Chapter 11 - 11 The Super Genius of the Imperial Palace

11 The Super Genius of the Imperial Palace

Looking at Zhu Wuyang, who had picked up the delicacies and was heading to the study to eat, Lai Chun and Chu Xia looked at each other with confusion in their bright eyes.

“What happened to His Highness 168th? He actually burned his own bed. This incense wooden bed is expensive. It’s said that it’s carved from a thousand-year-old fragrant wood. Each one is worth ten thousand gold, what a pity.” Lai Chun whispered as she cleaned up the remains of the incense wooden bed.

Chu Xia frowned slightly. “Could it be because the previous Crown Prince died on an incense wooden bed? His Highness 168th was afraid, so he burned this incense wooden bed?”

“That’s very likely.” Lai Chun nodded. “His Highness 168th is really pitiful. He doesn’t even dare to sleep on the bed in his bedroom. No wonder everyone says that he’s weak, incompetent, and timid. It seems that it’s true.”

Chu Xia thought for a moment. “Lai Chun, should we report this to Chief Fu?”

“Of course we have to report it. Didn’t Chief Steward Fu tell us to tell him everything about His Highness 168th in detail?” Lai Chun said, “By the way, did you investigate His Highness 168th’s strength just now? It’s still at the mid-stage of the Tendons Refinement realm, right?”

Chu Xia nodded. “That’s right. He’s still in the Mid-stage of the Tendons Refinement realm. Compared to before, he hasn’t made any progress. Obviously, His Highness hasn’t cultivated for the past two days.”

Chu Xia’s strength had already reached the Inner Qi Seed realm and was about to step into the Earth Gate realm. As long as she could break through to the Earth Gate realm, she could advance to the Meridian Forging Realm.

If not for the fact that Zhu Wuyang had cultivated the top-notch concealment secret technique, Azure Dragon Concealment Art, and was about to advance to the Lesser Mastery stage, he probably would not have been able to hide from Chu Xia’s detection.

“Congratulations, host. This is the second time in your life that someone has spoken ill of you behind your back. You have received 200 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being betrayed by your subordinate for the first time in your life. You have received 400 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for successfully surviving the first crisis in your life. You have obtained 4,000 breakthrough points...”

Just as he closed the study door, a series of mechanical reminders sounded in Zhu Wuyang's ears. This made Zhu Wuyang heave a sigh of relief, but at the same time, a bitter smile flashed across his face.

Although he had successfully survived a crisis and Lai Chun and Chu Xia did not detect his true strength and brought him death, the benefits he obtained from saving himself were too much.

If nothing unexpected happened, the breakthrough points awarded this time should be enough for him to advance his strength to the Golden Bones Refinement realm.

The Qi and blood refined by the Grand Earth Limitless Technique was known as the Qi and blood of the earth. It meant that it was as vast and powerful as the earth, far surpassing ordinary body tempering martial arts.

The breakthrough points of about 4,000 transformed into a considerable amount of strange power. Under the effect of the Grand Earth Limitless Technique, it transformed into pure and powerful Earth Qi and blood, forming a fog of Qi and blood that covered the sky and sun, seeping into Zhu Wuyang's body.

The Earth Qi and blood passed through his skin, his muscles, his veins... and surged into every bone in his body.

Thanks to the previous waves of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang's strength had already reached the limit of the Tendons Refinement realm. Next was to break through to the next realm.

The skin, muscles, and tendons that had been tempered to perfection effectively wrapped around the Earth Qi and blood, tempering it towards the bones, allowing the bones to effectively absorb the Earth Qi and blood.

If one's skin, muscles, and tendons were not tempered to perfection, not only would they not be able to help in the refinement of the bones, but it would also affect the refinement of the bones. It would even leave hidden dangers for martial artists. If it erupted in the future, the consequences would be unimaginable.

A portion of the Earth Qi and blood transformed into a huge hammer under the effect of the Earth Infinite Technique, constantly hammering every bone, making them even harder and more flexible.

The other part of his Qi and blood fused into his bones, nourishing the bones that had been damaged by the hammering. As he destroyed them, he repaired them, constantly breaking them before rebuilding, allowing his bones to rapidly improve. He was getting closer and closer to breaking through to the next realm.

As the blood essence of the Earth hammered, tempered, and nourished, specks of golden light gradually appeared on the originally white bones. This was a sign that the bones had undergone preliminary tempering. This also meant that Zhu Wuyang's strength had stepped into a new stage. freewebnovel.cm

Early stage of Golden Bones Refinement!

"Congratulations to the host for stepping into the early stage of Golden Bones Refinement for the first time in your life. You have obtained 800 breakthrough points..."

To be honest, such strength was not too strong compared to Zhu Wuyang's age. He was even considered weak among his peers.

It had to be known that in the Jiu Zhao Nation, even martial artists from ordinary families could advance to the Tendons Refinement stage at the age of 17. Many children from slightly richer families could even break through to the Golden Bones Refinement stage at the age of 17.

Not to mention those rich and powerful people. As long as their children were not stupid, they would be able to advance to the Golden Bones Refinement Realm by the age of 17. As for those geniuses, there was no need to mention them. After more than 10 years of bitter cultivation, they could at least step into the Five Viscera Refinement and even the Bone Marrow refinement realm.

However, this was the Imperial Palace of the Jiu Zhao Nation, the residence of the Mad Emperor, Zhu Zhenwu. As Zhu Zhenwu's children, not to mention stepping into the Golden Bones Refinement realm at the age of 17, even stepping into the Golden Bones Refinement realm at the age of 20 was too fast. It was very likely that they would be killed.

Therefore, Zhu Wuyang's cultivation speed at this moment was not just fast in the Jiu Zhao Imperial Palace, but too fast... It was simply like riding a rocket.

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang could definitely be considered a super genius in the Jiu Zhao Imperial Palace. He was almost unique.

If Zhu Zhenwu knew about Zhu Wuyang's true cultivation level, his position as the Crown Prince would definitely not last for a month.

As for the other Princes and Princesses, even if they had the best cultivation conditions in the entire Jiu Zhao Nation, their strength was generally inferior to ordinary martial artists of the same age outside.

As for why that was the case, they naturally had to ask themselves!

When many Princes and Princesses schemed against each other, they did not use poison to harm. Instead, they tried to dope each other with various colorless and odorless heavenly treasures.

Once the other Princes and Princesses mistakenly consumed these natural treasures, their strength would soar. At that time, if this matter was exposed to the Mad Emperor, it was very likely that these Princes and Princesses would be killed.

Therefore, the huge Nine Brilliance Imperial Palace could be said to be filled with killing intent. There were countless natural treasures. They were all painstakingly saved by many Princes and Princesses to frame their opponents.

There were more breakthrough points in this wave. Even though he had already stepped into the early-stage of the Golden Bones Refinement Realm, there were still a lot of breakthrough points that he had yet to digest. Zhu Wuyang continued to absorb them.

The fog-like blood qi in his body had already transformed into clouds of blood qi. Whether it was the purity or the thickness, they had increased by several times. The powerful blood qi naturally brought Zhu Wuyang greater benefits, allowing his strength to increase even faster.

12 Who Pooped On It?

By the time he successfully absorbed this wave of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang had already stabilized his Early-stage Golden Bones Refinement strength.

At this moment, his combat strength had more than doubled from before.

If an ordinary martial artist were to encounter such a good thing, they would already be beaming with joy. However, Zhu Wuyang could only smile bitterly and feel even more uneasy.

Nothing was more important than the stomach. Since things had come to this, there was no point in worrying. It was better to eat first.

When he opened the two food boxes, a fragrance immediately assaulted his nose, making Zhu Wuyang's stomach tighten and grumble.

"Congratulations to the host for smelling the fragrance of delicacies for the first time in your life. You have received 200 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for feeling hungry for the first time in your life. You have received 300 breakthrough points..."

Zhu Wuyang's expression darkened. He could only cover the food box again and absorb this wave of breakthrough points first.

The strange power transformed from more than 400 breakthrough points increased Zhu Wuyang's strength by a little, and he was closer to advancing to the next realm.

With a bitter smile, Zhu Wuyang opened the food box and placed the delicacies on the desk.

He was not worried that someone would poison him. After all, Zhu Wuyang becoming the Crown Prince of the Jiu Zhao Nation was what everyone wanted. Those Princes and Princesses were still hoping that he could live a little longer as the Crown Prince, lest it became their turn to be the Crown Prince next.

These Princes, Princesses, Concubines, and beauties could not wait to protect him. How could they easily poison him and kill Zhu Wuyang, their shield?

Not to mention, before this, Zhu Wu even let Lai Chun and Chu Xia taste the food inside to ensure that it was not poisonous. Only then did he feel at ease and bring it to the study to enjoy.

Although he was an unpopular "waiting for death" Prince, Zhu Wuyang could still enjoy the treatment he deserved. This lunch was quite sumptuous.

Braised shark fin, royal roasted deer tendon, stir-fried phoenix tongue, poached pork tenderloin, Hundred Birds Phoenix Soup... Every dish was a delicacy of the palace, and its taste far surpassed any delicacy Zhu Wuyang had tasted on Earth.

Could it be because the cooks utilized the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, or was it because of the astonishing skills of the imperial chefs in the palace?

Zhu Wuyang did not think too much about it and enjoyed the food to his heart's content. Then, he was bombarded by a series of System notifications.

“Congratulations to the host for eating for the first time in your life. You have received 1,000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for feeling very happy for the first time in your life. You have obtained 400 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for tasting the Yellow Ribbon Shark Fin for the first time in your life. You have received 100 breakthrough points...”

More than a dozen notifications appeared, allowing Zhu Wuyang to obtain another few thousand breakthrough points. He could not be bothered to enjoy the delicacies anymore. Zhu Wuyang immediately sat cross-legged and circulated the Grand Earth Limitless Technique with all his might, absorbing the endless strange energy.

This strange energy was transformed into pure Earth Qi and blood at an astonishing speed, forming large clouds of Qi and blood that enveloped the bones in Zhu Wuyang's body.

Tempering, hammering, nourishing... The process was carried out in an orderly manner. More and more golden light spots appeared on his bones, gradually dyeing the bones golden.

With his previous experience of tempering his skin, muscles, and tendons, Zhu Wuyang became more and more proficient in tempering his bones.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyang could clearly feel that because all the meridians in his body had been cleared, the circulation of his Earth Qi and blood was extremely smooth. The refinement of his bones had also become deeper and more comprehensive.

The unobstructed meridians could allow Zhu Wuyang to effectively absorb every bit of the strange power and transform it into Earth Qi and blood without any harm. It could also allow Zhu Wuyang's body to store more Qi and blood power, far surpassing martial artists of the same level.

The two could not be compared!

By the time all the bones in Zhu Wuyang's body were dyed golden, once his blood essence power circulated at full power, all his bones would become golden. This also meant that Zhu Wuyang's strength had stepped into a new realm.

Mid-stage Golden Bones Refinement!

“Congratulations to the host for stepping into the mid-stage of the Golden Bones Refinement Realm for the first time in your life. You have obtained 1,000 breakthrough points...”

Zhu Wuyang felt the huge increase in strength and his expression turned bitter. He felt that it was even more difficult to hide now. The level of the Azure Dragon Concealment Art was still not enough.

A Meridian Forging Realm martial artist should be able to detect his true strength at this moment.

However, there were so many High-level Meridian Forging Realm martial artists in the Crown Prince Palace, and there was no lack of Meridian Forging Realm martial artists who had grasped secret detection techniques. It was actually not difficult to discover his true strength.

While Zhu Wuyang was worried about this, Lai Chun and Chu Xia, who were carrying a bag of incense wood ashes out, encountered two guards from the Crown Prince Palace.

“Lai Chun, Chu Xia, what did the two of you take out from the Crown Prince’s chamber? It seems quite heavy?”

“His Highness has just succeeded as the Crown Prince and is already very poor. Don’t take away what little assets he has left.”

The two guards sized up Lai Chun and Chu Xia with smiles. Their words were filled with ridicule, but their gazes were very sharp as they stared fixedly at the ashes wrapped in brocade.

These two guards were not the men of the 38th Prince, Zhu Wensi. They were the trusted aides of the 47th Prince, Zhu Yandu. They were also spies sent to the Crown Prince’s Palace to carry out secret operations.

The one with a thick pair of eyebrows was called Zhen Le, and the other was called Feng Yuan.

Zhen Le and Feng Yuan, the two imperial guards who had already broken through to the Meridian Forging Realm, were clearly suspicious of Lai Chun and Chu Xia.

Seeing this scene, Lai Chun and Chu Xia looked at each other and knew that they could not avoid it. They sighed at their bad luck and opened the brocade bag for Zhen Le and Feng Yuan to check.

“There’s only some ashes in here. The Crown Prince is probably in a bad mood and feels that the thousand-year-old incense wooden bed in the chamber is unlucky, so he burned it. We’re just helping to clean it up and throw it out.”

“If you don’t believe me, you can search carefully and see if there’s anything suspicious inside. This way, you can better convict us of our crimes.”

Zhen Le and Feng Yuan sneered. They squatted down and started to search carefully. Indeed, they discovered that there were only some ordinary ashes in the bag. It was just that it smelled a little bad.

“Since it’s just some ashes, hurry up and throw them out. However, these ashes are too smelly.”

“Did the two of you poop on it? Or did our Crown Prince poop on it? This smell is really strong.”

13 Care and Protection

“Your Highness, are you inside?”

“We heard you had a situation here, so we wanted to come in and take a look.”

Although they had already heard Lai Chun and Chu Xia’s explanation, Zhen Le and Feng Yuan were still worried. They hurriedly went to Zhu Wuyang’s bedroom and knocked on the door.

Before Zhu Wuyang could respond, the two of them had already pushed open the palace door and walked in. After realizing that there was no one in the hall, they walked straight to the study in the bedchamber.

According to their senses, Zhu Wuyang should be in the study.

In the study, Zhu Wuyang heard a knock on the door. He had just absorbed a wave of breakthrough points and was considering whether to let the two of them in when he was stunned to discover that two guards had barged in without waiting for his instructions.

His expression changed slightly. He felt really aggrieved as the Crown Prince.

Without thinking too much, he secretly circulated the Azure Dragon Concealment Art to the limit and tried his best to hide his true strength, waiting for Zhen Le and Feng Yuan to arrive.

When they arrived at the door of the study, Zhen Le and Feng Yuan did not even say a word. They directly pushed open the door and looked at Zhu Wuyang together. At the same time, they circulated their detection techniques.

“Fortunately, His Highness is fine. It’s just that the bed is destroyed. We’re relieved.”

He seemed to be concerned about Zhu Wuyang, but there was no respect in his tone, as if Zhu Wuyang was not the Crown Prince of the Jiu Zhao Nation.

At the same time, the notification of the Extraordinary Encounters System kept ringing in Zhu Wuyang’s mind.

“Congratulations to the host for saving yourself for the second time in your life. You have obtained 1,600 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for seeing a man for the first time in your life. You have received 200 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for speaking to a man for the first time in your life. You have received 200 breakthrough points...”

Before this, there were still a few notifications. The breakthrough points had already been absorbed by Zhu Wuyang.

“Congratulations, host. This is the third time in your life that someone has spoken ill of you behind your back. You have received 100 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations, host, for the first time in your life, you have raised the top-notch concealment secret technique of the pugilistic world, Azure Dragon Concealment Art, to the Lesser Mastery stage. You have obtained 400 breakthrough points...”

With the help of the Lesser Mastery stage Azure Dragon Concealment, Zhu Wuyang successfully hid from Zhen Le and Feng Yuan’s detection. These two Grand Meridian Forging experts did not discover his true strength.

He had escaped this calamity again. If not for Zhu Wuyang raising the Azure Dragon Secret Art in time, with Zhen Le and Feng Yuan’s strength and their detection techniques, Zhu Wuyang’s strength would have been exposed. At that time, what awaited him would definitely be death.

Although Zhu Yandou, the 47th Prince behind Zhen Le and Feng Yuan, wanted Zhu Wuyang to be his shield and temporarily stabilize his position as the Crown Prince, if Zhu Wuyang performed too well, Zhu Yandou would definitely not give Zhu Wuyang a chance to grow stronger out of jealousy.

After all, there was only one throne!

It was not until Zhen Le and Feng Yuan sized him up and confirmed that Zhu Wuyang was fine that they left.

“Phew...”

Seeing the two of them leave, Zhu Wuyang heaved a long sigh of relief. The strange energy that surged over could no longer be suppressed and spread throughout his body, increasing his strength at an astonishing speed.

“Congratulations to the host for successfully surviving a life-and-death crisis for the second time in your life. You have received 3,000 breakthrough points...”

Another wave of breakthrough points turned into an even stronger surge of strange power, flooding into Zhu Wuyang’s body.

Fortunately, Zhu Wuyang’s meridians were all opened. Each meridian could effectively digest this strange energy and transform it into pure and powerful Earth Qi and blood, so it did not put any pressure on Zhu Wuyang.

Zhu Wuyang methodically controlled the huge amount of Qi and blood power to hammer and polish every bone in his body, making it more and more firm and flexible.

As each bone improved, the lethality of Zhu Wu’s every move soared, and his penetrative power could be said to be terrifying.

At this moment, even if a thousand-catty boulder were placed in front of Zhu Wuyang, it could be shattered by a single punch from him, let alone splitting a brick with his bare hands and crushing a huge rock with his chest.

The cloud formed by the Earth Qi and blood essence had already expanded to a radius of several meters. It sat between reality and illusion, lingering around Zhu Wuyang's body, effectively strengthening every bone.

After this wave of breakthrough points was absorbed, although Zhu Wuyang had not broken through to the Late-stage Golden Bones Refinement Realm, he was already very close.

If nothing unexpected happened, with a few more waves of breakthroughs, Zhu Wuyang's strength would be able to advance to the Late-stage of the Golden Bones Refinement Realm.

"Congratulations to the host for being cared for for the first time in your life. You have obtained 400 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being protected for the first time in your life. You have received 500 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being betrayed by your subordinate for the second time in your life. You have received 300 breakthrough points..."

At this moment, another notification came from the Extraordinary Encounters System. Who was thinking about him this time?

After leaving the Crown Prince's chamber, Feng Yuan frowned. "Even the precious thousand-year-old incense wooden bed was burned by Zhu Wuyang. This is the first time Zhu Wuyang has done such an outrageous thing. Do you think it's possible that he wanted to commit suicide on the thousand-year-old incense wooden bed but didn't die because of his cowardice? In the end, he only burned the thousand-year-old incense wooden bed?"

"I think that's very likely. It's quite in line with Zhu Wuyang's personality. However, this situation isn't what His Highness 47th wants to see. It wasn't easy for His Highness to push Zhu Wuyang, the scapegoat, up here. He wants him to block the disaster for everyone. We can't let him die so easily," Zhen Le said worriedly.

Feng Yuan nodded. "That's right. Let's pay more attention to Zhu Wuyang in the future. Don't let him die easily. Even if he's really going to die, he has to wait until the Mad Emperor is about to die. Tell the other guards, palace maids, and eunuchs about this... Tell them to be careful. If Zhu Wuyang dies, everyone will suffer."

“Alright, I understand,” Zhen Le replied.

This was the truth behind the care and protection special encounters that Zhu Wuyang had received, making him helplessly gain another wave of hundreds of breakthrough points.

14 I Just Want to Be A Quiet Otaku

By the time Zhu Wuyang absorbed all the breakthrough points that had been forcefully injected, his strength had already reached the peak of the Mid-stage Golden Bones Refinement Realm, and he was getting closer and closer to the Late-stage Golden Bones Refinement Realm.

Others would need months or even a year or two to improve so much, but Zhu Wuyang only took half an hour.

He looked at the current available Breakthrough Points he had. It had already exceeded 900 points. Although it was not enough for Zhu Wuyang to raise the Azure Dragon Concealment Art to the Greater Mastery realm, it could also allow his Azure Dragon Concealment Art to increase by a large amount and better hide his true strength.

After a quick meal, Zhu Wu began to cultivate the Azure Dragon Concealment Art.

“Congratulations to the host for cultivating the Azure Dragon Concealment Art for the third time in your life. You have obtained 100 breakthrough points...”

After absorbing all the usable breakthrough points, the Azure Dragon Concealment Art’s progress had increased a lot. If nothing unexpected happened, even martial artists at the High-level Meridian Forging Realm should not be able to detect Zhu Wuyang’s true strength.

This made Zhu Wuyang feel much safer. However, when he thought about how there was still a eunuch in the Crown Prince Palace who was close to the Xiantian realm and was said to have grasped an extremely powerful detection technique, Zhu Wuyang’s heart tensed up again.

The Lesser Mastery stage Azure Dragon Concealment Art was still a little worrisome at this level. He had to advance the Azure Dragon Concealment Art to the Greater Mastery stage as soon as possible before he could be at ease.

Moreover, although the Crown Prince Palace did not have a Xiantian Realm martial artist guarding it on the surface, who knew if there were Xiantian Realm martial artists secretly monitoring it?

Even if there were no Xiantian realm martial artists in the Crown Prince Palace, the other palaces near the Crown Prince Palace definitely had Xiantian realm martial artists guarding them.

Especially in the residence of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, there were Xiantian Realm martial artists everywhere. Once Zhu Wuyang stepped in, it was very likely that his true strength would be detected in minutes.

The Azure Dragon Concealment Art still needed to continue improving, and Zhu Wu's strength had to be suppressed with all his might.

In that case, he would try his best not to go out during this period of time. On the one hand, he could avoid encountering the Xiantian realm experts in the palace, and on the other hand, he could reduce the frequency of obtaining breakthrough points.

After all, in the huge palace, there were many things that Zhu Wuyang had never seen, played with, or experienced before... If he encountered them, there might be endless breakthrough points.

At that time, Zhu Wuyang would have to hide his strength while absorbing the breakthrough points that were forcefully poured over. If he was careless, his true strength would be exposed, and he would be completely finished.

Therefore, it was better to be an otaku. He would hide at home every day and cultivate the Azure Dragon Concealment Art with all his might so that he could reach the Greater Mastery stage as soon as possible.

Zhu Wuyang believed that with his current talent and aptitude, it wouldn't take long for him to improve the level of the Azure Dragon Concealment Art.

After some consideration, Zhu Wuyang lay on the new bed and began to cultivate the Azure Dragon Concealment Art.

It was unknown if it was because she was afraid that he would burn the bed again, but this time, Lai Chun had changed the bed for him. It was very difficult to burn, and it was quite tough. However, it was a little uncomfortable to sleep on.

This reminded Zhu Wuyang of the soft and fragrant thousand-year-old wooden bed from before. If he had known that it would be replaced with such a lousy bed, he would not have lain on the bed when he broke through previously. He regretted it.

“Congratulations to the host for saving yourself for the third time in your life. You have obtained 1,000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for lying in bed for the second time in your life. You have obtained 200 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for missing your bed for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points...”

Zhu Wuyang was a little speechless. It was fine if he wanted to save himself and obtain breakthrough points, but just by lying on the bed and thinking about the thousand-year-old incense wooden bed from before, he could also obtain breakthrough points. The Extraordinary Encounters System was too ridiculous.

These trivial matters could be considered a special encounter. Did it have to be so exaggerated?

Zhu Wuyang shook his head and endured the impact of the strange power again. His strength continued increasing.

“Congratulations to the host for feeling helpless for the third time in your life. You have obtained 100 breakthrough points...”

Zhu Wuyang wanted to curse again. You’re still giving points when I scold you. Extraordinary Encounters System, you’re getting more and more skilled at taking advantage of me.

According to the frequency at which he obtained breakthrough points, even if Zhu Wuyang hid in the bedroom and did not go out, it seemed like a large number of breakthrough points would be poured in. What should he do?

“Congratulations to the host for worrying about your future for the second time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for letting your imagination run wild for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points...”

Zhu Wuyang was a little desperate. He immediately focused all his attention on cultivating the Grand Earth Limitless Technique and the Azure Dragon Concealment Art. He did not think about anything else, lest he be forcefully injected with another wave of breakthrough points.

“Congratulations to the host for feeling despair for the second time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points...”

Zhu Wuyang said, “Extraordinary Encounters System, f*ck you!”

Zhu Wuyang, who was completely focused on cultivation, wanted to continue like this. He didn’t want any special situations to happen and bring him another wave of breakthrough points.

However, even if the tree wanted to stay still, the wind would not stop. There were many things in this world that would not be shifted by Zhu Wuyang’s will.

While Zhu Wuyang only wanted to cultivate calmly and slowly, not doing anything out of line, and to prevent any special encounters, Zhen Le and Feng Yuan were unwilling to comply with Zhu Wuyang’s wishes. freewebnovel.com

With the help of the two of them, the news of Zhu Wuyang’s failed self-immolation began to spread at an astonishing speed in the Crown Prince Palace. The more it spread, the more exaggerated it became.

“Have you heard? The new Crown Prince, Zhu Wuyang, was so frightened that he set himself on fire. Fortunately, he escaped from the sea of fire in time because he was afraid of pain. Otherwise, he would have been charred.”

“Of course I heard. Just now, Zhen Le and Feng Yuan even came to warn us to take good care of His Highness 168th in case he commits suicide. At that time, the Mad Emperor will choose a new Crown Prince. All the Princes will be unlucky. Who knows who will be chosen to die next?”

“Zhu Wuyang is really a piece of trash. It’s said that when he burned himself, he was lying on the bed. In the end, before the fire even started, he was so frightened that he rolled down. He was completely fine, but that expensive thousand-year-old incense wooden bed was completely destroyed.”

“When Zhu Wuyang set himself on fire, I was behind his bedroom and saw smoke billowing inside. At that time, I didn’t expect Zhu Wuyang, this cowardly fellow, to actually dare to set himself on fire, so I didn’t care.”

15 Becoming Stronger While Lying Down

“Congratulations to the host for being mocked for the first time in your life. You have obtained 500 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being mocked for the second time in your life. You have obtained 400 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being mocked for the third time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points...”

Zhu Wuyang only wanted to cultivate the Azure Dragon Concealment Art alone, but the wind wouldn't stop. He clearly didn't even leave his bedroom and was only practicing his secret techniques obediently without increasing his strength, but some people still didn't let him off.

Why did they have to mock him? It was fine if they mocked him, but it was actually judged as a special fortuitous encounter by the Extraordinary Encounters System. Another wave of breakthrough points surged over, causing Zhu Wuyang's strength to soar again.

It had only been a few hours since he transmigrated, but Zhu Wuyang had already been forced to absorb tens of thousands of breakthrough points and advance more than ten minor realms in a row. Such a cheat was too great.

How could he be a quiet otaku!

Zhu Wuyang was so depressed that he wanted to die, but he was also afraid of death. He could only continue to helplessly endure the impact of the breakthrough points and increase his strength.

“Congratulations to the host for wanting to die for the first time in your life. You have obtained 600 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being afraid of death for the first time in your life. You have obtained 600 breakthrough points...”

Zhu Wuyang said, “Can you be more boring? I just had two thoughts. There's no need to categorize them as special encounters.”

However, the interpretation rights of the Extraordinary Encounters System ultimately belonged to the Extraordinary Encounters System. It did not accept any suggestions or objections. Zhu Wuyang could only endure the impact of the breakthrough points again, like a helpless young girl.

The guards, palace maids, and eunuchs in the Crown Prince's Palace knew about Zhu Wuyang's “immolation”, which meant that the masters behind them also knew about this matter.

When they learned that Zhu Wuyang had almost “immolated” himself on the second day after becoming the Crown Prince, the Princes and Princesses who had finally pushed Zhu Wuyang to the position of Crown Prince could not sit still anymore.

“What are those dog slaves doing? There are so many people in the Crown Prince's Palace, and every one of them is stronger than Zhu Wuyang. They actually almost let that trash Zhu Wuyang burn himself. They're simply a bunch of idiots. Immediately warn them that if anything happens to Zhu Wuyang, they will be buried with him.”

“Zhu Wuyang must not die now. Otherwise, the Mad Emperor will definitely blame us for this matter. Moreover, we still need Zhu Wuyang to hold the fort for us for as long as possible. Therefore, we must think of a way to keep Zhu Wuyang alive. The longer he lives, the better.”

“Find someone to persuade Zhu Wuyang so that he won't take things too hard. At the same time, tell Zhu Wuyang's grandparents about this and let them enter the palace to accompany Zhu Wuyang for a period of time.”

“I didn't expect that coward Zhu Wuyang to dare to burn himself. It's really unexpected. Arrange for a few more people to enter the Crown Prince Palace and get them to protect Zhu Wuyang at all times. We can't let anything happen to him.”

As expected, with the help of these good brothers, sisters, and concubines... Zhu Wuyang obtained another wave of breakthrough points.

“Congratulations to the host for being cared for for the second time in your life. You have received 500 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being cared for for the third time in your life. You have received 300 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being mocked by a crowd for the first time in your life. You have obtained 1,000 breakthrough points...”

Hearing the notification from the Extraordinary Encounters System, Zhu Wuyang wailed in despair. He knew that things had become even worse.

The surging Earth Qi and blood gushed over, enveloping every bone in Zhu Wuyang's body. They were either tempered from the outside or nourished from the inside out.

As the top Foundation Establishment divine technique of the Jiu Zhao Nation and even the pugilistic world, the Grand Earth Limitless Technique was cultivated layer by layer. It was like peeling silk from a cocoon, and it could effectively seep into various parts of a martial artist's body, creating a flawless foundation for the martial artist.

Not to mention that Zhu Wuyang's talent was top-notch and his meridians were all open. It could even effectively increase the tempering effect of the Earth Qi and blood.

Therefore, when Zhu Wuyang cultivated the Grand Earth Limitless Technique, the benefits he could obtain were even greater. The tempering and consolidation of his cultivation foundation was also even greater, far surpassing the other Princes and Princesses.

In the huge Jiu Zhao Imperial Palace, at least 80% of the Princes and Princesses cultivated the Grand Earth Limitless Technique in the Body Tempering realm. This was also the highest level Foundation Establishment Divine Art of the Zhu Imperial Family, and it was also the family treasure of the Zhu Imperial Family.

Not to mention in the Jiu Zhao Nation, even in the entire Southern Wasteland, or even in the Dongyuan Continent, the Grand Earth Limitless Technique could be considered the top Foundation Establishment divine technique.

Coupled with the talent Zhu Wuyang possessed, the foundation he could build was definitely beyond imagination.

Therefore, after Zhu Wuyang advanced to the Late-stage of the Golden Bones Refinement Realm, his overall strength far exceeded that of martial artists of the same level. Be it the thickness, purity, strength, speed, or defense of the Earth Qi and blood in his body, they were several times stronger than martial artists of the same level.

Yes, with the help of this wave of breakthroughs, Zhu Wuyang had hopelessly advanced another realm and stepped into the Late-stage Golden Bones Refinement realm.

A 17-year-old Late-stage Golden Bones Refinement Realm martial artist could definitely be considered a small genius in the outside world. In addition, Zhu Wuyang's foundation was solid and incomparably stable. Although he was only a Late-stage Golden Bones Refinement Realm martial artist, his overall strength was not inferior to a martial artist who had perfected the Five Viscera Refinement and was even close to Bone Marrow refinement realm experts.

This meant that with Zhu Wuyang's current strength and talent, he was a peerless genius in the Jiu Zhao Imperial Palace. Even in the outside world, his progress could be considered astonishing.

However, the higher one's strength increased, the more difficult it was to hide. Furthermore, Zhu Wuyang's Azure Dragon Concealment Art was still quite a distance away from the Greater Mastery stage. Even with Zhu Wuyang's talent, he would not be able to advance to the Greater Mastery stage in a short period of time.

Before this, it was very likely that a Xiantian Realm martial artist would discover some clues and investigate Zhu Wuyang's true strength. At that time, Zhu Wuyang would be killed.

Therefore, it was best not to improve if possible. After all, the faster he improved, the faster he might die.

16 Unmatched Fortune and Unmatched Misfortune

"Congratulations to the host for advancing to the Late-stage of Golden Bones Refinement for the first time in your life. You have obtained 1,500 breakthrough points..."

The arrival of this wave of breakthrough points allowed Zhu Wuyang to stabilize his current strength.

Zhu Wuyang smiled bitterly and added the few hundred points he had accumulated to the Azure Dragon Concealment Art. Although it could not allow the Azure Dragon Concealment Art to break through to the Greater Mastery realm, the more it increased, the safer Zhu Wuyang would be.

The Princes, Princesses, and concubines in the palace were really bored. For some reason, they cared about him, mocked him, and it even developed to the point of mass mocking him.

Did they really think that the previous owner of this body was so stupid that he couldn't even tell that if they were concerned about him for real?

Speaking of which, Zhu Wuyang didn't do anything out of line, right? He had been cooped up in his bedroom all this time, but trouble actually came from the sky.

Zhu Wuyang knew very well that at this moment, in the entire palace, there was basically no one who really cared about him. It was true that they were mocking him. Their so-called concern was probably because they were worried that he would die early. This way, Zhu Zhenwu would have to choose the next unlucky scapegoat.

“Congratulations to the host for seeing through the enemy’s true colors for the first time in your life. You have obtained 1,000 breakthrough points...”

Hearing the system notification, Zhu Wuyang felt a little depressed. After absorbing this wave of breakthrough points, he no longer let his imagination run wild and began to focus on cultivating the Azure Dragon Concealment Art.

Life after transmigrating was really difficult. It was fine if he was in danger of facing a calamity at any time, but he couldn’t even play with his phone, watch television, or ride a bicycle... He couldn’t even have the right to let his imagination run wild.

It’s so difficult for me!

“Congratulations to the host for being schemed against for the first time in your life. You have obtained 1,000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being schemed against for the second time in your life. You have obtained 800 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being schemed against for the third time in your life. You have obtained 600 breakthrough points...”

The tree wanted peace!

But the wind would not cease!

Zhu Wuyang originally felt that he didn’t have to think about anything else and only needed to focus on cultivating the Azure Dragon Concealment Art. There shouldn’t be any problems.

However, even though he had already gotten to this point, there were still people plotting against him. Speaking of which, which bastards were so free to plot against him, the poor Crown Prince who had no power or influence? What did they scheme against him for? They actually brought him so many breakthrough points!

Zhu Wuyang thought about it and could not think of the mastermind behind it. He could only give up helplessly and continue to absorb the strange powers transformed from the breakthrough points to continuously increase his strength.

At the same time, he waited and watched!

While Zhu Wuyang was focused on cultivating, two eunuchs were walking towards him.

The leading eunuch was thin and wrinkled, and his entire body emitted a cold aura. He was the head eunuch of the Crown Prince Palace, Wei Ancai. His strength was already close to the Xiantian realm, and he was the strongest martial artist in the Crown Prince Palace.

The eunuch following him was in his early thirties. He was fair-faced and beardless, and his head was always lowered as he walked. He was Wei Ancai's deputy, Xiao Fuzi. His strength had also reached the Mid-stage of the Meridian Forging Realm, and his Frost Inner Qi was incomparably powerful.

These two eunuchs were spies sent by the 89th Prince, Zhu Libo, to the Crown Prince's palace. As one of the strongest Princes in the palace, Zhu Libo's power was extremely great, steadily surpassing the 38th Prince and the 14th Princess.

"These pieces of trash. I've only left for a short while, but the Crown Prince has already caused trouble and caused us to be scolded by His Highness. I must teach them a lesson today," Wei Ancai shouted in a sharp voice as he walked quickly.

Xiao Fu'zi said respectfully, "Those damn guards and palace maids all felt that the 168th Prince would die sooner or later, so they didn't take him seriously. It's said that when the Crown Prince's chamber was on fire, some guards and palace maids had already seen smoke coming out, but no one went to take a look."

"Even if the 168th Prince is just a scapegoat, these servants don't dare to look down on him." Wei Ancai snorted. "Moreover, their masters are still counting on the 168th Prince to take over for a period of time so that they won't be pushed to the position of Crown Prince. In the end, these servants are too careless. Don't blame me for teaching them a lesson on behalf of their masters."

Xiao Fu'zi nodded. "You're right."

"Let's go and see the Crown Prince first. Then, we'll gather all the guards, palace maids, and eunuchs in the Crown Prince's Palace and teach them a lesson," Wei Ancai said coldly. "Since their master doesn't have time to teach them a lesson, I'll teach them a lesson on behalf of their master."

Soon, Zhu Wu heard a knock on the door.

"Your Highness, this old servant, Wei Ancai, is here to greet you."

Zhu Wuyang's expression changed slightly. Wei Ancai was the strongest martial artist in the Crown Prince Palace. He was only half a step away from stepping into the Xiantian realm and had even grasped a powerful detection technique. It was very likely that he could see through his Azure Dragon Concealment Art. Should he let him in?

Although he really wanted to chase Wei Ancai away and not let him enter the bedroom, if he did so, Wei Ancai would definitely become suspicious. At that time, he would definitely use a probing technique on him, and the possibility of being exposed would be greater.

Moreover, Wei Ancai was the head steward of the Crown Prince Palace. It was impossible for Zhu Wuyang to not see him. With the other party's strength, even if he wanted to barge in, Zhu Wuyang would not be able to stop him, just like the two imperial guards, Zhen Le and Feng Yuan.

In that case, there was no point in stopping him. It would be easier to expose himself if he did that. It was better to let him in.

"Come in!"

This was the first time Zhu Wuyang felt that death was so close to him. After all, with his current progress in the Azure Dragon Concealment Art, it was very likely that he could not hide from Wei Ancai's detection.

As long as Wei Ancai used a probing technique on him, Zhu Wuyang's true strength would definitely be exposed. It would not be like when he faced Chu Xia, Zhen Le, and Feng Yuan previously. Zhu Wuyang was still confident that he could hide from their detection.

However, Wei Ancai was different. Wei Ancai's strength was extremely strong, and it was said that the detection technique he grasped was also quite powerful. The possibility of Zhu Wuyang hiding from him was basically zero.

Now, Zhu Wuyang could only pray that Wei Ancai would not use the probing technique on him after they met.

It was just that many times, fortune never came alone.

"Congratulations, host. For the first time in your life, you feel that a life-and-death crisis is imminent. You have obtained 3,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for hearing the voice of a eunuch for the first time in your life. You have received 300 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for speaking to a eunuch for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points..."

17 I Need to Hold It In

“Creak...”

As for Zhu Wuyang, who was sitting on the Profound Ice bed, he had already crawled under the blanket. With a solemn expression, he used the Azure Dragon Concealment Art with all his might to hide his true strength. At the same time, he absorbed the strange power that surged over at an extremely slow speed.

If not for his previous experience, Zhu Wuyang probably would not have been able to hide his aura and be immediately discovered by Wei Ancai.

However, even so, Zhu Wuyang still needed the help of the blanket to avoid facing Wei Ancai directly and letting him detect his true strength.

Looking at Zhu Wuyang, who was hidden under the blanket, Wei Ancai frowned. He thought to himself that the 168th Prince was really quite frightened. He hid under the blanket and didn’t dare to come out. No wonder everyone said that he was weak and incompetent.

However, when he thought about the use of keeping Zhu Wuyang alive, Wei Ancai still comforted him softly, “Your Highness, as the saying goes, it’s better to live than to die. If you can live for a day, you can enjoy another day of glory and wealth. You’re now the Crown Prince of the Jiu Zhao Nation, second only to one person. Why do you have to make things difficult for yourself?

Moreover, the reason why something happened to the first 17 Princes was mainly because they had powerful backgrounds and ill intentions. That was why they were killed one after another. However, Your Highness doesn’t have that kind of background, nor do you have any ambitions. I believe His Majesty can see this and won’t attack you easily.

After His Majesty passes away, His Highness only needs to give up the position of Crown Prince in time. At that time, you will definitely turn misfortune into fortune and enjoy wealth for the rest of your life.”

Wei Ancai’s words were quite pertinent, but there was also a lot of deception in them. The previous body’s owner might not be able to tell, but Zhu Wuyang, who was a bystander, was well aware.

“Congratulations to the host for being comforted for the first time in your life. You have received 500 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for seeing through the enemy’s true colors for the second time in your life. You have obtained 600 breakthrough points...”

Zhu Wuyang’s expression became even uglier, and it was already slightly distorted. That was because he was holding it in. After all, more and more strange powers were charging over.

Zhu Wuyang felt that if this continued, he would not be able to hold on much longer and reveal his aura. Once that happened, he would probably not be able to escape death.

Fortunately, when Wei Ancai was comforting Zhu Wuyang, he did not use any probing techniques. In addition, there was a thick blanket between them, so Wei Ancai did not sense Zhu Wuyang’s true strength.

Wei Ancai was still chattering non-stop. Under the blanket, Zhu Wuyang’s face was red. He endured the impact of the strange power with difficulty and tried his best to hide his strength.

“Your Highness, just focus on being the Crown Prince. Don’t worry too much. Although His Majesty is a little ruthless, he won’t kill the Crown Prince recklessly. As long as you don’t stand up against him, nothing will happen.”

“This old servant has just returned from the various Princes and has already received accurate news. The other Highnesses will not treat Your Highness like the previous Princes, so Your Highness can rest assured and sit on this seat.”

“Perhaps I’ve crossed the line, but I’m definitely thinking of Your Highness. I hope that Your Highness can be safe and healthy. Please forgive me.”

At this point, looking at the trembling blanket, Wei Ancai wondered if Zhu Wuyang was crying. It seemed that his words were quite simple and pleasant to the ears.

In that case, this cheap Crown Prince should not casually commit suicide again.

Wei Ancai felt a little more at ease and was finally prepared to leave. “I know that Your Highness has something against me and feels that I’m interfering too much. However, I have the heart to protect Your Highness. I definitely don’t want Your Highness to be harmed. Your Highness is wise. I’ll take my leave for now. If Your Highness has anything to say, feel free to look for me.”

As he spoke, Wei Ancai retreated with Xiao Fu’zi and sensed Zhu Wuyang’s strength. Although there was a blanket between them, with Wei Ancai’s strength, he could vaguely sense that Zhu Wuyang’s aura was weaker than before, but he was still in the Mid-stage of the Tendons Refinement realm.

This was expected. Wei Ancai did not find it strange. After leaving the palace, he closed the palace door and asked Xiao Fu'zi to gather the guards, palace maids, and eunuchs in the Crown Prince's palace.

"Congratulations to the host for being deceived for the first time in your life. You have obtained 600 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being misunderstood for the first time in your life. You have obtained 800 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for surviving your third life-and-death crisis. You have received 2,000 breakthrough points..."

Another series of breakthrough points came rushing in. When Wei Ancai brought Xiao Fu'zi out, Zhu Wuyang finally couldn't take it anymore. He collapsed on the bed and let go of the restrictions to let the huge strange force attack him.

"Phew..."

A powerful aura leaked out from Zhu Wuyang's body, causing a ripple in the small bedroom. If Wei Ancai and Little Fuzi were still in the bedroom, they would definitely be able to detect Zhu Wuyang's true strength through this aura.

Fortunately, before Zhu Wuyang became unable to hold it in, Wei Ancai and Little Fu'zi left in time. Otherwise, Zhu Wuyang would have been finished.

Once Wei Ancai and Xiao Fu'zi discovered Zhu Wuyang's true strength, they would definitely inform the master behind them when they found out that Zhu Wuyang had broken through from the Mid-stage of Tendon Refinement to the Late-stage of Golden Bonse Refinement realm in a short period of time.

The tallest tree in the forest would be destroyed by the wind, let alone in the Jiu Zhao Imperial Palace, where being a turtle had become a trend. Zhu Wuyang was so outstanding that there was no need for those Princes and Princesses to make a move. The Mad Emperor, Zhu Zhenwu, would be the first to kill him.

Fortunately, the crisis this time had passed smoothly. He still had to continue improving the Azure Dragon Concealment Art so that he could be safer.

He circulated the Grand Earth Limitless Technique with all his might. Zhu Wuyang absorbed the strange power that surged over and transformed it into pure Earth Qi and blood to temper and improve every bone.

As his strength increased, Zhu Wuyang had a faint feeling that he could shatter the ground and break through the sky. Zhu Wuyang knew that this was just an illusion.

When one's strength increased too quickly in a short period of time, martial artists would have such an illusion.

He had obtained so many breakthrough points this time. He wondered if he would be unlucky enough to advance to the next realm. He hoped that he would not advance again.

18 Protecting the Crown Prince

Just as he finished absorbing this wave of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang heard a commotion outside.

"Congratulations to the host for hearing a commotion for the first time in your life. You have received 300 breakthrough points..."

Zhu Wuyang was a little speechless. The voices were quite near, so he had no choice but to listen even if he didn't want to. He even obtained a wave of breakthrough points just like this. Was there still any justice in the world?

Helpless, he could only absorb the breakthrough points again.

After absorbing this wave of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang heard the commotion outside getting louder and louder. He listened carefully. It turned out that the head steward of the Crown Prince Palace, Wei Ancai, was gathering all the guards, palace maids, eunuchs... The topic of the meeting was.

Protect the Crown Prince!

"Congratulations to the host for hearing a commotion for the second time in your life. You have received 200 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations, host. This is the first time in your life that someone has held a meeting to discuss the method to protect you. You have received 1,000 breakthrough points..."

Zhu Wuyang: "..."

Indeed, disaster came from the sky. He was already very honest and quiet, but in the end, he always encountered such unexpected calamity.

“I don’t care which Prince or Princess sent you here as spies or traitors, or if you just want to waste your time in the Crown Prince’s Palace. But since you’ve received this salary, you have to perform your job well.”

“The Crown Prince is our common master. If we can’t even protect the Crown Prince, then don’t blame me for being ruthless and start killing. I still have this bit of authority.”
freewebnovel.com

“From today onwards, you will be divided into different teams according to my instructions. You will protect His Highness the Crown Prince 24 hours a day. If any team makes a mistake, everyone will be executed.”

...

Outside, Wei Ancai’s voice was filled with killing intent. His sharp voice resounded throughout the entire Crown Prince Palace. His powerful internal energy was undoubtedly displayed, causing the expressions of the hundreds of guards, palace maids, and eunuchs in the Crown Prince Palace to change drastically. For a moment, they were silent.

“Congratulations to the host for hearing the voice of a eunuch for the second time in your life. You have obtained 400 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for sensing the powerful aura of a Meridian Forging Realm martial artist for the first time in your life. You have obtained 800 breakthrough points...”

Although Wei Ancai did this to protect Zhu Wuyang, Zhu Wuyang really did not need it. He was not the original owner of this body, so he knew very well that it was better to live than to die.

Unless he had no choice, Zhu Wuyang would never commit suicide. However, facing the waves of breakthrough points, this was clearly forcing Zhu Wuyang to commit suicide.

Wei Ancai, can you stop talking nonsense!

Zhu Wuyang wailed as he tried his best to hide his aura to prevent the guards, eunuchs, and palace maids outside from discovering his abnormality. At the same time, he carefully absorbed the strange power that surged over and transformed it into pure Earth Qi and blood.

However, the commotion outside continued, and all kinds of special encounters continued to come.

“Congratulations to the host for hearing a woman’s voice for the second time in your life. You have obtained 400 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for hearing a commotion for the third time in your life. You have received 200 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being protected for the second time in your life. You have received 500 breakthrough points...”

Zhu Wuyang felt like he was about to go crazy. The waves of breakthrough points were like a storm, constantly slapping him under the blanket, making him not even have the time to cultivate the Azure Dragon Concealment Art in peace.

Many special encounters that even Zhu Wuyang did not expect were still discovered by the Extraordinary Encounters System and turned into waves of rewards.

For example, the first time he heard a woman shout, the first time he heard a spit, the first time he heard someone scold him...

Wave after wave of breakthrough points caused Zhu Wuyang to be on the verge of death. Fortunately, Zhu Wuyang did not reach the Perfected Golden Bones Refinement Realm. After all, the number of breakthrough points was not large, and the breakthrough points needed to advance to the Perfected Golden Bones Refinement Realm was not a small number.

However, this was a little too annoying. Facing the breakthrough points that came from time to time, how could Zhu Wuyang cultivate the Azure Dragon Concealment Art peacefully?

At this moment, the matter of the Azure Dragon Concealment Art concerned Zhu Wuyang’s life and death. He would rather not have a single breakthrough point compared to quickly improving the Azure Dragon Concealment Art.

It was still the same thing. The tree wanted to be quiet, but the wind did not stop. The child wanted to be raised, but the family was not around. The Extraordinary Encounters System was like a ferocious dragon. It did not care about Zhu Wuyang’s thoughts at all and forcefully poured waves of breakthrough points into his body, making it impossible for him not to improve.

This reminded Zhu Wuyang of a very realistic and cruel saying on Earth. Life was like an unstoppable force. Since he was powerless to resist, he should enjoy it to his heart’s content.

Hence, Zhu Wuyang began to enjoy the feeling of improvement. At the same time, he continued training the Azure Dragon Concealment Art to make himself safer.

This meeting that focused on protecting the Crown Prince, Zhu Wuyang, lasted for a full four hours. During this time, Wei Ancai even severely punished a few guards, palace maids, eunuchs, and so on. At the same time, he assigned specific tasks, adjusted the guards, and even set a password to protect Zhu Wuyang...

Even Zhu Wuyang could not help but sigh in admiration at how meticulous and detailed it was. He thought to himself that Wei Ancai had really put in a lot of effort to protect him. Such a suitable protection plan was enough to protect the Mad Emperor.

Perhaps Wei Ancai's plan to protect the Crown Prince was based on the plan of the imperial guards to protect the Mad Emperor, Zhu Zhenwu. However, compared to the group of guards, eunuchs, and palace maids protecting the Mad Emperor, these guards and palace maids could only be considered the ultra-weak version.

There was not even a single Xiantian Realm martial artist. What an embarrassing Crown Prince!

One had to know that most of the Princes and Princesses had no less than one Xiantian Realm martial artist protecting them. However, Zhu Wuyang, the Crown Prince, had the strongest guard beside him who was only at the Perfected Meridian Forging Realm, and he was even a spy of the enemy.

How tragic!

It was not easy for this meeting to end. Just as Zhu Wuyang felt that he could cultivate the Azure Dragon Concealment Art in peace and not be harassed by these fellows outside, an even bigger nightmare arrived.

19 Fortunately, It's Not a Novel

"Congratulations to the host for seeing a woman for the second time in your life. You have obtained 400 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for seeing a man for the second time in your life. You have obtained 100 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for seeing a eunuch for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points..."

“Congratulations to the host for meeting a woman for the third time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points...”

If everything that Zhu Wuyang had experienced was written into a novel, Zhu Wuyang believed that most readers would curse the author of this novel for having poor writing skills.

How could there be such a ridiculous system in this world? All kinds of trivial things were classified as special opportunities, and then they brought Zhu Wuyang breakthrough points. The frequency was so high, and there were so many notifications.

Unless it was a free-to-read novel... if it was pay-to-read, the book would definitely fail.

However, it was a pity that everything that Zhu Wuyang had experienced was real. After all, he was facing all of this at this moment.

Zhu Wuyang originally thought that since the meeting was over, he would no longer have to endure the commotion outside. Unfortunately, the difficult part was yet to come.

Under the warning and harsh punishment system of the head eunuch, Wei Ancai, the guards, eunuchs, and palace maids who were divided into teams were clearly frightened.

Therefore, every time it was a guard's turn to protect Zhu Wuyang, in order to ensure his safety, these guards would enter Zhu Wuyang's bedroom from time to time to confirm if Zhu Wuyang had self-immolated, hanged himself, or self-destructed... They were really meticulous in protecting him.

It was precisely because of this that Zhu Wuyang saw women, men, eunuchs... and because of this, he obtained waves of breakthrough points.

However, the first time he met a woman, Zhu Wuyang had obtained 500 breakthrough points. The first time he met a eunuch, Zhu Wuyang had obtained 300 breakthrough points. Curiously, the first time he met a man, Zhu Wuyang seemed to have only obtained 200 breakthrough points.

Even in another world, men and women still had such unequal statuses. Even seeing a eunuch gave him more breakthroughs than seeing a man. Could this be what the legends said?

Women > eunuchs > men?

This undoubtedly affected Zhu Wuyang's cultivation of the Azure Dragon Concealment Art, and it also violated his privacy. However, when he thought of the previous owner's cowardly personality, under normal circumstances, the original owner would basically swallow his anger.

Therefore, in order to avoid arousing suspicion and bringing danger to himself, Zhu Wuyang originally wanted to ignore them. However, he did not expect these guys to go overboard in order to ensure his safety.

“Congratulations to the host for being touched by a top beauty for the first time in your life. You have received 3,000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being touched by a top beauty for the second time in your life. You have received 2,000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being touched by a top beauty for the third time in your life. You have received 1,000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for being touched by a eunuch for the first time in your life. You have received 5,000 breakthrough points...”

Some of them saw Zhu Wuyang lying motionless under the blanket. It was unknown what they were doing, but it was unknown if they were taking advantage of him or if they were really concerned about Zhu Wuyang. They actually started to touch him.

The palace maids who could enter the Jiu Zhao Imperial Palace were all top-notch beauties with looks above 90 points. On Earth, Zhu Wuyang had almost never come into contact with such top-notch beauties, let alone do some indescribable things.

Under normal circumstances, Zhu Wuyang wouldn't mind being taken advantage of by these top beauties. However, with the Extraordinary Encounters System, these top beauties taking advantage of him were really damning.

Not to mention, there were also those eunuchs with different thoughts. Their touching left a deep impression on Zhu Wuyang, and the breakthrough points he obtained soared.

These guys seemed to be investigating Zhu Wuyang's situation, but they ended up doing something inadvertently.

This made Zhu Wuyang unable to take it anymore. He sat up angrily and said, “Get lost, all of you. Don't disturb my rest.”

The guards, eunuchs, and palace maids who had just entered the chamber were stunned and looked at Zhu Wuyang in shock.

“Your Highness, please forgive us. We’re doing this because we’re concerned about your safety. Please forgive us.”

“That’s right. As the Crown Prince’s health is poor, it’s easy for you to do something out of line. We’re doing this for your own good.”

“It’s my duty. I hope the Crown Prince will understand.”

Zhu Wuyang sneered. “If it’s really for my own good, then don’t disturb my rest. Even if you want to protect me, you don’t have to enter my chamber.”

“Tell the others that if anyone dares to enter the bedroom and disturb me again, don’t blame me for being ruthless. I won’t need Wei Ancai to punish you. I’ll kill him personally. I still have this bit of authority. Bunch of dog slaves, get lost!”

Although this was not in line with the original owner’s personality, he could not keep being disturbed by these bastards and let them affect his advancement of the Azure Dragon Concealment Art. It was also more likely to expose Zhu Wuyang’s true strength.

Therefore, even if doing this was a little out of line, Zhu Wuyang had no choice but to do so. Moreover, he had just experienced the “immolation” incident and was forcefully pushed to the position of the Crown Prince, who was in line to die. Everyone should be able to understand if he did something out of line.

“Congratulations to the host for speaking to a woman for the second time in your life. You have obtained 400 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for speaking to a eunuch for the second time in your life. You have obtained 300 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for speaking to a man for the second time in your life. You have obtained 200 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for going berserk for the first time in your life. You have received 1,000 breakthrough points...”

... . freewebnvel.com

However, before anyone could suspect Zhu Wuyang’s actions, the Extraordinary Encounters System brought a huge wave of punishment to Zhu Wuyang, making him, who had just exploded with anger, speechless.

20 Eating Is Also a Disaster

Faced with Zhu Wuyang's outburst, the guards, palace maids, and eunuchs looked at each other for a while. In the end, they retreated and told the news to the other guards. Naturally, they did not forget to tell the head eunuch, Wei Ancai.

After learning about this, Wei Ancai only considered it for a moment before giving the order that all the members of the guards were not allowed to enter the Crown Prince's chambers again. If they were to be killed because of this, they would be asking for it.

As Zhu Wuyang had expected, although Wei Ancai and the others also felt that Zhu Wuyang's actions were very different from usual, they could still understand what Zhu Wuyang had experienced in the past two days.

After all, for a person who could die at any time, it was normal for him to do something out of line in his madness.

In this way, Zhu Wuyang could finally relax and absorb the breakthrough points that came from all directions.

Because of these fellows' mischief, Zhu Wuyang had obtained a lot of breakthrough points this time. If nothing unexpected happened, after absorbing this wave of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang's strength should be able to break through to the Perfected Golden Bones Refinement Realm.

This was too f*cking... he was going to break through again!

Others cultivated painstakingly and spent a lot of time and energy to advance a small realm.

Moreover, it was impossible for most martial artists to advance from an ordinary person to a martial artist at the Perfected Golden Bones Refinement Realm without several years, decades, or even a lifetime of bitter cultivation.

During this period, they had to experience countless storms. In order to fight for some cultivation resources, they would often encounter various dangers. If they were not careful, they would be killed.

However, Zhu Wuyang was fine. Ever since he transmigrated, he had been lying in bed 99% of the time. In the end, his strength had soared. Not only had he forged a flawless Dao foundation, but he also possessed strength and combat strength that far exceeded his peers.

If the other martial artists knew about this, who knew what they would think?

Not to mention, after Zhu Wuyang transmigrated, only a few hours had passed, but his strength had already increased so much. If Zhu Wuyang was given a few years or decades, he wondered what realm he could advance to.

Even if he was not invincible in the entire world, he would at least be invincible in the Jiu Zhao Nation. The prerequisite was that Zhu Wuyang could live for so long.

Smiling bitterly, Zhu Wuyang was once again drowned by a large amount of strange powers. He circulated the Grand Earth Limitless Technique with all his might and absorbed these strange powers.

As his bones were tempered, the golden light on every bone in Zhu Wuyang's body became more and more dazzling. When his Qi and blood power circulated at full force, the bones became golden like the sun.

Fortunately, with the obstruction of the membrane muscles and the blanket, no one noticed these abnormalities.

The stronger the bones, the stronger the penetrative force of a martial artist. The power of each move also soared.

As his bones advanced rapidly, Zhu Wuyang could clearly feel his strength increasing.

The wisps of Qi and blood mist formed by the Earth blood Qi became larger and larger, and also more refined. Gradually, they condensed into clouds, and the refinement of the bones became deeper and more comprehensive.

When jade-colored light appeared on the bones, it also meant that Zhu Wuyang's strength had stepped into a new realm.

Perfected Golden Bones Refinement!

Every move he made could easily split stone. With a casual wave of his hand, he could exert a force of thousands of catties. Be it destructive power or attack power, they had reached an astonishing level. Even some martial artists who had reached the Five Viscera Refinement or even the Bone Marrow Refinement realm could not compare to him.

His body's toughness had also reached an extremely high level. At this moment, not to mention a pistol, even an ordinary rifle might not be able to break through Zhu Wuyang's defense.

With such strength, he could basically dominate his peers. In other words, the current Zhu Wuyang could already be considered a top genius, be it in the palace or the outside world.

Once Zhu Wuyang's true situation was exposed, the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would definitely become vigilant. It wouldn't be long before he found an excuse to kill Zhu Wuyang, this outstanding heir, to prevent him from snatching his throne.

A life and death crisis could come at any time. As long as Zhu Wuyang was not careful and revealed his true strength, what awaited him was death.

"Congratulations to the host for stepping into the Perfected Golden Bones Refinement Realm for the first time in your life. You have obtained 1,600 breakthrough points..."

As expected, after Zhu Wuyang stepped into a new realm, the Extraordinary Encounters System brought him another wave of breakthrough points, allowing Zhu Wuyang to effectively stabilize his current strength.

Looking at the number of usable breakthrough points, they had shockingly broken through the 1,000 points mark. When he added these 1,000+ points to the Azure Dragon Concealment Art, it would definitely allow Zhu Wuyang's Azure Dragon Concealment Art cultivation to soar by a large margin, and he would be even closer to the Greater Mastery stage.

However, Zhu Wuyang was still at a loss as to how to increase the number of usable breakthrough points he received each time.

This still needed to be slowly explored. If he could increase the ratio of the usable breakthrough points he obtained every time, not only could they alleviate Zhu Wuyang's crisis, but he could also obtain more autonomy. It was extremely important to his safety and future.

Just as he finished absorbing the breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang heard a knock on the door and a familiar girl's voice.

It was time for dinner again!

This was... another disaster!

However, humans were made of iron and steel. If he didn't eat, he would be extremely hungry. It wasn't beneficial for Zhu Wuyang to cultivate the Azure Dragon Concealment Art either. Furthermore, the delicacies in the palace were extremely delicious. It was really irresistible, so he decided to eat.

Soon, the notification from the Extraordinary Encounters System came again.

"Congratulations to the host for speaking to a woman for the third time in your life. You have received 200 breakthrough points..."

“Congratulations to the host for eating for the second time in your life. You have received 800 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for smelling the fragrance of delicacies for the second time in your life. You have obtained 100 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for tasting the sour and spicy Phoenix Claw for the first time in your life. You have received 200 breakthrough points...”

Indeed, every meal was a large-scale disaster for Zhu Wuyang. If not for the fact that he would starve to death if he didn't eat, Zhu Wuyang really wanted to go on a hunger strike.

However, Zhu Wuyang knew very well that even if he didn't eat this meal, he would still have to eat the next one. Sooner or later, he would obtain this wave of breakthrough points.

Since he would be stabbed no matter what, he might as well accept the blade himself first.

En, the delicacies in the palace were really delicious!
