

Chapter 15 Restinga the Theory

---

Chapter 15: Testing the Theory

Joshua takes a deep breath feeling a certain panic take hold of him, but at the same time he decides that he can't back down, he needs to know if Erick is his sister's mate, and if he is he needs to find out what's wrong with the transformation of the sister who at least seen prevents even Erick from feeling the bond of mate, making up his mind Joshua repeats as if it were the most normal thing in the world:

"Sit there and hold my sister's hand"

Erick thinks that his Beta may have gone crazy because of the agony of seeing his sister like this, but he also feels like punching him for saying that as if it were the most banal thing in the world:

"Joshua you are crossing the line" says Erick with a firm voice

"Ok I'm going to ask Gaby to take my place, it turns out that since we have a blood tie I'm afraid to convey my conflicting emotions to her, and since her brother I don't want her to feel alone I want her to know that there's someone here for her, if you can't do that I'm going to call Gaby", Joshua now watching Erick's angry face was confident that the jealousy and possessiveness of the mate bond wouldn't allow Erick to let another guy hold Eduarda's hand besides him and himself.

Erick now finds himself in na internal struggle, he didn't want to let on that he cared who held Eduarda's hand, but every bit of his being refused to allow Joshua to call Gaby.

Sighing lost he says:

"Ok, as long as you continue the story", saying that he sits down and holds that small and fragile hand between his hands, feeling something very weak pass between the two.

Joshua was triumphant, Erick's reaction alone almost proved his theory, giving Erick a thumbs up he continues:

"I don't care about Tiffany's hand either, but she was hysterical saying it was Eduarda who did it", says smiling watching Eduarda's heartbeat stabilize

"Impossible even if Eduarda had thrown something boiling at her, it wouldn't be able to cause such injuries and her Lycan would have even finished the healing process" says Erick, feeling very comfortable now.

"That's exactly what I told Tiffany, and she swore that Eduarda did it with her hands, she said that she held her hand and a red glow came out of her and burned her hand, she also said that a little while before she saw a strange glow in Eduarda's eyes like the eyes of a wolf, as I found the story fantastical I went to ask those closest to me and everyone said that Tiffany spoke the truth, and now my sister has gone from being a weakling to na evil monster", he says, looking now with pride for sister.

Erick also lightly squeezes Eduarda's hand and thinks: "This year is going to be interesting, a monster prince and na evil monster in the same place"

"I was going to talk about this with you when we found that scene in the cafeteria, Kairon and Tron swear that their sister has a wolf, because they felt her when Eduarda threw Betany in the corridor, but Tron can not reach her, they think she is blocked", says Erick and is surprised when he looks at Eduarda and notices that she looks more flushed and not white and lifeless from when they arrived.

Joshua also notices and no longer has any doubt that his sister and Erick are mates, but decides to keep the information to himself, as Erick harbors a great grudge against his mate, so he thinks it's best to let the bond work its magic first.

"Deep down I always knew that, and apparently it is not a normal wolf," says Joshua

"From the story you just told me, she must be very powerful indeed", agrees Erick

"But then the question remains, what is preventing the transformation?" Joshua asks himself aloud.

The door opens and a very worried Gaby enters the room.

Joshua immediately calls Erick at the link:

"Was this guy listening behind the door?", this makes Joshua very worried because his father said that he could only trust his companions and that guardian, and he didn't think that Gaby was the guardian, and what intrigued him even more is that he didn't feel the approach of another wolf or being and his wolf Kratos was na expert in that.

"Maybe, but what makes me really worried is the fact that this is the second time this guy has appeared out of nowhere and I haven't felt his presence before", says Erick, confirming Joshua's suspicions and remembering the night in the cave, he he didn't feel that Gaby there, and as far as he knew he was the only being able to totally hide his scent or presence, at least that's what he thought.

Gaby interrupts their communication when he says:

"What's going on here?, Why are you holding her hand?", Gaby couldn't believe what she was seeing, Erick holding Eduarda's hand, but he wasn't going to let that happen, the sorceress was right, he really he will feel a bond forming between him and Eduarda on the day of the draw, but apparently not strong enough for them to mark each other as partners, but he would not let Erick get between the two, he would fight for her.

"And what do you have to do with it", ask Erick and Joshua together
"She's your sister you should be protecting her not him" he says accusingly to Joshua

At that time the door opens again and Professor Draco enters analyzing the scene and says:

"Mister Gaby, do you by any chance have permission to be here?"

"No but..." begins Gaby but is interrupted

"No questions, Mr. Gabriel, please return to class"

Gaby leaves throwing na angry look at Erick who was still holding Eduarda's hand.

Commented [Ma1]:

Commented [Ma2R1]: