

Chapter 158

Lucy had nowhere to go!

Her pupils constricted. What should she do now?

She was only realizing now that Timothy was a grown man and she was just a petite woman.

Lucy looked at Timothy in fear while Amy was unconscious on the floor. What was she going to do?!

She closed her eyes while her mind was in chaos.

“Stop!”

A familiar voice sounded from behind Timothy. Soon, Timothy was pinned to the floor.

Lucy’s eyes were tightly shut. She was so scared that she had forgotten to open them.

After a long silence, Lucy slowly regained her senses.

With lingering fear inside of her, she saw Matthew holding Timothy down on the floor.

The frightened Lucy stayed there for a long time before she managed to calm down.

Her body went limp, and she collapsed on the ground. Matthew looked at her with concern. She must have been so frightened. That son of a bitch!

Matthew glared fiercely at the man under him. It was all because of this bastard!

"Security! Security!" he shouted.

The people outside the office finally sensed that something was wrong. They alerted the security guard, and he ran upstairs in a panic.

What he saw was a chaotic office—Matthew pinning Timothy down, the unconscious Amy, and Lucy trembling in fear.

Cold sweat dripped down his forehead. How did this happen?

"What are you still standing there for? Come over here and help me hold him down!"

Matthew shouted at the security guard. He quickly ran to Matthew and stood beside him helplessly, not knowing what to do.

Matthew shot him a sharp gaze. "How useless can you be?"

"Hold here and put your body weight on him. Don't let him get away. You hear me?"

With Matthew's instructions, the security guard managed to keep Timothy under control.

After Matthew let go, he rushed to Lucy's side and helped her up. Distressed, he looked at her and asked, "Lucy, are you okay? Are you hurt?"

After making sure that his wife was okay, Matthew looked at Timothy like he was dead to him.

People started to gather outside the office. They were all looking at the scene in shock. Finally, someone noticed the poor Amy.

“Quick! Call the ambulance!”

Someone yelled, and everyone scrambled to call the ambulance and the police.

Soon, an ambulance and a police car arrived. The paramedics helped Amy into the ambulance while the police officers put Timothy into the police car.

Timothy struggled and shouted, “Do you know who I am? I’m the CEO of Lucas Corporation. How dare you handcuff me? Are you not afraid of what I’ll do to you?”

The police officers ignored his threats and punched him in the face.

“The police serve the people. Who cares if you’re the CEO of some company?”

The scene was so shocking that the people outside of Lucy’s company started gossiping about it. Some even uploaded videos of the scene online.

Unsurprisingly, the videos went viral, sparking outrage among netizens.
