

Chapter 47 Celeste

---

They know they have a long night ahead of them, because they can't pause the transformation forever, and they need to figure out what to do quickly.

Erick has na idea, and asks his beasts Tron and Kairon to try to contact Eduarda's she-wolf to find out what is going on. Erick concentrates and explains to Kairon and Tron
what he needs them to do, and shortly afterwards he feels as if his beasts are absent from his body.

Meanwhile in a dark corner of Eduarda's mind is a beautiful white she-wolf named Celeste.

Tron and Kairon easily find her and smell and lick her leaving their scent on her as their companion.

After a few moments
Tron says:

"I am Tron, Erick's wolf and his companion as well as Kairon. We are here to help Eduarda. She is going through a difficult transformation and we are trying to understand what is going on. Can you help us with that?

"I am Celeste," says the she-wolf in a soft, melancholy voice, "I have long been imprisoned inside Eduarda. She was unaware of my existence, as I was suppressed by fear and lack of understanding. Now, with the first transformation, my powers and feelings are emerging, and it is causing me pain to both of us."

"Right Celeste" says

Kairon, "We are sorry that you have been held prisoner for so long. We want to help Eduarda and free you from any suffering. Is there anything we can do to facilitate your release?"

"There is a deep connection between Eduarda and me. In order for me to completely free myself, she needs to accept and embrace her true nature. She is afraid of what is happening and is fighting against transformation. Help her to find strength within herself and to accept her own magic. Only then can we move forward."

Tron and Kairon

approach Celeste touching the muzzle on her neck and say goodbye with a goodbye.

Tron and Kairon

explain to Erick what Celeste told them and Erick shares the information with Joshua and Draco.

"So, it seems that Eduarda needs to confront her fears and accept her own nature so that Celeste can break free completely. We must help her in this process and provide the emotional support she needs," says Joshua.

"Agreed. Also, we may need to work with her to unlock and control her magic. As she accepts and understands her gifts, the transformation may progress more smoothly," Draco says

Meanwhile in the forest not far from there, Hercules is furious, because the fact that he can't touch Eduarda and Erick does, shows that their bond is much stronger than the weak bond he has painstakingly built with Eduarda.

He needs to act fast, or it will be too late to bring Eduarda into the darkness. He knew that Eduarda must be in the process of transformation. And he begins to devise a plan to interrupt Eduarda's transformation and use her for his own dark purposes. He knows that he must find a way to break the bond between Eduarda and Erick, which would strengthen his own control over her.

Hercules summons his loyal followers, dark beings and evil creatures, to send them on a mission. They gather in a hidden clearing, where the darkness seems to be concentrated.

"Bring me Eduarda, before she turns"

Meanwhile, Erick, Joshua and Draco continue to care for Eduarda. They share with her the information they gained through their connection with Celeste and begin working on helping her accept her true nature and explore her powers.

Eduarda, still weakened and confused, is willing to listen and trust Erick. She opens up to the idea that within her is na incredible power, a white she-wolf named Celeste, who is seeking freedom and harmony.

Erick, with all his determination and affection for Eduarda, approaches her and holds her hands gently. He looks deeply into her eyes and says: "Eduarda, you are not alone. We are here with you. You are strong and brave. It's time to embrace who you really are and let your inner power blossom."

Joshua and Draco join Erick, supporting Eduarda every step of the way. They help her connect with her own magic, guiding her through exercises and practices to unlock her potential.

As Eduarda struggles to overcome her fears and accept her true nature, the followers of Hercules sneak into the clearing where they are. They are determined to interrupt Eduarda's transformation process and use her as na instrument of darkness.

However, Celeste, the white she-wolf, notices their presence and issues a silent warning through the connection with Tron and Kairon. The two wolves warn Erick and the others of the impending threat.

Erick, Joshua and Draco transform and prepare for the battle to come. They form a protective circle around Eduarda, who tries to finish the transformation.

The battle begins and the forest is overtaken by dark roars, destructive fires, and dark magic.

Erick in his Lycan form proves unbeatable in his purpose of defending Eduarda, who now begins again to emit moans of pain as her bones break to shape her she-wolf.

Draco also uses magic to fight the darkness, while Joshua shatters as many enemies as possible.

Eduarda shudders on the ground and screams, arching her body she stops fighting the pain and accepts it. While Erick, Joshua and Draco fight with courage and determination, using their own powers to defend Eduarda and neutralize the attacks of Hercules' followers. The intense energy of the confrontation fills the air, creating a magical storm that lights up the forest using magic.

That's when an evil force arrives, and to the dismay of Erick, Joshua and Draco, they begin to be overwhelmed, Erick refuses to lose and continues to protect Eduarda with all his might.

But the evil shadow catches him by the neck and Erick feels himself suffocating.

