Chapter 374: A Secret

Huang Ying on the other hand was feeling all sorts of emotions. She was angry, nervous, scared, and sad. Her plan to make Lyca have revenge against Long Yi failed! In fact, Lyca wasn't disqualified. In fact, she had become more popular because of that damn armor!

How could Huang Ying allow these?

She started pacing inside the hotel room. Currently, she chose to stay in a hotel near the Long Founding school of elites as she wanted to be there and watch while Lyca fell. Now that her plans are failing, how could she watch Lyca suffer now?

*BANG!***

Huang Ying jolted when the door in her room suddenly opened. "What is Mr. Long? What are you doing here?" She took a step back and gulped as she stared at Long Yi's dark face.

"You really had to ask that question?"

"Mr. Long? What What are you talking about? It's it's eight in the morning and I don't remember that we have any scheduled meeting."

"Huang Ying! From now on, our cooperation is done!" Long Yi said. "I will talk to your husband about this. I will no longer work with the Zhang Family! I am planning to sell all the shares that we own in your company!"

"Long Yi! What the hell are you talking about?"

"Can you stop acting like you are innocent?" Long Yi hissed. "I know what you did! I know you tried to frame me! I know you wanted Lyca to destroy me while in the competition!"

"I "

"Don't bother denying. I already sent the evidence to Mr. Zhang! You and him would have a delightful conversation soon." Long Yi received the news from Mr. Xu. The person who wanted to frame him is actually Huang Ying. Because of this, Long Yi called and informed his father that he wanted to stop the cooperation. The Old man was fuming when he heard the news and immediately agreed. "Oh, look at that? Someone is calling you. I believe that is Mr. Zhang. You should answer it!"

"Mr. Long I really don't know what you are talking about."

"I already said stop trying to convince me. Huang Ying, I never thought that one day you would actually back-stabbed me and the Long Family. We helped you acquire the assets from your father and even the whole Huang Family. However, what did you do? I hope your husband would chase you out of the Zhang Family for his stupidity and "

"So what if you caught me?" Huang Ying suddenly raised her voice. "Right now, Lyca is thinking that you poisoned her people! The only reason why she isn't doing anything to make you suffer was that she was busy with the competition. What do you think would happen after they win this competition?"

Long Yi sneered. This woman cannot recognize danger from afar. Right now, provoking Lyca like this would be dangerous for them. Long Yi glared at Huang Ying before he snorted and left the room.

Seeing him gone, Huang Ying immediately answered the phone and, as expected, it was her husband. Another argument between the two started.

"You are going to cut off my aunt?" Huang Xiaoxuan was waiting for her husband in the car. They were currently outside of the hotel. "Just because of Lyca?"

"Stupid," Long Yi said. "Why don't you go to your aunt? You and her had a lot of similarities."

"You"

Long Yi crossed his arms and closed his eyes. He doesn't want to talk to stupid people anymore. It was simply tiring. True, he and Lyca were enemies. However, he is not someone that would blindly attack her after everything that happened. If he wanted to defeat Lyca, then he needed to plan ahead and stop acting out of impulse.

"How about my Huang Family?" Huang Xiaoxuan suddenly said. Right now, Huang Security still existed as a subsidiary of Long Company. It was managed by her father and Huang Ying. Now that Long Yi wanted to cut ties, then what about her Huang Security?

"Naturally, your father will take care of it. Huang Security is our subsidiary. We owned it. However, we all know how it had been losing money since we acquired it. If this would continue until the second quarter then my father, the chairman would surely do something about it."

"What do you mean?" Huang Xiaoxuan widened her eyes. Long Yi and her marriage happened because of this acquisition, or at least that's what was written on the news. If they would abandon Huang Security, then what about their marriage? Huang Xiaoxuan is starting to have a bad premonition about this matter.

"Long Company is a company. It needed money to run. If Huang Security won't give us profits then why would we keep it? Do you think we are a charity?" Long Yi answered without even looking at her. It was as if the Huang Family had nothing to do with him!

Huang Xiaoxuan gritted her teeth. She tried to say something but ended up maintaining her silence. Long Yi's words were very clear. He wouldn't value relationships and wouldn't hesitate to let go of the company as long as it won't give him profits.

At the end of the day, Long Yi would care about benefits above everything else. Then what about her?

What would happen if Long Yi would see her as useless too? Would he leave her? No, that is impossible! They already have a child together! She got pregnant to stop him from leaving her. She was certain that a child would change the dynamics of their relationship!

Long Yi would never leave her! Not when they already have a child together! But what if he discovered that the child is not his? Huang Xiaoxuan gulped as she made up her mind. She needed to bury this secret forever.

And to do that she needed to take care of the doctor who examined Long Yi before. She needed to make that man silent forever.
