Chapter 71 - 71: The Crown Prince Has Been Crippled

Chapter 71: The Crown Prince Has Been Crippled

When they learned that Zhu Wuan was not killed by the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, and that he was even given the position of Crown Prince for the time being, and that he was allowed to "have a thousand children" in the future and become a "reproduction tool" of the Zhu royal family, the princes, princesses, and concubines finally heaved a sigh of relief.

This shield was finally saved. At least for a short period of time, they did not have to worry that one of them would be forced to the position of Crown Prince.

However, Zhu Wuan, this useless Crown Prince, was quite lucky this time. He was actually able to keep his position as Crown Prince under such circumstances.

But at the same time that they heaved a sigh of relief, many princes and princesses also realized that this "useless crown prince" Zhu Wuan was probably no longer of any value. In other words, there was no possibility of him competing with them for the throne.

Didn't he see that even Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had given up on him and treated him as a "reproduction tool" of the Zhu royal family? Under such circumstances, what threat could Zhu Wuyang pose?

Since that was the case, there was no point in continuing to monitor this useless Crown Prince. It was just a waste of manpower and resources.

The two Connate Realm experts who had just been sent to the Crown Prince Palace to protect Zhu Wuan, the shield, left immediately and returned to their respective masters without even saying goodbye.

There was also Zhu Wuyan's mother's best friend, Zhang Mingli, and Zhu Wuyan's good brother in the palace, Zhu Libo. Then, they recalled Wei Ancai and Little Blessing.

This was really Zhu Wuyan's "good brother" and Consort Mother's "best friend" "Congratulations to the host for being abandoned by a Connate realm martial artist for the first time in his life. You have obtained 20000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being abandoned by Wei Ancai and Little Blessing for the first time in your life. You have received 10000 breakthrough points..."

“Congratulations to the host for the first time in his life being killed by palace maids Xiaolu, Jin Rong, Jie Jie ... Abandon, you have obtained 10000 breakthrough points...

In the vast Crown Prince's Palace, more than thirty guards, palace maids, and eunuchs had left in just a day or so. The more polite ones even greeted them, but most of them didn't even greet them. It was obvious that they didn't think highly of Zhu Wuyang.

A Crown Prince who dared to break his virginity in the Body Tempering stage would not even be able to enter the Meridian Casting stage. What future would there be? Even if he was deposed as the Crown Prince and became a Prince of Peace, he would still be at the bottom. Even the slightly motivated guards, eunuchs, and palace maids would not stay.

Not to mention that many of the guards, palace maids, and eunuchs were spies of the other princes and princesses. Now that it was confirmed that Zhu Wuyang no longer had the possibility of fighting for the throne, there was no need to waste manpower and resources to monitor Zhu Wuyang and prevent him from using the position of Crown Prince to become powerful.

As for protecting this shield, according to the news from the Palace of Heavenly Purity, if it wasn't for the fact that they were worried that deposing the Crown Prince so early would easily cause a stir in the court, it would be a little exaggerated to change the Crown Prince so quickly. After all, Zhu Wuyang had only been the new Crown Prince for about a week.

Therefore, Zhu Wuan could still be the Crown Prince for a period of time. When the situation stabilized, he would definitely be crippled by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu and replaced by someone else.

Therefore, those princes and princesses who might be pushed to the position of crown prince were now trying their best to reduce their sense of existence and avoid being chosen by Crazy Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

As for Zhu Wanhao, he could still be the crown prince for a while and be a shield for a while. He could be considered to be making use of trash.

Although such an outcome was not too good for the princes and princesses, it was not too bad either. At least it could buy them some time.

Looking at the series of system notifications, Zhu Wuyang felt both pain and joy.

The painful part was naturally that he had been forced to obtain so many breakthrough points by the Special Encounter System, and his strength would increase by a large margin again. The happy part was naturally that he had lost so many spies and spies, and his life as an otaku in the Crown Prince Palace would be a little easier.

After all, the ones who had left these two days were elite guards, eunuchs, and palace maids. They had basically mastered powerful detection techniques and were responsible for monitoring Zhu Wuyang at all times. Now that they had left, Zhu Wuyang would be able to be spied on many times less, and the chances of being exposed would also be greatly reduced.

Of course, this did not mean that Zhu Wuyang could rest easy. Among the remaining dozens of guards, eunuchs, and palace maids, there should be spies and spies. After all, there were many suspicious princes and princesses. Zhu Wuyang would not be able to rest easy in the future.

Those princes and princesses who had completely regarded Zhu Wuan as a good-for-nothing ” and felt that he had lost his value had never thought that Zhu Wuan had already stepped into the Foundation Meridian stage. No matter how much fun he had every night, it would not affect his martial arts future.

After all, Zhu Wuan was only seventeen years old. Even if she was the most talented martial arts prodigy in the history of the Nine Zhao Nation, coupled with the assistance of a large number of natural treasures, it was impossible for her to enter the Foundation Meridian stage before the age of twenty.

Was Zhu Wuyang such a genius?

The answer was naturally no. Therefore, Zhu Wuwan was definitely a martial artist in the tempered body stage. Moreover, she had already lost her virginity. It was said that she only had the strength of a perfected Golden Bone Refinement. Naturally, she was already crippled. Her path of martial arts was basically ruined.

However, these people did not know that even if Zhu Wuwan really indulged himself every night during the Body Tempering stage, with the Special Encounter System in hand, he would only improve faster and not lose his future.

Not to mention that Zhu Wuan had already entered the Vein Casting stage. The loss of his primordial yang would no longer affect his cultivation.

Although he had lost dozens of shackles, as a Crown Prince who had been completely crippled “, he had also encountered some troubles because of this matter.

In front of Xuan Bing’s bed in the Crown Prince’s bedroom.

The ten peerless beauties that Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had bestowed upon him were lined up in a row, smiling sweetly as they bowed towards Zhu Wuwan.

These ten peerless beauties were the essence of the Palace of Heavenly Purity. Each of them was a virgin and had top-notch looks. If they were on Earth, each of them would have the top ten most beautiful faces in the world. One could imagine how beautiful they were.

She was as beautiful as a painting and could topple a country!

In her previous life, Zhu Wanhao had only seen such beautiful girls on her phone, on TV, and in movies. Now, not only could she see them in real life, but she could also do whatever she wanted with them. It seemed quite satisfying to be a "useless prince."

Although he had suffered a lot in the week he transmigrated, he had also enjoyed a lot. It seemed that he would be able to enjoy more things in the future. Thinking about it, it didn't seem like a loss.

Zhu Wuwan smiled. Then, she heard a series of notifications from the system..

Chapter 72: Second-Rate Expert (1)

"Congratulations to the host for seeing the peerless beauty Shi Yixi for the first time in his life. You have obtained 6000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for possessing the peerless beauty Shi Yixi for the first time in his life. You have obtained 10000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for seeing the peerless beauty Wang Zhaoyue for the first time in his life. You have obtained 6000 breakthrough points..."

In just a few short breaths, Zhu Wuyang had gained nearly 200,000 breakthrough points from these ten peerless beauties. Such a speed left Zhu Wuyang speechless.

Just by meeting them, he had already obtained so many breakthrough points. If he did anything to them next, wouldn't he be forced to obtain more breakthrough points?

Perhaps some people would say that if that was the case, Zhu Wuyang could choose not to use these peerless beauties. However, if Zhu Wuyang dared to do so, the first thing that would happen would be to Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

At that time, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would suspect that Zhu Wuyang was lying to him and conduct a comprehensive and detailed investigation on Zhu freewebnovel.com

Wuyang. Once Zhu Wuyang's true strength was discovered, what awaited Zhu Wuyang would be a disaster.

Zhu Wuwan had already said that he wanted to be a "reproduction tool" for the Zhu Royal Family and " contribute " to the development of the Zhu Royal Family. In the end, he did not even touch so many beautiful women. It was obvious that he had ill intentions. He might even pretend that his body had been broken.

Even the other princes and princesses would be extremely wary of Zhu Wuyang. If they sent experts into the Crown Prince's Palace to monitor Zhu Wuyang twenty-four hours a day, Zhu Wuyang's days would definitely be difficult.

Such a consequence was definitely not something that Zhu Wuyang could bear.

Therefore, he had to use the Ten Great Beauties.

Hence, Zhu Wuyang chose Shi Yixi to serve him that night.

"Congratulations to the host for speaking to the peerless beauty Shi Yixi for the first time in your life. You have obtained 10000 breakthrough points..." "Congratulations to the host for holding hands with the peerless beauty Shi Yixi for the first time in his life. You have obtained 30000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for hugging the peerless beauty Shi Yixi for the first time in your life. You have obtained 50000 breakthrough points..."

From knowing her to possessing her, it only took a few hours for Zhu Wuyang to have a beautiful girlfriend.

Yes, she was just a girlfriend, not even a concubine. After all, she had not officially married. Being able to be the Crown Prince's girlfriend for the time being was already very good for these beautiful palace maids.

After all, other than being exceptionally beautiful and good at serving people, these peerless beauties were still virgins. They never fought for love and followed Zhu Wuyang's arrangements...other than that, there didn't seem to be any other good points, although Zhu Wuyang had never met such a good girlfriend when she was on Earth.

Indeed, power, status, wealth...It could also increase the level of the women around him.

However, although he had a beautiful girlfriend, Zhu Wuyang was still a little unhappy. After obtaining so many breakthrough points in such a short period of time, it was time for Zhu Wuyang to break through again.

According to the experience and lessons of millions of years in the martial arts world, after forging the underwater chakra meridians, the next best choice was to forge the vitality chakra meridians.

The Life Qi Chakra Meridian revolved around a martial artist's Dantian. Once it was forged, it could greatly increase the amount of a martial artist's Inner Qi. Whether it was its density or purity, it would increase by several times.

The most important thing was to let the Internal Qi in the lower Dantian form a small cycle through the Qi Chakra Meridian, so that the recovery speed of the warrior's Internal Qi would soar. As long as the warrior did not use any moves that consumed too much Internal Qi, the warrior could obtain an endless supply of Internal Qi through the small cycle. There was almost no possibility of exhaustion.

With the guidance of the embryonic form of the spirit meridian, Zhu Wuyang only needed to move the embryonic form of the spirit meridian around his lower dantian and start forging the Qi Chakra Meridian along the embryonic form of the spirit meridian.

A huge amount of breakthrough points turned into a strange power that surged over, assisting Zhu Wuwan in forging his vital energy chakra at an astonishing speed. Jiang He's inner Qi surged over, effectively fusing with Zhu Wuwan's essence, spirit, and soul. According to the secret of Jiang He's Meridian Forging Record, he forged a vital energy chakra that was like a great river.

As the Life Energy Chakra Meridian was forged, Zhu Wuwan could clearly feel the pressure that the Life Energy Chakra Meridian exerted on his body. During the process of the pressure, a large amount of Jiang He's Inner Qi was hammered into every part of his body, making his body take another step forward, becoming harder and more flexible.

At the same time, Zhu Wuyan's inner Qi was also being forged bit by bit along with the Life Energy Chakra Meridian, becoming more and more active. It was as if they were also looking forward to the appearance of the Life Energy Chakra Meridian, giving them an inexhaustible source.

The peerless beauty Shi Yixi was lying next to him, sleeping tiredly. Although she was particularly good-looking, her strength was only at the Tendon Refinement realm, which was much weaker than Zhu Wuyang.

Therefore, she didn't notice such a huge commotion in Zhu Wuan's body at all.

She thought that Zhu Wuan had fallen asleep as well, but she didn't know that Zhu Wuan's body was undergoing a drastic change, and it was about to reach a higher level.

With the help of the embryonic form of the spirit meridian and the breakthrough point, Zhu Wuwan basically did not feel much difficulty. She was able to cast the preliminary Life Energy Chakra Meridian. Although it was barely formed, it also meant that Zhu Wuwan had broken through again.

3rd level of Cast Vein!

The three Chakra Meridians followed the mysterious path and shuttled through Zhu Wuyan's body in an orderly manner. Each Chakra Meridian was nine meters long. Whether it was hardness or flexibility, they far exceeded martial artists of the same level.

Even the newly forged Life Energy Chakra Meridians were comparable to the Life Energy Chakra Meridians that ordinary martial artists had tempered to the limit.

In the Jianghu of the Nine Zhao Nation, there were some martial artists who cultivated extremely poor cultivation techniques. They could only forge three Chakra Meridians at the Cast Meridian stage. To them, this was already the perfected Cast Meridian stage.

However, to Zhu Wuan, who had just formed three Chakra Meridians, he was still at the initial stage of the Cast Meridian realm. Even so, Zhu Wuan's strength had far surpassed this so-called second-rate peak martial artist who had perfected the Cast Meridian realm.

In other words, based on Zhu Wuan's current strength, he was barely qualified to be called a second-rate expert in the martial arts world.

With such strength, no matter which prefecture or county in the Nine Zhao Nation, he would be able to rank among the top. At this moment, Zhu Wuwan was only a seventeen-year-old youth..

Chapter 73: Peerless Fusion

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the third stage of the Cast Vein for the first time in his life. You have obtained 100,000 breakthrough points..."

The 100,000 breakthrough points he obtained after breaking through allowed Zhu Wuwan to stabilize her current strength realm, but it also made things worse for her.

Sighing, Zhu Wuwan could only absorb this wave of breakthrough points and start sleeping.

In the following night, Zhu Wuyang obtained a breakthrough point of a few hundred thousand yuan due to some indescribable actions. The next morning, she asked Shi Yixi to return to her residence.

Tonight, Zhu Wuyang was prepared to change to a beautiful woman to serve him. After all, this was in line with his current identity. Moreover, Zhu Wuyang also felt a little expectant. After all, he was also a man.

He liked novelty!

However, before that, he had to deal with today's medicinal cuisine and homework.

What made Zhu Wanhao happy was that the level of the medicinal cuisine today had plummeted. It was not even half of what it was yesterday. This undoubtedly made Zhu Wanhao's breakthrough points much lesser.

Even the heavenly and earthly treasures he consumed today were far inferior to yesterday's Pulse Restoring Powder. However, it still brought Zhu Wuwan more than 100,000 breakthrough points.

Most importantly, yesterday, it was the Assistant Minister of the Ministry of Rites and the Assistant Minister of the Bureau of Military Personnel who had personally taught Zhu Wuan about strategy and military studies. However, today, it was replaced by an ordinary doctor from the Ministry of Rites and the Bureau of Military Personnel. His rank and authority were far inferior to the Assistant Minister of the Ministry of Rites and the Assistant Minister of the Bureau of Military Personnel from yesterday.

Reality was indeed terrifying. However, for Zhu Wuyang, who was bent on keeping a low profile and earning less breakthrough points, all of this was clearly a good thing.

It was one thing for the teachers to be demoted, but the two new teachers, the Board of Rites doctor and the Board of Military Personnel doctor, were even very perfunctory when teaching. It was obvious that they were just reading the book without any understanding of their own.

It was obvious that even they were extremely pessimistic about the already 'crippled' Crown Prince, Zhu Wuyang. Instead of wasting time and effort to explain, it was better to teach him casually.

As for whether Zhu Wuan, the 'crippled' Crown Prince, had learned anything, seeing how he had been lying in bed and wandering about in a daze, he should, might, have learned something as well...He probably didn't learn it.

Since the teacher was teaching perfunctorily, then don't blame Zhu Wuwan for being perfunctory. Coincidentally, he also wanted to do so to avoid learning too much and obtain a lot of breakthrough points.

Previously, when the Assistant Minister of Rites and the Assistant Minister of the Ministry of War came to teach, Zhu Wuyan wanted to do the same. Unfortunately, these two fellows were the big shots of the court and even had the orders of the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. Zhu Wuyan did not dare to be presumptuous.

However, now that the teachers had changed to these two little doctors, they were not serious in their teaching. What was Zhu Wuwan learning? Although he only needed to divert a little attention, he would be able to completely remember and understand what these two doctors taught.

However, in order to obtain less breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang would rather let her imagination run wild than do so.

Even so, from time to time, there would be some inexplicable breakthrough points that hit him, making Zhu Wuwan extremely annoyed.

"Congratulations to the host for the first time in your life that the beauty Shi Yixi has complained behind your back. You have obtained 3000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being missed by the peerless beauty Shi Yixi for the first time in his life. You have obtained 3000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being anticipated by the peerless beauty Wang Zhaoyue for the first time in your life. You have obtained 3000 breakthrough points..."

Alright then, he would choose Wang Zhaoyue to serve him tonight.

It was not a good idea to always lie in bed and let his imagination run wild. It was a little too boring and annoying. In that case, he should think about what kind of hiding secret technique he should cultivate next.

Now that he had cultivated the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Skill to the Perfection Realm, it could be said that he could not advance any further. In order to better conceal his strength and avoid being discovered by anyone, could he choose another secret skill to cultivate?

As he thought about it, the contents of the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Technique inexplicably appeared in Zhu Wuwan's mind. He wondered which secret technique he should choose to hide so that it could be combined with the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Technique to produce the effect of one plus one plus one greater than three.

The contents of the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Skill flashed through his mind like a lantern. For Zhu Wanhao, who had already cultivated these two peerless concealment secret skills to the Perfection Realm, these two peerless secret skills were simply clear to him. He could see through them completely.

Observing the patterns on the palm was just so, reaching the acme of perfection was just ordinary.

After thinking for a long time, Zhu Wuwan couldn't find a suitable concealment secret technique that could perfectly cooperate with the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Technique. Even if she found it, its level was too low and there was really not much value in cultivating it.

He frowned slightly. Since he couldn't find it, could he merge these two peerless concealment secret skills and transform them into an even stronger concealment secret skill?

With this thought in mind, the contents of the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Technique appeared at the same time and rippled in Zhu Wuwan's mind. Zhu Wuwan quickly saw the similarities between the two, and there were quite a few of them.

After all, when Zhu Wuwan chose Mustard Secret Technique as the second concealment martial art to cultivate, she wanted to complement Green Dragon Concealment, which was why there were so many similarities.

With these places as the base point, Zhu Wuwan began to fuse these two peerless concealment secret techniques, bit by bit removing the weeds and retaining the essence. The places where the essence of the two was retained gradually fused into one, forming an even more powerful concealment secret technique.

Everything went smoothly beyond his imagination. Zhu Wuyan, who was born sacred, had a high comprehension ability, and had cultivated these two peerless concealment secret skills to perfection, seemed to be aided by God when he fused the two concealment secret skills. Very soon, he had the initial stage of fusing these two peerless concealment secret skills.

From the point of view of the Board of Rites doctor beside him, Zhu Wuyan was lying in bed and seemed to have already fallen asleep. He was really unteachable.

However, he had no idea how earth-shattering Zhu Wuyang was doing.

To Zhu Wuan, fusing these two peerless concealment secret techniques was a simple matter. It did not seem to be too difficult. This kind of thing should not be too difficult for others.

However, what Zhu Wuwan did not know was that the reason why he was able to do so was because he had a flawless Dao foundation, was born sacred, had a photographic memory, and had top-notch comprehension...

His extraordinary talent and comprehension ability gave Zhu Wuwan such an amazing comprehension ability, allowing him to easily fuse these two peerless concealment secret techniques.

Haha!

Chapter 74: Mythical Secret Technique (1)

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was able to become the number one martial artist in the Nine Zhao Nation. His strength could be said to be invincible in the Nine Zhao Nation. It was naturally not enough to just have talent and aptitude. His comprehension was also quite shocking.

However, even with Zhu Zhenwu's comprehension ability, he could only fuse the secret arts that were close to the top level at most. This still required a long time of deduction and practice. If he was not careful, he might fail.

It was already very impressive to be able to fuse two or three martial arts secret skills that were close to top-notch in one's entire life. From this, one could see how difficult it was to fuse martial arts secret skills.

However, Zhu Wanwan had spent only a few hours to integrate the Azure Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Skill, two peerless martial arts. If he were to compare them with Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, the difference between the two would be at least hundreds of thousands of times. They were simply incomparable.

Therefore, in the eyes of the other martial arts masters in the world of martial artists, the fusion secret technique that seemed simple to Zhu Wuwan was as difficult as ascending to the heavens.

The greatest benefit that the Flawless Dao Foundation brought to Zhu Wuwan was that she was born sacred and had top-notch comprehension. As for her outstanding talent and aptitude, it was not worth mentioning under the cover of the Special Encounter System.

"Congratulations to the host for fusing a Mythical secret technique for the first time in his life. You have obtained 2 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for naming the Mythical secret technique that you created for the first time in your life as Azure Dragon Mustard. You have obtained 50,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for cultivating the Mythical secret technique, Azure Dragon Mustard, for the first time in his life. You have obtained 100,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for cultivating the Mythical secret technique, Azure Dragon Mustard, for the first time in your life. You have obtained 200,000 breakthrough points..."

A few hours later, Zhu Wuwan successfully fused the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Technique together, forming a martial arts secret technique that transcended the peerless realm.

Mythical secret technique, Azure Dragon Mustard!

Even in the entire Nine Zhao Nation, there weren't many martial arts secret skills like this. It was even said that in the Zhu Royal Family of the Nine Zhao Nation, there were only two or three mythical-level martial arts secret skills. Each of them was the treasure of the Zhu Royal Family. Even many princes and princesses were not qualified to cultivate them.

As the Crown Prince, Zhu Wuyan's strongest martial art was only at the peerless level. He had not even cultivated a single mythical-level martial art secret technique. From this, it could be seen how rare mythical-level martial art secret techniques were.

However, at this moment, Zhu Wuan had used his top-notch comprehension ability to fuse two peerless concealment secret techniques and create a mythical-level secret technique for himself.

If this matter were to spread, it would definitely shake the entire Nine Zhao Nation and even the Southern Wasteland.

Zhu Wuyan would also be targeted by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu at the first moment and would not live for more than three minutes...

As for this Mythical Rank concealment secret technique, because it was a fusion of the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Technique, Zhu Wuwan named it the Green Dragon Mustard.

Its power was several times stronger than the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Technique combined. Moreover, it effectively fused the advantages of the two and expanded the advantages of the two by more than ten times.

At this moment, with the help of the Green Dragon Mustard, Zhu Wuyan could even suppress the strange power transformed by millions of breakthrough points. He could effectively hide his strength in front of the peerless experts of the Connate perfection. Basically, he did not have to worry about being detected by the Connate martial artists in the palace.

He could also freely control the strength he revealed to the outside world. He could make the strength he revealed to the outside world extremely weak, but he could also make the strength he revealed to the outside world extremely strong. He could even simulate the aura of a Xiantian Realm martial artist or above.

As this Mythical Secret Skill was created by Zhu Wuwan, after cultivating it for a while, Zhu Wuwan raised it to the Perfection Realm.

In the entire Nine Zhao Country, there were not many martial artists who could master a mythical-level secret skill at the Perfection Level.

However, this naturally gave Zhu Wuwan a large number of breakthrough points, which amounted to a few million.

Although it was not difficult to suppress these breakthrough points with the perfected Azure Dragon Mustard, why would Zhu Wuwan suppress it? He had to absorb it sooner or later anyway, so he might as well absorb it now.

As for the doctor of the Ministry of War beside him, his strength was only at the Cast Pulse stage. Although he had already reached the sixth level of Cast Pulse, his combat strength was still inferior to Zhu Wuyan. It was a piece of cake for Zhu Wuyan to hide from him.

Even though this fellow also bore the responsibility of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's eyes and ears, he would check on Zhu Wuyang from time to time during the teaching period. Unfortunately, he was never able to check on Zhu Wuyang's true strength.

Zhu Wuwan could even easily absorb the surging breakthrough points while hiding his strength, not letting the other party discover any clues.

As a large number of breakthrough points transformed into a strange force that poured into his body, Zhu Wuwan's strength soared at a speed visible to the naked eye. In just ten minutes, Zhu Wuwan had already reached the perfection of the third tier of the Cast Vein. Next, it was time to break through to the fourth tier of the Cast Vein. This was also the middle stage of the Cast Vein. It was a little difficult to break through this bottleneck.

However, in the face of Jiang He's vigorous and pure Inner Qi, the endless stream of breakthrough points, and the embryonic form of the spirit meridians, this bottleneck was nothing to Zhu Wuwan.

Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian!

This was the fourth chakra meridian that martial artists needed to forge. It connected the martial artist's stomach and dantian. Once it was successfully forged, it could help the martial artist effectively digest all kinds of natural treasures and unleash the greatest effect of these natural treasures, allowing the martial artist's strength to soar.

If one were to say that before forging the Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian, the utilization rate of a martial artist for various elixirs was about 30%, after forging the Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian, the utilization rate of a martial artist for various elixirs could reach at least 80%. The difference was more than two times, almost three times.

In addition to elixirs, the Sky Swallowing Spiritual Meridian could also help warriors effectively digest the energy in various foods, allowing them to obtain the greatest benefits. It could even expel some of the harmful things in certain foods according to the needs of the warriors.

In other words, once the Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian was forged, ordinary poisons would not be able to harm the martial artist in the slightest. As soon as they entered the martial artist's stomach, they would be expelled by the Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian..

Chapter 75: The Strongest Prince

The stronger the Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian, the more thorough the martial artist's absorption of spirit pills!

The stronger the Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian, the more powerful the martial artist's utilization of the beneficial elements in food would be!

The stronger the Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian, the more astonishing the martial artist's ability to expel poison!

Therefore, the importance of the Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian could be imagined. It could effectively promote the improvement of a martial artist's strength, allowing a martial artist's combat strength to obtain a huge increase.

The contents of Jiang He's Meridian Forging Manual surfaced in his mind, and Zhu Wuwan began to forge his fourth chakra meridian, controlling Jiang He's inner Qi and the strange power formed by the breakthrough point as if he were his own arm.

Compared to the first three Chakra Meridians, the fourth Chakra Meridian was much more difficult to forge.

However, with the skeleton formed by the embryonic form of the spirit vein, what Zhu Wuwan needed to do was to refine and consolidate this skeleton, and then fill it up. This way, he could initially forge the Heaven Devouring Chakra Meridian.

Everyone knew that in the process of building a house, the foundation of the house and the frame of the house were the most important and the most difficult to build. Once these foundations and frames were built, the rest of the construction would be much easier.

The embryonic form of the spirit meridian was equivalent to laying the foundation and skeleton for Zhu Wuwan. Zhu Wuwan only needed to temper this foundation and skeleton a little more before he could start building a house, which was to forge the chakra meridians.

The strange power that the breakthrough point transformed into could also effectively help Zhu Wuwan build his foundation and skeleton, and Jiang He's inner Qi was several times purer than martial artists of the same level.

With all these advantages combined, Zhu Wuwan's chances of breaking through the bottleneck soared. However, his cultivation foundation was amazing, so the corresponding difficulty of breaking through increased.

Soon, a nine-meter-long Chakra Meridian that connected the stomach and lower Dantian appeared in Zhu Wuwan's body. Although it was only the initial stage and relatively weak, it also meant that Zhu Wuwan had broken through a major bottleneck and stepped into a new stage.

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the fourth stage of Cast Vein for the first time in his life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points. In view of the importance of strength, 90% of the breakthrough points will automatically be used to increase the host's strength!"

The Special Encounter System sent Death Knell in time and gave Zhu Wuwan 300,000 breakthrough points. After absorbing 90% of the breakthrough points that were forcefully poured in, Zhu Wuwan's strength had already completely consolidated at the fourth level of Cast Vein.

Jiang He's inner Qi was several times stronger than a martial artist of the same rank in both quantity and quality. Whether it was the hardness or flexibility of the body, it was also several times stronger than martial artists of the same rank. The toughness of each chakra meridian was also several times that of martial artists of the same level.

In summary, Zhu Wuyan's overall strength was more than ten times that of martial artists of the same cultivation level. In other words, although Zhu Wuyan was only a martial artist of the fourth stage of the Cast Meridian Realm, she could completely sweep away martial artists of the fifth or even sixth stage of the Cast Meridian Realm.

In the entire martial world, martial artists below the third stage of the Cast Vein Realm were generally called third-rate experts. Those above the third stage of the Cast Vein Realm and below the sixth stage of the Cast Vein Realm were second-rate experts.

As for martial artists above the 6th Tier of Cast Meridian, those who possessed martial arts manuals that could forge more than 6 Chakra Meridians could be counted on one hand. These people could be considered as quasi first-rate experts.

Therefore, with Zhu Wanhao's current strength, she was firmly in the ranks of second-rate experts, and she was one of the stronger ones among them.

When he advanced to the fifth stage of Cast Vein, he might be able to gain the reputation of a quasi-first-rate expert in the pugilistic world.

Such strength was unremarkable in the Imperial Palace. If it was in another place, he would be a big shot who could easily dominate a region.

To put it bluntly, Zhu Wuyang's current combat strength was firmly ranked first among all the princes and princesses.

Those princes and princesses had been clamoring all day long that Zhu Wuan was completely crippled and could only be a reproduction tool waiting to die in the future. However, they did not know that Zhu Wuan already possessed the combat power and strength to crush them at this moment.

If Zhu Wuyang was willing, she could beat these idiots to the ground in minutes, leaving them without the slightest bit of strength to retaliate.

Compared to Zhu Wuyang, they were the real trash.

Most importantly, at this moment, Zhu Wuan had already been labeled as the ' Trash Crown Prince '. In everyone's eyes, Zhu Wuan was already crippled.

These princes and princesses, concubines, and dignitaries...Even Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu no longer paid attention to Zhu Wuyan. This would definitely allow Zhu Wuyan to obtain a period of stable development.

Even though Zhu Wuyan was already deliberately suppressing the growth of her strength, if nothing unexpected happened, when this period of unnoticed time passed, Zhu Wuyan's strength would definitely be able to obtain a huge increase.

At that time, once Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was finished, with the strength that Zhu Wuyang had, as long as he manipulated it properly, he could completely leap up and sweep away all the princes and princesses. He would become the new emperor of the Nine Zhao Country and possess supreme authority and power.

The territory of the Nine Zhao Country was even larger than China on Earth, completely surpassing those dynasties in ancient China. If Zhu Wuyang could become the emperor of the Nine Zhao Country, just imagine how happy the emperors of those dynasties in ancient China would be. Zhu Wuyang could be as happy as that, or even more so.

The most important thing was that Zhu Wuyang would no longer have to suppress her own strength. With the help of the special encounter system, Zhu Wuyang could completely enjoy many firsts without any restraint, obtain unimaginable breakthrough points, and increase her strength at a terrifying speed.

At that time, not to mention being invincible in the Connate Realm, even if it was a realm that surpassed the Connate Realm, Zhu Wuwan might be able to reach it.

Therefore, the following days were bound to be wonderful. Zhu Wuyang could finally breathe a sigh of relief and live a peaceful and beautiful life.

It was inevitable that the Special Encounter System would force a large number of breakthrough points to increase his strength by a few more levels. If he really increased his strength quickly enough, Zhu Wuwan had already decided that he would not have to suppress his strength in the future. At that time, he could think of ways to increase his strength.

As long as he had the innate invincible combat strength, even if Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu discovered him, Zhu Wuwan would not be afraid anymore.

However, when he thought about it, he was at least ten major realms away from Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. Moreover, the further he advanced, the harder it would be to advance, and the more time and energy he would need to spend.

Therefore, he should continue to suppress the growth of his strength for the time being. He should avoid increasing his strength too quickly. The harder it would be to hide. Perhaps Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would die one day. At that time, he would no longer have to endure it.

After all, if a warrior broke through the shackles of the Inborn Realm and advanced to the Inborn Realm, his Inner Qi would transform into Inner Essence, and the difficulty of hiding it would increase drastically. Even the Mythical Secret Skill, Azure Dragon Mustard, would have a great difficulty in completely hiding from the transformed Inner Qi..

Chapter 76: The Dream of an Earth Man (1)

The policy teacher had been demoted from the Minister of Rites to the Minister of Rites, and the military teacher had been demoted from the Minister of War to the Minister of War. The difference was a huge level, and their power and ability were completely different.

As for the small test, it was even more directly canceled. It would be very difficult to have it again in the future. Therefore, Zhu Wuyan's days became much calmer and she was neglected too much.

All in all, it was better than before.

Zhu Wuwan was like a caged bird that had moved from a small cage to a house. The room was much bigger, and there was much less surveillance and imprisonment.

Even though she had lost a lot of good treatment and was looked down upon by many people, this was exactly what Zhu Wuyang needed.

For Zhu Wuyang, who had lived two lives, face was nothing. What he valued the most was the real benefits.

If you look down on me, so be it. Don't pay attention to me and monitor me in the future.

After the doctor of the Ministry of War left and finished his dinner, which was of a plummeting quality, Zhu Wuyang once again hid in the secret training room and began to practice the Nine Dragons Fist and the Illusion God Steps.

After the lesson from Chu Xia, Zhu Wuwan became much more careful during the cultivation process in the secret cultivation room. She would go out to take a look from time to time to prevent herself from being spied on again.

After confirming Chu Xia's reliability, Zhu Wuyang would arrange for Chu Xia to help him stand guard. That way, it would be safer.

However, women in ancient times were really pure and loyal. When Zhu Wuwan took Chu Xia's first time, she seemed to have taken Chu Xia's heart as well. At least, Chu Xia had betrayed the 38th Prince who had nurtured her.

Even after Shi Yixi was possessed by him, her loyalty soared. She had signs of abandoning the Palace of Heavenly Purity and wholeheartedly following Zhu Wuyan.

This could only be said to be the death of feudalism, but Zhu Wuyang liked it!

Occasionally, a bold idea would pop up in Zhu Wuwan's mind. He wondered if he could make use of the feudal loyalty of ancient women to develop more of the Infernal Affairs.

In any case, Zhu Wuyang wasn't like the other princes in the palace who were in the Body Tempering Stage and didn't dare to lose their virginity, leaving so many beautiful palace maids to waste their time.

Zhu Wuyan's current position was a "reproduction tool", the "reproduction tool" of the new generation of the Zhu royal family. It had even been "stamped and confirmed" by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

"Swoosh, swoosh, swoosh..."

At a certain moment, illusions appeared around Zhu Wuyang. There were no less than nine of them, as if they were real. Even Connate realm martial artists could not detect which was real and which was illusory.

"Congratulations to the host for cultivating the peerless movement technique, the Illusion God Steps, to the Small Success Realm for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100,000 breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 90% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host's strength!"

That's right. This also meant that Zhu Wuwan's Illusion God Steps had broken through a bottleneck and advanced to a new realm, the Small Success Realm.

Among the 200 princes and princesses of the Zhu Royal Family, only a handful of them could cultivate the Illusion God Steps to the Small Success Realm. In other words, the number of people who could cultivate the peerless footwork to the Small Success Realm was less than two digits, and this included the Illusion God Steps.

With the Illusion God Step at the initial success stage, even if a group of tenth stage Cast Vein quasi-first-rate experts surrounded Zhu Wuwan, Zhu Wuwan could still calmly deal with them. The probability of escaping was as high as 90%.

One had to know that in the process of cultivating the Illusion God Steps, other than spending some breakthrough points at the beginning, Zhu Wuwan had to rely on her own cultivation to improve. With her high comprehension aptitude, Zhu Wuwan only used a few days to cultivate the peerless movement technique, the Illusion God Steps, to the Small Success Realm.

Such speed could be said to be the number one in the Nine Zhao Nation!

After stabilizing his current Illusion God Steps and absorbing this wave of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuwan saw that it was getting late, so she got someone to call Wang Zhaoyue to serve her tonight.

The night was silent. However, Zhu Wuyan's breakthrough point increased by about a million points, allowing Zhu Wuyan to advance a lot towards the fifth stage of Cast Vein.

In the days that followed, Zhu Wuyan's life was very peaceful. Every day, she would change to a beautiful woman to serve her, and occasionally she would try the more delicious little palace maids in the Crown Prince's Palace. In order to let others know that Zhu Wuyan had completely fallen and no longer valued the future of martial arts, Zhu Wuyan would occasionally summon some prostitutes from the brothels outside the Imperial Palace to serve her.

In just a few days, the name of Jiu Zhao Crown Prince Zhu Wuyan had resounded throughout the entire Imperial City. Most of the nobles and wealthy people in Jiu Zhao Country knew that Crown Prince Zhu Wuyan had no interest in martial arts and only wanted to have more children and grandchildren. In just a few days, he had more than ten beautiful women and his body of vitality had completely collapsed.

This was a completely crippled Crown Prince!

Even though he was still the Crown Prince, his chances of inheriting the throne were less than one in ten thousand. A Crown Prince who had not even stepped into the vein casting stage had no hope of becoming the Emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation.

At this moment, even if Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had passed away, Zhu Wuyan would not be able to become the new emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation.

This was the consensus of everyone!

If the news of Zhu Wuyang losing her virginity had spread before, many people would still be skeptical. However, as Zhu Wuyang had more and more top-notch beauties and peerless beauties, there was also more and more evidence to prove that Zhu Wuyang was not pretending. Everything was real.

There were even many spies who had witnessed Zhu Wuyang's actions with their own eyes. There were also imperial physicians who had examined Zhu Wuyang's condition and confirmed that Zhu Wuyang was indeed no longer a virgin.

With all these, no one doubted that Zhu Wuyang was not a virgin anymore.

Not only was he no longer a virgin, but Zhu Wuyang also often did things that damaged his vitality. It was obvious that he had given up on himself and was not prepared to continue on the path of martial arts.

A weak Crown Prince could not possibly become the Emperor of the Nine Zhao Nation. The only thing worth paying attention to now was when Zhu Wuwan would be stripped of his position as Crown Prince.

All the princes and princesses, the concubines, the rich and powerful... They were already certain that if it wasn't for the fact that the new crown prince, Zhu Wuan, had just ascended the throne and that it would cause turmoil in the court if he were to be deposed so quickly, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu probably wouldn't want Zhu Wuan to remain in this position for even a moment and embarrass himself.

Facing such a crippled Crown Prince, what else was worth paying attention to?

Therefore, as Zhu Wuyan enjoyed himself every night, the number of guards, maids, and eunuchs in the Crown Prince's palace decreased. To be precise, the number of spies belonging to the other princes and princesses, the concubines in the harem, and even the Palace of Heavenly Purity decreased, gradually approaching zero.

Zhu Wuyang was also feeling more and more free!

This was something worth being happy about. After all, Zhu Wuwan had finally realized an unspeakable dream from her childhood, or rather, a dream that many men on Earth didn't dare to voice out.

Be the groom every day and enter the bridal chamber every night!

Chapter 77: Rapid Growth (1)

As expected, Zhu Wuyan's actions naturally caused some censors to impeach him. The main content of the impeachment was that Zhu Wuyan was no longer suitable to be the Crown Prince of the Nine Zhao Kingdom and hoped that the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu could change the Crown Prince.

However, these imperial censors also knew that the current situation was not suitable for changing the Crown Prince so quickly, so there were fewer memorials about impeachment. Gradually, they actually focused on one matter.

That was, Zhu Wuyang's actions had tarnished the royal family's reputation!

As for why it would damage the reputation of the Zhu royal family, it was mainly because Zhu Wuyan had not only the ten beauties bestowed by the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, but he had also extended the Crown Prince's hand to those impure women in the outside world.

The so-called impure women were naturally those prostitutes in the brothels of the Nine Zhao Capital. Although these prostitutes were all chaste, no matter how chaste they were, it could not change their identity as prostitutes.

The Crown Prince of a country had actually fallen in love with such trash and wasted his time and energy on them. It was simply an insult to the culture and the reputation of the Zhu Royal Family.

These censors 'impeachment memorials naturally spread the news of Zhu Wuyang doting on the courtesans throughout the world. For a moment, it became a joke among the people. Even the villagers felt that Zhu Wuyang was humiliating himself. His taste was a little too low.

Only Zhu Wanhao knew that he was doing this to make everyone look down on him and stop paying attention to the self-destructive Crown Prince.

But to be honest, compared to those silly palace maids in the palace, these courtesans were more sensible. At the beginning, they might have deliberately done it, but after a few times, they began to enjoy it.

Moreover, if these courtesans were on Earth, which one of them would not be a top-notch celebrity that could shake the entire country? Each of their looks could be ranked among the top ten most beautiful faces in the world. Zhu Wuyang, who came from Earth, only felt extremely honored. How could she feel that she was willing to be lowly?

However, these actions naturally brought Zhu Wuyan a shocking number of breakthrough points, causing Zhu Wuyan's strength to soar. In just a few days, Zhu Wuyan's strength had already reached the level of a human.

7th level of Cast Vein!

He broke through a large bottleneck and three small bottlenecks, breaking through the 4th level of the Cast Vein, then the 5th and 6th level, stepping into the late stage of the Cast Vein in one go.

The seven Chakra Meridians were intertwined with each other, and each of them was nine meters long. They traveled through Zhu Wuwan's body in a mysterious trajectory. They could store a large amount of River Inner Qi, and at the same time, they were constantly tempering and nourishing Zhu Wuwan's body, causing Zhu Wuwan's overall quality to constantly improve.

With his solid cultivation foundation, powerful seven chakra meridians, flawless Dao foundation, third-tier Nine Dragon Fist, and small success in the Illusion God Steps ... At this moment, Zhu Wanhao's overall strength was not inferior to those quasi first-rate experts at the tenth stage of the Cast Vein

Realm who had luckily obtained peerless martial arts in the pugilistic world.

In other words, with Zhu Wuyang's current strength, she could be considered a quasi-first-rate expert.

A seventeen-year-old quasi-first-rate master was considered shocking in the entire world of martial arts, let alone in the Imperial City.

Zhu Wuyan's strength was definitely the first among the many princes and princesses. When Zhu Wuyan broke through to the tenth stage of the Cast Pulse realm, her combat strength might be comparable to a first-class expert at the early stage of the Connate Realm or even the middle stage of the Connate Realm.

This also meant that in the huge Crown Prince Palace, Zhu Wuwan could finally dominate the world, even though the strongest person in the Crown Prince Palace was only at the sixth stage of Cast Pulse.

At this moment, Zhu Wuan could be considered the master of the Crown Prince's Palace. He did not have to worry about being forcefully examined by some unruly palace maids, guards, or even eunuchs in the Crown Prince's Palace, just like a few days ago.

If it wasn't for the fact that the other party had no ill intentions, Zhu Wuyang would have been finished.

This finally gave Zhu Wuwan a sense of security. However, this speed of improvement was indeed a little too fast. It seemed that it would not be long before Zhu Wuwan could advance to the Connate realm. At that time, it would be much more difficult for her to hide her Connate Inner Essence.

It seemed that he should cultivate a peerless concealment secret skill next. It would be best if it was the kind that was good at concealing the innate inner yuan. He would fuse it into the Green Dragon Mustard. Only then would Zhu Wuyang be safer.

At this moment, it had been exactly half a month since Zhu Wuyan had transmigrated to the Dongyuan Continent. In this short half a month, Zhu Wuyan had experienced countless life and death crises.

Furthermore, he was forcefully raised to the seventh stage of the Cast Vein Realm by the special encounter system. If it were any other martial artist, how could they have advanced to this level without decades or even close to a hundred years?

Of course, he also obtained some special things, such as the useless Crown Prince, the worst Crown Prince in the history of the Nine Zhao Nation, the Wildflower Crown Prince ... These were very interesting titles.

In the eyes of others, this was an insult, a mockery, a belittlement...However, in Zhu Wuyan's eyes, these were clearly his protective colors, so Zhu Wuyan summoned the courtesans even more frequently.

To the rich and powerful, princes and princesses, these prostitutes in brothels were lowly and had low statuses. However, to these prostitutes, anyone who could become the Crown Prince, even if this Crown Prince was a trash Crown Prince, a wildflower Crown Prince, or the worst Crown Prince...However, he was still the Crown Prince. He was definitely a high and mighty figure.

Therefore, when faced with the summons of the crown prince, Zhu Wuan, many prostitutes flocked to him like ducks. They wished that they could be the first to pounce into Zhu Wuan's bedchamber, even if Zhu Wuan did not pay them.

If they could get pregnant with the bloodline of the Zhu royal family, they were willing to give up all their possessions to Zhu Wuyang.

Zhu Wuwan was also flabbergasted by this situation. One had to know that he could not even touch the fingers of such a peerless beauty on Earth. In the end, when he came to the Otherworld, these peerless beauties wanted to touch his fingers day and night.

The profundity of the world's fortunes was truly breathtaking.

Facing these passionate courtesans, Zhu Wuyang naturally didn't reject any of them. She didn't let go of Yan Huan's beautiful women of all shapes and sizes.

As for the courtesans who were to become his concubines, if they were willing, Zhu Wuyan would let them stay in the Crown Prince's Palace. In the future, they would naturally enjoy endless glory and wealth. Once they were pregnant with the Zhu royal family's bloodline, their status would also soar.

If they weren't willing, Zhu Wuyang would give them a generous gift and send them back to the brothel.

However, most of the courtesans were still willing to capture this rich son-in-law. No matter how crippled the Crown Prince was, he was still the Crown Prince. Even if he could not inherit the throne in the future, he was still the Prince of Taiping. Perhaps their son could become the heir of the King.

In the face of such a great opportunity, more than 90% of the prostitutes were unwilling to give up..

Chapter 78: Death Competition (1)

Just when Zhu Wuan thought that his peaceful and happy days could continue like this until he was deposed as the Crown Prince and chased out to be Prince Taiping, another matter involved him.

The end-of-month competition!

Or rather, it was a death competition!

The month-end competition was a traditional event of the Zhu royal family. The main content was to let the princes and princesses compete with each other at the end of each month to determine who was better.

For those princes and princesses who had made great progress, the emperor would naturally reward them with generous rewards as encouragement.

This was originally a good thing, and it had already lasted for more than a thousand years in the Zhu royal family. However, as Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu went berserk in his cultivation, he became extremely jealous of the talented. The so-called month-end competition became a death competition.

For those princes and princesses who had made great progress and were outstanding in military studies, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would still give them a lot of rewards. However, after these outstanding princes and princesses received the rewards, what awaited them was often a fatal disaster.

Even if they were lucky enough to escape, they would be exiled by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, and there would be no possibility of them inheriting the throne in the future.

Gradually, the competition at the end of the month became a competition of death. All the princes and princesses were no longer proud of their outstanding performance. Instead, they tried their best to perform a little worse to avoid being targeted by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

Therefore, some princes and princesses deliberately pretended to be weak and performed miserably at the month-end competition. They originally thought that by doing so, they would not have to worry about being targeted by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

However, he did not expect that the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would think that these princes and princesses were toying with him and had disgraced the thousand-year-old tradition of the Zhu Royal Family. Therefore, he punished these princes and princesses who pretended to be weak and some were even. The princes and princesses were in an uproar. Then, they did not dare to go too far. At the same time, they did not dare to perform too well. It could be said that they were in extreme pain.

After all, on one hand, they had to not perform outstandingly. On the other hand, they could not deliberately act weak to avoid attracting the attention of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. This required a certain degree of control. If they did not control it properly, what awaited these princes and princesses might be a fatal disaster.

The month-end competition was no longer something to look forward to for the princes and princesses. Instead, it had become a source of pain.

Zhu Wanhao had originally thought that based on his recent performance, he wouldn't have to participate in the month-end competition. After all, he had already "completely given up" on the path of martial arts, and now he was lying on the bed with "damaged meridians." freewebnovel.com

However, he did not expect that even under such circumstances, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was still unwilling to let him go and even wanted him to participate in the month-end competition.

Fortunately, due to Zhu Wuyan's special physical condition, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu allowed Zhu Wuyan to participate in the month-end competition in another way.

The month-end competition mainly had two items, which were strategy and military studies. Strategy was a competition of literary talent, and military studies was a competition of martial strategy.

Among them, the martial arts competition was more important. The core was to test the strength of the princes and princesses. After all, the Dongyuan Continent was a world that respected martial arts.

The martial arts competition accounted for at least 70% of the month-end competition, and the remaining 30% belonged to the literary competition.

Due to Zhu Wuyan's poor health, the month-end competition was held in the Crown Prince's palace. There were three invigilators, namely the Minister of Rites, Chen Diandou, the Minister of War, Xin Zhenyong, and the eunuch Zhu Jinzong, the trusted aide of the Mad Emperor, Zhu Zhenwu. They were all old acquaintances.

Upon seeing the student who had been away for several days, the assistant minister of the Ministry of Rites and the assistant minister of the Ministry of War revealed an awkward but polite smile. Then, they began to assess Zhu

Wuan.

The policy assessment was naturally still a test paper. This test paper was the same as the test papers used by the other princes and princesses. This time, Zhu Wuwan did not pretend to be a pig too well. Instead, according to the original owner's previous standard, she scored a medium-low score.

Regarding such results, the invigilator, Minister of Rites Chen Diandou, and the internal official supervisor, Zhu Jinzong, expressed their noncommittal opinions. After all, this was the normal standard of the original owner and was not worthy of excessive attention.

However, such a result could barely be considered a good result in the month-end competition.

The military assessment was mainly based on strength and combat strength, supplemented by some knowledge of military strategy. Zhu Wuyang's military strategy was quite bad, a little lower than the original owner's normal standard.

As for the realm of his strength, a seventeen-year-old martial artist who had completed the Golden Bone Refinement was definitely considered a genius in the Imperial Palace. Therefore, with this realm of strength, Zhu Wuwan had obtained a good result.

Next, it was time to test his combat experience and combat skills. He had spent more than ten years to cultivate the Nine Dragon Fist to the first level. As for other combat martial arts, he basically did not know them. As for fighting, he still focused on verbal attacks.

Xin Zhenyong, the assistant minister of the Ministry of War, displayed some moves, and Zhu Wuwan dictated how to break through them. In the end, he got a low to middle score. Combining his strength realm and his results in the art of war and strategy, Zhu Wuwan barely got an above middle score in the military assessment.

All in all, Zhu Wuyan's total score in this month-end competition was:

Middle middle!

He had been lying on the bed for the entire assessment. At most, he would sit up. His disguise was flawless. At least, Chen Diandou, Xin Zhenyong, and Zhu Jinzong did not notice anything unusual.

During this period, Chen Diandou, Xin Zhenyong, and Zhu Jinzong each performed several probing techniques on Zhu Wuan. They repeatedly confirmed Zhu Wuan's strength. Indeed, she was only at the perfected Golden Bone Refinement, and her Primordial Yang was definitely gone.

However, under the effect of the Mythical secret technique, the three Connate experts did not see through Zhu Wuwan's disguise, allowing Zhu Wuwan to successfully overcome this obstacle.

This was the first deathmatch that Zhu Wuyan had participated in after transmigrating. However, Zhu Wuyan knew very well that although his deathmatch had ended, the effects of this deathmatch had only just begun.

After all, at this moment, the other princes and princesses were still in the midst of the deathmatch in fear.

Compared to Zhu Wuyang's near-death experience, the death of these princes and princesses could be said to be a shocking one.

In the death competition, not only did they have to face a special surveillance array formation, but once they hid their strength and realm, they would be detected by the array formation. Even with Zhu Wuwan's mythical-level secret technique, the Green Dragon Mustard, it would be difficult for them to escape detection. On the other hand, they had to perform unremarkable and unquestionable results in the policy and military assessments.

This was a technical job!

It was especially difficult to successfully pass the test in front of a peerless expert like Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, who was invincible in the Innate Realm.

Furthermore, other than Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, there were also many of Mad Emperor's trusted eunuchs, trusted imperial physicians, and trusted guards around...He was also constantly looking for anything suspicious..

Chapter 79: Number One in the Same Age (1)

“Congratulations to the host for participating in the Zhu Royal Family’s month-end competition for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100,000 breakthrough points...”

” Congratulations to the host for getting a mid-low score in the policy assessment of the month-end competition for the first time in your life. You have obtained 200,000 breakthrough points...”

” Congratulations to the host for obtaining an upper-middle score in the military assessment of the month-end competition for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points...”

While Zhu Wuwan was suffering the lash of the breakthrough point, the other princes and princesses were also suffering the lash of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu and his subordinates.

In order to perform at the ‘appropriate’ level in the policy and military assessments so as not to arouse the suspicion and jealousy of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, all the princes and princesses racked their brains.

The examination papers were still alright, and there was more room for them to perform. However, in the martial arts competition, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was watching from the side, and so many of his trusted subordinates were also watching. These princes and princesses could not go easy on them.

Therefore, he could only use his full strength!

You use the Soaring Dragon in the Sky, and I use the Dragon Fights in the Wild. When you dodge, you use the Lazy Donkey Roll, and when I dodge, I use the Wild Goose Falling on the Sand...

All the princes and princesses had basically cultivated the first level of the Nine Dragon Fist. There were very few who could cultivate the Nine Dragon Fist to the second level, or rather, there were very few who dared to display the second level of the Nine Dragon Fist.

Such a scene could simply be described as a group of demons dancing in chaos.

The competition between a group of royal descendants could not even be compared to the competition between the outstanding disciples of ordinary sects, let alone the competition between the outstanding disciples of the large sects in the Nine Zhao Nation.

It wasn’t too much to describe this competition as a fight between noobs. It was easy to imagine how badly the princes and princesses of the Zhu Royal Family performed.

And to be honest, the reason why his performance was so bad was not entirely fake. At least 90% of it was true. Otherwise, how could he hide from the Fiery Golden Eyes of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu and the others?

In order to survive, these members of the Zhu Royal Family had gone all out. They deliberately did not study or cultivate properly. They had wanted to pretend to be pigs to eat tigers, but they did not expect to really become pigs in the end.

Even the few princes and princesses who were known as the most outstanding of the Zhu royal family would not be able to defeat even a martial artist of the same level if they were placed in the martial world. Some martial artists who were weaker than them could even defeat them.

The so-called prodigy of the imperial family had now become the laughing stock of the world!

However, even if these princes and princesses had already "worked hard" to participate in the month-end competition, it was inevitable that there would still be a difference in the end.

He should pick a general from the dwarves!

Therefore, when the results of the month-end competition were released, those with poor results were naturally overjoyed. They secretly thought that they had escaped another disaster, while those with good results were covered in dust. They were terrified and wanted to make Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu dispel his doubts about them.

Especially those who were ranked in the top few in the assessment, they were even more frightened and trembled as if they had been struck by lightning.

"Congratulations to the host for obtaining a passing score for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for obtaining the first place in the year-end competition for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for getting 55th place in the month-end competition for the first time in your life. You have obtained 500,000 breakthrough points..."

What made Zhu Wuan feel rather helpless was that even though he had already hidden so much, he still managed to obtain the first place among his peers in the month-end competition. He also obtained an upper-middle ranking among all the princes and princesses, as high as 55th place.

Fortunately, because of the previous showy operation, even though Zhu Wuyang had obtained such a good result, not many people paid attention to her. Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu did not suspect Zhu Wuyang because of this.

After all, Zhu Wuyan's results mainly came from the improvement of his strength realm, and the reason why Zhu Wuyan's strength realm had improved was that he had been drugged and framed by evil people.

Therefore, no matter how good the results were, no one would pay attention to the Crown Prince, who had already been "completely crippled"

Zhu Wuyang naturally accepted such a good thing with a smile. That night, she found two more courtesans to serve her and promoted them to first-class palace maids in the Crown Prince's Palace.

While the other princes and princesses were feeling uneasy, Zhu Wuwan was enjoying herself every night. She was simply living like an immortal.

No, even immortals did not have as good a time as Zhu Wuyan. After all, immortals could not easily marry each other, but Zhu Wuyan could hug her left and right.

Zhu Wuwan finally understood how blessed it was to be a crown prince in ancient times. Not only did he eat and drink well, but he could also play so well.

Could the top ten super-rich people on Earth be as happy as him?

As the saying goes, extreme joy begets sorrow. Zhu Wuyang originally wanted to relax, but he did not expect to go overboard. He had been forced to drink too much general experience, so he was about to break through again.

The eighth chakra meridian that martial artists needed to forge in the Vein Forging stage was the Universal Ying Chakra Meridian. This chakra meridian connected the lower dantian and the martial artist's hands. Once it could be successfully forged, the martial artist's hand reaction speed would soar to an astonishing level.

As the saying went, speed was the only thing that could not defeat martial arts in the world. When the speed of both hands was fast enough, and the saber techniques and sword techniques used were like lightning, it would be difficult for the enemy to resist.

Once the Myriad Ying Chakra Meridian was forged, the martial artist's sword attack speed would be able to easily catch up to Ah Fei in the Little Li Flying Dagger, or even surpass him.

Zhu Wuwan had already forged seven Chakra Meridians, so when he forged the eighth Chakra Meridian, the pressure he endured was even greater.

Even if Jiang He's inner Qi and the strange power that his breakthrough point had transformed into were unleashed to the extreme, and he had the help of the spirit vein embryo, the forging of the Universal Response Chakra Meridian was still extremely slow, to say that it was as slow as a snail was not an exaggeration.

However, the slower the speed, the greater the pressure, the more powerful the tempering and hammering of the Chakra Meridian and body during the forging process. Once the Ten Thousand Ying Chakra Meridian was successfully forged, regardless of its hardness or flexibility, it would far exceed the martial artists of the same level.

This was the truth behind the saying, 'Blessings are the cause of misfortune, and misfortune is the cause of fortune.'

Or to put it another way, real gold could only be produced after repeated tempering.

Just like that, Zhu Wuyang slowly, steadily, little by little He had to forge the Myriad Ying Chakra Meridian!

Chapter 80: Reuse of Waste (1)

8-dan Cast Vein!

As the Myriad Ying Chakra Meridian was initially forged, it also meant that Zhu Wuwan's strength had broken through a bottleneck and advanced to a new realm.

Zhu Wanhao could clearly feel that the speed of his hands had increased by a lot, far exceeding what it was before. In the future, when he performed the Nine Dragon Fist or practiced some sword techniques or saber techniques, his speed would definitely soar.

The power of the Saber Drawing Technique had also increased by a lot.

The eight Chakra Meridians in his body were like rivers, flowing with surging inner Qi. It was far superior to martial artists of the same level by several times, and its purity was also several times higher.

The powerful Chakra Meridians and abundant Inner Qi naturally brought greater pressure to Zhu Wuwan, which also allowed Zhu Wuwan's body to obtain better tempering and hammering. Therefore, Zhu Wuwan's physical fitness was also several times stronger than ordinary martial artists.

With just a raise of his hand, a force of hundreds of thousands of pounds surged along with it, and it could easily destroy houses and giant trees.

The tall buildings on Earth were like tofu in front of Zhu Wuyan. Zhu Wuyan only needed to punch a few times and might be able to collapse a building with dozens of floors.

Zhu Wuan's overall strength at this moment was not inferior to an ordinary tenth stage Cast Vein martial artist. In other words, the current Zhu Wuan could be considered a quasi-first-rate expert in the martial arts world.

In just half a month or so, Zhu Wuyang had broken through from a powerless ordinary person to this point. It could only be said that Zhu Wuyang's breakthrough speed was really too fast, so fast that other martial artists could not even see her shadow.

If the cultivation speed of ordinary martial artists was walking, then Zhu Wuyang's cultivation speed was like riding a rocket.

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the eighth level of the Cast Vein for the first time in his life. You have obtained 800,000 breakthrough points..."

Zhu Wuwan was helpless. Another million breakthrough points were forcefully poured over. After absorbing this wave of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuwan's strength completely stabilized at the eighth stage of the Cast Meridian Realm. Moreover, it had even increased slightly.

I don't want to break through so quickly. Unfortunately, the system doesn't allow it!

Zhu Wuan laughed dryly and prepared to choose a courtesan that suited his taste today.

Speaking of which, the number of beauties in the Crown Prince's Palace had already exceeded 30. It was not a good idea to let them sit in the Crown Prince's Palace and wait for summons every day. Why not make mahjong and teach them how to play mahjong?

Seeing his women being so bored, Zhu Wuwan couldn't help but feel sorry for them.

While Zhu Wuan was busy comforting the next courtesan, the curtains of the Zhu royal family's death competition this month came to an end. All the princes and princesses were on high alert.

Those with poor results were relieved, but those with good results were already thinking hard about ways to save their lives. The entire palace could be said to be turbulent.

One of the undercurrents was rushing towards Zhu Wuyang.

Although Zhu Wuan was already a "completely crippled" Crown Prince in everyone's eyes, he was still a Crown Prince no matter how crippled he was. As long as something happened to him, it would always attract the attention of some people with ulterior motives.

Now that the death competition had just ended, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was eyeing him like a tiger watching its prey. He was considering which unlucky person to deal with. If he could divert his attention before this, perhaps Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would change his mind.

Since Zhu Wuan, the crown prince, was already "crippled", he might as well make use of the trash again. At the very least, he could disrupt Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's rhythm and give them more time to save their lives.

As a result, seeing that no one paid attention to his good results, Zhu Wuyang, who had thought that he could rest easy, received news from the palace guards that the top ten martial arts masters of the Nine Zhao Country had come to visit him, hoping to join him and become his personal bodyguards.

As for the reason, Zhu Wuan was the Crown Prince of Jiuzhao Country and was likely to become the Emperor in the future. Although he was not popular because his martial arts future was "ruined", this was also an opportunity for those peerless experts in the martial arts world.

Once they could become Zhu Wuan's personal guards and protect his safety, when Zhu Wuan inherited the throne, they would also follow the tide. People would climb to the top and water would flow to the bottom. The three top ten peerless experts in the martial arts world would come to visit Zhu Wuan.

When Zhu Wuwan learned of this news, she had just sent the two courtesans away. The smile on her face immediately disappeared. She waved her hand and said to the guard who came to report, "No, tell them to scram!"

"But Your Highness, they've already arrived at the Crown Prince's Palace. They'll be coming in to meet Your Highness soon." The guard at the sixth tier of the Cast Vein Realm who came to report the news sneered. A strange expression flashed across his face. Without waiting for Zhu Wuyang to reply, he had already turned around and walked out.

Seeing this scene, Zhu Wuyang confirmed the speculation in her heart. She wanted to kill this arrogant guard, but when she thought about her current identity as an "idiot", she suppressed her anger and immediately summoned Shi Yixi.

"Your Highness, is there anything you need from this servant? It's not dark yet." When Shi Yixi saw Zhu Wuyang, she immediately winked at him.

Zhu Wuwan could not be bothered to punish the seductive Shi Yixi and quickly said, "I didn't call you here for that kind of thing. Go to the Palace of Heavenly Purity immediately and tell my father that someone is plotting against me. Moreover, it's one of the top ten experts in the Jianghu. Please send the experts of the palace to get rid of these people who have offended their superiors. ' "Ah..." Shi Yixi could not help but exclaim. " In that case, Your Highness, why don't you go to the Palace of Heavenly Purity with me? It's too dangerous to stay here. '

Zhu Wuan shook his head and pointed at his "sick" right leg. "" With This King's current situation, it's too troublesome to move. Moreover, the other party doesn't seem to have any intention of killing This King.

As he spoke, Zhu Wuyang told Shi Yixi about the current situation. Although Shi Yixi was a little silly, she also vaguely sensed something. She did not dare to delay any longer and immediately rushed towards the Palace of Heavenly Purity.

At the same time, in front of the main entrance of the Crown Prince Palace, the top ten peerless experts in the Jiuzhao Kingdom's martial world, Kong Zhiwei, Kong Zhiwu, and the Blood Sea Scimitar, Gui Zhiya, slowly stepped into the Crown Prince Palace. There were guards around them, smiling as they accompanied them.

The Tibetan Twins and the Blood Sea Scimitar nodded slightly and strode towards Zhu Wuyang's bedroom. Soon, they barged into the bedroom, looking down on everyone.

During this period, there were also palace maids loyal to Zhu Wuyan who tried to stop them, but they were scolded by the guards who led the way. They could only watch helplessly as the other party entered the Crown Prince's bedroom..
