

Last Building on Earth Chapter 3

The car fell back in an S-shape, and the rear of the car swung to the left, hitting the load-bearing column on the rear left, and the trunk immediately sank in.

Almost at the same moment, Wang Xuan noticed that a red car suddenly appeared on the other side of the load-bearing column, and the car was ramming at an extremely fast speed.

The accident happened suddenly, and the few people in the car didn't understand what happened. Wang Xuan wondered why such a high-speed car suddenly appeared on the other side of the load-bearing column. He could only instinctively grasp the car with both hands. The handle above the window, the feet are stretched forward, the whole body is tense, trying to stabilize the body, the red car that suddenly rushed out slammed into the side and rear of their car.

There was only a "bang", and the side and rear of their car collapsed in immediately. The harsh sound of glass shattering sounded. Wang Qin, who was the first to bear the brunt, opened his mouth. It had to be overturned, and several people in the car only felt the world spinning in exclamation.

Wang Xuan clenched the handle tightly and supported his body with his arms. He had already turned into a posture on his head and feet. The three women sitting in the back row were rolling in a ball, with all kinds of strange postures.

Wang Xuan only felt a hot thing running down his forehead. He knew that he had smashed his forehead, and the blood was flowing out. His brain was buzzing, and his whole body seemed to fall apart, and there was no pain. .

He didn't know how badly he was injured, so he could only barely open his eyes, and through the car window, his vision was a little blurry to see that the red car that knocked over their car also stopped, and then he saw the cab The door of his car was opened, and a delicate black high-heeled shoe protruded from it and stepped on the ground. On the high-heeled shoe was a beautiful leg in black stockings.

Wang Xuan's head was still a little confused, and he only vaguely guessed that this might be the owner of the red car, and seemed to be getting out of the car to check the situation.

Then he heard the voice of the owner of the red car, with panic in his voice.

"I hit someone's car, what should I do now? I obviously wanted to step on the brakes, but I was nervous and stepped on the wrong one..."

When Wang Xuan heard this, he immediately understood. The female driver used the accelerator as a brake when she was nervous. No wonder there were cars in this underground parking lot rushing out at such a fast speed, knocking over their cars.

He didn't see the appearance of the female driver clearly. From his current angle, he could only see a pair of slender thighs wearing black stockings and high heels, listening to the woman's voice full of panic.

While talking to herself, she hurriedly took out her mobile phone, trying to make a call.

"But I can see it very clearly. There is obviously no car in front of me. Where did the car come out of nowhere? Why is there no movement at all..."

Wang Xuan's eyes widened, and through the cracked windshield, he saw a black shadow rushing towards him from a distance, at an extremely fast speed.

This time, he could see clearly. The shadow was covered with black scales, like a human being and a beast. It was the monster that was thrown out of their car before, and now the target it attacked was the female driver.

"Not good!" Wang Xuan couldn't help shouting at the female driver who could only see the lower body through the window glass: "Get on the bus, there is a crisis—"

His voice was so loud that the female driver heard it and was stunned for a moment, but she didn't react for a while. When she turned around and looked in the direction of Wang Xuan, she suddenly saw a black shadow rushing towards her face. come up.

A **** mouth opened wide, revealing two rows of fangs inside.

The woman let out a scream full of fear, and then turned into a shrill scream.

When Wang Xuan heard the scream, his heart froze, and he saw a mobile phone dropped to the ground, and the female driver who was hit by the shadow fell to the ground.

It was very uncomfortable for Wang Xuan to squeeze his head and feet into the overturned carriage. From his current angle, he could only see a pair of thighs wearing black stockings kicking and kicking on the ground. A high heel was kicked off and fell in front of him. The edge of the window glass.

There was a large pool of blood seeping on the ground. The female driver did not die immediately, but her legs were twitching constantly. Her throat was bitten open, and she could no longer speak. She could only make a bubble-like sound. .

Zhao Lei's car was knocked over, and all five people in the car were hit. Wang Qin was the first to bear the brunt, and the most serious one was blood. Wang Xuan and Zhao Lei were lucky.

Several people tried to adjust their posture in the car. Zhao Lei unfastened his seat belt. He originally wanted to try to open the car door and climb out, but he didn't want to hear a scream. He also saw the scene where the female driver was attacked by the shadow monster. Immediately, I was horrified, my whole body was shaking, and I didn't dare to go out at all.

Wang Xuan's body was icy cold as he watched the monster pounce on the female driver. After the female driver stopped screaming, he quickly turned around. With a pair of faintly glowing green eyes, he stared at the few people in his car, and then fluttered. come over.

Now he finally sees the appearance of this monster clearly, covered with black scales, UU reading www. uukanshu.com has a wolf-headed ape body and eyes glowing with a strange green light. It is an unknown beast that has never been seen before.

"Don't open the door!" Wang Xuan shouted, looking at the ferocious and terrifying appearance of this monster, it was not at all that they could deal with it with bare hands, the only hope was to hide in the car, hoping that the monster could not destroy the car.

He didn't want to make a sound just now, and suddenly realized that the window glass on the side where Wang Qin was sitting had been shattered because of the impact. Come on.

The monster was extremely fast, and immediately got in through the window.

Five people are squeezed into this compartment, which is relatively narrow. This monster is not small, and it is not easy to squeeze in completely.

Its wide open mouth wanted to bite Wang Qin's neck, but because it couldn't squeeze in completely, it grabbed her shoulder.

Originally, Wang Qin was seriously injured, and her reaction was a little slow. Now it is even more difficult to dodge in this compartment. She watched the monster's **** mouth come in and screamed. She only felt a sharp pain in her shoulder, which had been bitten.

Out of survival instinct, she used both hands and feet, struggling desperately.

Wang Xuan, who was in front, turned over and climbed to the back row, trying to help Wang Qin.

Zhang Qianwen and Wang Qin were so frightened that her face turned pale. She was the least timid and kept screaming, but Gu Manyao was more courageous than her. Seeing that Wang Qin was in danger, she kicked her legs and wanted to kick the monster out, otherwise Let it run into the car and they'll all die.

The monster bit Wang Qin's shoulder, but couldn't squeeze in completely. The carriage was too small. Several people were crowded with the monster. It couldn't dodge. One of its eyes, the one that was kicked, immediately closed, this kick was not light, and even tears were kicked out.
