

Chapter 8 I want the weakling

When they arrive at the entrance, Joshua says goodbye to Eduarda, saying that from there he could not accompany her, as she would be taken to where the newcomers were registered and separated, but that they would see each other at the welcome dinner.

Walking past Betany he gives her a death glare and growls softly in warning and threat.

Pedro also says goodbye to her as soon as they arrive in a room full of other newbies from other packs.

Gaby is protective beside Eduarda while they wait.

Suddenly a door opens and a man who gives Gaby the creeps enters.

He looks at the rookies as if he could devour them at any moment and says:

"My name is Dracon, I am in charge of physical training and body fighting, both in human and your wolf form, which means I will be responsible for the death of at least three or four of you, and today I have been assigned to receive them, common lycan wolves don't usually give anyone a second chance be careful" and looking directly at Eduarda says, "and if you don't have a wolf, you should never have come here now follow me I'll take you to your dorms".

As they walked he continued to speak:

"Only the royals have single rooms, the rest will be divided into groups of six, this group will be your family, if one makes a mistake everyone will be punished, each new group is part of a senior group, to whom you will owe obedience", stopping in front of the Newcomers dorm one on the door, he says six names that Eduarda has never heard in her life, and she begins to pray not to be separated from Gaby.

He looks at the rookies as if he could devour them at any moment and says:

"My name is Dracon, I am in charge of physical training and body fighting, both in human and your wolf form, which means I will be responsible for the death of at least three or four of you, and today I have been assigned to receive them, common lycan wolves don't usually give anyone a second chance be careful" and looking directly at Eduarda says, "and if you don't have a wolf, you should never have come here now follow me I'll take you to your dorms".

As they walked he continued to speak:

"Only the royals have single rooms, the rest will be divided into groups of six, this group will be your family, if one makes a mistake everyone will be punished, each new group is part of a senior group, to whom you will owe obedience", stopping in front of the Newcomers dorm one on the door, he says six names that Eduarda has never heard in her life, and she begins to pray not to be separated from Gaby.

But a dormitory is assigned, and none of Eduarda's group has been chosen.

Until in dormitory number 3, Betany, Trevan and Gaby are chosen, as there was no separation between men and women, and Eduarda is taken by two conflicting emotions, fear for being separated from Gaby and relief for not being with Betany and Trevan.

At that time Erick appears and says:

"Draco I want the weakling in my group"

"Who?" asks Fraco

"The one without a wolf, I think if I'm not mistaken the name is Eduarda"

"By the Moon Erick, I don't want any deaths before the first week," says Draco in between amusement and exasperation.

Erick simply raises his eyebrows and Draco thirsts:

"Ok, ok but then don't go saying I didn't warn you", he says scratching his beard, "no wolf swap with the short one over there from group one".

At this time Gaby says:

"Lord, if possible, I want to go with her"

Erick is irritated by the boldness of the golden curls.

Draco noticing Erick's irritation decides to add fuel to the fire.

"Alright, any knights from group one, would you like to trade with the dead guy here?"

The three boys from group one raised their hands, as no one wanted to be in the group that would have the monster prince's group as their senior.

Draco pointed to one of them and just like that, Eduarda and Gaby ended up in dorm one.

After dividing all the newcomers between the four dorms, Draco tells them that they are dismissed and that they must stay in their dorms until a representative from the senior group comes to collect them for dinner.

Erick smiles devilishly, thinking:

"Okay, I chose the weakling to protect her out of consideration for Joshua, while Goldilocks came as a gift for me to torture"

While across the courtyard Jessica a cruel and possessive Lycan looked interested at the scene.

looked interested at the scene.

She had been in love with Erick for years, during this period she will already eliminate several rivals for whom he will show a greater interest than the casual sex he normally had with the girls, some had a very painful end at Jessica's hands, others simply fled in horror with her cruelty.

Smiling, she decides to keep an eye on the weakling, as it was the first time that Erick personally chose someone for his group.

Although she looked from there, she didn't believe that he could be interested in that girl, skinny and dull, but insurance died of old age.

In the bedroom, Eduarda is busy unpacking the eight huge suitcases that Joshua has provided for her.

Thanks to Lua, the dormitory was large, with two bathrooms, one for the girls and one for the boys, a common room with a sofa, television, a table and a desk with a computer. In addition to six cubicles separated by dividers, they had a double bed, two nightstands and a large wardrobe.

Eduarda took the one closest to the door and Gaby took the one on the side.

Eduarda could not forget Erick's words he will call her a weakling without a wolf. Eduarda knew that he would only choose her because of her brother, so it would be easier for Joshua to protect him, but she couldn't help but think that he could have done that without offending her. She didn't know how to explain why it had hurt and bothered her so much after all she had already been called worse things.

much after all she had already been called worse things.

Sighing, she forces herself to think that at least Gaby did everything to be with her, and that maybe means she was reciprocated in her love for him.

When she thinks about loving Gaby something inside her stirs and she becomes more uncomfortable.

She decides to take a shower and change for dinner.

When she finishes, everyone is in the common room and introduces themselves.

There was Peter a shy and freckled boy, but with na athletic body, Cristina a girl a little overweight but with a beautiful face and a sincere smile, Helena a perfect preppy girl who seemed to think that everyone had to do her will , Taylor is a beautiful and very playful boy, besides of course Eduarda and Gaby.

After the introductions, Gaby approaches Eduarda and says:

"Hey at first don't trust anyone ok? And always try to stay close

"Is it not to trust even you?" says Eduarda in a playful tone

"I would give my life for you Eduarda" he says and looks at her with a penetrating look.

For a moment it looks like she only has the two of them in the room, and Eduarda thinks he's going to kiss her when the door opens and Erick and Joshua appear.

