

Lazily 82

Chapter 82: Tsundere Clown!

Lyca woke up late the next day. It was already noon and since today was Long Yi's birthday, the school actually made everyone attend a birthday party for everyone. This was also a way for them to mingle and build connections as their parents were also invited.

However, aside from this, Long Yi had an exclusive party that only includes about twenty people from the university and ten people that was not from the university. This list includes sons and daughters of the richest businessmen in the whole Xu continent as well as the member of the student council. Of course, Lyca was included in this list of people.

When Lyca discovered that Shen Qui wasn't back yet, she forced herself not to call him to ask if he was still alive. That man didn't even apologize and just made her some bread with toppings. The lower half of her body wasn't ready to forgive him, yet!

With this in mind, Lyca started preparing for the party. She wasn't really the type of woman that would need hours to prepare herself, however tonight, she was planning to do something else. something big.

Wearing a black and white flare dress with her three-inch black stiletto, Lyca arrived in the Student Council Building just ten minutes after the party started.

However, before she could walk inside the building, Huang Xiaoxuan suddenly arrived in front of her. "Why are you late?" Huang Xiaoxuan asked. "The party started ten minutes ago and I have been here for more than twenty minutes now."

"Why are you here?"

"You didn't know? I am Long Yi's new secretary. He personally asked me for a coffee so he could recruit me. I was also invited to the party." Seeing the interest in Lyca's eyes, Huang Xiaoxuan started talking as they walked towards the second floor of the building where the exclusive party would be held. "Well I have been doing really good in my classes. Unlike other people who always sleeps in class, I am taking this opportunity seriously. Besides, this is the first time that the Huang Security joined this school. It is only right that one of us gets the highest grade or even top this school. Of course, we already know that I would definitely rule the rankings after the school year."

"Ah you and Long Yi are really perfect for each other."

"I agree." Huang Xiaoxuan said before he snapped. "What do you mean by that? Stop saying nonsense things! What if other people hear you? They might think that I like Long Yi!" Seeing Huang Xiaoxuan's serious expression made Lyca want to laugh out loud. This woman is definitely a tsundere clown!

Huang Xiaoxuan continued. "All I'm saying is now that I am working as Long Yi's secretary, you should behave yourself. Don't embarrass me in front of Long Yi and you should always remember that the reason why they decided to make you one of them is because of your freaky challenges. You aren't supposed to make so many challenges like that."

Again, Lyca nodded and let Huang Xiaoxuan continued talking as she looked at her cousin's figure that was very obvious from the short and black bodycon dress with a little bit of lacy see-through garments and long frontal slit, she was wearing. Her cousin looked extremely alluring.

"Hey... Do you like Long Yi?" Lyca directly asked.

"You why the hell would I like him? He is our enemy!"

"Do you want to sleep with him?"

Her words halted Huang Xiaoxuan's steps. She immediately dragged Lyca towards the corner near the stairs. "What are you talking about?"

"I can help you."

"What "Huang Xiaoxuan straightened her clothes and cleared her throat. "What are you planning?" Lyca's words immediately made her change her tone.

"I can make Long Yi sleep with you." She decided to be direct. As expected, Huang Xiaoxuan gave her a suspicious look. "But if you don't want"

"I want to!" Huang Xiaoxuan blurted out before glaring at her. "Tell me about your plan."

Lyca only smiled. "I will text you the details. For now, you have to drink this."

"What is that?"

"Aphrodisiac. The effects will start two hours from now."

"Why the hell would I drink that?"

Lyca shrugged. "Since you don't want it then "

"I want it!" Huang Xiaoxuan grabbed the tablet and drank it without asking any more questions.

"Good girl." Lyca beamed. "Don't worry. I am someone from the Huang Family. I would not let you embarrass yourself tonight."

"Hmph! I already know that!" Even her father told her that Lyca would never hurt her unless she would do something stupid. "I will trust you this once." Her father warned her about being close to Long Yi. However, Huang Xiaoxuan was adamant that Long Yi was someone destined for her. So, she did her best to get his attention.

Now that she finally succeeded, she was planning on seducing him. And since Lyca presented this opportunity then, Huang Xiaoxuan was planning to take advantage of it.

"Good." Lyca nodded. Since this woman wanted Long Yi so much, then she could have him. After all, Lyca was a very generous woman when it comes to teaching someone a lesson.

When Lyca arrived at the party, Long Yi and the others immediately welcomed her with a huge smile. Most of them congratulated Lyca for being the new member of the Student Council.

"So?" Long Yi's voice was soft as he leaned towards Lyca's ears. "Did you prepare a gift for me?"

Lyca looked at him and fought the urge to punch his beautiful face. This man is really making her uncomfortable. She knew that her expression was saying how she hated this man's presence, and yet Long Yi doesn't seem to get it. Was he thinking that she was just playing hard to get?

Lyca forced a smile out of her face as she handed him a small box. "It's called gentle size." She answered. "You can use it against your enemies." Her eyes twinkled as she watched him open the box in front of her.
