Chapter 121: I Clearly Have Two Sons

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu soon received news from several imperial physicians that they were also helpless against Zhu Libo and Zhu Yongwu's strange illness.

Even the second ranked imperial physician asserted that Zhu Libo and Zhu Yongwu's human roots were completely crippled, even more crippled than the Crown Prince's, and there was no hope of recovery.

After learning of this news, Zhu Libo cried bitterly for the whole day. Zhu Yongwu almost committed suicide. Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was also speechless.

They were clearly her two sons. How did they suddenly become daughters? No, it should be worse than daughters because they were eunuchs.

A daughter could at least give birth to children, but what could Zhu Libo and Zhu Yongwu do? Did he have to recruit them to be his eunuchs?

When he thought of this, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's face darkened. He did not know what to do.

Now that Zhu Libo had been crippled to this extent, it was naturally impossible for him to become the Crown Prince of the Nine Zhao Nation. Zhu Libo had escaped death, but he obviously didn't think so.

Zhu Yongwu, on the other hand, felt that he was unlucky because he was not talented and was not outstanding at all among the princes and princesses. He was always ranked last in the end-of-month competition, and it was not a pretense.

Under such circumstances, Zhu Yongwu had no possibility of becoming the crown prince of Jiu Zhao, but why did he also suffer from this strange disease?

The heavens were blind!

Why?

Zhu Yongwu didn't know that the main reason why he had "contracted" this strange disease was because he had tried to snatch Zhu Wuyang's beauty, Liu Ru, a few days ago. That was why Zhu Wuyang had taken care of him.

In the end, he didn't get the girl, but he became a prospective girl.

After that, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu did some investigation, but he did not find anything suspicious. He could only conclude that Zhu Libo and Zhu Yongwu had indeed contracted a strange illness.

As for Zhu Jun and Zhu Wensi, no one noticed anything unusual about them.

The people from Fu Ning Palace and Xian Feng Palace secretly thought that Zhu Jun and Zhu Wensi had disguised themselves even better. They actually managed to make the vegetative man and Zhu Wensi look so lifelike, without the slightest hint of suspicion.

However, Fu Anlin's death still caused a huge uproar in the Hall of Reverent Wind. Fortunately, Zhu Wensi's maternal grandparents were extremely powerful, and his mother was not an ordinary person. Very soon, the situation in the Hall of Reverent Wind was stabilized, and new peerless experts were dispatched to guard the Hall of Reverent Wind to protect the safety of Zhu Wensi, this little piglet.

It was not until dozens of days later that the people of Blessing Hall and Revealing Wind Hall discovered the abnormality of Zhu Jun and Zhu Wensi. They were extremely shocked, but they did not dare to make a sound. They could only eat this bitter fruit in pain.

After all, in the eyes of everyone in the palace, Zhu Jun was already in a vegetative state, and Zhu Wensi was already a little piglet.

Several princes, princesses, and concubines who had the greatest enmity with Zhu Wuwan and the original owner of the body were punished as they should be. The remaining ones had lesser enmity, but Zhu Wuwan would not let them off.

Revenge was one thing, but the most important thing was to not let go of these breakthroughs that were waiting to be developed.

While the entire palace was in chaos because Zhu Libo and Zhu Yongwu had become embroidery needles, Zhu Wuwan was trying to break through the shackles of a top-notch array master.

If he wanted to raise the Heaven and Earth Array to the Perfection Realm and break through to become a top-notch array master, the breakthrough points he needed had already reached one billion points.

At this moment, the total number of free breakthrough points that Zhu Wuyang had was only a little over a billion. In other words, if Zhu Wuyang wanted to advance to the ranks of top-notch array masters, she would need to invest all her free breakthrough points.

Zhu Wanhao felt a little heartache for this. After all, in order to accumulate these free breakthrough points, Zhu Wanhao had spent dozens of days.

However, when he thought of the Vast Sea Essence Crystals in his lower dantian and the breakthrough points that were constantly being forced into him, Zhu Wuwan decided to raise his array formation cultivation and sneak into the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion as soon as possible to obtain the method to enter the path through martial arts. This would prevent Zhu Wuwan from being unable to absorb more breakthrough points after cultivating to the limit of the Innate Realm, thus wasting them.

One billion Free Breakthrough Points poured into his body. Zhu Wuwan closed her eyes in heartache and began to absorb the array formation experience and array formation skills that were rolling in.

It was as if Zhu Wuan had personally immersed himself in the path of array formations for many years and had set up many array formations. He had perfectly fused experience, skills, and practice into one, and thus completely grasped the peerless array formation manual, the Heaven and Earth Array.

As the strongest array formation manual in the Nine Zhao Nation, Zhu Wuyan's complete mastery of the Heaven and Earth Array Formation also meant that Zhu Wuyan's array formation cultivation had successfully broken through the bottleneck and stepped into the ranks of top-notch array formation masters.

Even in the entire Jiu Zhao Country, there was probably no array master who could catch up to Zhu Wanhao at this moment.

Zhu Wuan's array formation cultivation was so strong that he could almost be called the number one person in the Nine Zhao Nation.

A few hours later, Zhu Wuwan slowly opened her eyes. As she felt the array formation experience and array formation skills pouring into her mind, a smile flashed across Zhu Wuwan's face, and an ethereal aura appeared on her body.

After half a month of hard work, Zhu Wuwan finally managed to raise her array formation cultivation from nothing to the top of the array formation master level. With Zhu Wuwan's current array formation cultivation, it was not difficult for her to sneak into the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion.

"Congratulations to the host for raising the peerless array formation manual to the Perfection realm for the first time in his life .

"Congratulations to the host for advancing to a top-notch array master for the first time in his life. You have obtained 200 million breakthrough points...

He had just used up one billion Free Breakthrough Points, and the Special Encounter System had brought him another 150 million Free Breakthrough Points. It had also increased Zhu Wuwan's strength by a notch.

Zhu Wuwan sat cross-legged and absorbed this wave of free breakthrough points. The Vast Sea Essence Crystals in his lower dantian also expanded to a radius of nearly sixty miles.

With a faint smile, Zhu Wuwan set up a few top-notch array formations in the bedchamber to consolidate her current array formation cultivation. Seeing that it was getting late and the darkness of the night had enveloped the entire Nine Zhao Imperial Palace, Zhu Wuwan changed into a night-traveling suit and rushed towards her next target.

There were still dozens of enemies in the palace who had yet to come and take revenge. He could take advantage of the dark night to take a walk around and deal with these enemies. At the same time, he could earn some breakthrough points.

Rain Concubine Yang Tingting!

She was one of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's favorite concubines. Although she was still a little inferior to Zhang Mingli, she was still ranked in the top five concubines. She was the first target of Zhu Wuyang's revenge tonight.

According to the original owner's memory, this woman had once slapped the original owner's mother. The original owner had always remembered it in her heart and wanted to take revenge one day. Unfortunately, until the original owner was finished, he did not take revenge for his mother.

Since Zhu Wanhao had inherited the original owner's body, she naturally had to help the original owner fulfill some of her obsessions. This was the only thing Zhu Wanhao could do for the original owner, so that the original owner could rest in peace in the netherworld.

Zhu Wuyang quickly sneaked into Fragrant Beauty Palace where Rain Concubine lived, preparing to take revenge on her..

Chapter 122: I Only Want Immortality (1)

" Congratulations to the host for climbing onto Rain Concubine Yang Tingting's bed for the first time in your life. You have obtained 10 million breakthrough points..."

" Congratulations to the host for carving and drawing on Rain Concubine Yang Tingting's face for the first time in your life. You have received 30 million breakthrough points...

" Congratulations to the host for ruining Rain Concubine Yang Tingting's beauty for the first time in your life. You have received 80 million breakthrough points...

The reason why Rain Concubine Yang Tingting slapped the original owner's mother was mainly because she felt that the original owner's mother was too beautiful and had a foxy face, so she taught the original owner's mother a lesson.

Since Rain Concubine Yang Tingting felt that she was a little ugly and couldn't compare to the original owner's mother, Zhu Wuyang would make her even uglier.

After knocking out Rain Concubine Yang Tingting with a single punch, Zhu Wuyang took a treasured sword that he had stolen from the Hall of Blessing and wantonly drew on Rain Concubine Yang Tingting's face.

First, he had eighteen whiskers, and then he had the word 'king' on his forehead. He was definitely the overlord of all beasts.

After doing all of this, Zhu Wuwan took away a few precious treasures from Fragrant Beauty Hall before leaving this place leisurely. He also earned nearly 200 million breakthrough points along the way.

These princes, princesses, and concubines in the imperial palace all had noble statuses and extraordinary statuses. As long as they did something to them, they would be able to gain great influence. This also left a deep impression on Zhu Wuwan.

In addition, Zhu Wuwan's status was extraordinary, so he could easily earn a large number of breakthrough points from these princes, princesses, and concubines.

It was precisely because of this that Zhu Wuyang was unwilling to let go of these moving treasure vaults and insisted on taking revenge on them.

After that, he took revenge on a few concubines in the harem. The breakthrough points that Zhu Wuyan earned exceeded one billion, allowing the Vast Sea Essence Crystals in his lower dantian to expand to nearly eighty miles.

Seeing this scene, Zhu Wuyang did not dare to continue taking revenge. After all, he had not obtained the method to enter the path through martial arts. Once the Vast Sea Essence Crystals reached a radius of 100 miles, it would be a waste to obtain a breakthrough point.

These enemies in the palace were really too fat. Each of them could bring him a lot of breakthrough points, making Zhu Wuwan feel a little stuffed. She did not dare to take revenge on more princes, princesses, and concubines.

Back in the Crown Prince's Palace, Zhu Wuyan summoned Liu Rushi and Zhao Yingying to sleep with him. They spent the night in silence.

Early the next morning, Zhu Wuwan did not pay attention to the chaotic harem residences. She went straight to the third floor of the Imperial Library Pavilion and began to flip through the ancient books.

Of course, it was fake that Zhu Wanhao was reading the ancient books. It was true that he was using the ancient books to investigate the array formation set up in the royal library.

As one of the most important places of the Zhu Royal Family, the royal library was not impregnable, but at least it was difficult for mosquitoes to enter.

There were more than 20 Connate experts guarding this place alone, including top-notch experts at the late stage of the Connate realm and peerless experts at the perfected Connate realm.

Other than these martial arts experts, there were also three top-notch array formations, nine high-level array formations, and more than eighteen middle-level and low-level array formations around the Imperial Library Pavilion. frēewebnøvel.com

Furthermore, these formations were interconnected and mutually reinforcing, forming the Mountain and Sea Formation Group, which was known as the top three in the world. The meaning behind it was that it was like mountains and seas, difficult to climb and difficult to cross. One would only be crushed to death and drowned inside.

Even though Zhu Wuan was already the number one array master in the Nine Zhao Nation, he did not dare to rashly barge into the Mountain Sea Array Formation. One could imagine how powerful this array formation was.

Zhu Wuwan casually flipped through the books that he had memorized long ago. All his attention was focused on the surrounding Mountain Sea Array Formation.

With the help of his mental power, the power of the Vast Sea Essence Crystal silently spread to the Mountain Sea Array Formation under Zhu Wuwan's feet. Without the knowledge of all the guards of the library, they carefully examined the entire Mountain Sea Array Formation, looking for a way to break it.

From the third level to the second level, then from the second level to the first level. Other than the fourth level, Zhu Wuwan searched the entire Imperial Library Pavilion.

Then, she went from the first level to the second level, and from the second level to the third level...He did this several times and checked carefully.

Unknowingly, a day had passed. Zhu Wuwan still hadn't found a way to crack the Mountain Sea Array Formation. However, he had found a way to sneak into the Mountain Sea Array Formation without being discovered.

Zhu Wanwan left with a smile. She was prepared to go back and test it out. After she was done with her preparations, she would sneak into the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion.

A day later, Zhu Wuyang, who had completely recovered and was fully prepared, brought a bag of tools and materials. Taking advantage of the dark and windy night, he quietly lurked near the Imperial Library Pavilion.

Although it was already midnight, the surroundings of the royal library were still brightly lit. There were still princes and princesses, sons of dignitaries, and others reading ancient books.

Zhu Wuyang sneaked through the mud at the bottom of Wen Lake and approached the Imperial Library Pavilion. He carefully took out several materials and tools and filled them into a certain array core of the Imperial Library Pavilion.

A few minutes later, a hole that could pass through the array formation appeared on the steel wall. Although it was only the size of a bowl, it was enough for Zhu Wuwan, who had cultivated the Bone Shrinking Technique, to jump in.

In order to sneak into the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion, Zhu

Wuwan had specially cultivated the first-class martial art, Bone Shrinking Technique, to perfection. He had spent more than ten million breakthrough points, and when he used it to the extreme, he could shrink it to the size of a bowl.

After successfully avoiding the detection of the array formation and the surveillance of the guards in the library pavilion, Zhu Wuwan entered the first level of the Imperial Family's library pavilion. She came to a blind spot with familiarity and took out tools and materials to set it up.

Prior to this, Zhu Wuwan had already understood the first three levels of the library pavilion very well. She had long planned the path to sneak into the fourth level, so she was very familiar with her actions at this moment.

Zhu Wanhao did not panic. Even if he was really discovered, he could easily escape with his strength. It was just that it would be even more difficult to sneak into the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion next time.

Once he fell into the Mountain and Sea Array Formation, even with Zhu Wuwan's current strength, there was still the danger of death.

Therefore, unless he had no other choice, Zhu Wuyang would not easily expose herself.

Relying on his understanding of the first three levels of the Imperial Library Pavilion, Zhu Wuyang was unstoppable. In just over an hour, he had sneaked into the third level of the Imperial Library Pavilion through an abnormal method.

Next, as long as he could break through the shackles leading to the fourth level, Zhu Wuwan would be able to successfully enter the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion and find the method to enter the Dao through martial arts.

After waiting for so long and preparing for so long, it was finally time for the harvest. Thinking of this, Zhu Wuyang also became a little excited.

If he could really become a person of the Immortal Dao, he would be satisfied as long as he could live as long as the heavens. As an Earthling who had transmigrated, Zhu Wuyang expressed that he wanted to be an immortal silver dragon..

Chapter 123: The Number One Immortal Code in the World (1)

" Congratulations to the host for infiltrating the first level of the Nine Zhao Nation's Royal Library Pavilion for the first time in his life. You have obtained

50 million breakthrough points..."

" Congratulations to the host for infiltrating the second level of the Nine Zhao Nation's Royal Library Pavilion for the first time in his life. You have obtained

100 million breakthrough points..."

" Congratulations to the host for infiltrating the third level of the Nine Zhao Nation's Royal Library Pavilion for the first time in your life. You have obtained 200 million breakthrough points..."

What made Zhu Wuwan rather helpless was that while he was nervously cracking the layers of array formations, the special encounter system was also causing trouble. In a short period of time, it forced more than 200 million breakthrough points into Zhu Wuwan.

With so many breakthrough points, it would be a little difficult even for Zhu Wuwan to suppress it, let alone in this situation.

Therefore, after some consideration, Zhu Wuwan temporarily stopped at the third level of the Imperial Library Pavilion for a period of time. After absorbing the breakthrough point of this wave of forced drinking, she then sneaked towards the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion.

Compared to the first three levels, the fourth level was undoubtedly more difficult. Even though Zhu Wuwan had already learned some information about the structure of the Mountain Sea Array Formation from the array formation manuals in the first three levels, it was still very difficult to break through the fourth level. Moreover, Zhu Wuwan only wanted to sneak in.

In order to sneak into the fourth level, Zhu Wuwan spent a full hour and a half. During this time, she figured out a small array technique. Only then did she successfully break open a small hole in the array on the fourth level and sneak in silently.

” Congratulations to the host for entering the fourth level of the Royal Library

Pavilion for the first time in your life. You have obtained 600 million breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 50% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host’s strength!

As one of the most important places in the Nine Zhao Nation, it was also one of the most difficult places to enter. As Zhu Wuyang stepped into it, he actually obtained a total of 600 million breakthrough points. This number could not be said to be huge.

Zhu Wuwan took a deep breath and forcefully suppressed the restless breakthrough point. He entered the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion and what greeted his eyes was a vast space of several thousand square meters.

In this space, there were dozens of luminous pearls hanging from the roof, illuminating the entire fourth floor of the Imperial Library Pavilion as if it was daytime.

There were only a few dozen books on this floor, and they were located on the sandalwood bookcase in the middle of the fourth floor. There were three peerless experts guarding the sandalwood bookcase at all times to prevent anyone from sneaking in and stealing these books.

At this moment, Zhu Wuan was right below the sandalwood bookshelf!

It was impregnable and heavily guarded!

Even with Zhu Wuyang’s strength as the number one expert in the world, he still felt that it was a little tricky. Fortunately, his position was relatively special. He could reach the books placed on the sandalwood bookcase from the bottom, so he would not be discovered by the three peerless experts around him.

However, he had to be extremely careful. He had to take advantage of the occasional gap when the three peerless experts were not paying attention to successfully take the ancient book away. After reading it, he had to put it back.

After waiting for an unknown period of time, Zhu Wuwan finally got an opportunity. Her hand landed on the sandalwood bookcase and took one of the ancient books. She hid under the sandalwood bookcase and flipped through it.

The three peerless experts guarding this place did not notice anything unusual. They continued to sit and cultivate while paying attention to the movements around them.

This book contained some secrets about the Zhu royal family, and Zhu Wuwan read it with great interest.

"Congratulations to the host for reading the Complete Secret Collection of the Zhu Royal Family for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for finding out about the embarrassing incident of the Zhu royal family's first emperor for the first time in your life. You have obtained 200 million breakthrough points..."

Zhu Wuwan was a little dumbfounded. He hurriedly closed the book in his hand and did not dare to read it anymore. He was afraid that he would be forced to drink too many breakthrough points. At that time, he would not be able to withstand it and could only absorb it. If that happened, he would make a noise and be discovered by the three peerless experts around him.

It seemed that he would have to wait until the next time he sneaked in to read these interesting things.

After putting the book back, Zhu Wuyang began to search for the book on entering the path through martial arts. Soon, he found a book at the top of the sandalwood bookshelf.

Dao Beginning Jade Book (Upper Part)!

What shocked Zhu Wanhao was that there was a line of words written on the title page of this martial arts manual.

The world's number one immortal cultivation manual!

Was he that strong?

Zhu Wanhao was stunned speechless. According to the information she received from Zhang Mingli, Zhu Wanhao knew that the manual on entering the path through martial arts on the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion was a Dao Beginning something manual. Coincidentally, this Dao Beginning Jade Book was on the fourth level of the Imperial Library Pavilion. From its name, it looked the most like an immortal cultivation manual. Only then did Zhu Wanhao vaguely confirm this manual.

It was just that Zhu Wanhao did not expect that this manual that entered the path through martial arts was actually the "number one immortal cultivation manual in the world". Did it have to be so exaggerated? freewebnovel.com

If the Dao Beginning Jade Book was really the number one immortal cultivation manual in the world, why would it be placed in the Nine Zhao Nation's imperial palace in the mortal world? Even if this was the fourth level of the Imperial Family's library, it shouldn't be worthy of such a number one immortal cultivation manual.

Besides, the Hundred Poisons Sect should only be an immortal cultivation force that was ranked in the middle of the Southern Wasteland. It was somewhat illogical for them to possess the world's number one immortal cultivation manual.

Could it be that there was some secret behind this, or was it that someone had copied the Jade Book of the Beginning of Dao and was bored enough to add such a line of words on it?

Zhu Wuwan was confused, but it didn't stop him from taking the legendary immortal book. While the three peerless experts weren't paying attention, Zhu Wuwan took the Jade Book of Dao Beginning with the Immensity Sea Essence Crystal and hid under the sandalwood bookcase to flip through it.

As he flipped through page after page of the ancient book, Zhu Wuyang's face gradually revealed a look of shock. Slowly, this shock turned into admiration, and Zhu Wuyang was already intoxicated.

"Congratulations to the host for reading the number one immortal cultivation manual in the world for the first time in his life. You have obtained 100 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for memorizing the number one immortal cultivation manual in the world for the first time in his life. You have obtained 200 million breakthrough points..."

Even the Special Encounter System had acknowledged the Jade Book of the Beginning of the Dao as the number one immortal cultivation manual in the world. Zhu Wuwan, who had memorized the upper part of the Jade Book of the Beginning of the Dao, also felt that the title of the number one immortal cultivation manual in the world was worthy of its name.

Even with Zhu Wuyan's talent and comprehension ability, he actually did not have the slightest confidence in improving the Dao Beginning Jade Book. Forget about improving the Dao Beginning Jade Book, even if he wanted to make some small adjustments to it, it would be very difficult for Zhu Wuyan to do it in a short period of time. One could imagine how terrifying and powerful the Dao Beginning Jade Book was.

If he could cultivate the Jade Book of Dao Beginning and enter the Dao with martial arts, or even advance to a sufficiently high realm, Zhu Wuwan's strength would definitely far exceed that of his peers. He would be an invincible existence among his peers.

At the thought of this, even Zhu Wanhao felt excited. After all, if it was possible, who would be willing to spend time and energy to improve the cultivation method they cultivated?

Now that he had a treasured book that was almost perfect in Zhu Wuwan's eyes, he only needed to cultivate and improve step by step in the future. This would save him a lot of trouble..

Chapter 124: Ascending Heaven Pass is Like Jumping Through the Dragon Gate

Dao Beginning Jade Book!

Whether it was in the Southern Wasteland Mountains, the Western Desert, the Northern Snowfield, or even the most fertile Central Plains, it could be said to be the number one Immortal Cultivation manual in the world. Its reputation spread throughout the Immortal Cultivation world of Dongyuan Continent.

This was the best foundation establishment immortal manual in the world, and also the most righteous and peaceful immortal cultivation manual in the world. It was said to be able to accommodate all immortal cultivation techniques. In other words, after cultivating the Jade Book of Dao Beginning, one could change their cultivation to any immortal cultivation technique at any time, regardless of whether it was an evil cultivation technique or an immortal cultivation technique.

The Dao Beginning Jade Book was divided into three parts: the upper part, the middle part, and the lower part. The upper part corresponded to the cultivation of the Qi Refinement Realm, the middle part corresponded to the cultivation of the Foundation Establishment Realm, and the lower part corresponded to the cultivation of the Golden Core Realm.

The Immortal True Qi cultivated from the Dao Beginning Jade Book was several times stronger than other cultivation techniques, be it in terms of density or purity. Coupled with the Dao Beginning Jade Book's number one Foundation Establishment effect, the Dao Beginning Jade Book was known as the number one immortal manual in the world.

However, it was this so-called number one immortal cultivation manual that had few cultivators over countless years. Basically, no immortal cultivator had stepped into the Foundation Establishment stage with the help of the Jade Book of Dao Beginning, let alone the Golden Core stage.

Only some Qi Condensation rookies who were superstitious about the so-called number one immortal cultivation manual in the world would choose to cultivate the Jade Book of Dao Beginning. However, these people would give up after a few years.

This was because the so-called number one immortal cultivation manual in the world was also the number one immortal cultivation manual in the world that was difficult to cultivate. Not only was this Dao Beginning Jade Book easy to learn but difficult to master, but it also required more than ten times the resources of cultivators of the same level.

If it was just the resources needed, it was not a big deal. Many large immortal cultivation sects could still afford it. Unfortunately, other than the extremely large number of resources needed, the cultivation of the Primordial Dao Jade Book became more and more difficult as one progressed.

Not only was it difficult to comprehend, but it was also extremely difficult to cultivate. The progress was shockingly slow. Usually, other immortal cultivators had already stepped into the foundation establishment stage, but those who cultivated the Dao Chu Jade Book were still lingering in the qi layer, and could not even step into the peak qi layer.

It consumed resources, time, and energy...Although they were far superior to those of the same cultivation level, gradually, no immortal cultivators were willing to cultivate it. At most, they would only try it at the early stage of Qi Refinement. After that, most immortal cultivators would switch to other immortal cultivation methods.

Slowly, the Jade Book of the Beginning of the Dao was no longer valued by immortal cultivators, so it was spread out. There were even some who had evil intentions and used the Jade Book of the Beginning of the Dao to harm others. It could be seen to what extent the Jade Book of the Beginning of the Dao, the number one immortal cultivation manual in the world, had fallen.

After an unknown period of time, the Dao Beginning Jade Book had already spread to the world. Basically, most immortal cultivation sects would leave a copy in the library pavilion.

Even the Nine Zhao Nation's Imperial Library in the mortal world had the Dao Beginning Jade Book.

Only now did Zhu Wanhao understand why the Nine Zhao Nation and the Hundred Poisons Sect possessed the world's number one immortal cultivation manuals. It turned out that this was the reason.

Zhu Wanhao was also rather speechless about this. A common immortal cultivation manual in the immortal cultivation world, and only the upper part, had actually become one of the most precious books of a dynasty in the mortal world. This was really...
frëewebnovël.com

He had originally thought that the imperial family of the Nine Zhao Country was quite powerful. He did not expect it to become so powerful.

However, to Zhu Wuyang, this was clearly a... This was a joyous occasion!

To Zhu Wuyang, who had the special encounter system and could earn breakthrough points, the so-called difficulty of the Primordial Dao Jade Book was clearly not too difficult in front of a large number of breakthrough points.

As for things like easy to learn but difficult to master, was it still a problem in front of Zhu Wuyang, who was born sacred and had a top-notch comprehension?

The Jade Book of the Beginning of the Dao, which was of little value to almost everyone in the cultivation world of Dongyuan Continent, was obviously a peerless treasure book to Zhu Wuwan. He needed such a peerless immortal book for cultivation.

Moreover, in the upper part of the Jade Book of Dao's Beginning, there was clearly a method to enter the Dao through martial arts. Zhu Wuwan happened to be able to use it. Perhaps it was also because of this that the Zhu royal family specially treasured this so-called number one immortal code in the world.

Zhu Wuwan smiled and put the upper part of the Jade Book of Dao Beginning back. He quietly left the royal library and returned to the crown prince's palace. He began to carefully comprehend the method of entering the path through martial arts in the upper part of the Jade Book of Dao Beginning.

According to the Dao Beginning Jade Book, the first step to entering the Dao with martial arts was to condense the Connate Inner Yuan into Connate Origin Crystals. While condensing the Connate Origin Crystals, one also needed to increase one's mental power with all their might, open the Niwan Palace, and accumulate sufficient mental power.

When his mental power reached a certain level and the innate inner yuan in his body was completely condensed into innate yuan crystals, he would rely on his powerful mental power and the special techniques in the Dao Beginning Jade Book to continue condensing the innate yuan crystals, promoting them to sublimate and sublimate the innate yuan crystals into true qi.

This was also a mysterious power that cultivators could possess!

The first step was to sublimate all the Heaven Essence Crystals into Genuine Qi. What the warrior needed to do was to continuously strengthen this Genuine Qi, just like the Inner Qi Seed Realm in the Body Tempering Stage. He needed to raise his Genuine Qi to a sufficiently high realm and reach a sufficiently strong degree.

At this time, it could be used to attack the filth power in the middle dantian and successfully open up the middle dantian to store the power of true qi.

Compared to the lower dantian, the middle dantian was ten times or a hundred times stronger in terms of strength, flexibility, and surface area.

When the middle dantian was successfully opened up, entering the path with martial arts was still not completed. What he needed to do next was to open up the nine chakra meridians connected to the lower dantian one by one and connect them to the middle dantian.

As long as a chakra meridian was connected to the middle dantian and tempered into an immortal meridian, it meant that the martial artist had successfully entered the path through martial arts and successfully stepped into the first qi layer, becoming a true immortal cultivator.

Spiritual transformation, crystal ascension into qi, opening up the middle core, pulling out the wheel to forge an immortal ... These were the four major obstacles to entering the path through martial arts, known as the Heaven Pass! Every checkpoint was extremely dangerous. A slight carelessness could result in the death of a martial artist and the disappearance of their Dao, never allowing them to step onto the path of immortality again. Therefore, in the vast Nine Zhao Country, no one had ever been heard of successfully entering the Dao through martial arts in the past thousand years.

Compared to those who were born with spiritual roots and could easily step onto the path of immortality, it was too difficult for ancient martial art practitioners without spiritual roots to surpass their limits and step onto the path of immortality.

If nine out of ten people with spiritual roots could set foot on the path of immortality and become an official immortal cultivator, then there might not be one in a hundred thousand peak innate ancient martial art practitioners who could break through the heavenly barrier and set foot on the path of immortality and become an official immortal cultivator.

The difference between the two was so great that it was basically impossible for ordinary ancient martial art practitioners to defy the heavens and change their fate to become a noble immortal cultivator.

However, as long as one could successfully enter the path through martial arts, their gains would be unimaginable for ordinary immortal cultivators. They would far exceed orthodox immortal cultivators, or even more than ten times..

Chapter 125: Shocking Benefits (1)

Lower Dantian Qi Storage!

This was the first advantage that immortal cultivators who entered the path through martial arts possessed. Ordinary immortal cultivators with spiritual roots started cultivating from the middle dantian, so the lower dantian was blocked. In other words, ordinary immortal cultivators could not use the lower dantian to store true qi.

However, immortal cultivators who entered the path through martial arts began to cultivate from the lower dantian and underwent a transformation step by step. In the end, they could also accommodate true qi. Even if the space in the lower dantian was far less than that in the middle dantian, the true qi in the body of immortal cultivators who entered the path through martial arts was still more than ten percent more than that of ordinary immortal cultivators.

Because Zhu Wuyan's cultivation foundation was extremely strong, when he stepped into the ranks of immortal cultivators, he would be able to possess more than 30% more true qi than ordinary immortal cultivators just by relying on his lower dantian.

Perhaps some people would say that those normal immortal cultivators could also use genuine Qi to open up the lower dantian. However, one should know that the lower dantian was extremely fragile and was far inferior to the middle dantian. Genuine Qi was hundreds of times sharper than inner Qi.

If one were to use zhenqi to open up the lower dantian, at least 9,999 out of 10,000 immortal cultivators would fail. Their lower dantian would also be severely damaged or even completely destroyed. In the future, it would be twice the effort for cultivation.

Therefore, unless there was water in their brains, normal immortal cultivators would never do such a thing.

Pure zhenqi, tough body!

This was the second benefit of entering the path through martial arts. This was because cultivators who entered the path through martial arts had all risen step by step from the bottom, going through the Body Tempering stage, the Meridian Casting stage, and the Connate stage... Therefore, his body and internal essence had been tempered and transformed many times.

When they successfully entered the path of martial arts and successfully stepped into the path of immortality, their bodies were imperceptibly several times more powerful than those of immortal cultivators of the same level. The true qi transformed from innate inner yuan was also far purer than that of ordinary immortal cultivators.

Of course, if these cultivators who had entered the path through martial arts were to cultivate in the meditational stage with relatively poor cultivation techniques, they would slowly become ordinary people and lose their advantage in this aspect.

However, if both sides cultivated the same cultivation technique, then the true qi of an immortal cultivator who entered the path through martial arts would surpass that of an immortal cultivator of the same level in terms of thickness and purity.

Immortal meridians were tough and his foundation was firm!

This was the third advantage that cultivators who entered the path through martial arts possessed. After ordinary cultivators entered the qi layer, they also needed to forge nine great immortal meridians, and these nine great immortal meridians overlapped with the nine great chakra meridians.

Therefore, if a cultivator who entered the path of martial arts wanted to step onto the path of immortality, he had to change the chakra meridians embedded in the lower dantian to the middle dantian.

Immortal cultivators who entered the path through martial arts had already tempered and hammered the nine great chakra meridians at the Foundation Establishment stage. Once they entered the Qi Condensation stage, they would temper and hammer the nine great chakra meridians a second time. Therefore, whether it was hardness or flexibility, they were far superior to ordinary immortal cultivators. The difference between the two was not small.

Of course, if these cultivators who entered the path through martial arts were not good enough at the qi layer and could not compare to other cultivators, they would gradually fall.

However, among cultivators of the same cultivation level, cultivators who entered the Dao through martial arts definitely had a huge advantage.

To say that he was far superior to those of the same level was a bit of an underestimation of those who entered the path through martial arts. He should be called invincible among those of the same level. It was even not too difficult to cross levels to fight enemies.

The combination of these three advantages made immortal cultivators who entered the path through martial arts basically invincible among their peers. Therefore, let alone ancient martial art practitioners without spiritual roots, even quasi-immortal cultivators with spiritual roots wanted to enter the path through martial arts.

Unfortunately, it was too difficult to enter the path through martial arts. Even if these quasi-immortal cultivators with spiritual roots knew the benefits of entering the path through martial arts, they would never choose this path.

As for those martial artists without spiritual roots, it was already not bad for one out of 100,000 peak Xiantian experts to successfully enter the path with martial arts.

To be honest, if Zhu Wuyang had obtained the number one immortal scripture in the world, the Jade Book of the Beginning of Dao, at the beginning, Zhu Wuyang, who had already established a flawless foundation and possessed the strongest spiritual root in the world, might not have chosen to enter the path of martial arts.

Regrettably, Zhu Wuan did not know that there was an Immortal Dao in this world at that time. Even if he knew, he would not have been able to obtain the Dao Beginning Jade Book.

Moreover, Zhu Wanhao had also tested her spiritual roots when she was seven years old. At that time, the original owner did not have spiritual roots. Now that she had spiritual roots, it was obvious that there was something wrong with Zhu Wanhao.

Therefore, the path of entering the Dao through martial arts was a path that Zhu Wuwan had to take. He did not dare to take any other path. Fortunately, with the help of the Special Encounter System, it was much easier for Zhu Wuwan to take this path.

At the same time, Zhu Wuyang could also obtain huge benefits through this path. It would be extremely beneficial for his cultivation after he stepped onto the immortal path.

Zhu Wanhao had already decided to cultivate this number one immortal manual after stepping on the path of the immortal path. At that time, he would definitely be able to forge an astonishing foundation of the immortal path.

In addition to the huge benefits brought by entering the path with martial arts, Zhu Wuyang could not only dominate the same level, but also cross borders to fight.

After understanding the method of entering the path through martial arts, Zhu Wuwan felt that the Vast Sea Origin Crystal in his body was getting closer and closer to the limit. He decided to raise his mental power as soon as possible and open up the Niwan Palace to store enough mental power.

This way, he could condense the Connate Origin Crystals at a deeper level, advance the crystals into Qi, and master the Immortal True Qi.

After deciding on the next cultivation plan, Zhu Wuwan did not delay any further. She immediately entered the secret cultivation room and prepared to use the free breakthrough point to level up the Iceheart Technique.

After two days of hard work, the number of Free Breakthrough Points Zhu Wuwan had reached hundreds of millions. If nothing unexpected happened, these Free Breakthrough Points should be able to raise the Iceheart Technique to the Perfection Realm of the ninth level.

As a large number of Free Breakthrough Points were poured into the Iceheart Technique, Zhu Wuyang's Iceheart Technique began to improve at an astonishing speed.

At this moment, the Iceheart Technique had already been upgraded to the fourth level by Zhu Wuwan. Next, it was time to break through the bottleneck of the fifth level.

The Free Breakthrough Point turned into pure mental power according to Zhu Wuwan's will. Under the effect of the Iceheart Formula, it successfully fused into Zhu Wuwan's mind and circled around her Niwan Palace.

When his mental power reached a certain level, Zhu Wuwan could control this mental power to remove the filth inside and outside his Niwan Palace. He could successfully open up his Niwan Palace to store his mental power.

"Boom..."

After an unknown period of time, Zhu Wuwan heard a roar in her mind.

Accompanied by the roar, her mental power increased by a large margin.

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the fifth level of the peerless mental cultivation technique, the Ice Heart Technique, for the first time in his life.. You have obtained 30 million breakthrough points..."

Chapter 126: Opening a Divine Palace (1)

After cultivating the Iceheart Technique to the fifth level, his mental power had increased by a large margin. Zhu Wuwan only needed to adapt to it for a while before she began to upgrade the Iceheart Technique again.

The speed at which the Vast Sea Essence Crystals increased was so fast. If he did not open his Niwan Palace earlier and increase his mental power, Zhu Wuwan would not be able to condense the Vast Sea Essence Crystals to the limit in time. At that time, it would be inevitable that he would waste the breakthrough point.

Wasting was shameful, especially when it was a treasure like the breakthrough point.

“Congratulations to the host for raising the peerless mental cultivation technique, the Iceheart Art, to the sixth level for the first time in his life. You have obtained 80 million breakthrough points...”

An hour later, the Iceheart Technique was upgraded to the sixth level by Zhu Wuwan, and his mental power had more than doubled.

After adapting to it for a while, Zhu Wuyan continued to improve the Iceheart Technique.

The seventh level...

The eighth level...

All the way to the ninth level!

After spending several hours and hundreds of millions of Free Breakthrough Points, Zhu Wuwan finally raised the Iceheart Technique to the Perfection Realm of the ninth level.

His mental power had already expanded to his entire head, and it could be said that there was no way to go in. In order to prevent so much mental power from hurting his mind, Zhu Wuwan did not dare to delay. She immediately mobilized a large amount of mental power and charged towards the Niwan Palace, starting to remove the filth around the Niwan Palace.

Compared to the filth in his lower dantian, the filth in his Niwan Palace was more than ten times stronger. Fortunately, Zhu Wuwan's Iceheart Art had already reached the ninth level of perfection, and its power was quite impressive.

With the help of hundreds of millions of free breakthrough points, the removal process was relatively smooth.

As the grayish-black filth was removed, Zhu Wuyang could clearly feel that his mind was becoming clearer and clearer.

It was as if layers of dust had been wiped off the surface, and it became as clean as new. For martial arts and immortal dao ... He had more insights.

Especially regarding the Iceheart Formula, all sorts of comprehensions came pouring in. He faintly felt as if he had transcended his limits and advanced to the tenth level.

However, the ninth level of the Iceheart Formula was enough for the time being. At this critical moment of opening the Niwan Palace, Zhu Wuwan did not dare to immerse herself too much. She quickly restrained her spirit and focused on removing the filth around the Niwan Palace.

With the experience of opening up the lower dantian, it was much easier for Zhu Wuwan to open up her Niwan Palace.

While Zhu Wuwan was focused on removing the filth in Niwan Palace, the palace was still in a mess. After all, the concubines had been dealt with miserably by the bad guys. They were either disfigured or had their skills wasted. Even the stock was reduced by a lot.

These few concubines went to Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu to complain, causing Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu to have a huge headache. He didn't know which audacious fellow was so arrogant that he actually dared to bully his women in the palace.

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu sent out several peerless imperial guards to investigate this matter. Unfortunately, after a day, they did not find anything. They did not even find any clues. This made Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's head hurt even more.

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was jealous of the talented mainly because of the princes and princesses. He was quite fond of the beautiful concubines in the harem. Now that these concubines were bullied to this extent, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was also in a bad mood.

At the same time, Zhu Libo and Zhu Yongwu, the two Princes with Needles, were crying every day, hoping that Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would be able to cure their strange illness. For a moment, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was also having a headache.

Under such circumstances, no one would pay any attention to a " Crown Prince Eunuch " who was about to be deposed, much less suspect Zhu Wuan.

Zhu Wuwan cultivated quietly and improved. It took a full ten hours before he finally removed all the filth around his Niwan Palace. Next, it was time to remove the filth in his Niwan Palace.

After Zhu Wuyang rested for a while and recovered his spirit, he began to remove the filth in his Niwan Palace.

With his mental power as the main force and the strange power formed by the breakthrough point as the auxiliary force, he entered his Niwan Palace in an orderly manner and began to remove the filth in his Niwan Palace.

Compared to the filth outside, the filth in the Niwan Palace was far superior in both quantity and quality. Moreover, when removing the filth in the Niwan Palace, he undoubtedly had to be more careful.

This was because the slightest carelessness could injure a martial artist's Niwan Palace. At that time, the martial artist would become an idiot at the very least, and the martial artist would directly die.

Thus, opening up the Niwan Palace was not only the first obstacle for a martial artist to enter the path, but also the most difficult obstacle for those with spiritual roots to advance to become immortal cultivators.

As long as they could successfully pass this hurdle, more than 80% of those with spiritual roots could advance to immortal cultivators.

According to the Jade Book of Dao Beginning, the first thing an orthodox immortal cultivator had to do was to open up the Niwan Palace. Then, with the power of the spirit root, he would use the immortal cultivation method to directly produce true qi in his body, open up the middle dantian, and then force the earth immortal meridian. Once the earth immortal meridian was forged, he would be able to step into the first qi layer and become a true immortal cultivator.

Difficult, dangerous... This was the first feeling Zhu Wuwan had when he opened his Niwan Palace.

This was with the help of the Free Breakthrough Point. Without the help of the Free Breakthrough Point, even Zhu Wuyang would have a hard time opening up the Niwan Palace.

It was precisely because of this that in the past thousand years, there had never been a martial artist in the Nine Zhao Nation who had successfully entered the Dao through martial arts.

The accumulation of soil formed a mountain, and the accumulation of sand formed a hill. Zhu Wuwan was immersed in cultivation. The filth in the Niwan Palace became less and less, and it also became thinner.

The opening of the Niwan Palace was different from the opening of the lower dantian. The recovery speed of the filth in the Niwan Palace was too fast, so it needed to be opened in one go. Otherwise, after resting for a period of time, the next time it was opened, the previous results might have been destroyed.

That was why Zhu Wuwan had to first raise the Iceheart Technique to the Perfection Realm in one go before starting to clean up the filth inside and outside the Niwan Palace.

“Dong...”

After an unknown period of time, the sound of a huge bell and drum seemed to come from Zhu Wuwan’s mind, causing his entire body to tremble. He vaguely felt like he had ascended to immortality.

Everything between heaven and earth suddenly became clear, far clearer than before. All kinds of inspirations and memories surged in his mind, allowing Zhu Wuyang to comprehend the upper part of the Jade Book of Dao Beginning in an instant.

In other words, when Zhu Wuwan advanced to become an immortal cultivator and stepped into the first layer of the Aura Refining realm, she would be able to cultivate all the way to the perfected realm of the Aura Refining realm step by step, and there would be no more doubts in the process.

The entire Qi Condensation stage had been clearly displayed in front of Zhu Wuyang, allowing him to see it clearly. It was not an exaggeration to say that he knew it like the back of his hand. frëewebnovēl.com

Originally, Zhu Wuwan had planned to spend the next few dozen days comprehending the upper portion of the Jade Book of Dao Beginning. However, he did not expect to successfully comprehend the upper portion of the Jade Book of Dao Beginning during the process of opening up the Niwan Palace.

The Niwan Palace was also known as the Divine Palace by many immortal cultivators. It contained the spirit and soul. It was the most important place for an immortal cultivator. One could imagine how important it was.

Once he opened it, the benefits he would obtain would be terrifying, especially as Zhu Wuyan's strength increased. The benefits that the Niwan Palace would bring him would become greater and greater. In the future, it would even determine Zhu Wuyan's longevity and fate..

Chapter 127: Creating a Myth (1)

The opening of the Niwan Palace meant that Zhu Wuwan's comprehension had increased by a large margin.

Originally, Zhu Wuwan's comprehension ability was already very strong. Now that he had cleaned up the filth in his Niwan Palace and swept away the dust on his spiritual intelligence, Zhu Wuwan's observation of everything became more thorough. Naturally, his comprehension ability had also increased a lot.

A large amount of mental power swarmed into the Niwan Palace and soon formed a three-meter-wide mental fog. The Niwan Palace was the same as the lower dantian. After opening it, it was also in between reality and illusion.

It could be infinitely large or infinitely small, so it could not be measured by common sense.

For example, if someone said that the spiritual mist in his Niwan Palace was five meters wide, someone might laugh and say that his entire body was not even one meter wide. How could the spiritual power in his body be five meters wide? It was obvious that he was bragging.

It was just that the person who said this was really making a fool of himself.

Although the other party's mental power was hidden in his mind, the Niwan Palace in his mind was between reality and reality. It could indeed accommodate the mental fog within a five-meter radius.

If one could cultivate the Niwan Palace to a sufficiently high realm, even a five-mile radius, fifty-mile radius, or even fifty-thousand-mile radius was possible, let alone a five-meter radius.

There were mighty immortals who could move mountains and overturn seas with just their mental power, causing everything in the world to collapse. One could imagine how shocking their mental power was, and what kind of realm the mental fog formed would reach.

Zhu Wuwan, who had reached the ninth level of the Iceheart Formula, had a radius of about five meters if the mental power in her Niwan Palace was completely restored.

What Zhu Wuwan needed to do next was to continuously circulate the Iceheart Art and accumulate mental power until it reached a sufficiently high realm. At that time, he could condense the Vast Sea Origin Crystal and advance it into Qi.

However, Zhu Wuwan used his mental power to condense the Vast Sea Essence Crystal and tried to see the effect of his mental power. However, he was shocked to discover that the mental power cultivated by the perfected Iceheart Art of the Ninth Level actually could not shake the Vast Sea Essence Crystal in the slightest.

One had to know that the Vast Sea Origin Crystals had not reached their limit at this moment. According to Zhu Wuwan's speculation, the limit of his lower dantian should be able to accommodate Vast Sea Origin Crystals in a radius of 120 miles.

After all, with the condensation of the Vast Sea Essence Crystals, Zhu Wuwan's lower dantian, nine major chakra meridians, and body had been hammered and tempered to a deeper level. Therefore, his lower dantian had already surpassed its limit and could accommodate a total of 120 miles of Vast Sea Essence Crystals.

It had not reached the limit yet, and the mental power cultivated from the Iceheart Art could not be shaken at all. Then, when the Vast Sea Essence Crystal reached the limit, how could these mental powers be able to rise to crystal and turn into qi?

The ninth level of the Iceheart Formula was not enough!

Zhu Wuwan was certain of this answer. After thinking for a moment, Zhu Wuwan decided to create the tenth level of the Iceheart Art and condense a stronger mental power. Only then would he be able to control the Vast Sea Origin Crystal, condense it, and sublimate it.

Fortunately, when he was cleaning up the filth around his Niwan Palace, Zhu Wuwan had already vaguely comprehended the creation method of the tenth level of the Iceheart Secrets.

At this moment, he only needed to pick up these contents and fuse them with the spiritual cultivation technique and the essence of the spiritual secret technique that Zhu Wuyang had memorized. Then, he would be able to break through the tenth level of the Iceheart Technique and break through the limit of the ninth level.

Zhu Wuwan lay on the Xuan Bing bed, accompanied by two peerless beauties. They didn't dare to make a sound as they watched Zhu Wuwan's soul wander out of the sky.

The two beauties would never have thought that the seemingly dazed "Trash Crown Prince" was actually creating a mythical-level spiritual cultivation technique.

Once this matter was spread, it would definitely shake the world.

At a certain moment, the spiritual fog in Zhu Wuwan's Niwan Palace, which had recovered to a five-meter radius, suddenly expanded to a ten-meter radius. It was twice as large as before.

It then began to shrink. After a few times, it still stabilized at a radius of ten meters, but it was more than twice as pure as before.

The increase in quantity and quality meant that Zhu Wuwan's mental power had increased by several times.

He had successfully created the tenth level of the Iceheart Secret Art in just 12 hours!

This spiritual technique was considered top-notch among the peerless techniques, and it was elevated to the ranks of mythical-level spiritual techniques by Zhu Wuwan.

Moreover, even among mythical-level spiritual cultivation techniques, the tenth level of the Iceheart Art was not considered the bottom.

However, what made Zhu Wanhao helpless was that even though he had already transformed the Iceheart Art to the unprecedented tenth level, his mental power had also soared, and it was still extremely difficult for him to shake the Vast Sea Origin Crystal.

The tenth level of the Iceheart Art was still not enough!

Zhu Wanwan smiled bitterly. It seemed that he still needed to fuse more mental martial arts and mental secret techniques to continue improving the Iceheart Technique and break through to the eleventh or even twelfth level.

Fortunately, Zhu Wuyang had already memorized all the mental martial arts and mental secret techniques on the third level of the Imperial Library. Now, he could remove the weeds and retain the essence. He could fuse more essence into the Iceheart Formula and create the eleventh level of the Iceheart Formula.

Lying on the ice bed alone, Zhu Wuwan had no idea where she was. She had already used all her energy on the Ice Heart Secrets.

When Zhu Wuwan created the tenth level of the Iceheart Technique and was even advancing towards the eleventh level, the notifications from the Special Encounter System kept ringing.

"Congratulations to the host for making the imperial palace of the Nine Zhao Nation tremble for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for creating a Mythical spiritual cultivation technique for the first time in his life. You have received 500 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for making Zhu Zhenwu, the emperor of the Nine Zhao Country, suffer a terrible loss for the first time in his life. You have obtained 600 million breakthrough points..."

Among the series of small notifications, there would occasionally be some large breakthrough point notifications, making Zhu Wuwan earn a lot. However, she had no choice but to stop from time to time to absorb a wave of breakthrough points before continuing to comprehend.

For other ancient martial art practitioners, doing so would affect the creation of their cultivation techniques. However, for Zhu Wuwan, who was born with a divine nature and had a peerless comprehension ability, the impact was still there, but it was rather limited.

At most, he would need to meditate for three minutes before he could continue to focus on creating a higher-level Iceheart Formula. This did not require too much effort.

However, as time passed, even after Zhu Wuyang had fused the essence of the mental martial arts and secret techniques he had obtained from the third level of the Imperial Library Pavilion into the Iceheart Secret Art, the eleventh level of the Iceheart Secret Art was still not created.

The spiritual resources that Zhu Wuyan had were already insufficient.

After some consideration, Zhu Wanwan left the Crown Prince Palace and headed to the second floor of the royal library. There were also many spiritual martial arts and secret arts here. Although their levels were a little low, there were more of them.

If he comprehended and absorbed more, it would be extremely useful for Zhu Wuwan to create a higher-level spiritual cultivation technique.. Therefore, Zhu Wuwan was prepared to read and comprehend it properly so that he could continue to improve his spiritual cultivation technique and break through another level of heaven's barrier to obtain greater benefits...

Chapter 128: Inner Element Transformation (1)

Inspiration was like the stars in the sky, blooming brightly in the spiritual night sky.

Every low-level mental martial art and mental secret technique could add a few bright stars to Zhu Wuwan's mental night sky, allowing her to advance a little on the path to the eleventh level of the Iceheart Secrets.

Every step forward meant that Zhu Wuyang was a little closer to creating the eleventh level of the Iceheart Secrets.

Gathering sand into a tower, he slowly forged it like this, allowing time to pass.

Two hours, four hours, six hours...Twenty hours...Twenty hours...

When Zhu Wuyan had memorized and comprehended the nearly one thousand books on mental martial arts and secret techniques on the second floor of the Imperial Library, the eleventh level of the Ice Heart Formula had unknowingly surfaced.

Moreover, because it was created by Zhu Wuwan herself, it reached the Perfection Realm in one go.

The spiritual mist that had expanded to a radius of ten meters suddenly expanded to a radius of twenty-two meters. After shrinking and expanding a few times, its purity had also increased by nearly three times. freewebnvel.com

Both the quantity and quality had increased by more than two times, which meant that Zhu Wuwan's mental power was several times stronger than before. The increase was not small.

Zhu Wuwan used her mental power to stir the Vast Sea Essence Crystal that had grown to 116 miles in radius and found it extremely easy. If nothing unexpected happened, even if the Vast Sea Essence Crystal reached the limit of 120 miles in radius, Zhu Wuwan's current mental power could easily knead it and successfully raise it into Qi.

At this moment, the Vast Sea Essence Crystal in his lower dantian was already not far from the limit of 120 miles.

Zhu Wuwan smiled and left the Imperial Library Pavilion, preparing to welcome the arrival of a new stage.

As long as the Immensity Sea Essence Crystal could be sublimated into Dao Beginning True Qi, Zhu Wuyang's strength would definitely soar again. At that time, even if he was not a match for an official immortal cultivator, he should not be far off.

Immortal cultivators transcended above martial artists, which was the sublimation of martial arts. Only by stepping into the door of immortal cultivation did it mean that they had completely transcended martial arts.

After that, Zhu Wuyang didn't do much. She just ate, rested, slept with beautiful women, and paid attention to the situation in the palace as usual...

After a day and a night, his essence, qi, and spirit had fully recovered, and the Vast Sea Essence Crystal had also expanded to the limit of 120 miles.

Since he had improved to this point, it was time for him to break through the second level of Heaven Ascension...The crystal rose into qi!

Lai Chun and Chu Xia were standing guard outside while Zhu Wuwan sat cross-legged in the middle of the secret cultivation room. There were two top-notch formations set up around them that coordinated with each other. Even if dozens of peerless experts wanted to break in, it would take a few hours.

Such a long period of time was enough for Zhu Wuyang to deal with it calmly.

Ascension Crystal to Qi was too dangerous and difficult, so Zhu Wuyang did not dare to be careless.

The method of condensing the Connate Essence Crystal and transforming it into Dao Chu True Qi in the Dao Chu Jade Book appeared in his mind. Zhu Wuwan followed the instructions, and the Vast Sea Essence Crystal in his lower dantian began to slowly rotate.

These Eternal Sea Essence Crystals were formed by small particles of Connate Essence Crystals that were like seawater, forming a vast ocean with a radius of 120 miles.

Zhu Wuan controlled these Vast Sea Essence Crystals with immense mental power. They circulated according to the methods and techniques in the Dao Chu Jade Book, gradually forming a huge vortex.

The Vast Sea Essence Crystals within a radius of 120 miles floated and sank in the vortex. Under Zhu Wuyang's control, they gathered and compressed towards the center bit by bit.

It was already extremely dangerous when compressing the Vast Sea inner essence into Vast Sea essence crystals, let alone continuing to compress and condense the Vast Sea essence crystals. The degree of danger was far more than ten times or a hundred times higher than before.

The slightest carelessness would cause the Origin Crystals to explode, and Zhu Wuyang's entire body would turn into a pile of powder.

The second step of entering the path through martial arts was even more dangerous and terrifying than the first step.

All of Zhu Wuan's spirit was already immersed in it. She used all her strength to control the vortex formed by the Vast Sea Essence Crystal to rotate, condense, and compress... This caused the 120-mile-wide sea of crystals to become smaller and smaller.

A radius of 120 miles...119 miles...118 miles...117 miles...116 miles...

Zhu Wuwan didn't dare to be too hasty. She compressed and condensed it bit by bit, allowing time to pass continuously.

With every little compression, Zhu Wuwan felt as if he was walking back and forth on a steel rope ten thousand meters high in the air. If he was not careful, what awaited him would be a disaster.

How could Zhu Wuyang be careless?

His mental power had already been unleashed to the extreme, controlling the huge Vast Sea Essence Crystal to compress and condense bit by bit, not allowing it to overstep in the slightest.

Because as long as there was the slightest change, what awaited Zhu Wuyang was death.

The notifications from the Special Encounter System were still ringing nonstop. Fortunately, there were very few large breakthrough points left. With the perfect stage of the Hidden Dragon Grass, he could silently suppress them.

However, if the breakthrough points obtained before this exceeded the limit of the Hidden Dragon Wasabi's suppression, Zhu Wuwan would be in danger.

Fortunately, Zhu Wuwan didn't do anything big these few days, so there weren't many breakthrough points. This way, he could also concentrate on condensing and compressing the Vast Sea Essence Crystals.

Time continued to pass. Even with the help of the breakthrough point, sweat still appeared on Zhu Wuyang's forehead.

A large number of breakthrough points turned into strands of strange power. Some were protecting Zhu Wuyang's lower dantian, preventing it from being injured by the increasingly sharp Essence Crystal vortex. Some were assisting his mental power to better compress and condense the Vast Sea Origin Crystals; Some were constantly replenishing their mental power...

It was orderly and orderly!

Although it was extremely dangerous and difficult, it was constantly being compressed and upgraded.

60 miles!

At this moment, the Vast Sea Essence Crystal had already shrunk to a radius of 60 miles. Its power had increased by several times compared to before.

Zhu Wuwan had already vaguely noticed that in some of the Vast Sea Essence Crystals in the deepest part of the vortex, wisps of smoke-like power had suddenly appeared. They were condensed in the Essence Crystals and had yet to break out of the crystals.

When the smoke came out of the Essence Crystal, it meant that the first wisp of Genuine Qi had transformed.

Zhu Wuwan continued to compress, condense, compress, condense... He had already used all his strength, even using the power of the primeval world.

For the first time, Zhu Wuwan felt that time was passing so hard. After all, she was dancing on the tip of a knife all the time. If she was not careful, she would be pierced through the heart by the long knife. That feeling was really painful.

It was no wonder that in the past thousand years, there had not been a single ancient martial art practitioner in the Nine Zhao Nation who had been able to overcome the heavenly barrier of entering the path through martial arts and successfully transform into an immortal cultivator. It turned out that it was so difficult to become an immortal from a mortal.

It had to be known that Zhu Wuan had a flawless Dao foundation and had the help of a breakthrough point. If it was already so difficult, let alone those ordinary martial artists. They did not have any advantages, so it would undoubtedly be even more difficult for them to cross this Heaven Pass..

Chapter 129: Celestial True Qi (1)

“Congratulations to the host for condensing immortal true energy for the first time in his life. You have obtained 1 billion breakthrough points...”

When the Vast Sea Essence Crystal in his lower dantian condensed to a radius of thirty miles, a wisp of nearly transparent true qi appeared in the depths of the vortex.

Although it was only a wisp, it contained a terrifying energy that could easily kill any peerless expert.

Everything was difficult at the beginning. Following the appearance of the first wisp of Dao Beginning True Qi, the second wisp of Dao Beginning True Qi quickly appeared in his lower dantian, followed by the third wisp, the fourth wisp, and the fifth wisp ...

The Eternal Sea Essence Crystal that was about a mile in circumference could only condense and transform into a few wisps of Dao Beginning True Qi. One could imagine how amazing the energy contained in each wisp of Dao Beginning True Qi was.

The Vast Sea Essence Crystals in the nine great chakra meridians had already gathered in his lower dantian, forming this Essence Crystal Whirlpool with a radius of thirty miles.

Under Zhu Wuan's control, the Essence Crystal vortex continued to condense and transform. Wisps of Primordial Dao True Qi continuously emerged from the depths of the vortex.

The pressure that Zhu Wuwan was enduring also slowly decreased as the Primordial Dao True Qi increased. The sweat on her forehead slowly disappeared, and the pain in her body also gradually lessened.

The thirty-mile-long whirlpool of crystals continued to shrink!

Thirty miles...Twenty-nine miles...Twenty-eight miles...A radius of twenty-five miles...A radius of twenty miles...

Every time it shrank, the Primordial Dao True Qi in Zhu Wuyan's body would increase a little. At this moment, the number of Primordial Dao True Qi in Zhu Wuyan's body had already reached 100 wisps.

If Zhu Wanhao's guess was correct, when all the Vast Sea Essence Crystals were condensed and transformed, Zhu Wanhao would be able to obtain at least 300 wisps of Dao Beginning True Qi.

306 wisps!

This was the amount of Dao Beginning True Qi in Zhu Wuyang's lower dantian after all the Vast Sea Essence Crystals had been condensed and transformed. It was six wisps more than Zhu Wuyang had estimated.

The Eternal Sea Essence Crystal with a radius of 120 miles finally transformed into 306 wisps of Dao Beginning True Qi. When gathered together, it was only about a meter in radius, which was a thousand times smaller.

After the Vast Sea Essence Crystal transformed to this point, its power soared by more than ten times or a hundred times.

If the original Vast Sea Essence Crystal was cotton, then the Dao Beginning True Qi at this moment was wood. Ordinary people could tear cotton at will, but they could not tear wood no matter what.

It seemed like the power in his body had been reduced by thousands of times, but Zhu Wuwan's strength had increased by at least ten times.

Looking at the metal pole in front of him, Zhu Wuwan mobilized a wisp of Dao Beginning True Qi. Without using any martial arts secret technique, he lightly landed his palm on the metal pole.

Immediately, the Iron Pillars were smashed into iron mud by Zhu Wuwan's palm like tofu. The power was comparable to the Nine Dragon Fist that Zhu Wuwan had used at full strength.

If he were to use his Primordial Dao Genuine Qi to activate the Nine Dragon Fist, Zhu Wuwan believed that no ancient martial art practitioner would be able to withstand it. Even if he encountered an ordinary immortal cultivator, Zhu Wuwan was confident that he could kill him.

The power of true qi was truly terrifying!

In the process of transforming the Primordial Dao True Qi, Zhu Wuwan's lower dantian, nine major chakra meridians, and various parts of his body were also tempered and hammered at a deeper level.

In just a few hours, Zhu Wuyan's lower dantian and nine major chakra meridians had improved by about three times. This improvement was all-round, whether it was hardness or flexibility.

Skin, muscles, bones, internal organs, bone marrow ... It had also increased by more than two times. Moreover, as time passed, the Primordial Dao True Qi would continue to temper and hammer Zhu Wuwan's body, making it harder and more flexible.

Compared to the power of the Connate Origin Crystal, the power of the Celestial True Qi was clearly more than ten times stronger.

However, Zhu Wuwan also gradually realized that because the Immortal True Qi was far superior to the Connate Origin Crystal, there was always an awkward feeling when using the martial arts of the mortal world to activate the Dao Beginning True Qi, and the power was also greatly reduced.

If it were any other martial artist, they might not be able to do anything about it. However, with Zhu Wuyang's perception, he only needed to spend some time to adjust the martial arts he cultivated and make them fit with the Primordial Dao Genuine Qi, allowing them to unleash their strongest power.

After Zhu Wuyang stabilized his Primordial Dao True Qi, he began to adjust the secret martial arts techniques he had mastered.

"Congratulations to the host for adjusting the mythical-level secret technique, Hidden Dragon Mustard, for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for adjusting the Mythical martial art, Skyline Moon Blade Technique, for the first time in your life. You have received 500 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for adjusting the Mythical-level Ice Heart Art for the first time in your life. You have obtained 700 million breakthrough points..."

Perhaps it was because he was stronger and his status was higher, or perhaps it was because Zhu Wuwan's actions were indeed extraordinary and had a huge influence... Therefore, every adjustment of a martial arts secret technique could bring Zhu Wuwan a considerable breakthrough point. Even if only 50% of it was poured into Zhu Wuwan's strength, it still allowed Zhu Wuwan's strength to soar continuously.

With the help of these waves of breakthrough points, the Primordial Dao True Qi that was originally about a meter in radius quickly expanded to... 1.5 meters!

One to two billion breakthrough points had only allowed the Primordial Dao True Qi to expand to half a meter. One could imagine how difficult it was to condense the Primordial Dao True Qi.

In order to clean up the filth in the middle dantian and successfully open up the middle dantian, the Primordial Dao True Qi had to reach at least nine meters in radius. Therefore, Zhu Wuyang still needed a long time to accumulate it.

Before the Rising Crystal to Qi, Zhu Wuwan felt that the breakthrough point came too quickly, forcing him into a sorry state. Now that the Rising Crystal to Qi had passed, Zhu Wuwan suddenly felt that the speed of earning breakthrough points was still a little too slow. He had to work harder from now on.

As for salted fish, what was that? He would not be a salted fish in the future.

After Zhu Wuwan adjusted and transformed all the martial arts and secret techniques she had mastered into immortal martial arts and secret techniques, and mastered them as if they were her arms, she began her unfinished business again. Revenge!

Wiping out hatred!

Comforting the Host!

As a result, the princes, princesses, and concubines in the imperial palace were once again in trouble.

"Congratulations to the host for crippling Consort Yuan's martial arts for the first time in your life. You have received 300 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for ruining the face of the sixty-fourth princess, Zhu Haiyue, for the first time in your life. You have received 500 million breakthrough points..."

The original owner had left in such a miserable and pitiful manner. As the person who had inherited everything from the original owner, how could Zhu Wuyang not avenge the original owner? Otherwise, she would be worse than a pig or a dog.

To be honest, even if doing so wouldn't bring Zhu Wuyan a breakthrough, Zhu Wuyan would still help the Host deal with these enemies.

At most, he would settle the matter once and not torment them so much. As a modern person who had transmigrated and sneaked into this world, Zhu Wuyang expressed that he would make up for it.

He wouldn't be like many transmigrators, who wouldn't admit their mistakes after pulling up their pants after transmigrating. Zhu Wuyang would admit her mistakes..

Chapter 130: Shaving Her Head for Her Sisters (1)

This time, Zhu Wuwan didn't need to be as timid as before. Every time he took revenge on a few enemies, he had to rush back to absorb the breakthrough points that he forcefully poured in. He also had to worry that the Vast Sea Essence Crystals would expand too quickly and waste the breakthrough points after reaching the limit of the Innate Realm.

There were too many breakthrough points needed to increase the Primordial Dao True Qi. Zhu Wuwan was afraid that she would not obtain enough breakthrough points, so how could she feel that there were too few breakthrough points?

At this moment, Zhu Wuyan already possessed invincible strength. Not to mention Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, even if all the Inborn experts in the palace surrounded Zhu Wuyan, Zhu Wuyan could easily escape and even kill everyone instead.

Zhu Wuyang no longer had to worry about the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu discovering his true strength if he improved too quickly, which would lead to his death.

Zhu Wuyang, who had transformed his Connate Primordial Crystal into Immortal Qi, was already invincible in the mortal world. Unless he was a true

Immortal Cultivator, Zhu Wuyang was not afraid of anyone.

In just one night, Zhu Wuyang had taken revenge on more than a dozen enemies and earned five to six billion breakthrough points, causing the fog formed by the Primordial Dao True Qi to expand to a radius of two and a half meters. freewebnovel.com

The next day, needless to say, the entire palace was in chaos. Many princes and princesses, as well as concubines, went to the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu to complain. This made the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu feel a headache coming on. He did not know which evil person was so crazy to actually bully the big shots in the palace like this.

Dozens of imperial guards gathered in the Palace of Heavenly Purity and knelt on the ground to report to Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

"Your Majesty, the thief is too powerful and did not leave any traces behind. I have already sent out the number one constable of Six Fan School, but we still found nothing.

"According to my speculation, the strength of the thief is probably ... I'm afraid that he has already reached the Innate Invincible Realm and has mastered an extremely powerful concealment technique. His array formation cultivation is also quite shocking, which is why he can do these lawless things without anyone knowing.”

” The thief only hurts people but doesn’t kill them. His behavior is quite strange, as if he is deliberately provoking the royal family. Therefore, I speculate that the thief should be an expert in the Jianghu. As long as we investigate the top ten experts of the Jianghu carefully, we should be able to find some clues.

“Forgive me, Your Majesty, but I privately believe that the thief should be an expert in the Imperial Family and has many enemies. That’s why he would do such a thing to take revenge on the Imperial Family.”

Hearing the words of the group of imperial guards, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu frowned. What these people said was just speculation, and they all had different directions. Even he did not know which one to believe.

Therefore, after some consideration, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu decided to do both. On one hand, he would let Six Fan School investigate the martial arts masters in the martial world to see which martial arts master was the most suspicious. On the other hand, he would let the imperial guards investigate the suspicious people in the royal family.

That night, more than thirty princes, princesses, and concubines were taken revenge by Zhu Wuyan. Each of them miserably contributed a lot of breakthrough points to Zhu Wuyan.

However, what disappointed Zhu Wuyan was that after two nights of hard work, all the guys who bullied the original owner and Zhu Wuyan had been dealt with by Zhu Wuyan.

In other words, there was no one else to take revenge on, so it would be a little difficult to earn breakthrough points in large quantities.

However, the Primordial Dao True Qi in Zhu Wuan’s body had only expanded to a radius of three meters. There was still a long way to go before it could reach a radius of nine meters.

In that case, how should he earn a large number of breakthrough points? Zhu Wuwan frowned and thought for a moment. Soon, a smile appeared on her face.

Although he had already taken revenge, there was no rule that he could not take revenge a second time or a third time. The next two times could be lighter, but it could not be less.

Moreover, even if it was those princes, princesses, and concubines who had no grudges against the original owner and Zhu Wuyang, although Zhu Wuyang would not take revenge on them due to his conscience and morality, he could still tease and play with them.

Doing so would make it easier to leave a deep impression and bring about considerable influence, allowing Zhu Wuyang to earn more breakthrough points.

Although it was a little overboard, in order to enter the path as soon as possible with martial arts, Zhu Wuyang had no choice but to do something out of line.

At most, Zhu Wuyang would solve the problem of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu and prevent him from hurting the princes, princesses, and concubines in the palace. It could also be considered Zhu Wuyang's compensation to these people.

After some consideration, Zhu Wuyang started to act.

"Congratulations to the host for destroying the 89th prince Zhu Libo's meridians for the first time in his life. You have received 10,000,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for castrating the ninety-fourth prince, Zhu Zhishan, for the first time in his life. You have obtained 30 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for disrupting Prince 122's spirit sea for the first time in his life. You have received 50 million breakthrough points..."

These guys who had hurt the original owner and Zhu Wuyang were also considered unlucky. After being avenged once, they welcomed a second wave of revenge. Soon, there would be a third wave of revenge.

If they knew the truth of the matter, they would probably vomit blood in regret.

With the help of these enemies, Zhu Wuyang earned nearly five billion in just a few hours. Then, Zhu Wuyang set his sights on the princes, princesses, and concubines who had no grudges against him.

"Congratulations to the host for shaving Zhu Lingling's head for the first time in your life. You have received 100 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for stuffing Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's favorite concubine, Bai Ruyu, under the bed for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for drawing a turtle climbing a mountain on the face of Empress Zhao Fanghua for the first time in your life. You have obtained 600 million breakthrough points .

Towards these princes, princesses, and concubines who had no grudges against the original owner and Zhu Wuwan, Zhu Wuwan did not go too far. At most, she would only play some pranks.

Although it was just a prank, it brought Zhu Wuyang a lot of breakthroughs, even better than taking revenge on those enemies.

When it was close to dawn, Zhu Wuwan had earned about eight billion breakthrough points through these interesting pranks. This made Zhu Wuwan feel a little hot. She hurriedly returned to the cultivation chamber to absorb the billions of breakthrough points that she had forcefully poured in to increase the amount of Primordial Dao True Qi.

To be honest, even Zhu Wuwan didn't expect that these unpresentable pranks could actually obtain so many breakthrough points. However, when she thought about the rules of the special encounter system, Zhu Wuwan felt that it was very normal.

Who asked him to obtain an abnormal system? In that case, he could only use abnormal methods to obtain a normal breakthrough point.

It was just that when Zhu Wuyang was messing with these princesses, he selectively forgot one thing, and that was that these guys were clearly him.

They were half- sisters!
