

Chapter 162

"This has nothing to do with obedience. Timothy was the one who trespassed into my office, injured my secretary, and attempted to attack me. How could you ask me to bail him out after that?"

Lucy's eyes were full of disdain. She would never help bail Timothy out of jail. She wanted him to just rot in there.

"It's just a secretary."

Zachary was getting angrier and more impatient.

"How can a secretary be more important than your brother-in-law? Although you didn't end up marrying him, didn't you like him before?"

"He's your brother-in-law. Can't you be kinder to your younger sister? Nana is still in the mental hospital right now."

The thought of his precious daughter made his heart ache.

"You didn't even visit her. If I have to, I'll get her out of there myself. How can you even call yourself her sister?"

Wow! It was no surprise that a Quinn family member was shameless enough to say such words. How dare he bring this up?

Timothy cheated on Lucy with Luna, yet their father still had the audacity to say things like, "She's your sister. Why can't you be nice to your sister?"

"

Unbelievable!

Lucy had learned her lesson. She had nothing else to say to her father.

Instead, she shouted at the door, "Security! I need security right now!"

The people outside were on high alert because of what had happened with Timothy earlier. As soon as they heard Lucy call for security, they immediately sprang into action. The security guard quickly made his way upstairs.

When he opened Lucy's door, he saw Lucy and the man in front of her. He automatically assumed that he was the person Lucy wanted to get rid of.

He took two steps forward and told Zachary politely, "Sir, please leave the office. Our CEO doesn't welcome you."

Zachary looked at Lucy in disbelief. How dare she chase him out?

"What do you mean, leave? The CEO of your company is my daughter. It's my responsibility as a father to discipline my daughter. Who are you to interfere?"

The security guard frowned. He remembered the last time he messed up. He glanced at Lucy with lingering fear.

He could not afford to mess up this time or he would be fired.

"Sir, please leave!"

His tone sounded even more forceful, and he even started to get physical as he pushed Lucy's father out of her office.

Naturally, Zachary tried to resist, but as a middle-aged man who rarely worked out, he stood no chance against the fit security guard.

After he was kicked out of the office, Lucy massaged her temples. She felt like she was having a streak of bad luck lately. She could not help but wonder if she was jinxed. Moreover, everything seemed to be happening in her office.

Lucy was questioning her life choices. Should she go see a priest?

...

Zachary glared at the security guard fiercely, but other than getting angry, there was nothing else he could do.

He took his phone out to call Aaron, and the call quickly went through. He said, "I'm sorry, but my daughter isn't listening to me at all, so there's nothing I can do." 1

Comments

Support

Share 22