

Last Man 591

Chapter 591 - Vol 8: Ch 591 – The Day before Enlistment 2

The Jun family members get in at the couple's house and right away they got welcome by Ellyn.

"Welcome back Auntie Rei, Uncle Tae, Auntie Jun, and Uncle Jun..... Oh, everyone is here, welcome back everyone"

"Thank you Ellyn and what time did you arrive?"

"We just arrive Auntie Jun and Jinyu treat us lunch again even though we already eat our lunch"

Before one of them replied, all of them heard Ken's voice "Ellyn, is that Auntie Rei, Uncle Tae, Auntie Jun, and Uncle Jun?"

"Yes Bro Ken and also everyone is here"

"Eh, everyone? Did they forget about something?"

"Nope not them"

"Huh?" Then Ken appeared at them suddenly "oh hello everyone"

"Wow, Ken you've become taller again"

“Eh, did I really Auntie Tia Wen?”

“Yup, yup”

“I see and everyone come in”

“Oh right I forgot that one and sorry everyone”

Ken tap Ellyn’s head and said “next time you must let them in first before chatting, okay?”

“Okay?”

“Good and since when did you become so chatty huh?”

“Eh, did I?”

“Yes you did and here I taught it Lynel instead of you Ellyn”

“....”

Then both kids followed them and then, they take a seat in the living room meanwhile the couple and Tae’s parents go to their rooms to change their clothes. Tae’s family members are chatting with the kids and they only answered when they got asks, Jia didn’t say anything because she’s in a daze after meeting Ken again. And Tae didn’t miss it so he whispers to his wife.

“Looks like my niece became like me since she got entrance of the Din’s beauty.”

“.....” Rei got speechless.

“Ken and Ellyn”

“Yes, Uncle Tae?”

“I already talk to your Auntie and it’s alright for the two of you to come with us tomorrow”

“Eh, are you sure Uncle Tae?”

“Yes I’m sure” then the kids looking at their Auntie and see her nodding.

“Thank you Auntie Rei” only Ellyn replied and everyone asks in sync.

“Is there any problem Ken?”

“Uh-uh since I and the Student Council still need to discuss some important school matters”

Instead of Rei, Tae is the one asking Ken “so what time you will be in school tomorrow and what time it will end?”

“8 am and it will end before lunch, Uncle Tae”

“Then that’s not a problem since we will be leaving before lunch so we will pick you up in there, okay?”

“Okay,” Ken didn’t reply enthusiastically.

Seeing her nephew being not who he is, Rei asks again “is there something wrong, Ken?” Ken hesitating to answer and Rei notices it so she said right away “alright, let’s about it inside your room, is that okay with you Ken?”

“Uh-uh and thanks Auntie Rei”

“No need to thank me, Mom, Dad, Tae, and everyone we will talk first, okay?”

“Okay” then both Auntie and her nephew go to the boy’s room.

“Sigh, Bro Ken really so open up with Auntie Rei”

“Yeah indeed and so is there a problem with Ken?”

“I and our friends didn’t really know what it is Uncle Tae since I and our group of friends are only waiting outside the student council office but we guess that it’s about school matters so being Jinyu and Bro Ken as they are for sure they want it to be perfect after all both of them are a perfectionist.” Tae and his parents already used the kid’s antics after all they got it from their parents but the other Jun’s family members are still surprised and wondering at the same time.

‘Are we really sure that we heard it from this little girl’s mouth? And wait Ellyn is 3 years younger compared to Jia / me, so how come she’s more m.a.t.u.r.e compared to Jia / me?’

On the other hand, Tae just looking amusingly at his family members and wondering also ‘how much more, if they know that my wife is R and both the Jang Twins already learning her skills at such a young age?’

“Ellyn” someone from them asks Ellyn’s attention.

“Yes, Sis Jia?”

“Uhm, are you, Ken and your group of friends will be representative for the incoming Sports Fest?”

“No, since we are not allowed to be part of it because we happened to be the representative for School Fair.”

“.....” Jia got speechless while the other Jun family members wondering again.

'What the heck so not only these two kids here who already smart enough since their friends are also on their caliber? Is the S Elite Academy is a school of monster kids?'

Again Tae got amused by his family members and before he reminds them about something he got interrupted by his mother dear.

"Alright and everyone you don't need to look surprised because it's already known from the whole S Nation that S Elite Academy is a school of genius and influential kids so you don't really need to look surprised."

"Yeah we know that Mom and you don't need to remind us that one since we know"

"Then all of you really don't need to look surprised when you already know"

"....." 'Yeah Mom we know but we are still not used to it since they are still young yet they are already this smart.'

Tae's Mom changing the topic right away "oh right so where are we going tomorrow Tae?"

"It's a secret Mom and Sis [talking about his 3 sisters] all of you will be sleeping in the guest room"

"Okay"

"I won't Tae-nyah and let me sleep in the girl's room, okay?"

"Okay"

"So how about you Jia, do you want to sleep in the girl's room then?"

“Eh, why Auntie Wen, and what’s wrong sleeping with my parents?”

“...” Tia Wen got speechless and all of them except the Jun who already got used to the Din’s kids antics wondering at the same time.

‘This is what the kids going to do at their age not with the S’lites kids.’

The Jun Family members are now chatting with each other while Ellyn just sitting beside her Uncle Tae without uttering any words since a.d.u.l.ts are now talking.

Chapter 592 - Vol 8: Ch 592 – The Day before Enlistment 3

Meanwhile back to Rei and Ken

After they excuse themselves to everyone, the two of them go right away to the boy’s room and then Rei locks the door before asking her nephew again while seating on the bed.

“So is there something wrong in your school matters Ken?”

“Uh-uh, Auntie Rei since both the High School and Middle School Department has already done selecting their representatives for the Sports Fest yet our Department didn’t get any representative even one, and the deadline of the lists will be on the first day of June.”

“I see so may I see the lists then?”

“Oh okay Auntie but it’s not yet the final lists since we still need to discuss”

“Yeah I know”

“Here Auntie”

“Thanks and seat beside me Ken” then right away Ken seat beside his Auntie while Rei reading the lists right away. She sees a lot of grade schools students on the lists including their personal data, competition records, ranking, and what sports they excel in, of course, since the list is Ken copy, he also put remarks of the student’s records but they still didn’t select of whose going to be the representative of each sport. “You do have a lot of students to represents each sport even so what’s the problem of selecting?”

“Eh, that.....”

“Are you and Jinyu both thinking of your seniors [age since Ken and Jinyu are going to be their classmates/batch mates this incoming school terms] emotions if they will be got selected or rejected by both of you, are you?”

“Uh-uh”

“You and Jinyu are both selected for the highest position for the student council so they will trust your decisions and they won’t blame you if they got selected or got rejected after all the majority of Grade School Department recommended both of you for this position, right?”

“Uh-uh but then Auntie what if I and Bro Jinyu got it wrong, well we know they won’t blame us since the teacher and them, said that they believe us but what if?”

“Of course if there’s a winner there’s always be a loser and since they said so then you just need to do what the best thing to do and I guess both you and Jinyu already have on your mind but you didn’t open it up to everyone because both of you got afraid for their emotions, right?”

“Uh-uh”

“Well that’s normal for both of you to care with your seniors and juniors but I guess in my personal views, the students that you put marks on are good to go Ken”

“Eh?”

“I’m not biased for telling it just because I’m your Auntie but I said it because of their records based on your lists.”

“But Auntie Rei I select some seniors [almost the same age with Jinyu but still a Senior on his eye because of their age] in 4th Grade”

“Yeah, I notice it and so why you select it then?”

“It’s because some of them been trained since they are 5 then some of them already a champion before they transfer to our school and some of them are a newbie yet they excel the sports they want to compete.”

“Then go with it after all your teachers and the students of your department won’t blame the two of you whatever the results, right?”

“Yeah right and thank you, Auntie”

“You’re welcome and let’s go to everyone now”

“Ah, I’m going to call Bro Jinyu about it so that we can both compare tomorrow for the final lists”

“Okay” then Rei leaves Ken in his room while Ken automatically calls Jinyu to talk about it.

“Done?” Tae asks right away when he notices his wife.

“Uh-uh done”

“And so where’s Ken?”

“Talking to Jinyu about their school matters”

“I see”

Then the Jun Family members are now chatting with Rei mostly asks about how she feels, how her pregnancy going on nowadays, and most importantly how Tae treating her when they are alone, as for Tae, hearing these questions from his family members he doesn't know if he will cry or laugh but then he didn't retort because this means his family members really value his wife and concern about their relationship as a married couple. Around 4 pm, all of them taking a nap, and then around 5 pm, Tae's parents wake up firsts followed by the Jun couple so that they will looking out for the twins while Tae's parents preparing their dinner.

On the next day, after eating breakfast Ken got picked up by Jinyu and Ellyn didn't go along since their group of friends happened to be not in the schools so she will be waiting alone if she will go with them so instead of going she decides to stay at home after all both Ken and Jinyu agreed of her to stay at home since it's safer than letting her wait alone outside the Student Council Office while they are in the middle of discussing school matters. Since it's still school breaks for them, both Ken and Jinyu only wearing a casual attire but yet both of them still looks like a prince that just come out from the art world and both of them are the same height since it's not Ken who only got taller because Jinyu also got taller. When the two arrived at the Student Council Office, the other officers almost gawked at their appearance since they really look like a prince even they only wearing their casual attire, both Ken and Jinyu wearing pants while Ken wearing a blue polo shirt and Jinyu wearing a white polo shirt.

“President and Vice President, can you both feel pity for us?”

“Huh?” Both ask in confusion.

“You must be used to it Aaron after all we've been classmates with them since they study here and still be classmates in our class this school term”

“Geez not just looks but they also have brains, are you sure they are really kids?”

“Of course they are and they are also Mr. Rin, remember?”

“Alright stop with that Bro Aaron and let’s start now” Jinyu reminded Aaron

“See, see and how come they are more m.a.t.u.r.e compared to us?”

Except for Ken and Jinyu, all the Student Council Officers retorts “not us only you Aaron”

“.....” Aaron got speechless and all of them start their discussion right away.

All Student Council of each Department [High School, Middle School, and Grade School] are all graduating students of their department and so all of them already know each other since they are all classmates before becoming a graduating student since S Elite Academy won’t let their student skips grades if they are one level before graduating. Yuki is forever top three in their batch mates but he didn’t get recommended to be part of the Student Council by his schoolmates and classmates because he is kind of aloof and likes to stay in the corner so if both Ken and Jinyu happened not to talk him by chance then for sure by now he still alone.

Meanwhile at the Jun House and after Ken leaves the house, the family members are seating on the couch and watching 1 movie before preparing to leave the house. Around 10 am, they already done watching 1 movie and each of them uses the bathroom to take a bath, the couple using their room bathroom while Ellyn, Jia, and Tia Wen using the girl’s bathroom then the other Jun Family members are using the guest bathroom and the bathroom beside the kitchen area one after one and only the couple bathing together.

At exactly 11 am they leave and since Tae didn’t tell where they are going, Tia Wen just follow him since she’s the driver for her family members using her brother-in-law van [Seo Bum, Wei An husband] while Tae is the one driving for his family, the twins are with them along with his parents and Ellyn using his car since Rei’s car only has a capacity of 5 PAX and in order to avoid overloading, he uses the SUV, which has a capacity of 8 PAX. Half an hour later, they already outside the School Premises of S Elite Academy and waiting for Ken since he is still not around since he said that they will mostly finish before lunchtime.

Quarter to 12 noon, they see 12 students coming out from the School Premises and chatting together then they also see that both Ken and Jinyu are walking first followed by the other 10 students that they can't help but commented about them.

"So all your student council members from the grade school department are all boys, Ellyn" commented Tae's Mother.

"Yes Auntie Jun and all of them are classmates, although they are already 6th Grader all of them are a group of 7 to 9 years old and all of them are Top 10 of the class. Oh, right their top 3 is not included since Bro Yuki is kind of a unique one." Ellyn explains it well.

"I see but then you said Top 10 and they are 12, so are there tied between them?"

"Uh-uh, they are 3 pairs that got tied, the Top 1 are both Jinyu and Bro Ken, then the top 5 and last top 7 so that's why they are 12 not including Bro Yuki though"

"I see"

"Neh Ellyn?"

"Yes, Uncle Tae?"

"I have noticed that all of them are quite good-looking, so are they all popular in your department then?"

"Yes they are Uncle Tae and the Student Council of Grade School Department have been called the 12 Genius Princes since all of them are quite good looking and smart"

“Ha, ha, what a unique name and.....” Tae got interrupted since Ken knocks on the window of the car and so he stops so that he can open the car door at the back seat and let him in. “Come inside Ken”

“Uh-uh, and thank you, Uncle Tae,” and then chatting to Jinyu while still outside of the car and holding the car door at the same time “bye-bye Bro Jinyu and see you tomorrow”

“Bye-bye, and what do you mean by tomorrow? We are already done finalizing the list and so we will meet this weekend [their study group of friends] before the opening of the class, right?”

“Oh right and bye-bye Bro Jinyu”

“Bye-bye”

“He, he, are you not going to say bye-bye to Ellyn?”

“... [Jinyu almost got speechless since Ken didn't forget to tease him and so he replied to Ken naturally after all he already used to it] I have her number so no worries for me”

“Eh, what did you say Bro Jinyu?” Ken didn't hear him clearly since he already hops in.

‘Seriously he did it on purpose and that's for sure’ “Nothing and bye” then right away he received a message from Ken with a photo attached of Ellyn during her 3rd Birthday [at the Din's Hometown].

[No worries because you have her number Bro Jinyu, right? Well too bad for you because you don't have Ellyn pictures just like this one, fu, fu, fu] and Jinyu got speechless this time while Ken chatting with everyone as if he didn't tease Jinyu for a while ago.

“So Uncle Tae, where are we going today?”

“A secret for now Ken”

“Tsk, what a stingy Uncle and by the way, it’s only us and so how about everyone?”

“They are at the back, Ken, and following us since we are not fit in here” Tae explains while starting the engine then drive right away followed by the other Jun Family members.

“I see” and then since Ken didn’t get an answer from Tae about his query, he asks his Auntie to know where they are going after all his Auntie is his Uncle Tae beloved so for sure she knows about it “Auntie Rei, where are we going today?”

“Unfortunately, I also don’t know where are we going today Ken since only your Uncle Tae know where are we going today”

“Eh, so you also don’t know where are we going, Auntie” Rei nodded while Ken assuming and guess “how rare and since it’s almost lunchtime now then for sure we are going first to where we eat, right Uncle Tae?”

“..... [Tae’s got speechless since he half got it right]”

“Ha, ha, ha I guess it right”

On the way to where they are going, the family members are chatting together and after few minutes of drive, they arrive at their destination. Everyone is looking amazed when they arrive at their destination since it’s a private beach resort and everyone, except Rei, said in sync to Tae.

“Tae/Tae-nyah/Uncle Tae we don’t bring any swimming outfit, you know”

“I know but no worries”

“Huh?” Everyone got confused meanwhile Rei whisper to her husband.

“You know that I don’t know how to swim, right?”

“Ha, ha, ha, of course, I know and I won’t be your husband if I don’t that simple thing”

At the same time, the owner of the private beach resort along with his family members welcomes them while criticizing someone.

“Welcome everyone and Tae Woo you’re so very late since you said you will be here around 10 am yet it now strikes 12, is this your 10 am, huh?”

Chapter 594 - Vol 8: Ch 594 – Interacting with the Wong Family and Friends

Everyone from the Jun Family Members and relatives is looking at him then after hearing his welcome and his criticized comment, everyone who is not very familiar with Woo Jin wondering in sync even his family members who already used to him also wondering the same thing.

‘Is he really welcoming them or not?’

On the other hand, Tae already used to him since he just shrugged it off and replied naturally to him.

“Ha, ha, ha sorry since Ken have some school matters to do and we can’t leave if any missing one of us”

“Heh, are you really telling the truth or are you just making excuses?”

Tae didn’t reply to him instead of he is now talking to Ken “Ken, Uncle Tae telling the truth, right?”

Ken looking amusingly at his Uncle since what he remembers, his Uncle said that there’s nothing to worry about since they will leave after lunch yet here they are but well he loved his Uncle so he didn’t expose him and agreed without hesitation “mmm, Uncle Tae is telling the truth, Sir” Ken calls Woo Jin

Sir since it's their second meeting after that day [the day when the Wong Couple suddenly visits the Jun Couple]

"Eh, Ken why are you calling my Dad, Sir? Just call him Uncle after all he is my Dad" Wooji interrupt them when he heard Ken calling his Dad Sir and he already not calling Ken as Young Master since both Jinyu and Ken will ignore him if he will continue calling them Young Master.

"Eh, Big Brother Wooji you are here and this Sir here is your Dad?"

"Yes I'm here and right this Sir here is my Dad, is it not obvious?"

'Not obvious though you look-alike with each other but your personality didn't fit as father and son' Ken didn't reply and only thinking.

"Wooji?"

"Yes, Dad?"

"The a.d.u.l.ts are talking and here you are"

"Oops sorry, Dad but I can't help it since Ken just call you Sir, and did you forget how Ken almost got a perfect score during the School Fair in Math Final Tie-breaker round against Sis, did you?"

"I'm also present at that time so I know but for now let's get inside first"

Everyone followed while Tae asking Woo Jin about his daughter.

"Eh, where's Woon, Woo Jin?"

"Helping the staff preparing the foods along with Anna, Hannah, Ai, and Bing Wen"

“Heh, so they are here huh”

“Of course since Anna is my daughter and Hannah is her mother while the Leng siblings are already considered part of our family, you know”

“I see”

Meanwhile, after everyone already inside the premises and after settled at the dining table, the food is already ready so the Jun Family, the Wong Family, and friends eat their lunch together then after eating they introduce each other. After eating, Woo Jin instructs his staff to get the size of everyone for their swimming attires.

“Staffs please get the sizes of the Jun Family Members and deliver it within one hour”

“Yes Master Wong”

‘Heh, indeed he is really the heir of the Wong’ wondered by everyone even though Seo Bum and Ken also an heir of their family business.

“While waiting for the hot weather to cools down then Woonna, Wooji, Anna and Ai play with Ken, Ellyn, and Jia for the meantime, okay?”

“Yes, Dad / Uncle Woo Jin” Woonna, Wooji, Anna, and Ai answered at the same time meanwhile both Ken and Ellyn looking at their Auntie for her approval.

“Play with them, for now, Ken and Ellyn after all it’s still hot outside and you still don’t have your swimming attire, right?” Both only nodded since they are other peoples aside from their friends and family members. Observing her niece and nephew, Rei comforts them. “Jia only knows the two of you while the two of you know the three of them, so use this chance for Jia to know each other while the two of you will know Ai, okay?” Again both Ken and Ellyn nodded.

Seeing Ken being shy Wooji said to him "Ken don't be shy and you know what, Ai also bakes very well and it's very yummy and delicious compared to Sis Woonna so for sure you will be Ai's friend right away so no worries for you"

Ken getting shy since Wooji just blurted it out and then he realized that he calls Ai without honorifics so he asks "eh, you call Miss Ai without honorifics, so is she younger than you, Big Brother Wooji?"

"Ha, ha, as expected of you Ken but Ken and Ellyn come with us also you, Young Miss"

"Ha, ha, ha, you are calling Sis Jia as Young Miss when in fact she's younger than you Big Bro Wooji"

"Eh, I see but I can't help it you know"

"Heh, so there will be a day that Ji will be hopeless, huh"

"Shut up Ai" then Ai laughing freely.

"Hey, the two of you stop it and it's still early for both of you to fight, most of all don't forget that it's not only us, so mind your manners Ji and Ai" Woonna stopping them right away since she realized that both two little girls hiding at Ken's back. [Ken is already the same height as Jia while Ellyn's height labeled to their shoulder but they are still considered little when they compared their height to high school students well the fact is both Ken and Ellyn are really tall compared to their age and it's thanks to their tall fathers.]

"Oops sorry Sis / Woonna"

Meanwhile, after the kids leaving the a.d.u.l.ts, Woo Jin commented on it right away.

"Ha, ha, ha Mrs. Jun is really like a mother of your niece and nephew, huh"

Instead of Rei, Tae is the one replying to him "well can't be helped since my wife is their guardian while they are here in S Country and for now Leng, this is my wife"

“Yeah I already know it after seeing your wife personally but Tae you are so lucky to have a beautiful wife by your side, huh”

“Indeed I’m very lucky”

“Ha, ha, ha, right, and by the way, your twins never cry huh”

Before Tae answered Woo Jin interrupted right away “Bing Wen just used to it after we are talking about Tae Woo’s baby now” then everyone laughing together.

Each family members are busy chatting with each other until not more than an hour, their swimming attire arrives and all of it is brand new so they call the kids then they change. After changing to their swimming attire everyone is waiting for the hot weather to cool down so around 3 pm the kids are now swimming on the beach after applying sunblock to their skins. As for the a.d.u.l.t members except for Rei and Tae, they are also swimming while looking out for the kids.

Chapter 595 - Vol 8: Ch 595 – Interacting with the Wong Family and Friends 2

Back to where everyone changing their clothes into their swimming outfits, Rei and Tae changing using the other room meanwhile Tae already waiting for his wife, and then a few minutes later, Rei got out from the changing room and call out her husband attention.

“Tae, do I look okay?” Rei asks since she’s wearing a two-piece maternity swimwear while flaunting her w.o.m.b after all she’s almost 7 months pregnant.

On the other hand, Tae who’s playing on his phone raising his head and got dumbfounded because of how showy her bikini is.

Rei asks again since Tae didn’t give an answer “do I look okay?”

“Uh-uh, you look gorgeous but don’t you have any swimwear aside from that?”

“I don’t have since I don’t know we are going here and it’s Woo Jin who provides everyone swimming attire, remember?”

“Right and geez, what did I expect more from him?” Tae blaming himself while looking at something from his bag and then give it to his beloved wife “wear this”

Rei accepts that something from Tae and she asks bewilderedly “eh, a bathrobe?”

“Yes, a bathrobe Hon and remember you are not used to showing off your skin and body since from what you told me before that every time you go swimming with your family members either beach or pool you will always wear a rash guard or wetsuit, right?”

“...[Rei almost got speechless, well at first she really hesitating to wear it but then in order not to spoil her husband plans she didn’t complain and so she wears it even she will feel embarrassed]yeah indeed but then is it okay for me to wear it?”

“Yes, no problem at all, and since I’m always at your side so if you want to swim though you don’t know how to swim just tell me, okay?”

Rei not bothered by her husband comment about her since it’s the truth and so she agreed right away “okay”

“Good and let’s go now, I guess everyone already out from their changing room”

“Uh-uh” Rei agreed without noticing that her husband sighing in relief since she didn’t notice anything while wondering after his wife agreed with him without noticing anything.

‘Luckily I’m fast enough or else someone will see my wife’s body.’

And back to where everyone already on the beach while the kids already swimming after applying sunblock on their own, everyone wondered why Rei wearing a bathrobe when in fact she does have swimwear most of them didn't ask but then Tia Wen as she is, asks Tae when Rei is looking out for both Ken and Ellyn.

"Neh, Tae-nyah why is it Rei wearing a bathrobe and not a bikini like us?"

Without hesitation, Tae answered the real reason and everyone heard it except the kids and Rei.
"Because it's too showy and I don't want anyone to feast my wife's body aside from me."

Everyone almost got speechless and they said in sync "you already seen it for how many times you want and yet you are still like this?"

"Uh-uh and just for my safety precautions I need to act fast after all Leng is here and what if he wants my wife, huh?"

"....." Everyone and Leng got speechless this time.

At the same time, Rei just approaches them and calls her husband's attention.

"Tae?"

"Yes, Hon?"

"Let's swim now"

"Okay but not here"

"Huh?" Rei got confused.

"Woo Jin, is it alright for me and my wife to swim in there?" Tae asks while pointing at least 10 meters distance away from them.

“Yes but why not here?”

“Because I want to monopolize my wife”

Hearing this reply of Tae, Rei blushed while Woo Jin got it and answered naturally “okay but I remind you Tae Woo that it’s still daylight”

“No problem at all and I know my limits. Right, Mom and Dad please help me look out for Ken and Ellyn while babysitting the twins, please”

“No problem Tae”

“Thanks, Mom and Dad” then he holds his wife’s right hand while leaving and suddenly got pinch by Rei that enough for everyone to hear it except the kids since they were all busy swimming with their friends and new friend, Ai.

“Ouch, and what’s that for?” Rei didn’t answer because she is too embarrassed and Tae notice it so he is now teasing his wife “he, he, he, are you feeling shy and embarrassed now, Hon?”

Rei only replied one word to her beloved husband and that cause him to laugh out loud “Idiot”.

Everyone who witnesses it also smiling because Tae really found the one for him and they can really feel how they love each other but what they didn’t expect is how possessive Tae is and except the kids, all of them looking at Bing Wen because he got accused by Rei’s possessive husband.

“Geez, everyone you don’t need to look at me like that, you know. Oh right, luckily Senior Roux already moves on and got married to you Jin, or else she will be heartbroken for sure because of Tae’s protectiveness and possessiveness to his wife.” Bing Wen just blurted it out without knowing that all the Jun Family members were not aware of Tae’s ex-girlfriends because the only lady they know is Rei since she’s the only one who got introduced to them.

All of the Jun Family Members ask in sync “eh, Mrs. Wong and Tae/Tae-nyah was a couple before?”

“Eh?” Bing Wen also got confused while Woo Jin glaring at him.

As for Ina, she answered truthfully “yes guys, I and Tae were dating before but there are some matters before that led us to break up but it’s already part of both of our pasts, and both of us already married to my and his beloved partner.” Everyone from Jun’s family members nodded and Tia Wen suddenly said out of nowhere.

“Eh, think about it and don’t tell me you’re that campus belle before who got rejected by Tae-nyah?”

“Indeed I got rejected then we become a couple and only for a couple of months”

“I see”

Meanwhile, on the other hand, Hannah just listening to their conversation and she wonders at the same time ‘so Doctor Wong was one of Tae’s ex-girlfriends and yet his family members were all not aware of us. For sure, Manager Rei is the only one who formally introduced himself to his family members and to everyone. Geez, by this treatment I can really tell how deeper Tae loves towards Manager Rei.’

Chapter 596 - Vol 8: Ch 596 – Enlistment

Afterward, around 5 pm the Jun couple goes back to where everyone is, of course, they only swim and didn’t do anything, after all, it’s still an outside place even the beach resort is privately own by the Wong Family. Everyone eats their dinner and around 7 pm, the Jun Family leaves the place leaving the Wong Family Members along with the Leng siblings. As for the other Jun Family Members, they also separate their way and so only them [Tae, Rei, Tae’s parents, Ken, Ellyn, and the twins] arrive at CA Residences quarter to 8 pm.

Since they were all tired from swimming for the whole afternoon and again except the couple they went directly to their own room in order to replenish their energy back and while the others were already sleeping, the couple is still in the living room, chatting and looking out their twins.

“Tomorrow will be my enlistment, Hon and surely I will miss you, our twins, and the baby in your w.o.m.b,” he said while looking out the twins tenderly.

“Yeah, that for sure, and if you really miss us then you just need to use your day off once a month to see us or either if you have another plan in your mind then you just need to look out our family picture just to fill in your misses with us, right?”

“...[Tae almost got speechless since his wife really know him well after all he really have some plans for that and so he replied naturally] indeed you are right Hon and by the way, did you already filed for your maternity leave since I didn't hear anything from you, so did you?”

“...[this time Rei almost got speechless since she really forgot to tell about it to Tae and replied calmly] yeah I already did but instead of the 1st day of June, my maternity leave approved on the 2nd week of June until on the 1st week of September and though I will be still on leave after giving birth, Mr. Hwang and the board of directors requested to me that if I can still work at home then I can, after all, CA Entertainment will have to debut at least 18 artists on the month of August so since I'm the Artist Manager I agreed only if I'm at home until I return officially back to work.”

“I see but then Hon you need to remember that you are going to give birth and after giving birth you must take a rest, knowing you, you are a workaholic so please mind it just for me, our twins, and for you, okay?”

“Yup, yup, and I will”

“...promise?”

“I promise”

“Good and let's put our twins first before going to our bed”

“Okay, and Dear, you must also promise to me that you will only think yourself when you are on military grounds, okay?”

“I'm not sure that one Hon after all I'm your husband and the father of our kids so it's normal for me to worry my family, right?”

“.....right and you win Tae but make sure you come back with us in one piece, okay?”

“Yes and I promise”

“...” Rei didn’t reply since her mind is wondering something.

On the other hand, Tae has just done laying the twins to their cribs and realized his wife spacing out
“and why are you spacing out, Hon?”

“Me?” Tae nodded while Rei denying it right away “I didn’t”

“Ha, ha, ha, I see but knowing you, for sure you are wondering why I’m a Senian and need to enlist but mind you Hon if I’m not a Senian then there’s a possibility that I might not be meeting you and become my wife so instead of wondering that one you must be grateful that am I and everything happened to us is already planned out from our almighty one, right?”

“Geez, I didn’t think that one” Rei denies again.

“Right you didn’t and let’s go to our room now after all I will be enlisting tomorrow morning.”

“O—okay”

A few minutes later, the couple already lying on their bed but both are still awake and both didn’t utter any words until Tae breaks the silence in order to remind his pregnant wife.

“Mrs. Jun Lou Rei”

“Eh, yes?”

“You need to sleep now after all you are pregnant”

“.....” Rei didn’t reply.

“What are you worried about?”

“M— many things Tae”

He already knows what are they but he still needs to ask his wife after all Rei always follows his arrangement without complaining so this time he wants to hear it from his wife “many things such as what Hon and please tell me what it is, I’m your husband after all. Although I like that about this time I want to hear it from your own mouth, so what is it, Hon?”

“Well, I know that you have other plans for your day off once a month but can you at least use it to visit us once a month?”

“Well I can’t do that Rei”

Looking up to Tae and asks cutely “why?”

“Because I will be tempted not to go back again and might violating the laws so for the whole 24 days of each month I won’t use my day off to visit you and the kids so we will not see each other for the whole 2 years instead I will be discharged earlier than my schedule day since I won’t use my day off so both of us must bear it for not seeing each other, okay?”

“O— Okay and then can we...” Rei paused on purpose.

“And then can we, what is it, Hon?”

Rei got embarrassed and already blushing but still asks her husband “can we do it?”

“...[Tae almost got speechless and he is also now blushing when he replied his wife] o—-okay we can do it but not more than 5 rounds after all we both decide that we are not going to do it tonight because I might lose control, okay?”

“Okay but it’s alright for you to lose control Tae and you just need to make sure that you didn’t put any pressure on my belly”

“Stop tempting me, Hon”

“I didn’t tempt you Tae because I also want it because surely I will miss your touch, so let’s do it now, okay?” Rei said while already start undressing her beloved husband.

Chapter 597 - Vol 8: Ch 597 – Enlistment 2

Although Tae said that they will only do it for 5 rounds, they already did many rounds and they’ve been doing it for almost 4 hours now, and being a concerned husband to his pregnant wife, he needs to remind his needy wife.

“Neh, Rei it’s already past midnight so let’s stop it okay?”

“Oh, but just last one”

“You always said last one Rei and yet you ask for more”

“...oh I see but this will be the last one, I promise, or don’t tell me you don’t want me anymore?”

“Of course I love to do it with you even for the entire nights and day but not this time because you are pregnant Hon”

“.....o—okay but just last one, please?”

“Only last one, okay?”

“Okay”

“And after this, both of us need to sleep now since you will also be dropping me off, okay?”

“Okay”

Right away the couple did it for one last round and then cleaning up themselves first before sleeping.

On the next day, Rei is the one who awakes first, and instead of rising up from the bed, she just seating on the bed while spacing out meanwhile at the same time when she’s spacing out, Tae slowly waking up and notice it.

“Again Hon, why are you spacing out?”

“Oh, Good Morning Dear”

“Good Morning Hon and so then why are you spacing out this early morning, huh?”

“Nothing”

“Are you sure?”

“No, it’s because I just realized that I’ve been a secretary here for almost 3 years and used to be alone while I’m here in S Country but then after meeting you Dear, I’m not used to it now, it’s like that my life will be lacking if you’re not with my side although I know that on our first year of marriage you just come in and go but then I didn’t feel alone because I know you are here beside me but then now you will be an away with for 2 years and honestly I don’t know if I will be fine,” Rei said while her tears slowly flowing out from her eyes without control.

Seeing his wife crying, Tae hugs his wife and comfort her “seriously Hon, you are the one who always comforts me that 2 years will just pass by without our knowledge but now here you are and on the very day that I’m going to enlist, you are now acting like this, do you want me to enlist or not?”

Rei almost got speechless and she pinched his wife while said one word to him “idiot”

“Ouch, what’s that for?”

“That’s for ruining the mood and you are supposed to comfort me, right?”

“Well you are not crying anymore and that’s how I comfort you because I know that the woman I married is very independent and a strong one although I quite like that one since that’s the other reason why I love you so much but then I also want you to depend on me but not this 2 years that I’m enlisting so Hon, I request you to not depend on me for this 2 years and will depend on me once I discharge, is that alright with you?”

“Okay”

“Good and thank you, Hon, I love you”

“I love you too Dear and by the way, you didn’t forget what needed to bring, right?”

“Uh-uh, after all, my wife is the one checking it last week”

“.....show off”

“Of course I need to be show off because I’m proud of you, my wife. Oh, right, are you not tired from last night?”

“...[Rei got embarrassed and now blushing] of course, I’m not and if am I then I must still sleeping now, right?”

“Ha, ha, ha, right, and let’s take a bath now”

Around 6 am, the family members are now eating their breakfast together, and then the couple leave afterward since Rei will be the only one dropping off Tae to avoid getting noticed by everyone. On the way to the Air Force Center of Enlistment Section, Tae is the one driving using the SUV and again just listening to his wife’s reminders while on his enlistment period but then he cuts off when they arrive.

“Oh, we are here Hon”

“Oh, right we’re here”

“You don’t need to go outside and seeing me off, okay?”

“Uh-uh”

Right away Tae realized something and said to his wife “guess both Je and San already used to your 30 minutes arrived before the appointed time, huh”

“Huh?” Rei got confused because Tae said it out of nowhere.

“Look” Tae pointing where Je and San got out from their parent’s car.

“I see”

“Alright I’m going now before someone will notice us”

“Okay, and be careful, okay?”

“I know and first.....”

“Mmm, what is it?”

“I must not forget to kiss you” then after he said this, he kisses his wife right away and bidding him farewell. “Bye-bye and see you Rei after two years of my enlistment, I Love You” then leave right away before he got tempted not to enlist.

“What’s with him, suddenly?” Rei got confused.

Meanwhile, after Tae leaves his wife, he suddenly calls his teammate’s attention who also enlists in the same department to avoid being lonely by leaving his wife and family.

“Je and San” calls while tapping their shoulder at the same time.

“E—eh, B—Bro Tae?” Both got surprised because of their cold and chic teammate’s action then suddenly they realized something and ask the same time. “Eh, you are crying?”

“Of course I will after all it’s really hard to leave your wife and kids alone”

“.....”

“Let’s go now”

“Eh, where’s Manager Rei, Bro Tae?”

“Inside the car and let’s go” Then Tae leaves the two without turning his head around because if he will then for sure he will go to his wife right away.

“.....” Both Je and San got speechless again but then their parents interrupt them.

“Je and San, go now and follow Tae before someone will notice the two of you.”

“But Mom, Bro Tae.....” Je got interrupted by his Father dear.

“You won’t understand it Je but I kind of understand how hard for Tae right now after all it’s very hard to leave your wife and kids alone, so I kind of understand it”

“Dad, if I remember it correctly you enlist without knowing Mom’s existence in the first place, right?”

“Shut up”

“Silly son of yours Sweetheart but Je, your Dad didn’t mean it about me but it means to his ex-beloved childhood best friend, right Sweetheart”

“.....”

“Ha, ha, ha, enough with that Mr. and Mrs. Li, so San you need to go now”

“Yes Dad and Mom, we are going now”

“Go ahead San and make sure you won’t forget to take good care of yourself, okay?”

“Yes I won’t and bye-bye, let’s go Bro Je,” said while waving his hand to Rei at Tae’s car since Rei still not leaving.

Chapter 598 - Vol 8: Ch 598 – Negotiation

Rei just making sure that she will be seeing her husband off and so she will only leave when Tae already out of sight, of course, she didn't forget her works after all she takes a picture of them so that the day that CA Entertainment will officially release about their enlistment they will attach the photo that they take, Manager Han is the one in-charge for the other three and since not only Je and San who used to Rei's time since the other three also arrived at the same time so Manager Han didn't wait that long so he takes the pictures of them before leaving secretly,

Both Bi and Shi got dropped off by their parents since Yun got dropped off by his parents along with his girlfriend Lucy. Lucy just staying in the car since only the M'dols Fans know their relationship so she needs to be cautious although Yun already said to her that it's alright to go out, after all, they enlist privately but she refused to go out just to be sure and for the safety of their baby girl so Yun didn't insist it anymore. The three of them entered the premises after bidding their farewell to their loved ones and then back to the Air Force Center.

Rei notices San's waved so she waved back before starting the engine and leave right away. Rei didn't feel offended when Tae didn't turn his back because she knows for sure why and it will be the same reason why he won't use his day off to visit her and their babies in order to be get tempted not to go back.

After leaving the Air Force Center, Rei is now on the way to her appointed schedule and that's to meet the owners of the property that they are going to buy. If she didn't use her skills to investigate the owners then for sure until now she won't know who the owners are but since this is her beloved husband's big dream then she really investigates but not further since she only knows their name, contact details, and their address.

===== Flashback =====

3 days after hearing the big dream of her husband, Rei is still not aware who's the owners of the property and even the help of her hidden bodyguard, so without choice, she wakes up very early and slowly raising up from the bed in order not to wake her husband then go to her control room to investigate it. First, she encodes the property address and such thing then after 5 minutes she got the name, address, and contact details appear on the screen.

[Mari Bai – S and A Residences, Penthouse 101-102 A, S Capital City, XXX-XXX-XXX]

And

Ji Min Hwang – S and A Residences, Penthouse 101-102 A, S Capital City, XXX-XXXX-XXX]

“Eh, both owners residing at the same place yet different last names, and both use the 9 special digit numbers?” Rei wondered it out loud then turning off her computer and go back to the side of her beloved husband.

On the next morning, Tae awake first followed by Rei and Rei act naturally as if she didn't do anything early in the morning and then around 10 am while the team members were in the middle of their radio appearance, Rei contact those numbers and after 7 rings, someone answered with a very stern voice.”

“Hello this is Jun Lou Rei and I'm interested in a property located at 48 A Street Sub-proper, S Main Town City” Rei just state her name and her real intent without running around the circle.

“Wait for a moment Miss” someone answered the phone on the owner's behalf then that someone covers the mouthpiece before informing his Master. “Master, a lady named Jun Lou Rei looking for you and said that she's interested in one of your property in S Main Town City”

“Jun Lou Rei?”

“Yes Master”

“Eh, Jun Lou Rei is that the former Head Secretary of Min, Ji?”

“Maybe yes or not but then tell her that if she’s really interested in that property then we will meet her at exactly 8:30 am on May 26 and if she won’t come then I will consider that I didn’t know anything about it”

“Yes, Master, and where’s the meeting place?”

“Give me my phone and your Madame phone’s first”

“Oh, okay” then that someone put the phone on hold before giving the phone to his Master “here, Master”

“Thanks and see she got to know our number so probably she already got information about us so just tell her like that and after the call, call my group of lawyers to come here”

“Yes, Master” and that someone follows his master instructions right away.

====- End of Flashback =====

Around 8 am, Rei already arrive at the S and A Residences then already park her car at the visitor’s slots.

“That man said at exactly 8:30 am and I’m already here at 8 am so I will go up 10 minutes before 8:30 am but did I really have the right meeting place?” Then Rei brainstorming her mind “that man holding the phone for more than 5 minutes so maybe that man talking to the real owner of the phone who is also the owner property and then they didn’t ask how I get their number so mostly they are testing if I’m really interested the property or not so that’s why that man said when to meet but not where to meet since they assume that I already investigated them yet aside from the name, contact details and address I know nothing, geez why I didn’t investigate it further but then Rei if you will do it then it means you already intruding their private matters well you already did and if you got it wrong then call the number again and negotiate them well that you really want the property after all if you won’t get the property then you won’t achieve the big dream of your beloved husband. Yeah right, do or nothing... [Pause to look the time] oops it’s already 8:17 am and I need to go up now.

Rei got out of the car and now already at the reception area then asks naturally after all her hidden bodyguards are hiding at the corner.

“Excuse me, Miss”

“Yes Ma’am?” Although Rei is still on her 27th, she will always be got called either Manager Rei or Ma’am because of her position and her being pregnant.

“I’m here and have an appointment of meeting both Mr. Hwang Ji Min and Mari Bai”

“Oh, are you Mrs. Jun Lou Rei, Ma’am?”

“Yes I am” ‘Oh, so they also investigating me and I got the right place’. Rei assumes and without her knowing both of them already know about her without investigating and since they got nothing when they investigate her after all she’s the top hacker, they didn’t investigate more since they were aware that she’s from C Country so it’s already expected to be got protected by R without knowing that Rei is R herself.

“I see and please follow me, Ma’am”

Chapter 599 - Vol 8: Ch 599 – Negotiation 2

Rei follow the receptionist without hesitation and both of them ride the elevator together then a few minutes later they arrived on the 10th floor and Rei heard the receptionist.

“Secretary Long said that your appointment time with Master and Madame is at exactly 8:30 am so time right now is 8:28 am and so let’s wait for another 2 minutes before letting know that you are already here now Ma’am Jun Lou Rei”

“Yes, I don’t mind”

“You can sit while waiting the time Ma’am, after all, you are pregnant”

“Thank you for your concern Miss but I’m fine with standing”

“I see....oh there’s one minute left” and then the receptionist counting to her mind only since their master is too strict with the time and at exactly 8:30 am she presses the doorbell with a monitor screen.

“Master and Madame, Ma’am Jun Lou Rei is here” then the door automatically opens, and the man who gives Rei instruction before welcomes her.

“Come inside Mi.....[almost calling Miss but then after realizing that she’s pregnant, he change it right away] Ma’am Jun Lou Rei and Miss Di, thank you for escorting Ma’am Jun Lou Rei here”

“Yes, and you’re welcome Secretary Long” then the receptionist leaves right away to hide her blushing face.

“This way Ma’am Jun Lou Rei” again Rei followed without hesitation and then see two elders, although you can’t really tell that they are elders since the two are still have their youthful looks and skins but then Rei can tell it based on their aura. “Master and Madame, Ma’am Jun Lou Rei is here”

“Yes and thank you, Secretary Long”

“You’re welcome Master and I will stand outside”

“Okay and don’t forget to entertain them or else they might getting bored for waiting”

“Yes, Young Master” then leaves right away.

“And Sec..... I mean Lady Jun you may take a seat”

“Thank you for that Sir” then taking a seat opposite to them.

“Alright, I won’t go running around the circle so I heard from Secretary Long that you are interested in one of the properties I owned so may I know why you are interested in that property and what are you going to do with that property if I agree?”

“Actually Sir, my husband is the one who is interested with that property and so since he happened to be enlisted today, as his wife I’m the one going to negotiate it to become ours though I don’t know how much you sell it to us still I’m willing to compromise as long as it’s a negotiable price and for what we are going to do with that property, we only want it to be our residence and the rest will be inherited to me and my husband kids in the future, that’s only what we want for that property”

“I see so that’s why you are here even though Mr. Jun Tae Woo is just got enlist at exactly 8 am, huh and then it’s one hour drive to here yet you are here at 8:30 am to be exact”

Rei not surprised that this man knows about it after all she already assume that they investigate her so she answered truthfully “actually Sir, I only drop off my husband at the center quarter to 8 am since my husband is privately enlisting today and then leave around 7:30 am to be here. I used the other road to be here so I arrived around 8 am”

“I see, I see but then I’m quite confused why Min let go of you to be his Head Secretary and Mari is that how your Son’s mind works?”

“Ji, that Son of mine is also yours, and most of all, he mostly got your genes so blame your own genes and not mine”

“Right, right and so young lady Jun the reason you give up your position as the Head Secretary of that son of mine is mainly because of your husband?”

“...eh you and this Madame here are Mr. Hwang’s parents?”

“Eh, you didn’t know about it and I thought you already investigating about us so why?”

“Ah Sir sorry for that but honestly aside from your name, address, and contact details I know nothing and I also didn’t connect to each other you are Mr. Hwang’s father when in fact you are also Mr. Hwang, Sir”

“Don’t call me Sir instead you just need to call me Grandfather”

“And you also call me Grandmother, Rei”

“Eh but I’m here for the property that my husband interested with”

“Yup, yup we know but we only discuss it after you call us Grandfather and Grandmother”

‘Now, I got to know where Na got that attitude huh when in fact both her parents are too serious even Mr. Hwang is also serious one, so it means she got that attitude of her from these two elders’. Rei wondering and didn’t answer the two.

“Well you can consider it we never meet and we never talk about it, Young Lady Jun”

“No, I’m just surprised for the information that I got to know now Grandfather and Grandmother”

“Great and so then why did you give up your Head Secretary Position, is it because for that pretty man you are married now?”

“.....” ‘Eh, how come we are now this talks and I’m here to negotiate the property, right?’

“Don’t worry about it Rei and just answer my husband query after all he was still confused until now though he is the founder of CA International and Group Company he already cannot make the decision since our Son, Min is now the chairman so he is always calling Min for why he let go of you as his Head Secretary and then you got a promotion to transfer to his own company but not his Secretary instead a Manager so he always questions Min about it but then Min always shrugged it off and answered to him that ‘Dad, I can’t cage my employees and as their employer I want them to glow more.’ And so this husband of mine is already thinking that he will surely ask you that one personally but then Min interrupt him again without voicing it out and blackmailed this man that if he did that, then he will report it to the authority for stalking a young lady even he is his Dad so he didn’t do anything and just sulking on his own. Then after hearing that you might the former Head Secretary from me he agreed to meet you right away though he didn’t specify the place since this man is quite a spoiled brat one, so sorry for that.” Mari explaining it one go without pausing.

Chapter 600 - Vol 8: Ch 600 – The parents of Mr. Hwang

Hearing Mari's explanations in one go, Ji Min is now pouting and said to his wife.

"Are you really my wife or not?"

"Of course I am and if not then I won't say anything about you, right?"

"Tsk, and this is where that son of ours got that attitude because of you"

"Well indeed and luckily both of our children only got your genes or else I don't what will happen if they also got your childishness and being a spoiled brat one"

"Eh but then you still chose me over your childhood best friend, right?"

"Well you are the one who I got betrothed than to my childhood best friend so I don't have a choice"

"Hearing that one it means you only married for money and not because of love, huh"

"If I don't love you then we won't have Min and Annie and most of all I'm already married to my childhood best friend but then I didn't marry you for Money because the Bai also has, right?"

"Tsk, you win, you win, and stop with that because Rei is here so stop being a spoiled brat also, okay Mari?"

“Geez you start it first”

“...then sorry for that and so Young Lady Jun, are you really now a Manager because of that pretty man?”

“Actually that’s the main reason why and the other reason is also I’m indebted to Mr. Hwang since he always considers us as his employees so after hearing my promotion I agreed without hesitation since I’m going to work with that pretty man”

“I see and well if he really won’t consider his employees then he is not my son but then I can still arrange you to my two grandsons, of course, my grandsons can compete against that pretty man fair and square, so why not divorce him and consider my two grandsons, right?”

“Grandfather I will decline for that thing since I’m loyal to my husband and he will be my forever first and last man”

“Even I will consider the property you are interested to give you along with either of my two grandsons, you are still going to decline?”

“Uh-uh after all and in the first place my husband is the only one who got interested in that property”

“Then you must buy that property in an exact amount of 1 Billion Sean and of course I won’t accept the installment”

“Deal and although I know that the standard price for 1 square meter of the lot here in S Country for residential purpose is around 1,000 Sean to 1,480 Sean per square meter then I will still compromise the price after all you are the owner Grandfather, so can I process it today?”

“Geez, I guess that son of mine really pays you well huh but Young Lady did you forgot that only Senian can buy and own a property here in S Country, did you?”

“I didn’t and that’s why I bring my husband’s seal to process it on his behalf”

“Geez as expected of the former Head Secretary of CA International and Group Company so you come here prepared huh”

“Uh-uh”

“Okay I will sell you that property but in one condition”

“Yes Grandfather and as long as you won’t arrange me from your two grandsons”

“Yeah, yeah I won’t and this is my condition I will give you free the property but in one condition that you will now the new holders of me and my wife share’s in both CA International and Group Company and JL Hospital.”

“Eh?”

“Of course you will buy the share with the same standard price of the property you will get for free so this is the actual price, the property is exactly 15,480 square meters and so I will price it to you to the maximum standard price which is 1,480 so you need to pay 22,910,400 Sean for both shares which is each share is a price for 11,455,200 Sean, deal?”

“Eh but Grandfather, can I at least know how many percent you own from both companies?”

“I own 10% Share of CA International and Group Company and Mari own 10% share of JL Hospital, so deal?”

“Eh, then if I accept it, don’t tell me that I will both surpass some of the directors of the company, right Grandfather?”

“Indeed you will but they can’t help it after all it all comes from our hands and you don’t need to worry about Min and Annie after all Annie got 30% share from us while her husband got 30% share from his parents [the Li] and Na’s husband got 20% share from his parents [the Jo] and then 1% each for 10 directors so as for you, you will get the 10% each for the two company from my wife and me. As for Min, he got 60% and his wife Mina got 15% from us and then you will get 10% from us while the 15 boards of directors own 1% share of each, so you don't need to worry about it Young Lady Jun or else you won't get the lot that your pretty man been interested with, so it's a win-win situation, right?"

"...[Rei almost got speechless] I see Grandfather but then how about you Grandfather and Grandmother if I will accept it?"

"Nah you don't need to worry about us, after all, we won't go bankrupt after losing the share since we still have a lot of property that's why we decide to donate it to the authority and give some to our employees luckily you are fast enough to contact me so you got that property for free. Oh right and if you don't mind this S and A Residences also owned by us but then both my Son and Annie are not interested in it after all they have their own company so we will give it to our trusted employees someday. Ah, right, you might wonder why we didn't stay at the Hwang Villa but as you can see we already transfer it to Annie so we decide to stay here since this is the place that I and my wife staying in before living for Hwang Villa. Oh right and wait a moment since speaking this place, if you want it then I can also give it to you Rei, so how is it?"

"...[Again Rei almost got speechless] It's alright Grandfather because I already received big things from you which is the property for free and the 10% share of each company so I will refuse that one instead you just give it to your most trusted employees as what you planned before, after all, I know how much worth for each 1% share so thank you for that but I will refuse that one Grandfather."

"Oh I see and so let's sign the transfer of share now along with the transfer of the owner property, okay?"

"Okay Grandfather"

"Secretary Long?"

"Yes, Master?"

"Tell the lawyers to come here now"

"Yes Master"
