Chapter 51 Something big is happening

"Hey, wait a minute."

She just walked out a few steps, Thelma immediately shouted, "That ..... me ..... I'm looking for you a little something."

The sudden change in attitude, that gentle manner is backwards to make Adriana's heart flinch.

I don't understand what she is calculating again.

"Anything else?"

In the end, Thelma had given her a life, and Adriana, even if she hated her very much, would not be too heartless.

"It's just that ..... your sister also had a recent opinion thing and wanted to ask for your help."

Thelma was talking about her own biological daughter, Hayley.

"She?"

"Hmm. Your sister has been having some trouble lately, and I was going to ask your brother for help with it, but he's in the hospital right now, so I had to come to you."

Thelma's attitude was extraordinarily good, and the soft, whispered look suddenly made Adriana's heart feel a lot better.

I'm used to seeing her spirited nature, suddenly this kind of affable, really some discomfort.

At the same time Adriana also knows one thing, over there is Hayley things must be very tricky, otherwise it would not let Thelma so low begging with her.

"As you said, I'm nothing but a wild child and have nothing to do with your The Hale family, so this is something that I won't help with."

Adriana coldly refused.

"Adri, don't you go."

Seeing that she was going to leave, Thelma took Adriana's hand, "You must not go, I know, mom was wrong in the past, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have done such a beastly thing to you, but all these are my fault alone, it has nothing to do with your sister. You at least grew up together, no matter what, this time you have to help me, OK?"

She was sincere in her words and humble in her manner.

But the more this happens, the more Adriana is aware of the seriousness of the situation.

Chapter 52 Threatening Messages

Adriana was so worried about the situation that she could not wait to fly to her side immediately.

After stopping by the tragic case of Brenda's mother, Adriana's biggest concern is the safety of Brenda's life.

"I'm at Tokencade Road No. 52."

Brenda cried and cried about where she was and choked out, "Ms. Hale, can you hurry up and get over here, I'm really scared."

"Okay, I got it, I'll be right over."

Hanging up the phone, Adriana stopped a car on the side of the road and went straight over.

On the way, in order to take care of Brenda's emotions, called back and asked, "Do you have the convenience to say what the hell is going on now?"

"You ..... better come and see for yourself."

Brenda's voice was slightly shaky, but she was reluctant to make the situation clear over the phone.

This made Adriana suspicious and more and more worried about Brenda's situation.

"Master, could you please drive a little faster?" She urged the cab driver.

"Okay, sit tight."

The cab driver also seemed to realize that Adriana had something important and urgent to do and sped up the car.

More than ten minutes later, arrived at the destination.

Adriana got out of the car and trotted to a slum area, called with Brenda, identified the location and found her.

"Oooh ..... Ms. Hale, you're finally here, I'm so scared."

One over here belongs to the ghetto, and Adriana found Brenda in the third alley while she was clutching her phone in her hand, with its flashlight function turned on, shivering alone, snuggled up in the corner.

"What's wrong, why are you here?" Adriana was distressed to see her red-eyed and crying with sadness.

"Okay, I got it, Ms. Hale, go ahead and go out, don't worry about me." Brenda said with a slight smile.

"Well, then I'll go out first and call if I need anything."

"Good."

Leaving the neighborhood, Adriana drove straight to the hospital.

When she winded up in the inpatient building and entered Jenkins' ward, she realized that in addition to Jenkins and Thelma, there was a familiar and somewhat unfamiliar girl in the ward.

Hayley!

Thelma's daughter.

Four years have not seen, Hayley has also grown up pavilion, look pure and lovely, fair skin, a pair of narrow fox eyes, but also add a few titillating posture.

Although the looks are not stunning, but it is also considered a beauty.

She was wearing a chiffon shirt with high-waisted wide-legged pants, sitting on the edge of the bed with a ponytail, topped with a pair of red eyes, dense with tears, and seemed to be crying.

The gesture .....

It was really unexpected for Adriana.

"Brother, what do you want to see me about?"

Eyes on Thelma and Hayley two swept around, and then looked at Jenkins, for those two ignored.

At one time, Thelma was as over the top as Hayley was to her.

It is still fresh in my mind, and I can't stop thinking about it.

"Adri, don't you recognize me?"

Hayley choked on a few sobs, biting her lips with her teeth, and asked with an unhappy face.

Chapter 54 Brenda's kidnapping

The sharp eyes stared straight at, looking at Jenkins some heart weakness, pupil eyes flickered, immediately don't face, dare not look directly at her.

With just one look, Jenkins knew that he had let Adriana down.

Otherwise it would not have gone to see him like that.

Adriana was silent for a while before she said, "Since you already have an idea, just contact The Alston family, why call me here?"

The words are indifferent and invisible with a sense of irony.

Before this, Adriana also thought Jenkins is very principled person, in Brenda's case to adhere to their own position and position, so she felt that Jenkins is a rare justice gentleman, but in front of the reality, the original form, exposed the true face, Adriana can not help but some disappointment.

"Adri, I know I've let you down."

Jenkins looked over her shoulder and sighed, "As you know, my mom cares about Hayley and I only have one sister in her, so ....."

With that, Jenkins suddenly realized what, lifting his eyes for a moment to facilitate Adriana that desperate wounded eyes met together.

He hurriedly explained, "No, no, no, I mean, she is my own sister, of course, you are also my sister, I treat you as a relative ....."

"Okay, no need to say it, I know all about it."

Adriana interrupted Jenkins, not wanting to hear him go on.

Just .....

It never occurred to me that Jenkins had only one sister in mind, Hayley, so what does she count for?

I thought that Jenkins might be her only trusted relative in this world, except for that little girl of her own, but now I realize that it was my own self-interest.

"I will help you in this matter. But, it is also the last time I help The Hale family, so don't contact me again about The Hale family in the future."

Chapter 55 - Meeting Peter at the Police Station

She really can't help it, there is a request for a natural attitude.

The only hope now rests on Adriana's body, and without Adriana, no one can be found to save her.

Hayley certainly didn't dare let her mother offend Adriana.

"Hm, you're the only one who's a fool, can't you see that Adriana doesn't even take your business seriously?"

People do not take her matters to heart, and only their own girl would be so stupid.

Thelma always thought that Adriana was the most calculating girl in the world and that her daughter was simple and easy to fool.

"I'm off, I'll contact you tonight."

Adriana's face was cold and didn't want to talk to Thelma that much.

Leaving the hospital, he drove directly towards the destination where Brenda was kidnapped.

But just after walking a short distance, she pulled over to the side of the road.

Suddenly realized a problem, the other side kidnapped Brenda purpose is what?

If she wanted to settle Brenda, she wouldn't have called her, but the other side didn't want money or sex, so what did they want?

If you say you want to threaten yourself, just kidnap yourself.

Why go to all this trouble?

There is something wrong with this matter at first glance.

Thinking about this, Adriana left and right thought can not understand what the situation, simply go directly to the police station to call the police.

No matter what the problem is, she can't go alone to the place where Brenda was kidnapped, that way it will be because of her lack of ability, and may push Brenda into the land of no return, risky things she wouldn't dare to do.

"What do you mean, you mean Brenda has been kidnapped? Do you know who the other party is?"

The police officer taking the statement asked.

"I don't know, I only have a phone number, the other side told me I must not call the police, but it's not practical for me to go over there alone to save people."

Adriana conferred with the police chief about the situation.

"I'll go with you first, Sir, you guys just follow behind."

Peter's words fell, the director nodded, "Yes, no problem, the safety of the hostages is the most important issue."

A serious and righteous statement.

Adriana: "....."

How come you didn't have this attitude a minute ago?

Finally, in order to stall for time, Adriana had to follow Peter to rescue Brenda.

First, trying to use the rescue of Brenda to stall for time and buy some negotiation time for Hayley's hit.

Second, she also wanted to see if Peter had anything to do with Brenda's kidnapping this time.

After the two got into the car, Adriana gave the address and Peter himself drove straight to the place where they were kidnapped.

On the way, Adriana looked at him suspiciously and asked, "Did you really have nothing to do with what happened to Adriana?"

The man snorted a laugh, " How can you be a lawyer with this IQ? I doubt you've ever won a single lawsuit in all these years."

He shook his head helplessly, full of dislike for Adriana, as if he thought she really could not win the lawsuit, and doubted Adriana's intelligence problem.

Choked by him, Adriana's face was extremely ugly, "What? Ninety-five percent of the lawsuits I've had in my hands over the years have been won."

Why should we question her ability to do her job?

Asshole!

"Is that so? Then maybe the other side's lawyer's IQ is not online." The man held the steering wheel with both hands, looked ahead, and joked with a serious face.

He took the opportunity to sass Adriana with reckless abandon.

Adriana pursed her lips, wanting to retort but having no words to do so.

"Just say whether you want to agree or not."

Forced to do nothing, she did not want to beat around the bush, said directly: "Although I have no relationship with The Hale family, but The Hale family finally gave me a life, after this time to help Hayley, I will not have any contact with The Hale family. "

"Uh huh, sincere enough attitude."

He smiled meaningfully, "How can I trust your words?"

"You don't have to believe me, and I don't have anything to do with you. Didn't you want me to leave Waverly? From now on, you just have to help me set things right with Hayley, and I'll not only let bygones be bygones with Brenda, or convince Brenda to drop the case against you, and from then on, I'll leave Waverly. you go your way, I'll go my way."

Perhaps the only way Adriana can think of now.

Negotiating with Peter, she has too little leverage in her hands.

"What does it matter to me whether Brenda will prosecute or not? I've said many times, I didn't do what she did. So, if you like to prosecute you can do so. However, there is another thing that I am very interested in. If you leave Waverly, maybe I can consider helping you Hayley."

But for some reason, a sentence just finished, Peter inexplicably feel their chests some blocked, suffocating uncomfortable.

That inexplicable feeling sucks.

"Okay, I promise you!"

Adriana nodded her head in agreement without a second thought.

Things go around and around and around, and she still lost to Peter in the end.

Adriana also did not want to fight with Peter, fighting for so long, she is still the one who finished defeated.

The feeling of defeat made her feel bad inside.

Half an hour later, the car arrived in the outskirts of a wilderness area, in an abandoned warehouse, Adriana found Brenda.

Her heart hung high as she appeared alone at the warehouse door, looking at the two stocky men standing at the entrance of the abandoned warehouse.

She verbally threatened, her eyes looked around, but for a long time could not see Peter's figure, for a while, the heart was a little weak, do not know where that person has gone.

"Oooooooooooooo ....."

Brenda's long hair drooped messily on her head, and kept shaking her head, signaling Adriana to hurry up and leave.

She doesn't want to drag Adriana into this because of her own business.

"Threaten me?"

The scarred man spat a mouthful of spittle toward the ground, his face slightly grim, "You think I'm scared?"

Adriana knew that the police should have come over, and now Brenda was tied up most inconvenient to escape and extremely dangerous, so she said, "Brenda is innocent, I can stay, you guys let her go."

That's all we can do now, find a way to get them to let Brenda go before we do.

And at that moment, Adriana looked up and saw a person tumbling out of a window on the side of the large dilapidated warehouse.

Who else could that person be if not Peter.

He, coming.

For some reason, the moment she saw him, Adriana's hanging heart fell, there was a sense of reassurance.

This feeling perhaps she herself did not realize, but also just a faint sigh of relief.

"Brother, we are just ordinary people, before we die you at least say what we have offended, so that we can die with an understanding."

Her voice was raised, deliberately talking to a few people to distract a few people's attention, but out of the corner of her eye skimmed to Peter, saw his long fingers slowly unbuttoned suit, creeping towards this side, the heart can not help but hang up.

"What is there to say, it's not because you don't have the power, you dare to interfere in Mr. Alston's matter? I'm not afraid to tell you, no one dares to take Brenda's case from many law firms, but you are bold, not afraid of death?"

Scar man gave an order, several brothers have pounced towards Peter, several people wrestled together, but not against the strength of Peter, not yet two moves were Peter down on the ground, a painful ow directly.

Peter leaned down, picked up a dagger from the ground and walked to Brenda's front, the sharp dagger just a flick, cut the rope that bound her, and then tore the tape on her cheek, said with a cold expression: "Hurry up and go."

"Thanks ..... thanks."

Brenda could barely breathe as the man's powerful aura overwhelmed her, she looked at Peter, her eyes fell on Adriana and was about to say something when she heard Adriana say, "Hurry up and go, don't mind me."

The enemy is outnumbered, and Brenda is a defenseless girl, so staying here will only be a problem.

"Then ..... you guys be careful." Brenda hesitated for a moment and trotted out of the warehouse.

Peter turned around and his stern gaze swept over the scarred man, "Let her go." The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to its customers.

"You say let go and let go? You hurt so many of my brothers, I'll kill her to accompany you!"

The scarred man was emotional, and the dagger against Adriana's neck got harder and harder, and the blade cut a Adri's wound on the neck, overflowing with crimson blood, slowly sliding down the chilly blade and spreading to the scarred man's hand.

His palm suddenly moistened, and he looked down at it.

"Buried with? Is that so?"

The man smiled contemptuously, "Might as well give it a try."

The next moment, the dagger in his hand shot out and cut an arc out of thin air.

Adriana pupils wide, unblinking look at the dagger, swallowed, did not dare to have any movement.

Poof--

A subtle sound of a dagger piercing the skin fell on the ears, while at the same time warm blood splashed on Adriana's cheek.

Her white cheeks instantly whitened, frightened, her legs went weak.

"woo ..... woo ....."

The dagger impartially stabbed directly into the brow of the scar man, his body stiffened, looked incredulously at Peter, and then his body powerlessly let go of Adriana, stumbled backwards a few steps and fell to the ground with a thud.

Snort--

The car abruptly stopped, the man's hands on the steering wheel, eyes forward, said in a deep voice:
"Roll!"

Adriana was stunned, did not linger, immediately pushed open the door and got out of the car.

After that, they got in the police car and returned to the police station together.

After taking a statement at the police station, Adriana took Brenda back to the house with her.

After today's events, Adriana was really frightened and that night, a nightmare, a weak body, she had a high fever.

Brenda, who was sleeping in the bedroom, vaguely heard voices in the living room and came out to find
Adriana sweating profusely and already in a coma.

"Ms. Hale? Ms. Hale?"

Gently pushing her, but Adriana did not respond, just kept calling.

Raise a hand over her forehead, the temperature is hot, a high fever.

Brenda didn't have any family in Waverly, so she had to take Adriana's phone and open the call log, and there it was, the note - Mo.

She didn't even think about it and dialed straight through.

The phone rang a few times and finally someone answered, "What, calling late at night to apologize to me?"

The man's extremely magnetic voice came from the opposite side.

"Mr. Alston? Ms. Hale has a high fever and can't wake up no matter how much she shouts, what should we do?" Brenda gave a brief account of the situation.

"Are you .....Brenda?"

At this time, still busy in the company late at night Peter glanced at the time, it was already more than 2:00 am.

"What's the point of calling me when you have a high fever and send it to the hospital?"

Coldly reprimanded a sentence, directly hung up the phone.

But when he put down his phone, he continued to work but found that he could not concentrate on his work anyway.
