

After Leaving The CEO, She Stunned The World - Chapter 228 - The Beginning Of Atonement -

Chapter 228: The Beginning of Atonement

Since she had already gotten what she wanted, she had to be calm. Mo Rao stopped talking and let Fu Ying drive around.

Shen Feng followed behind them.

Finally, at midnight, Fu Ying's car arrived at the entrance of Mo Rao's villa. He watched as Mo Rao got out of the car, his eyes filled with reluctance.

"Goodbye. Oh right, thank you." Mo Rao waved at Fu Ying.

Despite his reluctance, Fu Ying forced himself to leave decisively. He didn't want to provoke her again, so he stepped on the accelerator to leave.

Shen Feng's car was parked not far away. Mo Rao sent him a message: Shen Feng, I'm going home. Be careful on the way back.

Shen Feng was relieved. He wanted to chat with her, but he was afraid that he would disturb her rest, so he left.

After Mo Rao opened the door and entered with the documents, Mo Yuan was already waiting for her in the living room.

"Why did you come back so late? Did Fu Ying do it on purpose?" Mo Yuan asked angrily.

"I promised to celebrate his birthday with him, so that he would give me some information about my mother's background." Mo Rao placed the document bag on the table. "Let's look at it together."

Mo Yuan was shocked. "He has information?"

Mo Rao nodded and opened the document bag. As expected, it was filled with information about the Qu family. The siblings immediately started reading it.

On the other side, Fu Ying had already driven to the Jade Heaven Villa.

He was in a bad mood and had to vent it on someone.

Qu Ru had not slept yet. Ever since she was placed under house arrest, she had been throwing tantrums day and night. She was either screaming and cursing or throwing things.

Fu Ying had instructed them to let her throw things and scold people as she pleased as long as she didn't leave this place.

"Fu Ying!"

Seeing that Fu Ying was here, Qu Ru was very excited. She thought that Fu Ying had changed his mind and was going to let her go, or had he started to understand that she did so out of love and had changed his mind about her?

Fu Ying looked at Qu Ru, who was sitting in the wheelchair, with a cold expression. Then, he sat down on the sofa and looked at Qu Ru coldly.

It was this woman who had caused the death of his two children and made Mo Rao suffer a huge blow and leave him.

"Fu Ying, you're finally here. I'm sorry, I know I was wrong. Can you forgive me?" Qu Ru pushed the wheelchair in front of Fu Ying and begged pitifully like a stray dog.

Fu Ying didn't react at all. Even though he had been soft-hearted in the past, after Mo Rao left, he would never be soft-hearted towards Qu Ru again.

However, it was too late. If he had given up on Qu Ru earlier, Mo Rao wouldn't have left him.

"I'm not the one you should apologize to. It's Rao Rao," Fu Ying replied coldly.

"Alright, alright, alright. Then send me to Mo Rao. I'll apologize to her and kowtow to her!" Qu Ru cried.

"It's too late. What's the point of apologizing now?" As Fu Ying stared at Qu Ru's tearful face, he felt extremely disgusted.

Qu Ru choked. "But Fu Ying, I saved you once. Is this how you treat me? Didn't you say that you would always remember my life-saving grace and take care of me and protect me for the rest of my life?"

Fu Ying was expressionless. "I've protected you so many times before. It's more than enough."

Qu Ru froze for a moment before she shouted crazily, "It's not enough! Not enough at all! Fu Ying, I was filled with anticipation because of your promise to me. That's why I did those things. You were the one who indulged me. That was why I hurt Mo Rao!"

These words made Fu Ying's expression crack. He glared at Qu Ru as he shouted, "I never asked you to hurt her!"

"You didn't say it, but you tacitly agreed!" Qu Ru smiled maliciously. "When I challenged your bottom line time and time again, you didn't pursue responsibility with me. Didn't you still lie to her because of me? If you hadn't protected me repeatedly, how would I have the guts to hurt her? So, Fu Ying, the culprit is you. Why should I atone for my sins alone?!"

"Enough!" Fu Ying was furious. He stood up and kicked Qu Ru's wheelchair, causing her to fall to the ground.

"Hahaha..." Qu Ru laughed crazily.

Fu Ying squatted down and grabbed Qu Ru's collar. Looking at the sinister and ferocious look on her face, he gritted his teeth and said, "Let me tell you, I will use my entire life to atone for my sins, and punishing you is the beginning of my atonement. Qu Ru, you should be afraid. What will happen next will be even more painful and tormenting."

His words made the smile on Qu Ru's face disappear because she knew that Fu Ying had many ways to make her suffer.

Chapter 229: Rumored Girlfriend

Fu Ying left the Jade Heaven Villa without looking back, leaving Qu Ru lying on the ground motionlessly in despair.

After Mo Rao and Mo Yuan sorted out the information Fu Ying had given them, they felt very heavy-hearted and angry.

It was unknown where Fu Ying found the evidence that directly proved that their mother was the missing youngest daughter of the Qu family, and that the reason for her disappearance was related to Qu Qin, the second son of the Qu family, and Qu Xue, the third daughter.

“These two bastards!” Mo Yuan was so angry that he wanted to smash something.

“Brother, what should we do now?” Mo Rao’s heart ached when she thought of her mother’s encounter. She didn’t expect that her mother’s disappearance back then was actually planned by Qu Qin and Qu Xue.

These two were seven and five years older than Mo Rao’s mother, but at that time, they were only teenagers. How could they have such vicious thoughts?

Mo Yuan forced himself to calm down. “One step at a time. We still have to investigate if Old Madam Qu knew about this back then, if she looked for our mom, or if she protected those two bastards.”

The information didn’t tell Mo Rao why Qu Qin and Qu Xue did what they did back then. This was what they had to find out.

The siblings sat there quietly for a long time, their minds filled with various thoughts. They didn’t expect the Qu family to really be related to them by blood.

Mo Rao wasn’t happy. She even felt disgusted. How could she be cousins with someone like Qu Ru?

“Rao Rao, go and rest first. Director Wang called just now. The filming will resume tomorrow. They have already arranged for another person to take over. Fortunately, the filming time isn’t long. Otherwise, we would be in big trouble,” Mo Yuan reminded Mo Rao.

“Okay.” Mo Rao was also a little tired. It was already two in the morning. If she didn’t sleep, she wouldn’t be in her best state tomorrow.

She wondered who Director Wang had found to replace Lin Xing.

This mystery was revealed when she went to the production team the next day. Mo Rao looked at the new actress and found her familiar.

Mo Yuan reminded, “Jiang Yue is now considered a B-list actress. She was previously a spokesperson for the Shen Corporation and was rumored to be in a relationship with Shen Feng.”

Although it was a rumor, it was actually started by Jiang Yue for the sake of publicity.

Shen Feng would clarify things every time, but because of their business partnership, he couldn’t fall out with her, so he didn’t pursue the matter.

Jiang Yue pushed her luck. When the outside world said that she was Shen Feng’s girlfriend, she would smile in tacit acquiescence. Only when Mo Rao returned to the country and Shen Feng personally told the media that his girlfriend was Mo Rao did Jiang Yue stop.

Of course, Director Wang also knew the relationship between Jiang Yue and Shen Feng and knew that Shen Feng only had Mo Rao in his heart.

This was the reason why this movie was so hyped up!

This kind of love triangle would cause the outside world to speculate and hype up this movie. Who wouldn't look forward to their performance when filming the movie?

"You're Mo Rao, right?" After Jiang Yue saw Mo Rao, she walked up to her and revealed a bright smile as she reached out generously to shake Mo Rao's hand. "My name is Jiang Yue. I'm the actress who took over Lin Xing's role."

"Hello, I'm Mo Rao. Nice to meet you. Please be of guidance in the future." Mo Rao also extended her hand politely and greeted Jiang Yue.

It seemed like Jiang Yue and Lin Xing weren't the same type. She looked much more outgoing and straightforward, but Mo Rao didn't know if she was pretending or not. After all, from Jiang Yue's previous behavior, Jiang Yue seemed like a troublemaker.

Jiang Yue smiled and said humbly, "What guidance? You've won the best actress award. I have to learn from you."

She was quite eloquent, Mo Rao thought. "Let's learn from each other and grow together."

Jiang Yue nodded. The two of them had an amiable first interaction. At least there was no conflict on the surface.

During the filming break, Mo Yuan glanced at Jiang Yue, who was already getting along with the crew not far away, and deliberately asked, "Rao Rao, don't you feel threatened? Her personality isn't bad, but she's definitely scheming. This kind of woman is very scary."

"What should I be worried about?" Mo Rao asked. If it was in terms of acting, she wasn't worried at all. She would do her best and try to improve her acting skills as she filmed.

"Shen Feng!" Mo Yuan was worried. "I think Jiang Yue is really interested in Shen Feng. What if she snatches him from you?"

Mo Rao actually burst out laughing. "Haha, wouldn't that be a good thing?"

She had long hoped that Shen Feng could find a suitable woman and not continue to waste his time on her.

Mo Yuan was rendered speechless by Mo Rao's words. His silly sister wanted to pass up on such a good man!

Chapter 230: My Treat

If Jiang Yue was really a good woman, Mo Rao planned to matchmake her and Shen Feng.

However, if Jiang Yue was just pretending, she would naturally expose her.

"Alright, alright. We won't be filming anymore tonight. Let's have a meal together!" Director Wang instructed everyone.

Jiang Yue said that she wanted to treat the main leads of the production team, the director, the screenwriter, and the cameramen, to a meal. She had chosen a good hotel near the set.

Everyone was quite happy. They felt that Jiang Yue was very generous and easygoing.

"Let's go!" After Mo Rao removed her makeup and changed her clothes, she said to Mo Yuan.

"I'm not going. I'm going to negotiate an advertisement endorsement for you tonight. It's a skincare product and it's quite famous." Mo Yuan looked at the time and saw that it was almost time to set off.

As a brother, he was really dedicated to his sister's career.

Mo Rao felt touched and waved her hand as she said, "Goodbye. Try to negotiate a higher endorsement fee."

"Got it. With your brother around, I guarantee that you'll become richer every day!" When Mo Yuan saw Mo Rao's money-grubbing look, he patted her shoulder dotingly.

After watching Mo Yuan leave, Mo Rao brought Hu Ya to the gathering.

When they arrived at the hotel, a group of people came to the large private room that had been booked. It could seat more than ten people. After Mo Rao brought Hu Ya to a seat, the others also sat down.

"There's a seat missing!" someone suddenly said.

The personal makeup artist Jiang Yue brought didn't have a seat. She was standing there and staring at Hu Ya.

The atmosphere suddenly became tense. As the person who was treating today, Jiang Yue's first thought wasn't to get the waiter to add a chair. Instead, she said awkwardly, "Mo Rao, I'm treating the production team to a meal today. I heard that your makeup artist was brought over by you yourself and doesn't belong to the production team..."

Mo Rao frowned. Before she could speak, Jiang Yue quickly apologized. "Don't mind me! I'm just straightforward. My words might be unpleasant, but I definitely don't mean any harm!"

After a day of filming, Jiang Yue had already established a good relationship with the production team. She was even more familiar with them than Mo Rao, who had been on the production team for half a month.

The others also felt that Jiang Yue had a good personality. Her personality was straightforward and unpretentious.

When Hu Ya heard this, she prepared to stand up. Although she had never been snubbed like this before, she didn't want Mo Rao to be in a difficult position.

Unexpectedly, Mo Rao grabbed her hand and pulled her to sit down again. "It's okay. Sit beside me."

Her simple sentence made the others look at each other. It was obvious that she was unwilling to give up her seat to Jiang Yue's makeup artist.

Director Wang and the others couldn't speak up for anyone. None of them were to be trifled with.

"Just ask the waiter to add a chair." Mo Rao's expression was calm and cold.

As expected, she had been too optimistic. How could Jiang Yue be as easy to get along with as she looked?

"But it'll be very crowded if you add a chair." Jiang Yue's expression was very calm. She seemed a little troubled and unhappy, yet she was still polite.

At this moment, others also started discussing softly.

"Actually, Hu Ya really isn't considered a member of the production team..."

"Jiang Yue's makeup artist doesn't count either, right?? Isn't she also a personal makeup artist?"

“But Jiang Yue is treating us today!”

“That’s true…”

They actually deliberately said these words for Mo Rao to hear.

Mo Rao didn’t expect Jiang Yue to be so good at winning people over. On her first day in the production team, so many people were already speaking up for her.

Director Wang didn’t say anything. Of course, he knew that this was Jiang Yue’s home ground, but he couldn’t afford to offend the big shots backing Mo Rao.

If the two of them really had a conflict, it might hype up the movie even more if word of it spread.

The public loved to see such emotional entanglements.

Jiang Yue stood up and said in a conciliatory tone, “Everyone, stop talking. I was inconsiderate regarding this matter. I should have booked a larger private room.”

Mo Rao was amused. She smirked and looked at Jiang Yue coldly as she said, “How about this? Let’s book a bigger private room.”

This way, everyone would have a seat.

Jiang Yue said awkwardly, “It’s very difficult. All the private rooms here have been booked already. I heard that the production team of ‘Moonrise’ also had a gathering and booked the entire upper floor.”

The main cast of “Moonrise” consisted of popular A-list actors and had a lot of investments, so it was naturally generous. It booked an entire floor to prevent being disturbed or secretly filmed.

“Then I’ll treat everyone today.” Mo Rao calmly picked up her phone as everyone looked at her in surprise.
