Chapter 1064: I Plant a World (Finale) Chapter 1064: I Plant a World (Finale)
The Sixth Generation Biohazard Virus was wreaking havoc in the Vile Thoughts World, while Zhu Wuwan led the army of the Great Zhu Celestial Dynasty to resist the invasion of the demons and ghosts from the Vile Thoughts World on the Dongyuan Continent battlefield.

With the combination of both internal and external factors, Zhu Wuyan's speed of earning the world's origin was simply terrifying. Moreover, he could also use this opportunity to obtain an extremely large number of breakthrough points.

The world's origin could increase one's talent and aptitude, while the breakthrough point could be used to increase one's strength. The two went hand in hand, and Zhu Wuwan obtained an extremely comprehensive improvement.

This world invasion, which was considered a disaster for the Dongyuan Continent, had turned into a huge fortune for Zhu Wuan.

In just a few decades, Zhu Wuyan's strength had broken through the bottlenecks and shackles. She had passed the True Lightning Tribulation and the Inner Demon Tribulation and stepped into the perfected Tribulation Transcendence Realm.

Next, he only needed to cultivate his essence, qi, and spirit to the peak realm, and he would be able to naturally step into the soaring realm and advance to a higher level.

At this moment, with the help of all kinds of divine arts, Zhu Wuwan had already enslaved all the forces in the entire Dongyuan Continent, making these forces earn the world's origin and breakthrough points for him.

The Evil Thought World had also become the world of the Sixth Generation Virus. The Evil Thought Doppelganger had even broken through the limits of his essence, qi, and spirit in the Dongyuan Continent. Then, he returned to the Evil Thought World and comprehended the power of the rules of the Evil Thought World. He had successfully occupied and controlled these rules, leaving the Evil Thought World helpless.

After mastering the rules of the Malicious Thought World, Zhu Wanwan finally understood the truth behind the Malicious Thought World's invasion of the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located. He had originally thought that the Malicious Thought World was crazy and seeking death. After all, the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located was far beyond the Malicious Thought World.

Other than the fact that the Malicious Thought World had the upper hand at the beginning of the invasion, as time passed, the Malicious Thought World would eventually fail and be devoured by the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located.

To a normal person, doing such a thing was obviously too brainless. However, what Zhu Wuwan did not expect was that the Evil Thought World was doing this to get rid of the cancer in their bodies, which was those demons and ghosts.

The Heavenly Dao Law of the Vicious Will World used the remaining clarity to deliberately create such a world invasion. It drove most of the demons and ghosts in the world into the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located, and used the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located to clean up the countless demons and ghosts that it could not do anything about.

Although they would lose a large amount of the world's origin, they could also use this opportunity to come into contact with and understand the origin and structure of a higher world. This way, they would have a goal and direction to move forward, which would be greatly beneficial to the development of the entire world in the future.

Not to mention that the Malicious Thought World had also gotten rid of the malignant tumor in its body through this invasion, so it could go into battle lightly. As long as it cut off the part that was connected to the East Yuan Continent at the critical moment and gave this part to the world where the East Yuan Continent was located, the Malicious Thought World could successfully escape and stay away from the world where the East Yuan Continent was located. It could avoid being sucked dry and even obtain its own independence. It could be said to be killing several birds with one stone, and its future was limitless.

Regrettably, the Malicious Thought World did not expect Zhu Wuyang to have such a trick up her sleeve. She allowed her Malicious Thought Clone to step through the limits of the Heavenly Dao and quietly grasped many important rules of the Malicious Thought World. Moreover, she was still plotting to obtain more power of rules.

Moreover, Zhu Wanhao had used the Origin Energy of the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located to hide from the detection of the Malicious Thought World and quietly lurked in the depths of the Malicious Thought World.

One day in the future, when Zhu Wuyang's Evil Thought Avatar comprehended most of the rules of the Evil Thought Great World, it would be able to control the Evil Thought Great World and replace the Evil Thought Great World's Heavenly Dao, becoming the true ruler of the Evil Thought Great World.

This was also extremely beneficial to the cultivation of Zhu Wuwan's main body. It could bring a huge boost to Zhu Wuwan's main body. One day, when his main body reached a certain level, he could even devour the entire Evil Thoughts Great World to strengthen himself, and then reach an unknown level in one fell swoop.

In the blink of an eye, hundreds of years had passed, and the Evil Thought World had completely broken away from the world where the Dongyuan Continent was located. Only Zhu Wuyang could sense it through her avatar. However, in order to avoid being discovered by the Heavenly Axiom of the Evil Thought World, Zhu Wuyang's main body did not dare to contact it too much.

It wouldn't be too late to contact him when the Evil Spirit Doppelganger was able to control the Evil Spirit World.

Zhu Wanwan's main body had also been raised to the extreme of the human world. The Heavenly Essence, Earth Essence, and Human Essence had transformed into the Immortal Dao Primordial Spirit, Immortal Dao Immortal Essence, and Immortal Dao Immortal Body.

After settling the matters in Dongyuan Continent and accumulating the breakthrough points for ten thousand years, Zhu Wan'an felt that his Immortal Spiritual Root had already reached the seventh-grade. He told all his relatives, friends, officials, and subordinates ... After saying goodbye, he ascended to the higher world above the endless sky.

Zhu Wuan was prepared to ascend to a higher world first. After he had established his footing, he would think of a way to bring his relatives, friends, officials, and subordinates over.

“See you later!”

Looking at the crowd on the ground, especially the countless descendants, Zhu Wuyang smiled slightly and waved goodbye.

The people who sent them off also slowly knelt down and witnessed their husbands, fathers, grandfathers, ancestors, and Imperial Immortals ... He left the Dongyuan Continent.

And a new legend was about to begin in the immortal world!

[PS: I originally wanted to write more details about the process of fighting against the Evil Will World, but after reading many people’s comments, I felt that writing it like this would make up for the number of words. It felt like I was scamming the readers. After all, the results of this book are still okay. If it continues to be mediocre, my monthly income will at least be better than my current main class.

Therefore, after some consideration, he simply wrote down the general process and did not describe it in detail. After all, the failure of the Malevolent World was certain. Perhaps the only highlight was that the protagonist had planted a seed in the Malevolent World, and in the future, he would definitely be able to harvest the entire world.

In addition, this ending had been difficult to produce for a long time. The new book had more than 400,000 words, so after thinking about it, he wrote this ending in a hurry.

The events in the Immortal World were not written in detail, leaving an open ending. The meaning was that this book had an end, but Zhu Wuyang’s legendary journey would never end. After all, Zhu Wuyang would definitely be immortal in the end, and his life would definitely last forever.

This was also a perfect ending, and there was enough room for imagination. The newbie felt that it was okay and did not continue to drag the number of words to make up for it. If the readers were dissatisfied, they could scold them as they pleased.

Because I've been too slow recently, I've published the last few dozen chapters in one go as an apology. I won't delay any longer. Please forgive me, everyone. We'll meet in the new book.]
