

Last Man 551

Chapter 551 - Vol 7: Ch 551 – The wonderful relationship of the Din’s siblings 2

Around 10 minutes they arrive at the CA Residences since the hotel they are staying is just a near distance. Mei is the one hopping out first and before El hopping out from the driver’s side, Mei stops him first.

“Don’t go down yet Bro El and please make sure that the stalker will leave first, of course, you need to pretend that you just dropping me off here before going to Sis unit, okay?”

“Are you planning that Miss Li will really assume that you being mistaking as Rei that really cheats behind Bro Tae’s back?”

“Bingo”

“Okay but I don’t know if this drama of yours can’t be affected with Rei and Tae’s relationship and let’s hope it’s not”

“No worries Bro El because Sis can clear it up and clean up after our mess, so you don’t need to be a worrywart like My En, okay?”

“Okay and leave now before Miss Li assume that we kiss”

“E.... geez Bro El don’t joke with me about that one it’s so gross you know and of course, only one man that I want to be intimate with and that’s my one and only, My En, so don’t let me hear me that one although Miss Li already assume that one, still I don’t want it to hear it from you Bro El and to anyone from our family members because it’s so gross.”

“I know and same with me because I only have my one and only wife, so leave now”

Right away Mei leaves as if she really a cheater just now since she looks around and has a worried expression because someone might discover her, so she leaves hurriedly while looking around and ride the elevator right away. At the same time, El also starting the engine and drive as if he just drops his lover in secrets without knowing that he just turning to other sides and park the van at the visitor's parking space.

As expected Miss Li really assumes what the two siblings really want her to assume or rather only Mei since she's the one who plans it that way.

'Tsk, just because she's a real beauty, she can do whatever she wants but I don't want her to hurt my husband, sorry but I can't tolerate your evil doings so I need to disclose it at the right time' then leave the place after making sure that she got shreds of evidence without knowing that she really got fall deeper of Mei's plot but both Mei and El didn't know that this plan almost implicated the wonderful relationship of the Jun couple.

At that moment, when Mei arrived on the last floor she didn't key the passcode nor pressing the doorbell since she doesn't want to trouble everyone and so instead of doing that, she just calls Rei right away and only disturb her sister instead of everyone.

Ring, ring, and ring

"Mei, what's wrong?" Rei already knows since all her family members have different assign ring tone to her phone and ask with a clear voice since she is still not sleeping at the moment.

"Eh, you're still awake Sis?"

"Uh-uh, and how about you Mei, why are you still awake, it's the room I choose is not to your liking?"

"I'm outside at your door, so open up Sis, and how about Bro Tae, is he still awake?"

"Yes, he is and so....."

"Wow, Sis it's still early, and yet you already"

Tot, tot, and tot

Rei hangs up right away and before Mei going to show her usual antics, the door open right away and heard Rei.

“Before your mind going wild, we didn’t do it yet and we discuss something the unnecessary matter, so don’t imagine wild things and get in”

“Tsk, what a bummer. Oh right I didn’t go alone and Bro El is with me but I go first since he is still playing mouse and cat first”

“Huh?” both Tae and Rei got confused

“Oh Rei and Bro Tae you are still awake, sorry for bothering the two of you then”

“Eh, you’re already done playing mouse and cat Bro El?”

“Yes for tonight but I guess the mouse really got played by the cat very well”

“Well, who asks the mouse to be naughty then?”

“Bro El and Mei, what with this cat and mouse you are talking about?”

“Geez Sis you’re so, so very boring but let us come in first, and what a rude host you are, not letting your guest sitting first, right?”

“Oh, am I really?”

“Yes you are”

“So want me to close the door on your face then?”

“Ha, ha, ha, just kidding and don’t be a serious one Sis or else you will become an old person just like my En”

“Come in and please take a sit my honored beautiful guest who’s been disturbing the night of her rude host”

“Good, good that you know and hey, you didn’t say that I’m disturbing you. You also said that you’re talking about unnecessary matters to Bro Tae so I’m not really disturbing you, okay?”

“Yeah I did and I’m just kidding”

“...” Mei got speechless while wondering ‘this sister of mine, I don’t really know if she’s kidding with me or not because of her serious expressions, geez, lucky for me I’m already used to it or else I really take it to my heart.’ Then she realized something ‘eh, so this is what really My En feels whenever I tease My En? Tsk, lucky for me since Bro El warns me, or else I will really push My En limits. Geez, I’m such really an idiot for not realizing it.’

The three are now looking at Mei’s who’s busy wondering but they didn’t bother to ask what’s wrong since it really shows to her expressions after all among Din’s siblings, Mei is the one who always expressive and the mood maker among them, so after seeing her worried expressions both Rei and El just ask worriedly.

“Are you alright Mei?”

Stop wondering and heard the two of them “wow, I do really have a kind elder brother and elder sister, huh”

Rei ignoring her comments and ask again “are you alright Mei?”

“I’m alright Sis and I just realized something about my matters but enough about me because we are here to inform you that someone harboring your husband”

“Someone harboring my husband, is it a good one or a bad one?”

“Huh, and what’s the difference between the two Sis?”

“Well Tae is really famous and so handsome so it does no wonder that someone harboring my husband” Rei answered proudly and she’s like this since the one she’s talking with is her siblings.

Chapter 552 - Vol 7: Ch 552 – The wonderful relationship of the Din’s siblings 3

Hearing his wife is proud of him Tae can’t help but caught off guard and blushing while looking at his wife lovingly with his tender care loving expression.

“OMG, stop showing off Sis and Bro Tae stop throwing dog food to us. And Sis you didn’t answer my query about what’s the difference between the two, okay?”

“Well Tae have both fans and anti-fans so the one is a good one who is harboring my husband which is Tae’s fans and the other one is an anti-fan, so which one?” Rei answered calmly as if she didn’t show off a while ago as a proud wife.

Mei putting her hands to her chin and think before answering “well you have a point Sis but I’m not aware that someone belongs to either a fan or anti-fan but well it doesn’t matter since I know that someone identity, so do you know someone with a name Li Danni, then?”

“Li Danni?” Rei asks again while Mei nodded confirming that she heard it right “Mei, there’s many Li Danni here in S Country but if you talk about that Superstar Li Danni who is also an artist of CA

Entertainment then I know that one, so what's wrong with Miss Li? Is it that someone harboring my husband then?"

"BINGO and Miss Li mistook me as you so now she assumes that you are cheating behind your husband's back" then Mei tells right away Rei what she heard though she just heard accidentally that she [Miss Li] mentions Rei's name while the others details she [Mei] heard it from eavesdropping.

"Oh, I didn't know that Miss Li is really quite a delusional one but it can't be helped after all Miss Li is my husband's ex-girlfriend so maybe she still not move on with Tae."

Both El and Mei got shocked "eh?"

Rei ignore the two reactions and explain right away "Miss Li just got back 1 week ago in here and just got to know that I got married to Tae from our disclosure but she can't accept the reality since I'm just a mere manager while she's a superstar so that's why she's been following me for this whole week"

"Eh, then Sis, what are you doing? You didn't make a move, right?" Rei nodded and Mei continued "so why didn't you confront her for her to stop assuming and her own delusional then?"

"I want to but I'm already 4 months pregnant and it's not safe for me to confront her face to face so I just wait until I give birth but I've never expected that she's still blind from the truth".

"Bro Tae, did you and that Miss Li has proper break-up?"

"Yes we have Mei and she's the one breaking me up"

"For what reason then that you two broke up?"

"She said that I'm not good enough to her because I'm not famous enough just like her and she also said that we can be together again if I catch up with her and be the same level."

"Oh I see and I get it now"

"I guess you also taught that Tae worked hard as an artist and become famous because of her, right Mei?"

"Yes Sis and so how the two of you broke up?"

"She broke me up when I'm with my Team Managers and Teammates so that's why it becomes known from all CA Entertainment Families that the two of us been dating but it got covered right away that's why it was unknown to the public that we were dating in the past."

"Eh, then....."

"Miss Li thought that Tae just agreed with the break up out on impulse and thinking that Tae still in love with her because he works hard and become famous to catch up with her but she didn't predict that Tae is more famous compared to her"

"I see and so that's the reason why she comebacks here, huh"

"That might be one of the reasons Mei but I guess her main reasons is because of the existing contract going to end this coming June"

"Oh I see but let's not talk about it since that's company matters and for now Miss Li really assume that Bro Tae still in love with her, so knowing Bro Tae for sure he didn't contact her after she broke up with him and it's okay for me to ask how long the two of you dating then?"

"2 Months"

"Eh, 2 months, a--are you sure Bro Tae?"

"Uh-uh"

“OMG, Miss Li already likes this when in fact you only dated for 2 months, and by the way among your ex-girlfriends which one you dated long then?”

“I dated my first girlfriend for 3 weeks, next for 2 months, then for 3 months, and last for 7 months.”

“..... so who is that girlfriend that you dated for 7 months then?”

“Rei”

“.....” Mei’s got speechless.

Seeing her sister’s reactions, Rei retort “at least my husband is not like you who’s the shortest day is not even a day”

“Hey”

“What?”

“Nothing, so Bro Tae except for my sister since we already know that you already have done it since the twins are the proof of that so which one among the three you did before my sister then?”

“No one since among the three we only kiss, hugs, and holding hands because I don’t want to be intimate with them hence I’m not yet assured if they are the right one for me and of course it’s to protect my career as an artist, so to avoid i.m.p.r.e.g.n.a.t.e one of them I didn’t go further beyond that”

“Oh I see”

“Geez enough with that talking Mei and are you not embarrassed talking that one to your sister and Bro-in-law, huh?”

“What’s wrong with that EI? All of us here are already married and so what’s wrong talking about that one, huh?”

“Enough with that and let’s proceed to why we are really here because our spouse is waiting for us, okay?”

“Okay”

“Good, so Rei and Bro Tae you need to be careful because we are still not sure what’s with the ex-girlfriend of yours plan especially you will be enlisting this coming May but before that let’s hear what Mei’s planning for Miss Li.”

The three of them are now looking at Mei as if asking her ‘so what’s your plan?’

“Ha, ha, ha, it’s only a simple and very easy plan but enough for her to assume that I’m really cheating as you Sis”

“Let me hear it first because I don’t want my relationship with Tae going to implicated because of this plan of yours Mei”

“Geez relax Sis and no worry because you can clean up after my mess, so hear me first before rejecting me, okay?”

“I did say let me hear it first”

“Oh, right you did”

The three of them are now fully focused on Mei and waiting for her to discuss what she's planning about but she didn't want to share it yet because she wants to keep it a secret but well the three of them eager to know what it is so she can't help but just reveal it.

"Do you really want to know?" the three of them nodded and Rei added to her.

"I want to hear it first Mei because I don't want my relationship to be implicated especially we are talking about Tae's career and it's risky to do so, so let me know first, okay?"

"Okay, okay, I will so, here's the plan." Then Mei relays it at ease without hesitation as if her plan will be executed very well.

[Since Miss Li already mistook me as you Sis then let her continue to mistook me and assume that I'm really cheating as you. Well all of us know the truth but for her, she doesn't know anything so let me borrow your car, the red car, and pretend that I'm cheating behind your husband back since for this whole week I will also visit the Jang Corp. subsidiary branches in here after our family members itinerary, see it's very simple and easy plan]

"Yeah, very simple and easy plan indeed but I'm aware that Jang Corp has 10 Hotels here in S Capital City, so it's really risky for us because Miss Li might get fake evidence about me cheating but this fake evidence is enough for Tae reputation to ruin though I know it will backfire to her because I'm not really cheating but can you at least confront her directly instead of me, that's an easy and very direct method, right?"

"Nah that's very boring Sis and no worries because the one I've been meeting is only the Hotel Manager and my husband so don't be a worrywart, okay?"

"Are you ready to announce that you're Madame Jang then?"

"They already know who I am and it's already been disclosed when I return back to T Country last month."

“Then how come Miss Li doesn’t recognize you when in fact she’s a superstar in T Country and just assumes that you are Rei, right?” Tae asks them out of nowhere.

Both Sisters answered at the same time “well we do really look alike so that’s why and as for why she didn’t recognize us, we didn’t know about that one.”

“You do really look alike but my wife Rei has a small eye compared to your big eye Mei so why?”

“Ha, ha, ha, thanks for your compliment Bro Tae but only the one who really knows us can really differentiate between the two of us. As for Miss Li, she just closes her heart and mind to believe what’s the truth because she can’t accept the reality yet and she regrets what she did to you, of course, she really believes that she’s more capable and beautiful compared to Sis without knowing that she’s very far compared to Sis so even without knowing my sister very well she’s already jealous of Sis so how much more if she knows more but well it’s not our fault because the one she can only blame is her own self, who says for her to not believe the reality and just letting her continue of her own delusional but well an obsess lady is a real danger to the world so let’s her taste her own medicine, so please Sis agree with my plan, okay?”

“Only for this one whole week that I’m here so please Sis, okay?”

“No”

Right away Tae save his sister in law and talk to his wife “Rei I’m alright with it and you already have countermeasures to backfired her so it’s really safe for the two of us”

“Yeah I know but I’m going to counterattack after I give birth so.....”

“Please, Hon?”

“O—-okay”

“Thank you Bro Tae and Sis don’t worry I just want her to gather enough fake evidence that’s all”

“Yeah, yeah I know and I’m just going to clean it up after your mess”

“Thank you Sis and now let’s talk about Ms. Chang Pia”

“And who is it this time?”

“Don’t worry Sis because she didn’t harbor anything to your husband and I just want you to investigate her background before I hired her, that’s all.”

“You have Assistant Aki with you, remember?”

“He is too slow for me”

“...” Rei’s speechless and at the same time, she retrieves her phone from the desk and investigates the background of that someone right away before relaying it to everyone but not everything and just some important details.

[Miss Chang Pia

20 years old, single, and the only child of the Chang Family. Her father is a valet and working in Class A Hotel while her mother is a housewife, can’t do a job because she got paralyzed after she falls from the stairs of her working place as a janitress. Miss Chang as the only child of the Chang was a studious student and a former scholar student of S Gifted International School and Academe. She wants to pursue a criminology course and want to be a police officer to protect the good ones while punishing the bad ones but give up when she’s a student instead she pursue the Human Resource Course since her mother wants to be a receptionist of a 5-star hotel but didn’t achieve because of her economic status, so she wants her daughter to pursue her dreams. As a filial daughter, she’s willing to give up her dreams and she graduated from the Human Resource Course then become a receptionist at The Scarlet Garden Hotel but today got fired out because she’s talking back to the daughter’s owner.]

“Wow, they sure move fast huh”

“What are you talking about Mei?”

“Well the hotel you just book for us is owned by Miss Li’s family”

“Oh, what a coincidence Mei and so, this is the reason why you want to hire her?”

“Yup, yup because she won’t step down her morality just to get promoted”

“And yet without knowing she got scout by the Madame of the Jang”

“Hey stop with that Sis and so it’s safe for me to hire her?”

“Yes it’s safe Mei and she has a clean record but then you need to train her hard just in case she’s going to talk back with another spoiled brat again, after all, we know how the spoiled brat behave”

“Yeah I know and I already warn her”

“So did she agree right away with your offer then?”

“Geez she didn’t and she thought that I’m going to sell her body, what the heck?” Then Mei relaying to them what happened a while ago that cause the three to laugh suddenly. “Hey, why are you laughing?” Both El and Tae stop laughing after hearing the cold voice of Mei while Rei continue laughing “SIS”

“S—sorry, geez my stomach hurts from laughing too much because of you Mei”

“It’s not my fault if you got a miscarriage, okay?”

“Shah don’t jinx my youngest and I just laugh because of you Mei, so that’s why she mistook you for selling her body, huh”

“Huh?”

“Where did you hear from anyone scouting after she got fired and most of all she heard it from eavesdropping, huh?”

“Oh, so I did approach her wrongly but I did call her attention first so nothing’s wrong, right?”

“Yeah you did but it’s really wrong Mei because you just scout her after she got fired and then you heard it from eavesdropping so that’s the wrong move from you.”

“Oh I see but she knows that I’m your sister”

“Yeah you did but then you give a Universal Language calling card, so she might really think it wrongly.”

“Huh?”

“Alright and enough with that, I understand what you did so let’s just hope that she didn’t really think what she imagined about you and instead she just follow your advice before she got blacklisted from the Hotel Fields.”

“Geez what’s with that Sis but I will never mind that one and give me your car key”

Without waiting for Rei, Tae stands and retrieves the key before giving it to Mei “here”

“Thanks, Bro Tae and you must be gentle later after all Sis is pregnant”

“...” Tae got speechless.

“Mei”

“Hai, hai but I just said the truth and we are going now bye-bye.”

Chapter 554 - Vol 7: Ch 554 – Rei’s plan to Li Danni

The two siblings left the couple right away and the couple is now back in their own room. Before the siblings interrupting the couple’s talk, Rei already informs Tae about Danni that always asking about her the whole week.

“Dear”

“Mmm, what’s wrong?”

“Miss Li has been asking about me and it’s been a week since then”

“Miss Li, you mean my ex?”

“Uh-uh”

“Why she’s asking about you?”

“She’s asking about me and you then she also wants to talk with me but I reject for my own safety.”

“Good and” got cut off because Rei received the call from Mei and then talk for almost 2 hours in the living room.

“I thought all my ex-girlfriends are good and nice but I guess this one is not a simple one and quite a delusional one and what bad timing, she just appears when my enlistment date is getting near and most of all you’re pregnant.”

“Don’t worry I will be alright”

“Yeah, I know that you will be alright because you’re my wife and you are Rei after all but I’m not with your side. I feel that.....”

Rei c.a.r.e.s.sing her husband face “don’t say that you’re a worthless husband of mine because you’ve never been since I know that you really love me and worried about my safety but I will be fine, is that the main reason why you agreed with the plan of Mei when in fact I already have, right?”

“Uh-uh and so what’s your plan?”

“Just very a simple and easy one not compared to Mei which her plan is too risky but well since you already agreed then I guess I just need to gather shreds of evidence that it’s not me and it’s Mei with her husband, Bro El and then towards their Branch Hotel Managers. So my plan is very simple because I just want to confront her face to face after I give birth and let her know that the two of you are really over since 12 years ago after she broke up with you.”

“That’s so easy Hon and what if she discloses the fake pieces of evidence then what are you going to do?” And Tae really got it right because before Rei gives birth, Miss Li really discloses it to everyone because she blames Rei for something important of her when in fact it’s not Rei’s fault in the first place and only will be got cleared after Rei give birth.

“Oh well let’s talk about that one when that day arrives”

“And what if that day arrives that I’m already on my conscriptions duties huh?”

“Well I just ignore it since I know it’s not the truth anyway”

“What if it got damaged your reputation huh?”

“Well, I will clean it up after I give birth so I’m going to risk my reputation temporarily and cleaning it up after making sure that our youngest is safe, so it means I will clear up the mess after giving birth. I choose our baby safety over my reputation since it’s not the truth anyway, right?”

“Geez” Tae almost speechless and just rub his nose to her nose.

“Dear let’s sleep now, I’m already sleepy”

“But I want to become one with my wife again”

“Shameless”

“For you and only you Hon” and without asking permission from his wife, he eats her right away though it’s only for one round after all his wife telling him that she’s tired.

Of course on the next day, the family members all go to the church and attending the mass leaving only the Jun parents at home since the Jun couple is bringing their twins with them. Of course, the one who’s been eager to follow Rei and want to disclose her secrets failed to follow her, or else she will be now aware that she only got fake shreds of evidence after realizing that indeed Rei is pregnant and the one she saw yesterday is not her and instead it’s Rei’s sister, Mei.

After attending the mass, the family members go to the mall and go shopping, Ken secretly grabs his Auntie Rei and whispering that he will find a gift for his younger brother then they will buy it after their family members going back to their hometown just to surprise his younger brother. After shopping for not more than one hour since the family really not fond of shopping for things like bags, shoes, and clothes most of all they hate spending money on expensive things so they rather donate it to the charity rather wasting their money for not really necessary for them. Right now, the family members are now eating one of the restaurant chains of the mall and chatting then proceeds to watch new release movies that suitable for the age of the kids with them. After two hours, they return home and to the hotel, that both Jang and Din’s couple staying.

At that moment, Mei leaves again since she is going to visit the Jang Corp. subsidiary branch here in the S Capital City and Rick is also coming with him who happened to wear a suit not his usual type of wearing a dress since he is going to meet his client at the same place where Mei going for inspections visits because it’s a Jang Corp. empire after all.

“You’ve become added the list, Rick”

“Huh?” Rick got confused because he is not aware of Mei’s plot and only the siblings are aware of it including her husband since there are no secrets between the couple but Mei stop teasing her husband yesterday after got warned by El.

“You just added the list”

“And what kind of list Mei, huh? So care to explain to me”

“Ha, ha, it’s a secret and it’s a...” stopping herself because Mei just notices a figure who follows them. ‘Oh, she’s here? I guess she’s staying here. Follow me Miss and hope you won’t disappoint me.’

“What are you looking at?”

“Aiyah, Aiyah, Rick your lips almost touch my right cheek, do you want to get a black-eyed from me huh?”

“Geez, what a feisty woman you are Mei? It’s so opposite to your outside beauty, you know”

“Shut up and you just got a free ride from me”

“Well it’s not your car anyway and I can save my money for paying it to the taxicab”

“You did it on purpose right?”

“BINGO, you got it right Mei and I know your itinerary well so every your branch visits I appoint my client at the same place”

“So you will wear the suit every time you’re with me?”

“Yeah or else I will be get killed by great grandfather”

“Good and you’re adding a bonus to my plan”

“What plan?”

“You don’t need to know and by the way Rick, which identity you’re going to face with your client?”

“Of course Rick the assistant and not Rickie the fashion designer and owner, okay”

“Tsk, only a blind person cannot differentiate that you are the same person”

“Ha, ha, ha well I’m wearing a suit when I’m Rick the assistant and then wearing a dress when I’m Rickie so that’s the difference. Alright, let’s go now, or else I will be late from my appointment.”

“I’m not your driver, okay?”

“Yeah you’re not my driver but you will be also late for your appointment then”

“...” Mei got speechless and then starts the engine right away, of course, the one stalking them also following them.

Chapter 555 - Vol 7: Ch 555 – Playing mouse and cat

Just within an hour, they arrived at the subsidiary branch of Jang Corp. and the two separated when they already inside the premises but it’s enough for that one who following them to assume that they here for check-in though she realizes that when the moment they got in, the two didn’t go to the reception area instead the man [Rick] who’s been with the lady [Mei] go to the lounge area and meeting with a couple [Rick’s client]. As for Mei she goes to Manager’s office and asking the employee’s evaluation right away.

Meanwhile at the same time, Miss Li, the one who's been following them just go to the restaurant to monitor the man who's been with Rei [she assumes that Mei is Rei] at the lounge area, she didn't hear what they are talking about but she didn't give up yet so she's waiting for them to reunite again.

One hour pass, the couple who's been conversing with Rick leave while Rick waiting for Mei, he then notices that a lady slowly approaching in his direction but then seated just a matter of distance away from him. Rick didn't recognize her even she's a superstar in T Country which his home country while the lady got dumbfounded because of his stunning looks.

'What the heck? He is really more handsome compared to my husband.'

Rick didn't notice that someone looking at him as if he is a prey instead he just looking at his wristwatch and while waiting for his Auntie, he is now started writing his plan and designing the designs of what his client demands so few minutes passed he is now engrossed with his works and he didn't notice that Mei approaching him along with the Hotel Manager.

Mei going to call Rick attention but then she suddenly notices that someone and right away talking to the Hotel Manager using the Universal Language one since she's aware that Miss Li has been staying in T Country for many years so it's not surprising that she knows Tanes and she also assumes that she understand Sean so she speaks using the Universal Language one.

"I can't introduce you yet to Rick since he is now engrossed in his works."

"No worries M..." got stop by Mei right away.

"Alright go now you still have works to do"

"Okay M...." got stop again since Mei already shooping him right away. 'Eh, what's wrong with Madame Jang?' wondering while leaving his boss without asking anything since it's not part of his job to ask his boss.

"Rick" Mei called him in a very intimate way that causes Rick to be distracted with his work and he also got goosebumps when he heard Mei knowing that it's just her plot.

“What the heck? Y—you scared me”

“Did you wait long for me?” Mei still pretending as if she’s talking to her husband, En

“What’s wrong with you? Did you bump your head or are you hiding something from me, huh?”

“Ha, ha, ha, I didn’t hide anything from you, and let’s go now”

“Okay” then he put his things in his bag and then stand but then Mei suddenly link her arm to him and before he reacts Mei whisper to him.

“Just follow the flow and act normal.”

“Are you plotting something again?”

“Who knows but I’m playing mouse and cat with someone”

“...are you referring to that lady who’s wearing a blue dress just now?”

“Oh, how did you know?”

“Well I thought it’s just a coincidence but she’s been following us since we left the hotel until we arrive here though I really guess it’s just only a coincidence, but, then the moment you link my arm she suddenly taking a picture of us as if she’s paparazzi, is she a paparazzi?”

“What? Y—you don’t know her?”

“Do I need to know or is she a famous one for me to know then?”

“My gosh Rick, she’s a superstar in T Country you know”

“Eh, a superstar but who? Is she Miss Wang Nami or Chu Xin?”

“.....none of them and she’s Miss Li Danni”

“Oh I didn’t hear anyone with the same name may be a newbie, I guess?”

“Tsk, tsk, so she’s really not that famous huh after all you as the top fashion designer didn’t recognize her, and yet you acknowledge my sister when in fact she’s not a celebrity, what a bias you are?”

“Well I’m not really a bias one because I’m just telling the truth, your Sister Rei is really a real beauty one and the same with you Mei, it also applied for the celebrity that I acknowledge because I only praising and recognizing someone if they are really a natural beauty and not that someone who’s been under the knife”.

“Eh, so don’t tell me that Miss Li is also one of the beauty that been under the knife then?”

“Yeah, it’s very obvious though it really looks like a natural one still nobody can pass my eyes since I can tell who is under the knife and not.”

“Yeah, yeah, and let’s go now”

“So why she’s been following you?”

“Oh, how did you know that she’s following me instead of us?”

“Well, it’s obvious because when I’m alone she didn’t approach me or even initiating to talk with me but then when you are with me she’s transforming to another persona and becoming a real paparazzi. By the way, you said that she’s a celebrity in T Country so how come she didn’t recognize you that you’re Madame Jang?”

“I don’t know about that one”

Rick just laughs because he doesn't know if he is going to be sad or feel pity, after all, the Tanes already aware and knows that she's Madame Jang and yet they are still someone not yet aware of her identity, well it's her fault for not recognizing Mei. Rick recalls what Mei said a while ago and offers to drive the car.

"Let me drive then"

"Oh, sure go ahead. And so you already know of why I said that one a while ago?"

"Yup but it will be useless if she's going to disclose that you're cheating with my Uncle after all everyone in T Country already know and aware that you're Madame Jang but how come she didn't know?"

"I don't know but I guess the business news didn't reach the entertainment news huh"

"That would be possible Mei but then Rei is pregnant and Rei has an aura of a cold queen yet compared to you who have such a wonderful aura so how come?"

"Geez don't ask me that one because I don't know how she mistook me for Sis but well we really look alike so why not playing mouse and cat with her, right?"

"I guess your one week here will be interesting huh"

"Yup, yup"

"So what's your plan, Mei?" Then Mei relaying it to Rick and he just agreed without hesitation "count me in after all I'm going with you every time you visit the Jang Corp. subsidiary"

"Okay, but you will be the one driving instead of me okay?"

"No problem"

Chapter 556 - Vol 7: Ch 556 – Playing mouse and cat 2

Both Mei and Rick have been pretending a couple although Mei just linking her arms with Rick someone who will see them can really assume that they are really indeed a loving couple without knowing the truth that they are just in-laws and Mei only link her arms and nothing else or else Rick will be beaten black and blue by Rick uncle also known Mei's old man jealous husband. Of course En already aware of it but it can't be helped because he still worried especially since Mei didn't tease him anymore and it's been almost a week since then.

Mei and Rick have been pretending as a couple for almost a week so that someone already falls deeper with Mei's plot and Miss Li also been following them when the family members have their itinerary and don't have any clues after all the Jun couple is not with them. She failed to realize that they are just family members who have a 1-week vacation since she really assumes that Mei is Rei. It has also been a week since Miss Chang didn't contact her and Mei already thinking that she might not want to meet up with her, well for Miss Chang, she really thought that Mei is selling her body though she's quite confused because Mei said to her that she's her role model sister.

'She's not lying to me, right? But Pia, you already lose your job so why not try it and see if it's true or not? If it's true then you will get a new job but if it's not then you must reporting her to the authority that someone lying that she's related to your role model and most of all you can sue her for fraud, is that easy?' She's been repeating this statement to her own self for almost a week since she meets Mei that day.

As for Mei, after making sure that her stalker already left her alone she drops Rick at CA Residence before coming back to the hotel but then when she arrived on the 15th floor and just got out of the elevator she meets her stalker face to face. Mei wants to ignore her and pretend that she didn't see her but then again the lady stalker talking to her in a very rude tone.

"Huh, quite brave are you?"

“.....” Mei ignores her lady stalker for her own good and not to waste her time though she already wasting her time.

“How’s the bed of your man behind your husband’s back huh?”

Mei looking at her and ask “Miss, do you perhaps know me?”

“... [Quite irritated but still want to expose her] yes I know you and you are just a mere Manager who climbs my husband bed just to reach where are you now yet shamelessly cheating, are you not afraid of retribution?”

“Care to explain it to me of how I cheated and also let me know of whose wife are you, is that alright?”

“S-l-u-t and b-i-t-c-h”

“Excuse me if I hear it clearly but did you just call yourself that one?”

Got irritated and shout “I WILL EXPOSE YOU” then going to walk out but didn’t stop still enough to hear what Mei warns.

“I warn you, Miss Li Danni, in advance and so before you decide to expose whomever you want to expose please make sure that you’re 100% accurate of whom are you going to expose because it will be your last contract before renewing it, of course. it’s not an existing contract of CA Entertainment but rather an exclusive contract of a subsidiary entertainment branch of Jang Corp. in T country” then Mei walk right away as if she didn’t say anything but this is her warning to Danni.

“Wait and who are you...” stop because Mei already out of sight and she already explodes. “Shut up and who are you to stop me? You are just a mere manager while I’m the princess of the Li’s. Don’t get me wrong but you just ask me to expose your dirty deeds. Just wait and I will expose everything about you” then she walks out right away without knowing that all her actions are been monitored by Rei and so this sight of her also got witness by Rei without wasting her time by following her after all Miss Li is not aware that the one she’s been following is the Madame Jang of T Country and the beloved sister of Rei aka R. So the moment Mei mentions her plans by playing mouse and cat, Rei didn’t slip the chance because it involves Mei’s safety so she secretly monitors her but then Mei already knows and aware of it because it's her sister she's talking about and Rei only know it when Mei called after getting inside her room.

"So Sis how is it? I'm still a good one and I did warn her so is she still going to expose you?"

Rei hung up since her covers got blown by Mei and just message her attaching the video of Miss Li.

[See for your own and don't disturb me, I'm going to sleep now, bye.]

Mei read it while laughing and then retrieving the video that causes her to laugh hard because she just witnesses the ugly side of the superstar Miss Li.

"What's so funny My Mei?" Ask his wife after changing the diaper of their twins.

"See this, see this My En"

"I'm not interested with that and so how the other one is; did she accept your offer?"

"Nah maybe she won't"

"Well that will be obvious enough after all you approach her in a very wrong way"

"Yeah I did" realized that her husband carrying both the twins "ah let me carry the eldest baby My En"

Transfer the elder one to his wife and remind her "tomorrow will be our last day here since will be leaving early in the next day"

"Yeah I know and sorry My En, I've been carried with my plot and left you alone"

"No worries but My Mei?"

“Mmmm”

“Uhm..... A—-are...” didn’t continue asking and just said to his wife “nothing”

“What’s wrong My En, are you alright?”

“Uh-uh and let’s eat now”

“Okay”

The Jang couple is now eating their dinner and they chat but it’s not the same as how usual they are since Mei didn’t tease her husband rather she’s been talking to him as if she’s not her husband instead she’s talking to her husband of her business modes. En has been wondering if he did do something wrong but he didn’t recall one and most of all he is afraid to ask because maybe, maybe Mei is already not in love with him. Meanwhile, as for Mei, she didn’t realize that she’s acting cold toward her husband after all she thinks that she’s now doing what the proper wife doing right towards her husband.

Chapter 557 - Vol 7: Ch 557 – Are you fighting?

Around 6 am, the Din’s and the Jang couple are now checking out the hotel with both parents carrying each of their twins. The Din’s couple ride in the van while the Jang’s couple rides the car of the Jun couple [the red car, former Rei’s car and now become the couple car] then just a matter of minutes they arrived at the CA Residences. En is the one driving so he is the one who parks the car at Jun’s couple parking space while El park the van at the visitor’s parking space. After parking, they ride to the elevator and arrived at the last floor. They entered the house without troubling the person inside since they already know the passcode.

“Eh, you already awake Sis and Bro Tae?”

“Why do you look so surprised Mei when in fact you already know that the teams have their schedules today, am I right?”

“Tsk, what a bummer”

Once again Rei ignores her sister and asks her sister in law “Lyn, can we ask your help to prepare the foods for everyone?”

“No problem Sis Rei”

“Thanks and by the way guys we are going now”

“Eh Sis, you’re going now? Did both of you already done eating?”

“Of course, silly and what do you think of me, an idiot one?”

“Huh?”

“Tae prepare only for the two of us since we almost late so that’s why we need Lyn’s helps.”

“And why is that so?” Mei asks with a teasing expression.

“It’s normal for a married couple to be intimate with each other and we wake up around 4 am but then sleep again that we just awake around this time so...”

“Hon don’t bother explaining and let’s go now or else will be late”

“Okay and bye everyone, please say mama and them that we leave without bothering waking them up since we almost late, bye” then Rei leave right away while Tae holding her carefully.

“.....” both couples got speechless.

“Ha, ha, ha, it’s unexpected that we see Sis like that but well she’s already a human now, hu, hu, hu [Mei faking a cry] glad that my Sis already meet her true love”

“.....” Both En and El got speechless

“Ha, ha, ha, I can relate to you Mei, and want to help me prepare foods for everyone?”

“What the heck Lyn? I’m not a chef but you are and also I’m quite lazy right now”

“If you don’t want to help just say so”

“Ha, ha, ha just kidding and what’s the menu for today?”

Both Mei and Lyn go to the kitchen area while bickering with each other meanwhile they forgot about their husband’s existence but since they already used to it they don’t mind it but except for Mei teasing her husband and El notice this one, so he asks En.

“Neh Bro En”

“Yes?”

“Are you fighting with Mei?”

“No we didn’t, why?”

“No reason and I just ask because Mei didn’t seem like Mei to you”

“You’re right”

“Huh?”

“Nothing”

Around 8 am, everyone is now waking up and they eat together along with the parents of Tae then excusing themselves for taking care and baby sittings the Jun twins meanwhile the Din’s family members are now chatting in the living area while comfortably seating on the couch. There’s no itinerary for the family members today since it’s their last day and they just want to clear their minds so instead of going out they just staying at Rei’s house without almost not doing anything because all of them already done packing their souvenirs, things and everything yesterday.

“My baby boy Ken, are you not going to miss your mommy since we already going to leave tomorrow?”

“Geez, Mom you’re asking me that one many times and my answer will be the same because I will always miss you every day but well it’s for our own good so just take good care with my younger brothers, okay?”

“Sigh, you’re no fun to tease my baby boy Ken”

“Then just tease Dad and not me”

“But don’t you love your mommy anymore?”

Ken ignoring his mom and talking to Ellyn “did you prepare your handbook and everything?”

“Eh?”

“Geez you forgot it again Ellyn and how many times I did remind you, huh?”

“Ha, ha, ha, ha, sorry, Bro Ken” then Ellyn leave right away and go to her room to get her bag.

“What the two of you been busy about?” ask Lynel.

“Heh, don’t tell me that you forgot about it Lynel?” Retort by both Ken and Ren.

“Forgot about what?”

“.....” Both got speechless and wondering at the same time ‘indeed, they are really sisters’

Ellyn who just got back from her room after getting her bag and heard her twin younger sister then explains to her “you forgot about our study group every weekend Lynel”

“Oh, I see and so it means your loverboy will be here then?”

“Lynel”

“Ha, ha, ha, you’re blushing Sis”

“Shut up”

Ren stopping the two before they are going to argue, though he is a teaser but not that teaser one compared to his Mom and brother so he stops the two “Alright, alright stop it you two”

“Okay”

“Neh Ren?”

“Yes, Bro Ken?”

“Are you alright on your side? You and Lynel will be taking the entrance examination in the next two months so feel free to ask me if you need my help, okay?”

In C Country, the class will start in the month of June and will end around March. As for the entrance examination will be around April to May and both of them will take the entrance examination around May since they need to study first before taking the said examinations meanwhile in S Country, the class will start from the month of July and will end around April then the entrance examination will be around May to June. Last year the school year that Ken and Ellyn attended is followed by the main branch of S Elite Academy and just change the standard school year this year since the new principal of S Elite Academy is a Senian. S Elite Academy has different school years every change of the principal so it will depend on the principal decisions to determine their school terms and they didn't violate the educational law as long as the students required the prerequisite of numbers of days, skipping grades is also not against the rules because it also applied globally and will only depend on each school rules.

After hearing this one from the older among them Lynel reacts right away “no worries Bro Ken because Bro Ren didn't need your help at all since Bro Ren is too smart on his own. Oh, before you forgot Bro Ren been titled in our school the genius boy since he wins all fairs that he represents.”

“Don't exaggerate with your words Lynel and who said I don't need Bro Ken's help? Oh right, I win because I've partnered with our seniors so it's not me but because of them, okay?”

“Huh but I and everyone just witness how you answered the fair alone while the seniors just reviewing your answers, right?”

Ren ignore Lynel since he already full of an ear of her bragging and now asking his Bro Ken “Bro Ken here, this is the review I made and please check it if everything is right”

“Okay”

Then, again and again, both brothers are now immersed in their activity while ignoring their mother's teasing but after few minutes passed the twins notice something wrong with their mother and ask in sync.

“Eh, Mom, are you and Dad fighting?”

“Eh, no, is there something wrong? We are not fighting so why do you ask?”

Both answered in sync “I see but it seems you’re not the Mom we know”

“Huh?” Mei got confused and she got save by her husband.

“Ken and Ren, we are not fighting, okay?”

“Oh okay if you say so Dad” then the twins back to what they are doing.

Chapter 558 - Vol 7: Ch 558 – Are you fighting? 2

Hearing the twins asking Mei like that everyone except the babies and the Din’s twin’s attention, all of them are now looking at Mei. Lyn didn’t see anything wrong but not for El and Aya after all they know Mei very well. El already notices this one earlier and En answered that they are not fighting so he didn’t indulge himself anymore after all it’s their own marital problem without knowing that he is the main reason why Mei starts doing what’s the proper wife to do on his own point of view that cause for them to be like this. As for Aya, she already notices this one from the day Mei didn’t tease En and she didn’t voice out her opinion because she doesn’t want to be a noisy one of her daughter’s married life and they are both m.a.t.u.r.e enough to face their own marital problem. The same with Rei she also notices this one from day 1 but didn’t voice it out today because she’s in a hurry.

The family members stop chatting instead they are now observing the twins. The Jang’s twins are discussing the entrance examination reviewers and guidelines meanwhile the Din’s twins are both busy teasing each other about their crushes [only Jinyu for Ellyn and as for Lynel she has many crushes since she is still not serious and not the same with her Elder Sister who already have Jinyu].

After the Jang's twins discussing the reviewers and guidelines, they are now asking their Mom and ask to add a new one that the two boys might forget about it. So then Mei has been helping her son, meanwhile, the Din's couple is now preparing for their lunch while En just looking at the 4 babies since Aya taking a nap.

15 minutes before 12 the Jun couple arrives.

Mei is the one who asks first "eh, you arrive, and how about your afternoon schedules?"

"Got postponed"

"I see"

"By the way Mei I forgot to ask this morning since we are in hurry but are you and Bro En fighting?"

"Not again and why do you ask? You and my boys ask the same thing you know so what's wrong?"

Rei respects privacy but it doesn't mean she won't indulge herself especially if it's talking about her family members and what if it will lead to a very big misunderstanding since they didn't say it loud so instead of keeping it for herself, she explains it loud "well you didn't tease Bro En for almost a week by now and so I thought you're not in the mood to tease Bro En but then you're the usual Mei to us except for Bro En so I thought you are fighting with Bro En, so are you really fighting or not?"

"Duh, we are not fighting Sis and you're just overreacting, okay?"

"Oh I see but then what with this Bro En aura of being a gloomy one if you're not fighting huh?"

"Eh?" Mei ask confused

"Bro En, what's your feeling right now and don't hide it because it will only lead to a very big misunderstanding if you won't voice it out, so what is it?"

"T...that you're right Rei and My Mei I notice you for the whole week that you've been avoiding me. Also, you didn't tease me anymore and you're talking with me in your business mode"

"EH?" Mei is so shocked and dumbfounded.

"See Mei and so what's wrong with you ignoring your husband like this? Did Bro En do anything wrong to you though I doubt about that one since you're mostly the one who will do anything to Bro En, so did he?"

".....S—Sis, are you my sister or not?"

"You are but answer me first, so did Bro En do something wrong to you or not?"

"Of course not"

"So why are you ignoring him?" Everyone asks in sync except the kids.

"What the heck? And I didn't ignore My En.... It just that I've been teasing him since the day we meet and so ... Geez Bro El, you're the one telling me to be a proper wife towards my husband and look what happened now, you almost ruin my marriage, hu hu hu [faking her cry] you're a cruel brother"

"What?" El asks shocked.

"Heh, so it's Bro El fault huh but well Bro El you didn't need to worry about Mei teasing Bro En that much because that's how she shows how she loves Bro En and Bro En doesn't mind that one since that's the Mei he is been in love with. Well, I understand your concerns Bro El but no worries about that one because you might don't know about it but their first meeting is worst compared to teasing Bro En so you got worried for nothing. Also, Bro El, showing the plastic good sides of Mei to Bro En is useless because Mei's true sides already shown from the very day that they meet, you know."

"Hey, Sis, are you praising me or complaining about me?"

“I’m just stating the truth, okay?”

“Ha, ha, ha you really love me, Sis”

“Silly and I’m not.....” got cut off because Mei hugs her “hey, did you forget that I’m pregnant?”

“Of course I didn’t”

“Then release your hug from me instead hug your own husband and not me”

“Tsk, what a bummer” then looking to her husband “old man come here and hug your beautiful wife” right away En approach his wife and hug her right away “wow I miss teasing my husband” En didn’t reply instead c.a.r.e.s.sing his wife’s face but before his lips touch to his wife’s lips, he heard the two siblings talking at the same time and in a different language.

“Geez, find a room first idiot” Both Rei and El warn the couple in a different language, not Universal Language, not the Ceno, not the Tanes, not the Janes, and not Sean but instead it’s a different language one after all the kids are with them.

En blushes more after hearing Mei replied in the same combined language of her siblings “hai, hai I know and thank you for reminding me Sis and Bro El, or else the kids will just witness a live show” then grab her husband and get a room. Of course, they just go to the restroom since they can’t do it in the guest room nor the other’s rooms since it’s not appropriate for them to do so.

“Eh, Auntie Rei, Uncle El/Dad what language did Mom/Auntie Mei speak just now?” The kids ask in sync.

“Eh, did Mei just say something now?” Rei pretends that she didn’t hear anything from Mei.

“Auntie Rei, you don’t need to pretend that you didn’t hear Mom although I didn’t catch up what did you just say a while ago you, Mom, and Uncle El speak another language that we don’t know what is it, and so what language is that?” Ren retorts.

“Yeah, Auntie Rei so what language is this?” Ken also retorts while replaying the pen audio recorder.

“...” All of the a.d.u.l.ts got speechless except Rei.

“Ken?”

“Yes, Auntie Rei?”

“I will delete that one later”

“Okay, but what language is this?” replaying the recorder again.

“Bro El speaks the A Country Language which is Airish while I speaks the Z Country Language which is Zenish so satisfied now?”

“Satisfied Auntie Rei and I will delete it now, see?” Ken smile while deleting the audio recording.

‘This mother and son’ except Rei the a.d.u.l.t members thinking the same thing meanwhile the kids except for Ken also wondering at the same thing ‘is Bro Ken interested to learn that Ai....and Ze..... ah so hard, so is he interested to learn those languages from Auntie Rei?’

As for Ken ‘he, he, I delete it and I can’t still retrieve it yet but I memorize it so I will ask Uncle Tae and Bro Jinyu later, he, he’ meanwhile Rei got her phone and delete the recording permanently.

On the other hand, Lyn, who didn't witness one of the family antics of the Din's Family Members just arrive at the living area since she did already done preparing the foods for their lunch.

"Lunch ready, eh you're here Sis Rei and Bro Tae?"

"Oh Lyn, thank you for cooking the food for us"

"No problem Sis Rei but then where are the two now?"

"Busy" all a.d.u.l.ts answered in sync.

"Ah, I see" no questions from her since she already knows what's going on.

"I and Tae going to change after calling Mom and Dad in the guest room"

"Okay"

Right away the Jun couple is now calling their parent's attention before changing the clothes and then they eat together since the Jang's couple is still busy at the moment.

At exactly 1 pm, everyone arrives along with the Wong Siblings of course it's the same scenario in the parking space with just an additional one car for the Wongs.

Ken: [Open the door and notice the Wong's siblings] wow you are really here Senior Woona, Senior Wong, and Senior Yu

Both: [Woona and Anna are still awkward]

Wooji: [Didn't feel the awkwardness and greet him right away] wow you look refreshed in wearing the casual attire Young Master.

Ken:

Jinyu: [Also received the same greeting a while ago and said to Ken] I guess we might get used to it Ken.

Ken: Right

Jinyu: By the way where's Ellyn?

Ken: [Whisper to him] careful Bro Jinyu because everyone is here.

Jinyu: Oh, I see, and thanks for warning me in advance.

Wooji: Young Masters, what the two of you whispering about?

Both: Nothing

Ellyn: [Just arrived in the door since she's waiting for them but then again it will always be the same thing and scenario because of Ken] geez Bro Ken, are you not going and planning them to let them in?

Kur: Od hmpzlu I jaii gpo...

Wooji: Eh Miss Nice Voice, you and Bro Ken are living together? Are you also siblings with different mothers like me and Anna?

Ellyn:

All: [Kids except the Wong's wondering at the same time] 'eh, in other words, the two are siblings with different mother, right?'

Ken: Come in everyone

Wooji: Hey, hey you didn't answer me Young Master and..... [Stop since he notices that they are not alone] eh, is it okay for us to bothering today?

Ken: No worries Senior Wong because they are my family members.

Wooji: Huh?

Ken: [Speak using the Universal Language one] Ren and Lynel, this is Senior Wong, this is Senior Woono and Senior Yu, all the three of them are a senior from other schools we met last week and a new friend of us.

Both: [Ren and Lynel] Oh nice to meet you Senior Wong, Senior Woono, and Senior Yu.

Kur: Suramz Wmmrf, Suramz Wmre, frt Suramz Yp oval al qw wmpreuz gzmovuz Rur frt qw hmplar Lwru.

Both: [Wooji and Anna] hey, hey, are we dreaming why we did see two of them now? [Both said while pinching their face with each other.] Ouch [and they feel hurt at the same time]

All:.....

Ken: Senior Wong and Senior Yu both of you are not dreaming but please when you are talking to my brother and cousin use the Universal Language one since they don't know Sean.

Both: Oh I see but why do you look alike then?

Ken: Well Ren is my younger twin brother and Lynel is also a younger twin sister of my cousin here Ellyn.

Both: Eh?

Woonas: [Grab the two younger siblings of her and standing up in front of them so they are now on her back] sorry for that Junior Ken but before we are going for study group can we at least introduce ourselves again so that it will not be awkward from us?

Ken: Oh but you already...

Jinyu: That's right Senior Wong and let's speak using the Universal Language one so that both Ren and Lynel here won't be left out.

Woonas: That's a good idea and....

Anna: [grab her sister and whisper to her] Sis I'm not familiar with that language.

Woonas: No worries because I can help you Ann, and just speak using the Sean while I will help you translate it, okay?

Anna: Okay and thank you, Sis.

Woonas: No worries

Then all the kids introducing themselves again start with Woonas. So now the younger ones are now calling their seniors Big Sis Woonas, Big Bro Wooji, and Sis Anna.

Woonas: Ah right, these are our snacks, and hope you will like them. [Present two boxes of cake – chocolate and strawberry flavor]

All: [Except Wooji and Anna] eh, two boxes of snacks?

Woonas: Ah yeah and it's a cake.

All: Eh, cake?

Woonas: Ah yes it's a cake but don't worry about your nutrition since I bake it not so sweet and I will make a tea later for reducing the sweetness of the cake.

All:

Both: [Wooji and Anna] no worries everyone because Sis Woonas cakes are very yummy.

All: [Except Jinyu] t---then can we have at least a slice of cake?

Jinyu: Hey guys we...

Woonas: No worries [out of nowhere she retrieve plastic plates and forks then slicing the cake before giving everyone one slice each.]

All:

Woonas: Wait a moment and I will prepare the tea [then once again and out of nowhere she retrieves the plastic cups then make a tea before giving it to everyone.

All: [Including Wooji and Anna] 'ah so that's why she/Sis bring two bags with her.'

Woonas: [Worried about the taste] how about it guys? Is it to your likings?

All: [Didn't answer because all of them are busy eating their cakes]

Woonas: Guys?

Ken: It's yummy Big Sis.

Woonas: Thanks but it still not enough for me to win since I got lost from your school representative so I'm still worried about it.

All: [Except Ren and Lynel] eh you're against with President Julian?

Woonas: Yes but I never beat him once and most of all he is a boy.

All: [Except Ren and Lynel] you can't win against him Big Sis Woonas after all President Julian is from the line of Butler.

All: [Woonas, Wooji and Anna] eh, h— he is a butler?

All: [Except Ren and Lynel] Yes

All: [Woonas, Wooji, and Anna] I see but such a waste.

Jinyu: [stop them right away or else they won't have study group today instead they will be chatting] alright let's study now and Big Sis let's start now before the snacks will disappear out of nowhere after all we have a big eater here [mostly all of them]

Woonas: Ah, right let's start and guys you can ask me if you want my help.

All: Okay

Wooji: [Whisper to his sister] Sis, did you really ask that one from them? Are you forgetting that they are S'lites, as in from the S Elite Academy known as the top school among all S Country Schools?

Woono: Of course I know

Wooji: Then why are...

Yuki: [Want to ask help from Ken or Jinyu but both are busy teaching Ellyn and Jinxi so he asks Woono] Big Sis Woono, can you help me explain this one?

Woono: Oh sure. [Then she helps Yuki without hesitation]

Wooji: What the heck? Are they serious, a S'lites member asking from us?

Ken: [Heard Wooji comments and replied to him] of course Big Bro and it's not we are invincible ones just because we are S'lites because we are still far from the seniors including you. By the way, can you help Bro Jinxi since I'm going to help my brother and my cousin, please?

Wooji: Ah yes, yes, you may Young Master Ken.

And that's the day that Wong's siblings become close friends with them then become more close after 1 year since they will study in the same school. As for Lynel and Ren they also part of the groups since they will be having a new group of friends including the other 3 kids in C Country [namely Kaede, Jiru, and Shi]

Chapter 560 - Vol 7: Ch 560 – Study Group with the Wong's siblings 2

The groups of kids along with the Wong's siblings who are now part of their group are studying seriously and a few hours later they stop when Woono reminds them to have a break for them to eat their snacks.

She notices the clock since she suddenly raises her head and circling it to relax her neck pains "Ah it's almost 3 pm and everyone let's have a break for now"

Except for Anna and Wooji, all of them react in sync “eh?”

“Why are you all look surprised?”

Jinyu: Big Sis, are we not going to finish it first before eating the snacks?

Woon: Well mostly all of us here [except Ren and Lynel] already done with our assignments and homework only left with studying for the final exams so why not having our break first since we’re almost down, right?

Jinyu: But....

Wooji: Whoa Young Master Jinyu is really too serious and guys, are you always like this? I mean studying and then doing homework first before eating snacks?

All: {Except the Wongs and the other twins, they nodded in sync}

Wooji:

Anna: Wow, wow my juniors are all serious even though all of you already here is already genius ones and then I suddenly feel pity for those who are not blessed of having brains yet lazy to study.

All: ...

Woon: Everyone I understand why you are all like this since I’ve been like that before but then I just realize it recently that I’ve been too cruel to my own self since I didn’t give time for myself to relax instead I’m always being serious in studying so I quite regretting being a serious one but well I can’t retract it back and regret always be last but not really since I realize it before it’s too late for me so you need to relax, you know what I mean right? [All of them nodded in sync while Jinyu explain right away]

Jinyu: Don't be fooled by how they look so serious Big Sis because without you knowing every study group of us will only lead to watch anime and other things as long as it's fun, so in other words, it's only occasionally for them to be this serious like today so [got interrupted by them]

All: [Except the Wong's] Bro Jinyu / Yu

Jinyu: What? I'm only stating the truth, okay?

All: [Including the Wong's] ...

Wooji: Ha, ha, ha, so there's a time that all of you will be a kid huh

Ken: Huh, what do you mean by that Big Bro Wooji? Isn't obvious enough that we are a kid?

Wooji: I didn't mean it literally Young Master Ken but well yeah because sometimes I wonder if you are a kid or not. [Change the topic right away when Ken have a confused look] by the way, I notice that Miss Pretty Voice calling Young Master Jinyu without honorifics, why? Is it because they are a couple?

All: [Teaser kids namely Ren, Jinxi, and Lynel] not yet Big Bro but in the future, they will.

Ken: [Just looking at the two who didn't react and wondering] 'ha, ha, ha you got it right Big Bro Wooji'

Wooji: Eh, really? S—so you mean the two like each other but waiting for the right age to be a couple?

All: [Except the Wong's again all of them nodded]

Wooji: Wow and here I am, I'm already a teenager but I don't have someone I like yet.

Anna: Me too and so how about you Sis Woonna?

Wooji: For sure Sis doesn't have since aside from cooking and studying, Sis doesn't have someone she's interested in.

Woon: [Changing the topic right away] we are here to study and not to gossip, am I right Wooji and Anna?

Both: Tsk, tsk so you really don't have.

Woon: [Almost got speechless but then warn her siblings] if you tease me then you won't get anything from the snacks that I've brought, is that clear?

Both: Woah, Woah don't be too serious Sis and we are just kidding you know

Woon: Good

Meanwhile, the other kids are also looking at Jinyu as if saying to him 'ha, ha, Big Sis Woon is the female version of you Bro Jinyu/Yu' and leaving Jinyu speechless by looking at their looks.

The kids are chatting while having their snacks and suddenly Mei along with En interrupt her sons.

"Ah, Ken and Ren, where's your Auntie Rei?"

"Geez Mom you scared us you know"

"Oh sorry then"

Ken realize that his parents are in casual attire so he asks them "eh, are you going somewhere Mom and Dad?"

"Yes Ken and tell them that I'm going to meet Miss Chang"

“Okay Mom and be careful Mom, you too Dad”

“Yes, we will and.....” notice their new friends “oh you must be Yuki, right?”

“Y—yes M—Ma’am”

“Just call me Aunt Mei and how about these three kids here?”

Ken explains right away to his Mom “Ah, Mom this is Big Sis Woon, Big Bro Wooji, and Sis Anna these three are our new friends.”

“I see, nice to meet you guys and please take good care of my Son Ken and my niece Ellyn here when we are not around” the three nodded without hesitation while Mei continue “alright everyone we are going now or else we will be late for our appointment, bye-bye”

“Bye-bye Mom/Auntie Mei/ Aunt Mei” Except the Wong’s since they just joined their groups of friends.

Mei and En leave right away then after making sure that they out of sight, Ken got bombarded by many questions from the Wongs siblings just like these:

[Are you sure that’s your Mom Young Master Ken?]

[Why do you have such a Young Mom, Pretty Boy Ken?]

[Is your Mom is the sister of Manager Rei?]

[Who’s younger your Mom or Manager Rei?]

[How old is your Mom now and what about your Dad?]

[Is your Dad didn't know how to speak?]

[Pretty Boy Ken why do you look so much like your Mom and why do you have a handsome Dad?]

So on and so forth. Their entire query got answered by Ken calmly and didn't feel any pressure or annoyance from them after all they are their friends and most of all he is a proud son to his parents. As for Ren, he just feels glad that he still didn't learn the Sean Language or else for sure his Brother Ken will let him answered instead of him.
