

Chapter 18 Take It back

Eduarda now also looks at the exasperated healer and says:

"And what do you expect me to do? Say something like abracadabra Alakazam yes sala bim and does that do the trick? Because I've been through so much in my life that honestly if I could burn people I would have already exterminated some", Joshua looks at his sister in amazement wondering if she wasn't taking the fight back thing too seriously.

Erick suppresses a smile, and in his interior he thinks that Eduarda when she discovers her wolf will not make being na easy girl, and that thought pleases him.

"You young people don't know anything, just do what I say and then we'll see if I'm right or not" says the healer very irritated now.

Tiffany slowly approaches Eduarda and extends her hand, which Eduarda reluctantly takes.

"Hmm, now take it back", says the healer to Eduarda, and Erick, who, just as she is finding it ridiculous, loses patience and says

"Stop running around and tell her what she needs to do, what's this thing about taking it back?" Joshua nods, not liking the Lycan so close to his sister one bit.

"Simple if that's one of the wolf's powers..."

"That's the question", Eduarda interrupts, "I don't have a wolf"

The old healer seems more and more interested in this peculiar situation.

"Alright, alright, let's say you have the old power I told you about, she can't heal because part of it is still acting in her hand, you need to take the power back to you, it's simple say come on thinking about the power and if he's yours he'll come back to you, if not... Well if not, we'll think about it later"

Erick thinks the old man has gone crazy, until he sees Eduarda narrowing her eyes and saying:

"Come", and immediately a red glow went from Tiffany's hand to Eduarda's hands and disappeared.

Joshua with wide eyes asks anxiously:

"And that won't burn her?", he says pointing to Eduarda.

That way, the old healer smiles and inclines his head as a sign of respect for Eduarda and says:

"I've never heard of a wolf that killed itself with its own power" and leaves for the door muttering, "I can't believe I lived to see this."

Erick knew it was no use asking, because he had known the old healer for a long time, and if he was leaving like that, it was because he thought he had done his duty, and his place was no longer there, but when he got to the end of it, he didn't turn around. It says:

"Young man whatever you're doing to block your wolf better stop" and he leaves without saying anything else.

Joshua makes a move to talk to Eduarda but Erick makes a sign to Tiffany, and he shuts up.

Tiffany looks relieved as her healing process normalizes, she turns to leave but using her voice command Erick says:

"Hold still Tiffany, you can tell everyone that your injury was really caused by some occult power of Eduarda, but everything else you saw or heard here is forbidden for you to comment to anyone, including everything the healer said, and Tiffany I don't usually give second chances to anyone, so take yours".

As soon as he's finished speaking Tiffany bows her head in submission and I leave as quickly as I can, relieved that I didn't lose her hand and upset that I couldn't tell anyone that the wolfless one did have a wolf or the healer wouldn't have. Said that.

Thinking about it now, Tiffany realizes that Eduarda will be a tough competitor in the jungles, she better look for Jessica and make an alliance to end Eduarda once and for all.

In the bedroom Joshua this time decides to be careful and checks the hallway, after making sure he has no sign of Gaby or anyone else he turns to Eduarda and says anxiously:

"Eduarda, are you blocking your transformation in any way?", He doesn't really need her to answer because he knows his sister well and it's written on her face that yes.

Eduarda wishes Erick weren't there, as it would be easier to talk only to her brother, but she looks at her thoughtfully and she doesn't have the courage to ask him to leave so she decides to lie.

"Of course not Joshua, how would I do that?"

"Eduarda, whatever it is needs to stop, look, this place is no joke, and soon you will have to participate in the jungles"

Eduarda feels a shiver when she hears about the Jungle, as everyone knew the famous survival game of the royal academy.

This game had no rules and the objective was to survive, and it was normal for weaker wolves to be killed for food, water or just fun, it was a game where only the strongest survived.

"Don't worry, Joshua, I'll fix it", says Eduarda, looking fondly at her brother.

At that time, the door opens and the doctor returns, looking suspiciously at Erick and Joshua, as the only thing that could help in Eduarda's speedy recovery was the presence of her partner.

"I see you're better, we expected you to wake up only tomorrow", he says to Eduarda, and then to Joshua and Erick.

But with a firm voice right after examining Eduarda he says it would be better to let her rest.

And now Eduarda is alone while with one hand she plays with her mother's necklace, and she wonders if the time has really come to take the necklace off, after all she doubted that her mother would prefer that she die.

Then she remembers the dream on the train and decides that as soon as her life is in danger she will take the necklace off, she just hopes it's not too late.

Now Eduarda begins to reflect on the events of the day, and wonders what kind of wolf she would be, and for some reason in her mind the image of the white wolf trapped by chains on the ground, and Eduarda does not know but her eyes now glow red, and from a dark corner of the window Draco watches her, still gripped by his doubts.
