Chapter 1062: The World Is in a Stagnant Situation (1) Chapter 1062: The World Is in a Stagnant Situation (1) Although the offensive of the Malicious Thought World was fierce, Zhu Wuwan could tell that the demons and ghosts of the Malicious Thought World could only be so rampant in places enveloped by the Will of the Great Path and the Rules of the Great Path.

However, once they left this area, not only would the demons and monsters of the Vile Thought World not be able to use the power of laws, but their own strength would also be suppressed to about one-tenth. At that time, cultivators of the same level on the Dongyuan Continent would be able to easily kill these demons and monsters of the Vile Thought World.

At this moment, the Will of the Great Path and the Rules of the Great Path of the Evil Will World were rampant and invading the territory of the Dongyuan Continent at an alarming speed. However, the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located was far superior to the Evil Will World, so the Will of the Great Path and the Rules of the Great Path were stronger.

Even though this was the Lower Realm Dongyuan Continent, and the Will of the Way of Heaven and the Rules of the Way of Heaven were not much, they should not be much weaker than the Rules of the Way of Heaven and the Will of the Way of Heaven of the Malevolent Thought World. When the Will of the Way of Heaven and the Rules of the Way of Heaven that enveloped the Dongyuan Continent recovered, they would certainly be able to stop the invasion of the Malevolent Thought World's Way of Heaven.

When that time came, it would be the time for the cultivators of the Dongyuan Continent to fight back.

After some consideration, Zhu Wuyang ordered the forces near the World Mountain to continue retreating until the invasion of the Heavenly Axiom from the Vile Thought Great World ended. At that time, Zhu Wuyang would lead the forces under him to the dividing line and hunt down the demons and ghosts that had left the territory invaded by the Heavenly Axiom.

Without the enhancement of the Will of the Great Path and the Rules of the Great Path of the Vicious Will World, these demons and monsters would definitely lose their strength. It would be very easy to kill them, and they could also obtain a lot of World Origin from them.

Therefore, how could Zhu Wuyang miss such a good opportunity? This world invasion was indeed a calamity, but if they could successfully survive it, it might not be a big fortune.

Moreover, the will and rules of the Great Path of the world where the Eastern Yuan Continent was located basically meant that there was no possibility of failure in this war.

Zhu Wuyang's main body immediately took action. Apart from summoning the forces under his command to retreat, Zhu Wuyang also informed the forces that he had not taken down to retreat as soon as possible to avoid being wiped out by the demons and ghosts of the Evil Thought Great World.

Doing so could also bring the world's origin to Zhu Wuyan. After all, such an action could also help Dongyuan Continent retain more living forces.

Moreover, with Zhu Wanhao's current strength, he would be able to unify the entire Dongyuan Continent sooner or later. At that time, these forces would also belong to him. Song Ankang was basically helping his subordinates.

Faced with the reminder of a Human Immortal undergoing tribulation, most of the forces chose to listen. However, there were still a small number of forces who were reluctant to leave the territory they had been managing for a long time, so they did not move.

These factions were even prepared to set up array formations to resist the invasion of demons and ghosts with their nests as the center. However, they did not know that these demons and ghosts had unimaginable strength under the enhancement of the rules. Even Zhu Wuyang's main body did not dare to take them head-on, let alone these factions.

Therefore, other than death, these forces had no other outcome. Zhu Wuyang ignored these people who didn't understand the situation.

It was hard to persuade these damned ghosts with good words. Zhu Wuyang did not want to waste too much time and energy on these guys.

Zhu Wanhao continued to carry out his plan and led the forces under him to retreat continuously. For this reason, he had no choice but to give up many territories and precious resources. He even temporarily gave up on the headquarters of the Great Earth Mystic Sect and the Holy Poison Sect.

The facts proved that Zhu Wanwan's actions were not wrong. The Evil Will World suddenly invaded Dongyuan Continent, and the will and rules of the Great Path in this area of Dongyuan Continent were forced to retreat. They were almost powerless to resist.

The Will of the Great Path and the Rules of the Great Path of the Malicious Will World were invading the territory of the Dongyuan Continent at a terrifying speed every second. The territory of millions of miles around the World Mountain was soon covered by the Will of the Great Path and the Rules of the Great Path of the Malicious Will World.

In this territory, the demons and monsters of the Evil Thought World could basically exert most of their power and could easily use all kinds of innate divine abilities. The intelligent life forms of the Dongyuan Continent were no match for them.

Countless demons and ghosts could be said to be invincible, causing more than half of the Central Plains to fall into a sea of blood and fire. Many top-notch immortal sects were destroyed, and even a super immortal sect was destroyed.

For a moment, all the races in the Dongyuan Continent were in chaos. Many cultivators fled from the Central Plains, but there were still many ordinary people and ordinary demon beasts who could not escape in time and were killed by the demons and ghosts in the Evil Thought World.

Even in the territory ruled by Zhu Wuyang, there were still many weaker and slower intelligent life forms that were caught up by demons and ghosts, either slaughtered or captured.

Fortunately, at this moment, the Will of the Great Path and the Rules of the Great Path of the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located finally came back to their senses and mobilized more Will of the Great Path and Rules of the Great Path, finally stopping the invasion of the Malicious Thought World. The area enveloped by the Malicious Thought World could not advance any further, and instead, it was slowly shrinking.

Although the Will and Rules of the Way of Heaven of the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located far surpassed that of the Malicious Will World, the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located was too big, so it was impossible for too much power to be invested here. Moreover, Zhu Wuyang also discovered something-the 3,000 macro worlds connected to the World Mountain had also invested power here. It was obvious that they were helping the Malicious Will World.

It was no wonder the Malicious Thoughts Great World was so rampant this time, and their attacks were so fierce. It turned out that they had unknowingly found so many allies.

Under such circumstances, it was obviously not possible for the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located to drive the Evil Will World out in a short period of time.

This would be a protracted battle!

For many years to come, the Vile Thoughts World would use more than half of the Central Plains as a stronghold to plunder all kinds of resources in the Dongyuan Continent to improve and strengthen the Vile Thoughts World.

Although the final outcome was basically destined and it was impossible to succeed, as long as they plundered enough resources and treasures before that, they might be able to make up for the losses.

As for the revenge of the world that belonged to the East Yuan Continent, the Evil Will World obviously did not care. This was a twisted and crazy world, just like all kinds of demons and ghosts in it. They were born from evil thoughts and did not care about anything.

Fortunately, although the demons and ghosts of the Evil Will World were powerful, they were only in the area covered by the rules of the Evil Will World. Once they left this area, their strength would plummet and they would be far inferior to cultivators of the same level in the Dongyuan Continent.

That was why there was a possibility of this war continuing. Otherwise, Zhu Wuyang would have to consider running away with her family and friends.
