

Chapter 157

Timothy looked at Lucy in disbelief. How dare she call security?

"No, wait a minute."

He stopped Amy, who was about to run out the door. She was just a petite woman, and Timothy was a six-foot-tall man. He blocked her path with a fierce look on his face. Naturally, Amy was too afraid to take another step.

Now that Timothy had blocked the door, Amy could not get out at all.

Gulping, she wondered if she should just run for it. However, seeing as Timothy was so angry he might hit someone, she backed up and stood in front of Lucy.

She reckoned that it was best if she called security later, in case the man in front of her did anything to Lucy.

If she were here, she would still be able to protect Lucy. If she went down to call the guards, Lucy might get hurt if Timothy decided to go crazy...

She remembered Matthew telling her to take good care of Lucy. He even gave her an envelope filled with money. Amy had a determined gaze. Since she had promised Matthew to take care of Lucy, she could not go back on her word.

Lucy looked at Amy in surprise, unaware that it was Matthew who had given Amy orders to protect her. Lucy just thought that Amy was super loyal and kind to her.

Lucy made a mental note to give Amy a raise when this was over. She looked at Timothy coldly and questioned, "What do you think you're doing?

"If this is about Lucas Corporation, why are you talking to me when you should be talking to the people who acquired the shares of your company?"

"Also, the apology you gave me just now? I don't accept it!"

Lucy recalled Timothy's apathetic eyes when he got married to Luna as well as his four years of betrayal.

Lucy's heart was as cold as ice. "You must be insane if you think that I'd forgive you. As of right now, I'm getting by just fine. My husband and I are very happy.

"If that's all you have to say, you can leave my company right now. I have work to do."

Lucy's decisive attitude infuriated Timothy. His pride and fragile masculinity refused to let her speak to him in such a manner.

He approached Lucy with bloodshot eyes, wanting to grab her.

Fortunately, Amy was in front of her, blocking Timothy with her petite body.

Amy was relieved that she stayed, or else Lucy would have been in danger.

Annoyed that Amy was blocking him, Timothy pushed her aside.

"Get out of my way."

Amy was doing a good job protecting Lucy at first, but after Timothy pushed her, she fell to the ground and hit her head on the floor hard.

For a moment, she felt like her world was spinning. She held her head and curled up on the ground.

Lucy's pupils shrank when she saw Amy on the ground. While she was angry, she could not help but fear the man in front of her as well.

"Timothy, what are trying to do?" Lucy shouted at him sharply.

Timothy smiled savagely. "What am I trying to do?"

He spoke slowly while approaching Lucy.

Lucy stepped back bit by bit until she was soon forced into a corner.
