Chapter 61: Breaking Through the Earth Pass (1)

The dantian was like a chicken egg, but it was filled with filth. Only by breaking through and cleaning up this filth and tempering the dantian egg could one use the dantian.

At this moment, the breakthrough point had transformed into another strange power. This power could effectively eliminate the filth in the lower dantian and temper the lower dantian in all directions.

The path leading to the lower dantian was also filled with filth. This filth also needed to be cleaned up. Only by cleaning up this filth could the filth in the dantian be cleaned up.

This was also the bottleneck to the Earth Pass Realm!

When clearing this passage, the slightest carelessness could cause the earth's inner Qi to be contaminated by the foul air, causing the martial artist to go berserk. Therefore, the bottleneck of the Earth Pass Realm was not so easy to break through.

Fortunately, Zhu Wuan had the help of a large number of breakthrough points. The strange power that these breakthrough points turned into could easily dispel the foul air. As long as Zhu Wuan pushed these strange forces in front and the Inner Qi of the earth assisted from behind, he could easily break through the layers of shackles and charge towards the Earth Pass Realm.

Zhu Wuwan broke through with a bitter expression. A large number of breakthrough points were forcefully poured in, turning into a surging strange power that drove Zhu Wuwan's strength to continuously rise.

This path that led to the lower dantian was opened at an extremely fast speed, far exceeding the imagination of ordinary martial artists.

When the filthy Qi was dispelled, the impurities in Zhu Wuwan's body were also cleared out, allowing Zhu Wuwan's body to undergo a small change in the marrow.

Although the Muscle Tendon Changing and Marrow Cleansing this time was not as good as the Muscle Tendon Changing and Marrow Cleansing during the Blood Transfusion Refinement, this was only a side benefit. Zhu Wuwan was already quite satisfied with this.

However, Zhu Wuwan did not know that although his Muscle Tendon

Changing and Marrow Cleansing could not catch up with the Blood

Transfusion Refinement, it could still catch up with the Muscle Tendon

Changing and Marrow Cleansing of an ordinary martial artist during the Blood Transfusion Refinement. In fact, it even far exceeded it. As a result, Zhu Wuwan's talent and aptitude had undoubtedly become stronger.

The Heaven Pass was like ascending to the sky, and the Earth Pass was like climbing a mountain. Moreover, they were not climbing ordinary mountains, but those dangerous peaks. If they were not careful, what awaited the martial artist was the danger of falling.

Once one fell down from the dangerous peak, one's Internal Qi would be destroyed and their strength would decrease drastically. In serious cases, one would go berserk and die directly. From this, one could see how difficult the Earth Pass was.

If not for that, it wouldn't be called Earth Pass.

Even with the help of the breakthrough point, Zhu Wuwan still spent nearly four hours before he rushed to the end of the road and sent the first wisp of Earth Internal Qi into the lower dantian, which was filled with foul Qi.

At this moment, Zhu Wuwan still had not broken through. Next, he needed to use the inner Qi of the earth to open up a safe place in his lower dantian so that the inner Qi of the earth could enter and exit freely. Only then could he be considered to have advanced to the early stage of the Earth Gate Realm.

However, compared to the filthy Qi in the passageway, there was even more filthy Qi in the lower dantian. It was like a river and a sea, surging toward the Inner Qi of the earth. If one was not careful, the Inner Qi of the earth would be contaminated and cause serious damage to Zhu Wuwan.

If he could not cut off his tail in time to survive, all the Internal Qi in the martial artist's body would be contaminated. At that time, he could only waste his Internal Qi, and he had to do it as soon as possible. Otherwise, the filthy Qi would pollute the entire body of the martial artist.

The lower dantian was far more dangerous than the passageway.

Even with the strange power formed by the breakthrough point in front of him, the inner Qi of the earth only needed to eliminate some of the fish that escaped the net. However, it was still dangerous. Zhu Wuwan found it difficult to charge forward.

This made Zhu Wanhao clearly feel how terrifying the Earth Pass Realm was. Even with the help of a breakthrough point, it was so difficult for him to break through, let alone those martial artists who did not have the help of a breakthrough point.

No wonder the martial arts world said that only one in ten thousand could reach the Earth Pass Realm, and only one in ten thousand could reach the Heaven Pass Realm. This meant that out of ten thousand martial artists who tried to reach the Earth Pass Realm, not even one could succeed.

Therefore, as long as one could step into the Earth Pass Realm, there was a high chance that a martial artist would be able to overcome the shackles and step into the Foundation Meridian Stage.

It was as dangerous as a pile of eggs, swaying in the wind and rain.

This was what Zhu Wuwan felt. The Inner Qi of the earth was like a candle in the darkness in the lower dantian that was filled with filth. It could be swallowed by the darkness at any time, causing the entire lower dantian to sink into filth again.

The foul air from all directions was like a hurricane, roaring and trying to extinguish the candle flame formed by the Internal Qi of the earth. Fortunately, there was a strange power formed by the breakthrough point to protect it and eliminate the foul air at the same time. This allowed the seemingly swaying candle flame to persist and not extinguish.

The candle flame stubbornly extinguished the strands of filth that leaked out. It grew larger and brighter, gradually stabilizing an area, so that there was no filth raging in this area.

After an unknown period of time, when this area had completely stabilized and was filled with increasingly pure and vigorous Earth Internal Qi, it also meant that Zhu Wuwan's strength had finally broken through the Earth Pass and advanced to a new realm.

Earth Pass Realm!

Although he had only advanced to the early-stage of the Earth Gate Realm, and only a small area in his lower dantian had been opened up and nourished, the amount of Inner Qi stored in this small area was already comparable to the amount of Inner Qi in Zhu Wanhao's meridians.

The lower dantian, which had been tempered by inner Qi, was in between reality and illusion. It could store a large amount of inner Qi. As an extraordinary power, inner Qi was also in between reality and illusion.

The seemingly small Lower Dantian had actually stored a foot of Earth Inner Qi, forming a mist of Inner Qi that resisted the corrosion and attack of the surrounding filthy Qi.

In the process of resisting the foul air, the Internal Qi of the earth was also tempered and hammered, becoming purer and stronger.

At this moment, even though Zhu Wanhao had advanced to the Earth Gate Realm, she still hadn't completely broken through the Earth Gate. After all, there was still so much filthy Qi in her lower dantian that she needed more time and energy to clean it up.

Only by eliminating all the filth in his lower dantian could he be considered to have broken through the Earth Gate and begin to prepare for the next stage of cultivation.

However, with the speed at which Zhu Wuyang was gaining breakthrough points, it shouldn't take long for him to completely break through the Earth Gate and prepare for the higher stages.

Therefore, after absorbing all the breakthrough points and stabilizing his strength in the early stage of the Earth Gate Realm, Zhu Wuwan went to the study room to look for a suitable Foundation Vein cultivation technique.

The Limitless Earth Technique was only a Foundation Establishment Divine Technique at the Body Tempering Stage. It did not have a cultivation method at the Vein Casting Stage. Therefore, Zhu Wuwan still needed to find a cultivation technique suitable for the Vein Casting Stage to forge the strongest spirit meridians..freewebnvel.com

Chapter 62: Nine Meridians Casting Body (1)

The so-called Meridian Casting stage was to create nine spiritual meridians connected to the lower Dantian and run through the martial artist's body. Not only could it store a large amount of Inner Qi, but it could also drive the martial artist's entire body to transform.

These spirit meridians could also effectively absorb the Heaven and Earth Spirit Qi from the outside world, helping martial artists to improve at an extremely fast speed. However, the lower dantian did not have this ability. Only through the spirit meridians could one absorb the Heaven and Earth Spirit Qi.

It was precisely because of this that these nine meridians forged by martial artists were called spirit meridians.

On the day that Zhu Wuwan obtained the Flawless Dao Foundation, the embryonic form of nine spirit meridians had already appeared in his body. With these nine spirit meridians in the embryonic form, Zhu Wuwan could achieve twice the result with half the effort when forging spirit meridians. The time and energy required was far less than that of ordinary martial artists.

This was an extremely important boost to Zhu Wuyan's cultivation on the path of martial arts. Moreover, through the embryonic form of these nine spiritual meridians, the spiritual meridians that Zhu Wuyan forged would be far superior to ordinary martial artists. It could accommodate more powerful and more Internal Qi. The benefits were obvious.

After a careful selection, Zhu Wuwan chose a peerless divine technique that was cultivated in the Vein Building stage in the study. This peerless divine technique was called.

Jiang He Vein Forging Record!

As the name suggested, the spiritual veins forged by this peerless divine technique were like the Yangtze River. They were huge and tough, and could be said to be of the same origin as the Limitless Earth Technique.

The Jiang He Meridian Forging Manual could be said to be the best peerless divine technique to connect to the Limitless Earth Technique. However, it was too difficult to cultivate, so not many warriors in the Zhu royal family chose to cultivate it.

In the past hundred years or so, only one person from the Zhu royal family had chosen the River Meridian Forging Record as his main cultivation technique.

This person was the peerless expert known as the invincible Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu of the Nine Zhao Nation.

Zhu Wuyan would soon be the second. With the help of the breakthrough point and extraordinary talent, Zhu Wuyan believed that the Jiang He Vein Forging Record, which was extremely difficult for others, would not be difficult for her.

After choosing the cultivation technique for the Vein Casting stage, Zhu Wuwan began to comprehend it.

“Congratulations to the host for reading the Peerless Divine Technique River Meridian Building Record for the first time in your life. You have obtained 5000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for comprehending the Peerless Divine Technique, River Meridian Forging Record for the first time in your life. You have obtained 8000 breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for comprehending the entry-level Jiang He Vein Forging Record for the first time in his life. You have obtained 10000 breakthrough points...”

With Zhu Wuyan’s talent and comprehension ability, it only took him a few hours to understand the Jiang He Vein Forging Record. After he reached the peak of the Earth Gate, Zhu Wuyan would be able to start cultivating the Jiang He Vein Forging Record and forge spirit meridians.

As the ultimate Meridian Casting Divine Art in the martial arts world, Jiang

He's Meridian Casting Record could help Zhu Wuyan forge nine spirit meridians. Most martial artists could only forge four or five spirit meridians at the Meridian Casting stage.

Even if one cultivated a top-notch Meridian-Building martial art, the number of spiritual meridians that could be created would not exceed seven. Only a peerless Meridian-Building divine art could create nine spiritual meridians.

Nine was the extreme number. In theory, nine spirit meridians was already the maximum number of spirit meridians that a martial artist could forge at the Vein Casting stage.

Every time a spirit vein was forged, the strength of a martial artist could obtain a huge increase. Generally, as long as one could enter the stage of the Spirit Vein, they could be considered a third-rate expert in the entire Nine Zhao Kingdom.

Those who were given the title of "master" could basically walk freely in the Southern Wasteland. As long as they didn't seek death, they would rarely be in danger and would have enough power to protect themselves.

In an ordinary county, a third-rate expert was already a top-notch existence. Even in some county cities, a third-rate expert could easily become a tycoon.

Although Zhu Wuan had yet to enter the Foundation Meridian stage, with her solid cultivation foundation, coupled with the extremely powerful peerless divine technique, the Limitless Earth Technique, and the Nine Dragons Fist and the Illusion God Steps, her overall strength was already close to that of an ordinary third-rate expert in the game.

To be able to cross a stage and fight an enemy, this was the strength that Zhu Wuyang had accumulated.

If Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu were to know of Zhu Wuyan's current strength, Zhu Wuyan would definitely not be able to live for more than a day. In the face of such a talented Crown Prince, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, who was extremely jealous of talents, would definitely not allow him to live.

At this moment, Zhu Wuwan barely had the power to protect himself. At least, he would not be casually touched by some inexplicable female spy in the future to investigate his strength or even harm him.

Even in the entire Crown Prince Palace, Zhu Wuyan's strength was barely enough to rank in the middle.

It had only been a week since Zhu Wuwan had transmigrated. However, in such a short period of time, not only had Zhu Wuwan rebuilt her foundation from a cripple, but she had also gained an unparalleled flawless foundation. She had also gone from a weak ordinary person to a third-rate expert in the early stage of the Earth Gate Realm.

During this period of time, he broke through nine major realms and 33 minor realms in a row. Such a speed was simply shocking. Not to mention the ordinary people in the outside world who could not imagine it, even Zhu Wuyang himself did not expect the special encounter system to be so awesome. In just a week or so, his strength had increased to this extent.

He was no longer riding a rocket. He was simply riding a superluminal spaceship.

Under normal circumstances, if an ordinary person wanted to cultivate to the Earth Pass Realm, even if the other party was a peerless Heaven's Favorite, it would be impossible without about ten years. If it was an ordinary martial artist, it would take about fifty years or even more.

However, Zhu Wanhao had advanced to the Earth Pass Realm in just a few days. The difference between the two was so great that it could not even be described as heaven and earth.

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang's strength was so strong that he could easily tear down houses and make the river flow backward. With just a raise of his hand, he had a strength of more than 100,000 pounds. If he was on Earth, he would definitely be a superhuman existence.

Many heroes in Marvel movies probably didn't have Zhu Wuyang's tyrannical strength.

A week ago, Zhu Wuwan was still on Earth. He would never have thought that not only would he transmigrate a week later, but he would also be able to obtain such earth-shattering strength in such a short period of time. Although this strength was not what Zhu Wuwan wanted, it was forced by the special encounter system.

If Zhu Wuyang were to return to Earth, he was confident that he would win more than 90% of the gold medals in the Olympics and become a Chinese superhero that surpassed the imagination of the people on Earth..

Chapter 63: Talent Exposed (1)

After his strength had increased by so much, he naturally had to practice some boxing to get used to it, lest he accidentally revealed a flaw and was discovered by the enemies around him.

However, most of the time during the day was spent on studying. Zhu Wuwan could only take advantage of the night to quietly enter the secret training room and cultivate the Nine Dragons Fist and Illusion God Steps.

“Boom boom boom...” “Roar, roar, roar...”

“Yin Yin Yin...”

After a few days of practice, with his amazing talent and comprehension, Zhu Wuwan had already cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist to the second level of perfection. He was already very close to the third level.

Tonight, Zhu Wuyan was prepared to break through to the third level, and his combat power would soar further. Once he could break through the Nine Dragon Fist, Zhu Wuyan’s strength would increase substantially. At that time, he would be able to stand on equal footing with ordinary third-rate masters in the martial arts world.

Unknowingly, Zhu Wuwan had already immersed herself in it. The Nine Dragon Fist became more and more practiced and powerful. Every move was accompanied by the roars of dragons and tigers, and its power was extremely shocking.

“Yin...”

After an unknown period of time, a clear dragon’s roar sounded. The power of Zhu Wuwan’s Nine Dragon Fist suddenly increased dramatically, far surpassing the previous one.

“Congratulations to the host for cultivating the Nine Dragon Fist to the third level for the first time in your life. You have obtained 30000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 90% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host’s strength!”

This was a peerless martial art known as the most difficult fist technique of the Zhu royal family. Just like that, Zhu Wuwan had broken through the bottleneck of this technique in just a few days and reached the third level. Once he unleashed his full strength, he could display three times the strength and attack power. The power was extremely impressive.

This naturally gave Zhu Wuwan a large amount of breakthrough points, but these breakthrough points were temporarily suppressed by the Mustard Seed Secret Technique. Zhu Wuwan was currently in the stage of inspiration eruption after the breakthrough. Each move was getting stronger and stronger, and her grasp of the Nine Dragon Fist was stabilizing at an astonishing speed.

In just a few minutes, Zhu Wuwan had performed the Nine Dragon Fist several times in a row, completely stabilizing the third level of the realm. Moreover, there were faint signs of improvement.

Only then did Zhu Wuyang slowly stop. At the same time, Zhu Wuyang, who had woken up from her trance, had a change in expression. She vaguely sensed something and hurriedly opened the secret cultivation room. She saw her personal maid, Chu Xia, walking out of the bedroom.

“Come back!” Zhu Wuyang hurriedly shouted.

However, Chu Xia did not turn around. Instead, she sped up.” Your Highness, this servant accidentally left something behind during the day, so I came in to look for it. This servant will go out now. Please forgive me, Your Highness.

“If you dare to step out of the bedroom, I will definitely kill your entire family. I still have this power.” Seeing this scene, Zhu Wuwan knew what Chu Xia knew and immediately threatened her. At the same time, she pretended that her right leg was still injured and limped towards Chu Xia.

Chu Xia was so frightened by Zhu Wuan that her entire body trembled. She stood there and did not dare to move. Although Zhu Wuan was a ” Crown Prince waiting for death “, even if he was waiting for death, he was still a Crown Prince. His power far exceeded Chu Xia’s. It was a piece of cake for him to kill her or even exterminate her entire family.

Seeing that Chu Xia had stopped, Zhu Wuwan walked over with a cold expression and looked into her bright eyes. “”What did you just hear?” “I ... I didn’t hear anything. No, this servant didn’t hear anything.” Chu Xia shook her head repeatedly. ” I’m just here to look for the hairpin that I lost during the day. I have no idea what the Crown Prince did in the secret training room. ‘

Zhu Wuwan smiled. ” Really? Then what’s in your hand behind your back? Can I see it?

“This ... This is only this servant’s...” Chu Xia said in a panic, but before she could finish, Zhu Wuyang suddenly grabbed her hand and saw that the items in her hand were similar to earphones. They could be attached to the wall to hear the movements in the house.

Even though the soundproofing in the secret training room was very good, with the help of this meticulously crafted object, one could still hear some movements inside.

If Zhu Wuwan's guess was correct, Chu Xia must have heard the dragon's roar and tiger's roar. She knew that Zhu Wuwan's attainments in the Nine Dragon Fist were not low, which was why she was so flustered and prepared to leave.

Fortunately, when Zhu Wuyang had broken through to the Nine Dragon Fist, she had vaguely sensed the commotion outside with the help of that state of enlightenment. Otherwise, if Chu Xia had left the bedroom just like that and told Zhu Wensi, who was pretending to be a pig, the consequences would have been unimaginable.

However, even though he realized that Chu Xia had discovered some of his secrets, Zhu Wuwan did not dare to execute Chu Xia casually. Otherwise, it would be obvious that he had a guilty conscience. freewebnovel.com

So, how should he treat Chu Xia next?

Looking at Chu Xia, whose face was as pale as paper, Zhu Wuyang said, ""What else do you have to say now?"

"This servant...This servant..." Chu Xia stammered, ""This servant is guilty, please...I beg Your Highness to spare this servant's life."

As she spoke, Chu Xia knelt on the ground and begged Zhu Wuwan.

Zhu Wuwan pondered for a moment, then suddenly smiled and helped Chu Xia up. Don't worry. Although you eavesdropped on this king's martial arts practice and discovered that this king has a certain talent in the Nine Dragon Fist, this king has always been kind-hearted. I'll let you off this time.

"Thank you, Your Highness...Thank you, Your Highness...In the future, this servant will not dare to do it again. Thank you, Your Highness, for forgiving this servant." Chu Xia kowtowed repeatedly, and a trace of blood finally appeared on her delicate little face.

Zhu Wuan nodded. "This King knows that you're under my thirty-eighth brother, Zhu Wensi. You'll definitely tell him about this, but there's nothing to hide. Although This King doesn't have much talent in raising his cultivation realm, for some reason, I have some talent in the Nine Dragon Fist. That's why I was able to break through to the second level of the Nine Dragon Fist. The roars of dragons and tigers that you heard earlier were because This King's Nine Dragon Fist had just broken through.

"This servant understands." Chu Xia quickly agreed,"Your Highness, you only managed to raise the Nine Dragon Fist to the third place because you came to a sudden realization..." No, the second level. Please forgive me, Your Highness, this servant said something wrong."

Zhu Wuyang was silent as she sized Chu Xia up seriously. She took a deep breath and considered whether she should kill this cheap maid.

If the news of Zhu Wuan breaking through to the second level of the Nine Dragon Fist was spread, it could still be explained as a sudden realization. However, the fact that he could advance the Nine Dragon Fist to the third level could no longer be explained as a sudden realization.

It was extremely difficult to cultivate the Nine Dragon Fist. Unless one was enlightened several times or even dozens of times, it would be possible to advance the Nine Dragon Fist to the third level at the age of seventeen.

Was this still called accidental enlightenment? This was called extraordinary talent!

Chapter 64: This King Really Doesn't Want to Advance (1)

Fortunately, Chu Xia had unintentionally revealed her understanding of the Nine Dragon Fist, and at the same time, she could tell Zhu Wuyang's attainments in the Nine Dragon Fist.

Looking at the shivering Chu Xia, Zhu Wuyang said in a deep voice, "" Chu Xia, you're not bad. You can even tell that I've reached the third level of the Nine Dragon Fist. It seems that my thirty-eighth brother has taught you a lot. If that's the case, do you think I can still keep you? "

"Your Highness, please spare my life. This servant knows that I was wrong. Please be magnanimous and spare this servant this time. This servant will definitely not speak nonsense." Chu Xia knelt on the ground and begged.

Zhu Wuan was silent for a moment and secretly made a decision, a decision that would definitely cause a storm in the Imperial Palace."Alright, then I'll believe you for the time being. However, I also hope that you can believe me. I really only have some talent in the Nine Dragon Fist, so my cultivation progress is a little faster."

" Actually, This King's overall talent is very poor. Otherwise, I wouldn't have only cultivated to the Golden Bone Refining Stage after so many years. I even relied on being drugged to advance. Moreover, This King is especially unmotivated and is the laughing stock of the entire Nine Zhao Country.

"This servant believes what Your Highness says. Your Highness is right." Chu Xia nodded repeatedly, like a chick pecking at rice.

"You really believe that I'm an unambitious Crown Prince?" Zhu Wuan looked into her eyes. "I've never hidden my true strength?"

"Really...Really!" Chu Xia's pupils constricted, but she still nodded.

However, Zhu Wuan had already noticed something. This made him make up his mind. Since he couldn't kill this maid, she would definitely leak this matter if he let her live. In order to save his life, he had to do something ruthless.

Fortunately, Chu Xia was pretty. If she was on Earth, she would definitely be a top beauty with a score of 90 or above. She looked a little like the celebrity Zheng Shuang on Earth, but she was much prettier than Zheng Shuang.

In this way, he did not humiliate himself.

At the thought of this, Zhu Wuwan grabbed Chu Xia's little hand and brought her to the Xuan Bing bed in the bedroom. "Since you believe that this king is an unambitious crown prince, then have fun with this king. There's no need to think about your future."

"Your Highness, you...What are you doing?" Panic appeared on Chu Xia's fair and flawless little face as she asked timidly. Her cute appearance made Zhu Wuyang's heart skip a beat. freewebnovel.com

Zhu Wuwan's heart was burning. She grabbed Chu Xia's little hand tightly and hugged her soft and delicate body. "What do you think a prince who doesn't strive for improvement should do every day?"

Chu Xia timidly allowed Zhu Wuyang to do as she wished. Her body trembled as she was sent to the Xuan Bing bed. She did not dare to resist even if her strength was far superior to Zhu Wuyang's on the surface.

However, after many years of learning the rules of the palace, Chu Xia did not dare to resist Zhu Wuan, the crown prince of Jiuzhao Country. She could only watch him do whatever he wanted to her.

"Your Highness, you haven't broken through to the Body Tempering stage yet. Once you do this, it will definitely cause your Yang essence to leak out. It will be difficult for you to cultivate in the future and basically cut off your cultivation path. You can't do this."

"Our Nine Zhao Nation is founded on martial arts. If you don't have enough strength, you won't be able to reach that supreme position. You'll end your own future by doing this."

"Your Highness, this servant...This servant is about to die, please have mercy, this is this servant's first time."

“Congratulations to the host for kissing the top beauty Chu Xia for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100000 breakthrough points ..

“Congratulations to the host for hugging the top beauty Chu Xia for the first time in your life. You have received 200000 breakthrough points .

“Congratulations to the host for having sex with the top beauty Chu Xia for the first time in his life. You have received 500000 breakthrough points...”

The night passed without a word. Zhu Wuyang used his actions to tell Chu Xia how ruthless, ruthless, and capable he, the cheap crown prince of the Nine Zhao Country, was.

However, Zhu Wuyang had no other choice. Facing the crisis last night, Zhu Wuyang racked her brains and could only think of this solution.

In this way, even if Chu Xia leaked the news that he had already cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist to the third level, when they learned that Zhu Wuan had lost his primordial yang and that his future cultivation path was cut off by half, they would not suspect Zhu Wuan and bring him a fatal disaster.

As for whether this would hurt Chu Xia, it was Zhu Wuyang’s mercy that he did not kill her and exterminate her entire family since she was eavesdropping on his cultivation.

Looking at the little figure in the corner of the bed, Zhu Wuwan sneered. “Now you should believe how unmotivated this king is. Tonight, continue to serve me. In the future, this king will have fun every night. I don’t want to cultivate martial arts anymore. Get out!”

“This servant understands...This servant will take my leave!” Chu Xia timidly and helplessly agreed, not daring to refuse at all. A hint of fear appeared on her delicate and fair little face, but there was also a faint trace of worry.

However, she soon felt a wave of pain. Chu Xia frowned and limped to her feet. She carefully walked out like a lotus that had been hit by a storm all night. Just as Chu Xia was about to reach the door, the door of the bedroom suddenly opened. Lai Chun’s figure appeared at the door. Her beautiful little face was filled with worry and anxiety. Her gaze immediately fell on Chu Xia.

Looking at the disheveled Chu Xia and Zhu Wuyang who was also disheveled not far away, Lai Chun could not help but tremble. He looked at the two of them in disbelief.”All of you...You guys...”

Zhu Wuwan’s sharp gaze swept over, scaring Lai Chun so much that his entire body trembled. He hurriedly knelt on the ground. “This servant greets Your Highness, please forgive me.”

"I didn't see Chu Xia when I woke up. I thought something had happened to her, so I searched everywhere in the Crown Prince's Palace. I have offended the Crown Prince. Please forgive me.

"Be careful next time. If you are still so reckless in the future, this king will definitely punish you." Zhu Wuwan glanced at Lai Chun and thought to herself that this little maid was also quite good-looking, not inferior to Chu Xia in the slightest. She could be captured and used as a tool, just leaving an extra space on the bed at night."You came at the right time. First, tidy up this king's bed and take good care of Lai Chun. Leave the rest to the other palace maids.."

Chapter 65: A Sensation in the Imperial City (1)

By the time she finished tidying up the bed, Laichun had already confirmed that her good friend, good friend, and good comrade, Chu Xia, had really become husband and wife with Prince Jiu Zhao, Zhu Wuyang.

Of course, it was not important that Chu Xia became the Crown Prince's woman. What was important was that the Crown Prince, Zhu Wuyan, had lost his Vital Yang. He was no longer a virgin.

Zhu Wuyan had yet to break through the Tempered Body stage and step into the Cast Meridian stage. Once he lost his Primordial Yang, it would mean that Zhu Wuyan's martial path would be cut off by half, and it would be difficult for him to cultivate in the future.

Zhu Wuan's talent and aptitude were not that great to begin with. Now that he had lost his Primordial Yang body, his future cultivation speed would probably be far inferior to that of ordinary people. It was basically impossible for him to step into the Foundation Meridian stage.

And a Crown Prince who was in the Body Tempering stage would definitely not be able to become the Emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation. The weakest Emperor in the history of the Nine Zhao Nation had reached the Xiantian realm. There was not even a single one in the Vein Casting stage, let alone the Body Tempering stage.

Zhu Wuyan's future was ruined by him!

After confirming this matter, Lai Chun felt as if she had been struck by lightning. No matter what, she would never have thought that this "dying prince" would suddenly do such a thing with her good sister.

The atmosphere in the Crown Prince's palace was extremely oppressive. Lai Chun had already predicted what kind of waves would be stirred up when this matter spread.

Almost trembling with fear, he left the Crown Prince's bedroom. Looking at his pale best friend, Lai Chun couldn't help but ask, "What happened last night?"

"This..." Chu Xia hesitated for a moment. She thought of Zhu Wensi, who had sent them to the Crown Prince's Palace to be his personal maidservants. Then, she thought of what she had done with Zhu Wuan last night and what she would do next. She might be pregnant with Zhu Wuan's child.

After hesitating for a while, Chu Xia gritted her teeth and said, "'Last night, I secretly went to check on the Crown Prince's body to confirm his condition. I didn't expect the Crown Prince to be in a bad mood and do that kind of thing with me."

"Just this?" Lai Chun looked at Chu Xia suspiciously. "There's no reason at all.

Zhu Wuyan just destroyed his own future and abandoned his body?"

Chu Xia smiled bitterly. "That's not the case. I asked the Crown Prince about it later. He said that his talent was poor and his meridians were injured. Even if he could be cured, his cultivation speed would be reduced. His future is bleak.

"In addition, when some princes and princesses came to visit the Crown Prince these few days, they openly and secretly persuaded the Crown Prince to enjoy himself in time and leave some children behind before he died. Anyway, there was no hope of breaking through in the future."

' His Highness the Crown Prince was moved. Coincidentally, I went to secretly check his body last night. His Highness the Crown Prince simply did as I said. "This..." Lai Chun fell silent. He did not doubt Chu Xia's words. After all, what Chu Xia said was reasonable. This was also the reason why Zhu Wuwan told Chu Xia.

In the past few days, many princes and princesses had come to visit Zhu Wuyang. Some of the princes and princesses were worried that Zhu Wuyang would really take things too hard and commit suicide. If that happened, they would lose a shield, so they tried to persuade Zhu Wuyang in another way.

However, he didn't expect that this "waiting for death prince" would really listen to him. He finally cut off his future and did such a thing last night.

However, to be honest, Lai Chun actually quite understood Zhu Wuyang's choice. However, although he understood, Lai Chun still didn't expect Zhu Wuyang, this cowardly and incompetent Crown Prince, to really dare to do this.

This was the best he could do!

"Sigh..."

Lai Chun sighed and felt pity for Zhu Wuyang. "I don't know what to do now. Let's tell Chief Fu and Wei Ancai about this first."

"Alright." Chu Xia glanced at Lai Chun carefully and replied with a pale face. She did not tell Lai Chun that Zhu Wujian had already cultivated the Nine Dragon Fist to the third level.

When Wei Ancai learned of what had happened in the Crown Prince's bedroom, the guards, palace maids, and eunuchs in the Crown Prince Palace soon learned of the news. The entire Crown Prince Palace was instantly in an uproar.

"Is Zhu Wuyang crazy? He's only seventeen years old and he dares to break through the Primordial Yang Body. Does he still want to advance to the Foundation Meridian Stage? He's even capable of doing such a thing."

"We must report this matter to Master immediately and let Master know about it. Zhu Wuwan is truly audacious. He has only cultivated to the Golden Bone Tempering, yet he dares to break his virginity. His path of martial arts is clearly crippled."

"I've already confirmed this matter. Crown Prince Zhu Wuyan is indeed no longer a virgin. He's now a real man. After losing his Primordial Yang Qi, Zhu Wuyan's cultivation in the Body Tempering stage will be twice as effective as before. It'll be very difficult for him to break through to the Foundation Meridian stage."

"Forget about the Vein Casting stage, it's still unknown whether or not he can even reach the Blood Transfusion Refinement. It's said that without the Primordial Yang Qi and Primordial Yin Qi, the chances of a martial artist breaking through to the Blood Transfusion Refinement are less than one in ten thousand. Zhu Wuyang has no future to speak of."

The entire Crown Prince's Palace fell into a storm at once. All the guards, palace maids, and eunuchs had a feeling that a storm was coming. No matter how little attention Zhu Wuyang received, he was still the new Crown Prince of the Nine Zhao Nation. He had only been in power for a few days.

Now that the new Crown Prince was deposed, the path of martial arts was about to be cut off. This would definitely cause a huge sensation, and the entire Nine Zhao Country would be affected.

In fact, if Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu were to be calculative about this matter, it was very likely that he would directly abolish the new crown prince, Zhu Wanyou. At that time, the Imperial Palace would definitely welcome a drastic change, and the entire Imperial Palace would once again fall into a storm.

Many princes and princesses, as well as dignitaries and ministers, had finally pushed this incompetent prince, Zhu Wuan, to the position of Crown Prince. How could they let him step down so easily? There were also many concubines in the harem who would not let Zhu Wuan, this shield, be destroyed so easily.

However, since things had already developed to this point, no one could hide it. It would depend on how Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would react next.

As the most powerful person in the Nine Zhao Nation and the absolute ruler of the palace, the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu should have received the news the moment the crown prince Zhu Wuyan's primordial yang body was broken.

However, at this moment, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was cultivating a secret technique in seclusion. Therefore, even if the eunuchs outside wanted to tell Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu this news, they did not dare to go in and disturb him.

After all, compared to Crown Prince Zhu Wuyan's "crippled future," Mad

Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's seclusion was more important. He was just a "Crown Prince waiting for death", and he was not even comparable to a single hair of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

Since Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was at a critical juncture in his closed-door cultivation, this matter could only wait until he came out of seclusion. During the period before he came out of seclusion, the entire harem was in chaos. Many princes, princesses, and concubines were thinking about how to deal with this matter..

Chapter 66: You Feel Very Shy (1)

"The most important thing right now is to think of a way to appease the Mad Emperor's anger so that he won't suspect that Zhu Wuan did such a thing to avoid being harmed by him. Otherwise, once the Mad Emperor becomes suspicious, even if Zhu Wuan survives, her position as Crown Prince will be stripped.

'Didn't Zhu Wuyang already tell us the reason why he destroyed his own future? Then let's inform Mad Emperor of this reason in advance. At the same time, find more people to absolve Zhu Wuyang. Not only must we protect his life, but we must also protect his position as the Crown Prince.'

F * ck, could it be that Zhu Wuan, this useless Crown Prince, really did such a thing because he listened to my advice a few days ago? But I only did that to prevent him from committing suicide. I never thought that he would really destroy his own future. This guy is too stupid.

"When I was talking about eating, drinking, and having fun, I didn't include breaking my Primordial Yang Body. What was that idiot, Zhu Wuwan, thinking? He's as stupid as a pig. This matter definitely can't be hidden from the Mad Emperor. In that case, it's better to find more people to share the burden with me. The Mad Emperor wouldn't kill so many of our princes and princesses for such a small matter. '

" Zhu Zhenwu is really crazy. He is worried that the princes and princesses will be too outstanding and threaten his throne. At the same time, he feels that those princes and princesses who deliberately refuse to improve and debase themselves are slapping his face. They are making it difficult for the princes and princesses to find a balance. If it wasn't for this old man, we wouldn't be in such a terrible state right now. This is really infuriating BenGong."

The entire palace was thrown into chaos because of Zhu Wuyan's actions. Many princes, princesses, and concubines were trying to find a way to absolve Zhu Wuyan. At the same time, they were also trying their best to remove the reason why Zhu Wuyan had destroyed his own future from themselves.

If he really couldn't get rid of it, then he would drag more people down with him. At that time, the law wouldn't punish the masses, and he would be safer.

As for concealing all of this, there were many spies in the Crown Prince's Palace, and there were people from other princes and princesses everywhere. When these princes and princesses went to persuade Zhu Wuan, they did not deliberately hide it, so it was impossible to hide it.

Moreover, they did it out of good intentions. They didn't want Zhu Wuyang to commit suicide so easily. At least, they gave him a chance to live. That was why they did it. Who knew that Zhu Wuyang would believe it and really do such a thing?

This was f * cking...Was his brain damaged?

We did advise you to indulge in pleasure, we also advised you to live as long as you can, and we even gave you ideas to not perform so well...But you can't make a negative number! freewebnvel.com

Not only have you indulged in pleasure, but you've also destroyed your own future just to enjoy yourself. You're really enjoying yourself every day, and you don't care about anything anymore.

Isn't it good to cultivate and improve? Only in this way can one have a longer lifespan, have more powerful martial arts, and enjoy more things in the future.

Furthermore, they were in the imperial palace. As long as there was no Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's restraint, everyone could consume all kinds of natural treasures to their heart's content and increase their strength at an astonishing speed.

Once he entered the Cast Meridian stage, his lifespan would increase by about 20 years in a minute, far exceeding the Body Tempering stage. If he could enter the Connate stage, he would be able to have a long lifespan of more than 100 years. At that time, wouldn't it be great?

However, once his primordial Yang body was broken during the Body Tempering stage, even if he consumed a large number of heavenly treasures, the effect would be less than 10% and it would be very difficult for him to step into the Meridian Casting stage.

Wasn't this the behavior of a fool?

These princes and princesses, as well as the concubines in the harem, were completely defeated by Zhu Wuyan's 'stupidity'. They were momentarily troubled and tried their best to absolve Zhu Wuyan.

Whether it was the Imperial Palace or the Crown Prince's Palace, it could be said to be a mess.

However, the source of all this trouble, Zhu Wuyang, who was in the Crown Prince's bedroom, was staring blankly at the system notifications that were flooding the screen. He was as quiet as a handsome man.

"Congratulations to the host for being cared for and worried about by thousands of people for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for the first time in his life that hundreds of thousands of people have learned the news that his Primordial Yang Body has been broken. You have obtained 200000 breakthrough points ..."

"Congratulations to the host for being saved by tens of thousands of people for the first time in his life. You have obtained 300000 breakthrough points..."

Hundreds of thousands of people knew what he had done in the Crown Prince's bedroom last night. They also knew that he was no longer a pure boy. This ... This ... This ...

"Congratulations to the host for feeling shy for the first time in your life. You have obtained 12222 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for blushing for the first time in your life. You have obtained 222222 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for feeling like you've been seriously insulted by an invasion of privacy for the first time in your life. You've obtained 66666 breakthrough points ..

Zhu Wanhao had never thought that his actions last night would cause such a huge commotion. In his opinion, even if his actions last night were a little out of line, he would at most be reprimanded by Crazy Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. After all, everyone hoped that he, the Crown Prince, would be more incompetent. This way, he would not threaten Crazy Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's throne, nor would he threaten the other princes and princesses.

However, Zhu Wuyang had never expected that the impact of this matter would be so great. Alright, it could only be said that Zhu Wuyang, who had transmigrated from modern society, had underestimated the importance that feudal dynasties attached to the heir of the kingdom, even if the chances of this heir ascending to the throne were less than one in ten thousand.

But even so, Zhu Wuan was sitting in this position at this moment, after all. He was the Crown Prince of the entire Nine Zhao Nation, who was second only to one person and above all others. He had an extremely revered status, so his every move would naturally cause waves of waves, far surpassing the so-called super heavenly kings on Earth.

For example, when a Heavenly King idol on Earth suddenly announced that he was getting married, what kind of storm would it cause?

One could refer to Heavenly King Liu for this. The news of Zhu Wuyang, the crown prince of Jiuzhao Country, losing her virginity during the Body Tempering stage was clearly thousands of times more sensational than the news of Heavenly King Liu's marriage.

Zhu Wuan thought that he was just a statue crown prince with no real power. No matter how big the matter was, it wouldn't cause any big waves, so he was a little bolder this time.

However, he didn't know that when he sat in that position, some outrageous actions would have a shocking impact, let alone something as big as destroying his own future..

Chapter 67: Earth Chakra Meridian (1)

From the system notifications that were constantly flooding the screen, Zhu Wuwan could guess what kind of waves his actions had caused in the palace. In fact, these waves were even spreading to the outside world at an alarming speed..

By the time the news spread for a few more days, the entire Nine Zhao Kingdom would probably know that their Crown Prince had already lost his primordial Yang body during the Body Tempering stage, or rather, he had lost his virginity.

At that time, Zhu Wuwan would be even more embarrassed, and she would naturally obtain more breakthrough points.

Zhu Wuwan couldn't bear to look at that scene. Back on Earth, he had been killed by a hundred people. She had never thought that the news of him losing his virginity would cause such a huge sensation.

It was as if everyone on Earth knew about it. No, it should be that everyone on Dongyuan Continent knew about it.

Every guard, palace maid, and eunuch who entered the Crown Prince's bedroom... Their expressions were a little strange, as if Zhu Wuyang was some national beauty who had been taken for the first time last night.

This feeling was really indescribable.

At this moment, Zhu Wanhao really wanted to tell everyone that although he had lost his primordial Yang body, it did not affect his cultivation. His future was not destroyed.

However, considering his own safety, Zhu Wuyang would never do such a thing.

With the Special Encounter System in his hands and the help of a large number of breakthrough points, not to mention losing his Primordial Yang Body, even if he were to party every night, it would only allow Zhu Wuyang's strength to increase even faster, instead of destroying his own future and making his strength unable to advance an inch.

With the help of last night's music, Zhu Wuwan's strength was like a superluminal missile. She broke through from the early-stage of the Earth Pass Realm to the perfected stage of the Earth Pass Realm.

Before Zhu Wuwan could properly adapt to his soaring strength, he had obtained so many breakthrough points today. If nothing unexpected happened, he should be breaking through the natural chasm shackles of the Cast Meridian stage next.

More than a million breakthrough points turned into a surging strange power. This strange power was different from any of the previous strange powers, which made Zhu Wuyang sigh. The breakthrough points were really ever-changing. They could turn into different strange powers at any time according to the needs of Zhu Wuyang's body.

Even though Zhu Wuyan did not recognize any of these strange powers, each of them was extremely compatible with Zhu Wuyan's body. They could bring the greatest benefits to Zhu Wuyan, forge the strongest cultivation foundation, and bring even more shocking strength.

With the help of this strange power, the embryonic form of a spirit meridian faintly appeared in Zhu Wuwan's body. This was the embryonic form of the spirit meridian that came with the Flawless Dao Foundation.

Next, Zhu Wuwan only needed to follow Jiang He's Meridian Casting Manual and mobilize one of the spirit meridian fledgling forms, connecting it to a certain part of his body. Then, he would gather the Inner Qi of the earth that had transformed into Jiang He's Inner Qi and cast this spirit meridian fledgling form into a complete spirit meridian, which meant that Zhu Wuwan had stepped into the Meridian Casting stage.

According to Jiang He's Meridian Forging Manual, which was also based on millions of years of cultivation experience in Dongyuan Continent, Zhu Wuwan first forged the earth chakra meridians.

This kind of spiritual meridian was also called Chakra Meridian. The earth Chakra Meridian connected the dantian and the feet. Once it was successfully forged, it could allow the martial artist's legs to move at an amazing speed. The strength of the feet would be dense, and the combat strength would soar. Especially the ability to escape would surpass ordinary birds.

Zhu Wuwan focused and controlled one of the spirit meridians, connecting it to his dantian and feet. At the same time, he transformed all of Jiang He's inner Qi into thousands of special tools, using the martial artist's essence, qi, and spirit as the foundation to start forging the earth chakra meridians.

The strange power transformed from the breakthrough point fused into the embryonic form of the spirit meridian, perfectly nourishing and replenishing Zhu Wuyang's essence, qi, and spirit, allowing Zhu Wuyang to forge the earth chakra meridian at an extremely fast speed.

At the same time, these breakthrough points also turned into another strange power that fused into the earth's chakra meridians, increasing the potential of the earth's chakra meridians and stabilizing Zhu Wuwan's cultivation foundation, allowing Zhu Wuwan to obtain even more shocking benefits.

As the Chakra Meridians of the earth were being forged bit by bit, Zhu Wuwan could clearly feel that his legs were much more relaxed. His strength was also constantly increasing, and the speed was beyond imagination.

Earth Chakra Meridians were also in between virtual and real. They could be infinitely large or infinitely small, depending on the martial artist's strength.

As the embryonic form of the earth chakra meridians became more and more complete, it would naturally be able to accommodate more river inner Qi and strange powers. This way, the forging speed would also be faster.

As Zhu Wuwan continued to absorb the breakthrough points that were rolling in, some system notifications kept appearing, adding more breakthrough points to Zhu Wuwan, making him extremely annoyed.

However, he was currently busy forging the Earth Chakra Meridians, so Zhu Wuyang did not even have the time to curse. He could only let the special encounter system constantly hit him, bringing him more breakthrough points.

The speed at which the earth chakra meridians were being forged became even faster!

It gradually turned from a prototype into a half-completed body, effectively connecting Zhu Wuyang's feet and dantian. The entire earth chakra meridian was nine meters long, winding between Zhu Wuyang's feet and dantian.

The longer the Chakra Meridian, the tougher it was. Generally speaking, it would be able to absorb more Heaven and Earth Spiritual Energy. Although Zhu Wuwan's Chakra Meridian was only a semi-finished product at this moment, it had already far surpassed martial artists of the same level in terms of toughness and length.

Even among the many princes and princesses, there had never been a prince or princess who could forge a nine-meter-long earth chakra meridian. Even Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu could not do it.

Needless to say, the toughness of the semi-finished product was comparable to the earth chakra meridians of many princes and princesses who had already reached the great success stage. It was even more incomparable to ordinary Foundational Meridian stage martial artists in the outside world.

Meridians were like rivers, and Inner Qi was like rivers. This was the highest realm of Arterial Circulation described in Jiang He's Meridian Forging Record. It was originally an ideal realm, but with the power of the Earth Arterial Circulation in Zhu Wuwan's body, once it was completely forged and raised to the Perfection Realm, it would definitely be like a river.

Even though he only had one Earth Chakra Meridian, Zhu Wuwan was confident that the purity and richness of his Inner Qi in one Chakra Meridian was comparable to that of several Chakra Meridians of martial artists of the same level.

If he could forge three to five Chakra Meridians, Zhu Wuwan might be able to dominate the Vein Forging stage and threaten great experts in the Connate realm.

Once all nine Chakra Meridians were forged, Zhu Wuwan was confident that he could fight against ordinary early stage Connate experts, or even mid-stage Connate experts, and become a first-rate expert in the martial world.

However, with such a solid cultivation foundation, such astonishing earth chakra meridians, and such terrifying Jiang He's Inner Qi, it would be even more difficult to conceal Zhu Wuwan's strength. He wondered if the perfected Azure Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Skill could completely conceal Zhu Wuwan's strength..

Chapter 68: The Crown Prince Has Suffered a Great Loss (1)

I-dan Cast Vein!

By the time this wave of breakthrough points had been completely absorbed, Zhu Wuwan's strength had already completely stabilized at the first tier of the Cast Vein Realm. The earth chakra meridians had already been forged and could accommodate a considerable amount of Jiang He's inner Qi.

What Zhu Wuwan needed to do next was to continuously hammer and temper this earth chakra meridian until it reached perfection. Then, he could forge a second chakra meridian.

The completion of the Earth Chakra Meridians had caused Zhu Wuyan's speed to increase by several times. Coupled with the Illusion God Steps, Zhu Wuyan's ability to escape was so strong that it could be considered not bad in the entire Vein Casting stage.

There was naturally a reason why the first Chakra Meridian forged during the Vein Casting stage was the Earth Chakra Meridian.

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the first level of the Cast Vein for the first time in his life. You have obtained 60000 breakthrough points..."

After stepping into the first level of the Cast Vein, Zhu Wuwan obtained tens of thousands of breakthrough points. With this wave of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuwan completely stabilized the strength of the first level of the Cast Vein and took a few steps towards the second level of the Cast Vein.

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang's overall strength was not inferior to ordinary martial artists at the third or even fourth stage of the Cast Vein Realm. In the entire world of martial arts, Zhu Wuyang could be considered a quasi-second-rate expert.

The entire Imperial Palace, and even the entire capital, thought that Zhu

Wuan, who had lost her primordial Yang body, would have half of her future ruined and would never be able to step into the Foundation Meridian stage in this lifetime.

These people would never have thought that while they were clamoring that Zhu Wuwan's future was bleak, Zhu Wuwan had already silently advanced to the great circle of the Earth Gate. Moreover, she had broken through the Earth Gate and become an expert in the Building Pulse stage. She had even completely stabilized her strength in the first tier of Building Pulse.

Such a speed was definitely unprecedented in the Nine Zhao Nation.

"Congratulations to the host's first woman, Chu Xia, for being reprimanded by Manager Fu Anlin. You have received 1000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host's first woman, Chu Xia, for being reprimanded by Concubine Rong. You have received 3000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host's first woman, Chu Xia, for being reprimanded by Empress Jiu Zhao, Zhao Fanghua. You have received 10000 breakthrough points..."

While Zhu Wuwan was breaking through in pain, his first woman in this world, Chu Xia, was being reprimanded three times. First, it was the 38th Prince's trusted eunuch, Chief Fu Anlin, followed by the 38th Prince Zhu Wensi's mother, Jin Rong, and even Empress Zhao Fanghua called Chu Xia over to reprimand her.

We're both people who have fallen from grace, why should we meet again?

Zhu Wuwan sighed. She didn't expect things to blow up so much. frēewebnovël.com

However, what surprised him was that Chu Xia did not tell anyone that he had already reached the third level of the Nine Dragon Fist. This undoubtedly made Zhu Wuwan's situation slightly better.

One day as husband and wife, one hundred days of love. Could it be that Chu Xia had been conquered by his courageous progress last night?

Zhu Wuwan thought to herself doubtfully, but she had a good impression of Chu Xia. It was not in vain for him to put in so much effort last night and take such a big risk to give the body of the Primordial Yang to Chu Xia.

In the eyes of everyone in the Imperial Palace, such an action was simply a gift.

No matter how incompetent and weak Zhu Wuwan was, he was still the Crown Prince of Jiuzhao Country. Chu Xia was just a little palace maid. At most, she was slightly favored. In the end, she had gotten Zhu Wuwan's first time. If this was not a gift, what was it? Even Chu Xia herself felt the same way.

Some of the concepts of feudal society really made Zhu Wuyang, a modern person, flabbergasted.

It was also the first time that the girl had been scolded so badly, while the boy remained safe and sound in the bedroom. He was even pitied, sympathized, and unworthy by everyone...

However, Zhu Wanhao also knew that the current silence was only because

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was cultivating in seclusion. Once Mad Emperor

Zhu Zhenwu came out of seclusion, what awaited him would be a real storm. It was even very likely that he would be killed.

If she had known that her sudden inspiration last night would bring about such a huge disaster, Zhu Wuwan would not have had such a sudden inspiration.

How was this a brainwave? This was a brainwave!

She had inherited the memories and thoughts of the original owner, but she was still held hostage by modern concepts. She actually did such a thing.

Zhu Wanhao smiled bitterly, but there was nothing he could do. He could only quietly wait for Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's reaction. At the same time, he considered how he would escape if he really was killed.

The storm caused by Jiu Zhao Crown Prince Zhu Wuyan's virginity continued, and its influence grew larger and larger. Gradually, it spread from the Imperial Palace to the entire capital, and then to the surrounding prefectures and counties. The speed at which it spread was so fast that although it could not catch up to the modern Internet, it could still be considered terrifying in ancient times.

This news spread out layer by layer with the Imperial Palace as the center. Every time it spread, Zhu Wuyang would obtain some breakthrough points. As more and more people knew about it, Zhu Wuyang would also obtain more and more breakthrough points.

After this news spread for dozens of hours, Zhu Wuwan's strength had already reached the perfection of the first level of the Cast Vein Realm. Next, it was time to break through to the second level of the Cast Vein Realm.

Such speed was truly breathtaking.

Of course, that wasn't the most important thing. It was that Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had come out of seclusion.

What Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu did not expect was that the moment he walked out of the secret place where he was in seclusion, he saw dozens of people waiting outside. They were all important officials of the court and favorite concubines of the harem.

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu frowned. Looking at the people kneeling in front of him, he knew that something must have happened. Otherwise, these people wouldn't be waiting here in such an orderly manner.

An hour later, after listening to these people's excuses for Zhu Wuyan, Zhu Zhenwu's face turned cold and he walked straight to the study. Zhu Jinzong, the internal official supervisor, hurriedly followed.

The other favored imperial concubines and ministers watched as Zhu Zhenwu left without hesitation, and their expressions turned ugly.

"What should we do now? It wasn't easy for us to push Zhu Wuyang up. If something really happens, not only will the princes and princesses lose a shield, but we will also suffer a lot.

'His Majesty chose Zhu Wuan to be the Crown Prince because he was weak and incompetent. Now that he has become even more useless and incompetent, it can be considered as fulfilling His Majesty's wishes. His Majesty should not punish him too excessively.'

"Who asked our Emperor to be both a whore and a memorial arch. He's afraid that these princes and princesses are too outstanding, but he's also afraid that these princes and princesses will become too stupid and affect his reputation, hehe."

"Empress, be careful with your words. This kind of thing cannot be spoken carelessly. Once His Majesty hears it, the consequences will be unimaginable. However, from His Majesty's reaction just now, it seems that Zhu Wuyang is in trouble this time. Even if he won't be sentenced to death, at least he won't be able to continue his position as Crown Prince."

"After losing the position of Crown Prince, what use is there for us to still have

Zhu Wuyan? This kind of trash should die early.'

Chapter 69: Allowing Him to Have a Hundred Children and a Thousand Grandsons

"Are you that afraid of me?"

As soon as he entered the study, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu could no longer suppress his anger. He roared like thunder, "First, he set himself on fire, then he self-mutilated himself. Now, he doesn't even want his primordial yang body."

'Jinzong, do you think I'm really that scary? I'm so jealous of the talented that I'm actually scared to the point that the crown prince of a country has just succeeded to the throne and caused so much trouble? "

"Your Majesty, you're exaggerating. This is definitely not Your Majesty's fault. It's just that His Highness the Crown Prince is too timid. Coupled with the instigation of someone with ulterior motives, that's why he did such a thing. Zhu Jinzong hurriedly kowtowed. "His Majesty did not make any mistakes. The ones who were wrong were the Crown Prince and some other princes and princesses with ulterior motives.

"If that's the case, then help me ask the Crown Prince what he wants!" Zhu Zhenwu sneered.

"This old servant will obey." Zhu Jinzong hurriedly said and slowly retreated. He rushed to the Crown Prince Palace at once.

Hearing the commotion outside, Zhu Wuwan's expression changed slightly. However, he still got out of bed and waited for Zhu Jinzong's arrival.

"This old servant greets Your Highness." Zhu Jinzong quickly arrived in front of Zhu Wuan and bowed to him.

Zhu Wuan waved his hand. "Please rise, Manager Zhu. May I know why you have come to the Crown Prince Palace? '

"Your Highness, His Majesty asked this old servant to ask Your Highness a question." "What do you want?" Zhu Jinzong asked calmly.

His voice was like thunder, resounding throughout the palace. The entire Crown Prince Palace was silent. All the guards, eunuchs, and palace maids were silent, not daring to say a word.

"Congratulations to the host for being questioned by Zhu Zhenwu, the emperor of the Nine Zhao Country, for the first time in his life. You have obtained 300000 breakthrough points..."

Zhu Wanhao thought for a moment, then looked at Zhu Jinzong and said, "Please tell father that I only want to be like father, to have a hundred children and a thousand grandchildren."

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had three things he was proud of. The first thing was that his martial arts were invincible. No martial artist in the entire Nine Zhao Country was his match.

The second thing was to defeat the surrounding small countries and expand the territory of the Nine Zhao Nation.

The last thing he did was to have around 300 children. Although a few of them had been killed by him, the number of children he had left still surpassed many emperors of the Nine Zhao Country.

That was why Zhu Wuyan chose such a reason when replying to Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. It could be considered to have hit Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's G-spot.

At the same time, he was also telling Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu that although Zhu Wuyan had ambitions, his ambitions were only to reproduce and let his bloodline spread. He did not have any other intentions.

For this reason, Zhu Wuwan even "destroyed his own future" to show his determination. In addition, many princes and princesses, as well as concubines in the harem, were trying to absolve him. Zhu Wuwan felt that Crazy Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would not go so far as to chop off his head this time.

It would be best if he could be stripped of his position as Crown Prince because of this matter.

Of course, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was temperamental. Zhu Wuyan had exhausted all his energy to do this, so the possibility of failure was still very high.

Zhu Jinzong immediately returned to the Palace of Heavenly Purity after receiving Zhu Wuyan's reply. He saw Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu practicing his sword in the study.

Zhu Jin and Zong Hou stood at the side until Zhu Zhenwu finished speaking before walking up. "Your Majesty, the Crown Prince's reply is that he wants to be like Your Majesty and have a hundred children and a thousand grandchildren. That's why he started his family early."

"A hundred children and a thousand grandchildren!"

Zhu Zhenwu was stunned for a moment. Then, he seemed to have thought of something. I remember that Old Nineteen said the same thing to me decades ago.

"But at that time, His Nineteenth Highness had already stepped into the Vein Forging stage. He even secretly recruited soldiers and horses in an attempt to subvert His Majesty's rule." Zhu Jinzong said respectfully.

Zhu Zhenwu nodded. "That's right. At that time, I almost believed it. If you hadn't realized that something was wrong and told me this news before Old Nineteen attacked me, I'm afraid that the Nine Zhao Kingdom would have changed hands by now."

"Now that he's fine, he's telling me that he doesn't have any other intentions. He just wants to be the Prince of Peace so that he can reproduce in the future. Do you think you should believe him?"

"Your Majesty, our Nine Zhao Nation was founded on martial arts. Since ancient times, there has never been an Imperial Emperor whose strength is lower than the Connate Realm. The Great Ancestor once said that if one does not have the strength of the Connate Realm or above, one is not qualified to be the Imperial Emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation." Zhu Jinzong did not say it directly. "If the Emperor is too weak, he will be easily killed by criminals. The entire country will fall into chaos and there will be a danger of collapse."

"Even if I can really become an Emperor with a weak strength, the surrounding princes and princesses, imperial brothers and sisters... They can kill him at any time and take away the power of the Emperor. Therefore, if the Emperor does not have the strength, he is basically not a threat."

"His Highness the Crown Prince broke through the Primordial Yang Body during the Body Tempering Stage. Even with the wealth of the Imperial Family, it would be very difficult to forcefully promote him to the Cast Meridian Stage, let alone the Connate Stage. In the future, he would not be able to protect himself and could be killed and overturned by the people around him at any time."

‘ His Highness the Crown Prince has clearly expressed his intentions. He will definitely not threaten His Majesty’s great cause.

Upon hearing this, Zhu Zhenwu looked at Zhu Jinzong, who was kneeling on the ground. A smile finally appeared on his face, and his anger inexplicably dissipated.” Old Nineteen only knows how to put on airs and talk, but he speaks first with his actions. With the same explanation, loyalty and treachery can be clearly distinguished. Let him go this time. ‘

“Only those fellows who encouraged him to seek pleasure and abandon his future, teach them a good lesson. Ground them for three months and punish them with a year’s salary. However, to be able to do such a thing and give up his future in martial arts to be safe is at least something a man should do. If not for the fact that his future is already bleak, I would really have to be on guard.” freewebnovel.com

“Since he wants to have a hundred children and a thousand grandchildren, then I will promise him that tomorrow, I will transfer ten peerless beauties from the Palace of Heavenly Purity to the Crown Prince Palace so that he can properly spread the branches and leaves of the Imperial Family. As for the position of Crown Prince, it has only been a few days since he took the throne. It is not appropriate to abolish it so quickly. In that case, let him stay for a while.”

“This old servant obeys.” Zhu Jinzong heaved a sigh of relief and quickly replied.

As the trusted aide of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, even though he did not have much affection for Zhu Wuan, Zhu Jinzong still did not want to see the new Crown Prince, Zhu Wuan, get killed or be stripped off so quickly.

After all, this would be detrimental to the reputation of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. Moreover, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had already killed 17 Crown Princes. If the first 17 Crown Princes were killed because they posed a threat to Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu’s throne, it would be a waste of time.

This time, if Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu wanted to kill even Zhu Wuan, the weak and incompetent Crown Prince who had destroyed his own future, the last cover of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu’s jealousy would probably be removed..

Chapter 70: A Tycoon (1)

Under the united efforts of everyone, many princes and princesses, harem concubines, and even people like Zhu Jinzong began to work together.

In addition, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu happened to recall the matter of the Nineteenth Prince's death. He compared him to Zhu Wuyan and suddenly felt that Zhu Wuyan was not bad. He had finally helped Zhu Wuyan survive this calamity.

Not only did he not get himself killed, he did not even lose his position as the Crown Prince. He even got ten beautiful women for nothing.

This kind of situation was undoubtedly good for anyone.

"Congratulations to the host for eliminating the fury of the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu for the first time in your life. You have escaped death. You have obtained 1,000 ,000 breakthrough points..."

However, at this moment, Zhu Wuwan did not feel happy. He, who was trying to break through to the second stage of Cast Vein, had originally felt that his strength had increased too quickly, and it was becoming more and more difficult to hide. He did not expect to obtain such a huge breakthrough point.

A large number of breakthrough points turned into a surging strange power that began to assist Zhu Wuyang in forging the second chakra meridian. This chakra meridian was called.

The Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea!

The Chakra Meridian at the bottom of the sea connected the dantian and the kidney. It was the second Chakra Meridian that a martial artist needed to forge in the Foundation stage. Once it was successfully forged, the martial artist's kidney function would soar by leaps and bounds. It was the good news for many men.

Moreover, the forging of the Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea was also beneficial to increasing the strength of the martial artist's body, allowing the martial artist to be energetic all over, possessing extraordinary endurance and combat strength.

With the help of the embryonic spirit vein, the top-notch Vein-Forging Technique in Jiang He's Vein-Forging Record, and most importantly, the breakthrough point in his hands, the creation of the Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea went smoothly.

In just an hour or so, this Chakra Meridian at the bottom of the sea was forged. Although it was only a semi-finished product, it had already increased the strength of Zhu Wuyang's body by a large margin. His entire body was filled with energy, and he felt as if he could tear tigers and leopards apart.

A huge amount of breakthrough points were still surging over. Zhu Wuwan continued to circulate the Jiang He Vein Forging Record with all his might, turning the breakthrough points into different forces and perfecting the Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea in an orderly manner.

As the Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea were perfected, the River Internal Qi in Zhu Wuwan's body also became more and more vigorous and pure. The River Internal Qi in his Dantian even formed an Internal Qi cloud that was more than one meter in radius, enshrouding the huge River Internal Qi.

While the inner Qi of the river was forging the Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea, it could also temper, nourish, and improve the martial artist's body, allowing the martial artist's skin, muscles, bones, and five internal organs ... He broke through his limits once again and became even more tenacious.

As everyone knew, the more chakra meridians one forged, the more difficult it would be. After all, these chakra meridians were all forged from scratch and forcefully fused into the martial artist's body. The pressure on the martial artist's body was extremely shocking.

The greater the number of chakra meridians, the greater the pressure on the martial artist's body, and the corresponding difficulty of forging would also rise along with it.

However, with every blessing, there would be misfortune. Although the forging of the chakra meridians would become more and more difficult, when these chakra meridians pressured the martial artist's body, they would also temper and improve the martial artist's body. Otherwise, these martial artists would not be able to accept more and stronger chakra meridians. freewebnovel.com

During this process, the martial artist's body could also obtain a huge improvement. Therefore, this was not necessarily a bad thing for the martial artists.

However, if he could not withstand such a huge pressure, he would fail to break through. In the worst case, his body would be injured and he would be in danger of dying.

However, Zhu Wuyan had the help of a breakthrough point, cultivated the peerless Meridian Casting Divine Art, the River Meridian Casting Record, and had unparalleled talent and aptitude...With all these advantages, it wasn't difficult for Zhu Wuwan to break through.

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the second level of the Cast Vein for the first time in his life. You have obtained 80000 breakthrough points..."

When this Chakra Meridian at the bottom of the sea had completely stabilized, Zhu Wuwan helplessly received a system notification. Before he could absorb the previous wave of breakthrough points, another tens of thousands of breakthrough points came.

Helpless, Zhu Wuwan could only continue to turn his grief and indignation into strength. He absorbed the breakthrough points that swarmed over with all his might and fused them into the Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea, constantly improving and perfecting the Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea.

This Chakra Meridian was also nine meters long. It was like a huge river that could contain a lot of inner Qi.

The inner Qi of the rivers could also use the Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea to nourish the surrounding parts of the body, making these parts of the body harder and more flexible.

The forging of each Chakra Meridian signified that the martial artist's strength was about to obtain an earth-shattering improvement.

As the breakthrough point surged, Zhu Wuyan's Chakra Meridians at the bottom of the sea were being perfected, her lower Dantian was expanding and strengthening, Jiang He's Inner Qi was becoming richer and purer, and her physical fitness was soaring...His overall strength was increasing by leaps and bounds.

When more than a million breakthrough points had been digested, Zhu

Wuwan's strength had already completely stabilized at the second stage of the Cast Vein Realm. Moreover, he was very close to the third stage of the Cast Vein Realm.

In just a short day or so, Zhu Wuyang's strength had increased to this extent. It had to be said that losing his virginity had brought too much harm to Zhu Wuyang.

Zhu Wuwan had been trying his best to suppress his own strength, but his strength was like eating fermented bread. It was constantly expanding, expanding, and expanding...

It was impossible for other martial artists to forge one Chakra Meridian without a year or two, and this was with the help of spirit pills. However, Zhu Wuwan used less than a day to forge two Chakra Meridians in succession.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyan's earth chakra meridians and underwater chakra meridians were about ten times stronger than those of martial artists of the same level. The two were simply incomparable.

Although Zhu Wuan was only a martial artist at the second stage of the Cast Vein Realm, regardless of his physical fitness, the amount of inner Qi, or his overall combat strength...They were not inferior to the second-rate experts at the fifth or even sixth stage of the established meridians in the martial world.

In other words, with Zhu Wuan's current comprehensive strength, he was completely qualified to be ranked among the second-rate experts in Jiuzhao Country's Jianghu.

It was just that in the Imperial Palace, where experts were as common as clouds, Zhu Wuyang was somewhat inconspicuous. Once she left the Nine

Zhao Imperial Palace, Zhu Wuyang could run amok in any county and become a great tycoon.

As for now, Zhu Wuwan could only lower her head and hide her strength carefully. She would hide it for as long as possible, and it would be best if she waited until the day Mad Emperor died.

In this way, Zhu Wuyan would be able to live until the end and even have the chance to ascend to the Supreme position.

At that time, who knew how many breakthrough points he could obtain and how much his strength would increase!
