Chapter 28: Worth

Seeing Lyca narrowed her eyes at him, Young Master Lin continued. "I really came here to get some fresh air! I came here with the ladies! I was planning to have a good time!" This was a remote and dark part of the balcony and he knew that this is a little blind spot of the CCTV. He was originally planning to come here to have a good time. "I I was not planning to provoke you I was only planning to make you leave."

Lyca let go of his neck. She then turned her back away from him, as if nothing just happened.

"Leave." It was Shen Qui. It seemed that he could already see his role in this woman's life in the near future. "Miss Lyca is busy. Leave."

"Oh! Oh! Of course Of course we will leave!" Master Lin nodded his chubby face and almost ran away with his women in tow. Seeing this, Shen Qui turned towards Lyca.

"Do you believe him?" He asked.

"No." She answered and looked at the people in the balcony. "No Killing." That was the rule in this school. However, since they didn't say they couldn't hurt each other, Lyca assumed that they were allowed to do just that. A snort escaped her lips. She knew that someone asked that fatty to come in here, yet, she chose not to act. At least not right now. Or at least not tonight.

After leaving the balcony, Master Lin immediately went towards the office of the Supreme student council where Young Master Zhang was there with his friends and a few other women.

"Hmp! You told me that she won't hurt me!" He exclaimed when he opened the door. "Young Master Zhang! Explain yourself! Are you trying to get me killed?" Until now, he couldn't forget the look on that woman's eyes. Moreover, her bodyguard was clearly a strong person too. That was not a part of what this Young Master Zhang told him! Because of that, he couldn't help but wonder if this man was planning to have him killed!

"Young Master Lin please calm down and explain." The one who spoke was a twenty three year old man with a sleek black hair, sharp eyebrows and beautiful features. "Are you trying to say that my future fiance hurt you?" He snorted.

"Young Master Long I am telling the truth. She strangled me! Look! Look there should be some signs there! Maybe some bruises!" He lifted his head to show them his neck. However instead of listening to him, everyone started laughing their butts off.

"Young Master Lin your neck is full of fat. We can't really see any bruises." It was Young Master Zhang. He continued laughing along with everyone else. "Do you think her hand would be able to grab your neck? The last time I saw my cousin she was skinny and her hands were small. Are you sure that you actually saw her this time?"

"You" Young Master Lin felt his face turn hot. "Her white hair is not something common! And that bodyguard of hers that man grabbed my hand and twisted it! I felt something crack in my hand!"

This time, everyone laughed even more.

"Young Master Zhang how tall are you?"

"Six Foot why are you asking such questions?" He asked the woman who sat next to Young Master Long.

"Well you are tall and your body is huge. Please forgive my words but can someone really just grab your neck and twist your hand? That that really sounds impossible to me!" the woman smiled.

"Moreover every one of us knows that you practiced martial arts when you were young."

Young Master Lin balled his hand into a fist, his face flushed as he glared at the woman. "You how dare you!?"

"Young Master Lin no offense but this is really hard to believe. Was it possible that the two women you were with earlier refused to kiss you so you were in a bad mood?"

"You" Young Master Lin was truly speechless. Unable to contain his anger, he stomped off and left the room. These people had been making fun of him because he had the lowest family influence in this group. It was lucky for him to be able to come to this school because his father had to beg the Long Family to make him act as Young Master Long's assistant.

Because of this, everyone who was very close to Young Master Long had been making fun of him and treating him like a slave! These people never treated him like a human being! He tightened his fists as he thought of his revenge against these people. But first, he needed to teach that Lyca and her bodyguard a lesson that they couldn't forget!

Right now, Young Master Lin was blaming Lyca for everything! After all, no one believed him because of her small frame! Unbeknownst to him the moment he left that room, Young Master Long also asked everyone to leave except for his good friend Zhang Zhi.

"You are really smart." Zhang Zhi was Lyca's cousin. He is the second son of Huang Ying. "Now that stupid Lin will try and get his revenge against that cousin of mine." He couldn't help but laugh at the scene that he witnessed earlier. This Young Master Long was indeed very smart.

"I wanted to see Lyca's skill." Young Master Long responded with a smile. "It is only right that she proves her worth to me."

"Well my mother will come here tomorrow. Would you like her to formally introduced you to"

"Not as a fiance. After all your grandfather didn't want this alliance to happen. I want Aunt Ying to introduce me as the head of the student council at this school."

Zhang Zhi smiled and nodded. "Alright let's do that."
