Chapter 701: Encounter on a Narrow Road (1)

Zhu Wuwan never expected that one day, in order to get on the bug, he would actually change the classic cartoon of Earth, Pleasant Goat and Big Big Wolf, to look like this.

After thinking about it carefully, in order to create these millions of episodes of Pleasant Goat and Big Big Wolf, Zhu Wuyang had already added elements that included, but were not limited to, martial arts, fantasy, science fiction, Xianxia, anime...Even he himself could not bear to watch any longer. He did not know how the invisible magical Gu, the beautiful goat, could continue watching.

After teasing the Invisible Gu, the Beautiful Goat, Zhu Wuwan had also eaten and rested. She continued to gallop north with it.

The Southern Barbaric Mountain was as big as a hundred Earths, and it was filled with all kinds of dangers. Many ancient giants had fallen into it. Only the Integration Pillar could successfully pass through, and they might even be injured. One could imagine how dangerous it was here.

However, with Zhu Wuyang's current strength and the ability to escape 700 miles in an instant, although the Nanman Mountain was dangerous, it would not bring him much trouble.

In the blink of an eye, Zhu Wuwan's figure appeared and disappeared. With the Hidden Heaven and Earth Scripture and the Invisibility Gu to hide his strength and aura, even demons and ghosts above level seven would find it difficult to discover him, so they naturally would not deal with him.

In just a few days, Zhu Wuyan had crossed more than half of the Nanman Mountains and was getting closer and closer to the Central Plains.

On this day, when Zhu Wuwan was speeding forward, she was surprised to find a group of people carefully advancing a thousand miles ahead. Zhu Wuwan also sensed the obscure fluctuation of a mixed poison from their bodies.

Moreover, the fluctuations of the mixed poison in these cultivators' bodies were very similar. It was completely different from the mixed poison of the Thousand Poison Sect's Hundred Flowers, but its power was not much different.

After carefully sensing for a moment, Zhu Wuwan knew where this group of cultivators came from. If nothing went wrong, they should be cultivators from the Five Poison Sect of the Central Plains, and they should be five perfected Void Refinement Realm ancient giants.

The Five Poison Sect was different from the Ten Thousand Poison Sect. The Ten Thousand Poison Sect absorbed and fused all kinds of poisons and was divided into ninety-nine mountain ranges. Each mountain range was proficient in one type of poison, but the Five Poison Sect, as the name suggested, was only proficient in five types of poison.

Moreover, the Five Poison Sect cultivators had a detailed process and sequence in the process of fusing the poison. Therefore, the mixed poison that everyone fused and absorbed was similar, and the effects were also similar. The only difference was in five directions.

The five directions were the five Great Ways, each of which led directly to the Heavenly Pillar of Integration. However, the cultivators cultivated did not have their own personalities, and their future achievements were also limited. It was very difficult to break through to the Mahayana Realm.

Even so, the Five Poison Sect had relied on their tens of thousands of years of experience and techniques, as well as the abundant resources in the Central Plains, to nurture a large number of experts. There were eight Body Integration Heavenly Pillars alone, one at the perfected Body Integration Stage, one at the late Body Integration Stage, and the rest at the early and middle Body Integration Stage.

To a certain extent, the Five Venoms Sect's cultivation path was superior to the Ten Thousand Venoms Sect. However, if the cultivators of the Ten Thousand Venoms Sect cultivated their cultivation techniques to the extreme, they would far surpass the Five Venoms Sect in terms of power and upper limit.

Unfortunately, due to the limited resources and the number of Heaven's Favorites, the Thousand Poison Sect had not cultivated a quasi-immortal above the Dacheng realm for so many years.

Of course, this was also because the Thousand Poison Technique and the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique were too difficult to cultivate. No cultivator from the Ten Thousand Poison Sect had been able to cultivate them for so many years.

However, with Zhu Wuwan, a cheater with a system, both the Ten Thousand Poison Sect and the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique were destined to become famous in the future and shock the entire Dongyuan Continent.

However, the Five Venoms Sect was still far more powerful than the Ten Thousand Venoms Sect. They had been interacting with the Ten Thousand Venoms Sect as a high and mighty sect all these years. They would often give some missions to the Ten Thousand Venoms Sect or make some deals with the Ten Thousand Venoms Sect that would make them lose out.

Every time a new sect master was born in the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, they would be required to inform the Five Venoms Sect. In other words, they would report to the Five Venoms Sect. Slowly, it became a habit.

Even when Zhu Wuyang ascended the throne as the Thousand Poisons Sect Master, he had also reported to the Five Poison Sect.

However, reporting was one thing. The Ten Thousand Poisons Sect was not under the jurisdiction of the Five Venoms Sect. They were only often bullied by the Five Venoms Sect and took advantage of them. It was just like the ugly countries on Earth. They relied on their tyrannical strength to bully other countries.

It was the same for the Five Poison Sect. In addition, the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect was also a sect that cultivated the poison path, so they were vaguely regarded as subordinates by the Five Poison Sect. However, the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect had never thought so.

In addition, the two sides were separated by the dangerous Southern Barbaric Mountains. The mountains were high and the emperor was far away. The Ten Thousand Poisons Sect did not fear the Five Poison Sect. However, sometimes, for the sake of stability, they still had to suffer some losses.

Therefore, the relationship between the two sides was somewhat subtle. It was between an ally and an enemy. To the Five Poison Sect, they were subordinate allies, but to the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, they were enemies.

Zhu Wuwan did not expect to meet the Five Poison Sect's "good friends" in the Southern Barbaric Mountains. It seemed that they were going to cross the Southern Barbaric Mountains and enter the Southern Wasteland. He could not help but feel curious and quietly approached them, wanting to hear what they were going to do.

"There's no need to be so polite to those Southern Wasteland barbarians. Why do we have to personally invite Zhu Wanyou to Five-Poison City? In my opinion, we can just summon that Southern Wasteland barbarian to Five-Poison City to treat our Five Poisons Saint Child. I don't believe he would dare to not go."

"That Southern Barbarian is the first hundred-year-old Heavenly Pillar in the history of Dongyuan Continent. His talent, aptitude, and luck ... According to the letter sent by the Southern Wasteland, Zhu Wuwan killed one of the Integration Heavenly Pillars by chance and forced the other to submit to him, unifying the entire Southern Wasteland. He's not a simple person. How can a summons move him? When the time comes, he will definitely reject it. That's why we have to make this trip."

" No matter how powerful Zhu Wuwan is, he's only an early-stage Body Integration cultivator. However, our Five Poison Sect has four early-stage Body Integration Heavenly Pillars, two mid-stage Body Integration cultivators, one late-stage Body Integration cultivator, and one perfected Body Integration Heavenly Pillars. If we join forces, we might be able to kill him. How could he dare to disobey our summons? "

" No matter what, we have to bring Zhu Wanyou back to Five Poison City during this trip to the Southern Wasteland. When the time comes, we'll let the sect's Heavenly Pillar teach him a good lesson so that he can work for our Five Poison Sect in peace in the future. It's best if we can cripple him so that he has no future to speak of. Otherwise, with his talent and aptitude, he might have the possibility of advancing to the late-stage of Body Integration in the future. This is not a good thing for our Five Poison Sect. "

" That's right. If that wasn't the case, they wouldn't have specially sent us to invite Zhu Wanhao to Five-Poison City. Clearly, even the various Heavenly Pillars are a little jealous of this kid. In order to give the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect a harsh blow, they asked us to personally invite him. "

"A hundred-year-old Heaven Pillar with a top-notch Heavenly Martial Spiritual Root and a lot of luck is really terrifying. It's normal for the other Heaven Pillars to be restless. If we let him grow, I'm afraid that our Five Poison Sect will no longer be able to obtain any precious Heavenly Materials and Earthly Treasures from the Ten Thousand Poison Sect. Moreover, the Ten Thousand Poison Sect is ambitious enough to unify the Southern Wasteland. We should be even more vigilant."

Chapter 702: Slap (1)

After listening, Zhu Wanhao knew what these Five Poison Sect's ancient titans were going to do.

It seemed that his actions in the Southern Wasteland had aroused the Five Poison Sect's fear, so they wanted to bring him to the Five Poison Sect's headquarters, Five Poison City, to be properly repaired. They even wanted to destroy his foundation so that Zhu Wuyang would never be able to advance any further in the future.

After all, if Zhu Wanwan were to grow up, as long as she could advance to the late-stage Body Integration Stage and above, she would no longer have to care so much about the Five Poison Sect.

In this way, it would not be so easy for the Five Poison Sect to take advantage of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect in the future.

Another point was that the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect had already destroyed the Sacred Flame Sect, subdued the Medicine God Sect, and unified the entire Southern Wasteland.

This represented a huge benefit, and it was obvious that the Five Poison Sect was a little tempted.

For various reasons, the Five Poison Sect had only sent people over. In short, they did not have any good intentions. They might even have the intention to kill Zhu Wanyou.

After all, if Zhu Wuan died, it would definitely be a good thing for the Five Poison Sect.

Since that was the case, there was no need to be polite to the Five Poison Sect's envoys.

Zhu Wuyang didn't plan to kill them directly. That way, it would be easy for them to send a message and let the Five Poison Sect know that he was the one who did all of this.

Currently, the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect was still not a match for the Five Poison Sect. Zhu Wuwan would not abandon the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect's foundation in the Southern Wasteland for the time being. For the sake of safety, it was better to let those cute demonic beasts in the Southern Barbaric Mountains take action.

In a spiritual spring deep in the mountains thousands of miles away from here, there was a Xiong Ba sleeping inside. This Xiong Ba had already cultivated to the level seven demonic beast realm, and its strength was comparable to the Heaven Pillar at the early Body Integration stage.

With the help of the Hidden Heaven and Earth Scripture and the Invisibility Gu, Zhu Wuwan appeared in front of him silently. Then, she picked up a big slap and slapped him. "Pa, pa, pa..."

The bear's ugly face soon swelled up, and even its mother might not be able to recognize it.

It woke up from its deep sleep and stared blankly at the empty ground in front of it, still bearing Zhu Wuyang's big slap.

"Pa, pa, pa..."

Narrowing his eyes, Xiong Ba gradually came to his senses. Someone was whipping him, and they had even used a special secret technique to conceal themselves.

It was unbearable!

I didn't provoke you, but you actually bullied me like this. This is simply too much!

Xiong Ba roared towards the sky and pounced towards the empty ground. However, at this moment, Zhu Wuwan had already escaped with a teleportation. Xiong Ba also teleported to give chase. The two of them chased each other and soon arrived near several Five Poison Sect's ancient giants.

Then, Zhu Wuyang's figure and aura completely disappeared near the several Five Poison Sect's ancient titans, so that Xiong Ba could no longer sense it.

"Sou..."

Xiong Ba's figure suddenly appeared in front of several Five Poison Sect's ancient titans who were carefully moving in stealth. Both parties looked at each other with astonished expressions.

"Run! It's the seventh grade demonic beast, the Tyrant Bear!"

"Why did a Tyrannical Bear suddenly appear in front of us? Why are we so unlucky?"

"Who knows? Maybe they're hunting or rushing to get here. They just happened to sense our aura and came over to take a look."

"Hunting? F * ck, I don't want to be eaten by Xiong Ba, ah...Help, I'm going to be eaten!"

Thanks to Zhu Wuan's superb concealment ability, several of the Five Poison Sect's ancient titans did not realize that all of this was Zhu Wuan's doing. They thought that they were unlucky enough to be targeted by a Xiong Ba.

Xiong Ba had also become suspicious because Zhu Wuyang had disappeared near several of the Five Poison Sect's ancient titans. In his rage, he had attacked them without hesitation.

"Roar..."

Amidst the deafening roar, several of the Five Poison Sect's ancient titans trembled, and their minds were muddled for a moment.

"Pa pa pa pa..."

At this moment, Xiong Ba raised his mountain-like palm and slapped it fiercely. Along with a series of popping sounds, several Five Poison Sect's ancient titans were crushed into powder one after another. There was no way for them to escape.

One of them had mastered the art of teleportation, while the other could only rely on his two legs to run. How could he possibly outrun him!

Zhu Wanhao was so powerful when he was at the Void Training Stage, and he even mastered the Five Elements Great Escape, one of the best escape techniques in the myriad worlds. However, he still couldn't escape Old Man Baihuo's teleportation technique.

Since Zhu Wanhao was already in such a state, there was no need to mention these ancient titans of the Five Poison Sect. Hence, they were quickly wiped out by Xiong Ba.

Fortunately, someone had spread the news of their unfortunate encounter with Xiong Ba before they died. This way, the Five Poison Sect would know that their envoy was killed by Xiong Ba and not Zhu Wuwan, and they would not suspect the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect.

For the sake of safety, Zhu Wuwan did not even loot the Five Poison Sect cultivators. Instead, she left the place with the Invisible Mystic Insect, Beautiful Goat, and rushed towards Five Poison City.

Since the Five Poison Sect was so "enthusiastic" towards him, the first stop for him to study in the Central Plains was naturally the Five Poison Sect. He could not disappoint the Five Poison Sect.

Moreover, the Five Poison Sect and the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect were both poison sects. There were many things that could be redeeming. If Zhu Wuwan absorbed and fused them, it would definitely allow his strength to increase greatly.

All these years, the Five Poison Sect had bullied the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect so many times. It was time for Zhu Wuwan to seek an explanation. If she encountered a suitable opportunity, she could still fish in troubled waters.

Xiong Ba's fury finally subsided after he had killed all the Five Poison Sect's envoys. His swollen and ugly face revealed an ugly and silly smile.

He carefully sensed the surrounding aura and environment, but he didn't find the guy who slapped him. Therefore, he destroyed the place where Zhu Wuwan disappeared before returning sullenly.

However, after returning, Xiong Ba was stunned to discover that his spiritual spring had been taken away by someone. At the same time, many of the treasures he had accumulated over the years had also been taken away.

"Roar..."

Xiong Ba, who was at the seventh rank, flew into a rage and started to wreak havoc. Many flowers, plants, demons, and ghosts in the southern barbarian mountains were all unlucky, and were all cleaned up by Xiong Ba.

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang had already left the area with a full load of gains. He had teleported tens of thousands of miles away and was getting closer and closer to Five-Poison City.

On the way there, Zhu Wuyan was also somewhat emotional. As expected of a demonic beast above the seventh rank, its inventory was really rich, especially in Xiong Ba's treasure trove. Many of them were rare and precious treasures unique to the Southern Barbaric Mountains, many of which Zhu Wuyan had never consumed before.

If he were to consume these rare natural treasures, not only would it increase Zhu Wuwan's strength and stabilize his cultivation foundation, but it would also allow him to earn a large sum of breakthrough stones.

It was really satisfying!

Chapter 703: Rich Harvest (1)

Five Venoms City in the Central Plains!

This was a majestic city that was as large as one-tenth of the Earth. It was also the headquarters of the Five Poison Sect. The permanent population was about one billion, and the spiritual energy of heaven and earth was extremely abundant. It was not inferior to the Myriad Poison Mountain, the Skyfall Volcano, and the Tianlongjia Mountain. In fact, it was even more so.

The Five Poison Sect took this place as the center and ruled over a large number of cities around it. Its total area was no less than a hundred times that of Earth. It was a first-class immortal sect in the Central Plains.

Although there were no quasi-immortals above the dacheng stage, there were eight sky pillars that were far more powerful than the current Thousand Poison Sect.

However, the Central Plains was rich, and the number and density of Heavenly Materials and Earthly Treasures and rare minerals in each region far exceeded that of the Southern Wasteland. Therefore, the areas under the jurisdiction of the Five Poison Sect were much weaker than the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect.

Furthermore, the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect had already unified the entire Southern Wasteland and occupied the resources and wealth of the Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect. They had already surpassed the Five Poisons Sect.

This was also an extremely important reason why the Five Poison Sect was so anxious to beat Zhu Wuyang up and even cripple him.

Surrounding Five-Poison City, a group of top-notch middle-grade Spiritual Arrays had been set up. When fully activated, they could block Quasi-Immortals of the Great Vehicle Stage. Their power was quite impressive.

However, in front of Zhu Wuwan, whose array cultivation had already reached top-notch top-grade, the top-grade middle-grade Spiritual Arrays around Five-Poison City were not so impressive. They could be forcefully broken with some time.

Following the crowd into Five-Poison City, Zhu Wuwan paid a low-grade spirit stone at the city gate. Only after changing her appearance did she enter.

After finding an inn to stay in, the first thing Zhu Wuwan did was to gather information about Five Poison City and the Five Poison Sect. Soon, she learned that the cultivation techniques and manuals of the Five Poison Sect were hidden in the Five Poison Book Room in the center of the city. It was one of the key points of the top-notch spiritual array group's defense. It was divided into eight layers, each corresponding to different cultivation realms.

After finding his target, Zhu Wuwan spent a few more days to crack the spiritual array group around the Five Poisons Book Room. He discovered the loopholes and flaws on it and then silently infiltrated it.

The Invisible Mystic Gu, Beautiful Goat, made Zhu Wuyang seem like an invisible person, freely shuttling through the Five Poisons Book Room. Even the Body Integration Heavenly Pillar could not discover him.

When he passed by the bookshelves, he only needed to scan them once with his Infernal Divine Consciousness to memorize all the contents. His speed was astonishing.

Some of the more precious books had a layer of protective array formation set up around them. However, these array formations were much easier to crack, so it was not a problem for Zhu Wuyang.

The first level of the Five Poisons Book Room corresponded to Qi Refinement Realm manuals and cultivation techniques. There weren't many that were useful to Zhu Wuwan, so she left after taking a cursory glance.

The second, third, and fourth levels were about the same. It was only when they reached the fifth level that many books and cultivation techniques began to be useful to Zhu Wuwan.

Zhu Wuwan's focus was also on the fifth level and above. As she silently cracked the small array formations around many books, she memorized all the books and cultivation techniques.

As time slowly passed, Zhu Wuwan memorized more and more manuals and cultivation techniques. Many of them were useful to him. After all, the Five Poison Sect and the Thousand Poison Sect were both poison sects.

Zhu Wuwan absorbed the knowledge in the Five Poisons Book Room hungrily. During this period, there were ancient giants coming and going. Occasionally, there would be the Fusion Heavenly Pillar passing by, but they did not discover Zhu Wuwan at all.

The Five Poison Sect's various cultivation techniques and manuals were different from the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. They focused on the word 'essence'. There were not many fancy things. All the cultivation techniques and manuals were created along the five Great Dao.

Although the various cultivation techniques and manuals of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect were created with the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique as the core, they were divided into 99 directions and were quite mixed. Therefore, other than the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique, which could directly reach the peak of the Great Dao, the other 99 paths could only be cultivated to the perfected Body Integration. It was very difficult to go any higher.

The Five Poisons Sect had a total of five Sect-guarding Codex, each of which could allow Qi Practitioners to cultivate to the Mahayana Stage and above, and it was very effective for Zhu Wuwan to improve the Ten Thousand Poisons True Technique. Therefore, these five Sect-guarding Codex were the focus of Zhu Wuwan's memory.

Other than that, the things that Zhu Wuwan was most interested in were the high-grade Secret Skill of Heaven and Earth, Poison Sealing Technique, and the top-grade Secret Skill of Heaven and Earth, Five Poison Palm.

The so-called poison locking method could perhaps be put in another way. It was the poison of the password lock, or simply the poison locking method.

This was a high-level secret skill of heaven and earth. It could arrange all kinds of poisons in a specific way and then poison the enemy.

In this way, if the enemy wanted to detoxify the poison, they had to know the password and use it to detoxify the poison. If the password was wrong, not only would the poison not be detoxified, but it would also cause immediate death.

If one cultivated this method to the extreme, it could even form a chain of poison seals. If one wanted to remove it, one would have to go through many steps. Every step could not be wrong. The complexity and difficulty of detoxification would soar, and it could give the enemy a headache to death.

If Zhu Wuan could cultivate this Secret Skill of Heaven and Earth, the possibility of him being countered when he poisoned her in the future would decrease drastically, and his deterrence would also increase greatly.

How could Zhu Wuwan let go of such a good thing? Therefore, he was prepared to fuse the poison sealing secret technique with the Will-releasing Poison Technique. In the future, not only would he be silent when he poisoned, but the poison would also have a password lock. If he wanted to remove the poison, he had to first unlock the password lock. Otherwise, not only would he not be able to save people, but he would also kill them.

The other treasure that caught Zhu Wuwan's attention was the Five Poison Palm, one of the top secret arts of heaven and earth in the Five Poison Sect. As the name suggested, it was a palm technique.

This palm technique could effectively fuse all kinds of poisons and then release them during battle, increasing the power of the palm technique greatly. It was not much inferior to the Buddha's Palm.

However, because the Tathagata Divine Palm pursued powerful destructive power and attack power, it was difficult to incorporate all kinds of poisons. Many techniques and methods in the Five Poison Divine Palm gave Zhu Wuwan a lot of inspiration.

If Zhu Wuan could fuse the Five Poison Divine Palm into the Tathagata Divine Palm, the Tathagata Divine Palm would have a poisonous attribute and its power would increase further. Zhu Wuan naturally would not miss such a good thing.

The Five Great Sect Codex, the Poison Sealing Secret Technique, the Five Poison Divine Palm ... This was the greatest gain Zhu Wuwan had obtained from the Five Poisons Book House. All of them could bring a huge increase to Zhu Wuwan's strength. This trip to Five Poisons City could be said to be full of gains.

This also gave Zhu Wanhao some inspiration. Time was limited. In order to obtain more books and cultivation techniques that were useful to him, it seemed that he had to go to those poison sects to study first.

Many of the cultivation techniques and manuals in the Poison Dao Immortal Sect could often be fused with the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique and the Poison Thought Release Technique, directly increasing Zhu Wuyang's strength and effectively unleashing the power of a level-seven Zhu Wuyang mixed with poison.

In that case, he naturally had to go to these Poison Dao immortal sects to study first.

Chapter 704: Unlimited Upgrade (1)

Other than the Five Poison Sect's treasured tome, the Poison Sealing Secret Technique, and the Five Poison Divine Palm, many other manuals and cultivation techniques were also very useful to Zhu Wuwan. The combined effects were not inferior to those of the Five Poison Sect's treasured tome, the Poison Sealing Secret Technique, and the Five Poison Divine Palm.

In addition to the various cultivation technique manuals of the Five Venoms Sect, there were also cultivation technique manuals of other sects in the Five Venoms Book Room. Among them, the most precious one in Zhu Wuyang's eyes was the Spiritual Earth Hand.

As a poison sect that was proficient in the art of poison, the Five Poison Sect's greatest enemy was not an immortal sect like the Medicine God Sect that was proficient in medical detoxification, or a poison sect like the Medicine God Sect. Instead, it was the Earth Spirit Sect.

The reason why the Earth Spirit Sect could become the Five Poison Sect's greatest enemy was that they were often helpless against the Five Poison Sect's disciples. It was not because they were good at using poisons to detoxify poisons, but because they were patient.

The Earth Spirit Sect's cultivation technique was extremely good at defense, especially against physical attacks and toxic attacks. It had a restraining effect on many of the Five Poison Sect's poisons.

Even if they could not restrain it, they had an extremely shocking endurance. Moreover, there were many poisonous flowers and plants in the territory of the Five Poison Sect that were beneficial to the cultivation of the Earth Spirit Sect.

It was precisely because of this that the Earth Spirit Sect had deliberately moved to the vicinity of the Five Poison Sect and often plundered the Five Poison Sect's poisonous flowers and herbs. The two sides would have conflicts every year and gradually became mortal enemies.

Therefore, in the contest between the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect, the Five Poison Sect was at a slight disadvantage. The Five Poison Sect had suffered a lot in the hands of the Earth Spirit Sect, but they could occasionally gain the upper hand and obtain some good things from the Earth Spirit Sect.

The Earth Spirit Hand was one of them. Moreover, this was the first ungraded Secret Skill of Heaven and Earth that Zhu Wuyan had seen. It was also the cornerstone Secret Skill of the Earth Spirit Sect.

The threshold to cultivate the Earth Spirit Hand was not high. Any cultivator above the Aura Refining realm could cultivate it. Moreover, there was no upper limit to the level, but it would take a lot of time.

As the name suggested, the Earth Spirit Hand was a type of hand martial arts. Fist, palm, finger, hook...Moreover, after cultivating to a sufficiently high level, one could even mobilize a large amount of Earth Spirit Power, possessing a terrifying power that could move mountains and overturn seas.

The higher the level of the Earth Spirit Hand, the higher the power, attack, and might it could unleash. Moreover, it would ignore the level of the cultivator.

In other words, if a Nascent Soul Realm old monster cultivated the Earth Spirit Hand to the 50th level or above, although he had not yet entered the Soul Formation Realm and could not communicate with the Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi, he could directly use the Heaven and Earth Spiritual Qi with the Earth Spirit Hand.

Many cultivators of the Earth Spirit Sect used this characteristic of the Earth Spirit Hand to first raise the Earth Spirit Hand to level 50 and above. They personally experienced how the Earth Spirit Hand mobilized the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, and then comprehended it by analogy to achieve a breakthrough in their strength.

It was precisely because of the Earth Spirit Hand that the Earth Spirit Sect was able to nurture a large number of cultivators at the Soul Formation Stage and above, far surpassing the Five Poison Sect.

However, as the level of the Earth Spirit Hand increased, the difficulty of increasing it became greater and the time spent would also be longer. Therefore, when it was time to increase the Earth Spirit Hand to the 60th level and above, which was comparable to the attack of an ancient giant, the difficulty was not inferior to the increase in strength realm.

Therefore, the number of Soul Formation Realm cultivators in the Earth Spirit Sect was beyond imagination, but the number of ancient giants would decrease by a lot, let alone those above.

In Zhu Wanhao's opinion, the power of the Earth Spirit Hand was not inferior to the Buddha's Palm. In some aspects, it was even more powerful. If he could cultivate it to the 80th level or above, its power would surpass the Buddha's Palm, allowing Zhu Wanhao to have the attack of a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal in advance.

Moreover, the Earth Spirit Hand, which was difficult for other cultivators to cultivate and took a lot of time, could be improved instantly by Zhu Wuwan as long as she had enough breakthrough stones.

This was a good thing that could be used as a main secret technique. Its importance had already surpassed the Buddha's Palm, and in some aspects, it was not inferior to the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique. It could be said that it was the highest level secret technique that Zhu Wuwan had mastered.

Even with Zhu Wuyang's current strength, he was actually unable to find the slightest flaw in it. There was also no possibility of improving it for the time being. One could imagine how powerful the Earth Spirit Hand was.

If it weren't for the fact that the cultivation difficulty was too shocking, the Earth Spirit Sect would definitely be able to compete with the top immortal sects in the Central Plains, or even higher.

How could Zhu Wuyang not learn such a divine secret technique? Therefore, he immediately cultivated it and began to use the Breakthrough Stone to improve it.

"Congratulations to the host for raising the Earth Spirit Hand to the first level for the first time in your life. You have received 10 Breakthrough Stones ..."

"Congratulations to the host for raising the Earth Spirit Hand to the second level for the first time in your life. You have received 20 breakthrough stones ..."

Every time he leveled up, Zhu Wuwan would be able to obtain a considerable amount of breakthrough stones. From here, he could also feel the high level of the Earth Spirit Hand.

A large number of breakthrough stones were continuously poured into the Earth Spirit Hand. Zhu Wuyang's Earth Spirit Hand continued to soar. Three levels...Fourth level...Fifth floor...The tenth floor...Level 16...

20th floor...Level 30...40th level...All the way to the 76th step!

It wasn't that he didn't want to continue improving, but that he had already used up all the breakthrough stones. The power of the Earth Spirit Hand was indeed shocking, but the consumption of energy when improving was also shocking.

He felt the power of the Earth Spirit Hand. Although it was only at the seventy-sixth level, it was not inferior to the Tathagata Divine Palm. Moreover, it was flexible and changeable. Its power was close to Zhu Wuwan's previous strongest attack, and the consumption was far less than before.

It was really a good thing. Zhu Wuwan was also full of praise. It seemed that she had to make a trip to the Earth Spirit Sect when she had time. Who knew if the Earth Spirit Sect had something similar to the Earth Spirit Hand?

Looking at his nimble hands and sensing the manipulation of the Power of Earth, an idea suddenly appeared in Zhu Wuwan's mind. It was an idea that could teach the Five Poison Sect a lesson.

All these years, the Five Venoms Sect had been bullying the Ten Thousand Poison Sect. Not only did they often plunder some rare heavenly and earthly treasures from the Ten Thousand Poison Sect, but they had even tried their best to suppress the development of the Ten Thousand Poison Sect. This time, they even had the intention to murder Zhu Wuwan.

Such an action was tantamount to biting the hand that fed him. Zhu Wuyang had been thinking about how to take revenge on the Five Venoms Sect previously. At the very least, it would temporarily prevent them from dealing with the Ten Thousand Poison Sect and seizing their resources and treasures.

However, she had never had a detailed plan. However, after upgrading the Earth Spirit Hand to the seventy-sixth level, Zhu Wuwan thought of a very good plan. Although it was a little simple and crude, it was definitely practical.

Not only that, but this plan could also help Zhu Wuwan earn a lot of breakthrough stones and resources. It could be said to be killing several birds with one stone, so how could Zhu Wuwan not use it?

Thinking of this, Zhu Wuwan smiled slightly. She was prepared to carry out this plan after memorizing all the cultivation technique manuals on the last level of the Myriad Poison Book House.

Chapter 705: It Must Be the Earth Spirit Sect Who Harm Me (1)

Five-Poison City, Soul Lamp Palace!

The Soul Lamps of all the Five Poison Sect cultivators were placed here. They were divided into layers. The higher the layer, the larger the Soul Lamps. Naturally, it represented the higher the status of the characters and the stronger their strength.

The lower one's Soul Lamp was, the smaller it was, which meant that the person's status was lower, and their strength was generally lower.

As a first-rate immortal sect in the Central Plains, the one guarding the Soul Lamp Palace was an ancient powerhouse at the Void Training Stage, which showed how wealthy the Five Poison Sect was.

Zhu Wuwan was like a ghost, silently passing through the defensive array formation around the Soul Lamp Palace and appearing behind the ancient giant guarding the Soul Lamp Palace.

“Earth Spirit Hand!”

A palm that seemed to have teleported flew over and killed this ancient giant. He didn't even make a sound before one of the Soul Lamps on the second level of the Soul Lamp Palace went out.

Next, Zhu Wuwan broke his arms and legs with the Earth Spirit Hand, giving him a set of Earth Spirit Hand Tri-combo. Only then did she leave with all the treasures on him. She also sealed off the entire Soul Lamp Palace from the inside to prevent anyone from entering. This way, Zhu Wuwan could deliver more Earth Spirit Tri-combo with peace of mind.

After taking a few steps, Zhu Wuwan suddenly thought of something. She turned back and destroyed all the Soul Lamps here. If she wanted to rebuild them, she would need several years.

After such a long time, Zhu Wuwan had long left this place.

The purpose of destroying Soul Lamp Palace before delivering the set meal was self-evident. Naturally, it was to avoid being discovered by the people of Soul Lamp Palace. This way, Zhu Wuyang could go on a killing spree in Five-Poison City.

From the Five Venoms Book House, Zhu Wuwan had also obtained detailed information on most of the Five Venoms Sect's higher-ups. At the same time, she had also made some preparations before starting tonight's free meal event. The series of plans were quite well-planned.

After dealing with the Soul Lamp Palace, Zhu Wuwan rushed to the next target. He also took a look at the breakthrough stones he had obtained from the guardian of the Soul Lamp Palace. The total number had already reached tens of millions. It could be said to be a bumper harvest.

With a faint smile, Zhu Wuyang felt full of motivation and quickly sneaked into the second target's room.

The Earth Spirit Fist smashed his head, the Earth Spirit Claw broke his arms, and the Earth Spirit Palm broke his legs...It was another set of Earth Spirit Hand Tri-combo! Zhu Wuyang left with a large number of breakthrough stones and his treasures, heading to the next good place.

The Heaven and Earth Hiding Scripture and the Invisible Curse, the Beautiful Goat, worked together. In addition to Zhu Wuwan's invincible strength, all the Nascent Soul Stage Cultivators, Soul Formation Stage Cultivators, and Void Refinement Stage powerhouses that were targeted by him were cut down one after another like wheat in autumn.

In just a few hours, tens of thousands of Five Poison Sect cultivators above Nascent Soul Stage were sent to the Earth Spirit and turned into corpses.

From the Five Poison Sect's wheat, Zhu Wuwan had obtained tens of billions of breakthrough stones. In addition to the resources, treasures, and other gains, Zhu Wuwan had earned a lot tonight.

If he could earn so much every night, Zhu Wuyang would be able to break through the Human Immortal Tribulation in less than a year and become invincible in the Dongyuan Continent. Unfortunately, he could only think about it at the moment.

Although Zhu Wuyang was quite strong, he did not dare to be so crazy. Otherwise, once he aroused public anger in the Central Plains and countless immortal sects joined forces to deal with him, Zhu Wuyang would not be able to withstand it.

Therefore, such a good opportunity to make a lot of money could only be occasionally put into practice. If it was too much, it would be courting death.

Seeing that the sky was about to turn bright, Zhu Wuyang did not leave Five-Poison City immediately. Instead, he went to a treasure vault hidden deep underground and began to plunder to his heart's content.

Deadly Poison Storehouse!

As the name suggested, this treasure vault stored all kinds of poisons, many of which were not available in the Southern Wasteland and were also what Zhu Wuyang needed.

Previously, Zhu Wuyang had discovered this place, but he did not make a move easily. Now that he had begun to attack the Five Poison Sect ruthlessly, Zhu Wuyang naturally would not let go of this good place that made him drool.

Other than the Deathly Poison Storehouse, there were a few other treasure vaults that Zhu Wuyang had marked. They were just waiting for the right opportunity to start looting, and tonight was one of the most suitable opportunities.

By the time they finished looting the treasure vaults, the sky was already bright. Finally, someone discovered something unusual, and the entire Five-Poison City began to become noisy.

“Someone, save me! Our clan head has been killed. He is already a peak-level Void Refinement Realm ancient giant. Who killed him? Could it be the ancient giant of the Earth Spirit Sect? No, how could the ancient tycoon of the Earth Spirit Sect kill the family head silently? It must be the Heaven’s Pillar of the Earth Spirit Sect that did it. ”

” Hurry up and report to the Heavenly Pillars. The hundreds of Soul Formation cultivators in the Five-Colored Lotus Pond are all dead. Their limbs have been broken and their heads have been crippled. They can’t be any more dead. We must let the Heavenly Pillars know about this. ”

” Our Patriarch is dead too. He was a Late Void Refinement Realm ancient giant. How could he die without a sound? This must be the doing of the Heavenly Pillar of Fusion. An ancient giant of the same realm couldn’t have done all this. ”

” It’s the Earth Spirit Sect. All the disciples who were killed had their limbs and heads broken by the Earth Spirit Hand. Moreover, the enemy has already mastered the Earth Spirit Hand to an extremely high level. Other than the cultivators of the Earth Spirit Sect, no one can cultivate the Earth Spirit Hand to such a high level. ”

” Damn the Earth Spirit Sect, how could they be so cruel to us? Could it be that the Earth Spirit Sect knows that the Ten Thousand Poison Sect has unified the Southern Wasteland and that we are planning to plunder all kinds of resources and treasures in the Southern Wasteland to develop rapidly through the Ten Thousand Poison Sect? That’s why they are so cruel to us. ”

Zhu Wuwan had unintentionally overheard the other plans of the Five Poison Sect. As expected, he had seen the Ten Thousand Poison Sect unify the Southern Wasteland, so he was prepared to make a move against the Ten Thousand Poison Sect.

However, it made sense when he thought about it. In the past, the Thousand Poisons Sect only occupied one-third of the Southern Wasteland. When they did things, they were often held back by the Sacred Flame Sect and the Medicine God Sect. They could not make decisions on many things.

However, the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect had unified the entire Southern Wasteland and possessed all the resources and treasures in the Southern Wasteland. All of them definitely surpassed the Five Poison Sect. It was normal for the Five Poison Sect to be tempted.

The Five Poison Sect might even have the intention to take over the Southern Wasteland. After all, they had been opposed by many parties in the past, and it was easy to steal a chicken and lose rice.

Now, as long as they could deal with the Thousand Poisons Sect, they would be able to occupy the vast Southern Wasteland. At that time, with the resources and treasures of the Southern Wasteland, the Five Poison Sect might really be able to rise to a higher level.

Fortunately, Zhu Wanhao had arrived at Five Poison City at this time. She was prepared to secretly teach the Five Poison Sect a profound and unforgettable lesson so that they would consciously dispel some unrealistic thoughts.

Chapter 706: I Suddenly Miss You

Just as Zhu Wanhao had expected, the entire Five Poison Sect exploded when they discovered that the Five Poison Sect cultivators who had been given the Earth Spirit Trio Set Meal had been killed by the Earth Spirit Hand.

Although some people felt that someone might be framing the Earth Spirit Sect, in the vast Central Plains, there were only a few people who had cultivated the Earth Spirit Hand to the seventieth level.

The Earth Spirit Hand that Zhu Wanwan had revealed when she delivered the Earth Spirit's Triple Set Meal was the limit of the sixty-ninth level. She was just a hair's breadth away from the seventieth level, and she had ruthlessly slammed the lid of the pot onto the Earth Spirit Sect's head.

Even if there were people who had doubts, in front of such a high-level Earth Spirit Hand, those doubts would vanish into thin air. Moreover, the enemy had used the Earth Spirit Hand to kill the Five Poison Sect's cultivators. Although it was obvious that they were trying to frame them, it was also the Earth Spirit Sect's deliberate act to get rid of their doubts.

Therefore, this seemingly simple and crude plan was extremely useful. Not only did the Five Poison Sect firmly pin this matter on the Earth Spirit Sect, but they also firmly believed in it.

Therefore, that night, the Five Poison Sect, which was filled with the city, attacked the Earth Spirit Sect that bordered them. They swept through several giant cities of the Earth Spirit Sect and killed a large number of cultivators from the Earth Spirit Sect. A great battle between the two sides was about to break out.

Seeing that the situation was developing in the direction she had expected, Zhu Wuwan was satisfied and plundered several more treasure vaults of the Five Poison Sect. She also gave out several thousand sets of Earth Spirit Tri-combo Set Meal, which made the fight between the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect even fiercer.

Although the Earth Spirit Sect was confused and did not understand which bastard had framed them, the Five Poison Sect had already attacked their home and killed so many cultivators of the sect. There was no need to consider the truth of the matter anymore. They could just roll up their sleeves and do it.

Moreover, although they had yet to find out who the big shot who had secretly killed the Five Poison Sect's cultivators was, this matter was beneficial to them after all, so they would not pursue it too much. At present, dealing with the Five Poison Sect's large-scale attack was the most important thing.

As a result, both sides fought even more fiercely. However, the Five Poison Sect thought that the Earth Spirit Sect knew who the murderer was, but they did not say it. The Earth Spirit Sect did not know nor did they say it. Or rather, they could not say who it was.

Moreover, after careful investigation, the Earth Spirit Sect was shocked to discover something. To be able to roam freely in the Five Poison Sect's headquarters, Five Poison City, and kill so many Soul Formation cultivators and ancient giants of the Five Poison Sect, it was probably, perhaps, possible...No one could do it.

This was f * cking...

Could it be that their Earth Spirit Sect's hidden mysterious ancestor could not stand the fact that they were unable to take down the Five Poison Sect for so long, so he brazenly and decisively made a move?

The cultivators of the Earth Spirit Sect continued to fight with the Five Poison Sect with a confused and expectant mood. They had no idea that their old nest was about to be stolen by Zhu Wuwan.

Before he stole the Earth Spirit Sect's lair and went to the Earth Spirit Sect to study, Zhu Wuwan still had one more important thing to do. That was to absorb a portion of the Five Poison Sect's poison.

Zhu Wuwan had plundered hundreds of thousands of unabsorbed poisons from the Five Poison Sect's Deathly Poison Vault. Many of them needed to be stored in a specific array formation to be preserved for a long time. They could not even be stored in a storage ring. Therefore, Zhu Wuwan had to absorb some of the poisons as soon as possible.

Therefore, after plundering a large pile of treasure vaults, Zhu Wuwan hid deep underground in Five-Poison City and began to absorb the poison that could not be preserved for a long time, fusing it into his Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison.

A kind of...Two types...Three types...Ten types...Thirty types...

Sixty types...

As he absorbed all kinds of poisons, Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison grew and improved at a speed visible to the naked eye. It was also charging towards the bottleneck, wanting to break through the natural moat and advance to the eighth-grade mixed poison.

Unfortunately, the bottleneck between rank 7 and rank 8 was even more terrifying. After the power of the mixed poison reached a certain level, it would no longer increase, only becoming more obscure and complicated.

Zhu Wuwan continued to absorb and fuse more poison. He wanted to rely on quantity to win and eventually reach the level of quantitative change causing qualitative change.

If it were other cultivators, they might not dare to do this because they were worried that their bodies would not be able to withstand it. However, Zhu Wuwan's body had already reached the peak of a high-grade magic treasure at this moment. The poison that she could withstand far exceeded that of cultivators of the same level. Therefore, she could use this method of quantitative change to cause qualitative change.

Zhu Wuwan continued to absorb and fuse. All kinds of lights flickered inside and outside his body like a lantern. They were the special colors brought by different poisons, including but not limited to red, orange, yellow, green, cyan, blue, purple...

Zhu Wuyan had all seven colors of the rainbow, and many colors that the rainbow didn't have.

If the mixed poison in Zhu Wuyang's body was fully unleashed, it could turn Zhu Wuyang into a human-shaped colorful lamp and illuminate half of the Southern Wasteland. One could imagine how powerful the mixed poison of level-seven Zhu Wuyang was. Just the light it emitted was extraordinary.

Zhu Lancai, no, it should be Zhu Wuwan who continued to absorb and fuse more and more poisons. Gradually, the total number of poisons absorbed and fused had exceeded 7,000, but he still had not broken through the bottleneck.

Zhu Wuwan frowned slightly and felt the endurance of her body. She continued to fuse all kinds of poisons unhurriedly and did not care about the bloody storm outside at all.

Zhu Wuwan, who was busy absorbing and fusing the poison, no longer had the time and energy to send the Earth Spirit Tri-combo to the Five Poison Sect's cultivators. However, the Five Poison Sect's cultivators didn't lose morale because of the lack of grief. Instead, they fought more and more bravely, and gradually began to gain the upper hand.

This shocked the cultivators of the Earth Spirit Sect. They had always had the upper hand in the battle with the Five Poison Sect. However, the Five Poison Sect had suffered such heavy losses this time. Logically speaking, they should be able to easily suppress the Five Poison Sect. However, they did not expect the Five Poison Sect to actually suppress them.

Were the mourning soldiers that powerful? Could it be that the Five Poison Sect was really going to win?

The more the Earth Spirit Sect cultivators fought, the more frightened they became. Their morale became dispirited as they gradually retreated.

Many of the Earth Spirit Sect's cultivators suddenly began to miss the unknown big shot who always gave the Earth Spirit's three sets of meals in the Five Poison Sect. If that big shot continued to give the Earth Spirit's three sets of meals, they wouldn't be in such a miserable state now.

Although that unknown big shot had instigated this tragic battle between the two first-rate immortal sects, more and more cultivators of the Earth Spirit Sect began to miss him.

If Zhu Wuchang knew about this, who knew what he would think? At this moment, Zhu Wuchang, who was absorbing and fusing all kinds of poisons, had also reached a critical stage!

Chapter 707: Chasing Souls (1)

"Weng..."

As the tremors swept through his entire body, Zhu Wuwan had already fused 8,000 different types of poison, pushing Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison to a new height.

To put it bluntly, in the vast Dongyuan Continent, the mixed poison that Zhu Wuwan absorbed and fused was at least ranked in the top five.

Even among all the poisons in Dongyuan Continent, Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison could be ranked in the top 100.

Once Zhu Wuyan's mixed poison could break through to the level of a level-eight mixed poison, Zhu Wuyan's mixed poison would probably become one of the best mixed poisons in the human world.

According to Zhu Wuan's understanding, in the current Dongyuan Continent, the person who had mastered the strongest mixed poison was a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal. After tens of thousands of years of fusion and improvement, the mixed poison in his body had already been upgraded to the level eight realm.

As for the grade-9 mixed poison, he had not heard of it yet.

However, there were still level-nine poisons, and each of them was extremely potent. They could easily kill a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal or even a Human Immortal who was going through the tribulation. They were as rare as phoenix feathers and qilin horns.

Perhaps it was because there were too few grade-9 poisons, and even if they were all absorbed and fused, there were only a few of them. That was why the grade-9 mixed poison that was absorbed and fused by cultivators had not been formed for a long time.

At this moment, the tremor coming from his body was not the sound of Zhu Wuwan's breakthrough mixed with poison, but the appearance of a new characteristic. This made Zhu Wuwan both disappointed and happy.

It was indeed not easy to raise the level of a mixed poison. After all, the power of a mixed poison condensed by a cultivator was far superior to a poison of the same level, which was a poison naturally born in nature.

Hopefully, the special trait this time would not disappoint. It would be best if it could track souls or cause great damage to souls.

After an unknown period of time, the sixth characteristic slowly appeared.

Soul Chasing!

Feeling the special characteristic that had reached the pinnacle of level seven the moment it appeared, Zhu Wuwan could not stop smiling. Many of the organs on her face could not be found.

He only wanted a lake, but he didn't expect Zhu Wuwan to give him an ocean mixed with poison.

The sixth characteristic not only had the effect of tracking souls, but it also had a huge destructive power to souls. The only drawback was that it was easier to chase souls alone, and it would basically not be discovered by other cultivators.

However, if he wanted to take his life while tracking the soul, he would need to infuse different types of poison. The possibility of being discovered would increase greatly, and the commotion would be huge.

However, there was another special characteristic in Zhu Wuyang's mixed poison that was targeted at this, and that was...Everything had no special qualities!

With the cooperation of all the qualities of nothingness, Zhu Wuwan would be able to hide much more when she released the soul-chasing and life-taking characteristics of the mixed poison. However, after feeling the movement of the soul-chasing and life-taking characteristics, Zhu Wuwan felt that even if there were all the qualities of nothingness, it was best to poison the enemy when they were distracted.

Otherwise, if the enemy was more alert, he could still detect the abnormality and cut off his soul in time. Although doing so would cause serious injuries, it was still much better than being killed.

Perhaps some people would think that since Zhu Wuyang had already formed a whole with the poison, shouldn't it contain all aspects when it was released? Why did it have to poison each of the characteristics separately?

However, it was precisely because the mixed poison contained too many attributes and had too many effects that when it was injected into the enemy's body, the various attributes would not be able to reach a high enough level when they were used together. There was even a possibility that they would reject each other.

Therefore, one of the important characteristics of the mixed poison was that it could divide the attributes that one needed when poisoning. In other words, when dealing with different types of enemies, one could increase the input of a specific poison in the mixed poison to maximize the lethality of the enemy.

For example, the six special attributes, which were the six super attributes that were above the ordinary attributes of Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison, could be transformed into poison with the devouring characteristic when Zhu Wuwan needed to devour the various energies in the enemy's body, and the strongest power of the devouring characteristic would be unleashed.

When it was necessary to track an enemy, it could convert all the mixed poisons released into poisons with tracking characteristics, unleashing the strongest power of the tracking characteristics without allowing other characteristics to interfere.

Moreover, some traits could complement each other, such as the All-Nothingness and Devour traits, the All-Nothingness and Soul Chasing traits, and of course, some ordinary and super attributes also had different promotion and coordination effects.

Every kind of mixed poison contained many attributes, even super attributes. Therefore, poison cultivators needed to learn how to match different attributes to unleash the effect they wanted the most.

Take Zhu Wuwan's mix of poison as an example. Other than the six super attributes, there were also tens of thousands of different attributes. Zhu Wuwan could only release the effect he needed by matching these attributes well.

When he was able to skillfully use Zhu Wuwan's soul-chasing and life-taking characteristics mixed with poison, a smile appeared at the corner of Zhu Wuwan's mouth. A bold idea arose in his mind.

It would be fine if he had not grasped the special trait of Soul Chasing and Life Seizing. However, since he had grasped this special trait, he could give the Five Poison Sect an even more ruthless blow. He might even be able to use this opportunity to destroy the Five Poison Sect. In the future, he would no longer have to worry about the Five Poison Sect causing any trouble for the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect.

However, before doing anything ruthless, it was better to go to the Earth Spirit Sect and study properly. He would memorize all the cultivation techniques and manuals of the Earth Spirit Sect. If the opportunity was right, he could take them all away and bring them to the Southern Wilderness for the cultivators of the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty to cultivate.

The Earth Spirit Sect's cultivation technique had a huge advantage before the Void Training Stage. If used properly, it could allow the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty to nurture a large number of Soul Formation Stage cultivators. Zhu Wuwan was also very drooling.

Moreover, since the Earth Spirit Sect had such a good thing as the Earth Spirit Hand, there might be other good things. He could go and take a good look.

Now that the Five Poison Sect's important treasure trove and resources had been mostly plundered by Zhu Wuwan, even the Five Poison Book House had been plundered clean by Zhu Wuwan. There was nothing good left in Five Poison City, so it was time to go to the Earth Spirit Sect.

As a first-rate immortal sect that had been fighting with the Five Poison Sect for so many years, its power far surpassed the Ten Thousand Poison Sect. There should be many good things in the sect, so they definitely could not miss them.

At the thought of this, Zhu Wuwan smiled and used the Teleportation Technique. In an instant, he traveled 700 miles and rushed towards the Yuelu Mountain where the Earth Spirit Sect was located.

Chapter 708: Heavyweight Set Meal

The battle between the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect had already lasted for three years. During these three years, Zhu Wuwan had studied in the Five Poison Sect. Not only had he memorized the Five Poison Sect's manuals and cultivation techniques, he had even taken the entire Five Poison Book House.

Other than the Five Poison Book House, there were also dozens of treasure vaults of the Five Poison Sect. Zhu Wuwan had also asked for them.

If the Five Poison Sect knew that such a diligent student was hidden in their sect, who knew what they would think?

Other than studying, Zhu Wuyan had given him a few more Earth Spirit Hand Tri-combo Sets and earned tens of millions of Breakthrough Stones. Now, Zhu Wuyan had saved them all up and was prepared to use them when the right opportunity arose.

With Zhu Wuyan's help, the Earth Spirit Sect had already turned the situation around. The Five Poison Sect was forced to retreat and lose a portion of their territory. Now, the two sides were still fighting fiercely. From time to time, the Integration Heavenly Pillar would attack.

The Five Poison Sect hated the Earth Spirit Sect to the extreme at this moment. After all, the Earth Spirit Sect had already "gifted" them the Earth Spirit Hand Trio Set several times and plundered dozens of the largest treasure vaults and the Five Poison Book House. They were simply arrogant to the extreme.

Not only that, but the Earth Spirit Sect actually refused to admit it. They said that they did not know who did this. Did they take them for fools? Other than the Earth Spirit Sect, who else would do such a thing?

The Five Poison Sect had already determined that these things were the work of the Earth Spirit Sect. Since the Earth Spirit Sect had used these despicable methods, the Five Poison Sect naturally would not be outdone. The Integration Heavenly Pillars would personally take action and occasionally sneak into the territory of the Earth Spirit Sect to cause damage.

However, what made the Five Poison Sect rather helpless was that up until now, there had not been a single Integration Heavenly Pillar that could give a set meal to the cultivators of the Earth Spirit Sect like a certain big shot of the Earth Spirit Sect. It was even difficult to sneak into the headquarters of the Earth Spirit Sect, and it was quite dangerous.

The unknown big shot of the Earth Spirit Sect must have mastered a special concealment technique and treasure. Otherwise, he would definitely not be able to do this.

However, the Five Poison Sect was racking their brains to find the bastard who had given them the set meal. The Earth Spirit Sect was also looking for him, and they were still confused as to who the big shot who had been helping them was.

Moreover, it was said that the big shot had already emptied the Five Poisons Book Room. If he was really a cultivator of the Earth Spirit Sect, there was no reason not to take it out for the cultivators of the Earth Spirit Sect to learn and comprehend. At the very least, it would be very helpful for the war.

There were also so many treasures and resources. Many of them should be useless to cultivators above the Void Refinement Realm. Why not take them out?

The Earth Spirit Sect was also scheming, hoping that the hidden big shot would increase his help. However, they did not know that the big shot had already set his eyes on the Earth Spirit Sect. At this moment, he was reading happily in the Earth Spirit Sect's library pavilion. He also investigated the location of the various treasure vaults of the Earth Spirit Sect and the loopholes in the spiritual array groups around the treasure vaults.

When he was about to leave the Earth Spirit Sect, Zhu Wuyang would give the Earth Spirit Sect a big surprise as a reward for him.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyang might be able to help them get rid of their mortal enemy, the Five Poison Sect. At that time, wouldn't it be reasonable for them to take some treasure vault as compensation?

Zhu Wuwan continued her journey of learning, immersed in all kinds of cultivation techniques and classics. Occasionally, when she was tired of reading, she would go out for a walk and appreciate the fierce battle between the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect.

The fight between the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect became more and more intense. Not only were their heads smashed, but their brains were also blown out. A large number of Nascent Soul Stage Cultivators and Divinity Transformation Stage Cultivators were killed one after another, sweeping across a large area in the southern part of the Central Plains and causing a certain wave in the entire Central Plains.

After all, as a first-rate immortal sect with a Heavenly Pillar above the Unity Stage, it was rare for such a battle to happen. It could even be said that there was no bottom line.

The Integration Heavenly Pillars of the two major sects had come personally. Apart from competing with each other, they also attacked the low-level cultivators of their respective sects without any bottom line.

However, the two Heaven Pillars that had mastered the teleportation technique were not injured. Let alone death, there were not even any serious injuries. At most, they were only lightly injured.

Even when the Five Poison Sect seized the opportunity to attack an early-Body Integration Heavenly Pillar from the Earth Spirit Sect, the eight Body Integration Heavenly Pillars of the Five Poison Sect attacked together, but they still failed to kill the other party. This showed how powerful the teleportation technique was.

The area where the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect were located had already become a living hell. From the Fusion Heavenly Pillar to the ordinary secular martial artists, they had all engaged in intense confrontations and killings.

During this process, Zhu Wuyang's breakthrough stones had been increasing at an extremely fast speed. After all, the culprit of this battle was Zhu Wuyang.

Therefore, whenever a cultivator of the two sects was injured or killed, or if resources or treasure lands were destroyed, Zhu Wuyang would be able to obtain a sum of breakthrough stones.

This made Zhu Wanhao even more eager to fan the flames. From time to time, he would take the time to stir up trouble and make sure that the battle between the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect could continue and become more and more exciting.

However, the cultivators of the two major sects were not fools. They gradually discovered some doubts, but things had already developed to this point. Even if there were more doubts, so what?

They still had to continue fighting!

Zhu Wuwan sat steadily on the fishing platform and figured out the location of all the treasure vaults of the Earth Spirit Sect. He memorized more and more ancient books and cultivation techniques, and he also improved the poison sealing secret technique. Even the Five Poison Divine Palm was integrated into the Buddha's Palm by him, causing the power of the Buddha's Palm to increase greatly.

Unknowingly, more than a year had passed. All the cultivation techniques and books in the Earth Spirit Sect that were useful to Zhu Wuwan had been memorized by him. It was time to leave this area. However, before leaving, there was one more thing to do.

Using the Poison Sealing Triple Set Meal on the Earth Spirit Sect cultivators!

Using the Earth Spirit Triple Set Meal on the Five Poison Sect cultivators!

He would set off an unprecedented massacre and take the opportunity to fish in troubled waters to completely destroy the Five Poison Sect. Even if he could not completely destroy it, he would make sure that the Five Poison Sect no longer had the ability to cause trouble for the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect.

After some consideration, Zhu Wuwan first plundered all the treasure vaults and Sutra Depository of the Earth Spirit Sect that he had marked. Then, he mixed the lock poison with the clock poison into the bodies of tens of thousands of Earth Spirit Sect cultivators who were above the Nascent Soul stage and below the Body Integration stage. Then, he left Yue Lu Mountain and rushed towards the Five Poison Sect's old nest, Five Poison City.

After arriving at Five-Poison City, Zhu Wuan took advantage of the dark and windy night to send tens of thousands of Earth Spirit Hand Tri-combo Set Meals and killed a large number of Five Poison Sect's cultivators who were above the Nascent Soul Stage and below the Body Integration Stage. This ensured that the core strength of the two sects was almost the same. Only then could they fight to their heart's content and prevent the scene of one side winning overwhelmingly.

Only by maintaining balance could both sides suffer!

Chapter 709: Who's Making Trouble (1)

This might be the last time Zhu Wuwan would deliver a set meal in this area. Therefore, the set meal this time was exceptionally big, so big that it made the Earth Spirit Sect and Five Poison Sect go completely crazy.

The two first-rate immortal sects blamed all of this on each other and then launched an intense battle and a bitter hand-to-hand battle. They both mobilized all of their Fusion Heavenly Pillars.

The Earth Spirit Sect's Seven Supremacies and the Five Poison Sect's Eight Supremacies had similar strength. Although many of the Fusion Heavenly Pillars had been injured in the previous battle, the injuries were about the same, so it did not affect the two sides from fighting evenly.

"Old Mountain Monster, if I don't beat the sh * t out of you this time, I won't be the Poison Demon King!"

"Poison Demon King, you f * cking poisoned my descendants to death. If I don't kill you this time, I'll take your surname."

"This time, we won't rest until one of us is dead. No one is allowed to teleport away. Whoever escapes will be a coward."

"Alright, you've already run more than ten times before. I'd like to see if you can still run this time."

..

The higher-ups of the two sects were so angry that they had no manners to speak of. They cursed at each other and used all kinds of sinister tricks. They no longer had the demeanor of a heavenly pillar.

However, the war had already developed to this stage. If they were to pay attention to their manners and self-cultivation, they would be stupid. Why would they care about their face?

F * ck, everyone had lived for tens of thousands of years. No one cared about face. Their face had been cultivated to an extraordinary state. Only those idiots would care about face in this kind of life and death battle. The inside was the most important.

Fists, feet, magic treasures, spells, secret techniques ... They took turns to attack, and all of them were going to die.

Zhu Wuyang watched the battle happily from the side and counted the breakthrough stones at the same time.

After this round of crazy large-scale free package activities, the total number of breakthrough stones that Zhu Wuwan had had already exceeded 100 million. Although it was far from enough for him to raise his body tempering cultivation to the late-stage Body Integration, it was enough for him to use.

Looking at the fierce battle between the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect's Fusion Heavenly Pillars, Zhu Wuwan, who wished for nothing, released his poison silently. All the qualities of emptiness were unleashed to the extreme, hiding within a radius of tens of thousands of square kilometers.

The ten or so Integration Heavenly Pillars did not care about their surroundings at all. They fought until the sky collapsed and the earth cracked. Cities, mountains, rivers ... Like tofu, they were all destroyed.

Every time the Five Poison Sect and Earth Spirit Sect's Sky Pillar of Fusion were distracted by the intense battle, Zhu Wuyang would silently pounce over with his poison.

However, the focus of Zhu Wuwan's poison was different. When he attacked the Earth Spirit Sect's Sky Pillar of Fusion, he focused on the soul-chasing aspect of the void and soul-chasing characteristics. When he attacked the Five Poison Sect's Sky Pillar of Fusion, he focused on the soul-chasing characteristics of the void and soul-chasing characteristics.

After all, the Earth Spirit Sect did not have much enmity with the Thousand Poisons Sect. On the contrary, Zhu Wuyang had obtained many good things from the Earth Spirit Sect, so he naturally would not bite the hand that fed him.

After spending dozens of days, Zhu Wuwan finally found enough opportunities to poison all the Integration Heavenly Pillars of the Earth Spirit Sect and Five Poison Sect. Only then did he retreat silently. Then, he went to the important resource treasure lands of the Five Poison Sect and Earth Spirit Sect and began to plunder as much as he wanted.

The Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect's Combined Heavenly Pillars had been poisoned by Zhu Wuyang. In other words, Zhu Wuyang had already obtained absolute evidence, so he was no longer afraid of these Combined Heavenly Pillars. In other words, he was no longer afraid of the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect.

Under such circumstances, Zhu Wuyang naturally had enough confidence to plunder as much as he wanted to earn all kinds of resources and breakthrough stones.

Moreover, with the various characteristics of Zhu Wuyang's poison, no one could spread the news wherever Zhu Wuyang passed. Zhu Wuyang could also search without worry and not worry about being disturbed.

Therefore, when the two great immortal sects 'Unity Heavenly Pillars came to an end and temporarily stopped fighting and returned, they were shocked to find that their old nest had been stolen. Their many years of accumulation had basically been swept clean.

The Earth Spirit Sect thought that all of this was done by the Five Poison Sect, but the Five Poison Sect felt that it was done by the Earth Spirit Sect. The two sides once again engaged in a great battle, ignoring their exhausted and injured bodies.

As they fought, both sides felt that something was wrong.

" Damn Five Poison Sect's thief, you didn't even let go of an ordinary resource point. Are you guys so poor that you actually sent such a powerful expert to steal these small resource points? "

" Shameless thieves from the Earth Spirit Sect, are you that greedy for poison? You didn't even let go of a piece of poisonous grass from our Five Poison Sect. You even took away the land. You're too much. "

" Bastards from the Earth Spirit Sect are too much. You guys didn't even let go of the useless pills that I dried outside. Do you have to be so exaggerated? What's the use of taking the useless pills? "

" Five Poison Sect bastards, do my original underwear smell good? You spent so much effort to barge into my high-grade Spiritual Array Group just for a few original underwear. You guys are really shameless. "

As they cursed, both sides felt that something was wrong. Why did they get robbed too? But we didn't send anyone to steal the tower.

Furthermore, to be able to break through so many high-grade and top-notch Spiritual Arrays and steal so many resources and treasures, it was definitely not something that an ancient powerhouse could do. It must be the Fusion Heavenly Pillar that made a move.

However, both sides 'Integration Heavenly Pillars were fighting here, so which one of them could get out and do these things? Therefore, there must be something fishy going on.

The Heaven Pillars of the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect looked at each other and tacitly retreated. They were prepared to investigate this matter properly before deciding what to do next.

However, right at this moment, the Five Poison Sect's Unity Heavenly Pillars felt a pain in their souls. An intense pain whizzed over and almost drowned them.

"Poisoned! We've actually been poisoned! And it's an extremely vicious poison of the soul! Quickly think of a way to get rid of it! This must be the work of those bastards from the Earth Spirit Sect."

"This poison is extremely powerful. It should be a mixed poison above rank 7, and it's the peak of rank 7 mixed poisons. Moreover, the characteristics of this mixed poison are extremely powerful. We must gather all our strength to remove it."

"This kind of poison has already penetrated deep into our souls. We can't survive by cutting off our tails. Who poisoned us and when did it happen? Why can't I feel it at all? Could it be a powerful poison master hired by the Earth Spirit Sect?"

"Let's leave this place for now. The Earth Spirit Sect's Fusion Sky Pillar has already discovered our abnormality. We can't continue fighting. Otherwise, it's very likely that some of us will die."

The Five Poison Sect's Integration Heavenly Pillars wanted to leave, but how could the Earth Spirit Sect's Heavenly Pillars let them go when they saw the abnormality? Although they didn't know who poisoned the Five Poison Sect's cultivators, the Earth Spirit Sect's Integration Heavenly Pillars immediately charged over when they saw such a good opportunity.

How could a group of old fellows who had lived for tens of thousands of years not understand the principle of hitting a dog when it was down? Although there might be a trick involved, there was no reason for the Five Poison Sect's Fusion Heavenly Pillars to play tricks at this time.

The two sides once again engaged in a fierce battle, but in the end, the Five Poison Sect cultivators who had mastered the teleportation technique still managed to escape.

The Earth Spirit Sect's Fusion Heavenly Pillars returned to Mount Yuelu with bellies full of doubts.

Chapter 710: Delivered To Your Door (1)

"Do you know who poisoned that bastard from the Five Poison Sect? Did one of you contact a powerful poison master and secretly poison that bastard?"

"If we knew, we would have been able to leave a few of the Five Poison Sect's Heavenly Pillars behind today instead of ending things with a strong start and a weak finish. I think the person who poisoned the Five Poison Sect should be the one who secretly fanned the flames. What do you think?"

"I think so too, so we have to be careful. When we return, we have to check our bodies to see if we've been poisoned. Even the Five Poison Sect's Sky Pillar can't resist such a poison. Although our cultivation technique is very resistant to poison, it won't be easy to resist it."

"Yes, hurry back and check. That guy who caused trouble in the dark is too slippery. We can't find any clues until now. It's as if he doesn't exist at all."

Both the Earth Spirit Sect and the Five Poison Sect were dumbfounded. The Five Poison Sect felt that this should be the work of the Earth Spirit Sect. Otherwise, why would the cultivators of the Five Poison Sect be alive and kicking when they were poisoned?

...

Although there were many unreasonable aspects in the killing and complete rupture between the two sides, because they could not find the person who fanned the flames in the middle, the two sides still placed the greatest hatred on each other.

The Five Poison Sect was like this, and so was the Earth Spirit Sect!

After returning to Five Poison City, the eight Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillars of the Five Poison Sect immediately tried their best to get rid of the mixed poison that had already seeped into the depths of their souls. However, after trying countless methods, the Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillars of the Five Poison Sect realized one thing in despair: they were hopeless.

This kind of mixed poison had completely fused with their souls and was no longer distinguishable from each other. Moreover, it was constantly eroding their souls. At the current speed, in less than half a month, their souls would dissipate and there was no possibility of saving them.

Of course, it was not completely hopeless. Unless they could find a Human Immortal who was going through the tribulation, it would be possible to remove the poison in their souls. However, if the Five Poison Sect had such a relationship, why would they be bullied by the Earth Spirit Sect so often?

The other method was to find the person who poisoned them, and this person was very likely to have a deep relationship with the Earth Spirit Sect.

However, it was not easy to get the Earth Spirit Sect to agree to save them. It could even be said that it was basically impossible. The hatred between the two sides was as deep as the sea. The Earth Spirit Sect could not wait for them to die as soon as possible. Why would they save them?

Since that was the case, they could only fight to the death and see if there was still a chance. Even if there was no chance, they had to ruthlessly tear off a piece of flesh from the Earth Spirit Sect before they died.

Knowing that he was going to die, the Five Poison Sect's Fusion Heavenly Pillar made arrangements for his remaining relatives and friends in the next ten days, as well as the inheritance of the Five Poison Sect. Then, with the determination to die, he charged into the Earth Spirit Sect's headquarters, Yue Lu Mountain.

What made Zhu Wanhao speechless was that in the Five Poison Sect's legacy plan, the paragons who would bring the Five Poison Sect's legacy would head towards the Southern Wasteland's Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. The Five Poison Sect actually regarded the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect as the Five Poison Sect's hope of inheriting the legacy. This was clearly delivering themselves to their doorstep.

Therefore, after some consideration, Zhu Wanhao decided to accept the remaining essence of the Five Poison Sect and use it to develop the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect and the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty. As for whether they would be discovered later, as long as Zhu Wanhao did not say anything, he did not believe that anyone would know that he was the one who did all of this.

Of course, in order to avoid future troubles, Zhu Wuyang would sell some of the Five Poison Sect's treasures and resources that could easily be exposed in the Central Plains in exchange for a large number of breakthrough stones and the things he needed.

When the upper echelons of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect and their ancestors learned that the Five Poison Sect, which had always bullied them, had become like this, they would definitely be very happy, even if they did not know anything.

However, the Five Poison Sect would never know that it was precisely because they were prepared to be ruthless to the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect that they had attracted Zhu Wuyang's vicious revenge. If it were not for the Five Poison Sect's greed, Zhu Wuyang would not have been so ruthless to them.

At the edge of Yuelu Mountain, Zhu Wuwan watched as the Five Poison Sect's Fusion Heavenly Pillars burned everything in the mountain and fought against the Earth Spirit Sect's Fusion Heavenly Pillars. Zhu Wuwan was silent for a long time before he left quietly with the last batch of treasures he had just looted from the Earth Spirit Sect.

All the good things that were of interest to Zhu Wuwan from the Five Poison Sect and the Earth Spirit Sect had already been plundered by him. He had taken what he needed to take and memorized what he needed to remember. Even the great enemy, the Five Poison Sect, was finished. Now, he could go to the next target with peace of mind.

After experiencing the destruction of the Five Poison Sect, Zhu Wuwan had changed her mind. She decided that her next target would be a Poison Dao Sect, one of the few top-notch Poison Dao Sects in the Dongyuan Continent.

In the Dongyuan Continent, the immortal sects with the Integration Heavenly Pillar were generally called first-class sects. The Thousand Poisons Sect was one of the first-class sects in the Dongyuan Continent.

Only immortal sects with a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal were qualified to be called top sects. More than 50% of the top sects in Dongyuan Continent were concentrated in the Central Plains. It was precisely because there was not even a top sect in the Southern Wilderness that it was called the Southern Wilderness, which meant the barren land in the south of Dongyuan Continent.

It was also because the Southern Wasteland was so barren that it could survive for so many years without being invaded by others.

The distance was too far, the resources were scarce, and the journey was not easy. If they attacked, the gains would not be proportional to the costs. It was not worth it. That was why the Ten Thousand Poison Sect, the Sacred Flame Sect, and the Medicine God Sect had been able to occupy the Southern Wasteland for so many years. Of course, the Ten Thousand Poison Sect was the only one left.

Even so, the Southern Wasteland was still not valued by the top immortal sects and sects. They were not even qualified to be bullied. Only the immortal sects below the top, such as the Five Poison Sect, were interested in bullying the Thousand Poisons Sect.

The next target that Zhu Wanhao requested to learn was a top-notch immortal sect that did not look up to the Southern Wilderness at all. Moreover, it was a poison path immortal sect that was extremely rare in the Central Plains.

Mind Controlling Sect!

As the name suggested, the most powerful thing about this Poison Dao Sect was to control their enemies, and it was through mixing poison. It was said that the Heart Controlling Sect cultivators who had cultivated to the highest level could use the mixed poison to control the minds of their enemies, making them completely obey them without disobeying them. They could completely control their enemies in terms of their hearts, minds, and souls.

Zhu Wuwan had taken a fancy to this mixed poison of the Heart Controlling Sect, or rather, the corresponding characteristics of this mixed poison. He wanted to fuse this characteristic into his own mixed poison and achieve Zhu Wuwan's own path of heart control.

Chapter 711: I Really Don't Know Who Did It (1)

The battle between the Five Poison Sect and the Earth Spirit Sect ended with the Five Poison Sect being completely destroyed. The area and territory that belonged to the Five Poison Sect were all occupied by the Earth Spirit Sect. It was said that the huge Five Poison Sect only had a group of middle and low-level disciples who had inherited the legacy.

Not only that, but the eight Integration Pillars of the Five Poison Sect were all killed by the Earth Spirit Sect. None of them survived, shocking the entire Central Plains.

It should be known that even in the vast Central Plains, under normal circumstances, only one Heavenly Pillar at the Unity Stage or above would unfortunately fall in hundreds of years. Moreover, most of them would die of old age at the end of their lifespan, and very few would be killed.

It was not easy for Human Immortals to kill a Heavenly Pillar above the Unity Stage. One could imagine how difficult it was to kill a Heavenly Pillar.

However, the Earth Spirit Sect had killed eight Heavenly Pillars in a short period of time. This move was no different from an earthquake that swept through the entire Central Plains.

However, the Earth Spirit Sect, which was in the limelight, was not having a good time at the moment. Although they had destroyed the Five Poison Sect and killed all eight of their Body Integration Heavenly Pillars, eliminating all future troubles, most of the cultivators below the Body Integration Stage in the Earth Spirit Sect had been killed.

Before they died, the Eight Heavenly Pillars of the Five Poison Sect had gone completely crazy. They destroyed the territory of the Earth Spirit Sect without caring about anything and killed the disciples of the Earth Spirit Sect. Even the resources and treasures on them were almost destroyed by them, leaving only a mess for the Earth Spirit Sect.

Right, the Earth Spirit Sect's resources and treasure vault had also been plundered clean before this. Although he did not know who did it, it was true that the Earth Spirit Sect was very poor now.

Fortunately, with the destruction of the Five Poison Sect, the Five Poison Sect's territory and territory belonged to the Earth Spirit Sect. With the help of these territories and territory, the Earth Spirit Sect could slowly recuperate.

Moreover, the seven Heaven Pillars of the Earth Spirit Sect had escaped in time. Although they were all injured, none of them had died.

As long as the Integration Heavenly Pillars were not finished, the Earth Spirit Sect would definitely rise again. The Integration Heavenly Pillars were the core existence of any first-rate sect.

However, at this moment, many immortal sects were afraid of the Earth Spirit Sect's method of killing the Eight Heavenly Pillars of the Five Poison Sect, so they sent people to inquire about the inside story.

However, the Earth Spirit Sect's Unity Heavenly Pillars were still dumbfounded. How did they know the inside story? They did not know who had poisoned the Eight Unity Heavenly Pillars of the Five Poison Sect.

Although the Earth Spirit Sect's Integration Heavenly Pillars had already told the truth, what made them speechless was that basically no one believed them. Instead, they said that they were deliberately hiding it. Many immortal sects were quite dissatisfied with them, and some radical ones were even prepared to suppress and force them.

The Earth Spirit Sect was also helpless against this. To be honest, even they themselves did not believe this. After all, they had benefited the most from the destruction of the Five Poison Sect. Moreover, the Five Poison Sect had always been their mortal enemy. Before they died, the Eight Heavenly Pillars of the Five Poison Sect had fought to the last drop of blood in the territory of the Earth Spirit Sect.

In the end, the Earth Spirit Sect said that they did not know who had killed the Eight Heavenly Pillars of the Five Poison Sect. Who would dare to believe that? The Earth Spirit Sect did not believe it themselves. It was simply a fool's dream to expect others to believe them.

As a result, the winner, the Earth Spirit Sect, also fell into distress. Their development speed was quite slow, and they were often harassed by other large immortal sects. Some of them even went overboard.

Right, until now, the Earth Spirit Sect's Fusion Heavenly Pillar had not realized that Zhu Wuyang had poisoned their souls with the soul-chasing poison. If the Earth Spirit Sect's Fusion Heavenly Pillar dared to go against the Thousand Poisons Sect in the future, Zhu Wuyang could chase them to death, and they would definitely not be able to escape from Zhu Wuyang's palm.

However, that was destined to be a long process. The Fusion Heavenly Pillar that had mastered the art of teleportation was extremely slippery. If he wanted to kill them, he could only slowly grind them to death unless they went too far. Zhu Wuyang was not willing to deal with them easily.

While the Earth Spirit Sect was in pain and joy, Zhu Wuwan was enjoying the delicacies of the Immortal Inn in Immortal Arrival City on the Cloud Mist Plain.

The Cloud Mist Plain was an extremely strange place in the Central Plains. It was half the size of the Earth, and white fog floated everywhere. It was like a fairyland, and the spiritual energy of heaven and earth was quite dense.

That was why the city in the middle of the Cloud Mist Plain was called Xianlai City. The delicacies of the Xianlai Inn in Xianlai City were famous all over the world. Even Zhu Wuwan, who was far away in the Southern Wilderness, had heard of it.

Now that he was in the Central Plains and had to pass by the vicinity of the Cloud Mist Plains, Zhu Wuyang naturally did not mind taking a detour to taste the fresh food.

One had to be at least a Perfected Cultivator of the Golden Core Stage or above to enter the Immortal Arrival Inn. Zhu Wuwan only revealed the cultivation of the Nascent Soul Stage, but he was treated as a distinguished guest and invited to the second floor of the Immortal Arrival Inn.

"Peaches of Immortality, Phoenix Wing Dragon Marrow, Heaven Mountain Snow Deer Heart..."

Zhu Wuyang didn't look at the price and directly ordered all the signature dishes of Immortal Arrival Inn. To Zhu Wuyang, who had just plundered the Earth Spirit Sect and Five Poison Sect, not to mention these signature dishes, even the entire Immortal Arrival Inn was nothing.

The owner of the Immortal Arrival Inn was just a late-stage Body Integration Heavenly Pillar. Zhu Wuwan could easily defeat him and was fearless of this place.

Everyone in the Immortal Arrival Inn was shocked when they saw Zhu Wuan casually order something worth millions of spirit stones. Their attitude towards Zhu Wuan became more and more respectful, and they specially invited him to sit at the best seat by the window.

Soon, the delicacies were served one after another. Zhu Wuwan tasted the immortal peach and felt that it was salivating in his mouth, making him unable to stop.

The Peaches of Immortality here were not like the Peaches of Immortality in Journey to the West, which could allow one to live for many years. They were just a kind of magical fruit that was comparable to high-grade spirit pills. They were even effective to great cultivators at the Soul Formation Stage and ancient giants at the Void Training Stage. Their value was quite shocking.

However, the most praiseworthy thing was the taste of the Peaches of Immortality. It was as if the essence of all the fruits in Dongyuan Continent had been concentrated. It tasted extremely delicious, and Zhu Wuwan could not help but ask for a few more.

The Phoenix Wing Dragon Marrow was not a lie. It was indeed the wing of a phoenix bird and the bone marrow of an earth dragon. The phoenix wing was delicious, and the dragon marrow melted in his mouth. Although he did not use much seasoning, it was already extremely delicious. After eating it, Zhu Wuwan asked for dozens of servings, directly taking away all the stock of Immortal Arrival Inn in recent years.

This greatly shocked everyone in the Immortal Arrival Inn. One had to know that the price of a portion of Phoenix Wing Dragon Marrow would make even the giants of ancient times feel heartache when they saw it. However, Zhu Wuwan was good. She asked for so much in one go. She simply didn't take money seriously.

Was this guy a second-generation immortal?

Some people couldn't help but guess, while others had evil thoughts. A mere Nascent Soul cultivator actually had so many assets. It was simply tempting to commit a crime.

Zhu Wuwan ignored it and continued to enjoy the next dish, the Tianshan Snow Deer Heart.

Chapter 712: Qianqiu Tomb (1)

" Have you heard? The number one genius of Nirvana Tower, Wei Xiaoxuan, broke through the shackles of the Heavenly Chasm a few days ago and stepped into the ranks of the Void Training Stage giants. He is only 560 years old this year, but he has become the number one among the Divine Transformation Realm geniuses in the Central Plains and the number one Divine Transformation Realm expert in the 300 worlds. "

" I remember that the number one Semi-God Realm warrior in the 300 worlds is a barbarian from the Southern Wasteland. He was lucky enough to enter three small worlds and earn a lot of World Origin. With the World Origin, he pushed his cultivation to the Void Training Stage and above, even faster than Wei Xiaoxuan. "

"You also said that the Southern Wasteland barbarian broke through the shackles of the natural moat by relying on good luck. Moreover, he wasted so much of the world's origin energy on his cultivation realm. How can he compare to Wei Xiaoxuan's talent? Moreover, without the power of the world's origin, I'm afraid it will be very difficult for that Southern Wasteland barbarian to advance to the Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillar in the future. Young Master Xuan Xiao of Wei is very confident that he can even become a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal, let alone the Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillar."

" You're right. For tens of thousands of years, there hasn't been a single Mahayana Quasi-Immortal in the Southern Wasteland. It's already a blessing for that barbarian to break through to the Body Integration Stage, let alone a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal. The real Heaven's Favorite depends on our Central Plains. "

What Zhu Wanhao didn't expect was that the surrounding group of middle and high-level cultivators would actually talk about him and even belittle him.

...

He couldn't help but shake his head with a smile. If they knew that Zhu Wuan had not only broken through the layers of shackles of the Void Training Stage, but also stepped into the realm of the Heaven's Pillar, he wondered what they would think.

However, Wei Xiaoxuan was indeed powerful. He had only left the 300 small worlds for a few decades, but he had actually broken through the shackles of the heavenly moat and advanced to become an ancient giant.

Zhu Wuwan knew very well how difficult it was to break through the bottleneck between the Soul Formation Stage and the Void Training Stage. At that time, with the help of the world's origin and the Breakthrough Stone, it was a little difficult for Zhu Wuwan to break through.

However, Wei Xiaoxuan had broken through without using the Origin of the world or the help of the system. Such talent was indeed terrifying. He was worthy of the title of the number one person in the Central Plains and even the Dongyuan Continent.

From the mouths of these customers, Zhu Wuwan learned about the situation of other Soul Formation elites, such as Su Qianchang, Yan Li, Xuanyuan Hua... These Divine Transformation Realm geniuses were all in seclusion and were beginning to break through to the ranks of the ancient giants.

Zhu Wanhao listened with great interest. She had a better understanding of all kinds of gossip in the Central Plains. Moreover, she had also heard a piece of news that interested her.

“The Thousand Autumns Tomb has been buried for tens of thousands of years, and it has finally been accidentally discovered. It is in the Four Seasons Mound near our Cloud Mist Plain. Now, a large number of ancient giants and the Heavenly Pillar of Unity have already rushed over. It is said that there are even Mahayana Quasi-Immortals. It will definitely be very lively when the time comes. I wonder if everyone is interested in going and taking a look.”

“Really? It’s said that the Qianqiu Tomb is the tomb of the Qianqiu Poison King. Back then, the Qianqiu Poison King was a poison grandmaster who was half a step into the Mahayana Quasi-Immortal Realm. His poison skills swept across the Central Plains, and even the Heart Control Sect suffered a great loss at his hands. Moreover, his magic treasure, the Thousand Autumn Needle, is one of the rare top-grade magic treasures in the world. It contains a strange power. Through the poison of the Thousand Autumn Needle, it will not rot for thousands of years. It can also absorb the spiritual energy of heaven and earth to improve itself. It is one of the top treasures of the poison path in Dongyuan Continent.”

” The Thousand Autumn Needles are a peerless magic weapon that even Human Immortals are extremely afraid of. The Thousand Autumn Poison King used this set of Thousand Autumn Needles to make a name for himself. With the cultivation of the Heavenly Pillar of Fusion, he could even stand shoulder to shoulder with some Mahayana Quasi-Immortals. One can imagine how terrifying this set of top-grade magic weapons is. Let alone Mahayana Quasi-Immortals, even many Human Immortals would be tempted. ”

“Every Human Immortal who is going through the tribulation is a Heaven and Earth magnate. They are wholeheartedly busy transcending the tribulation and ascending. They should not be involved in this matter, but there will definitely be a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal who will take action. If such an existence were to fight, it would affect countless miles in a minute. We should just stay here obediently. If we get affected while watching the show, we’ll be unlucky. The probability of this happening is too high.”

Upon hearing this, Zhu Wuwan was also tempted. He had read about the Qianqiu Poison King and Qianqiu Needle in the notes of a Heavenly Pillar of the Five Poison Sect.

In the notes, the Qianqiu Needle was highly praised as the supreme magic weapon of the poison path. It was also one of the top magic weapons of the poison path in Dongyuan Continent, and it was the dream of every poison path cultivator.

With the Qianqiu Needle in hand, the poison released by the poison path cultivator could not only stay in the enemy's body for a long time, but it could also absorb the spiritual energy from the outside world to grow.

The most terrifying thing was that during the process of growth, it would make appropriate changes according to the enemy's physical condition, allowing them to have even more terrifying destructive power against the enemy, which was also the ability to restrain them.

The longer the poison of the Thousand Autumn Needle lurked in the enemy's body, the more terrifying it would be. When it was activated, the more shocking its power would be.

In addition, the poison technique cultivated by the Thousand Autumn Poison King was also quite powerful. It had a similar effect to the Thousand Autumn Needle, so the two could complement each other.

Therefore, even though the Thousand Autumn Poison King was only a Fusion Heavenly Pillar tens of thousands of years ago, it scared some Mahayana Quasi-Immortals away. He was known as the number one person below the Mahayana Realm. At the same time, he was also an extremely rare Heavenly Pillar that could kill enemies of a higher realm.

Therefore, many people regarded Thousand Autumn Poison King as a Dacheng quasi-immortal level existence, and he was also one of the top few existences among itinerant cultivators.

How could Zhu Wuyan miss such a huge opportunity?

Therefore, after enjoying the delicacies at Immortal Arrival Inn, Zhu Wuyang immediately rushed to Four Seasons Mound, wanting to fight for Thousand Years Poison King's treasure.

With Zhu Wuan's speed, he only took a few hours to arrive at the Four Seasons Mound, which was a million miles away, and appeared near the Thousand Autumns Tomb.

The Thousand Years Tomb was located under an ordinary hill in the Four Seasons Hill. It didn't look particularly eye-catching. No wonder no one had discovered it for so many years.

Qianqiu Poison King was a loose cultivator and had no relatives or friends. Therefore, after his death, he buried all his treasures in the tomb to accompany him. He had no intention of looking for a successor.

Therefore, the Qianqiu Tomb must be extremely dangerous, and there wouldn't be any tests. All dangers and dangers treated all cultivators equally.

Of course, this also meant that cultivators of any level could enter the Thousand Autumns Tomb, from Qi Condensation cultivators to Human Immortals undergoing tribulation.

No, it should be ordinary mortals. As long as they were unafraid of death, they could also enter the Qianqiu Tomb. Of course, the probability of death was 10,000!

Chapter 713: Secretly Passing By (1)

By the time Zhu Wuchang arrived, there were already thousands of ancient giants, nearly a hundred Integration Heavenly Pillars, and even several Mahayana Quasi-Immortals that even Zhu Wuchang could not see through. Their bodies emitted obscure but terrifying power fluctuations, making Zhu Wuchang feel a sense of danger.

However, although it was dangerous, it was not difficult to escape. The Dacheng Quasi-Immortals here could not stop him. Even if the Human Immortal Zhu Wuyang came to transcend the tribulation, he would not be afraid.

He used the Scripture of Hiding Heaven and Receiving Earth. Zhu Wuwan hid nearby and observed the situation here. He found that most of the Integration Heavenly Pillars and the Mahayana Quasi-Immortals had formed a temporary alliance and were working together to crack the top-notch spiritual array outside the Thousand Autumns Tomb.

There was also a portion of the Fusion Heavenly Pillars that did not join, or perhaps they were rejected. They could only watch from the side to see if there was a chance.

“Heart Control Sect, Giant Sword Sect, Lightning Pavilion...They formed an alliance and chased all of us away. They didn’t let us break the array together and deprived us of the qualifications to enter.”

” Who asked them to be so powerful? If you have enough strength and power, the Empty Immortal Sect, Giant Sword Sect, and the Thunder Pavilion will also rope you into the alliance. We’d better watch the battle honestly. Otherwise, if we anger those Mahayana Quasi-Immortals, even if we are the Integration Heavenly Pillar, it will be very troublesome. ”

” Sigh, they eat meat and don’t even let us drink soup. Fortunately, they didn’t trick us into breaking the array with them. Otherwise, they would be too shameless. Just watch the show and see how they die inside. ”

” That’s right. The Thousand Autumn Tomb isn’t a good place. It’s filled with all kinds of poisons that the Thousand Autumn Poison King has set up. It hasn’t decayed even after thousands of years. It’s also protected by a top-notch spiritual array group. It won’t be easy to break through. ”

“Look, even the people from the number one poison sect in the world, the Holy Poison Sect, are here. I want to see if they still dare to reject the cultivators from the Holy Poison Sect from joining the alliance...F * ck, he just arrived and he immediately joined. This is too f * cking realistic.”

Hearing the discussions around him, Zhu Wuyang also looked curiously at the Heart Controlling Sect and the Holy Poison Sect. He found that the cultivators of the Heart Controlling Sect were often surrounded by all kinds of demons, ghosts, and cultivators controlled by them. The aura emitted from their bodies was quite strange, making people inexplicably have a good impression of them.

The cultivators of the Holy Poison Sect, on the other hand, gave off a feeling that light and darkness coexisted. Poisoning and healing were also the unique skills of the Holy Poison Sect. Therefore, the Holy Poison Sect's reputation in the Dongyuan Continent was severely divided. However, it was generally considered an evil sect and was also recognized as the number one sect in the poison path.

The most important goal of Zhu Wuwan's studies was the Holy Poison Sect. As long as he could memorize all the books and cultivation techniques of the Holy Poison Sect, he would be able to travel to the three thousand worlds.

It was said that in the Holy Poison Sect, in addition to several Mahayana Quasi-Immortals, there were also Human Immortals who were passing the tribulation. It was recognized as a super immortal sect in the Dongyuan Continent, which was two levels higher than the inferior super immortal sect in the Southern Wilderness.

The Thousand Poison Sect could only dominate the Southern Wasteland, but the Holy Poison Sect could dominate the Dongyuan Continent and was the leader of the Poison Dao Sect.

Therefore, even though the Holy Poison Sect had only sent a few early-stage and mid-stage Body Integration Heavenly Pillars, they were still immediately pulled into the temporary alliance.

As for Zhu Wuwan, there was no need to think about it. An unspecialized Body Integration Heavenly Pillar that could not reveal his identity would not be taken in by this temporary alliance even if he had cultivated to the late stage of Body Integration. Unless Zhu Wuwan was willing to reveal his attainments in array formations as a top-notch supreme-grade Spiritual Array Master, but Zhu Wuwan would not do that.

As for the only super immortal sect in the Southern Wasteland, there was no need to talk about it. A group of itinerant cultivators would not give him face.

After recognizing her current identity and status, Zhu Wuwan decisively blended into the crowd closest to the entrance of the tomb. She waited for the moment this temporary alliance opened the Qianqiu Tomb and followed the cultivators of the temporary alliance into the tomb.

By then, all the big shots in the temporary alliance would have gone in, and the guards outside would be just some random soldiers. It wouldn't be difficult for Zhu Wuwan to sneak in without them knowing.

Before that, he had to find a way to understand the top-notch Spiritual Arrays inside and find their loopholes. That way, he could go straight to the main topic after entering.

After careful consideration, Zhu Wuwan's Hell Divine Consciousness subtly probed the top-notch spiritual array clusters around the Qianqiu Tomb. However, just as the Hell Divine Consciousness came into contact with the top-notch spiritual array clusters, Zhu Wuwan felt his Divine Consciousness go numb. A poison that was specifically targeted at the Divine Consciousness quickly spread towards his Niwan Palace.

As expected of the Thousand Years Poison King, he actually poisoned a top-notch Spiritual Array Group.

Zhu Wuyang calmly activated the all-devouring characteristic of the level-seven Zhu Wuyang's poison mix and swallowed the poison, causing a slight movement.

In the temporary alliance, a late-stage Dacheng quasi-immortal glanced over, but Zhu Wuwan hid behind the crowd. He didn't discover who had just caused the fluctuations of the Thousand Autumn Tomb's protective spiritual array group.

Furthermore, when he thought of the poison on the protective Spiritual Arrays around the Thousand Autumns Tomb, a cold smile appeared on the corners of his mouth. He didn't pay any attention to Zhu Wuyang. Clearly, in his opinion, a reckless rogue cultivator like Zhu Wuyang would definitely be poisoned to death and wouldn't be able to cause any trouble.

However, they didn't know that Zhu Wuan's Hell Divine Sense had already hidden it from them. It had silently entered the protective array formation of the Qianqiu Tomb and was searching for the flaws in the array formation.

The Thousand Autumns Tomb was set up with a top-notch high-grade spiritual array group. Although it could pose a huge threat to a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal and even have the possibility of death, it was not difficult for Zhu Wuwan to crack it.

The only thing that troubled him was the endless amount of poison in the Spiritual Array. Of course, the most terrifying thing was the core poison hidden among these ordinary poisons.

Level 7 extreme poison!

Its grade was not inferior to Zhu Wuyang's mixed poison, but the number of characteristics was limited. However, its power was still above Zhu Wuyang's mixed poison.

Obviously, with the help of the Thousand Autumn Needle, this mixed poison did not rot after tens of thousands of years. It also continuously absorbed the spiritual energy of heaven and earth to evolve itself. Therefore, its power surpassed the mixed poison of level-seven Zhu Wuyang and was vaguely comparable to some level-eight mixed poisons.

If not for the fact that Zhu Wuyang's poison had all kinds of characteristics that could restrain all kinds of poisons in the world, remove all poisons, and devour all things, it would probably be very difficult for Zhu Wuyang to sneak in.

However, with Zhu Wuyang, who was at the pinnacle of level-seven and was protected by a mix of poison, although it was difficult for Zhu Wuyang to remove this mix of poison, it was not difficult for him to protect himself.

As time passed, Zhu Wuwan's understanding of the top-notch high-grade Spiritual Arrays around the Thousand Autumns Tomb increased. He also discovered something that made him quite excited.

Chapter 714: A Great Gift (1)

Zhu Wuwan wasn't surprised that the Heart Control Sect and the Holy Poison Sect had arrived one after another. Whether it was the Qianqiu Needle of the Qianqiu Poison King or the poison scripture mastered by the Qianqiu Poison King, they were both needed by the two immortal sects, and they were urgently needed.

The Holy Poison Sect and the Heart Controlling Sect were also the first and second largest immortal sects present. The Heart Controlling Sect had already sent two Dacheng Quasi-Immortals, which showed that they were determined to obtain the Thousand Autumns Tomb.

A few hours later, the Holy Poison Sect's Dacheng Quasi-Immortal also arrived, and it was a late Dacheng Quasi-Immortal, shocking everyone.

At this moment, Zhu Wuwan suddenly realized that other than breaking the spiritual array formation at the front gate of the Qianqiu Tomb, there was another loophole that he could exploit. It allowed him to enter the Qianqiu Tomb one step ahead of time without making a sound.

Moreover, this loophole was right behind the Thousand Autumns Tomb. It was quite far from here. If he entered through that loophole, he basically didn't have to worry about being discovered.

Zhu Wuyang smiled and left the place silently. There were cultivators watching everywhere, and there were no less than a million of them. No one noticed Zhu Wuyang's disappearance.

When they reached a place where no one was around, Zhu Wuwan used the Hiding Heaven and Receiving Earth Scripture with all her might. The power of the invisibility Gu, Beautiful Goat, was also displayed to the extreme. She successfully hid from the perception of the Dacheng Quasi-Immortals and rushed towards the hole.

In order to be safer, Zhu Wuwan had even temporarily confiscated the animated film of the Invisible Curse, the Beautiful Goat, so that she would not multitask and unleash all her strength.

Mei Yangyang stared at Zhu Wuyang angrily. As she licked the breakthrough stone lollipop, she mumbled and unleashed all her innate divine powers, allowing Zhu Wuyang to successfully sneak in.

The man and Gu quickly arrived at the hole. Zhu Wuwan's hands were like phantoms as she tapped on the hole thousands of times.

Accompanied by an indiscernible power fluctuation, a bowl-sized hole appeared on the spiritual array group. Zhu Wuwan turned into a stream of light and disappeared inside. Then, the hole disappeared again.

The late Dacheng stage Quasi-Immortal of the Holy Poison Sect in front of the main gate of the Thousand Autumns Tomb seemed to have noticed something and swept his gaze in this direction. However, he did not find anything, so he withdrew his perception and continued to stare at the main gate that was cracking happily.

According to their current progress, it would not be long before they could break through the tomb door and enter smoothly.

However, these cultivators of the temporary alliance did not know that someone had already entered the Qianqiu Tomb before them. At this moment, they were leisurely searching for all kinds of treasures in the tomb.

The Thousand Autumns Tomb was huge, as big as half of a province on Earth. It was completely hidden 30,000 kilometers underground and was made of various rare minerals. There were also several top-notch Spiritual Arrays and hundreds of high-grade Spiritual Arrays, forming the Thousand Autumns Tomb Spiritual Array Group.

After entering the Qianqiu Tomb, Zhu Wuwan spent more than two hours to find more loopholes. She used the loopholes to arrive at the entrance of the Qianqiu Tomb and modified the array formation from the inside to ensure that the cultivators who entered from the outside would be transported to different poisons.

Other than the poison from Qianqiu Poison King, there was also Zhu Wuwan's poison. The two combined effectively to form a poison that was comparable to most level-eight poisons. It could produce some strange effects.

Apart from teaching the cultivators of the temporary alliance a lesson, the most important purpose of Zhu Wuwan's actions was to earn breakthrough stones and conceal his existence at the same time.

After doing all this, seeing that the array formation at the main entrance of the Qianqiu Tomb was about to be broken, Zhu Wuwan left the place and began to search for all kinds of treasures in the tomb.

There were poisonous plants and flowers everywhere. They were all top-notch species nurtured by the Thousand Years Poison King. Each of them could be called a heavenly treasure.

Naturally, Zhu Wuyang would not let go of these treasures. Even if he did not plunder them, when the cultivators of the temporary alliance arrived, they would definitely take away all these good things.

Therefore, wherever Zhu Wuyang went, not a single blade of grass was left behind. Not to mention heavenly and earthly treasures, even the slightly rare minerals were taken away by Zhu Wuyang.

Because he had a clear understanding of the loopholes here and was not afraid of the various poisons inside, Zhu Wuwan walked in Qianqiu's tomb as if he was strolling in a courtyard. It was as if he was walking in his own backyard, searching for all the treasures in a carpet manner.

In just over two hours, most of the treasures in the Qianqiu Tomb had been plundered clean by Zhu Wuwan. Zhu Wuwan was also getting closer and closer to the core of the Qianqiu Tomb.

At the same time, at the main entrance of the Qianqiu Tomb, several top-notch Spiritual Array Masters from the temporary alliance finally broke the array at the entrance and brought everyone into the tomb.

"Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh..."

However, before they could enter the Thousand Autumns Tomb, a powerful suction force came from inside, forcefully sucking in a group of Fusing Heavenly Pillars and Mahayana Quasi-Immortals. Even several extremely excited top-notch Spiritual Array Masters were sucked in.

“What’s going on? Didn’t the gates of the Spiritual Array group already be broken? Why is there still such a change?”

” Top-grade Supreme Grade Spiritual Array Group. This is a Top-grade Supreme Grade Spiritual Array Group and not the Top-grade High Grade Spiritual Array Group that we thought it was. Otherwise, it wouldn’t have such a strong suction force. ”

“Something’s not right. This is just a peak grade Spiritual Array behind the door. Moreover, it’s a castrated version that can only suck in all the people at the door. However, who is so despicable as to specially arrange such a peak grade Spiritual Array behind the door of a peak grade High Rank Spiritual Array group? F * ck, there’s even a random teleportation function. Everyone, be careful...”

” Array King Song, aren’t you speaking too late? I didn’t prepare anything. ”

This group of elders from the temporary alliance had never expected that someone would actually set up a super-small top-grade spiritual array behind the main entrance of the Thousand Autumns Tomb. It only had two functions, swallowing and random teleportation. Moreover, it was hidden so deeply.

A group of big shots from the temporary alliance saw that the spiritual array group at the main gate had already been broken, so they could not wait to gather. They were originally prepared to open the door, but before they could do anything, the door opened by itself and even brought them in.

Qianqiu Poison King was too cruel. Who would have thought that he would actually set up such a small top-notch top-grade Spiritual Array behind the top-notch high-grade Spiritual Array group? Moreover, the two functions it possessed were not lethal, but from a certain point of view, its auxiliary effects were shocking.

As a result, the group of big shots from the temporary alliance fell into the trap and were swallowed into the Qianqiu Tomb and randomly teleported out. They fell into the great gifts that Zhu Wuwan had arranged for them.

Chapter 715: What Did You Do to Me (1)

“Plop...”

A quasi-immortal in the middle dacheng stage of the Heart Controlling Sect was thrown out in a daze and fell fiercely into a yellow poison pool.

“Pfft...What is this place?”

At this time, the quasi-immortal of the middle dacheng stage woke up and hurriedly rushed out of the sh * t-yellow poison pool. The surrounding spiritual energy shook and shook off all the poisonous water.

However, it was already too late. His body had already been corroded by the poison, and then he felt an intense pain in his stomach.

“What a powerful poison. Hurry up and take the antidote!”

This mid dacheng stage quasi-immortal was about to take out the best antidote on his body when he heard a “pu chi chi” sound coming from his crotch. Then he was stunned and no longer moved. There was only a “pu chi chi” sound around him.

Dozens of miles away from here, another early Dacheng stage quasi-immortal of the Heart Controlling Sect was also randomly sent out, and he was randomly sent to a pink poison pool with a perfect Body Integration Heavenly Pillar of the Holy Poison Sect.

The strength of the two people was far inferior to the quasi-immortals of the middle dacheng stage, so they didn’t wake up until dozens of breaths later, and then they felt that everything around them had become sweet and ambiguous.

The early Dacheng stage quasi-immortal and the perfect Heavenly Pillar looked at each other. You were male and I was male, but this did not mean that we could not love each other.

After all, love and age, height, personality...It’s not even about gender, so let’s fall in love.

The early Dacheng stage quasi-immortal pounced on the perfect Body Integration Heavenly Pillar, which in turn hugged the waist of the early Dacheng stage quasi-immortal. The two of them hugged each other deeply and soon began to push the cart.

Even a Dacheng stage quasi-immortal couldn’t resist the two kinds of seventh grade extreme mixed poison, let alone those Heavenly Pillars and ancient giants. As the transmission array sent them to the poison pool, these temporary alliance cultivators fell into an unprecedented wonderful experience.

There were ancient giants crawling on the ground and barking, there were Heavenly Pillars dancing and revealing their black hairy legs, and there were Mahayana Quasi-Immortals crying and complaining...

All kinds of strange poison pools made the cultivators of the temporary alliance become strange. It lasted for several hours before it slowly stopped. When they thought of what they had done before, many people were dumbfounded.

"I ... What the hell did I just do? Did I shit my pants? No, this isn't me, this is a mixed poison, I didn't do it, I can't let anyone know about this, I have to clean up immediately and cover up all the suspicious points."

"What did you do to me? I didn't expect you to be this kind of person. Even if I'm a man, you won't let me go. Although you're a Dacheng Quasi-Immortal of the Heart Controlling Sect, our Holy Poison Sect is not to be trifled with."

"How dare you say such words? Look at what you've done to me. No, I'm going to kill you. I can't let this matter spread. Otherwise, my reputation will be ruined."

"Who gave me this red dress? Who the hell is so perverted to wear this red dress for me? Not only are my thighs bare, but half of my butt is also exposed. F * ck..." No, this ... I think I wore it myself."

"Wow...I don't want to live anymore. I want to die!"

Many cultivators in the temporary alliance couldn't accept what was happening in front of them and almost collapsed. Fortunately, they were all old monsters who had lived for thousands of years. Other than being a little uncontrollable at the beginning, they slowly calmed down.

They also quickly discovered the abnormality of the poison pool and knew that all of this was due to being poisoned and not their original intention. However, even so, many cultivators who were teleported together still chose to kill them. Even if they couldn't kill each other, they still wanted to teach each other a lesson.

After several dozen hours, everyone finally calmed down and began to explore this famous ancient tomb.

Fortunately, although the effects of the poison pools were very strange, causing many of them to do things that made them lose face, the poison was not very strong. Many of them used the high-level antidotes on their bodies to detoxify the poison.

" Qianqiu Poison King's poison doesn't seem to be that effective. Other than some random effects, it doesn't have much lethality. Could it be that it lives up to its reputation? "

“Why do I feel that these poisons are a little strange? I’ve never heard of the Thousand Years Poison King playing tricks on people. Why were we teleported into that strange poison pool?”

“Everyone, it’s best to be careful. Perhaps the poison pool just now was just to relax us, and the killing move is behind us.”

” Even the first wave of poison, which is the easiest to succeed, is so weak, let alone the later ones. I think the Thousand Years Poison King is unworthy of his reputation. ”

These guys who mocked the Thousand Years Poison King didn’t know that they had actually been poisoned by Zhu Wuwan’s poison. However, they had hidden it well and hadn’t been discovered by them.

Basically, all the Heavenly Pillars of Unity and the ancient giants below the Mahayana level had been poisoned by Zhu Wuyang with the soul-chasing, life-taking, devouring, and all nothingness characteristics. As for the quasi-immortals above the Mahayana level, they were only poisoned with all nothingness and soul-chasing characteristics to avoid being discovered.

It was also because of this that Zhu Wuyang had specially modified some of the deadly traps and formations in Qianqiu Tomb. However, even so, it still gave the high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance a headache.

” I just said that the Thousand Years Tomb wouldn’t be so simple. As expected, the unknown poison has already invaded my body. If I hadn’t decisively abandoned half of my body, I’m afraid I would have been finished by now. ”

“This formation is so powerful that even my Mahayana Body couldn’t withstand it. It was cut into several pieces. Hurry up and take my body out. This way, it’s possible to suture it. Otherwise, I’ll lose this body that has been tempered for tens of thousands of years.”

” Who said that the poison in the Thousand Autumn Tomb was only this strong? Now, half of my body has been melted by the poison, 90% of my Earth Essence has been swallowed by the poison, and more than half of my divine sense has been destroyed. Moreover, I didn’t get any benefits. This is a f * cking loss. ”

“I almost fell into the Mental Demon Illusory Realm just now. With my current state, once I fall into the Mental Demon Realm, I’m afraid I won’t be able to escape death. As expected of the Thousand Autumns Tomb. It’s really powerful. Even us Mahayana Quasi-Immortals might die if we’re not careful.”

“Not to mention a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal, I think even a Human Immortal who is going through tribulation will find it difficult to break it. Without enough time, a Human Immortal who is going through tribulation won't be able to break this top-notch Spiritual Array. However, Qianqiu Poison King is an old thing who uses poison. Where did he get so many top-notch Spiritual Arrays? He's really unlucky this time."

Chapter 716: Who Taken My Treasure (1)

In Zhu Wuwan's opinion, these high-level cultivators who had been poisoned by him with Zhu Wuwan's poison basically belonged to him.

After all, Zhu Wuwan's poison had already seeped into their souls. If they wanted to get rid of it, they would have to destroy their entire souls. That would be suicide.

Therefore, Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison would fuse with their bodies for the rest of their lives. Zhu Wuwan could kill them or track them down at any time through Zhu Wuwan's mixed poison.

Under such circumstances, it was equivalent to Zhu Wuwan having an absolute trump card to threaten these high-level cultivators. Indirectly, it was equivalent to Zhu Wuwan controlling these high-level cultivators.

Therefore, in order to ensure the safety of these would-be subordinates, Zhu Wuwan had deliberately destroyed some of the deadly traps in Qianqiu Tomb. Even so, this Qianqiu Tomb still made the scalps of these high-level cultivators go numb, and many of them were forced to cut off their tails to survive.

If they knew that the original trap was dozens of times more dangerous than this, who knew what they would think. One had to know that among these high-level cultivators, there were Mahayana Quasi-Immortals. Even so, they were still in a sorry state. One could imagine Zhu Wuwan's strength.

The high-level cultivators who had left the poison pool searched everywhere for treasures in the tomb, but to their surprise, they found nothing left behind. They didn't even find any ordinary poisonous flowers or plants, let alone heavenly treasures.

What the hell was going on? Could it be that someone had already arrived before them and plundered this area?

Thinking about how there were so many high-level cultivators in the temporary alliance, he felt relieved and sped up to the next place, wanting to plunder the treasures one step ahead.

Along the way, it was inevitable that they would encounter high-level cultivators from other temporary alliances. They nodded and smiled at each other, wondering if the other party had plundered the treasures in those places. Therefore, they became more vigilant and moved faster.

Of course, the faster they were, the easier it was for them to fall into the array formations and traps. If Zhu Wuwan had not weakened these array formations and traps, some of the Sky Pillars above the Body Integration Stage would have fallen.

After tens of thousands of years of growth, Qianqiu Poison King's mixed poison was extremely powerful. It was comparable to some grade-8 mixed poisons and could kill the Fusion Sky Pillar.

However, these high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance passed through array formations, traps, and places, but they didn't find any treasures. They were all plundered clean, as if they had been licked by dogs.

Who the hell was so fast? No matter where they went, the treasures were gone.

Two hours passed...Four hours passed...Six hours passed...

Gradually, some high-level cultivators could not hold it in anymore and began to ask each other how many treasures they had plundered. Then, they received a piece of news that shocked and puzzled them.

"What did you say? You mean you've been searching here for hours and haven't found a single treasure? Are you sure about this? You're not lying to me, are you?"

"It's true, it's true. It's more real than real gold. I f * cking fell into several traps in succession. In the end, when I came out of the surrounding medicinal fields, treasure vaults, and pill refinement rooms ... It's all empty. It's all been plundered by others. I didn't get anything."

"You guys didn't find anything either? This shouldn't be. I didn't get anything either. This ancient tomb seems to have been dug three feet deep. There's nothing good left. I didn't even get a single valuable thing."

"Could it be that someone had plundered this tomb in advance? But we were clearly the first batch to enter, and the things inside were clearly plundered a few hours ago, which is when we entered. Therefore, the treasures here should have been plundered by one of us. I just don't know which bastard refused to admit this matter and even lied to us that he didn't find anything."

"Someone must have plundered everything in advance, and they must have mastered a special method to plunder most of the treasures when we were trapped in the poison pool. That's why they don't dare to admit it now, afraid that we will covet it after admitting it. Since the treasures in the outer regions are gone, we should go all out and kill our way into the depths of the tomb. I don't believe that he can even take all the treasures in the deepest regions."

Many high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance charged into the depths of the tomb indignantly. However, in their eyes, one of them must have been pretending. In fact, he had already plundered most of the treasures in the tomb, and it was as clean as if they had been licked by dogs.

In fact, none of them had found any treasures from the Qianqiu Tomb because all the treasures had been plundered clean by Zhu Wuwan first, leaving nothing behind for them.

Moreover, they had set up a trap so that they would think that it was a traitor who had plundered all the treasures. They did not suspect anyone else, let alone Zhu Wuyang.

Not only did these high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance not find any treasures, but they also failed to steal the chicken and suffered a loss. Zhu Wuyang had planted a mixed poison in the ground. When the time was right, Zhu Wuyang would contact them and let them know how dangerous the world was.

They had worked so hard to break the array for such a long time and owed many top-notch Spiritual Array Masters a lot of favors. They had even been thick-skinned enough to chase away other cultivators and provoke many enemies in order to monopolize the treasures in the Qianqiu Tomb.

But now, they had finally entered the Thousand Autumns Tomb, but they were sent into the poison pool the moment they entered. They had done something indescribable, and it could be said that they had lost all their reputation.

Now that they hadn't even obtained a single treasure, they had suffered a great loss. They couldn't bear it anymore. If they didn't obtain anything in the depths of the Thousand Autumns Tomb, they would really go crazy.

The Thousand Autumn Poison King had set up even more top-notch Spiritual Arrays in the depths of the Thousand Autumn Tomb. This was also the core of the top-notch Spiritual Arrays in the Thousand Autumn Tomb, so it was even more difficult to crack them.

The high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance immediately invited all the top-notch spiritual array masters and began to crack the spiritual array group here. At the same time, they were also on guard against each other, in case someone got there first.

Moreover, everyone was prepared to rush in as soon as the spiritual array group was broken. This time, they must plunder the treasures inside.

No, he couldn't be the first to charge. Thinking of the lesson at the entrance of the Thousand Autumns Tomb, many high-level cultivators retreated dozens of miles with lingering fear in their hearts to avoid being sucked in again.

Chapter 717: Endless Poison Stream (1)

What these high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance didn't know was that when they were about to break the array formation, Zhu Wuwan had already swept through all the treasures in the core tomb of the Qianqiu Tomb and escaped with the help of the loophole in the array formation.

The treasures in the tomb, rare minerals, all kinds of magic treasures, ancient cultivation techniques, spirit pills ... The total value was no less than tens of trillions of low-grade spirit stones, all of which were swept clean by Zhu Wuwan.

Of course, the most valuable treasures were the top-grade Thousand Autumns Needle and the peak-grade Poison Dao Heaven Earth Immortal Art. Each of them was enough to cause a major sect to bleed.

Qianqiu Needle!

It was completely colorless and transparent, as if it was invisible. It had a natural hiding effect. There were a total of 360 strands, forming the number of large circles.

Its offensive power was quite sharp, not inferior to ordinary supreme-grade magical equipment. Moreover, it could be used with various poisons, allowing it to silently inject the poison into the enemy's body.

Of course, the most important thing was that the Thousand Autumn Needles had a strange power. Any poison that was smeared on the Thousand Autumn Needles would be contaminated by this strange power and become eternal, unless it was placed in an environment that restrained this poison.

If it was placed in an environment that was conducive to this poison, the poison could even fuse with a strange force and absorb the beneficial things in the surroundings to strengthen itself.

If the poison entered the enemy's body, it could also automatically detect the enemy's physical condition and derive a poison that had a restraining effect on the enemy's body, thus giving the enemy a fatal blow at the critical moment.

It was precisely because of this effect that it was known as the Qianqiu Needle. It meant that the Qianqiu Needle was prosperous, lasted for a long time, and could be hidden for an amazing time.

Coupled with Zhu Wuyang's Void Attribute, it was almost traceless. It could allow Zhu Wuyang's poisoning ability to soar several levels.

This was a good thing, and it was also the first supreme-grade Dharma treasure that Zhu Wuwan had obtained!

Zhu Wuyang happily put it away and kept it close to her body, ready to use at any time.

Endless Poison Stream!

This Poison Dao Heaven Earth Immortal Art was the treasured manual that Thousand Autumn Poison King cultivated. It had already reached the peak of the Poison Dao Heaven Earth Immortal Art. It was faintly much more powerful than the Five Poison Sect's ultimate cultivation technique, but it was still quite inferior to the Ten Thousand Poison True Art.

The most useful part of the Endless Poison Stream to Zhu Wuwan was the method of fusing a special characteristic. This characteristic was the characteristic of eternal life. It could allow the mixed poison to exist in a certain place for a long time, just in time to complement the effect of the Thousand Autumn Needle.

Back then, the Thousand Autumn Poison King was able to match a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal with his Body Integration Realm cultivation because he relied on the combination of Eternal Life and the Thousand Autumn Needle to unleash unimaginable power. He even had the chance to kill a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal and several Body Integration Heavenly Pillars.

In Zhu Wanhao's opinion, the trait of eternal life was not inferior to some traits he had mastered in some aspects.

Other than the characteristic of eternal life, the other characteristics of the Endless Poison Stream were also not bad, such as increasing toxicity, bewitching effects, and pure true essence ... There was also Zhu Wuyang's enhanced physique that was mixed with all the poisons.

However, the power of these characteristics was quite inferior to the characteristics of Zhu Wuyang's mixed poison. If the power of Zhu Wuyang's various characteristics mixed with poison was 10, then the power of the characteristics condensed by Endless Poison Stream was only about 1.

Take strengthening one's physique as an example. Zhu Wuwan's fusion with poison had also fused and transformed to strengthen one's physique. However, Zhu Wuwan's fusion with poison could increase the physique of an ordinary poison path cultivator by ten times.

However, the physique strengthening characteristic condensed from the endless Poison Stream could only increase the physique of ordinary Poison Dao cultivators by a few percent at most. The two could not be mentioned in the same breath.

There were also differences in strength between special traits. The difference between increasing toxicity and devouring all things could be described as the difference between heaven and earth.

There was no need to mention the special effects of Soul Chasing and Life Seizing.

Therefore, after studying it carefully, Zhu Wuwan realized that the only quality of the peak-grade Heaven and Earth Immortal Art, Endless Venom Stream, was that it would last forever. It was worth him fusing and condensing it. However, Zhu Wuwan was not sure if he would succeed.

Although there was an extremely detailed method to condense this characteristic in the Endless Poison Stream, the physical condition of every cultivator was different. The formation of this characteristic was not only related to the absorption of the poison, but also greatly related to the physical condition of the cultivator.

The same amount of absorption, the same type, the same effect...Even the order and dosage were the same. The characteristics of the fusion and condensation were also 99% different.

Therefore, Zhu Wuyang wasn't sure if he could successfully absorb and fuse the characteristic of eternal life. However, the probability of following this endless poison immortal art was quite high.

Eternity could effectively cooperate with the characteristics of devouring all things, chasing souls, and taking lives. It could hide the mixed poison in the enemy's body and let it grow and grow on its own, erupting with its strongest power when Zhu Wuwan needed it.

Apart from that, Zhu Wuyan could also fuse some of the mixed poisons that could continuously increase the quality of the body in various aspects, or the poisons that had the effects of Nascent Soul and divine sense into his body. This way, even if he did not cultivate, Zhu Wuyan's strength could continue to grow.

The trait of eternal life could not only be used on the enemy, but it could also be used on oneself. This was what Zhu Wuyang valued the most.

Zhu Wuwan happily counted her gains and sneaked out of the Qianqiu Tomb. On the way, she even saw the high-level cultivators of the Temporary Alliance who were trying their best to break through the last layer of the top-notch spiritual array.

Zhu Wanhao ignored them. She had already done what she needed to do for them. She could just look for them when she needed them in the future. It was more important to leave now.

All the benefits in the Thousand Autumns Tomb had been stripped clean by him, leaving nothing for these guys. If they discovered anything unusual, with the strength of a Dacheng Quasi-Immortal, they might really be able to find him, so he had to leave quickly.

“Bam...”

At this moment, the sound of the Invisible Curse, Beautiful Goat, licking the Breakthrough Rock Lollipop came from his pocket, giving Zhu Wuwan a fright. Then, he remembered that he had already sealed off the sound transmission around him, so he shrunk his neck and quickly left.

Behind Zhu Wuan, a group of high-level cultivators from the temporary alliance were still waiting for the array to be activated. Several top-notch spiritual arrays were working hard to crack it. They had no idea that there was only loneliness behind the array and nothing else.

After an unknown period of time, the array formation leading to the deepest part of the Thousand Autumns Tomb was finally broken.

Chapter 718: I Didn't Do This (1)

“Everyone, don't go in first. Make sure there are no traps behind before you go in, so as to prevent the previous incident from happening again.”

” Qianqiu Poison King is truly sinister and cunning. He actually set up such a Spirit Array behind the door. Who knows if he set up a similar Spirit Array in the deepest part of his tomb? ”

” Enter after you've confirmed it. Don't enter before you've confirmed it. Everyone, supervise each other. ”

Having learned their lesson, the high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance were very careful. Even though the array formation had been broken, no one left first.

Several peak Spiritual Array Masters stepped forward to confirm. After confirming for the time it took to brew a cup of tea, they indicated that there was no problem.

As soon as this matter was confirmed, the figures of several Mahayana Quasi-Immortals had disappeared into the depths of the tomb. The other cultivators were not to be outdone and rushed inside.

Then, the several Dacheng Quasi-Immortals at the front stopped and looked at everything in front of them in a daze, almost unable to believe their eyes.

When the Integration Heavenly Pillar and the ancient titans saw this scene, they slowed down in curiosity. They looked into the depths of the tomb and slowly stopped. Their mouths were wide open, almost unable to believe what they were seeing.

Empty!

The depths of the tomb were actually empty. There was nothing!

What was going on? This was the tomb of the Thousand Years Poison King, after all. Why was there nothing buried with him?

The group of high-level cultivators were all shocked. Soon after, they found traces of being plundered. It was obvious that there were treasures here, but they had all been plundered.

According to the traces left here, the search should have been done a few hours ago, or perhaps an hour ago.

“Who did it?”

The late dacheng stage quasi-immortal of the Holy Poison Sect couldn't help but roar like thunder and fiercely glared at all the cultivators of the temporary alliance behind him. The terrifying aura swept through the entire tomb, making all the cultivators feel cold, as if they were being stared at by evil ghosts.

“No, no, no. I didn't do it!”

“I really didn't do it!”

Some of the ancient titans and the Integration Heavenly Pillar subconsciously expressed that they did not do anything. The treasures here were not plundered by them.

The other Dacheng Quasi-Immortals also frowned and carefully examined everyone around them, wanting to find the culprit of all this.

“At that time, all of us were waiting at the door, so it shouldn’t be done by one of us. Then it’s very likely that the cultivators who entered later said that some high-level cultivators from your sect came in after this.”

” The person who stole the treasure has been here for a few hours. The traces left here are still very clear. If I’m not mistaken, it should be one of our sects. ”

” What makes me curious is that before this, the Spiritual Array group had yet to be broken through. Who could have come in so stealthily and plundered all the treasures? Could it be that someone is colluding with those peak Spiritual Array Masters? ”

“Call them over and ask them if there’s anything unusual.”

After expending so much effort, they finally managed to break open the tomb. For this, some people even sacrificed their bodies, reputation, and face...In the end, he did not get any treasures. How could he tolerate this?

Several peak Spiritual Array Masters quickly came over. Looking at the empty tomb, they were also stunned.

“That shouldn’t be the case. Before this, we had yet to break through the top tier High Rank Spiritual Arrays here. Under normal circumstances, it’s impossible for anyone to be able to enter this place ahead of time.”

” The spiritual arrays around the tomb are top-notch high-grade spiritual arrays. Even a Quasi-Immortal in the Great Ascension Stage would find it hard to enter without making a sound, unless they are Human Immortals who have mastered the art of breaking the array. But if they want the treasures in the Thousand Autumns Tomb, they don’t need to do this at all. They can just show up and leave. There’s no need to do such a small trick. ”

” There’s another possibility, and that is that a top-notch supreme-grade Spiritual Array Master has made a move. Moreover, it’s a top-notch supreme-grade Spiritual Array Master who’s more familiar with this Spiritual Array Group, or a top-notch supreme-grade Spiritual Array Master who has grasped a special true treasure. Only then could he hide from everyone here and enter one step ahead of time. ”

"The possibility of this is too small. In the vast Dongyuan Continent, there are only a few top-grade Spiritual Array Masters. Currently, no one is nearby, so this matter is too strange."

Several top-notch Upper Rank Spiritual Array Masters argued endlessly, and no one could say what was going on. However, the group of high-level cultivators could also hear that it was very, very difficult to do this, and if one could do this, they were definitely not ordinary people.

Could it be that a higher-up big shot from some immortal sect had come?

Many high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance looked at the cultivators of the Holy Poison Sect. Among the many immortal sects here, only the Holy Poison Sect could send a peerless powerhouse at the Worldly Immortal realm to transcend the tribulation or mobilize a top-notch top-grade Spiritual Array Master. It was difficult for the Heart Control Sect to do so.

"Why are you all looking at me? It's just a Thousand Autumns Tomb. Is it worth it for us Human Immortals of the Holy Poison Sect to use such despicable methods?"

Seeing everyone's strange gazes, the late Dacheng stage quasi-immortal of the Holy Poison Sect, who was also the strongest high-level cultivator present, changed his face and said coldly.

However, although the surrounding high-level cultivators no longer looked at him, they looked at the other cultivators of the Holy Poison Sect.

The hair of this late dacheng stage quasi-immortal began to stand up." Since you don't believe me, let's all swear on the Heavenly Dao here to prove that we didn't play any tricks. Otherwise, you're not allowed to leave!"

"Uh ..." The group of high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance were all stunned. Immediately, they saw that this late Dacheng stage quasi-immortal was the first to swear that he did not play any tricks and did not plunder any treasures from the Qianqiu Tomb in advance.

Hearing that this late dacheng stage quasi-immortal actually came in empty-handed and was about to go out empty-handed, the expressions of the other high-level cultivators changed.

Immediately, some high-level cultivators began to swear. This kind of oath based on the Heavenly Dao was very effective. Once violated, it would be difficult to advance an inch, and in serious cases, it would be difficult to die from Qi deviation. Therefore, no one would easily swear on the Heavenly Dao.

As the high-level cultivators swore oaths one after another, they proved that they did not play any tricks inside and did not even obtain any treasures from the Qianqiu Tomb.

Only a lucky ancient powerhouse of the Mind Control Sect managed to find a seed of a rare poisonous herb in a crack in the wall. He was the only cultivator who managed to obtain anything. Other than that, there were no other cultivators from the temporary alliance who managed to obtain any treasures from the Qianqiu Tomb.

Moreover, everyone had sworn on the Heavenly Dao, so the credibility was especially high. Basically, the possibility of lying was ruled out.

In other words, everyone's oath was true and there was nothing fake. As they listened, everyone's heart grew colder and colder.

Chapter 719: That Worldly Immortal Is Awesome (1)

Two hours later, nearly a hundred high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance had all sworn oaths to the Dao of Heaven.

In other words, no one had obtained any treasures in the tomb. It was not as they had suspected before, where many treasures had been stolen by the other party.

Then, who exactly had plundered all the treasures in Qianqiu's tomb? Moreover, it had happened to be a few hours ago, just one step ahead of them.

Thinking of the strange top-grade spiritual array at the entrance of the Thousand Autumns Tomb, many high-level cultivators felt a chill in their hearts. Immediately, someone turned to look at the several top-grade spiritual array masters.

Seeing the gazes of all the high-level cultivators gathered on them, several top-notch spiritual array masters tactfully swore oaths to the heavens to prove that they had not plundered any treasures from the Qianqiu Tomb, nor had they done anything to it.

In other words, none of the high-level cultivators present had gained anything from the Qianqiu Tomb, nor had they secretly colluded with others to steal anything from it.

But where did the treasures in Qianqiu Tomb go?

"Human Immortal Tribulation Transcending, this must be done by a Human Immortal Tribulation Transcending, and it's not a Human Immortal Tribulation Transcending that belongs to all the forces in our temporary alliance!"

"Could it be that the other party can't stand our actions and is deliberately messing with us? Otherwise, why would there be a top-notch top-grade Spiritual Array at the entrance of the Thousand Autumns Tomb? Moreover, it just happened to teleport us into those strange poison pools.”

” I knew that the Thousand Years Poison King wouldn’t be so merciful to us. He was just toying with us. Under normal circumstances, those poison pools shouldn’t be so harmless. ”

“Hiss...There’s actually a Human Immortal who’s going through a tribulation playing tricks on us in the dark. No wonder we didn’t get anything.”

A group of high-level cultivators of the temporary alliance quickly reached a consensus that when they were cracking the spiritual array of the Thousand Autumns Tomb, there were Human Immortals hiding around to tease them. Otherwise, even a Quasi-Immortal of the Great Vehicle Stage would find it difficult to have such strength.

At the thought of this, the group of high-level cultivators felt like crying. They had spent so much money and offended many itinerant cultivators and forces, but in the end, they had not only obtained nothing, but they had also been made so miserable by a hidden Human Immortal.

If not for the fact that the other party did not have any killing intent, at least a few of them would have died today.

Although the teleportation technique of Body Integration Stage cultivators was powerful, it was not invincible. Once they were poisoned by some powerful poison or killed before they could react, the teleportation technique was useless.

A supreme-grade Dharma treasure was definitely qualified to attract a Human Immortal to take action. Moreover, in the Thousand Autumns Tomb, other than the supreme-grade Dharma treasure, the Thousand Autumns Needle, there were all kinds of other treasures and resources.

It was just that they had suffered a great loss. They had wasted so much time and energy for nothing and had suffered quite a loss.

Just like that, Zhu Wanhao was speculated by these high-level cultivators to be the legendary Human Immortal who was going through the tribulation. These high-level cultivators were like chickens who had lost a battle and left the Qianqiu Tomb dejectedly.

Outside the Thousand Autumns Tomb, there were many cultivators from small factions and unaffiliated cultivators waiting to watch the show. Because they couldn’t enter, they were chatting fervently outside.

“Holy Poison Sect, Heart Control Sect, Sky Ridge Sect...” These bastards are really too much. It’s fine if they eat meat for themselves, but they didn’t even leave a mouthful of soup for us. I came all the way here, but in the end, I couldn’t even enter the tomb and could only drink outside.”

“Who wouldn’t be like that? It’s a pity that no other super immortal sects came. Otherwise, I would’ve smashed their heads and let them still dare to be so arrogant. I’m really going to die of anger.”

“The Thousand Autumn Needle is so famous. Logically speaking, the other super immortal sects would not ignore it. Why didn’t they send anyone over? Could it be that they are afraid of the Holy Poison Sect?”

Streams of light shot out from the Thousand Autumns Tomb and disappeared into the horizon. Basically, none of them stopped.

Some of them had sharp eyes, but they could clearly see the figures in the flowing light. They realized that their expressions were either ugly, dejected, or extremely angry...Almost no one was in high spirits.

This was not right. The Thousand Autumns Tomb was such a good place with countless treasures and resources. There was even a top-grade magic treasure, the Thousand Autumns Needle. They should be very happy to be able to enter and plunder. Why did they all have such expressions when they came out?

Very soon, someone told them about the situation in the tomb. After learning what had happened inside, many of the surrounding cultivators were in an uproar. Soon after, many of them laughed.

” Serves them right. I didn’t expect that the Thousand Autumns Tomb would be searched by someone before they entered. And it was a Human Immortal who went through the tribulation. No wonder they didn’t get anything. It would be strange if they could get anything from a Human Immortal who went through the tribulation to cause trouble. ”

” Haha, I was wondering why these guys looked so awful. It turns out that they were tricked. Those who could do such a thing must be Human Immortals who are going through the Heavenly Tribulation. They don’t even have the courage to seek revenge. ”

“After expending so much effort, time, and energy, we didn’t get anything. We just watched the show from the side from the beginning to the end. We didn’t pay anything, but we witnessed such a big show. This matter will definitely be passed down for thousands of years.”

” If these bastards didn’t want to eat for themselves, perhaps that Human Immortal wouldn’t have been so ruthless. Not only did he not leave them anything good, he even played them for a fool. ”

After learning about everything that had happened in the tomb, the surrounding cultivators naturally beamed with joy. They were deeply grateful that they had not entered the tomb. Otherwise, they would have been like these guys from the temporary alliance, being toyed with inside without getting anything.

Zhu Wuyang, who had just left the Qianqiu Tomb, soon received a special system notification. He realized that many people were thanking and worshipping him, bringing him many breakthrough stones.

He was inexplicably mistaken for a Human Immortal who was going through the tribulation, and he couldn’t help but laugh. However, this matter was obviously a good thing for Zhu Wuyang.

Smiling slightly, Zhu Wuwan sped up and rushed to the headquarters of the Mind Controlling Sect, preparing to study hard in the sect.

As a top-notch immortal sect, there was more than one Dacheng Quasi-Immortal in it. The strength of the Heart Control Sect could be said to be extraordinary. The books and cultivation methods they possessed were definitely not few.

Just the Five Poison Sect, which was a first-rate immortal sect, had allowed Zhu Wanhao to study for several years. Then, the classics and cultivation techniques of the Mind Control Sect should be able to allow Zhu Wanhao to study for about ten years.

Chapter 720: The Great Plunder in the Miasma City (1)

The Mind Control Sect was a top immortal sect in the Central Plains. It occupied an area as large as hundreds of Earths and was one of the top five evil sects in the Central Plains.

Its headquarters was located in the Miasma Forest. This forest was filled with miasma and countless poisonous creatures. Its surface area was several times the size of the Earth, and the Heaven and Earth spiritual energy was extremely dense.

The Miasma Forest was also known as the treasure trove of poisonous creatures. There were countless poisonous flowers, plants, and insects, far more than any other place in the Southern Wasteland.

In order to protect the Miasma Forest, the Heart Controlling Sect had set up a group of top-grade spiritual arrays around it. It covered the entire Miasma Forest and was one of the places with the strongest defense in the Central Plains.

Even Zhu Wuwan had to spend about a month to figure out this top-notch supreme-grade spiritual array group. Through the loopholes on it and with the help of the power of the invisible magical Gu, Mei Yangyang, he had silently entered it.

“Wow, so scary!”

After entering the Miasma Forest, what greeted his eyes was a white miasma that he could not see his fingers in front of him. It enveloped the huge Miasma Forest, and there was almost no clear place.

The Invisible Curse, Mei Yangyang, was lying on Zhu Wuwan's chest. It stuck its small head out of the gap in her clothes and licked the Breakthrough Stone Lollipop while curiously looking at the beautiful Miasma Forest.

“Bugs!”

At this moment, the invisible magical Gu, Mei Yangyang, suddenly cried out in surprise. It hid its small head into Zhu Wuyang's clothes and trembled in Zhu Wuyang's chest.

Zhu Wanwan's Hell Divine Consciousness vaguely rippled over and immediately discovered a vicious Gu worm several miles away. If he remembered correctly, this Gu worm should be called the Skeleton Gu worm, and it was best at physical attacks.

However, this was only a level five Gu worm. You, Mei Yangyang, are a level seven middle rank Gu worm, comparable to a middle stage Body Integration Heavenly Pillar. Do you think you are afraid of such a level five low rank Gu worm?

Zhu Wuwan's face darkened. He grabbed the collar of the invisible Gu, Mei Yangyang, and pulled her out. He threw her at the Skeleton Gu. “Beautiful Goat, if you can't even kill it, I don't want you anymore.”

“Hui Tai Lang, you pervert!” The invisibility Gu, Beautiful Goat, waved its arms and legs as it smashed towards the skeleton Gu.

The Skeleton Gu also sensed the invisible strange Gu, the beautiful goat, coming at it. White flames flickered in its eyes as it fiercely jumped up and pounced at the invisible strange Gu, the beautiful goat. It did not care that the invisible strange Gu, the beautiful goat, was far stronger than it. It was really reckless.

Facing the skeleton Gu that was charging over, the invisible strange Gu, Mei Yangyang, forced herself to calm down. She waved her small hand fiercely and directly sent the skeleton Gu flying, turning it into powder that filled the sky.

Seeing that it had easily killed this ferocious Skeleton Gu, the Invisible Mystic Gu, Mei Yangyang, finally calmed down. It immediately pounced on Zhu Wuyang and bit his face hard.” Hui Tai Lang, you pervert! I’m going to bite you! ”

“If you want to bite me, you can bite my brother.” Zhu Wuwan smiled as she grabbed the pink dress of the Invisible Curse, Mei Yangyang, and threw her into the clothes. Then, she rushed into the depths of the Miasma Forest.

The Heart Controlling Sect was located in the depths of the Miasma Forest. It was also the most heavily guarded place in the Miasma Forest.

Relying on his understanding of the top-notch top-grade spiritual array group here, Zhu Wuwan easily arrived at the center of the Miasma Forest, which was also the residence of the Heart Controlling Sect cultivators.

Looking at the scenery in front of him, Zhu Wuyan could not help but feel shocked.

In the center of the Miasma Forest, there were no buildings made of stones and bricks. The buildings here were all woven from green leaves.

In the Miasma Forest, there was a unique giant tree. This giant tree was called the Weaving Leaf Tree. It was a unique tree in the Miasma Forest. Its entire body was a treasure, and every tree was a heavenly treasure.

The leaves could be used to make spirit pills and rare medicinal wine, the roots could be used to refine high-grade poisons, and the branches could be used to make magic tools, spiritual tools, and magic treasures ... The older the Weaving Leaf Tree, the more astonishing its value.

Moreover, each leaf of the Weaving Leaf Tree was quite large and extremely tough. It could be used to weave all kinds of things and also had the effect of gathering the spiritual qi of heaven and earth. Living on it could greatly increase one’s cultivation speed.

Therefore, the cultivators of the Mind Control Sect took advantage of this and weaved the leaves of the Weaving Leaf Tree into houses, and then lived in them.

Living in this kind of tree leaf house was not inferior to any other house in terms of comfort, and in some aspects, it was even better.

The Heart Controlling Sect's cultivators were very skillful. They weaved countless houses on countless towering trees. These houses included but were not limited to pavilions, small bridges, flowing water, palaces, and courtyards ... Other than the strange color, there was nothing unusual about it.

Moreover, after entering this area, Zhu Wuyang could clearly feel that the concentration of Heaven and Earth Spiritual Energy here was far higher than the outside world. Even the nine peaks were several levels lower than here. The two could not be mentioned in the same breath.

What a good place!

Zhu Wuyang couldn't help but sigh. Many Heart Control Sect cultivators shuttled between the leaf-weaving trees, busy dealing with their own matters, and didn't notice Zhu Wuyang's sudden arrival.

More than ninety-nine percent of the cultivators here belonged to the Heart Controlling Sect and its vassal forces. It was very difficult for cultivators from the outside world to enter the Miasma Forest, so Zhu Wuwan rarely saw cultivators from the outside world here.

After some consideration, Zhu Wuwan disguised herself as an ordinary cultivator of the Mind Controlling Sect and walked into the bustling crowd. She wanted to plunder the Miasma City and earn more breakthrough stones.

"White Dragon Grass. There's actually White Dragon Grass here. This is good stuff. "

"Is this what the Resentful Sky Spirit Worm looks like? I saw it in the Five Poison Book House of the Five Poison Sect and thought it was extinct. I didn't expect it to exist in Miasma City. "

"As expected of a top-notch Poison Dao Immortal Sect. All kinds of poisons emerge endlessly, and many of them are unique to this place. I have to replenish them properly."

"D * mn, it's the saplings of the Weaving Leaf Tree. I have to buy a batch and see if I can plant them in the unharmed nine peaks. "

As a treasure land that was almost not open to the public, there were many good things in the Miasma City that were not available in the outside world. There were quite a number of them, and Zhu Wuwan was enjoying herself looting them.

In order to avoid suspicion, Zhu Wuyang changed her identity many times and bought what she wanted in various places in the Miasma City.

During this period of time, he had obtained a large amount of wealth from the Five Poison Sect, the Earth Spirit Sect, and the Qianqiu Tomb. Now, he could use it here.

Zhu Wuwan also found that someone was selling a large number of Weaving Leaf Tree saplings here. Zhu Wuwan naturally wouldn't miss such a good opportunity. She quickly bought tens of thousands of saplings and prepared to bring them to the Southern Wasteland to cultivate.

Chapter 721: Mind Control (1)

Not only was the Woven Leaf Tree a treasure, but it also had an effect similar to a spirit gathering array. Zhu Wuyang naturally could not let go of such a good thing easily.

Although the growth of the Weaving Leaf Tree required a specific environment, and it could even be said that the requirements for the environment were relatively high, it was not too difficult to change the environment in front of Zhu Wuwan, who was proficient in the Dao of Array Formation.

When the time came, he only needed to improve the environment around the nine peaks. There should be a great chance of cultivating the Woven Leaf Tree and making it one of the signature treasures of the Unharmful Peak.

There were also many immortal sects in the Central Plains that cultivated the Weaving Leaf Tree, but the scale was far inferior to the Miasma Forest. Since other immortal sects could cultivate the Weaving Leaf Tree, there was no reason for Zhu Wuyang to not cultivate it well.

However, the environment of the Miasma Forest was especially suitable for the growth of the Weaving Leaf Trees. Therefore, the survival rate of the Weaving Leaf Trees here was higher, and they would grow better. Basically, it would not cost much. Therefore, the Miasma Forest became the ancestral land of the Weaving Leaf Trees.

They searched everywhere in the Miasma City for treasures, elixirs, and waste pills and medicine...At the same time, Zhu Wuwan naturally wouldn't forget to crack the array formations of the valuable places in the Miasma City, such as the Thousand Leaves Hall that had moved Zhu Wuwan the most.

The Weaving Leaf Tree only had one leaf in a hundred years, which meant that it would take a hundred years for it to grow one leaf. The so-called Thousand Leaves Pavilion, as its name implied, was a Weaving Leaf Tree with a thousand leaves. It had been growing for a hundred thousand years. It was one of the oldest Weaving Leaf Trees in the Miasma City and could be called a priceless treasure.

To put it bluntly, even the top-grade magic treasure Qianqiu Needle that Zhu Wuwan had just obtained was nothing compared to this 100,000-year-old Woven Leaf Tree. The difference in value between the two was huge.

The largest collection of books in the Mind Controlling Sect was located on top of a Thousand Leaves Weaving Tree. This place was also named Thousand Leaves Hall, and it was naturally the goal of Zhu Wuwan's studies.

After spending more than half a month, Zhu Wuwan finally cracked the top-notch supreme-grade spiritual array group of the Thousand Leaves Hall. She was able to enter and leave freely and learn what she wanted to learn.

After a few days of searching for treasures and ensuring that most of the treasures in the Miasma City were collected, he quietly sneaked into the Thousand Leaves Hall and began his journey of learning.

Each leaf in Thousand Leaves Hall was a level, and it was divided into a thousand levels. There were many books and cultivation techniques on each level, and when combined, they far surpassed all the books in the Five Poison Sect and Earth Spirit Sect.

Zhu Wuwan memorized layer by layer, memorizing all the cultivation techniques and classics that were useful to her, turning them into her own wealth.

However, the cultivation techniques and manuals at the bottom of the Thousand Leaves Hall were generally not of high levels, so very few of them were useful to Zhu Wuwan. In the beginning, Zhu Wuwan's memory speed was extremely fast, but the later she went, the slower it became.

Through this kind of learning and comprehension from the shallow to the deep, Zhu Wuwan gradually understood more and more about the Mind Control Sect, especially the Mind Control Technique that he coveted.

The name of the Mind Controlling Sect came from the Mind Controlling Technique. The so-called Mind Controlling Technique was not a spell or anything like that. It also referred to the mixed poison. To be precise, it should be a peak characteristic of the mixed poison ... Soul Control!

As the name suggested, being able to control both the heart and soul naturally meant that he had complete control over the other party and could make the other party do anything for him.

Whether it was used to enslave demons, ghosts, or human cultivators, it had an amazing effect.

The Mind Controlling Sect had also used its ability to control one's mind and soul to intimidate the entire Dongyuan Continent. Countless orthodox sects had paled upon hearing this. To a certain extent, its threat had even surpassed the Holy Poison Sect.

After all, for many cultivators, it was fine to let them die, but if they were controlled by someone, it would be ten times worse than death.

Once their minds and souls were controlled, it was equivalent to everything being controlled by the enemy. They would have to do whatever the enemy asked them to do, even killing their relatives and friends, committing a heinous sin.

That terrifying outcome was definitely far better than death!

The most valuable part of the Heart Controlling Sect's supreme secret manual, the Heart Controlling Sutra, was the method of condensing and fusing the characteristics of heart and soul control. The power of this characteristic was not inferior to Zhu Wuyang's devouring of all things. Its function and effect were even more than dispelling all poisons, nothingness, strengthening the physique, and so on.

To put it bluntly, even the trait of devouring everything was inferior to the trait of controlling one's mind and soul in most people's eyes.

Faced with such a super characteristic, even if the chances of fusing and condensing it were not high, Zhu Wuwan was still tempted. She had to give it a try and see if she could successfully fuse and condense this characteristic for her own use.

In the Thousand Leaves Hall, Zhu Wuwan quickly obtained the Heart Control Sect's supreme secret manual, the Heart Control Sutra. However, what made him a little speechless was that the Heart Control Sutra was divided into 81 levels. So far, he had only obtained the first 49 levels.

As for the thirty-second level, it should be on the higher level of the Thousand Leaves Hall. When Zhu Wuwan flipped through the entire Thousand Leaves Hall bit by bit, she should be able to obtain the complete Heart Control Sutra.

This was also the normal way of imparting knowledge to most large immortal sects. The higher the level and the better the talent of the disciples, the higher the level of the library and the higher the level of cultivation techniques and manuals.

In the process of obtaining layer after layer of the Heart Controlling Sutra, Zhu Wuwan discovered that the Heart Controlling Sutra was mainly divided into three major levels. They were the Body Controlling trait, the Element Controlling trait, and the highest level, the Heart Controlling trait!

As the name implied, the Body Control trait was that once it was fused and condensed, it could control the enemy's body. The Yuan Control trait was that it could control the True Yuan and Nascent Soul in the enemy's body. There was no need to mention the Mind Control trait.

Controlling the body was relatively easy, controlling the essence was a little difficult, and controlling the heart and soul was the most difficult.

In the process of absorbing and fusing all kinds of poisons to form their own unique mixed poison, the cultivators of the Heart Controlling Sect usually had to first integrate and condense the body controlling characteristic, then absorb and condense the yuan controlling characteristic, and finally combine the body controlling characteristic and the yuan controlling characteristic to sublimate into the heart controlling characteristic.

During this process, if the absorbed poison was slightly different, it would not be able to form the corresponding characteristic. Moreover, in the end, the fusion would not be able to condense the heart and soul control characteristic. During this period, every step could not be wrong, and the conditions were extremely harsh.

Moreover, in order to fuse and condense the characteristics of mind and soul control, one's strength had to be above the Fusion Heavenly Pillar, and the mixed poison in one's body had to be above grade-7.

It was precisely because of this that it was very difficult for the Mind Control Sect to produce peerless geniuses who had condensed and fused the characteristics of Mind Control and Soul Control. Every one of them was like a pillar of the Mind Control Sect.

Even with Zhu Wuan's current attainments in the Dao of Poison and the Dao of Alchemy, it was still unknown whether he could successfully fuse the characteristics of heart and soul control. It could be seen how difficult it was.

Chapter 722: Endless (1)

For most poison path cultivators, there was a very important problem that they had to face. That was how many types of poison they could absorb and withstand at most.

In the eyes of almost all poison path cultivators, there was a limit to the amount of poison that a poison path cultivator could absorb and fuse with in their lifetime. At most, they could absorb no more than ten thousand types of poison. Ten thousand was the publicly acknowledged limit.

However, in reality, many poison dao cultivators could only fuse a few thousand types of poison before they could no longer fuse any more, even if their cultivation realm increased.

In addition, the realm of cultivation and the poison technique they cultivated also limited the fusion of various poisons. Therefore, the poison that a poison path cultivator could absorb and fuse in their lifetime was very limited.

It was precisely because of this that many poison path cultivators paid special attention to each fusion to ensure that they could fuse the characteristics they wanted. Only then could they bring about a sufficient increase in their strength.

It was said that in the Dongyuan Continent, the number of cultivators who had absorbed the most poisons was only about 9,000, and there were no more than 10,000.

However, Zhu Wuyan was different. After cultivating the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique and absorbing and fusing 3,600 types of basic poisons, Zhu Wuyan could theoretically fuse with countless types of poisons.

As long as the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique continued to improve, as long as Zhu Wuyan's body could withstand it...He could continue to fuse. Not to mention 10,000 types of poison, there was a high possibility that he could even fuse more poisons.

Under such circumstances, Zhu Wuyan could try to fuse different types of poisons to her heart's content to form the characteristics she needed.

Unlike other poison path cultivators, who had to be extremely careful and cautious every time they fused with a poison, afraid that there would be a slight difference that would cause them to not be able to fuse the characteristics they wanted.

As for Zhu Wanhao's attempt to fuse 3,600 types of basic poisons at the very beginning, it was truly unprecedented. Let alone Southern Wasteland, even in other regions, no poison path cultivator dared to do so.

Poison Dao cultivators would absorb and fuse the corresponding poisons in a specific order from the beginning. Their goal was to form the desired characteristics and increase their strength.

If Zhu Wuyan wasn't confident in cultivating the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique, which could theoretically fuse with infinite poison, Zhu Wuyan wouldn't have dared to do this.

Fortunately, Zhu Wuyang's risk was worth it, and his speculation was not wrong. In just a few decades, he had relied on Zhu Wuyang's unique combination of poison to condense a variety of characteristics, such as strengthening his physique, dispelling all poisons, heavy nerves, black lightning, green fire, devouring all things, nothingness, chasing souls and taking lives...

The power of these special traits was quite shocking. There was no need to mention devouring all things. It was a special trait on the same level as Mind Control and Soul Control. The special traits of removing thousands of poisons and chasing souls were not much different from devouring all things and controlling souls. Moreover, the deterrence of Soul Chase and Life Control was not much weaker than that of Mind Control and Soul Control.

Deep nerves, black lightning, green fire, and nothingness were also top-notch traits. Even the most ordinary traits that strengthened one's physique were far superior to the traits that other poison path cultivators condensed and fused to strengthen one's physique. They were also top-notch traits, especially for Zhu Wuwan, whose body was already very strong.

Smiling slightly, Zhu Wuwan deeply memorized the method of fusing and condensing the Heart and Soul Control characteristics. He was prepared to wait until he had time to think of a way to fuse and condense it. Once he succeeded, it would definitely have a huge impact on Zhu Wuwan's cultivation.

Zhu Wanhao continued to focus on his studies, completely unaware of the passage of time. Around him, the Heart Controlling Sect cultivators came and went, and no one could discover Zhu Wanhao's existence, even those Heavenly Pillars with perfect Body Integration.

Only when he encountered a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal who came to read the information would Zhu Wuwan use the top-notch supreme-grade spiritual array group of the Thousand Leaves Pavilion to help conceal his existence and avoid being discovered by these Mahayana Quasi-Immortals.

After such a long period of interaction and investigation, Zhu Wuwan already knew the top-notch supreme-grade Spiritual Arrays around Thousand Leaves Hall like the back of her hand. Not only could she easily crack them, but she could also borrow the top-notch supreme-grade Spiritual Arrays around them.

The Heart Controlling Sect's top Spiritual Array Master who was in charge of guarding this place did not notice anything. His array cultivation was only at the top middle-grade. Even so, he was already one of the top Spiritual Array Masters in the Heart Controlling Sect, so it would be strange for him to discover Zhu Wuyang.

With Zhu Wuwan's current array formation cultivation, she could basically sweep the Heart Control Sect aside. The strongest Spiritual Array Master in the Heart Control Sect was only a top-notch high-grade Spiritual Array Master, which was still a level lower than Zhu Wuwan.

As for how the peak grade spiritual array groups here came about, other than a small portion that were arranged by the Heart Controlling Sect's peak grade spiritual array masters, most of them were arranged by inviting peak grade spiritual array groups from the outside world.

Although the Central Plains was the core of the cultivation world, the number of top-notch top-grade Spiritual Array Masters was quite limited. There were probably less than ten of them. Even some super immortal sects did not have top-grade top-grade Spiritual Array Masters. They were definitely scarce resources.

Compared to Spirit Alchemists, the number of Spiritual Array Masters was much smaller. Once the base number was smaller, the number of Spiritual Array Masters who could reach the peak would also be smaller.

Moreover, compared to the earning speed of Spirit Alchemists, Spiritual Array Masters were much slower. Therefore, the number of top Spiritual Array Masters was very small.

However, although Zhu Wuwan was a top-notch supreme-grade Spiritual Array Master, due to the limitations of his cultivation realm, his array cultivation could be said to be ranked at the bottom among the top-notch supreme-grade Spiritual Array Masters.

Under normal circumstances, only Quasi-Immortals above the Great Vehicle Stage could fully display the strength of a top-notch top-grade Spiritual Array Master. Zhu Wuwan's attainments in array formations were not inferior, but her own cultivation was a bit of a hindrance.

Relying on her invincible array formation cultivation in the Miasma City, Zhu Wuwan took the time to understand the spiritual array group here while she was studying.

Moreover, in the Thousand Leaves Hall, Zhu Wuwan had also learned a lot of books on array formations, many of which were all in the Miasma City. With the help of these books, Zhu Wuwan had mastered the array formations of the Miasma City even faster.

Considering the follow-up plan, Zhu Wuwan took advantage of the opportunity to tamper with many spiritual array groups in the Miasma City. Then, she looked at the many Weaving Leaf Trees and smiled.

Unknowingly, the Thousand Leaves Dojo had been breached layer by layer by Zhu Wuwan. Gradually, Zhu Wuwan arrived at the last floor of the Thousand Leaves Dojo. The most precious books and cultivation techniques of the Heart Controlling Sect were hidden on this floor. Naturally, the last floor of the Heart Controlling Sutra was also included. There was also a supreme secret technique that shocked even Zhu Wuwan.

To be honest, even Zhu Wuwan did not expect that the last level of Thousand Leaves Hall would have such a good item hidden!

Chapter 723: Supreme Secret Technique (1)

Although he had obtained the complete Heart Control Sutra in Thousand Leaves Hall, Zhu Wuwan was not very satisfied with the harvest here. After all, although the Heart Control Sutra was not bad, it was quite difficult to integrate and condense the characteristics of Heart Control and Soul Control.

As for the other cultivation techniques and books, although they could help improve Zhu Wuyan's Heaven and Earth Immortal Martial Arts, Heaven and Earth Dharma Spells, Heaven and Earth Secret Techniques, and so on, none of them were of interest to Zhu Wuyan. They were directly used for cultivation, similar to the Earth Spirit Hand.

Zhu Wuchang had also obtained the Poison Sealing Secret Technique and the Five Poison Divine Palm from the Five Poison Sect. They were extremely effective for him. He had also allowed Zhu Wuchang to cultivate the Earth Spirit Hand of the Earth Spirit Sect as his long-term cultivation goal in the future.

However, the Mind Control Sect was still a top-notch immortal sect that was dozens of times stronger than the Five Poison Sect and the Earth Spirit Sect combined. However, they did not have good things like the Poison Sealing Secret Technique or the Earth Spirit Hand. So many ancient books and cultivation techniques could only be used as nourishment.

However, on the last level of the Thousand Leaves Hall, Zhu Wuwan found a top-notch secret skill of heaven and earth that moved him even more than the Poison Sealing Secret Skill, the Earth Spirit Hand, and the Five Poison God Palm.

Gu Fusion Technique!

This was a very strange secret skill of heaven and earth. Although it was a top-notch secret skill of heaven and earth, even a Qi Condensation cultivator could successfully cultivate it, not only a Dacheng Stage quasi-immortal could cultivate it. It did not have high requirements for strength and realm.

However, this top secret technique of heaven and earth had extremely high requirements for talent and comprehension. Out of a hundred overwhelming prodigies, not even one would be able to cultivate it.

The so-called Gu Fusion Technique, as its name implied, was a secret technique that fused Gu worms into the body.

In modern terms, it was to fuse the superior genes of Gu worms and use them on oneself.

Zhu Wanhao had never expected that the cultivation world of Dongyuan Continent had already mastered such a strange secret technique. One had to know that such technology could not be achieved even on Earth, and it would take many years to achieve it.

Moreover, compared to the gene fusion on Earth, it was clearly more difficult for immortal cultivators to fuse the power of Gu worms. It was thousands of times more difficult than the gene fusion on Earth.

Faced with such a magical secret skill, Zhu Wuwan was immediately tempted. If this secret skill was used properly, its power would far surpass the Poison Locking Secret Skill, the Five Poison Divine Palm, and the Earth Spirit Hand. It could fundamentally increase Zhu Wuwan's strength.

However, what made Zhu Wanwan helpless was that this Gu Fusion Technique only had three levels. Each level could help a cultivator fuse the excellent talent of a type of life-bound Gu worm and turn it into their own talent. In other words, even if one cultivated it to the extreme, they could at most fuse the talent of three types of Gu worms.

When he first saw the beginning, Zhu Wuwan thought that he could fuse endlessly. In this way, as long as he fused the talents of dozens of Gu worms, not to mention killing enemies of a higher level, even if he crossed a few major stages, Zhu Wuwan could still kill the enemy.

But he did not expect that there were only three levels, and he could only fuse the talent of three Gu worms at most. Moreover, the cultivation difficulty of each level was terrifying.

If they were converted into breakthrough stones, just to cultivate the first level, they would need at least one trillion breakthrough stones. The further they went, the more breakthrough stones they would need.

"Hiss..."

Zhu Wanwan couldn't help but gasp. It was indeed the most difficult secret technique of the Heart Controlling Sect. The difficulty of just the entry level was almost as difficult as the cultivation of the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique. No wonder only two people in the current generation of the Heart Controlling Sect had cultivated the first level. As for the second level, no one had been able to cultivate it successfully until now.

Zhu Wuwan also felt a little heartache for the breakthrough stone needed to cultivate the first level. However, when she thought about the special talent of a certain Gu worm in her body, Zhu Wuwan suddenly felt that this little difficulty and consumption were nothing.

Seven Absolute Body Refining Gu!

It was one of the strongest Gu worms in Southern Wasteland. It was said that when cultivated to the extreme, its strength was comparable to that of a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal. However, no one had been able to nurture the Seven Ultimate Body Refining Gu to the extreme for many years, which showed how difficult it was to nurture.

Even Zhu Wuwan wasn't confident that she could nurture it to the extreme, so she had kept it by her side ever since she obtained it. She had thrown it in a corner and didn't use it.

However, the Seven Absolutes Body Refinement Gu had a talent that even Zhu Wuwan coveted. It was the Seven Absolutes Body Refinement Gu, which was also the origin of its name.

The so-called Seven Absolutes Body Refinement Gu required seven times of body tempering and transformation in desperate situations during its growth. It absorbed seven extremely domineering powers of heaven and earth to temper its body and strengthen its physique. If it succeeded, its physique would undergo an all-round transformation. If it failed, its body would collapse.

The Seven Absolutes Body Refinement Gu required seven life-and-death tempering to grow, and it was also the Seven Absolutes Body Refinement Gu's strongest talent. This talent allowed the Seven Absolutes Body Refinement Gu to absorb and withstand seven types of power that dominated the world, including the power of the Grand Sun Primordial Fire, the power of the Nine Heavens Divine Thunder, and the Three Thousand Weak Water ...

Ordinary cultivators would be finished in minutes if they encountered these seven tyrannical powers, but the Seven Ultimate Body Tempering Gu could greatly reduce their destructive power, allowing them to release their power bit by bit from weak to strong. This way, there was room for them to slowly adapt, absorb, and use it.

If Zhu Wuan could obtain such a terrifying talent, he would be able to absorb and utilize these seven types of power that could dominate the world, allowing his body to undergo an earth-shattering transformation and improvement, obtaining an all-round enhancement.

According to Zhu Wuan's speculation, if he could successfully absorb and integrate the power that dominated the world and use it to temper his body, his body's hardness and flexibility would increase by at least ten times. This was only the minimum standard.

At that time, Zhu Wuwan's body strength and flexibility would be comparable to a powerful top-grade magic treasure. Even a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal would find it difficult to hurt him. Even a Human Immortal who was undergoing the tribulation would not be able to do anything to him.

In fact, if he absorbed enough of the seven types of powers and his body transformed sufficiently, it was possible for Zhu Wuwan's body to surpass supreme-grade Dharma treasures and reach an unfathomable level.

Moreover, Zhu Wanwan was a body refinement cultivator. He could use the talent of the Seven Ultimate Body Refining Gu when refining his body. This way, there was a greater possibility that his body would surpass supreme-grade Dharma treasures and possess unimaginable power.

To put it bluntly, even if he did not cooperate with his body refinement cultivation, he would have fused with the talent of the Seven Ultimate Body Refining Gu on the current basis and successfully absorbed the power of the world. Zhu Wuwan's physical fitness would also rise with the wind and reach the level of a body refinement cultivator at the Crossing Calamity Stage, or even far beyond.

Just the Seven Absolutes Body Refining Gu alone could bring such great benefits to Zhu Wuyan. If Zhu Wuyan fused the talents of the other two Gu worms, one could imagine how much Zhu Wuyan's overall strength would increase.

Chapter 731: Great Calamity and Great Fortune (1)

Eternal Empire, Lake Distant Lake.

A huge caravan of thousands of people was currently moving forward at high speed, rushing towards the Yinqing Imperial Capital that was tens of thousands of miles away. The speed of the Winged Horses was astonishing, and they were practically gliding in the air.

This was the Tang Trading Company's convoy. The one leading the convoy was the Tang Trading Company's Head Shopkeeper, Tang Yelan. At the same time, he was also the new head of the Tang Family in the Imperial Capital.

Because the goods were too important, Tang Yelan personally went out with thousands of elite guards from the trading company. Among them, there were nearly a hundred Foundation Establishment cultivators and the rest were mostly Qi Condensation cultivators.

Even if he wasn't a cultivator, he was still a great expert above the Xiantian realm. He could be considered a hero in the secular world.

It was said that there was a Daoist Master in the Golden Core stage in the caravan. Although it was impossible to confirm whether it was true or not, it was enough to intimidate many demons and monsters.

At this moment, the scout in front of the caravan suddenly shouted, “” Is that a person hanging on that red-branch tree? Everyone, be careful. ”

The caravan slowed down and slowly moved toward the thousand-year-old Redbranch Tree.

“He is indeed human. I can’t sense any energy fluctuations from his body. If I’m not mistaken, he should be a mortal.”

” How could a mortal be hung on a red-branch tree that’s hundreds of meters tall? How did he get up there? He looks like he’s sleeping. ”

“Are you out of your mind? I can tell at a glance that he was forcefully thrown up. He was probably robbed and thrown up after being robbed. Should we save him?”

“We should report this matter to the head shopkeeper. We can’t make the decision.”

The news reached Tang Yelan very quickly. Tang Yelan thought about it for a while and asked someone to confirm the situation of the person on the tree. Then, he ordered the guards behind him to save Zhu Wuyang who was hanging on the tree.

Zhu Wuwan’s life was saved. Otherwise, if she had been hung on the red-branch tree without anyone to save her, she might have really been killed by the bandits or eaten by some demons and ghosts.

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang definitely did not have the strength to resist such a disaster.

Zhu Wuyang, who was thrown into the carriage behind, only woke up groggily two days and two nights later. Hearing the creaking of the carriage and feeling the bumps around her, Zhu Wuyang could not care less about her surroundings and immediately sensed the condition of her body.

A moment later, Zhu Wuwan could not help but laugh bitterly. This time, he had underestimated the heroes of the world.

Zhu Wuan did not expect that the Heart Controlling Sect would actually set up the three great Gu worms of heaven, earth, and human in Thousand Leaves Hall. Together with the special secret technique of heaven and earth, the Three Immortal Sealing Hexes, his divine sense, Nascent Soul, and body ... They were all sealed.

In other words, the current Zhu Wuyang was already powerless, and her physical condition was worse than that of an ordinary person. She had returned to the time when she had just transmigrated, and she was even worse than then.

Hell's divine sense, Myriad Poison Nascent Soul, and body refinement cultivation were all sealed in the deepest part of his body. With the combination of Heaven, Earth, and Man Gu and the sealing technique, they formed an impregnable prison that could not be broken through by external forces.

Even Zhu Wuyan's lifespan had been sealed to only one percent of its original lifespan, which was about 300 years. Of course, Zhu Wuyan had already used up dozens of years, so he only had about 200 years left.

The five Mahayana Quasi-Immortals had spent fifty thousand years of their lifespan, and the Three Immortal Sealing Seals, which were perfectly fused from the unique Gu of the Dongyuan Continent, were said to be able to seal even Human Immortals, let alone Zhu Wuwan, who was just a Heavenly Pillar with a perfect Body Integration.

At this moment, Zhu Wuwan was also helpless. He could not break the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes in a short period of time and recover his original cultivation.

However, although Zhu Wuwan was currently unable to break the Three Hexing Immortal, he knew a way to break the Three Hexing Immortal, which was to cultivate from scratch.

At this moment, although he was powerless and all his strength and cultivation had been sealed, his talent and aptitude were still there. The special encounter system and the breakthrough stone were still there. He could still cultivate from scratch and improve his spirit, true essence, and body bit by bit.

One day, when his spirit, true essence, and body reached their original level, he would be able to break the seal and regain all his strength.

Not only that, in the process of cultivating from the beginning, Zhu Wuwan had re-consolidated her cultivation foundation and grasped a power from the beginning. When the time came, this power would be able to perfectly fuse with the original power, producing a geometric effect of one plus one being greater than two. From then on, Zhu Wuwan's strength would receive an astonishing leap, and her cultivation foundation would also receive an astonishing leap.

Blessings are the cause of misfortune. This unprecedented disaster was also an unprecedented fortune from another perspective.

As long as Zhu Wuan could grasp it properly, he would be able to obtain unimaginable benefits. Once he regained his original strength and broke the seal, perhaps his Qi Refinement cultivation and Body Refinement cultivation would be able to break through to the Great Vehicle Stage in one fell swoop, or even higher.

This method of unsealing the seal was not difficult for Zhu Wuyang, but for any other cultivator, it could be said to be more difficult than ascending to the heavens.

After being sealed by the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes, a cultivator only had one percent of their lifespan left. It was impossible for most cultivators to recover their original cultivation in such a short period of time and break through the three seals.

Take the five Mahayana Quasi-Immortals of the Mind Controlling Sect as an example. In order to cultivate to their current realm, each of them had spent at least 30,000 years. Their remaining lifespan was only 10,000 years. If they were sealed, only 1% of their lifespan would be left.

If they wanted to restore their original cultivation of the Great Vehicle Stage in more than a hundred years, even if they had already walked this path of cultivation, it was impossible to return to their original realm.

If not for Zhu Wuyang's special encounter system and the Breakthrough Stone, it would have been very difficult for him to break through the seal through this method and recover his original strength.

After all, after being sealed by the Three Immortal Sealing Hexes, the cultivators were equivalent to returning to the time when they had not cultivated. Every step of cultivation needed to break through layers of shackles. The difficulty was no less than the first time. It was not because the difficulty of the second round was reduced.

Just thinking about how difficult it was for Zhu Wuwan to break through the shackles every time, one could tell how difficult it was for other cultivators to break through, not to mention that there was such a strict time limit.

The Three Celestial Sealing Hexes lived up to their reputation!

A bitter smile flashed across Zhu Wuan's face. He tried to sit up, but he realized that he couldn't even sit up. At this moment, the curtain of the carriage was pulled open, revealing a delicate and delicate face. She looked at him in surprise. "You're awake?"

Chapter 732: Soaring Up (1)

"Thank you for saving me!"

Looking at the pretty little face behind the curtain, Zhu Wuwan smiled and thanked her, causing her to blush. "No need to thank me. It was the head shopkeeper who asked us to save you. If you want to thank him, thank the head shopkeeper. I'll get you something to eat. Have a good rest. "

The owner of the pretty little face glanced at Zhu Wuwan again before leaving with a red face. She muttered in her heart, This mortal is really good-looking. It was worth saving him.

After so many years of cultivation and body tempering, Zhu Wuyang's looks were so good that if she were on Earth, she would have already exceeded full marks. Even in this world where the spiritual energy of heaven and earth was abundant and had always been nourished by the spiritual energy of heaven and earth, her score would still be more than 90 points.

Although his strength had been completely sealed, his appearance could not be sealed. He was still extraordinary and had great lethality to women, and even to any female creature.

The pretty girl quickly brought a bowl of tonic soup over."Can you eat it yourself? Do you want me to feed you? Also, what's your name? I ... So I can report to the head shopkeeper?"

"My name is Zhu Wuyang. May I know your name, Miss?" Zhu Wuyang said with a smile.

The delicate young lady's face was slightly red as she said, " I'm just the Head Shopkeeper's servant. My name is Ning Wen, you can call me Wen 'er. Our Head Shopkeeper is the Head Shopkeeper of the Tang Trading Company, Tang Yelan. When he saw that you were hung on a red branch tree by the bandits and that you were seriously injured, he called for someone to save you and even used a spirit pill to treat you..."

From Ning Wen's mouth, Zhu Wuhan found out what had happened before she fainted and could not help but feel glad.

After being sealed by the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes, Zhu Wuwan was just a mortal. Once she died, the sealed power in her body would dissipate and no longer exist.

Therefore, the danger of the Three Hexes of Celestial Bestowal wasn't just in the fall of one's lifespan, but also in the restoration of the enemy's pursuit.

The cute girl nagged at Zhu Wuyang for more than two hours before she reluctantly took the bowl and left. Zhu Wuyang also understood the current situation.

Under the effect of the random teleportation formation, he was randomly teleported to the Eternal Empire, which was tens of millions of miles away. The Eternal Empire was also an aboveground immortal kingdom, but in many aspects, it was not as standardized and reasonable as the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty. However, in some aspects, it surpassed the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty.

As an old Immortal Empire, the Eternal Empire had many advantages, and it was worth learning from Zhu Wuyan. Zhu Wuyan wanted to integrate the beneficial things into the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty.

The Eternal Empire was ruled by the number one immortal sect in the Central Plains, the Nirvana House, which was also the number one super immortal sect in the Dongyuan Continent.

The Tang Trading Company was a small to medium-sized trading company in the Yinqing Imperial Capital of the Eternal Empire. It specialized in the silk and clothing business in the various states of the Eternal Empire. It was said that the strongest person in the sect was a Golden Core who had been in seclusion for many years. He was also the Tang Trading Company's greatest trump card.

The current owner of the Tang Trading Company was the Tang Family's eldest daughter, Tang Yelan, who had amazing business skills. The original head shopkeeper, Tang Xing, had been killed by a robber a few years ago while he was discussing business. Therefore, the heavy responsibility of the Tang Trading Company had been handed over to Tang Yelan.

After a few years of development, not only did the Tang Trading Company stabilize, but their business also became more prosperous. Tang Yelan also slowly gained the trust and support of all the members of the Tang Clan.

Zhu Wuyang, who had originally planned to obtain a certain amount of strength as soon as possible and then leave, had other thoughts after understanding the situation.

It was said that there were many Nirvana Tower cultivators stationed in the Yinqing Imperial Capital, and the Nirvana Tower's cultivation techniques and manuals were known as the best in the world. They were not inferior to the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique, and should be compatible with the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique.

Since he had re-cultivated, he could go and cultivate. When he merged with the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique in the future, he wondered what kind of transformation he would have.

After considering it properly, Zhu Wuwan stopped thinking about it. She prepared to raise her cultivation a little first so that she wouldn't be killed so casually.

Since he was cultivating from the beginning, he naturally had to choose the strongest Dao Beginning Jade Book for the foundation establishment immortal technique. With the experience of cultivating the Dao Beginning Jade Book, Zhu Wuyang would recover faster.

The power of the Breakthrough Stone poured in. Zhu Wuwan sat cross-legged and began to cultivate the Jade Book of Dao Beginning.

A strange power began to flow through his dried up body. Soon, the first immortal meridian was forged, and Zhu Wuwan's cultivation also successfully reached the first qi layer.

Then, it was the second level of the Qi Refinement Realm, the third level of the Qi Refinement Realm, the fourth level of the Qi Refinement Realm...

"Pfft..."

Soon, he broke through the bottleneck and stepped into the Foundation Establishment Realm. Then, he continued to soar.

By the time Ning Wen came to deliver food to him for the second time, Zhu Wuyan's strength had already recovered to the perfected Foundation Establishment realm. He was only half a step away from breaking through the bottleneck and advancing to the Golden Core realm.

Thanks to the chaos in the Misty Miasma Forest, Zhu Wuwan had obtained tens of billions of breakthrough stones. With so many breakthrough stones, it was enough for Zhu Wuwan to raise his strength to an extremely high realm.

"Congratulations to the host for stepping on the path of cultivation for the second time in his life. You have received 100 breakthrough stones..."

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the first qi layer for the second time in his life. You have received 10 breakthrough stones ..."

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the second level of the Refined Qi realm for the second time in his life. You have received 20 breakthrough stones ..."

Zhu Wuwan's face darkened when she accidentally flipped through the system notification. She did not expect that there would really be a time when she could break through the realms for the second time. She just did not know if there would be a time when she could kill someone for the second time.

From the reluctant servant girl, Ning Wen, Zhu Wuwan learned more about the Eternal Empire and the Tang Trading Company. Ning Wen obviously enjoyed talking to Zhu Wuwan.

If not for the fact that she was worried about being reprimanded by Tang Yelan, Ning Wen would have stayed in the carriage and chatted with Zhu Wuwan.

Seeing that Ning Wen had left, Zhu Wuyang continued to inject the Breakthrough Stone into his body to break through to a higher realm.

“Dong...”

A sound like the morning bell and evening drum sounded. A golden core appeared in Zhu Wuwan’s body. It had three transformations the moment it appeared, and its power was enough to dominate those of the same level.

With his previous experience, and most importantly, with the help of the special encounter system and the breakthrough stone, Zhu Wuyang’s breakthrough speed was extremely fast this time. Moreover, he was able to adapt to the sudden increase in strength at the first moment. Zhu Wuyang continued to break through.

Intermediate Aurous Core stage...

Late Golden Core stage...

Exceptional Gold Core Realm...

After a night of silence, Zhu Wuyan’s strength successfully reached the Exceptional Gold Core Realm. Next, he should break through the Nascent Soul Realm and become a Nascent Soul Old Monster. However, Zhu Wuyan did not break through. Instead, he prepared to use the Nirvana Tower’s sect treasure to break through.

With such strength, Zhu Wuwan could finally breathe a sigh of relief. According to the information she had obtained from Ning Wen, the cultivation realm of a Golden Core was considered pretty good even in the Eternal Empire.

Not to mention that even though Zhu Wuwan was only an Aurous Core Stage cultivator, he could easily kill enemies of a higher level. Ordinary Nascent Soul Stage old monsters were nothing to him.

Chapter 733: Nirvana Ceremony (1)

Through the information that she had obtained from Ning Wen and the discussions of the surrounding guards, Zhu Wuwan knew that the Eternal Emperor’s strength in the Eternal Empire was only at the perfected Void Refinement Realm.

As for the Integration Heavenly Pillars above the Void Refinement Realm, they were considered as pillars of the Nirvana Tower. Each of them was a powerful big shot of the Nirvana Tower. They usually stayed in the headquarters of the Nirvana Tower or in important resource treasure lands. Basically, they would not interfere with the political affairs of this kind of immortal country on the ground.

Therefore, the Immortal Empires on the ground that the Nirvana Tower operated were very different from the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty. They were governed by a different sect because there were at least a hundred Immortal Empires on the ground like the Eternal Empire under the Nirvana Tower. There were even more Immortal Empires on the ground that were smaller than the Eternal Empire and even ordinary mortal dynasties.

This was a castrated version of the Immortal Empire on Earth, and it had many flaws compared to the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty.

The Eternal Empire had a nine-rank official system. Ordinary people were only allowed to be officials of the lower three ranks, namely, the ninth, eighth, and seventh ranks. Only Qi Practitioners were qualified to be officials of the seventh rank and above, and the rules were extremely strict.

A Qi Condensation cultivator could be a sixth-grade official, a Foundation Establishment cultivator could be a fifth-grade official, and an Aurous Core cultivator could be a fourth-grade official...

By analogy, only the ancient giants at the Void Training Stage were qualified to be the first-class officials of the Eternal Empire. Therefore, to a certain extent, one could deduce the strength of the other party through the rank of the official. Unless the other party was a member of the royal family of the Eternal Empire, it was possible for them to surpass the limit of strength.

With Zhu Wuyang's current strength, he was fully qualified to become a Rank-4 official of the Eternal Empire and become a big shot.

However, Zhu Wanwan wasn't interested in such things. His next plan wasn't to become a high-ranking official in the Eternal Empire. What interested him the most was the knowledge of the Eternal Empire, especially the core treasure of Nirvana Tower.

As one of the important immortal countries under Nirvana Tower, it was said that the biggest backer behind the Eternal Empire was an elder level senior of Nirvana Tower, and every elder level senior of Nirvana Tower was a quasi-immortal of the Great Vehicle Stage.

The royal family of the Eternal Empire was the descendant of this elder, which was why they were qualified to obtain an aboveground immortal kingdom, one of the top-ranked ones under Nirvana Tower.

As the descendant of this elder, the royal family of the Eternal Empire cultivated the Nirvana Ceremony, the core book of the Nirvana Tower. They had definitely mastered the upper and middle parts of the Nirvana Ceremony. Zhu Wuwan's goal in the Eternal Empire was to cultivate the upper and middle parts of the Nirvana Ceremony, especially the Nirvana Arts, Nirvana Scriptures, and Nirvana Arts.

However, as the core treasure of the Nirvana Tower, every Nirvana Tower cultivator who cultivated the Nirvana Ceremony had sworn an oath to the Heavenly Dao. Moreover, there were restrictions on their divine souls. In order to bypass the restrictions and obtain the upper and middle parts of the Nirvana Ceremony, Zhu Wuwan still needed to use some special methods, but it was not too difficult.

As for breaking the restriction, it was at least the work of a Human Immortal who was going through the tribulation. Zhu Wuwan couldn't do it now unless he advanced to a quasi-immortal above the Mahayana realm.

After considering his next plan, Zhu Wuwan specially cultivated a scouting spiritual cultivation technique. This spiritual cultivation technique was called the Song of No Escape and No Mistakes. As the name suggested, there was no place to hide and no mistakes. Its scouting power was ranked among the top in the world, but its attack power and defense power were relatively weak.

This was a spiritual mystic technique that Zhu Wanhao had obtained from the Mind Control Sect. The spiritual power cultivated had excellent detection effects, and the accompanying secret technique, Nowhere to Hide, had the potential to grow. It could improve as the cultivator's spiritual power improved.

Even if he did not cultivate the Song of No Escape and No Mistake, Zhu Wuyang could still use the Nowhere to Hide Secret Technique, but the effect would be much weaker.

"Thank you for saving my life, Head Shopkeeper."

After gaining a preliminary understanding of this place, Zhu Wuwan specially went to thank Tang Yelan, the head shopkeeper of the Tang Trading Company. If Tang Yelan had not saved her this time, Zhu Wuwan would most likely have been finished. Naturally, she had to remember the kindness of saving her life.

Tang Yelan's appearance was extremely beautiful. Even in the cultivation world where beauties were as common as clouds, she could be said to be at the top. She could almost catch up to the Sacred Maiden of the Heart Control Sect's Bright Moon Clan.

His small bun face was exquisite and flawless. His black hair was like clouds falling down. His temperament was a little fierce. His strength had already reached the late stage of the Qi Refinement realm. It was already not bad to have such strength in his early twenties.

Tang Yelan was slightly taken aback when he saw the shockingly handsome Zhu Wuyang. Although he knew that Zhu Wuyang was good-looking and had seen her face when he was saving people, Zhu Wuyang had been seriously injured at that time and there were many bloodstains on her face. She was not as handsome as she was now.

After sensing Zhu Wuyang's strength, he realized that she was indeed just a mortal and did not hide anything. Perfected Feng, who was overseeing the convoy, had also confirmed this matter.

Tang Yelan's lips curled into a smile. "" Your name is Zhu Wuwan, right? That's a pretty good name. I wonder what your plans are for the future? "

" I've been following the merchant group to study all these years. Now that the merchant group is in trouble, my money has been robbed. Therefore, I'm prepared to follow the merchant group to the Yinqing Imperial Capital to study and find a job at the same time. " Zhu Wuwan smiled as she made up a story. There were many such incidents in the Eternal Empire, and Zhu Wuwan wasn't worried that she would be exposed.

In this extraordinary world that had Qi Practitioners, as long as one had enough power, they would not be afraid of any conspiracy. Therefore, Tang Yelan did not really care about Zhu Wuwan's background.

When he heard that Zhu Wuwan was going to the Yinqing Imperial Capital as well, Tang Yelan looked at his peerless face and smiled. ""Since you want to find a job, why don't you stay in our Tang Trading Company for the time being? We happen to be lacking a few accountant apprentices. Since you're educated, you should know how to do accounts, right?"

"Thank you, Head Shopkeeper Tang. It's not difficult for me to handle accounts, so I won't disappoint you." Zhu Wuyang said with a smile.

Tang Yelan nodded. " I'll get Shopkeeper Wang to teach you properly later. You can just learn from her for now. "

"Alright." Zhu Wuwan nodded and quickly returned to the carriage.

Tang Yelan had asked his men to prepare the carriage specifically for his recuperation. Although it was a little small, it was better than most of the people's residences in the caravan.

Now that he had become a member of the merchant group, he had achieved Zhu Wuyan's goal. He could follow the Tang Trading Company to the Evergreen Imperial Capital. On one hand, he had an identity to hide, and on the other hand, he could find an opportunity to repay the favor of saving his life.

Recovering one's strength was not something that could be done in a day. Zhu Wuwan also had to be prepared to fight a protracted battle. The Evergreen Imperial Capital was his first stop.

At the very least, he had to obtain the upper and middle parts of the Nirvana Ceremony there and then increase his strength a little.

Chapter 734: Seven Heroes (1)

The Tang Trading Company's accountant was called Wang Xinjing. She used to be Tang Yelan's personal maid and had grown up with her since young. It could be said that she was a trusted aide that Tang Yelan had personally groomed.

Following Tang Yelan's ascension to the position of the Tang Trading Company's Head Shopkeeper, Wang Xinjing also rose along with the tide and became one of the most important shopkeepers in the Tang Trading Company, the accountant.

Wang Xinjing was extremely beautiful. Although she could not compare to Tang Yelan, she could still be considered a national beauty. She looked gentle and gentle, but she was quite capable.

Zhu Wuwan had just rested for a while when Wang Xinjing asked the servant girl to call him. She followed the servant girl to Wang Xinjing's carriage and Wang Xinjing placed a stack of account books in front of him. "I'm fine. Take a look at these account books first, then try to organize them and see how much you can organize."

"Alright." Zhu Wanhao nodded. She knew that this was a small test given by Wang Xinjing to see how capable he was and whether he was suitable for the work of the accountant.

Zhu Wuwan flipped through the account book and felt that it was extremely simple. However, it still took a little time before she managed to sort out all the account books.

Seeing that Zhu Wuyang had sorted out a few accounts so quickly, Wang Xinjing took them in surprise. "Let me see how you did."

After carefully flipping through it, Wang Xinjing became more and more surprised. After sorting out the account book, it was in good order without the slightest mistake. It was almost as good as hers.

It only took a little more time, but it should be because she did less, so her proficiency was not enough. When her proficiency increased, Zhu Wuyang's strength would probably not be inferior to hers.

Wang Xinjing was very satisfied. " Good, good, good. Have you done this kind of work before? How did you organize it so well? "

"When I was studying with the caravan, I would occasionally help the caravan sort out some accounts and exchange them for some loose silver." Zhu Wuyang explained with a smile.

Wang Xinjing suddenly understood. " I see. Since you have experience in this area and your ability is not bad, you will be my accountant apprentice in the future. After you familiarize yourself with it for a period of time, I will let you be a small shopkeeper. "

In the Tang Trading Company, the Head Shopkeeper was in charge of everything and was also the owner of the Tang Trading Company.

Below the head shopkeeper were the shopkeepers who were responsible for all kinds of important matters. For example, the accountant was in charge of accounting matters, the silk shopkeeper was in charge of the quality of silk, and the Jinxiu shopkeeper was in charge of the sale of clothes.

These people belonged to the head shopkeepers, and there were several small shopkeepers under each head shopkeeper. They were equivalent to the head shopkeeper's assistants, or vice shopkeepers. Their status was also quite high, so Wang Xinjing's promise was quite good, at least compared to Zhu Wuyang's current disguise.

To Zhu Wanhao, the daily accounting matters couldn't be any simpler. She only needed to take some time out every day to deal with them in an orderly manner. The rest of the time could be used to comprehend and fuse the Heaven and Earth immortal martial arts, the secret arts of heaven and earth, the spiritual spells of heaven and earth, and so on.

Although he could not use these Heaven and Earth Immortal Martial Arts and Secret Techniques of Heaven and Earth now, with Zhu Wuyang's current improvement speed, it would not take long for him to recover enough strength to use these Heaven and Earth Immortal Martial Arts and Secret Techniques of Heaven and Earth.

After raising his Qi Refinement cultivation to the peak of the Golden Core realm, Zhu Wuwan did not undergo body refinement. He was also prepared to obtain the body refinement immortal technique from Nirvana Tower. As the publicly acknowledged number one immortal sect in Dongyuan Continent, other than the Nirvana Ceremony, Nirvana Tower's body refinement technique was also the best in Dongyuan Continent. After arriving at the Evergreen Imperial Capital, Zhu Wuwan was prepared to try to obtain a stronger body refinement immortal technique.

There was no word along the way. The caravan walked very carefully. Out of curiosity, Zhu Wuwan secretly checked and found that the goods the caravan was transporting were actually thousand-year-old Ice Silk. There were hundreds of carts, worth more than ten million low-grade spirit stones.

This was not a small sum for the entire Tang Trading Company. No wonder they were so careful.

Although they were extremely cautious and tried their best to block the news, the caravan was still intercepted by bandits when they reached the Wolf Claw Forest.

Looking at the seven cultivators above the Foundation Establishment stage hovering in the air in front of them, the leader of which was surprisingly an early-stage Golden Core Perfected Being, the expressions of the people of the Tang Trading Company became solemn.

Zhu Wuwan's spiritual sense vaguely fluctuated. She discovered that the weakest of the seven cultivators was a late-stage Foundation Establishment cultivator. Their bodies were stained with a dense bloody aura. Clearly, they had killed many people. With the current strength of the caravan, it would be difficult to win.

"Cut the crap. Leave the things behind and you can leave!" After stopping the caravan, the leader of the group, an early-stage Golden Core, said bluntly, "If not, then don't blame us for being ruthless."

Tang Yelan walked out of the carriage with a skinny old man beside him. "Wolf Claw Seven, our Tang Trading Company has a gambling contest every year, right? Isn't everyone breaking the rules by doing this?"

"Although there's a fee, we can't do anything about it because the price is too high." The leader of the group, an early-stage Golden Core, sneered. "If it weren't for the commission fee, we wouldn't have said any nonsense today. Instead, we would have directly killed them. Head Shopkeeper Tang, you're a smart man and won't do anything stupid. It's better to leave something behind to save your life."

Tang Yelan's elegant brows furrowed slightly. "Reverend Wang, this item concerns the life and death of our Tang Trading Company. Once it's lost, no one in our Tang Trading Company will be able to bear this responsibility. Furthermore, this item is wanted by a big shot in the Imperial Family. I hope that Reverend Wang can make an exception this time. We are willing to increase this year's commission by three times."

"Are you threatening us, the Wolf Claw Seven Heroes?" Perfected Wang sneered.

Tang Yelan replied, "I wouldn't dare. I'm just stating the facts. Compared to that important figure of the royal family, we are nothing. I hope that Daoist Master Wang won't be deceived by a villain and offend the important figure of the royal family." The Bai Trading Company is too aggressive, and something will happen sooner or later. I think that Immortal Wang should not fall into their scheme."

"We don't need to know what the Bai Clan Trading Company is like. We're just asking if you'll move aside today?" Perfected Wang waved his hand and said impatiently.

Seeing that the Seven Wolf Claw Heroes were determined to snatch the goods, Tang Yelan did not waste any time, "Then let's start the war!"

"Boom..."

The two sides no longer hesitated. The cultivators of the Tang Trading Company immediately formed a formation to protect the goods. The Seven Wolf-Claw Warriors charged over with a whistling sound. At the same time, they shot out a large number of arrows from the surrounding bushes. Groups of low-level cultivators and martial arts experts rushed out with the arrows.

The moment the two sides came into contact, a fierce battle broke out. No one showed any mercy. The leader of the Seven Wolfclaw Heroes, Daoist Master Wang, also made his move at once, but he was stopped by a thin old man beside Tang Yelan. This man was an early Gold Core Daoist Master who was hiding in the caravan. The two of them started fighting nearby.

Chapter 735: Yinqing Imperial Capital (1)

Zhu Wuyang was pulled by Wang Xinjing to hide in the middle of the caravan. This place was filled with powerless mortals.

Wang Xinjing did not have any talent in cultivation, nor did she have any talent in martial arts. For more than twenty years, her strength was average, and she could only be classified as an ordinary person.

Zhu Wuan stood beside Wang Xinjing and looked at the chaotic battlefield. His expression was as calm as water, and he secretly wondered when it was the right time to make a move.

Of course, he had to hide himself when he attacked. Zhu Wuyang didn't want to be exposed now.

As an expert in combat, Zhu Wuyang could already tell that the Tang Trading Company would definitely lose the moment the battle began. There was no chance of victory.

This was because Feng Changjie, who was guarding the Tang Trading Company, was about two levels weaker than the Wolf King of the Wolf Claw Seven, Reverend Long. In this situation, there was basically no possibility of winning.

The decisive factor in this battle was the battle between Feng Chang Jie and Wang Long. As long as the two of them won, it meant that the battle was over.

Although they were both in the early stage of the Golden Elixir realm, Wang Long was better than Feng Changjie in both spiritual weapons and spells.

Looking at Feng Changjie who was at a disadvantage from the beginning, Zhu Wuyang considered for a moment. He didn't wait until the caravan was about to collapse and act as a savior. He directly attacked quietly.

"Dragon Tiger Qi Breaking Needle!"

With a slight movement of his right hand, a transparent spell shot out and hit the Wolf King Dragon without anyone noticing.

"Ah..."

Wang Long, who was about to launch a secret technique to attack Feng Chang Jie, felt a pain in his body. The Dan Qi in his body dissipated instantly. Before he could react to what had happened, his middle Dantian was penetrated and the Dan Qi in his body poured out like water.

"Who is ambushing me?"

Wang Long shouted in shock and anger. He was about to turn around and escape when Feng Chang Jie took the opportunity to cut off his head.

Seeing that the Wolf King Dragon was dead, the surrounding Wolf Claw Forest bandits turned pale with fright. They could not care less about fighting anymore and turned to flee into the depths of the forest.

"Run! The alpha is dead! We can't win! "

"That shouldn't be the case. The boss is so strong, how could he not be able to deal with that old bastard Feng Chang Jie?"

"There's something strange going on. Everyone, stop fighting."

"The wind is tight!"

belongings. Against such an unfathomable expert, the entire caravan combined is no match for him. ”

“That’s right. This is a blessing in disguise.” Feng Chang Jie nodded.

After cleaning up the mess, the caravan set off again. However, Zhu Wuwan, who had hidden his identity, could notice that there were some people observing the caravan in secret. They were obviously looking for him, the person who had saved the caravan.

However, with Zhu Wuan’s strength, how could these people discover him? He focused on comprehending and fusing various ancient books and cultivation techniques, and occasionally dealt with accounting matters. His days were peaceful and leisurely.

The following journey was much more peaceful. There were basically no bandits blocking the way. The merchant group successfully crossed the distance of tens of thousands of kilometers and arrived at the Evergreen Imperial Capital.

What greeted his eyes was a giant city that was one-tenth the size of the Earth. It was surrounded by high-grade Spiritual Arrays. The Heaven and Earth Spiritual Energy was extremely dense, not inferior to the Myriad Poison Mountain in the slightest.

One had to know that this was only one of the Immortal Kingdoms that Nirvana Tower ruled. The Heaven and Earth spiritual energy in the capital was already so dense. One could imagine how dense the Heaven and Earth spiritual energy in the important resource treasure land and headquarters of Nirvana Tower was.

The Central Plains was indeed the Central Plains. The concentration of Spiritual Qi was several times higher than that of the Southern Wasteland. No wonder it could become the center of the Immortal Cultivation World. There was no other region in the Dongyuan Continent that was more prosperous than the Central Plains.

The Tang Trading Company’s headquarters was located in the southern part of the Yinqing Imperial Capital. It was a commercial area and could be said to be quite prosperous.

As the Tang Trading Company, which had a Golden Core overseeing it, it was considered a medium-sized force here. It owned dozens of shops and had a total asset of hundreds of billions of low-grade spirit stones.

After transporting the goods to the employer’s warehouse, the group returned to the Tang family. Although Zhu Wuwan had been promoted to the small shopkeeper of the accounting room, she still did not have the right to live in the Tang residence. The people living in the Tang residence were basically the Tang family’s people, so Zhu Wuwan was arranged to live in the upper house very close to the Tang residence.

The Tang family's apprentices and employees were generally divided into three levels. The lowest level was in the lower house, followed by the middle house, and some of the middle and upper levels of the Tang family's trading company were arranged in the upper house.

As for Zhu Wuan's direct superior, Shopkeeper Wang Xinjing, she lived in the Tang Residence, which was also Tang Yelan's courtyard. It was Wang Xinjing's special care that allowed her to be placed in the upper house.

Under normal circumstances, with Zhu Wuyan's current status, he would usually be arranged to be in the middle court. However, thanks to Wang Xinjing's favor and Zhu Wuyan's outstanding ability, he was arranged to be in the upper house.

Even though Zhu Wuyang didn't care about this!

Chapter 736: The World's Number One Inheritance (1)

Zhu Wuan's new residence was a small courtyard of about two hundred square meters. The spiritual energy of heaven and earth was quite abundant, comparable to some ordinary places in the Thousand Poison Mountain.

Whether it was cultivating the immortal path or martial path here, the effects were quite good.

After casually packing up, Zhu Wuwan left the upper house to inquire about the information she wanted.

What Zhu Wuyang asked about was some relatively public information, so it wasn't difficult.

The ruler of the Eternal Empire was the Zhao family, and the biggest backer behind it was the late Dacheng stage Quasi-Immortal Zhao Yinqing of the Nirvana Building, so the Eternal Empire was named the Yinqing Empire.

This name was also a way to tell others that the protector of the Yinqing Imperial Capital was Zhao Yinqing, and to make those evil devils and heretics stop having any ideas about the Yinqing Imperial Capital and the Eternal Empire.

As Zhao Yinqing's descendant, the Zhao Clan had a supreme status in the Eternal Empire. Any slightly outstanding descendant of the Zhao Clan was basically qualified to cultivate the Nirvana Grand Ceremony, the core technique of the Nirvana Tower.

The Nirvana Ceremony was known as the number one treasure book in the Dongyuan Continent. It was also the most powerful inheritance of the Way of Celestial Immortality.

It was mainly divided into three parts, namely, the Nirvana Technique, the Nirvana Sutra, and the Nirvana Technique.

The name sounded a little ordinary, but its power was beyond imagination.

As the name suggested, the Nirvana Technique was a Qi Refinement technique that could be cultivated from the Qi Refinement Stage to the Crossing Calamity Stage, directly leading to the path of True Immortality.

The recovery speed of the Nirvana Qi cultivated through the Nirvana Technique was shocking. It had a powerful healing effect. Although its power was not the best, it could still be ranked in the top ten in Dongyuan Continent.

The Nirvana Technique also vividly demonstrated what it meant to have hope wherever there was life. In a battle of the same level, one could often rely on their super recovery ability to win. Even if they were heavily injured at the beginning, as long as they persisted, they could quickly drag the battle until the enemy was even more seriously injured.

The Nirvana Scripture was a spiritual cultivation technique that complemented the Nirvana Technique. It could also be cultivated from the meditational stage to the tribulation passing stage.

The mental power cultivated by the Nirvana Sutra also had amazing recovery and healing abilities. It was not easy to destroy.

The combination of the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra allowed the cultivator to have an endless recovery ability and a super strong healing ability. In other words, the endurance was amazing, and it had its own healing effect.

As long as they didn't kill the Nirvana Building cultivators in one go, they would lose to the enemy.

With the help of the Nirvana Arts and the Nirvana Sutra, the Nirvana Building's Qi Refining legacy was known as the number one legacy in the Dongyuan Continent. It was far superior to the Heart Controlling Sect's Heart Controlling Sutra legacy.

Even the inheritance of the ninety-nine mountain ranges of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect was far inferior to the Nirvana Tower's inheritance. Only the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique could be compared to it. However, the difficulty of cultivating the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique was more than a hundred times that of the Nirvana Art and the Nirvana Sutra.

The most frightening thing was that there was a Nirvana Technique in the Nirvana Ceremony. This was a secret technique that had not been registered. It could be said to be a low-level secret technique, but it could also be said to be the peak secret technique of heaven and earth.

The Nirvana Art was divided into nine levels, and one could cultivate one level in each major realm. Once one successfully cultivated it, the Genuine Qi and mental power in one's body would undergo a transformation, and their power would increase tremendously.

This increase was mainly reflected in the recovery speed and healing ability. As for the increase in power, it was slightly worse. However, as long as the number of nirvana was sufficient, its power would also be increased to the highest level.

The most terrifying thing was that during the process of nirvana, the cultivator's physical fitness would also undergo a transformation. Every nirvana was a transformation. After nine transformations, the cultivator's physical fitness would reach the same level as the cultivation of Qi Refinement.

This was a bug-like ability. The only flaw was that it was too difficult to cultivate.

The difficulty of the first three levels of the Nirvana Art alone was comparable to the difficulty of the Thousand Poison Art. The difficulty of the middle three levels of the Nirvana Art was not inferior to the difficulty of the Ten Thousand Poison True Art. The difficulty of the last three levels of the Nirvana Art was far greater than the difficulty of the Ten Thousand Poison True Art.

It was said that in Nirvana Tower, the most powerful cultivator since ancient times had only cultivated the Nirvana Art to the sixth level. There had never been a person who could cultivate the Nirvana Art to the seventh level or above.

However, this was nothing to Zhu Wuwan. As long as she had enough breakthrough stones, she could easily break through the supreme ninth level, let alone the seventh level.

The Nirvana Technique, the Nirvana Sutra, and the Nirvana Art were also the core of the Nirvana Ceremony. The three could be said to be a trinity. They were all divided into upper, middle, and lower levels, corresponding to the cultivation of different realms.

The upper part corresponded to the Qi Condensation Stage to the Golden Core Stage, the middle part corresponded to the Nascent Soul Stage to the Void Training Stage, and the lower part corresponded to the Form Synthesis Stage to the Crossing Calamity Stage.

It was completely straight to the immortal path and could be said to be the number one in the world!

The Nirvana Grand Ceremony played an extremely important role in Nirvana Tower's long-term prosperity in the Central Plains and its ranking as the number one immortal sect for hundreds of thousands of years.

To put it bluntly, without the Nirvana Ceremony, there would basically be no number one immortal sect in the Dongyuan Continent.

However, what made Zhu Wanhao helpless was that according to the information he had gathered, every Nirvana Tower cultivator who cultivated in the Nirvana Ceremony had to swear a strict oath to ensure that the Nirvana Ceremony would not be spread.

Moreover, when they were cultivating the Nirvana Ceremony through the jade slips, the Human Immortals of Nirvana Tower would tamper with the jade slips one by one. Once they wanted to spread it, they would immediately act up.

Therefore, Zhu Wanhao could not obtain the Nirvana Ceremony through threats. The inheritance jade slip was also connected to the soul, and only those who were compatible with it could cultivate it.

It was precisely because of this strict inheritance system that the Nirvana Tower's inheritance was rarely spread out. Even if there were occasional outsiders, they would be quickly killed by the Nirvana Tower's experts.

The Nirvana Tower's protection of their own inheritance was terrifying. After so many years, there had basically been no Nirvana Ceremony that was spread outside.

If a Nirvana Tower cultivator wanted to leave the Nirvana Tower, the lightest punishment would be to have their cultivation methods destroyed and their memories wiped away. In the worst case, they would be killed so that they could not leak their inheritance.

After learning about Nirvana Tower's Heritage Capital, Zhu Wuyang was also surprised. However, this did not mean that he had no other way. Zhu Wuyang had already made preparations before this.

With the help of the prepared methods, although it might take some time, he should be able to obtain the inheritance of the Nirvana Ceremony of the Nirvana Tower.

However, what made Zhu Wanhao helpless was that the inheritance of the Nirvana Ceremony was divided into three parts. It would take a lot of time to obtain the complete inheritance. Fortunately, there were still a few decades left, which should be enough for him to obtain the complete inheritance of the Nirvana Tower

Chapter 737: Nirvana (1)

After some investigation, Zhu Wuwan found out that the youngest daughter of the Xianghe Commandery Prince of the Eternal Empire was extremely talented. She had just received the Nirvana Ceremony, the core inheritance of the Nirvana Tower, and was currently cultivating.

After learning of this news, Zhu Wuyang chose a dark and windy night to sneak into the heavily guarded Xianghe Prince's Mansion.

As a king of the Eternal Empire, even though he didn't have any real power, he had set up a mid-grade supreme-grade spiritual array around his residence. It could stop the invasion of peak Nascent Soul old monsters and even Soul Formation cultivators for a period of time.

The Xianghe Commandery Prince was also an old monster in the peak Yuanying stage. His strength was far greater than Zhu Wuwan's. However, Zhu Wuwan was not afraid of him. Although he could not defeat the Xianghe Commandery Prince with his own strength, Zhu Wuwan still had many talismans and magic weapons.

It was a pity that the Invisible Curse, Mei Yangyang, belonged to Zhu Wuyan's Life's Origin Curse and was closely connected to Zhu Wuyan's Myriad Poison Nascent Soul. Therefore, after the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul was sealed, the Invisible Curse, Mei Yangyang, was also sealed deep inside Zhu Wuyan's body. Even Zhu Wuyan could not detect her current situation. He could only vaguely feel that she was very safe now. However, without the breakthrough stone lollipop and the cartoon, Mei Yangyang must be very lonely and cold.

Moreover, without the help of Pretty Goat, the difficulty of Zhu Wuyan's Stealth had increased a lot. It required more time and energy.

Only after losing it would one know how to cherish it. If the difficulty of sneaking into the various Spiritual Array Groups with the help of the beautiful sheep was 1, then the difficulty had soared to at least 10. The difference was about ten times. Moreover, many of the more powerful Spiritual Array Groups would take Zhu Wuyang decades or even thousands of years to crack, but this did not include the defensive Spiritual Array Group of Xianghe Prince's Mansion.

Silently sneaking into the Prince's Mansion of Xianghe County, Zhu Wuwan searched for the whereabouts of the young princess. This mansion was quite big, covering hundreds of thousands of square meters. There were many Foundation Establishment Cultivators and Golden Cores patrolling around it.

It took Zhu Wuan an hour to find the cultivation chamber of the young princess, Zhao Lingyu, and he hid beside her.

Zhao Lingyu was only about ten years old. Her small face was exquisite and cute. She sat cross-legged in the secret room and was cultivating Nirvana Technique. She did not notice Zhu Wuyang nearby at all.

Zhu Wanhao activated the power of spiritual sense cultivated from the high-level Heaven and Earth cultivation technique, the Song of No Escape and No Mistake. Together with the Nowhere to Hide secret technique that he had already cultivated to perfection, he probed Zhao Lingyu. Soon, all the details of Zhao Lingyu's body appeared in front of Zhu Wanhao.

At this moment, Zhao Lingyu was cultivating the first level of the Nirvana Technique, which corresponded to the Qi Refinement Stage cultivators. Zhu Wuwan only took a look at it once and firmly remembered it in her heart, which was equivalent to mastering the first level of the Nirvana Technique.

Source: , updated on ovGo.co

Then, Zhu Wanhao continued to check. When he had no more doubts about the first level, Zhao Lingyu began to cultivate the first level of the Nirvana Sutra. The cultivation of Nirvana Technique and Nirvana Sutra had to be carried out simultaneously, so Zhu Wanhao deliberately waited. As expected, after cultivating the Nirvana Technique, Zhao Lingyu began to cultivate the Nirvana Sutra.

The Nirvana Scripture was naturally also the first level. Zhu Wuwan quickly memorized the circulation method of the Nirvana Scripture and made it his own.

He looked at his attribute panel. The Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra were on it. They were currently in a state of not being mastered. He only needed to spend some breakthrough stones to be able to master them all and reach the perfection of the first level.

After watching the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra, Zhu Wuyang waited for a while. When he found that Zhao Lingyu had no intention of cultivating the Nirvana Technique, he left.

Thinking about it, this was normal. The difficulty of Nirvana was shocking. It was not necessary to cultivate it together with Nirvana Arts and Nirvana Sutra. Zhao Lingyu would probably only try it occasionally and not practice it often.

However, Zhao Lingyu didn't cultivate because it was too difficult. With her talent, it was very difficult for her to cultivate successfully. However, for Zhu Wuyang, as long as she had enough breakthrough stones, she could cultivate and break through at any time.

Therefore, Zhu Wuhao would often observe Zhao Lingyu in the future. When she cultivated the Nirvana Technique, she would remember the cultivation method of the Nirvana Technique.

To be honest, with the complexity of the Nirvana Ceremony, even if it was only the initial stage, it was not something that others could understand by observing the operation method. Otherwise, the Nirvana Ceremony would have already spread like wildfire.

However, Zhu Wuyang was well-read and the books he comprehended were beyond the imagination of ordinary people. In addition, he was born sacred. No matter how complicated the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra were, and even if there were some subtle differences in their operation, Zhu Wuyang was still able to deduce them. From there, he discovered the trap and found the correct way to operate it.

If it were any other cultivator in Dongyuan Continent, they would not be able to do what Zhu Wanyou did. Even if they could clearly see the process and route of Zhao Lingyu's cultivation method, it would be difficult for them to calculate the complete Nirvana Technique and the first level of the Nirvana Sutra.

Zhu Wuan was the first case in the Dongyuan Continent. There had never been such a person in the Dongyuan Continent before.

After comprehending the first level of the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra, Zhu Wuwan left the secret room of the young princess and went to the next place to observe a royal disciple who had cultivated the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra to the second level.

In the following half a month, Zhu Wuyang used this method to calculate the first three levels of the Nirvana Sutra and the Nirvana Technique without any mistakes. He even took advantage of the time when a certain royal disciple was trying to cultivate the Nirvana Technique to calculate the first level of the Nirvana Technique.

To be honest, the first three levels of the Nirvana Art and the Nirvana Sutra were not useful to Zhu Wuwan. After all, the foundation establishment technique he used before he reached the Nascent Soul Stage was the world's number one immortal technique, the Jade Book of Dao Beginning.

However, if one could not master the first three levels of the Nirvana Ceremony, it would have a great impact on the later cultivation, especially the Nirvana Technique, which required one to cultivate from scratch.

After mastering the first three levels of the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra, Zhu Wuyang would integrate them into the cultivation of the Jade Book of Dao Beginning. Then, he could naturally transform them into the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony and cultivate the Nirvana Nascent Soul and Nirvana Spiritual Sense.

After cultivating it, Zhu Wanhao discovered that the Primordial Dao Golden Pill could be easily transformed into the Nirvana Golden Pill. Moreover, it had some of the effects of the Primordial Dao Golden Pill. Clearly, even the Nirvana Technique had borrowed many of the advantages of the Primordial Dao Jade Book.

The Song of No Escape and No Mistake had also been converted into the Nirvana Scripture by Zhu Wuyan. Compared to the Nirvana Spiritual Sense cultivated by the Nirvana Scripture, the Spiritual Sense cultivated by the Song of No Escape and No Mistake was much weaker.

No matter if it was in terms of density or purity, the song was far inferior, especially in the recovery and healing aspects that the Nirvana Sutra was good at.

Moreover, after Zhu Wuyan's fusion and improvement, Zhu Wuyan could still use the Nowhere to Hide Secret Technique. However, the effect would be slightly weaker. However, compared to the benefits brought by the Nirvana Scripture, this shortcoming was not worth mentioning.

Chapter 738: Trinity (1)

With the Jade Book of Dao Beginning as the foundation, not only did Zhu Wuyan's strength not decrease after changing her cultivation to Nirvana, but it also improved further and reached the peak of the Golden Core Stage.

Even his spiritual sense had been transformed into Nirvana spiritual sense, which had also reached the peak of the Golden Core stage. Then, it was time to break through the Golden Core stage and advance to the Nascent Soul stage.

The Xianghe Commandery Prince's strength was in the Original Infant Stage, and he often cultivated the Nirvana Arts and Nirvana Sutra in seclusion. Zhu Wuwan sneaked into the secret room of the Xianghe Commandery Prince when he was in seclusion.

Although Xianghe Commandery Prince's cultivation realm was higher than Zhu Wuyan's, he still couldn't find Zhu Wuyan, who was hiding himself with the help of the spiritual arrays around the secret chamber. By the time Xianghe Commandery Prince finished his closed-door cultivation, Zhu Wuyan had already completely comprehended the fourth level of Nirvana Skill and Nirvana Sutra. Then, Zhu Wuyan could break through the shackles and advance to the Yuanying Stage.

Zhu Wuwan didn't wait long and immediately returned to the Tang Clan's upper house to begin charging into the Nascent Soul Stage.

As the surging Breakthrough Stone poured into his body, Zhu Wuwan's strength increased at an extremely fast speed. With his previous experience, Zhu Wuwan spent a little effort and successfully broke through the bottleneck and stepped into the early-stage Nascent Soul realm.

Feeling the energetic Nirvana Nascent Soul and Nirvana Spiritual Sense in his body, Zhu Wuwan nodded in satisfaction. Compared to the Upper Nirvana Ceremony, the power of Nirvana cultivated in the Middle Nirvana Ceremony soared and was not inferior to the Power of Ten Thousand Poisons.

Although he had just stepped into the early-stage Nascent Soul realm, the Nirvana Nascent Soul and Nirvana Spiritual Sense in Zhu Wuyang's body were comparable to that of an ordinary late-stage Nascent Soul cultivator. Their power was also superior. In addition, Zhu Wuyang had mastered various immortal martial arts and secret techniques, so he was invincible among Nascent Soul cultivators.

After getting used to the sudden increase in strength, Zhu Wuwan did not give up. Seeing that it was still early, she began to cultivate the first level of the Nirvana Technique.

As the name suggested, the Nirvana Technique was a secret technique to achieve nirvana. This nirvana was not only reflected in the Nascent Soul and spiritual sense, but also in the body.

As the Breakthrough Stone poured in, Zhu Wuyan's Nirvana Technique began to improve at an astonishing speed. At the same time, Zhu Wuyan was also cultivating.

As the Nirvana Technique circulated and improved, the Nascent Soul, Spiritual Sense, and flesh in Zhu Wuyan's body ... It gradually burned, and the green flames that symbolized life enveloped it.

Source: , updated on ovGo.๐๐

Zhu Wuyang's entire body was wrapped in this green flame. His body, Nascent Soul, and spiritual sense were burned bit by bit, and then reborn in the green flame.

Zhu Wuwan felt intense pain coming from all over her body, but this pain was really nothing compared to the pain she had experienced before.

This was only the first level of the Nirvana Technique. If Zhu Wuyang could not even survive the first level of the Nirvana Technique, then it would be too ridiculous.

A reborn body, Nascent Soul, Spiritual Sense ... He had obtained a huge improvement, especially Zhu Wuwan's body. Originally, the toughness of her body was only equivalent to that of an early-stage Foundation Establishment cultivator. Now, it had jumped to the level of an early-stage Golden Core cultivator. It had soared by a whole realm, which shocked Zhu Wuwan.

This was only the first level of the Nirvana Technique, which corresponded to a Qi Condensation cultivator. However, if it could bring him such great benefits after success, then what about the rest? It was indeed worthy of being the number one secret skill of the Nirvana Tower, and also one of the strongest secret skills known in the Dongyuan Continent.

However, the reason why there was such a huge improvement was also because Zhu Wuwan's physical foundation was relatively weak at the moment. Therefore, the improvement seemed to be huge during the first Nirvana. It was slowly impossible to obtain an entire major realm's improvement later on.

After experiencing the power of the Nirvana Ceremony, Zhu Wuwan became more and more eager for this treasured book that was known as the world's number one immortal inheritance. He was prepared to spend more time on this aspect in the future. At the very least, he had to get the middle part of the Nirvana Ceremony over.

As for the Art of Nirvana, it was said that in the Eternal Empire, there was only one old king who had cultivated it to the third level. No one had cultivated it to the fourth level or higher.

Under such circumstances, even if Zhu Wuyan wanted to cultivate the middle part of the Nirvana Technique, he couldn't do anything about it. However, Zhu Wuyan could think of a way to obtain the inheritance jade slip of the middle part of the Nirvana Ceremony and see if he could unlock the inheritance jade slip. Once he could unlock it, Zhu Wuyan would be able to obtain the middle part of the Nirvana Technique.

After getting used to the sudden increase in strength, in the next few days, Zhu Wuwan would spend breakthrough stones every day to increase her cultivation realm and advance steadily.

Ten days later, Zhu Wuwan's cultivation had already reached the peak of the Nascent Soul Stage. She was only half a step away from the Soul Formation Stage. However, before that, she still needed to obtain the fifth level of the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra.

By the way, the Nirvana Sutra had also been cultivated to the limit of the fourth level by Zhu Wuwan. At the same time, it was also the limit of the Nascent Soul Stage. Next, it was time to break through the limit and advance to the ranks of the Soul Formation Stage cultivators.

With the help of the Breakthrough Stone and the Special Encounter System, the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes were not a forbidden restriction for Zhu Wuyang. Let alone 500 years, Zhu Wuyang was confident that he could break it in a few decades.

That morning, Zhu Wuwan finished handling the matters in the accounting room and prepared to investigate which members of the royal family had cultivated the Nirvana Technique and Nirvana Sutra to the fifth level.

However, before the investigation began, Zhu Wuwan still needed to deliver an important account book to Tang Yelan of the Tang Residence. Zhu Wuwan walked toward the Tang Residence along the way.

The Tang Manor was very close to the upper house, only about a mile away. When he arrived at the Tang Manor, he reported his intentions and the gatekeeper immediately let him in. He also told Zhu Wuyang where Tang Yelan lived.

The accounting department was a simple matter for Zhu Wuwan. She only needed to spend a little time every day to settle it. Therefore, Zhu Wuwan didn't think of leaving the Tang family. She planned to use this identity as a cover to study hard in the Eternal Empire and get what she wanted.

Tang Yelan lived in the backyard of the Tang Residence. This was also the most heavily guarded place in the Tang Residence. It was surrounded by a group of intermediate and low-grade spiritual arrays. Even an ordinary Nascent Soul Stage old monster would need to spend a lot of time and effort to break through it. It would be difficult for even an Aurous Core Stage Daoist Master to break into this place.

After entering the front courtyard, a corresponding servant girl led him in with an array passage talisman. When he entered the middle courtyard from the front courtyard, another servant girl led the way.

When they arrived at the backyard, a third servant girl naturally led the way. The servant girls in the front, middle, and backyard held different array formation passes, so they had to go through at least three checkpoints to enter the backyard. The defense was also quite tight.

Although the spiritual arrays here were no different from clay chickens and pottery dogs in Zhu Wuyang's eyes, they were already very terrifying in the eyes of ordinary people.

However, as soon as they entered the backyard, Zhu Wuwan's expression changed!

Chapter 739: False Shock (1)

In Zhu Wuan's opinion, one person was enough for transmigration. Otherwise, it would be too unsafe.

That was why he hated reading novels about wearing extra clothes when he was on Earth. As long as he saw the label of wearing extra clothes, he basically wouldn't even read it.

After all, if the things he did in the Southern Wasteland were to spread to another transmigrator, they would definitely see through it. Who knew what would happen?

Moreover, this was not conducive to acting cool. They did not dare to copy some of Earth's ancient books and culture, or else they would easily fall into an awkward situation.

However, just as she followed the servant girl into the backyard of the Tang Manor, Zhu Wuwan heard someone reciting in a crisp voice, “Looking around, it’s cold and desolate...”

Zhu Wuwan’s expression changed drastically. She looked in the direction of the voice and realized that the person reciting the poem was a beautiful young lady who looked similar to Tang Yelan. She wore a moon-white dress and had the temperament of an artistic youth from Earth. She was reciting loudly.

A murderous intent flashed in Zhu Wuwan’s eyes. She had never copied Li Qingzhao’s song in this world before. However, the young girl in front of her could recite it. Didn’t that mean that she had also transmigrated here?

There were many things that had happened in the Southern Wasteland that hadn’t reached here yet, such as the Wuyang Peak Olympic Games, the Wuyang Peak National Games, the Wuyang Peak Football Cup...Once the news spread, even a fool would know that Zhu Wuyang had transmigrated from Earth. Who knew what kind of accident would happen?

For the sake of his own safety, it was better to kill him.

Zhu Wuwan made up his mind. Even though he felt sorry for Tang Yelan, it was nothing compared to Zhu Wuwan’s safety. Furthermore, while Tang Yelan had saved him, he had also saved Tang Yelan and so many people from the Tang family.

Even if she wanted to kill Tang Yelan’s sister, Zhu Wuwan would not show any mercy.

It was said that Tang Yelan had three biological sisters and they were triplets. The three of them looked very similar and were called Tang Yelan, Tang Mingyue, and Tang Liuli respectively.

Source: , updated on 0vGo.co

Previously, he had heard that among the other two sisters, Tang Mingyue had amazing literary attainments, while Tang Liuli had amazing cultivation talent. If nothing unexpected happened, the transmigrator in front of him should be Tang Mingyue.

Then just kill him!

A cold glint flashed across Zhu Wuwan’s eyes. Just as she was about to leave and pass the account book to Tang Yelan, she heard Tang Mingyue suddenly stop. She frowned and said, “Miserable, miserable, miserable...Miserable and miserable...How should I write the rest? How should I write it so that it can be properly connected? Such a good word, the rest can’t be too bad.”

Suddenly, Tang Mingyue saw Zhu Wuyang's stunned expression and her eyes lit up. She stared at him and said, "Do you know what to write at the end?"

Tang Mingyue did not expect Zhu Wuyang to be able to take it, but when she saw his strange expression, she subconsciously asked. Then, just as she was about to continue thinking, she heard the handsome man in front of her say, "When it's warm and cold, it's the hardest to rest."

"Ah..." Tang Mingyue exclaimed. She thought carefully and said, "It's the hardest to rest when it's warm and cold. That's how it should be received. So that's how it should be received. Then what about the rest? What should I write at the end?"

Zhu Wuwan observed Tang Mingyue carefully and didn't see anything unusual on her face. She finally confirmed that the first sentence was something she had thought of by accident. Tang Mingyue didn't know that the second sentence was copied by Zhu Wuwan.

Only then did Zhu Wuwan heave a sigh of relief. The results of the test were satisfactory. This way, he could let her go and there was no need to kill her.

However, for the sake of safety, he still had to observe more and confirm it again to avoid any trouble in the future.

"That's all I could think of. I don't know what happened after that," Zhu Wuwan said with a smile.

"Is that so?" Tang Mingyue sighed. "Then tell me when you come up with the last phrase. I live in the Xinian Courtyard here. My name is Tang Mingyue. What's yours?"

"So it's Second Miss Tang. I'm the little shopkeeper of the accounts room, Zhu Wuyang."

"Zhu Wuyang, does it mean 'Zhu Jun Wuan'? It's a very good name." Tang Mingyue smiled sweetly as she watched Zhu Wuwan leave the place and went to deliver the account book to Tang Yelan.

What happened to Tang Mingyue was just a small interlude to Zhu Wuwan, so she didn't take it to heart.

However, when she reached Tang Yelan's courtyard, Zhu Wuwan suddenly thought of a poem.

Yu Meiren·Youmei Hall presented to Shu Gu!

The mountains and lakes are indeed beautiful in the southeast, and you can see thousands of miles at a glance. How much can you get back? I will make you drunk in front of the cup, And wander again. The lights in the Shahe Pond are just on, whose house is singing in the water tune? At night, when the wind is quiet and I want to go home, there is only a river full of bright moon and green glass.

The names of the three Tang sisters happened to appear in Su Shi's poem. It was unknown if it was a coincidence or if the father who named the three Tang sisters was a transmigrator.

However, according to Zhu Wuan's understanding, other than the names given to the three Tang sisters, there was nothing else strange about the former head of the Tang family, who was also the head shopkeeper of the Tang Trading Company. If nothing went wrong, it was very likely a coincidence.

Just like Tang Mingyue, she had unintentionally thought of the beginning of a poem, and the beginning of this poem was exactly the same as Li Qingzhao's slow voice.

Moreover, the father of the three sisters of the Tang family was already dead. There was no way to investigate. He could only pay attention to Tang Mingyue and see if she had any other abnormalities.

After delivering the account book, Zhu Wuwan left the Tang family's residence and inquired about a few royal family disciples who had cultivated the Nirvana Technique and Nirvana Sutra to the fifth level of the Soul Formation Stage.

This information wasn't difficult to find out. Zhu Wuyang quickly found a few suitable targets.

However, Zhu Wuan did not immediately make a move. Instead, he thought of a way to understand the spiritual array group around the other party's residence. He was prepared to break the spiritual array group first and make it his own. Then, he would use the power of the spiritual array group to search for what he wanted.

The gap between the Soul Formation Stage and the Nascent Soul Stage was too big. Even with Zhu Wuwan's current strength and foundation, she did not dare to say that she could defeat a Soul Formation Initial Stage cultivator. Therefore, for the sake of safety, it was better to make more guarantees.

There was only one life. Once it was gone, Zhu Wuyang would also be gone.

Moreover, this was just a matter that would take a little more time for Zhu Wuwan, so it wasn't considered troublesome.

Therefore, Zhu Wuwan was prepared to go to the royal family's residence that he had chosen at night and understand the high-level spiritual array group around it. He would then be able to use it for himself. Then, he would investigate the operation method of the Nirvana Art and the Nirvana Sutra the next night.

After some consideration, Zhu Wuwan returned to the upper house first, preparing to rest for a while before heading over when the sky turned dark.

However, what surprised Zhu Wuwan was that when he returned to the upper house, he was surprised to find someone waiting for him in the small courtyard where he lived.

Chapter 740: The Number One God of the East Yuan (1)

"Have you thought of what to write next?"

Tang Mingyue's bright eyes sparkled as she looked at Zhu Wuwan expectantly, waiting for his answer.

The Tang family's guards followed him around. Their strength had shockingly reached the late stage of the foundation establishment realm.

Zhu Wanwan was speechless. Wasn't it just a sentence? There was no need to rush her so anxiously.

"I thought about it for a long time after you left, but I couldn't come up with the words, so I came back to you," Tang Mingyue continued.

"This..." Zhu Wuwan thought about it and shook her head. "I had a flash of inspiration at that time. I was lucky enough to think of something. I can't think of anything else. I still have to rely on Second Miss Tang."

Even though he knew what to write at the end, Zhu Wuwan was not prepared to tell anyone. Otherwise, what if Tang Mingyue came looking for him again in a similar situation?

Zhu Wuyang didn't want to attract too much attention now, or else it wouldn't be good if he gave himself away.

Upon hearing Zhu Wanhao's words, Tang Mingyue sighed helplessly. "Since you still don't know, I'll come to you tomorrow. You have to think about it carefully. The first two sentences of this poem are really good. The content of the latter part can't be too bad. Otherwise, it'll be a waste of such a good poem."

"Uh ..." "Alright." Zhu Wuwan nodded.

Watching the graceful Tang Mingyue leave, Zhu Wuwan shook her head and waited for nightfall.

That night, Zhu Wanhao came to the Imperial Residence of Jing 'an. While he was cracking the Spiritual Arrays around the Imperial Residence, he turned the High Rank Low Rank Spiritual Arrays into his own.

Source: , updated on N0vGo.co

King Jing 'an was the Soul Formation cultivator that Zhu Wanhao had his eyes on, and he was also a direct descendant of the Zhao Imperial Family.

With Zhu Wuyan's attainments in array formations, even if his current strength was limited, he was still able to crack the spiritual array group in a few hours and placed dozens of backup plans inside. Zhu Wuyan could easily make use of these backup plans.

Zhu Wuyan also found the location of the three treasure vaults of the King's Residence. After obtaining what she wanted from the King's Residence, Zhu Wuyan was prepared to move these treasure vaults along the way. She could also send some set meals to the higher-ups of the King's Residence. Zhu Wuyan couldn't just sit around and do nothing.

With the number of breakthrough stones he currently had, it could only help him break through to the middle stage of the Soul Formation realm. If he wanted to advance further, he would need to continue earning breakthrough stones.

Fortunately, Zhu Wuwan had obtained so many good things from the Five Poison Sect, the Earth Spirit Sect, and the Mind Controlling Sect. After she advanced to the Soul Formation Stage, she could slowly sell them to exchange for breakthrough stones.

At the same time, he could also continue to send some packages around the Central Plains and accumulate enough breakthrough stones as soon as possible to increase his strength as soon as possible.

By the way, the Mind Controlling Sect had been searching for Zhu Wuyang's whereabouts all this while. They had sent out a large number of people, even in the Eternal Empire. This place was tens of millions of miles away from the Miasma Forest of the Mind Controlling Sect. It was obvious how much the Mind Controlling Sect cared about him.

However, when he thought about how Zhu Wanhao had wiped out the Heart Controlling Sect's inheritance and nearly a hundred treasure vaults, it was normal for the Heart Controlling Sect to miss him so much. It would be strange if they didn't miss him.

Regrettably, Zhu Wuyan did not miss the Heart Controlling Sect and easily avoided the investigation of the Heart Controlling Sect without being discovered by the spies of the Heart Controlling Sect.

After returning to the upper house, Zhu Wuwan rested for a while. He had just arrived at the accounts room and was about to complete a small task for the day when he saw Tang Mingyue coming to him with two guards.” Zhu Wuyang, you haven’t thought of the next line of this poem yet? Can you give it a name? ”

“ ... ”

Seeing Tang Mingyue’s obsession with poetry, Zhu Wuwan was speechless. She had no choice but to give her a name, which was the name Li Qingzhao had originally given her.

As for how he should write the poem, Zhu Wuwan did not tell Tang Mingyue about it for the time being. He did not want to be in the limelight, which would not be beneficial to his concealment.

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang was still far from recovering his strength. It was better to keep a low profile so that he wouldn’t cause any trouble and get himself killed.

After sending Tang Mingyue away, Zhu Wuyang began to recuperate and prepare for the night’s operation.

Of course, although it was not dark and windy at night, but the moon hung high in the sky, it did not affect Zhu Wuwan’s night visit to King Jing ‘an’s Imperial Residence.

Very quickly, he entered the Jing ‘an Imperial Residence. Zhu Wuwan ingeniously borrowed the Spiritual Array Group in the Jing’ an Imperial Residence and silently entered the closed door cultivation room of King Jing ‘an, waiting there in advance.

King Jing An only came to cultivate in the middle of the night. He cultivated the Nirvana Arts and the Nirvana Sutra, and it was the fifth level of the Nirvana Sutra and the Nirvana Arts.

Zhu Wuwan had observed it dozens of times and memorized more than ninety-nine percent of the circulation method of the fifth level of the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra. The rest was deduced by his own comprehension and strength, thus forming a complete fifth level cultivation method. There was basically no mistake.

Moreover, there were very few areas that Zhu Wuwan could improve on this Nirvana Technique and Nirvana Sutra. It was indeed worthy of being the number one inheritance in Dongyuan Continent. Although it could not be said to be perfect, it was close to perfection.

At most, Zhu Wuwan could only make some slight improvements to some of the circulation routes of the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra according to her own physical condition. There were very few changes that could be made in other aspects. Only by studying and comprehending more cultivation technique manuals in the future could she perhaps make better improvements to the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra.

After deducing the Nirvana Art and the fifth level of the Nirvana Scripture, Zhu Wuwan used the high-level Spiritual Arrays of the Jing 'an Imperial Residence to leave without a trace. Before he left, King Jing' an did not notice anything.

As for how to deal with the treasure vault here, it was better to wait until his strength increased.

After returning to his residence, Zhu Wuyang began to break through.

A large number of breakthrough stones surged into his body, turning into a strange power that assisted Zhu Wuwan in breaking through to a higher realm. Zhu Wuwan was fully immersed in it.

With the previous experience and lessons, the impact this time was relatively easier. Of course, it was only relatively speaking. If the experience and lessons were removed, the difficulty in other aspects would still be the same.

However, compared to the breakthrough of the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique, the breakthrough of the Nirvana Art and the Nirvana Sutra was much easier. The difference between the two was at least ten times, but the power of the Nirvana Soul and the Nirvana Nascent Soul cultivated was not much different.

If it wasn't for the fact that Zhu Wuwan had fused 3,600 types of basic poisons while cultivating the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique, the power of the Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul would have been unimaginable. The Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul would probably not have been comparable to the Nirvana Nascent Soul. The power of consciousness condensed by the Eighteen Hell Scripture was slightly inferior to the consciousness condensed by the Nirvana Scripture.

However, when Zhu Wuyan's strength increased and her Qi Refinement cultivation was unsealed, the power of consciousness of the Eighteen Hell Scripture would perfectly fuse with the power of consciousness of the Nirvana Scripture. At that time, Zhu Wuyan's power of consciousness would be beyond imagination.

There shouldn't be any problem for the East Wing to be first!

Chapter 741: Sentimental Love and Devotion

"Boom..."

Accompanied by the rumbling sound in his body, Zhu Wuyan's strength broke through the bottleneck and returned to the Soul Formation realm. She now had the strength to influence the power of heaven and earth.

The Nirvana Spiritual Sense had been upgraded to the Nirvana Spiritual Sense, and its power had already surpassed the Eighteen Hell Codex of the same period. Not only was it much stronger and purer than the Eighteen Hell Codex, but its recovery and healing abilities were also beyond imagination.

Although the Eighteen Hell Scripture had eighteen effects, or eighteen halos, the power of each of these halos was limited. It was far inferior to the recovery and healing effects of the Nirvana consciousness.

If each of the eighteen effects of the Eighteen Hell Scripture was 1, the recovery and healing effects of the Nirvana consciousness were all above 10.

Therefore, the power of the Nirvana consciousness steadily suppressed the eighteen hell consciousness. Once the two clashed, the eighteen hell consciousness had a high possibility of failure.

Of course, this was only in the same realm. As one of the top spiritual mystic arts in Dongyuan Continent, the power of the eighteen hell consciousness cultivated by the Eighteen Hell Scripture was quite impressive. It was also ranked among the top in the same realm.

The power of a Nirvana Nascent Soul was somewhat inferior to a Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul. After all, the Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul of the same period had fused with a large number of basic poisons, forming a strange chemical effect that increased the power of the Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul greatly. It was far superior to those ancestors of the Ten Thousand Poison Sect who had cultivated the Ten Thousand Poison True Technique to this stage many years ago.

The Ten Thousand Poison True Technique was not inferior to the Nirvana Grand Ceremony. The Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul cultivated was extremely powerful. With such a good fortune, it was naturally not comparable to the current Nirvana Technique.

Zhu Wuyan's Myriad Poisons Nascent Soul was definitely qualified to be called the best among his peers in Dongyuan Continent.

However, the Nirvana Nascent Soul was not much different. It was also one of the top three Nascent Souls in the Dongyuan Continent. Once it could fuse with the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul, or rather, fuse with the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul, an amazing chemical reaction would definitely occur. It was unknown to what extent the power of Zhu Wuyang's Nascent Soul would soar by then.

After returning to the early stage of the Divinity Transformation Stage, Zhu Wuwan's overall strength had soared nearly a hundred times. She finally had the capital to establish herself in the Eternal Empire. At least, she didn't have to worry about being killed.

Source: , updated on ovG0.co

With a cultivation base at the Soul Formation Stage, coupled with the Five Elements Great Escape Technique and various Immortal Martial Arts, even the strongest Void Refinement Realm powerhouse in the Eternal Empire would find it difficult to take down Zhu Wuyang, let alone the others.

The sense of urgency and crisis in Zhu Wanwan's heart finally lessened a lot. After adapting to the sudden increase in strength, she spent all the remaining breakthrough stones and advanced to the late-stage Soul Formation realm in one go. It was not an exaggeration to say that she was invincible in the Soul Formation realm.

The second daughter of the Tang family, Tang Mingyue, who had been persevering during her breakthrough, came to Zhu Wuwan a few more times. She always asked how to write the poem, which made Zhu Wuwan not know whether to laugh or cry. It was the first time she had seen a woman so obsessed with poetry, especially in this world where the strong were respected.

Fortunately, Tang Mingyue was extremely beautiful and had an intellectual aura about her. She would not pester Zhu Wuwan after she understood that she had not thought of the latter part of the sentence, so she was not annoying.

However, because of this incident, Zhu Wuwan gradually attracted the attention of many people in the Tang family, which made Zhu Wuwan a little depressed. She wondered if she should find a time to tell Tang Mingyue the latter part of the poem so that she wouldn't have to come over every day.

However, he thought about Tang Mingyue's personality. If he gave the latter part of the poem to Tang Mingyue this time, what would he do if Tang Mingyue asked him to finish the other poems later? She would also come to look for him often.

Zhu Wuyan felt a headache coming on. If it weren't for the fact that the three sisters of the Tang family were almost as good-looking as Shu Fanruo, and that the three sisters were even better than Shu Fanruo in some aspects, Zhu Wuyan would have already left this place.

In the small courtyard where the warm wind was blowing, Tang Mingyue was lying on the stone table. Her two small hands were supporting her exquisite little bun face. She looked at Zhu Wuyang in front of her in a daze, her bright eyes full of anticipation.

Zhu Wuwan inadvertently glanced at Tang Mingyue and realized that Tang Mingyue looked even better up close.

The Tang sisters' faces were not like Chen Yanxi's, but rather similar to Zhao Liying's. However, they were a hundred times more exquisite and beautiful than Zhao Liying's. They looked extremely beautiful and flawless.

When Zhu Wuyan was on Earth, she had already liked Zhao Liying. Now that she saw that the three sisters of the Tang family were thousands of times more good-looking than Zhao Liying, she was naturally moved. After all, young people were all like this. Zhu Wuyan was only 70 or 80 years old, and it was normal for her to be young.

Besides their looks, the three sisters of the Tang family were also unique in other aspects. Needless to say, the eldest Tang Yelan had single-handedly propped up the business of the Tang family's trading company.

Apart from her extraordinary poems, Tang Mingyue was also proficient in music, chess, calligraphy, and painting. She could be said to be a first-class talent.

The third child, Tang Liuli, was lively and cute. She had amazing talent in cultivation. Although she was only in her early twenties, she had already cultivated to the late stage of the Foundation Building realm and was very close to the perfected Foundation Building realm.

At first, Zhu Wanwan only wanted to use the Tang Trading Company to hide herself and obtain what she wanted from the Eternal Empire. However, as her relationship with the three Tang sisters deepened, she gradually had other thoughts.

It was only then that Zhu Wanhao suddenly realized that after so many years, ever since he had Shu Fanruo, he didn't seem to have any other girlfriends. Of course, he didn't mention the small world.

As the emperor of the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty, he was too devoted and affectionate. This was not good. Zhu Wuyang did not want to have only one perfect successor.

Since the three Tang sisters were so outstanding, he would give them a chance.

Tang Mingyue, who had been eagerly waiting for Zhu Wuwan to come up with the poem, did not know that the three sisters had already obtained a great fortune at this moment...He was killed by Emperor Dazhu, the Thousand Poison Sect Master, the former invincible Heavenly Pillar...She had taken a fancy to it.

Therefore, Zhu Wuwan's mentality changed. After some consideration, Zhu Wuwan looked at Tang Mingyue, who was wearing a green dress and emitting a faint virgin fragrance. Her appearance and figure were almost flawless. She smiled and said, "I seem to have thought of another sentence."

"Really?" Tang Mingyue was stunned, and then she subconsciously reached out and grabbed Zhu Wuyang's hand. "'What is it? Tell me quickly."

Zhu Wuwan smiled and said, "I've been searching everywhere. It's cold and empty. It's miserable and miserable." It was the hardest to rest when it was warm and cold. How can three or two cups of light wine be his match? The wind is blowing at night..."

"Three cups of light wine, how can I defeat him, the wind is blowing at night ... It's better than all the words I thought of before. As expected, your words are the most suitable." Tang Mingyue muttered to herself, her bright eyes shining brightly as she looked at Zhu Wuwan seriously. "What's behind it? What's behind it?"

Chapter 742: Whoever Stare at Will Get Pregnant (1)

Thinking of her little pursuit, Zhu Wuwan shook her head decisively. "'I haven't thought about the rest yet. I'll tell you when I've thought about it."

"Alright then." Tang Mingyue nodded disappointedly, but then she thought of something else and became happy again. "I'm fine. Other than thinking of lyrics, you have to deal with the accounting room every day. You're a little too busy. I'll get someone else to take over your work in the accounting room. You just focus on writing lyrics."

Naturally, Zhu Wuyang was indifferent to this. The matter of the accounts room was originally used by him to conceal his identity and stay in the Tang family. Now that he had another identity, Zhu Wuyang naturally did not mind pushing the matter of the accounts room out.

This way, Zhu Wuyang would have more time to do other things, which was obviously a good thing.

It was only then that Tang Yelan found out that Zhu Wuyang could actually write lyrics. Moreover, it was clearly written well and had obtained the approval of his second sister.

He couldn't help but be speechless. He didn't expect Zhu Wuyang to have such an ability.

There were many people who could handle the accounts department, but there were too few people who could write poems and get Tang Mingyue's approval. Therefore, Tang Yelan didn't stop them and directly asked someone to take over Zhu Wuyang's work in the accounts department. This made Wang Xinjing a little disappointed.

After all, Zhu Wuyang had been handling the matters in the accounts room quickly and well during this period of time. There had been no mistakes and he had gradually become her right-hand man. Wang Xinjing was still thinking of handing more important matters to Zhu Wuyang.

However, no matter how important the accounting room was, it was not as important as the second miss, so Wang Xinjing could only let her go obediently.

In order to allow Zhu Wuwan to write her lyrics better, Tang Mingyue had even arranged a new courtyard for Zhu Wuwan. It was superior in both environment and size. Most importantly, this courtyard was located in the front yard of the Tang Manor. It was a place where only some of the higher-ups of the Tang Corporation were qualified to live.

This was also to make it easier for Tang Mingyue to look for Zhu Wuyang. Zhu Wuyang had no objections to this. After all, where he lived would not affect him from doing other things.

Source: , updated on NovG0.co

Because they lived closer to each other, Tang Mingyue liked to come to Zhu Wuwan's place many times. It was mainly to wait for the slow voice to speak the next sentence. The secondary reason was that it was quite comfortable here. At least it was more lively than her own small courtyard.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyang wasn't ugly. Instead, she was very good-looking.

Looking at Tang Mingyue, who was seriously reading the book in front of her, Zhu Wuwan felt a new divine power surging in her body for some reason. It was as if even the new divine power was moved by Tang Mingyue.

This divine power was called Origin Yang!

In some aspects, this divine ability was not inferior to the Five Elements Great Escape. It was even one of the great divine abilities that most immortal cultivators dreamed of.

As the name suggested, it was able to export one's own Yang or absorb the Yang of others to replenish one's own Yang.

It sounded very open and aboveboard, but this great divine power of extracting Yang energy had an additional effect. When extracting Yang energy, one could extract one's own life essence through various methods, and the efficiency was amazing. It could also extract life essence from a distance, and the concealment effect was also very powerful.

To put it in a phrase from Earth, it meant that whoever stared at would get pregnant, as long as Zhu Wuyang was willing. However, Zhu Wuyang's Yang energy was much more powerful than whoever stared at would get pregnant.

He didn't need to glare at her. Wherever his divine sense passed, he could make other females pregnant with Zhu Wanwan's child, and the other party wouldn't be able to detect it.

For example, if Zhu Wuwan was on Earth at this moment, with his great ability to guide the primordial yang, he could guide the essence of life into the bodies of all the females on Earth in an instant, allowing them to bear children for him.

Moreover, if he reproduced through this great divine power, his success rate would be greatly increased. He could also effectively use it together with Zhu Wuwan's self-created heaven-defying divine technique, and the effect would be even more shocking.

This great divine power was the great divine power that Zhu Wuwan had obtained when she cultivated for the second time and condensed the Ten Transformations Golden Core. Although it was considered heaven-defying in the eyes of most immortal cultivators, it was even ten times more useful than the Five Elements Great Escape.

However, to Zhu Wuyang, who already had many children and grandchildren, it was really nothing. Moreover, he had never thought of making countless females who had no feelings pregnant, so this great divine power was really a little useless to him.

But on the other hand, this great divine power could help Zhu Wuwan get pregnant with perfect children and greatly increase her chances. It was not considered a waste.

Zhu Wanwan didn't want to always use the essence adjusting technique either. If that happened, his children wouldn't be able to inherit many of his good genes, which would be detrimental to their future growth.

But even so, the children born through the essence adjustment technique were quite extraordinary. At least, each of them had talent in the immortal path, and many of them had excellent spiritual roots, far surpassing most ordinary immortal cultivators.

Perhaps some people would think that this was a little too cruel. Why did they use the essence adjustment technique to give birth to a group of children who did not inherit all their genes?

But on the other hand, if Zhu Wuyang didn't do this, they wouldn't even be able to be born. Compared to this, not being able to inherit all of Zhu Wuyang's genes was nothing.

Moreover, children born using the essence adjusting technique were not defective. They were just unable to inherit all of Zhu Wuyang's good genes. Moreover, even if they did not use the essence adjusting technique to give birth to children, it was impossible for them to completely inherit all of Zhu Wuyang's good genes.

For example, Zhu Jingxin had only inherited half of Zhu Wuwan's good genes at that time. She hadn't inherited all of Zhu Wuwan's good genes.

The essence adjustment technique only reduced the number of good genes inherited by the children. This would increase the chances of pregnancy. It would not cause the children to have physical defects. Zhu Wuwan would not deliberately give birth to some defective children.

On the contrary, even though Zhu Wanwan had used the Essence Refining Technique, these children were all talented. 99% of them had the talent of the Immortal Dao, far surpassing any family in the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect, or even any family in the Dongyuan Continent.

The overall quality of the children born through the essence adjustment technique was far better than that of more than 90% of the immortal cultivators.

But no matter what, these children's innate talents were still inferior to Zhu Jingxin's, so Zhu Wuwan was quite satisfied with the auxiliary effect of guiding out the Yang Essence.

Progeny had always been an inevitable need for most intelligent life forms, and Zhu Wuyang was no exception. Moreover, the great divine power of guiding the primordial yang could not only assist in procreating, but it could also absorb the primordial yang power of other life forms, which was very effective in improving one's body cultivation.

Thinking of this, Zhu Wuwan felt a little better. She smiled and glared at Tang Mingyue.

Chapter 743: Trash Root (1)

Zhu Wanhao did not use the Yang energy divine power of staring at someone who was pregnant. He was not so shameless as to use this method to make another girl pregnant.

With his charm and strength, Zhu Wuyang believed that he could completely conquer Tang Mingyue through love and not use such a despicable method.

Even if love really couldn't conquer him, Zhu Wuwan's fist was very big. In this world where the strong were respected, male creatures with fists were naturally extremely attractive and conquering.

All in all, Zhu Wuyang wouldn't let another woman get pregnant for no reason. This involved the bottom line of a person.

Zhu Wuyang wasn't like many online novel readers on Earth who didn't like to use their charm to conquer girls. They liked to stare at whoever got pregnant and plant seeds all over the ground, especially on the Ugly Country's First Lady.

The spring sun shone on her body and made her feel warm, but it didn't seem too hot. Although Zhu Wuyang's current physique didn't care about the cold or the scorching heat, she still felt happy facing such weather.

Tang Mingyue was reading poetry and books at the side. Zhu Wuwan seemed to be reading and learning, but in fact, she was constantly comprehending the ancient books and cultivation techniques that she had previously memorized. This way, she would have more time to integrate and improve after entering the three thousand worlds.

In this process, Zhu Wuyang could also earn a lot of breakthrough stones. Moreover, Zhu Wuyang seemed to be leisurely, but in fact, he had secretly controlled some forces to help him sell many of the resources and treasures in his hands. After a few exchanges, he obtained the most breakthrough stones.

A portion of the Yinqing Imperial Capital's forces had already been secretly controlled by Zhu Wuyan. They were specially used to help him sell all kinds of resources and treasures, or to buy some natural treasures, spirit pills, and waste pills that Zhu Wuyan had never used before.

Therefore, although Zhu Wuwan seemed to be very relaxed during the day, she was busy stealing Nirvana Arts and Nirvana Scriptures most of the time at night. In fact, the speed at which she earned breakthrough stones was not slow.

As for the way to control these forces, with Zhu Wuyang's attainments in the art of witchcraft, as long as one was affected by his witchcraft, not to mention the forces under his control, even the ancient giants would not be able to escape.

For the sake of safety, Zhu Wuwan did not control the ancient giant. Although he had the strength now, there was still a possibility of an accident.

Therefore, the people Zhu Wuwan controlled with Gu worms were all Soul Formation Realm cultivators. Although there were only a dozen of them, each of them was in a critical position. They could help Zhu Wuwan effectively sell resources and treasures and earn a large number of breakthrough stones.

In fact, a Soul Formation cultivator was already considered pretty good in the Eternal Empire. The most powerful cultivator in the Eternal Empire was only at the Void Training Stage. Soul Formation cultivators were ranked second, second only to dozens of ancient magnates.

According to the laws of the Eternal Empire, any Soul Formation Realm cultivator who wanted to be an official could become a second-rank official as long as they had no enmity with the Eternal Empire.

In the Eternal Empire, Soul Formation Realm cultivators were also given the title of second-rank officials or border officials. As long as a Soul Formation Realm cultivator was willing to swear allegiance to the Eternal Empire, he or she could directly become the master of a territory, which was equivalent to the nobility of a territory.

As a result, Soul Formation Realm cultivators held a high status in the Eternal Empire. The Eternal Empire was as large as dozens of Earths, but there were only a few hundred Soul Formation Realm cultivators. It was not an exaggeration to say that there was not even one in a billion.

In the Eternal Empire, dozens of ancient titans were busy with cultivation most of the time, and important matters were delegated to the Soul Formation Realm cultivators. Therefore, some Soul Formation Realm cultivators held more power than many ancient titans.

Zhu Wanwan only had a dozen Soul Formation cultivators under her control, but she actually controlled about one-tenth of the Eternal Empire's power. With such a shocking force, it would be easy for her to sell and buy some resources and treasures.

No one in the Tang Trading Company knew that Zhu Wuwan, who seemed to have won the favor of the Tang Second Miss through her poetry and was leisurely every day, was actually one of the giants hidden underground in the Eternal Empire. The power and power she wielded far exceeded the Tang Trading Company by a thousand times.

The strongest person in the Tang Trading Company was only at the late stage of the Golden Core realm, and there was only one late stage Golden Core old ancestor to oversee it. However, to Zhu Wuwan, Golden Core cultivators were really not even ants. They could be blown away in one breath.

Tang Mingyue stayed at Zhu Wuyan's place until noon before leaving. Zhu Wuyan went out to eat something. Just as she was about to go back, she was stopped by a

This young man did not have any talent in immortal cultivation, but he had cultivated martial arts and his strength had already reached the great realm of established meridians. To be able to have a foundation establishment immortal cultivator as a guard, it was obvious that his family background was not bad.

Several people blocked Zhu Wuan in the middle. The handsome young man stared at Zhu Wuan coldly. "You actually dare to seduce my, Song Yunfeng's, fiancée. You dog really have a death wish."

Song Yunfeng?

Zhu Wuwan knew who he was. He was Tang Mingyue's fiancé, and they had just gotten married last year. Zhu Wuwan was originally thinking about when she would deal with him, but she didn't expect him to come knocking on her door before she could do anything.

Song Yunfeng had obviously misunderstood the relationship between Zhu Wuyang and Tang Mingyue. He had somehow learned some rumors and came to teach Zhu Wuyang a lesson.

However, Tang Mingyue, as the second daughter of the Tang family, often came to look for Zhu Wuyang, a servant, and even specially arranged a residence for him. In addition, Zhu Wuyang was so good-looking that she was thousands of times better than Song Yunfeng. It was normal for others to misunderstand.

Zhu Wu 'an's divine sense fluctuated, and a stream of Heaven and Earth spiritual energy surged into the wild dog's body that passed by nearby. Without saying a word, he directly attacked.

When Song Yunfeng saw that Zhu Wuan was silent, he thought that he was scared out of his wits. He waved his right hand and said, "" Destroy his descendants and make him a eunuch of Ming Yue. Spare his life so that Ming Yue won't be angry. "

As soon as Song Yunfeng finished speaking, he heard a mournful dog bark in his ear. A wild dog next to him went straight for his crotch. Before Song Yunfeng and a few Foundation Establishment guards could react to what had happened, they felt a pain in their crotch.

"Roar..." Looking at his bloody crotch, Song Yunfeng let out an ear-piercing scream and fell to the ground while clutching his crotch."No..."

Since Song Yunfeng wanted to become a eunuch himself, Zhu Wuwan could only give him a eunuch's meal and leave a hidden poison in his body at the same time, preventing him from returning to a man through heavenly treasures.

Later on, Song Yunfeng would slowly be unable to walk because of this poison. He could only stay in bed for the rest of his life and would no longer be able to harass Tang Mingyue.

Chapter 744: Stop Pretending (1)

"This ... What the hell is going on? Where did this wild dog come from? Why is it so fast? What should we do now?"

"This isn't a wild dog. It's a demon dog. Otherwise, it wouldn't be so fast. Its strength is equivalent to an early Foundation Establishment cultivator. It's normal that we can't stop it when it suddenly exits."

"The demon dog has already been killed. Now is not the time to discuss this. Hurry up and send the young master to the alchemist in the residence to see how to make up for it."

"That's right. I forgot about this. Hurry up and leave. Don't delay anymore."

The 'crazy demon dog' was beaten into minced meat by several Foundation Establishment Cultivators and burned to ashes, leaving no trace behind.

After killing the "crazy demon dog", several Foundation Establishment cultivators looked at Song Yunfeng's empty crotch and couldn't help but be stunned for a moment. Only then did they realize what to do next.

A commotion came from the distant figure. "Who was the one who released the spiritual fire just now? Even the little young master's descendant root was burned away. What if the alchemist needs this when he continues?"

"I didn't put it there either."

"I'm not stupid. Why would I set a fire?"

"He doesn't know spiritual fire spells at all."

None of the Foundation Establishment guards paid any attention to Zhu Wuan. In their eyes, Zhu Wuan was just a powerless servant of the Tang Manor. At most, he was favored by the young master's fiancée, Tang Mingyue, and was interested in his poetry ability. As for whether Tang Mingyue had an affair with Zhu Wuan, Song Yunfeng himself did not believe it.

It wasn't just because Song Yunfeng had arranged a maid beside Tang Mingyue, but also because he knew that Tang Mingyue only valued Zhu Wuwan's ability to write lyrics. The two of them had nothing to do with each other in other aspects.

The main reason was that in this world, as the high and mighty Second Miss of the Tang family, she would never take a fancy to a servant. The difference in status between the two was too great.

Although he knew this in his heart, Song Yunfeng still couldn't help but get angry when he heard some rumors, so he came to teach Zhu Wuwan a lesson.

However, no one expected that they would encounter such an accident. It was a good thing for this silly servant, allowing him to escape for nothing.

Watching several Foundation Building guards carry Song Yunfeng away, Zhu Wuwan flicked his finger, and the imperceptible fire spiritual energy on it dissipated. He turned around and was about to leave when he saw a young girl in pink clothes in front of him. She was staring at him with interest.

"Greetings, Third Miss," Zhu Wuwan said with a smile.

This girl in pink was the third daughter of the Tang family's direct line of descent, Tang Liuli. She was also the number one cultivation genius of the Tang family. She was only in her early twenties, but she had already cultivated to the late-stage Foundation Establishment realm.

Tang Liuli waved her hand, indicating that Zhu Wuyang did not need to be so polite. She used her spiritual fluctuation and secret technique to carefully check Zhu Wuyang's strength."Zhu Wuyang, you've hidden yourself well enough."

"Third Miss must be joking." Zhu Wuyan pretended not to know.

Tang Liuli blinked her bright eyes and stared at Zhu Wuwan. "I know that wild dog just now. I even fed it a few times, so I'm sure it's definitely not a demon dog. You must have done something to it, right?"

Tang Liuli couldn't detect anything from Zhu Wuan, so she didn't sound very confident. Zhu Wuan could naturally tell, "Third Miss overestimates me. I didn't do anything just now. As for how that wild dog became like this, perhaps it ate some treasure recently, so it suddenly became like that."

"But what happened just now was too coincidental." Tang Liuli smiled sweetly and continued to stare at Zhu Wuyang.

"I don't know about that." Zhu Wuwan shook her head.

"Alright then." Tang Liuli's bright eyes carefully sized up Zhu Wuyang for a while, but she still didn't get anything. She could only leave helplessly. "Be careful next time. Don't be blocked by others again. Otherwise, you might not have today's good luck."

"Thank you, Third Miss. I understand," Zhu Wuwan said with a smile.

Tang Liuli had been nearby from the start. When she accidentally saw Song Yunfeng and his group acting strangely, the usually lively and playful Tang Liuli had her eyes on them. She wanted to see what these guys were up to.

Then, she saw Song Yunfeng and his group surrounding Zhu Wuwan, preparing to turn him into a eunuch. Tang Liuli had originally planned to wait for Zhu Wuwan to suffer a little before saving him, lest he really became a eunuch.

After all, the rumors about Zhu Wuan and Tang Mingyue had been spreading too much recently, and it had already affected the reputation of her second sister, Tang Mingyue. Tang Liuli also wanted to take this opportunity to give Zhu Wuan a beating.

However, Tang Liuli didn't expect that before she could save him, a stray dog would come out and ruin the situation.

This matter happened too coincidentally, and Tang Liuli couldn't help but feel suspicious. Therefore, she came to test Zhu Wuan, but unfortunately, she didn't get the answer she wanted.

Tang Liuli pursed her lips and prepared to go back and ask her elder sister, Tang Yelan.

Looking at Tang Liuli's receding figure, Zhu Wuwan smiled and turned to walk towards the bamboo grove. It was a small courtyard that Tang Mingyue had specially arranged for him. The environment was quite good, and the Heaven and Earth Spirit Qi was quite dense.

Tang Liuli returned to the backyard of the Tang Residence and went straight to the Spring Autumn Pavilion where her elder sister, Tang Yelan, was staying. Tang Yelan was still dealing with the business matters at the moment. When he saw Tang Liuli, he said without raising his head, “Are you here to cause trouble again? I don’t have anything you want to play with here. Go back and cultivate well. The sooner you break through to the Golden Core Stage, the more stable our Tang family will be.”

“I’ve already cultivated in the morning. I’ll rest for a while in the afternoon.” Tang Liuli said in a sweet voice and went to Tang Yelan’s side to ask, “Big Sister, do you know Zhu Wuyan?”

“Zhu Wuyan?” Tang Yelan was stunned. How could she not remember such a handsome scholar? “Why did you suddenly mention him? Could it be that you want to get to know him?”

Tang Liuli giggled. “I already know him. I just want to know some things about him. Big Sis, can you tell me?”

“Why do you want to know him?” Tang Yelan frowned and looked at Tang Liuli. “It’s impossible between you and him, so don’t do anything that will cause misunderstandings.”

Tang Liuli was speechless. “Big Sis, you’re thinking too much. I didn’t ask you about Zhu Wuyang because I have other intentions. The main thing is that this guy is a little strange. I’m going to investigate him.”

“Is Zhu Wuyang a little strange?” Tang Yelan was surprised and looked at Tang Liuli curiously. “Did you discover something? Or did you do this because of Mingyue?”

“However, I have already dealt with Ming Yue’s matter. Those servants who gossiped have all been chased away. You don’t have to worry about this matter.”

Read I'm Leveling Up Too Quickly Chapter 745 - 745: The Girl Riding on the Wall \(1\)

Chapter 745: The Girl Riding on the Wall (1)

Tang Liuli shook her head and told Tang Yelan about what had happened around the Tang Residence. Then, she said, “How can there be such a coincidence in this world? Zhu Wuwan must have done something in secret. Otherwise, this wouldn’t have happened.”

“You must be thinking too much.” After hearing Tang Liuli’s words, Tang Yelan smiled. “I picked Zhu Wuwan up from a giant tree. He was severely injured at the time, and there was no Inner Qi or True Essence in his body, so he was just an ordinary person.”

" Besides, since I dared to recruit a person of unknown origin, how could I not have done a thorough check-up before that? When Zhu Wuyang was unconscious, I had already asked a professional doctor to check his body many times to ensure that there was nothing abnormal before bringing him back. "

" Then it's also possible that the examination was wrong and Zhu Wuwan managed to fool us, " Tang Liuli said indignantly.

"Impossible." Tang Yelan said resolutely, " Not only did I get a doctor to examine him, I also invited warriors and cultivators to examine him. It can be said that there was almost no detail, no matter how big or small. Everyone was sure that Zhu Wuyang was just an ordinary person. There was no supernatural power in his body. Even his body was that of an ordinary person. There was nothing unusual about it. For this reason, some cultivators even stabbed him to confirm it. "

"This..." Tang Liuli frowned. " If that's the case, then there shouldn't be any problems. But I still feel that something is a little strange. There's another thing that's also quite strange. Who was the expert who saved you on Big Sister's way back? "

Tang Yelan shook his head. " I've already asked our ancestor. That expert isn't him, but it can't possibly be Zhu Wuyan either. Perhaps he's owed a favor from our Tang Family in the past. After all, our Tang Family has done a lot of favors over the years. It's normal for one or two of them to grow up occasionally. "

" Alright, looks like Zhu Wuyang should be fine. " "I thought I found a hidden expert and could get some treasures from him," Tang Liuli left in disappointment.

Tang Yelan laughed. " My silly little sister, how many times have I told you not to read those chivalrous travel notes? These things are all lies. There aren't so many hidden experts in this world. It's better to rely on yourself to cultivate. You can't bite off more than you can chew. "

"But it's too difficult to cultivate step by step. It takes so much time. If only I had a fortuitous encounter." Tang Liuli pouted and quickly ran out of the Spring Autumn Pavilion. Behind her, Tang Yelan shook his head helplessly and continued to busy himself.

However, after returning to her own courtyard, Tang Liuli found it even stranger the more she thought about it. She kept thinking about this matter until midnight. She couldn't help but grit her teeth and decided to take advantage of the dark and windy night to go to Zhu Wuyang's courtyard to investigate and confirm this matter.

The usually daring Tang Liuli immediately took action. She quietly left her residence and sneaked toward the bamboo grove.

With her strength and the secret arts she cultivated, coupled with her familiarity with the Tang family, she easily sneaked into Zhu Wuwan's bamboo grove.

A small, pitch-black courtyard entered his sight. There was nothing unusual inside. It looked ordinary and no different from usual. It seemed to be a slightly high-grade courtyard.

There were no spiritual arrays, no traps, no strange experts...At the very least, Tang Liuli didn't notice anything unusual. The process of entering the bamboo grove was also very normal. It was also very normal when she saw Zhu Wuwan lying on the bed. There were no seventy-two transformations of three heads, six arms.

Tang Liuli, who was hidden in the darkness, still felt a little strange when she saw Zhu Wuyang lying on her side, whose back could only be seen. She thought about it and decided to get closer to see Zhu Wuyang's face. She wanted to see if he was really Zhu Wuyang or if someone else was pretending.

However, after taking a few steps, her gaze inadvertently fell on the wall outside the window. Tang Liuli suddenly recalled the time when she and her two sisters stole fruits on the wall when she was young. She couldn't help but laugh and walked toward the wall that looked very similar to the one she had when she was young. For some reason, she forgot about her previous plans.

Soon, the Tang family's Third Miss rode to the top of the wall and looked at the fruit tree beside the wall with a smile. She plucked a seasonal fruit from it and began to nibble on it in the cool night wind. She chewed until Zhu Wuan walked out of the bedroom and stared at her strangely."Third Miss, what are you doing there?"

"Uh ... " Only then did Tang Liuli wake up. Then, she realized that she was stealing fruits from the wall of the bamboo forest building to eat. She was even reminiscing about her childhood with a silly smile on her face.

This ... That ... 'What am I doing? I'm not here to spy on Zhu Wuyang secretly to confirm if he's an expert. Why did I suddenly think of what happened when I was young and climb up the wall?'

" Did water enter my head? Or did I fall into some kind of array or trap? " Tang Liuli's eyes were bright and sparkling as she carefully checked her surroundings.

No?

There was nothing!

There were no formations, no knockout drugs, no traps...There was only Zhu Wuyang who was staring at her in confusion.

Tang Liuli laughed dryly and jumped up from the wall. "I couldn't sleep at night, so I came out for a walk. I found that the fruits here are not bad, so I picked one to try."

"I see." Zhu Wuwan nodded. "I heard the sound of food being eaten outside. I thought I had attracted a thief, so I came out to take a look. "

You are the thief. This is my house. Everything is mine. Even if you take it without asking, it's not stealing.

Tang Liuli pursed her lips. "Alright, go to sleep. I should go back. "

"Third Miss, take care." Zhu Wanwan smiled faintly. After Tang Liuli's figure disappeared, he turned into a stream of light and disappeared into the depths of the courtyard. When he appeared again, he had already arrived at the secret chamber of a royal disciple who was cultivating the second level of the Nirvana Technique.

The person in the bedroom of the bamboo grove was naturally Zhu Wuwan's double, but it was very lifelike. Unless one touched it at a close distance, it would not be discovered.

However, before she was touched, Zhu Wuwan was confident that she could rush back and replace the fake person. After all, Zhu Wuwan had set up a high-grade supreme-grade spiritual array around the fake person. Such an array was naturally undetectable by Tang Liuli.

Therefore, Tang Liuli's actions just now were all related to this spiritual array. It wasn't what he really wanted.

Not to mention Tang Liuli, even the giants of ancient times might be affected by this spiritual array and do something that seemed natural but was actually somewhat strange.

However, after thinking about it carefully, it was indeed his own thoughts and not influenced by anything. This also lessened his suspicion of Zhu Wuwan.

Chapter 746: The Second Nirvana (1)

Why would I do that?

Why should I sit on the fence and reap the fruits?

Didn't I come here to find out about Zhu Wuyang?

Tang Liuli was confused as she walked. She didn't know why she had done that. Her delicate face was flushed red, and she still hadn't come back to her senses.

Although she felt that it was very strange and did not conform to her usual behavior at all, and she did such a strange thing at that time, she thought about it carefully and realized that she did not fall into any illusion trap. Everything was her idea.

However, according to normal thinking, what she did was indeed very strange. If all of this was really not a coincidence, then Zhu Wuyang's strength ...

It was a little powerful!

Tang Liuli pouted and decided to come again tomorrow night to see if she could find Zhu Wuyang's abnormality and confirm whether everything that happened tonight was a coincidence or a trap.

As for whether or not he should tell his elder sister Tang Yelan, it would be better to wait for her to find out the results of her investigation. Besides, he could not let his elder sister know about such an embarrassing matter.

Tang Liuli returned to her residence with a dejected face and began to cultivate and improve, forcefully getting rid of those messy thoughts in her mind.

Tang Liuli didn't know that Zhu Wuyang had left the residence as soon as she left. Otherwise, she would have definitely returned.

After waiting for many days, Zhu Wuwan finally saw this royal disciple who had cultivated the Nirvana Art to the second level. After a night of observation, Zhu Wuwan had also observed 99% of the second level of the Nirvana Art, and the rest was deduced by his own strength.

Although the Nirvana Art was powerful and of a very high level, since he had already mastered more than ninety-nine percent of it, Zhu Wuyang could still deduce the remaining details with his ability.

If it was some ordinary Heaven and Earth Immortal Art or Secret Skill of Heaven and Earth, Zhu Wuyang only needed to understand about 50% of it and might be able to completely deduce it.

However, in the face of such a miraculous technique of heaven and earth like the Nirvana Technique, which was one of the top super secret techniques of the immortal path in Dongyuan Continent, Zhu Wuwan had to have mastered more than 90% of it honestly. Only then could he possibly deduce it. From this, one could know how powerful the Nirvana Technique was.

Having mastered the second level of Nirvana meant that Zhu Wuyang could undergo a second transformation in his Nascent Soul, divine sense, and body. Every nirvana could be considered a transformation for Zhu Wuyang as a whole.

With just the first level of transformation, the Nirvana Soul Consciousness had surpassed the eighteen Hell Soul Consciousness. One could imagine how powerful the Nirvana Technique was.

After returning to his residence, he waited for a while and realized that Tang Mingyue did not come today. Zhu Wuwan thought to herself that she could cultivate properly today and did not have to wait until night time.

Perhaps Tang Mingyue was also troubled by those rumors, so she didn't look for Zhu Wuyang after dinner like she usually did.

Zhu Wuwan returned to the secret cultivation room in the small courtyard and opened the surrounding high-grade supreme-grade Spiritual Array group. This high-grade supreme-grade Spiritual Array group was hidden quite deeply. Unless it was a Spiritual Array Master of high-grade supreme-grade or above, it would be very difficult to discover it.

However, in the vast Eternal Empire, there were only a handful of Advanced Top-Grade Spiritual Array Masters. They wouldn't come to a small place like the Tang Clan.

The number of breakthrough stones needed to successfully cultivate the second level of the Nirvana Technique was comparable to the number of breakthrough stones needed to advance Zhu Wuwan from the Refinement Stage to the Golden Core Stage. Moreover, this was under the condition that Zhu Wuwan's talent was extremely high and her comprehension was extremely terrifying. Otherwise, this number would have been several times higher.

In other words, if an ordinary immortal cultivator wanted to successfully cultivate the second level of the Nirvana Technique, the time and energy spent was equivalent to him advancing from the early stage of the meditational level to the peak of the Jindan stage, or even advancing to the Yuanying stage.

One could imagine how difficult the second level of the Nirvana Technique was!

If it weren't for the special encounter system and the Breakthrough Stone in his hands, with his talent, aptitude, and comprehension, it would have taken him at least half a year to successfully cultivate.

It was no wonder that even after so many years, only a few of the Immortal cultivators in the Eternal Empire had managed to reach the third level of the Nirvana Art.

With the infusion of the Breakthrough Stone, the Nirvana Technique began to improve. As the Nirvana Technique improved, the Nirvana Nascent Soul, Nirvana Divine Consciousness, and body in Zhu Wuyang's body began to slowly transform and strengthen.

The cultivation of the Nirvana Technique was a long-term process, and the transformation was also a long-term process. It could not be done overnight.

However, because Zhu Wuan had the help of the Breakthrough Stone, he was able to cultivate the second level of the Nirvana Technique to perfection in a short period of time. That was why this transformation seemed to be very fast.

If it were any other cultivator in the Nirvana Tower, they would need a long period of accumulation and cultivation before they could advance a certain level of the Nirvana Technique to the Perfection Realm.

The process of Zhu Wuyan cultivating the second level of the Nirvana Technique was a fast-forward process.

The Nirvana Divine Sense became purer and stronger ...

The Nirvana Nascent Soul became purer and stronger...

His body also became harder and more flexible...

Furthermore, his recovery and healing abilities were improving at an even faster rate!

After his Qi Refinement cultivation broke through to the late-stage Soul Formation realm, Zhu Wuwan's body strength and flexibility had also increased to the level of an ordinary early-stage Nascent Soul old monster.

With the cultivation and improvement of the second level of the Nirvana Technique, the flexibility and strength of Zhu Wuwan's body began to increase rapidly. Soon, it reached the level of a mid-stage Nascent Soul cultivator, and it continued to increase.

The gap between the Nirvana Nascent Soul Realm and the Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul Realm had also been further narrowed. However, it was still a little difficult to catch up in a short period of time. The Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul Realm, which had absorbed thousands of poisons, was extremely powerful. It was also the top among the same level in Dongyuan Continent. The Nirvana Nascent Soul Realm, which had transformed twice, could not compare to it for the time being.

Even compared to Zhu Wuyan's Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul when she was at the late-stage of the Soul Formation Realm, there was still a slight gap between her Nirvana Nascent Soul and Zhu Wuyan's.

On the other hand, the Nirvana divine sense had further widened the gap between it and the eighteen hell divine sense of the same period. Its power had already far exceeded Zhu Wuyan's eighteen hell divine sense when she was at the late-stage of the Soul Formation realm.

However, compared to the Eighteen Hell Divine Consciousness of the Perfect Form Synthesis Stage, the Nirvana Divine Consciousness was still far from enough. When Zhu Wuwan's Qi Refinement cultivation reached the Form Synthesis Stage, it would probably be about time.

Of course, if he could master the third level of the Nirvana Technique and successfully cultivate it during this period, he should be able to surpass the eighteen hell consciousness in advance.

"Boom boom boom..."

When the Nirvana Technique was being upgraded at a high speed, Zhu Wuwan's body seemed to be undergoing a process of splitting the heavens and earth. It kept emitting a rumbling sound. Although that transformation could not compare to the Phoenix's Nirvana, it was not too far off.

The creation of the Nirvana Technique had been based on the magical power of the Phoenix's Nirvana.

After an unknown period of time, this nirvana gradually began to come to an end. Zhu Wuyang's strength had also undergone a huge increase.

Chapter 747: That's My Lost Youth (1)

After this round of transformation, Zhu Wuyan's strength had improved in all aspects.

The Nirvana Nascent Soul had increased by about two times compared to before. Whether it was its richness or purity, especially in terms of recovery ability and healing ability, it had increased even more.

The Nirvana Divine Sense had also increased by about two times. Its purity, density, recovery ability, and healing ability ... All of them soared, getting closer and closer to the ancient giant's divine sense.

The improvement in his body was even greater. His strength and flexibility had soared by about three times, and he was comparable to a body-refining cultivator at the late-stage Nascent Soul realm or above.

His overall strength had increased by about three times, far exceeding that of an ordinary invincible Divine Transformation Realm cultivator and infinitely approaching the Void Training Stage.

If Zhu Wanhao were to include the various Heaven and Earth Immortal Martial Arts, Secret Arts of Heaven and Earth, Heaven and Earth Spells, and the two great divine powers that he had mastered, he would basically be able to stand on equal ground with the Void Training Stage ancient tycoons. Of course, he would be able to stand on equal ground with ordinary Early Void Training Stage ancient tycoons.

Even so, Zhu Wanwan's strength was at least in the top ten of the Eternal Empire, and no one in the Eternal Empire could take him down.

At least, Zhu Wuan was in an invincible position here. He didn't have to worry about his life, so he could be bolder in his next actions.

For example, he could think of a way to obtain the third level of the Nirvana Technique!

The further one cultivated the Nirvana Technique, the more difficult it would be. Naturally, the benefits it could bring to the cultivator would also be greater. Zhu Wuyang naturally did not want to miss out on it.

With the Special Encounter System and the Breakthrough Stone in hand, this Nirvana Art, which could be said to be one of the most difficult secret arts in the world, was only a matter of how many Breakthrough Stones were consumed for Zhu Wuyang.

What Zhu Wuwan didn't know was that when he was cultivating the Nirvana Technique, outside the Song family's secret chamber dozens of miles away from him, when the Song family's head, Song Gao, who was also Song Yunfeng's father, found out that Song Yunfeng's descendants were hopeless and that it was basically impossible for them to recover, he almost broke down.

" Kill him! Kill that damned servant! It's because of this damned servant that my son has become like this. I must kill him to vent the hatred in my heart! "

The moment he confirmed that Song Yunfeng's brother was beyond saving, Song Gao roared like thunder. Soon, a perfected Foundation Establishment cultivator left the Song family and rushed toward the Tang family's residence.

With the relationship between the Song and Tang families, this perfected Foundation Establishment cultivator was easily brought to the front yard by the gatekeeper. He came to the bamboo grove where Zhu Wanwan lived, then sent the gatekeeper away and directly barged into the bamboo grove.

In broad daylight, this person wanted to take Zhu Wanhao away and hand him over to Song Gao to be hacked into pieces. He was truly audacious.

Facing this guy who wanted to hurt her, Zhu Wuwan did not even raise her head. She flicked a Gu worm at him, and the person's expression became dull. He turned around and returned to the Song family.

Soon, he returned to the Song family. The head of the Song family, Song Gao, was gently patting his unconscious and heartbroken youngest son. His face was filled with sorrow.

Seeing this person return empty-handed, Song Gao's expression changed. "" Where's that bastard Zhu Wuyang? Why didn't you bring him here? "

"He's here!" The perfected Foundation Establishment cultivator smiled dully and took out a green Gu worm from his bosom. Song Gao's expression changed, and just as he was about to dodge, the Gu worm drilled into his head.

There was no one else around except for the unconscious Song Yunfeng. Therefore, only the perfected Foundation Establishment cultivator and Song Gao saw and felt all of this.

Song Gao was stunned for a moment before he looked at the perfected foundation establishment state cultivator and laughed foolishly." I have to forgive Zhu Wuyan. After all, this matter has nothing to do with Zhu Wuyan. It was just an accident! "

"Next, let's quietly take stock of the Song family's resources and treasures and exchange them for what master needs..."

Under the effect of the Enslavement Gu, Song Gao and this perfected Foundation Establishment cultivator became Zhu Wuwan's servants. Not only did they no longer want to kill Zhu Wuwan, but they also began to work for Zhu Wuwan, looting resources and treasures for him.

However, this Gu worm was far inferior to the Mind Control trait. Although it could also control others, it would damage their minds and make them a little silly. It would not last long.

Zhu Wanhao could only try his best to plunder as many resources and treasures as possible from the Song family before this to increase his breakthrough stones. It did not matter even if he failed. Compared to the Soul Formation Realm cultivators that Zhu Wanhao controlled through other Gu worms, the Song family's wealth and resources were nothing.

If Song Gao had not insisted on sending people to seek death, Zhu Wuwan would not have bothered to use a defective Gu worm like the enslavement Gu to deal with him. She would have treated it as an experiment.

Zhu Wuwan ignored the Song Clan. Their level was too low, and they were not worth Zhu Wuwan's attention at all. He continued to focus on adapting to the sudden increase in strength.

At night, Zhu Wuwan continued to visit a few royal disciples who had mastered the third level of the Nirvana Technique to see if anyone had cultivated the third level of the Nirvana Technique. This way, they would have a chance to obtain the third level of the Nirvana Technique.

Not long after Zhu Wuwan left, a small figure once again came to the outside of the bamboo grove and quietly sneaked in.

"I don't believe that I'll be so stupid as to ride on the wall and pluck the fruits this time. This time, I'm going to expose Zhu Wuan's true colors!"

Tang Liuli gritted her teeth. Thinking of the embarrassing scene last night, she felt her face heat up.

After entering the bamboo grove without a sound, Tang Liuli carefully observed and probed around. She didn't find any traces of arrays or traps. At the same time, she didn't find any knockout powder or poison.

For this reason, Tang Liuli had specially prepared a Psychic Demonic Rat for her experiment. Looking at the Psychic Demonic Rat that was jumping around without any abnormalities, Tang Liuli began to doubt her own judgment.

This small courtyard was only so big. How could it be possible to set up some powerful spiritual array? If there was poison or knockout powder, the Psychic Demonic Rat would not be so lively. Could it be that she had made a wrong judgment? Last night, she rode on the wall on a whim to pick fruits.

“Cough cough...”

However, at this moment, Tang Liuli heard Zhu Wuyang’s coughing from the bedroom. She was so frightened that she shivered and hurriedly hid under the stone chair in the small courtyard.

Tang Liuli only heaved a sigh of relief when ” Zhu Wuyang ” stopped coughing. However, she didn’t go out immediately. Instead, she planned to wait for a while longer and only go out after she was sure that Zhu Wuyang was sound asleep.

Squatting under the stone chair, Tang Liuli’s gaze inadvertently fell on her surroundings. Looking at the small space under the stone chair, Tang Liuli suddenly thought of what happened when she was young.

Many years ago, she and her two sisters often played hide-and-seek in the surrounding small courtyard. At that time, she especially liked to hide under such stone chairs.

This stone chair was clearly her lost youth...

Read I'm Leveling Up Too Quickly Chapter 748 - 748: I'm Really Not Tang Mingyue (1)

Chapter 748: I'm Really Not Tang Mingyue (1)

Unknowingly, Tang Liuli was once again immersed in her childhood memories.

She inexplicably felt safe and warm hiding under the stone chair, which made her think of many interesting things. She couldn’t help but laugh, not knowing where she was.

After an unknown period of time, Tang Liuli felt that something was wrong. She suddenly realized that the sky was already bright, and she had been squatting under the stone chair for the entire night.

This ...

Was she really retarded?

Tang Liuli was still in a daze when she heard a gentle voice. “”Third Miss, why are you hiding under the stone chair? It shouldn’t be very comfortable there, right?”

“Uh ...” Tang Liuli looked towards the source of the voice and saw that it was that bastard Zhu Wuyang again. “”It’s none of your business. I’m picking up things here. Goodbye!”

As she spoke, Tang Liuli hurriedly crawled out and accidentally knocked her head on the ground, causing the stone chair to topple over. She left Zhu Wuwan's courtyard with a red face.

Looking at Tang Liuli's receding figure, Zhu Wuwan smiled faintly. She sat in the courtyard and studied the ancient books and cultivation techniques. Tang Mingyue still didn't come today.

After leaving the bamboo grove, the more Tang Liuli thought about it, the angrier she got. Didn't they agree to expose Zhu Wuyang's true colors last night? Why did she do such a strange thing again? Zhu Wuyang must be poisonous.

Last night was even worse than the night before. The night before yesterday, he had entered Zhu Wuwan's bedroom and saw her lying on the bed. However, he hadn't even entered the bedroom last night.

Tang Liuli felt like vomiting blood when she thought about how silly she was sitting under the stone chair last night. She was a peerless prodigy who had reached the late-stage of the Foundation Establishment realm at the age of 20. Why was she so cowardly when facing an ordinary person?

Zhu Wuwan's bamboo grove must have been tampered with. Otherwise, how could such a situation have happened? Tang Liuli was even more certain of her guess.

However, where exactly was this hand? Even with Tang Liuli's late-stage Foundation Establishment strength, she couldn't find it. Could it be that it was really hidden too deeply?

With this thought in mind, Tang Liuli decided to call the Tang family's only Low Rank Top-Grade Spiritual Array Master today and ask him to help check on the situation of the bamboo forest building to confirm if there was an array there.

Tang Liuli didn't even bother to eat her breakfast. She immediately called the Tang family's only low-grade supreme-grade spiritual array master, Yang Haolei, over.

In order to avoid alerting Zhu Wuyang, Tang Liuli and Yang Haolei first observed the bamboo grove to see if there was anything wrong with it.

Yang Haolei used the Seven Star Steps and walked around the bamboo grove, observing the situation inside. Tang Liuli watched from the side with anticipation, hoping to get a positive answer and expose Zhu Wuyang's true colors. She wanted to see if he was really a hidden expert.

One round...Yang Haolei didn't discover the array formation!

Therefore, Yang Haolei began to observe the bamboo grove to see if there were any traps or if it had been drugged or poisoned. He began to walk in circles again.

One round...Yang Haolei didn't notice the trap!

Three laps...Yang Haolei didn't find any traces of spells or secret techniques!

Tang Liuli, who was at the side, went from anticipation to disappointment, and then from disappointment to despair."Master Yang, is there anything unusual about this bamboo grove?"

"This..." Yang Haolei frowned slightly. " There shouldn't be anything unusual. It's just an ordinary courtyard. There aren't any spiritual arrays or traps. There are also no traces of knockout drugs or spells. "

"Is there really nothing unusual?" asked Tang Liuli again.

"No, I haven't." This time, Yang Haolei simply shook his head. " There's nothing unusual. Furthermore, I've cultivated a special investigative secret technique. Even if it's an array set up by a Middle Rank Spiritual Array Master, I can still find some clues. Since I haven't found anything, it means that there's indeed no Spiritual Array Group set up in this bamboo forest building. Unless..."

"Unless what?" Tang Liuli hurriedly asked.

"Unless Zhu Wuyan's array formation cultivation has already reached the Advanced Spiritual Array Grandmaster Realm, I won't be able to tell." Yang Haolei smiled.

" Impossible. If you want to become a Spiritual Array Grandmaster, you'll have to be at least at the Soul Formation Stage. With the power of an Advanced Spiritual Array Grandmaster, you'll be one of the most powerful figures in the Eternal Empire. Why would you take a fancy to the tiny Tang family? " Tang Liuli shook her head. She didn't believe that Zhu Wuyang was a high-level Spiritual Array Grandmaster at the Soul Formation Stage or above. That was too far-fetched.

In Tang Liuli's opinion, even if Zhu Wuyang was a hidden expert, he was at the peak of the Nascent Soul Stage. He was most likely a Daoist Master of the Aurous Core Stage. It was impossible for him to be a Soul Formation Stage cultivator who had surpassed the Nascent Soul Stage. Moreover, he was a high-level Spiritual Array Grandmaster.

Such an existence was a legendary figure even to the entire Tang Trading Company. It was rare to see one in this lifetime, so how could he possibly coop himself up in the tiny Tang Trading Company?

However, the two of them did not know that this most impossible possibility was the truth.

After that, Yang Haolei carefully checked the bamboo grove several times. After confirming that there was no problem with it, he left sulkily.

Tang Liuli looked at the "ordinary" bamboo grove in front of her in a daze. She thought of her strange behavior two nights ago. Could it be that her head had been kicked by a donkey, which was why she did such a silly thing?

Or perhaps he really couldn't control himself, and his emotions overwhelmed his rationality. He had a special feeling and did that.

However, she was not her second sister, Tang Mingyue. She was always sad about spring and autumn. This did not match her character at all. No, this was not her personality.

But why did he suddenly pluck the fruits while riding on the wall the night before? Why did he squat under the stone chair to hide last night? Was his brain flooded?

Tang Liuli was a little confused as she thought about it. Her mind was in a mess. What was going on in the past two nights? Why did she do all those weird things? It was as if she had turned into her second sister, Tang Mingyue. After all, only her second sister could do these things.

After thinking for a long time, Tang Liuli couldn't get the gist of it, so she decided to do it again tonight. Everything could be repeated again and again, but not again and again. She didn't believe that she would do such a strange thing again tonight.

Moreover, this time, she had to focus on her target and not let her imagination run wild. She also had to bring the Qingxin Jade Pendant, the Millennium Frost, to ensure that she would not be disturbed by external objects. She had to enter Zhu Wuyang's bedroom and check his true body to determine if he was a hidden expert or if he was really just an ordinary person.

Chapter 749: I Want to Check You Up (1)

That night, it was dark and windy. Tang Liuli sneaked into the shadows of her own mansion and approached Zhu Wuwan's bamboo grove.

Those who knew naturally understood that Tang Liuli was doing this to confirm Zhu Wuwan's identity. Those who didn't know would think that the Tang family's Third Miss was preparing to ambush the handsome "weak scholar" Zhu Wuwan at night. After all, although she had only been in the Tang family estate for a few days, Zhu Wuwan's "handsome" reputation had already spread throughout the entire estate.

If not for that, the scandal between Zhu Wuwan and Tang Mingyue wouldn't have spread so much that it even alerted Tang Mingyue's fiancé, Song Yunfeng.

Seeing that they had already arrived at the outer wall of the bamboo grove, Tang Liuli carefully took out the Heart Cleansing Jade Pendant and the Millennium Frost to ensure that she would not be confused by external objects and that she would be awake. Only then did she cautiously enter the bamboo grove.

The bamboo grove was as ordinary as ever. There was nothing unusual about it. At least, Tang Liuli didn't notice anything unusual.

However, Tang Liuli became more and more careful as she walked. She slowly approached Zhu Wuyang's bedroom without being disturbed by anything. Even though she saw Guoguo on the wall and the narrow space under the stone chair, Tang Liuli remained unmoved.

She stealthily walked toward Zhu Wuwan's bedroom with determination, straightforwardness, and effort. As she got closer and closer, she became more and more nervous...

The seemingly ordinary small courtyard felt like a dragon's den and a tiger's den. Then, Tang Liuli walked into Zhu Wuyang's bedroom smoothly and saw Zhu Wuyang sleeping soundly on the bed.

This ...

Tang Liuli was a little confused. Why didn't anything unusual happen this time? She snuck into Zhu Wuwan's side smoothly, and nothing strange happened during that time.

Could it be that he was really distracted two nights ago, which was why he did those strange things? In fact, there were indeed no traps or arrays in the bamboo forest, and Zhu Wuwan was not some hidden expert?

At the thought of this, Tang Liuli still felt that something was wrong. No, she had to check it out personally. She sized up Zhu Wuan carefully and realized that he was sleeping soundly and didn't notice her infiltration.

Tang Liuli didn't sense any abnormalities from Zhu Wuan's body through her perception and spiritual probe alone. She felt that he was just an ordinary person.

After carefully probing for the time it took to brew a cup of tea, Tang Liuli, who had found nothing, decided to make a move. In order to avoid being noticed by Zhu Wuyang and waking up, and at the same time to test Zhu Wuyang, Tang Liuli took out the Bewitching Fragrance.

Looking at the bewitching fragrance lingering around Zhu Wuyan, Tang Liuli could clearly sense that he was sleeping more and more soundly. Clearly, the bewitching fragrance was taking effect. In that case, did it mean that Zhu Wuyan was indeed just an ordinary person and not some hidden expert?

Otherwise, Zhu Wuwan wouldn't have fallen asleep and lost track of where she was when faced with the Bewitching Fragrance that could at most knock out a perfected Foundation Establishment Cultivator.

Tang Liuli frowned slightly. She looked at Zhu Wuyang, who was sleeping like a beautiful man, and felt a little uneasy.

Therefore, after thinking for a moment, Tang Liuli decided to try it out personally to see if Zhu Wuyang was really a hidden expert.

At the thought of this, Tang Liuli's face turned red. She stretched out her soft hand and touched Zhu Wuwan.

Zhu Wuyang, who seemed to be unconscious, was actually more awake than anyone else. However, in order to avoid revealing his identity, he decided to play with Tang Liuli for a while.

After all, she was one of his future wives. He had to leave behind some embarrassing memories so that he could tease her more in the future.

As for why Zhu Wanhao had guessed that Tang Liuli would come tonight and turned off the spiritual array to beat her at her own game, lying on the bed and waiting for her, it was naturally based on speculation.

Of course, with Zhu Wuan's experience, how could he not see through Tang Liuli's character and deduce that she would come again tonight?

However, Zhu Wanhao didn't expect Tang Liuli to be so bold. Forget about the non-contact probing, she actually wanted to do it personally to confirm that this girl was really a virgin in her early twenties. How dare she do this?

Could it be that Zhu Wuwan had underestimated her own charm, or underestimated her negative understanding of human nature, or both?

Before Zhu Wuwan could secretly sigh at the declining morals of the world, even such a lively and cute little girl would do such indescribable things to him in the dark of the night, Tang Liuli's small hand had already landed on his body.

Tang Liuli started from her hands. After all, she was a virgin who had never experienced the world, unlike many female hooligans who went straight to the bottom.

As Tang Liuli caressed him, a familiar song rang in Zhu Wuwan's ears, and he couldn't help it.

Touch your hand, come with me; Touch your head, so gentle; Touch your face, you're so hot; Touch your back, sleep with me...

As she thought about it, Zhu Wuwan almost woke up from her "slumber" and sang and danced along with the background music in her mind. Fortunately, Zhu Wuwan had enough self-control and didn't do anything that would scare the little girl. Therefore, Tang Liuli could continue to caress her body "hehe hehe hehe", touching her like she was alive.

At this moment, Tang Liuli finally understood why she had done those strange things two nights ago. It turned out that she really couldn't help herself, just like now.

She couldn't be blamed for being too hooligan. It could only be said that Zhu Wuyang's muscles were too good. She couldn't help but be immersed in it, unaware of the passage of time.

Zhu Wuan felt as if he had returned to the time when he had just transmigrated. At that time, he was still a deposed crown prince. In order to hide himself, he was checked by an unknown female assassin without any scruples.

However, at that time, Zhu Wuyang was really in danger, so he had no choice but to do so. At that time, he was also unable to control his own fate.

However, at this moment, Zhu Wuyang was already in complete control of his own fate. Although he was still being touched here and there in order to hide himself, it was Zhu Wuyang's half-willingness. His life was not in danger, so he was very relaxed.

By the way, the female assassin who had once touched Zhu Wuyang was quite good-looking, so she was later taken into Zhu Wuyang's harem. In order to punish her, Zhu Wuyang directly made her pregnant with triplets, making a considerable contribution to the prosperity and revival of the Zhu family.

Therefore, Zhu Wuyang decided to punish Tang Liuli, the female Liu Mang, who dared to treat him like this. At the very least, her punishment could not be any lighter than the punishment of the female assassin who had touched Zhu Wuyang. Only then could he dispel the hatred in his heart.

Thinking of how he would punish Tang Liuli in the future, Zhu Wuyang finally calmed down a lot. She began to lie down and let herself be touched. It felt quite comfortable.

Unknowingly, the wee hours of the morning had passed and the sky had begun to brighten.

Chapter 750: I'm Really Crazy (1)

When they left the bamboo grove, Tang Liuli looked a little dazed. At this moment, she finally confirmed one thing. The previous two nights, water had indeed entered her brain, just like last night.

If that wasn't the case, she wouldn't have done that to Zhu Wuwan. Under normal circumstances, she wouldn't have done that. She could only say that she had been infected by her second sister, Tang Mingyue.

At the same time, Tang Liuli also confirmed one thing, and that was that Zhu Wuyang was indeed just an ordinary person. Of course, she had checked for several hours last night and basically did everything she could, but she still didn't find anything unusual. Could it be that she wasn't sure that Zhu Wuyang was an ordinary person?

Moreover, if Zhu Wuwan was really a hidden expert, why would she allow her to ravage her for such a long time in a coma? It didn't make sense at all.

However, Zhu Wuyang's hand felt really good, Tang Liuli thought to herself in a daze. A silly smile flashed across her exquisite little face, and she inexplicably had the urge to marry Zhu Wuyang.

However, when she thought of the difference in status between the two of them, Tang Liuli couldn't help but let out a long sigh. Even if she was willing, her family wouldn't be willing.

Unless one day she could break through the shackles of the natural moat and become a Golden Core, then she would have the right to freely choose her husband. However, that was not necessarily the case. After all, there were many Golden Cores and even Nascent Soul old monsters in the Yinqing Imperial Capital who were far stronger than her.

Even if the family couldn't stop her, what if a powerful big shot outside took a fancy to her?

Sigh, at worst, after becoming a Golden Core, he could just raise Zhu Wuan as a gigolo. Many female Golden Cores did this.

However, although her talent was good, it was still unknown whether she could break through to the Golden Core realm before she was 100 years old. After such a long time, who knew if Zhu Wuyang had aged?

What a headache!

Tang Liuli sighed helplessly. She was thinking about how to resolve this matter. At the same time, she understood her second sister, Tang Mingyue, a little. No wonder she had been running to the bamboo grove every day. Even if it wasn't for the poems, just for Zhu Wuyang's good looks, it was worth the trip.

Initially, Tang Liuli thought that she would lose interest in Zhu Wuwan after learning his true identity and confirming that he was not a hidden expert. However, she did not expect her interest in Zhu Wuwan to grow.

After Tang Liuli left, Zhu Wuwan opened her "drowsy" eyes and felt light all over. Although Tang Liuli's massage skills were a little rusty, they were very gentle and had a different kind of comfort. As expected of the woman he liked. Her self-taught massage skills were already so good. If she was taught a little, who knew what kind of heights she would reach.

Zhu Wuwan smiled slightly. Just as she was about to cultivate for a while, she felt an abnormal fluctuation coming from afar.

In the Tranquil Peace Courtyard, Wang Xinjing was staying in the Tang family's courtyard. At this moment, Wang Xinjing had yet to wake up, but a gray shadow of a perfected Foundation Establishment cultivator had silently appeared in the room, performing a special secret technique on Wang Xinjing.

However, even after using several secret techniques, they were ineffective. Wang Xinjing had long taken the corresponding spirit pills to prevent some secret techniques from revealing her secrets.

As one of the most important shopkeepers of the Tang Trading Company, Wang Xinjing grasped many secrets of the Tang Trading Company. Once they were leaked, it might cause a fatal blow to the Tang Trading Company. Therefore, some special elixirs had to be taken.

Seeing that the secret technique was useless, the gray shadow frowned and set up a soundproof array formation in the surroundings to wake Wang Xinjing up.

“Who are you?” Facing a sudden crisis, Wang Xinjing quickly reacted and looked at the gray figure with a slight frown.

The gray shadow was draped in a gray spiritual artifact that could conceal its tracks. It did not answer Wang Xinjing’s question. “Who I am is not important. What is important is that you answer my questions. Otherwise, your life will be in danger.”

“You ask?” Wang Xinjing’s expression was calm and did not show much panic.

“Do you have the records of the Tang Trading Company bribing officials?” asked the gray shadow.

” You’re from the Bai Trading Company, and you want to get a fake bribery record to frame the Tang Trading Company? ” Faced with the gray shadow’s question, Wang Xinjing’s eyes flashed coldly as she looked over.

The gray shadow smiled. ” Your reaction is quite fast. There’s no loophole in your words. However, since I’m here, it proves that this record is not fake. So, it’s useless to deny it. It’s better for you to tell me obediently. ”

” Our Tang Trading Company is a proper businessman. We never engage in those crooked ways. The so-called bribery records naturally don’t exist. ” Wang Xinjing denied it directly. Her attitude was very firm.

The gray shadow frowned. ” If you don’t tell me, I have many ways to deal with you. You should have heard of the Heart-piercing Bone-devouring Needle. So I advise you not to refuse a toast only to drink a forfeit. ”

"You can try." Wang Xinjing retorted. There was not a hint of fear on her beautiful face. Since she was able to sit in the position of the core treasurer of the Tang Trading Company as a martial artist, it was enough to show Wang Xinjing's ability. This little storm would not scare her.

Seeing this scene, the gray shadow also felt that it was troublesome. It was almost dawn, and he did not dare to delay too much time here. It seemed that he still had to follow the original plan to kidnap Wang Xinjing and slowly interrogate her.

He had wanted to save some trouble, but it seemed that he still had to abduct her. He had really wasted dozens of breaths.

Thinking of this, the gray shadow no longer hesitated. Just as he was about to knock Wang Xinjing unconscious, he felt pain all over his body. The Heart Piercing Bone Devouring Needle hidden in his body had inexplicably pierced into his own body.

However, he clearly wasn't controlling this vicious magic tool, so how did it pierce into his body? The grey shadow was stunned for a moment, then fell to the ground and started rolling around crazily. "Ah...Ouch...Oh ... Who touched my Heart Piercing Bone Devouring Needle!"

Looking at the gray shadow cultivator rolling on the ground, Wang Xinjing was also stunned. She immediately realized that someone must have saved her. Otherwise, no matter how stupid a perfected Foundation Establishment cultivator was, he would not do such a self-harming thing. The gray shadow's miserable cry also told Wang Xinjing the reason.

Wang Xinjing looked around in shock, but she did not find any traces of a master. However, the miserable appearance of the gray shadow cultivator in front of her clearly told Wang Xinjing that he had indeed been plotted against. If not for this, Wang Xinjing would have been kidnapped by now.

Because the gray shadow cultivator had caused too much of a commotion, he had forcefully shattered the simple soundproof array formation, immediately attracting a large number of Tang clan guards to come and isolate the gray shadow cultivator. Wang Xinjing was also protected.

Tang Yelan naturally rushed over as well. When he saw the strange scene in front of him, he furrowed his brows and pulled Wang Xinjing's hand towards a nearby room. "Xin Jing, are you alright? What happened just now?"
