Chapter 101 - 101: Walking Out of the Room (1)

Chapter 101: Walking Out of the Room (1)

As the emperor of the Nine Zhao Country, Crazy Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was not only invincible, but he was also surrounded by many experts.

It was said that around Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, there were several peerless high school peak Xiantian experts secretly protecting him at all times, and there were also a few people from other races hiding beside him.

Furthermore, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu lived in the Palace of Heavenly Purity, which was filled with arrays and traps. It was precisely because of this that many princes and princesses, concubines, and even important officials had tried to assassinate Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu over the years, but they all failed.

If not for this, the princes and princesses in the palace would not have become like this. They all rejoiced in the weak and grieved in the strong. In just a few decades, more than a hundred princes and princesses and more than three hundred concubines had been killed by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

As for the nobles and ministers who had died, nearly 500 of them had died. One could imagine how brutal Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was.

Crazy Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's actions naturally aroused the hatred of countless people. It might be a bit exaggerated to say that he was the enemy of the entire world, but in the Nine Zhao Country, there were at least 100,000 experts who wanted him dead.

To be able to survive under the watchful eyes of so many enemies, one could imagine how strong Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's defensive measures were.

Even if Zhu Wuyan's strength was already invincible, it was still difficult to kill Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. Therefore, after some consideration, Zhu Wuyan decided to hide his strength and continue to increase his strength. He would look for a suitable opportunity to deal with Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

However, Zhu Wanhao's current strength had already reached the peak of the Connate Realm. According to the current speed of improvement, it would not be long before she reached the limit of the Connate Realm.

At that time, if he obtained another breakthrough point, he did not know how much the Special Encounter System would increase them.

On the path of martial arts cultivation, the Connate Realm was already the limit. There was no way ahead, so how could he break through the Connate Realm and step into a higher realm?

The martial artists of the Dongyuan Continent had cultivated martial arts for millions of years, but they were still unable to explore the realm above the Connate Realm. Could the Special Encounter System help Zhu Wuyang break through the limits of the Connate Realm since ancient times and advance to a higher realm?

Zhu Wuvanz didn't know, but she was looking forward to it.

Feeling the surging power in his body, Zhu Wuwan smiled slightly and entered the secret cultivation room. He began to cultivate the Illusion God Steps and at the same time, adapt to his strength that had increased by several times.

The Illusion God Steps, which had already been cultivated to the great success realm, made almost no sound when it was activated. In the huge training room, only illusions flickered, and Zhu Wuyang's true body could not be seen at all.

This peerless movement technique was only half a step away from perfection. After considering it for a moment, Zhu Wuwan added a portion of the breakthrough points to it and prepared to cultivate the Illusion God Steps to perfection today.

With the addition of the breakthrough points, the already astonishing progress of the Illusion God Steps soared at a rapid speed. Very soon, it broke through a bottleneck and stepped into the Perfection Realm.

With every move, there were thirty-six phantoms accompanying him, making it impossible to tell which was the phantom and which was the real one.

A peerless movement technique at the Perfection Realm was almost comparable to a Mythical Level movement technique at the Mastery Realm. In the entire Nine Zhao Country, there were not many people who could cultivate a peerless movement technique to the Perfection Realm, let alone a movement technique like the Illusion God Steps, which was also one of the top peerless movement techniques.

To put it bluntly, with Zhu Wuyang's current Illusion God Steps, no other martial artist in the pugilistic world could capture Zhu Wuyang's tracks, not even Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

Zhu Wuyan's ability to protect himself had probably already surpassed Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

In this way, Zhu Wuyang was finally at ease. At this moment, even if he was trapped in the Palace of Heavenly Purity, Zhu Wuyang could still escape successfully.

In that case, it was time to step out of the bedroom and change his lifestyle.

With that thought in mind, Zhu Wuyan pushed open the door to the bedroom.

What greeted her eyes was an antique garden.

“Congratulations to the host for seeing a garden for the first time in your life.

You have obtained 10000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for seeing a peony for the first time in his life. You have obtained 10000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for seeing the Qingling Flower for the first time in his life. You have obtained 10000 breakthrough points...”

The spamming notifications kept ringing out, and in the blink of an eye, Zhu Wuwan had gained nearly a million breakthrough points. As her strength and realm increased, Zhu Wuwan’s status also increased. Therefore, although it was the same person who did the same thing as before, he could obtain more breakthrough points.

” Congratulations to the host for walking out of the bedroom for the first time in your life. You have received 10,000,000 breakthrough points...”

He had been hiding for a long time, sharpening his claws and teeth. He had been suppressed in his bedroom for more than a month. Today, he finally dared to walk out of his room.

This action also meant that Zhu Wuyang had gotten rid of the role of a fish on the chopping board and was qualified to become a flag bearer. When calculating the big chess game of the Nine Zhao Kingdom, she naturally obtained a considerable breakthrough point.

Zhu Wuwan stood on the spot and silently circulated the Vast Sea Essence Opus. He absorbed this large wave of breakthrough points at an extremely fast speed, further increasing his own strength.

In just a few dozen breaths, so many breakthrough points had been absorbed by Zhu Wuyang without anyone noticing. At this time, the surrounding guards, eunuchs, and palace maids also noticed Zhu Wuyang walking out of the bedroom, and they were all a little surprised.

“Your Highness, why did you come out?”

‘ Has the meridian in the Crown Prince’s leg recovered? Is it alright to come out like this? ‘

Faced with these people’s doubts, Zhu Wuyang was not even in the mood to explain. She casually waved her hand and slowly walked into the Crown Prince’s Palace. This was also the first time Zhu Wuyang had enjoyed the scenery of the Crown Prince’s Palace since she transmigrated.

Along the way, they saw many new sights. There were strange flowers and plants that they had never seen before, ancient buildings that they had only heard of, and special facilities in the open-air martial arts field...Every time he saw something, it naturally gave Zhu Wuyang a certain amount of breakthrough points.

Zhu Wuwan silently absorbed all these breakthrough points and increased her strength bit by bit, constantly soaring toward the limit of the Inborn Realm.

The Crown Prince’s Palace had an extremely beautiful scenery. There were gardens and rockery everywhere. The remaining dozens of palace maids and courtesans were shuttling back and forth in the palace. When they saw Zhu Wuyang actually walk out of the bedroom, they all smiled and greeted him, wanting him to play with them.

Zhu Wuan waved his hand to reject them and told them to play again in the future. He was prepared to go out for a walk after seeing the Crown Prince’s Palace.

Within the Imperial Palace, opportunities were everywhere. How could Zhu Wuyan miss them?

Now that the restrictions had been lifted, Zhu Wuwan would do her best to earn breakthrough points and never let go of any opportunity to obtain breakthrough points.

The suppression in the past was not all for today’s wanton behavior. Then, like a dragon in the four seas, no one could stop it.

At this moment, Zhu Wanhao was actually a little grateful to herself for trying her best to suppress her strength.. After all, if not for that, how could she have benefited from a disaster like this?

Chapter 102: You Don’t Know How Strong I Am (1)

” Congratulations to the host for walking out of the Crown Prince Palace for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100,000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for seeing the Ci ‘an Palace for the first time in his life. You have obtained 200,000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for seeing the Palace of Heavenly Purity for the first time in his life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points ...”

Along the way, as long as he saw a slightly different place or experienced a slightly different thing, he would obtain the corresponding breakthrough point. The system notification sounded continuously, and the sound was pleasant to the ear. It was no longer like the demonic sound from before.

In the end, the situation was different, so his mentality was different.

Along the way, quite a few palace maids, eunuchs, and guards saw Zhu Wuan, the “completely crippled” Crown Prince, and were rather surprised for a moment. Their low voices rang out in the surroundings.

These people thought that Zhu Wuyang, who was in the Body Tempering stage, could not hear them. However, they did not know that Zhu Wuyang had already broken through to the Connate perfection stage and could hear their voices clearly.

“Isn’t that the good-for-nothing Crown Prince, Zhu Wuyan? Why did he come out of the Crown Prince Palace? This is the first time I’ve seen him in over a month. It’s really strange.

“I thought he wouldn’t dare to go out anymore. Now, Zhu Wuyan has become the laughing stock of our Jiu Zhao Country. The entire Southern Wasteland is watching us as a joke. I didn’t expect Zhu Wuyan to still have the face to come out.

“Eunuch, useless, useless, cowardly...Our new Crown Prince is really the best among the best. Even in the outside world, he can’t even be considered an above average talent. I didn’t expect him to actually become the Crown Prince.”

‘Zhu Wuan won’t be able to hold the position of Crown Prince for long. At the fastest, it’ll be a month. At the slowest, it’ll be three months. His Majesty will remove him from his position.

The laughter was loud and clear, but they were all laughing at the “top-grade crown prince,” Zhu Wuwan. Even the ordinary guards, palace maids, and eunuchs had such an attitude, let alone the princes, princesses, and concubines.

Zhu Wuan, the crown prince of Jiu Zhao Country, had already become a wonder in the palace.

Zhu Wuyang didn’t care about this at all. He just enjoyed the scenery in the palace on the ground and earned wave after wave of breakthrough points. Although the number of breakthrough points in each wave wasn’t much, it was still a large number when accumulated.

These ordinary guards, palace maids, and the like were like ants to Zhu Wuyang at this moment. Zhu Wuyang couldn't possibly lower herself to their level, right? Spending time and energy on them as part-timers was a waste of time.

Moreover, when Zhu Wuyang overturned the rule of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu and ascended to the supreme position of the Nine Zhao Nation, none of those who had mocked him in the past could escape punishment. Even if Zhu Wuyang did not make a move, he would not pay attention to this matter.

The imperial palace of the Nine Zhao Nation occupied an area of dozens of miles, comparable to some of the larger county cities on Earth. The scenery inside was extremely beautiful. There were forests, gardens, lakes, and small mountains ... It was like a paradise on earth.

Outside the Imperial Palace was the capital, Moon Capital. It housed over a million people and had an area of several hundred miles.

As the number one city in the Nine Zhao Nation, the Moon Capital's name shook the Southern Wasteland.

Looking at flowers, smelling flowers, picking flowers, catching fish, killing fish, eating fish ... Every move he made was rewarded with a breakthrough point. Zhu Wuwan wandered around the palace to her heart's content and did many things that she had never done before.

There were always cold words around him. It was really wonderful!

This trip to the palace had brought Zhu Wuwan more than ten million breakthrough points. Zhu Wuwan had quietly absorbed all of them along the way, taking one step closer to the limit of the Innate Realm.

In the end, Zhu Wuyang stopped at the side of Wen Lake in the palace. He walked along the small bridge over Wen Lake to the royal library in the middle of the lake.

The Imperial Library Pavilion was located in the middle of Wen Lake. It had four floors, and each floor had an area of several hundred thousand square meters. It was filled with all kinds of ancient books.

The first level corresponded to the various ancient cultivation techniques of the Body Tempering stage, and there were also some miscellaneous books that were similar to the Body Tempering stage. The second floor corresponded to the various ancient cultivation techniques of the Vein Building stage, mixed with some books that were of similar value to the Vein Building stage cultivation techniques.

The third level corresponded to Xiantian cultivation techniques and ancient books, as well as some more precious miscellaneous books and books.

As for the fourth floor, it was said that it contained the only three legendary martial arts of the Zhu royal family, as well as books that were comparable in value to legendary martial arts.

With Zhu Wuan's identity as the Crown Prince of the Nine Zhao Nation, he had the right to enter the first three levels of the Imperial Library Pavilion at will. Only the last level was not accessible to Zhu Wuan.

However, there were more than ten million books in the first three levels. It was enough for Zhu Wuyang to read for a long time and earn an astonishing breakthrough point.

Zhu Wuyang stepped on the wooden bridge made of red sandalwood and slowly walked toward the royal library.

"Congratulations to the host for seeing the Nine Zhao Kingdom's Royal Library Pavilion for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for entering the Imperial Library of the Nine Zhao Nation for the first time in your life. You have obtained one million breakthrough points..."

A group of early Connate imperial guards standing guard at the door saw Zhu Wuyang and bowed to him one after another, respectfully sending him into the royal library.

No matter how much these imperial guards looked down on Zhu Wuyan, it did not change Zhu Wuyan's identity as the crown prince of Jiuzhao. Naturally, he had to follow the rules of the palace.

The first level of the Imperial Library had the most books. It was said that there were more than ten million books. Most people were qualified to enter this place. Zhu Wuwan saw many princes and princesses, as well as the children of some favorite ministers, reading books here.

When they saw that Zhu Wuyang had arrived, these people were also slightly surprised.

'Why is Zhu Wuyang here? Isn't this guy a cripple? Why is he here?'

"Who said that a cripple can't come here? Maybe Zhu Wuyang is just pretending.

'Hehe, don't joke around. Even Father's top imperial physicians have personally examined him. How could Zhu Wuyang escape the sharp eyes of these imperial physicians?'

” Who cares what he’s doing? There’s no need to pay attention to this kind of trash. Let’s just read.

Zhu Wuan ignored these people and walked straight to the third level of the Imperial Library Pavilion. It was also the highest level that he could reach with his current authority.

It was said that in the entire Nine Zhao Nation, only the Emperor and the Crown Prince could freely enter and exit the third level of the Imperial Library Pavilion. There were no more than ten of them.

If he waited until Zhu Wuan was stripped of his position as Crown Prince, then he would no longer have the right to enter the third level of the Imperial Library Pavilion. Therefore, while he still had authority, Zhu Wuan naturally wanted to come in and take a good look.

Most importantly, although there were fewer books on the third level of the Imperial Library Pavilion, each of them was quite precious. From these books, Zhu Wuwan could obtain a large number of breakthrough points.

If he was lucky, he might even be able to find one or two martial arts secret techniques that he needed..

Chapter 103: Terrifying Comprehension Realm (1)

” What’s Zhu Wuwan doing? He’s just a Body Tempering Stage martial artist.

What can he do after entering the third level of the library pavilion? ”

” Who knows what he’s doing here? As long as he has the authority to do so, it’s fine as long as he doesn’t destroy the books here. We just need to focus on cultivating and guarding the library. ‘

“I heard that this little fellow is going to be crippled. How pitiful. He should have only been the Crown Prince for a few days, but in the end, he’s going to be replaced again.”

” I didn’t expect that our Jiu Zhao Country would have a eunuch crown prince. Zhu Zhenwu is getting crazier and crazier. If I wasn’t unable to defeat him, I would have taught him a lesson. I’ll go and ask this little guy what he’s doing later.

From somewhere in the library, an almost imperceptible whisper came. It was the great Xiantian experts who were hidden here and responsible for guarding the library. Among them, there was no lack of peak Xiantian experts and peerless experts.

When they saw Zhu Wuwan seemingly flipping through the various books and cultivation techniques on the third level of the library pavilion, the bored experts guarding the library pavilion could not help but shake their heads.

"What can a Body Tempering Stage martial artist understand? He's actually flipping through the books. This guy must be joking.

"Not to mention a Body Tempering stage martial artist, even a Xiantian stage martial artist wouldn't be able to understand anything if he were to read like this. I don't know what he's flipping through."

"Maybe he's looking for a special opportunity. Some folk novels often write about strange things, such as a peerless martial art hidden in the middle of a book."

"Haha, you're trying to make me laugh to death so that you can inherit my seventeen concubines, aren't you? Those that can be placed on the third level of the royal library are all top-notch martial arts and peerless martial arts. You still need to find peerless martial arts among these peerless martial arts? What a joke."

These Xiantian experts who had been guarding the Imperial Library Pavilion all year round and had a rather boring life thought that the library Pavilion was protected by layers of array formations. Their strength was far greater than Zhu Wuyang's, so Zhu Wuyang should not be able to hear anything.

However, they didn't know that Zhu Wuwan, who had already cultivated to the peak of the Connate Realm and whose overall strength was far superior to theirs, had heard them clearly. In their eyes, Zhu Wuwan was just a weak little fellow, but in Zhu Wuwan's eyes, they were also weak old fellows.

However, just as these old fellows had said, the Imperial Family's Library Pavilion was indeed worthy of its name. Putting aside the first level's Body Tempering Stage and the second level's Vein Forming Stage cultivation techniques, Zhu Wuwan had yet to go through them in detail.

However, on the third floor, there were nearly a thousand top-notch martial arts and secret techniques. Among them, the number of peerless martial arts and secret techniques reached three digits.

Many of these peerless martial arts and secret techniques could make people in the martial arts world fight to the death. Any one of them was enough to make a martial arts family.

However, in the royal library, they were placed messily, allowing Zhu Wuwan to flip through them.

This was the convenience of the imperial family, and also the advantage of the imperial family. It was far beyond the imagination of ordinary martial artists.

In the eyes of the old guys guarding the library, Zhu Wuan was just playing the lute. He could not understand anything and could not learn anything. Little did he know that in Zhu Wuan's mind, the system notification had already flooded in like a tide.

"Congratulations to the host for reading the top-tier martial arts, Mad Wand Technique, for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100,000 breakthrough points...

"Congratulations to the host for comprehending the top-tier martial art, Mad Wand Technique, for the first time in your life. You have received 300,000 breakthrough points...

"Congratulations to the host for reading the Yin Yang Scripture for the first time in his life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points...

With Zhu Wuan's comprehension and aptitude, these top and peerless martial arts were not difficult for him. He could memorize them after casually flipping through them and comprehend them thoroughly after a little bit of comprehension.

However, at this moment, Zhu Wuwan was mainly reading and memorizing. After she memorized all these top-notch martial arts and peerless martial arts, she would slowly comprehend them later.

Zhu Wuwan might not necessarily cultivate these top-notch martial arts and peerless martial arts, but she could comprehend them and integrate them into the martial arts and secret arts she had mastered to increase the power of these martial arts and secret arts.

There were very few ancient books on the third level of the Imperial Library Pavilion. There were only about 3,000 books, but each book was an extremely precious treasure. On average, each book could bring Zhu Wuwan more than 100,000 breakthrough points.

In other words, as long as Zhu Wuwan could read through all the books on the third level of the Imperial Library Pavilion and memorize them, she would be able to obtain hundreds of millions of breakthrough points.

With so many breakthrough points, it was completely enough for Zhu Wuyang to advance to the limit of the Innate Realm. There was even a certain possibility that she would surpass the limit.

Moreover, as he flipped through more and more ancient books, Zhu Wuyang suddenly discovered that many of the ancient books were interlinked. Even if he had not had the time to comprehend some of the ancient books, he had already naturally comprehended them.

Zhu Wuyang's innate divine and photographic memory talent allowed her to read and memorize these ancient books as if she had the help of the gods. In the eyes of the surrounding guardians of the library pavilion, Zhu Wuyang was just flipping through the books randomly. However, they did not know that Zhu Wuyang had already memorized the entire ancient book just by flipping through it once.

In just a few hours, Zhu Wuwan had memorized more than 200 books and obtained about 30 million breakthrough points. He had also comprehended dozens of books along the way. His harvest was not bad.

Moreover, among the dozens of books that Zhu Wuwan had comprehended, three or four of them were about fist techniques. After comprehending these three or four books, Zhu Wuwan faintly sensed that they had a certain degree of compatibility with the Nine Dragon Fist.

When Zhu Wuyang integrated the essence of these fist techniques into the Nine Dragon Fist, the power of his Nine Dragon Fist would definitely increase by a large margin. Moreover, it would also have a significant effect on the improvement and breakthrough of the Nine Dragon Fist.

Just comprehending a few fist technique manuals had already brought Zhu Wuyang such great benefits. When Zhu Wuyang comprehended more fist technique manuals in the future, it would definitely bring even greater benefits to Zhu Wuyang. It might even help Zhu Wuyang transform the Nine Dragon Fist into a mythical-level martial art. It was not impossible.

It was just like the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Technique.

After being comprehended and fused by Zhu Wuyang, it transformed into a Mythical Secret Technique and helped Zhu Wuyang successfully survive several life-and-death crises.

There was also the Illusion God Steps and the Sword Drawing Technique. There were many peerless movement techniques and saber techniques in the royal library. If he could fully comprehend and fuse them, he might be able to transform the Illusion God Steps and the Sword Drawing Technique into mythical-level secret martial arts.

Those fellows who mocked Zhu Wuyang for not being able to understand the books here did not know that in Zhu Wuyang's eyes, they were not even considered idiots.

Not only could Zhu Wuyang easily comprehend these books, but he could also extract their essence and integrate it into the martial arts and secret techniques he had mastered. It was not so exaggerated that he could surpass his master.

Zhu Wuan's attainments in this aspect had already surpassed the limits of their imaginations, reaching a terrifying level that left them flabbergasted..

Chapter 104: Who Is the Peak at the End of Martial Arts (1)

"Your Highness, what are you doing?"

Perhaps it was because Zhu Wuyang was too happy flipping through the book, a late-stage Connate expert who was hiding in the dark finally couldn't help but walk out and approach Zhu Wuyang to ask.

Zhu Wuan turned his head and saw that the late-stage Connate expert in front of him was one of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's younger brothers. Zhu Wuan should have called him uncle."Greetings, Imperial Uncle. I'm looking for a way to cure my illness."

"The method to cure it?" Imperial Uncle was stunned.

Zhu Wuan nodded. "There's something wrong with my body, but the imperial physicians in the palace and the so-called divine doctors among the people can't cure it. I heard that the Imperial Library of our Nine Zhao Country is the place with the richest collection of books in the world, so I wanted to look around here to see if there's a way to cure it.

"I see." Imperial Uncle suddenly realized that it was no wonder Zhu Wuyang flipped through the book so quickly. It turned out that she wanted to find a way to treat the "root problem".

He had heard about Zhu Wuan's situation. After all, this matter was currently one of the most popular events in the Nine Zhao Nation. It had even made the Nine Zhao Nation a laughing stock in the Southern Wasteland. Many princes and princesses who had entered the royal library would talk about it.

Therefore, even though they had been guarding the Imperial Library Pavilion for a long time and basically did not go out much, they still learned about this matter.

After understanding Zhu Wuan's purpose, the imperial uncle no longer had any doubts. He left with a smile. The hidden experts around him also laughed involuntarily.

"No wonder Zhu Wuan suddenly came to the third floor of the Imperial Library Pavilion to read through the books. So it was for this purpose. I thought he was going to study hard on a whim. '

‘ Hehe, with Zhu Wuyan’s talent and aptitude, it’s a waste of time to learn. He can’t be patient either. He was originally destined to be a Prince of Peace. He basically has no future in this life. ‘

‘ Prince Taiping is already not bad. At least he doesn’t have to worry about food and drink and enjoys wealth. He’s better than those talented kids who were killed in the end. ‘

‘ That’s hard to say. Zhu Wuyang has made the Zhu royal family the laughing stock of the world. Even if His Majesty were to abolish his position as the crown prince and spare his life, he would not have an easy time in the future.

After dispelling the suspicions of these experts hiding in the dark, Zhu Wuwan flipped through the books more casually. It seemed like she was flipping through the books randomly, but in fact, everything she had read was deeply engraved in her mind.

However, at a certain moment, Zhu Wuyang’s action of flipping through the book suddenly stopped. At this moment, in his hand was a travel journal.

Travels of Encountering Immortals!

This was the name of the miscellany. It was placed on the third floor of the royal library. In other words, the value of this miscellany was not inferior to those top-notch martial arts and peerless secret techniques.

Just looking at the name, Zhu Wuwan’s expression changed slightly. Could it be that there were immortals in this world?

If this travel journal was in a small stall among the people, Zhu Wuyang would only treat it as nonsense. But now, this travel journal was placed on the third floor of the Royal Library Pavilion. This was worth discussing.

Zhu Wuwan’s movements slowed down. As she flipped through the pages of the ancient books, Zhu Wuwan’s expression began to change.

The author of this book was a peerless expert at the peak of the Connate Realm. His strength had already reached the limit of the Connate Realm. It could be said that there was no way ahead.

However, this peerless expert who was at the peak of the Connate Realm was a martial arts fanatic. He had been pursuing higher martial arts for a long time. After not making any progress for a long time, he began to wander around the entire Southern Wasteland in search of a way to break through his limits.

Hard work paid off. After a few decades, this peerless expert at the peak of the Xiantian realm really found an opportunity to advance to the next level, and that was the immortal path.

At the end of the martial path, who was the peak? It was difficult to open the door to the immortal path!

Ever since he accidentally learned that there was an Immortal Dao in the world, this peerless expert had used all his strength to pursue the traces of the Immortal Dao. In the end, he really found some clues.

In a deep forest, this peerless expert actually met a strange person who could summon the wind and rain. However, before he could approach the other party, the person had already left.

In the decades that followed, this peerless expert had even seen strange people who could fly and use the Art of Thunder from afar...Regretfully, he missed out on her every time and finally died of depression.

However, before he died, this peerless expert left behind this book.

When he finished reading the book, Zhu Wuwan was speechless for a long time. Her mind was in a mess, and she wondered if there really was an immortal path in martial arts.

The Dongyuan Continent was not a world where martial arts were respected, but a fantasy world where the immortal path competed, or a world of xianxia?

Previously, Zhu Wuwan was still worried about what the Special Encounter System would increase his breakthrough point to after he advanced to the peak of the Innate Realm.

Now that he had read this book, Zhu Wuwan had some speculations in his heart.

However, speculation was just speculation. The most important thing now was to confirm this matter and see if he could find a further method in the ancient books.

In this way, when Zhu Wuwan reached the limit of the Innate Realm, there would be a possibility for him to advance further. Otherwise, even if he was forcefully fed with breakthrough points, these breakthrough points would still be lost, wasting a large number of breakthrough points in vain.

After all, when one's strength reached its peak, Zhu Wuwan could only expel the strange power that he could not absorb from his body to prevent himself from exploding and dying.

Moreover, since he was able to find the Travels of an Immortal on the third floor of the Imperial Library Pavilion, he might be able to find more clues and books.

If the third level didn't have it, perhaps he could think of a way to enter the fourth level and see if there was a way to lead to the immortal path.

With Zhu Wuyan's talent and comprehension, as long as there was a rough guide, Zhu Wuyan might be able to deduce the corresponding ancient books and smoothly transcend the limits and step into a higher level.

At the thought of this, Zhu Wuwan became slightly excited. Martial arts were indeed powerful, but it was still not worth mentioning when compared to the immortal path.

Even if one cultivated martial arts to the end, they would only have a lifespan of about 150 years at most. Although they had a few decades more lifespan than the people on Earth, who would complain that their lifespan was too long?

Having tasted the feeling of possessing power, how could Zhu Wuyang not want to possess even greater power?

At the thought of this, Zhu Wuwan's motivation to flip through the books grew even greater. The books flowed through Zhu Wuwan's hands like flowing water. Every word and sentence was engraved in the depths of Zhu Wuwan's mind, never to be forgotten again.

Zhu Wuyang, who had a photographic memory, would not follow the law of forgetting at all. His brain was different from ordinary people. He only needed to remember once and would never forget it for the rest of his life..

Chapter 105: Fist Can Suppress the World (1)

When it was close to evening, Zhu Wuyang left the royal library and headed back to the Crown Prince's Palace.

As he was walking, he saw a few palace maids playing by the lake nearby.

These palace maids were all extremely beautiful. If they were on Earth, each of them would be a peerless beauty who could score more than 95 points. Especially one of the palace maids with a small round face. Her appearance was even more outstanding. It was likely that she was close to 100 points.

What moved Zhu Wuwan was that this round-faced palace maid looked a little like the celebrity surnamed Zhao that he especially liked on Earth, but she was more than ten times prettier than the celebrity surnamed Zhao.

Whether it was her skin, figure, or appearance ... They were both far more powerful than the celebrity Zhao, but they looked a little similar to her.

Zhu Wuan's heart skipped a beat. She walked over to the few playful palace maids and said, "What are you guys doing?"

"Your Highness, please forgive us. We're done with our business, so we'll rest here for a while.

"Your Highness, we were wrong. Please forgive us."

"Your Highness, we know we were wrong."

Even though he was a "useless eunuch" Crown Prince, Zhu Wuyan's status was enough to make these little palace maids look up to him. They were all frightened and trembled, kneeling on the ground and not daring to make a sound.

Zhu Wuan waved his hand and looked at the little palace maid who looked like celebrity Zhao. "Get up. What's your name?"

"I ... This servant...This servant is called Yingying." The sweet and cute little palace maid said timidly.

"Yingying..." Zhu Wuyang was stunned. Her name was similar to that celebrity Zhao. After thinking for a moment, Zhu Wuyang smiled and held her hand."This name sounds good. Why don't you call yourself Zhao Yingying from now on? Come back to the Crown Prince Palace with me tonight."

"Ah..." Yingying was stunned when she heard what Zhu Wuyang said. She stood rooted to the spot.

"You're not willing?" Zhu Wuwan frowned slightly.

"No, no, no. No..." Zhao Yingying quickly knelt down. "Yes, Your Highness.

Thank you for your appreciation. Thank you for giving me your surname. '

Most of the palace maids in the Nine Zhao Imperial Palace did not have surnames. Only a few people were qualified to give them surnames, including the Crown Prince.

Zhu Wuyan nodded and led Zhao Yingying to the Crown Prince Palace. It was time to enjoy the pleasures of the world again tonight.

Seeing Zhu Wuyang and Zhao Yingying walk away, the other palace maids dared to stand up. They looked at Zhao Yingying with jealousy and envy.

“Yingying is really lucky to have been chosen by the Crown Prince and given a surname on the spot. We have stayed in the Imperial Palace for so many years, but we have never been chosen by a member of the Imperial Family.”

” There are so many beauties in the palace. But Yingying’s face isn’t the standard oval face. It’s hard to be noticed. It’s really strange.

“Perhaps the Crown Prince has had enough of beauties with oval faces, so he took a fancy to Yingying. Yingying has also taken advantage of him.”

‘ He’s just a Crown Prince who’s about to be deposed. It’s not a big deal. Compared to the other princes and princesses, this Crown Prince should be the worst. I’m afraid Yingying won’t even be able to have a child with him.

Zhu Wuyang did not hear the discussion of these little palace maids, nor did he take it to heart. With his current status, even if he was crippled, he was not someone these little palace maids could climb up to.

Only Zhu Wuyang had taken a fancy to them, and they had no right to choose Zhu Wuyang.

Of course, although many palace maids, guards, and eunuchs had escaped from the Crown Prince’s Palace, most of them were spies of the other princes and princesses. Zhu Wuyang was not in the mood to keep them.

If Zhu Wuyang was willing, none of these people would dare to run away.

It would be good for Zhu Wuyang if these people left, so how could Zhu Wuyang keep them?

After returning to the Crown Prince’s Palace and enjoying a sumptuous meal, Zhu Wuan brought Zhao Yingying into the bedroom. After a round of sex, he sent Zhao Yingying out of the bedroom and arranged a room for her to stay in.

With Zhu Wuan’s bestowment of a surname and favor, Zhao Yingying’s status had also improved a lot in the future. At least, she was no longer a low-level palace maid. Instead, there would be a palace maid serving her.

After Zhao Yingying left, Zhu Wuyang called Chu Xia and Lai Chun over. An hour later, Chu Xia and Lai Chun, who were weak all over, stood at two key positions in the practice room, responsible for keeping watch for Zhu Wuyang.

Meanwhile, Zhu Wuan entered the secret training room and began to cultivate the Nine Dragons Fist and the Tianya Mingyue Saber Technique. At the same time, he was comprehending the top and peerless martial arts he had seen during the day.

“Boom boom boom...”

The first thing that Zhu Wuan practiced was the Nine Dragon Fist. Every move and stance was natural, and its power was abundant and unstoppable. It could casually exert a force of over a million pounds, and it could easily destroy a small mountain.

The sixth-level Nine Dragon Fist came and went in Zhu Wuan's hands, enveloping the entire secret training room. It made the wind howl in the secret training room, as if the world was collapsing.

While cultivating the Nine Dragon Fist, the fist technique manuals that he had read during the day appeared in Zhu Wuwan's mind. He comprehended and integrated them, allowing the already powerful Nine Dragon Fist to reach a new level.

As he comprehended and integrated dozens of fist art-type secret arts, Zhu

Wuwan felt that he had gained more and more insights on the Nine Dragon Fist. His cultivation speed was also getting faster and faster, far exceeding his usual speed.

Zhu Wuyang, who was born sacred and had amazing comprehension, was already very fast when he cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist. Now that he had improved a lot on the original foundation, his speed was far faster than any martial arts genius in the Jianghu.

Zhu Wanhao suddenly realized that as he comprehended more and more fist technique manuals, the benefits to the Nine Dragon Fist became greater and greater. It even promoted the improvement and progress of the Nine Dragon Fist.

Sharpening the knife would not delay the work of chopping wood. This was what it said!

“Rumble...”

“Rumble...”

“Rumble...”

After an unknown period of time, thunder sounded wherever Zhu Wuyang's Nine Dragon Fist passed. It was as if a tornado had been stirred up in the entire cultivation chamber, and the airflow exploded non-stop.

The sound of the fist was like thunder!

This was an important sign that he had cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist to the seventh level. In other words, Zhu Wuwan had already broken through to the seventh level of the Nine Dragon Fist. She could erupt with seven times the strength of her own body, and her attack power was extremely terrifying.

The Nine Dragon Fist was the pinnacle of peerless martial arts, only half a step away from the mythical-level martial arts. If he were to raise it to this level, there would probably not be many people in the entire Nine Zhao Country whose strength could match Zhu Wanhao's.

Moreover, as Zhu Wanhao fused the essence of other fist techniques into the Nine Dragon Fist, the power of the Nine Dragon Fist would become stronger and stronger. Perhaps it would soon transform into a mythical-level martial art.

At that time, Zhu Wuwan would be able to suppress the entire Nine Zhao Country with just the Nine Dragon Fist.

At least in the entire Zhu Royal Family, no one else could improve the Nine Dragon Fist to this level..

Chapter 106: Dragon Soars to the Ninth Heaven

The commotion in the secret training room had already alerted Chu Xia and Lai Chun, who were on guard outside.

Even though the secret training room in the Crown Prince's bedchamber was made of a special boulder that could isolate sound, the commotion caused by Zhu Wuwan's practice was so great that it had already faintly shaken the secret training room.

"The secret training room seems to be moving?"

Laichun, who had accidentally touched the outer wall of the secret cultivation room, was stunned. She touched it in surprise and stuck her exquisite little face to it. Now, she felt it even more clearly.

Chu Xia also pressed her face against the secret training room. At the same time, she took out a small earpiece and placed it on the outer wall.

"Rumble..." Rumble...'

Chu Xia heard the clear sound of thunder and her face changed. She widened her eyes in disbelief.

“What’s wrong?”

Chu Xia’s unusual behavior alarmed Lai Chun, who could not help but look over.

Chu Xia quickly put away the receiver and defended Zhu Wuyan, I heard something too. The Crown Prince must be practicing his heavy weapons inside. He must have hit the surrounding walls, which is why there are vibrations.

However, Chu Xia, who was quick-witted, had already vaguely sensed some things that Zhu Wuwan was hiding. The sound she heard just now was clearly the sound that could be produced when the Nine Dragon Fist was raised to the seventh level.

The sound of the fist was like thunder!

Chu Xia had only learned some of the characteristics of the Nine Dragon Fist from the other princes and princesses by chance. She had memorized it at that time, so she could distinguish what the voice she had just heard was.

However, Chu Xia had never expected that the person whom everyone thought was a good-for-nothing, a eunuch, a coward, and an idiot...The incompetent Crown Prince had actually silently cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist to the seventh level.

In the entire world, the person with the highest attainments in the Nine Dragon Fist was an old ancestor from the depths of the palace. It was said that he was the uncle of Mad Emperor, but he had only cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist to the sixth level.

However, the Crown Prince was only seventeen years old, and he had already cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist to the seventh level. One could imagine how amazing the Crown Prince’s talent was.

She remembered that when she accidentally discovered that the Crown Prince had cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist to the third level, only half a month had passed. In other words, it was very likely that the Crown Prince had already cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist to this level in just half a month.

How earth-shattering was this!

Chu Xia was so shocked that her petite body was trembling slightly.

It turned out that the man who made her change her stance in such a short period of time and follow him wholeheartedly was not a good-for-nothing or an idiot, but a top-notch prodigy who did not come out of the world.

In the entire Nine Zhao Country, there was probably no other genius who could match up to His Highness the Crown Prince.

The Crown Prince was like a hidden dragon in the abyss. Chu Xia was speechless for a long time. She felt that the gap between her and the Crown Prince had changed from the foot of the mountain to the top of the mountain to the abyss and the nine heavens. The distance was endless.

Other people thought that the palace maids and courtesans were following a good-for-nothing with no bright future, but only Chu Xia knew that they were not following a good-for-nothing, but a young dragon lurking deep underground.

However, even Chu Xia did not know, or perhaps she had never dreamed that Zhu Wuan was no longer a hidden dragon in the abyss. Instead, she had already soared into the sky and possessed terrifying strength that was invincible in the entire Jiu Zhao Kingdom.

It was precisely because of this that Zhu Wuyan was much bolder in her actions. Unlike before, she had to be extremely careful and cautious even in the hidden cultivation chamber, afraid that an accident would happen.

The seventh-level Nine Dragon Fist, the perfected Illusion God Step, the great success of the Saber Drawing Technique, and the Tianya Mingyue Saber Technique that was close to the small success ... In addition to Zhu Wuan's incomparably strong cultivation foundation and the advantage brought by his flawless Dao foundation, Zhu Wuan's strength was above any peerless expert in the Nine Zhao Nation. She was a peerless expert among peerless experts.

Although he had yet to kill a single person, Zhu Wuyang was already invincible.

Seeing that Chu Xia was unwilling to say more, Lai Chun pursed her lips."

Chuxia, I know that the Crown Prince is not simple! "

"What did you find?" in early summer, I see that spring has come.

Lai Chun bit her cherry lips. Once, when I was in bed, I sensed the power fluctuation in His Highness's body. If I'm not wrong, His Highness should have broken through to the realm of Inner Qi."

"Ah..." Chu Xia was stunned and looked at Xiang Chun in astonishment.

Looking at Chu Xia's surprised expression, Lai Chun was also stunned.

"Chuxia, don't you know? You...Aren't you the Crown Prince's first woman?"
freewebnovel.com

"I ... I didn't notice it, and His Highness the Crown Prince didn't tell me either." Chu Xia was a little sad. I only discovered that His Highness's attainments in the Nine Dragon

Fist are astonishing, far surpassing any of the princes and princesses. This was also discovered by accident.”

Lai Chun was stunned for a moment before smiling sweetly.” That’s right. How could His Highness the Crown Prince casually tell anyone about such an important matter? Even if we are his bedmates, we were clearly spies of the 38th Prince before this. His Highness the Crown Prince was right not to tell us.

‘ Besides, what are our identities? His Highness the Crown Prince has the danger of mountains and rivers in his chest. As long as we can survive the calamity of the Mad Emperor, we will definitely soar into the nine heavens in the future. How can we look up to him? We just have to obediently serve His Highness the Crown Prince and wait for the day he ascends. ‘

“Yes.” Chu Xia nodded. ” The Crown Prince has trusted us enough to let us guard the secret training room. We should be grateful. ”

The two women looked at each other and smiled. They became even more serious and vigilant.

In the secret training room, although Zhu Wuwan didn’t know what was happening outside, he knew in his heart that as he became stronger and stronger, the commotion he caused in the secret training room when he practiced his martial arts would also become bigger and bigger. Sooner or later, Laichun and Chuxia would find out.

However, for these two maids who had followed him since he transmigrated and had cut off contact with Zhu Wensi for him, Zhu Wuyang could be considered to have initial trust in them.

It was precisely because of this that they were asked to keep watch during cultivation. Since they were asked to be on guard, Zhu Wuyang was not worried that they would tell anyone.

On the one hand, he naturally trusted these two maidservants. On the other hand, it was also because Zhu Wuyang’s strength had already increased to this extent. Even if he really gave himself away, so what?

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was no longer his match. The imperial palace could no longer hold him back. As long as Zhu Wuyang was willing, he could escape the imperial palace at any time and let no one in the Nine Zhao Country catch him.

The Southern Wasteland was so big that it was easy for Zhu Wuwan to survive.

It was precisely because he had enough confidence that Zhu Wuyang dared to be impudent. He might even plot to usurp the throne one day.

Doing so should be able to obtain a large number of breakthrough points!

Chapter 107: Clairvoyant (1)

After breaking through to the seventh level of the Nine Dragon Fist and stabilizing his current realm, Zhu Wuwan began to cultivate the Tianya Mingyue Saber Technique.

Although he was extremely talented, the Tianya Mingyue Saber was a mythical-level martial art. If Zhu Wuwan wanted to cultivate it to perfection, he would need at least one or two months.

Such a long time was not enough. While Zhu Wuyang cultivated, he would also add some breakthrough points appropriately to make his cultivation progress faster.

The saber technique was as swift as a swan, and the sky and moon followed closely.

Zhu Wuwan was soon immersed in the cultivation of the Tianya Mingyue Saber Technique. At the same time, the saber technique manuals that he had read during the day appeared in his mind. While comprehending these saber technique manuals, he also promoted the cultivation of the Tianya Mingyue Saber Technique by analogy.

The progress of the Tianya Mingyue saber technique was even faster!

After a short two hours, the Boundless Horizon suddenly appeared in the secret cultivation room. At the end of the horizon, a bright moon shone brightly.

The horizon suddenly appeared, and the moon hung high in the sky!

This was the sign of the Small Success of the Tianya Mingyue Saber Technique. With hundreds of thousands of breakthrough points and Zhu Wuyang's hard work, Zhu Wuyang had cultivated this mythical-level martial art to the Small Success Realm in just a few days.

Its power was comparable to the sixth-tier Nine Dragon Fist. With the support of divine weapons, it was far superior to the Nine Dragon Fist.

"Congratulations to the host for cultivating the mythical-level martial art, the Tianya Mingyue Saber Technique, to the Small Success Realm for the first time in your life. You have obtained 10 million breakthrough points..."

The breakthrough of the Tianya Mingyue Saber Technique brought Zhu Wuwan another 10 million breakthrough points, which increased Zhu Wuwan's strength by a level. At the same time, she also obtained a million free breakthrough points.

Zhu Wuwan smiled and began to stabilize his current realm.

Time flew by in his bitter cultivation. It was only when it was almost dawn that Zhu Wuyang walked out of the secret cultivation room and brought Lai Chun and Chu Xia to rest. Tonight, the two women were as gentle as water.

The next morning, after breakfast, Zhu Wuwan rushed to the royal library again to read and memorize the remaining books.

“Congratulations to the host for reading the peerless martial art, the Great Moon Breeze Sword Technique for the first time in his life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points...”

” Congratulations to the host for reading the peerless martial arts, the Golden Gate Jade Lock Thirty-six Secrets for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points...”

” Congratulations to the host for reading the peerless martial art, the inexplicable saber technique, for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points...”

Today, Zhu Wuwan first went to read those peerless martial arts and secret arts. After all, these peerless martial arts and secret arts could bring him more breakthrough points.

After an unknown amount of time, Zhu Wuwan’s gaze stopped on a peerless secret technique.

“Congratulations to the host for reading the peerless secret technique, Heaven

Vision Earth Listening Sutra for the first time in his life. You have obtained

300,000 breakthrough points...”

Looking at this secret scouting technique that was known to be ranked in the top three of the Nine Zhao Imperial Family, Zhu Wuwan suddenly realized that she hadn’t grasped a secret scouting technique yet.

This was quite inconvenient for him to travel the world. Since he had encountered it now, he would cultivate this Heaven Vision and Earth Hearing Sutra.

Once this peerless secret skill was cultivated to perfection, it was said that one could see through illusions and hear voices from ten miles away. They could also easily detect the strength of the surrounding martial artists. The effect was quite shocking.

Zhu Wanwan spent tens of thousands of breakthrough points to silently cultivate it to the basic level. Then, she felt that her vision and hearing had suddenly increased by a lot. Even the senses of her other five senses had improved by a lot.

In the future, if she were to encounter any sneak attacks or assassinations, it would be much easier for Zhu Wuwan to dodge them.

The Xiantian experts who were guarding the Royal Library Pavilion did not expect that this person was just a good-for-nothing, eunuch, and coward in their eyes. The incompetent Crown Prince had actually silently cultivated the peerless secret technique, the Heaven Vision and Earth Hearing Scripture, under their noses. It only cost him...One minute!

One had to know that this peerless secret skill was the most difficult among all the investigative secret skills, and its power was also the strongest. In the entire Nine Zhao Country, only a few people had successfully cultivated it.

Now, there was another person, and it was a seventeen-year-old youth.

After mastering the Scripture of Heavenly Vision and Earthly Hearing, the Innate Experts guarding the library pavilion became more observant in Zhu Wuwan's eyes.

If it was a coincidence, it was not impossible to sneak into the fourth floor of the Imperial Library Pavilion. However, although Zhu Wuwan could hide from the Xiantian masters guarding the surroundings, she could not hide from the array that was like a dead object.

Therefore, if he wanted to sneak into the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion, Zhu Wuyang still needed to break through the array formation around the Imperial Library Pavilion, or he needed to be able to pass through the layers of array formations without exposing himself, and then successfully enter the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion.

It was better to take the time to cultivate the path of array formations. It was better to rely on oneself than others. Moreover, it was a forbidden act to sneak into the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion. It was better not to let others know.

Moreover, mastering the Dao of Array Formation would be of great help to Zhu Wuwan in infiltrating the Palace of Heavenly Purity and assassinating the Mad Emperor, Zhu Zhenwu. Therefore, he had to learn the Dao of Array Formation.

If he cultivated the Dao of Array Formation to a certain extent, Zhu Wuwan could still dig for treasures and explore the underground palace in the future. These actions should be able to bring him a considerable breakthrough point. freewebnovel.com

Smiling slightly, Zhu Wuwan did not think too much about it. She continued to flip through the books. She memorized more and more books, and she obtained more and more breakthrough points. Time slowly passed.

Unknowingly, another day had passed. Zhu Wuwan had obtained more than 40 million breakthrough points, memorized more than 300 ancient books, and comprehended dozens of them.

As he comprehended more and more ancient books, Zhu Wuyang realized that his speed of comprehending other ancient books was even faster.

Even if it was some peerless martial arts and secret techniques, it was possible to memorize them and comprehend them thoroughly at the same time. Such a speed was simply shocking, enough to make all the martial artists in the world blush with shame.

It was just like the Heaven's Vision and Earth's Listening Sutra. Other martial artists would take years or decades to break through, but Zhu Wuyang was good. In just two hours, not only did he understand it, but he also cultivated it to the rudiments. The two were simply incomparable.

Although the Scripture of Heavenly Vision and Earthly Hearing could not directly increase Zhu Wuyan's combat strength, it could imperceptibly increase Zhu Wuyan's life-saving ability, treasure-seeking ability, and observation ability ... They had all improved a lot, which was quite beneficial to Zhu Wuyan's cultivation and survival in the future.

It could be said that this was one of the best auxiliary secret skills, and it was also a must-have for every martial artist. Moreover, the potential of Heaven

Vision and Earth Listen Sutra was very good, and it would be very beneficial for Zhu Wuyang to fuse more secret skills and cultivation techniques into it in the future.

Even if he continued to improve the Heavenly Vision and Earthly Hearing Scripture, Zhu Wuyang couldn't predict what level he would reach in the future.

However, he could make a guess.

For example, the Clairvoyant...

For example, clairaudient..

Even stronger!

Chapter 108: Entering the Dao with Martial Arts (1)

In the next few days, Zhu Wuwan kept flipping through the books in the royal library. In a short period of time, she had memorized more than 2,000 books. At this speed, she would be able to memorize all the books in another three to four days.

During the day, he memorized the books and cultivated at night. As he comprehended more and more books, the speed at which Zhu Wuyang comprehended new books also became faster and faster.

After all, all the martial arts in the world had something in common. When Zhu Wuyang had comprehended enough books, it would be much easier for him to comprehend other books.

Many top-notch martial arts and peerless martial arts only needed to be seen once. Not only could they remember it, but they could also comprehend it thoroughly.

While he was comprehending the ancient books, Zhu Wuwan did not forget to cultivate cultivation techniques and secret arts. Whether it was the Nine Dragon Fist, the Saber Drawing Art, the Tianya Mingyue Saber Art, the Hidden Art, or the Heavenly Vision and Earthly Hearing Sutra, they were all advancing rapidly.

Very soon, Zhu Wanhao cultivated the hidden technique to perfection. It began to fuse into the Green Dragon Mustard bit by bit and transformed into the Hidden Dragon Mustard. It could be said to be a high-grade mythical secret technique.

With the help of a portion of the breakthrough points, the Heavenly Vision and Earthly Hearing Scripture had also successfully advanced to the Small Success Realm, allowing him to easily see through the disguise of others.

During this period of time, Zhu Wuwan had obtained about 300 million breakthrough points. With the help of so many breakthrough points, Zhu Wuwan's strength was getting closer and closer to the limit of the Innate Realm.

At this moment, in the entire Southern Wasteland, there was probably no other martial artist whose Innate Internal Vitality could match Zhu Wanhao's.

In the lower dantian, the Vast Sea Inner Essence had already expanded to a radius of eighty miles. Under normal circumstances, a peerless expert at the peak of the Xiantian realm would only have a radius of more than twenty miles in the lower dantian.

However, Zhu Wanhao had yet to cultivate to the limit of the Innate Realm, but he was already several times stronger.

When Zhu Wuwan cultivated to the limit of the Innate Realm, the Vast Sea Inner Essence in his body should be able to expand to a radius of a hundred miles, like a large lake and ocean. It would circulate endlessly with the nine major chakra meridians, and the Innate Inner Essence would be almost endless.

Under the nourishment of the vast inner essence of the Eternal Sea, the overall quality of his body had also soared in all directions. He was comparable to some of the most peak ferocious beasts, and ordinary swords could not hurt Zhu Wuwan at all.

However, to the bodybuilding experts on Earth, Zhu Wuwan still felt that this kind of physical fitness was not strong enough. If she could find a suitable body-building martial art in the future, Zhu Wuwan was prepared to cultivate a few to improve her body and her life-saving ability would be even more amazing.

The only thing that made Zhu Wanhao a little depressed was that he hadn't found a book similar to the Travels of Encountering an Immortal. Zhu Wanhao still had many doubts about the so-called immortal path and couldn't confirm whether it was true or not.

After he finished flipping through the books on the third level, Zhu Wuwan prepared to cultivate the Dao of Array Formation while flipping through the books on the second level to see if there were any books related to the Immortal Dao.

With Zhu Wuyang's current cultivation speed, he would soon reach the limit of the Innate Realm. At that time, he would inevitably waste his breakthrough point. Therefore, before that, Zhu Wuyang had to find a solution.

On this day, after Zhu Wuwan had breakfast, she rushed to the royal library as usual and continued to read the remaining hundreds of books on the third floor.

After reading for four hours, Zhu Wuyang's eyes lit up.

"Congratulations to the host for reading the peerless Ice Heart Art for the first time in your life. You have obtained 500,000 breakthrough points..."

This was a peerless secret technique that could increase one's senses. In other words, it was a peerless secret technique that could increase one's mental power. However, Zhu Wuwan had read a few peerless secret techniques that could increase one's mental power before. Even though this was the highest level among them, it was not enough to make Zhu Wuwan lose her composure.

The main reason why Zhu Wanhao was like this was because the last few pages of this peerless secret technique had been upgraded to matters regarding the immortal path, and the content was even more in-depth than the content in the Immortal Encounter's Travels.

According to these few pages of ancient books, there was indeed no way for martial arts above the Connate Realm. If he wanted to continue improving, he needed to do this.

Entering the path through martial arts!

The limit of martial arts was immortality. If one wanted to step onto the immortal path, the first thing to do was to break through the heavenly barrier. Only then could one successfully advance to the immortal path.

The immortal path stretched endlessly. Once one could step into it, one would have the chance to live forever, live as long as the heavens and the earth, and compete with the sun and the moon.

However, since ancient times, there had been countless martial artists who wanted to break through the limits of the Xiantian Realm and step into the Immortal Dao. Unfortunately, only one in ten thousand could succeed. Just the method of entering the Dao through martial arts had stumped countless Xiantian Realm martial artists.

This Iceheart Formula did not record how to enter the path through martial arts. It only said that if one wanted to enter the path through martial arts, one had to have strong mental power. At the very least, one had to cultivate the Iceheart Formula to the ninth level. Only then would there be a certain possibility of successfully entering the path through martial arts, or cultivate other mental cultivation methods to raise one's mental power to a sufficiently high level.

Apart from that, there was another extremely important instruction in the Iceheart Formula for Zhu Wuwan. That was to wait until the Xiantian Realm martial artist had raised his Xiantian Inner Yuan to the limit, like a lake or ocean, before he could attempt to crystalize it.

As long as he could crystalize the innate internal energy, he would be able to sublimate these innate crystals and step onto the path of immortality as long as he found a suitable method.

Although he had yet to obtain the method to enter the path through martial arts, these pointers were extremely important. They further confirmed the existence of the immortal path.

Naturally, Zhu Wuyang would not give up on such a peerless secret technique. After returning to the Crown Prince Palace, he began to cultivate it, preparing to break through to the ninth level as soon as possible so that he could use it when he entered the Dao with martial arts.

As one of the top batch of peerless secret techniques, it could even be said that it was half a step into the realm of mythical-level secret techniques. The difficulty of cultivating the Iceheart Technique was extremely shocking, far exceeding the cultivation difficulty of the Nine Dragon Fist and the Azure Dragon Concealment. It was even comparable to the cultivation difficulty of the Tianya Mingyue Saber and the Vast Sea Essence Codex.

This was only a peerless secret skill, but it was already so difficult. Therefore, it seemed that no disciple of the Zhu Royal Family had ever succeeded in cultivating it in the past hundreds of years.

As for whether anyone had secretly cultivated successfully, Zhu Wuyan was not sure.

However, Zhu Wuwan had spent hundreds of thousands of breakthrough points just to raise it to the first level. It was comparable to those mythical-level martial arts.

Even with Zhu Wuyan's talent and aptitude, it would take at least a few days to be able to cultivate the first level. The further one cultivated, the more difficult it would be. When it came to the later levels, Zhu Wuyan would probably need to spend a few months to successfully cultivate.

How could Zhu Wuyan wait for such a long time? After thinking for a moment, Zhu Wuyan decided to use the breakthrough point to improve the Iceheart Formula.

After all, he had quite a number of free breakthrough points now. He could not just leave them unused. He could not be stingy when he needed to use them..

Chapter 109: The Greatest Help in the Future (1)

" Congratulations to the host for upgrading the Peerless Secret Mental Energy Spell, Iceheart Spell, to the first level for the first time in your life. You have received 600,000 breakthrough points...

As the Iceheart Art advanced to the first level, Zhu Wuwan clearly felt that his sensing ability had increased by a large margin. The power of the Heavenly Vision and Earthly Hearing Sutra had also increased by a lot.

Everything in the surroundings became clear. The sound of the wind, the sound of water, the chirping of insects ... As if it was beside her ear, Zhu Wuyan could even faintly sense the fluctuations of the airflow.

Moreover, after cultivating the Iceheart Secret Art, it could allow a martial artist to be in a state of "heart as clear as ice" for a long period of time, which was extremely beneficial to the martial artist's cultivation.

The Eternal Sea Internal Essence in his body also became more and more like his arm, and it was easier to control. At the same time, he could also effectively control the Eternal Sea Internal Essence to nourish his body, allowing it to improve even faster.

The effect of the Iceheart Secret Art was astonishing, and it really made Zhu Wuwan extremely happy.

Looking at the breakthrough point needed to advance to the second level, it was about three million. Zhu Wuwan thought about it and decided to advance.

As the breakthrough point was poured in, the Iceheart Technique improved at an unimaginable speed. Zhu Wuwan was fully focused on it, feeling the improvement of the Iceheart Technique.

After an unknown period of time, Zhu Wuyang vaguely sensed a special power swimming in her mind. This power was light, hidden, and mysterious...They couldn't be touched or seen. Although they could sense it, they couldn't move it at all.

If Zhu Wuwan's guess was correct, this power should be mental power. With the help of mental power, Zhu Wuwan's control over her body, her exploration of her surroundings, and her understanding of martial arts...They had all risen by a huge level.

Invisible, Zhu Wuwan's combat power had increased by more than a few times, and her life-saving and escaping abilities had increased even more.

"Congratulations to the host for raising the Peerless Secret Mental Energy Technique, Iceheart Technique, to the second level for the first time in your life. You have received 1,300,000 breakthrough points..."

Zhu Wuwan smiled and upgraded the Iceheart Technique again. This time, he needed 10 million breakthrough points.

As the breakthrough point was rapidly consumed, the strange mental power in his mind became stronger and stronger. It traveled through Zhu Wuwan's mind and continuously improved Zhu Wuwan's senses.

At the same time, Zhu Wuwan gradually discovered that she could slowly control this mental power. This was also an important sign of the third level of the Iceheart Secrets.

As his mental power wandered, Zhu Wuwan also discovered the Niwan Palace hidden deep in his mind, which was also the so-called upper dantian.

However, there were layers of grayish black mist surrounding the upper dantian. It was even more powerful than the power that had occupied the lower dantian.

According to the Iceheart Secret Art, once Zhu Wuyang cultivated the Iceheart Secret Art to the seventh level and above, he could attempt to expel the confusion in his upper dantian. From there, he could successfully open up his Niwan Palace, allowing his mental power to enter the palace smoothly and obtain a leap in improvement.

With Zhu Wanhao's current mental power, he would be destroyed in minutes if he got close to the Niwan Palace. Therefore, it was more important to escape as soon as possible.

Zhu Wanwan controlled her mental power to leave and absorbed some of the strange power transformed from the breakthrough point. After stabilizing the third level of the Iceheart Technique, she stopped and did not continue to improve.

Next, he would have to spend a certain amount of time to adapt to the sudden increase in his mental power. At the same time, he would have to leave a certain amount of free breakthrough points for use when needed. He could not spend too much on the Iceheart Art. After all, Zhu Wuwan's free breakthrough points were limited.

Although the huge increase in mental power did not directly increase Zhu Wuwan's combat strength, it indirectly increased Zhu Wuwan's overall strength by a lot. It was even more useful for her subsequent cultivation.

Regardless of whether it was to save his life, escape, or cultivate martial arts, secret techniques, and so on, the third level of the Iceheart Formula could unleash astonishing power.

This also increased Zhu Wuyan's foundation by a large margin, making Zhu Wuyan's cultivation path smoother.

In the next few days, while cultivating many martial arts, Zhu Wuwan memorized all the books on the third level of the library pavilion and earned tens of millions of breakthrough points. She was getting closer and closer to reaching the limit of the Innate Realm.

After memorizing all the books on the first three levels of the Imperial Library Pavilion, Zhu Wuwan did not go to the second level to read the books. Instead, he prepared to improve his Array Dao first and prepare to sneak into the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion.

Zhu Wuyan's strength was about to reach the limit of the Innate Realm. Even if the crystallization of inner essence could delay some time, it would not be long before Zhu Wuyan broke through to a higher level.

If he hadn't obtained the method to enter the path through martial arts before this, Zhu Wuan would have wasted many breakthrough points. This was no longer the time when Zhu Wuan had just transmigrated to the Nine Zhao Imperial Palace. Zhu Wuan was afraid that there wouldn't be enough breakthrough points, so how could she waste them?

Therefore, he needed to improve his Array Dao first and sneak into the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion to see if there were any manuals and cultivation techniques that could be used to enter the Dao through martial arts.

Furthermore, aside from stealing treasures, there were some other unexpected uses for cultivating the Dao of Array Formations. Moreover, these special uses would bring great help to Zhu Wuwan in the future, allowing Zhu Wuwan's strength to soar like a super rocket!

An array formation manual appeared in Zhu Wanhao's mind and he began to comprehend and cultivate this array formation manual.

Heaven and Earth Formation!

This was the name of the ancient book on formations. It recorded in detail the cultivation methods of formation apprentices all the way to the top formation masters. It was known as the number one formation ancient book in the Nine Zhao Country, and its value was comparable to the top peerless martial arts.

In the eyes of some array masters, the value of the Heaven and Earth Array was not inferior to any mythical-level martial art.

As long as one could thoroughly comprehend this Heaven and Earth Array, they would be able to forge the strongest array foundation and break through to become a top-notch array master. It was not impossible for them to be ranked first among the Nine Zhao.

However, there were only a handful of people who could cultivate it to the peak over the years. However, each of them was a generation's Array King of the Jiu Zhao Nation and was qualified to compete with the top ten peerless experts in the martial world.

If they were given enough time and conditions, these Array Kings could even fight against dozens of peerless experts on their own.

Therefore, after a brief consideration, Zhu Wuwan chose the Heaven and Earth Array as the main manual for cultivating the Dao of Array Formations.

With Zhu Wuyang's talent and comprehension, it was not difficult to cultivate the basic level of the Heaven and Earth Array, not to mention that Zhu Wuyang had the help of the breakthrough point. He could use the breakthrough point to forcefully break through in places that required a lot of time.

Therefore, it only took a few hours for Zhu Wuyan to master the basics of the Heaven and Earth Array. At the same time, it also meant that Zhu Wuyan had become an official array apprentice.

" Congratulations to the host for mastering the Peerless Array Formation Manual for the first time in your life. You have obtained 5,000,000 breakthrough points.. Due to the importance of strength, 80% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host's strength!

Chapter 110: The Truth About the System's Assignment of Breakthrough Points

Zhu Wuwan was slightly surprised to see that he could obtain five million breakthrough points just by entering the rudiments of array formation and becoming the lowest level of array formation apprentice.

It seemed that the potential of the array formation path was shocking. A formation apprentice could bring so many breakthrough points. When he continued to improve, how many breakthrough points could he obtain?

Just as Zhu Wuwan was about to absorb the breakthrough point of this wave, he suddenly felt that something was wrong. He seemed to have overlooked something.

After thinking for a moment, Zhu Wuwan's eyes widened and she looked at the system notification.

" Congratulations to the host for mastering the Peerless Array Formation Manual for the first time in your life. You have obtained 5,000,000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 80% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host's strength!

Zhu Wuwan's gaze fell on the word '80%' and slowly stopped.

In the past, after obtaining a breakthrough point, wasn't 90% of the breakthrough point automatically used to increase the host's strength? Why did it suddenly become 80% of the breakthrough point automatically used to increase the host's strength?

What was going on? Did he do something just now?

Zhu Wuwan thought about it and realized that among all the things he had done just now, it seemed that he had only done a rudimentary mastery of the Heaven and Earth Array and became an array formation apprentice. He hadn't done anything else.

However, why did the special encounter system change the allocation of breakthrough points? Could it be because he had become an array formation apprentice?

” Congratulations to the host for discovering the truth behind the system’s distribution of breakthrough points for the first time in your life. You have received 10,000,000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 80% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host’s strength! ‘

Zhu Wanwan sucked in a breath of cold air. So that was really the case. After becoming an array formation apprentice, it had indeed caused a huge change in the allocation of breakthrough points by the Special Encounter System, and this had also been recognized by the Special Encounter System.

Could it be that the Special Encounter System saw that he had mastered another sub-class and increased the distribution of free breakthrough points by 10% so that Zhu Wuwan could better improve her sub-class?

That should be the case. Zhu Wuyan smiled.

During this period of time, he had used various methods, such as using his mind to control it, or trying out some special secret techniques ... In the end, none of them succeeded. Gradually, Zhu Wuyang also gave up.

The mountains and rivers are heavy and there is no way out. The willows are dark and the flowers are bright. There is another village.

Zhu Wanwan had not expected that if she wanted to change the share of breakthrough points allocated by the Special Encounter System, she would actually need to master another sub-profession. Only then would she be able to obtain more free breakthrough points. This was really unimaginable.

A bright smile flashed across Zhu Wanwan’s face. She felt as if a golden path had appeared in front of her. In that case, could she master more sub-professions and obtain the freedom to distribute all the breakthrough points as much as possible?

Thinking of this, Zhu Wuwan did not have time to think about it. She immediately recalled an alchemy manual and prepared to start cultivating alchemy. At the same time, she asked the palace maids to prepare the tools and materials needed for alchemy.

Under Zhu Wuwan’s hard work, he spent a full six hours to cultivate a peerless alchemy manual and become an alchemy apprentice.

" Congratulations to the host for cultivating the peerless alchemy manual, Elixir Comprehension of All Things, for the first time in your life. You have obtained 5,000,000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 70% of the breakthrough points will automatically be used to increase the host's strength! "

" Congratulations to the host for becoming an apprentice alchemist for the first time in your life. You have received 10,000,000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 70% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host's strength! "

Zhu Wuan smiled. His guess was right. Mastering more sub-classes was indeed beneficial for obtaining more free breakthrough points.

Since he had already reached the basic level of alchemy, he would go and master the art of forging next.

Zhu Wuwan started working hard again. After more than four hours, he had also mastered the peerless forging manual, the Heavenly Cycle Star Artifact. Zhu Wuwan had officially stepped into the threshold of blacksmithing.

" Congratulations to the host for successfully cultivating the first level of the Heavenly Cycle Star Artifact in the peerless smithing manual. You have obtained 5,000,000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 60% of the breakthrough points will automatically be used to increase the host's strength! "

" Congratulations to the host for becoming a blacksmith apprentice for the first time in your life. You have received 10,000,000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 60% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host's strength! "

Zhu Wuwan laughed loudly. He was really going to be rich this time. If he could freely control all the free breakthrough points, Zhu Wuwan's life would be much better in the future.

After a moment of consideration, Zhu Wuwan began to learn botany. Soon, she had mastered the peerless Hundred Plants Record and became a qualified gardener.

" Congratulations to the host for cultivating the peerless manual, the Hundred Plants Record, for the first time in your life. You have obtained 2,000 ,000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 60% of the breakthrough points will automatically be used to increase the host's strength!

" Congratulations to the host for becoming a qualified farmer for the first time in your life. You have received 5,000,000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 60% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host's strength! "

Looking at the system notification, Zhu Wuwan was a little stunned. Wasn't Botany a sub-profession? Wasn't a farmer qualified to be called a profession?

Why hadn't he been recognized by the Special Encounter System and obtained more free breakthrough points?

Not only did he get less breakthrough points from mastering Botany, but why didn't he get more free breakthrough points?

Zhu Wanhao thought for a while, and a light flashed in her eyes. Could it be that botany and alchemy overlapped? After all, there was a branch in alchemy, which was to plant various herbs and the like.

If that was the case, did the Special Encounter System include Botany into Alchemy, which was why the allocation of Free Breakthrough Points did not change?

" Congratulations to the host for discovering the truth behind the system's distribution of breakthrough points for the second time in your life. You have obtained 8 million breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 60% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host's strength! "

Zhu Wuwan was enlightened. Then, she went to master other sub-occupations, such as fisherman, bricklayer, chef...Unfortunately, after trying dozens of subclasses, he was not recognized by the Special Encounter System, and the distribution of breakthrough points did not change.

What was going on?

Zhu Wanwan thought about it and couldn't understand what it meant. It wasn't until he made a wild guess that he thought that the level of these sub-classes was too low, so they couldn't be recognized by the special encounter system. Only then did he receive another system notification.

” Congratulations to the host for seeing through the truth of the system’s distribution of breakthrough points for the third time in his life. You have obtained 6 million breakthrough points.. Due to the importance of strength, 60% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host’s strength! ‘
