

Chapter 13 Revenge in the cafeteria

Chapter

Betany couldn't believe what happened, and she couldn't even understand or imagine where Eduarda had gotten all that strength from.

That's why Betany spent the rest of the classes plotting what had happened and her anger only increased as time went by, and she wondered how it was possible that now, instead of Eduarda, she was the target of all the mockery.

Things will only get worse when, after leaving the last class before lunch, Jessica her senior is waiting for her in the hall:

"Look here rookie how dare you embarrass our group like that?"

"Jessica, I have no idea what happened earlier today Eduarda is not strong, I don't know where all that strength came from"

"I don't care you better fix this or I'll fix you"

Betany is now not only angry but also scared because her neck still hurt from her last experience with a Lycan.

After much reflection she decides to take revenge in the cafeteria, so she spends the whole time watching Eduarda because it couldn't seem like something on purpose, because she didn't want to attract Joshua or Prince Erick's anger.

The perfect opportunity didn't take long to appear. Eduarda gets up to go get her food, and that's when Betany decides to act.

Betany gets up quickly pretending that she is also going to get her food and at the point where she crosses Eduarda she trips strategically, thus dropping the entire contents of her tray on Eduarda.

Betany is now not only angry but also scared because her neck still hurt from her last experience with a Lycan.

After much reflection she decides to take revenge in the cafeteria, so she spends the whole time watching Eduarda because it couldn't seem like something on purpose, because she didn't want to attract Joshua or Prince Erick's anger.

The perfect opportunity didn't take long to appear. Eduarda gets up to go get her food, and that's when Betany decides to act.

Betany gets up quickly pretending that she is also going to get her food and at the point where she crosses Eduarda she trips strategically, thus dropping the entire contents of her tray on Eduarda.

Eduarda is standing there in the middle of the cafeteria covered in food and looks hurt at Betany who uses her most angelic smile and says:

"Wow, Eduarda, I'm so clumsy, I'm sorry", she gets up and pretends to be horrified by what happened.

But deep down she is triumphant because it is possible to see that Eduarda is again at the center of ridicule.

and looks hurt at Betany who uses her most angelic smile and says:

But deep down she is triumphant because it is possible to see that Eduarda is again at the center of ridicule.

Eduarda is standing there trying to reflect on what to do, because the words of Erick and her brother are etched in her mind, and she didn't want to die.

But the situation gets much worse when part of the food that was in Eduarda when she mentions turning to Betany falls on top of the shoes of a senior Lycan from group four.

Betany, realizing the danger, leaves quickly, leaving Eduarda to deal with the situation alone.

"Hey weakling how dare you get my new boots dirty?" says Tiffany the senior Lycan of group four.

"I'm sorry it wasn't my intention", says Eduarda

"Now you will clean it with your mouth, eat this food or I will tear you apart"

If it were before, Eduarda would already be on her knees enduring all the humiliation, but Erick's words echo in her head and she decides that if she is going to die, let it be in a dignified way and not after licking someone's shoes, so she says in na almost whisper :

"No"

"What did you say weakling?" asks Tiffany screaming.

The cafeteria, which was full of laughter, is now completely silent, as no one can believe that Eduarda is challenging a Lycan.

"I said what did you say wimpy," Tiffany says home, getting more irritated.

"I said no, if you didn't see the whole scene it wasn't me who dropped all this food, it was Betany so either you clean it yourself or go after her and make her clean it", shouts Eduarda who can hardly believe she is really yelling at somebody.

Betany two seats away curses Eduarda, and curls up in the seat trying not to draw the Lycan's attention, and wonders where Eduarda got that courage, there was something wrong with her!

For a moment Tiffany stands still looking at Eduarda, she could swear she saw a very different sparkle in the girl's eyes, but that would be impossible after all she didn't have a wolf.

Eduarda turns to leave, when Tiffany recovers from the scare and grabs her hair pulling her back.

Eduarda has the impression that all her hair is being pulled out of her scalp, and her eyes fill with tears.

"I told you to lick that shit" says Tiffany

"And I said no", she uses one hand to hold the hand of the other who lets out an agonized scream and lets go of Eduarda who stumbles and falls to the ground

Tiffany screams hysterically that Eduarda burned her hand, from the floor Eduarda looks at the girl's hand and sees that it is full of bubbles as if it had been placed in a pot of boiling water.

Tiffany's eyes go black and dilated and she lunges at Eduarda, kicking her furiously.

Eduarda feels her bones break and the taste of blood in her mouth, just before she surrenders to the darkness she hears a roar that makes the cafeteria shake and a powerful voice say:

"Who said you could touch someone in my group, you dead girl"

Tiffany is now terrified, no one in their right mind would challenge Erick, not even her father the Alpha King.

Erick approaches slowly, his Lycan transformation already beginning.

"Erick, I was just going to scare her, but she burned me and I lost control", whines Tiffany

But Erick is no longer there and he is not in control of anything.

Kairon advances towards Tiffany without any mercy, at that time the teachers enter the cafeteria but not even they dare to stand in the way of Kairon, the most bloodthirsty beast ever seen.

But something grabs his leg weakly and he looks down ready to rip the hand off whoever dared to touch him, and he sees na almost dead Eduarda holding his leg and that vision is like a thousand knives in his heart.

Already in control Erick turns to Tiffany and says with a devilish smile:

"In the next jungle you will be my prey", turning around, he takes Eduarda in his arms to take her to the infirmary.

Even though Joshua really wanted to go after his sister, he stayed because he needed to talk to Tiffany and make her explain this story that Eduarda burned her hand.

From the corner of the cafeteria Professor Draco gives na enigmatic smile and says to himself:

"Finally started grandpa"
