

I'm Leveling Up Too Quickly

Chapter 1 - 1 Flawless Dao Foundation online for free

1 Flawless Dao Foundation

This was a sunny and breezy weekend was. The idle Earthling youth, Zhu Wuyang, rode a mountain bike to the nearby nameless mountain to play.

The weather in the mountains was unpredictable. As soon as Zhu Wuyang reached the top of the mountain, he saw dark clouds gathering and heavy rain brewing in the sky.

Just as he was about to find a place to hide from the rain, light suddenly shone around him. Before he could understand what was going on, he was struck by dozens of lightning bolts.

Before he died, only one thought flashed through Zhu Wuyang's mind.

"Who the hell is transcending the tribulation on this nameless mountain? F*ck!"

When Zhu Wuyang woke up again, he heard a strange voice in the depths of his mind.

"Congratulations to the host for transmigrating for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100 million breakthrough points. In view that the host's cultivation foundation has been destroyed, the 100 million breakthrough points will be used to repair and modify the host's cultivation foundation to help the host forge an unprecedented flawless Dao foundation!"

Before Zhu Wuyang could understand what was happening, he was drowned by a strange power that covered the sky and earth. For a moment, he was immersed in this strange power.

Under the effect of this strange power, the original body's already destroyed spirit root completely collapsed at an astonishing speed. After his cultivation foundation collapsed, a brand new spirit root was reborn in its place.

The foundation of the newly born cultivation foundation was incomparably stable, far beyond the imagination of anyone in this world. Even the legendary immortal spirit root with unparalleled talent was probably inferior to the spirit root in Zhu Wuyang's body.

Break and rebuild!

At the same time, the surging strange power also flooded into various parts of Zhu Wuyang's body, opening up the original body's blocked meridians.

Soon, all the meridians in Zhu Wuyang's body were opened. This strange power began to temper and hammer these meridians, making them extremely tough.

His meridians were all opened, and his blood Qi was rampant!

Ordinary people's meridians were normally all blocked. If they wanted to cultivate, they first had to use their Qi and blood to break through the blockages in their meridians. Only then could they step onto the path of cultivation.

Those who were born with all their meridians connected were all rare martial arts geniuses!

Moreover, the number of meridians in Zhu Wuyang's body that had been cleared by the strange force far exceeded that of martial arts experts. This was extremely beneficial to Zhu Wuyang's future cultivation of martial arts and even body tempering.

As the meridians were cleared, Zhu Wuyang suddenly sensed nine strange meridians vaguely appearing between his existing meridians.

The nine meridians were not corporeal, but they were effectively connected to various parts of Zhu Wuyang's body, existing between reality and illusion, making it impossible for him to detect their exact location.

Zhu Wuyang did not know what these nine special meridians were, but if anyone saw them, they would be shocked.

This was the embryonic form of spirit veins!

Or the embryonic form of Immortal meridians!

Under normal circumstances, only experts in the second major realm of the Martial Dao could forge spirit veins in their bodies. However, Zhu Wuyang had already forged the embryonic form of a spirit vein before even stepping onto the path of the Martial Dao.

This was extremely beneficial to Zhu Wuyang's subsequent cultivation. It could save Zhu Wuyang a lot of time and energy when he reached the second major realm of the Martial Dao.

When the nine embryonic immortal meridians appeared, a strange power surged into his sea of consciousness.

Under the effect of this strange power, Zhu Wuyang felt his originally sluggish head begin to turn smarter.

It was as if an endless expanse of light of wisdom had appeared in his mind, illuminating his dark brain, causing Zhu Wuyang to become capable of reading ten lines of words at a glance, have a photographic memory, and astonishing comprehension...

It was a natural born divine talent!

When learning the same martial arts and secret techniques as others, Zhu Wuyang would gain more benefits.

At the same time, while helping Zhu Wuyang forge a flawless Dao foundation, a portion of the strange power seeped into various parts of his body, causing his overall physical qualities to increase, far surpassing that of ordinary people.

Although Zhu Wuyang was not a martial artist yet, his combat strength was already comparable to an ordinary martial artist.

Zhu Wuyang was completely immersed in the strange power that was surging over. He was in a daze and did not know where he was. However, while he was focused on forging a flawless Dao Foundation, he vaguely felt that something was wrong.

Transforming from an ordinary person with a crippled foundation to a genius with flawless Dao foundation was clearly a good thing. Why did he feel an inexplicable worry?

Before Zhu Wuyang could figure it out, he was once again drowned by the strange power that came from all directions...

When the flawless foundation was finally perfectly forged, Zhu Wuyang was about to investigate what was going on when a strange and mechanical voice sounded in his mind again.

"Congratulations to the host for breathing for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points. In view of the importance of strength, 90% of the breakthrough points will be used to increase the host's strength!"

"Congratulations to the host for breathing for the second time in your life. You have obtained 200 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for breathing for the third time in your life. You have obtained 100 breakthrough points..."

What's going on?

Zhu Wuyang still did not understand what had happened before he was surrounded by the strange power again. However, this time, the strange power seemed to be very different from the previous time.

As the strange power surged over, a body tempering technique naturally appeared in Zhu Wuyang's mind. This martial technique was called...

Grand Earth Limitless Technique

This was a top-notch Foundation Establishment divine technique in the martial arts world. It could help martial artists build an astonishing cultivation foundation. It was like a vast land, boundless and indestructible.

Therefore, this divine technique was called the Grand Earth Limitless Technique. It was also the divine technique that the previous owner of this body had been bitterly cultivating before Zhu Wuyang transmigrated.

It was precisely because of this that it would appear in his mind when Zhu Wuyang needed it.

With the guidance of the Grand Earth Limitless Technique, wisps of extremely pure blood essence power appeared in Zhu Wuyang's body. With the appearance of this blood essence power, it meant that Zhu Wuyang had stepped onto the path of cultivation.

The power of the breakthrough points was really terrifying!

Under normal circumstances, it was impossible for an ordinary person to refine the power of Qi and blood and step onto the path of cultivation without a few years of dedicated cultivation.

However, Zhu Wuyang used the strange power of the breakthrough points and embarked on the path of cultivation in a short period of time.

Zhu Wuyang followed the circulation route of the Grand Earth Limitless Technique and instinctively guided the pure blood essence power to temper his skin.

As his Qi and blood were tempered, his skin was strengthened at an extremely fast speed, becoming harder and more flexible. There was a faint light brown glow on it.

There were three major realms in the cultivation of martial artists. They were the Body Tempering Realm, the Meridian Forging Realm, and the Connate Realm. The first major realm, the Body Tempering Realm, was divided into nine minor realms.

2 Breaking Through Six Realms in a Row

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang had just stepped onto the path of martial arts and was in the first small realm of the Body Tempering Realm... Skin Refinement!

Under the effect of a large number of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang's skin was quickly tempered to become flexible and firm. Once he circulated his blood essence power, the skin all over his body would turn light brown.

This also meant that Zhu Wuyang had stepped into the early stage of Skin Refinement. Next, it was time to break through to the mid-stage of Skin Refinement.

There were still a lot of breakthrough points left. After all, 90% of the breakthrough points were automatically poured into Zhu Wuyang's body. It was impossible for Zhu Wuyang to refuse, so he could only focus on absorbing and digesting them.

As he had just fused with this new body, there were some areas that he was not familiar with. Zhu Wuyang had no choice but to focus all his attention on digesting the breakthrough points. He did not dare to think about anything else, afraid that he would not be able to control the surging power in his body and explode.

However, during the process of his cultivation breakthrough, his worry became stronger and stronger, enveloping Zhu Wuyang like a dark cloud.

It seemed that as he became stronger and broke through faster, this worry became heavier.

His strength was still breaking through, and Zhu Wuyang quickly stepped into the Mid-stage of the Skin Refining Realm. The skin all over his body became even tougher, far beyond his imagination.

If it was on Earth, he would have been easily knocked down by a person with a club with his previous physique. But now, no one could hurt him without ten clubs.

Zhu Wuyang's defense had increased by about ten times. It was obvious what kind of increase this was. The strange power formed by the breakthrough points seemed to be endless as they flowed in unceasingly.

The blood essence power in Zhu Wuyang's body became stronger and purer, and the tempering of his skin became more and more powerful.

The Body Tempering realm mainly cultivated the power of blood essence. The stronger the power of blood essence, the greater the benefits it could bring to martial artists.

When Zhu Wuyang circulated his blood essence power and a dark brown light flickered around him, he had already stepped into the Late-stage of the Skin Tempering Realm and was about to break through the bottleneck of Perfection.

The power gained from his three breaths was simply unimaginable.

Zhu Wuyang would never have thought that one day he would benefit so much from just taking three breaths.

Does it have to feel so good!

Half an hour later, Zhu Wuyang had completed the Skin Refinement Realm. Once he condensed his blood essence power on his skin, it would turn black and flicker with a dark light. Its defense was simply terrifying.

Perhaps it was because of his flawless Dao base and the fact that Zhu Wuyang cultivated the peerless body tempering technique, the Grand Earth Limitless Technique, that Zhu Wuyang's defense was at least ten times that of ordinary martial artists.

Such defense had already far surpassed that of martial artists who also cultivated the Grand Earth Limitless Technique. The two of them were not on the same level at all. This was also one of the huge benefits of having a flawless Dao foundation.

Zhu Wuyang had never thought that one day, his skin would become so hard and flexible. If it were on Earth, even an ordinary pistol would not be able to break through his skin. It could be imagined how tough Zhu Wuyang's skin was.

However, the strange power transformed from the breakthrough points had not been used up yet, so Zhu Wuyang's strength was still advancing rapidly.

The next realm after Skin Refinement was Fleshly Body Refinement. As the name implied, it mainly tempered the muscles.

The pure blood essence power was like threads that constantly shuttled into every muscle, tempering and hammering these muscles, making them stronger.

His muscles, which had been irregular, became symmetrical and firm under the pounding of his Qi and blood. Each piece was perfect and seemed to be filled with rhythm.

Well-muscled, not skinny, not fat!

This was an important sign of early-stage Flesh Refinement. In other words, in a short period of time, Zhu Wuyang had broken through from Skin Refinement Perfection to Early-stage Fleshly Body Refinement. Every move he made had more than 1,000 catties of strength, far surpassing martial artists of the same level.

Although Zhu Wuyang was also a fitness enthusiast on Earth, the muscles he had trained were far from perfect. They were only visibly bulky. Compared to his current muscles, they were simply worlds apart.

Just based on this alone, Zhu Wuyang felt that this transmigration was worth it.

But did I really transmigrate? That mechanical voice wasn't lying, was it?

And what was this thing that kept supplying him with the strange powers?

Most importantly, where had he transmigrated to? What was his new identity now?

"Congratulations to the host for asking a question for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points. In view of the importance of strength, 90% of the breakthrough points will be used to increase the host's strength realm!"

"Congratulations to the host for asking a question for the second time in your life. You have obtained 200 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for asking a question for the third time in your life. You have received 100 breakthrough points..."

Before he could receive an answer, Zhu Wuyang heard the strange and mechanical voice again. Another wave of breakthrough points arrived, forcing Zhu Wuyang to focus on absorbing and improving again.

The Grand Earth Limitless Technique circulated, condensing the strange power into pure blood essence. Wisps of it seeped into his muscles, either hammering, tempering, or nourishing them... It increased Zhu Wuyang's muscle density at an extremely fast speed.

By the time all the breakthrough points were exhausted, Zhu Wuyang's strength had already broken through to the Mid-stage Fleshly Body Refinement Realm.

His muscles became extremely full, and he could easily exert 1,000 to 2,000 catties of strength. If he was on Earth, he would be a superhuman.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyang's muscles were well-proportioned and aesthetic. They did not seem cumbersome at all and were filled with the masculine beauty of a man.

When he was on Earth, Zhu Wuyang had never hoped that he would one day have such good looking muscles. To be honest, with these muscles, even if he was ugly, he did not have to worry about lacking a girlfriend.

When this wave of breakthrough points was used up, the answers to some questions appeared in Zhu Wuyang's mind.

It turned out that he had really transmigrated. Furthermore, he had transmigrated with his soul. His body had already been destroyed by lightning. At the same time, during his journey through the transmigration, he had accidentally fused with a strange item formed from a collision between universes. This strange item was called...

Extraordinary Encounters System!

As the name suggested, this System could allow its host to obtain various breakthrough points based on some special encounters.

As for the number of breakthrough points obtained, it would be assessed by the influence of the fortuitous encounter, the depth of the memory left behind on the host, and the level of uniqueness, allowing the host to obtain different numbers of breakthrough points.

For example, the first breath, the first question... These were all special encounters. However, Zhu Wuyang was already 20 to 30 years old on Earth, and this body was not young after he transmigrated. Before this, he had also breathed and asked questions. Why were the breaths and questions just now counted as the first, second, and third time?

3 Prince Jiu Zhao

"All special encounters start from the moment the host merges with the Extraordinary Encounters System! It's considered the host's rebirth!"

When this question appeared in Zhu Wuyang's mind, the Extraordinary Encounters System gave an answer at the right time. Only then did Zhu Wuyang understand what was going on.

It turned out that all the special encounters in the Extraordinary Encounters System started from the moment Zhu Wuyang fused with the System, not from the moment Zhu Wuyang was born.

If that was the case, it was no wonder Zhu Wuyang had his first breath and first questions counted...

After understanding the reason for his rapid advancement, Zhu Wuyang thought of a third question.

Which was where he had transmigrated to and what his current identity was!

At the thought of this, some memories of the previous owner of this body surfaced in Zhu Wuyang's mind, and they were the most profound memories.

When the memories surfaced, Zhu Wuyang could not help but open his eyes in shock. "Prince Jiu Zhao, I'm actually Prince Jiu Zhao!"

"Congratulations to the host for recalling the past for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 90% of the breakthrough points will be used to increase the host's strength!"

"Congratulations to the host for opening your eyes for the first time. You have received 300 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for seeing this world for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for lying in bed for the first time in your life. You have received 100 breakthrough points..."

Before Zhu Wuyang could think carefully about his identity as Crown Prince Jiu Zhao, an even greater sense of worry surged in his heart. He was once again surrounded by an overwhelming number of breakthrough points.

The strange power surged over again, causing Zhu Wuyang's strength to soar rapidly.

Under the effect of the Grand Earth Limitless Technique, this strange power transformed into pure and powerful blood essence power. It seeped into Zhu Wuyang's muscles like threads and continuously hammered and tempered them.

During the process of hammering and tempering, it was inevitable that there would be some damage. At this moment, the power of the blood and Qi played a nourishing and recovery role, causing Zhu Wuyang's muscles to become harder and more flexible in the cycle of destruction and rebirth.

Eight abdominal muscles appeared one by one. Every one of them was extremely full, and the lines were smooth and beautiful, like the most exquisite artwork.

Coupled with Zhu Wuyang's handsome face, it was enough to charm thousands of girls.

Unfortunately, Zhu Wuyang was no longer on Earth. Otherwise, with his looks and figure, even without any talent, he would probably be able to become an A-list celebrity.

This was also one of the benefits that transmigration had brought to Zhu Wuyang. Although Zhu Wuyang was not ugly on Earth, he was not very good-looking either. At most, he could only be considered to have passable looks.

If not for the fact that he exercised often and had a fit body, he probably wouldn't even have passable looks.

Comparing his current body to the one on Earth, Zhu Wuyang's current looks was worlds apart.

Late-stage Fleshly Body Refinement!

Soon, under the effect of the strange powers, Zhu Wuyang's strength successfully broke through to the Late-stage of the Fleshly Body Refinement Realm. His overall strength increased further, and he could exert more than 2,000 catties of strength with every move.

With such strength, even ordinary martial artists at the Golden Bones Realm would probably not be able to match him. It could be imagined how strong Zhu Wuyang's current cultivation foundation was.

Zhu Wuyang had never thought that he would one day possess such great strength. If he was on Earth, he would definitely be a superman.

Just based on this alone, this transmigration was worth it.

However, why did he feel that it was not good to continue upgrading like this? An unprecedented worry lingered in his heart, but he did not know what he was worried about.

After all, the breakthrough points came too fiercely, forcing Zhu Wuyang to be immersed in cultivation to prevent herself from going berserk.

Zhu Wuyang had transmigrated here and was not that compatible with the original owner's body, so he had no choice but to focus more deeply. He did not even have the time to immerse himself in the memories.

After digesting this wave of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang started to recall the memories again.

"Before the Prince Jiu Zhao, there were 17 other Crown Princes in the Jiu Zhao Nation!"

"And these 17 Crown Princes had all been killed already!"

"Zhu Wuyang is the 168th Prince and the 18th Crown Prince!"

As he viewed the memories, Zhu Wuyang's body suddenly trembled.

"Congratulations to the host for recalling the past for the second time in your life. You have obtained 200 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 90% of the breakthrough points will be used to increase the host's strength!"

"Congratulations to the host for feeling afraid for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for trembling for the first time in your life. You have obtained 200 breakthrough points..."

Zhu Wuyang wanted to say something, but he was drowned by the surging strange power again.

Under the effect of this strange power, the muscles in Zhu Wuyang's entire body continued to improve. Moreover, the blood essence power in his muscles began to connect and interweave, forming a whole.

This was integrating all the muscles in the entire body. The more muscles were integrated, the stronger the strength a martial artist could contain, and naturally, they could erupt with even stronger strength.

When all the muscles in his body were connected, every move of a martial artist could gather the strength of all the muscles in his body and erupt with terrifying attack power and lethality.

Before this, Zhu Wuyang could only exert a strength of more than 2,000 catties at most. After all the muscles in his body were cleared, the strength that Zhu Wuyang could unleash was shockingly close to 4,000 catties. The increase was astonishing.

As the pure Qi and blood essence surged, more and more muscles were connected together. Zhu Wuyang could clearly feel the integration of his muscles.

This was what Zhu Wuyang had dreamed of obtaining on Earth. As an Earthling youth who was fanatical with fitness, Zhu Wuyang's only interest was to increase his physical fitness and have stronger power, faster speed, and stronger survival abilities.

Unfortunately, after training on Earth for so many years, Zhu Wuyang's physical fitness was only slightly stronger than that of ordinary people. Not to mention lifting 4,000 catties, being able to lift 300 catties was already an outburst of potential.

However, what stunned Zhu Wuyang was that as his strength increased, the inexplicable worry in his heart became heavier.

However, because he had not viewed enough memories, Zhu Wuyang did not know what he was worried about.
