

Chapter 6 Who did this to you

They head to the fanciest store they can find, and Eduarda tries to say that she doesn't need much, but Joshua insists on a complete wardrobe, says that she doesn't need to try on everything, but tells the saleswomen that her sister needs a wardrobe. Complete outfit for all occasions for a year.

When Eduarda tries to protest, he explains that with the gym stuff, it's very difficult for them to go shopping.

"But it will be very expensive", says Eduarda

"You talk as if we didn't have any money, little sister, I've been managing well the money that dad and mom left us, and even if you bought the store we'd still be rich don't worry, now why don't you try on that dress" she says handing over the her a pink dress that he noticed her looking at.

Eduarda takes the dress and goes into the fitting room.

Erick turns to Gaby and teases:

"Didn't you say you needed some things", he asks ironically

"I think I already have everything I need" says Gaby raising her eyebrows equally ironically.

In that Betany who can't take her envy any longer, she enters the dressing room with the excuse of helping Eduarda.

Eduarda was only in her bra and panties looking at herself in the mirror, when Betany grabs her by the hair, but to the despair of both, Eduarda loses her balance and falls, taking the fitting room curtain with her, exposing herself to the eyes of the three men and the saleswoman who were waiting outside.

"Oh my God", exclaims the horrified saleswoman when Eduarda stands up, and her bruised and scarred body is exposed, Eduarda tries to go back to the fitting room which makes the situation worse as this shows her back that has not yet healed from the last whipping she took.

"What the fuck is this?" , Erick's voice resounds like angry thunder, making Eduarda flinch in fear.

Gaby quickly grabs a towel that was for sale and hands it to Eduarda who covers up.

Joshua appears to be in shock, and tears are streaming down his face without even realizing it.

"Who did this to you?" roars Erick closer and closer to losing control
Gaby, seeing that the situation was going to get worse, says to the saleswoman:

"Please wrap everything that was purchased and send it to the hotel Joshua here will tell you which one and settle the bill" he says pushing Joshua towards the saleswoman.

Joshua takes one more look in his sister's direction and follows the saleswoman to the register.

Gaby turns to Erick and says:

"You are scaring her"

Erick runs his hands through his hair and takes a deep breath, and that's when his gaze falls on Betany.

Betany is pale, standing in a corner trying to get Eduarda's attention. He suspects that she has something to do with Eduarda's injuries, which only gets worse when she says:

"I think the tour is over, I'm going back to the hotel"

Erick puts all his Alpha power into his voice and says:

"You're not going anywhere, Ken's girlfriend, you're going to wait for us and help Eduarda explain this story correctly"

Betany stops in place, and Eduarda hastily puts on one of her new clothes, jeans and a blouse with long sleeves.

They leave the store with Joshua clutching Eduarda, as if he's afraid that if he lets her go, she might disappear.

Everyone follows Erick, who to Betany's despair heads towards the nearest forest, the silence is heavy in the group.

When they were out of sight of humans, Erick gave in to anger and punched a tree that, like a stick, flew about three meters away and fell.

With his wolf's blood red eyes he turns and says:

"Now you two are going to explain what's going on here"

Betany realizing that she is in great danger is the first to speak:

"I, I don't know, went into the dressing room to help her, but when I saw the marks of wounds I got scared, then she fell and you know the rest"

"Honey, I need you to trust me, I need you to tell me who did this to you, please Dudley," Joshua says, squeezing his sister's hand in his.

At that moment, almost imperceptibly, Eduarda looks at Betany, but Erick catches the movement.

It uses its alpha tone:

"Was it you?", asks Betany

She takes a few steps back, trying to avoid answering the question, but Erick is too powerful for her to resist.

"I didn't make my mother..."

Erick didn't let the sentence finish, not understanding why it was messing with him so much, he let his most bloodthirsty beast take over, his clothes are torn, his body is transformed and before them appears the most powerful Lycan in the world Kairon.

Betany tries to run but in milliseconds Kairon already has one of his hands around her neck.

Gaby seems to like what she sees and is unwilling to interfere on Betany's behalf.

Joshua wants to transform himself and tear Betany apart, then hunt down her mother.

But the most surprising reaction is that of Eduarda, who instead of being afraid of Erick in the form of Kairon, feels attracted to him, and for the second time in her life, she feels the presence of her wolf, who struggles to free herself.

She takes three steps towards Erick, and a horrified Joshua tries to stop her as does Gaby, as to come between a Lycan and its prey meant death.

Betany, who was taken off the ground by Erick's grip, feels that she is going to die, kicks and tries everything to get rid of Erick's grip, but nothing she does seems to have any effect on him, and at that moment she wishes that she never life had touched Eduarda, she feels her life slip away, when something surprising happens.

She sees Eduarda approaching the beast, as if she were in a trance, Joshua and Gaby unsuccessfully try to stop her, and the next thing Eduarda does leaves everyone there surprised and terrified for the young woman's life.

And Betany falls to the ground almost lifeless when the beast releases her and turns to the bold Eduarda.

Betany disappointed takes a card and says:

"Oh sure, pass that card."
