Chapter 521: Marriage or Prison

Gabi over-estimated her own body.

This was something that she realized the next day after running for almost one kilometer. The thing is, she never expected to feel this much pain because she had been doing yoga every morning. Apparently, doing some stretching is different from extreme exercises.

"Miss, Mr. Glen is already here to escort you for your morning training."

Gabi immediately covered her face with her pillow when she heard Kasper's voice. That's right, Glen promised to help her and act as her guard as she ran around the mansion. This is to make sure that she finish everything for the day.

Glen said that the exercises will soon increase so she needed all the guidance that she could have to avoid any injuries.

After five minutes of complaining inwardly, Gabi immediately changed her clothes and prepared herself for today's exercises.

"Miss, Alfons is waiting for you in the drawing-room."

"Tell him to wait. I am busy." She was about to start running. She had no time to talk to that cruel man.

"Miss she is looking for Miss Aren. Just as instructed, we told him that you sent her away."

Of course, Alfons would never believe that. "Were you able to schedule a meeting with the Sealey's?"

"Yes, it will be tomorrow afternoon for tea. Madam Sealey confirmed the meeting last night."

"Just her?"

"There was no mention of Mr. Sealey."

Gabi nodded. Right now, her focus is to make sure that Alfons won't have any good relationship with the people that would become his ally in the future. The Sealey's is on top of her list.

"Miss, we should start now."

Gabi smiled when she heard Glen's voice. After some warm-ups, the two started running around the mansion. However, this didn't escape Alfons' eyes.

He narrowed his eyes at Gabi's skinny back.

"When did she start doing this?" he asked Spencer who stood next to him.

"Just today, sir."

"Did you know why she is doing this?"

"No sir. The head of the house "

"Mr. Jonathan, may I know why you keep on calling her the head of the house?" he asked without looking at the old butler.

"That is because she is the head "

"What about me?" Alfons asked, irritated. "As the next male of the Sutton Family, I should be the next head of this house." When Spencer didn't answer, Alfons turned his head towards him. "Did I say something wrong?"

"Sir, with all due respect, this house was owned by Madam Ren."

Alfons face contorted. "What does that mean?"

"It means that you qualify to become the head of the Sutton Family but not in this house."

"You "

"Please forgive me sir but I am only stating facts. The deed of this house is under Miss Gabi's Sutton's name. If Miss Sutton will marry someone, then the name of this mansion will not be Sutton Mansion anymore."

"That " Alfons lowered his head. He never thought of that fact. No, it's not that he never thought about it. He just thought that everything that belongs to Gabi will be his too. After all, they were siblings blood-related siblings. Gabi might be someone that he could just boss around, but this doesn't change the laws in between them.

Alfons clenched his hands into two tight fists. That's right. He needed to find someone that would marry Gabi as soon as possible. That Harry idiot already ruined his previous plans. So, he needed another person.

He needed to do it before Gabi meets someone that she liked.

But now that he carefully thought about it, meeting someone that she liked would be impossible. After all, Gabi didn't like socializing before. Not many socialites knew what she looked like anymore. Then, all he needs to do now is to keep it that way.

Keep isolating Gabi.

But Gabi would soon start working for Ren Aesthetics. Meaning, she would start joining events with her grandfather. This would surely benefit Alfons too.

Because of this, Alfons fell into a dilemma. Should he tell Gabi not to work for her grandfather? But that would give him less opportunity to interact with the Ren Family.

Ren Family, ah, Ren Family.

If only Gabi was born from a different family.

Why did she have to be born from someone from that rich family?

Slowly, the jealousy in his heart started blooming again. Gabi grew up privileged and he hated it. Why does he have to suffer all the ridicule while Gabi just stayed inside this little bubble?

"Please call me once she is done running. I will be in my room." He said before leaving Spencer alone. However, before he could even walk inside his room, he receive a call from Harry. "What is it?" he asked.

"Did you know? My mother and Gabi is going to have tea tomorrow!"

"What did you say?" Alfons stopped walking, his face darkened. "Who will meet who?"

"My mother and Gabi!"

"When?"

"Tomorrow! My mother proudly told us this morning about the meeting. She thought that Gabi wanted to be friends with her. Hey! Alfons! Are you there? Did you found that maid? You told me you will take care of it? I am willing to pay you millions just to get rid of that b*tch! Where is she now? Is she dead?"

"I "

"Did you "

"I will call you back."

With that, Alfons turned around and went out of the mansion. His destination was naturally where Gabi was doing her morning exercises. "You are going to meet Madam Sealey?" Alfons grabbed Gabi's arm to stop her from jogging. "Why didn't you tell me about this?"

Gabi looked at Alfons. "I am going to meet Madam Sealey to make his son marry my maid. It's either that or Harry Sealey will rot in prison." She answered without any hesitation. Then she smiled. "I am sure that Madam Sealey will choose wisely for her son." Gabi accepted the towel that Glen handed her. She used it to wipe the sweat on her face. "Of course... you can beg for your friend now. I wouldn't meet his mother or send him to prison. But... I will post everything that I have against him in social media and let the netizens judge him. What do you think... my brother?"

Chapter 522: Troublesome Thing

"Gabi, why are you doing this?" Alfons asked. This was the first time that he saw such anger in Gabi's eyes. "Why would you force the Sealey family like that?"

"Aren is a maid of the Sutton Family. I am not going to let that man go without having him face the consequences of his own actions."

"Gabi, this has nothing to do with you."

"Really?" Gabi glared at him. "I was doing my job inside my office. But what if I didn't ask Aren to put some new freshener inside the room? What if I was the one who walk inside and put the freshener myself? What do you think would have happened, then?"

"I "

"That man would have touched me."

"But "

"And if something happened to me, brother, are you just going to let that man go?"

"Of course not!"

"I thought so."

Alfons furrowed his brows. "But isn't this doing too much for a mere maid?"

"Maid or not she has rights too."

"You " Disbelief flashed in Alfons eyes. Who would have thought that Gabi would react like this? "I don't think that is a good idea," he said.

"Why not?"

"Don't you know that the Sealey Family is the rising superstar in the construction industry? The family is doing so well. I am certain that they won't just allow a mere maid to marry into their family." To his surprise, Gabi just smiled at him and said nothing. What is going on here? What is she doing?

"Gabi?" he asked. "Did you hear me?"

"Brother you don't really know that."

"You "

"How did you know that they won't let a maid marry into their family?" Especially someone that the young master of the Sealey family rap*d?

"Are you not scared that they would attack you instead?"

"Attack me? Why would they do that? Did I do something wrong?"

"Gabi, how did you become like this? The Gabi that I knew "

"Wouldn't let anyone powerful bully a mere maid." She interrupted his words. "I would never let anyone bully someone working inside this mansion, brother. That is my way to protect the Sutton family."

"You "

"No need to worry. I am sure that the Sealey's would make the arrangements as soon as possible."

"What if they hurt the maid instead?" Alfons asked. Of course, he wanted to know if Gabi have something special that he could use against the Sealey Family. If Gabi had something, he would surely take it away from her and prevent her from doing anything stupid.

However, if she didn't have anything that could protect that maid, then there is no reason for Aren to live anymore.

"Then the Sealey Family will regret it."

"You are going to fight against the Sealey's just because of a maid?"

"Why not?" Gabi smiled. "You just said it. They are one of the rising stars. They are not there yet. A simple scandal would ruin them."

Gabi was using his own words against him! Alfons hid the anger in his eyes. "I think we should talk inside. We need to talk about your plan. This isn't something that you can do without proper planning!"

"No need. I already prepared everything." Gabi smiled. Why would she reveal her card to a snake?
"Moreover, you are friends with Mr. Sealey."

"Are you saying that I would betray you to protect Harry?"

"I didn't say that."

"Then why don't we"

"As I said, there is no need for us to talk. Of course, if you want to involve yourself, then you can come with me. Let's go to their home right now and propose marriage. What do you think?"

"That "That would never happen!

"What's wrong, brother? I thought you would always support me." Gabi sighed. "But it's alright. I understand that you value Mr. Harry more than me. I should just "

"Gabi please don't say something like that."

"Then why won't you help me?" Gabi looked aggrieved as she stared at Alfons. She couldn't help but wonder what would this man do now that she was putting him in a tough position. Proposing a marriage would surely affect his relationship with Harry.

However, not accompanying Gabi would mean that he chose Harry over her.

For someone like Alfons, who always values benefits above anything, this is going to be a troublesome thing to decide.

"What is it, brother?"

"I I don't think I would involve myself in this matter anymore."

"Just as I thought. You would choose a rap*st over me. I should have known."

"Gabi! What are you talking about? I just said that "

"Not supporting me simply means that you are not willing to confront your abusive friend. That's it. There is no in-between. It's either you are with me and help me uphold justice or you stand behind a criminal."

"I would never do that."

Gabi laughed. "I recalled a saying. The ultimate tragedy is not the oppression and cruelty by the bad people but the silence over that by the good people." She leaned forward. "You are that tragedy right now. How disappointing, brother. I guess I am really alone in this world."

With that, Gabi walk towards Mr. Glen. "Let's continue. I needed to finish everything before nine. I have an appointment later." She didn't spare Alfons any glance anymore.

"Alright " Glen enthusiastically said and the two of them started running again.

Seeing Gabi like this made Alfons speechless. Something must have happened. He could no longer ignore the changes that is happening around Gabi.

No, he couldn't let this continue!

Right now, Gabi is slowly distancing herself from him. However, he was really in a dilemma right now. He needed to choose between Gabi and Harry. Both people have enormous potential. However, Harry had been in his family's business now. He is slowly building his influence. Moreover, he was also considered a genius in the business industry.

Compared to Gabi who still has nothing but her family name, Harry is considerably a better ally. With that, Alfons immediately called Harry.

"She is going to tell your mother about that incident," Alfons said the moment Harry picked up the call. "Tell your mother not to go to this meeting tomorrow."

Chapter 523: Blackmail

Sadly for him, Gabi already anticipated this so, on that same day, Gabi showed up in the house of the Sealey Family.

"Miss Sutton, I thought that my wife is scheduled to meet you tomorrow? Samantha was pretty excited about it."

"Monte, stop embarrassing me." Samantha Sealey bashfully smiled at her husband, who was sitting next to her.

"Miss Sealey, I saw the dress that you were wearing at the gala a few weeks back. I really liked that see-through red one. It suits you." Gabi smiled. "That choker necklace was a perfect match, too. I actually thought you were an actress." Gabi's reason for trying to meet Mrs. Sealey is actually because she wanted to know the one who made the woman's dress and jewelry.

As an inexperienced young woman, it would sound totally normal for her to consult someone who knows a lot about fashion and jewelry. Or at least... that's what everyone thought.

"My My " Mr. Sealey laughed. "I already knew that many people would ask about that necklace. I was right. Anyway, I will leave you, two beautiful ladies. I still have things to attend to."

Gabi nodded at the older man, who kissed his wife on her cheek before leaving them. On the outside, Mr. And Mrs. Sealey's relationship was perfect. Both were good-looking and fit. They love to travel, exercise, and do some fun stuff together. In fact, when the company became one of the top five companies in the city, people immediately began to love this couple.

Gabi recalled how she used to like these two a lot, too. In the past life, she married Harry and became really close to Mrs. Sealey. As someone who never had a mother figure, Gabi immediately got attached to this warm and funny woman. Ah, Samantha Sealey.

No one would know what kind of secrets were you hiding in your basement literally.

Gabi used to think that Samantha would never change after her divorce after the Ren Family fell. She recalled how Mrs. Sealey never liked the woman that Harry replaced Gabi. Samantha Sealey used to call her at night, complaining about that woman. Of course, Gabi thought that Samantha was sincere.

Until that day

Right now, Gabi smiled at Samantha. The woman who caused her a lot of heartache in the past life. In that life, Gabi didn't do anything to this woman because the Sealey's were one of Alfons' backers. They were supporting Alfons and helping him.

"Ah, yes that dress I ordered that from SS shop. It's a part of their VIP catalog. Viewing that catalog is a bit difficult since it's a member-only catalog. They only released five different designs yearly. I just got lucky, I was able to get myself one of those beautiful dresses. That necklace, however I believe that is the only necklace in the world."

"Really? You mean it's custom made?" Gabi faked a smile.

"Yes. I had to ask Bobo jewelry to make it for me."

"Bobo Jewelry?" Gabi raised an eyebrow. Just as she expected, Archy is indeed trying to get inside the Sealey Family. "I am a bit familiar with that company. They really have good jeweler."

"Yes, I heard that Bobo Jewelry actually started in Xu Country. Of course, I am no longer surprised to know about these. After all, Xu Country is already one of the richest if not the richest country in the world nowadays."

"It seems that Mrs. Sealey reads a lot of news."

"If you become the wife of a businessman, you would one day force yourself to know these things so you could talk to your husband." Mrs. Sealey laughed. "Anyway, I am really surprised that you decided to visit me today. However, this makes me worried. May I know why Miss Sutton would suddenly visit my simple family?"

That's right, this visit was indeed sudden and surprising for someone like the Sealey family right now. If the timeline is right, the Sealey Family would start stealing clients from Ren Aesthetics early next year after Alfons got close to Earl Ren, after Gabi was supposed to marry Harry. Because of this, they managed to win a lot of biddings and finally became the top construction company in the country.

How pathetic.

Just the thought of this scheming woman made her want to puke her guts out.

"It is indeed surprising. I know it's sudden, however I don't want to wait until tomorrow to tackle the issue."

"An issue?" Samantha's face turned serious. "Miss Sutton, I don't understand what you are trying to say. I believe this is the first time that we met, so what issue are you talking about?"

"It's not about you, Mrs. Sealey. It's about your son, Harry." I pushed the tablet towards her before playing the play button on the video. The hallway of Sutton mansion immediately filled the screen.

"This is "

"The Sutton Family mansion. As you can see Harry drunkenly entered my room the other night."

Samantha's face turned pale as she let out a surprised gasp. Then she looked at Gabi. "Are you saying that he"

"No. Not me. It's not me. Mrs. Sealey. It's my maid. Your son rap*d my maid last night and left her injured and bleeding."

A thick, suffocating silence enveloped the two of them. Gabi watched as the woman shook her head. Her hand covered her little mouth.

"Miss Sutton this"

"I could have approached your husband, Mrs. Sealey." Gabi continued. "However, I didn't. I chose to approach you first because just like me. You are a woman. You could put yourself in the shoes of my personal maid, who was only there to change the air freshener in the room before I sleep. I thought that by approaching you, we could solve this matter peacefully without approaching the police and causing some scandal."

"You You are here to blackmail my family?"

"Mrs. Sealey, that is a bit insulting." There was a smile on Gabi's face. "I would never blackmail someone. I am only here to propose a marriage arrangement for my personal maid."

"What did you say?"

"I said, I want a marriage arrangement. I can repeat it one more time if you didn't hear it properly." Gabi said. Seeing Mrs. Sealey's shocked expression, Gabi added. "In short, I want Harry to marry my maid."

Chapter 524: Grounded

"What?" Mrs. Sealey widened her eyes at Gabi. "What are you talking about?"

"It's either that or a lawsuit is coming your way. I am certain that Mrs. Sealey would not want to risk it, right? After all, a rap* case would be devastating for a young man like him."

"You already know that it would be devastating, but you are still doing this?"

Gabi didn't answer and just smiled at the woman. The Sealey Family has two sons. However, everyone can see that Mrs. Sealey and her husband favored the second one. Despite this, they couldn't really touch the eldest Sealey because he was smarter and definitely more competent than Harry. However, the eldest lacked the support and backing of his own parents. Because of this, his influence is not that great compared to his brother. Yet, this didn't stop him from winning the recognition of other countries.

But instead of becoming proud, this only made his parents more infuriated. Right now, the Sealey family is doing their best to cultivate Harry and increase his influence in society.

This would help him once he took over the company.

However, a r*pe case would surely shatter whatever it was that Harry has. "Please don't think that I am targeting your family, Mrs. Sealey," Gabi said. "This is the only punishment that I could think of for having such his indecent thoughts towards me."

"That "

"Did I say the wrong thing? Harry Sealey, clearly wanted to do something to me. But I got lucky and stayed in my office to work. Do you really think that I am just someone that you and your family could scheme against?"

"What? We didn't"

"Of course you would deny it. I already expected that."

"Miss Sutton, stop insulting my family. We never schemed against you! Whatever Harry did had nothing to do with us. We didn't tell him to do it. He was simply drunk!"

"Is that so?"

"Yes. That is the only explanation that I have for his actions. However, I think that this does not warrant some extreme punishments. I will not allow Harry to go out for three months. No electronics either. I am sure that this is enough punishment for what he did."

Gabi covered her mouth as she sneered. "Mrs. Sealey you are funny. I didn't know that you have a knack for making people laugh." With that, Gabi gathered her things and got up. "I will give you until tonight to decide. If I will not receive your decision before midnight, then please prepare yourself for the media tomorrow." Her lips lifted into a smirk. "I will make sure that Harry would no longer have any reason to show his face to the public anymore."

"Miss Sutton, you " Mrs. Sealey's words were interrupted with a series of footsteps coming their way. The two women look at the man who strode towards them.

"Gabi! How come you are here?" It was none other than Harry Sealey. Sweat can be seen on his forehead as he gave Gabi a wary look. "Is this about the other night?"

"Harry the things that she spoke of. Was it true?"

"It was an accident, mom. I would never do something like that."

"Is that so?" Gabi said.

"Of course! You can ask anyone else, I am not that kind of person."

"Ah I am sure that Mr. Sealey was raised the right way. After all, you have loving parents behind you." The two flinched when they heard the sarcasm in Gabi's words. "So since you are not the kind of person that would do that then are you going to marry my maid?"

"What?"

"Didn't you hear me?"

"You wanted me to marry a mere maid?"

"That mere maid was the woman who got hurt instead of me, Mr. Sealey. Please be mindful of your words from now on."

"You "

"What? Did I say something wrong? She got hurt instead of me. She was in that bed, naked and hurt because of me."

"Miss Sutton"

Seeing the two speechless, Gabi smiled a smile that could only be akin to that of the devils. "Now let me repeat my question. The one that I asked your mother. Are you going to marry my maid? Or be labeled as the rap*st who attempted to rap*d me but rap*d the maid instead? That's three rap* words in a sentence, Mr. Harry. I purposely did that to emphasize your crime."

"You wanted me to marry that woman? Gabi, can't we talk about this? How about compensating her instead? She is but a nobody. I am certain that she would accept money. Plus she wasn't a virgin, and she was the one who seduced me first."

Gabi cocked an eyebrow. How shameless!

"That woman saw me and tried to kiss me. So I pushed her away. But I was already drunk so Gabi you should understand. I am just a man. When I saw her naked "

"She wasn't naked. You were the one who ripped her clothes. I have pictures." Did they think they could use this method? How laughable!

"You "

"She had bruises on her legs, arms, wrist, waist, and hips. There were purple bite marks all over her body and a wound on her back. Again, I have images."

"That "

"Harry what is she saying? Is this true?"

"Ma, I would never do that! I swear that woman seduced me."

"She seduced you in my room? Is that it?"

"Of course "

"Then why are you inside my room Mr. Sealey?"

"I "

"Unlike you, I asked Miss Aren to do something inside my room. How about you?"

"Harry? Answer her. What were you doing in her room?"

"I Alfons told me that was the guest room."

BINGO.

Gabi smiled inwardly. "And do you think that reason would protect you in the court?"

"Gabi, I already said "

"Two things" Gabi held two of her fingers in front of them. "It is either you marry her? Or you rot in prison. You have until midnight to decide, Mr. Sealey. After that, the files inside my computer will be sent to all media outlets in the country."

Chapter 525: The Victim and the Criminal

"Gabi why would say something like that to the Sealey Family?"

"Something like what, brother?" Gabi asked. She just got out of the car and Alfons was already shouting at her.

"You wanted him to marry a maid? That is impossible!"

"Say's who?"

"You You know that the Sealey Family is a rising star in the country. This isn't going to be an easy blow to them!"

"I know." She started walking inside.

"And yet you still did it."

"Yep."

"Why? I already warned you! Why didn't you listen to me?"

"And why would I?" She stopped walking and looked at Alfons. "You were clearly taking your friend's side. Why would I listen to you?"

"Gabi there are no sides!"

"Yes, there is!" Gabi hissed. "It's the side of the victim and the criminal!"

"There is no crime! That maid seduced him! It wasn't rap*!"

"Yeah, tell that to the court!"

"Are you really going to ruin a family because of this?"

She snorted. "Why are you making it seem like it was my fault brother?"

"What?"

"Now that I thought about it, Harry said it was you who told him that my room was the guest room."

"What?"

"He was intoxicated and clearly drugged and you led him to my room. Why would you do that brother?"

"I didn't do that."

"Really?"

"Gabi I didn't tell him that it was the guest room. He was lying!"

"Yeah you should tell that to your lawyers. I have no interest in talking to a coward anymore."

"Gabi! Wait! Listen to me!"

"Remove your hands!" Gabi hissed when Alfons held her wrist. "Let go!"

"Gabi I am your older brother! I would never do something that would hurt you. I love you! We are the only Suttons left! Why would I do something that would put you in any danger? Don't you trust me?"

Gabi only snorted in response.

Alfons continued, "He was looking for the bathroom last night. I told him there is a private one on the second floor near your room. I didn't know how he managed to enter your room. I was surprised you. Now that this already happened, I just wanted to control the damage done. Harry said he was willing to pay that woman. However, a marriage cannot happen."

"I already anticipated that."

"What?"

"That he would pay her."

"And? Why are you creating this much ruckus? It is simply not worth it!"

"Really?" Gabi sneered. "But if I was the one who was inside the room are you still going to ask him to pay for the 'damages'?"

"That "

"Alfons be honest with me. Did you want me to marry that man?"

"What?"

"You are scheming against me, Alfons." Gabi squinted her eyes. "Did you want him to hurt me like how he hurt Aren?"

"I would never "

"THEN STOP PROTECTING THAT CRIMINAL!" Gabi's chest raised and fell as she glared at Alfons. In this life, this is the first time that she raised her voice towards anyone. And she never expected that it would actually feel this good. "If he doesn't want to marry Aren then I will reveal what he did to the public. He could cry what he want and beg but he will only have two choices! And that was the price for trying to harm me!"

With that, Gabi removed his hand on her wrist and strode towards her office. But how could Alfons give up just like that? Alfons run towards her and started yapping about his friend again.

Irritated, Gabi looked at the man following behind her. "If you won't stop nagging, I will give my proof to the media now!"

"You "

"Let the public judge!"

"Gabi this isn't good. You can't make the Sealey family your enemy!"

"Why is that?"

"That "

"Did you think they are greater than me and my family?"

"I didn't say that."

"Alfons in this country the only one that could stop me are the royals." She smirked. "You should also know that, right?" The Ren Family is one of the oldest families in this country, even the Royal Family or the Ye Family respects them. This is how powerful the Ren Family is.

And as the only granddaughter of the current chairman, Gabi had a lot of influence in this country too.

The only reason why most people don't know what she looked like is that she didn't attend any special events in the past few years. But this would easily change if she joined one gala that was held by the royals.

If that time comes then Gabi's influence would soar. Isn't this why Alfons wanted her to marry someone close to him? Tying her down while she isn't that influential is his best option if he wanted to control him.

But this

This is the complete opposite of what he expected to happen!

"Are you really going to expose them to the media before filing a case?"

"I am no longer talking to you," Gabi said. "I am exhausted. Please leave me alone."

"Gabi"

"And Alfons? Don't you dare touch Aren. If something happens to her I will blame you and ruin the Sealey Family until they beg me for their deaths!"

"Gabi... This is not you. What dug happen to you?"

She only glared at him in response. "I got patience." She said. Patience

That is the only reason why this motherf*cker is alive! She wanted to make him suffer and watch him succumb to his own idiocy.

"I will come back later. Calm down. I will ask Spencer to bring you some tea."

"I am calm," Gabi uttered. "This is me being calm after avoiding a tragedy." She gave him a knowing look. "Now get the hell away from me before I start to lose my temper. Brother."

Alfons gave her a complicated look before leaving her alone inside her office. Once he was gone, Gabi immediately let out a sigh of relief.

Talking to Alfons was really exhausting because she had to stop herself from trying to strangle him. She clenched her fist.
