

Chapter 154

After Lucy got the name of the place, she drove to the mental hospital.

When she arrived at the lobby, a nurse was sitting at the front desk and looking at her manicure with a bored look.

She did not even bother greeting Lucy when she saw her come in. She just straightened her posture a little bit.

Lucy walked up to her and asked, "May I know which ward Luna Quinn is in?"

The nurse smiled and said, "Miss, I strongly advise you not to visit Ms. Luna. She was sent in here by her husband, and she's showing serious violent tendencies."

Lucy knew what her sister was like. Luna never showed any signs of a mental disorder before, so why was she sent to the mental hospital?

She paused for a moment and said, "I'd still like to visit her. I'm her sister, Lucy. Here's my identification."

She showed the nurse her ID.

After the nurse took Lucy's ID card and verified it, she did not bother dissuading Lucy. She registered Lucy and pointed out the location of Luna's ward.

Lucy followed her instructions and went to Luna's ward, but she was not allowed to enter.

She could only see Luna through the glass window.

For Lucy's safety, the staff did not allow her to enter because of Luna's aggressive behavior.

Lucy had no choice but to look at her from outside the glass window.

Luna did not notice Lucy at first. She was playing with a lily in her hand.

After Lucy knocked on the glass, Luna blankly looked up and saw Lucy.

With a menacing look on her face, Luna lunged toward her.

The only thing stopping Luna from getting to her was the glass partition.

Startled, Lucy stepped back in fear. When she saw the grotesque expression on Luna's face, she started doubting her own memories.

Was Luna really mentally ill? Why did she look like that?

In the ward, Luna yelled at Lucy in a fit of rage, "You bitch! How dare you do this to me? Not only did you bankrupt my company, but you also ruined Tim's company. Tim... That motherfucker..."

Lucy could not listen to the rest of what Luna had to say, so she left the place in a hurry.

The medical staff looked at Lucy sympathetically. It must not be easy having a sister like her!

Back in the lobby, Lucy was at a loss. Why would Luna go insane? She recalled the string of accusations Luna shouted and could not help but feel that something was wrong.

Did something happen between her and Timothy? Lucy thought about it for a long time but could not, for the life of her, figure out the reason.

Clutching her head in frustration, she decided to put this matter aside for now.

Since Luna had already been admitted to the mental hospital, she should be safe there. Lucy decided to leave it at that.

Besides, she would have plenty of time to unravel this matter in the future.

With that thought in mind, Lucy left the place.

While she was on the road, her mind was still preoccupied, but she still could not figure out why this happened.

She got back to her company and was ready to handle the rest of her paperwork. However, just as she opened the door to her office, she saw Timothy waiting for her inside.

She instantly froze. "Timothy, what are you doing here?"
