Chapter 151 - 151: My Good Grandnephew (1)

Chapter 151: My Good Grandnephew (1)

" Third Aunt, save me! This bastard wants to kill me! He has slaughtered the entire Zhu Royal Family! He has no father and no ruler! He's extremely arrogant! Please kill this bastard for me! "

Upon seeing the white-haired old woman, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu felt as if he had met his savior. He could not help but roar. Fortunately, before Zhu Wuan arrived at the Palace of Heavenly Purity, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had informed Third Aunt in advance. Otherwise, Third Aunt would not have arrived in time.

At this moment, the white-haired old woman stood in front of Zhu Wanhao at the critical moment. Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was also extremely glad and almost cried tears of joy. He no longer had the bearing of a ruler of a country.

Upon hearing Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's words, the white-haired old woman looked at Zhu Wuan. The cold expression on her face instantly disappeared as she turned her head, replaced by a warm smile."Good child, you did well!"

Is he complimenting me or mocking me?

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was speechless.

Was he saying the opposite of what he was saying?

The concubines of the sixth palace were speechless.

As expected of an immortal cultivator, there was a hidden sharpness in his words that he could not understand.

The white-haired old woman continued to smile. " Your name is Zhu Wuyan, right? Zhu Jun is safe. That's a good name. I'm your third great aunt, Zhu Wanzi. You can call me great aunt. "

"Yes, Grand aunt." Zhu Wuyang quickly followed the stick and called out amiably.

Although he wasn't sure what this powerful immortal guarding the Moon Capital was thinking, if he could get closer to him, he would. Perhaps he wouldn't have to run today, and the chances of him escaping didn't seem to be high.

Hearing Zhu Wuyan call her great-aunt, Zhu Wuyan's old face smiled like a blooming chrysanthemum. ""Good, good, good. You're really a good child. What you did today was also very good."

This ??This should be sarcasm, right?

Zhu Wuan smiled dryly. " You must be joking, Grandaunt. I was forced to do this. Otherwise, Zhu Zhenwu would kill me again. However, I have no intention of destroying the Zhu royal family. I just want to drive Zhu Zhenwu away from the throne. "

" Third Aunt, don't listen to this unfilial son's nonsense. He even killed his own brother, and now he wants to kill me. After he kills me, he definitely won't let the other brothers and sisters off. " Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu hurriedly said.

Zhu Wanzi nodded. " Grandnephew, you did a good job. A fool like Zhu Zhenwu should have been abolished long ago. I've disliked him since a few years ago. If you want the throne, Third Aunt will help you snatch it. "

"Uh ?" Zhu Wanwan was stunned. What was going on? Could it be that Zhu Wanzi's words were not sarcasm, nor did she mock him, but her true thoughts?

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, the concubines of the six palaces, and the princes and princesses were all stunned.

Without waiting for Zhu Wanwan to react, Zhu Wanzi waved his right hand. Surging immortal zhenqi surged from a hundred meters away and captured Crazy Emperor Zhu Zhenwu alive.

"Bang bang..."

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu did not even have the strength to resist. He was slapped by Zhu Wanzi's palm on his dantian and nine major chakra meridians. His lower dantian and nine major chakra meridians immediately collapsed, and all of his innate internal energy dissipated.

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was crippled just like that!

"Ah..."

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu could not help but scream in pain, ""Third Aunt, how many celestial treasures have I given you over the years? How can you treat me like this? What did I do wrong?"

"Bang..."

Zhu Wanzi threw him out and slammed him on the ground, “” If you hadn’t been so attentive to me, I would have crippled you long ago. I wouldn’t have watched you slaughter the members of the Zhu Royal Family. Although most of them are your children, they are still the children of the Zhu Family. ”

” It’s already an act of mercy for me to tolerate you until now. I didn’t expect you to kill my nephew today. How can I tolerate you? ”

“You want to cripple me just for this unfilial son?” ” What? ” Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu found it hard to believe. ” You should have never seen him before, right? Why are you so protective of this little bastard? ”

Zhu Wanzi slapped him and sent him flying, “” Shut up. Compared to my grandnephew, you’re nothing. My grandnephew was a genius, but he was almost destroyed by you. If our ancestor finds out, all of us will be punished. ”

” Didn’t he just break through to the second stage of entering the path with martial arts? It’s not like there hasn’t been anyone from the Zhu royal family who has broken through to this stage in the past hundreds of years. ” Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was still unconvinced.

Zhu Wanzi laughed. ” Zhu Zhenwu, are you blind or do you not dare to admit it? My grandnephew has not only stepped into the second stage of martial arts, but he has also refined his immortal meridians. Tell me, what level has he reached? Otherwise, how could he have such strength? ”

“Boom...”

Zhu Zhenwu was stunned as if he had been struck by lightning.”No, no, no. Impossible, he’s only seventeen years old. How could he have successfully entered the Dao through martial arts? This can’t be true, this can’t be true!”

” The gap between a genius and a mortal is not something you can imagine. ” “You’re nothing compared to my good grandnephew,” Zhu Wanzi sneered.

“Pfft...”

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu threw his head back and spat out a mouthful of blood. He roared like thunder,” This is fake. It’s impossible for someone to succeed in entering the path with martial arts at the age of seventeen. I’ve been cultivating bitterly for more than a hundred years and have gone through all kinds of hardships. I can’t even pass the first stage. How can he succeed in entering the path with martial arts...”

His voice sounded like he was crying blood, and he was howling non-stop. He had already gone crazy.

“I don’t believe you. You’re all lying to me!”

“I want to report this matter to the ancestor and let him expose your lies.”

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu shouted as he ran into the distance. Soon, he fell into the ruins of the Palace of Heavenly Purity, but he still kept screaming.

Seeing the Mad Emperor, who had dominated the Nine Zhao Country for over a hundred years and made the entire Zhu royal family fear him for decades, fall to such a state, everyone fell silent. Zhu Wuwan’s heart also felt a little empty.

He had thought that there would inevitably be a big battle today, or even that he would have to escape. He did not expect such an outcome. frēewebnovel.com

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had been crippled by the reinforcements he had called for. This was also his last trump card. How ironic was it to think about it?

No wonder Zhu Zhenwu went completely crazy!

However, with Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu’s actions over the years, his death was indeed not worth regretting. At this moment, there should be countless princes, princesses, and concubines in the entire palace clapping their hands in celebration.

Everything that had happened today seemed unexpected, but it was actually within reason when one thought about it carefully.

The moment Zhu Wanhao successfully entered the path through martial arts, it meant that his identity was completely different. Compared to an official immortal, what was a secular emperor, let alone an immortal who entered the path through martial arts?

Zhu Wanzi’s choice was reasonable.

Chapter 152: I Wish You All the Best in the Southern Wilderness (1)

“Sigh...”

Looking at the crazy Zhu Zhenwu, Zhu Wanzi couldn't help but sigh. "" Zhenwu was quite cute when he was young. After he became the emperor, he was quite diligent. Unfortunately, in order to enter the path with martial arts, he damaged his head and became crazy. "

"Good grandnephew, he is already in this state. Please spare his life."

Zhu Wuyang was a little silent.

Zhu Wanzi saw the hesitation in Zhu Wuan's eyes and advised, "" He is your father after all. How can you bear the infamy of murdering your father and king? Moreover, our ancestor hates it when his descendants kill each other. If he finds out, even if you didn't do anything wrong, he will still be unhappy with you. "

"I want to ask you, Aunt. All these years, Zhu Zhenwu has been killing his children. Doesn't Aunt know?" Zhu Wuwan frowned slightly.

Zhu Wanzi smiled bitterly. " This matter has blown up so much. How could I not know? I've tried to persuade him a few times, but in the secular world, it has always been the monarch who wants his subjects to die, and the father who wants his son to die. Zhu Zhenwu used this as an explanation. All these years, he has basically harmed his children. I can't persuade him either. "

"However, if it weren't for the fact that they were afraid of me, the number of princes and princesses who died in these years would only increase. Even many members of the other imperial families would have died."

"I understand." Only then did Zhu Wuyang know the reason. Some bad habits in ancient times indeed made people feel quite helpless.

No wonder Zhu Zhenwu's children were the ones who died the most in recent years. It was because Zhu Wanzi was watching over them, so he didn't dare to kill his royal brothers, uncles, and so on.

Zhu Wanzi grabbed Zhu Wanwan's hand. " My good grandnephew, go to the Imperial Garden and have a good chat with me. Ever since I've been guarding the Moon Capital, although I've stopped Zhu Zhenwu from killing innocent people, I dare not say that I've done my best. Otherwise, so many princes and princesses wouldn't have died all these years. "

" Fortunately, you've hidden yourself well all these years. You've finally successfully entered the path through martial arts. Otherwise, if I hurt you, Zhu Zhenwu would not regret it even if he died ten or a hundred times. "

As they spoke, the two of them came to the imperial garden. Some of the important officials and dignitaries in the palace began to restore order in the palace and prepare for Zhu Wuan's ascension.

Many people in the palace were jubilant, as if it was a festival. One could imagine how unpopular Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had been over the years.

"My good grandnephew, I didn't expect you to be able to hide for seventeen years. When did you successfully enter the path with martial arts?" Zhu Wanzi couldn't help but ask.

Zhu Wanhao thought about it for a moment. "Grandaunt, I succeeded in entering the path with martial arts a few years ago. It was just that I thought it wasn't safe, so I continued to hide my strength and silently improve myself. I didn't expect to be inadvertently pushed to the position of Crown Prince. A series of things happened during this period of time, so I had no choice but to expose myself."

Zhu Wanwan didn't dare to tell Zhu Wanzi that he had only successfully entered the Dao with martial arts in the past half a month or so. A month ago, Zhu Wanwan was just an ordinary person.

If he told Zhu Wanzi the truth, even a fool would be able to guess that Zhu Wanwan definitely had a huge secret and treasure on her.

An innocent man's possession of a treasure would cause him to suffer. How could Zhu Wanzi not be tempted?

Therefore, Zhu Wuan only considered it for a moment before deciding to follow everyone's guesses. He wanted everyone to mistakenly believe that he had been hiding his strength since he was young and had silently cultivated for seventeen years. Only then did he become a star.

Although this was a little exaggerated, it was not that unbelievable.

Zhu Wanzi nodded. "You have done well. With the power of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, ordinary invincible innate experts are no match for him. Even ordinary official Immortal Cultivators will not be able to stop a hundred thousand imperial guards and five thousand Golden Guards."

"Actually, when you were in the Warm Sun Palace, my great-aunt had already arrived. She had been secretly observing you and protecting you. If my great-aunt is not mistaken, your strength is definitely not as simple as the first qi layer. A first qi layer cultivator is definitely not as powerful as you."

Actually, I've already cultivated to the peak of the third qi layer and could break through to the fourth qi layer at any time." Zhu Wanhao thought for a moment and said with a smile. After all, with his current cultivation speed, he should be able to step into the fourth qi layer in a few days.

At that time, Zhu Wanwan wouldn't be able to hide it from Zhu Wanzi. Since that was the case, it was better to be honest to avoid the subsequent awkwardness.

"Hiss..."

Zhu Wanzi couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air when she heard what Zhu Wuan said. It was already ridiculous enough for a seventeen-year-old to enter the path through martial arts. She didn't expect Zhu Wuan to even break through the bottleneck and enter the perfected realm of the third level of the Refinement Realm. She was about to break through to the fourth level of the Refinement Realm, which was the middle stage of the Refinement Realm.

In the Hundred Poisons Sect, even those with spiritual roots could already reach the mid-stage of the Qi Refinement realm before the age of twenty, not to mention that Zhu Wuwan did not have spiritual roots. She first cultivated martial arts and then passed the Heavenly Pass to enter the Dao through martial arts before stepping on the path of immortality.

The cultivation of martial arts was difficult to begin with, and it was not much worse than the initial stage of the Immortal Dao. However, under such circumstances, Zhu Wuwan was still able to break through the Earth Pass, Heaven Pass, and countless bottlenecks at the age of seventeen and advance to this level.

Such talent was simply beyond imagination.

If Zhu Wuyang had possessed spiritual roots since she was seven years old, she would probably be on par with her at this speed.

One had to know that Zhu Wanhao lived in the mortal world where the spiritual energy of heaven and earth was extremely scarce all year round. It was several times worse than the Hundred Poisons Sect.

To be able to improve to this level under such circumstances was simply monstrous.

"Good grandnephew, you are really too amazing. Grand aunt has lived for so many years, but I have never seen such a proud son of heaven like you." Zhu Wanzi couldn't help but sigh. "If you were born with a spiritual root, I'm afraid that you would be the next leader of our Zhu family. Unfortunately, although those who enter the path of immortality through martial arts have good cultivation progress at the beginning, the spiritual root of those who transcend the mortal world and become immortals is generally poor. In the future, they will at most stop at the Foundation Establishment Realm. It's a pity that you are a Golden Core seed."

At this point, Zhu Wanzi couldn't help but sigh. She wished she could give her spiritual roots to Zhu Wuyang so that he could lead the Zhu Clan in the future.

However, Zhu Wanzi didn't know that the Flawless Dao Foundation that had been forged by the special encounter system not only had unimaginable talent in the path of martial arts, but it was also terrifying in terms of immortal talent. It was not inferior to martial arts at all.

In the future, not to mention the Golden Core seed, even if it was a higher level, Zhu Wanwan was confident that she could reach it. At this moment, Zhu Wanzi's worries were unnecessary.

Even so, Zhu Wanzi had praised Zhu Wanwan as a peerless genius and peerless monster. One could imagine how much of a commotion it would cause if his true talent was exposed.

Not only that, but Zhu Wanzi and Zhu Wanwan would never have thought that the seemingly glorious and huge Hundred Poisons Sect was just a transition for Zhu Wanwan. It could not restrain Zhu Wanwan who was soaring like a dragon.

When he had accumulated enough power in the Hundred Poisons Sect, Zhu Wuyang would then welcome true glory and step into an unprecedented super immortal sect. He would wield unprecedented power and strength, so great that it would make anyone in the Hundred Poisons Sect tremble in fear!

Brilliant, spectacular, surging, horizontal, disdainful ?? Everything Zhu Wuyang wanted would be realized there.

I wish you all the best if the heavens don't give birth to me. The Southern Wilderness is like a long night for all eternity!

Zhu Wuyan would single-handedly lead the Southern Wasteland to the top of the world and conquer the myriad worlds!

Chapter 153: The Obsession of an Earth Man (1)

" My dear grandnephew, what kind of immortal cultivation method are you cultivating? I can see that your immortal zhenqi is vast and neutral, and there are no signs of instability. It shouldn't be the basic immortal cultivation method of my Hundred Poisons Sect. " Zhu Wanzi asked curiously.

This kind of thing couldn't be hidden. Zhu Wuwan smiled and said, ""Grandaunt, I cultivate in the Jade Book of the Beginning of the Dao (upper part) on the fourth level of the Imperial Library. It contains detailed methods of entering the Dao through martial arts, as well as all the cultivation methods of the Qi Condensation stage.”

“Ah...” Zhu Wanzi was stunned. You used the Dao Beginning Jade Book to cultivate to the third level of the Qi Refinement Realm and are about to break through to the fourth level of the Qi Refinement Realm?”

Zhu Wanzi had originally thought that Zhu Wuyan was cultivating some other foundation establishment immortal technique hidden in the imperial family. Otherwise, how could he have improved so much in such a short period of time?

Although there were very few true immortal cultivation techniques in the secular world, it was not impossible for some to escape the net. As the ruler of the Nine Zhao Country, it was normal for the Zhu royal family to have such immortal cultivation techniques.

From what Zhu Wanzi knew, there were three or four such cultivation techniques on the fourth floor of the Imperial Library Pavilion.

However, he did not expect Zhu Wuyang to cultivate the most difficult Dao Beginning Jade Book. Everyone knew the difficulty of cultivating the Dao Beginning Jade Book. Even if the early stages were relatively easier, it still required a lot of time.

Under normal circumstances, it would take at least 30 years to break through to the middle-stage Qi Refinement realm with the Dao Beginning Jade Book. It was precisely because of this that fewer and fewer people chose to cultivate the Dao Beginning Jade Book.

However, he did not expect Zhu Wuan to actually choose the Dao Beginning Jade Book as the foundation establishment immortal technique and cultivate to this point in such a short period of time.

Zhu Wanzi couldn't help but gasp again when she saw Zhu Wuan nod. ““Good grandnephew, your talent and aptitude are really beyond my imagination. It seems that the quality of your spiritual root after you transformed into an immortal is not low. Otherwise, how could you cultivate so quickly?”

“Grandaunt, the reason why I improved so quickly was mainly because I obtained a lot of immortal resources and treasures from many influential officials and members of the imperial family.” Zhu Wanwan explained with a smile, not daring to reveal too much. Otherwise, Zhu Wanzi would easily guess that Zhu Wanwan had other secrets.

Zhu Wanzi finally felt relieved. ” Even so, your talent is amazing. If our ancestor knew about it, he would be very happy. ”

” My good grandnephew, when you follow me to the Hundred Poisons Sect, you must try your best to display your talent. You don't have to hide it like you did in the palace anymore. The better your talent is, the more resources and benefits you can obtain from the clan. In the future, you will improve faster. ”

” The Zhu family of the Hundred Poisons Sect isn’t like many other cultivation sects. We don’t fight against each other and are jealous of others. Our ancestor hates it when people in the family kill each other. Plus, we have always had a good family tradition. Our Zhu family is one of the most united cultivation sects in the Southern Wasteland. Besides, you have many elders in the Hundred Poisons Sect. ”

“As long as you display your talent well, you will be able to obtain enough benefits and always lead all your peers.”

“I understand.” Hearing that the Hundred Poisons Sect’s environment was so good, Zhu Wuwan was relieved. It seemed that in the future, when he entered the Hundred Poisons Sect, he would not have to hide like he did in the imperial palace. He would not even dare to break through and would have to worry about breaking through too quickly at any time.

In the future, he would be able to boldly increase his strength, obtain the greatest benefits, earn the most resources, and become a top-tier expert of Hundred Poisons as soon as possible.

Only in this way could he grasp astonishing power, obtain a longer lifespan, and have greater freedom.

It seemed that he would have a good life in the future. Zhu Wuwan smiled and prepared to earn enough breakthrough stones in Jiuzhao Country before considering going to Hundred Poisons Sect.

” Good grandnephew, when are you going to go to the Hundred Poisons Sect with your great-aunt? The spiritual energy of heaven and earth in the Nine Zhao Country is too scarce. You’re wasting time here. It’s better to go to the Hundred Poisons Sect with your great-aunt to cultivate. ” As expected, Zhu Wanzi soon asked about this matter.

Zhu Wanzi was quite excited after learning about Zhu Wuan’s talent. It was not only because Zhu Wuan was a member of the Zhu Clan, but also because the Zhu Clan would benefit greatly when he grew up.

It was also because if she found such a genius for the family, she would definitely be able to obtain a considerable reward. In the future, she would not have to be sent to the secular world as an outer sect deacon.

Compared to the rich Heaven and Earth Spirit Energy in Hundred Poisons Sect, the Heaven and Earth Spirit Energy in Nine Zhao Nation was too scarce and turbid. It was a little uncomfortable to live here.

If it was possible, Zhu Wanzi naturally hoped to return to the Hundred Poisons Sect as soon as possible.

Looking at Zhu Wanzi's expectant face, Zhu Wuwan naturally understood what she meant. However, he still shook his head and said, "" Grand aunt, becoming the emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation has always been my obsession, so I plan to stay in the Nine Zhao Nation for a while longer and become the emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation. After that, I'll head to the Hundred Poisons Sect to cultivate. "

"This..." Zhu Wanzi was a little hesitant. " But the spiritual energy of heaven and earth here is scarce, which is not conducive to your cultivation. Besides, the Jade Book of Dao Beginning is the most difficult immortal manual in the world to cultivate. The further you go, the more difficult it will be. It's better to change it to the foundation immortal cultivation technique of our Hundred Poisons Sect as soon as possible. "

" If we want to obtain the Hundred Poisons Sect's foundation cultivation technique, we must first become a disciple of the Hundred Poisons Sect. We must do this as soon as possible. Otherwise, the time we waste will be our lifespan. " freewebnovel.cm

For Zhu Wanzi, who viewed the mortal world as a wasteland, she really couldn't understand Zhu Wanwan's thoughts.

To be honest, a secular emperor was nothing compared to an official cultivator. An early stage meditational cultivator could easily become the emperor of some secular mortal dynasties without any effort at all.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyang, who cultivated the Jade Book of Dao Beginning, was definitely stronger than immortal cultivators of the same level. He had also reached the perfected realm of the third layer of the Aura Refining realm. His overall strength should not be inferior to an immortal cultivator in the middle stage of the Aura Refining realm.

Such immortal cultivators were invincible in the secular world. It was easy for them to become emperors and ancestors. Why waste time here?

However, Zhu Wanzi didn't know that the amount of breakthrough stones that Zhu Wanwan would earn after ascending to the throne would far exceed the amount of spiritual energy that he could absorb in the Hundred Poisons Sect to cultivate, even if the concentration of spiritual energy in the Hundred Poisons Sect was far higher than in the mortal world.

Whether it was to satisfy some of the special hobbies of the men on Earth or to earn more breakthrough stones and improve faster, Zhu Wuwan had to stay in the Nine Zhao Country for a while longer.

However, Zhu Wanzi naturally wouldn't tell him the truth. He could only use his obsession to explain the matter, which made Zhu Wanzi feel rather helpless.

Everything that happened in the Hundred Poisons Sect afterward was far beyond Zhu Wanzi and Zhu Wanwan's imagination. However, it allowed Zhu Wanwan to improve much faster than the path that Zhu Wanzi had described.

Chapter 154: The Supreme Being of the World (1)

Seeing that Zhu Wanwan was determined to be the emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation, Zhu Wanzi thought that it wouldn't take too long, so he could only agree.

Then, Zhu Wanzi told Zhu Wuwan some general knowledge about the cultivation world and the situation of the Hundred Poisons Sect. Compared to what Zhu Wuwan had learned from some members of the royal family, Zhu Wanzi explained in more detail.

Hundred Poisons Sect was located in Ten Thousand Insect Valley, thousands of miles away. It was a mid-level cultivation sect in Southern Wasteland. It wasn't a big cultivation sect, but it wasn't a small sect either.

The massive Hundred Poisons Sect was mainly divided into three factions: the Zhu Clan, the Zhen Clan, and the neutral factions.

The strongest of them all was the Zhu Clan. The huge Zhu Clan had around a hundred Foundation Establishment cultivators, and three of them were at the peak of the Foundation Establishment stage. The ancestor of the Zhu Clan was a powerful cultivator at the False Core stage, only one step away from the Golden Core stage. He was the second most powerful cultivator in the Hundred Poisons Sect.

As for the most powerful Grand Elder of the Hundred Poisons Sect, he had been cultivating in seclusion for decades and had not appeared in front of others for a long time. Therefore, as the second most powerful expert, the ancestor of the Zhu family became the ruler of the Hundred Poisons Sect.

The Grand Elder of Hundred Poisons Sect was a third neutral force. A hundred years ago, the neutral force was originally the strongest, but as the Grand Elder went into seclusion for many years, it gradually became the weakest.

The Zhen Clan was the second most powerful faction. They also had about a hundred Foundation Establishment cultivators, but five of them were at the peak of the Foundation Establishment stage. If it weren't for the fact that they didn't have a False Core expert, the Zhen Clan would probably be the strongest faction in the Hundred Poisons Sect.

The Zhu Clan and the Zhen Clan had a grudge against each other, and they had been competing against each other for many years. Fortunately, it was within a certain range, and it could barely be considered a healthy competition.

Moreover, the two great clans often recruited experts from the neutral forces, causing the neutral forces to become weaker and weaker. There were less than fifty Foundation Establishment cultivators, and only one of them was at the peak of the Foundation Establishment realm.

The three forces restrained each other and formed the Hundred Poisons Sect. They guarded the Ten Thousand Insect Valley where the Heaven and Earth spiritual energy was relatively dense and secretly controlled several dynasties. The Nine Zhao Country was just one of them and not the strongest.

As the largest force in the Hundred Poisons Sect, the Zhu Clan naturally received the greatest benefits. In addition, the Zhu Clan was harmonious internally, and resources were distributed according to cultivation progress and talent. Therefore, after Zhu Wuyang entered the Hundred Poisons Sect, he did not need to hide as hard as he did in the Imperial Palace.

As long as he displayed enough strength and talent, Zhu Wuyang would be able to obtain a large number of resources and treasures, and his cultivation progress would also soar.

After understanding the situation of the Hundred Poisons Sect and the cultivation world, Zhu Wanzi prepared to go back. Zhu Wanzi left a few immortal books for Zhu Wanwan to study first. He also returned to his residence and waited for Zhu Wanwan to settle the matters in the Nine Zhao Kingdom as soon as possible before taking him to the Hundred Poisons Sect in Myriad Insect Valley.

Walking out of the imperial garden, there were already a large number of dignitaries waiting outside. Among them were the commander of the Golden Guards, the general of the Imperial Army, the God of Constable of the Six Fan School, the Left and Right Ministers, and the six ministers.

When they saw Zhu Wuyang appear, the group of people knelt on the ground in unison. "Greetings, my emperor. Long live my emperor!"

"Congratulations to the host for being honored as the emperor by a powerful official of the Nine Zhao Nation for the first time in your life. You have received three Breakthrough Stones. Due to the importance of strength, 50% of the Breakthrough Stones will automatically be used to increase the host's strength!"

"Get up." Zhu Wuyang waved his hand.

The group of people carefully got up. Right Prime Minister Liu and Luo lowered their bodies and stepped forward. "Your Majesty, we are already preparing for your ascension. We have even calculated a few good days for you to ascend the throne. Do you want to take a look?"

"Whichever day is closest, I will ascend the throne on that day." Zhu Wuyang said.

"Five days is the closest," Liu Heluo said.

"Then five days later." Zhu Wuyang ordered without hesitation.

"I will obey Your Majesty's orders," Liu Heluo bowed.

"Zhu Zhenwu and the concubines of the six palaces are all moving. They will be sent to the Cian Palace near the Imperial Palace in three days. The 3,000 beautiful women selected in recent years are also among them. If Your Majesty likes them, I will bring them back to the Imperial Palace." Seeing that Right Prime Minister Liu Heluo had finished reporting, Left Prime Minister Zhu Yuanyi hurriedly stepped forward.

Zhu Wuan nodded, indicating that he understood.

After that, the various ministers, the commander of the Golden Guards, the general of the Royal Guards ??They all went forward to report the matters at hand and pledge their loyalty to Zhu Wuwan.

Zhu Wuyan listened to them one by one. Because the Palace of Heavenly Purity had already been destroyed by him, Zhu Wuyan did not immediately enter the Palace of Heavenly Purity. Instead, he asked the Ministry of Works to build the Palace of Heavenly Purity as soon as possible before moving it into the Palace of Heavenly Purity.

As for now, Zhu Wuwan thought about it and decided to stay in the Crown Prince's Palace first.

These people were quite perceptive. They had already thought of many things that Zhu Wuyang had not thought of. After some consideration, Zhu Wuyang decided to keep them for the time being and decide what to do later.

As for now, he would first bring out his beauties and start taking over the treasury left behind by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

The entire palace was enveloped in a joyous atmosphere. The death of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu made most people heave a sigh of relief. However, there were also some people who had a grudge against Zhu Wuyang. At this moment, they were trembling in fear, thinking about when to apologize.

However, these people did not know that Zhu Wuyang had already taken his revenge. In fact, it was the kind of revenge that was doubled. Some of them who had once wanted to kill Zhu Wuyang would not be able to live for long.

Repaying kindness with kindness and taking revenge with hatred, Zhu Wuyang would never say empty words.

Even if these people came to beg for forgiveness, Zhu Wuyang would let them off easily. As for what would happen to them after that, Zhu Wuyang would not care anymore.

The beauties who were hiding in the Longevity Palace were taken out. When they saw Zhu Wuyang, who was like a moon surrounded by stars, the group of beauties were also very surprised. Some of them even shed tears.

They had been sullen and worried for so long. Now that the bitterness had finally come to an end, how could they not cry tears of joy?

Especially Lai Chun and Chu Xia, who had been following Zhu Wuyan since the beginning. At this moment, they were even more surprised and relieved.

Only those who had left the Crown Prince Palace early and thought that they had gotten rid of the useless Crown Prince, Zhu Wuan, felt their hearts ache when they heard the news.

If they hadn't left at that time, they would probably be preparing to become concubines now, instead of continuing to be little palace maids. Who knew when they would have a chance to turn things around.

Especially those who were once favored by Zhu Wuyan but left the Crown Prince Palace.

Unfortunately, since some things had already happened, it was already very difficult to go back to the past. Zhu Wuyang would not accept it.

Chapter 155: We Followed the Right Person (1)

"Your Highness, no, His Majesty single-handedly defeated five thousand Golden Guards and one hundred thousand Imperial Guards, and destroyed the entire Palace of Heavenly Purity with a single punch. Even the immortals sighed in admiration and helped him to abolish Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, and revered His Majesty as the Emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation. "

"Ladies, our Emperor is not only in the Jiu Zhao Nation, but even in the entire Southern Wasteland, I'm afraid there won't be another Emperor as powerful as him. Ladies, you'll have a good life in the future."

“Even the immortals are very kind to Your Majesty. It can be seen how powerful Your Majesty is. In the future, all the niangniang have to do is to be a concubine.”

Through the mouths of the guards, eunuchs, and palace maids, the beauties hiding in the Temple of Immortals finally found out what had happened. They found it unbelievable.

To be honest, when they had just become Zhu Wuyan's bedmates, their biggest dream at that time was to hope that Zhu Wuyan could survive smoothly and eventually be conferred the title of Prince Taiping. This was already very satisfying for them.

However, what happened later made their expectations slowly drop. In the end, they only wanted to be the most ordinary king and have a little autonomy.

However, even such a small request seemed unlikely to be realized.

Moreover, the infamy of Zhu Wuan was increasing. The useless crown prince, the incompetent crown prince, the cowardly crown prince... There were even eunuchs and crown princes who seemed to have become extravagant hopes for children.

Therefore, they had never expected that such an earth-shattering turn of events would happen in such a short period of time. The Crown Prince who was once looked down upon by everyone and had been “completely deposed” was now the Crown Prince Zhu Wuyan, who was about to be deposed by the Mad Emperor Zhu Wuyan.

However, when the two sisters were in a desperate situation, he suddenly stepped forward and erupted with earth-shattering strength. Not only did he save all the sisters, but he also destroyed the rule of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu and became the new emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation.

All of this was like a dream, making the group of beautiful women feel like they were in a fantasy. Their entire bodies seemed to be floating in the air, and they had no idea where they were.

It turned out that their men were not so-called trash, cowards, or eunuchs... Instead, he was a great hero of indomitable spirit, one of the most legendary emperors of the Nine Zhao Nation in thousands of years. freewebnovel.com

At this moment, the Imperial Palace was boiling, the Moon Capital was boiling, the Nine Zhao Nation was boiling, and the Southern Wasteland was shaking.

” Ku Xinren, the heavens have not let him down. His notoriety is like a tide. A useless Crown Prince can be conferred the title of Emperor. Who would have thought that our so-called most incompetent, most useless, most cowardly... He was actually a peerless expert who had been hiding for 17 years. He even suppressed the entire dynasty and overthrew the rule of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.”

” If I hadn’t seen it with my own eyes, I wouldn’t have believed that His Majesty actually possessed such earth-shattering strength. Compared to Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, our new Emperor is really too amazing. ”

“In the past, I thought that Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was the last glory of the Nine Zhao Country, and that the Nine Zhao Country would be at its peak and decline. I never thought that such a talented emperor would actually appear in the Nine Zhao Country. It’s really unexpected.”

” Who was the one who said that my son is better than the Crown Prince? Hehe, it seems like they are all idiots. I didn’t expect that under the pressure of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, such a terrifying figure could be born. In the future, our Nine Zhao Nation will be famous in the Southern Wasteland. ”

In this hurricane-like intelligence report, Zhu Wuyan’s reputation was like a great roc rising from the bottomless abyss, soaring up to ninety thousand miles. The original infamy had become a good name, resounding throughout the Southern Wasteland countries.

Faced with such a legendary emperor, the Southern Wasteland countries sent envoys to celebrate Zhu Wuyan’s ascension to the throne of the Nine Zhao Country. Even the hostile countries of the Nine Zhao Country also sent envoys. One could imagine how much of a sensation this matter had caused.

To put it bluntly, for thousands of years, there had never been a legendary new emperor who could surpass Zhu Wuyan.

“Congratulations to the host for becoming the pearl of the Zhu royal family for the first time in your life. You have obtained a breakthrough stone...”

“Congratulations to the host for becoming the pearl of the Moon Capital for the first time in your life. You have obtained two breakthrough stones...”

“Congratulations to the host for becoming the pearl of the Nine Zhao Kingdom for the first time in your life. You have obtained five Breakthrough Stones...”

With the help of these good names, a lot of breakthrough stones rolled in, allowing Zhu Wuyang’s strength to continuously increase, and her speed became faster and faster.

Zhu Wuwan, who was reading through the secret manuals in Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu’s treasury, smiled. He paused for a moment and absorbed this wave of breakthrough stones, bringing his strength closer to the fourth qi layer.

At this rate, after ascending to the throne, Zhu Wuyan would definitely be able to step into the fourth layer of the Aura Refining realm and become a mid-stage Aura Refining immortal cultivator.

This speed should be far faster than the ordinary cultivation in the Hundred Poisons Sect.

From Zhu Wanzi, Zhu Wanwan already knew that the speed of improvement of the official cultivators of the Hundred Poisons Sect did not seem to be much. How could it be faster than what Zhu Wanwan was going to do next? Forget about surpassing the disciples of the Hundred Poisons Sect, it was ten times or even a hundred times faster. The two of them could not be mentioned in the same breath.

He had to wait until he had taken down all the benefits that Jiu Zhao Country could obtain before he went to Myriad Insect Valley and Hundred Poisons Sect.

However, this speed of improvement was still too fast and a little too exaggerated. Therefore, he still had to find time to improve and improve the Hidden Immortal Mustard. This way, he could hide from the detection of any Qi Condensation cultivator, or even Foundation Establishment cultivator.

In the future, after entering the Hundred Poisons Sect, it was inevitable that he would have to deal with Foundation Establishment cultivators, or even Golden Core cultivators. Before that, Zhu Wuyang had to quickly improve the immortal art that concealed his strength.

No, it should be called a low-level spell.

From his great-aunt Zhu Wanzi, Zhu Wuwan already knew the division of various cultivation techniques and spells in the cultivation world. They were generally divided into simple cultivation techniques/simple spells, low-level cultivation techniques/low-level spells, middle-level cultivation techniques/middle-level spells, high-level cultivation techniques/high-level spells, and top-level cultivation techniques/top-level spells.

With the various martial arts and secret arts that Zhu Wuyang had mastered, after his adjustments, they could basically be divided as follows.

The Jade Book of Primordial Dao (upper part) was a top-notch immortal cultivation technique. It was also the strongest and highest-level immortal cultivation technique that Zhu Wuwan had mastered.

The Black Ice Technique could barely be listed as a low-level immortal cultivation method. The Nine Dragon Divine Fist, the Skyline Moon Saber Technique, the Flowing Illusion Divine Step, and the Saber Drawing Celestial Art could barely be listed as low-level spells. However, they were a special kind of spell that combined immortal and martial arts. It was extremely rare in the Southern Wasteland.

The Scripture of Heavenly Vision and Earthly Hearing and the Hidden Immortal Mustard were only relatively strong simple spells, but they were not far from low-level spells.

Once he joined the Hundred Poisons Sect, he could even obtain high-level spells and cultivation techniques in large quantities, let alone low-level spells and medium-level cultivation techniques.

If low-level spells and cultivation techniques were already so powerful, one could imagine the power of high-level spells and cultivation techniques.

Chapter 156: 3,000 Beauties to Choose From (1)

Perhaps some people would think that the Black Ice Technique, the Nine Dragons Divine Fist, and the Skyline Moon Saber Technique were still peerless techniques and mythical-level secret techniques in the martial arts world before Zhu Wuyan adjusted them.

Why were their levels so low after transforming into immortal cultivation techniques and immortal spells?

However, it had to be known that transforming from a mortal to an immortal was a huge improvement. Almost all the peerless martial arts and mythical-level martial arts in the world were not even considered simple immortal cultivation methods and simple spells in the eyes of the people of the immortal path.

A simple spell from an Immortal Cultivator could easily defeat the so-called peerless martial arts and mythical-level secret techniques of martial arts experts.

Therefore, it was already very impressive that Zhu Wuyang was able to make these peerless martial arts and mythical-level martial arts leap beyond the scope of simple cultivation techniques and spells after adjusting them. They could be called low-level immortal cultivation techniques and low-level immortal spells.

Under normal circumstances, only immortal cultivators at the later stage of the Qi Refinement realm or above could unleash the power of low-level spells. However, because Zhu Wuwan had adjusted all the secret martial arts techniques by himself, even though he was only an immortal cultivator at the early stage of the Qi Refinement realm, he could already fully unleash the power of these immortal martial arts techniques and spells.

This was extremely amazing!

This meant that even though Zhu Wanhao was only an early-stage Qi Refinement cultivator, with the immortal martial arts techniques and immortal martial arts spells he had mastered, even an intermediate stage Qi Refinement cultivator was no match for him.

In fact, if it was a coincidence, Zhu Wuyan could even kill a late-stage Qi Refinement cultivator.

Zhu Wanwan didn't tell Zhu Wanzi about this. He had to keep some cards up his sleeve. He would naturally say what he could, and Zhu Wanwan would hide what he couldn't.

In the small treasury of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu deep in the Palace of Heavenly Purity, Zhu Wuyan obtained many good things.

"Congratulations to the host for obtaining a thousand-year coral for the first time in his life. You have obtained two breakthrough stones..."

"Congratulations to the host for obtaining a thousand-year-old ginseng for the first time in his life. You have obtained three breakthrough stones?"

"Congratulations to the host for obtaining the Millennium Coldsteel for the first time in his life. You have obtained five Breakthrough Stones..."

This small treasury was something that Zhu Wuyan had not entered before. It was also the most important small treasury of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. If it was not for the fact that the entire Palace of Heavenly Purity had been destroyed by Zhu Wuyan, exposing the existence of this small treasury, Zhu Wuyan would probably have missed out on the good things here.

After learning that there was actually such a small treasury deep underground in the Palace of Heavenly Purity, Zhu Wuyang rushed over immediately. As expected, he found more than ten immortal treasures inside.

Just these dozen or so immortal treasures had brought Zhu Wuwan about twenty breakthrough stones. With the help of these breakthrough stones, Zhu Wuwan was even closer to the fourth level of the Aura Refining realm.

If he consumed or used these immortal treasures, he would definitely be able to reach the fourth qi layer and above.

However, Zhu Wanhao was prepared to wait until they reached the Hundred Poisons Sect and use these immortal treasures to exchange for elixirs. This way, the benefits would be even greater. If he just ate them for nothing, he would definitely waste a lot of medicinal power.

When he had more of these treasures in the future, Zhu Wuwan could eat them three times and earn a breakthrough point.

As for now, instead of using it like a cow chewing on peonies, it was better to wait and exchange for better elixirs. That way, he would obtain more breakthrough stones.

Zhu Wuwan no longer cared about those non-immortal resources and treasures unless they were especially precious. Otherwise, even if he took them, he would not be able to obtain many breakthrough stones. Instead, he would take up space.

In the huge treasury, Zhu Wuyang only selected 30 or so treasures. He did not look at the rest and put them all into his own small treasury, letting the guards and palace maids clean them up for him.

These treasures were not worth much individually, but when put together, they were not a small number. Zhu Wuyang was still interested in them.

Other than the treasures here, Zhu Wuyang also got people to clear out a few of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's small vaults, as well as the vaults of some of the nobles in the harem. He even plundered a large number of treasures in the national treasury to enrich his small vault and earn breakthrough stones at the same time.

Zhu Wuyang also chose nearly a hundred of the best-looking women to stay. Although she really wanted to choose some of the former concubines, she thought about how it would attract criticism, so she stopped. After all, these concubines were all official wives and concubines of the Mad Emperor.

It was a pity that there were so many beautiful women who could topple countries. Each of them could easily be ranked among the top ten most beautiful women on Earth.

After Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was knocked off his throne, everyone began to get busy, welcoming the arrival of the new emperor, Zhu Wuyang.

The princes, princesses, and concubines who had offended Zhu Wuwan in the past had already knelt outside the Crown Prince's Palace and begged for forgiveness.

Jinwu Guards, Inner Official Supervisor, Royal Guards ??He did his best to clean up the old things in the palace and create a new atmosphere.

Because Zhu Wuyang was going to ascend the throne in a few days, the Moon Capital and the various prefectures of the Nine Zhao Nation were also busy. The generals and kings guarding the various prefectures prepared gifts and rushed over to the Moon Capital.

No one had any other thoughts. After all, this new emperor was a terrifying expert who could sweep away five thousand internal experts and one hundred thousand imperial guards by himself.

To put it bluntly, even if the entire Nine Zhao Country was mobilized, they probably wouldn't be able to stop Zhu Wuwan alone.

This was truly a case of one person being able to rival a country. Otherwise, the surrounding countries would not have sent so many congratulatory gifts. Even some of the hostile countries of the Nine Zhao Country had no choice but to do so.

From this, one could see how shocking Zhu Wuyang's deterrence was. Under normal circumstances, when other countries' emperors succeeded to the throne, there would often be people testing and showing off their might. However, when it came to Zhu Wuyang, let alone testing and showing off, it was already good enough that he did not kneel and beg for mercy.

Everyone, from the rulers of large countries to the common people, knew that the Nine Zhao Nation had a new emperor who could surpass the current generation. Moreover, he was very young and had a promising future.

Those who knew the inside story were even more certain that the new Emperor would soon enter the cultivation world. The secular world was just a fleeting cloud.

Compared to the secular world, the cultivation world was the place where Zhu Wuyang should stay. In the cultivation world, Zhu Wuyang could have a broader future and go further in the future.

The resources and wealth of the mortal world were limited. They could not support the long-term cultivation of immortal cultivators at all, let alone the resource-consuming Zhu Wuyang.

Therefore, he became more and more attentive to the new emperor. He wanted to see if he could get some benefits after the new emperor left, especially those from the Zhu royal family.

After all, once Zhu Wuyang left, he would definitely have to find a new emperor to succeed him. Once he could obtain Zhu Wuyang's support, it would mean that the throne was in his hands.

Chapter 157: I Want to Be an Immortal Emperor (1)

A few days later, on the ninth day of the tenth month of the Nine Zhao Calendar, the Heavenly Stars, the Moon, and the Four Lucky Stars should ascend the throne!

Thousands of courtiers knelt in the newly built Palace of Heavenly Purity and bowed respectfully to Zhu Wuwan, who was slowly walking over. "Long live our emperor!"

Even though time was tight and preparations were not sufficient, the huge palace was still filled with brocade belts and lanterns.

All kinds of flowers bloomed throughout the entire palace, covering every corner. It was dazzling as far as the eye could see.

Many flowers would not bloom in this season, but under the skillful hands of the array masters, they bloomed one after another, causing countless people to exclaim in surprise.

The colorful lanterns were mainly golden in color, embellished among the flowers, and even at night, they could still be shockingly beautiful.

100,000 Royal Guards, 5,000 Golden Guards, 300 Huang Clan Elders...They guarded the entire palace to prevent anything from disrupting the coronation ceremony.

The important ministers of the court, the border generals, the vassals of the territory ??He knelt respectfully on both sides of the main hall of the Palace of Heavenly Purity, without a trace of dissatisfaction on his face.

Even when Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu ascended the throne, he did not have such a majestic aura.

In the face of Zhu Wanhao, a peerless emperor who could rival an entire country, no one in the vast Jiu Zhao Country dared to act presumptuously. Compared to the time when they mocked Zhu Wanhao, this was at least a hundred times worse.

Thinking back to a few days ago, Zhu Wuyan was still the famous useless crown prince, incompetent crown prince, and cowardly crown prince of the Nine Zhao Nation...The news of her failing the test spread throughout the court and the Southern Wasteland.

In the past, when important officials and dignitaries talked about Zhu Wuyang, they would often mock and disdain him. It could be said to be a joke during the banquet.

Everyone felt that the so-called crown prince, Zhu Wuan, had been completely crippled and would never rise again. At most, he would be a small Prince Taiping in this life, guarding a few county-sized territories and mingling for the rest of his life.

However, no one had expected that this useless Crown Prince, who was looked down upon by everyone, was actually a Nine Heavens Divine Dragon hidden deep in the sea. He could soar into the sky at any time and erupt with an energy that intimidated the four seas.

Seventeen years of hibernation, seventeen years of hard work, seventeen years of hiding...In exchange, he had finally obtained the Flying Dragon in the Sky seventeen years later. Such a legendary experience was simply jaw-dropping.

Especially when they thought about how Zhu Wuan, a hidden dragon, had managed to fool everyone after becoming the Crown Prince and was mistaken by the entire Nine

Zhao Nation and even the Southern Wasteland as a useless eunuch, many of the dignitaries and important officials felt a chill in their hearts.

There were also the envoys from the various countries who were watching the ceremony, and even some of the monarchs who had come personally. At this moment, their hearts were trembling.

How much he looked down on her back then was how shocked he was now!

Such a proud son of heaven, such a peerless emperor, such a monstrous hidden dragon...He was actually mistaken for trash, an idiot, an idiot, a eunuch ??It was obvious how bad their eyes were, and most importantly, how well Zhu Wuyang had hidden herself.

He was as shrewd as a mountain, and his mind was as deep as the sea!

Especially after he was confirmed to be the new emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation, Zhu Wuyang did not exterminate all his former enemies. His magnanimity was also amazing.

What they didn't know was that Zhu Wuyang had already taken revenge for them. She had even doubled or even multiplied her revenge. It was precisely because of this that Zhu Wuyang let them off when they came to the Crown Prince's Palace to beg for forgiveness.

If not for that, how could Zhu Wuyang be such a b * tch!

An eye for an eye, blood for blood, this sort of thing, Zhu Wuyang was the best at it.

Whoever wanted to do something like that could do it. In any case, Zhu Wuyang wouldn't do it.

However, many of the dignitaries and envoys from various countries did not know, so Zhu Wuyang won another round of applause.

No one had thought that Zhu Wanyou was the one who had caused all the things that had happened in the palace. They had already blamed the Mad Emperor, Zhu Zhenwu. After all, only the Mad Emperor, Zhu Zhenwu, who had a problem with his head, would do such a ridiculous thing that made people not know whether to laugh or cry.

Any normal person would not take such a huge risk to do such a thankless thing.

If it were not for the fact that Zhu Wuyang had the Special Encounter System, he would not have taken the risk to do such mischievous things in order to improve faster. He was not a child. He would only draw ghost faces, braid his hair, and shave his head for no reason.

Speaking of this, it had to be said that during this coronation ceremony, in order to hide their strangeness, many of the powerful officials of the Nine Zhao Country wore hats, bamboo hats, or changed their hairstyles...This made the surrounding envoys click their tongues in wonder, secretly thinking that the important officials and nobles of the Nine Zhao Country were really interesting.

That Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was indeed crazy. He would actually do such a thing to his own subjects. Was his brain flooded? It was said that he would not even let his own concubines off. This was really a hardcore taste.

The envoys from the various countries were also a little puzzled. Could it be that Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had had enough fun with normal girls, so he drew ghost faces, tied braids, and shaved their heads...He wanted to play something different.

This was really boring!

Because Zhu Wanhao didn't use too much force, the Golden Guards, the Imperial Guards, and the elders of the Imperial Family had basically recovered. At this moment, they were effectively maintaining order in the Imperial Palace and preventing some accidents from happening.

Under the stars, Zhu Wuyan stepped on the golden-red carpet and walked towards the throne in the main palace of the Palace of Heavenly Purity.

The sounds of the mountains and seas were endless, and rows of important officials and nobles knelt on the ground.

"Greetings, my emperor. Long live my emperor!"

His voice was like thunder, spreading throughout the entire city. Outside the Imperial Palace, in the Moon Capital, there were layers of ordinary citizens and ordinary nobles...He also knelt down in circles and kowtowed sincerely to Zhu Wuwan. ""May the emperor live for a long time and prosper!"

In an instant, more than a million people kowtowed. Even the envoys from the surrounding countries bowed at this moment. Although they did not kneel on the ground, their respect was obvious.

"Congratulations to the host for ascending to the throne for the first time in his life. You have received 20 breakthrough stones..."

"Congratulations to the host for being kowtowed to by a million people for the first time in his life. You have received 10 breakthrough stones..."

"Congratulations to the host for entering the Palace of Heavenly Purity for the first time in his life. You have obtained 5 breakthrough stones..."

In the midst of the cheers, Zhu Wuyang also had an inexplicable feeling. Becoming an emperor in the secular world already had such a scene and momentum. Then, what about becoming an emperor in the cultivation world in the future?

Millions of immortal big shots knelt in front of him, thousands of secular dynasties were his vassals, every move he made could obtain an astonishing number of breakthrough stones, and countless fairies lay down waiting for his blessing...Or even better and greater gains!

He really yearned for it...

Chapter 158: Setting Up Too Many flag (1)

As Zhu Wuan walked slowly, waves of breakthrough stones swarmed over, and the number was quite considerable.

Before this, Zhu Wuwan had already opened the fourth chakra meridian from his lower dantian and connected it to his middle dantian. The only thing he lacked was the infusion of true qi.

At this moment, with the arrival of wave after wave of breakthrough stones, Zhu Wuwan silently circulated the Jade Book of Dao Beginning in his body, absorbing the strange power that surged over and turning it into pure Dao Beginning True Qi.

As the first wisp of Dao Beginning True Qi flowed into the Heaven Devouring Immortal Meridian, it also meant that Zhu Wuwan's strength had entered a new stage.

The fourth level of the Aura Refining realm!

Mid Refinement Stage!

It was a huge transition from the third to the fourth qi layer. It was as fast as the breakthrough of the previous two levels. When Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was still in power, Zhu Libo was targeted by him and was prepared to become the 19th crown prince because his sister failed to break through the bottleneck of the middle qi layer and was no longer feared by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

From this, one could see the difficulty of breaking through from the third qi layer to the fourth qi layer. Among dozens of third qi layer cultivators, not even one might be able to break through. The success rate was not even one tenth.

However, this rather difficult bottleneck was easily broken through by Zhu Wuwan without any resistance, stepping into a brand new stage.

“Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the fourth level of the Qi Refinement realm for the first time in his life. You have received ten breakthrough stones ?”
freewebnovel.com

After reaching the fourth level of the Aura Refining realm, Zhu Wuwan obtained another ten Breakthrough Stones. The strange power of the five Breakthrough Stones was forcefully injected into his body, allowing Zhu Wuwan's strength to stabilize and advance a small step.

At this moment, although Zhu Wanhao had just stepped into the fourth qi layer, his overall strength was not inferior to a sixth qi layer cultivator. He could even faintly compete with a seventh qi layer cultivator.

With the strength of the fourth qi layer, he could cross several realms and compete with a late qi layer immortal cultivator. Such terrifying combat strength, even in the immortal cultivation world, could be called a monster.

The dignitaries and envoys who were kneeling all over the ground could not imagine that Zhu Wuyang's strength had undergone another huge transformation in just a few dozen breaths and had broken through a difficult barrier.

Thunderous shouts continued to ring out from all directions. Layers of martial artists kneeled at Zhu Wuan's feet, covering the sky and covering the earth, prostrating themselves in worship towards this supreme being of the Nine Zhao Nation.

After two months of transmigration and two months of bitter cultivation, Zhu Wuyang finally broke through the layers of difficulties and ascended to the top of the Nine Zhao Nation's secular world.

Why did he feel that the sentence above was a little strange? Zhu Wuwan felt a little embarrassed when she thought about it. Although she had suffered a lot, compared to Zhu Jun who pretended to be in a vegetative state, Zhu Wensi who was with pigs, and those princes and princesses who tried their best to pretend to be stupid, what Zhu Wuwan had experienced did not seem to be much.

However, he had gone through so many life and death situations during this period. It was really tough.

Zhu Wanhao smiled and ascended the throne of the Nine Zhao Nation, becoming the new emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation.

Upon seeing this scene, countless people cheered and knelt in front of Zhu Wuyang, sincerely worshipping him.

Such a peerless emperor was indeed worthy of them following. Compared to Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, the young Zhu Wuyang was clearly more wise and mighty.

But soon, these dignitaries did not think so.

A new official took office with great enthusiasm. On the second day after he ascended the throne, Zhu Wuyang began to make drastic changes.

"Congratulations to the host for defeating Liu Xianluo, the prime minister of Jiuzhao Country for the first time in your life. You have obtained a Breakthrough Stone..."

"Congratulations to the host for appointing a seven-year-old child, Kong Jie, as the prime minister of the Nine Zhao Kingdom for the first time in his life. You have received two Breakthrough Stones..."

The first thing Zhu Wuan did was to remove all the important officials and dignitaries from their positions and replace them with some more controversial people. These people included but were not limited to children, teenage girls, old men and women around 100 years old, beggars on the streets, courtesans in brothels...

All sorts of strange appointments left the people in the court dumbfounded. They wanted to object, but facing the most powerful person in the Nine Zhao Nation, Zhu Wuyang, most people still chose to remain silent.

Of course, there were also some censors who were not afraid of power who continued to speak, but there were not many of them. Zhu Wuyang ignored them and continued to do as he pleased.

With this move, Zhu Wuyang earned dozens of breakthrough stones in a short period of time. He was getting closer and closer to the fifth level of the Qi Refinement Realm. At this speed, it would not take long for Zhu Wuyang to break through to the fifth level of the Qi Refinement Realm.

At the same time as he casually appointed officials, Zhu Wuyang also sent troops to attack the surrounding countries, especially those countries that had enmity with the Nine Zhao Country.

Even though these countries had sent envoys to celebrate his ascension, this action was nothing compared to the hatred between the two countries.

Faced with the domineering new Emperor Zhu Wuyan, these countries were helpless. They all gave up some territory. No one dared to clash with the Nine Zhao Country head-on.

They might be able to defeat the army sent by the Jiu Zhao Kingdom, but if the new Emperor Zhu Wuyan personally made a move, no country would be able to resist.

Since that was the case, they might as well give up a portion of the land to Zhu Wuyang. This way, they could avoid a huge war and at the same time, ask Zhu Wuyang for help so that he would not continue to attack their dynasty.

“Congratulations to the host for expanding your territory for the first time in your life. You have obtained three Breakthrough Stones...”

“Congratulations to the host for expanding your territory for the second time in your life. You have obtained two Breakthrough Stones...”

In a short period of time, from the aspect of expanding territory, Zhu Wuyang had obtained dozens of breakthrough stones. With the help of these breakthrough stones, Zhu Wuyang was already close to the peak of the fourth qi layer and was about to break through the bottleneck of the fifth qi layer.

Even Zhu Wuyang was a little surprised by such a speed. She did not expect that she could earn so many breakthrough stones by fooling around in the secular world. This far exceeded normal cultivation.

It seemed that Zhu Wanhao’s decision to stay in Jiuzhao Country for a period of time was very correct. In that case, it was time to properly operate the business.

He would try to earn as many Breakthrough Stones as he could from the Nine Zhao Country, then head to the Hundred Poisons Sect in Ten Thousand Insect Valley, and at the same time, accumulate more Free Breakthrough Stones.

According to Zhu Wanzi, he would be able to enjoy life after entering the Hundred Poisons Sect. However, if one did not think far ahead, there would be immediate worries. What if he encountered some setbacks after entering the Hundred Poisons Sect?

Therefore, before that, it was better to increase his strength as much as possible. That way, he would have more capital. That way, even if he really encountered a problem, Zhu Wuyang would have a greater chance of survival.

Moreover, for some reason, Zhu Wanzi had set up the flag so many times, repeatedly promising that as long as Zhu Wuyang displayed his strength after entering the Hundred Poisons Sect, he would receive astonishing nurturing. However, Zhu Wuyang always had an ominous feeling.

After all, on Earth, people like Zhu Wanzi who often set up the same flag would usually end up very miserable!

Chapter 159: I Have an Enlightenment (1)

Body Strengthening Sect, Seed Strengthening Sect, Heart Strengthening Sect!

This was another big move of Zhu Wuan. He had established three religions and strengthened the Nine Zhao Nation. At the same time, he had also earned a lot of breakthrough stones for himself.

The sect masters of the three sects were all Zhu Wuwan, known as the three strongest sect masters. Through the establishment of the sect, they earned a lot of breakthrough stones and successfully broke through to the next realm.

The fifth level of the Aura Refining realm!

Then, Zhu Wuyang relied on the power the emperor held to build large-scale water conservancy projects, encircle and suppress the rebellious beasts, and eradicate some large martial arts sects that disrupted the rule...All in all, Zhu Wuyang would do whatever he could to earn more breakthrough stones.

As for whether doing so would cause the Nine Zhao Nation to collapse and be completely finished, Zhu Wuwan didn't really care.

After all, as long as the Zhu Clan of the Hundred Poisons Sect was still around, none of the surrounding dynasties would dare to destroy the Nine Zhao Nation and the Zhu Imperial Clan. Therefore, there was no need to worry about this matter. They could just squander as much as they wanted.

As a result, the Nine Zhao Country became more and more magical!

Perhaps this was the only word that could be used to describe the current Jiuzhao Country. Public opinion was raging.

"What's going on with His Majesty, Force Emperor? Is he as crazy as the Mad Emperor? He actually appointed a seven-year-old child as the Prime Minister of the imperial court? This is too childish. How can a seven-year-old child manage such a huge Nine Zhao Country? His Majesty must be crazy!"

"You've just ascended the throne and you've already started to attack the surrounding dynasties. As expected of His Majesty Force Emperor. But it's fine if you attack other dynasties, but you're also attacking several dynasties at the same time. Don't be so exaggerated. Could it be that His Majesty Force Emperor thinks that the Nine Zhao Country has been established for too long, so he wants to send it to the west as soon as possible?"

"As the Emperor of a country, he should be the enemy of all the sects. I didn't expect that His Majesty Force Emperor would establish three sects in a row. Although the doctrines sound good, isn't it a bit too many to have so many sects? Is His Majesty Force Emperor crazy?"

" His Majesty Force Emperor must have been infected with Mad Emperor's madness. That's why he became like this. A single Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu has already turned our Nine Zhao Country into such a mess. If there's another such young Mad Emperor, I really can't take it. "

As expected, Zhu Wuyan's actions caused the entire country to boil over. Countless important officials in the court and martial artists among the people discussed endlessly, but no one dared to revolt. After all, Zhu Wuyan's strength was too strong.

It was precisely because of Zhu Wuyang's earth-shattering strength that he had the year name "Wu" and was known as the Martial Emperor Zhu Wuyang in history.

Faced with the policies implemented by the Martial Emperor Zhu Wuyang, no one dared to resist even though the ministers and the martial artists had many opinions. They could only act according to Zhu Wuyang's words.

Fortunately, although Zhu Wuyang's actions were a little strange, he never killed the innocent. This was much better than Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, and it also allowed many of the court officials and folk martial artists to endure it and act according to Zhu Wuyang's words.

However, after some time, something magical happened.

" I thought that the seven-year-old prime minister chosen by Force Emperor had no ability and only knew how to run amok. I didn't expect that he could handle everything properly and even clean up the folk customs. It's unbelievable. "

" Are the surrounding empires all weak chickens? Our army from the Nine Zhao Nation has just marched over, yet they have all surrendered, giving up a large area of territory and land, allowing our Nine Zhao Nation's territory to increase by ten percent out of thin air. This is a little too inconceivable. "

"The three great sects have absorbed more than ten million disciples in just a few days. All the prefectures and counties have set off a strong body, strong seed, strong heart...The storm caused the strength of our Nine Zhao Nation to rise slightly. His Majesty the Martial Emperor is so powerful."

"It turns out that His Majesty Force Emperor wasn't infected by Crazy Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's madness. His every move seemed crazy and inconceivable, but in fact, he was often able to win by surprise. Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu looked normal on the surface, but his actions were extremely crazy, causing the Nine Zhao Country's national strength to retreat."

To be honest, even Zhu Wuyang did not expect such a situation. He had originally done this to make it more special, more influential, and leave a deeper impression...In order to earn more Breakthrough Stones, they did not hesitate to sacrifice the benefits of the Nine Zhao Country.

However, he didn't expect that not only did his actions not bring much damage to the Nine Zhao Country, but it also increased the strength of the Nine Zhao Country. It was really unbelievable.

In this way, Zhu Wuwan had actually obtained a large number of breakthrough stones and had made some progress towards the sixth level of the Aura Refining realm.

Zhu Wanzi was quite concerned about what Zhu Wanwan had done in the Nine Zhao Nation. After all, her future was going to depend on Zhu Wanwan.

Just from the fact that she was rather opposed to Zhu Wuyang continuing to stay in the secular world, but she respected Zhu Wuyang's thoughts very much, it could be seen that she cared and cared about Zhu Wuyang.

Therefore, Zhu Wanzi knew about it when Zhu Wuyan first ascended the throne. During this period, he wanted to persuade Zhu Wuyan. However, when he thought about how Zhu Wuyan had been suppressed by Crazy Emperor Zhu Zhenwu for more than ten years and suddenly inherited the throne, it was fine for him to do something out of line.

Zhu Wanzi wasn't worried about the losses of the Nine Zhao Nation. Compared to an immortal cultivator who had entered the path through martial arts, the Nine Zhao Nation was nothing.

Zhu Wanzi was mainly worried that Zhu Wuyang would suddenly lose his control and lose control after erupting, which would affect his cultivation foundation, temperament, and will.

Therefore, Zhu Wanzi had been paying close attention to Zhu Wuchang while he was handling the government affairs. Then, she realized that Zhu Wuchang's improvement speed was shocking. Or rather, Zhu Wuchang had deliberately let Zhu Wanzi discover it.

Otherwise, how could the Hidden Immortal Mustard that he had comprehended and fused not be able to fool a Qi Condensation cultivator like Zhu Wanzi?

After realizing that Zhu Wuyang's improvement speed was a little unbelievable, Zhu Wanzi could not help but take the opportunity when Zhu Wuyang broke through to the fifth layer of the Aura Refining realm to come and give Zhu Wuyang some advice." I'm fine. You just broke through to the fourth qi layer a few days ago. Today, you seem to have broken through to the fifth qi layer. Did you take any heavenly treasures that can increase your strength? "

"That's not it." "I did have an epiphany!" Zhu Wuwan shook his head.

“Enlightenment?” Zhu Wanzi was stunned.

Zhu Wuwan nodded. “Grandaunt, you should also know that there’s an epiphany in the path of immortal cultivation. Every epiphany can allow an immortal cultivator’s strength to soar, far surpassing spirit pills. Moreover, there are no side effects.”

“I’ve been suppressed too much over the years. Now that I don’t have to endure the threat of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu and the other princes and princesses, I can also do as I wish. I feel extremely relaxed, and all kinds of inspirations come to me one after another. That’s why I’ve been enlightened twice in a row, which is why I’ve improved so quickly.”

This was also an excuse that Zhu Wuwan had thought of long ago. It was to deal with Zhu Wanzi’s suspicion. This way, Zhu Wuwan would dare to show off her strength when she was in Hundred Poisons Sect.

Chapter 160: Abdication, Establishment of Emperor, Abolition of Emperor, Ascending to the throne ??1

Enlightenment was quite famous in the cultivation of the immortal path. Every epiphany could bring huge benefits to the immortal cultivator.

Moreover, regardless of talent and aptitude, as long as they were lucky, immortal cultivators could have a sudden enlightenment. If they were lucky, they could even advance several major realms in a row. If they were unlucky, they could also obtain some benefits.

Even low-level immortal cultivators had the chance to gain enlightenment, but many immortal cultivators could not gain enlightenment even once in their entire lives.

Enlightenment could also help immortal cultivators cross the threshold of talent and reach heights that could not be reached originally. It was a peerless opportunity that every immortal cultivator dreamed of.

Even Zhu Wanzi, who was more than a hundred years old, had never had an epiphany in her life. One could imagine how rare it was to have an epiphany.

Zhu Wanzi did not expect Zhu Wuwan to be able to comprehend twice in a short period of time. She was also extremely shocked.

However, he thought about how Zhu Wuwan had been suppressing her emotions for seventeen years. She had been living extremely hard all these years. She was worried that she would be killed at any time and anywhere, and she was hiding her strength at all times.

Ever since he became the Crown Prince, he was even more miserable. In order to survive, he did not hesitate to belittle himself. He was ridiculed by the world as an incompetent Crown Prince, a useless Crown Prince, a cowardly Crown Prince, and a eunuch Crown Prince ??Life was miserable.

After being suppressed for so long, he would be able to act according to his will after a sudden outburst. Naturally, he would feel unprecedentedly relaxed and comfortable. It was not impossible for him to obtain two opportunities for enlightenment under such circumstances.

Only then did Zhu Wanzi understand why Zhu Wuyan had been acting so absurdly and unruly during this period of time. He had even been called the Mad Emperor the Second by the world. Now, it seemed like it was for the sake of improving and cultivating.

Compared to Zhu Wuwan's progress in the Immortal Dao, no matter how badly the Nine Zhao Nation was destroyed, it could not compare to Zhu Wuwan's breakthrough and advancement.

After learning the "truth" of the matter, Zhu Wanzi was extremely gratified. She couldn't help but hold Zhu Wanwan's hand." Good grandnephew, you have done well. I am proud of you. You just have to do whatever you want in this Nine Zhao Country. As long as you don't destroy the entire Zhu Clan, you can do whatever you want. If anything happens, I will bear the responsibility for you. "

"As long as you can comprehend it once more, even if we destroy the Nine Zhao Country, it's nothing. At most, we'll just rob another empire for you to squander. A seventeen year old fifth qi layer cultivator, I've never seen an overwhelming prodigy like you in my life. If the ancestor knew, he would be so happy."

Zhu Wanzi didn't know if the ancestor of the Zhu Clan would be overjoyed, but Zhu Wanzi was obviously overjoyed. She didn't say anything else to persuade Zhu Wanzi.

Moreover, Zhu Wanzi felt a little lucky when she saw how Zhu Wanwan had improved so quickly through enlightenment in the mortal world. Fortunately, she did not force Zhu Wanwan to return to the Hundred Poisons Sect. Otherwise, if she delayed Zhu Wanwan's enlightenment, she would not be able to bear such a sin.

It seemed that her grandnephew's comprehension was quite good. Otherwise, no matter how lucky he was, it was impossible for him to have a sudden enlightenment in such a short period of time. It was already very good to have a sudden enlightenment.

If he could have an epiphany once in his life, he would probably be able to break through the bottleneck of his talent and enter the realm of Qi Refinement. His status would also rise to a higher level.

Fortunately, she met Zhu Wanwan. With the support of her grandnephew, even if Zhu Wanzi couldn't be promoted to an inner sect deacon, she could at least become an important deacon in the outer sect. In the future, she wouldn't have to go to the secular world where the spiritual energy of heaven and earth was extremely scarce.

Zhu Wanzi's old face was smiling like a chrysanthemum. She left the Palace of Heavenly Purity happily, but she didn't know that the subsequent reversal had also made her stare blankly.

Initially, Zhu Wanzi also thought that Zhu Wuyan was fooling around and only wanted to feel at ease. However, Zhu Wanzi did not expect that Zhu Wuyan's seemingly fooling around actions actually had an unexpected effect. It was really unbelievable.

When he learned that the Jiuzhao Country had greatly increased its national strength, the people were united, and the government affairs were prosperous because of Zhu Wuyan's actions...After that, Zhu Wanzi was stunned, but soon became more and more delighted.

It turned out that his grandnephew's actions were not nonsense, but had a deeper meaning. No wonder he was able to comprehend it one after another. This kind of wisdom was really amazing.

However, Zhu Wanzi and the officials in the imperial court were not happy for long before they once again witnessed a shocking operation.

"Congratulations to the host for abdicating for the first time in his life. You have obtained six breakthrough stones..."

"Congratulations to the host for supporting the 76th princess, Zhu Ying, as the new emperor of the Nine Zhao Kingdom for the first time in his life. You have received six breakthrough stones..."

"Congratulations to the host for taking away the throne of the 76th Princess, Zhu Ying, for the first time in your life. You have received six Breakthrough Stones..."

Then, he ascended the throne for the second time, supported a new prince and princess to become the emperor for the second time, and abolished the position of the emperor for the second time ??Three in and three out. No, it should be three enthronement, three abdication, and three support for the new emperor...

Other than that, Zhu Wuyang also appointed the Prime Minister for the second time, the third time, the second time, and the third time...All in all, he repeated those projects that earned more breakthrough stones twice until he could not earn more than a single digit breakthrough stones. Only then did Zhu Wuyang stop.

The entire court was dumbfounded by Zhu Wuwan's actions. They watched in confusion as the emperor, prime minister, and crown prince changed back and forth...And they themselves were often swapped.

However, facing the Martial Emperor Zhu Wuyang, who had the strongest fist in the world, no one dared to even fart. They allowed Zhu Wuyang to continue tormenting them like this, and then they were flabbergasted, dumbfounded, and constantly dumbfounded...

It was hard to tell what the benefits of such a move were, but out of trust in Zhu Wuyang, many of the dignitaries and important officials still followed his advice. However, they did not know that Zhu Wuyang was only doing this to earn general experience points and had no other deeper meaning.

With the help of these two big moves, Zhu Wuwan earned more than a hundred breakthrough stones. With so many breakthrough stones, not only did it stabilize the strength of the fifth layer of the Aura Refining realm, but it also brought Zhu Wuwan to charge towards a higher realm.

With the help of the Dao Beginning Jade Book, dozens of pieces of strange power that broke through petrification were transformed into Dao Beginning True Qi at an astonishing speed and fused into Zhu Wuwan's middle dantian and six immortal meridians.

The sixth immortal meridian had already been successfully forged. Next, he only needed to fill it with Dao Beginning True Qi and continue tempering and upgrading it.

The Primordial Dao True Qi that had already expanded to a radius of five hundred meters formed a dense mist of True Qi that spiraled around Zhu Wuwan's middle dantian, emitting terrifying power fluctuations.

Under normal circumstances, the area of the true qi fog in the dantian of a fifth-level Qi Refinement realm cultivator would at most be close to two hundred meters in radius. Compared to Zhu Wuwan, it was much worse.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyang's Dao Beginning True Qi was purer and more powerful than the True Qi of ordinary fifth-level Qi Refinement realm cultivators. It could easily defeat the True Qi of cultivators of the same level.
