

Chapter 156

Lucy stopped in her tracks. She turned around and looked Timothy up and down in disbelief.

Holy shit! How had she never noticed how shameless this man was before? Not only that, he had no self-awareness whatsoever.

How blind was she back then to have fallen in love with him? "If it's not your fault, who are you going to blame it on, then? Luna?"

Timothy ignored her contemptuous gaze. "Luna is indeed partly responsible for this. If she hadn't seduced me, how could I have made such a mistake?"

Not to mention...

He recalled how crazy Luna had been the past few days, and his disgust for her seemed to emerge. How could he have once thought of her as gentle and innocent?

Seeing how well put together Lucy was and how well she was managing her company, Timothy could not help but feel a pinch of regret.

He realized that he had misjudged Lucy before. The Lucy before him was nothing like the gloomy woman he once perceived her as. Clearly, he just did not know her well enough.

It must have been Luna who blinded him. It must have been!

Lucy looked him in the eye as he spoke and noticed his gradually softening gaze. A shiver ran down her spine. She felt goosebumps all over her body.

Oh gosh! Was Timothy for real? Those two scumbags deserve each other!

Lucy was speechless for a while. She could not be bothered to talk to Timothy at all. She just wanted to stay away from this repulsive man.

The excuse Timothy gave seemed to be more about convincing himself. He looked at the quiet Lucy and got an idea.

He took a step closer, gazing at her adoringly.

"Lucy, I know I was wrong. I didn't have any other choice but to send Luna to the mental hospital.

"Don't be mad. Can you please tell Mr. Leon to stop attacking Lucas Corporation?"

Timothy's cunning plan was to make Lucy forgive him so that Matthew would not take action against Lucas Corporation again.

He was positive that Lucy was not over him yet. It had only been four short months since the wedding.

Based on his understanding of Lucy, she was not the type of person who could just forget him in four months.

Once Lucy forgave him, he could find a way to stabilize Lucas Corporation and make it number one again.

Timothy was like a ravenous wolf eyeing a piece of meat that was Lucy's powerful husband. He made an effort to come off as sincere as possible.

Little did he know, Lucy was so repulsed that she wanted to beat him up!

After being exposed, this cheating scumbag wanted to manipulate her again. However, Lucy had learned her lesson. How could she possibly fall for his sweet talk again?

If it were three or four years ago, she might have fallen into his trap, but now? Forget about it!

The fact that Timothy had the heart to put the person he slept next to in the mental hospital showed how selfish of a person he was.

Lucy said to Amy indifferently, "Call security!"
