Chapter 403: Fatherly Smile

On that night, Mr. Liang had a heart attack and died on the spot. This was his second heart attack in one week, and this time, he wasn't able to survive.

The news of Dal Valley losing all of the people they sent to ambush Shen Security didn't only make them a laughing stock in the Region. It also affected their stocks. Overnight, Dal Valley crumbled.

Most of the executives denied any involvement in the ambush, and some filed resignation on the next day. It was shocking. It was devastating, and it was definitely frightening.

Now, the people who were having second thoughts about the armor are already clamoring for Shen Qui's attention. How could they ignore the fact that it was bulletproof? How could they ignore the fact that it could withstand a long firearm?

This isn't just armor!

It was something that could change the warfare history of their country.

Of course, Xu Jihan was obviously one of these people.

Just like what Lyca expected, Xu Jihan used his connections to make her people leave prison. No questions asked.

Sadly, when Xu Jihan arrived in Long City, Lyca was no longer there. She was already on her way back to Kong City! Xu Jihan could only curse inwardly as he ordered his people to take him to Kong City to see Lyca.

Meanwhile, Lyca was languidly humming a tune as she used Shen Qui's leg as her pillow. She was listening to Spotify music that was supposed to make her sleep without having any more headaches. Of course, she knew it was a lie.

However, there is no harm in trying, right?

"Huang Li Duo already signed the documents. He sent it last night after he heard the news about the ambush."

"He saw the video," Lyca said. "And he got scared."

"That is true. Now, we currently owned sixty-seven percent of the shares. The Long Family owns the rest. Do you want to go back to the Huang Security now?"

"No," Lyca said. "Father should take care of that."

"So the rule that only white-haired people could manage the company is "

"If the Ye Family's threats were real, then how come the Long Family is still alive now? Moreover, the Ye Family must have forgotten about that promise years ago. I think grandfather is just too stubborn and old fashion to still think about the Ye Family."

"Alright how about I make you the CEO by name and your father as the Vice President? He would do all the hard work while you just stay with me?"

Lyca smiled. As expected, her husband is still the best. "Sure!" As long as she doesn't have to wake up early and act busy all day, then she had no problems. "By the way, what about the Long Family?"

"I already own twenty percent shares of Long Corp. Sooner or later, I would own at least thirty, then I would talk to Long Yi. Are you sure that his father won't wake up again?"

"Positive."

"Then The Long Corp is bound to fall in a few days."

Lyca frowned. This meant more work for her husband, right?

After a long drive, Shen Qui and Lyca finally arrived at their ranch. She instantly went and talk to her father about what happened before examining her grandfather. Sadly, old man Huang is still not showing any signs of waking up.

However, his complexion had obviously become better. At least, he doesn't look dead anymore.

"You wanted us to go back to Long City?" Lyca's mother, Tang Nini asked. She wondered if she heard Lyca's words right.

"Of course. Long City was the place where you were born. And Huang Security belongs to father. It's only right that you guys manage it."

"Then what about the Huang's?"

"Huang Qingyun is missing. Huang Ying is still in prison, and Huang Li Duo already sold his shares to Shen Qui. Right now, I am sure that Long Yi would not dare do anything stupid after my husband takes care of him." Lyca said proudly.

Tang Nini and Huang Sheng Hong met each other's eyes, understanding flashed in the faces.

"What about you?" Huang Sheng Hong asked. "You are supposed to become the CEO."

"Oh. I will be the CEO, alright. Huang Security is going to be under LS Group, so there is no problem. However since I am a very busy person, I won't be able to manage it. So I am leaving it to you, father. I know you can do this."

"Bu Busy?" Tang Nini lifted an eyebrow.

"Yes, mother. You don't know this, but I am a very talented person. I am going to focus on my passion from now on."

"And that is?"

"Of course, it's creating weapons for humanity." Eating and sleeping too. But those were ehem not her priority right now.

This time, helplessness flashed in Huang Sheng Hong's eyes. Unfortunately for him, he knew his daughter too well. He knew how she hated waking up early and working. How could she work as a CEO in a company? However, he wasn't planning to force her.

In the end, Huang Sheng Hong nodded and left Lyca's room with his wife. Then he turned towards Shen Qui's office.

Huang Sheng Hong just sat opposite Shen Qui and maintained his silence for a few minutes.

"Father did something happen?" Being stared at by Lyca's father like this is making Shen Qui uncomfortable. Are they going to ask for a grandchild? Is he going to scold him for making her daughter lost a lot of weight?

"I just want to thank you."

"Huh?"

"Mr. Shen I always think that you are lucky to be able to marry my daughter. It turns out she is fortunate to be able to marry someone like you too."

"Father? I don't I don't understand. Did something happened?"

"No. I am just here to thank you for doing all this." Huang Sheng Hong gave Shen Qui a warm and gentle, fatherly smile.
