Chapter 601: If Only There Was Mr. Yongning

It had been a year since Hu Zhenhua, the music director of Huayou Entertainment, rejected Zhu Wuyang's relationship.

In this one year, Zhu Wuwan's alias, Mr. Yongning, had written a total of 72 songs and made 72 songs popular. Most importantly, he had made 51 singers famous.

Some of these singers became famous for the second time, some became famous overnight, and some stabilized their status... Anyway, they were all popular, and they were all popular because they had gotten Mr. Yong Ning's song.

On the other hand, the Undefeated Youth Group of Huayou Entertainment, who had not yet fallen in love, not only did their debut song fail miserably, but even the results of their subsequent songs were also worse than the previous one. It could be said that they had failed miserably.

Of course, this wasn't important. What was important was that Huayou Entertainment had fallen out with Zhu Wuwan and missed out on many songs that originally belonged to Huayou Entertainment.

Originally, based on Tang Kewei's relationship with Zhu Wuyang, Huayou Entertainment should be the one with the best relationship with Zhu Wuyang. They could also get more songs from Zhu Wuyang and make many of Huayou Entertainment's singers famous.

However, because Hu Zhen Hua had fallen out with Zhu Wuyang, he had even fought with Zhu Wuyang to the end. He had done things that made Zhu Wuyang unhappy one after another, and in the end, the two sides had fallen out.

Huayou Entertainment clearly had such good resources, but they couldn't even get a single song from Zhu Wuyang. Was this something a music department director should do?

At the high-level meeting of Huayou Entertainment, the deputy director of the music department, Li Jinan, did not give Hu Zhenhua any face at all and raised this question in public.

" Director Hu, the song that Mr. Yongning wrote for the Undefeated Youth Group, Love Is Not Full, which was also killed by you and ended up in Zhang Hanyun's hands, has already exceeded 30 million downloads online yesterday. The number of people who listened to it has also reached more than one billion. Just this alone has brought about 50 million in revenue to Cinian Entertainment and Zhang Hanyun. May I ask if you have brought 50 million in profit to Huayou Entertainment over the years? ”

” Moreover, this is only the income from the online downloads and auditions. With this song, Cinian Entertainment and Zhang Hanyun even released a special album, earning more than ten million yuan. It also brought influence and fame to Cinian Entertainment and Zhang Hanyun. Zhang Hanyun even stepped into the ranks of A-list singers with this song. The income from commercial performances was huge, and Cinian Entertainment earned more than tens of millions from it. ”

” So, according to our investigation, Cinian Entertainment and Zhang Hanyun earned more than 100 million yuan from this song. This 100 million yuan should have belonged to Huayou Entertainment, but because of you, Huayou Entertainment lost this 100 million yuan for nothing. ”

“Of course, other than that, Mr. Yongning also wrote Zhang Hanyun’s Sour and Sweet Is Me, Indian Girl, Walking Through the Coffee House ... These songs have also brought huge profits and gains to Cinian Entertainment and Zhang Hanyun. Our Huayou Entertainment’s Undefeated Youth Group can sing these songs, and they can sing them better.”

At this point, seeing that Hu Zhenhua wanted to refute, Li Jinan quickly continued to speak.

” Of course, Zhang Hanyun is just an exception. Mr. Yongning has sold nearly a hundred songs in the past year, which are scattered among various companies. However, most of the songs can be sung by our singers at Huayou Entertainment, and they are even better. These songs include, but are not limited to, love, I love you, gently tell you, heavenly road ... The corresponding singers were Bai Ling ‘er, Hu Yun, and Zhao Wanwan...If we still maintain a good relationship with Mr. Yong Ning, most of these songs can be sent to our Huayou Entertainment. After all, our Tang Kewei has a deep relationship with Mr. Yong Ning.”

” Therefore, because of your impulsive decision, Huayou Entertainment not only lost the song that Zhang Hanyun sang, but also dozens of songs that are suitable for more than ten singers. Moreover, they are songs that can become popular. The total value is no less than two billion. In other words, because of Director Hu, Huayou Entertainment lost more than two billion in net profit in just one year. ”

“If you don’t believe me, I have the detailed data here. I’ll put it on the screen now. You can take a closer look.”

Having been dormant for a long time, when he was completely suppressed by Hu Zhenhua's background party and relationship party, Li Jinan represented the entire ability party and began to counterattack. The biggest weapon of the counterattack was Mr. Yong Ning and the nearly 100 songs he had composed in the past year.

In the face of detailed data and a net profit of more than two billion, the entire upper management of Huayou Entertainment was silent. Even Hu Zhen Hua was struck speechless.

Li Jinan was right. If it weren't for him, many of the songs that Mr. Yongning had composed in the past year would have fallen into the hands of Huayou Entertainment.

Not to mention anything else, just the songs that Zhang Hanyun sang alone were enough to make Invincible Youth the top girl group in China, bringing hundreds of millions of net profits to the company.

However, because of him, Invincible Youth had lost several songs. They had lost a year in a row and were now out of the C-list rankings. If it wasn't for Huayou Entertainment's brand, they wouldn't even be considered celebrities.

After this meeting, the ability party began to gain the upper hand. No matter how much the board members of Huayou Entertainment valued relationships, they started the company to make money. If they suffered heavy losses because of the relationship party, they would not be lenient.

In the past, they didn't know how much profit Mr. Yong Ning's songs could generate. However, after Li Jinan expressed all of this in terms of data, all the board members of Huayou Entertainment were heartbroken. They were so heartbroken that they couldn't breathe.

Thus, the ability party represented by Li Jinan began to gain the upper hand and gradually overwhelmed the relationship party. In just two months, the relationship party represented by Hu Zhenhua was eliminated.

In the face of absolute benefits, which involved billions of dollars in profits, no matter how big the relationship was, it was useless.

Even Hu Zhenhua himself was speechless after seeing the detailed data given by Li Jinan. He did not know how to explain himself.

To be honest, even he didn't expect that the decision he made a year ago to attack Li Jinan and the others would cause such a heavy loss to Huayou Entertainment.

Even the top songwriters in the country would not be able to generate such shocking profits in just a year. Hu Zhen Hua really did not expect this.

On the second day after Hu Zhenhua's representative was fired, the new music department director of Huayou Entertainment, Li Jinan, brought many high-level executives of the music department to visit Zhu Wuyang at Zhongman Tea Garden.

Chapter 602: Not Favorable (1)

The higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment, represented by Li Jinan, wanted to use Hu Zhenhua's head as an apology gift, hoping to rope in Zhu Wuyang and let Zhu Wuyang write songs for the undefeated youth and even more singers of Huayou Entertainment.

But why?

What was Li Jinan and the others doing when Zhu Wuyan was chased out of Huayou Entertainment by Hu Zhenhua? What was Li Jinan and the others doing when Zhu Wuyan's conditions were rejected by Hu Zhenhua and the others again?

Although Hu Zhenhua was the biggest problem in this matter, it was impossible to say that the others in Huayou Entertainment were not responsible.

If that's the case, why do you want me to go back and lick my boots to help you write songs after you fire Hu Zhen Hua?

Zhu Wanhao's alias, Mr. Yongning, would not have done this before he became famous. It was even said that Mr. Yongning was now the top songwriter in Xia country, second to none!

Under such circumstances, Li Jinan and the others wanted to simply apologize and let Zhu Wuyang write songs. It was pretty wishful thinking.

Therefore, in the face of Li Jinan and the others 'so-called " One Look at the Cottage "', Zhu Wuwan directly raised her own conditions. The most important point was that she could write songs for Invincible Youth, but she had to get 36% of the profits, which was more than 10% higher than Zhang Hanyun and the others.

In other words, if Zhu Wuyang wrote a song for Invincible Youth or another singer from Huayou Entertainment, he could get at least half of the profit from the song, or even more than the profit that Huayou Entertainment could get.

However, Huayou Entertainment still made a profit, just not as much. It was as if Zhu Wuyang was a capital magnate and Huayou Entertainment was just a songwriter.

Faced with such conditions, many of Huayou Entertainment's higher-ups looked at each other in dismay. They wanted to lower the price, but Zhu Wuyang directly sent them off, showing that he would never compromise.

Since Huayou Entertainment doesn't give me enough attitude, then I want this attitude myself. If you're unhappy, then get lost!

There were so many entertainment companies in Xia country, and so many men and women who wanted to sing a new song. There was no lack of Huayou Entertainment.

Even though the seven girls in the Qingchun group had a close relationship with Zhu Wuwan, there was no way he would retreat just like that!

Zhu Wuyang didn't buy it. The so-called human relationship was nothing to him. The only thing Zhu Wuyang cared about in the small world on the blue planet was the original owner's wish.

However, if the original owner's wish made him very unhappy, Zhu Wuyang would not spoil the original owner. At most, she would just fuse a few less souls. Zhu Wuyang could still bear this little loss.

Fortunately, Li Jinan was quite bold. He persuaded a group of high-level executives of Huayou Entertainment outside Zhongman Tea Garden and agreed to Zhu Wuyang's conditions. He immediately signed a new contract.

From then on, all singers from Huayou Entertainment who wanted to get a song from Zhu Wuwan would have the same conditions. It was almost twice as high as singers from other entertainment companies.

This meant that as long as Huayou Entertainment did not operate properly, even if the songs given by Zhu Wuyang became popular, they might not be able to earn money and become Zhu Wuyang's employees. Of course, the probability of this was not too high.

After the contract was confirmed, Zhu Wuyang wrote a new song for the Undefeated Youth group, who he had a close relationship with. This new song was called.

Sister, sister, stand up!

This song had also set many records on Earth. It became popular again after more than ten years and gained the recognition of a large number of new listeners. It also made a certain star on Earth become popular again and re-enter the ranks of the famous stars in the music industry.

Such a situation was similar to the Invincible Youth group, and it was extremely suitable for the Invincible Youth group. Once they grasped it well, they would definitely be able to break free from the vortex and even become famous.

The higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment's music department weren't idiots. After seeing this song, they immediately recognized it and let the girls of Invincible Youth start practicing.

On the first night after practice, the seven girls from Invincible Youth couldn't wait to come to Zhu Wuyang's place to express their love for the song.

" Brother Changan, this song is so nice. It's so sweet and lively. I think it will definitely become a hit. Thank you for giving us this song. "

"It's especially interesting when we sing. Everyone in the company says it's good. I believe it will definitely make us stand up and not continue to fall."

" Isn't that nonsense? Which song of Brother Changan's isn't popular? Even those songs that are more niche still have astonishing downloads and won over many diehard fans. "

" Brother Chang 'an, when Sister and Sister become popular, we will do anything you want us to do. "

..

With the help of this song, for the first time, Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei didn't mind Zhu Wuyang sleeping with other girls in the villa. In the past, Zhu Wuyang would go to a house in a nearby neighborhood with these girls to do something.

Because they were very confident in this song, Huayou Entertainment prepared a series of publicity plans from the moment they received the song.

By the time the song " Sister, Sister, Stand Up " was officially recorded, the entire internet was filled with advertisements for the song. The popularity of the song was far greater than the debut song of the Undefeated Youth Group, the Youth March.

However, this time, not all of them received positive comments. On the contrary, there were many negative comments.

" Tsk tsk, Invincible Youth has finally found Mr. Yongning. It's said that in just a year, Invincible Youth, who has the backing of Huayou Entertainment, has received several new songs from top songwriters. In the end, none of their songs have become popular. It can be said that they have been defeated in a row. It's so embarrassing that people really wonder if they are really a girl group launched by Huayou Entertainment. "

” To be honest, Invincible Youth’s overall strength is not bad. Unfortunately, it’s the time when male and female stars are popular. Singing groups have no future at all. Let alone female groups, even male groups can’t fight, let alone Invincible Youth. So, this can be said to be a crime that is not a war. ”

” Maybe Mr. Yong Ning, who is supporting someone who is popular, will be able to go against the wind and support the Undefeated Youth group. After all, all of Mr. Yong Ning’s new songs have been popular for the past year. ”

” Mr. Yong Ning is very strong, but the trend is even stronger. It’s not something that an individual can resist. Today’s Xia country hasn’t adapted to the soil of various groups, so even if Mr. Yong Ning’s new song is a group, the possibility of it becoming popular is not high. Do you think that Mr. Yong Ning can reverse the trend of the entire entertainment industry with his own strength? “

Chapter 603: Soaring (1)

It was obvious that most people were not optimistic about Zhu Wuyang and his new song, ” Sister, Sister, Stand Up “. The most important reason was that this song was sung by the Undefeated Youth group.

Just as many people had said, there hadn’t been a strong group rising in Xia country for decades. The most popular group was a boy group, but they were barely ranked among the B-list singers.

Moreover, this boy band was already very old. Most of the members were over 30 years old. When they became popular, it was the time when the band ended. They could be considered to have caught the last bus.

Since then, no other group had been able to become popular. It had been more than ten years since then.

The reason why Huayou Entertainment launched the Invincible Youth Group was mainly because the company’s higher-ups predicted that the spring of the group was coming, so they wanted to lead the trend.

Regrettably, Invincible Youth’s performance was not good, but rather, it was bad, and that was because of Huayou Entertainment’s promotion.

The reason why Invincible Youth hadn’t become popular in the past year was partly because he hadn’t received Zhu Wuyang’s help, but another important reason was that the entertainment industry in Xia country wasn’t friendly to all kinds of groups.

Huayou Entertainment wanted to be the first to eat the crab and paid a huge price for it. However, they didn’t get to eat the crab and instead got a mouthful of dog shit.

Zhu Wuyang's joining didn't bring much confidence to the outside world, especially to Undeclared Youth, who had been getting worse and worse over the past year.

Under such circumstances, her sister stood up and published it all over the internet.

Ten minutes...The number of downloads on the entire internet had exceeded 10,000!

Thirty minutes...The number of downloads on the entire internet broke through 20,000!

One hour...The number of downloads on the entire internet had exceeded 30,000!

This result wasn't very impressive, especially when compared to the various recommendations given by Huayou Entertainment. If it were any other female or male singer, with such a strong recommendation, even a second or third-tier singer would have over 100,000 downloads in an hour.

However, the number of downloads of the new song, Undeclared Youth, was only 30,000 in an hour. It was not much better than their debut song, Youth March.

" Haha, I knew Mr. Yongning wouldn't be able to boast about Invincible Youth. It seems like he was right. "

" Now is not the time for a group to exert their strength. No matter how strong Mr. Yongning is, he can't compare to the music industry. "

" The country's number one songwriter, Mr. Yong Ning, and one of the country's top entertainment companies, Huayou Entertainment, have joined forces but still failed to lift the Invincible Youth group. It seems that there's no hope for the group in the Xia country's entertainment industry to rise in the near future. "

Some individuals and companies who were paying attention to this matter could not help but sneer at the results of the sister standing up, as if this song had completely failed.

Even Invincible Youth and many of Huayou Entertainment's higher-ups felt a chill in their hearts. They had a bad feeling.

But what they didn't expect was that as time passed, the number of downloads that had been falling suddenly began to slowly increase. The mocking comments that were originally filled with the comments section were suddenly drowned out by some positive comments.

“Although the lyrics are quite childish. Ten men, seven are stupid, eight are dumb, and nine are bad. Hmm, a total of twenty-four, and one that everyone loved. No, it should be twenty-five. I don’t understand the lyrics, but it’s really good. I can’t help but listen to it ten more times, especially the voices of the young ladies. They’re too sweet and cute. It’s the first time I’ve found that a girl group can be so attractive.”

“Sister, sister, stand up. I am the man that everyone loves. You all have to cherish me. If you love me, don’t think too much. If you don’t believe me, I’ll show you a picture.”
(Then, there was a selfie of a yellow-haired boy. His face was a little big and was especially abstract.)

“Then let’s wait for the solution. What’s there to struggle about? Am I worse than others? Who was the one who wanted to stay at home on the weekend and face the computer? Thinking of the expert’s nonsense, she cried so hard that tears flowed down her face. I’ve never heard such a sweet song before. I have to sing a song for the young ladies. In the future, I’ll be an undefeated young girl. I love you guys.”

“I’ve never realized that the seven young ladies who are undefeated in their youth are so cute and interesting. As expected, those songwriters in the past are still not good enough, making the young ladies unable to display their strength at all. Mr. Yongning is really amazing. Just a simple childish and lively song actually made me get the looks and voices of seven young ladies.”

Six hours later, while everyone was dumbfounded, the number of downloads that had fallen to the bottom suddenly began to rebound.

In the sixth hour, there were only 300 downloads. However, in the seventh hour, the number of downloads suddenly soared to 1,000.

Then, the eighth hour was 3,000, the ninth hour was 10,000, the tenth hour was 20,000, the eleventh hour was 30,000, and the twelfth hour was 35,000...After a day had passed, the number of downloads for the song ‘Sister, Sister, Stand Up’ had already reached the maximum.

Seeing this unprecedented result, the seven girls who had never lost their youth were stunned. They could not believe their eyes, and many of the executives of Huayou Entertainment were speechless.

On the first day, the total number of downloads was 430,000. Then, on the second day, the number of downloads soared to 570,000.

The number of downloads in two days had exceeded one million, and he had obtained the Silver Song certification!

This was Invincible Youth's best song, and it was also the most downloaded song on the internet so far. It was also Invincible Youth's most popular song.

In just two days, he had pulled the Invincible Youth duo, who had fallen to the bottom of the valley, up to the surface and continued to pull them up.

The number of downloads on the entire internet on the third day of the sister standing up...600,000!

The number of downloads on the fourth day of the sister's stand-up...700,000!

The number of downloads on the entire internet on the fifth day of the sister standing up...Eight hundred thousand!

On the seventh day, the number of downloads of 'Sister, Sister, Stand Up' had exceeded five million and was certified as a golden song. This meant that the song 'Sister, Stand Up' had stood up and was steadily climbing towards becoming a classic.

At the same time, it also meant that the Invincible Youth Group, which had failed for a year, had climbed out of the abyss and skyrocketed. In just seven days, they had successfully stabilized the ranks of the C-list girl group and reached the top of the C-list.

Once the number of downloads of the song " Sister, Sister, Stand Up " broke through 10 million, the Undefeated Youth girl group would definitely be able to rank among the B-list girl groups.

In the time it took for one song, Zhu Wuyang had made this girl group, who had fallen into the abyss, famous. They were like phoenixes that had been reborn from the ashes, soaring up!

Chapter 604: Standing Up (1)

When the number of downloads of the sister's " Stand Up " broke through ten million, a manga suddenly became popular on the Internet.

In this manga, the mysterious songwriter, Mr. Yongning, whose face could not be seen clearly, lifted the seven girls dancing on his palm into the sky with his right hand, just like the giant hand of Buddha.

Needless to say, these seven girls were the youthful and undefeated group that had fallen into the abyss half a month ago.

Huayou Entertainment held a grand celebration party to thank Mr. Yong Ning, the giant who had pushed the Undefeated Youth Group to the top.

After the banquet, Villa No. 6 in Zhongman Tea Garden welcomed seven girls who were all famous on the Internet. That night, Zhu Wuyang enjoyed the taste of sleeping with a big quilt for the first time. Unfortunately, Tang Kewei was not there. Otherwise, it would have been perfect.

From that night onwards, Invincible Youth had truly stood up and stepped into the ranks of the B-list group just like the song had sung.

At the same time, Zhu Wuyang had also re-opened the era of the group with his own strength!

It turned out that the combination had not died, but it was missing a giant, a giant that could lift the combination up.

At this moment, Mr. Yongning, Zhu Wuyang, was this giant. However, most people did not know that this giant was Zhu Wuyang, Brother Chang 'an.

After that, many companies in the entertainment industry began to operate the group, preparing to follow Mr. Yong Ning and the Invincible Youth Group to reap a wave of dividends. The more popular the Invincible Youth Group was, the more dividends they could reap.

Of course, it would be even better if they could get Mr. Yong Ning's new song like the Invincible Youth Group. As a result, Zhu Wuwan received more requests for songs, including a large number of top entertainment companies.

Naturally, Zhu Wuyang was picky about this. It wasn't that he didn't accept the female group, the female group members who weren't beautiful, the female group members who didn't catch his eye, or the female group members who didn't let him sleep with them...

Perhaps the conditions were a little harsh, but for a super songwriter who could lead the trend, such treatment was not too much.

Even the most popular group in the country, Undefeated Youth, had agreed to it. Did you have Undefeated Youth? How dare you disagree?

Of course, if these entertainment companies were willing to give up other female celebrities who could move Zhu Wuwan's heart, it wouldn't be impossible.

Zhu Wuyang's days were getting more and more decadent. Fortunately, he was still single and did not have a confirmed girlfriend, let alone a wife.

At most, Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei would complain a little, and nothing else.

The popularity of the sisters also made the Invincible Youth group busy. They didn't have much time to accompany Zhu Wuyang and received all kinds of commercial performances and endorsements.

Perhaps it was because the profits in other aspects were basically taken away by Zhu Wuyang, so Huayou Entertainment began to crazily let the seven girls take on all kinds of commercial performances and endorsements because Zhu Wuyang's share in this aspect was not high.

However, just by relying on these commercial performances and endorsements, Huayou Entertainment made a lot of money. As a seven-member girl group, they had different conditions, so they could attract fans with different preferences and gather fans very quickly.

Other than singing and dancing, the seven girls also had other specialties, such as RAP, acting, variety shows, and breakdance ... They could gather popularity and influence from different aspects, and their development speed was astonishing.

Of course, the core of the song was still the song " Sister, Sister, Stand Up. " If they didn't have this backbone, the others wouldn't have come to see the other strengths of the seven girls.

After three months of hard work, the song " Sister, Sister, Stand Up " slowly cooled down. At this moment, its downloads had already exceeded 25 million. As the seven young ladies who led the new era of girl groups, they received shocking attention and received the biggest bonus.

Coupled with the all-round display of their talents and development, Invincible Youth had already become a quasi A-list group. If they had another good song, they might be able to advance to the ranks of the A-list girl group.

Of course, Zhu Wuyang had also earned quite a bit of profit from it. It was almost close to 50 million, and it had even faintly surpassed Huayou Entertainment. After all, Huayou Entertainment still had to calculate all aspects of costs and favors. After deducting them, the profit could not even catch up to Zhu Wuyang.

However, Huayou Entertainment had also made a lot of money, so they couldn't wait to release the second song of Undeclared Youth. Therefore, they sent seven little sisters over and gave three days to Zhu Wuyang.

Zhu Wuyang did not let down the hard work of the seven little sisters. Of course, this did not include Tang Kewei.

Three days later, Invincible Youth left Zhongman Tea Garden with the second new song that Zhu Wuwan had given them. This new song was called.

Superstar!

This was a rock song, and it was one of the most popular songs of a girl group on Earth. The dynamic style and the extremely explosive performance were a huge challenge to the Invincible Youth Group.

Although it was very difficult, if he succeeded, he would definitely be able to establish his position in the music industry.

To be able to sing such a difficult song, it was enough to prove the strength of the Undefeated Youth group. By then, no one would say that the Undefeated Youth group was a vase group that could only sing sweet songs.

If the first song, " Sister, Sister, Stand Up " was meant to attract as many listeners as possible, then the most important role of this song was to prove the strength of youth.

Of course, the quality of this song was also top-notch. To put it bluntly, as long as they could perform well, it would be enough for Invincible Youth to gain both fame and fortune. They would successfully become an A-list girl group and become the most popular girl group in China.

However, currently, the most popular girl group in China was barely listed in the quasi B-list, so Invincible Youth could actually claim to be the most popular girl group in the country.

However, in the past few days, Zhu Wuyang had unintentionally overheard some gossip between Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, and Bai He, which made him feel a little unhappy.

The general content of the gossip was that some people in the music club had intentionally or unintentionally instilled it into the girls 'minds, making them think that they had been so tired recently because of Zhu Wuyang.

Because Zhu Wuyang had received too much profit from this song, Huayou Entertainment could only squeeze them as much as possible in terms of commercial performances and endorsements, making them so tired that they couldn't even touch the ground.

If it wasn't for Zhu Wuyan's second new song, which made Zhu Wuyan put in more effort, Huayou Entertainment probably wouldn't have given them these three days off.

Although the girls were not dissatisfied with him because of this, it was hard to say how it would develop as time passed.

At the thought of this, a cold smile flashed across the corners of Zhu Wuwan's mouth.

Chapter 605: Dragon Snake Fire (1)

Zhu Wanwan also did not expect that someone would be so short-sighted as to start instilling some dissatisfaction with him into the girls who had just become popular with his songs.

Although she didn't know if it was intentional or unintentional, since it could reach her ears, or if it could make a few girls say it when they were chatting in Zhongman Tea Garden, Zhu Wuwan felt that these girls must have been affected.

Perhaps some of the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment felt that they had gotten too much, so they wanted to use the girls to knock down Zhu Wuyang or express their dissatisfaction.

Zhu Wuyang didn't care about this at all. He could be unhappy or unhappy. As long as he followed the contract, Zhu Wuyang could still get about half of his income, which was far better than writing songs for others.

On account of this, Zhu Wuyang would temporarily tolerate some people's thoughts. After all, if they watched Zhu Wuyang continue to take away most of Undeclared Youth's income, they would definitely be in a daze, and Zhu Wuyang would be in a daze too.

Moreover, the few girls from Undeclared Youth did not blame him for this, and they served Zhu Wuyang so well. It was impossible for Zhu Wuyang to stop writing songs for Undeclared Youth just because of a few gossips from some people.

That kind of words would seem too petty, and it would not be able to do anything to those who deliberately spread gossip.

Of course, writing songs was only a part of Zhu Wuyan's life, especially when the songs that Zhu Wuyan released weren't even one-tenth of the songs she wrote.

Other than writing songs, Zhu Wuwan spent a lot of time writing books. She had quietly saved more than a hundred classic books, waiting for them to be published one day.

As for the Romance of the Dragon and Snake, which was written a year ago, after Zhu Wuyang's improvement and second creation, the plot was more interesting and complicated, the content was more novel and moving, and the writing style was the best in this area.

Thus, in just half a month, this Romance of the Dragon and Snake began to become popular.

The review website also sent a text message to sign the contract very quickly. After some consideration, Zhu Wuyang contacted the contract editor and made some changes to the contract before signing it with the review website.

In the new contract, Qiyue website only owned the online copyright of The Legend of the Dragon and Snake. As for the other traditional publishing, simplified publishing, film adaptation, and other copyrights, they were all in Zhu Wuwan's hands.

Fortunately, this world's review website was easy to negotiate with. In addition, the review website had never thought that this book would become so popular that it would be published and adapted, so they agreed readily.

Ten days later, the Legend of the Dragon and Snake received its first small recommendation. Because it was only a newcomer and the results of the Legend of the Dragon and Snake were limited, the recommendation was not very good. It was just a mosquito push.

However, it was this mosquito push that created the effect of the Dragon Snake Romance that was not inferior to a three-star recommendation. His collection increased by 3,000 and shook the entire Wuxia Channel.

Following that, all sorts of recommendations came in one after another. Romance of the Dragon and Snake's results did not disappoint anyone. It was always the number one recommendation of the same genre, even surpassing many popular channels' recommendations for the same position.

Especially when the Romance of the Dragon and Snake was first recommended on the main page of the review website, the number of new books in the collection list increased by 30,000, surpassing the new books of all the channels and becoming the first on the new book rankings.

By the time it was released in a month and a half, the total collection of the Romance of the Dragon and Snake had already exceeded 150,000. For a newcomer who had just started writing on the website, this was simply a mythical result.

After it was put on the shelves, the first order broke 30,000 yuan, and the average order also broke 30,000 yuan. Once again, it shattered the eyes of the people on the ground.

This world was particularly strict with pirated copies. Whether it was in the movie wall, music industry, or online novel industry, pirated copies were very rare. If everyone wanted to read a book, they basically had to purchase the original copy.

Even so, it would be good if the booking ratio could reach more than ten to one. The Dragon Snake Romance's booking ratio reached five to one.

Under normal circumstances, with so many collections, even if it was a new book by a guru, it would already be good if it could reach ten to one. However, Zhu Wuwan was good. She directly reached five to one, breaking the record for newcomers once again.

After that, Zhu Wuyang updated more than 20,000 chapters every day. Moreover, the quality of the writing, the quality of the plot, and the quality of the characters...The quality of the entire book did not decline at all. Instead, it became more and more interesting, making countless people fascinated and deeply immersed in it.

"Is this the world of martial arts? Does our Xia country really have such powerful martial arts? Bajiquan, Taiji Fist, Tiexian Fist, Wing Chun Fist ... It's so fascinating. I also want to learn martial arts."

"Bright Force, Hidden Force, Transformation Force, Pill Force, Supreme Force...What a detailed classification. Moreover, it's extremely realistic, as if it's real. Could it be that there's really an existence in China who has cultivated such a force?"

"It really makes people's blood boil. Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles is too powerful, especially in terms of his ability to control words. I feel that he is not inferior to any literary master, and even better in some aspects. I don't know why he wants to write online novels."

"D * mn, isn't it good to write web novels? Besides, Chang 'an has created a new genre of literature. Martial arts novels were created because of him. Isn't that good enough? Why must he go to the so-called literary circle? Isn't it good to be in the online circle?"

"That's right. I also think that Chang 'an's 90,000 Miles has created a new genre. There has never been a web novel written like this before. Most importantly, it's written so brilliantly."

Countless readers were mesmerized, especially since Zhu Wuyang's updates were so powerful. She updated at least 20,000 words every day, and it was of such quality. Naturally, it attracted more and more readers, and her results kept rising.

In the first month of its release, Zhu Wuyang's novel, The Romance of the Dragon and Snake, successfully topped the new book rankings and suppressed several great gods. Even in the monthly votes rankings, The Romance of the Dragon and Snake was ranked in the top ten, creating a small legend once again.

As for the average number, it had already exceeded 50,000, which was the top batch on the website.

And what was certain was that as long as Zhu Wuyang maintained this quality and updates, the average number of Dragon Snake Romance would continue to rise and create more legends.

However, Zhu Wuyang didn't care much about how much money the Romance of the Dragon and Snake could earn. What he cared about was spreading some good things from Earth here and paving the way for his future works.

Of course, Zhu Wuyang didn't dare to write more powerful literary works for the time being. Otherwise, his influence would increase too quickly and he would stir up too much of the world's origin. Zhu Wuyang would be thrown out of the small world on the blue planet.

Zhu Wanwan's goal was to stay here for more than 40 years and fuse as many souls as possible with the original owner to obtain greater benefits. Therefore, she could only slowly climb up from some places with little influence to avoid accidentally overexerting herself.

With Zhu Wuyang's hand speed, he had naturally finished writing the entire Romance of the Dragon and Snake long ago. It only took him two months. In the third month, Zhu Wuyang started writing the second book. The results of this book on Earth were not inferior to the Romance of the Dragon and Snake at all.

In other words, it was far beyond his capabilities.

Chapter 606: Top God (1)

In the first month of the release of the Romance of the Dragon and Snake, the novel had 650,000 words and was ranked ninth in the monthly votes rankings. The monthly votes had been over 50,000!

The Romance of the Dragon and Snake was on sale for the second month. It had 660,000 words of new chapters and was ranked fifth in the monthly votes rankings.

The Romance of the Dragon and Snake was in its third month of release, with 700,000 words of new chapters. It was ranked third in the monthly votes rankings, with over 70,000 monthly votes!

The Romance of the Dragon and Snake had been published for the fourth month. It had updated 1 million words and successfully ranked first in the monthly votes rankings. The average number of monthly votes had exceeded 90,000!

Then, the dragon and snake would end, and the Celestial Slaying would set sail!

It took only four months for Zhu Wuyang to copy the entire Romance of the Dragon and Snake. Or rather, he finished publishing it. The speed at which he did so made countless readers exclaim in satisfaction.

Of course, after the improvement, the quality of the Romance of the Dragon and Snake was at least three times that of the original. The results also far exceeded the original, and the word count also exceeded the original by a lot. The total word count reached more than three million.

Faced with the strengthened version of the Romance of the Dragon and Snake, countless readers were not stingy with praising it and cheering for it.

In addition, Zhu Wuyang's updates were absolutely awesome, which was why she was able to create a rookie legend in just a few months.

There was no need to mention the results of Celestial Bane that were released later on. When they were on Earth, they had far surpassed the Romance of the Dragon and Snake. It was the same here.

Celestial Bane had also been improved by Zhu Wuyan. The number of words and quality had improved, especially in terms of quality. It had far surpassed the original version on Earth.

With just ten chapters, Celestial Bane's collection had exceeded 100,000, and the number of League Masters had reached more than 36, sweeping the entire new book rankings.

When Celestial Bane was released a month and a half later, the total collection had already exceeded 300,000, and the first order had reached 150,000. The collection rate had once again created a legend.

At this time, the average order of the Legend of the Dragon and Snake had already exceeded 100,000, the total collection had exceeded a million, and the number of League Masters had also exceeded 100. There was even a group of publishing houses crying and shouting for the traditional and simplified Chinese copyright of the Legend of the Dragon and Snake. There were even a few entertainment companies eyeing the film adaptation rights of the Legend of the Dragon and Snake.

The quality of the original version of Celestial Bane was already very good, not to mention the one that had been improved by Zhu Wuwan. The overall quality had been more than doubled.

Hence, in the first month of its release, Celestial Bane successfully became number one in the monthly votes rankings for all new novels. It was also number one in the monthly votes rankings for new novels. It was also number one in the best-selling rankings for more than half a month, with an average of over 200,000 books and 500,000 favorites.

Moreover, Celestial Bane's popularity was not only on Qiyue. It also included Penguin Bookstore, Yunlai Bookstore, and Chuannian Bookstore, which were closely related to Qiyue. It could be said that it had become popular across the internet. After all, Reading Bookstore, Penguin Bookstore, Yunlai Bookstore, and so on basically occupied more than half of the online novel world.

Super high quality, super fast updates, super many recommendations ... From the first month of its release, Celestial Bane was ranked first in the monthly votes rankings of the website.

Then, the second month after it was released ... First place on the monthly votes leaderboard!

In the third month of its release...First place on the monthly votes leaderboard!

The fourth month after it was released...First place on the monthly votes leaderboard!

The fifth month after it was released...There was no longer a fifth month because Celestial Bane was also finished by Zhu Wuyang in just four months.

If it weren't for the word limit, Celestial Bane could have continued to claim first place. Unfortunately, even after Zhu Wuyan's improvements, Celestial Bane's total word count was only over three million words, not more.

By the time the book was finished, Celestial Bane's total collection had broken 1.6 million, and the average order had also reached an unprecedented 500,000. It had created a new legend on the review website, and it was also the book with the highest average order on the review website.

As for the number of League Masters, it had reached 500, far surpassing the Romance of the Dragon and Snake. The fans of Bi Yao in Jade Dynasty could circle around the city a few times.

Before the book was finished, there were already a lot of people waving their checks, wanting to find Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles of Blessing and get the simplified and traditional Chinese copyright of Celestial Bane. There were even film companies that came from thousands of miles away, wanting to get the film adaptation rights of Celestial Bane.

However, Zhu Wanhao did not respond to this, nor did he agree. After all, doing so would definitely allow his influence to continue to soar. At that time, he would be able to stir up even more of the world's origin.

Or should he just write it down unhurriedly and earn the world's origin slowly, lest he earned too much at once and lost all his money?

Zhu Wuyang's plan in the Blue Star World was far from over.

Within a year, Zhu Wuwan used Chang 'an Ninety-Thousand Miles as his pen name. He wrote The Romance of the Dragon and Snake and Celestial Slaying, establishing Chang' an Ninety-Thousand Miles as an unshakable top god in the online novel world.

However, although the third book, Zhu Wuyang, was published on the Internet, it was not just a web novel because its name was.

The Legend of the Condor Heroes!

This was a pure martial arts novel, and it was also the type of martial arts novel that was gradually declining in China. It had been more than ten years since any successful works were published.

Even Zhu Wuyang's editors were equally surprised when they saw this book. They advised Zhu Wuyang to write a novel martial arts novel, similar to the Romance of the Dragon and Snake, or a Xianxia novel.

Because in this era, the world of novels acknowledged that Wuxia was dead, and there was no hope of making a comeback.

After all, compared to fantasy, xianxia, and fantasy novels, the upper limit of the level of wuxia novels was too low. It was simply not enough to satisfy people.

When the strongest in fantasy novels could easily destroy the world, the strongest in martial arts novels could not even destroy a small hill. The comparison between the two was really speechless.

Moreover, martial arts novels were recognized as an old thing. In the past, no one in China could write martial arts novels well. In the eyes of most people, the greatest use of martial arts novels was to hatch the category of Xianxia.

On the blue planet, Xianxia was thousands of times more famous than Wuxia. One could imagine how unremarkable Wuxia novels were.

Xia country had never had a famous martial artist like Jin Yong, Gu Long, Liang Yusheng, or Wen Rui An. Even the most famous martial arts novelist was a few levels lower than Wen Rui An. Therefore, the influence of martial arts in Xia country was extremely limited.

But now, Zhu Wuyang had chosen such a category, so the editors of the review website were worried.

However, Zhu Wuyang did not listen to him. Instead, he continued to publish The Legend of the Condor Heroes. The editors of Qiyue website had no choice but to sign a contract with him.

Although he was not optimistic about this book, he had the previous two popular books as a foundation. He did not hesitate to recommend the website to read.

However, if the subsequent Legend of the Condor Heroes did not perform well, there would definitely not be any good recommendations.

Chapter 607: New Record (1)

" Why is it a martial arts novel? And it's such an ancient martial arts novel. Could it be that this book wasn't written by Master Chang 'an Ninety-Thousand Miles but by someone else? Did Master Chang' an Ninety-Thousand Miles sell his account? "

" I don't think so. The writing style of this book is very good. In the entire online novel world, only the writing style of Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles God can reach this level. Why would he choose to write such a martial arts novel? I really don't understand. "

" Wuxia novels have been on the decline for a long time, okay? Or rather, Wuxia novels have never risen. Could it be that Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles Master wants to really bring the Wuxia genre up? It's a little whimsical. "

" The reason why Wuxia novels can't rise is because of the lack of innate conditions. It's impossible for them to rise. No matter how powerful Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles is, it's impossible for him to bring a sick person to the position of world champion. "

Just like the editors, many readers were not optimistic about the Legend of the Condor Heroes. The comments section was basically full of negative comments. It could even be said that few people praised it.

Naturally, the results were not very good. On the first day of the new book's release, the number of collectors had just broken 30,000. It was far inferior to even Celestial Bane. After all, Celestial Bane was only Zhu Wuyang's second book.

The Legend of the Condor Heroes had such terrible results despite being the center of attention for The Romance of the Dragon and Snake and Celestial Bane. It was obvious that no one was optimistic about this book.

There were less than ten League Masters. Perhaps it was to vent their dissatisfaction with Zhu Wuwan, but the sales of The Legend of Dragon and Snake and Celestial Bane increased several times that day and successfully ranked in the top few on the best-selling list, forming a sharp contrast with The Legend of the Condor Heroes.

The readers obviously wanted to use this method to express their dissatisfaction with Chang 'an 90,000 Miles. They wanted him to write another type of novel. Even if he really wanted to write a martial arts novel, he should write something similar to the Romance of the Dragon and Snake, not such an ancient martial arts novel.

In everyone's eyes, Zhu Wuyang's Legend of the Condor Heroes was obviously a little too old, and the power system was too low, making it seem a little LOW.

Therefore, in the initial half a month, the results of the Legend of the Condor Hero were very few. The total collection barely exceeded 50,000. The comments section was full of rumors that the new book of the great god Chang 'an Ninety Thousand Miles had failed and that he might not be able to win the title of the twelve main gods this year.

However, in view of Zhu Wuyang's excellent writing style, there were still many people who read the book. The more they read, the deeper they got, and they gradually became immersed in it.

The comments section, which was originally filled with comments, gradually had different voices.

" This wuxia novel seems pretty good. It's very different from the traditional legendary wuxia, chapter wuxia, and street stall wuxia. It can be said to be a brand new wuxia, and it's much better than the old wuxia. It has a feeling of attracting people to keep reading it. I think I'm already addicted. "

" The characters in it are too moving. Each and every one of them is lifelike, far better than the characters in the Romance of the Dragon and Snake and Celestial Bane. Many of the characters are not much worse than the main characters in Celestial Bane. Huang Rong is even better than Biyao. Just because of these vivid and picturesque characters, I decided to buy this book. "

" This isn't a typical traditional Wuxia novel. It's a new Wuxia novel that's different from classical legends and literary commentaries. Its appeal is no less than that of Xianxia novels and fantasy novels. At least, this is the case for the new Wuxia novel, Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles. If you don't believe me, you can come and take a look. Don't be affected by the bad reviews. "

"Although it's not as cool as The Legend of the Dragon and Snake, in terms of storyline, character creation, literary depth, and so on, it steamrolled The Legend of the Dragon and Snake and Celestial Bane. To put it bluntly, the two sides are not on the same level at all. Therefore, the Legend of the Condor Heroes written by Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles God has not fallen, but is even better. No, not better, but better than the Romance of the Dragon and Snake and Fairy Slaying.”

A good novel would stand out everywhere, especially a novel like The Legend of the Condor Heroes, which created a precedent for martial arts. Moreover, it had been popular in the Romance of the Dragon and Snake and the Immortal Dynasty. Zhu Wuyang was not a nobody.

As a result, more and more people started to fall into the trap. When the Legend of the Condor Hero was released, the total collection had already exceeded 100,000.

On the first day of its release, when the first order of the Legend of the Condor Heroes was released, it immediately caused a huge uproar.

Ninety-nine thousand!

Out of the 100,000 readers who had collected The Legend of the Condor Heroes, only a little over 1,000 of them did not have a new account. The rest of the readers had all bought The Legend of the Condor Heroes at the first instant, creating a new record for the number of readers on the website.

Not only in terms of first order, but even the monthly votes had also climbed to the top of the monthly votes rankings for new books and the top of the monthly votes rankings for all the websites that had started reading. This made many readers who did not think highly of this book speechless. They did not know what kind of magic the Condor Shooting Hero had to create such amazing results with so few collections.

To put it bluntly, basically all the readers who had collected the Legend of the Condor Hero had given their recommendation votes and monthly votes to this book. At the same time, the number of League Masters of the Legend of the Condor Hero had already exceeded 300. It had only just been released, but the results were already catching up with Celestial Bane, which had been published a few months ago.

Originally, they thought that Chang ‘an Ninety-Thousand Miles was going to fail. However, Chang’ an Ninety-Thousand Miles gave everyone a big surprise with a solid result.

As a result, a large number of old readers who did not have the Legend of the Condor Heroes as a collector’s item flocked over. There were even more new readers who flocked over, wanting to see how the Legend of the Condor Heroes had achieved such amazing results, or if the author of this book had bought votes from the Chang ‘an Ninety Thousand Miles.

However, after reading a few chapters, these people gradually fell into the trap. By the time they read dozens of chapters, these people were already unable to stop.

"D * mn, this is the first time I've seen such an interesting Wuxia novel. Compared to the old Wuxia novel, it's like heaven and earth. The two can't be mentioned in the same breath. No wonder it can attract so many people to vote and tip. I want to be one of them. "

"Whether it's the Quanzhen Seven Sons or the Jiangnan Seven Monsters, they are all so lifelike, as if they are right in front of me. Especially Sister Huang Rong, I have never seen such an attractive female lead in any novel. Even the male lead Guo Jing is so attractive. I've fallen in love with him. I'll be a fan of Chang 'an's Nine Thousand Miles in the future. "

"No wonder it can attract so many people. Whether it's the plot or the character creation, they are all the best in the country. It turns out that Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles is not only the best among the web novel authors, but also the best among the traditional literature authors. This is a real super big shot. "

"If it weren't for his strength, how could this book attract so many readers? We have wronged Chang 'an. He has not fallen, but has become more mature and powerful. "

Chapter 608: Sweeping the Literature World (1)

On the day that Legend of the Condor Heroes reached the top of the monthly votes rankings, the number of favorites had increased by 100,000, doubling. This was even without any recommendations.

Of course, the first place in the monthly votes for the new novel and the first place in the overall monthly votes were obtained by Zhu Wuwan and Legend of the Condor Heroes based on their results. They should not be counted in the recommendations given by the website.

The initial order had also broken through 180,000, and the highest number of orders had already exceeded 190,000. It had created the legend of new average orders.

Then, on the second day, his collection increased by 80,000, and his average order increased by 50,000.

On the third day, his collection increased by 70,000 and his average order increased by 40,000.

After the first month of the new book, the total collection of the novel had exceeded 600,000, and the average number of books had exceeded 500,000. It continued to create the legend of the collection ratio. The monthly income was more than 10 million. The name of Chang 'an Nine Heavens spread throughout the online novel world and spread to the entire literary world.

A famous literature professor in the capital had commented on this book, allowing Legend of the Condor Heroes to successfully leave the circle of web novels and spread to the entire literary circle.

Yan Jiacheng, a famous literary writer and a professor at Shuimu University, the top university in China, commented on the legend of the Condor Heroes." The Legend of the Condor Heroes is a work full of youthful spirit. The love between Guo Jing and Huang Rong is also filled with the passion, gentleness, sweetness, and joy of youth. They have vowed to live and die together, and they are worried about the future. There is confusion, pain, and misunderstanding, but there is no unforgettable hurt, and there is no corruption of greed and desire. Guo Jing and Huang Rong's love was like the first love in everyone's dreams. It made the young yearn for it, the middle-aged hurt, and the old reminisce. This simple, healthy, and extremely bright color is difficult to reproduce in any other novel."

Even such a famous Professor Shui Mu, a contemporary famous writer, had spoken out for The Legend of the Condor Heroes. One could imagine the influence of The Legend of the Condor Heroes now. With Yan Jiacheng's voice, more and more famous scholars in the literary world began to speak out for The Legend of the Condor Heroes.

The popular author Ni Yunlai commented on The Legend of the Condor Heroes:"This Legend of the Condor Heroes has established the status of a master of novels in Chang 'an. In the future, people will no longer doubt whether Chang' an can write traditional literary works or even big works. Moreover, there has never been an online literature author who can write such a first-class work. It can even be said that The Legend of the Condor Heroes has changed the trend of traditional martial arts."

Chen Bai, the most famous writer in China, also commented on this book. ""The Legend of the Condor Heroes is a classic work. This classic is not only because it has created a new martial arts precedent and completely improved traditional martial arts novels. Most importantly, it is not only a martial arts classic, but also an artistic classic. This is a new narrative method and structural form shown to us by 90,000 Miles in Chang 'an. It is also a new starting point for the creation of novels in 90,000 Miles in Chang' an, and also a dividing line."

All of a sudden, all kinds of praises for the Legend of the Condor Heroes swarmed in, and this martial arts novel written by Mr. Jin Yong on Earth was indeed worthy of such praise.

Not to mention that Zhu Wuyang had also improved the Legend of the Condor Heroes. Whether it was the quality, the plot, or the creation of the characters, they were more than twice as good as the original. It could be considered the pinnacle of martial arts novels in China.

When Jun Bujian was on Earth, a certain online novelist had brought a niche work like the Lord of the Mysteries to the level of the masses and created mythical records one after another.

Zhu Wuyang's motivation for the Legend of the Condor Heroes was far better than this. It was normal for him to create more records. It was a piece of cake for him to successfully leave the circle.

As a result, the Legend of the Condor Heroes not only attracted a large number of online readers, but also a large number of traditional readers. Favorites, average reservations, monthly votes ... It continued to rise and swept through the major rankings, not just on the review website.

In the second month, the Legend of the Condor Heroes took over the Qiyue website, Penguin Bookstore, New Year Bookstore, and Yunlai Bookstore...He was the first in the monthly votes and the best-selling list of more than ten websites. He was also ranked first in the Ten Thousand Search List of literary works and was also on the trending list of Weibo.

The mythical results rendered the entire online novel world speechless. For a moment, no one made a sound. They could only watch in horror as the results of The Legend of the Condor Hero continued to soar, soar, and soar...

This was a pinnacle work that was suitable for both young and old. It had successfully brought martial arts novels out of the circle. Whether it was in terms of story or depth, it was not inferior to most literary works.

Even the authors and readers of web novels were shocked by this novel.

This was especially true for those readers who had initially belittled The Legend of the Condor Heroes and felt that this novel was not cool at all. Moreover, it was rather old-fashioned. At this moment, they were already prostrating themselves in admiration. They no longer said that The Legend of the Condor Heroes was not cool or good. This was not a purely cool novel to begin with. Of course, it was also very enjoyable to read.

" This isn't an ordinary web novel. The Legend of the Condor Hero has already left the scope of web novels and reached the height of literature and art. I really didn't expect that Chang 'an Ninety-Thousand Miles could create such an amazing work. Moreover, he is so ambitious. He wants to sweep through not only the web novel world, but also the traditional literature world. "

" I originally thought that the Romance of the Dragon and Snake was the pinnacle of web novels. I didn't expect that Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles would create Celestial Bane. Just when I thought Celestial Bane was the pinnacle, Legend of the Condor Heroes appeared out of nowhere and successfully brought web novels to another level, a level where traditional literature had to bow down. From then on, I no longer have to be afraid to tell others that I like to read web novels. After all, even my parents are obsessed with the Legend of the Condor Heroes now. ”

” It’s a pity that The Legend of the Condor Heroes hasn’t been published yet. Otherwise, I would definitely have collected a copy. In order to read this book, my grandparents have tried to go online. It’s simply too amazing. It can’t be described as out of the circle anymore. It’s sweeping through China. ”

” The most important thing is that the quality is so high and the update speed is so fast. Chang ‘an’s Ninety Thousand Miles is simply a god. I’m so impressed. ”

As many readers had said, The Legend of the Condor Heroes had not only left the entertainment circle, but it had also swept through the online and traditional novel worlds, sweeping the entire online and offline market.

Even some older people tried to go online or download Qiyue’s APP on their phones in order to watch The Legend of the Condor Heroes. This caught the attention of the Tengda Corporation, which was behind Qiyue. The higher-ups of the Tengda Corporation were shocked when they saw the skyrocketing download data of the many apps under the Tengda Corporation.

The senior executives of Tengda Corporation did not expect that the Legend of the Condor Heroes could drive such a large amount of traffic. It allowed the downloads of many literary apps under their company to increase by more than ten million, creating huge profits.

Therefore, Tengda Corporation also started to push for the release of the Condor Shooting Hero. What recommendation on the home page, what recommendation on all channels, what recommendation on the splash screen, what recommendation on the bullet screen...

It was as if they were free of charge, causing the Condor Hero, which had already become popular to a certain extent, to show signs of rising to fame. In just a few months, Condor Hero had achieved great results, once again shocking the entire Internet and even the entire literary world.

Chapter 609: Mythical Grade (1)

After Zhu Wuyan’s improvements and optimization, the new Legend of the Condor Heroes had more than doubled in both the level of excitement and depth. It could be said that it far exceeded the original version.

Even so, when The Legend of the Condor Heroes had just been published, the total collection barely exceeded 100,000. This was because Zhu Wuyang's previous two books had been too outstanding, so they had attracted a lot of readers. Otherwise, they might not have even reached 10,000 collections.

Under such circumstances, The Legend of the Condor Heroes set a record for the number of readers. Its appeal was beyond imagination, surpassing any book under Tengda Corporation.

It had been two months since the release of the novel, and The Legend of the Condor Heroes had reached 1.5 million words. There were only 1.5 million words left before it was completed.

Yes, the improved and optimized Legend of the Condor Heroes also had a much higher number of words than the original, reaching 3.6 million words, more than three times the original. However, the story did not seem to drag at all. Instead, it was more compact and interesting. There was basically nothing extra.

It had been three and a half months since the book was published, and two months since it was published. At this moment, the results of The Legend of the Condor Heroes had taken off.

There were more than 10 million online collections, 8 million online orders, and at least 50 million online readers, but many people had not had the time to purchase the chapters.

With an average of eight million, it meant that Zhu Wuyang could earn at least three million yuan for every normal six-thousand-word chapter she published. On average, every thousand words would be worth five hundred thousand Xia Yuan. One could imagine how terrifying this figure was.

Moreover, as time passed, the average number of players in The Legend of the Condor Heroes would definitely continue to increase. At that time, Zhu Wuyang's income would also increase.

Moreover, although the revenue from the average booking accounted for the majority, the income from gifts and advertisements was equally astonishing. If Zhu Wuwan was willing to publish it, the income would soar again. Not to mention that The Legend of the Condor Heroes was extremely suitable to change the film and television series. With the current popularity of The Legend of the Condor Heroes, the adaptation fee would definitely be an astronomical figure.

The value of The Legend of the Condor Heroes was astonishing. It was not inferior to the top-notch songs that Zhu Wuyang had composed. In fact, the overall benefits it brought to Zhu Wuyang far exceeded those songs.

Other than income, the monthly votes, clicks, recommendations, and fans of various websites...It had already been swept away by the Legend of Condor Hero. Even the trending searches on Weibo had become one of the exclusive territories of the Legend of Condor Hero. One could imagine how popular the Legend of Condor Hero was at this moment.

A large number of booksellers and film companies tried their best to contact Zhu Wuyang, wanting to obtain the simplified Chinese copyright, traditional Chinese copyright, TV series copyright, and movie copyright of The Legend of the Condor Heroes...Even the copyrights in various languages were rejected by Zhu Wuyan.

The reason for this was naturally because the influence of the Legend of the Condor Heroes was too shocking. The World Origin that it brought to Zhu Wuwan was beyond imagination. Even Zhu Wuwan had no choice but to suppress the influence of the Legend of the Condor Heroes to prevent herself from earning too much World Origin.

Originally, Zhu Wuyang thought that although The Legend of the Condor Heroes was good, it was not as good as some literary masterpieces in certain aspects. The influence and origin of the world that it could bring to him was limited. However, Zhu Wuyang realized that he was wrong.

The Legend of the Condor Heroes might not be as literary as many classics, but its popularity and readability meant that it was destined to have a huge impact. Moreover, its spread speed was amazing, far surpassing most of the classics.

Under such circumstances, how could Zhu Wuyan dare to publish and adapt the novel? In order to reduce the influence of The Legend of the Condor Heroes, Zhu Wuyan even reduced the update rate to 10,000 per day.

However, what made Zhu Wanwan speechless was that even so, many people still praised her endlessly. How could she say that such a high-quality novel could have 10,000 words a day, let alone 10,000 words a day? Even 1,000 words a day was not a small number.

Many so-called famous traditional novelists might not even be able to produce 10,000 words after holding it in for a month, but Zhu Wuwan was good. She could update more than 10,000 words every day, and she could still maintain such an amazing quality. It was simply heaven-defying.

Seeing these comments, Zhu Wuwan was speechless. She lowered the number of words in the update. She wondered if the readers would blame each other for saying things they shouldn't have said if they found out about this.

By the time the novel The Legend of the Condor Heroes was published, half a year had passed. At this moment, the number of online collections had already exceeded 30 million, and the average number of reservations was close to 20 million. It had brought more than hundreds of millions of income to Zhu Wuwan, leading the trend of martial arts for a generation.

The Legend of the Condor Heroes had revived the dead Wuxia and created a huge influence. It had brought some of the world's origin to Zhu Wuwan, scaring him so much that he had to temporarily stop writing and prepare to write the second step of the Condor Heroes in the Condor Shooting Trilogy after a while.

At the same time, the second song that Zhu Wuwan wrote for Invincible Youth, Superstar, had already been released. With the superb quality and the perfect performance of Invincible Youth, they had once again created stunning results.

In just one day, the number of downloads of superstar had exceeded one million, and they had obtained the logo of Silversong. On the third day, the number of downloads of this song broke five million, earning it the title of a golden song. It also created the fastest online download record for a girl group to break five million.

In just ten days, the song 'Superstar' had exceeded ten million downloads across the internet and successfully entered the ranks of classics, becoming a one-star classic.

Such brilliant results were unprecedented even among the girl groups in the past hundred years. As for whether there would be no one else in the future, it was still hard to say.

However, this song had undoubtedly made Undefeated Youth the most popular girl group in China. It was also the most popular singing group, and it had successfully promoted Undefeated Youth to the ranks of the A-list group.

Although their popularity was still a little superficial, it was undeniable that Invincible Youth was the most popular group in the entire Xia country at this moment.

In just two songs, Zhu Wuyang not only helped Invincible Youth climb out of the abyss, but also helped them become an A-list girl group.

With such strength, Mr. Yong Ning's name once again resounded throughout the entire entertainment industry.

Most importantly, Zhu Wuwan's two songs had also created a new era. They told everyone in the entertainment industry that the group was not dead yet. Even a girl group that had fallen into the abyss could stand up with Mr. Yongning's two songs and become popular all over the country, let alone a boy group that had an advantage over the girl group.

Zhu Wanwan had single-handedly led the new trend of groups, allowing many entertainment companies to see the sparks of the rise of groups. Thus, they formed various groups one after another, ready to take advantage of this opportunity to make a fortune.

Mr. Yongning, Zhu Wuyan, was the leader of the music industry for a while!

Chapter 610: Drink the Strongest Wine and Play the Most Beautiful (1)

Time flowed like water, and a few years passed without him realizing it.

In the past few years, Zhu Wuyang's life had been very fulfilling and happy. Many whimsical thoughts and desires on Earth had been fulfilled perfectly in this small world on the blue planet that was very similar to Earth.

He would date the most beautiful and popular female celebrities, drive the most expensive and dazzling sports car, and stay in the most upscale and fashionable hotel...As boring as the Earth's Zhu Wuyang was, the Blue Planet's Zhu Wuyang was more exciting.

He had been suffering in the world of Dongyuan Continent for so many years, and he was still hiding his strength until today. He was worried that he would be killed if he was exposed.

Although it seemed that his strength had improved rapidly and his gains were quite gratifying, to be honest, there was still killing intent at every step. If he was not careful, Zhu Wuyang would be killed.

In other words, in just a few decades, Zhu Wuyang had already encountered too many fatal disasters. If it weren't for his good luck, the help of his golden finger, and most importantly, Zhu Wuyang's cautiousness and the fact that he had kept too many trump cards, he would have been killed long ago.

As a result, Zhu Wuan, who was in Dongyuan Continent, was actually living a rather stifled life. He calculated step by step, and his every move had to be reasonable. If his strength increased a little too quickly, he had to worry about attracting suspicion from others and quickly think of a way to give a reasonable explanation.

However, the environment of the entire cultivation world was like this, and Zhu Wuwan could not change it. It was an unchanging saying that an innocent man would be punished if he held a treasure. Zhu Wuwan was not a fool, so how could she act willfully?

Unless such a person lived in a third-rate novel, if he dared to improve so quickly in the real world of Xianxia without a reasonable explanation, he would die sooner or later.

Zhu Wuyang didn't want to die, so he could only choose to keep a low profile and make a fortune in silence. He was very careful with his every move.

Now that she had come to a world where she didn't have to worry too much, she didn't have to worry about implicating her main body even if she died. How could Zhu Wuyang not vent her anger properly?

Especially since this place was so similar to the Earth before he transmigrated. Many wishes that could not be realized on Earth and good things that could not be enjoyed could be enjoyed here.

Therefore, Zhu Wuwan was intoxicated. The entire entertainment industry had become his harem, relying on her super good looks, powerful talent, and amazing financial resources...Zhu Wuyang was almost always successful.

Top female stars, socialites from high society, pretty girls from humble families, charming, pure, cute ... All of them became his prey.

There were also high-end mansions, top-notch luxury cars, expensive yachts, and world-class private jets ... They were all Zhu Wuwan's daily consumables.

As for the various delicacies, wines, and delicacies from all over the world...Needless to say, it was just something that could be eaten every day.

He drank the strongest wine, slept in the softest bed, played with the most beautiful girls, and enjoyed the best of everything.

With her strong physique, Zhu Wuyang could enjoy and squander without restraint. In just a few years, she had enjoyed the happiness that other people could not enjoy in their entire lives.

However, while doing these things, it didn't stop Zhu Wuyang from taking some time out every day to write classic novels, classic songs, and classic scripts...Then, he would treasure them all and save them for a suitable opportunity to publish them all in the future.

However, in order to prevent her influence from increasing too much and stirring up too much of the world's origin, the songs that Zhu Wuwan wrote for others became fewer and fewer. Gradually, she only wrote songs for a few female celebrities and the Undeclared Youth Group.

Zhang Hanyun had already been praised by him as the most popular female diva in China. The Invincible Youth Group was also among the top female groups. Their fame and status were not inferior to Zhang Hanyun's. They had even won the title of Destiny's Child. They were completely famous.

Of course, a few other female singers and celebrities were also praised by Zhu Wuyang, either through songs, television dramas, or movies...They were all ranked in the A-list and S-list.

Although Brother Changan was a live streamer, his status was not inferior to any S-list singer. Many people even called him the Heavenly King.

There was no need to mention Mr. Yong Ning. He was the strongest songwriter in all of China, and even in the entire East Continent. He could be said to be one of a kind. He had single-handedly led the arrival of the group trend.

In the past three years, Chang 'an had published several books consecutively, establishing its unshakable position as the king of the online novel world and the traditional novel world. It was known as the strongest traditional writer in the online novel world, or the strongest online writer in the traditional novel world.

The Legend of the Condor Heroes, the Condor Heroes, the Heaven Sword and Dragon Sabre ... The trilogy led to the prosperity of the new Wuxia genre and brought Wuxia novels back to life. Its momentum overpowered most literature and became the most popular genre of novels in recent years.

Brother Chang 'an was as famous as a superstar, Mr. Yongning's status had already surpassed most superstars, and Chang' an had become a literary giant...In just three short years, Zhu Wuyan's gains were not to be said to be not plentiful.

However, all of this also allowed Zhu Wuwan to earn nearly 40 World Origin points. He was so frightened that he hurriedly slowed down his progress and did not dare to be so reckless anymore.

However, with his current achievements, it was enough for him to eat for a long time. As long as he was conservative in the future, he should be able to hold on for more than 40 years.

Of course, that was what Zhu Wuyang thought, and she was prepared to do the same in the future.

However, in order to achieve this, Zhu Wuyang obviously had to slowly restrain herself. This restraint was not only because she no longer posted some classic works or sang some classic songs, but also because she treated others.

It just so happened that he had had enough fun over the past few years. He had enjoyed what he should enjoy. Moreover, Zhu Wuwan had also discovered something that caught him off guard. Since that was the case, he should calm down.

At this moment, Huayou Entertainment seemed to have noticed Zhu Wuyang's thoughts and ran over to help him restrain his behavior.

Zhongman Tea Garden, Villa Number Six.

Fang Zhenzhen, who had been promoted to one of the top managers in the entertainment industry by the Undefeated Youth Group, smiled and sat beside Zhu Wuyang. She handed a contract to Zhu Wuyang. "Mr. Zhao, this is the contract for the new song. It's also the contract for the ninth song you wrote for the girls. I hope you can understand after reading it."

Understanding?

This word was a little strange. A playful look flashed across Zhu Wuwan's lips as she picked up the contract and read it carefully.

A moment later, Zhu Wuyan put down the contract and looked at Fang Zhenzhen.

Fang Zhenzhen, who had a calm expression on her face just a moment ago, felt inexplicably uneasy when she saw Zhu Wuyang's calm expression. Her mood, which was getting more and more inflated and even a little disdainful of Zhu Wuyang, suddenly felt as if a basin of cold water had been poured on her, extinguishing the flames in her heart.

Read I'm Leveling Up Too Quickly Chapter 611 - 611: The Last Contract (1)

Chapter 611: The Last Contract (1)

It was almost visible to the naked eye that Mr. Yong Ning had been selling fewer and fewer new songs in the past two years. The number of new songs could be said to have plummeted.

Therefore, many people felt that after Mr. Yong Ning single-handedly led the group trend, he began to decline. After all, after glory, there was decline. This was a truth that many people knew.

Even Mr. Yongning, after writing more than a hundred red songs in a row, would inevitably have his talent exhausted one day.

Just like in the past two years, Mr. Yong Ning gave fewer and fewer songs, and fewer and fewer people. Gradually, there were only the Undefeated Youth Group and a few female singers left.

His talent had run out!

This was a consensus that many people had slowly reached. However, these people did not know that the reason why Zhu Wuyang stopped singing was not because he had run out of talent, but because he did not dare to.

He had earned more than 30 World Origin Points in just three years. He still wanted to stay on the Blue Planet for more than 40 years, but at this rate, he would be forced out of the Blue Planet in less than ten years.

Therefore, Zhu Wuwan could only slowly restrain herself, and she became more and more restrained. Even the songs composed by Brother Changan became more and more niche, and gradually, they were not valued by the entertainment industry.

Low-key and niche became synonymous with Mr. Chang An.

Mr. Yongning's name became more and more important.

Only Chang 'an was still at the peak of the literary circle.

As a result, the number of individuals and companies that valued Mr. Yongning began to decrease, especially as Undefeated Youth became more and more popular. Huayou Entertainment felt that the contract given to Zhu Wuyang was too generous.

More and more higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment wanted to change the contract to invite songs from Zhu Wuyang, and there were more and more slanderous words about Zhu Wuyang. Fang Zhenzhen slowly felt the same way.

Therefore, after some higher-ups hinted, Fang Zhenzhen brought a new contract to Zhu Wuyang, wanting to test Zhu Wuyang's attitude.

In this new contract, the share given to Zhu Wuwan was reduced from nearly 40% to 20%. The remaining 20% was given to the Undefeated Youth Group and the other half to Huayou Entertainment.

This was the biggest change in the contract. There were also changes in other aspects. In short, this contract cut Zhu Wuyang's profits by at least half, even though this contract was still the best contract that a songwriter could get.

This was a test, and at the same time, it was the goal of most of the higher-ups in Huayou Entertainment. Just like that, Fang Zhenzhen suddenly brought it in front of Zhu Wanhao.

What a short-sighted company. Hu Zhen Hua's previous actions were not unique.

Looking at Fang Zhenzhen, who was slowly panicking, Zhu Wuyang smiled and picked up the pen beside him. She signed her name on the contract. The song that Zhu Wuyang wanted to sell in this contract was also very popular on Earth. It was called the Chinese language.

Seeing that Zhu Wuan had signed the contract without saying a word, Fang Zhenzhen's flustered emotions inexplicably calmed down, and a smug look appeared on her face.

Although Zhu Wuwan had single-handedly raised the Invincible Youth Group, and it could be said that the Invincible Youth Group and Huayou Entertainment owed Zhu Wuwan a huge favor, Zhu Wuwan had received so much profit from Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment over the years. It was at least one billion yuan.

If it weren't for the fact that Invincible Youth had more commercial performances and bigger endorsements, Huayou Entertainment would probably have become Zhu Wuwan's employee.

Huayou Entertainment was generous to Zhu Wuyang, so it could be said that they did not mistreat him.

Zhu Wuwan was a sensible person. He knew that the Invincible Youth Group no longer needed him. Even without him, the Invincible Youth Group was still the strongest group in Xia country, but he, Mr. Yongning, had been going downhill.

Under such circumstances, it was already his honor to be able to sing his song with the top group of China, Undefeated Youth. Of course, his contract would be downgraded.

Moreover, since the test this time was successful, could the next contract be downgraded?

Just as she thought of this, Fang Zhenzhen heard Zhu Wanhao's calm voice. "The last contract, the last song!"

"What?" Fang Zhenzhen was stunned. She looked in disbelief at Zhu Wuyang, who was playing with her phone. She could hardly believe her ears. "Zhao ... Mr. Zhao, you ... What did you just say?"

Zhu Wuwan ignored her. It was enough to say this once. Did he need to repeat it?

Fang Zhenzhen stared blankly at Zhu Wuyan. Zhu Wuyan was focused on playing with her phone and did not take this matter to heart at all. On the contrary, she was a little happy.

He had been thinking about how to distance himself from Invincible Youth for a long time. After all, as long as Zhu Wuwan worked with Invincible Youth for a day, everyone would think of his identity as the leader of the girl group. Naturally, his influence would increase and he would be able to move more and more of the world's origin.

Now that Huayou Entertainment had thrown out such a good opportunity, Zhu Wuwan naturally had to seize it at the first opportunity so that they would no longer have the chance to regret it.

After being stunned for a long time, Fang Zhenzhen finally realized that Zhu Wuyang would not respond to her again, and what he had said earlier was already very clear.

This was the last song for Undefeated Youth, and also the last contract. It was considered a small benefit for Huayou Entertainment. However, compared to losing Zhu Wuyang, the biggest contributor behind Undefeated Youth, they did not want to take advantage of this at all.

Couldn't everyone be more tactful and express their dissatisfaction first, then she could adjust according to Zhu Wuyang's attitude. Why did they have to throw such a big bomb right from the start?

They were just testing the waters. If you don't agree, we can change it!

At this time, Fang Zhenzhen finally remembered something. Although Zhu Wuwan's alias, Mr. Yongning, had been declining, the songs that he had given to Undefeated Youth were all classics. None of the songs had fewer than ten million downloads on the Internet.

Even the last song in the Chinese language was also a classic, and it contained love for the motherland. It was destined to be a song that established the position of the undefeated king of youth.

If that was the case, no matter how much Mr. Yongning, who was Zhu Wuwan's alias, went downhill in other aspects, it wouldn't affect them.

Moreover, he was able to make the best song for Invincible Youth even when he was on the decline. It could be seen how much Zhu Wuwan cared about Invincible Youth.

All these years, Undefeated Youth had also relied on the songs that Zhu Wuwan had given him. In just three short years, he had soared against the wind and soared from the abyss to the sky. In the end, he stood at the peak of the girl group and was also the peak of the group singers over the years.

It wasn't that there weren't any other songwriters who wrote songs for Undefeated Youth during this period. Unfortunately, none of them could match up to the songs written by Zhu Wuyang. They couldn't even match up to the songs written by Zhu Wuyang's worst group.

Chapter 612: Xiao He (1)

Once he lost Zhu Wanhao, the biggest driving force behind Undefeated Youth, where would he go from now on?

Thinking of that scene, Fang Zhenzhen's expression changed in horror, and her body began to tremble slightly. Her previous calmness and smugness no longer existed.

Not daring to think further, Fang Zhenzhen hurriedly bowed and apologized, “Mr. Zhao, I was just joking. Actually, the new contract our company is offering is still the same as before. Please sign it.”

As she spoke, Fang Zhenzhen took out another contract from her bag and respectfully handed it to Zhu Wanhao, her face full of uneasiness.

“Is this a joke?” Zhu Wuan smiled and glanced at Fang Zhenzhen. “I don’t think you have the right to make a decision on this matter. Which higher-up is standing behind us? It shouldn’t be Li Jin ‘an, right? He’s quite smart. He wouldn’t do such a thing.”

“But so what? Everything can be repeated again and again, but it can’t be repeated again and again. There have already been two times before. Although the main responsibility is on Hu Zhen Hua, aren’t you guys responsible?”

” It’s been nine songs. Nothing can be perfect. Let’s just stop here. Go back and tell those idiots at Huayou Entertainment that we won’t be working together anymore.”

Without waiting for Fang Zhenzhen’s reply, Zhu Wuyang stood up and walked towards the villa, ignoring Fang Zhenzhen.

Zhu Wuwan had long wanted to break up with the idiots at Huayou Entertainment. It had been a long time since she had done so, and now she felt really good.

Although Huayou Entertainment also had some good people, they were not good enough to catch Zhu Wuyang’s eye. Otherwise, the relationship between the two sides would not have come to this point. Undefeated Youth would not have failed after debuting.

Fang Zhenzhen was dumbstruck when she saw Zhu Wuan’s figure that did not even turn her head. She did not make a sound for a long time. Her mind kept replaying the achievements she had made in the past few years. Then, she was shocked to find out.

Zhu Wuyang was behind all these results. If not for Zhu Wuyang, all the results of his unbeaten youth would have been gone.

However, she hadn’t realized this before this. Instead, she had become more and more arrogant, feeling that she had taken great credit for it. Because of some of the higher-ups ‘lies, she had wanted to teach Zhu Wanhao a lesson and make him change the contract sensibly.

Now, he was the one who looked the ugliest.

Fang Zhenzhen clearly knew who had given her status all these years. If it weren’t for the Undefeated Youth Group, she would be nothing.

However, if the Qingchun Group didn't have Zhu Wuyang, they would be nothing.

Zhu Wanhao had pulled Undefeated Youth out of the abyss of despair and single-handedly created the glory of Undefeated Youth. However, at this moment, she, a fellow who relied on Undefeated Youth for a living, actually began to look down on Zhu Wanhao.

How stupid, how ironic, how ungrateful!

Zhu Wuwan had received nearly half of the profits from the songs for Undefeated Youth, but these profits were still not comparable to Huayou Entertainment.

It was common knowledge that commercial performances and endorsements were the main goals of most singers. They were also the biggest source of income. In comparison, download income, album income, ringtone income, and so on were still a little lacking.

Although Zhu Wuyang's contract was quite ruthless and could be said to be the only one in the entertainment industry, it still didn't stop Huayou Entertainment from making money. In fact, Huayou Entertainment earned even more.

Moreover, if Zhu Wuyang hadn't single-handedly created the glory of youth, she and Huayou Entertainment wouldn't have made any money.

However, they would pick up their bowls to eat and throw away their chopsticks to curse. No wonder Zhu Wuyang broke up with them without hesitation. They asked for it.

Why must he be possessed? Why must he repay kindness with enmity? Why must he be greedy...Fang Zhenzhen's expression changed. She didn't know how she walked out of the Zhongman Tea Garden.

After standing outside the tea garden for a long time, Fang Zhenzhen called Li Jinan as soon as she woke up."Director Li, I ... I did as Vice President Ma and the others instructed and gave the new contract to Mr. Yongning."

"What?!" Li Jin 'an's incredulous voice came from the other end. ""Fang Zhenzhen, are you out of your mind? Why didn't you tell me about such a big matter? You're the one in charge. Are you still a member of the music department? Do you even respect me, the director?"

"I'm sorry, Director Li. I know I was wrong." Fang Zhenzhen looked dejected.

"What's the point of knowing your mistake? What's Mr. Yongning's reaction now? Did he throw out the new contract?" Li Jinan hurriedly asked.

“Mr. Yongning signed the contract in duplicate,” Fang Zhenzhen said bitterly. “One of them is in my hands.”

“And then...” Li Jinan’s voice was a little erratic, as if he had guessed something. His expression was extremely ugly.

Fang Zhenzhen’s eyes were filled with tears. He said that this was the last contract and the last song for Invincible Youth. He would never work with Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment again. Director Li, I’m sorry. If I knew this, I definitely wouldn’t have listened to Vice President Ma and the others and brought this contract to Mr. Yongning.”

“Haha...” Li Jinan smiled bitterly. “Fang Zhenzhen, you’re really out of your mind. Do you think Mr. Yongning is the kind of person who gives in easily? What are you thinking?”

“A few years ago, before Mr. Yongning became famous, he dared to ignore Hu Zhenhua and anyone from Huayou Entertainment just because of a few words. Even though he was so close to the girls of Undefeated Youth and even slept with them, he was still able to be cold-hearted and not give them any songs.”

“Even after Hu Zhenhua fell, we went to ask for songs with great sincerity, but Mr. Yongning still offered the best lyric contract in the entertainment industry. So far, he is almost the only one in the music industry. You have to know that at that time, the seven young and undefeated girls were basically all eaten by him.”

“From this, we can see Mr. Yongning’s attitude towards us. If it weren’t for the seven young girls, I’m afraid he wouldn’t have given us a single song. He doesn’t even care if he can earn money from us.”

At this point, Li Jinan’s voice became louder. “A few years ago, Mr. Yongning didn’t even care about making money when he was poor. Now, Mr. Yongning is famous all over the world. Even though he has started to decline recently, he is still the best songwriter in China. More than a hundred popular songs have shocked the entire entertainment industry.”

“What right do you have to look down on him? What right do you have to look down on him? You actually played such a trick on him and forced him to submit for a 10% to 20% profit. If he was someone who would submit so easily, he wouldn’t have been so ruthless to us a few years ago.”

“Now that we’ve broken up with him, what will happen to Invincible Youth in the future? What will happen to Huayou Entertainment in the future? When this matter spreads, what will everyone think of Huayou Entertainment? What will they think of Invincible Youth, the most profitable group in our music department? Are you going to destroy Invincible Youth with your own hands?”

“Fang Zhenzhen, come back immediately. I’ll call a meeting of the company’s higher-ups now and call those greedy vice presidents over for a meeting. Let them think of a way to deal with this matter. This time, I won’t clean up their mess anymore.”

Chapter 613: A Blow to the Head (1)

In the conference room on the top floor of Friends Entertainment, almost all the higher-ups were present.

” Li Jinan, is there something important? Why did you call all of us here for a meeting? You even said that you wanted to decide the future development of the company. Is it really that serious? ”

” Right now, the only celebrity in the music department who can influence the development of our company is Undefeated Youth. Could it be that Li Jinan is going to make some important decision about Undefeated Youth? ”

” I remember that today was not the day when Mr. Yongning signed the contract with Huayou Entertainment for his new song. Li Jinan suddenly called for such a meeting. Could it be related to this matter? ”

” If Mr. Yongning knew his place, he would have agreed to the new contract. Right now, it’s not our Invincible Youth that needs to ride on his fame, but he wants to ride on our Invincible Youth’s fame. ”

Most of the higher-ups did not realize their problem at all. Many of them were the backers behind Hu Zhen Hua in the past, and also the backers of many parties.

What happened today could be said to have happened sooner or later. Back then, Hu Zhenhua was able to be kicked out of the music department and Huayou Entertainment because he did not have any shares in Huayou Entertainment.

However, these higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment basically had shares in their hands, so how could they be kicked out so easily?

However, Zhu Wuyang and Li Jinan did not expect that after the previous two lessons, these higher-ups still did not learn their lesson and did something like biting the hand that fed them.

Under the curious and dissatisfied expressions of the company’s senior executives, Li Jinan walked into the conference room with a serious face and threw a contract directly to Vice President Ma Hongyi. “Vice President Ma, this is the new contract that you authorized Fang Zhenzhen to hand over to Mr. Yongning. He has already signed it.”

Ma Hongyi was the one who had the most status and power in urging Fang Zhenzhen to give Zhu Wuwan the new contract, because his father was the major shareholder of Huayou Entertainment and the current leader of Huayou Entertainment's relationship party.

Ma Hongyi's eyes lit up when he heard Li Jinan's words. He quickly took the contract and read it carefully. Finally, his eyes fell on the bottom right corner where Zhu Wuyang signed. He handed the contract to the other executives of Huayou Entertainment and said, "" Mr. Yongning, this guy is quite sensible. He really signed this new contract. "

The other executives of Huayou Entertainment laughed after reading the contract.

" Not bad, not bad. I told you that Mr. Yongning has run out of talent. He definitely wouldn't dare to be as troublesome as he was a few years ago. He dared to ask for such an outrageous contract from Huayou Entertainment. It seems like that's true. It's a pity that the new contract was given too late. Otherwise, we could have earned more money. "

" Right now, Invincible Youth is the most popular group in China and the only S-list group. Their fame and influence aren't inferior to those Heavenly Kings and Queens, and they're developing in all aspects. Mr. Yongning's songs are no longer that important to Invincible Youth, so we naturally can't give such a huge profit to Mr. Yongning. "

" Since he's quite tactful, I'll let him continue writing songs for Invincible Youth for the time being. As for the contract, let's see if we can reduce it a little. After all, Mr. Yongning's popularity is far from what it was before. He's no longer qualified to write songs for the best contract. "

" That's right. You'll get what you want with your ability. Mr. Yongning's ability has dropped drastically in the past few years, and the number of songs he has written has decreased. Only Huayou Entertainment is still supporting him. Many other entertainment companies have already ignored him and cut off contact with him. "

Li Jinan sneered when he saw the cheering crowd. He waited until they quieted down before he said sarcastically, "" By the way, this is Mr. Yongning's last song with Huayou Entertainment, and also his last contract. From today onwards, Mr. Yongning will no longer work with Huayou Entertainment, let alone write songs for Invincible Youth. "

" I can't solve this problem, so I'll have to rely on you guys. On the big screen is Mr. Yongning's help to Undefeated Youth and Huayou Entertainment in the past few years. After watching it, think about what to do. "

After saying that, Li Jinan turned around and left the meeting room. He didn't want to stay with these short-sighted people any longer.

The huge conference room was silent, and everyone seemed to have been struck by lightning, especially Ma Hongyi, the culprit of this incident. He was even more dumbfounded at this moment.

At the same time, lines of words began to appear on the big screen in the conference room. They were all the gains that Mr. Yongning had brought to Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment in the past few years.

Before the relationship was over, Huayou Entertainment made a net profit of 60 million Xia Yuan, superstar made Huayou Entertainment a net profit of 70 million Xia Yuan, and the tropical rainforest made Huayou Entertainment a net profit of 72 million Xia Yuan ... In just three years, Huayou Entertainment had earned nearly a billion yuan from the songs given by Zhu Wuyang.

Not to mention that these songs had also made the Undefeated Youth Group popular, making them one of the biggest brands of Huayou Entertainment. They had also driven up the stock price of Huayou Entertainment, causing its market value to soar by more than a few percent.

If there was no Invincible Youth Group, or if Invincible Youth Group was finished, half of Huayou Entertainment would have collapsed. None of them would have been able to escape, and their ending would have been very ugly.

From this powerpoint, all the executives of Huayou Entertainment in the conference room recognized Mr. Yongning's help to Undefeated Youth. It could be said that without Mr. Yongning, Undefeated Youth would not exist. Even now, Undefeated Youth was still eating the dividends given by Mr. Yongning. All the works that could be presented were from Mr. Yongning.

However, some of them were blinded by ghosts or money. They needed to rely on Mr. Yong Ning, but at the same time, they wanted to squeeze Mr. Yong Ning. In the end, Mr. Yong Ning did not give them any face and decisively broke off with Huayou Entertainment.

Such a clean and straightforward manner reminded many people of how Mr. Yong Ning had treated Hu Zhen Hua and his gang a few years ago.

The reason why Mr. Yongning had such a contract with Huayou Entertainment and Undefeated Youth could be said to be thanks to Hu Zhenhua. Of course, some of them had also made great contributions.

It was precisely because they were in the wrong that Mr. Yong Ning gave them such a contract. Even so, Huayou Entertainment still made a profit. It was just a 50 – 50 split with Mr. Yong Ning.

However, even though the percentage of revenue from Mr. Yongning's songs was not as high as the songs from other channels, even if the percentage was a little low, these songs became popular, which brought more revenue and benefits to Huayou Entertainment.

Up until now, none of the songs that Huayou Entertainment had collected for Invincible Youth could match the income of any of the songs that Mr. Yongning had written for Invincible Youth.

Chapter 614: He Abandoned Us (1)

"Is there no hope of redemption?"

Through Li Jinan's powerpoint, all the executives of Huayou Entertainment realized the importance of Mr. Yongning to Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment.

After a long hesitation, Ma Hongyi looked at Fang Zhenzhen, who was standing in the corner, and asked if it was possible to save Mr. Yongning.

Fang Zhenzhen shook her head with a pale face. "There's no hope. I've already tried. Mr. Yongning won't agree even if we change back to the original contract or a better one. "

"He said that everything can be repeated twice, but never again. Therefore, he will never work with Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment again, even if his sister Tang Kewei is among them. "

"Are you sure?" Ma Hongyi asked again.

Fang Zhenzhen smiled bitterly. "Based on my understanding of Mr. Yongning, since he has made such a decision, he will definitely not change it. I have dealt with him a few years ago. He is not the kind of person who is easily persuaded. "

"What if the seven young girls all begged him?" Ma Hongyi still didn't give up.

Fang Zhenzhen shook her head again without hesitation. "A few years ago, when Hu Zhen Hua had a conflict with him, the seven girls of Undeclared Youth were already his people. However, before Hu Zhen Hua left, Mr. Yongning never once mentioned the new song. Even after Hu Zhen Hua left, he still took out the contract that was unique in the music industry. "

"Looks like there's no hope." Ma Hongyi and the others finally gave up, and the conference room fell silent again.

After a long time, Ma Hongyi said coldly, "Since there's no hope of reconciliation with Mr. Yongning, we should be prepared to become enemies. After all, once this matter gets out, it will definitely be extremely detrimental to Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment, so we have to do something in advance. ”

Hearing Ma Hongyi’s words, some of the higher-ups in the conference room echoed.

” You’re right. Zhao Changan is too petty and narrow-minded. No wonder he’s been going downhill. It’s a good thing that Huayou Entertainment and Undefeated Youth left him as soon as possible. Otherwise, when he writes bad songs later, it’ll be bad if we’re implicated. ”

” To be honest, we don’t owe Zhao Changan anything. Although he helped us bring Undefeated Youth back to the top of the country, Undefeated Youth has also brought him a lot of fame and benefits. We even gave him the highest contract in the entire music industry. So, the one at fault isn’t us, but Zhao Changan. ”

“It’s fine if you’re greedy, but you’re also so narrow-minded. If you want to get lost, then get lost. However, if this matter gets out, just as President Ma said, it will definitely affect Invincible Youth and our Huayou Entertainment. Therefore, in order to reduce our influence, we have to think of a countermeasure. At the very least, we can’t let this matter affect us.”

” You’re right. Zhao Changan is the one who wants to break up with us. Don’t tell me he wants to implicate Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment because of this. Zhao Changan is too greedy to cause trouble. There’s no reason for us to take the blame for him. ”

Since it was already determined that there was no way to get Zhu Wuyang back, the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment were all people who prioritized benefits, so they quickly decided on the next countermeasure.

Hence, they began to discuss and quickly reached a consensus.

” Zhao Changan is the one to blame for this. We can make a public announcement saying that Zhao Changan thinks that the contract gives him too little, so he wants to increase his share. If we don’t agree, he’ll threaten us with breaking up. That’s why Huayou Entertainment has no choice but to break up with him. This way, the fans won’t blame this on us and Invincible Youth. This is the best way to protect Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment. ”

” That’s right. We can also find an opportunity to leak the original contract and let everyone see how the so-called number one composer, Mr. Yongning, is exploiting Invincible Youth and our Huayou Entertainment. We can especially let Invincible Youth’s fans know how much money Invincible Youth has made for Zhao Changan over the years. ”

" We can't reveal Mr. Yongning's identity as Zhao Changan for the time being, lest the fans of Zhao Changan's other identity, Brother Changan, cause trouble and affect our next plan. "

" The most important thing is to get the members of Undefeated Youth to speak up and denounce Mr. Yong Ning for monopolizing all of their album revenue, download revenue, ringtone revenue, and other profits over the past few years, so that the members of Undefeated Youth can only earn a little living expenses through commercial performances and win the sympathy of their fans. This will minimize the negative impact Zhao Changan has on us and even use this opportunity to improve. "

Capital was cruel, especially in the face of huge profits. In just half an hour, a group of senior executives of Huayou Entertainment were ready to suppress Mr. Yongning, Zhao Changan, to prevent him from causing any trouble for Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment. At the same time, they wanted to turn bad things into good things.

Some of the higher-ups felt that it was a bit too much, but thinking of the huge benefits involved in this matter, they might suffer heavy losses if they didn't do it properly, so they didn't say anything and let Ma Hongyi and the others bite the hand that fed them.

Even Fang Zhenzhen was convinced by them. She decided to persuade the young girls to turn the tables and completely defeat Mr. Yongning and Zhao Changan, so that they would not be implicated in the fallout.

Huayou Entertainment, Villa No. 7. It was also one of the best dormitories that Huayou Entertainment had arranged for its artists.

The young girls had just returned from their commercial performance and were lazily lying on the sofa to rest. They did not forget to chat, not knowing that a storm was about to hit.

" Today is the day the company and Brother Changan sign the contract for the new song. I wonder what kind of new song Brother Changan has prepared for us this time. It should be better than the Persian cat from before. I'm really looking forward to it. "

" Although everyone says that Brother Changan's talent has run out, every song that Brother Changan wrote for us is still as good as ever, and it's getting better and better. It's just that the songs that he wrote for others seem to have decreased, but the quality isn't that much different. "

" They say that Brother Changan has run out of talent mainly because Brother Changan has written fewer and fewer popular songs. Although it's a little less, the quality of each song is still guaranteed. It has never disappointed anyone, so it can't be considered as running out of talent. "

" Don't talk about this kind of thing. Brother Chang 'an is our benefactor. We shouldn't say that we've run out of talent. Tomorrow is the weekend. Why don't we take some time to visit Brother Chang' an? It's been a few months since we last saw Brother Chang 'an. I miss him a little. "

" I don't think you miss Brother Changan. You just want Brother Changan to sleep with you. Haha. "

" Don't you want to? Brother Changan hasn't been close to us for a long time. "

Just as the group of girls were discussing some embarrassing matters, they heard the sound of the door opening from outside. Under the stunned gazes of the group of girls, their manager, Fang Zhenzhen, walked in with a cold expression.

Looking at the girls who were staring at her in confusion, Fang Zhenzhen frowned and said in a cold voice, "Children, let me tell you something unfortunate. Mr. Yongning, Zhao Changan, has abandoned us!"

Chapter 615: You've Got It (1)

" That's impossible. How could Brother Chang 'an abandon us? We have a good relationship with him, and we are all his people. Even if he wanted to abandon us, he would have told us in advance. How could this happen all of a sudden? "

" That's right. Is Sister Zhen joking with us? Could it be that the company thinks that Brother Changan's new song is not good and is not prepared to use it? Is that why they're joking with us? "

" How could Brother Changan abandon us for no reason? We didn't do anything wrong. Could it be because Xiaolu and Fang Jie want to get a boyfriend? But they haven't gotten a boyfriend yet. If Brother Changan doesn't mind, Xiaolu and Fang Jie can also not get a boyfriend for the time being. "

" Sister Zhen, what happened? Brother Changan wants to do such a thing. Tell us quickly. I don't believe that Brother Changan would abandon us for no reason. There must be a reason for this. " Hearing Fang Zhenzhen's words, the group of girls stood up in disbelief, almost unable to believe their ears.

"Sister Zhen, what's the reason?" Tang Kewei also stared at Fang Zhenzhen.

"This..." Fang Zhenzhen pondered for a moment and said irresponsibly, "As you can see, Zhao Chang 'an's talent has been declining over the past year. The songs he writes are getting fewer and fewer, and the income he earns is also decreasing. So when I went to sign the new song contract with him today, he asked for an exorbitant price to increase the share to 60%, causing the company to lose all its profit. He couldn't even cover the cost, so the company's higher-ups didn't agree. Zhao Changan then broke off with us in anger."

As soon as he finished speaking, the group of girls could not help but exclaim, "Ah..."

"Impossible, Brother Chang 'an is not such a person!" As soon as Fang Zhenzhen finished speaking, Tang Kewei was the first to say firmly, "Sister Zhen, what is the truth? Please tell me the truth."

Lee Sooyeon, who was beside him, also said, "That's right. We just need to ask Brother Changan about this. How could he do such a thing?"

Seeing that most of the girls did not believe her, Fang Zhenzhen sneered and said, "Why isn't Zhao Changan that kind of person? If he wasn't so greedy, he wouldn't have signed such a harsh contract with you back then. You have to give him nearly 40% of the profits. It's the highest level contract in the music industry. Moreover, you guys have such a close relationship with him. He's already so ruthless to you guys. What else can't he do?"

"Fang Zhenzhen, if the company wasn't at fault, why would Brother Changan ask for such a contract? Moreover, this contract isn't signed with Invincible Youth, but with the company." Tang Kewei bluntly pointed out the misleading meaning in Fang Zhenzhen's words. "Besides, although Brother Changan has been writing less and less songs this year, he's not short of money, and he won't suddenly ask for an increase in his share. On the other hand, I've heard from many higher-ups in the company that the share given to Brother Changan is too high. I hope that it can be reduced."

"So the reason why Brother Changan broke off with us, or rather, broke off with the company, should be because the company wanted to lower the contract, but Brother Changan was unwilling and directly broke off with you."

"Uh ..." Fang Zhenzhen was stunned because most of Tang Kewei's guesses were right, and only a small part was wrong.

Seeing Fang Zhenzhen's reaction, Tang Kewei was even more certain of her guess. She took out her phone and started calling Zhu Wuyang. "Since you won't tell us the truth, I'll ask the truth myself."

Before Fang Zhenzhen could react, Tang Kewei had already finished asking and said to the other girls, "Just as I guessed, Brother Changan broke off relations with the company because Fang Zhenzhen and the company's higher-ups requested to reduce the contract share and doubled it in one go. However, he still agreed to give us the last song, and this song is completely in accordance with the company's new contract. ”

” It's fake. Everything Zhao Changan said is fake. He's just fooling you. ” As soon as Tang Kewei finished speaking, Fang Zhenzhen said impatiently, ”The main reason why there was a contract with a much lower share was because Zhao Changan asked for too much and fell out with Huayou Entertainment. He even threatened to expose some intimate photos of you and him, wanting to destroy the entire Undefeated Youth. We, Huayou Entertainment, are not to be trifled with. In the past few years, we have quietly caught hold of some of his weaknesses and forced him to hand over those photos and videos. We also lowered the contract, so we completely broke off our relationship. You can't believe Zhao Changan's side...”

“Fang Zhenzhen, do you believe what you just said?” Without waiting for Fang Zhenzhen to finish, Tang Kewei interrupted her rudely, ” We all know Brother Changan's character. He wouldn't do such a thing for such a small benefit, and he didn't take any photos or videos of us, so what you said is nonsense. You just want to use this kind of action to splash dirty water on Brother Changan to avoid affecting Huayou Entertainment. ”

” And since the contract has not been negotiated, why don't we just part ways peacefully? Brother Changan has given you some face and still gave us the last song, and it's according to your new contract. Whether it's Undefeated Youth or Huayou Entertainment, we owe Brother Changan. So why do we have to slander Brother Changan to death for the sake of a little reputation? At most, we can send more Weibo posts about Brother Changan in the future. This can also reduce the negative impact of breaking up. Why do we have to take such an extreme method?”

“Tang Kewei, since you said that Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment owe Zhao Changan, then let me ask you, has the new song contract between you and Zhao Changan been the best in the music industry in the past few years?” ” You're all supported by Zhao Changan, ” Fang Zhenzhen retorted with a grim expression. ” But Zhao Changan has also earned enough benefits from you. ”

” Therefore, neither Invincible Youth nor Huayou Entertainment owe Zhao Changan anything. The reason why we broke off today was because Zhao Changan was greedy. It has nothing to do with you and Huayou Entertainment, so why can't we tell the truth? ”

Seeing that Fang Zhenzhen was still trying to hide the truth at this time and pour all the dirty water on Zhu Wuyang, without any intention of repentance, and was not prepared to accept her suggestion, Tang Kewei was also completely disappointed.

She didn't want to say anything else. She stared at Fang Zhenzhen and asked directly, ”So, what are you going to do next?”

Chapter 616: The Breakup of Youth (1)

“Tell the truth. We’re just prepared to tell the truth!”

Faced with Tang Kewei’s question, Fang Zhenzhen said with some guilt, “When the time comes, the company will release an announcement stating that you have broken off relations with Zhao Changan. Moreover, you will continue to hide the fact that Zhao Changan is Mr. Yongning. When the time comes, you can just express your regret and not say too much. ”

” Hehe, aren’t you asking us to help you slander Brother Chang ‘an and confirm his infamy of greed? ” Tang Kewei sneered. ” I will never do such a thing. If you want to do it, you can do it yourself. Moreover, I will post on Weibo that what you said is false. The truth of the matter is just the opposite. ”

Seeing how stubborn Tang Kewei was, Fang Zhenzhen was a little annoyed.”Tang Kewei, I’ve told you again and again that we don’t owe Zhao Chang ‘an anything. Moreover, we’re doing this for your own good. If we really do as you say, do you still want to continue on your path?”

” I don’t think you’re doing this for our undefeated youth. You’re doing this for Huayou Entertainment and for yourselves. Don’t make it sound so nice. ” Tang Kewei snorted. ” I’ll do as I say anyway. You want me to slander Brother Chang ‘an? No way! ”

Tang Kewei said coldly, ” Tang Kewei, you have to remember that you are also a member of Invincible Youth. The one who is hurt the most by doing this is Invincible Youth. Although Zhao Changan is your brother, you are not related by blood. You are not considered siblings at all. Do you really want to ruin your youthful and undefeated career for a greedy Zhao Changan? This is not something an adult should do. Besides, you’ll be violating the contract by doing this. Can you afford the penalty?”

Tang Kewei smiled. ” Why? You can’t convince us to repay kindness with ingratitude, and you’re threatening us? This is an old trick. Do you think I’ll be afraid? At most, I’ll just quit Undefeated Youth and fall out with Huayou Entertainment completely like Brother Changan. What’s the big deal? ”

At this point, Tang Kewei stared at Fang Zhenzhen and said word by word,”So from today onwards, I, Tang Kewei, will withdraw from Undefeated Youth and also withdraw from Huayou Entertainment. I will never associate with you and do such despicable and shameless things.”

“You ... You ... How dare you ...” Fang Zhenzhen widened her eyes and looked at Tang Kewei.”Do you know how much you will have to pay for breaching your contract? Your contract will expire in a year. If you quit Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment at this time, you will have to pay at least 20 million yuan as compensation for breaching your contract. That is all your income for the past few years. In the future, you will also be suppressed by Huayou Entertainment. It will be difficult for you to move in the entertainment industry. You won’t even have the chance to appear on various programs. Are you sure you want to make such an unwise choice? For an unscrupulous composer who has been exploiting you all these years?"

"Fang Zhenzhen, you know very well who is the one who is squeezing us. You also know why Brother Chang 'an's contract is so harsh, so don't say such things. It's too heartless." Tang Kewei said mockingly, "Isn't it just 20 million? At most, I'll just pay it all in. Without Brother Chang 'an, I won't even be able to earn 10,000 yuan, let alone 20 million yuan. Take this as repayment and tuition fees. In the future, I will have nothing to do with Huayou Entertainment."

After saying that, Tang Kewei left without looking back, not giving Fang Zhenzhen a chance to turn black into white.

Looking at Tang Kewei's departing figure, Fang Zhenzhen was furious. "Tang Kewei, your Weibo account, Youhua account, Penguin Music account... It's all in the hands of Huayou Entertainment. Even if you want to speak up for Zhao Changan, it's impossible. Don't even think about twisting the truth."

Although he said that, there was no aura at all. Hearing it made people feel guilty.

"I'm sorry, I can't stay in this kind of company anymore."

From Fang Zhenzhen's actions, anyone who was slightly smarter would be able to tell that it was Fang Zhenzhen and Huayou Entertainment who were really distorting the truth, not Zhu Wuyang.

Therefore, after some consideration, the young and undefeated Big Sister Lee Sooyeon also chose to repay kindness instead of biting the hand that fed her and listen to Huayou Entertainment's request.

"I wouldn't do that either." Seeing that Lee Xiuyan had made her choice, the sixth brother, Yang Xinyue, quickly followed. The two of them left Mansion Number Seven together. They would rather compensate for the breach of contract than leave Huayou Entertainment.

Seeing their eldest, sixth, and seventh brother leave one after another, the four girls looked at each other and moved their feet.

"Are you leaving too?" However, Fang Zhenzhen immediately looked over. "You've worked so hard for three years to earn 20 to 30 million yuan and have the fame and status you have today. Are you going to leave Huayou Entertainment for an outsider who can't help you anymore?"

The other four girls fell silent and stopped in their tracks.

Fang Zhenzhen heaved a sigh of relief and continued, “” All these years, you know very well how much Zhao Changan has taken from your songs. Neither Invincible Youth nor Huayou Entertainment owe him anything. Now, he’s treating you like this just to get more of your songs. It’s obviously a little too much, so what we’re doing is reasonable, and it’s mainly for your own good. ”

” Everyone knows that Zhao Changan is on the decline. Even if we leave him, we still have more songwriters, and they are all first-class in the industry. I guarantee that your future career will not be too bad. Therefore, staying at Huayou Entertainment is the best way. Don’t learn from Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue. ”

After some persuasion, the other four girls, Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, Ju Jing ‘er, and Bai He, all chose to stay in Huayou Entertainment. Even though they knew that Huayou Entertainment was in the wrong, it didn’t matter.

Every man for himself. They couldn’t possibly ruin their own stardom for Zhao Chang ‘an, who was at his wit’s end.

Even though they had spent a night together, Zhao Chang ‘an had many one-night-couples. He was not their boyfriend at all. They had only made a deal before, so it was better not to remember this favor.

To be honest, Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, Ju Jing ‘er, and Bai He had already heard a lot of negative news about Zhao Changan from many people in the company before this. They were even dissatisfied with Zhu Wuyang under the intentional instigation of Fang Zhenzhen and some higher-ups. They felt that it was because Zhu Wuyang asked for too much of a share that they had to take on more commercial performances and endorsements to earn money from these places. All of them were exhausted.

Although the new contract was drafted by Fang Zhenzhen and some of Huayou Entertainment’s higher-ups, it also had the intention of Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, and some other girls. After all, the new contract was also very beneficial to them.

However, no one had expected this to happen. Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, and the others were also panicking.

Chapter 617: Heaven-Defying Reversal (1)

After leaving Villa Number Seven, Tang Kewei contacted Zhu Wuhaio immediately and told him about Fang Zhenzhen and Huayou Entertainment’s conspiracy, telling him to be careful.

Zhu Wuwan also knew that because of him, Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue had already broken off relations with Huayou Entertainment and had retired from Undeclared Youth. Tang Kewei even apologized to him because of this.

After all, if it weren't for Tang Kewei's undefeated youth a few years ago, Zhu Wuwan might not have had any cooperation with Huayou Entertainment at that time, and naturally, there wouldn't be today's disaster.

However, Zhu Wuwan didn't take it to heart. She smiled and invited the three girls out for dinner. While they were eating, Huayou Entertainment quickly held a press conference to announce the breakup between Mr. Yongning and Undeclared Youth.

At the press conference, the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment publicly slandered Zhu Wuwan for being greedy and double the contract's share without permission, squeezing Huayou Entertainment and Undeclared Youth out of the company, leaving them with no profit at all.

In order to win the trust of the media and the public, Huayou Entertainment even took out the first song sales contract that they had signed with Zhu Wuyang. It was a song sales contract where the sister and sister stood up for each other. They accused Zhu Wuyang of taking advantage of others and asking for the most lucrative contract in the music industry when they had just started working together.

In addition, Huayou Entertainment also slandered Zhu Wanhao for using a new song to coerce Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue to leave Huayou Entertainment, causing the division of the Undeclared Youth Group. The severity of the crime was simply too numerous to be recorded, causing a huge uproar.

In just half an hour, the news of Mr. Yong Ning's greed and the division of Undeclared Youth had reached the top of the trending searches on all major platforms. Mr. Yong Ning, who was Zhu Wuwan's alias, was naturally attacked and boycotted by the entire Internet, especially those fans of Undeclared Youth. They all hated Zhu Wuwan and blamed him for the crime of Undeclared Youth's division.

Because the Weibo account, Youhua account, and Penguin Music account were all managed by the company, Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue could not speak through these accounts with many fans. After thinking about it, they decisively applied for a new account to speak.

In order to prove that it was their own account, the three girls recorded a video to reveal the truth of the matter, which caused another stir in the matter.

Unfortunately, the three girls were weak. Although they spoke up on various platforms, they were quickly suppressed by Huayou Entertainment. Some were restricted, some were blocked, and some even had their accounts banned, so their influence was minimal.

The three girls were so angry that they cried. Then, they tried to contact the reporters and media, wanting to tell the truth, but no reporters or media dared to come to their door.

Not only that, but the court also quickly sent a subpoena, accusing the three girls of breaching the contract and demanding that they compensate far more than the actual penalty. Many of the charges were groundless.

Huayou Entertainment fully demonstrated the strength of the top overlord of the entertainment industry to the three girls. In a short period of time, they blocked all the channels for the three girls to speak and caused the three of them to fall into the whirlpool of lawsuits.

As a result, the party that was originally in the right seemed to have become the unreasonable party. Huayou Entertainment used its tyrannical strength to forcefully reverse the black and white.

Even the four sisters who were still in Huayou Entertainment appeared on various programs one after another, complaining about Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue's various overbearing actions. Huayou Entertainment obviously not only wanted to beat down Zhu Wuwan's alias, Mr. Yongning, but also the three girls who betrayed Huayou Entertainment.

Acting like a big shot, being silly, greedy, narrow-minded, short-sighted...All kinds of infamy were also placed on Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue, making the three girls become street rats like Zhu Wuyang, and they were attacked by the public and the media.

Some ordinary people who were deceived even shouted the slogan of letting the four people die in society. A small number of radical people even began to search for the four people, preparing to take revenge on them in real life.

This matter became more and more intense. Zhu Wuyang and the three girls were completely at a disadvantage, as if they had lost all their strength to resist.

In just half a month, Mr. Yongning and the three girls had become greedy, stupid, narrow-minded, and selfish ... It had been condemned by the entire Internet, and it seemed to have died in society.

Huayou Entertainment, Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, and the others, who should have been condemned, became victims and heroes who fought against evil forces. Their popularity and influence soared further, and even Huayou Entertainment's stock price rose a little.

Huayou Entertainment had obviously turned a bad thing into a good thing through effective and ruthless means. Not only did it not suffer any blow, but it also took advantage of the situation to rise a little.

But at this moment, Zhang Hanyun spoke up. She used Weibo, Youhua, and Penguin Music...One after another, they announced a new contract provided by Mr. Yong Ning, which was the contract signed between Mr. Yong Ning and Huayou Entertainment for the last song in Xia dialect.

In this contract, not only did Mr. Yongning's share not increase, but it was directly cut in half, causing a public uproar.

However, Huayou Entertainment was clearly prepared for this. They immediately held a press conference, saying that Zhang Hanyun had been deceived and that the contract was fake. Then, they took out a contract with a 60% share.

This contract also had Mr. Yongning's signature. Of course, it was not the original owner's name, but Mr. Yongning's name. This name also had legal effect, but it required a series of complicated procedures.

It was obvious that Huayou Entertainment had once again turned black into white and once again gained the upper hand. Zhang Hanyun's popularity had also plummeted because of this.

However, before Huayou Entertainment could be proud of themselves, more than a hundred celebrities, led by Zhang Hanyun, suddenly spoke up. This time, they did not send a contract, but a video.

This video was the one where Fang Zhenzhen asked Zhu Wuyang to sign a new 20% contract. At the same time, the video also explained why Zhu Wuyang signed the original contract with Huayou Entertainment.

As a result, the public opinion was in an uproar again. Huayou Entertainment was also dumbfounded. They didn't expect Zhu Wuyang to secretly record such a video.

Just as Huayou Entertainment was thinking hard about how to solve this matter, another video was released. The content of this video was that half a month ago, in the conference room on the top floor of Huayou Entertainment, the senior executives of Huayou Entertainment, led by Ma Hongyi, discussed how to frame Zhu Wuyang.

The truth was revealed. From the beginning to the end, it was not that Mr. Yong Ning was greedy, but that Huayou Entertainment went back on its word. Seeing that Mr. Yong Ning was starting to go downhill, they wanted to force him to lower his contract benefits.

Moreover, the reason why there was a contract with Unfulfilled Love was also because of Huayou Entertainment. However, Mr. Yongning repaid evil with good. Not only did he not argue with them, but he also continued to write songs for Undefeated Youth.

Chapter 618: Rebirth from the Ashes (1)

The people who really repaid kindness with ingratitude were not Mr. Yong Ning, Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, Yang Xinyue, and the others, but the wealthy and powerful Huayou Entertainment!

In the face of ironclad evidence, not to mention Huayou Entertainment, even the number one financial group in China could not deny it.

Moreover, a technician quickly said that there were no traces of forgery in these two videos, which meant that these two videos were real.

Faced with this result, all the onlookers in China were stunned.

Dumbfounded, dumbstruck, dumbfounded...

They suddenly realized that they had been led by the nose by Huayou Entertainment like fools. They had become the knives and guns in Huayou Entertainment's hands, ruthlessly stabbing at the innocent Mr. Yongning, Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, Yang Xinyue, and the others.

He hated Mr. Yongning and the others so much before, but he felt so guilty at this moment!

The fame and influence of Mr. Yong Ning, Tang Kewei, and the others, which had fallen to the bottom, began to soar at a terrifying speed. In just a few hours, the entire internet was filled with voices apologizing to the four of them.

At the same time, Mr. Yong Ning's accounts on all platforms, including Tang Kewei, Lee Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue's new accounts, which had been verified with videos, immediately welcomed waves of fans.

The relevant platforms also verified these accounts and gave various recommendations to make up for their previous mistakes.

In just one day, Mr. Yongning's fans on the Internet had soared from 10 million to 50 million, Tang Kewei's new fans had soared from 10,000 to 30 million, Lee Xiuyan's new fans had soared from a few thousand to 28 million, and Yang Xinyue's new fans had also soared from a few thousand to 26 million.

And this number was still growing. Correspondingly, the popularity of Mr. Yong Ning and the three girls began to soar. There was no need to mention Mr. Yong Ning, who was still the strongest composer in China.

Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue had gone from negative celebrities to S-list celebrities. Their fame and influence had not only returned to their previous levels, but they were also several times more powerful than before.

Perhaps it was out of guilt, but countless people and fans wanted to put the three girls on the altar and think of all ways to support them.

In contrast, Huayou Entertainment's stock price had plummeted. In just a few days, Huayou Entertainment's market value was less than half of its original value. Some shareholders were already prepared to jump off the building in pain.

As for Ma Hongyi, Fang Zhenzhen, and the others, who were the instigators of all this, they were relieved of all their duties at the first moment to apologize to the public.

Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, Ju Jing 'er, and Bai He also fell from the altar. They had scolded Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue for going overboard, but now the fans and the public had returned the favor for the three girls ten times over.

Green tea b * tch, shameless, repay kindness with ingratitude, insatiable greed...Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, Ju Jing 'er, and Bai He were drowned by all kinds of insults. Then, someone threw stones and bricks into the tide, trying to make them lose their chance to turn the tide.

Especially those fans who had never lost their youth. When they thought of how pretentious the four b * tches were, they wanted to vomit on their faces. They were all disgusted.

The Invincible Youth group, which had just announced their reorganization, collapsed overnight. The Invincible Youth group, which was the top group in Xia country yesterday, had become a street rat today. They were not even comparable to those third-rate groups.

At the same time, Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue announced the establishment of the Yongning Princess Group, which had the same name as Mr. Yongning, to express their gratitude to Mr. Yongning.

Moreover, this combination name was also a title that belonged to the royal princess in ancient China. Any royal princess who could have this title was a person with noble character, outstanding talent, and made the culture of China famous.

Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue were named after Princess Yongning, which showed their pursuit and ambition. Most importantly, they knew how to repay kindness.

On the first day of the group's establishment, Princess Yongning's Weibo account had a surge of 50 million fans!

Just like that, Princess Yong Ning stepped on the corpse of her undefeated youth and became the top girl group in Xia country in a single step. They were also the top singing group. They had completely inherited the fans of her undefeated youth and had even reached a higher level.

A S-list combination!

She was the true destined daughter!

A series of good names were crowned on Princess Yongning's head. The three girls were like phoenixes reborn from the ashes, shining on the entire entertainment industry in Xia country in a short period of time.

At this moment, Zhu Wuwan added fuel to the fire. She took back all the songs that were authorized to Undefeated Youth and authorized them to Princess Yongning.

In other words, from now on, Invincible Youth could no longer sing the nine songs that Zhu Wuwan had written for them. Only Princess Yongning could sing.

Of course, Zhu Wuyang would have to pay a lot of compensation for breaching the contract. A rough calculation would be no less than 100 million. However, Zhu Wuyang had already earned hundreds of millions from these songs. This 100 million was nothing at all.

Even if it was just to vent his anger, Zhu Wuyang would still do so.

The moment they found out about this, the conference room on the top floor of Huayou Entertainment exploded.

"Has Zhao Changan gone mad? Doesn't he know that he's going to lose a lot of money by doing this? Moreover, Invincible Youth's songs won't be able to bring him any more income in the future. Moreover, he's going to be removed from the internet. Is he really that ruthless? He wants us to lose both sides."

"Looks like Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, and the others were right. This Zhao Changan isn't the kind of person who cares about money. In order to attack us, he didn't hesitate to do something that would cause both sides to suffer. He's really amazing. If he didn't have these songs, I'm afraid that Undefeated Youth would be finished, even if he wasn't."

” Sue Zhao Chang ‘an and Princess Yong Ning immediately. Ask them to compensate us for our losses and the penalty for breaching the contract. I don’t believe that they won’t feel sorry for us after losing a few hundred million yuan. ”

“Chairman Ma, if I remember correctly, according to the contract we signed with Zhao Changan, even if we win the lawsuit, the money Zhao Changan needs to pay us is far less than the money he takes from us. At most, he won’t be able to get a share of the income from the songs sung by Invincible Youth in the future.”

” Why did you sign such a contract with him? Did you not think that Zhao Changan would break off relations with Huayou Entertainment one day? What are you higher-ups doing? ”

“This ... Who would have thought that Zhao Changan would be so ruthless? He would rather both sides suffer and lose so much money. He would even compensate so much money to take away all the copyrights. That’s why we didn’t think about this at all.”

Chapter 619: Xiao He Loses (1)

Because in the previous contract, Zhu Wuyang had stood from the perspective of a savior, and he had been repeatedly begged by Huayou Entertainment to give him the song, so many of the contracts were decided by Zhu Wuyang.

The punishment for violating the contract was relatively light. Zhu Wuyang even owned all the copyrights to the nine songs.

He was willing to let Undefeated Youth sing these songs. Undefeated Youth could sing them, but he was not willing to let Undefeated Youth sing these songs.

At most, he would have to pay some compensation for breaching the contract. This figure was completely within Zhu Wuyang’s acceptable range.

Now that Zhu Wuyang had activated the corresponding terms, Huayou Entertainment could not withstand it at all.

Updated by NovG○.co

Of course, Huayou Entertainment could also force them to sing these songs, but they would have to pay more compensation. To put it bluntly, Huayou Entertainment’s Undefeated Youth would only need to sing these nine songs in the future. Not only would all the income they earned be given to Zhu Wuyang, but they would also have to compensate Zhu Wuyang with a sum of money.

At that time, not only would they not be able to earn money from singing these songs, but they would also lose a lot of money. As long as the people from Huayou Entertainment were not stupid, they would not make such a choice.

Because it wasn't just a lose-lose situation, it was Huayou Entertainment who was injured the entire time.

Facing such a contract, Huayou Entertainment was also dumbfounded. They could only watch helplessly as the nine songs belonging to Undefeated Youth were all taken back and became Princess Yongning's songs.

The popularity of Undefeated Youth was inherited by Princess Yong Ning. By the way, the Princess Yong Ning group had joined the studio established by Mr. Yong Ning. The entire group was under Mr. Yong Ning.

The top girl group that Huayou Entertainment had painstakingly planned for about ten years had become Zhu Wuyan's money tree just like that.

Undefeated Youth had brought huge profits to Huayou Entertainment previously and greatly boosted its stock price. However, with the collapse of Undefeated Youth, not only did the stock price drop, but it also fell even more.

The end result was that not only did Huayou Entertainment not make any money from Invincible Youth, but they also lost half of the company. Moreover, Huayou Entertainment's stock price continued to fall, so fast that the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment wanted to cry.

Faced with such a result, Huayou Entertainment naturally wanted to take revenge on Zhu Wuyang, Tang Kewei, Lee Xiuyan, Yang Xinyue, and the others immediately. They wanted them to compensate.

However, Zhu Wuwan had also pulled in the country's top lawyers to accompany Huayou Entertainment in the lawsuit. The final result would definitely be that Zhu Wuwan and the others would lose, but before they lost, they could drag this lawsuit out for three to five years.

After three to five years, who knew what Huayou Entertainment would become?

Even if they had to compensate, Zhu Wuyang and the others would not pay up immediately. They had to make Huayou Entertainment suffer. You were heartless first, so don't blame me for being unjust later.

Huayou Entertainment was indeed disgusted, but now they could not even protect themselves. They were doing everything they could to save their reputation and stock price. They even wanted to protect the Undefeated Youth Group a little.

After all, in the past few years, Invincible Youth had earned too much money for Huayou Entertainment. As the leading group in the country, the annual profit that Invincible Youth brought to Huayou Entertainment was comparable to that of a few superstars.

How could Huayou Entertainment bear to give up such a powerful money-making tool?

However, what Huayou Entertainment did not expect was that Undefeated Youth, who had lost several of his signature songs, no longer had much value in the eyes of the outside world. No one was willing to give Undefeated Youth a chance to work.

It was only then that Huayou Entertainment and the young and undefeated girls realized that the songs they had sung in the past few years, the songs they had sung on shows, and the songs they had sung when they had taken on endorsements...They were all songs that Zhu Wuwan had composed for them.

As for the songs that Huayou Entertainment had asked others to write for Invincible Youth, none of them became popular. They were all driven by the other eight songs to have a certain amount of sales.

To put it bluntly, without the eight songs composed by Zhu Wuyang, Undefeated Youth was nothing.

These eight songs were like the backbone of Undefeated Youth. It was also the most dazzling achievement of Undefeated Youth. It almost occupied all of Undefeated Youth's achievements.

Without these eight songs, Undefeated Youth basically had little value. It was not even comparable to some third-rate groups.

It turned out that the companies outside knew better than they did. The moment they lost eight songs, they realized that their value had plummeted.

At this moment, Princess Yong Ning released a new song. This new song was called Xia Country.

This song was the first attempt by Princess Yongning to sing a Chinese song. Not only was it particularly interesting and pleasant to listen to, but it also incorporated the most popular tongue twister in the Chinese world into the hip-hop style and sang it in a RAP style.

The most difficult part was the tongue twisters. Princess Yongning still designed the chorus performance, giving the music a new feeling that was different from before.

The lyrics also expressed his love for the culture of his motherland. It could be said to be a very proper song, and the quality was amazing.

Once the Chinese language was released, it immediately set off an unprecedented wave. In just half an hour, the number of downloads on the entire Internet exceeded one million.

An hour later...The number of downloads in Chinese broke through three million!

Two hours later...The number of downloads in Chinese broke through five million!

Five hours later...The number of downloads in the Chinese language had exceeded 10 million, making it the fastest classic in history to exceed 10 million!

Twelve hours later...The number of downloads in Chinese broke through 20 million, once again setting a record for breaking the 20 million mark!

A day later, the number of downloads of the Chinese language had reached 30 million, becoming the fastest three-star classic to break 30 million in history. It caused a sensation in the entire entertainment industry and the entire country.

With the help of this Chinese song, Princess Yong Ning suppressed all the Heavenly Kings and Queens and became the most popular celebrity in the country.

Princess Yong Ning's influence was astonishing. It was almost comparable to the influence of the two Heavenly Queens. Her status, status, and popularity ... All of them soared once again.

From then on, the entertainment industry would only remember Princess Yongning. Her undefeated youth had become a thing of the past.

Even if he didn't deliberately suppress her, facing Princess Yong Ning, who was at the height of her power, Invincible Youth was indirectly greatly affected. His popularity and status plummeted, and he fell out of the third-rate rankings in one breath.

The more popular Princess Yong Ning was, the more miserable Undefeated Youth was. Previously, Undefeated Youth had stepped on the corpses of Princess Yong Ning and the other two to climb up. Now, he was stepped on by Princess Yong Ning to climb up several levels.

Chapter 620: New Overlord of Entertainment (1)

A few years ago, Zhu Wuyang held the hands of Undefeated Youth and brought them out of the abyss. He also helped them reach the peak of the domestic group.

A few years later, it was Zhu Wuwan who hammered Undefeated Youth from the peak to the bottom. Although he hadn't fallen into the abyss, he wasn't far away.

The four girls from Huayou Entertainment and Undefeated Youth were too pretentious!

Looking at Xiaguo Hua's heaven-defying results, the remaining four members of Huayou Entertainment and Undefeated Youth were so heartbroken that they could hardly breathe. If they had not broken off their relationship with Zhu Wuwan, wouldn't this song be theirs?

However, he was reluctant to part with the 20% cut, and it was only for downloads, ringtone, and other aspects. It did not include the most profitable parts such as commercial performances and endorsements.

Updated by NovG○.co

So what if Zhu Wuyang really took the 20%? They could still make a huge profit.

A moment of insatiable greed had led to such a disaster. Moreover, to put it bluntly, even if all the shares were given to Zhu Wuyang, with the popularity and influence that Zhu Wuyang had brought to Undefeated Youth, wouldn't it also greatly increase Huayou Entertainment's stock price?

Not only did Huayou Entertainment not lose money, but it also made a fortune!

Compared to the income brought by the increase in stock prices, even the income of more than one billion earned by Undefeated Youth was just a piece of cake, let alone the share for Zhu Wuwan.

However, it was precisely for this little bit of profit that most of the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment chose to break off relations with Zhu Wuwan. It was simply unbelievable that they were so short-sighted.

It was one thing to be short-sighted, but for his own benefit, he chose to repay kindness with ingratitude. He wanted to step on the corpses of Zhu Wuyang and the other three girls and climb to another peak.

In the end, he ended up harming himself instead of harming others. Not only did he fail to step on Zhu Wuyang and the three girls, but he also became a stepping stone for them. He became the joke of the entire entertainment industry.

The cause and effect of the matter was very clear. It could be seen from the two videos alone, so Huayou Entertainment had become recognized as the most short-sighted company.

Moreover, many of the enemies that Huayou Entertainment had offended over the years took the opportunity to hit them while they were down. These people included celebrities, music companies, and film companies ... There were even many famous people from all walks of life.

Everyone fell when the wall was pushed down, not to mention what Huayou Entertainment had done before. Now, they had suffered a backlash and beat Huayou Entertainment to a pulp. Its stock price was falling every day.

At its peak, Huayou Entertainment's total market value was 100 billion Xia Yuan, but in less than ten days, Huayou Entertainment's market value was only 30 billion Xia Yuan, a total of 70 billion Xia Yuan.

Before Invincible Youth became popular, the total market value of Huayou Entertainment was 60 billion Xia Yuan. Invincible Youth could be said to have single-handedly boosted Huayou Entertainment's market value by about 20 billion. The other 20 billion was the growth brought by other celebrities.

However, with the demise of Invincible Youth and the collapse of Huayou Entertainment's reputation, its market value fell several times in one breath.

At the same time, some celebrities were worried that they would be implicated by the broken ship of Huayou Entertainment. Or rather, Huayou Entertainment had not been so good to its celebrities in the past few years. This could be seen from Undefeated Youth.

In order to earn more money, Huayou Entertainment had Undefeated Youth desperately accept commercial performances and endorsements. Every year, Undefeated Youth members were hospitalized due to fatigue.

It was fine if they were so ruthless, but they even pushed the blame to Zhu Wuyang, saying that Zhu Wuyang had taken too much of the other aspects 'shares, and the company had no choice but to let them take on more commercial performances and endorsements in order to earn back their costs.

Such stupid words should not have been believed, but Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, Bai He, and Ju Jing 'er, these idiots, believed it and even treated the people who exploited them as their own parents, biting back at Zhu Wuwan.

Now that things had happened, they finally realized how stupid they were.

When Zhu Wanhao wrote songs for them, she had indeed taken about 40% of the profits, but that was what Huayou Entertainment had asked for.

Moreover, being able to help them in that kind of situation was clearly a great favor to them. Otherwise, with Zhu Wuyang's strength, she could easily support other girl groups in minutes. Why would she support them?

There were so many beautiful girl groups in the entertainment industry, but Undefeated Youth was not the top one back then. On the contrary, they failed one after another. To the outside world, they were worthless.

At that time, they were clearly the ones who benefited from Zhu Wuyan's ability to sleep with them. In the end, they even felt that Zhu Wuyan was greedy and wanted both money and people.

Now, Zhu Wuyang didn't want anything, but what about them?

Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, Ju Jing 'er, and Bai He all regretted their actions. They started to contact Zhu Wuyang in private, but they found that Zhu Wuyang had already blocked them. So, they begged Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue, hoping to return to Zhu Wuyang's arms and ask Zhu Wuyang to forgive them once.

Lee Xiuyan was soft-hearted and was the first to help them pass the message. Zhu Wuyang rejected her without hesitation, so she temporarily gave up.

But then, Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, Ju Jing 'er, and Bai He asked Tang Kewei, Li Xiuyan, and Yang Xinyue to kneel down and beg them. They also promised that they would wholeheartedly be Zhu Wuyan's people and do whatever he said.

After all, they had been together for a few years, and the three girls still couldn't hold it in. They pleaded with Zhu Wanhao again.

Seeing this scene, Zhu Wuwan sneered and told them to leave Huayou Entertainment. After paying the penalty for breach of contract, he would compensate the remaining money to the other three girls and expose all the evil deeds of Huayou Entertainment. Only then would he give them a chance.

Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, and the others hesitated for a while. When they were sure that Undefeated Youth was finished and Huayou Entertainment was also finished, they finally agreed to Zhu Wuyang's request.

However, at this time, Zhu Wuwan no longer needed them. She chased them away without saying anything. From then on, the undefeated youth became the symbol of the entertainment industry and sank along with Huayou Entertainment.

In the face of Zhu Wuyang's and many other entertainment companies 'all-round suppression, coupled with Zhu Wuyang's black hand, Huayou Entertainment only lasted for more than half a year before it was finished.

On top of Huayou Entertainment's corpse, a company called Yong An Entertainment was established. It basically inherited all of Huayou Entertainment's valuable businesses and connections.

After Yong 'an Entertainment was established, the former executives of Huayou Entertainment were shocked to find out that the company they sold to was actually Yong' an Entertainment, and the behind-the-scenes boss of Yong 'an Entertainment was Mr. Yong Ning.

At the same time, Li Jin 'an became the general manager of Yong' an Entertainment and recruited all the capable people in Huayou Entertainment. As for those who were not capable, they were naturally abandoned.

The high-quality celebrities who used to belong to Huayou Entertainment also signed with Yong 'an Entertainment. In just a few months, Yong' an Entertainment's market value soared to 60 billion.

After that, Mr. Yong Ning's studio was merged into Yong 'an Entertainment, which naturally meant that the Princess Yong Ning duo had entered Yong' an Entertainment. Yong 'an Entertainment's market value had once again increased by 30 billion, reaching 90 billion. It looked like it was about to catch up to Huayou Entertainment's peak.

When Brother Chang 'an also announced that he would join Yong' an Entertainment, the market value of Yong 'an Entertainment officially broke through 100 billion. It surpassed the peak of Huayou Entertainment and became one of the most powerful overlords in the entertainment industry.

The essence of Huayou Entertainment had been perfectly inherited by Yongan Entertainment, and it had gone one step further!

Chapter 621: All Enemies Are Beheaded (1)

Whether it was the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment or the many companies and individuals in the entertainment industry who were waiting to take advantage of her, none of them had expected Zhu Wuyang to have such a trick up her sleeve.

A small plan had allowed several shareholders of Huayou Entertainment to sell the entire company to Zhu Wuyang at an extremely low price. Moreover, even they themselves did not know that they had sold the company to Zhu Wuyang.

It wasn't until Zhu Wuan's alias, Mr. Yongning, announced the establishment of Yong 'an Entertainment on the basis of Huayou Entertainment and that he had more than 90% of Yong' an Entertainment's shares that the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment and the people in the entertainment industry found out what had happened.

With Zhu Wuyang's intelligence and ability, this was just a daily operation!

After all, he had lived for so many years and experienced so many ups and downs. It was easy for him to do this.

Even Tang Kewei, Tang Kexin, and the others did not expect that Zhu Wuyang would actually do such a big thing silently.

The ex-executives of Huayou Entertainment were in an uproar, the defeated Undeclared Youth Group was in an uproar, Princess Yongning was in an uproar, and the entertainment industry was in an uproar ... Even the entire country was in an uproar.

Just like that, Zhu Wanhao rose to the top and became one of the most powerful overlords in Xia country's entertainment industry. After all, in the huge entertainment industry, there were only a handful of entertainment companies with a market value of more than 100 billion.

After that, Zhu Wuwan made reasonable adjustments to Yong 'an Entertainment, absorbing the essence of many worlds and investing in some entertainment industries that would become popular in the future.

Just like that, Yong 'an Entertainment's development was on the fast track. Zhu Wuwan didn't have to worry about anything. He could continue to be busy with his own matters.

As for the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment, especially those who had opposed Zhu Wuwan, they were basically finished. A few of them had jumped off the building, including the former music department director, Hu Zhenhua.

Although Ma Hongyi didn't jump off the building, he was still poor. His life was worse than death, from simple to extravagant, and from extravagant to simple.

Fang Zhenzhen, Ma Hongyi's vanguard, became the target of public criticism. She was completely driven out of the entertainment industry and owed a huge debt. She didn't know if she could pay it off in her lifetime.

Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, Bai He, and Ju Jing 'er had a slightly better ending. Although they had lost their youth, they had earned a lot of money in the past few years, enough for them to squander for many years.

However, because they were unwilling to decline just like that, they were deceived by a fake entertainment company. One by one, they lost all their money. In order to live, they were tricked by a company in the Dwarf Nation and actually went to the Dwarf Nation to become an actress.

With the help of their previous fame in Xia country, the four women became famous overnight and became famous third-class celebrities in the East Continent. Many people in Xia country sighed.

One wrong step led to more mistakes, not to mention Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, and the others.

In the end, it was Fang Jie, Jia Xiaolu, and the others who were not upright. Their character was problematic. If not for this, there would not be such consequences.

When they felt that Zhu Wuyang had shared too much of their profits, they were already destined to have this day. It was clearly Zhu Wuyang who had pulled them out of the abyss, but in the end, they felt that Zhu Wuyang was too greedy.

If it weren't for Zhu Wuwan's help back then, how could they have had a future? The so-called number one female heavenly group of Xia Yu was nothing.

Just based on this point alone, they shouldn't have been dissatisfied with Zhu Wuan. Moreover, Zhu Wuan was not only the person who pulled them out of the abyss, but also single-handedly pushed them to the top of the country.

As long as one was smart or had a good character, they would not have the idea of burning bridges after crossing the river.

Moreover, Huayou Entertainment was also extremely stupid. Facing a songwriter who had always brought benefits and glory to Invincible Youth and Huayou Entertainment, not only did they not use a better contract to bind the other party, but they also reduced the other party's share. Such a mysterious operation was really shocking.

After many entertainment companies found out about the inside story, they were also dumbfounded. They didn't know what the brains of the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment were doing. Even though Mr. Yong Ning wrote fewer and fewer songs, he didn't lose a single song, Undeclared Youth. They actually looked down on Mr. Yong Ning and asked for a one-sided reduction in the contract.

Not only that, even if he wanted to lower the contract, he didn't use any euphemistic methods. He was so tough from the start. He even sent a manager over and directly threw out a contract that reduced his share by half.

This could no longer be described as excessive. This was simply stepping on someone else's face to the ground. As a result, Mr. Yongning's ruthless revenge was really deserved.

The shareholders of Huayou Entertainment, who had not jumped off the building yet, regretted their decision. If they had known this would happen, they would not have done it no matter what.

Perhaps some people felt wronged and thought that they weren't involved in this matter, but their silence at that time was actually conniving. If any of Huayou Entertainment's shareholders stood on Zhu Wuyang's side, Zhu Wuyang would give them a chance to escape in advance.

For example, Li Jinan had apologized to Zhu Wuyang as soon as the incident happened. He had also made an effort to hope that the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment would change their minds.

After failing to stop him, he also informed Zhu Wuwan to let him prepare in advance. He even managed to take down Minister Hanma in Zhu Wuwan's counterattack.

If it weren't for Li Jinan's cooperation, Zhu Wuyang wouldn't have been able to get Huayou Entertainment at such a cheap price. Zhu Wuyang only used a little over 10 billion to get the entire Huayou Entertainment. After some integration, the market value soared to 100 billion, which was a full ten times the profit.

It was precisely because of this that Zhu Wuyang was willing to promote Li Jinan and recruit the most talented senior executive of Huayou Entertainment to manage Yongan Entertainment for him. He also gave him some shares and completely tied Li Jinan down.

Since then, Huayou Entertainment and Undefeated Youth had become a thing of the past. Yongan Entertainment and Princess Yongning had risen to glory and become the new overlords of the entertainment industry in Xia country. At this time, Tang Kexin told Zhu Wuyang that the new house in her hometown had been built.

Zhao Chang'an's hometown was the small village where the original owner's parents lived. It was located outside the N line of the city, but it was not far from the city, only about a hundred miles away.

From more than two years ago, Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei had been preparing for the new house of the Host's parents. It was finally completed today and they could move in.

After learning of this news, the Yongning Princess duo immediately pushed down all their jobs and followed Zhu Wuwan and Tang Kexin to Dianzhang Village to take a look at this new house.

Chapter 622: When Are You Getting Married (1)

The new house in his hometown was a garden-style house in Jiangnan. It occupied thousands of square meters, with pavilions and waterside pavilions, swaying bamboo forests, and a view every step...It cost more than ten million yuan.

The reason why she built such a house was mainly because the original owner's mother was from Jiangnan. After marrying into Shanghai, she missed the scenery of her hometown.

In addition, the original owner's father also liked the scenery in Jiangnan, so Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei found professionals. Coupled with their understanding of the original owner's parents, they built such a house that suited the original owner's parents' taste.

In order to make the original owner's parents like her, the two sisters went to the original owner's mother's hometown dozens of times. The care and concern for the original owner's mother far exceeded the original owner's and Zhu Wuyang's.

After more than two years, they had finally completed the construction of the best mansion in Dianzhang Village. The cost was enough to buy a small villa in the city.

The group of people walked on the green brick road of the new house. The girls were all extremely excited.

"That pavilion is so beautiful. This is the first time I've seen such a beautiful Jiangnan-style waterside pavilion. I hope I can live here forever."

"Sister Kexin is too amazing. She actually built such a good house. Let's come and play often in the future, okay?"

"This place is much better than living in the Demon City. It's spacious, the air is good, and the pace is slow...I wonder when we can retire and live here. When the time comes, we can build a few houses like this near Dianzhang Village and live with Brother Chang 'an and Sister Kexin."

The original owner's parents knew this house like the back of their hands and were not with them. At this moment, they were cooking for them in their new house.

By the time they finished exploring the thousands of square meters of houses, it was already noon. The group of people went to the restaurant to eat.

Looking at the beautiful girls, especially when they saw Tang Kewei, the original owner's mother, Wang Zhen, and father, Zhao Zheng, smiled and hurriedly scooped food for the girls.

The girls naturally couldn't afford it and quickly helped to prepare. Soon, the family was eating together.

As they ate, Wang Zhen suddenly looked at Zhu Wuwan. "'Chang An, when are you and Weiwei getting married? You're almost thirty, and Weiwei isn't young anymore. Isn't it time to talk about marriage?"

"This..." Zhu Wuwan was stunned. Then, she looked at Wang Zhen and Zhao Zheng's expectant eyes. Thinking of the original owner's wish, she was about to answer when Tang Kewei already said, "Uncle, Auntie, our group has just been established not long ago. We're still in the early stages, so we can't talk about marriage for the time being. Please forgive us, Uncle and Auntie."

Wang Zhen and Zhao Zheng were stunned. They immediately sighed and said, "That's true. After such a big incident just now, although things have stabilized for the time being, we can't relax. Working hard is the main thing."

Wang Zhen and Zhao Zheng didn't know that Zhu Wuan was a playboy in the entertainment industry. All they knew was that Tang Kexin was matchmaking Zhu Wuan and Tang Kewei, and neither of them had any intention of opposing it.

Once, when they were having dinner with Tang Kexin's parents, Wang Zhen and Zhao Zheng had also tested the attitude of Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei's parents. They were very supportive of this, so in their eyes, Tang Kewei was already their daughter-in-law.

Although it was a little strange for the second son to marry the eldest son's sister-in-law, on the other hand, it was also a good story.

However, Tang Kewei clearly still had some misgivings. After all, she had been used to seeing Zhu Wuyang going in and out with countless female celebrities in the past few years. The most beautiful female celebrities in the entire entertainment industry had basically been ruined by Zhu Wuyang.

Under such circumstances, it was already good enough that Tang Kewei didn't hate Zhu Wanhao. She couldn't immediately accept him and marry him.

However, something happened that made Tang Kewei's disgust disappear very quickly.

That day, the Yong An Princess duo left Dianzhang Village. After all, the Yong An Princess duo was currently very popular and had a lot of things to do. Even though Zhu Wuyang was their boss, there were some things that she couldn't make decisions for them.

Everyone was ambitious, and the girls were the same. They had been very busy during this period of time for the sake of Princess Yong An's development.

Although he was busy, he was still much more relaxed than when he was at Huayou Entertainment. At least he didn't have to be used as a money-making tool and run all kinds of commercial performances and jobs every day.

Moreover, most of the money earned by the girls had gone into their own pockets. Zhu Wuyang only took a small portion, which was much more generous than the contract with Huayou Entertainment.

Oh right, there was also the money that needed to be compensated for the breach of contract. Because Huayou Entertainment was finished before the lawsuit was over, this matter was left unsettled. There was no compensation at all. I wonder what the higher-ups of Huayou Entertainment who were still alive thought.

Zhu Wuan and Tang Kexin stayed in Dianzhang Village for a few more days. When they were almost done preparing some things in the Demon City, Zhu Wuan brought Tang Kexin back.

Tang Kexin was no longer working and was focused on taking care of Zhu Wuyang and her daughter, Zhao Huanhuan. Hence, she had a lot of free time. At the same time, she also had time to accompany the original owner's parents so that they wouldn't be so lonely.

"An, aren't we going back to Zhongman Tea Garden? Where are you going?" After arriving at Shanghai, Tang Kexin, who was sitting in the front passenger seat, asked in puzzlement as she looked in the direction Zhu Wuan was heading.

"There's still something I need to take care of," Zhu Wuwan said with a smile. "We'll go to Zhongman Tea Garden after we're done."

"Oh." Tang Kexin nodded and had no objections.

After driving for more than half an hour, the mountain luxury car arrived at a three-story building more than ten miles away from the Zhongman Tea Garden.

This three-story building was decorated with carved beams and painted pillars. It was located between layers of flowers and trees, and it was indescribably beautiful and exquisite.

Cloud Embroidery Tower!

It was a building from a hundred years ago, and it was also a commercial building. It was the kind that allowed trading, and it belonged to an extremely famous clothing company in the Demon City.

Most importantly, Tang Kexin liked this classical pavilion very much. In the past, her biggest dream was to be able to work here, learn fashion design and embroidery techniques, and become a top fashion designer.

Unfortunately, as the design headquarters of one of the top fashion companies in Xia country, the recruitment of people in the Embroidered Cloud Restaurant was very strict. With Tang Kexin's qualifications, she was not qualified to enter. This was also one of the things that Tang Kexin regretted.

Looking at the exquisite pavilion that appeared in her dreams many times, Tang Kexin said in surprise, "An, why did you bring me here? Are you designing clothes here?"

"No." Zhu Wuwan shook her head and held Tang Kexin's hand as they walked towards the Embroidered Cloud Brothel. "You'll know when you come in with me."

Chapter 623: The Host Is So Dismal (1)

Looking at Zhu Wuhao's serious expression, Tang Kexin was also a little curious. A certain thought inexplicably surfaced in her heart. She secretly thought to herself that with Zhu Wuhao's current status, it shouldn't be difficult for her to join the Embroidered Cloud Brothel. Could it be...

Thinking of this, Tang Kexin also became excited. She grabbed Zhu Wuyan's hand tightly and walked into the Embroidered Cloud Brothel.

However, what surprised Tang Kexin was that after entering the Embroidered Cloud Brothel, she was greeted by a dozen fashion designers and embroidery experts who she admired and admired. They bowed to her in unison. "Hello, President Tang. Welcome to the Embroidered Cloud Brothel!"

"Ah..." Tang Kexin's mouth was wide open as she looked at everything in front of her in disbelief. Finally, her bright eyes fell on Zhu Wuwan. "An, this...What's going on?"

Zhu Wuwan smiled. "As you can see, the Embroidered Cloud Building is now yours. The fashion designers and garment masters here are also yours. In the future, you can learn and improve here to your heart's content. You can fulfill your dreams and realize the value of life."

Tang Kexin felt as if she had been struck by lightning. She was stunned and couldn't move. Her beautiful eyes stared at Zhu Wuyang without blinking, and gradually began to blur.

Zhu Wuyang let the group of fashion designers and garment masters leave. She held Tang Kexin's hand and walked towards her boss' office on the third floor. As they walked, she explained to her, "I bought the Cloud Embroidered Restaurant from the Yun Brocade Company. I even brought some of the fashion designers and garment masters that you like. I didn't interfere with anything else."

"After all, although you have the ability, I don't want you to be so tired. Just run this Embroidered Cloud Restaurant well. If the company gets bigger, there will be more things to do. Moreover, your dream doesn't seem to be to establish a top fashion company in the country. You just want to design popular clothes. I wonder if Sister-in-law is satisfied?"

As soon as he finished speaking, he heard the office door close. Then, Tang Kexin wrapped her arms around his neck and pressed her pink cherry lips against his. "Thank you, An. Thank you for everything you've done for me. Thank you for helping me realize my dream...Thank you, thank you..."

Her voice gradually became softer and all of it fell into Zhu Wuwan's mouth. Zhu Wuwan was stunned at first, but then she hugged Tang Kexin's soft body tightly and kissed and ate fiercely. Her hands slowly began to move.

Just as her clothes were about to be stripped off, Tang Kexin realized something. "No, no, I'm your sister-in-law. We can't do this."

"But we're not related by blood. Besides, can't sister-in-law be with brother-in-law? It's not like she's cheating." Zhu Wuwan moved even faster.

"Even so, you're still Weiwei's boyfriend." Tang Kexin tried to hold back.

"She never admitted it, and neither did I. It was just you two who forced her together." As Zhu Wuyang spoke, she already had Tang Kexin.

In this new office of Tang Kexin's, which was also where her dream was, her sister-in-law and brother-in-law were together.

When they were in love, Zhu Wuyang told Tang Kexin that he had long realized that Tang Kexin had fallen in love with him unknowingly. That was why he slowly cut off contact with all the female celebrities and stopped doing those ridiculous things. Then, he started to treat Tang Kexin well because he had fallen in love with Tang Kexin too.

Tang Kexin was so touched that she felt like crying. She became more enthusiastic and proactive, reaching the peak of happiness.

At the same time, Zhu Wuwan speechlessly discovered that the part of the original owner's wish related to sister-in-law had completely dissipated and fused into Zhu Wuwan's soul, leaving nothing behind.

After fusing with these souls, Zhu Wuwan realized that deep in the original owner's soul, she actually had some thoughts about her gentle and virtuous sister-in-law, Tang Kexin.

After Zhao Changping left, the Host had been so mean to Tang Kexin because her thoughts about her sister-in-law had become stronger. In order to get rid of this thought, she had been so mean to Tang Kexin. She wanted to prove that she had no other thoughts about her sister-in-law.

Otherwise, if he had such thoughts about his sister-in-law right after his brother died, wouldn't he be too scumbag? In fact, even he himself didn't know and couldn't control himself if he really had such thoughts.

Now that Zhu Wuan had Tang Kexin, the original owner's hidden thoughts suddenly disappeared, allowing Zhu Wuan to completely fuse with her soul.

In other words, he was satisfied. He finally had it!

This Host was really sad!

Fortunately, Zhu Wuwan realized that Tang Kexin had fallen in love with him. In order to let Tang Kexin live happily in the future, she decisively possessed him. She actually accidentally discovered this matter and fused with nearly 20% of the original owner's soul at the same time. It was a perfect fusion. After returning to her main body, it would definitely give her main body's soul a chance to soar.

The scenery of Wushan Mountain was beautiful. The two of them traveled together for several hours until the night was hazy. Only then did they leave Wushan Mountain and return to the Zhongman Tea Garden.

After Zhu Wuwan fell asleep, Tang Kexin went to the corner of the courtyard and called Tang Kewei. "'Weiwei, I'm sorry, I ... I slept with Xiao An!"

What Tang Kexin didn't expect was that Tang Kewei would kill her way to Zhongman Tea Garden that night and quietly enter their room. While Tang Kexin was sleeping soundly after a tiring day, she also slept with Zhu Wuyang.

Some things might not be cared about usually, but when she realized that she was about to lose them completely, Tang Kewei realized how precious they were.

Therefore, she disregarded her status as Zhao Changan's sister-in-law and made a shocking decision. She did not want to be Zhao Changan's sister-in-law. She wanted to be his woman...

Time was like water, slowly flowing and healing many things. For example, the rift between Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei, and the initial disbelief of Father and Mother Tang. At the same time, Wang Zhen and Zhao Zheng could also calmly face it.

After careful consideration, the two of them suddenly felt that although this was a little unfair to Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei, and it also deeply hurt the in-laws, it was obviously a good thing for their family.

They had been together for so many years, and they didn't want to see such a good daughter-in-law like Tang Kexin remarry into another family. In that case, why not marry Zhao Changan?

Presumably, Zhao Changping's spirit in heaven should, maybe, probably...It was acceptable!

Anyway, it was better than letting a man outside take advantage of her!

It was just that the two sisters had become his daughters-in-law, and he really did not know what to say.

However, as time passed, many things became acceptable. After all, it had been ten years since Zhu Wuwan transmigrated.

In the past few years, Zhu Wuwan had not only managed to coordinate the relationship between Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei, but also the relationship between her father-in-law and mother-in-law. At the same time, she had also achieved great success in other aspects.

Chapter 624: Entertainment Myth (1)

Yong 'an Entertainment had already developed into the top entertainment group in Xia country. It was the kind that was second to none. Even in the huge East Continent, it was also the number one entertainment group.

Even in the entire world, Yong 'an Group was one of the top three entertainment groups. It spanned across music, film, literature, and many other fields. Its various branches were all over the world.

In last year's global corporate rankings, Yong An Group was ranked 99th and successfully broke into the top 100. As the major shareholder of Yong An Group, Mr. Yong Ning was ranked first on the world's richest list.

It was just that until today, with the help of the powerful forces of Yong An Group, almost no one knew that Mr. Yong Ning was Chang 'an's brother, Zhao Changan, and also Chang' an's 90,000 Li!

Although Brother Changan had never stepped into the entertainment industry, he had released more than 3,000 songs in ten years.

Even though these songs were basically all niche songs, with so many niche songs gathered together, they brought about three billion fans to Brother Chang 'an.

In other words, in the entire small world of the blue planet, at least one out of every three people on the blue planet was a fan of Brother Chang 'an.

With such a terrifying amount of fans, although Brother Chang 'an had never joined the entertainment industry and had always been in the live broadcast industry, he had become the strongest Heavenly King in Xia country and also the world's number one Heavenly King.

Brother Chang 'an's fans on the Youhua platform had already exceeded two billion. The population of Xia country was only slightly over 1.5 billion, but Brother Chang' an's Youhua fans had already exceeded the total population of Xia country.

The number of fans on Weibo had also reached one billion. On foreign Weibo, Brother Chang 'an's fans had also exceeded one billion. He was not only the number one person on Weibo, but also the number one person on Weibo.

Even if all the presidents of the world's most powerful and ugly countries were added up, their number of fans would not be as many as Brother Chang 'an alone.

Brother Chang An had released more than 3,000 songs, and the highest number of downloads for a single had exceeded 10 billion, exceeding the total population of the world. In other words, many people had downloaded more than once, or downloaded a song from multiple online platforms.

This record was also the first in Xia Country, the first in the East Continent, and the first in the world. It was said that no one could surpass it since ancient times.

As for the total downloads of more than three thousand songs, it had already reached more than one trillion. The download revenue of these songs alone had already exceeded one trillion Xia Yuan.

Not to mention that in addition to the download income, Brother Chang 'an also had income from Live streaming tipping, gifts, and so on. However, what made many people depressed was that Brother Chang' an never participated in any variety shows, galas, concerts, etc. except for live broadcasts.

Brother Chang 'an never attended even the most famous Spring Festival Gala in Xia country. In the past ten years, Brother Chang' an had been invited to the Spring Festival Gala ten times, but he had never attended even once.

There was also the Ugly Country's Super Bowl. They had also invited Brother Chang 'an nine times, but Brother Chang' an had still not participated.

It was said that some companies had offered Brother Chang 'an a total of 30 million yuan per performance. He only needed to sing a song and he could earn 30 million Xia Yuan in a few minutes. In the end, Brother Chang' an didn't even pay attention to it.

The most independent super king, the most money-rich superstar, the unprecedented mythical streamer...Many people said that if Brother Chang 'an spent about two hours of his daily live broadcast on commercial performances, he could at least earn a fortune from a Fortune 500 company.

However, Brother Changan would rather spend two hours a day singing to his fans than go to commercial performances to earn money. The income from Live streaming tipping was only a little bit, and it was much, much worse than commercial performances.

However, it was precisely because of this that Brother Chang 'an was loved by fans all over the world. Many foreign fans even downloaded the Youhua APP to watch Brother Chang' an's live broadcast.

By the way, at this moment, more than 50% of the shares of Youhua APP belonged to Brother Chang 'an. Its market value had also reached 10 trillion Xia Yuan under the pull of Brother Chang' an, and it was also one of the world's top 500 companies.

In his live streaming career, Brother Chang 'an had created a terrifying record of more than one billion real-time online users. Although it could not be said that there was no one else in the future, it was at least unprecedented.

Before Brother Changan, the highest number of viewers for a show in the world was only 70 to 80 million. Brother Changan had increased the entire record by more than ten times.

Although Brother Changan was not in the entertainment industry, his legends were everywhere in the entertainment industry. Brother Changan wandered around the entertainment industry and created an unprecedented legend in the entertainment industry.

As for Zhu Wuyan's other identity, Chang 'an Ninety Thousand Miles, through the Romance of the Dragon and Snake, the Celestial Slaying, and then the Condor Shooting Trilogy, he became the most powerful founder of the new Wuxia. Even the Wuxia world recognized him as the founder of Wuxia.

This was because none of the martial arts novels from 90,000 miles away in Chang 'an had sold more than 100,000 copies. The best martial arts novel writers were only second-tier or third-tier writers, not even first-tier writers.

However, after Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles appeared, martial arts novels rose step by step and became a trending genre novel. It also brought martial arts novels into the palace of literature.

The Condor Shooting Trilogy was not inferior to 99% of orthodox literary novels in terms of storytelling and artistry. In fact, it even surpassed them in many aspects.

The Great Swordsman had opened a new chapter in martial arts novels, allowing martial arts novels to enter the realm. It was not inferior to historical literature, which was full of heavy feelings, and redefined the height of martial arts.

After that, Nine Thousand Miles in Chang 'an wrote the Zen book "Eight Dragons and Eight Books", the highly political "Smiling Proud Jianghu", and the interesting "Deer Cauldron"... All of this had made Chang 'an's reputation rise.

The most shocking thing was that after creating a new chapter of Wuxia, Chang 'an Ninety Thousand Miles wrote the Four Famous Hunters, Little Li Flying Dagger, the Legend of the White-Haired Witch, the Shadow of the Chance, the Seven Swords Descending the Tianshan Mountain, the Peerless Twin Prides, and the Legend of the Tang Twin Dragons.

Through these novels, Chang 'an Ninety Thousand Miles integrated drama, reasoning, poetry, and other elements into martial arts, melting Chinese and foreign classics into one furnace, creating a new era of martial arts novels, allowing martial arts novels to take a step forward and reach one peak after another.

After Chang 'an, there would be no more Wuxia!

There were even people who shouted such a slogan, saying that Chang 'an's Ninety Thousand Miles had already written martial arts novels to the peak of the peak, and that the later generations would probably never be able to surpass it.

This was truly unprecedented and was recognized by most martial arts fans. One could imagine how famous Chang 'an was now.

Although he was a web novelist, in just ten years, Chang 'an Ninety-Thousand Miles had relied on the so-called " web novel " to become one of the top literary halls in China!

Chapter 625: The Strongest Transcriptionist (1)

A few years ago, the Xia Country Literature Network specially opened a page to evaluate the Nine Thousand Li of Chang 'an.

In the most popular newspaper in China, the Chinese Literature Network commented that Chang 'an Ninety-Thousand Miles was a successful literary giant and a successful martial arts novelist.

Even the official Xia Country Literature Network had defined Chang 'an Ninety-Thousand Miles as a master of popular literature. Since he was called a master of popular literature, it was necessary to debate his novels on the concept of literary elegance and vulgar.

Chang 'an was like a black hole, displaying the full potential of Wuxia. Anyone who approached it would disappear into nothingness. There was no way to compare.

What Chang 'an Ninety Thousand Miles had done had greatly improved the ideology, culture, and artistic orientation of martial arts novels, which contained a strong cultural atmosphere, rich historical knowledge, and a profound national spirit.

With his artistic practice, he made the martial arts novel enter the palace of literature for the first time. It was a quiet literary revolution.

In addition, even the three most powerful figures in Xia Country had evaluated Chang 'an as a famous writer and an outstanding literary master. They said that he had adhered to and promoted the culture of Xia Country all his life. He had written about the feelings of the country with a pen like rafters, and his achievements were extraordinary.

He also said that he was a loyal son, chivalrous and righteous, and his literary talent and demeanor were admired by the world.

No martial arts novel writer in the Chinese literary world could receive such high praise. Even in the traditional literary world, no writer could receive such shocking praise, let alone in the martial arts novel world.

However, what everyone did not know was that the greatest literary achievement of Chang 'an was not in the dozens of books that had been published, but in the more than 1,000 books that had not been published.

These 1,000 books include the little prince Zhao Changan(Little Prince), Huanhuan's bedtime story-narrated by Zhao Changan(One Thousand and One Nights + Andersen's Fairy Tales + Grimm's Fairy Tales + Alice's Adventures in Wonderland + Pinocchio's Adventures + The Wizard of Oz + Magic Brush Ma Liang), Zhao Changan's Religious Caprice(Bible + Qur 'an), Zhao Chang' an's Drifting Story (The Crusader), The Troubles of Young Zhao Chang 'an (The Troubles of Young Witt), Zhao Chang' an's Encyclopedia (Encyclopedia), Zhao Chang' an's Look at the Celestial Bodies (The Theory of Celestial Bodies), Zhao Chang' an and La Traviata (La Traviata), Harry Potter and Chang 'an (The Complete Collection of Harry Potter), Zhao Chang' an's Quoted Words (The Complete Collection of Quoted Words of Famous People in the World, Including The Analects of Confucius)...

In order to make her identity as influential as possible, Zhu Wuwan shamelessly linked these famous books from Earth to her. His name had to be in the names to prove that this book was written by him.

What was even more insane was that Zhu Wuyang even came up with Zhao Changan's poem (Tang poetry), Zhao Changan's poem (Song poetry), and Zhao Changan's calligraphy (the most famous calligraphy in ancient China)...Of course, there were also many modern poems and paintings from Earth. Even Van Gogh from abroad did not miss out on them. He had created a collection of Zhao Changan's paintings, including Van Gogh's starry sky and sunflowers, Qi Baishi's prawns, Da Vinci's Mona Lisa and the Last Supper, Michelangelo's Creation of Adam ...

If someone from Earth transmigrated to the small world on the blue planet and saw all of this, who knew what they would think? To be able to f * cking plagiarize to such an extent, Zhu Wuyang was considered unprecedented.

Of course, Zhu Wuyan's literary works were only one of the main points of Zhu Wuyan's copying. After all, literary works had an amazing vitality and could affect the world for many years.

In so many years, Zhu Wuyang's works would always be able to shake the history and society of the small world on the blue planet, bringing him an endless source of the world.

While writing literary works, Zhu Wuyang did not forget to write songs, scripts, and variety shows... These things included, but were not limited to, the 1,000 most popular songs on Earth. Of course, they were now called the complete collection of Zhao Changan's songs.

There were also many scripts, such as Zhao Changan's Avatar, Zhao Changan's Titanic, Zhao Changan's Wolf Warrior, Zhao Changan's Hello Lee Huanying, Zhao Changan's Pirates of the Caribbean, Zhao Changan's Fast and Furious ...

All the popular scripts and TV series on Earth were basically brought over by Zhu Wuwan. There was no need to mention variety shows. Zhao Changan's I Am a Singer, Zhao Changan's China Idol, Zhao Changan's Run Brothers, Zhao Changan's Infinite Challenge...

In short, all kinds of scripts, literary works, variety shows, songs, poems, paintings ... In total, there were more than 100,000 copies.

However, these good things were currently stored by Zhu Wuwan. Otherwise, if they were released, the impact would be too great. He could be forced to leave the small world on the blue planet in minutes.

Zhu Wuyang had only fused with slightly more than 50% of the original owner's soul. There was still nearly 50% of the soul that had not been fused. He did not want to leave the small world on the blue planet so soon.

Therefore, in order to hide her sharpness and make her influence less shocking, Zhu Wuwan had no choice but to hide these good things first and release them when he left.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyang would not release it directly. Instead, he would release a portion every year after he left, and it would last for about a hundred years.

This was naturally done to maximize the benefits, so as to avoid releasing too much at once and not being able to exert the full influence of various works.

When the time came, Zhu Wuyang would distribute the more influential works that could be created every year for the next hundred years in batches according to the social situation and her own speculation.

Even if Zhu Wuwan had left, he still wanted the world to remember him firmly and remember him for many years to pry open the endless source of the world for him.

Furthermore, Zhu Wuyan would write more works in the future. There were still more than 30 years left. If nothing unexpected happened, Zhu Wuyan should be able to write all the most popular works on Earth.

At that time, Zhu Wuyang would not believe that there was anyone in this small world on the Blue Planet who could surpass him in this aspect. Zhu Wuyang was destined to become the strongest poet, the strongest lyricist, the strongest novelist, and the strongest writer on the Blue Planet...

Evergreen, eternal!

This was what Zhu Wanwan wanted to do. As long as humans existed, they would go and see his works and bring him the endless source of the world.

No one on the blue planet would have thought that Chang 'an, who was already known as one of the leaders of the literary world, would only release a very small part of his works, and it was not even a powerful masterpiece. Even so, it had already caused such a huge uproar.

If Zhu Wuyang released more and better works in the future, one could imagine what kind of sensation it would cause!

Chapter 626: A Third Party (1)

Of course, while copying all kinds of works, Zhu Wuyang didn't completely copy them. Instead, he made a second adaptation based on his own understanding.

Therefore, not only were the 100,000 copies of works created by Zhu Wanhao extremely suitable for this small world, but the quality was also two to three times higher than the original version, or even more.

There were also some who had reached the peak that even Zhu Wuyang could not improve on. Of course, these were only a small portion. Most of them could still be improved by Zhu Wuyang.

In order to be able to create these works well, Zhu Wuyan spent a few more Breakthrough Stones to improve her drawing ability, script writing ability, poetry ability, calligraphy ability ... All of them had been raised to the maximum level of level 10, which was the limit that humans on the blue planet could reach.

The identity of Chang 'an's 90,000 Miles had created tens of billions of wealth with dozens of books. At the same time, he had also become one of the shareholders of the world's largest publishing company.

Apart from that, Zhu Wuyang had also invested in a number of companies around the world in order to use the power of these companies to help him spread his many works after his death.

In the future, Zhu Wuyang would take control of more companies and individuals to prepare for the distribution of more works.

In the short span of ten years, even though he had paid extra attention, Zhu Wuyang had still earned more than 70 World Origin points. There were still more than 30 years left, and it was a little difficult to endure, so Zhu Wuyang had already made a decision.

In the eyes of many ancient giants and Body Integration Pillars in Dongyuan Continent, Zhu Wuwan continued to squander half of the 70 points of World Origin to increase her strength.

At this moment, Zhu Wanhao's true body's cultivation realm had already "reasonably" risen to the pinnacle of the Mid Void Refinement Realm, only half a step away from the Late Void Refinement Realm.

If nothing unexpected happened, Zhu Wuyang's true body's strength would soon be able to smoothly advance to the Late Void Refinement Realm, and she would be able to dominate the entire Void Refinement Realm.

However, what everyone did not know was that Zhu Wuyang used the breakthrough stone to increase his strength. The world's origin was used by him to increase his talent.

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang's talent had already successfully reached the second-grade immortal spirit root realm. The number of breakthrough stones needed to break through in the future had once again been reduced by half.

However, on the surface, Zhu Wuyan's talent and aptitude were still in the realm of high-grade Heavenly Martial Spiritual Roots. She was still one realm away from the pinnacle of Heavenly Martial Spiritual Roots.

Even so, Zhu Wuwan was already the one who had gained the most out of the three thousand Divine Transformation Realm elites. His talent had increased by more than one major realm, and his cultivation foundation had also stabilized. His strength had also broken through one after another, reaching the Intermediate Void Refinement Realm.

In the vast Ancient South Wasteland Cave, there was no other Divine Transformation Realm prodigy who could catch up to Zhu Wanhao's harvest.

This was the total amount of World Origin that Zhu Wuyan had earned so far. The person who had obtained the most World Origin from the 300 worlds in the past hundreds of thousands of years had only obtained about 250 World Origin points. Zhu Wuyan had more than twice that.

Not to mention the ancient titans and the Integration Pillars of the Southern Wasteland, the other ancient titans and the Integration Pillars of the other regions were also dumbfounded.

When would someone be able to break such a record?

Zhu Wanwan's luck was really too good. She could obtain a good starting point in three worlds in a row and earn such a rich world origin.

In the small world on the blue planet, other than Zhu Wuwan, there were about 20 Divine Transformation Realm elites from other regions who were also earning the world's origin.

Zhu Wan'an used the same trick again. He thought of a way to reveal his true identity and attracted more than a dozen Soul Formation elites from other regions. He obtained many immortal cultivation techniques and secret manuals from them and fused them into the immortal cultivation techniques and immortal martial arts he had mastered.

After this fusion, Zhu Wuyan's overall combat strength soared again.

"An, Wei Wei, get up quickly. The food is ready. We're just waiting for you."

One day ten years later, in Villa No. 6 of Zhongman Tea Garden, Tang Kexin, who was wearing a scarf and personally cooking, walked into the big bedroom of the three people and shouted at Zhu Wuyang and Tang Kewei, who were still lying in bed.

"No, I didn't sleep until so late last night. I still want to sleep a little longer." Tang Kewei objected at the first moment and grunted unwillingly.

Tang Kexin said helplessly, "Weiwei, you still have your concert tonight. If you don't get up and rehearse, it'll be late. Besides, you two played for so long last night, and now you can't get up."

"That's because you ran too fast and left me alone to be trampled by Brother Chang'an. Otherwise, if the two of us were together, I would definitely be able to get up early today." "No, you ran away before twelve o'clock last night. You have to make it up to me this morning," said Tang Kewei angrily.

As she spoke, Tang Kewei wanted to pull Tang Kexin under the blanket. Tang Kexin was about to dodge when a pair of big hands reached out from under the blanket and grabbed her. It was Zhu Wuwan's big hands...

The breakfast didn't start until noon. They hurriedly finished their breakfast and lunch and rushed to the Shanghai Stadium.

In ten years, Tang Kewei and Tang Kexin had completely accepted each other. After all, they were biological sisters. No matter how big the damage was, it was easy to heal.

The two sisters even worked together to make Mr. and Mrs. Tang accept this matter. Although they still had a knot in their hearts, they couldn't say anything when they saw their two daughters being happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Tang knew a little about Zhu Wuan's achievements, and they were shocked to the point of horror. They never expected their elder daughter's brother-in-law to be so talented and possess such shocking wealth.

Talent, wealth, beauty, love, power ... Facing such a near-perfect son-in-law, although it was a little awkward for two women to serve the same husband, thinking about today's society, those rich people often had multiple mistresses.

Zhu Wuyang was already relatively clean. Moreover, it was his two daughters who took the initiative to throw themselves into his arms. They would not marry anyone other than Zhu Wuyang.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Tang felt uncomfortable when they thought about it, they gradually accepted it. As time passed, they didn't take it to heart.

Zhu Wuwan bought them villas and luxury cars that they had been longing for for a long time. She treated them well, so Father and Mother Tang slowly let them be.

In order to fulfill the original owner's wish, or rather, she had had enough fun in the past few years, so she was quite devoted to the Tang sisters in the next few years. She did not provoke any other woman and became the perfect boyfriend and fiancé.

Even Zhao Huanhuan, who had already become a young girl, had accepted this matter, let alone someone else.

The family was living quite well. It could be said that it was the ideal life of Zhu Wuwan back on Earth.

Next, Zhu Wuyang was also prepared to make a decision, a decision that would make their family better.

Chapter 627: Watching Chang 'an Increase Its Lifespan (1)

Shanghai Stadium!

It was one of the largest gymnasiums in Xia country and could accommodate up to 100,000 people. The last concert of the Yongning Princess group was held here. The most eye-catching thing was that Brother Chang An, who had never participated in shows or concerts, would also appear to cheer for the Yongning Princess group.

Once the news spread, the entire world was in a commotion. The 100,000 tickets for Princess Yong Ning's last concert were sold out in a minute. Now, even the worst ticket in the scalper market had risen to more than 10,000, a full 100 times increase.

Even though many people often saw Brother Chang 'an on the Internet, they were still willing to spend a lot of money to watch it live at the Shanghai Stadium.

The afternoon rehearsal had just ended, and there were still three hours before the concert began. A large number of spectators flocked to the Shanghai Stadium, waiting for Princess Yongning and Brother Changan to go onstage.

Outside, there were still hundreds of thousands of spectators who had not bought tickets gathered around the Shanghai Stadium. They wanted to see Brother Chang An with their own eyes. Among them, there was no lack of fans from America, Black Continent, Europe, and many other countries. They included more than 99% of the countries in the world.

By the time the concert was about to begin, the number of spectators inside and outside the Shanghai Coliseum had already exceeded a million. If not for the limited space, this number would probably have increased by several times.

The audience who couldn't get to Shanghai Stadium gathered in the surrounding tall buildings or on the streets. Even if they were far away and couldn't hear anything, they had no regrets. They only hoped to get close to their idol.

The total number of people mobilized for the entire concert had already exceeded five million, creating a record in the world. In order to maintain the security around the Shanghai Stadium, tens of thousands of police officers were dispatched.

The attraction of Brother Chang 'an and Princess Yong Ning was beyond everyone's imagination.

" This should be Brother Changan's first public appearance. In the past, he would chat with us in the live broadcast room. This is the first time he has appeared in real life. We have to come. "

"Shanghai Stadium is still too small. It would be great if it could accommodate a million people. That way, I could buy a ticket to go in and watch instead of having to stay a few miles away from Shanghai Stadium."

" I didn't expect that Brother Chang 'an would be invited to Princess Yong Ning's last world tour concert. It's really a big deal. It's said that Brother Chang' an is a relative of one of Princess Yong Ning's members. I don't know if it's true or not. "

" Have you guys heard? Brother Changan might have something important to announce at this concert. Is Brother Changan going to participate in more programs and activities in the future? Or even hold concerts? Just thinking about it makes me so excited. "

Millions of fans were discussing excitedly, waiting for the concert to begin. To thank these fans for coming all the way here, Brother Chang An and Princess Yong Ning decided to set up dozens of big screens outside the Shanghai Stadium to broadcast the concert live.

Under the watchful eyes of the crowd, the three girls from the Yongning Princess duo walked onto the stage.

After all these years of development, Princess Yong Ning had already become the most popular and powerful group in Xia country. There was no one else like her. The identity, status, fame, and influence of each member of the group ... They were comparable to S-list superstars. After they merged, let alone China, no celebrity in the world could compare to them.

The Yongning Princess duo had been at the top of the Ugly Nation's bulletin board for a hundred consecutive weeks. The dozens of English songs they had sung were popular all over the world and had been translated into more than a thousand languages. They were a world-class superstar duo.

The first song of the Yongning Princess group was in Chinese. This was the first new song released after they were formed. It expressed their love for their country. Then, it brought them brilliant popularity. Love is Not Full, Superstar, Yesterday Once More, Hotel California, My Heart Will Go On...

One classic song after another made millions of fans intoxicated. In addition to the fans in the venue, there were more than one billion fans watching the live concert on the Internet. It created a record that belonged to Princess Yongning. Of course, Zhu Wuyang contributed greatly to it.

When the concert was almost halfway through, Zhu Wuyang walked onto the stage amidst the cheers of the crowd. The first song he sang was a Chinese song, Fate. In other words, the three songs that Zhu Wuyang would be singing tonight would be Chinese songs, not English songs that were popular all over the world. It was to express his love for his country and also a way to promote China.

Although music didn't have national boundaries, musicians had national boundaries. Even if she had to leave, Zhu Wuyang would pave the way for herself and her family before that.

Even if there was no agreement in the previous life

In this life, we have all been waiting foolishly

Is it fate to come together in the vast sea of people

Why don't you let bygones be bygones

After Zhu Wuyang's improvements, this song, Fate, had reached a new level. It had the quality and standard to be popular all over the world. Although it was a song from China, it had also been on the bulletin board of the United States. Most of Zhu Wuyang's fans all over the world knew how to sing it.

"This song is dedicated to everyone, especially my fans. Our meeting was fate. Thank you for being with me all these years!"

During the pause, Zhu Wuyang expressed his gratitude to all the fans, which once again triggered a tsunami of applause.

" Brother Chang 'an was already very handsome during the live broadcast. I didn't expect him to be even more handsome in real life. He's ten times more handsome than in the live broadcast. No wonder he's known as the world's number one male god and the world's most handsome man. He's so handsome that he has no friends. This 18,000 yuan ticket is really worth it. "

" In the past, there were people who said that Brother Chang 'an had a problem with his looks and could only disguise himself as the most handsome man in the world through beauty and filter. Now, I realize that the problem lies with those who said that Brother Chang' an had a problem with his looks. Even without the beauty filter, Brother Chang 'an is still the most handsome man in the world. "

" Brother Changan rarely uses a beauty filter in his live broadcasts. He basically appears without makeup. Otherwise, how could he have the title of the world's most handsome? But compared to Brother Changan's looks, I still like Brother Changan's unparalleled singing and dancing skills. It's simply too dazzling. He's indeed the world's number one. "

" I really hope that Brother Changan will be able to attend shows and concerts more often in the future. I promise that I will buy tickets to watch every time. Brother Changan's good looks are really a pleasure to look at. It's even more touching than the most beautiful scenery in the world. If I can see Brother Changan every day, my lifespan will increase by at least 30 years. ”

” I’ve met Brother Chang An. He’s definitely a super handsome man, a peerless male god, and a peerless handsome face...First, I’ll post on my WeChat Moments, then I’ll post a short video, and finally, I’ll post on Weibo. I’ll promote Brother Chang ‘an’s divine face to all my companions who can’t forget him!”

Chapter 628: Goodbye (1)

Because Zhu Wuyang’s identity as Brother Chang ‘an had always been seen through live broadcasts, and he had never participated in programs, variety shows, concerts, or the like. He met everyone through reality, so there were still many people who doubted his true looks.

After all, there were too many people in this era who relied on beauty and filter to make a living. Even though the identity of Brother Chang ‘an had become popular all over the world, there were still several large-scale public opinion crises, saying that Brother Chang’ an was extremely ugly and could only meet everyone through live broadcasts and small videos.

Even though Zhu Wuyang had posted videos without any beauty filter and had done a live broadcast without makeup, it still did not eliminate this suspicion. After all, no one had ever seen him in real life.

Princess Yong ‘an’s concert was the first time that Brother Chang’ an had appeared in public. It was because of this that he was able to cause such a huge sensation and break dozens of world records.

Therefore, before Fated finished singing, all kinds of live videos taken by fans had already spread all over the Internet, causing a huge storm that swept through the world of entertainment.

Many of Brother Changan’s fans were so excited that tears welled up in their eyes. They spread these videos to every corner, telling everyone who doubted Zhu Wuyang’s looks that Brother Changan was really good-looking and that those rumors were slander.

As a result, more and more fans gathered around the Shanghai Stadium, gradually approaching the 10 million mark, and the record kept rising.

When Zhu Wuyang went on stage for the second time and started singing her second song, the applause rang out. The fans in the huge Magic City who had come because of Zhu Wuyang had already exceeded ten million.

Standing alone on this stage

Hearing the applause

My heart is filled with endless emotions

How much youth is gone

How many feelings have changed

If the first song, Fate, was to thank the world for letting Brother Chang 'an meet everyone and his fans, then this song was a song purely to thank the fans. It was also the most touching and grateful song that Zhu Wuyang had created for the fans and the world.

Not long after the song started, all the fans inside and outside the Shanghai Stadium started singing along, and the number of people singing in the duet began to soar.

The starting price was 10,000, and then 20,000...Thirty thousand...100,000...200,000...500,000...

Applause

My heart knows better

Your love will be with me

Applause

My heart knows better

The song converges our love

The voice was like thunder, resounding throughout the entire Magic City. Even many people who were not fans of Brother Chang 'an could not help but sing along with this song.

It was unknown if they had sensed something, but many fans had tears streaming down their faces as they sang. They could not help but raise the heart gesture created by Brother Chang 'an above their heads. It shook gently along with the music. The spectacular scene shocked the entire Magic City.

The drones around them also spread the news throughout China and even the entire world. As a result, more people were shocked and began to sing along with the music.

This was another record. Hundreds of millions of fans sang the same song at the same time, and it was a gesture.

This concert had become Brother Chang 'an's home ground. The fans of Princess Yong' an had also temporarily defected to Brother Chang 'an, even though Brother Chang' an had only sung three songs and this was only the second song.

When the song was finished, there was no sound other than sobbing inside and outside the Shanghai Stadium.

The heart-shaped wave formed by more than ten million fans spread throughout the world, becoming one of the most representative scenes in the world of entertainment.

Zhu Wuwan left once again, and the Yongning Princess duo took the stage. Tonight's last concert only had Yongning Princess and Brother Changan. Brother Changan was also the only guest singer, but his influence was greater than any of the guest singers in the previous 99 concerts.

The third and final song of the concert would be the last song that Zhu Wuyang would perform in public.

There was no other reason than that the influence was too great. If he didn't keep a low profile, Zhu Wuyang would be chased out of the small world on the blue planet in a few years.

Three hours had passed without him realizing it, and the last song soon arrived.

Standing in the center of the stage and looking at the 15 million fans inside and outside the Shanghai Stadium, Zhu Wuyang felt warm in her heart.

When he was on Earth, he had never experienced such a thing. Even in his dreams, Zhu Wuwan had never imagined that he would one day become the strongest Heavenly King in the world.

A long, long time ago, when she occasionally paid attention to the China entertainment industry, Zhu Wuyang had also fantasized about becoming the brightest star on the stage one day, shining like many other celebrities and illuminating the world.

At that time, Zhu Wuwan also knew very well that she had no good voice, no good acting skills, and no talent...In this life, he would not have much interaction with the entertainment industry. It was also difficult for the entertainment industry to accept an ordinary person like him. The only good thing about him was that he had a good figure.

At most, Zhu Wuyang could only be a member of the general public, looking enviously at those colorful figures. Occasionally, if she felt that any celebrity was more to her liking, she would be a fan for a period of time.

Listen to some pleasant songs, watch some movies that you want to watch, follow some popular TV series ... He wanted to make a small contribution to the entertainment industry and at the same time, enrich his life.

Zhu Wanwan had never expected that she would transmigrate one day. Moreover, after transmigrating, she transmigrated again and came to this parallel world that was similar to Earth. She had embarked on a path that was once unreachable.

Ten years of glory, ten years of happiness, ten years of enjoyment...Then it was time to bid farewell to this circle for the time being. As for the possibility of returning in the future, the possibility was not too high.

" This is the last song. Thank you for your company for the past ten years. Life is like a train to death. On the way, there will be people getting on and others getting off. I'm sorry that I may have to leave your life train. As for how long it will take, it should be unlimited. "

"As for the reason, it's not a bad thing, but a good thing. I already have a child, and my parents are old. In the future, I will spend my time with my children, my wife, and my parents...Please forgive me!"

Under the shocked gazes of 16 million fans, Zhu Wuyang began to sing the last song of the night, which was also his last song in public.

This song is...Goodbye!

I'm afraid I won't have a chance

Say goodbye to you

Because I might never see you again

I'm leaving tomorrow

Familiar places and you

To part, my tears will fall

I will remember your face

I will cherish the longing you give me

Chapter 629: A Hundred Billion Petition (1)

A billion people cried together, this year, we will go to Chang 'an today!

No one could accept this sudden news, whether it was the fans inside and outside the Shanghai Coliseum or the fans watching the live broadcast.

Many people thought that there was something wrong with their ears. Brother Chang An was in his prime and was only in his thirties. Why did he suddenly want to leave the entertainment industry indefinitely?

They must have heard wrongly, not Brother Changan.

However, when they heard the familiar and classic goodbye, many people could not help but cry.

As she cried, she sang along with Zhu Wuyang.

To separate

My tears fall

I will remember your face

I will cherish the longing you give me

These days will never be erased from my heart

I can't promise you

Will I ever come back?

Don't look back

Walk on without looking back

..

As they sang, more and more people began to cry. The huge Shanghai Coliseum became a sea of crying. There were also countless people crying in various regions around the world.

Before the song 'Goodbye' had even finished, countless fans had already started to clamor.

“Wuwuwu ... We love you so much. If you leave, how will we live in the future? We won't be able to live.”

” Brother Changan has been with me since elementary school. Now that I've graduated and am looking for a job, what I need most at this time is Brother Changan's company every night. Please don't go, Brother Changan. You are my spiritual pillar. ”

” We've been together for ten years, and we've been watching TV shows every night. From being single to getting married, and from getting married to having two children. Brother Changan, you're the most important partner in my life. What will I do after you leave? ”

” I don't want you to go. Sob, sob, sob. I really miss you. Brother Chang 'an, can you stay for another ten years? No, ten years is too little. Twenty years, thirty years, this lifetime ... ”

” Who knows where Brother Chang 'an's home is? If Brother Chang' an wants to leave, I'll go to Brother Chang 'an's home to be a free nanny. If I can't be a nanny, then I'll find a way to find a job near Brother Chang' an's home. ”

Even Princess Yong Ning's fans couldn't help but cry as they were affected by the atmosphere. They tried to persuade Brother Chang 'an to stay.

It was unknown when it started, but the inside and outside of Shanghai Stadium had become a sea of words.

Please stay, brother!

On the side of the stage, the three members of the Yongning Princess duo didn't expect Zhu Wuwan to announce such a big piece of news tonight. They were also shocked speechless and almost thought they were dreaming.

Tang Kewei's face was already covered in tears. She sobbed and couldn't speak. In her opinion, Brother Chang 'an had obviously left the industry indefinitely because of her and her sister.

Brother Chang 'an's fame was at the peak of the entertainment industry at the moment. His influence spread all over the world. It could be said that he had reached the peak of a celebrity and an idol. How powerful was he?

This was Brother Chang 'an's most glorious time!

But for her and her sister, Brother Chang 'an chose to leave the industry at this time, just to take care of her and her sister, and their upcoming child.

Thinking of Brother Chang 'an's sacrifice, how could Tang Kewei not be in tears?

Tang Kexin, who was watching the live broadcast, also had tears streaming down her face. She was speechless for a long time. Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei's parents, too, saw that Zhu Wuyang had left the entertainment industry indefinitely because of the two sisters, as well as the countless fans who were crying and trying to keep Zhu Wuyang. The little knot that the two of them had for Zhu Wuyang had completely disappeared.

The lights on the stage dimmed at some point, and Zhu Wuyang's figure slowly dimmed as well. Seeing Zhu Wuyang gradually disappear, many fans could not help but cry again, as if they had lost the most important family member in their lives.

It wasn't until Zhu Wuyang's figure could no longer be seen that many fans lowered their heads and lay on their legs, crying loudly. The sad atmosphere infected more and more people, and there were almost no fans who didn't cry inside and outside the Shanghai Stadium.

Unknowingly, it was another record.

However, no one paid attention to this record anymore. Everyone's eyes were focused on Brother Chang 'an's withdrawal from the industry. Various reports flooded every corner of the world.

Xia Country Music Network: " Fate, thank you for letting us meet. Applause, thank you for your ten years of support for Brother Chang 'an. The last song, Goodbye, entrusted Brother Chang' an's reluctance and longing! "

Tengda Music: " Thank you, Brother Chang 'an, for your company for the past ten years. Let's wave goodbye with a smile! "

Xiamin Daily: The famous music giant, Brother Chang An, announced that he would withdraw from the entertainment industry indefinitely. One billion fans cried to retain him!

" Time Magazine: The most powerful music king in history, Brother Chang An, has left the entertainment industry. He may never come back. Let's hug and say goodbye! "

The news of Brother Chang 'an leaving the entertainment industry spread throughout the world in just one day. This news was basically spread wherever there were intelligent life forms.

Countless people found it unbelievable, countless people cried bitterly, and countless people tried to persuade him to stay...There were more than three billion people on the Internet asking Brother Chang 'an to stay.

However, Brother Changan seemed to have disappeared and never appeared again. The Short videos on Youhua's platform had stopped broadcasting, Tengda Music no longer had any new songs, and Brother Changan's live streaming rooms were also closed.

In the beginning, some people were still clamoring that Brother Chang 'an must be using this method of marketing. Maybe he would announce his return in a few months.

However, a month soon passed...Three months passed...Half a year passed...A year passed...Three years passed...

Five years passed...Unknowingly, another ten years had passed.

Brother Chang 'an never appeared again. As a result, the number of people who ridiculed Brother Chang' an for leaving the entertainment industry became fewer and fewer, and the number of people who missed Brother Chang 'an became more and more. The number of applications on the Internet had exceeded 100 billion times, and many people had applied more than once.

However, Brother Changan still disappeared. Only his songs were still spreading in every corner, attracting more and more fans.

Even the Yongning Princess duo, who had a good relationship with Brother Changan, gradually faded out of the entertainment industry. They would only show up occasionally, but every time they appeared, countless media outlets would ask about Brother Changan, hoping that he could return to the entertainment industry.

Even those who had once ridiculed Brother Changan for leaving the entertainment industry were starting to miss him at this moment. They would rather Brother Changan break his promise and return to the entertainment industry.

However, Brother Chang 'an was obviously not such a person. If he retreated, he would really retreat!

Chapter 630: Forty Years Have Gone By (1)

Many people thought that after Zhu Wuyang retired from the entertainment industry, she wasn't as glamorous as before, so her life shouldn't be as good as before. In fact, Zhu Wuyang's life was better.

In a short ten years or so, Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei had given birth to nine children for Zhu Wuwan. Among them, there were four sons and five daughters, and each of them was as fair as jade.

The parents of the Tang family and the Zhao family had already moved to the villa in the Zhongman Tea Garden to take care of their nine children.

The entire Zhongman Tea Garden had been bought by Zhu Wuyang and turned into his private estate. The people living here were his capable subordinates, relatives, and friends.

It was not an exaggeration to say that it was impregnable.

In fact, Zhu Wuyang had not planned to leave a seed here. After all, it was only a small world and he would have to leave this place in a few decades.

However, Tang Kexin, Tang Kewei, and Zhao Chang'an's parents were obviously unwilling. For their happiness and for the soul of the original owner, Zhu Wuyang had no choice but to do so.

It was just a consolation for everyone, lest they couldn't bear it when he left one day.

Zhu Wuwan, who was more traditional on Earth, actually wanted to have more children. Perhaps one day, he could return to the small world on the blue planet and see his descendants.

Moreover, Zhu Wanhao still had to stay in this small world for a few decades. Being able to accompany her children for a few decades could not be considered letting her down.

Although Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei weren't young anymore and it was a little dangerous to give birth, after practicing the Xia Guo Fist that Zhu Wuwan had specially tailored for them, the two sisters' physical fitness had also soared. So had the Tang family's parents and the Zhao family's parents. Their physical fitness had also soared.

Even his nine sons and daughters had been practicing the Xia Martial Arts since they were young. Their physical fitness was top-notch, and they could basically live to 80 or 90 years old without any illness or disaster.

In the past ten years, Zhu Wuyang had brought the Tang sisters to visit tourist attractions all over the world, fulfilling her many years of small wishes. Her days were quite fulfilling and exciting.

During the breaks between their travels, Zhu Wuyang also used the weaker version of the clock poison that she had spent years researching to poison countless evil people.

After a certain number of years, the clock poison would start to take effect and bring the evil people to hell one by one.

Unfortunately, there was no supernatural power in this world. Zhu Wuyang's strength was limited and was still in the range of mortals. Therefore, many heavily guarded villains could not poison him and could not find any opportunities.

Even so, in just ten years, Zhu Wuyang had poisoned tens of thousands of villains. These villains were basically the kind with relatively high status and influence.

When they died, they would definitely be able to bring a lot of World Origin to Zhu Wuyang.

In the following decades, Zhu Wuyang would poison even more evil people. However, for safety reasons, Zhu Wuyang did not have to poison some evil people. He would do it when there was an opportunity, leave it alone when there was no opportunity, and talk about it when there was an opportunity.

Time passed year after year. The family was very happy. The elders were kind and kind, and the children were filial and sensible. Zhu Wuyang's relationship with Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei was getting better and better.

Thirty-two years after Zhu Wuyan transmigrated to this world, Mother Tang, who was already ninety years old, passed away. Half a year later, Father Tang also left. He also lived to be more than ninety years old. It could be said that it was a happy funeral.

Two years later, the 95-year-old Zhao Zheng passed away. A year later, the 94-year-old Wang Zhen also passed away. Naturally, they were both happy and sad.

At this time, his nine children had already grown up. With a tenth-level education like Zhu Wuwan, his nine children were all very outstanding. Whether it was personal ability or character, they were all first-class.

These children were either engaged in business, entertainment, or education ... They had all made a name for themselves in different fields and had their own careers.

Zhu Wuyan also slowly handed over her businesses to her nine children. According to each person's personality and ability, the assets and wealth they obtained were also different.

Unknowingly, Zhu Wuyang, Tang Kexin, and Tang Kewei had also passed the age of sixty. When they reached the age of sixty-seven, there were still four years left before Zhu Wuyang left this small world.

The 100-day deadline was about to arrive, and Zhu Wuwan could not defy the will of the world.

Because they had practiced the Xia Country Fist, even though they were already in their sixties, the three of them still looked quite young. Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei looked like women in their thirties or forties. They were still beautiful and moving, and they had the mature charm of time.

Zhu Wuyang looked to be in her forties. According to the physical fitness of the three of them, it would not be a problem for them to live for a hundred years.

However, it was obvious that Zhu Wuyang wouldn't be able to live that long in the small world on the blue planet. In order to prevent the sudden death from bringing too much of a shock to Tang Kexin, Tang Kewei, and her children, and to give them some time to recover and accept, Zhu Wuyang mobilized her body and used some poison to form something similar to a tumor in her body.

The first snow of the year had fallen. The nine children gathered in Villa No. 6 of the Zhongman Tea Garden on the weekend to accompany their parents for dinner. Each of them brought their wives (husbands) and children. The entire villa was extremely lively.

Zhu Wuan sat at the head of the table, smiling as he watched his children and grandchildren eat and play. He only ate a little occasionally, but his grandchildren did not forget him.

"Dad, have some of Yun Ji's sugar cakes. I specially brought them from Jiangnan. They taste great."

"Grandpa, can we go sing after dinner? I love hearing you sing."

"Dad, you're getting old. Don't travel around anymore. It's easy to get into trouble. It's better to stay at home. If not, we'll build a few tourist attractions in the suburbs for you. We'll shorten the beautiful scenery from all over the world and put them in. We'll build whatever you want to see."

"That's right, that's right. Dad and Mom are already so old, but they still go out to travel all the time. It's too worrying. Why don't we build a few scenic spots ourselves and play there every day?"

"Grandpa, Grandma, I think so too. Why don't you, First Grandma, and Second Grandma stay in Shanghai? That way, we can come and visit you often. I like Grandpa and Grandma the most."

Thanks to their good upbringing, both their children and grandchildren were filial. Basically, as long as Zhu Wuyang, Tang Kexin, and Tang Kewei were at home, they would come back every one or two weeks to accompany their parents for a day or two. Then, they would go to different places to work.

This kind of life and life was simply what Zhu Wuwan had dreamed of back on Earth. Now that it had all come true, it could be said that she had not lived in vain.

Then, even if he left, he would not have any regrets!

Chapter 631: The Most Handsome Last Words (1)

When they were done eating, Zhu Wuyang smiled and looked at everyone. “” I have some bad news for you. I’ve got gallbladder cancer and I only have three years to live. If you have any questions in the next few years, you can ask me. ”

“Crash...”

The plate in Tang Kexin’s hand fell, and the dishes that she was going to pour for her granddaughter spilled all over the table.

Tang Kewei’s eyes widened as she looked at Zhu Wanhao in disbelief.

The group of children also turned pale in shock. They looked at Zhu Wuwan in a daze as if they had been struck by lightning. They could not believe what they had heard.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

Looking at the group of people’s stunned expressions, Zhu Wuwan smiled and said, “” Didn’t I tell you that life is like a train to death? Some people get on and some get off. When someone leaves, no matter how reluctant you are, you should smile and wave goodbye. Your performance now is not very good. ”

“Dad...”

The youngest daughter, Zhao Wenyi, suddenly burst into tears and threw herself into Zhu Wuyang’s arms, unwilling to get up.

Although the other children wanted to laugh, their tears continued to drip down. They surrounded Zhu Wuyang and wiped their tears, no longer looking as all-powerful as before.

Tang Kewei grabbed Zhu Wuyang’s hand in a daze.”Brother Chang An, you’re in such good health. How did you get gallbladder cancer? How is this possible...How is this possible...”

Tang Kexin hugged Zhu Wuyang from behind. “It’s okay. We’ll find the best doctor in the world to treat you. You’ll definitely be cured. You’ll be fine. You’ll never be fine.”

Even though they knew that Zhu Wuyang still had three years to live, the family still couldn’t accept it. This made Zhu Wuyang feel even more fortunate that he had a few years to buffer. Otherwise, if he suddenly left after a few years, Tang Kexin and Tang Kewei would probably find it hard to accept. Who knew what they would do?

Even some of his children would not be able to accept it and might even die with him.

Taking advantage of these few years, Zhu Wuyang could comfort Tang Kexin, Tang Kewei, and her children and let them slowly accept this matter so that they wouldn’t do something irreparable after Zhu Wuyang left.

Updated by NovGo.co

After a full day, the family reluctantly accepted this fact. However, they still accompanied Zhu Wuyang and were unwilling to leave.

Because everyone knew that in the future, the days that Zhu Wuyan would have were getting fewer and fewer. Every day that passed meant that they would have one less day to accompany Zhu Wuyan.

A group of world-class doctors were invited to examine Zhu Wuyang’s body through the best equipment in the world. Unfortunately, the results were the same, that was, there was no hope. She could only last for three years at most.

If nothing unexpected happened, when they were around seventy years old, their husbands, their fathers, their grandfathers...The world’s greatest music giant, literary giant, and charity giant would leave this world and go to a place that they would never be able to reach in their lifetime.

In the days that followed, all the children and grandchildren chose to stay in Shanghai permanently. They either moved their work location here, changed their jobs, or simply quit their jobs to stay with them for a long time. They lived in the Zhongman Tea Garden and could come to accompany Zhu Wuyang every day to enjoy their last days with their father.

Zhu Wuwan didn’t go on any more trips. She stayed in Shanghai every day and occasionally went to the nearby places with her children to play. She didn’t write anything and spent all her time with her family.

Zhu Wanhao knew very well that after this farewell, it would probably be difficult to see her again in this life.

Even if he still had the chance to enter the small world on the blue planet in the future, Tang Kexin, Tang Kewei, and the others should have passed away a long time ago by then.

A day in Dongyuan Continent was equivalent to a year in this place. This meant that as long as Zhu Wuan stayed in Dongyuan Continent for a few months, most of these relatives would pass away.

However, Zhu Wuyan was still young and could live for at least ten thousand years. For the first time in his life, Zhu Wuyan began to regret that the special encounter system could preserve his memories and prevent him from forgetting the memories in the small world.

Although this last small world had the highest starting point, it was also the most hurtful.

Occasionally, when she had free time, Zhu Wuwan would also take care of some matters after her death. For example, with her hacking skills that were more than a hundred years ahead of the world, she would set a release time for all her works so that they could be released at the most suitable time as much as possible. As for the most suitable time, it was also Zhu Wuwan's guess.

Even if it was not the best time to publish it, it should be able to cause a greater impact and bring him more world origin.

Of course, there were also those evil people who had been poisoned by him. They would also die a few years after Zhu Wuyang left. It could also be considered as Zhu Wuyang's contribution to this world. Of course, this was also for himself.

Unknowingly, two and a half years had passed. After these two and a half years of enlightenment, Tang Kexin, Tang Kewei, and their children and grandchildren had slowly accepted the fact that Zhu Wuyang was about to pass away. Even if Zhu Wuyang really passed away, they would be able to persevere and live well in the future.

In order for them to have someone to rely on, Zhu Wuwan revealed some information about his works to them, as well as arrangements for his death. This was to let them be mentally prepared so that after Zhu Wuwan left, they could also use these works well. At the very least, they could do more for Xia country and the world.

Over the past few decades, Zhu Wuyan had created millions of works. Naturally, it was impossible for her to hide everything from her relatives. They also knew the tip of the iceberg, but they had never seen the true face of the iceberg.

Only after Zhu Wuyan died would the entire world be able to personally experience Zhu Wuyan's terror and heaven-defying nature.

Time continued to pass. Even though the children of the Zhao family tried their best to slow down the pace of time and arrange for them to be by Zhu Wuan's side every day, wanting to use this method to spend more time with their father, time still passed quickly.

On a sunny morning, Zhu Wuwan looked at the 100 points of World Origin that were about to fill up. She smiled and gathered all her relatives together.

Looking at the surrounding descendants and loved ones, Zhu Wuyang felt very satisfied. There was no regret in this small world. Even if there was any regret, it was the main body's matter.

He silently sized up each of his relatives. Everyone tried their best to smile. After all, even if they were to wave goodbye, they should be smiling.

Zhu Wanwan smiled. "Actually, the delicacies I know are not just the ones I've made for you. In my last days, I've even left a copy of Zhao Changan's Gourmet Encyclopedia under my pillow. You can follow the things in it and make them. The taste will definitely not disappoint you. Make one for me every year on the anniversary of your death so that I can see your cooking skills."

After he finished speaking, Zhu Wuwan left with a smile. His soul disappeared into the sky and no longer existed.

Chapter 632: Immortality (1)

When they came, they were carefree. When they left, they were carefree. Even when they saw their father pass away, the group of children still had smiles on their faces.

No one expected that Zhu Wuyang's last words before his death would be this. It really made people not know whether to laugh or cry. But thinking about it carefully, to be able to say such words before his death, how wise and unrestrained was this?

The sorrow and sadness that had shrouded everyone's heads seemed to have inexplicably dissipated a lot, but tears still could not help but fall.

Fortunately, his nine children were very capable. Even though they were extremely sad, they still handled everything in an orderly manner. First, they followed Zhu Wuyang's instructions and sent out the video of him bidding farewell to this world, announcing the dream of a generation and leaving forever.

At the same time, he also informed the official departments of various countries, some corporations, and of course, his friends.

Once the news spread, the entire world seemed to fall into silence. Almost no one believed it.

He remembered that the last time news about Brother Chang 'an spread to the world, it was when Brother Chang' an retired from the industry, leaving behind the most elegant back at the peak of his glory.

Then, countless fans waited for decades, but they could not wait for the announcement of Brother Chang 'an's comeback.

When she saw Brother Chang 'an's video again, she saw that although he was already 70 years old, he was still handsome. However, she received such bad news.

And everyone only knew now that the world's strongest king, Chang 'an, was the world's number one songwriter, Mr. Yongning, and also the world-class literary giant, Chang' an Ninety Thousand Miles.

The three of them were originally one, but they used different names. Brother Chang 'an was not only a music giant, but also a literary giant. He would be the leader of many more industries in the future.

This was because there were hundreds of works that were released along with Brother Chang 'an's bad news. They were also works that were very suitable for this era.

These works included the classic music, the classic literature, Zhao Changan's three-body world, the classic script, Zhao Changan's Titanic, the classic painting, Zhao Changan's sunflower, and the classic poetry collection, Zhao Changan's modern poems ...

It turned out that Brother Chang 'an had never slacked off in the decades after he retired from the entertainment industry. He was even stronger and more powerful than before. The things he created were not only music and literature, but also other aspects.

The devastating news and hundreds of classic works entered the world like a bolt from the blue. The impact was comparable to ten nuclear bombs exploding at the same time. It instantly detonated every country in the world, causing a tsunami of impact.

Even Xia Country, the East Continent, and even the other countries around the world were a little overwhelmed by this news. However, it was obvious that Xia Country was the most happy, but also the most heartbroken.

A few hours later, under the stunned gazes of more than a billion people in China, the entire country lowered their flags at half-mast to mourn this unprecedented all-rounder, thanking him for his contributions to the entire country and the entire world in music, literature, painting, film, and television.

Following that, more countries followed Xia Country and lowered their flags at half-mast to mourn Zhu Wuyang, the genius who had shocked the entire world.

Since he was already dead, Zhu Wuyang wasn't worried about causing too much influence. At this moment, it was obvious that the greater the influence, the better.

As a result, many news and deeds related to Zhu Wuyang began to spread around the world, allowing more and more people to know.

Decades of silence did not erase the traces of Zhu Wuyan. On the contrary, in these decades, Zhu Wuyan's previous works became more and more fragrant, and naturally attracted more and more fans.

Now, with the grievous news of Zhu Wuwan's death and the release of many classic works, these long-accumulated emotions suddenly erupted, setting off wave after wave of frenzy, causing countless people to cry.

" It turns out that in the decades after he retired from the entertainment industry, Brother Chang 'an has created so many classic works and donated more than a trillion yuan of wealth. He is the most benevolent person in Xia country and the world. Our idol is too great. "

" There has never been a celebrity like Brother Chang 'an who has given the entire planet music, literature, painting, film, politics, religion...He had brought about such an all-round improvement and transformation, creating unprecedented glory. It could be said that he had single-handedly led the way in literature, music, film, and politics ... In this era, no matter in the past or in the future, there will never be a second person who can do what he did."

" Brother Chang 'an never left, but he always hid behind the scenes and silently contributed to the world. He only told us all of this after he died, leaving the world with a carefree back view. Although I like Brother Changan's works, I like his last words and Zhao Changan's Food Collection more."

" It is said that Brother Chang 'an's funeral will be held in three days. Let's go and see him off. For Brother Chang' an's sake, I have never married. I only hope that after I die, I can scatter my ashes in the same sea area as Brother Chang 'an. That way, I will be satisfied. "

" Brother Chang 'an is an immortal music giant, an immortal literature giant, an immortal painting giant, an immortal film giant, an immortal political giant, an immortal religious giant, and an immortal food giant ... In the thousands of years since ancient times, there has never been a second Brother Chang 'an, and there will never be a second omnipotent giant like him."

Decades of isolation from the outside world still affected Zhu Wuyan's reputation, but with the release of one classic after another, these negative effects were swept away.

What was even more unexpected was that Brother Changan actually gave away all the newly released works for free. In other words, he donated them to the whole society. Anyone could use these works, whether it was singing, publishing, or adapting ... Without any selfishness.

These works could create at least tens of trillions of wealth. Moreover, it was said that this was only the first batch of works released by Zhu Wuyang. More works would be released in succession, becoming the common wealth of all humans in the world.

Zhu Wuyang, or Zhao Changan, who was already on fire, became famous all over the world again. Even though he was already dead, he rose like the sun and illuminated every corner of the world. The dazzling light made countless people cover their eyes, not daring to look directly at the light.

Evergreen, brilliant and glorious!

Some people were already dead, but he was still alive, living in everyone's hearts!

Zhu Wuyang was such a person. He swept across the entire small world on the blue planet, causing unprecedented waves of influence. Naturally, he also stirred up more and more of the world's origin.

Chapter 633: Ancestor of the Transcendents (1)

No one on the Blue Star World, not even Zhu Wuyang's pillow mates and descendants, had expected that in just a few decades, Zhu Wuyang had left behind such a vast wealth for the Blue Star Small World.

Throughout the ages, there had been countless masters and grandmasters, but none of them had ever left behind such a world-shaking wealth in a short lifetime.

Even the saints from a thousand years ago had never made such a comprehensive contribution. They could not even catch up to one percent of Zhu Wuyang's contribution.

Looking at those shocking classic works, whether it was ordinary people or grandmasters in their respective fields, they were all dumbfounded.

To put it bluntly, the wealth that Zhu Wuyang had created in just a few decades was almost comparable to the wealth created by the humans on the blue planet for centuries, or even more.

Of course, this wealth was spiritual wealth, but this spiritual wealth could also be exchanged for material wealth. It was also comparable to the total wealth of humans for many, many years.

Therefore, some people said that Zhu Wuyan had single-handedly created the wealth that all mankind had created over the past three centuries. Moreover, one had to know that this was only the first batch of works that Zhu Wuyan had released.

In the following hundred years, Zhu Wuyang would release millions of works. These works basically included all the spiritual wealth of the humans on Earth. Among them, there were also many spiritual wealth that Zhu Wuyang obtained from the small world of Planet Earth, the small world of the comprehensive martial arts, and even the world of the Dongyuan Continent.

After Zhu Wuyan's improvement, these spiritual treasures became suitable for the small world on the blue planet. It would definitely bring an unprecedented transformation to the small world on the blue planet.

Updated by NøwGø.cø

Faced with the first wave of spiritual frenzy released by Zhu Wuyang, the entire human race fell into an unprecedented revelry. Of course, it was also an unprecedented sorrow.

Basically, all the countries had lowered their flags to half-mast in mourning. Even if some countries were enemies of Xia Country, they could not help but express their condolences and respect for Zhu Wuyang, a giant who transcended race and national boundaries.

At the same time, the first batch of bad guys around the world began to die silently. However, after various advanced equipment on the blue planet detected that these people either had heart problems or brain problems. It was not man-made. They were all due to diseases such as cerebral stroke and heart attack. No one attributed it to poisoning.

The death of these people also made the world a little better, causing many anti-social organizations to have problems or even disappear.

A small number of Zhu Wuyang's fans even attributed this abnormality to the miracle after the death of the saint, saying that it was to celebrate the birth of a new saint on the blue planet. However, not many people recognized it. After all, the blue planet was mainly a world of science, and there were not many people who believed in superstitions.

However, almost all humans acknowledged one thing, and that was...Zhao Changan had become a Saint!

This was the first time in history that a saint had been recognized by all countries in the world. Moreover, he was an all-rounded saint: the saint of literature, the saint of music, the saint of painting, the saint of calligraphy ... It included most industries. Because of Zhu Wuyang's great contribution to the world, the first Sacred Clan in the history of the world was born.

The Zhao Clan!

This thing that usually only existed in novels and television dramas had actually appeared in reality and gained everyone's recognition.

Zhu Wuan had single-handedly turned the ordinary Zhao Family into a holy family and gained the respect of all countries in the world.

In the future, when the descendants of the Zhao family encountered difficulties, they would definitely be able to obtain the help of many countries and forces. No matter what they did, it would be much smoother.

What Zhu Wuan did was not only to earn the world's origin, but also to pave the way for the descendants of this world so that they could live better in the future.

Be it in terms of material wealth or spiritual wealth, Zhu Wuyang had prepared everything for his children and grandchildren here. Even if he left, these relatives and friends would be able to live a smooth life.

However, what Zhu Wuan did not expect was that while he became a monument to the Blue Planet world, the wealth he left behind in this small world actually gave birth to an unprecedented legend.

In the following decades, with the spiritual wealth that Zhu Wuyang left for the small world on the blue planet, the countries in the small world on the blue planet actually broke through the shackles of science and embarked on the path of science becoming a god. They embarked on the path of immortality.

As a result, Zhu Wuyan was named the Beginning of Transcendence, the Ancestor of Transcendence, and the Origin of Transcendence in the Blue Star World ... The next time Zhu Wuyang entered the small world on the blue planet, this small world would give him an unprecedented surprise.

However, these were all things that would happen in the future. At this moment, Zhu Wuyang was still immersed in the emotions of parting. After all, they had been together for so many years in the small world of the blue planet and had many children and grandchildren. It could be said that they had experienced life from birth to death.

Now that he had walked out of this life, Zhu Wuwan felt a lot of sighs and enlightenment in his heart. In a trance, his soul seemed to have ascended to another level and resonated with a certain Dao law between heaven and earth.

Under this resonance, Zhu Wuyan's soul, divine sense, body, and Nascent Soul...They were all undergoing imperceptible changes. They had become more fused with the spiritual qi of heaven and earth, and it had become easier for them to grasp all kinds of immortal techniques. Their strength had faintly increased...

It was as if it was a dream. Zhu Wuyang had naturally rushed to the Heavenly Stairs of the Late Void Refinement Realm, and his cultivation realm had soared by one level.

The essence of consciousness turned into a lake, and the surging power of consciousness surged inside. The black hell consciousness emitted a radiance that could devour everything, making people feel as if they had fallen into a bottomless demon realm.

On the colorful Myriad Poison Nascent Soul, seven black patterns slowly emerged. Each pattern seemed to be condensed from countless poisonous essences, emitting an ominous light. It could easily erode and destroy the Nascent Soul of any cultivator of the same level, or even the Nascent Soul of a higher level.

At the same time, the surging World Origin flowed into every part of his body, hiding the effect of the Breakthrough Stone. In the eyes of others, Zhu Wuwan was still wasting the extremely precious World Origin. Not only did he not use it to improve his talent, but he continued to use it to improve his strength.

These people had no idea that Zhu Wuwan had basically used all of the world's origin to improve her talent and aptitude from the beginning until now. She had only spent a few points to hide her own situation and increase her strength.

The reason why Zhu Wuyan's strength and realm could increase so quickly was all thanks to the special encounter system and the breakthrough stone. It was not like what they had seen, where the world's origin was used by Zhu Wuyan to stabilize his cultivation foundation and increase his strength and realm.

Zhu Wuyang was not such a prodigal!

Chapter 634: Harvest (1)

Before coming out of the small world on the blue planet, Zhu Wuwan had a total of 600 points of World Origin, so she was naturally still ranked first.

Wei Xiaoxuan, who was ranked second, had a total of 180 points of World Origin. Zhu Wuwan had more than three times that.

However, after coming out of the small world on the blue planet, in just a few hours, another 100 points of World Origin surged into Zhu Wuyang's body.

With the help of this huge wave of World Origin, Zhu Wuwan successfully 'advanced' to the peak of the Late Void Refinement Realm and used up all the breakthrough stones he had accumulated.

There were still a few hours before the end of the 100-day period. In the small world on the blue planet, it would have been a few months. In the next few months, it was the peak of Zhu Wuyang's influence after his death, so a large amount of world origin swarmed over.

100 points!

In these few hours, Zhu Wuwan had obtained another 100 World Origin points, increasing the total number of World Origin points he had earned to 800 points, surpassing the record of 250 points for 300 worlds by 550 points.

Three times and 50 points!

Moreover, everyone knew in their hearts that the influence of the three small worlds that Zhu Wuyang had brought was clearly not over yet. They would continue to bring Zhu Wuyang an endless source of the world's origin for a long time to come.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

However, after leaving the Ancient South Wasteland Cave, these World Origins would be reduced by a little, but even so, there should be more than a dozen points in total.

In other words, the total amount of World Origin that Zhu Wuwan obtained from the 300 World Trips would reach more than 800 points.

Faced with such a number, not to mention the other Divine Transformation Realm elites, even the ancient giants and the pillars of the Body Integration Realm swallowed their saliva, wishing they could replace Zhu Wanhao.

Under everyone's gratified and drooling gazes, Zhu Wuwan finally used the last 100 points of World Origin on her talent and aptitude, barely raising her talent to the level of a top-notch Heavenly Martial Spirit Root. However, she was still some distance away from the pinnacle of the human world.

If Zhu Wuyang had not wasted it previously and had used the 300 or so World Origin points on her cultivation foundation and strength realm on her talent, she would definitely have been able to raise her talent to the extreme of the human world and even try to break through to the illusory Immortal Spirit Realm.

However, it was too late to say anything now. Young people were not sensible and would always take many detours.

Looking at the regret on Zhu Wuan's face, many of the ancient giants and the pillars of the Body Integration Stage finally felt a little better. So it turned out that a fool like you also knew how to feel heartache.

However, when they thought about how Zhu Wuwan was only a little over a hundred years old and already possessed such strength and talent, their hearts ached again.

Before the end of the 100-day period, even if there were Divine Transformation Realm elites who had been chased out of the 300 worlds, they had to continue waiting on the divine throne above the Ancient South Wastelands Cave until the Ancient South Wastelands Cave disappeared and the divine throne released them.

Seeing that there was still some time before the end, Zhu Wuyang took a good look at the strength in his body.

The symbol of one's strength was the Hell Divine Sense, which had already formed a huge lake. This lake was several times larger and purer than cultivators of the same level.

All in all, Zhu Wuyan's Hell Divine Sense was more than ten times stronger than cultivators of the same level. It could be said to be invincible at the Void Training Stage and could faintly compete with the Body Integration Pillar.

Such a terrifying spiritual awareness could naturally attract even more shocking Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi and erupt with even more terrifying power.

With such a powerful Hell's Divine Consciousness, Zhu Wuwan was already invincible at the Void Training Stage.

Although the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul was still the size of a normal person, nine black patterns appeared on its forehead and each strand of Nascent Soul. Its purity was more than ten times that of a cultivator of the same level, so it was naturally more than ten times thicker.

Zhu Wuan's Myriad Poison Nascent Soul could easily destroy more than ten strands of Nascent Soul from cultivators of the same cultivation level. He could even use his tyrannical Myriad Poison Nascent Soul to withstand the strongest spiritual awareness attack from a perfected Void Refinement Realm ancient giant because the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul also had the effect of defending against spiritual awareness attacks.

Of course, because this effect didn't form a special characteristic, its power was far inferior to the other special characteristics. However, with its strong and powerful body, it could still resist the spiritual sense attack of a Void Training Stage cultivator.

However, the most terrifying thing about the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul was not the body itself, but the level-six Zhu Wuyang mixed poison that was hidden in its depths most of the time.

With Zhu Wuyang's level-six mixed poison, Zhu Wuyang could even poison the Body Integration Pillar to death. Of course, the premise was that he would not be discovered in advance or avoid it in advance.

Not only could Zhu Wuyang's poison be hidden in the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul, but it could also be hidden in every corner of the Hell's divine sense and Zhu Wuyang's body. However, the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul was more effective in nourishing it, so it was usually placed in Zhu Wuyang's Myriad Poison Nascent Soul.

As for his physical fitness, it was still at the peak of the Incarnation Realm because it would cause too much of a commotion if he increased his physical fitness.

However, after Zhu Wuan left this place and returned to the Thousand Poisons Sect, it would be very easy for him to earn a large number of breakthrough stones with his strength in Qi Refinement. At that time, he would be able to easily raise his body refinement cultivation.

His body refinement cultivation, which had always been one step ahead, once again fell behind his qi refinement cultivation.

Even so, with Zhu Wanhao's current body tempering cultivation, he could still fight someone of a higher cultivation level and defeat an ancient powerhouse at the Early Void Refinement Realm.

Hell's divine sense, Myriad Poison Nascent Soul, and a body at the peak of the Incarnation Realm ... The three combined to form the foundation of Zhu Wuyang's combat strength. As for the various Heaven and Earth Immortal Martial Arts, Heaven and Earth Dharma Spells, and Heaven and Earth Secret Skills...It was as if he was using these fundamental weapons to make Zhu Wuyang deliberately erupt with even more terrifying power.

Any cultivator at the Void Training Stage was a piece of cake for Zhu Wuwan at this moment. She could kill them with a wave of her hand, and she could even compete with the pillar of the Form Synthesis Stage. Of course, the possibility of failure was as high as 90%.

However, it was no longer an easy task for the Integration Pillars to kill Zhu Wuyang. At the very least, Zhu Wuyang now had the strength to escape.

In the vast Southern Wasteland, other than a few Body Integration Pillars, Zhu Wuyang was the strongest.

By the time Zhu Wuyan's Body Refinement Realm and Qi Refinement Realm cultivation reached the Perfect Void Refinement Realm, even Zhu Wuyan herself did not dare to estimate how much power could be unleashed by the combination of the two.

Should, maybe, probably...He was able to dominate the early-stage Body Integration Stage and even the mid-stage Body Integration Stage.

Who was the strongest person in the Southern Wasteland? It seemed to be Cui Zhicheng, who was at the peak of the mid-Body Integration stage. He was also the Great Elder of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. At this moment, he was staring at the old man with a complicated expression.

In other words, if Zhu Wuyan's Qi Refinement and Body Refinement cultivation could both reach the Perfect Void Refinement Realm, it was very likely that she would become the strongest expert in the Southern Wasteland.

Of course, because he had yet to master teleportation, it would be very difficult for Zhu Wuwan to kill these Body Integration Pillars unless she also broke through to the Body Integration Realm.

However, even if he did break through, it would be extremely difficult to break through the teleportation technique. If not for that, the Southern Wasteland would have been destroyed by the immortal sects in other regions.

After all, although the Southern Wasteland was a little barren, the area was so vast that they could still find a lot of good things.

However, because the three super immortal sects all had the Integration Pillar, the other regions had not attacked for so many years, but it was inevitable that they would be bullied.

Chapter 635: He Ran So Fast (1)

This trip to 300 worlds, Zhu Wuyang's harvest could be said to be extremely rich.

The biggest gain was naturally in terms of talent and aptitude. His heaven spirit root had broken through to the peak second grade immortal spirit root realm, and the breakthrough stones needed to cultivate in the future had been reduced by several times.

Apart from that, even his other aspects of aptitude had also obtained a certain degree of improvement. At this moment, Zhu Wuwan could definitely be called a spiritual beauty and a natural Dao seed.

Even if he was thrown into the Immortal World, Zhu Wuwan would still be fought over by all the immortal sects, let alone in the Dongyuan Continent.

The other great harvest was naturally that he had been promoted to the Late Void Refinement Realm in a “reasonable” manner, so that no one would suspect that he had a precious treasure on him. This way, he would not be guilty of having a treasure.

Otherwise, if the big shots from other regions were to target him, Zhu Wuyang would not be far from death.

The real cultivation world was far crueller and worse than what ordinary people imagined.

“Hurry up and leave!”

For example, at this moment, the 100-day deadline had just ended, and the divine throne above the Southern Wasteland Ancient Cave had not completely disappeared. The Great Elder of the Thousand Poisons Sect, the strongest expert in the Southern Wasteland...Cui Zhicheng swept up the 120 Divine Transformation Realm elites of the Thousand Poisons Sect, especially the dark horse, Zhu Wuwan, and fled into the distance in a panic.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

In the blink of an eye, Cui Zhicheng had already disappeared into the horizon. It was as if there were wolves and beasts chasing after him, causing the elders of the sects in the other regions to sigh.

” Cui Zhicheng ran really fast. I originally wanted to try to rope Zhu Wuyang in, but I didn’t expect that before Zhu Wuyang came down from the throne, he had already escaped with Zhu Wuyang. He even used teleportation to escape. He really doesn’t deserve to be a son. ”

” It’s not easy for the Thousand Poisons Sect to produce a Quasi-Immortal seed. To be able to reach the Late Void Refinement Realm at the age of a hundred and have the aptitude of a top-notch Heavenly Martial Spirit Root, the Thousand Poisons Sect is very likely to nurture a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal. Unfortunately, the Southern Wilderness is too barren. Although the Thousand Poisons True Technique is powerful, it’s basically impossible to cultivate it successfully. It’s as difficult as ascending to the heavens for Zhu Wuwan to become a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal. ”

" Although Zhu Wuan has chosen the path of Soul Formation from the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, we're still willing to give him a chance on account of the fact that he has obtained so much World Origin this time and that his spirit root has reached the level of a top-notch Heavenly Martial Spirit Root. If he joins our sect, we'll just pay a little more and let him wash away the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect's cultivation technique. I didn't expect Cui Zhicheng to be so slippery. He took Zhu Wuyang away without waiting for us to speak. He wasted a good seedling."

" Isn't that so? For the sake of those 800 points of World Origin, it's worth it for us to expend a lot of effort to wash away the traces of the Thousand Poison Sect on Zhu Wuyang's body. Cui Zhicheng isn't stupid either. He must have thought of this. For safety's sake, he took Zhu Wuyang and ran away immediately. "

" This is the first time I've realized that Cui Zhicheng is so fast! "

Just as many ancient giants and the pillars of the Unity Stage had said, Cui Zhicheng had run so quickly because he was worried that the large immortal sects in other regions would speak up to rope in Zhu Wuyang.

If Zhu Wuyang had only earned about 100 World Origin Points, it was definitely worth it for the large immortal sects in other regions to rope him in. Then, they would pay a lot of money to get Zhu Wuyang to abandon the cultivation technique of the Thousand Poisons Sect and cultivate the cultivation technique of other large immortal sects.

However, the World Origin that Zhu Wuwan had earned from the 300 worlds was shockingly more than 800 points. Such a terrifying number, even if a lot of World Origin was wasted, a large amount of World Origin was still used to improve one's talent.

With a top-notch Heavenly Martial Spirit Root and an increase in his talent in other aspects, it was definitely worth it for those large immortal sects to pay a sufficient price to abolish the cultivation technique of the Thousand Poison Sect and cultivate the cultivation technique of other large immortal sects.

Moreover, Zhu Wuwan was still so young. She was a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal seed and even had the possibility of reaching the Supreme Human Immortal!

Such a peerless genius had tempted the large immortal sects in other regions. Cui Zhicheng had seen this, which was why he had run away so quickly.

They had already taken him away. It was obvious that they wanted to protect Zhu Wuyang. In order to rope Zhu Wuyang in, the other large immortal sects had to pay a huge price to cripple the cultivation technique of the Thousand Poisons Sect. After considering everything, there shouldn't be too many immortal sects that wanted to continue to rope in Zhu Wuyan.

Sure enough, Cui Zhicheng, who had been running for an hour, turned around and saw that there were no other Body Integration Pillars chasing after him. Only then did he heave a long sigh of relief, and a smile filled his old face.

Cui Zhicheng looked at Zhu Wuyang with a gratified expression. “With your luck in the small world, if you have the opportunity to enter the three thousand major worlds in the future, you might be able to obtain even greater opportunities.”

At this point, Cui Zhicheng didn’t wait for Zhu Wuyang to speak, and his expression darkened. “” It’s just that you’ve spent too much World Origin on your cultivation foundation and strength realm. Otherwise, your current talent and aptitude should have already reached the peak of the Heavenly Martial Spiritual Root. Your future will be even more limitless. Young man, you’re still a little impatient. ”

“Disciple knows his mistake.” Zhu Wanhao admitted her mistake decisively and refused to tell Cui Zhicheng the truth. “In the end, the improvement of talent and aptitude is not as carefree as the improvement of strength and realm. I couldn’t resist the temptation and used more of the world’s origin energy on my strength and realm. Please forgive me, Elder Cui.”

Fortunately, he was still young, so he could easily explain this matter with the excuse that his willpower was insufficient. Otherwise, if he was hundreds or thousands of years old, it would be difficult to explain, and it would be easy to leave a flaw.

As expected, Cui Zhicheng recalled that Zhu Wuyang was only a little over a hundred years old, not even a fraction of his age. He couldn’t help but shake his head and sigh. “Just be more careful next time. If there’s still a chance to enter the Three Thousand Sectors to obtain the World Origin, it’s a good thing that you obtained more World Origin this time, so it’s not a wasted trip. You didn’t waste this opportunity, unlike the other idiots. ”

Upon hearing Cui Zhicheng’s words, Zhu Wuyang did not know how to respond. However, the expressions of the other Soul Formation elites from the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect did not look too good. They all looked at Zhu Wuyang with a little resentment.

However, thinking about it, the second place among them had only obtained a little more than 100 points of World Origin from the 300 worlds. Many of them had only obtained about 10 points of World Origin. Compared to Zhu Wuwan, it was more than 80 times worse.

They felt that what Cui Zhicheng said seemed to be right. Zhu Wuwan alone was equivalent to eighty of them. The world origin source earned from the three hundred worlds was nearly half of all of them combined.

Compared to such a terrifying battle record, they were really no different from idiots.

Of course, the most important thing was that Zhu Wuan was now an ancient giant at the Late Void Refinement Realm. He could suppress all of them with one hand. No matter how dissatisfied they were in their hearts, they did not dare to provoke Zhu Wuan.

Chapter 636: A Wise Man Is One Who Suits the Situation (1)

Thinking of Zhu Wuyan's strength at the Late Void Refinement Realm, the group of Divine Transformation Realm elites from the Thousand Poisons Sect felt their mouths turn sour again.

Zhu Wuan could suppress all of them with one hand. What was the point of competing when it came to the legacy competition?

There were only a few decades left before the legacy competition. The strongest among them was only at the peak of the Soul Formation Realm. It was basically impossible for them to break through the shackles of the natural moat and enter the Void Training Realm.

Even if someone could step into the Void Refinement Stage, they would at most be at the Early Void Refinement Stage. Compared to Zhu Wuwan, who was at the Late Void Refinement Stage, they were still miles apart.

Under such circumstances, what could they use to compete with Zhu Wuyang?

Therefore, if nothing unexpected happened, the next sect master of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect would be in Zhu Wuwan's hands.

Thinking of this, the Ten Thousand Poison Princes felt like crying.

He had cultivated for a thousand years just to fight for the position of the Myriad Poison Sect Master on the day of the legacy competition.

But now, before the legacy competition even began, they had already lost all suspense. What meaning did their lives have in the future? They had already become pale and lonely.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

No, there was still hope. After all, Zhu Wuyang's performance in the 300 worlds was so outstanding. How could the Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect sit idly by?

If the Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect killed Zhu Wuan before the legacy competition, wouldn't they have another chance?

Thinking of this, hope rose in the hearts of many Crown Princes.

” If I’m not wrong, in this World Origin competition, although the number of World Origins obtained by the Southern Wasteland is still the last, based on our unharmed battle results, the total number of World Origins obtained by the Southern Wasteland should not be the last. In this way, the large immortal sects in other regions are not qualified to reduce the number of people who enter the 300 worlds in the Southern Wasteland. ”

Cui Zhicheng was greatly comforted when he saw Zhu Wuwan sincerely admit his mistake. He suddenly thought of something and looked at all the Divine Transformation Realm elites as if he was uncertain.

Seeing this scene, the group of Divine Transformation Realm elites ridiculed crazily in their hearts.

Great Elder, you’re a pillar of the Body Integration Stage and the strongest expert in the Southern Wasteland. Your divine sense is so terrifying that it’s only a matter of time before you can calculate the Origin of the world. What’s there to be uncertain about?

“Didn’t you just want to show off to us? After all, you didn’t show off in front of the large immortal sects in the other regions just now. Now, you can only show off in front of us.

But don’t you think it’s too cruel? We just lost our position as the leader of the Thousand Poisons Sect, and now we still have to cooperate with you, so we can only complain.

” The Grand Elder is right. With Senior Brother Zhu’s efforts, our Thousand Poisons Sect has earned the most World Origin among all the immortal sects in the Southern Wasteland. We have surpassed the Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect. Even if we get the World Origin per person, with Senior Brother Zhu’s help, we are still one of the best in the Southern Wasteland. ”

” Not only in the Southern Wasteland, but even in the entire Dongyuan Continent, the Southern Wasteland is ranked fourth in the total number of World Origins obtained. The Western Desert is no match for us. All of this is because of Senior Brother Zhu and the Grand Elder. If it weren’t for Senior Brother Zhu’s efforts to turn the tide and the Grand Elder’s discerning eyes, the Southern Wasteland would have suffered a crushing defeat again. ”

” The expressions of the Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect must be very interesting. After all, if it weren’t for the Thousand Poison Sect, the Southern Wasteland would definitely be at the bottom this time. At that time, the other immortal sects in the other regions would have to reduce our quota to enter the 300 worlds. The Thousand Poison Sect has single-handedly protected the interests of the entire Southern Wasteland. ”

"I wish Senior Brother is mighty, the Grand Elder is wise, and the Ten Thousand Poison Sect will turn the tide...Most importantly, our Thousand Poisons Sect has finally produced a giant from the 300 Sectors. He suppressed all the Divine Transformation Realm prodigies in the other regions and successfully ranked first. Moreover, he has even raised the original record of the 300 Sectors by several times. I'm afraid that no Divine Transformation Realm prodigy will be able to break this record in the future."

Cui Zhicheng couldn't help but laugh out loud when he heard how tactful these little fellows were." Well said. This is what makes me feel the best. In the past, the other major sects in the other regions said that there was no one in the Southern Wasteland. They said that we couldn't even nurture a top ten Divine Transformation Realm genius. "

" This time, we slapped them in the face and taught them a lesson. We let them know that not only can the Southern Wasteland produce the top ten Divine Transformation Realm warriors, but we can also produce the number one Divine Transformation Realm warrior, the kind that can break the record. It can be said that no one has ever done it before or since. "

" There's no need to talk about the past. Even in the future, there won't be a second Semi-God Realm warrior who can earn more than 800 points of World Origin from 300 worlds. Not to mention the record of 800 points, I'm afraid it's not enough to earn more than 300 points. This time, it's a great honor for our Southern Wasteland. "

Zhu Wuwan humbly expressed that everyone was overpraising him. However, he was also in a good mood, especially when he saw the expressions and actions of the Ten Thousand Poison Princes who looked down on him before he entered the 300 worlds. They wanted nothing more than to suck up to him. His mood became even happier.

It was no wonder that these fellows were able to become the top-ranked legacy crown princes of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. Just their ability to adapt to the situation and adapt to the times was something that many people could not compare to.

For a moment, Zhu Wuyang and Cui Zhicheng became the center of attention. They received the compliments of the group of Ten Thousand Poison Princes, and the group of people happily rushed toward the Ten Thousand Poison Sect.

On the way back, Cui Zhicheng had expressed many times that he would not let the Scorpion Mountain Range go after he returned. He had to make the Scorpion Mountain Range give an explanation, or he would beat up the ancient giants of the Scorpion Mountain Range.

After all, if it weren't for the stinginess of the Scorpio Mountain Range, Zhu Wuwan wouldn't have wasted so many World Origin Points on cultivating her foundation.

If he had these World Origins, perhaps Zhu Wuyan's talent and aptitude would reach the maximum value of the human world.

Most importantly, because of this incident, not only did Zhu Wuan become the laughing stock of everyone in the beginning, but even Cui Zhicheng also lost face in front of all the immortal sects in Dongyuan Continent and became synonymous with fatuous incompetence.

If it weren't for Zhu Wuyang's outstanding performance in the follow-up, Cui Zhicheng would have been labeled as the scapegoat forever. Therefore, Cui Zhicheng gritted his teeth at the Scorpio Mountain Range, which almost caused him to be labeled as the scapegoat.

In the middle of the conversation, Cui Zhicheng, who was in a good mood, suddenly asked, "I'm fine. You've made great contributions to the Southern Wasteland and the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. I wonder if there's anything you want. If it's not beyond the capabilities of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, I'll definitely be satisfied!"

Chapter 637: Too Much Licking (1)

Cui Zhicheng's words stunned all the Divine Transformation Realm elites. They did not expect the Grand Elder to give such a huge promise.

As long as it was within the capabilities of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, he was absolutely satisfied. As the strongest person in the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, Cui Zhicheng definitely had the right to say this and the ability to realize it.

After all, in this world where the strong were respected, Cui Zhicheng was the most powerful. Naturally, he had the final say in everything in the Thousand Poison Sect.

If Cui Zhicheng wanted to forcefully push for something in the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, no one would be able to resist even if he wanted to destroy half of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect.

If Zhu Wanhao said that he did not want to participate in the legacy competition and directly become the sect master of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, that would be fine.

However, this way, these Soul Formation elites would no longer have any chance.

At the thought of this, the group of Divine Transformation Realm elites became a little nervous, afraid that Zhu Wanhao would request to obtain the position of the Myriad Poisons Sect Master in advance.

However, how could Zhu Wuyang waste such a promise on such an easy task?

After thinking for a moment, Zhu Wuyang smiled and said, “” Thank you, Grand Elder. I heard that in our Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, only Grand Elders who have surpassed the Void Refinement Realm are qualified to read all the ancient books and cultivation techniques in the mountain ranges of the sect. ”

Updated by N○vG○.c○

“I’m still two realms away, so I hope to read all the cultivation techniques and books in the sect’s mountain range in advance to increase my knowledge of the immortal path. This way, I can better cultivate all kinds of immortal cultivation techniques.”

“Alright, no problem!” Cui Zhicheng only thought about it for a moment before he decisively agreed to Zhu Wuyang’s request. After all, with Zhu Wuyang’s talent and aptitude, there was a high possibility that she would enter the Form Synthesis Stage.

In that case, it was not a bad idea to let him enjoy the treatment of the Form Synthesis Stage in advance.

However, Cui Zhicheng and the others didn’t know the real purpose of Zhu Wuyang reading these books and cultivation techniques. In their opinion, these books and cultivation techniques could at most enrich Zhu Wuyang’s knowledge of the Immortal Dao and help him understand it by analogy. They didn’t know that these books and cultivation techniques could directly increase Zhu Wuyang’s combat strength.

With his high comprehension ability, Zhu Wuyan was able to effectively use these books and cultivation techniques to improve and transform the immortal cultivation techniques he had mastered.

According to the normal path, Zhu Wuyan would need at least a few decades of cultivation, or even longer, before she could step into the Form Synthesis Stage and become a Supreme Elder.

Before this, even though he had become the sect master of the Thousand Poisons Sect, he could not read all the ancient books and cultivation techniques in the mountain range. Only the Supreme Elder had the right to do so.

Although the sect master of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect was the ruler of the sect on the surface, he could only read a portion of the precious books in the other mountain ranges at most. He could not read the most important parts.

That was why Zhu Wuan had made such a request to Cui Zhicheng. Cui Zhicheng did not disappoint him. Not only did he not disappoint him, but he even brought him a surprise.

” I’m fine. I see that the level of the Dharma treasures you have on you is a little low. They are only the weaker ones among the middle-grade Dharma treasures. When we return to the Thousand Poisons Sect, I'll prepare a few powerful middle-grade Dharma treasures and one or two high-grade Dharma treasures for you. Only then will they be worthy of your current strength. ”

It seemed that he felt that Zhu Wuyan's request was too easy to fulfill, and he did not pay much. Therefore, after thinking about it, Grand Elder Cui Zhicheng said generously.

As soon as he finished speaking, the faces of the other Incarnation Realm elites around him became distorted. Their original appearances could hardly be seen, and they were all cursing crazily in their stomachs.

Damn, did he have to go so far? Before he went to the 300 worlds, Zhu Wuwan was only a Soul Formation cultivator. Even so, she carried a few middle-grade Dharma treasures with her, and she was covered in low-grade Dharma treasures.

The ancient giants of Nine Dragon Mountain were already generous enough to him. This kind of treatment was comparable to the top ten Ten Thousand Poison Princes. Was this considered a little low level? Then what was the pile of low-grade magic treasures on them?

Under normal circumstances, cultivators at the Void Training Stage would only use middle-grade magic treasures, and using high-grade magic treasures would be considered to be of a higher grade, so it would be somewhat difficult to control them.

But now, not only did you want to give Zhu Wuwan a powerful middle-grade Dharma treasure, you even wanted to give away a few high-grade Dharma treasures.

Most of the ancient titans in the sect did not even have a single high-grade Dharma treasure, but Zhu Wuan, a legacy Crown Prince, was about to obtain several high-grade Dharma treasures. How could the veteran ancient titans accept this?

Cui Taishang, your degree of bias is simply invincible!

Although their hearts were bleeding, the legacy princes of the Scorpion Mountain Range and the number one legacy prince of the First Mountain Range's Sanshuai Mountain all had distorted smiles on their faces.

“Senior Brother Zhu's magic weapons are indeed a bit shabby. Most of them are low-grade magic weapons, and middle-grade magic weapons are also relatively low-grade. It is indeed necessary to replace them with a batch of powerful middle-grade magic weapons and high-grade magic weapons. Only then can Senior Brother Zhu display his full strength.”

” That's right, that's right. We have a very powerful upper grade magic weapon in our Three Losses Mountain. It has a lower requirement for the user's cultivation realm, so it's suitable for Senior Brother Zhu. Now, this magic weapon is in my father's hands. When I go back, I'll ask my father to give it to Senior Brother Zhu. "

"My mother also has a high-grade magic treasure that has a lower requirement for strength. With Senior Brother Zhu's cultivation realm, he can basically unleash all his combat strength. When I go back, I'll ask my mother to give this high-grade magic treasure to Senior Brother Zhu."

" Senior Brother Zhu is a heaven-sent genius. His trip to the 300 worlds has made him famous all over the world. The Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect will definitely not let Senior Brother Zhu off so easily. They must equip Senior Brother Zhu with the strongest high-grade Dharma treasure to ensure his safety. "

Some bootlickers even shouted, " In my opinion, even a high-grade magic treasure is not worthy of Senior Brother Zhu's status. It has to be a supreme-grade magic treasure. Only then can it effectively protect Senior Brother Zhu's safety. "

Upon hearing this bootlicker's words, Zhu Wuyang glared at her fiercely. The Grand Elder Cui Zhicheng also glared at her. I don't even have a supreme-grade Dharma treasure with me, so how can I give it to Zhu Wuyang? What nonsense are you talking about? You really want to see me make a fool of myself, don't you?

Only then did the bootlicker who had been clamoring for the sect to allocate a supreme-grade Dharma treasure for Zhu Wuyang realize that he had gone overboard. Not only had he not licked the right place, but he had licked his butt instead, making Senior Brother Zhu and the Grand Elder uncomfortable.

She hurriedly apologized to Senior Brother Zhu and Grand Elder Cui Zhicheng with a fawning smile. She did not have the pretentiousness that a stunning female cultivator should have. If the ordinary cultivators of the Thousand Poisons Sect saw this, who knew what they would think.

As expected, behind every goddess, there was a bastard who played with them until he puked. No, this did not fit the situation.

Chapter 638: Does Your Face Hurt (1)

In the secular world, every heir prince of the Thousand Poisons Sect was a supreme emperor who ruled over thousands of dynasties. Even in the cultivation world of the Southern Wasteland, their status was comparable to the leaders of middle-level immortal sects.

These more than 100 legacy Crown Princes who were qualified to enter the 300 worlds were the best among the hundreds of legacy Crown Princes. Their status was undoubtedly higher.

This was especially true for the legacy crown prince of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. His status was not inferior to that of the top immortal sects in the Southern Wasteland. He was almost comparable to the ordinary ancient giants in the outside world.

However, such a group of big shots were respectful when they faced Cui Zhicheng and Zhu Wuyang. They were afraid that they wouldn't lick them well enough, that they wouldn't lick them right enough, or that they would lick them until they made Zhu Wuyang and Cui Zhicheng feel disgusted.

His submissive and servile appearance was enough to shatter the eyes of 99% of the intelligent creatures in the Southern Wasteland.

However, if these people knew Cui Zhicheng's identity and status, and knew Zhu Wuyang's achievements in the 300 worlds, they would probably join the army of bootlickers.

Before he entered the 300 worlds, the Crown Princes of All Poisons who had been arrogant and looked down on him had now become Zhu Wanwan's loyal bootlickers. The mysteries of the world were truly unexpected.

Therefore, on the way back to the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, Zhu Wuyan's little life was not bad. There was a cute prince massaging his back, a pure prince serving tea and peeling fruits, and a charming prince dancing...

Even Cui Taishang had given Zhu Wanhao all sorts of pointers and told him many secrets about the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect and the Southern Wilderness.

Updated by NovGo.co

In the blink of an eye, the group returned to the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. Zhu Wuyang could not help but feel that time had passed too quickly.

At this moment, the cultivators of the Thousand Poison Sect had already received the news from the legacy crown princes and were waiting outside the Thousand Poison Sect in advance.

Billions of cultivators stood in layers according to their status, covering the entire sky. It looked magnificent.

Upon seeing Zhu Wuan and his group return, countless cultivators bowed in unison. "Welcome back, Grand Elder Cui. Congratulations to Eldest Senior Brother for becoming the number one person in the 300 worlds! "

The number one heir of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect had always been recognized as the eldest senior brother of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. Not only was he the eldest senior brother of the heir, but he was also the eldest senior brother of the inner and outer disciples. He was known as the eldest senior brother of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect!

Although his title was a little strange, his status was often comparable to ordinary ancient giants. In the outside world, he was comparable to the ruler of a top sect.

Now that Zhu Wuan had stepped into the Late Void Refinement Realm at the age of a hundred years old, he was the well-deserved winner of the legacy competition in a few decades. There was basically no suspense, so he naturally received everyone's respect and admiration.

Throughout the hundreds of thousands of years of history of the Thousand Poison Sect, there had never been a legacy prince who had the terrifying strength of the Late Void Refinement Realm before the legacy competition.

Basically, all the sect masters of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect relied on their status as sect masters to obtain a lot of resources and treasures. Only then could they enter the Void Training Stage and become ancient giants.

Therefore, anyone who could become the sect master of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect basically meant the position of an ancient giant.

However, Zhu Wanwan had broken through to the Void Training Stage without the help of the resources provided by the Thousand Poisons Sect and became the most powerful Thousand Poisons Crown Prince since ancient times. It was simply unbelievable.

Even though they had personally witnessed Zhu Wuan's strength and felt the aura that Zhu Wuan was emitting, there were still some people who muttered softly.

"Is Eldest Senior Brother Zhu really an ancient giant? But before this, Eldest Senior Brother Zhu was clearly the last to become the Successor Crown Prince, and he was also the weakest one. Moreover, his foundation was unstable, so it was very difficult for him to enter the ranks of ancient giants. How did he suddenly become an ancient giant? Moreover, he has entered the Late Spatial Tempering Stage in a single leap. Isn't this too unbelievable?"

"I can only say that the Origin of the World is too miraculous. Not only did it stabilize Eldest Senior Brother Zhu's cultivation foundation, but it also allowed him to break through layers of shackles and reach the Late Spatial Tempering Stage at the age of a hundred years old. It's a pity that a lot of the Origin of the World was wasted by Eldest Senior Brother Zhu."

" That's right, that's right. Senior Brother Zhu wasted more than 300 points of World Origin on his cultivation realm. It's said that he almost angered Cui Taishang to death. Because of this, Cui Taishang scolded the Scorpio Mountain Range. The Master of the Scorpio Mountain personally brought the Ten-Millennium-Earth-Thick Grass to Cui Taishang and Senior Brother Zhu. He offered the Ten-Millennium-Earth-Thick Grass to them for free as an apology. "

" Actually, I feel that what Eldest Senior Brother Zhu did was too satisfying. Although he wasted more than 300 points of World Origin to stabilize his cultivation foundation and increase his strength, he forced the Mountain Master of Sky Scorpio to lower his head and apologize. Now, he has become the well-deserved future sect leader and is respected by all the disciples of the Thousand Poisons Sect. How satisfying is that? Most importantly, there are still nearly 500 World Origin points used on talent aptitude, which is N times more than others, so what's there to regret?"

Just as some of the Thousand Poison Cultivators were muttering, Cui Taishang and Zhu Wuan had just descended from the sky when the Master of Mount Scorpio came up with the Ten-Millennia Thick Earth Grass and apologized respectfully. He was no longer as arrogant and domineering as before.

Cai Chaoan and Lou Guangzhi, who were nearby, just looked at him, stared at him, and sized him up...This caused his face to turn red and he was extremely embarrassed. He no longer had the demeanor of a perfected Void Refinement Realm ancient giant.

Although he really wanted to leave, when he thought of Zhu Wuyang's identity as the sect master, in order to prevent Zhu Wuyang from using his identity as the sect master to hinder the development of the Scorpio Mountain Range in a few decades, the Mountain Lord of Scorpio Mountain could only pinch his nose and admit defeat.

Life was always changing. One should never bully a young man who was poor. However, Zhu Wuyan had risen too quickly. He had almost been rejected by the Scorpio Mountain Range before he came over to slap his face.

It really hurt!

Looking at the red-faced Mountain Lord of Sky Scorpio Mountain, Zhu Wuwan chuckled and casually took the Ten Thousand Year Thick Earth Grass and put it in his pocket. "" You're too polite, Mountain Chieftain. I heard that the Scorpio Tome of Mount Scorpio is quite good. Why don't you take a look? "

"You..." The Master of Mount Scorpio's expression changed drastically. The Scorpio Manual was the core manual of Mount Scorpio. Its status was equivalent to the Nine Dragon Mysterious Art of Nine Dragon Mountain. It was the foundation of Mount Scorpio.

Even if Zhu Wuan became the sect leader of the Thousand Poisons Sect and could command the 99 mountain ranges in name, he was not qualified to read the Scorpio Tome. Zhu Wuwan definitely knew about this, but she still said it, which was clearly humiliating the Scorpio Mountain Range.

Therefore, Mount Scorpio Master couldn't take it anymore. He suddenly stood up and looked straight at Zhu Wuan." Zhu Wanyou, even if we did go overboard in the past, that was because of me. You can humiliate me, but isn't it a bit too much to humiliate the entire Sky Scorpio Mountain? The Sky Scorpio Manual is the foundation of the Sky Scorpio Mountain. Even if you become the sect master of the Thousand Poisons Sect now, you are not qualified to watch it. Let's wait until you become the Supreme Elder of the Thousand Poisons Sect and talk about this again. "

"I've already promised him that he'll be fine. He can read any of the books in the mountain ranges of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect at will, even if it's a high-grade Heaven and Earth Dharma spell or a high-grade Heaven and Earth Immortal Art that only our Supreme Elder can cultivate."

As soon as the Master of Scorpio Mountain finished his words and aroused the common hatred of all the cultivators of Scorpio Mountain, Cui Taishang gave him a blow.

Chapter 639: Too Much, Brother (1)

Looking at the embarrassed look on Mount Scorpio's Master's face, the two Semi-God Realm elites who had returned from the 300 Sectors could not help but cover their faces.

Time was too tight, and they hadn't had the time to tell the higher-ups of Scorpio Mountain about this matter. They didn't expect Zhu Wuyang to use this matter to trick the Mountain Lord of Scorpio Mountain.

His face really hurt!

The Master of Mount Scorpio clutched his swollen face and retreated quietly, wishing he could faint immediately.

Cai Chaoan and Lou Guangzhi, who were nearby, nodded their heads repeatedly. This kid was worth teaching. He had humiliated the Mountain Lord of Sky Scorpio Mountain in front of the entire Ten Thousand Poisons Faction, which was equivalent to humiliating the higher-ups of Sky Scorpio Mountain. He had redeemed all the grievances that Nine Dragon Mountain had suffered previously.

Especially Cai Chaoan. He recalled the many times when he had been rejected by the Ten Thousand Year Thick Earth Grass. Then, he saw the embarrassed look on Mount Scorpio's face, especially when he had personally given the Ten Thousand Year Thick Earth Grass to Zhu Wuyang.

This time, how could the word 'cool' be used to express it!

It was like drinking a cup of cold fruit wine in the middle of summer, or getting into a warm bed in the middle of winter. It was simply extremely carefree.

Surrounded by the crowd, Zhu Wuwan walked into the depths of the Thousand Poisons Sect. The surrounding ancient giants congratulated him one after another.

Updated by NovGo.co

" Congratulations on reaching the Void Training Stage, Senior Brother. You've given our Thousand Poisons Sect one more ancient giant. From now on, we'll be able to rise to the top and dominate the entire Southern Wasteland. "

" With Senior Brother's top-notch Heavenly Martial Spirit Root, he can even hope to reach the legendary Mahayana Quasi-Immortal, let alone the Form Synthesis Stage. "

" Congratulations, Junior Brother. You're only a little over a hundred years old, but you're already one of the giants of all time. In the next 9,900 years, you'll definitely be able to break through the shackles of the natural moat and become a pillar of the world. "

" Since Senior Brother wants to see the core grimoire of each mountain range, feel free to ask. Our Heavenly Yin Mountain is always waiting for Senior Brother to come to the library pavilion to read it. We will definitely not hide anything. "

A group of old monsters, who were hundreds of times older than Zhu Wuwan, called him senior brother and junior brother. They were extremely affectionate. Even some of the mountain ranges that were not on good terms with Nine Dragon Mountain in the past hurriedly came over at this moment, afraid that Zhu Wuwan would miss them. This scene made Cai Chaoan and Lou Guangzhi feel relieved.

Only Nine Dragon Mountain's sworn enemies, the big shots of the Scorpio Mountain Range who had just been ruthlessly dealt with by Zhu Wuwan, all looked as if their parents had died. They stayed in the corner with aggrieved expressions, their faces filled with disbelief.

Until now, they still hadn't realized that the foolish Crown Prince, Zhu Wuyang, who couldn't even stabilize his cultivation base at the Soul Formation Stage a few months ago, had not only stabilized his cultivation base a few months later, but he had also broken through the bottleneck and stepped into the Spatial Tempering Stage. Moreover, he was at the Late Spatial Tempering Stage.

In the vast Scorpio Mountain Range, there was only one Late Void Refinement Realm ancient giant. In other words, with Zhu Wuyang's current strength, he was already qualified to be one of the top three big shots in Scorpio Mountain.

Before entering the 300 worlds, it was very difficult for Zhu Wanwan to even seize the position of Nine Dragon Mountain Master. Now, she was already the well-deserved quasi-Sect Master of All Poisons. No matter how mysterious the fate of the world was, wasn't it a little too much to be mysterious to this extent?

He had obtained a total of 800 points of World Origin in a trip to 300 worlds. Did it have to be so exaggerated? Wasn't it said that the record for the Origin of 300 worlds only had a little over 200 points?

In the past 300 World Destinies, most of the cultivators of the Thousand Poisons Sect had only obtained dozens of World Origin points. This was already very good.

However, Zhu Wanhao, that bastard, had obtained 800 points of World Origin in one go. Did it have to be so exaggerated?

Before Zhu Wuyan went to the 300 worlds, according to the speculations of the higher-ups of the Scorpio Mountain Range, Zhu Wuyan would at most obtain a little more than 100 points of World Origin. This was already a big speculation.

And with Zhu Wuyan's situation at that time, if he wanted to stabilize his cultivation foundation, he would have to spend at least 50 points of World Origin. In other words, Zhu Wuyan's gains from the 300 worlds were basically used to stabilize his cultivation foundation, and it might not be enough.

After all, many of the Ten Thousand Poison Princes who had obtained 300 World Origin points from the 300 worlds in the past had only obtained 30 World Origin points.

Zhu Wuwan was still young, and the amount of knowledge in her stomach was limited. It was already very good to be able to obtain more than 30 points of World Origin from 300 worlds. There was a high chance that she would only obtain about 10 points of World Origin.

However, Zhu Wuwan was good...

800 points, isn't that a little too much, bro?

The current Scorpio Mountain had no intention of snatching Nine Dragon Mountain at all. With Zhu Wuwan's strength, if he participated in the legacy competition, let alone being ranked in the top, would there be anyone who would compete with him for the position of the Myriad Poison Sect Master?

Once Zhu Wuan became the leader of the Thousand Poisons Sect, the Scorpio Mountain Range would not only be able to seize the Nine Dragon Mountain's position, but Zhu Wuan would also have to think of a way to deal with the Scorpio Mountain Range. It would already be good enough if Zhu Wuan snatched something from the Scorpio Mountain Range.

The legacy crown princes of the Scorpio Mountain Range were really disappointing. If only one of them could catch up to Zhu Wuwan, they would not be so passive.

Thinking of this, the four or five ancient titans of the Scorpion Mountain Range glared at the two princes who had entered the 300 worlds, causing them to feel a chill run down their spines.

It wasn't that they didn't want to remind the big shots, but time didn't allow it. They didn't have time to do so at all. Things had already happened, so how could they be blamed?

In order to celebrate Zhu Wanhao's success in seizing the first place on the Origin Ranking of the 300 worlds, to add glory to the Thousand Poison Sect, and to prevent the loss of the 300 worlds in the Southern Wasteland, the Thousand Poison Sect held a grand celebration.

Billions of cultivators participated together, and the 3,000 Dynasties were exempted from taxes. Thus, the entire country celebrated, and billions of people were extremely grateful.

After returning to Nine Dragon Mountain, Cai Chaoan and Lou Guangzhi once again celebrated for three days and three nights. The two of them did not expect that in just a few months, Nine Dragon Mountain, which had been struggling to hold on, would suddenly turn around and make Scorpio Mountain lower.

Originally, the two of them had thought that they would have no choice but to hand over the Nine Dragon Mountain Range to someone else in a few decades. They did not expect that the Scorpio Mountain Range was no longer qualified to compete with the Nine Dragon Mountain Range in such a short time.

Previously, Zhu Wanwan, who thought that she would only be able to shine in the next batch and help Nine Dragon Mountain take back their old nest, had actually leaped into the Late Void Refinement Realm and become one of the top three ancient giants of Nine Dragon Mountain.

In the legacy competition a few decades later, not to mention the Scorpio Mountain Range, even the top three mountain ranges of the Thousand Poison Sect would no longer be qualified to compete with Zhu Wuwan.

Oh right, how many ancient giants were there in Nine Dragon Mountain? Cai Chaoan, Lou Guangzhi, He Yingyan...After that, there were none. Among them, Lou Guangzhi was the only powerhouse at the Perfect Void Refinement Realm, Cai Chaoan was a powerhouse at the Late Void Refinement Realm, and as for He Yingyan, he had just stepped into the Early Void Refinement Realm a hundred years ago!

Chapter 640: Followers Gather (1)

Therefore, Zhu Wuyan's strength was recognized as one of the three new giants of Nine Dragon Mountain after careful and serious consideration. They did not seek Zhu Wuyan's opinion, nor did they let Zhu Wuyan actually test it.

And with Zhu Wuan's low-key style of doing things, he wouldn't argue that Cai Chaoan and Lou Guangzhi were actually trash in front of him at this moment. They could beat them up with two legs and one hand.

However, something happened very quickly, and everyone knew Zhu Wuan's true combat strength. From then on, no one said that Zhu Wuan was one of the three big shots of Nine Dragon Mountain.

The strongest of the nine dragons, the Nine Dragons Supremacy, would become Zhu Wuwan's new title!

Even though the title of Nine Dragons Supreme was extremely idiotic, it was unexpectedly popular and soon spread throughout the secular world.

In order to flaunt their identity and status, many secular emperors began to call themselves Little Supreme. The full name was Nine Dragons Little Supreme, which was different from Zhu Wuwan.

However, in order to flatter and curry favor with their boss, the underlings removed that kid. As a result, the Nine Dragons Supreme gradually became synonymous with the secular emperor.

However, Zhu Wuyan still didn't know about this. While attending various banquets, Zhu Wuyan was also constantly receiving the kowtows of her underlings.

In other words, the main reason why Zhu Wuwan attended the banquets in the mountains in the following months was to recruit underlings and strengthen her own power.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

As the only ancient giant among the hundreds of legacy crown princes and a late-Spatial Tempering cultivator, it could be said that no legacy crown prince could shake Zhu Wanhao's position as the future sect master.

In other words, it would only take a few decades for Zhu Wuwan to ascend to the position of the Thousand Poisons Sect Master and become the nominal supreme ruler of the Southern Wasteland.

Even the Sacred Fire Sect's Sect Master and the Medicine God Sect's Sect Master were inferior to the Myriad Poisons Sect Master in terms of status. They felt a little guilty when facing the Myriad Poisons Sect Master.

Therefore, to a certain extent, the Myriad Poisons Sect Master was the peak existence in the Southern Wasteland!

Since the two Body Integration Pillars of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect spent most of their time cultivating in seclusion, the power of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect Master was obvious. Naturally, he was the most powerful person in the Southern Wasteland.

In the face of the future Sect Leader of the Southern Wasteland, not to mention the cultivators of the Nine Dragon Mountain Range, even the many individuals and forces of the other ninety-eight cities could not wait to join Zhu Wanhao and become his subjects.

The degree of urgency far exceeded that of the officials of the imperial court in the secular world.

After all, as the Sect Leader of the Thousand Poisons Sect, he was also the Retired Emperor of the 3,000 Dynasties in the secular world. He had absolute power over life and death.

If those secular emperors knew about this and had the chance, they would definitely kneel down impatiently and kowtow to Zhu Wanhao, wanting to follow him.

The legacy princes of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect who were ranked in the top ten could also be followed by a large number of cultivators and families from other mountain ranges. Xiao Rongyu, who was ranked first, had even obtained the support of more than 50 mountain ranges.

However, compared to Zhu Wuwan at this moment, Xiao Rongyu was nothing.

In just a few short months, tens of thousands of forces from ninety-nine mountain ranges had followed Zhu Wuyan. This was the result of Zhu Wuyan's careful selection. Otherwise, there would have been at least a million forces following her.

The power of Wu Peak began to expand at a crazy speed. The speed of its expansion far exceeded the imagination of the six ministers, making them feel overwhelmed.

He Sheng, Minister of Rites, Wen Kuizhi, Minister of Revenue, Wen Yuannian, Minister of Punishment, Wang Yuliang, Minister of Works, Peng Yingzhi, Minister of Rites ...

Every day, he was so busy that he couldn't even touch the ground. He wished that he could split it into ten portions.

The position of Minister of War was also handed over by Zhu Wuan. After careful selection, it was handed over to Cheng Qianyi, the head of the Cheng Clan, one of the top three clans on the first mountain, Three Decay Mountain.

Cheng Qianyi had already reached the Exceptional Divine Transformation Realm and was only half a step away from becoming one of the ancient giants. She was also proficient in the art of war. The Cheng Clan's cultivator legion, the Cheng Clan Army, was known as the Third Legion of the Thousand Poisons Sect and ranked in the top ten in the entire Southern Wasteland.

Facing such a talent, Zhu Wuyang naturally had to win him over.

Every time Zhu Wuyang attended a banquet, the power of Wuyang Peak would expand by a large margin. Such a gratifying situation made the six ministers happy, but also anxious.

However, everyone knew that this period of time was a critical moment for the development of Wuyang Peak. No matter how busy they were, they gritted their teeth and endured. Even their cultivation was temporarily abandoned.

Although his forces were expanding very quickly, the assessment was more stringent. There was no longer a situation of people making up the numbers like before.

At the very least, the newly recruited cultivators wouldn't be in a situation similar to the Endless Snake Marsh after the incident at Wuyang Peak.

The power controlled by Zhu Wanhao had already spread to every mountain range of the Thousand Poison Sect. The weakest of these forces was comparable to the Wu clan of Nine Dragon Mountain, which had previously opposed Zhu Wanhao.

With so many powerful forces combined, one could imagine how huge it was.

In just a few months, the influence of Wuyang Peak had expanded to the point where it was not inferior to any of the ancient giants. It was even ranked in the upper middle among the many ancient giants.

It had to be known that these ancient giants often spent thousands of years, or even thousands of years, to manage and expand their forces. However, Zhu Wuwan was good. In less than a year, she managed to manage the forces of Wuwan Peak to a level that surpassed them.

Most importantly, there were no problems with the expansion.

The reason for this was naturally due to the superiority of the six-department system. On the other hand, Zhu Wuyang had laid a relatively solid foundation for Wuyang Peak.

At this moment, even though it had suddenly expanded by more than a hundred times, it was still able to withstand it and slowly digest it into its own nutrients.

Of course, in some aspects, the power of Wuyang Peak could not compare to the many ancient giants who had been operating for many years. At least in terms of the loyalty of their subordinates, Wuyang Peak could not catch up with them for the time being.

However, Zhu Wuyang had a detailed plan to deal with these shortcomings. A superior system, corporate culture, and interests were the core... These good things obtained from various worlds could be integrated into the management of Wuyang Peak.

In Xia Country, where there was no supernatural power to suppress everything, the big shots of Xia Country could firmly control everything in the entire country, not to mention in this Xianxia world, Zhu Wuyang's personal power could suppress the entire power of Wuyang Peak.

Under such circumstances, if Zhu Wuwan still couldn't manage the forces under her command, she would be letting down all the good things she had learned from Earth and China.

Of course, the expansion of his power also brought Zhu Wuyang other benefits!

Chapter 641: Careless Male Cultivators (1)

When his influence spread to the 99 mountain ranges of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, Zhu Wuwan quickly understood the situation of the 99 mountain ranges like the back of her hand.

In other words, Zhu Wuyang could deliver the set meal to every mountain range.

In order to better deliver the set meal, Zhu Wuyang specially spent a lot of breakthrough stones to raise the invisibility strange Gu, Pleasant Goat, to the Soul Formation stage, or rather, to the Soul Formation stage, so that it could effectively cooperate with Zhu Wuyang.

In addition to the immortal martial arts that Zhu Wuyan had mastered and his high-grade top-grade array formation cultivation, 99% of the Ten Thousand Poison Sect was just his backyard.

In the vast Thousand Poisons Sect, there were only a handful of people who could cultivate the array formation realm to the top-grade top-grade. There were not even five people. At present, the strongest array formation in the Thousand Poisons Sect was only a top-grade low-grade spiritual array. One could imagine how high Zhu Wuyang's array formation cultivation was.

A High Grade Top-Rank Spiritual Array Master was qualified to be called a Spiritual Array Grandmaster. Moreover, they were top Spiritual Array Grandmasters. Above that was the strongest array level in the Dongyuan Continent. The King of Spiritual Arrays was also known as the Array King.

In the hundred years that he had been in the three small worlds, although Zhu Wuwan had not used the breakthrough stone to improve his array cultivation, he had spent a lot of time on it.

Therefore, whether it was the cultivation of array formations or alchemy, Zhu Wanwan had already raised them to the high-grade top-grade realm. He was only half a step away from entering the ranks of Alchemy King and Array King, achieving the highest level of Alchemy Dao and Array Dao in Dongyuan Continent.

Zhu Wanwan's array formation cultivation was so high that she could barely set up a top-notch low-grade spiritual array. She could be said to be the strongest spiritual array master in the Thousand Poison Sect.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

There was almost no spiritual array that Zhu Wuyang could not crack in the Thousand Poisons Sect. It just depended on how much time was needed.

The invisibility Gu, Pleasant Goat, greatly reduced this time. With the help of the mole, Zhu Wuwan was invincible and sent the set meal to every corner of the Thousand Poison Sect.

Hence, the breakthrough stone rolled over!

Because these packages were difficult to talk about, those Soul Formation cultivators and Spatial Tempering magnates who had accepted the packages all buried this matter in the bottom of their hearts silently, not letting anyone know.

Otherwise, they would be the ones to lose face. No one had said anything, which meant that the upper echelons of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect would not pursue this matter on a large scale. This naturally allowed Zhu Wuyang to be like a fish in water when she delivered the set meal.

However, as more and more packages were sent, it was inevitable that some rumors would spread. Gradually, some of the cultivators who had been given packages reached a consensus. The guy who had inexplicably given them packages was a madman, and a super-strong madman.

Adept Threecraze!

Thanks to Zhu Wuyan's habit of giving him good things like shaving his head, drawing ghost faces, and plastic surgery, Zhu Wuyan was awarded the honorary title of Daoist Master Threecraze, which slowly spread throughout the entire Thousand Poison Sect.

Of course, along with this title, there were more and more twins, triplets, quadruplets, and quintesses in the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. Many cultivators began to realize in astonishment that more and more cultivators in the huge Ten Thousand Poisons Sect looked exactly like them.

Even a few ancient giants had encountered their half-brothers and half-sisters. For a moment, they were in a frenzy and began to investigate this matter with all their might.

Regrettably, the results of the investigation were fruitless. Daoist Threecraze's ability to conceal himself could be said to be unparalleled in the world. No matter how they dug three feet into the ground, they actually couldn't find any clues.

Most importantly, no matter how strong the Spiritual Array they set up around their houses was, or even if they hid in a top-notch low-grade Spiritual Array, they would still be given a set meal.

Adept Threecraze's mastery of array formations had reached the acme of perfection. Could it be that he had already reached the Array King realm?

Many cultivators from the Thousand Poisons Sect were shocked. They had not eaten the set meal in vain when faced with such an array formation expert.

Such a shocking set meal naturally brought Zhu Wuyang an endless supply of breakthrough stones, causing the number of breakthrough stones he had to soar at a speed visible to the naked eye.

100 million...200 million...300 million...500 million ... One billion ...

Two billion ... Three billion ... Five billion ... Soon, he would reach the number needed to break through to the Body Refining Stage.

In the process of delivering the set meal, Zhu Wuyan realized that he often received more breakthrough stones when he delivered the set meal to female cultivators. The more beautiful the female cultivator, the more breakthrough stones he could get.

Therefore, the female cultivators of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect were considered unlucky. Other than the few female cultivators who could move Zhu Wuyan's heart, many female cultivators above the Nascent Soul stage had been raped by Zhu Wuyan...Skilled hands!

After a plastic surgery package, their looks had been greatly improved. The only regret was that many female cultivators 'beautiful faces were actually similar.

Therefore, there were many foreign versions of Liu Yifei, Yang Mi, Yang Ying, Fan Bingbing, Liu Shishi, Zhao Liying, and Tong Liya in the Thousand Poison Sect. Moreover, it was a high-end version. Whether it was temperament or looks, it was much better than the original version.

Of course, the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect had many more wives, girlfriends, daughters, younger sisters, older sisters, mothers...Some indescribable things even happened.

After a period of chaos, the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect cultivators quickly found a way to differentiate them. They wore special symbols on their bodies to prevent their relatives and friends from mistaking them for someone else.

It was fine to mistake someone for someone else outside, but the worst thing was to mistake someone for someone else at night. For example, when his brother and his brother's wife were made to look the same by the plastic surgery package, it would be terrible to mistake someone for someone else.

It wasn't just the male cultivators who had mistaken someone for someone else. Many female cultivators had also mistaken someone for someone else. They had mistaken their elder brother for their husband, their uncle for their husband, and their father-in-law for their husband...

However, the strange thing was that most of the people who mistook someone for someone else were male cultivators. There were relatively few female cultivators. Even if the other party wore a logo, the male cultivators would still mistake them for someone else. This made many female cultivators very dissatisfied, and they often held martial arts competitions in the Thousand Poisons Sect.

In this situation, Zhu Wuwan could only say that those male cultivators were too careless. Why did they always admit their mistakes at night and rarely admit their mistakes during the day, especially when there were many people?

Once they were in a remote place or in a dark and windy night, they would basically have to admit their mistakes.

As a result, many female cultivators could only silently suffer a loss and did not dare to speak out. After all, how could they tell outsiders about this? If they did, it would ruin their reputation.

Fortunately, the female cultivators of the demonic path did not take this matter that seriously. Even if it really spread, they would at most hide at home and not go out. It would not reach the point of death.

Chapter 642: Void Refinement Realm Body Cultivator (1)

Although the Three Madness Set was one of the biggest ways to earn Breakthrough Stones, it was not the way to go. Most of Zhu Wuyang's time and energy were spent on other ways to earn Breakthrough Stones.

For example, collecting all kinds of natural treasures, elixirs, and waste pills and medicine. For example, organizing some foreign world versions of the Asian Games, the Olympic Games, martial arts events, and so on. For example, using the power in his hands to do some big things... These could also bring Zhu Wuyang a lot of breakthrough stones, and they were endless.

However, most of these actions required a long time to be carried out in order to obtain enough breakthrough stones. The Three Madness Set could bring a large number of breakthrough stones to Zhu Wuyang in a short period of time, and the number was quite considerable.

Therefore, when Zhu Wuyang was earning breakthrough stones, he would often choose both the righteous and evil paths. This way, it would bring him the greatest benefits.

In just a few months, Zhu Wuyang had been developing the influence of Wuyang Peak without delaying the earning of breakthrough stones. When the expansion of Wuyang Peak slowed down, Zhu Wuyang had also earned nearly ten billion breakthrough stones, which was enough for him to raise his body-refining cultivation to the Void Training Stage.

If Zhu Wuyan's spiritual root had not reached the peak of the Second Grade in the 300 worlds, she would have spent at least 30 billion breakthrough stones to advance to the Void Refinement Realm.

Zhu Wuan didn't accumulate the breakthrough stones in his body. With his current strength, he didn't have to worry about his body-tempering cultivation increasing too quickly for the time being.

With his cultivation base at the late-Spatial Tempering Stage and his top-notch Immortal Martial Arts, Zhu Wanhao was able to hide from any cultivator in the Southern Wasteland. Even Cui Zhicheng, the strongest cultivator in the Southern Wasteland, could not detect Zhu Wanhao's cultivation base.

Hidden in the underground secret realm of Wuyang Peak, Zhu Wuyang sat cross-legged. Billions of breakthrough stones surged into his body and began to upgrade his tenth interior star.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

At the same time, the strange power of breaking through the petrification was also tempering and strengthening Zhu Wuwan's body. Together with the pressure brought by the stars in the interior, they created an even stronger physique.

Zhu Wanhao could clearly feel that her body was becoming more and more powerful. With just a raise of her hand, she could easily kill any Soul Formation Stage cultivator and severely injure an Early Void Refinement Stage ancient giant. Moreover, she did not need to use her Qi Refinement cultivation.

"Pfft..."

The tenth Star of the Exterior rushed out of his Aperture acupoints and turned into a new Star of the Exterior. This also meant that Zhu Wuwan's Body Refining Cultivation had officially broken through and entered the Void Refinement Realm.

Then, Zhu Wuyang felt her physical fitness begin to soar at a terrifying speed. It was a little slow to say that she could travel 100,000 miles a day.

Skin, muscles, bones, internal organs, lower dantian, middle dantian, upper dantian ... They were becoming harder and harder, and more and more flexible.

Soon, it reached the level where it could withstand the bombardment of a low-grade magic treasure. Its hardness and flexibility directly surpassed the limits of low-grade magic treasures and stepped into the ranks of middle-grade magic treasures. Moreover, it was not an ordinary middle-grade magic treasure.

The Heavenly Cycle Stellar Scripture was one of the top body-tempering manuals in ancient times, and its power was beyond imagination.

By the time the 10th Exterior star stabilized, Zhu Wuwan's physical fitness was already comparable to a powerful middle-grade magic weapon. Even an ordinary ancient giant with a middle-grade magic weapon could not break Zhu Wuwan's defense.

The Heavenly Cycle Stellar Law and Zhu Wuyang's special properties of strengthening the constitution formed a perfect chemical effect, allowing Zhu Wuyang's constitution to far surpass any body cultivator of the same level who cultivated the Heavenly Cycle Stellar Law in the past.

The Heavenly Cycle Stellar Scripture was a top-notch body-tempering treasure book that could allow cultivators to create a terrifying physique that surpassed that of demon beasts. Now that it had the special enhancement of Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison, it was only natural for it to become so powerful.

With Zhu Wanhao's current body tempering cultivation base, he could easily kill a Mid Void Refinement Realm ancient giant, defeat a Late Void Refinement Realm ancient giant, and contend with a Perfect Void Refinement Realm ancient giant.

If they were to add in their Qi Refinement cultivation, even the Body Integration Pillars would be able to spar.

In order to increase his strength, all the Breakthrough Stones accumulated in his body had been used up by Zhu Wuyang. This left Zhu Wuyang with only 10 billion Free Breakthrough Stones.

He would temporarily accumulate these Free Breakthrough Stones and use them when he encountered danger or when he encountered some difficult problems. He had to leave some trump cards for himself.

Moreover, these Free Breakthrough Stones could be used to replenish Zhu Wuyang's stamina, Nascent Soul, and spiritual sense at critical moments. They could be said to be good things that saved lives.

In less than a year, he had earned nearly 20 billion breakthrough stones. Naturally, it was because his forces had expanded too quickly during this period of time. These rapidly increasing forces had brought a large number of breakthrough stones to Zhu Wuyang.

In addition, the people who gave the package were all newcomers. The first two times they gave Zhu Wuyang the most breakthrough stones, they were able to earn so many breakthrough stones in less than a year.

However, he wouldn't be able to earn so many breakthrough stones next year unless Zhu Wuyang could think of another good way or something happened.

Speaking of which, it had been almost a year, but the Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect hadn't done anything to him after seeing the rise of an overwhelming prodigy from the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect.

Logically speaking, the 300-world trial had just ended, and it was the time when the Sacred Flame Sect and the Divine Herbalist Sect's killing intent towards him was at its peak. In order to avoid being ambushed, Zhu Wuyang had been hiding obediently in the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect during this period of time to avoid any danger.

However, what made him helpless was that it had been peaceful for nearly a year. He had not encountered any danger at all. It was a little inappropriate.

Could it be that the Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect saw that his strength was too strong and that the price to pay if they wanted to assassinate him was too high, so they stopped?

How was this possible?

Faced with Zhu Wanhao, who had a very high chance of stepping into the Body Integration Stage and allowing the Thousand Poisons Sect to continue dominating the entire Southern Wasteland, the Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect should be able to kill him no matter what.

Was this calm the last calm before the storm?

At the thought of this, the confused Zhu Wuwan absorbed the basic poison into his body and digested it with the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique, further enhancing and strengthening Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison.

As portions of the basic poison fused with Zhu Wuyang's mixed poison, it began to improve at a speed visible to the naked eye. The speed far exceeded the imagination of any cultivator from the Thousand Poisons Sect.

If they were to see Zhu Wuwan absorbing all kinds of poisons in this manner, and they were all different types of poisons, even if it was just some basic poisons, they would be scared out of their wits.

It was too fast, and the impact it gave people was simply incomparable!

Read I'm Leveling Up Too Quickly Chapter 643 - 643: Devouring All Things \(1\)

Chapter 643: Devouring All Things (1)

Before entering the 300 worlds, Zhu Wuwan had fused 2,000 types of basic poisons. There were still 1,600 types of basic poisons that he had not fused.

However, even though he had only fused 2,000 types of poisons, Zhu Wuwan's Mixed Poison had risen to the sixth-grade Mixed Poison Realm. It could be seen that Zhu Wuwan's choice of fusing basic poisons was extremely correct.

But thinking about it, this was also within expectations. A tall building starts from the ground. Those basic poisons seemed to be of a lower level, but they were the foundation for combining into various high-level poisons.

On the other hand, many high-level poisons were also mixed poisons. However, they were natural mixed poisons that included the power of all aspects of basic poisons.

For example, many basic poisons would only cause one kind of harm to all kinds of life forms. For example, they would paralyze the body, harm the five internal organs, or make people fall asleep ...

However, some high-level poisons could not only paralyze the body, but also harm the five internal organs. They could even make people fall asleep, and they had all kinds of harmful effects.

360 poisons with different basic effects were the foundation of all poisons. From this, 3,600 more complicated basic categories were derived. Therefore, if one were to investigate the world's poisons in detail, there were a total of 3,600 effects.

These effects included but were not limited to paralysis, corrosion, destruction ... What Zhu Wuwan needed to do now was to first devour and absorb all the poisons that contained these 3,600 effects as the foundation of her poison path.

Relying on the power of the entire Thousand Poisons Sect, Zhu Wuwan easily collected all 3,600 types of poisons. What he needed to do next was to absorb and digest all these poisons.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

Before breaking through to the Void Refinement Realm, Zhu Wuwan did not absorb and fuse these poisons. Even though his Ten Thousand Poison True Technique had already reached the seventh level, theoretically, he could absorb and fuse 7,000 types of poisons.

On one hand, this was for safety reasons. On the other hand, it was because after advancing to the Void Refinement Realm, Zhu Wuwan would be able to spend less time absorbing and fusing these poisons.

Just like now, basic poisons were as easy as eating and drinking for Zhu Wuwan. She could fuse dozens of them in a day, but before that, it would be good enough if she could fuse one in ten days.

This was the classic way of sharpening a knife without delaying the work of chopping wood. Zhu Wuwan continued to immerse herself in it, and the poison she fused became more and more.

2,800...All the way to 3,000!

It wasn't that Zhu Wuwan didn't want to continue fusing, but when he fused the 3,000 basic poisons, the fifth characteristic of Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison appeared.

Devouring all things!

At first glance, it seemed to be a duplicate of the fourth characteristic, Ten Thousand Poison as Food, but this characteristic was much more powerful than Ten Thousand Poison as Food.

Myriad Poison as Food could only help Zhu Wuyang devour all kinds of poisons, but devouring everything could not only help Zhu Wuyang devour poisons, but it could also devour Nascent Soul, divine sense, minerals, Gu worms, and spells...

If it was materialized, it would be the Nascent Soul, Golden Core, Niwan Palace, Earth, Mountain, River ... Then, he would remove the impurities and absorb the essence inside to strengthen Zhu Wuyang's body.

As the All-Devouring trait appeared, the All-Poison-For-Food trait gradually disappeared and was integrated into the All-Devouring trait.

In other words, Ten Thousand Poison as Food was the prerequisite skill for devouring all things. Without the characteristic of Ten Thousand Poison as Food, the characteristic of devouring all things would not appear.

Zhu Wuwan didn't expect the fifth characteristic of Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison to be so terrifying and powerful. To be precise, it should be the fourth characteristic. Although it was still four characteristics, the characteristic of devouring everything was so powerful that it could completely catch up to thousands of characteristics.

Zhu Wuyang was very satisfied with this. He did not expect that Zhu Wuyang's mixed poison could actually give rise to such a special characteristic. It was simply unbelievable.

Because Zhu Wuwan's Mixed Poison had already reached the sixth-grade Mixed Poison Realm, and it was even a peak sixth-grade Mixed Poison, the moment the All-devouring characteristic appeared, it was a peak sixth-grade characteristic, and its effect was terrifying.

At this moment, even if the Body Integration Pillar used all its strength to cast a high-level Heaven and Earth spell, Zhu Wuyang could still devour and digest it. Of course, this required a certain amount of time.

Zhu Wuyan continued to absorb and fuse all kinds of basic poisons at a steady pace. He was improving at the rate of dozens of poisons every day. At the same time, the power of Wuyan Peak was also expanding rapidly, gradually becoming one of the first-rate forces of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect.

The heavenly treasures, waste pills, and waste medicines that Zhu Wuwan had collected had already filled several high-grade storage rings. If he ate all of them, he would at least be able to bring Zhu Wuwan more than ten billion breakthrough stones.

However, the gains in other aspects were slowly decreasing. For example, the breakthrough stones brought by the expansion of the faction, the breakthrough stones brought by the free meal, and the breakthrough stones brought by some activities ...

The more times he did it, the less memorable it was, and it didn't seem too special.

Thinking back to how he had rushed forward after returning from the 300 worlds, Zhu Wuwan felt a little uncomfortable. She continued to absorb and fuse the poison with all her might.

However, something happened during the fusion of the poison that made Zhu Wuwan helpless. He had already fused 3,500 types of poison, but Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison had yet to break through to level-seven. It was still at the peak of level-six mixed poison.

Although the fifth characteristic didn't appear, Zhu Wuwan wasn't so disappointed when she thought about the powerful characteristic of devouring all things.

There were still 100 types of basic poisons left, and he would be able to gather 3,600 types of poisons. He wondered if it would bring him a surprise after completing the Great Heavenly Cycle.

Zhu Wuwan was looking forward to it. She spent all her time absorbing and fusing the basic poisons. Zhu Wuwan's poison fusion with the basic poisons increased.

3,510...3,520...Three thousand five hundred and thirty...Three thousand five hundred and sixty...3,580...

All the way to 3,600!

Although he had already thought that after fusing 3,600 types of basic poisons, there might be some changes in Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison. Moreover, such changes were very likely to be good changes.

However, Zhu Wuwan still hadn't thought that this unforeseen event would be so shocking, or perhaps it would be so good.

It was so good that even Zhu Wuwan was shocked. He did not expect that after absorbing and fusing 3,600 types of basic poisons, it could actually make Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison so terrifying.

It must be known that the poisons he had absorbed and fused were only basic poisons. The strongest of them could barely enter the ranks of level-five poisons. However, it was these poisons that were mostly only level-two and level-three poisons that had actually created such a terrifying Zhu Wanwan's mixed poison.

If others knew about this, no one would believe it!

Chapter 644: Double Happiness (1)

The number 3600 cycles was a strange number, especially when it included all the basic poisons in the world and the basic effects of all the poisons.

Even in the legendary Immortal World, all kinds of poisons were derived from these 3,600 basic poisons.

When Zhu Wuwan's Mixed Poison fused all the basic poisons and formed a perfect number, a strange fortune happened.

Zhu Wuwan's entire body was trembling slightly. A huge change was happening in her body. All four characteristics were soaring. To be precise, it had already become five characteristics.

When Zhu Wuwan absorbed and fused 3,600 types of basic poisons, the fifth characteristic of Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison appeared. This characteristic was called.

Everything was empty!

Just from the name alone, one could see the clues. With the help of this characteristic, Zhu Wuyang's poison was like nothingness. It could silently and without a trace fuse into the enemy's body, causing terrifying damage to the enemy.

As a grade-7 mixed poison, even the Body Integration Pillars would be silently infiltrated by Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison, causing terrifying lethality and even killing them directly.

Yes, this was a grade-7 trait. It strengthened one's physique, removed all poisons, strengthened one's nerves, and devoured all things. It had also advanced to the ranks of grade-7 traits.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

The reason for this was naturally because after absorbing and fusing 3,600 types of basic poisons, Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison finally broke through the shackles of the natural moat and stepped into the ranks of the seventh-level mixed poison. It could easily poison the Body Integration Pillar to death and even have the possibility of killing a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal.

It was a transformation from a Level 6 mixed poison to a Level 7 mixed poison. The difference between the two levels was far greater than the difference between a Level 4 mixed poison and a Level 6 mixed poison.

If the effects of a grade-6 poison were still within the comprehension of ordinary cultivators, then once it became a grade-7 poison, it would have some miraculous effects that ordinary cultivators could not understand.

Take Zhu Wuchang's mixed poison as an example. If Zhu Wuchang didn't have any special requirements, the level-seven mixed poison could temporarily hide in the enemy's body for a period of time and launch a sudden attack when the enemy was relatively weak.

This was one of the most important characteristics of a grade-7 and above poison mixture. It was intelligent. With a certain level of intelligence, its lethality was even more terrifying.

In addition to intelligence, the mixed poison above level seven could also transform into the appearance of humans and animals. After approaching the enemy, it would suddenly pounce on them. Of course, this required the owner to inject a certain amount of spiritual awareness and Nascent Soul.

The grade-7 mixed poison had many other special effects that far exceeded the grade-6 mixed poison. All kinds of divine effects were enough to make ordinary cultivators tremble in fear.

Cultivators below the Body Integration Stage were basically powerless against Zhu Wuyan's poison. Zhu Wuyan could easily kill a large number of Nascent Soul old monsters, Soul Formation cultivators, and even ancient giants.

Even though he had been looking forward to Zhu Wuwan's breakthrough from the Grade 6 Heavenly Chasm when she mixed her poison, when she really broke through and felt the power of Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison, Zhu Wuwan could not help but turn pale in shock.

He did not expect that the basic path he had tried would actually be able to nurture such a dazzling flower.

In the entire Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, only Cui Zhicheng, who was known as the strongest person in the Southern Wasteland, could produce a level-seven mixed poison. He was also known as the number one poison in the Southern Wasteland.

It was because of this mix of Cui Zhicheng's poison that Grand Elder Cui Zhicheng was given the title of the most poisonous poison in the Southern Wasteland. His reputation shocked the entire Southern Wasteland and even the other regions of the Dongyuan Continent.

The poison mixture in the body of the other Great Elder of the Thousand Poisons Sect had not yet advanced to the rank of a level-seven poison mixture. It was still at the peak of level-six poison mixture. From this, one could tell how rare a level-seven poison mixture was.

However, Zhu Wanwan was different. With the strength of an ancient giant, what he absorbed and fused were only some basic poisons. After completing the Great Heavenly Cycle, he actually transformed into such a mixed poison.

As expected, the idea of building a tall building from the ground was not only applicable to the path of cultivation, but also to the path of sublimation of mixed poison.

Of course, Zhu Wuwan was not the only one who knew this. There were so many geniuses and monsters in the Thousand Poisons Sect, so there must be others who could guess this.

Unfortunately, none of these people had managed to raise the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique to Zhu Wuyang's level, so they could only speculate. It was impossible to put it into practice.

The transformation of level-seven Zhu Wuwan mixed with poison also made Zhu Wuwan understand that her previous path was not wrong. It also laid an extremely solid foundation for Zhu Wuwan's future cultivation of poison. In the future, let alone ten thousand types of poison, even if there were more poisons, Zhu Wuwan would be able to absorb and fuse them.

However, for the sake of safety, or perhaps for the sake of long-term development, Zhu Wuwan would follow his previous speculation and use these 3,600 basic poisons as the core to continuously fuse more poisons in a ripple shape.

In other words, in the process of fusing other poisons, Zhu Wuyang would fuse the corresponding types of poisons corresponding to the 3,600 basic poisons in turn, instead of picking a certain type, a few types, or dozens of types...He had to grasp the art of equilibrium to avoid the phenomenon of partial specialization.

For example, if he fused with a corrosion-type poison today, he would fuse with a destruction-type poison the next day, and fuse with a nerve-type poison the day after...3,600 types of poisons were fused and developed at the same time. They expanded in circles until they fused all the poisons in the world and became the supreme poison master.

Thinking of the miraculous qualities that the path of poison brought, Zhu Wuyang felt that this path was all-encompassing and had a boundless future. Moreover, this was the most fundamental path of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, and it was also the path that the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect was best at.

Standing on the shoulder of a giant, Zhu Wuyang would definitely be able to walk further and fly higher. Moreover, this path was very suitable for a b * stard like Zhu Wuyang, even though Zhu Wuyang would not admit it easily.

The sublimation of Zhu Wuwan's mix of poison naturally brought about the rapid sublimation of the five characteristics. It was fine if the characteristics of removing all poisons, nerves, devouring all things, and nothingness were not present. These active effects were not easy to display for the time being, but the passive effect of strengthening the physique caused Zhu Wuwan's physical fitness to undergo a huge improvement and transformation.

Even Zhu Wuyang himself did not expect that the effect of a Level 7 physique enhancement would be so outstanding. It was far beyond the imagination of ordinary people, and it also exceeded Zhu Wuyang's imagination. It made him almost invincible in the Southern Wasteland!

Chapter 645: Quasi-Immortal Body (1)

From the Soul Formation stage onwards, the weapons used by cultivators were generally magic treasures. Whether it was the difficulty of refining or the power, they were far superior to magic weapons and spirit weapons. The two could not be mentioned in the same breath.

Spirit weapons had spirits, and magic treasures had gods!

If a spirit weapon could only carry out some simple automatic protection effects, then a magic treasure could bring along simple intelligence to fight with the enemy when the owner was in danger and unable to resist.

Some magic treasures with higher spirituality could even leave their masters and kill enemies from thousands of miles away. The so-called killing of enemies from thousands of miles away was due to such magic treasures.

At most, spirit tools only possessed extremely simple intelligence, and they were rather monotonous and crude. The intelligence of magic treasures far surpassed that of spirit tools. Coupled with the nurturing of the power of divine sense, the intelligence of magic treasures would be even higher.

Under normal circumstances, only the power of spiritual sense could nurture and control magic treasures. The level of spiritual sense was still relatively low.

Under normal circumstances, Soul Formation Stage cultivators could use low-grade magic treasures, Void Training Stage ancient giants could use middle-grade magic treasures, Form Synthesis Stage pillars could use high-grade magic treasures, and only Mahayana Quasi-Immortals could use top-grade magic treasures.

Even the lowest-grade magic treasures were enough to crush Nascent Soul Realm old monsters. Offensive low-grade magic treasures could destroy mountains, and defensive low-grade magic treasures could withstand the bombardment of nuclear bombs.

There was no need to mention the power of a middle-grade defensive magic treasure. It was more than ten times the power of a low-grade defensive magic treasure.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

After stepping into the ranks of Void Refinement Realm body cultivators, Zhu Wuwan's physical strength and flexibility were comparable to middle-grade Dharma treasures, and it was a relatively powerful middle-grade Dharma treasure.

This meant that with Zhu Wuyan's body's defensive power, she could even withstand the full-force attacks of a group of ancient giants holding middle-grade Dharma treasures.

Even in the entire Dongyuan Continent, there were not many ancient giants who could compare to such defensive power. Even among the Integration Pillars, there were not many that could compare.

Only among the Mahayana Quasi-Immortals would there be someone who could match him.

Originally, Zhu Wuyan's body was already strong enough. However, with the passive enhancement of the seventh-grade special enhanced physique after the sublimation, Zhu Wuyan's physical fitness increased by several times. It had already surpassed the scope of middle-grade magic treasures and transformed into the ranks of high-grade magic treasures.

Such physical fitness meant that even if the Body Integration Pillar attacked Zhu Wuyang with a high-grade Dharma treasure, it would be very difficult to kill Zhu Wuyang.

Zhu Wuchang could take the opportunity to escape. With the Illusionary Void Step and the Five Elements Great Escape, even the Body Integration Pillar that had mastered teleportation would find it difficult to catch up to Zhu Wuchang.

The increase in Zhu Wuwan's combined poison had at least tripled Zhu Wuwan's overall strength, and he could now stand on equal footing with the Body Integration Pillar.

Zhu Wuwan had absorbed and fused all 3,600 types of basic poisons. It would be difficult for his strength to increase by leaps and bounds in a short period of time. Zhu Wuwan could be said to have relaxed a little.

Moreover, Zhu Wanwan had been hiding in the Thousand Poison Sect for more than a year. The killing intent of the Sacred Flame Sect and the Divine Alchemist Sect should have decreased by quite a bit. Next, he could go to the periphery of the Thousand Poison Sect's headquarters, places like Nine Dragons City.

As for the further places, he would wait until his Qi Refinement and Body Refinement cultivation had both reached the perfected Void Refinement Realm. At present, there were many good things in the Thousand Poisons Sect that Zhu Wuyang had yet to digest. Naturally, he was not in a hurry to leave this place.

In order to absorb and fuse 3,600 types of basic poisons, he had not interacted with the cultivators under his command for a long time. In the next few days, he could hold some banquets to reward the high-level officials who had done their best for him.

Apart from that, Zhu Wuyan also took time to give pointers to those high-level cultivators who encountered difficulties. After all, many high-level cultivators were willing to join Zhu Wuyan's team because they wanted to receive Zhu Wuyan's guidance.

For Zhu Wuwan, who had mastered almost all the immortal cultivation manuals of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, the problems of these high-level cultivators were really nothing.

By the way, in the past year or so, Zhu Wuwan had comprehended all the core grimoire of the ninety-nine mountain ranges and fused a portion of them.

After all, in the past few decades, Zhu Wuwan had already learned and comprehended more than ninety-nine percent of the cultivation techniques and ancient books in the ninety-nine mountain ranges of the Thousand Poison Sect. Only a small portion of the core was not qualified to read.

Now that he had obtained Cui Taishang's permission, Zhu Wuwan had finally fulfilled his previous wish. Almost all the ancient books in the entire Ten Thousand Poison Sect had been memorized by him.

Although it had not been completely integrated into his immortal martial arts and cultivation technique, he had already comprehended it thoroughly.

The banquet that Zhu Wuchang invited his disciples to was called the Wuchang Banquet. It had a beautiful meaning and became more and more famous.

Hearing that Crown Prince Zhu, who had been in seclusion for a long time, was going to hold a safe banquet, the higher-ups of the safe peak immediately gathered and soon filled the Peace Garden.

In just over a year, there were more than 1,000 great cultivators at the Soul Formation Realm and above under Wuyan Peak. They had expanded by more than ten times, far surpassing any legacy crown prince of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect.

These Soul Formation great cultivators were basically all given high positions by Zhu Wuwan. As long as they worked for Zhu Wuwan well, Zhu Wuwan would not mistreat them.

However, among these Soul Formation Realm cultivators, there were some who harbored ill intentions. There were even spies from other forces.

” Congratulations to the host for being secretly investigated by Li Mingyu, the traitor of the Hermean Sect, for the first time in your life. You have received one million Breakthrough Stones...”

Li Mingyu was a Soul Formation Intermediate Stage cultivator and one of the inner sect deacons of the Tianyin Mountain with real power. He was also a neutral faction of the Tianyin Mountain. If such a big shot wanted to join Wuyang Peak, if Zhu Wuyang did not accept him, it would definitely arouse suspicion.

Therefore, even though Zhu Wuwan knew from the start that Li Mingyu was one of the important chess pieces of the Medicine God Sect hidden in the Thousand Poisons Sect, she did not make a move on him. Instead, she gave him a good position.

On the one hand, this was to avoid exposing himself. On the other hand, he was prepared to beat Li Mingyu at his own game and obtain more information about the traitor of the Hermean God Sect through Li Mingyu. When the time was right, he would catch them all in one fell swoop.

This suitable opportunity was temporarily reserved by Zhu Wuyang for the time when she ascended the position of the Thousand Poisons Sect Master.

When the time came, a new official would start with three fires. The first fire would be on these traitors, solving a big problem that had troubled the Thousand Poison Sect for thousands of years and establishing his authority and status.

Therefore, people like Li Mingyu were left by Zhu Wuwan in Wuwan Peak. They were waiting for the right time to kill them as sacrifices to the heavens.

Fortunately, there were not many Soul Formation Stage spies. There were only three of them in the entire Wuyang Peak. It did not affect the development of Wuyang Peak and the overall situation. It could be said that the advantages outweighed the disadvantages.

” Congratulations to the host for being assassinated by the Sacred Flame Sect’s traitor, Zhang Zhanren, for the first time in your life. You have received one billion Breakthrough Stones...”

Chapter 646: Southern Wasteland’s Top Ten Gu Insects (1)

One billion Breakthrough Stones!

Wasn’t it just a sneak attack by a Soul Formation Peak Stage cultivator? I actually got a billion breakthrough stones. The reward is so generous. Please give me ten more!

Zhu Wuan was shocked. His gaze inadvertently swept past the Vice Minister of the Ministry of Justice, Zhang Zhanren, who was nearby. His expression was filled with disbelief.

Zhang Zhanren was one of the three Incarnation Realm spies who had infiltrated Zhu Wuan’s forces. Moreover, he was the strongest among them and was a spy from the Sacred Flame Sect.

In order not to arouse his suspicion, Zhu Wuan had specially arranged the position of the right assistant minister of the Ministry of Justice for him. He was one of the top three big shots in the Ministry of Justice of Wuan Peak.

However, Zhu Wuwan was also secretly paying the most attention to him. She had even specially placed a Listening Gu and a Surveillance Gu on him. Even the Body Integration Pillar would find it difficult to detect these improved good things.

With the help of the Surveillance Gu and the Listening Gu, Zhu Wuwan obtained a lot of valuable information from Zhang Zhanren.

However, even the Surveillance Gu and the Listening Gu did not discover how Zhang Zhanren had attacked Zhu Wuwan just now. If it were not for the special encounter system’s notification, Zhu Wuwan would not have been able to discover it at the first moment.

However, how exactly did Zhang Zhanren harm him? Zhu Wuyang was still a little confused.

Updated by N○vG○.c○

Moreover, before he attacked Zhu Wuyang, Zhang Zhanren must have already communicated with the people of the Sacred Flame Sect. When did he communicate with them? Even the Surveillance Gu and the Listening Gu did not discover it.

If that was the case, did it mean that the Sacred Flame Sect had already made a plan to assassinate Zhu Wuyang before Zhu Wuyang released the Surveillance Gu and the Listening Gu on Zhang Zhanren?

However, the Sacred Flame Sect was only prepared to make a move at this moment?

At the thought of this, a light flashed in Zhu Wuwan's eyes. The Hell's divine sense, which was infinitely close to the Fusion Pillar, began to search every corner of his body with all its might. At the same time, the level-seven Zhu Wuwan's poison was also cooperating with the search.

After checking dozens of times, Zhu Wuwan finally found something unusual in the depths of the Niwan Palace. An almost undetectable white insect egg was hidden near the Soul Torch.

At this moment, the soul fire was about a hundred times stronger than before Zhu Wuwan entered the 300 worlds. One could imagine how much Zhu Wuwan's soul had improved after fusing with three parallel worlds.

The small flame from before had already expanded into a human-head-sized torch, bringing huge benefits to Zhu Wuwan in all aspects.

It was also because of such a powerful Soul Torch that Zhu Wuwan was able to discover the unbelievably small white worm egg and recognize its identity at the first moment.

Drill Devourer Egg!

It was one of the top ten Gu worms of the Southern Wasteland, and ranked third among the top ten Gu worms. It could silently enter the depths of the Niwan Palace of the ancient giants and even the pillars of the body. When it erupted, it would devour their souls and make them disappear.

This was an extremely terrifying Gu worm that could easily kill a perfected Void Refinement Realm ancient giant. Moreover, it was a significant threat to the Body Integration Pillar.

Moreover, before hatching, the eggs were extremely concealed, and it would be difficult for the Fusion Pillar to detect them invading the body. The only drawback was that they had to be close to the eggs before they could be released, and they had to be within three meters.

Earlier, Zhang Zhanren had taken advantage of the chaos when Zhu Wuyang was drinking with the other higher-ups of Wuyang Peak to get close and release the eggs. Even Zhu Wuyang did not notice anything unusual.

No, the Surveillance Gu had actually discovered something unusual about Zhang Zhanren's small action just now, but it had not had the time to report it to Zhu Wuyang.

Or rather, before the feedback, the worm eggs had already entered Zhu Wuwan's body.

With the help of the Surveillance Gu, Zhu Wuwan saw a hint of success flash across Zhang Zhanren's lips.

He smiled slightly. The worm's egg was indeed well-hidden, but once it was discovered, it would not be too difficult to deal with it. At least, with Zhu Wuwan's current strength, she could completely kill it.

However, if he destroyed this worm egg now, it would definitely be discovered by the enemy. That would not be good. It was better to keep it for fishing for the time being.

However, for the sake of safety, Zhu Wuwan quietly set up a layer of Hell's Divine Consciousness around the worm eggs, two layers of Hell's Divine Consciousness, and three layers of Hell's Divine Consciousness...A hundred levels of Hell's Divine Consciousness, then a hundred levels of the strange power that broke through the petrification process and targeted the worm eggs, a hundred levels of Zhu Wuyang's power mixed with poison, a hundred levels of the power of the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul, and a hundred levels of the power of the Soul Torch...

Under such circumstances, if the worm eggs were still able to swallow Zhu Wuyang's soul core, then Zhu Wuyang would kill him himself.

At the same time, Zhu Wanwan placed several Surveillance and Listening Gu on Zhang Zhanren's body, waiting for him to lead the way to find the Sacred Flame Sect's enemies hidden near the Thousand Poison Sect.

After all, if one wanted to hatch and detonate the eggs, they had to use the Blood Sacrifice Art. The stronger and more powerful the living beings sacrificed, the stronger and more powerful the eggs would be when they hatched. Moreover, the Blood Sacrifice had to be ten thousand miles away from the host. Any further and the power of the Blood Sacrifice would be greatly affected.

Therefore, if they wanted to hatch the worm eggs and unleash their full power, the Sacred Flame Sect's enemies would definitely set up a Blood Sacrifice Array within ten thousand miles of Zhu Wuwan. This place was very likely to be within ten thousand miles of Wuwan Peak.

The easiest place to hide within this 10,000-mile radius was Nine Dragons City!

Therefore, if Zhu Wuwan's speculation was correct, the enemy of the Sacred Flame Sect was currently in a hidden place in Nine Dragons City, preparing for the Blood Sacrifice Array.

But even so, it was not easy for Zhu Wuwan to find them. She still needed to rely on Zhang Zhanren's strength to find the enemy as soon as possible.

However, it could not be ruled out that after Zhang Zhanren completed his mission, he would no longer contact the people of the Sacred Flame Sect to avoid revealing any flaws. Therefore, Zhu Wuyang would also send people to secretly search for all suspicious places within a radius of 10,000 miles.

Even so, Zhang Zhanren had to inform the Sacred Flame Sect after completing the mission, so it was inevitable that he would reveal a flaw.

At the thought of this, Zhu Wuwan felt much more at ease. She focused on drinking and eating to reward the soldiers under her command. When she passed by Zhang Zhanren, she also did some tricks on him.

Since the Sacred Flame Sect was prepared to make a move against him, they would definitely send some experts over to be on the safe side. After all, Zhu Wuwan was already a late-Spatial Tempering Stage ancient giant.

If they wanted to kill a Late Void Refinement Realm ancient giant with the help of the Drill Devourer Egg Gu, the Sacred Flame Sect would have to send at least an ancient giant, and not an ordinary one at that.

When Zhu Wuan killed him, the people of the Sacred Flame Sect would definitely be very happy. The death of an ancient giant was an unbearable pain even for the Sacred Flame Sect. It was enough to hurt the Sacred Flame Sect.

Zhu Wuan could also obtain considerable benefits from it.

Chapter 647: Zhu Wuyang's Mixed Poison Power (1)

After Zhang Zhanren returned, his actions were no different from usual. It was as if he didn't secretly dig into Zhu Wuyang's eggs.

Zhu Wanwan calmly used several Surveillance Gu and Listening Gu to search for anything suspicious. Zhang Zhanren's every move was seen by him.

It wasn't until the middle of the night that Zhang Zhanren finally made a strange move.

He took out a copper gong magic treasure from his storage ring and played with it in his hand. During this time, he gently patted it a few times. Three long and one short, then he put it back into his storage ring.

Ripple Tracking!

Just as the gong rang, a Surveillance Gu beside Zhang Zhanren trembled, the formation engraved on it activated, and the ripple tracking technique was silently used, following the gong's sound to a place thousands of miles away.

Zhang Zhanren was only a perfected Divine Transformation Realm cultivator. He did not notice the array formation that Zhu Wanhao, a half-step Array King, had set up on the surveillance Gu, let alone the ripple tracking technique.

This array formation was the Ripple Tracking Array. It was also one of the special array formations that Zhu Wuwan had mastered. It could follow all kinds of clues and traces to track the tracks of the enemy.

When Zhang Zhanren sent a message to someone thousands of miles away through the copper gong magic treasure, the ripple tracking array could release the ripple tracking technique to track him down.

At such a close distance, the timing was just right. The accuracy was 99%!

Zhu Wanwan's eyes flashed. She put the invisibility Gu in her pocket and used the Five Elements Great Escape. In an instant, she had traveled thousands of miles and arrived at a market in Nine Dragons City.

Bright Night Market!

Night was like day, and business was particularly good around the clock. Hence, this place was called the Bright Night Market. It was one of the few markets in Nine Dragons City that were open at 12 am.

Therefore, regardless of whether it was day or night, this place was quite lively. The final destination of the Ripple Tracking Technique was deep underground in the Bright Night Market.

For others, they might have to go through a more dangerous door to enter the hidden space underground, but Zhu Wuyang, who had the Five Elements Great Escape, had it much easier.

The surrounding soil was like a family member, sending Zhu Wuyang off into the vast space deep underground. This place was several miles away from the ground and was divided into hundreds of floors, each of which was hundreds of thousands of square meters.

This underground space had clearly been created not long ago. The soil was still fresh, and in every layer of the space, there were densely packed cultivators sitting cross-legged. They were only breathing weakly and had fallen into a coma. There were as many as ten million of them.

Zhu Wuwan scouted around and was shocked to find that most of these cultivators were at the Foundation Establishment stage or above. There were even Nascent Soul old monsters and Soul Formation cultivators. Many of them were related to the Thousand Poisons Sect.

The most important thing was that there was an array connected to each cultivator's body. In the end, it formed a high-level high-grade blood sacrifice array. Once it was activated, the worm eggs hidden in the depths of Zhu Wanwan's Niwan Palace would begin to hatch and erupt with terrifying destructive power.

Even a peak-level Void Refinement Realm ancient giant would basically die when faced with the sudden outbreak of the Drill Devourer Egg. Moreover, there was no possibility of saving them.

Even ordinary early-stage Body Integration experts would be severely injured and even have the risk of dying. The title of Southern Wasteland's top ten Gu worms was not undeserved, it was achieved through killing and blood.

Before this, at least three figures of ancient giants had been killed by the Drill Biting Beetles, including two figures of Integration Pillars.

It could be said that in order to kill Zhu Wuan, the future son of the Thousand Poison Sect, the Sacred Flame Sect had gone all out. Just the value of the worm eggs alone was barely comparable to a high-grade Dharma treasure, let alone these ten million cultivators.

Zhu Wuyan was also amazed by such a huge amount of money.

When Zhu Wanwan quietly arrived at the depths of the hundred-story blood sacrifice array, she was once again shocked by the Sacred Flame Sect's generosity.

Tens of thousands of Sacred Flame Sect cultivators above the Aurous Core Stage had taken a huge risk to come here. They cooperated with the arrangement and activation of the Blood Sacrifice Array.

The most important thing was that among these Sacred Flame Sect cultivators, the leaders were three ancient giants, who were at the perfected Void Refinement Realm.

In the Sacred Flame Sect, other than Old Man Bai Huo, who was in the Body Integration Realm, the higher-ups below him were not legacy elders like the Ten Thousand Poison Sect and the Medicine God Sect. Instead, they were the 360-degree Sacred Flame Emissaries, known as the 360 giants.

First-degree holy fire envoy, second-degree holy fire envoy, third-degree holy fire envoy ... And so on, until the 360-degree holy fire emissary formed a complete circle. The meaning was that the holy fire was omnipresent and all-encompassing, without any loopholes or flaws.

The higher the rank of the holy fire emissary, the stronger their strength and the higher their status.

At this moment, the three Eternal Powerful Beings at the Exceptional Void Refinement Realm who were in charge of the Blood Sacrifice Formation were the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Level Holy Fire Emissaries of the Sacred Fire Sect. They were the top three Holy Fire Emissaries among the 360-degree Holy Fire Emissaries.

Among them, the Fifth Degree Sacred Fire Emissary was a famous high-level array grandmaster in the Sacred Fire Sect. He was also the person who set up the Blood Sacrifice Array. In the entire Sacred Fire Sect, there were only a handful of array grandmasters of this level.

If the three of them died here, even Old Man Baihuo would not be able to take it.

Zhu Wuwan smiled slightly. He released the poison silently. The effects of the Void Special were shocking. The Poison Release Method worked well together. In a few breaths, it entered the bodies of every Sacred Flame Sect cultivator, including the three Sacred Flame Emissaries who were ranked at the top of the Sacred Flame Sect.

At this moment, these Sacred Flame Sect cultivators had obviously received the news that Zhang Zhanren had sent over. They were preparing to set up a blood sacrifice array to detonate the worm eggs and let them act up in Zhu Wuwan's Niwan Palace. They would devour Zhu Wuwan's soul and completely scatter Zhu Wuwan's soul.

However, at this moment, all the Sacred Flame Sect's cultivators felt their Niwan Palace tremble and disappear in an instant. All their divine senses and souls had been swallowed by Zhu Wuwan's poison.

Give him a taste of his own medicine!

The level-seven Zhu Wuwan was all-encompassing with all kinds of poisons. The poison contained all kinds of effects, and it all depended on how Zhu Wuwan was going to use it.

However, at this moment, the effect of Zhu Wuyang's skill was mainly the devouring characteristic of Zhu Wuyang mixed with poison. He wanted to test the power of the devouring characteristic.

" Someone poisoned us. Hurry up and take the antidote! "

“Send a message back. We can’t leave!”

Faced with Zhu Wuwan’s attack that was mixed with poison, the three Sacred Flame Emissaries ranked in the top ten of the Sacred Flame Sect, who were also the top ten experts of the Sacred Flame Sect, only managed to withstand it for a few breaths before their Niwan Palace, along with their consciousness and souls, were completely devoured, becoming nourishment for Zhu Wuwan.

Chapter 648: Devour Increases (1)

Although he had already tested the power of Zhu Wuyang’s poison mixture at Wuyang Peak, that test was ultimately inferior to a test in actual combat. Zhu Wuyang could not possibly drag the Ten Thousand Poison Sect’s ancient tycoon into the test.

This was the first time that Zhu Wuwan herself had witnessed the lethality of Zhu Wuwan’s poison against the ancient giants.

He had no resistance at all!

It could be said that the three Sacred Flame Emissaries who were ranked in the top ten of the Sacred Flame Sect basically had no way to resist Zhu Wuwan’s attack mixed with poison. They were killed by Zhu Wuwan’s poison.

Such a shocking scene stunned even Zhu Wuyang for a moment.

Zhu Wuwan did not expect that the power of Zhu Wuwan’s poison would be so terrifying. The three ancient giants who were half a step into the realm of the Body Integration Pillar could not even withstand it.

Previously, he had underestimated the power of Zhu Wuwan’s poison, and he had also underestimated his own combat strength.

Realization dawned on Zhu Wuyang, and her face was filled with smiles.

Then, the pure divine sense power and soul power that swarmed over drowned him. Zhu Wuwan began to absorb these divine sense power and soul power, and the Hell divine sense and soul torch began to rapidly increase.

The lake formed by Hell’s Soul Consciousness surged and expanded a few times in a short time. The soul torch also became brighter and brighter, and it had improved by more than a few times.

The devouring effect of Zhu Wuyang's poison was indeed powerful. It far surpassed the Star Absorbing Great Art and the Northern Dark Divine Art that Zhu Wuyang had seen in the Martial Integration Small World.

It was just that the Hell Divine Sense and the Soul Torch felt a little unstable after they were upgraded. They were far inferior to the upgrade brought by the Breakthrough Stone. They were even inferior to fusing with the souls of the parallel worlds when he was in the 300s.

It seemed like his plan to use Zhu Wuwan's poison devouring characteristic to increase his strength was going to fail. Although this method could allow his strength to increase rapidly, the hidden dangers were also extremely shocking.

When a certain amount was devoured, these hidden dangers would erupt and bring great harm to Zhu Wuwan. If it was light, she would go berserk, and if it was serious, she would explode and die.

Even now, after devouring the consciousness and souls of so many Sacred Flame Sect cultivators, Zhu Wuwan's Hell consciousness and soul torch needed a long time to consolidate. Only then could she eliminate the hidden dangers and turn them into her own power.

Moreover, before this, Zhu Wuwan did not dare to use the breakthrough stone to increase her realm and cultivation.

All in all, the advantages outweighed the disadvantages.

As long as he grasped the right amount of time, Zhu Wuwan's devouring characteristic of mixing poison with poison could indeed increase Zhu Wuwan's strength faster. If it was combined with the Breakthrough Stone, the effect would be quite good.

After confirming that there weren't too many hidden dangers, Zhu Wuwan was relieved and began to search for the spoils of war.

As for the message that the three holy fire emissaries had sent, it was naturally destroyed by the isolation array that Zhu Wuyang had set up in advance. Nothing was sent out. Zhu Wuyang still had this ability.

Tsk, tsk. As expected of one of the top ten ancient giants of the Sacred Flame Sect. He had a lot of good things on him. The total value was no less than hundreds of billions of low-grade spirit stones. He even had a high-grade magic weapon, although there was only one.

There were also those weaker Soul Formation cultivators, Nascent Soul old monsters, and Golden Core cultivators...He also had a lot of good things on him, and the total value was more than 10 billion low-grade spirit stones.

Regrettably, Zhu Wuyan had underestimated the power of Zhu Wuyan's poison. He had originally thought that the three holy fire emissaries would be able to hold on for a while so that Zhu Wuyan could take the opportunity to force something out of him.

However, they did not expect these three to be too fragile. The power of Zhu Wuwan's poison was too strong. Before Zhu Wuwan could react, their souls had already been devoured.

Of course, the Nascent Soul, blood, and the like in their bodies had also been devoured by Zhu Wuyang, further increasing Zhu Wuyang's strength. However, it would take a long time for them to digest and consolidate it.

By the time he digested and consolidated all the things he had devoured, Zhu Wuwan's strength would at least increase by several times, but it was still not enough for him to break through. Every time Zhu Wuwan broke through a small realm, the resources he needed were really too much, far more than that of more than ten cultivators of the same realm.

As for the offerings here, Zhu Wuyang sent them hundreds of thousands of miles away and destroyed the cave, making it seem as if nothing had happened. He returned to Wuyang Peak and continued to monitor the little traitor, Zhang Zhanren.

Zhu Wuwan didn't kill him. Instead, she continued to keep him alive, pretending that she didn't know about this matter. She wanted to see what kind of reaction he would have next and what kind of surprise he would bring.

After all, such an important plan had gone silent for no reason, and the three Sacred Flame Emissaries could no longer be contacted. Zhang Zhanren must have been very anxious. Then, he would contact his companions to ask for information, or contact the higher-ups of the Sacred Flame Sect to ask for information.

At that time, his companions and the upper echelons of the Sacred Flame Sect would also be very surprised. They would do everything they could to find out the truth. At that time, Zhu Wuwan could take advantage of the Sacred Flame Sect's frequent movements to fish in troubled waters and deal more blows to the Sacred Flame Sect.

It was more useful to keep Zhang Zhanren alive than to kill him. After all, he couldn't bring any harm to Zhu Wuyang at the moment. On the contrary, he was still conscientiously handling the Ministry of Justice's matters for Zhu Wuyang and trying his best to perform well. Only then would he be able to gain Zhu Wuyang's trust.

In a small courtyard near the Ministry of Justice on Wuwan Peak, Zhang Zhanren was pacing back and forth in the courtyard. According to the previous plan, once his news had spread, the higher-ups of the Sacred Flame Sect would quickly activate the Blood Sacrifice Array to activate the Drill Devourer Eggs in Zhu Wuwan's Niwan Palace.

Therefore, if nothing unexpected happened, tonight would be Zhu Wuyan's death. Once Zhu Wuyan died, Wuyan Peak would definitely be in chaos. At that time, he could take the opportunity to fish in troubled waters and plunder some of the treasure troves that he had been coveting for a long time.

As for whether the cultivators of the Thousand Poisons Sect would find out that he was the one who had done it, Zhang Zhanren was very confident. Since even Zhu Wuyang did not find out about it at the banquet, there was no need to worry about other cultivators of the Thousand Poisons Sect finding out about it. The concealment of the worm eggs was not to be trifled with.

Moreover, Zhang Zhanren had not revealed any flaws all these years, so it was very difficult for the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect to find him.

Therefore, even if he killed Zhu Wuyan, nothing would happen to him. On the contrary, he could make a great contribution to the Sacred Flame Sect and obtain a lot of cultivation resources. His strength would soar further, and there was even the possibility of him advancing to an ancient giant.

As the most terrifying overwhelming prodigy of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect in recent years, the reward for killing Zhu Wuyang was extremely generous. Otherwise, it wouldn't have attracted the three top ten holy fire emissaries.

Thinking of this, Zhang Zhanren became excited, and his footsteps began to quicken.

Chapter 649: Is Zhu Wuyang Dead (1)

According to Zhang Zhanren's understanding, the Blood Sacrifice Formation in Ninety-nine Dragons City was more than ninety-nine percent complete. There was only one last step left before it would succeed.

In other words, the three holy fire emissaries were waiting for his message to be sent over so that they could complete the last step of the blood sacrifice array. Therefore, it did not take long.

It had been an hour since he sent the message to the three holy fire emissaries. The blood sacrifice array should be almost complete.

Once the Blood Sacrifice Array was set up, the three Sacred Fire Emissaries could activate the Blood Sacrifice Array and hatch the eggs from afar to kill Zhu Wuwan.

As long as Zhu Wanhao died, he would have completed this mission. Moreover, it was one of the more important parts of this mission, obtaining the resources and treasures to advance to the ancient giant.

Thinking of this, Zhang Zhanren became even more excited and walked even faster.

Another hour passed, and the Peace Palace on Wuyang Peak, which was a hundred miles away, was quiet. There were no abnormalities.

However, the Blood Sacrifice Array should have been activated by now. Zhu Wuwan was probably already dead. Why was there no abnormality at all?

Zhang Zhanren was a little puzzled. Could it be that the worm eggs acted up too quickly and too violently, so Zhu Wuyang didn't even have time to send the news, so no one knew about it after he died?

Or perhaps Zhu Wuan was currently cultivating in seclusion and died at the place where he was cultivating. No one knew for the time being.

That must be the case!

Zhang Zhanren thought with some certainty. He did not doubt the effect of the worm egg. After all, the worm egg was one of the top ten Gu worms in the Southern Wasteland that could even kill the Body Integration Pillar. How could it not kill a Late Void Refinement Realm ancient giant?

Moreover, this ancient giant had rapidly advanced through the world's origin. In a short period of time, he would not be able to fully control his own power. He would not be able to use even 30% of his full combat power. How could he resist the worm eggs?

Zhang Zhanren was relieved and continued to wait. He had no idea that in just two hours, Zhu Wuyang had already killed the three Sacred Flame Emissaries and tens of thousands of cultivators above the Golden Core realm. Moreover, he had plundered everything and even let go of tens of millions of offerings.

Soon, another two hours passed. The Peace Palace on Wuyang Peak was still safe and sound. There were no abnormalities. It was as if nothing had happened to Zhu Wuyang. In fact, nothing had happened to Zhu Wuyang, but Zhang Zhanren did not think so.

"What's going on?"

Zhang Zhanren frowned, his face full of doubt. It had been four hours, enough for the Blood Sacrifice Array to be activated two or three times. Why was there still no movement?

Could it be that Zhu Wuwan had really gone into seclusion to cultivate and died quickly and silently without being discovered?

"Perhaps that's the case," Zhang Zhanren thought with a frown. His footsteps slowed down. He wanted to go to the Palace of Peace to take a look at the situation, but he was worried that he would reveal a flaw and attract the suspicion of others. He hesitated for a moment.

In his anxiety, six hours passed. There was still no abnormality in the Peace Palace of Wuyang Peak. Zhang Zhanren could not sit still and returned to his room. He began to hit the copper gong Dharma treasure that sent messages.

“Dang...When ... When ... Clang!”

Three long and one short, he once again informed the three holy fire emissaries that he had already placed the worm eggs into Zhu Wuyang’s body and asked them to quickly activate the blood sacrifice array to kill Zhu Wuyang.

In the cultivation mystic realm of the Palace of Peace, Zhu Wuwan took out the other gong that was making a sound. He chuckled and threw it into the depths of his storage ring, ignoring Zhang Zhanren.

The tracking array on the copper gong had been cleared by Zhu Wuwan, so even if the Sacred Flame Sect’s cultivators used the copper gong in Zhang Zhanren’s hand, it would be difficult to find the whereabouts of the other copper gong. Zhu Wuwan had even set up a shielding array on it, which could block secret techniques like the Ripple Tracking Technique.

No response?

Zhang Zhanren was a little flustered. Logically speaking, even if the other party had not activated the blood sacrifice array, they would have given a certain response. There was no reason for there to be no response at all.

Could it be that something had happened to the three holy fire emissaries? Otherwise, why was there no response at all?

Thinking of this possibility, Zhang Zhanren couldn’t help but gasp, but he immediately threw this thought away.

After all, the three holy fire envoys were the top ten holy fire envoys at the Exceptional Void Refinement Realm in the Sacred Flame Sect. How could something happen to them so easily? Moreover, their actions were so secretive that Zhu Wuwan did not notice anything unusual at all.

Taking a step back, even if Zhu Wuwan had discovered something unusual, he could not inform the upper echelons of the Thousand Poison Sect to deal with the three holy fire envoys in such a short time. Moreover, it would be difficult for them to find the three holy fire envoys.

If that was the case, what exactly happened to the three holy fire emissaries? The three holy fire emissaries had responded a few hours ago. There was no reason for something to happen a few hours later.

During this period of time, there was nothing unusual about Wuyan Peak or Nine Dragon Mountain. There was also no news from Nine Dragon City.

To be honest, even if Cui Zhicheng, the top expert of the Thousand Poisons Sect, made a move, it would still be difficult for him to take down the three holy fire emissaries silently.

However, what exactly happened? Why did the worm egg enter Zhu Wuwan's body by itself? There was no reaction from the three holy fire emissaries, and there was no reaction from Zhu Wuwan either. It was as if nothing had happened.

Most importantly, he could not contact the three holy fire emissaries.

Zhang Zhanren's footsteps were a little messy as he walked back and forth in the back garden like a headless fly. He almost did not know where he was.

Time passed very slowly when he was anxious. After walking a thousand rounds, he looked at the time and saw that only two hours had passed. It was already close to twelve hours.

Zhang Zhanren took out the copper gong again. When ... When ... He knocked on the door again and again, but there was no response from the other side, as if there was no one there.

Could it be that my copper gong magic treasure is broken?

This thought appeared in Zhang Zhanren's mind. He began to carefully check his low-grade copper gong magic weapon. After checking, the result was that it was not broken. After all, it was a low-grade magic weapon. How could it be like some counterfeit products on Earth that would cause problems at any time?

Or perhaps Zhu Wuyang was indeed dead, but she hadn't been discovered yet.

Seeing that the sky was already bright, Zhang Zhanren gritted his teeth and decided to take a risk and go to the Peace Palace on Wuyang Peak to see the situation.

Zhang Zhanren thought of a difficult problem in cultivation and was prepared to use it as an excuse to ask for Zhu Wanhao's help to see if he could get some information.

After tidying up his clothes, Zhang Zhanren rushed towards the Peace Palace on Wuyang Peak with heavy footsteps. There was a faint look of anticipation on his face.

He hoped that he would be able to receive news of Zhu Wuan's seclusion cultivation after he arrived at the Palace of Peace. That way, he would not have to worry so much. Perhaps Zhu Wuan was indeed dead, but because she was in seclusion cultivation, the news had not spread for the time being.

Chapter 650: The Sacred Flame Sect's Higher-ups Are Irresponsible

" His Highness is cultivating in the underground mystic realm. He won't see outsiders for the time being! "

Zhang Zhanren received this news from the guards of the Peace Palace, which made him both happy and worried.

Just as he had guessed, Zhu Wuyang was cultivating alone in the underground mystic realm at the moment, so even if something happened, it would be difficult to discover it in a short period of time.

But why couldn't he contact the three holy fire emissaries? Did something happen to them, or did they encounter something else that made them unable to reply to his message for the time being?

Zhang Zhanren was more inclined to the latter. After all, the three holy fire envoys were all peerless powerhouses at the perfected Void Refinement Realm, so it was not easy for them to get into trouble. Moreover, he was only a Soul Formation Realm cultivator. It was normal for the three holy fire envoys to respond to his copper gong notification if they wanted to, and not if they did not want to.

Since that was the case, he would wait a little longer. He waited for three days, but there was still no news.

Not only did Zhang Zhanren not receive any news from the three holy fire emissaries, but he also received news from other spies in the sect. They asked him about the news of the fourth, fifth, and sixth degree holy fire emissaries.

This ...

Zhang Zhanren was shocked. Why didn't the others know about the situation of the three holy fire envoys? What exactly happened to the three holy fire envoys?

Zhang Zhanren could not sit still anymore. He quickly spread his understanding of the situation and his speculations silently. He also began to actively contact the spies of the Sacred Flame Sect that he knew in the sect to inquire about the situation.

Although according to the rules of the Sacred Flame Sect's spy department, most of the spies were in one-way contact, when they encountered certain things, it was difficult for a single spy to complete the mission. As a result, some spies had no choice but to help each other.

This was especially true for a major event like the assassination of Zhu Wuyang. With the strength of a traitor like Zhang Zhanren, it would be very difficult to accomplish such a major event.

Therefore, many spies and spies in the Sacred Flame Sect gradually formed connections. The Ten Thousand Poisons Sect could sometimes catch one and often pull out a bunch of them.

However, after experiencing a few lessons, the Sacred Flame Sect began to set up hidden hands in the Niwan Palace of the spies and traitors, preventing them from leaking information. This could be considered to have greatly curbed such matters, allowing the spies and traitors to help each other again. Moreover, their connections became closer and closer.

However, such a secret method could only prevent spies and traitors from leaking information to the Thousand Poison Sect and others. However, if the cultivators of the Thousand Poison Sect obtained the information through other means without their knowledge, they would not be able to prevent it. For example, Zhu Wuyang's Surveillance Gu and Listening Gu.

Zhang Zhanren's actions at this moment could be said to be a great help to Zhu Wuyang. When he went around asking for information, he did not know that the many spies in the Sacred Flame Sect had been exposed under Zhu Wuyang's eyes.

Every time one of them was exposed, Zhu Wuwan would place a Surveillance Gu and a Listening Gu on them, and then use them to obtain more information about the traitor.

Moreover, because the assassination of Zhu Wuyang was too big of a deal, it could be said that it had attracted the attention of all the spies in the Sacred Flame Sect. Therefore, once an abnormal situation occurred, many spies and spies from the Sacred Flame Sect would immediately follow up, allowing Zhu Wuyang to obtain information on a large number of spies and spies from the Sacred Flame Sect.

After a hundred years of improvement by Zhu Wuwan, the Thousand Gu True Technique had already transformed into a top-notch secret technique of heaven and earth. The Surveillance Gu and Listening Gu that it nurtured could not be discovered by even the Body Integration Pillar, let alone the ancient giants.

Therefore, Zhu Wuwan could rest assured and place the Surveillance Gu and Listening Gu on these traitors and spies, as well as some subordinates that made Zhu Wuwan suspicious, or some higher-ups of the Ten Thousand Poison Sect to obtain the information she wanted.

Some of the spies and spies from the Sacred Flame Sect who were also involved in the assassination of Zhu Wuwan naturally did not forget to send the news back to the Sacred Flame Sect and ask about the situation of the three Sacred Flame Envoys. Then, they received a terrible news that made their souls scatter, as well as an urgent secret order from the higher-ups of the Sacred Flame Sect.

That was that the soul fires of the three Sacred Fire Emissaries had been extinguished, along with the soul fires of the tens of thousands of Sacred Fire Sect disciples above the Golden Core realm. Therefore, the sect had asked them to investigate the cause at all costs.

Before Zhang Zhanren received this news, he also received another piece of bad news, and that was that Zhu Wanhao had come out of seclusion!

Wasn't Zhu Wuwan already devoured by the worm eggs? Why did she come out of seclusion again?

Zhang Zhanren was dumbfounded. He wanted to escape immediately, but when he received the news that Zhu Wuyang wanted to see him, Zhang Zhanren almost peed his pants.

Could it be that Zhu Wanhao already knew that he was a spy from the Sacred Flame Sect? Otherwise, why would he suddenly send a message to him? Should he run away now?

However, when he thought about the distance between him and Zhu Wuyan, Zhu Wuyan's strength at the Late Void Refinement Realm, and the fact that this was the headquarters of the Thousand Poisons Sect, Zhang Zhanren felt that it was better to go there obediently. There might be a chance of survival. If he fled now, he would definitely die.

Sighing, Zhang Zhanren rushed towards the Palace of Peace with a heavy heart. He was already prepared to be killed.

On the way, he thought about it carefully. He felt that when he went into the Worm Devouring Egg, Zhu Wuwan did not notice anything unusual. After all, if she had discovered anything unusual, she would have dealt with him immediately instead of waiting until now.

At the thought of this, Zhang Zhanren felt a little more at ease. He quickly rushed to the Palace of Peace, and then...He received Zhu Wuyang's explanation.

It turned out that a few days ago, when he came to Zhu Wuyang for help, his expression looked quite anxious, so the guard took note of it. Today, Zhu Wuyang had just come out of seclusion and told Zhu Wuyang about it.

As one of the 'important higher-ups' of Wuyang Peak, Zhu Wuyang thought highly of him and immediately asked him to come over to answer his doubts.

Zhang Zhanren felt a little awkward when he thought of Zhu Wuan's earnest teachings. It was a pity that he had been caught by the Sacred Flame Sect back then and had no choice but to work for the Sacred Flame Sect. Otherwise, if he had really followed a big shot like Zhu Wuan, it would not have been a bad thing. He might have been able to obtain even more benefits.

Zhang Zhanren felt a little guilty, but he also felt a lot more at ease. He also felt a little grateful to Zhu Wuyan, but many doubts still shrouded Zhang Zhanren's heart, making him uneasy.

Since Zhu Wuyang did not realize that he was the one who had planted the worm eggs, and he looked so healthy and unharmed, did the three Sacred Fire Emissaries launch a blood sacrifice to harm Zhu Wuyang?

As one of the top ten venomous insects of the Southern Wasteland, how could the Drill Biting Worms be so easy to clean up? Could it be that the Drill Biting Worms' eggs were still in Zhu Wuwan's Niwan Palace, but the three holy fire emissaries had not started the blood sacrifice yet?

However, how long had it been? The bloody sacrifice had not been launched yet. What were the three holy fire emissaries doing? Were they eating rice? Why was there no movement at all? It was really strange. Were the higher-ups of the sect so irresponsible?
