Chapter 376: Gangster Boss

And just like that, the third night started.

The cooperation between the Long Company and Dal Valley was something that the people from Shen Security expected. This was a part of Gu Cheng's calculations.

"So, they would try to ambush us tonight." Gu Cheng looked at everyone. Aside from Gu Cheng, the sound of flying insects that were around them buzzed against their ears. "Is everyone ready for tonight?" he asked.

Everyone nodded, without saying anything. Contrary to other teams, these groups of people always maintained their silence. They only talk if it's needed. Things like saying 'Yes, Sir' loudly were something that has to be avoided. They did this to avoid attracting too much attention to themselves.

"Alright, you can all sleep." Gu Cheng said. "Don't forget to wake up at four in the morning."

Gu Cheng knew that they would try to ambush them. He didn't know where they would stay, but he was confident they are going to wait for them the whole night. Sadly for them, Gu Cheng and his whole team are planning to rest.

They are going to rest while their enemy is going to spend the night waiting for them.

And so the waiting started.

Seeing the people from Shen Security sleeping calmly caused another debate outside of the arena. Clearly, their aim is to make people stay up the entire night while waiting for them. Then they would attack just as the sun is about to rise.

"Smart!" Chu Nan smiled. "By the way, my brother and Miss Rue are going to arrive tonight. I will go ahead and wait for them outside of the building. Oh, this reminds me, grandfather wanted to talk to Shen Qui and Lyca. Where are they?"

"Boss Q is talking to Ronan. They had some business conference with some suppliers abroad. Xi is I don't know. She was on her way outside the last time I saw her." Cleo answered. "I will accompany you outside. I miss Rue the most." She stood, and the two went out of the building.

Meanwhile, Lyca was indeed outside. She was talking to Yi'an on the phone.

"Really?" Lyca lifted an eyebrow. "So the Zhang Family is already this problematic. At least, Long Yi is smart enough to cut their connections as early as possible."

"Young Miss, Huang Ying's husband already packed her things and threw them out of the Zhang Mansion. I'm sure that Huang Ying would once again blame you for this. I'm afraid that "

"Just keep on watching her. How about his brother?" She was talking about Huang Qingyun, her youngest uncle. She already asked Yi'an to check him out after the report that Ronan gave her about Huang Qingyun's wife.

"I wasn't able to get any evidence that his wife is still alive. The spies that I sent weren't able to get anything relevant either. There was no secret room in his house, or at least, they didn't notice one. However, our spies said that his son is always at the Capital these past few days. When he was still in college, he and one of the Xu Family's children had become closer. And we're talking about really close. I believe, the elders are even considering marriage alliance."

"Interesting," Lyca nodded. Why would the Xu Family want an alliance with Huang Qingyun? Right now, Huang Qingyun is still considered rich because of his investments before the fall of the Huang Family.

"Also About the doctor that took care of Huang Xiaoxuan IVF. Our people spotted someone following the doctor tonight. Perhaps Huang Xiaoxuan would try to kill him?"

"That is a possibility."

"Then are we going to protect him?"

"Yes, explained everything. Book a flight abroad and set up a new identity. You should know what to do."

"Yes, Miss. I also forward Mr. Xu Jihan's information. He is Ken Xu's first-degree cousin. The two were quite close and there were rumors that he is working under Mr. Ken Xu. He is like the person doing all the dirty deeds, the transactions, the killings. He is a dangerous man."

"I already expected that."

"Alright. I will call you again once I get something more. For now, I am trying to get close to the Shen Family in the Capital. By the way, Young Miss, when are you planning to visit the Capital?"

"Wait getting close I thought you are watching over kids."

"I am watching over kids," Yi'an said, her voice became smaller. "The Shen Family's kids. I am acting like a tutor."

"Wah you really love kids!" Lyca chuckled. "How about you watch over my kid once I give birth?"

"Young Miss?"

"I said I want you to "

"Are you pregnant, young miss?"

"Huh?" What's with these people casually asking about her pregnancy? She remembered her mother and father taught that she was pregnant too! "No. I'm not!"

"Alright. Let's talk once you are already pregnant."

"" She snorted when Yi'an ended the call. Smiling, Lyca continued walking the night was particularly nice. There were no rains, and the air doesn't feel heavy. Lyca continued walking for a few minutes until she spotted two people walking her way. Wait why were they walking? She could see Chu Munan dragging two enormous suitcases while Rue was walking like a gangster boss with her high-heeled boots.

"This is your fault! You said you are familiar with this place!" Rue's voice was stern. "Did you expect Lyca would personally run outside once they knew we were walking towards the building? So stupid!"

"Stop talking. So noisy."

"You should have "

"Stupid woman! I arranged everything and made sure to take the most difficult route just so that Miss Xu won't come with us! Just shut your trap, will you? I am trying to call Chu Nan! Damn what happened to the reception?"

Lyca stopped walking as she stared at the two people. They continued arguing as they walked. What is happening? Since Lyca didn't ask anything about these two, she wasn't aware of their transportation arrangement.

However, Chu Munan actually said about not making Miss Xu come?

"Hey." Wanting to satisfy her gossip genes, Lyca walked out from the dark. "Why are you here?"

The two instantly stopped walking and stared at her. It was as if they saw a ghost. "What's wrong? Did something happen?" Lyca asked.
