks could not hurt the Rakshasa King, they caused effective interference, and the Rakshasa King was hit by Wang Xuan and Tang Ruoyu in succession.

Wang Xuan's monster arm attacked him barely able to withstand, and every time the white tiger long sword in Tang Ruoyu's hand slashed, it could leave a wound on the surface of his Rakshasa battle body.

King Rakshasa's Rakshasa fighting body became weaker and weaker, and he was completely suppressed by the joint efforts of Wang Xuan and Tang Ruoyu.

What was really terrifying was the 100-meter-long white phantom that Tang Ruoyu released.

This phantom is like a big mountain, covering the sky, and the invisible pressure oppresses the Rakshasa King. Not only his strength, speed, reaction ability, but also the defense of the Rakshasa battle body are declining.

The Rakshasa battle body continued to have wounds, and the effect of the special fruit was also attenuating. Some of the special treasures he had stored were almost exhausted in this battle, and there was no second special fruit to maintain or the King Kong was not bad. The crystal enters a state of invincibility for three seconds.

He finally had the intention of retreating in his heart, and he understood that his own strength was not enough to kill these human beings who knew his true identity.

Retreat together ~www.mtlnovel.com~ Rakshasa King swayed, and suddenly let out a roar, as if he had multiple arms, attacking frantically, trying to blast Wang Xuan away, so that he could escape from here immediately.

Even if he can't win, he is still full of confidence if he wants to escape from here.

Zhao Lei activated the holy eye and the holy mark, but failed to peek at the weakness of King Rakshasa, but saw that he wanted to escape, and immediately stretched out his right hand and slammed into the ground.

He activated the special ability he possessed, "Sage Banning First".

With the release of "Sage First Ban", King Rakshasa, who wanted to escape, felt his feet sink, as if being sucked by the ground. In this very short period of time, it was difficult to move.

After that, Zhao Lei activated the "Pillar of Holy Light", and a huge holy light appeared, covering the Rakshasa King.

Although the volley of the Pillar of Light could not kill the Rakshasa King, but with the "banning of the first saint", it temporarily fixed him in place.

Tang Ruoyu seized the opportunity, held the sword in both hands, and slashed out. The power of this sword was unbelievably powerful, and the phantom of the white tiger covering a radius of 100 meters suddenly reacted, vaguely like raising a front paw, moving towards him. King Rakshasa pressed away.

The screams sounded, the Rakshasa King roared wildly, and his body flew out.

The injury was extremely heavy, and the Rakshasa King could no longer maintain his battle body, and immediately withdrew from the three-meter metal state of the Rakshasa battle body.
