: Waiting for the Rabbit (1)

Chapter 751: Waiting for the Rabbit (1)

“Damn the Bai family, playing such despicable tricks again!”

After hearing what had happened, Tang Yelan was so angry that his eyebrows were raised. He wished he could destroy the Bai Trading Company all by himself.

This wasn't the first time the Bai Trading Company had used such an unorthodox trick. A few days ago, they had even sent the Wolf Claw Seven Heroes to rob the Tang Trading Company, almost forcing the Tang Trading Company into a dead end.

If it wasn't for an expert taking action, the Tang Trading Company would probably be finished by now.

It had only been a few days since this incident, and the Tang Trading Company had yet to retaliate, yet the Bai Trading Company had used such a method.

As a trading company, in order to develop better, the Tang Trading Company would inevitably have some human relations. It was not an exaggeration to say that it was bribery.

If this record was really obtained by the Bai Trading Company, the Tang Trading Company would at least be under the control of others. If this record was exposed, those officials who had accepted the Tang Trading Company's bribes would be in trouble, but the Tang Trading Company would definitely not be far from death.

Since the Bai Trading Company had gone too far, how could Tang Yelan not want to take revenge as soon as possible? But when he thought of the two Golden Cores overseeing the Bai Trading Company, Tang Yelan hesitated.

“This time, it's all thanks to that hidden expert. Otherwise, I'm afraid I won't be able to see Eldest Miss again.” Wang Xinjing said with lingering fear.

Tang Yelan's eyes lit up when he heard that. He thought of something, “Xin Jing, how strong do you think that hidden expert is?”

“To be able to easily defeat a perfected Foundation Establishment expert without showing his face, and even use the other party’s magic weapon, such strength must be at least at the Golden Core stage or above, and it is very likely that he is a mid-stage Golden Core or even a late-stage Golden Core Perfected Being expert.” Wang Xinjing thought for a moment and said with a solemn expression.

“Late-stage Golden Core?” Tang Yelan’s fair face flashed with a hint of yearning, “” If that’s really the case, our Tang Trading Company would have two late-stage Golden Cores overseeing it, far surpassing the current Bai Trading Company. After all, one of the two Golden Cores in the Bai Trading Company is late-stage Golden Core while the other is only at early-stage Golden Core. ”

Wang Xinjing nodded. ” It’s just that that hidden expert is too elusive. We don’t know why he’s helping our Tang Trading Company. We can’t ask him to help us deal with the Bai Trading Company either. Otherwise, our current predicament will be solved in the blink of an eye. ”

“Take it slow. One day, the truth will come out.” At this point, Tang Yelan suddenly recalled what Tang Liuli had said. According to Tang Liuli’s speculation, Zhu Wuwan seemed to be a hidden expert.

However, Tang Yelan thought about it carefully. When he picked up Zhu Wuyang, he had checked her thoroughly and there was basically nothing he missed. Zhu Wuyang was indeed just an ordinary person with no vital essence, no spiritual sense, and a very weak body. Only then did he let go of the suspicion in his heart.

The two girls chatted for a while more. Tang Yelan comforted Wang Xinjing once again and strengthened the defenses around Wang Xinjing’s residence before he went to deal with the captured assassin.

After saving Wang Xinjing, Zhu Wuyang did not care about what happened here. He was about to go out to meet the servants and take away the resources and treasures they had accumulated during this period of time when he saw Tang Mingyue looking for him.”I’m fine. Have you thought of the next phrase?”

“I thought of another sentence.” Zhu Wuyang smiled. ” I’m a wild goose. I’m sad. We’re old acquaintances. ”

Tang Mingyue’s eyes lit up, and with a fragrant scent, she grabbed Zhu Wuwan’s arm. “” The first line is already out. You’re the one who thought it through. I’ve been thinking about it for the past few days, but I feel awkward. ”

“Let’s have a good discussion today. Maybe we’ll come up with something else.”

“Alright then.” Looking at Tang Mingyue, who had an extremely artistic aura, Zhu Wuwan nodded. Anyway, there was no hurry to meet up. A little free time was enough.

Tang Mingyue didn't mention the rumors to Zhu Wanhao, but it was obvious that the matter had been resolved. Tang Mingyue didn't care about it, so she came to Zhu Wanhao again as soon as the matter was resolved.

The two of them discussed for a while, then went back to busying themselves with other things. Tang Mingyue sat on the stone chair and read some books about the Eternal Empire, her demure appearance tempting.

A gentle breeze blew past her body, causing her hair to flutter. The young girl inadvertently brushed it away, like a poem or painting.

He had seen countless people in the Southern Wasteland. Shu Fan was the most beautiful woman Zhu Wuyan had ever seen, followed by the three Tang sisters.

Moreover, the three Tang sisters might not be as strong as Shu Fanruo if they were alone, but when they stood together, they were really different and steadily suppressed Shu Fanruo.

If not for that, Zhu Wuyan would not have stayed here for a long time. Repaying the favor of saving his life was one thing, and the young Mu 'ai was even more so. Of course, according to the age of Earth, he would be an old Mu' ai.

However, compared to the vast cultivation world, Zhu Wuwan was still that young man, and she would always be that young man.

Tang Mingyue stayed in Zhu Wuyan's bamboo grove until the sun set. Then, she walked toward her own Bright Moon Pavilion with light steps. However, just as she walked near a dark bamboo grove, she felt her vision go black. Someone had ambushed her in the front yard.

The person who ambushed her was also in the late stage of the Foundation Establishment realm. It was obvious that he was quite familiar with the Tang family's residence. He also had a talisman that allowed him to enter and exit the front courtyard. That was why he was able to ambush Tang Mingyue at the place she had to pass on her way back to the Bright Moon Pavilion and attack her.

Because they were in the Tang family mansion, Tang Mingyue was a little careless and did not bring any guards or maids with her. Thus, she was easily captured by the enemy.

After capturing Tang Mingyue, the assassin dressed in black stuffed her into a special cloth bag and sneaked into the dark shadows toward the bamboo forest.

Tang Mingyue was only his first target. His second target was the Tang family's servant, Zhu Wuan. According to their investigation, the main culprits behind the young master becoming a eunuch were Zhu Wuan and Tang Mingyue. Now, the young master had become crazy because of this matter.

However, the master was possessed by something and was not prepared to pursue the matter. Then, don't blame Madam for being ruthless and taking revenge for her only son.

The bamboo grove building was very close to them. The assassin in black quickly sneaked over and saw Zhu Wuyang sitting on a bamboo chair.

According to his investigation, Zhu Wuwan was just an ordinary person who was powerless. There was no one else in the bamboo forest, so it would be easier to deal with her than Tang Mingyue.

If it wasn't for the fact that he was worried that he might get into an accident if he were to deal with the two of them at the same time, the assassin in black would have taken down Tang Mingyue and Zhu Wuyang here.

Chapter 752: Hiding the Identity of an Expert (1)

The goshawk still used all its strength to hunt the rabbit. Even when dealing with an "ordinary person" like Zhu Wuan, the assassin in black did not attack directly. Instead, he approached stealthily in the shadows like a breeze.

"You're here!"

However, before the black-robed assassin could get close to Zhu Wuyang, he heard Zhu Wuyang's calm voice. Then, he saw Zhu Wuyang looking at him, and at the same time, an enslavement Gu came over.

The black clothed assassin no longer knew who he was, he left Tang clan's residence with the enslavement Gu in a daze, returning to Song clan's residence and reporting this matter to Song Gao's wife, Ma Su.

"Where are they? Didn't you catch Tang Mingyue and Zhu Wuyang?" Seeing the assassin return empty-handed, Ma Su's expression changed as he questioned him.

The assassin in black sneered and pounced towards Ma Su.

On the same day, news came from the Song family mansion that Song Gao's wife, Madam Ma Su, had died in her own residence because of her only son's madness.

The Song family's matter had come to an end. Zhu Wuwan did not care about this matter. Looking at the unconscious Tang Mingyue in front of her, Zhu Wuwan picked up her soft and delicate body.

Tang Mingyue was very light, and her body carried the fragrance of a virgin. Even Zhu Wuyang, who had seen countless beauties, felt relaxed and happy.

And what was amazing was that the three Tang sisters had different fragrances. Each of them smelled very good. Even the heavens were giving preferential treatment to the three Tang sisters.

Zhu Wuwan used the Five Elements Great Escape and instantly arrived at Tang Mingyue's room in the Bright Moon Pavilion. She placed her on the bed in the room and then disappeared from the Tang family mansion. She went to meet up with the servants and take away the resources and treasures that she had accumulated during this period of time.

Tang Mingyue woke up very quickly. Her delicate little face was filled with fear. She opened her eyes in fear and saw a familiar scene.

Eh, what's going on? Wasn't I knocked unconscious? Logically speaking, the assassin should have taken her away by now. Why is she still in her own boudoir?

Was he dreaming?

Tang Mingyue closed her eyes and opened them again. The scene didn't change, as if she wasn't dreaming.

"Pa..."

Tang Mingyue slapped herself on the arm. It was very painful and did not seem like a dream.

Tang Mingyue suddenly sat up, put on her shoes and walked quickly towards her elder sister Tang Yelan's residence. When she saw Tang Yelan and Wang Xinjing who were handling the account books, Tang Mingyue couldn't help but ask, "Big sister, did you save me?"

"Saved you?" Tang Yelan was stunned. "When did I save you? Second Sister, what are you talking about?" No, second sister, what happened to you just now?"

Tang Yelan immediately realized something and quickly walked over from behind the desk. He grabbed Tang Mingyue's hand and examined it carefully, wanting to see if she was injured.

“Don’t worry, Big Sister. I’m fine.” “It’s just that when I came back from the front yard, I was ambushed and fainted when I passed by the Purple Bamboo Forest. I thought I was done for, but when I woke up, I found myself lying in my room. Nothing happened to me, and the assassin had disappeared.”

Tang Yelan’s expression changed drastically. He immediately sent someone to investigate the guards and maids near the Purple Bamboo Forest to see if they had found anything.

“Could it be the Bai family again?” Tang Yelan gritted his teeth as anger flashed across his beautiful face.

Wang Xinjing shook her head. “I don’t think so. After all, Second Miss doesn’t understand the business of the trading firm. Even if we capture Second Miss, it won’t be of much use to the Bai Family against our Tang Trading Firm. Instead, it will infuriate our Tang Trading Firm and start taking revenge on their relatives and friends. So, as long as we’re rational, the Bai Trading Firm won’t make a move on Second Miss.”

“If it’s not the Bai Trading Company, who else would lay their hands on our Tang Trading Company?” Tang Yelan frowned.

Wang Xinjing speculated. “It can’t be some trading firm whose business has been affected by us, right? They want to use this kind of despicable method to intensify the conflict between us and the Bai Trading Company. Then, they’ll sit back and watch the tigers fight while the fisherman benefits.”

The few of them did not think that it was the Song family. Because the news of the Song family’s young master, Song Yunfeng, going crazy had not spread yet, they did not know the exact details, so they did not think that this matter would be done by Song Yunfeng’s mother, Ma Su.

After guessing for a while, he still couldn’t get to the point. Even Tang Mingyue, who was involved, was confused and couldn’t confirm the identity of the assassin.

At this moment, news came in one after another. There was no abnormality in the vicinity of the Purple Bamboo Forest. Before this, the Tang family’s servants did not find any strange people, nor did they know that there were assassins hidden in the Purple Bamboo Forest.

The news had been cut off, and there were no clues.

“Big sister, could the person who saved me be the ancestor? Otherwise, why didn’t there be any traces?” Tang Mingyue asked curiously.

Tang Yelan shook his head. “The old ancestor has been busy cultivating in seclusion. He didn’t even have time to send a message. How could he possibly save you?”

“Eldest Young Miss, could it be that the person who saved Second Young Miss was that hidden expert?” Wang Xinjing guessed.

“Hidden expert!” “What hidden expert?” Tang Mingyue was stunned.

Tang Yelan thought for a moment and told Tang Mingyue about the hidden expert. Tang Mingyue then found out that there was actually a hidden expert protecting the Tang Trading Company in the dark. Moreover, he had already attacked three times.

The first time, he had saved Big Sis and the entire caravan, and killed the Seven Wolfclaw Heroes. The second time, he saved Wang Xinjing and destroyed the Bai Clan Trading Company’s plot. This time, he even saved her. Otherwise, who knew if he would be able to come back alive if he was captured?

Even if they were lucky enough to come back alive, who knew if Tang Mingyue was still intact?

Tang Mingyue asked curiously, “Big Sister, Xin Jing, have you ever suspected that the person who attacked three times was not the same person?”

“We’ve thought about that too.” Tang Yelan smiled bitterly. “However, it’s already very good that we have a Daoist Master above the Golden Core Stage secretly protecting our Tang Trading Company. How can there be two or three more? So, the possibility is not high. The person who saved our Tang Trading Company three times should be the same person.”

Wang Xinjing also nodded. “I think so too. Moreover, when that hidden expert attacked, the strength he revealed was about the same. Basically, they were all at the late-stage Golden Core realm, so the possibility of it being the same person is extremely high. I don’t know if he received a favor from our Tang Trading Company in the past, or if he’s an expert hidden in our Tang Trading Company with other motives.”

At this point, Wang Xinjing couldn’t help but look at Tang Yelan and Tang Mingyue. Even though she was a woman, she still felt that they were extremely beautiful and beautiful.

It was a pity that he was not a man. Otherwise, it would be great.

Chapter 753: Wife-to-be Caught (1)

After hearing Wang Xinjing’s words, Tang Yelan and Tang Mingyue’s faces turned slightly red. They shook their heads and said, “I don’t think so. Otherwise, that expert wouldn’t have hidden himself.”

"Besides, if a late-stage Golden Core Daoist Master came to our Tang Trading Company to propose marriage, he shouldn't have failed. Why would he use such a method?"

"That's true." Wang Xinjing nodded.

"Big Sis, Xinjin, don't you have any suspects?" Tang Mingyue raised her eyebrows.

"Suspect?" Tang Yelan immediately thought of Zhu Wuan. "I don't have anyone to suspect, but my sister has someone to suspect. However, I don't think my sister's suspect is reliable."

Hearing Tang Yelan say that Tang Liuli had a suspect, Tang Mingyue and Wang Xinjing were stunned. They secretly thought that Tang Liuli probably didn't have any interactions with that hidden expert. How could she have a suspect?

"I wonder who this little sister suspects?" Tang Mingyue could not help but ask.

Looking at Tang Mingyue and Wang Xinjing's curious expressions, Tang Yelan said a name that shocked them both, "I wish you well!"

"Ah..." Tang Mingyue and Wang Xinjing exclaimed, "How could it be him?"

Tang Yelan told them about how Tang Liuli suspected Zhu Wuan. Tang Mingyue and Wang Xinjing frowned. "This matter is indeed a little too coincidental. It does sound suspicious."

"By the way, I wonder how Song Yunfeng is doing now?" Tang Mingyue also realized that Song Yunfeng seemed to be her fiancé, even though she didn't have a good impression of him.

Tang Yelan was also stunned. I almost forgot that Song Yunfeng is Second Sister's fiancé. After Little Sister told me about this matter, I didn't care about it anymore. I don't know what Song Yunfeng's situation is now, but with the Song family's financial resources, they should be able to restore Song Yunfeng ..."

Tang Yelan was too embarrassed to finish his sentence, but Tang Mingyue and Wang Xinjing understood.

"Serves you right!" Tang Mingyue couldn't help but curse. Compared to Song Yunfeng, she was more concerned about Zhu Wanhao.

“Who deserves it?” At this moment, Tang Liuli’s voice came from outside. Then, they saw Tang Liuli push open the door and walk in.”Second Sister, I heard that the people from the Bai Clan Trading Company wanted to kidnap you. Are you alright?”

“I’m fine. Thanks to a hidden expert, I was saved.” “By the way, little sister, have you investigated Zhu Wuhao? Is he really a hidden expert?” Tang Mingyue asked with a smile.

Tang Liuli’s face turned red. She immediately curled her lips and shook her head.”I’ve already investigated and tested...I’ve asked someone to probe. Zhu Wuwan is indeed weak. He’s just an ordinary person and not some hidden expert. The incident with Song Yunfeng that day was indeed an accident.”

“Sigh...” For some reason, Tang Mingyue and Wang Xinjing felt a little disappointed when they heard Tang Liuli’s words.

Tang Yelan did not find it strange. “” I told you that Zhu Wuyang couldn’t possibly be a hidden expert. When I saved him, I had already gotten someone to check him carefully. You just didn’t believe me. ”

“Who asked Song Yunfeng to be so coincidental?” Tang Liuli pursed her pink lips. “” Master Yang also said that Zhu Wuyang might really be a hidden expert, as long as two conditions are met. ”

“Two conditions?” Tang Yelan, Tang Mingyue, and Wang Xinjing were curious. “”What conditions?”

” The first condition is that Zhu Wuwan is a great cultivator at the Soul Formation Stage or above, ” Tang Liuli giggled. ” The second condition is that he also possesses a high-level array formation cultivation and is a spiritual array grandmaster. ”

“Go to the side.” Hearing Tang Liuli’s two conditions, Tang Yelan, Tang Mingyue, and Wang Xinjing couldn’t help but spit at her. How was this possible? Just being a Soul Formation Stage cultivator was already a fantasy, let alone being a high-level spiritual array grandmaster.

If Zhu Wanhao was really that powerful, she could easily destroy the entire Tang Trading Company and make the three sisters her slaves. Why would she need to hide her identity here?

To put it bluntly, as long as Zhu Wuyang was a Soul Formation Realm cultivator, she could do whatever she wanted to all the women in the Tang family with just a word. The Tang family would not dare to resist at all.

The few girls didn’t take Tang Liuli’s nonsense to heart, and naturally, they completely dispelled their suspicions of Zhu Wuwan.

However, the girls would never have thought that the most impossible possibility was the truth.

Moreover, Zhu Wuan was not only a Soul Formation Stage cultivator, but he was also a Body Integration Stage powerhouse at his peak. Moreover, he was able to recover his strength very quickly.

He wasn't an Advanced Spiritual Array Grandmaster, either. Instead, he was a Spiritual Array King who stood at the peak of the Array Dao on the Dongyuan Continent. His status surpassed that of the entire Eternal Empire. The Eternal Empire, which was incomparably huge and terrifying to the Bai Trading Company, was nothing more than a tool in Zhu Wuyang's hands. In fact, before its strength was sealed, the Eternal Empire was not even qualified to be Zhu Wuyang's tool.

If it weren't for the fact that the Mind Manipulator Faction was in a hurry to investigate him and that Zhu Wuwan had taken a fancy to the world's number one legacy and the three Tang sisters, he wouldn't have stayed in this small Tang Trading Company.

The matter of Tang Mingyue's abduction had been pushed onto the Bai Trading Company. In order to prevent similar incidents from happening again, Tang Yelan had especially strengthened the security of the Tang family mansion. He had also instructed the important figures of the Tang family to stay in the Tang family mansion as much as possible and not to go out casually.

Even if they wanted to go out, they had to bring enough guards to prevent similar things from happening again.

However, no matter how well they were on guard, there was no way they could guard against a thief for a thousand days. Especially when the thief had overwhelming strength, it was even more impossible to guard against him.

On this day, Tian Wanguan had just returned from handing over the resources and treasures outside when he saw the entire Tang clan mansion in a mess. Many guards and maids were running around in panic.

" Third Miss and Shopkeeper Wang have been taken away by evil people. What should we do now? It is said that the evil people who took Third Miss and Shopkeeper Wang are extremely powerful. They are at least Foundation Establishment cultivators. How can we save them? "

" Not only is she a Foundation Building cultivator, but Third Miss is also a late Foundation Building cultivator. She also brought a spirit weapon and had several guards at the late Foundation Building stage and above with her. In the end, she was easily killed by the bad guys and took away Third Miss and Shopkeeper Wang. Therefore, the bad guys are very likely to be Golden Core Perfected Cultivators. "

” Oh my god, it’s actually a Daoist Master in the Golden Core Stage. How am I supposed to save him now? ”

Zhu Wuwan had just returned to the Tang family mansion when he heard the explosive news. His expression changed slightly. Tang Liuli was one of his future wives. Who the hell was so bold as to kidnap Tang Liuli?

Chapter 754: Zhu Wuyan’s Status (1)

From the mouths of many people, Zhu Wuwan learned that the place where Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing were taken away was near a silk shop of the Tang Trading Company. The location was slightly remote.

The reason why Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing went there was mainly because the silk shop had a major financial problem, so Wang Xinjing went to deal with it.

Tang Liuli stayed at home for a few days and felt a little bored. When she saw Wang Xinjing go out, she followed her. For safety reasons, the two of them even brought several Foundation Establishment Realm guards.

Under normal circumstances, this was already quite a good number of guards. This was the Silvergreen Imperial Capital of the Eternal Empire, and there were guards everywhere. However, they hadn’t expected that someone would seize the opportunity to kidnap them.

Now that the Tang family mansion was in a mess because of the disappearance of the two of them, no one paid attention to Zhu Wuyang. Zhu Wuyang used the Five Elements Great Escape to quietly come to the vicinity of the silk shop and followed the traces left by the enemy.

Although this trace could fool the Tang family and even most Golden Cores, it couldn’t fool the invincible Incarnation Realm expert, Zhu Wanyou.

Bai Clan Trading Company, Secret Dungeon No. 3.

Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing were captured here. Moreover, the one who captured them was Bai Yulong, one of the only two Golden Cores in the Bai family. His cultivation had already reached the early-stage Golden Core realm. Even Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing did not expect a big shot like Bai Yulong to personally capture the two of them.

Moreover, this was clearly something that would only be done under the circumstances of falling out with them. After all, Bai Yulong was a dignified Golden Core expert. He actually dared to deal with two juniors like them. If word got out, Bai Yulong would definitely be ashamed.

Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing felt their hearts sink as they looked at Bai Yulong, who stood in front of them with a cold expression. Since Bai Yulong dared to let them see his true face, they could imagine what it meant.

For the sake of his own face, Bai Yulong would not let this matter spread. Moreover, he had hidden himself when he robbed the two of them, so the surrounding people did not see clearly.

Looking at Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing, Bai Yulong said coldly, “Tell me, who killed Bai Zhijian?”

“Bai Zhijian?” Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing were a little stunned. “We don’t know Bai Zhijian.”

” You...” Bai Yulong frowned. ” He’s the one who went to catch you. ”

Bai Yulong was looking at Wang Xinjing. Wang Xinjing suddenly understood. “Immortal Bai, are you talking about the cultivator at the Exceptional Foundation Establishment Stage who wanted to force me to record the bribery?”

“It’s him. He’s the illegitimate child of my sister-in-law and me.” Bai Yulong didn’t hide this ethical matter at all. In his opinion, Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing were already dead. Dead people didn’t have to worry about them leaking secrets.

In the face of this news that would definitely cause a huge uproar, Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing couldn’t help but widen their eyes and look at Bai Yulong in disbelief. They didn’t expect Bai Yulong and his sister-in-law to have such a thing. After all, Bai Yulong’s elder brother wasn’t dead yet.

At this time, the two girls also knew why Bai Yulong had personally attacked them. It turned out that Bai Yulong’s illegitimate son, who was also his only son, had died in Wang Xinjing’s courtyard.

Not long after he was hit by the Heart Piercing Bone Devouring Needle that day, Bai Zhijian could not hold on any longer and died the moment he was brought to the Tang family’s dungeon. The Tang family did not have the time to force anything out of him, so they did not know that Bai Zhijian was actually Bai Yulong’s illegitimate son.

If they knew, the higher-ups of the Tang family would not dare to be ruthless to Bai Zhijian. At the very least, they would protect his life.

Seeing that the two girls knew who Bai Zhijian was, Bai Yulong's face was expressionless, and there was deep sorrow in his eyes."Tell me the truth. I will let you die quickly. Otherwise, I will put you in the cage of the lewd beast.

Moreover, even if you don't say it, I'll go and capture the other higher-ups of the Tang family. Eventually, I'll find out about this."

Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing couldn't help but shiver. They knew that Bai Yulong was a man of his word and would never threaten him pretentiously. Moreover, even if he did, it wouldn't pose a threat to that hidden expert. After all, that expert was very likely to be a late-stage Golden Core Daoist Master.

Therefore, after thinking for a moment, Wang Xinjing said," Immortal Bai, we don't know who that lord is either. We only speculate that he might have received a favor from the Tang family before, so he has been secretly repaying the favor recently. But we can't be sure who exactly he is. "

"The person who secretly attacked in the Wolf Claw Forest?" Bai Yulong obviously knew a little about the inside story.

Wang Xinjing nodded. " It's that hidden expert. I was also saved by him. Otherwise, I would have been captured by Bai Zhijian long ago. "

Don't you know his identity? " Bai Yulong asked.

Wang Xinjing shook her head. " I don't know. He has never appeared in front of us. Even the head shopkeeper is secretly investigating his identity. "

"Do you have any suspects?" Bai Yulong asked.

After hearing Bai Yulong's question, Wang Xinjing's gaze fluctuated, and she immediately thought of Zhu Wuwan. However, she immediately shook her head and said, ""Not yet."

"You're lying." Bai Yulong had been staring at Wang Xinjing the whole time, so he naturally saw the fluctuations in Wang Xinjing's eyes. He immediately said in a cold voice, ""Tell me, who is that person?"

Wang Xinjing thought of Zhu Wuyan's identity as an ordinary person and shook her head. "" Immortal Bai, we did have a suspect at the beginning, but after some probing, we were sure that he wasn't the hidden expert, so we didn't say anything. "

"I don't need you to tell me whether it's true or not. Just tell me who you suspected before." Bai Yulong said coldly.

Before Wang Xinjing could speak, Tang Liuli said, “” I went to check it myself. That person is just an ordinary person. He doesn’t have any Internal Qi or Genuine Qi at all. He’s definitely not the hidden master. ”

“To think that the two of you would hide it for him and still want to protect him even when you’re about to die. It seems that he’s quite important to you.” Bai Yulong said, “ That’s why it’s better for you to say it. For an ordinary person to be able to do this, I feel that he’s not ordinary. Perhaps he’s that hidden expert. ”

Wang Xinjing and Tang Liuli looked at each other. It was only then that they realized that the two of them had unknowingly developed a good impression of Zhu Wuyang. Otherwise, they wouldn’t have subconsciously wanted to protect him. But should they say it?

After all, once the news got out, Bai Yulong would definitely go and prove it himself. At that time, he would definitely kill ten thousand innocent people rather than let one go. It would be very difficult for Zhu Wuyang to survive.

Since she was destined to die, why did she have to drag him along? After all, Zhu Wuyang was just an innocent ordinary person.

Seemingly aware of the two girls ‘thoughts, Bai Yulong sneered and said, “” It’s fine if you don’t want to tell me. I’ll think of a way to capture Tang Mingyue and Tang Yelan and ask them if they know anything. “

Chapter 755: Bai Family’s Destruction (1)

Seeing Bai Yulong threaten them with Tang Mingyue and Tang Yelan, the two girls ‘expressions changed drastically. “” You’re really despicable. Bai Yulong, you’re a dignified Golden Core, but you actually did such a thing to a group of juniors. Don’t you feel shameless? ”

“My only son is dead. It’s hard for me to have any descendants. Compared to this, a little face is nothing.” Bai Yulong’s eyes were red. ” I even killed all the Foundation Establishment cultivators of the Bai family who assigned this task to Jian ‘er, let alone the people of your Tang family. They thought that they were doing this for Jian’ er’s good, so that he could make a great contribution. However, they didn’t know that to me, it doesn’t matter whether Jian ‘er makes a contribution or not. His safety is the most important. ”

“So I want to kill everyone related to Jian ‘er’s death, whether they are from the Tang family or the Bai family. I won’t let anyone off.”

Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing’s faces turned even paler. They knew that they would not be spared today. However, the two girls were still hesitating whether they should tell anyone.

Seeing this, Bai Yulong grinned, but his expression was uglier than crying. “I didn’t expect you to be so loyal. You don’t even care about the Eldest Miss and Second Miss of the Tang family for an ordinary person. In that case, I’ll let you have a taste of the perverted beast first...”

“Are you looking for me?” Before Bai Yulong could finish his sentence, a clear and unfamiliar voice sounded in the surroundings.

Bai Yulong’s expression changed. His spiritual sense fluctuated to the extreme, and the spiritual weapon on his body floated around him. “Who are you?”

“Don’t you understand? I killed Bai Zijian.” The clear and unfamiliar voice seemed to come from all directions. Bai Yulong could not tell where it was.

“Are you the expert who’s hiding in the dark to protect our Tang Trading Company?” Tang Liuli asked in surprise.

“Yes.” A clear and unfamiliar voice laughed.

“Then who are you?” Tang Liuli asked again.

“Uh ...” The clear and unfamiliar voice was hidden, so it naturally didn’t want you to know.

“Did you really kill my son?” Bai Yulong’s expression was grave.

“Naturally, I killed him. What are you waiting for?” A clear and unfamiliar voice replied.

Although Bai Yulong still could not find any trace of Zhu Wuyang, he had already secretly sent a message. To be able to sneak in here silently, the enemy’s strength was definitely extraordinary. It was very likely that he could not resist it. “A life for a life, a debt for a debt. Since you killed my son, you will pay with your life.”

“Alright, you kill them.” A clear and unfamiliar voice laughed.

Bai Yulong’s face darkened. He couldn’t even find the enemy’s location, so why would he kill them? “If you have the guts, come out. Let’s have a one-on-one competition.”

“Can’t you find my location?” A clear and unfamiliar voice mocked without any politeness.

Bai Yulong replied, “Every Golden Core has their own specialty, and only a coward like you is good at hiding.” At the same time, he anxiously waited for the arrival of the other Golden Core of the Bai family. He thought to himself that quite some time had passed, and logically speaking, his uncle should have received the message.

This place was not far from where his granduncle was in seclusion. He could rush over in a few breaths 'time. Why was there still no reply?

Seemingly noticing Bai Yulong's anxiety, the clear and unfamiliar voice said, "" You're talking so much on purpose. You're probably stalling for time and waiting for the white dragon to fly over. It seems that you still have some self-awareness and know that you're no match for me. "

Bai Yulong was silent, unable to speak for a moment. Then, he heard a clear and unfamiliar voice say, ""There's no need to wait. He can't come over anymore."

Before Bai Yulong could guess what he meant, he heard a " plop " sound. A head fell in front of him. As for where the head fell from, Bai Yulong did not know.

However, although Bai Yulong did not know where the head came from, he recognized that this dragon head was Bai Yongfei's dragon head. It was the head of another Golden Core in the Bai Clan Trading Company. It was the head of his uncle and the head of the strongest expert in the Bai Clan Trading Company.

White Jade Dragon sucked in a breath of cold air. He could not think about it anymore, let alone take revenge for his only son. He turned into a stream of light and wanted to escape.

"Bang..."

However, the owner of the clear and unfamiliar voice could even kill Bai Yongfei, who was in the later stage of the Golden Elixir realm, let alone a white jade dragon in the early stage of the Golden Elixir realm. Bai Yulong did not even run ten meters before he was smashed into pieces by a fist that came from nowhere.

From then on, the two Golden Cores of the Bai Trading Company were executed. These two Golden Cores were also the giant mountains that had been pressing down on the Tang Trading Company for the past hundred years. It was because of them that the Tang Trading Company had always been subservient when facing the Bai Trading Company and was bullied badly.

If this continued, the Tang Trading Company would be destroyed by them sooner or later. However, at this moment, these two greatest enemies of the Tang Trading Company, who had single-handedly supported the Bai Trading Company, had fallen in the dark and damp dungeon.

Looking at the two faces on the ground that had almost become the nightmare of the Tang Corporation, Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing felt a strong sense of unreality.

Everything that happened in front of them really felt like a dream. Did Bai Yongfei and Bai Yulong really die just like that? Were they under an illusion?

Before they could wake up, they felt a breeze blowing and sweeping them out of the dungeon. When they could see their surroundings again, they had already arrived at the surroundings of the Tang family mansion.

“Senior, who are you? Can you tell us your name?” At this moment, Tang Liuli suddenly thought of something. She couldn’t help but shout at the sky, but no one responded to her. Although Zhu Wuwan had already heard it, he was currently counting the treasures and resources he had obtained from the Bai Clan Trading Company.

The Bai Clan Trading Company was really poor, at least to Zhu Wuwan. When she went to kill Bai Yongfei, Zhu Wuwan casually swept through a few treasure vaults and found that there were pitifully few things inside. However, thinking about it, the Bai Clan Trading Company was only a small force with two Golden Cores guarding it, so it was normal for them to be so poor.

Fortunately, he had also obtained some valuable materials from Bai Yongfei and Bai Yulong. Zhu Wuwan could use these materials to make three jade pendants for the three sisters of the Tang family and let them wear them on their bodies. If they were in danger, they could protect them for a period of time and buy some time for Zhu Wuwan to go to the rescue.

This time, Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing’s arrest served as a reminder to Zhu Wuwan. Although he was strong, it was impossible for him to stay by the Tang sisters’ side all the time.

However, the three sisters of the Tang family were the women he had taken a fancy to, so for their safety, he still had to take some necessary protective measures.

Chapter 756: Rising Against the Tide (1)

When cultivating the Dao of Array Formations, many array formations required special array disks and array cores. Many places required the methods of a blacksmith.

In the process of forging all kinds of magic tools, spirit tools, and even magic weapons, many times, blacksmiths needed to engrave array formations on them. Therefore, blacksmiths and array masters complemented each other in some aspects.

However, in the Dongyuan Continent, most cultivators had limited time and energy. They could only focus on one aspect. Therefore, they often needed the cooperation of the other party in the process of refining some high-level artifacts or setting up some high-level arrays.

In order to reduce the demand in this area, Zhu Wuwan had also improved her refining skills. However, it was not high. She was only at the level of an Intermediate Supreme Grade Equipment Refining Master. She had not even reached the level of an Equipment Refining Grandmaster.

However, even if his refining technique was only of the highest grade, it was still enough for the current Zhu Wuwan to use. It was still very easy to refine a few protective jade pendants.

While Zhu Wuwan was busy crafting protective jade pendants for his three future wives, Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing had also returned to the Tang family. They were immediately welcomed in by Tang Yelan and Tang Mingyue, who asked them about what had happened.

When they heard that the hidden expert had killed the two pillars of the Bai Trading Company, Bai Yongfei and Bai Yulong, Tang Yelan, Tang Mingyue, and the higher-ups of the Tang Family exclaimed in shock.

"How is this possible? Bai Yulong is a Daoist Master of the early Jindan Stage, and Bai Yongfei is a Daoist Master of the late Jindan Stage. Their strength is extremely terrifying, and they even faintly suppress our ancestor. How could they be killed so easily? You must have seen wrongly."

"Perhaps everything you experienced before was an illusion, but the illusion was broken by that hidden expert, so you came back."

"How could Bai Yulong and Bai Yongfei be so weak? How long has it been since they were killed? Could it be that the hidden expert is a Perfected Being in the Exceptional Gold Core Realm?"

"Not only that, if what Third Miss and Shopkeeper Wang said is true, the hidden master might even be an old monster in the Original Infant Stage. Otherwise, it would be very difficult to kill Bai Yongfei and Bai Yulong so easily."

Hearing an elder say that the hidden expert might be a YuanYing stage old monster, the girls could not help but gasp: ""It can't be. If that hidden expert is really that strong, why would he care about the trivial matters of our Tang Trading Company? As long as he says the word, our Tang Trading Company can at least rise a few levels."

Obviously, in the eyes of most people, this matter was very likely an illusion. Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing were only confused by the illusion.

However, just as the three Tang sisters and a group of higher-ups were bustling about, a spy from the Tang Trading Company hiding in the Bai Trading Company suddenly came to report.

The two pillars of the Bai Clan Trading Company, Bai Yulong and Bai Longfei, were both dead!

The moment the news reached them, the huge living room instantly fell silent. Everyone looked at Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing in shock.

It turned out that what they had experienced before was not an illusion!

After a long silence, Tang Yelan suddenly clapped his hands and said excitedly, “” This is a heaven-sent opportunity. Our Tang Trading Company must seize this opportunity and try our best to pluck the biggest fruit from the Bai Trading Company. ”

” Right now, our Tang Trading Company can be said to be the first to receive this news. While the Bai Trading Company is empty, we can seize the Bai Trading Company’s assets and resources before the other factions. Everyone, stop daydreaming and take action immediately. ”

Only then did the higher-ups of the Tang family react and become equally excited.

” That’s right. Bai Yulong and Bai Yongfei are going to die together. This is a good opportunity for us to swallow the Bai Clan Trading Company. Even if we can’t swallow the Bai Clan Trading Company, we must at least ruthlessly tear off a large piece of fat meat from the Bai Clan Trading Company. ”

” Quick, quick, quick. Don’t waste any more time. Once our competitors find out about this, I’m afraid we won’t have much of a chance. Everyone, hurry to the Bai Trading Company’s important business. ”

” Don’t forget one thing, that is to spread the news of Bai Yulong and Bai Yongfei’s deaths. Let all the forces know that our Tang Trading Company has a top-notch Daoist Master who is at least in the Exceptional Gold Core Realm in secret. This way, we can intimidate other forces and snatch more good things from the Bai Trading Company. ”

“That’s right. If we have this big shot backing us up, let alone the Bai Trading Company, we won’t even be afraid of the Song Family. We might even have a chance to advance further.”

The Tang family’s higher-ups rushed out of the mansion like a swarm of bees and led their troops to snatch resources and assets. The Bai family’s trading firm, which had originally firmly suppressed the Tang family's trading firm and almost forced the Tang family's trading firm to a dead end, became a thing of the past.

He recalled that not long ago, the powerful Bai Trading Company had spent a huge sum of money to hire the Wolf Claw Seven Heroes and almost snatched the tribute, causing the Tang Trading Company to fall into a desperate situation.

However, it had only been a short while, and the Bai Trading Company with its imposing manner was about to collapse. With the collapse of the two towering pillars, the Bai Trading Company without a Golden Core was destined to be a fat piece of meat in the eyes of other forces.

When the higher-ups of the Bai Clan Trading Company learned that Bai Yulong and Bai Yongfei had fallen, they immediately realized that something was wrong. They immediately prepared to escape with the treasures and resources they had accumulated over the years.

The upper echelons of the Bai Clan Trading Company knew very well that without a Golden Core overseeing the business, the Bai Clan Trading Company would not be able to keep so much wealth and resources.

If he didn't hurry up and run away with these resources and wealth, they would definitely belong to someone else in the future.

It was just that the Tang Trading Company's people had arrived too quickly. The Bai Trading Company's people were still packing their things when they were already attacked by the Tang Trading Company.

In a short day, more than half of the Bai Trading Company's businesses had become the Tang Trading Company's businesses. At this time, some of the other powers that had enmity with the Bai Trading Company had also received the news and hurriedly swallowed up the remaining half.

The huge Bai Clan Trading Company instantly fell.

Some forces had arrived too late and hadn't even had a chance to drink the soup, let alone eat the meat. Therefore, they had their eyes on the resources and industries occupied by the Tang Trading Company.

However, at this time, they received news from the Tang Trading Company that the two Golden Cores of the Bai Trading Company had been killed by the peak Perfected Golden Cores hidden in their family clan. That was why the Tang Trading Company was able to receive the news at the first moment and occupied most of the benefits of the Bai Trading Company.

As for why he didn't say that the hidden big shot was a Nascent Soul old monster, even the Tang Trading Company itself didn't believe it. It was better not to brag so much.

These forces that coveted the Tang Trading Company were instantly doused with a bucket of cold water. They no longer dared to compete with the Tang Trading Company. With the help of this annexation, the Tang Trading Company's power increased dramatically.

Chapter 757: Shock (1)

However, after taking down more than half of the Bai Trading Company and increasing their influence by several times, Tang Yelan and the group of higher-ups of the Tang Family were somewhat frightened.

After all, even they themselves did not expect that they would actually be able to obtain such great benefits from the annexation of the Bai Trading Company this time. It allowed the Tang Trading Company's influence to expand by more than three times.

The development of the Bai Clan Trading Company these few years was too swift and violent. With two Golden Cores overseeing it, the Bai Clan Trading Company was full of confidence, especially since the second Golden Core was still young. It was enough to support the Bai Clan Trading Company for hundreds of years.

Under such circumstances, many of the surrounding factions had shrunk their businesses, allowing the Bai Trading Company to obtain a large amount of benefits for nothing. Now, these benefits were basically all benefiting the Tang Trading Company.

Therefore, the Tang Trading Company, which had received so many benefits, felt a little overwhelmed. It felt as if they were sitting on a volcano. After all, with the Tang Trading Company's current power, it was impossible for them to support such a large industry.

In other words, he didn't have such an appetite, but he swallowed so many good things.

"I really didn't expect the Bai Trading Company to be so rich. Their assets are several times more than our Tang Trading Company's. No wonder they've been looking down on our Tang Trading Company more and more over the years."

"The Bai Trading Company has two Golden Cores overseeing it, and Bai Yulong is so young. His talent is top-notch, and his future is limitless. It's normal for him to have so many industries and resources. It's just that the Bai Trading Company can steadily use so many industries and resources, but it doesn't mean that our Tang Trading Company can protect so many industries and resources."

" That's right. I didn't expect the Bai Trading Company to have so many industries and resources. Now that we've obtained so many good things from the Bai Trading Company, how are we going to defend it? After all, our Tang Trading Company only has one Golden Core Daoist Master. We can't protect so many industries and resources. "

" We're a little greedy this time. Once the outside world finds out about the number of these industries and resources, I'm afraid our Tang Trading Company will never have a peaceful day. But we can't just hand over these industries and resources, right? "

The group of Tang Trading Company's higher-ups were in pain but also in joy. They did not know what to do. Tang Yelan's brows were also tightly knitted together as he secretly thought about how to protect such a huge industry and resources.

A moment later, a high-ranking official of the Tang Trading Company said, "" Perhaps we can only rely on that hidden expert now. As long as we can get that hidden expert to support our Tang Trading Company, let alone these industries and resources, we can defend even more of them. "

"This is not good." Tang Yelan shook his head. " We've already used that expert's fame and achievements to obtain so many properties and resources. If we continue to be greedy and use his power, we might incur the dissatisfaction of that expert. "

Another Tang Trading Company's higher-up said, ""That expert has saved our Tang Trading Company several times in a row. He shouldn't mind us using his name to scare those enemies who are eyeing us covetously."

"But if we really encounter danger again, can you guarantee that the hidden expert will appear in time to save us every time?" Tang Yelan's bright eyes were like hooks as he glanced at the group of higher-ups of the Tang Trading Company.

The Tang Trading Company's higher-ups were silent. Tang Yelan continued, ""We don't even know who the hidden expert is, let alone how to contact him. We can scare the enemy for a while, but how can we scare the enemy forever?"

Wang Xinjing suggested, " Head Shopkeeper, how about this? We will sell a portion of the businesses and resources that the original Bai Clan Trading Company controlled at a low price and exchange them for various treasures and resources, or a large number of medium to high-quality spirit stones. We will store them as compensation. Once we know the identity of that hidden expert, we will immediately send them over. "

"At the same time, we will tell the outside world that we are doing this to repay that hidden expert. We can also sell some of the industries that we are not good at and give them to those forces that need these industries. This will prevent the trees from being destroyed by the wind."

“Good, this suggestion is very good.” Tang Yelan immediately nodded. “That hidden expert has saved our Tang Trading Company many times. Now, he has even destroyed our Tang Trading Company’s greatest enemy, the Bai Trading Company. It’s only right for us to repay him.”

“When the time comes, we’d better spread this news everywhere and let that hidden expert know. Perhaps, on account of these resources and treasures, he’ll come looking for us.”

The group of Tang Trading Company’s higher-ups also heaved a sigh of relief. Although this method could not completely solve the problem, it could solve more than half of the problem. At the very least, it could give the Tang Trading Company more time to develop.

If the Tang Trading Company could have a new Golden Core before this, they should be able to stabilize the situation.

Following that, the group of Tang Trading Company’s higher-ups discussed the specific implementation process. After the meeting ended, Tang Yelan rushed back to his small courtyard tiredly.

He didn’t rest immediately as he still had some accounts to check. So, Tang Yelan walked towards the study room. However, the moment he reached the study room, Tang Yelan was stunned.

At this moment, in the middle of the study room, there was a heart-shaped crystal jade pendant that was shining with a moving luster. If one looked carefully, there were clearly two dazzling stars in the jade pendant.

In the stars, there was a line of poetry floating.

At night, when the wind is still and I want to go home, there is only a bright moon on the river and green glass!

This jade pendant with two stars was called the Night Orchid Pendant. It was named after Tang Yelan.

Tang Yelan could clearly sense a vague and terrifying energy fluctuation from the Night Orchid Pendant. She could not help but grab it in her hand and examine it carefully.

However, the more he sized her up, the more shocked Tang Yelan became. Gradually, a look of astonishment appeared on his delicate little face.

She had not expected that the grade of this Night Orchid Pendant would be so high, and its power seemed to have exceeded her imagination. At least with his eyesight, he could tell that even the ancestors of the Tang Trading Company would not be able to refine this Night Orchid Pendant.

Or rather, with the connections and connections of the Tang Trading Company's ancestor, even with the backing of the Tang Trading Company's wealth, it was probably impossible for others to refine such a good jade pendant. One could imagine how good this jade pendant was.

To put it bluntly, Tang Yelan had never played with such a good jade pendant in his life, let alone one that he had obtained.

Such a good jade pendant, even the old ancestor would be tempted to take it for himself. After being the head shopkeeper of the Tang Trading Company for a few years, Tang Yelan had some insight.

Chapter 758: Accept This Love (1)

Tang Yelan came to a conclusion after a careful examination.

This Night Orchid Pendant should be a middle-grade spirit weapon, and it was a middle-grade spirit weapon that was half a step into the ranks of high-grade spirit weapons. Under normal circumstances, only those Perfected Cultivators in the Exceptional Gold Core Realm could have it, or even those old monsters in the Nascent Soul Realm.

There were two silver stars floating in the Night Orchid Pendant. One was a defensive star, and the other was an offensive star. As the name suggested, this Night Orchid Pendant had two functions, protecting its owner and attacking its enemies.

Most importantly, this jade pendant was for Tang Yelan. More accurately, it was given to Tang Yelan by that hidden expert.

As for how powerful the protection and attack were, according to Tang Yelan's perception, it could at least block the attack of a Perfected Cultivator in the Exceptional Gold Core Realm or injure a Perfected Cultivator in the Exceptional Gold Core Realm.

However, Tang Yelan could not be sure about this because the two stars were obviously sealed with a restrictive spell that allowed them to hide themselves. Otherwise, the energy fluctuations inside would be too strong.

This was a supreme treasure!

It was a treasure that could be compared to half of the Tang Trading Company, and this was still a small number.

Tang Yelan couldn't help but take a deep breath. He had a better guess about the identity and strength of that hidden expert and he felt even more grateful.

"Dang dang dang..."

At this moment, there was a knock on the door. Tang Yelan quickly put away his Night Orchid Pendant and opened the door to see Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli standing at the door. There was still shock on their faces.

Tang Yelan's heart skipped a beat. He quickly let the two of them into the study and then shut the door tightly.

"What's wrong with you two?" Tang Yelan looked at Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli and asked.

"Sis, did you receive the jade pendant?" Tang Liuli asked quickly.

"Jade pendant?" Tang Yelan was stunned. He then took out the Night Orchid Pendant that he had hidden on his body. "Is this the jade pendant?"

Tang Liuli took a closer look. "Yes, yes, yes. It's this kind of jade pendant. I have one too. I don't know who gave it to me, but it's very likely that it's that hidden expert."

As she spoke, Tang Liuli took out a double-star jade pendant. There was also a line of poetry floating inside. This jade pendant was called a jade pendant, and it was also named after Tang Liuli.

Tang Mingyue also took out a moon-shaped token. "When the night is quiet and the wind is about to return, there is only a river full of bright moon and green glass. What a beautiful sentence, and it cleverly incorporated the names of the three of us sisters into it. It's simply natural. It's really beautiful. I wonder if there are any more in front. I keep feeling that only two sentences are too few."

"Night Orchid Pendant, Bright Moon Pendant, Coloured Glass Pendant..." "If I'm not mistaken, it should be the work of that hidden expert." Tang Yelan muttered. "I'm afraid only the three of us have it."

Tang Liuli hurriedly nodded. "Yes, the two of us have secretly probed before. In the huge Tang family mansion, only the three of us sisters received the jade pendant. No one else received it. So does this mean that the hidden expert only values the three of us? He's also secretly protecting the three of us."

"What did Xin Jing say?" Tang Mingyue retorted.

Tang Liuli pursed her lips and said, "Xinjin is one of the most important shopkeepers of our Tang Trading Company. She has a lot of secrets. Once she's caught, it's very likely that she'll implicate the entire Tang Trading Company. Naturally, it'll affect the three of us. That's why that hidden expert saved Xinjin. "

Tang Mingyue was speechless. Tang Yelan was also looking at the three jade pendants with a strange gaze, especially the stars floating in them.

Seeing that her two sisters were silent, Tang Liuli, who had always been unable to hide her thoughts, continued to ask, "" Big Sister, Second Sister, do you think my guess is right? That hidden expert is secretly protecting us and the Tang Trading Company because of the three of us. Now, he even specially gave us three such good spirit weapons and jade pendants. He's really too big of a hand. "

" In the Eternal Empire, even a child knows the meaning of this star jade pendant. What should we do next? We can't possibly marry that hidden master together. That would be too awkward. "

In the Eternal Empire, if a man gave a woman a Star Jade Pendant, it meant that he had taken a fancy to her. If a woman accepted it, it meant that she had accepted the man's love.

"That might not be the case." " Although the Eternal Empire's Star Pendant represents courtship, " Tang Mingyue retorted, " there's only one star in that kind of Star Pendant. The other star is in the man's Star Pendant. Only when the two stars combine can the courtship be considered successful. However, our Star Pendant has two stars. It doesn't necessarily mean that we're in love. "

Tang Liuli pursed her lips. " But other people's star jade pendants are only used for love. Our star jade pendants can be used to protect us against those enemies. That's why the hidden expert had no choice but to put in two stars. It's better than one, right? "

" I just don't know how powerful this star is. Why don't I test its power and see if it can match the full power of a Perfected Golden Core? "

"Please don't!" Seeing how eager Tang Liuli was, Tang Yelan and Tang Mingyue stopped her together. ""This is a life-saving treasure. You can't use it recklessly. Little sister, don't mess around."

Tang Liuli pursed her lips in disappointment. ""How stingy. Then should we accept the Star Jade Pendant now? What if these three jade pendants really represent love and courtship? Doesn't this mean that the three of us have accepted the courtship of that hidden expert and are ready to marry him?"

"Uh ..." Tang Mingyue's face turned red as she looked at the beautiful and exquisite moon poem in her hand. She couldn't bear to let go of it, especially the line of poems.

However, for some reason, Zhu Wuyang's figure suddenly appeared in his mind at this moment. If only this moon was worthy of being given by Zhu Wuyang. Unfortunately, after repeated confirmation by his eldest sister and younger sister, Zhu Wuyang was indeed just an ordinary person and not some hidden expert.

She couldn't help but feel a little disappointed. She didn't know how to deal with this Bright Moon Match that had moved her heart. Moreover, Tang Mingyue knew very well that even if she really had a good impression of Zhu Wuwan, with the gap between the two of them, the higher-ups of the family would definitely not agree.

Tang Yelan was also hesitant.

However, what Tang Yelan saw was not the beauty and exquisiteness of Ye Lan's jade pendant, nor was it the poems inside. Instead, it was its astonishing power. If the three sisters had the protection of this jade pendant, their safety would definitely increase exponentially. In the future, they would not be in any danger.

Just because of this, Tang Yelan felt that they had to keep the Star Jade Pendant. However, when he thought of Tang Liuli's guess, Tang Yelan blushed and did not know what to do.

Chapter 759: Third Miss (1)

If these three Star Jade Pendants were really as Tang Liuli had guessed and were tokens of love, if the three sisters accepted them, wouldn't it mean that they had accepted the hidden master's love and were ready to marry him?

However, if he didn't accept them, Tang Yelan felt that he had to accept the three Star Jade Pendants when he thought about how Tang Liuli and Wang Xinjing almost got into trouble.

If it was really a love token, then he would sacrifice himself!

At the thought of this, Tang Yelan smiled and said, " Take it. This shouldn't be some kind of love token. After all, there are two stars in it. Moreover, the hidden expert is so powerful. He must be at least a few hundred years old. He has seen countless beauties in his life. Why would he like us? "

Tang Liuli looked at Tang Mingyue, and Tang Mingyue looked back at Tang Liuli. The two of them nodded.

Tang Yelan was finally relieved when he saw his two sisters keeping the Star Jade Pendant and connecting it to their spirit and wearing it on their bodies.

"This jade pendant is priceless. I don't know how powerful the power of the stars inside is. I'm afraid even the ancestor can't refine it. Therefore, you must carry it with you at all times and can't tell anyone." Tang Yelan specially reminded him. "A man's wealth is his sin. The three of us can't guard such a treasure at all. The consequences will be unimaginable if it's exposed."

Tang Liuli and Tang Mingyue nodded in unison.

"I wonder how powerful that hidden expert is. Is he really a Nascent Soul old monster? He's actually willing to give us such a good treasure, and he gave us three at once." Tang Liuli's exquisite and moving face flashed with a look of yearning. "If only he was handsome."

"I think he's not bad. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to write such a good poem." Tang Mingyue glanced at her.

"Just because you write poems well doesn't mean you're handsome. Second Sister, you're too obsessed with poems." Tang Liuli pursed her lips and looked at the jade pendant in her hand again. "Actually, I think that the hidden master is so generous. If he is still a Nascent Soul Stage Cultivator, it would be good for the three of us to marry him together."

"By then, the three of us sisters will never be separated for the rest of our lives. Isn't that good? There are many sisters in the empire who have married the same man. What do you think, big sister and second sister?"

"Bah, that would be so awkward." Tang Mingyue's face turned red as she gripped the Bright Moon Match tightly.

Tang Yelan's face also turned red. "Little sister, don't spout nonsense. That hidden expert probably didn't mean that. Maybe he just fancied one of us."

"If you only like one of us, don't you want the other two?" Tang Liuli was straightforward. "If I were a man and saw that the three sisters are so good-looking, I would also want to accept them. That would feel so good."

Tang Yelan and Tang Mingyue couldn't take it anymore. They scolded Tang Liuli together, "What are you talking about? Is this something a girl like you can say?"

This matter passed just like that. However, a seed was left in the hearts of the three sisters, and they inadvertently thought of Tang Liuli's words.

In fact, after thinking about it carefully, this was actually not bad. At least the three sisters did not have to be separated anymore. Moreover, being able to marry an old monster who was suspected to be in the Nascent Soul realm definitely did not disgrace the three sisters.

Moreover, a Nascent Soul old monster was worth the three of them serving the same husband. Moreover, if it wasn't for the help of this hidden expert many times, the three of them would have died, and even the Tang Trading Company would have been finished.

That hidden expert had saved the lives of the three sisters, the Tang Family, and the Tang Trading Company. Even if it was to repay this kindness, they should marry that hidden expert.

In the following days, the three sisters of the Tang family would think of this matter from time to time, afraid that the hidden expert would suddenly appear and say that he wanted to marry the three sisters.

However, as the days passed, the hidden master did not appear. Gradually, this thought faded.

However, in the following three years, Zhu Wuyang's relationship with the three sisters of the Tang family slowly became more and more familiar.

During this period, Zhu Wuan had already given Tang Mingyue the full text of Sheng Sheng Man's poem. After that, he wrote a few poems for her, which shocked Tang Mingyue and made her feel even better about Zhu Wuan. If not for the limitations of her status, Tang Mingyue might have even wanted to marry him.

Tang Liuli often ran over to Zhu Wuwan's place. It was unknown if she was still drooling over his body, but during this period of time, Tang Liuli took advantage of one night to " knock him out " a few more times. She touched him all over, even shamelessly hugging him, kissing him, and lying in his arms...

There were two times when Zhu Wuwan almost couldn't hold on and " woke up ", letting Tang Liuli know what it meant to advance at a tremendous pace.

Fortunately, Zhu Wuyan had experienced nearly a hundred years of storms and had considerable self-control. Finally, she did not do anything indescribable.

Even Tang Yelan was getting closer to Zhu Wuwan because of Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli. In addition, Tang Yelan was Zhu Wuwan's savior, so they naturally had a special relationship and got along quite well.

In the beginning, there were still some higher-ups of the Tang Trading Company who reminded the three sisters to be careful. However, as Tang Yelan's prestige grew, and Tang Liuli also advanced to the perfected Foundation Establishment realm, she displayed astonishing talent and was very likely to break through to the Golden Core realm around a hundred years old. Thus, gradually, no one mentioned this matter anymore.

Some of the Tang Trading Company's higher-ups even secretly thought that they could just treat it as a gigolo raised by the three sisters. However, it was still a little awkward for the three sisters to raise a gigolo together.

Fortunately, after some observation, the three young ladies did not lose their virginity and still retained their complete bodies. This made the higher-ups of the Tang Trading Company feel much more at ease. They also had one more thing to do on a daily basis, and that was to ask the experienced old nanny to confirm it from time to time.

However, the higher-ups of the Tang Trading Company did not know that the expert hidden in the dark might have taken a fancy to the three young ladies of the Tang family and even gave them the Starry Jade Pendant of astonishing value.

If they knew about this, they would probably persuade the three young ladies to be more careful and not anger that hidden expert because of this.

After all, the Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company had been borrowing power from that hidden expert. Otherwise, how could they have so many industries and resources so steadily?

If that hidden expert really took a fancy to the three Tang sisters, not to mention the higher-ups of the Tang Trading Company, even the Tang family's ancestor might take the initiative to send the three Tang sisters up.

This matter was also one of the three Tang sisters' worries. So far, they could not determine if the hidden master had any other intentions for them or if it was just a simple gift.

Chapter 760: Strongest Foundation (1)

However, in the end, both the Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company had borrowed the power of that hidden expert to achieve their current glory.

The Tang Sisters owed that hidden expert, the Tang Family owed that hidden expert, and the Tang Trading Company owed that hidden expert...Moreover, he was once again certain that even the entire Tang Trading Company had been saved by that hidden expert.

If that hidden expert really came out one day and said that he wanted to marry the three sisters of the Tang family, the Tang family would at least marry one, or even two, or even more.

How could he not return such a huge favor? If he did not return it, the other party would not need to take revenge. The Tang family would feel bad in their hearts.

The Tang Trading Company had been established in the Yin Qing Emperor City for so many years, and the foundation of its existence was to repay kindness!

Zhu Wuwan naturally knew a little about the dilemma in the hearts of the three sisters of the Tang family. Seeing that the three sisters were under a lot of pressure because of the three jade pendants, Zhu Wuwan was also speechless.

The three jade pendants that were priceless to the three Tang sisters were just small toys that were casually forged by Zhu Wuwan. They were not worth much at all, at least in Zhu Wuwan's opinion.

Initially, he wanted to use his identity as a hidden expert to remind the three sisters not to take it to heart. However, he later realized that this matter was quite beneficial for him to have the three sisters of the Tang family in the future. He could also use this opportunity to test the three sisters of the Tang family. Zhu Wuyang still did not deal with this small matter.

Some people might think that Zhu Wuyan was going overboard, but to put it bluntly, with Zhu Wuyan's current status, the three sisters of the Tang family marrying him was completely out of their league. The two of them were not on the same level at all. It was not an exaggeration to say that they were worlds apart.

For example, if Zhu Wuyang was the high and mighty emperor, then the three sisters of the Tang family were just the daughters of ordinary villagers in the mountains. The difference was even many times greater than this.

Countless princesses, princesses, and fairies of the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty...She cried and shouted that she wanted to marry Zhu Wuyan, but Zhu Wuyan didn't even care about it. It was a great fortune for the three Tang sisters to have the chance to accept Zhu Wuyan's test.

Not to mention the Southern Wasteland, even in the Central Plains, there were countless fairies who wanted to accept Zhu Wuyan's test to see if they could marry Zhu Wuyan as a concubine.

As for the position of a wife, they did not dare to think about it. How could it be so easy to be the wife of a Heavenly Pillar?

If Zhu Wanwan hadn't been struck by the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes and accidentally teleported to the Eternal Empire, the three Tang sisters would never have known Zhu Wanwan, let alone become his woman.

It was already considered condescending for Zhu Wuyan to be able to give them a test now. If Zhu Wuyan were to reveal her true strength and power now, the three sisters of the Tang family would have to obediently deliver themselves to their doorstep without saying a word.

Of course, the Controlling Heart Sect was still searching for him urgently. They were searching for him all over the world. There were also many spies and secret agents of the Controlling Heart Sect in the Eternal Empire. Therefore, unless it was absolutely necessary, Zhu Wuyang would not easily reveal her strength to avoid arousing suspicion and attracting the full pursuit of the Controlling Heart Sect.

With Zhu Wuyang's current strength, he was no match for the Heart Controlling Faction. As long as he was exposed, he would be captured alive in minutes.

This made Zhu Wanwan speechless. Didn't they just rob nearly a hundred of your treasure vaults? Didn't they just take away more than half of the wealth and resources that the Mind Control Sect had accumulated for tens of thousands of years? Didn't they just snatch away the inheritance land of the Mind Control Sect? Is it worth pursuing such a small matter?

How stingy!

In the past three years, the Tang Trading Company had relied on his reputation to steadily digest most of the industries and resources they had previously obtained. Their influence had increased by several times, and their development speed was extremely rapid. There were signs of them rising to the next level, and they had already become the top among the Golden Core families. Occasionally, they were qualified to interact with those Nascent Soul families.

However, in these three years, Zhu Wuyan's gains were even more impressive.

With the help of the Soul Formation Realm slaves, Zhu Wuwan even enslaved some powerful Soul Formation Realm cultivators from the surrounding empires and controlled a fraction of the power in the surrounding empires.

With the help of nearly a hundred Soul Formation Stage servants, nearly half of the resources that Zhu Wuwan had obtained from the Five Poison Sect, Earth Spirit Sect, and Heart Controlling Sect over the years had been digested.

Of course, Zhu Wanwan had also obtained a lot of good things from these Soul Formation Stage slaves and earned a large number of breakthrough stones. Not only had she advanced to the Exceptional Soul Formation Stage, but she had also accumulated enough breakthrough stones to advance to the Void Training Stage.

Right, in these three years, Zhu Wuwan had already obtained the Nirvana Sutra and the cultivation method of the sixth level of the Nirvana Technique. He had even obtained the cultivation method of the third level of the Nirvana Technique and had successfully cultivated it.

After the third Nirvana transformation, Zhu Wuyan's Nirvana consciousness had already caught up with the consciousness of an ordinary ancient giant, and she could steadily cross realms to fight enemies. Her Nirvana Nascent Soul had also caught up with the Nascent Soul of an ordinary ancient giant, and her overall strength had soared several times.

Unfortunately, he still did not obtain the fourth level of the Nirvana Technique. He still needed to think of a way to obtain the corresponding Nirvana Technique and continue his transformation.

Under the nourishment of the Nirvana Nascent Soul and the three transformations of the Nirvana Technique, although Zhu Wuyan had not cultivated the path of body refinement, his body's strength and flexibility were no longer inferior to a perfected Nascent Soul cultivator. He was only half a step away from being comparable to a Soul Formation cultivator.

Even Zhu Wanhao himself did not expect the power of the Nirvana Technique to be so strong. It allowed him to raise his body refinement cultivator to almost the same level as his Qi Refinement cultivation without cultivating any body refinement cultivation technique.

At this moment, Zhu Wanhao had already deeply understood why the Nirvana Ceremony could become the number one inheritance in the Dongyuan Continent. It was truly amazing, far surpassing the inheritance of the Ten Thousand Poisons Sect. Even the inheritance of the Mind Control Sect was nothing compared to it.

Nirvana Tower had been the number one immortal sect in Dongyuan Continent for tens of thousands of years. It was not a fluke. The inheritance of the Nirvana Ceremony must have played an extremely important role.

It was just that the cultivation of the Nirvana Art consumed too many breakthrough stones. No wonder after so many years, the official disciples of the Nirvana Towers in the surrounding empires could only cultivate the Nirvana Art to the third level at most. As a result, Zhu Wuyang did not even have the cultivation method to the fourth level.

Moreover, cultivating the Nirvana Sutra and the Nirvana Art had also given Zhu Wuyan a stable cultivation foundation. With the three transformations of the Nirvana Art, Zhu Wuyan's cultivation foundation had been further strengthened, making Zhu Wuyan's cultivation foundation almost comparable to the peak Divine Transformation Realm when he cultivated Qi and body at the same time.

If he could cultivate another two levels of Nirvana, Zhu Wuyan's cultivation foundation would not be worse than before. Once he could break through the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes, the two strongest cultivation foundations would definitely help Zhu Wuyan create an unprecedented cultivation foundation.

The strongest immortal foundation of the East Wing, the strongest cultivator of the same level in the East Wing, and the number one person in the East Wing to fight against enemies...Even Zhu Wuyan could do it.

In the past, Zhu Wanwan was known to have an invincible foundation in the Southern Wasteland and was the strongest among his peers. However, after the two cultivation foundations and cultivation base broke through the seal and fused, he would definitely be able to surpass all the cultivators in the Dongyuan Continent.

Zhu Wuyan was also looking forward to this, hoping that that day would come as soon as possible. This crisis that could be said to be a death sentence for other cultivators had become another heaven-defying fortune for Zhu Wuyan!

Chapter 761: Controlling Eternity (1)

Since he had accumulated enough breakthrough stones, it was naturally time for him to break through.

The breakthrough of the Void Training Stage mainly involved the power of the Spiritual Sense, which was the Nirvana Spiritual Sense.

Compared to the breakthrough of the Form Synthesis Stage, this breakthrough was much easier, not to mention that he had learned his lesson. Therefore, Zhu Wuyang's breakthrough went smoothly.

Under the effect of the Nirvana Sutra and the Breakthrough Stone, the Nirvana Soul Consciousness was sublimated in an orderly manner. Finally, it turned into a Soul Consciousness puddle condensed by the Nirvana Soul Consciousness, which was filled with extremely pure Nirvana Soul Consciousness.

It looked much smaller, but its density and purity had increased by more than ten times. This was a huge transformation.

After the transformation, the Nirvana consciousness far surpassed the eighteen hell consciousness of the same level. This kind of improvement was not only in terms of purity and density, but also in various special effects.

The Eighteen Hell Divine Consciousness seemed to have many effects, a total of eighteen. However, the power of each of these effects was limited, far inferior to the Nirvana Divine Consciousness and recovery and healing effects.

In order to determine the recovery and healing effects of the Nirvana Soul Consciousness, Zhu Wuwan had deliberately tried it out. With the Nirvana Soul Consciousness he had mastered, he could almost use the low-level Secret Skills of Heaven and Earth that consumed a lot of energy, and they were all used for Soul Consciousness attacks.

It was that powerful!

It was equivalent to an unlimited amount of gunpowder, and it was a low-grade secret technique of heaven and earth type of gunpowder. If enough of it was shot out, even an ancient giant at the Mid Void Refinement Realm or above would find it difficult to resist.

The healing effect was also extremely impressive. As long as it did not cause a major blow to Zhu Wuwan's divine sense and Niwan Palace, Zhu Wuwan would be able to recover in a very short period of time.

Everyone knew that once there was a problem with the Niwan Palace, the treatment was far more difficult than the dantian and immortal meridians. However, with the Nirvana consciousness, there was basically no need to worry about damage in this area.

Even if his Niwan Palace and Nirvana Soul Consciousness were invaded by a powerful poison, as long as it was not a poison that far exceeded his level, Zhu Wuwan was confident that he could expel it.

With just these two effects, the Nirvana consciousness could be invincible, far superior to the eighteen Hell consciousness.

There was a well-known saying that as long as there was life, there would be hope. As long as the Niwan Palace and divine sense were still there, cultivators would have a chance to make a comeback.

It was because of this that the Nirvana Divine Consciousness was able to firmly suppress the many offensive Divine Consciousness powers and become one of the top Divine Consciousness powers in Dongyuan Continent.

After his divine sense sublimated and broke through, Zhu Wuyang began to raise his Nirvana Nascent Soul. With the help of his Nirvana Divine Sense and the Breakthrough Stone, it was even easier for him to break through to the Nirvana Nascent Soul.

In just a few hours, his Nirvana Nascent Soul had advanced. Every strand of Nirvana Nascent Soul had a black pattern flickering, which also meant that Zhu Wuyan's Nirvana Nascent Soul had stabilized at the Early Void Refinement Realm.

Although he had just advanced to the Early Void Refinement Realm, with his solid cultivation foundation and the transformation brought about by the three nirvana, Zhu

Wuyan's nirvana divine sense and nirvana nascent soul were no longer inferior to ordinary Late Void Refinement Realm ancient giants in terms of purity and thickness.

In addition, Zhu Wanhao had mastered all kinds of Heaven and Earth Immortal Martial Arts, Heaven and Earth Dharma Spells, and Heaven and Earth Secret Skills. He was completely invincible against those at the Void Training Stage, which meant that he was invincible against the Eternal Empire.

Therefore, Zhu Wuwan could be bolder when she acted next.

After spending a few days, Zhu Wuwan had completely adapted to the sudden increase in strength. After all, she had experienced this stage before, so it was very easy for her to adapt.

The more he adapted to it, the more he could feel the profoundness of the number one inheritance in the world. Moreover, in the past few years, Zhu Wuyan had only made some minor adjustments and improvements to the Nirvana Sutra and Nirvana Technique. Any more than that would not do. It could be seen how powerful the Nirvana Ceremony was.

By the way, under the influence of the advancement to the ancient giant, Zhu Wuwan's body had also been enhanced to the level of a Soul Formation Initial Stage cultivator, far surpassing the Qi Practitioners of the same level.

After getting used to the sudden increase in strength, Zhu Wuwan specially spent half a month to cultivate a level-six Gu worm that had been improved over the past few years. This Gu worm was called the Soul Locking Gu.

As the name suggested, the Soul Locking Gu could lock the enemy's soul and form three password locks that were firmly embedded in the enemy's soul. Once activated, it could eat the enemy's soul in an extremely short period of time, making it impossible for them to survive.

The Soul-Locking Venomous Insect was a combination of the Five Poison Sect's poison locking technique and the Ten Thousand Poison Sect's venomous insect technique. Its power was almost comparable to an ordinary level-seven mixed poison, and it was a living mixed poison.

Not to mention the Integration Heavenly Pillar, even a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal would find it extremely difficult to crack it. Moreover, before cracking it, Zhu Wuwan could use the Soul Locking Gu to understand the situation and activate the Soul Locking Gu, so that the Mahayana Quasi-Immortal would not have a chance to crack it.

Unless one was a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal who was proficient in venomous spells and poison locking techniques, or a Human Immortal who had mastered a special secret technique, the Soul-Locking Venomous Insect would be very difficult to crack.

There was basically no need to worry about any problems. After all, this was the Eternal Empire, and the strongest expert here was only at the perfected Void Refinement Realm.

After the Soul-Locking Gu hatched, Zhu Wuwan brought it to meet the strongest expert of the Eternal Empire. He was also the Retired Emperor of the Eternal Empire and the direct descendant of the Mahayana Quasi-Immortal behind the Eternal Empire.

His name was Zhao Ziyang, and he was already half a step into the Form Synthesis Pillar Realm. He had also cultivated the Nirvana Ceremony, the strongest inheritance of the Nirvana Tower. He had also cultivated the Nirvana Technique to the third level of perfection and was currently cultivating the fourth level. There was a high chance that he would succeed.

Zhao Ziyang spent most of his time hiding in the depths of the palace, which was covered in arrays. To ensure his safety, Nirvana Tower had specially sent a top tier Spiritual Array King to set up a top tier mid-grade Spiritual Array around his secluded cultivation. Even a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal would find it difficult to sneak near.

However, Zhu Wuwan was the king of top-notch top-grade Spiritual Arrays. In the past few years, he had also learned about most of the Spiritual Arrays in the Imperial Palace through his servants, including a portion of the information on this top-notch middle-grade Spiritual Array Group. He had long found the weaknesses that could be exploited.

At the peak of the spiritual array, there were basically no loopholes. At most, there were some slightly weak spots. These were the targets that Zhu Wuwan used.

Unfortunately, the Invisible Curse, Beautiful Goat, was also sealed in the Myriad Poison Nascent Soul. Otherwise, with the help of the Invisible Curse, Beautiful Goat, Zhu Wuwan would not have to spend so much time investigating and searching. She would be able to easily crack it in a few days.

As long as he could enslave Zhao Ziyang, he would be able to take control of the entire Eternal Empire. Zhu Wuwan naturally wouldn't let go of this perfect slave of the Eternal Empire. She quickly snuck into the Imperial Palace.

Chapter 762: A Deal (1)

After all these years of secret sales, most of the general treasures and resources in Zhu Wuwan's hands had been sold out.

The so-called universal resources and treasures were those that could be found everywhere and had no unique symbols. For example, the Mind Control Sect's Weaving Leaf Tree, Thousand Eyes, and Five Peaks Fruit ... These were basically treasures that only the Mind Control Sect had.

However, these treasures were relatively precious, far surpassing those general-purpose treasures and resources. However, Zhu Wuwan did not dare to sell them casually, lest the Mind Control Sect followed the clues and found them.

This would require Zhu Wanwan to use special channels, such as some secret channels controlled by the entire Eternal Empire, to sell these unique treasures and resources.

Moreover, these treasures and resources were the best things in Zhu Wuwan's hands, and they were also the most valuable things. Once they were successfully sold, after some operation, they could bring Zhu Wuwan ten times or a hundred times more breakthrough stones than before.

At that time, Zhu Wuyang could use these breakthrough stones to quickly break through and return to the Body Integration Pillar Realm. At that time, his safety would be greatly guaranteed and he would no longer have to be as cautious as he was now.

As the number one immortal sect in the Central Plains, Nirvana Tower must have all kinds of special channels. As the direct descendant of the Grand Ascension Stage Elder, Zhao Ziyang must also have some special channels. This was what Zhu Wuwan needed.

Silently sneaking around Zhao Ziyang's residence, Zhu Wuyang found that he was focused on his cultivation and did not realize that someone was approaching. Or rather, he did not expect that someone would be able to sneak into the top-notch mid-grade Spiritual Array that protected him.

Zhu Wanwan smiled and circulated the [Hidden Heaven and Earth Scripture] to conceal the Soul Locking Worm before releasing it. Without Zhao Ziyang knowing, the invisible Soul Locking Worm had already entered his body and silently approached his Niwan Palace.

In order to avoid being discovered by Zhao Ziyang, Zhu Wuyan silently used a high-level secret skill of heaven and earth from the Dragon-Tiger Ceremony, causing Zhao Ziyang to be unconsciously immersed in the illusion. He thought that his cultivation tonight was going smoothly and that he had more confidence in breaking through to the Form Heaven Pillar Realm.

Just as Zhao Ziyang was smiling happily, the Soul Locking Venomous Worm had already entered his three souls and seven spirits. It quietly lurked and released a numbing power, causing the happy Zhao Ziyang to instantly fall from heaven to hell: "What's going on? Why are my three souls and seven spirits suddenly paralyzed? I can't move at all."

Before Zhao Ziyang could react, he saw a man in black with his face covered.

“Did you do this?” “Who are you?” Zhao Ziyang’s face changed.

However, Zhao Ziyang did not panic too much. Since the enemy had shown up, there should be some room for discussion. The possibility of them wanting to kill him was not too high.

Zhu Wanwan smiled and said, “The Soul Locking Gu is a special and mysterious Gu. Although it’s only a level-six Gu worm, its power is not inferior to some level-seven Gu worms. It can cleverly lock the soul and can eat your three souls and seven spirits at any time when needed, causing your soul to dissipate.”

“Even if I am lucky enough to preserve a portion of my soul, I will inevitably become a mentally retarded idiot. At the very least, my talent will plummet, and there is basically no possibility of improvement. Because it ingeniously combines the ways of the poison and Gu worms, it is basically very difficult to remove it. Unless a Human Immortal who is undergoing the tribulation spends a lot of effort to remove it, there is a certain possibility of removing the Soul Locking Gu.”

“After saying so much, what do you want?” The more Zhao Ziyang listened, the more his heart sank. To be able to sneak into this place and cast a voodoo on him, it was obvious how powerful the enemy was. Therefore, he did not doubt the authenticity of Zhu Wuyang’s words.

But after this, he would definitely think of a way to try and see if he could remove the Soul Locking Gu and avoid being controlled by others.

Looking at the calm Zhao Ziyang, Zhu Wuwan nodded in satisfaction, “I’m going to make a deal with you. You’ll be my servant for ten years and help me deal with some things. After ten years, I’ll let you go and give you some advice on how to break through to the Form Synthesis Stage, which will increase your chances of breaking through to the Form Synthesis Stage by about 30%. What do you think?”

“I wonder what the rough terms of the deal are?” Zhao Ziyang asked.

“It’s mainly to collect some resources and treasures that I need from the Eternal Empire,” Zhu Wanwan said. “At the same time, help me use the Nirvana Tower’s special channels to sell some resources and treasures. In the end, they’ll be exchanged for what I need.”

“So, my lord has his eyes on the resources and treasures of the Eternal Empire.” Zhao Ziyang frowned. “But even though I am the Emperor of the Eternal Empire, I can’t go too far. Otherwise, if someone reports this to the tower, I won’t be able to handle it.”

Zhu Wuwan smiled. "Don't worry. I won't make things too difficult for you. At least, it's within your ability. Your main task is to help me sell batches of resources and treasures."

"Then there's no problem. As long as you don't let me do anything too excessive to the family and Nirvana Tower, there's no problem here." Zhao Ziyang agreed without hesitation. After all, he was now a fish on the chopping block, so he had no choice but to agree.

If he could remove the Soul Locking Worm, Zhao Ziyang would let Zhu Wuwan know how powerful Nirvana Tower was.

Seeing that Zhao Ziyang was still tactful, Zhu Wuwan nodded in satisfaction, "You should be able to move now. It was just a little joke."

"Alright." Zhao Ziyang gave it a try and found that the paralysis of his three souls and seven spirits was over. He could move freely now.

Looking at the man in black who was so close to him, Zhao Ziyang suddenly had a thought. If he suddenly activated the secret skill and the magic treasure, he might be able to capture him alive and get the antidote from him. He could even take revenge.

This idea of killing two birds with one stone excited Zhao Ziyang, but he suppressed it in the end. Since the man in black dared to get so close to him, he must have considered the possibility of a sneak attack. Otherwise, how could he be so bold?

Moreover, the other party was able to sneak into this top-notch middle-grade spiritual array group without a trace and even planted the Soul Locking Gu on him. It could be seen how powerful his strength and ability were. Since that was the case, it was best not to find trouble for nothing.

At the very least, he had to wait until he dealt with the Soul Locking Gu in his soul before talking about anything else. Otherwise, if he was controlled by others like this, it would be very difficult to resist.

After some consideration, Zhao Ziyang looked at Zhu Wuwan and said, "I wonder what Milord wants and what you want to sell. Can you tell me now so that I can make preparations?"

Chapter 763: The Uncrowned King (1)

Seeing that Zhao Ziyang was a little nervous, Zhu Wuwan smiled and said, "Don't worry. I'll only need three of the Eternal Empire's special resources and treasures. As for the other items, it'll depend on your authority. My requirements are definitely within your capabilities."

At this point, Zhu Wuwan paused for a moment. "As for the things I want to sell, I can show you a batch first."

As he spoke, Zhu Wuwan threw a storage ring to Zhao Ziyang. Zhao Ziyang took it and looked inside. His expression changed instantly, "'Ten-thousand-year-old Weaving Leaf Tree, Thousand-year Pulling Thread Gu, Unparalleled Heart Controlling Grass ... This ... Aren't these all the treasures and resources that the Heart Control Sect has hidden? They're basically rarely circulated outside. Why are there so many of them here..."

At this point, Zhao Ziyang suddenly thought of something and looked at Zhu Wuyang in shock, "'You...You can't be the Exalted Immortal who robbed almost all the treasure troves of the Heart Controlling Sect a few years ago, right?"

"I only robbed the treasure vault of the Miasma Forest. How did it become all the treasure vaults of the Mind Controlling Sect? The rumors are getting more and more exaggerated." Zhu Wuyang did not answer directly, but his words clearly told Zhao Ziyang that he was that person.

As for whether he was a Dacheng Quasi-Immortal or not, Zhu Wuwan knew very well.

Zhao Ziyang couldn't help but gasp when he heard Zhu Wuwan's affirmative answer. All of the little tricks he had in his heart were gone, and for some reason, he even felt a little proud.

After all, he was just a Void Training Stage cultivator, but he was able to get a Dacheng Quasi-Immortal to ambush him with a Gu worm. It was really an honor.

In the vast Dongyuan Continent, no one had ever heard of a Mahayana Stage Quasi-Immortal using such a method to control a Void Refinement Realm powerhouse. After all, in the eyes of Mahayana Stage Quasi-Immortals, Void Refinement Realm powerhouses were not even ants. They could crush a large group of them with a single finger.

Void Refinement Realm powerhouses who didn't master the art of teleportation could even easily slaughter a group of Integration Heavenly Pillars, let alone Mahayana Quasi-Immortals. These Void Refinement Realm powerhouses didn't even have the power to resist.

As the Retired Emperor of the Eternal Empire and the direct descendant of the Zhao Family's only Mahayana Quasi-Immortal, Zhao Ziyang knew very well how powerful and influential a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal was. To cultivators below the Body Integration Stage, it was an unstoppable natural disaster.

With just one sentence, not to mention a powerhouse at the Void Training Stage like him, even the entire Eternal Empire would be doomed. Not to mention that a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal who had robbed most of the treasure vaults of the Heart Controlling Sect and even the Land of Inheritance of the Heart Controlling Sect was definitely more powerful than an ordinary Mahayana Quasi-Immortal.

At least in Zhao Ziyang's opinion, the ancestor of the Zhao Family could not do this. Therefore, the strength of this man in black should be above the ancestor.

Thinking about the power and authority of the ancestor, Zhao Ziyang was terrified. How could he possibly get rid of the Gu worm of a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal? So, it was better not to waste his time.

Zhao Ziyang did not suspect Zhu Wuan's identity. After all, there were so many specialty products of the Controlling Heart Sect in the storage ring. He would not deliberately pretend to be the mortal enemy of the Controlling Heart Sect. Otherwise, the consequences would be unpredictable if it was leaked. The man in black in front of him was so strong, why would he do such a stupid thing?

Therefore, Zhao Ziyang bowed respectfully, "" I don't know if you're here, Exalted Immortal. Junior Zhao Ziyang greets you. It's my honor to be able to do something for you. I hope you won't hesitate to give me some advice after you're done. "

"It's easy for me to increase your chances of breaking through to the Form Synthesis Stage." "But since you know my identity, you should know what to do, right?" Zhu Wuwan said.

Zhao Ziyang immediately swore a Heavenly Dao Oath to ensure that he would not reveal Zhu Wuyang's identity.

Seeing how tactful Zhao Ziyang was, Zhu Wuwan nodded in satisfaction, ""I'll leave the matter to you. I'll come to look for you once in a while. When the time comes, just give me what I need."

After instructing Zhao Ziyang, Zhu Wuyang disappeared from the underground secret realm and headed to the next place.

In the next few hours, Zhu Wuyang had enslaved more than half of the Eternal Empire's ancient titans and made them his temporary servants. They handled many resources and treasures for him and also obtained the treasures and resources he needed from the Eternal Empire.

From then on, Zhu Wuyan had secretly grasped most of the power in the Eternal Empire and became the uncrowned king of the Eternal Empire. No one in the Eternal Empire had more power than him.

In the process of enslaving many Void Training Stage giants, Zhu Wuwan also obtained a jade slip in the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony. In this jade slip, all the information in the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony was completely recorded, including the fourth to sixth levels of the Nirvana Sutra, the fourth to sixth levels of the Nirvana Technique, and even the fourth to sixth levels of the Nirvana Technique that Zhu Wuwan wanted the most.

Zhu Wuyang had already grasped the Nirvana Sutra and the Nirvana Technique's central information. Now, he was only missing the information of the fourth to sixth levels of the Nirvana Technique. Once he could grasp and cultivate it, Zhu Wuyang's strength would definitely soar dozens of times from his current foundation.

Once one reached the Late Spatial Tempering Stage and above, they could completely cross realms and resist the Heavenly Pillar of Fusion. Thinking of the power of the Nirvana Art, Zhu Wuwan was also tempted. The first thing she did was to study the jade slip in the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony.

The owner of this jade slip was a prince of the royal family. His strength had just broken through to the Nascent Soul Stage not long ago, and he needed the cultivation method in the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony.

However, as soon as the application for the jade slip in the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony was approved, this prince was imprisoned by his father for flirting with his stepmother. He had not been released yet, so the jade slip had not been given to him yet. At this moment, Zhu Wuyang benefited.

However, after studying it carefully for several days, Zhu Wuwan was shocked to find that there was a tiny restriction that was comparable to a top-notch spiritual array set up in this small jade slip. Moreover, this restriction was connected to the soul of the owner of the jade slip, so it was very difficult to crack it safely. If it was forcefully cracked, it would definitely cause the jade slip to shatter.

However, this didn't mean that Zhu Wuyan couldn't crack it. If Zhu Wuyan was willing to spend hundreds of years carefully studying the restrictions on it, there might be a possibility of cracking it. However, how could Zhu Wuyan have so much time now?

Although Zhu Wuan's strength was sealed, his array cultivation was not sealed. He was one of the few top-notch top-grade spiritual array kings in Dongyuan Continent. Even he had to spend so much time to crack a jade slip that recorded the information in the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony. One could imagine how powerful Nirvana Tower's arrangements in the core inheritance were.

Chapter 764: Success (1)

To be honest, Zhu Wuyang was mentally prepared for the difficulty of deciphering the middle part of the Nirvana Ceremony. After all, it was the number one inheritance in the world. It had not been spread out for so many years, so how could the security measures not be good?

The middle part of the Nirvana Ceremony was already like this, let alone the lower part. It was said that if one wanted to cultivate the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony, one had to go to the headquarters of the Nirvana Tower. There was no jade slip for the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony.

Even if the Nirvana Ceremony was occasionally spread, it was basically just the upper part. As for whether the middle part was spread, it had been many years since anyone had heard of it, let alone the lower part.

After trying for about half a month, Zhu Wuwan finally gave up on cracking it. It would take too much time, and Zhu Wuwan could not afford to wait.

However, although he could not crack the middle part of the Nirvana Ceremony, it did not mean that Zhu Wuwan could not learn the things inside. After some research, Zhu Wuwan found a way to use a special secret technique and Gu worms to steal the contents of the middle part of the Nirvana Ceremony.

The secret technique was called the Soul Stealing Technique. It was a low-level secret technique of heaven and earth. It was also an idea that Zhu Wuwan had unintentionally come up with and had yet to modify it.

However, with Zhu Wuwan's current ability and comprehension, it was not difficult to modify it. The Gu worm was the Soul Searching Gu, which was also a Gu worm unique to the Heart Controlling Sect.

According to Zhu Wuwan's speculation, the Soul Stealing Technique and the Soul Searching Worm could be ingeniously integrated into the soul of the prince who was qualified to watch the middle part of the Nirvana Ceremony. Thus, when he read the inheritance, Zhu Wuwan could also take a look at it.

In the following half a year, Zhu Wuwan focused on modifying the Soul Stealing Technique and thought of a way to effectively combine the Soul Stealing Technique and the Soul Searching Gu. For this purpose, she specially conducted hundreds of experiments to ensure that there were no problems before she began to act.

In the Seventh Dungeon of the Underground Prison of the Northwest King's Mansion.

Zhao Zhengli, the third son of the Northwest King, had been imprisoned here for half a year.

At this moment, he had long regretted it. If he had known that the consequences of teasing his stepmother would be so miserable, he would never have teased the ninety-seventh concubine that his father had just taken in, which was his ninety-seventh stepmother.

Looking at his dirty clothes and the chains on his body, Zhao Zhengli wanted to cry but had no tears. He was still regretting it.

What Zhao Zhengli did not know was that at this moment, a Gu worm had already silently entered his body and was about to...Mouth.

“Ah...”

At a certain moment, Zhao Zhengli felt a sharp pain in his Niwan Palace. It was as if a piece of his soul had been cut off, causing his head to ache all the way to his feet. He could barely control himself.

However, this pain came and went quickly. After a few breaths, he could no longer feel it. Zhao Zhengli hurriedly tried to sense his Niwan Palace and soul, but he found that both of them were fine. Even his Nirvana Soul Consciousness was fine.

But where did the pain come from? With his strength, there was no reason for such a situation to happen for no reason.

Zhao Zhengli's expression was gloomy. He checked again and again, but he still found nothing.

Later, Zhao Zhengli even specially called the physicians and even more powerful cultivators in the Imperial Residence to examine him, but they still could not find the cause. The physicians and Soul Formation cultivators even thought that he was lying and wanted to use this method to gain sympathy and obtain the forgiveness of the Northwest King.

However, Zhao Zhengli knew very well that he was not lying this time. In the end, under his strong request, his mother came forward and invited the Northwest King, a giant of ancient times, to personally take action. After the examination, there was still no problem. At this time, it had been several days since he felt the pain.

What Zhao Zhengli did not know was that in the past few days, a Soul Searching Gu had replaced the piece of soul he had lost under the effect of a special secret technique. It had become a part of his soul and had perfectly fused with it.

This was naturally Zhu Wuwan's doing. Not to mention the ancient giants, even the Integration Heavenly Pillar would find it difficult to discover. Zhao Zhengli naturally could not discover it either.

Nothing had happened to him for dozens of days. His father, who had been a tycoon since ancient times, also said that there was nothing wrong with his body and soul. Zhao Zhengli was finally relieved. He felt that the pain at that time might have been an accidental illness, so he did not take it seriously.

What surprised Zhao Zhengli even more was that his father might have felt that the punishment was enough. He actually sent him the middle part of the Nirvana Ceremony that should have been given to him long ago. He told him that as long as he could comprehend it and understand its meaning, he would be released.

This was not difficult for Zhao Zhengli. His comprehension ability was not bad, and he was only comprehending it. He was not required to cultivate it all. He only needed to spend some time.

His father's test was clearly a way out for him. Zhao Zhengli was overjoyed and immediately took the jade slip in the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony and began to comprehend it.

Before reading the jade slip, the first thing to do was to open it with his soul. Because this jade slip was bound to Zhao Zhengli's soul, only Zhao Zhengli's soul could open it and read it.

This was very simple for Zhao Zhengli. He skillfully used his soul to probe into the jade slip, open it, and read the contents inside. What Zhao Zhengli did not realize was that a small portion of his soul power did not belong to him.

Zhao Zhengli was reading and comprehending without feeling anything. A small portion of Zhu Wuyan's soul was also reading and comprehending. No matter how much Zhao Zhengli read and comprehended, Zhu Wuyan read and comprehended as much.

Days passed just like that. Zhao Zhengli spent several days reading and comprehending the contents of the jade slip. He even memorized everything. At this moment, the jade slip had become blank and could no longer be used.

Zhu Wuwan also returned to the bamboo grove in the Tang family mansion with a harvest that satisfied him. This experiment was very successful. Although it took a lot of time and effort, Zhu Wuwan successfully obtained the cultivation method of the fourth to sixth levels of the Nirvana technique. It was enough for Zhu Wuwan to use for a long time.

After returning to the bamboo grove, he saw that the Breakthrough Stones he had accumulated during this period of time were just enough for him to raise his Nirvana Technique to another level. Zhu Wuwan did not hesitate and immediately prepared to raise his Nirvana Technique to another level.

Going from the third level to the fourth level was a relatively large transformation. It could bring more benefits to Zhu Wuyang, so it was naturally more difficult. This reflected the fact that Zhu Wuyang had spent more breakthrough stones.

However, this was not a big deal to Zhu Wuyan. Compared to other Nirvana Tower cultivators who had cultivated bitterly for decades or centuries, or even centuries without making any progress, it was already simple enough for Zhu Wuyan to just need some breakthrough stones.

They arrived at a hidden underground secret chamber. There were layers of spiritual arrays arranged around it. Zhu Wuwan began to cultivate the fourth level of the Nirvana Technique. As a large number of breakthrough stones were poured in, flames rose from Zhu Wuwan's body again.

Chapter 765: Marquisdom's Jade Banquet (1)

This time, the flames burning in Zhu Wuwan's body were even more turbulent than before. It was more than ten times that of the third level.

Looking at the green flames interwoven with red flames in his body, Zhu Wuwan also felt intense pain. However, this pain was far inferior to the advancement of the Form Synthesis Stage. Zhu Wuwan could withstand it.

As the reddish-green flames burned, Zhu Wuyan's Nirvana Soul Consciousness, Nirvana Nascent Soul, and body slowly dissipated. However, after dissipating, new Nirvana Soul Consciousness, Nirvana Nascent Soul, and body parts were slowly born from the burning ashes. They were stronger, purer, stronger, and more flexible than before...

To be reborn in Nirvana and to be born in destruction, the cost of breaking through to the fourth level of Nirvana was far greater than the cost of breaking through to the third level. The transformation that Zhu Wuyang brought was even more shocking.

Zhu Wanwan calmly endured the pain of burning herself into ashes and the discomfort of being reborn. Her entire person became more and more powerful in this kind of nirvana and rebirth.

Zhu Wuwan's aura was soaring at a speed visible to the naked eye. A terrifying power was enshrouding the small underground secret chamber, and Zhu Wuwan was immersed in it.

After an unknown period of time, Zhu Wuyang finally opened his eyes. The reddish-green flames that enveloped his entire body slowly dissipated and could no longer be found.

Feeling the situation in his body, a smile appeared on Zhu Wuyan's face. The benefits that this Nirvana had brought him were beyond imagination.

Although his Nirvana divine sense was still at the Early Void Refinement Realm, its density and purity were already comparable to the ancient giants at the Perfect Void Refinement Realm. This meant that if Zhu Wuwan raised his strength to the Perfect Void Refinement Realm, his Nirvana divine sense would be infinitely close to the Fusion Heavenly Pillar.

The Nirvana Nascent Soul was the same, and the distance between it and the Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul was further shortened. With another one or two nirvanas, it might be able to catch up with the Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul at that time.

The improvement of his body was also extremely impressive, reaching the level of a late-stage Soul Formation cultivator. It had to be known that Zhu Wuwan had yet to cultivate any body-tempering cultivation technique. Just by relying on the nourishment of his Qi Refinement cultivation and the four transformations of the Nirvana technique, his body's strength and flexibility could reach this level.

If Zhu Wuhan were to cultivate a powerful body-tempering technique, how strong would his body be?

When Zhu Wuyan's Qi Refinement cultivation reached a certain level, or to be more precise, to the point where he could unseal his main body's Qi Refinement cultivation at any time, Zhu Wuyan was prepared to cultivate a body-tempering technique.

Everyone knew that the cultivation of body-tempering techniques required more time and energy. In other words, it required more breakthrough stones. That was why Zhu Wuwan had to raise her Aura Refining cultivation first. Only then would she be able to open the seal in a shorter period of time.

Moreover, Qi Refinement cultivation was related to Nascent Soul and spiritual awareness, which occupied two parts of essence, qi, and spirit. It was more cost-effective to increase this first.

After this Nirvana, Zhu Wuyang's overall strength had soared by several times, making Zhu Wuyang once again feel the terror of the Nirvana Technique. It even made him feel that it was too abnormal.

However, when he thought about how difficult it was to reach the fourth level of the Nirvana Spell, he suddenly felt that it was normal for the fourth level of the Nirvana Spell to have such an improvement.

Moreover, going from the third level to the fourth level of the Nirvana Technique was a huge transformation. It seemed reasonable to have such an improvement.

However, Zhu Wuwan could not help but sigh. As expected of the number one inheritance in the world. It was really a little too much. The ancestors of Nirvana Tower were indeed powerful.

After sighing, Zhu Wuwan began to adapt to his soaring strength. What he did not know was that the Tang Trading Company was about to face a catastrophe at this moment.

The Tang Family Estate, Spring Autumn Pavilion.

Wang Xinjing was preparing suitable clothes for Tang Yelan because Tang Yelan was going to attend a marquis's manor's jade banquet tonight. The host of the banquet was surprisingly a Yuanying stage marquis. The Tang Trading Company from a few years ago had no right to come into contact with him.

However, in recent years, the Tang Trading Company had developed at an astonishing speed. Its influence had expanded several times, and it had vaguely caught the attention of some Nascent Soul Stage clans. Therefore, it was qualified to participate in the banquets organized by some Nascent Soul Stage clans.

The Marquisdom's Jade Banquet tonight was one of them. This could be considered a good opportunity for the Tang Trading Company to socialize. Most of the time, they would send people over.

Because the person who invited them tonight was not only a YuanYing stage old monster, but also a Marquis who held real power, so Tang Yelan decided to go personally. Otherwise, he would look down on them.

"I heard that Marquis Li Jiang has always been overbearing. Head Shopkeeper, you must be careful when you go." Wang Xinjing instructed as she helped Tang Yelan put on his clothes.

Tang Yelan laughed. "The Marquis of Lijiang is a Nascent Soul Stage old monster. At most, he would only show up at the banquet. How could I possibly have a conflict with him?" Even a Golden Core Daoist Master wouldn't be taken seriously, let alone me."

Wang Xinjing thought about it and agreed. She couldn't help but blush and smile. After she had prepared Tang Yelan's clothes and rested for a while, she ordered the servants to drive the carriage towards the Lijiang Marquis 'Residence.

Marquis Li Jiang's Residence was located at the edge of the Yinqing Imperial Capital's core area. The Heaven and Earth Spiritual Energy was extremely dense. The people living in this area were basically Nascent Soul, Deity Transformation, and even Void Refinement Realm clans.

The so-called Nascent Soul Realm, Deity Transformation Realm, and Spatial Tempering Realm clans naturally had Nascent Soul Realm old monsters, Deity Transformation Realm great cultivators, and Spatial Tempering Realm big shots guarding them respectively. The hierarchy was quite strict and almost insurmountable.

With the Tang Trading Company's current power and status, it was simply not qualified to establish itself in the core region. It was already an honor to be invited by a Nascent Soul Stage family at the edge of the core region.

Of course, if people were to find out that the hidden master of the Tang Trading Company was actually an ancient titan, the Emperor of the Eternal Empire would probably welcome the Tang Trading Company even if they wanted to move their residence to the Imperial Palace, let alone the central district.

However, no one in the Tang family knew that the hidden expert they speculated to be a Daoist Master of Jindan Stage had actually stepped into the Void Refinement Stage. Moreover, he was an invincible giant of the Void Refinement Stage.

The bravest among them would only dare to guess that the hidden expert was an old monster of the original level, and it was even the early stage. How could they have thought that Zhu Wuyang's true strength was so earth-shattering?

After passing through a few checkpoints, the carriage arrived at the core area of the Yingqing Imperial Capital and headed towards the Lijiang Marquis's Residence.

An hour later, they arrived at a mansion that occupied a radius of several thousand meters. It seemed that the size of this mansion was not even comparable to the Tang clan's mansion, but its value was ten times or a hundred times that of the Tang clan's mansion. The two simply could not go on the same day.

Chapter 766: Furnace Cauldron (1)

" Those with invitations can enter. Those without invitations can wait outside! "

As soon as he arrived at the Lijiang Manor, he heard the gatekeeper's loud reminder.

Among the group, only Tang Yelan had an invitation card in his hand. He had the others wait outside while he walked into the Lijiang Manor with the invitation card.

What greeted his eyes were all kinds of precious fruit trees. Every single one of them could be considered a treasure. At least, compared to the Tang family, Tang Yelan was greatly surprised.

Under the guidance of the maid, Tang Yelan arrived at the banquet hall. He was surprised to see that the banquet hall was filled with Golden Core Stage Perfected Cultivators, which made Tang Yelan cautious.

One had to know that the reason why the Tang family had today's momentum was all because of the support of two Golden Cores. One of them was even a fox borrowing the power of a tiger to come here. Even so, it had already allowed the Tang Trading Company to develop to this point. One could imagine the value of a Golden Core.

But there were so many Golden Cores in this banquet hall, how could Tang Yelan not be nervous?

However, after observing for a while, Tang Yelan started to get to know some families and forces that were similar to the Tang Trading Company or slightly larger than the Tang Trading Company under the guidance of a few familiar family heads. They expanded the Tang Trading Company's network and worked hard for the development of the Tang Trading Company.

At the same time, on the second floor of the banquet hall, more than a dozen Nascent Soul Stage old monsters were chatting. The one sitting in the main seat was the Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong. This banquet was organized by Chen Hong. His purpose was to exchange experience and skills in cultivation with a few familiar Nascent Soul Stage old monsters, or some treasures and resources.

However, as time passed, it gradually evolved into the Lijiang Jade Banquet, which was also known as the Marquisdom Jade Banquet. It was one of the most important banquets in the Lijiang Marquisdom.

Looking at the gray jade bead spiritual artifact in his hand, the Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, smiled at a handsome Nascent Soul old monster and said, "True Monarch Wang, is this the yin seeking bead?"

"High-grade spirit weapon, Yin Seeking Pearl. I guarantee it's genuine." Wang Tao, the handsome Nascent Soul Stage Cultivator, smiled and said, "If it's useless, you can return it anytime."

Source: , updated on NovG0.c0

Chen Hong laughed and said, "How can I not believe in the treasures exchanged by True Monarch Wang? With this Yin Seeking Pearl, I can find those women with Yin bodies as soon as possible and use them as furnaces to cultivate the Yin River Secret Technique. This will allow my strength to reach a higher level."

"Perfected Cultivator Chen, don't worry. This Yin Seeking Pearl is a special treasure that I found with great difficulty. Its only use is to find women with Yin bodies." "As long as you activate the Yin Seeking Pearl," said Wang Tao with a smile, "you can detect all the women with Yin bodies within a radius of several thousand meters. Then Perfected Cultivator Chen will be able to easily identify them and capture them for cultivation."

The group of Nascent Soul Stage Cultivators didn't care whether this matter was evil or not. To them, it was worth sacrificing some secular women to cultivate a secret technique. There was no right or wrong.

You have a yin body, so you should die. You are also wrong, so you should naturally become my cultivation furnace.

Chen Hong played with the yin seeking pearl in his hand for a while, then injected his holy sense into it. At the same time, he handed the treasure he used to exchange to Wang Tao."I'll try it first and see how it works."

As he spoke, Chen Hong activated the Yin Seeking Pearl. In an instant, layers of imperceptible gray light rippled out. Then, under the surprised gazes of the dozens of Nascent Soul old monsters, a light spot with three colors appeared in the Yin Seeking Pearl.

" Three Yin Body. I didn't expect there to be a woman with Three Yin Body nearby. Perfected Cultivator Chen is so lucky. "

"Not bad, not bad. Although the Three Yin Body is only a low-grade Yin Body, it's still the top among the low-grade Yin Bodies. It's only one level away from advancing to the middle-grade Four Yin Body. The effect of using it is quite good."

" Perfected Cultivator Chen has gotten a good start. What are you waiting for? Call that woman up immediately. The Three Yin Body can help me improve the Yin River Secret Skill by a lot. "

" I don't know which lucky woman will become Perfected Cultivator Chen's first Yin River Furnace. She's lucky that Perfected Cultivator Chen likes her. "

In the eyes of these Nascent Soul Stage Cultivators, it was actually good luck for Chen Hong to choose him as a furnace and then pluck him to death. It was truly lawless.

Tang Yelan, who was chatting and laughing with a familiar family head, suddenly saw a beautiful maid from Lijiang Marquis's Residence walking towards her. "'Miss, our Lord Marquis has invited you. Please come with me."

"The Marquis of Lijiang wants me to go over?" Tang Yelan pointed at his own nose and asked in astonishment.

" Yes. " The beautiful maid nodded with a smile. " It's you. Please follow me. "

"Hurry up and go. It seems that something good is looking for you." The familiar faces beside him smiled and urged, their eyes filled with envy." To be invited by the Marquis of Lijiang alone, it seems that the Tang Trading Company's meteoric rise is just around the corner. ”

Tang Yelan gave a puzzled smile and followed behind the beautiful maid as they headed towards the second floor of the banquet hall. This scene attracted the attention of many people in the banquet hall.

” Who is that woman? She can actually ascend to the second floor of the banquet hall. Isn't that the place where Nascent Souls gather? ”

“Most importantly, she was summoned alone. Could it be that she has some special background? How lucky.”

” I know her. If I'm not mistaken, she should be the Tang Trading Company's Head Shopkeeper, Tang Yelan. It's said that the Tang Trading Company has two Golden Cores overseeing it. A few years ago, they destroyed another Bai Trading Company with two Golden Cores overseeing it in one fell swoop, so they're quite famous. ”

” No matter how famous a Golden Core family is, how can it compare to a Nascent Soul family? It seems like the Tang Trading Company is going to prosper. ”

Amidst the discussions, Tang Yelan went up to the second floor of the banquet hall nervously and saw more than ten Nascent Souls staring at her with interest.

Although Tang Yelan felt that these people's gazes were a little strange, he didn't dare to think too much about it. He hurriedly bowed and said, “Greetings, Marquis of Lijiang, and all the True Monarchs.”

The group of Nascent Souls ignored her and started laughing instead.

” Not bad, not bad. It seems that Perfected Cultivator Chen is quite lucky. As soon as he got the Yin Seeking Pearl, he found a furnace with the Three Yin Body. And this furnace is so beautiful. I've never seen such a beautiful woman in my life. I envy Perfected Cultivator Chen. ”

“If Perfected Cultivator Chen hadn't taken a fancy to her, I would have taken her home. This is the first time I've seen such a beautiful woman. Why didn't I notice her before?”

“What a pity, what a pity. It's indeed a pity to use such a beautiful woman as a human cauldron.”

” Not only does this girl look extraordinary, but she also has a good talent. She reached the Foundation Establishment Realm in her twenties. This talent is very good. Perfected Cultivator Chen is really lucky this time. ”

Chapter 767: Unbridled (1)

Upon hearing the unbridled words of these Nascent Souls, Tang Yelan's anticipation instantly vanished. An unprecedented chill rose from her heart, causing her entire body to tremble.

Tang Yelan would never have thought that the Marquis of Lijiang had called her to the second floor of the banquet hall just to make her a Human Furnace. Wasn't that too much?

Seeing Tang Yelan's pale face, the Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, looked at her and said, "What's your name?"

"I ... I'm Tang Yelan, the head shopkeeper of the Tang Trading Company and also the head of the Tang Family." Tang Yelan said.

The Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, took out the Yin Seeking Pearl and found that the three-colored light spot was already in front of him. It was very close to him. The person with the Three Yin Body was indeed Tang Yelan." Tang Yelan, your good luck is here. I've been cultivating a secret technique recently and I need a woman with a Yin Body to be my cultivation vessel. Coincidentally, I found out that you have the Three Yin Body, so you're suitable to be my cultivation vessel. "

Three Yin Body?

Tang Yelan's expression changed as he thought to himself that he didn't seem to have such a physique. When she was young, her family had conducted a comprehensive examination on her, but they didn't detect any innate talent for the Three Yin Body. Otherwise, they wouldn't have allowed her to cultivate the Tang family's immortal cultivation art. They would definitely find other immortal cultivation arts for her to cultivate based on her physique.

Could it be that these Nascent Souls had made a mistake?

" Marquis Li Jiang, are you mistaken? I've been tested for talent since I was young, and I don't seem to have any talent in the Yin Body. " Tang Yelan asked.

" That's because their detection magic tools are not good enough, " said Chen Hong with a smile. " They need special magic tools to detect Yin bodies. Otherwise, no matter how strong they are or how good their eyesight is, they won't be able to tell. "

“Other than that, some Yin Bodies can only be revealed after the owner has cultivated to a certain level. Otherwise, they will remain hidden. Your situation might be the same. The Yin Seeking Pearl in my hand is a superior-grade spirit weapon. It’s specially used to detect people with Yin bodies. Do you think it’ll be wrong?”

Tang Yelan was silent. He could not say anything. He felt his heart sinking and sinking...

What the group of people didn’t realize was that the three-colored light spot representing Tang Yelan in the Yin Seeking Pearl had been slowly growing stronger. However, the magnitude was very small, so small that these Nascent Souls couldn’t see it at all.

This meant that Tang Yelan’s Three Yin Body was in accordance with the second condition that Chen Hong had mentioned. That was, Tang Yelan’s special body constitution would only show itself when his strength reached a certain level, and this limit should be the Foundation Establishment stage.

A few months ago, Tang Yelan had just stepped into the early-stage Foundation Establishment realm. Then, he revealed his Three Yin Body. Moreover, the moment this body appeared, it was the pinnacle of a low-grade Yin Body. It was still slowly growing. This meant that Tang Yelan’s special body was only the tip of the iceberg due to his limited strength.

Once it was completely revealed, it was unknown how far it would go. However, this was a rare occurrence, so the group of Nascent Souls didn’t think too much about it, nor did they notice the abnormality of the three-colored light.

The Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, looked at Tang Yelan and said, “I’ve already told you what happened. From now on, you will be my cultivation vessel. After you die, I will take care of the Tang Trading Company. So, this can be considered an opportunity for the Tang Trading Company. What do you think?”

Seeing that Tang Yelan’s Yin body was not bad and his appearance was beyond imagination, the Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, was a little more patient. Otherwise, he would not have said so much nonsense and just grabbed him.

Tang Yelan wanted to reject them, but when he sensed the terrifying aura coming from the Nascent Souls, he felt his mouth go dry.

If it was a few years ago when the Bai Trading Company was being targeted in every possible way, perhaps Tang Yelan would have felt that this was an opportunity to help the Tang Trading Company escape its desperate situation.

However, the Tang Trading Company had already embarked on the path of rapid development, and the Bai Trading Company had long been finished. The huge Tang Trading Company was thriving under her leadership, and it could no longer be separated from her.

If something happened to Tang Yelan, it would be good enough to maintain the status quo, let alone continue to develop. Therefore, this was not an opportunity but a destructive crisis.

Furthermore, how could Tang Yelan be willing to be a human cauldron? Looking at the group of Nascent Souls looking at him as if they were ants, Tang Yelan felt a chill in his heart. He wished that he could kill all these unscrupulous and shameless people who treated human lives with no regard.

Could it be that their lives were lives, but his own life was not?

He said that this was his honor and opportunity. Did he need such good fortune and opportunity? Hehe, how ironic.

Inexplicably, Tang Yelan thought of the hidden expert who gave her the Night Orchid Jade Pendant. If her guess was correct, the Star Jade Pendant given by the hidden expert should be a token of love. She did not know what he looked like, but she was afraid that she would never be able to marry him in this life.

Fortunately, she still had two younger sisters. That hidden expert had also taken a fancy to them.

Previously, she had occasionally felt that the hidden expert was a little too much. He had actually given three love tokens to the three sisters in one go. Now, it seemed that compared to this group of Nascent Souls, that hidden expert was really not bad.

At the very least, before giving them the love jade pendant, that hidden expert had saved the three sisters and the Tang family many times. At the same time, he did not force them. Instead, he gave them a star jade pendant to test them.

Unlike this group of Nascent Souls, who were commenting on her unscrupulously and forcing her to become a Human Furnace, it was obvious that in the current situation, it was impossible for her to refuse.

A group of Nascent Souls was like a natural disaster to the Tang Trading Company. If she dared to disagree, the entire Tang Trading Company would be crushed to ashes in minutes.

As for telling that hidden expert?

Tang Yelan had never thought that according to their speculations, that hidden expert was very likely to be a Perfected Cultivator in the Exceptional Gold Core Realm. How could he be a match for this group of Nascent Souls? Previously, that hidden expert had already helped the three sisters and the Tang family too much. How could Tang Yelan selfishly drag him down with him?

It was better for him to bear it himself. It was just a life, but he had no way to repay that hidden expert.

However, just as he thought of this, he managed to convince himself and delayed some matters. The Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, felt a little impatient. His right hand grabbed the grey Nascent Soul and grabbed towards Tang Yelan, “” You haven’t thought about it yet? Then, you can think about it in my arms for a while and exchange some feelings. Then, I’ll bring you to the back to harvest. It’s fine here too. ”

Chen Hong only had a little patience with Tang Yelan and did not put her in his eyes at all. To him, no matter how good-looking Tang Yelan was, she was just a human being. It was already good enough that he could spend some time explaining things to her. What else could she ask for? He could not be too greedy.

Chapter 768: A Light in Despair (1)

“Bang...”

However, the Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, and the others didn’t expect that just as the gray Nascent Soul giant hand approached Tang Yelan, a layer of crystal-like light rose from Tang Yelan’s body, firmly blocking the Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong’s Nascent Soul giant hand, preventing it from advancing any further. Tang Yelan was protected within.

Looking at the crystal light barrier around Tang Yelan, the group of Nascent Souls were astonished. “”I didn’t expect this little family head to have such a protective spiritual weapon. It looks pretty good.”

Tang Yelan’s mouth was also wide open in a daze. He looked at the surrounding crystal light shield in disbelief. He clearly knew that this should be Ye Lanpei’s automatic protection function.

Furthermore, Tang Yelan could clearly sense that the crystal light shield had only consumed one percent of Ye Lanpei’s energy.

If one percent of the energy could easily block the grab of a Nascent Soul, then how much energy did the defensive star in the Night Orchid Jade contain?

Tang Yelan was shocked. He could feel his heart thumping furiously. If it was really as she had predicted, there would be a turning point tonight.

The Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, frowned slightly as he looked at the crystal barrier around Tang Yelan. “What is this?”

“This is the Star Jade Pendant. It’s also a token of love from my husband.” “My husband is also a Nascent Soul Perfected Cultivator,” Tang Yelan said. “I hope Lord Marquis will let me go back on account of this.”

Chen Hong’s face darkened. “You already have a husband? Who is your husband? Let’s see if I know him.”

“I...” Tang Yelan wanted to say that he was a hidden expert, but thinking that this group of Nascent Souls would definitely not accept it, he pondered for a moment and said, “My husband doesn’t like crowds, so he doesn’t like us telling others about him. I hope Lord Marquis can forgive us.”

Chen Hong laughed. “Haha, I don’t think it’s because your husband is low-key. It’s because you don’t have a husband. If you did, you wouldn’t be a virgin now.”

Source: , updated on NovG0.co

“Stand still for now. I’ll get someone to investigate. If you dare to lie to me, not only you, but the entire Tang Trading Company will be buried with you.”

“I don’t want to.” Tang Yelan’s expression changed as he hurriedly shouted.

Chen Hong sneered. “Now you know how to be afraid. I don’t know where you got a middle-grade spiritual weapon that contains a bit of Nascent Soul power. You dare to use it to scare us. How naive.”

“Since you’re so disobedient, even if you become my Human Furnace in the future, it’s impossible for me to take care of the Tang Trading Company. Obediently open the light barrier and come over to let me play with you, and this matter will be over.”

At this moment, a beautiful maid walked over and whispered something into Chen Hong’s ear. Chen Hong’s eyes lit up. “I heard that you have two twin sisters who are as beautiful as you. Call them over and let me assess if they have any special physiques.”

As soon as Chen Hong finished speaking, the surrounding Nascent Souls were also shocked.

“Really? Such beautiful women are actually triplets? If that’s the case, then there’s no one like her in the entire Central Plains, let alone our Eternal Empire. Lord Marquis, you’re really lucky.”

“I didn’t think that our Yin Qing emperor still had such beautiful triplets hidden. It’s such a pity that we didn’t discover them before.”

"What's there to pity? If that's the case, we can enjoy it together later. I just need to absorb the power of the Three Yin. I'll leave her a breath of life."

"Haha, Lord Marquis is generous, so we won't be polite. It would be a pity if we didn't enjoy such beautiful triplets."

Upon hearing the unbridled words of these Nascent Souls, Tang Yelan felt a chill in his heart. His bright eyes flickered with a cold light as he thought about how the defensive star in his Yelan Pendant had only released one percent of its power and was able to easily block Marquis Li Jiang's grab.

Moreover, this crystal light shield had only consumed one-tenth of its power. One could imagine how shocking the energy contained in that defensive star was.

Since the defensive star was already like this, the offensive star was not much worse. In that case, don't blame her for being impolite.

"Marquis Li Jiang, are you really going to kill us three sisters?" Tang Yelan's eyes were like stars as he stared at Chen Hong.

Chen Hong drank a glass of wine without a care." This isn't killing us all. This is your honor. To be favored by us Perfected Cultivators, it's worth it even if you die. So, listen to us obediently. After this, we will take care of the Tang family. Otherwise, the Tang family will be gone tonight."

"Alright, you forced me to do this." Tang Yelan now clearly understood what kind of demons these so-called Nascent Souls were, especially when compared to those mortals and low-level cultivators who were weaker than them.

In their eyes, they were probably no different from ants. They could play with them and kill them as they pleased. They were such a group of cold-blooded and heartless beasts. How could they expect them to keep their promises or take good care of their families just because they killed a few ants?

That would be too naive!

Since that was the case, there was no need to say any more nonsense.

Seeing Tang Yelan's resolute look, the group of Nascent Souls burst into laughter.

"The little beauty is angry. She looks even more beautiful. I wonder how the little beauty is going to teach us a lesson. Why don't we go to bed now? We'll let you teach us a lesson."

“Do you want to teach us a lesson from the front or from the back? I think it’s better for you to teach us a lesson from the front and below. That way, we can use more strength. Oh right, you can also let your two younger sisters teach us a lesson together.”

“Don’t tell me you’re planning to let your husband save you, or you want your husband to teach us a lesson? We’ll wait and see. Don’t disappoint us.”

” You have a temper. I like this kind of hot-tempered beauty. I hope you can keep your temper. Don’t kneel and beg for mercy until you die. Otherwise, it’ll be meaningless. ”

“Perfected Cultivator Chen, you have to be careful. Your little furnace is about to explode. Quickly activate the entire array formation of the marquis’s mansion. Otherwise, you might be blown to ashes by the little beauty. Hahahahaha ... You’re young and good-looking, but your tone is too arrogant. I almost thought you were a Soul Formation cultivator.”

The group of Nascent Souls mocked Tang Yelan without any restraint and did not take his words to heart at all. He was just an early-stage Foundation Establishment cultivator. Even if he had a middle-grade spirit weapon, how much power could he unleash?

Naive!

Chapter 769: The Might of One Sword (1)

Looking at this group of Nascent Souls who treated her as an ant and fish on the chopping board and were ready to destroy the three sisters, Tang Yelan’s anger surged.

Without any time to think, he directly activated more than half of the power of the attack star and blasted it towards the group of unscrupulous Nascent Souls.

“Clang...”

Accompanied by the resounding sound of sword qi being unsheathed, a ten-thousand-foot-long astral sword qi shot out from the attacking star and bombarded the group of Nascent Souls at lightning speed.

“Ah...How is this possible?”

” This middle-grade spirit weapon actually contains such astonishing power. This isn’t an ordinary Nascent Soul at all. This must be a Perfected Lord at the perfected Nascent Soul stage. ”

...

” Not only that, run! Don’t you realize that this sword Qi seems to have attracted the power of heaven and earth? If I’m not wrong, this sword Qi can only be sealed by a Soul Formation Stage cultivator. ”

” Marquis Li Jiang, you’ve killed us! ”

“I can’t run away. Help!”

Under Tang Yelan’s horrified gaze, this sword qi that had gathered most of the power of Ye Lanpei’s attack was like a natural disaster that destroyed everything. It destroyed this group of Nascent Souls in an instant, giving them no chance to escape from their Nascent Souls. They were directly struck into nothingness.

Not only that, the power of this sword qi had yet to dissipate, and it directly permeated the entire Lijiang Marquis Manor, splitting the huge Lijiang Marquis Manor into pieces. Almost all of Lijiang Marquis Chen Hong’s direct descendants were killed.

In the blink of an eye, the huge Lijiang Manor had turned into ruins, leaving only a small part of the banquet hall.

Looking at the ruined scene in front of him, Tang Yelan was dumbstruck. He had never thought that the star of attack in his Yelan Pendant would actually contain such a terrifying and vast power.

One had to know that when she launched the attack on the power of the stars, she was still wondering if she had used too little power and whether she could kill Marquis Li Jiang, this crazy beast.

However, this attack not only killed Marquis Lijiang and a group of Nascent Souls, but also destroyed the entire Lijiang Manor.

If it wasn’t for the fact that Marquis Li Jiang’s manor had set up a group of spiritual arrays that greatly weakened the power of this sword Qi, even the surrounding marquises ‘residences would have been affected. At that time, the Tang Trading Company would have been finished.

It was just that what level of strength did that hidden expert reach? He was actually able to forge such a terrifying spiritual weapon jade pendant, and there were three of them at once.

Could it be...Could it be that the hidden expert’s strength had already reached the Soul Formation Realm, comparable to a second-grade official?

Thinking of this possibility, Tang Yelan couldn't help but tremble in his heart. He had a feeling of disbelief and disbelief.

At the same time, the many clan heads and business shopkeepers on the first floor of the banquet hall were also flabbergasted. They stared at the surrounding ruins in a daze, almost unable to believe their eyes.

"This ... What's going on? How did the Lijiang Marquis's Residence become like this? Who just attacked the Lijiang Marquis 'Residence and caused it to become like this?"

"The marquis's manor has already become like this. What is Marquis Lijiang doing? Why hasn't he appeared yet? Did something happen to Marquis Lijiang? And why haven't the other Nascent Souls come out yet?"

"Almost all of the people in Lijiang Marquis Manor have died. Only a small portion of the banquet hall is left. Who is so arrogant that they actually destroyed Lijiang Marquis Manor to such an extent?"

"Hurry up... Quickly go to the second floor to see what's going on. That sword qi seems to have come from the second floor of the banquet hall. The person who destroyed the Lijiang Marquis's residence should be on the second floor."

Amidst the clamor, most of the people in the banquet hall rushed up to the second floor. They were shocked to see Tang Yelan standing in the banquet hall with the same stunned expression.

"Why is she here alone? Where's Marquis Lijiang waiting for a Nascent Soul?"

"Look, according to the traces left behind at the scene, that sword aura seemed to have been released by Tang Yelan. It was aimed at Marquis Li Jiang and the others."

"Hiss... You mean to say that Tang Yelan destroyed Marquis Li Jiang and the surrounding Nascent Souls with a single sword strike, and even destroyed Marquis Li Jiang's residence to such a state? But how is that possible? Tang Yelan is only a Foundation Establishment cultivator, how could he accomplish such a magnificent feat?"

"Master Tang, what happened here just now? Can you tell us?"

Tang Yelan's cherry lips quivered slightly. Before he could say anything, he heard the sound of air being torn apart. Numerous cultivators emitting a surging aura shot over from all directions, surrounding the place. Most of the cultivators were old monsters above the Nascent Soul Stage. There were also several Soul Formation Stage cultivators. The leader was King Thunderclap Zhao Yunchong. His strength had already reached the Soul Formation Great Circle. He was one of the direct descendants of the Zhao royal family and cultivated in the world's number one inheritance, the Nirvana Ceremony.

It was obvious that the sword qi had not only destroyed the Lijiang Manor, but it had also alarmed many of the surrounding big shots, including King Thunderclap Zhao Yunchong.

Looking at the ruins of the Lijiang Manor and the lonely Tang Yelan at the front of the crowd, King Thunderclap Zhao Yunchong frowned, “What’s going on? Who released the sword qi just now?”

Everyone turned to look at Tang Yelan. Tang Yelan hesitated for a moment, then bit his cherry lips and said, “Yes ... It was me who released the sword qi.”

“You released it?” King Thunderclap Zhao Yunchong looked at her suspiciously.

Tang Yelan thought for a moment, then took out his Ye Lan Pendant and said, “I can’t release such a powerful sword qi personally, but I have the love token that my fiancé left for me. With this love token, I released the sword qi just now.”

Things had already reached this stage, and they had accidentally killed a group of Nascent Souls. If they still didn’t find a backer, the Tang Clan and the Tang Trading Company would probably be close to death.

Therefore, after some consideration, Tang Yelan decided to pretend to be the fiancée of that hidden expert. Otherwise, everyone in the Tang Trading Company would be finished.

Seeing the Star Jade Pendant in Tang Yelan’s hand, Zhao Yunchong did not doubt the significance of the Star Jade Pendant in the Eternal Empire. He carefully sensed it with his divine sense and said, “Although it’s only a middle-grade spirit weapon, it contains an energy that’s comparable to the full-strength attack of an early stage Soul Formation cultivator. There’s also an energy that can withstand the full-strength attack of an early stage Soul Formation cultivator. Its value is comparable to a magic treasure to a certain extent, and it’s quite exquisitely forged.”

“You must have released most of the energy in that star just now, which is why you were able to unleash such a powerful force that almost destroyed the entire Lijiang Manor. However, it is a bit too wasteful. To deal with a group of Nascent Soul cultivators, only one-tenth of the energy is enough.”

Chapter 770: Guilty Tang Yelan (1)

“Your Highness ‘eyes are like torches. That was indeed the case just now.”

After listening to King Thunderclap Zhao Yunchong’s words, Tang Yelan suppressed the shock in his heart and finally confirmed the strength of the hidden expert. He was indeed a Soul Formation Stage cultivator, far beyond their previous speculations. Moreover, it was more than ten times or a hundred times their previous speculations.

She had never thought that such a high and mighty figure would actually take such good care of her Tang family. Speaking of which, were the three Tang sisters really worthy of that person’s care?

Initially, some people in the Tang family thought that the hidden expert might have owed the Tang family a favor, so he came to help them. However, a Soul Formation Stage cultivator had lived for god knows how many years. How could he easily owe the Tang Trading Company a favor?

When he thought about how the hidden expert had taken care of the three sisters, Tang Yelan had a guess in his heart. It seemed that the hidden expert had indeed taken a fancy to the three sisters. Otherwise, it would not have happened.

However, even Tang Yelan felt inferior. After all, that hidden expert was too powerful. Thinking about it carefully, the three sisters did not seem to be worthy of such a big shot.

King Thunderclap Zhao Yunchong smiled faintly and looked at Tang Yelan, “Your fiancé treats you quite well. This kind of Star Jade Pendant is not easy to forge. It requires a lot of time and effort. Moreover, it requires an extremely powerful Spiritual Array Master and Weapon Refinement Master to work together. It can be seen that he dotes on you quite a bit. Even this king rarely makes such a jade pendant. When you have time, you can meet him.”

To be able to forge a special spirit weapon like the Star Jade Pendant, which was comparable to a magic treasure, it was obvious that the other party had connections and relationships. King Thunderclap Zhao Yunchong was also a little curious, so his attitude was quite good.

” You flatter me, Your Highness, ” Tang Yelan quickly said. ” I will definitely tell my husband what Your Highness wants. ”

“What happened just now? Why did you release that Sword Qi?” King Thunderclap Zhao Yunchong asked curiously.

Tang Yelan thought for a moment and replied, ” Your Highness, the Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, said that I have a special constitution and wanted me to be his cultivation vessel. That's fine. But after he heard that my two sisters are extremely beautiful, he started to drool over them. He even tried to touch me just now. So, I couldn't hold it in any longer and released the treasure that my husband gave me. ”

“I see.” King Thunderclap, Zhao Yunzhong, nodded. ” Then Chen Hong is seeking his own death. You can't be blamed for this. How dare he lay his hands on the fiancée of a Soul Formation Realm cultivator? This Chen Hong is insane. ”

Source: , updated on NovGo.co

” In the future, the Lijiang Marquis Manor and other properties will be given to you as compensation. As for the rest of the Chen Family, they will all be banished. ”

“Thank you, Your Highness.” Upon hearing King Thunderclap's decision, Tang Yelan was overjoyed and hurriedly bowed to express his gratitude.

As a Nascent Soul Stage family, the Chen Family's resources and assets were at least ten times more than the Tang Family's, not to mention this Marquisdom with astonishing value. If they could move here to live, it would have a huge effect on the development of the Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company.

As long as they could successfully digest the Chen family's resources and industries, the Tang family and the Tang trading company's power would increase dramatically, and they would become a Nascent Soul Stage family in one leap, realizing the wish that the Tang family's ancestors had not realized for thousands of years.

Moreover, with the help of so many resources and industries, the cultivators of the Tang family would definitely be able to obtain more spirit pills and the like, and their speed of improvement would also be faster.

Seeing how King Thunderclap, Zhao Yunchong, handled this matter, the surrounding families and forces who had come to participate in the marquis 'residence's jade banquet were also envious.

” The Tang family is really lucky. Not only did they avoid this crisis, but they also benefited from it. They have occupied all the resources and industries of the Chen family. Their rise in the future is already unstoppable. ”

“I never thought that the Tang family would have such a trump card. I used to say that the three sisters of the Tang family were all beauties in the world. Even in the cultivation world, they were the most beautiful ones. They would definitely be chosen by high-level cultivators. Now it seems that it is true. With the support of a Soul Formation cultivator, the future of the Tang family is limitless.”

“Perhaps the Tang family can take this opportunity to become a Soul Formation clan in one fell swoop. At that time, they will soar in the sky. However, the premise of this matter is that the Tang family can tie up that Soul Formation great cultivator.”

” If Tang Yelan can't do it alone, what about the three sisters of the Tang family? Even the giants of the ancient times would be tempted, let alone a Soul Formation cultivator. Perhaps the Tang family will succeed. ”

The Chen Clan disciple who had invited Tang Yelan to the marquis's manor's jade banquet was still alive. However, he was already staring in a daze and had no idea where he was.

The reason why he had invited the Tang Family to the Marquisdom's Jade Banquet was because he had other intentions. Ever since he had met Tang Yelan by chance, he had been thinking about Tang Yelan day and night.

Therefore, he wanted to make use of the opportunity of the Marquisdom's jade banquet to befriend Tang Yelan. He wanted to see if he could get his elders to marry Tang Yelan.

However, he had never expected that this invitation would bring disaster to the Chen Family. Not only had their ancestor been killed by Tang Yelan, but the entire Chen Family would also belong to Tang Yelan. Moreover, Tang Yelan seemed to be the woman of a Soul Formation cultivator.

In the future, he might not even be able to keep his life, let alone have Tang Yelan. Although Tang Yelan was not to be blamed for all this, this Chen family descendant still poured all his hatred onto Tang Yelan.

Just thinking about the difference between the two of them, if he was on the third floor before, Tang Yelan was only on the first floor.

At this moment, Tang Yelan was above the Nine Skies while he was deep in the mud. The difference between the two was too great. Hence, it was better for him to quickly take his things and run.

When the tree falls, the monkeys scatter. Furthermore, the Lijiang Marquis Manor had offended many forces before this. Now that the Lijiang Marquis Manor had declined, those enemies would definitely gang up and attack. Hence, this descendant of the Chen family who had invited Tang Yelan with ill intentions quietly slipped away. As for whether he could survive, it would depend on his fate.

After settling the important matters, King Thunderclap, Zhao Yunchong, chatted with Tang Yelan for a while before leaving the ruined Lijiang Manor.

After King Thunderclap left, the surrounding Soul Formation cultivators and Nascent Soul old monsters came over to exchange a few pleasantries. They all treated Tang Yelan very well, especially those Nascent Soul old monsters.

Even though Tang Yelan was good at dancing, this was the first time he was being asked about his well-being by so many big shots. He was a little flustered and felt extremely guilty.

After all, she was considered a self-proclaimed fiancée and had not been recognized by the hidden expert. Although she guessed that the hidden expert had taken a fancy to the three sisters, there was still a 10% chance that it was impossible.

Chapter 771: The Three Misses Please Get Married (1)

While Tang Yelan was still busy dealing with the Nascent Soul Stage Cultivators, the Tang Family Residence, which was a hundred miles away, had already received news from their servants. They knew that Tang Yelan had destroyed fifteen Nascent Soul Stage Cultivators and a Marquis of Lijiang's Residence with a single Sword Qi.

Silence!

From the moment this news reached the Tang family mansion, it had been a full cup of tea's time, but the huge Tang family mansion was still silent.

Immediately, all the higher-ups of the Tang family went to the courtyards of the Tang family's second and third daughters, wanting to ask what was going on.

After receiving the news, Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli came to the family's meeting hall. The place was already filled with the higher-ups of the Tang family, as well as some higher-ups of the Tang family's trading company with foreign surnames. They all wanted to ask what was going on.

"Second Miss, Third Miss, the two of you are closest to the Master. Do you know about the Star Jade Pendant? Is that hidden expert really a Soul Formation Realm cultivator?"

"I thought that hidden expert was at most in the peak of the Golden Core Realm and not even in the Nascent Soul Realm. I didn't expect him to be a Soul Formation Realm cultivator. Our Tang family is so lucky. Who on earth made friends with such a legendary figure?"

“It’s definitely not a favor. Our Tang family is still unable to give such a big shot a favor. Could it be that it’s really as we guessed before, that big shot has taken a fancy to our family head?”

” But every Soul Formation Stage cultivator has lived for thousands of years, and they’ve seen countless beauties in their lives. How could they be infatuated with our master and do so many things in secret? ”

Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli looked at each other as they watched the commotion. After some consideration, they decided to tell the truth. After all, their elder sister had already been exposed.

If others knew that the Star Jade Pendant was a gift from a Soul Formation Realm cultivator, they basically wouldn’t have to worry about it being snatched away. Moreover, this was a jade pendant that could only be used a limited number of times.

Tang Liuli took out her Glazed Jade Pendant. ” Elders and Uncles, actually, Second Sister and I also have a Star Jade Pendant here. It was given to us by that hidden expert. ”

“Ah...” Looking at the jade pendants in Tang Liuli and Tang Mingyue’s hands and thinking of their monstrous power that could destroy a marquis ‘mansion and more than ten Nascent Souls, many of the higher-ups of the Tang family were stunned and faintly felt a sense of trepidation.

Not to mention the higher-ups of the Tang Family, even Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli, who had worn it for so long, felt a chill in their hearts when they thought of the power of the Night Orchid Pendant. They never thought that the jade pendant they had been wearing all these years would actually have such earth-shattering power. It was simply unbelievable.

Tang Liuli laughed dryly and said, ” Elders and Uncles, we actually obtained the Star Jade Pendant a few years ago. However, at that time, we thought it was just an ordinary middle-grade spiritual weapon. We didn’t know the exact power of this spiritual weapon. If Big Sister hadn’t encountered danger this time, we wouldn’t have known that the Star Jade Pendant actually contained such terrifying power. ”

“This...” The higher-ups of the Tang family looked at each other. They did not expect to receive such an answer. Even they themselves did not know the power of the Star Jade Pendant, let alone the fact that the energy in the Star Jade Pendant could easily kill a Nascent Soul old monster and resist a Soul Formation cultivator.

Just as the higher-ups of the family were still feeling conflicted, Tang Yelan returned and personally told everyone that the Chen family's estate and resources would be given to the Tang family. The Tang family was about to soar.

"Family Head, it's all thanks to that hidden expert that we can obtain such huge resources and wealth. I wonder if what Family Head said outside is true. Are you the fiancée of that hidden expert?" At this moment, an elder could not help but ask, wanting to get a definite answer.

Another elder echoed: "That's right, such a huge fortune has fallen into our Tang clan's hands just like that, I feel a little uneasy. I wonder if the clan head can invite that hidden expert to let us express our gratitude so that we can accept it with peace of mind."

"This..." Tang Yelan hesitated. She didn't know what to say. When facing outsiders, she could still avoid them. But when facing her own elders, she couldn't possibly avoid them.

Seeing that her eldest sister was in a difficult position, Tang Liuli said crisply, "Actually, we're not sure about this matter, nor are we sure if that hidden expert has taken a fancy to the three of us. However, the star jade pendant he gave us is real, and it's also true that he secretly protected our Tang family."

"Up until now, we have never seen that hidden expert with our own eyes, nor do we know who he is. We can only speculate about him through his actions...He might have been secretly protecting the Tang family for the sake of us three sisters." Tang Mingyue also walked out and said.

The group of higher-ups of the Tang family fell silent. They did not know what to say. They also felt a little guilty.

After some time, an elder finally spoke.

"Soul Formation Realm cultivators are always elusive. Our level is too low, so it's normal that he doesn't want to see us. However, his feelings for the three young ladies should be real. Otherwise, with his strength, there's no need for him to do so many things in secret and even send over the Star Jade Pendant. In the future, the three young ladies will naturally be the fiancées of that hidden expert. There's no doubt about this."

"That's right. To be able to do so much for the three young ladies, how could he not like the three young ladies? I hope the three young ladies will seize the opportunity and serve this lord well."

"Hehe, the three young ladies just need to obediently wait for marriage in the future. Sooner or later, that master will come to marry the three young ladies. Before that, release the news that no one is allowed to disturb the three young ladies, let alone propose marriage, so as to avoid that master getting angry."

“The three young ladies have to be more careful in the future. You already have a family. Don’t do anything that affects that Divine Transformation Realm master. Otherwise, even without that master taking action, our Tang family’s family law won’t be lenient.”

After a moment of silence, they thought of the Tang family’s current situation. The group of Tang family’s higher-ups were just like Tang Yelan, deceiving themselves and admitting to this matter, even though they knew that there were still many suspicious points.

However, at this point, if the outside world knew that the three young ladies of the Tang family did not gain the favor of that Soul Formation cultivator, the Tang family would not be far from destruction.

Moreover, they were not speaking without thinking. After all, the hidden lord had already done so much for the three young ladies. He should, might, perhaps, definitely...He must like the three young ladies.

I hope that lord isn’t a woman!

The group of Tang family higher-ups left with some trepidation in their hearts. They secretly thought that this time, they would have to borrow power again. If the previous time was said to be because they had accidentally eaten too much and had no choice but to borrow power, then this time, they were really forced to do so. After all, once they were exposed, the Tang family would be finished.

Chapter 772: Waiting for Your Society to Die (1)

Zhu Wuan only found out about all of this after the incident. Moreover, King Thunderclap was one of the Soul Formation Realm cultivators that he had enslaved. However, King Thunderclap did not know Zhu Wuan’s true identity.

Zhu Wuwan did not expect so many things to happen while he was comprehending a secret technique. Fortunately, he had prepared a Night Orchid Pendant for Tang Yelan in advance. Otherwise, Zhu Wuwan would have lost a woman.

Chen Hong and his family deserved to die!

After understanding the situation of the Marquis of Lijiang, Chen Hong, and his family, he realized that most of them were evil people. Zhu Wuyang decided to mobilize the power of his servants and exterminate the entire Chen family.

Of course, Zhu Wuyan was not a cruel person. She still spared the lives of some of the children of the Chen family and erased their memories related to the Chen family.

This was also to clean up the Tang Trading Company and prevent the remaining Chen Clan cultivators from dealing with the Tang Trading Company. With the Tang Trading Company's current strength, they wouldn't be able to withstand the revenge of the remaining Chen Clan forces.

After all, the Chen Family was a Nascent Soul family with several Golden Cores in the family. A few of them were still alive. Once they took revenge on the Tang Trading Company, how could the Tang Trading Company resist?

Zhu Wuyang couldn't just follow behind and wipe his ass, right? That would be too much of a waste of time and energy. It was better to kill them all together.

After the incident, Zhu Wuwan also found out that the higher-ups of the Tang family had arranged the marriage of the three sisters to him. He couldn't help but laugh, especially when Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli came to his bamboo grove to kill time.

Over the past few years, Zhu Wuan had become more and more familiar with Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli. Tang Mingyue valued Zhu Wuan's talent in poetry, while Tang Liuli had touched Zhu Wuan a few times and knew him like the back of her hand. Therefore, she had developed a strange feeling for him.

Therefore, the two sisters gradually became closer to Zhu Wuyan. Tang Mingyue often came to Zhu Wuyan's place to read poems, while Tang Liuli always came to cultivate.

Today was no exception. Out of habit, the two sisters came to the bamboo grove again. One was practicing a secret art of swordsmanship, and the other was reading a collection of words.

It was just that when Zhu Wuwan was stunned, it was inevitable for the three of them to bump into each other in the past. However, when Zhu Wuwan bumped into the two sisters today, she would be scolded.

"I'm fine. Sit over there. We're too close."

"In poetry, men and women should treat each other with courtesy. It's the same between us."

"I'm fine. I'll introduce you to a wife when I'm free. You're not young anymore."

These were Tang Mingyue's words.

” Zhu Wuyang, stay away from me. Don’t get too close to me. I have a husband now. ”

“My husband is a Soul Formation cultivator. If he knows that you dare to touch my clothes, he will smash you into powder.”

“Zhu Wuyan, you have to be more obedient in the future. I’m the fiancée of a Soul Formation cultivator.”

These were Tang Liuli’s words.

Zhu Wuwan snickered as she listened. ‘I wonder what you’ll think when you find out that I’m that Soul Formation Realm cultivator. I’ll definitely die...’

Therefore, Zhu Wuwan deliberately stayed closer to the two sisters so that they could talk more about this. This way, when they found out the truth, they would want to find a hole to hide in even more.

Before this, the three sisters of the Tang family had only guessed that the so-called hidden master’s fiancé was not very important. However, after experiencing this matter, they all paid attention and began to more or less consider themselves as the hidden master’s fiancée.

This was not only to borrow power, but also to save the face of the hidden master. If others saw that the hidden master’s “fiancée” was intimate with another man, wouldn’t it be a disgrace?

Even if the hidden expert did not take a fancy to them, the three sisters of the Tang family would continue to do so and wait.

Zhu Wuyang didn’t mind this. After all, they were doing this for him. Moreover, Zhu Wuyang could also notice that the three sisters were slowly distancing themselves from him. At the very least, they weren’t as close to him as before. They were paying more attention to him.

In the following period of time, Zhu Wuwan did not idle around either. She specially prepared a few kinds of testing spirit tools and prepared to properly test the bodies of the three sisters to see if they had any other talents.

Zhu Wuwan had overlooked the fact that Tang Yelan possessed the innate talent of the Three Yin Body. She did not expect Tang Yelan to possess such a hidden innate talent. It required one to reach a certain level of strength before it could be activated. It almost caused Tang Yelan to die an unnatural death.

Zhu Wuyang didn't want to make the same mistake again, so she specially prepared some spirit tools for testing. Taking advantage of the dark and windy night, she entered Tang Liuli's boudoir.

With a casual wave of his hand, he used a divine sense secret technique. The surrounding spiritual array was also controlled by Zhu Wuyan, and it automatically produced soundproof, hallucinatory, and other effects. Tang Liuli also fell into her deepest sleep. Without Zhu Wuyan's summoning, she wouldn't be able to wake up at all. From now on, Zhu Wuyan could rest assured...He touched it!

In the past, she had been secretly touched by Tang Liuli so many times, but she had to endure the pleasure and not shout out every time. This time, Zhu Wuyang wanted to take revenge.

Therefore, Zhu Wanhao took out a whole set of testing spirit tools, took away all of Tang Liuli's clothes, and began to carefully test her.

From top to bottom, from bottom to top, from left to right, from right to left, from deep to shallow, from shallow to deep...She was meticulous and meticulous. Finally, she confirmed that Tang Liuli's talent was only at the level of a ninth-grade spirit root. Other than that, she did not have any other talent.

Although it wasn't necessary to take the clothes away during the test, it would be more detailed and accurate if the clothes were taken away. Therefore, for the sake of Tang Liuli's future, Zhu Wuyang could only do this. As for taking revenge, it was just a passing thing. Zhu Wuyang wasn't the kind of person who would do such a thing just for revenge.

However, Tang Liuli's figure was really good. There were no flaws in every part of her body, just like Shu Fanruo. Not only did she have a good appearance, but she also had a beautiful interior.

Even in the vast cultivation world, the combined strength of the three Tang sisters was at the peak.

After examining Tang Liuli, Zhu Wuyang went to Tang Mingyue's and Tang Yelan's rooms respectively. He conducted a thorough and meticulous examination on them to ensure that no part of them was missed, so as to avoid the same situation as Tang Yelan's.

Then, Zhu Wuwan was surprised to discover that the three sisters of the Tang family each had different inner beauties, such as the spring water jade pot, the flatfish's kiss, the overlapping green mountains, the red jade phoenix vortex...

She was beautiful on the outside and beautiful on the inside. She was one of the top cultivators in the cultivation world and was not inferior to Shu Fanruo in the slightest.

Zhu Wuwan was also stunned and secretly thought that she had such luck in love this time.

Chapter 773: Were You Inspected Too (1)

Although she was amazed by the Tang Sisters' beauty on the outside and inside, Zhu Wuwan had to admit that other than discovering their peerless beauty in this aspect, the Tang Sisters did not have any talent in other aspects.

Or rather, the other innate talents were just those that were on the surface and there were no other hidden innate talents. Tang Yelan's Three Yin Body naturally did not count as it had already been discovered.

To think that Zhu Wanhao thought that the three sisters of the Tang family might have other talents and aptitudes, so she had prepared a spirit tool for testing. She did not hesitate to undress and carry out the test for them. She did not even care about the gender barrier.

In the end, he still didn't discover any other talents of the three sisters of the Tang family, making it impossible for Zhu Wuwan to speed up their cultivation. No, if it was just this, there was a solution, and there were quite a few of them.

The only thing he gained from this was that Tang Yelan's Three Yin Body was still growing. As Tang Yelan's strength increased, his Three Yin Body was also improving.

Marquis Li Jiang and the others didn't realize it at that time because their spiritual senses were limited. However, with Zhu Wuyang's spiritual senses, even though it was very short, she still discovered it.

It was a pity that Tang Yelan's improvement in strength was limited during this period of time. Previously, Zhu Wuwan did not know what level Tang Yelan's Three Yin Body had reached, so he was unable to determine his growth rate.

Looking at Tang Yelan's delicate body that was as white as jade, Zhu Wuwan secretly thought that she could come and check on him more often in the future to confirm the growth rate of Tang Yelan's special physique. Only then would she be able to better promote Tang Yelan's cultivation.

However, for now, it was better to prepare a cultivation method and cultivation resources for the three sisters. After all, they were already his women. He could not cultivate such a low-class thing.

In that case, the speed of cultivation would be too slow, and the improvement of strength would be too slow, especially for Tang Mingyue, who did not have the aptitude for immortality. If she could not step on the immortal path, her lifespan would be too short.

After some consideration, Zhu Wuan left behind three ancient books and corresponding resources and treasures according to the three sisters' talents and personalities. Only then did she help them put on their clothes and leave their boudoir.

Not long after, in Tang Liuli's boudoir, she opened her eyes in a daze and felt something strange about her.

However, after sensing for a while, he realized that his undergarment was still there, and so was his underwear. There was no other strange feeling, so he secretly thought that he might have had a strange dream last night.

"No!"

Tang Liuli suddenly noticed something unusual in her spiritual fluctuation. She quickly lit a candle and went to the dressing table. She was surprised to find a storage ring on the dressing table, and it was an ownerless storage ring.

Tang Liuli immediately picked up the storage ring and probed it with her mental power. She was surprised to find a large number of natural treasures and elixirs inside, many of which were impossible for the Tang Trading Company to obtain.

Especially since there was a thick book in the storage ring. Tang Liuli immediately took out the book and looked at it.

The Golden Wind Ceremony!

It was a top-notch Heaven and Earth immortal technique that could condense wind-attribute True Qi, True Essence, and Core Essence. Only the upper part could be cultivated to the perfected Golden Core realm, which was extremely compatible with Tang Liuli's physique and body.

There were some comments on it, and someone had left a message on the front page. The other party had called her mistress.

Tang Liuli blushed when she saw the address. She wanted to curse, but when she read the contents below, she was surprised to find that this extensive and profound immortal cultivation manual should have been left to her by that hidden expert. At the same time, he was also the fiancé that the three sisters of the Tang family had forced on her.

So it was him!

Tang Liuli's face turned red, and an inexplicable feeling rose in her heart. She didn't think much about it and immediately continued reading.

From the message, Tang Liuli knew that the hidden master fiancé had tested her physique and said that she was very suitable to cultivate the Golden Wind Grand Ceremony. He told her to change to this top-notch Heaven and Earth Immortal Art as soon as possible and not to tell anyone else about this except the three sisters.

He had to memorize this peak-grade Heaven and Earth Immortal Art as soon as possible. He had also set up a restriction on it so that outsiders would not be able to force it out of him.

The treasures and elixirs in the storage ring were to assist her in cultivating the upper part of the Golden Wind Ceremony. If she had any questions in the future, she could leave a specific mark in her room and he would come to her and answer her questions.

Apart from her, Zhu Wuyang had also left her elder sister and second sister with top-notch immortal cultivation manuals, corresponding spells, secret techniques, and so on. They had a complete inheritance, and at the same time, he urged the three sisters to cultivate well. Otherwise, if the difference in strength between the two of them was too great, and the difference in lifespan was too great, it would be inevitable for the black-haired to send the white-haired in the future.

After reading these comments, Tang Liuli's face turned red. She never expected that this matter would really be acknowledged by that hidden expert. In the future, they wouldn't be considered as using the tiger's might to gain power.

Although they had previously thought that the hidden expert might have taken a fancy to the three sisters, as long as the hidden expert did not personally confirm this matter or come to see them, the three sisters could not be sure. The entire Tang family could not be sure either. They were still quite nervous.

Now that they had obtained these things, it meant that the hidden expert had acknowledged their identity. This was obviously a good thing.

Thinking of this, Tang Liuli smiled and walked towards her eldest sister and second sister. The three sisters quickly gathered in the study room of the Spring Autumn Pavilion, each of them looking at the immortal cultivation manual in their hands in shock.

"Mine is the Mystic Yin Divine Art, a legendary peak-grade Heaven and Earth Immortal Art. It also only has the upper part." Tang Yelan forcefully suppressed the shock in his heart. "That hidden expert is definitely a great cultivator at the Soul Formation Stage or above. Otherwise, how could he have obtained such a good immortal technique? Our Tang Family is really lucky."

Tang Mingyue said, "What he prepared for me is the Celestial Warrior Sutra, which can greatly increase the chances of entering the Dao through martial arts. With the help of those heavenly treasures and spirit pills, there's basically no possibility of failure. It's also the upper part of the top-notch Heaven and Earth Immortal Art. There's a restriction inside, so the contents inside can't be told to anyone. "

" The hidden master must be very powerful to be able to produce three earth-shattering Immortal Arts. In the entire Eternal Empire, I'm afraid only the royal family's Nirvana Legacy can defeat us. " Tang Liuli giggled. " It's definitely an honor to be the fiancée of such a big shot. By the way, sisters, have you been checked according to the messages? Do you feel anything special? "

Chapter 774: Is This a Betrothal Gift (1)

Hearing Tang Liuli's straightforward question, Tang Yelan and Tang Mingyue's faces turned red and they rolled their eyes at her. "I can detect it with my divine sense. I don't even need to touch it. What can I feel? "

"But I keep feeling that my clothes are a little different from the ones I wore before I slept. I wonder if that hidden expert touched my clothes." Tang Liuli pouted.

Tang Yelan's pretty face turned red. " What nonsense are you spouting? With that hidden expert's strength, he could have done anything to us at any time if he wanted to do something to us. Why would he need to do anything else? "

"That's right. Moreover, we've already admitted that we're his fiancées. He can come and marry us now and make us do anything." Tang Mingyue blushed as well.

Tang Liuli pouted. " Alright, it seems like I'm overthinking. But do you think this is considered a betrothal gift? We just announced to the public that we're already the fiancée of that hidden expert, and he gave us such a big surprise. It seems like he's responding to our words. "

"Or...Perhaps." Tang Yelan's heart was beating rapidly. " No matter what, we can't tell anyone about this. After all, a man's wealth is a sin. This cultivation technique and resources are too shocking. Other than the three of us, we can't let anyone else know about it. "

"In the future, everyone can finally be at ease. We must all cultivate well. Mingyue is the same. Otherwise, our lifespans are too short. How can we stay by that lord's side for long? Moreover, that lord has given us such a good opportunity. How can we not seize it?"

Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli nodded together. They seemed to have thought of something, and both of their sisters blushed.

The gift from Zhu Wuan finally calmed the three sisters of the Tang family down. They were not always worried that their actions would anger the hidden expert or that the hidden expert would no longer protect them.

The three sisters began to cultivate the immortal cultivation technique that Zhu Wuwan had prepared for them. With the help of a large number of resources, the three sisters 'strength increased rapidly.

The mischievous Tang Liuli thought of the message left by the hidden expert. She left a question mark on a dark and windy night and waited nervously at night.

Liuli, do you have any questions? ”

At some point, a green-robed figure had appeared beside the bed. It was shrouded in layers of black fog, and one could not see its face clearly at all.

Tang Liuli widened her eyes. Are you that hidden expert?”

“Yes.” Zhu Wuwan said. Her voice was already very different from usual.

Tang Liuli sat up excitedly. In order to wait for the expert, she was still wearing her clothes.”Are you really a Soul Formation Stage cultivator?”

“He has already surpassed the Nascent Soul stage.” Zhu Wuyang said.

Tang Liuli didn't realize the other meaning behind Zhu Wuan's words. In her opinion, it was already incredible that Zhu Wuan was a Soul Formation Stage cultivator. How could he be an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage?

“You're too amazing. This is the first time I've come into contact with a Soul Formation Realm cultivator at such a close distance. Can you show me how amazing you are?” Tang Liuli asked excitedly.

Black lines appeared on Zhu Wuwan's forehead. ” It's nothing more than moving mountains and overturning rivers. What's there to see? You'll have such strength in the future. It's best to answer your doubts as soon as possible. I still have things to deal with. ”

“Alright ... Alright.” Only then did Tang Liuli realize that it was a little rude. She quickly put away her curiosity and began to ask some questions. Most of the questions were already understood by her. However, in order to keep Zhu Wuyang here for a while longer, she pretended not to understand.

After answering the questions, Tang Liu could not help but ask, ““My lord, why are you helping us? Are you a cultivator of the Eternal Empire?”

“You’ll know about this in the future.” Zhu Wanwan said. He wasn’t prepared to tell the three Tang sisters his identity for the time being, in case it would attract suspicion and expose him easily. It was better to wait until he had enough strength to deal with the Heart Controlling Sect’s pursuit before revealing his identity.

Tang Liuli nodded disappointedly and watched as Zhu Wuwan disappeared. Then, she excitedly ran towards Tang Mingyue and Tang Yelan’s room. “Sisters, I just saw that hidden expert. Although I can’t see his face clearly, I can sense that his strength is very, very strong. It’s the kind of strength that has no end.”

“So he’s definitely a Soul Formation Realm cultivator. He might even be one of the stronger Soul Formation Realm cultivators. Our Tang family is really going to be rich.”

While Tang Yelan and Tang Mingyue were excited, they also realized that the hidden expert’s message was not a lie. They could leave a mark and ask the hidden expert to explain the problem to them.

Therefore, in the following days, every time the three sisters of the Tang family accumulated a certain number of difficult and miscellaneous diseases, they would leave a mark to invite that hidden expert over.

The hidden experts would enter in the night every time to cure their difficult and miscellaneous diseases, allowing their cultivation speed to increase by a level. At the same time, they would bring some cultivation resources every time so that they could improve better.

As the number of times increased, the relationship between the two sides gradually became familiar. The hidden expert was indeed powerful, knowledgeable, and unfathomable... However, there was one thing that made the three sisters a little shy. They liked to touch each other.

In the beginning, it was just holding hands, but later on, it developed into hugging and hugging. Gradually, he would always kiss them while they were teaching. Compared to Zhu Wuyang, who always kept a distance from them, he was simply a pervert.

Thinking about it, Zhu Wuyang had been very restrained from the beginning when she interacted with the three sisters. She basically wouldn’t take the initiative to touch them. Most of the time, they were the ones who touched Zhu Wuyang.

Especially after they had a fiancé and had announced it to everyone, Zhu Wuwan became even more serious. He never touched them and allowed them to go to his courtyard to study and cultivate without worry. Although they were not very powerful, they could occasionally give some useful suggestions. This surprised Tang Yelan and he would look for him from time to time.

However, the three sisters often felt that it was a little unreasonable, so they wanted to find a beautiful maid for Zhu Wuyan to be her wife. Unfortunately, Zhu Wuyan did not take a fancy to any of them. She focused on reading and learning, and her knowledge became more and more profound. Occasionally, she would give some suggestions to help the Tang family and the Tang Trading Company develop better. Gradually, she gained the respect of the entire Tang family and the Tang Trading Company.

The higher-ups of the Tang family had also realized that Zhu Wuwan and the three sisters of the Tang family had a very pure relationship. The three sisters of the Tang family and Zhu Wuwan weren't fools. How could they dare to do something that offended that Soul Formation Stage cultivator? Therefore, they didn't care about this matter anymore.

The relationship between the two parties was really 'pure and chaste,' 'polite,' and 'righteous ...'

Chapter 775: Ten Year Leap (1)

The three sisters of the Tang family had no idea that the gentleman Zhu Wuyan, who they thought was righteous, would make their hearts beat faster, their faces blush, and almost lose control every night when he answered difficult and complicated illnesses.

However, when they thought about how the hidden expert was their fiancé, who had the monstrous strength of a Soul Formation cultivator and above, and had saved them and the Tang family many times, the three sisters could only let him do as he pleased.

Fortunately, the hidden expert did not break through the last step. Otherwise, it would be a little embarrassing to get pregnant before marriage.

Zhu Wuwan was also experiencing this interesting feeling. During the day, he was as holy as Buddha, and at night, he was as lustful as a demon. He bullied his three fiancées and suddenly felt that the days had passed quickly.

He wondered if the three sisters would fly into a rage out of humiliation and fight him to the death when they found out that Zhu Wuan was that hidden expert.

Especially when he saw the three sisters deliberately distancing themselves from him during the day and being so shy at night, Zhu Wuyang thought of the scene of them dying one day.

This could be considered as a small bad taste.

Time continued to pass day by day. With the Chen family's resources and businesses in hand, the Tang family and the Tang Trading Company developed rapidly, leaping into the ranks of Nascent Soul families.

Moreover, the three Tang sisters also had confidence and were no longer as guilty as before. Therefore, they accelerated the development of the Tang family and the Tang Trading Company and gradually established themselves among the Nascent Soul families.

Later on, King Thunderclap revealed that the Tang family indeed had a Soul Formation cultivator backing them up, and that they were quite powerful. The reputation of the Tang family and the Tang Trading Company rose to a higher level, and the resources and industries they owned also increased.

While developing their clan and trading company, the three sisters of the Tang family had actually spent most of their time on cultivation. Faced with such good resources and opportunities, the three sisters of the Tang family were not fools. How could they not seize them?

Under the guidance of the Celestial Warrior Scripture, a large number of resources, and Zhu Wuwan, Tang Mingyue broke through the bottlenecks of the weak and delicate young lady and successfully entered the path through martial arts. She advanced to the Refinement Stage and reached the peak of the Refinement Stage. She was only half a step away from entering the Foundation Establishment Stage.

With the help of the Divine Yin Formula and his special physique, as well as Zhu Wuwan's guidance and the help of many resources and treasures, Tang Yelan's strength had also increased rapidly. He had already reached the perfected Foundation Establishment Stage and would soon be breaking through to the Golden Core Stage.

Tang Liuli's improvement was the greatest. She had already broken through the shackles of the late stage of the Foundation Establishment Stage and even the natural moat of advancing to the Golden Core Stage. Of course, with the help of her fiancé's hidden expert, she finally broke through the shackles and successfully advanced to the Golden Core Stage. She became the second Golden Core of the Tang family and had a bright future.

At this moment, ten years had passed. To obtain such a huge improvement in ten years was definitely a huge leap.

Even the three Tang sisters had improved so much, let alone Zhu Wuwan, who had the help of the special encounter system.

Compared to the three sisters of the Tang family, Zhu Wuwan's speed of improvement was not inferior at all. In fact, she was even faster. Moreover, Zhu Wuwan was a giant at the Void Training Stage. The difficulty of advancing a small realm was far more difficult than the three sisters of the Tang family stepping into the Golden Core Stage.

Therefore, as long as Zhu Wuyan advanced by a small realm, she would be able to far surpass the three sisters of the Tang family. Moreover, Zhu Wuyan had not only advanced by a small realm.

In the past ten years, Zhu Wuwan, who had already cultivated to the invincible Void Refinement Realm, had not only controlled the Eternal Empire, but also the dozens of empires surrounding the Eternal Empire. They had all been silently controlled by him and became his slaves.

The combined power of these empires was not inferior to half of the Southern Wasteland. The resources and wealth here were not much different. From this, one could see how rich the Central Plains was.

To put it bluntly, the resources, wealth, and power of Nirvana Tower alone were thousands of times more than the entire Southern Wasteland.

Therefore, although Zhu Wuwan had only secretly taken down dozens of empires under Nirvana Tower, the resources and wealth she possessed were comparable to half of the Southern Wasteland.

The Central Plains had been able to stand at the peak of the cultivation world in the Dongyuan Continent, which was evident from this.

With the help of these resources and wealth, Zhu Wuwan naturally obtained a considerable number of breakthrough stones. His strength also rose steadily, breaking through layers of bottlenecks and shackles. Now, he had already advanced to the level of a breakthrough.

Perfect Void Refinement Realm!

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang was only half a step away from advancing to the Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillar Realm. Moreover, Shi Zhu Wuyang had already accumulated most of the breakthrough to advance to the Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillar. He was only a small part away from advancing.

Not only that, but Zhu Wuyan had also cultivated the Nirvana Technique to the sixth level. After experiencing six nirvana reincarnations, Zhu Wuyan's strength had undergone an earth-shattering transformation.

The Nirvana Soul Consciousness and the Nirvana Nascent Soul were comparable to the Soul Consciousness and Nascent Soul of the Sky Pillar of Heaven at the middle stage of the Body Integration Stage. The density and purity were not inferior at all. Moreover, they had steadily suppressed the Soul Consciousness and Nascent Soul of Zhu Wuyang, who was at the same level as him.

If he removed his abnormal ability to teleport, Zhu Wuwan could completely fight against the mid-Body Integration Heavenly Pillar head-on. With the help of various Heaven and Earth Immortal Martial Arts, Heaven and Earth Dharma Spells, and Secret Skills of Heaven and Earth, he could even fight against the late-Body Integration Heavenly Pillar and the perfected Body Integration Heavenly Pillar.

Even if the Heaven's Pillar at the beginning and middle Body Integration Stage had teleportation as its wings, Zhu Wuwan could still fight evenly with it. Although the Five Elements Great Escape was not as good as teleportation, if it was used properly, it could completely restrict teleportation.

After experiencing six nirvanas, Zhu Wuyan's body was already half a step into the Void Refinement Realm. As long as Zhu Wuyan's Qi Refinement cultivation could break through the shackles of the natural chasm, the toughness and flexibility of Zhu Wuyan's body would naturally reach the level of a Void Refinement Realm body cultivator.

Zhu Wuyang had yet to cultivate a body-tempering technique, but his body's strength and flexibility had already reached such a level. This made Zhu Wuyang sigh at how terrifying the number one inheritance in the world was. At the same time, he was also looking forward to what kind of benefits he could obtain when he began to cultivate a body-tempering technique.

However, when he thought about the difficulty of cultivating the Nirvana Art, Zhu Wuwan felt that it was normal. According to the information he had obtained from a group of servants, in the entire Nirvana Tower, only a middle-stage Dujie Grand Elder had cultivated the Nirvana Art to the seventh level. Other than him, there was no other cultivator in the Nirvana Tower who had cultivated the Nirvana Art to the seventh level. The other cultivators had only cultivated it to the sixth level at most.

Moreover, there were only a few Nirvana Tower cultivators who had cultivated the Nirvana Art to the sixth level. There were probably only a dozen of them.

In other words, Zhu Wanwan's Nirvana Art was also one of the best in Nirvana Tower. Moreover, the other cultivators who had cultivated the Nirvana Art to the sixth level had basically spent a long time and their strength was above the Great Vehicle Stage.

However, Zhu Wanhao was good. He was only at the Void Refinement Realm, but he had already cultivated the Nirvana Technique to such a level.

Chapter 776: Nine Yin Profound Accumulations 1

Nirvana Technique, Nirvana Sutra, Nirvana Technique...All three of them had been cultivated to the perfection of the sixth level by Zhu Wanwan. Moreover, there was a way to break through the Heaven Pillar in the books on the sixth level.

However, once he cultivated to the level of the Form One Heavenly Pillar, there would be no more cultivation techniques for Zhu Wuyang to cultivate. He would have to obtain the Nirvana Scripture and the seventh level of the Nirvana Technique to continue cultivating. Naturally, it was the same for the Nirvana Technique.

However, if one wanted to obtain the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony, they had to go to the Nirvana Tower's headquarters. There were no jade slips related to it.

Or Zhu Wuwan could find a Nirvana Tower's Integration Heavenly Pillar to observe in secret like before and explore the circulation of the cultivation technique in his body. From there, he could obtain the cultivation method of the Nirvana Technique and the seventh level of the Nirvana Scripture.

As for the Nirvana Art, he could forget about obtaining it in this way. Zhu Wuwan's brain was not filled with water yet. He would not foolishly observe the old ancestor of the Nirvana Tower who was in the middle stage of the Dujie stage. He was also known as the world's number one peerless figure.

Therefore, after Zhu Wuwan broke through to the Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillar Realm, she planned to find a Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillar of Nirvana Tower and observe him in secret. From there, she would obtain the Nirvana Technique and the cultivation method of the seventh level of the Nirvana Sutra. As for the seventh level of the Nirvana Technique, she could only wait for an opportunity to act and find a suitable opportunity.

However, the sixth-level Nirvana Technique was enough for Zhu Wuwan to be invincible in the same level, or even to cross the realm to fight the enemy. Once the restriction could be successfully removed and combined with the original realm, Zhu Wuwan's strength would definitely undergo an earth-shattering transformation. Perhaps she could break through to the Mahayana Quasi-Immortal Realm in one fell swoop.

As long as he had the strength of a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal, it would be much easier to obtain the seventh and eighth levels of the Nirvana Technique and the Nirvana Sutra. Even the difficulty of obtaining the Nirvana Technique would plummet.

Moreover, after more than ten years of observation and comprehension, Zhu Wuwan already had a certain degree of confidence in removing the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes. As long as his Qi Refinement cultivation could break through to the Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillar Realm, he did not need to reach the Perfect Form Synthesis Realm. Zhu Wuwan was absolutely confident that he could remove the God Sealing Hexes and the Origin Sealing Hexes and recover his original Qi Refinement cultivation.

Not only that, when the eighteen hell consciousness, the Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul, the Nirvana consciousness, and the Nirvana Nascent Soul successfully fused, there would be a huge transformation and improvement, which would greatly elevate Zhu Wuyang's strength.

However, after thinking about it, he realized that the current situation was not too difficult, so Zhu Wuwan was prepared to increase his Qi Refinement cultivation as much as possible, and then open the God Sealing Restriction and the Origin Sealing Restriction. This way, the chances of breaking through to the Great Vehicle Stage would be greater.

The Great Vehicle Stage was the dividing line between human and immortal. Once one could enter the Great Vehicle Stage, he would be qualified to be called a quasi-immortal. Therefore, the shackles of the natural moat leading to the Great Vehicle Stage were beyond imagination, far exceeding the bottleneck between the Void Training Stage and the Form Synthesis Stage. The two were simply incomparable.

Even with the help of the Special Encounter System and the Breakthrough Stone, Zhu Wuyang did not dare to be careless for fear of an accident.

Moreover, the stronger the Qi Refinement cultivation before the unsealing, the greater the benefits after the unsealing. This benefit was not only the increase in strength, but also the strength of the foundation of cultivation, and the extent of the power of the spiritual sense and the Nascent Soul.

Therefore, if possible, Zhu Wuyang would try her best to improve her Qi Refinement cultivation before this. It would be best if she could reach the perfected Body Integration realm. Then, she would break through in one fell swoop. Not only would she have to break through the shackles of the natural moat, but she would also have invincible strength in the Great Vehicle Stage.

Only after his Qi Refinement cultivation advanced to the Great Vehicle Stage would Zhu Wuwan consider increasing his body refinement cultivation and then remove the Body Sealing Restriction, thus realizing the transformation of his body refinement cultivation.

The Heart Controlling Sect's trump card to deal with Zhu Wuwan was also the ultimate trump card that they believed would definitely be able to destroy Zhu Wuwan. Not only did it not play its intended role, but it was also used by Zhu Wuwan to become an important support for Zhu Wuwan's growth and improvement.

If the Great Ascension Patriarchs of the Mind Control Sect knew about this, who knew what they would think.

Apart from the help of the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes, Zhu Wuwan had also found a great help in Tang Yelan that could help him successfully break through to the Great Vehicle Stage, and that was the Nine Yin Profound Body.

After years of hard work and toil, Zhu Wuwan was surprised to find that Tang Yelan's special physique was improving at an astonishing speed, far beyond the imagination of ordinary people. Naturally, his cultivation speed was also rising with the tide, and he was about to break through to the Golden Core Stage.

If it wasn't for Zhu Wuwan who told her to accumulate more, Tang Yelan would have broken through a few years ago.

His cultivation speed was so fast that even with the help of a large number of natural treasures and elixirs, it was still a little abnormal. After Zhu Wuwan's careful explanation, in-depth explanation, cautiousness, and up and down...After observing and testing, Zhu Wuwan finally confirmed one thing. Tang Yelan possessed the rare Nine Yin Profound Body. Although this kind of body constitution was far inferior to the Spirit Body and the Dao Body in terms of cultivation, it had an excellent auxiliary effect in cultivation.

The Nine Yin Profound Reserve was one of the top spiritual reserves in the world. It had a huge supporting effect on the breakthrough of cultivators. Most importantly, it also had a significant driving effect on Zhu Wuyang's breakthrough to the Mahayana Stage.

If he had the help of the Nine Yin Profound Accumulations when Zhu Wanhao broke through to the Mahayana Stage Quasi-Immortal, the success rate of his breakthrough would have increased by at least ten percent.

It didn't seem like much, but under normal circumstances, the chance of the Heavenly Pillar breaking through to the Great Vehicle Stage was less than one in ten thousand. This ten percent increase in the success rate of the Heavenly Pillar's breakthrough by more than a hundred times.

Even for Zhu Wuwan, who had the help of the Special Encounter System, this was a huge number, enough to make Zhu Wuwan drool.

Therefore, while Zhu Wuan had been improving Tang Yelan's strength all these years, she had also been carefully nurturing her special constitution. The medicinal efficacy of many elixirs had been absorbed by Tang Yelan's special constitution. In just ten years, Tang Yelan's special constitution had grown from the Three Yin Body to the Six Yin Body, far exceeding the normal growth rate.

According to the current speed, when Tang Yelan advanced to the Nascent Soul Stage, her special physique would be able to advance to the Nine Yin Profound Body Stage. At that time, Zhu Wuwan would be able to pick these Nine Yin Profound Accumulations and break through to the Mahayana Stage Quasi-Immortal Stage.

This matter was also a great joy for Zhu Wuwan. It could make Zhu Wuwan's chances of advancing to the Great Ascension Stage to a level beyond the imagination of ordinary cultivators. There was basically no possibility of failure.

Therefore, Zhu Wuan treated Tang Yelan and the three sisters with increasing importance. This time, the Heart Controlling Sect had placed the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes on them. It could be considered a blessing in disguise. Zhu Wuan did not earn so much World Origin Energy for the Dongyuan Continent in vain.

Chapter 777: Returning to the Heavenly Pillar (1)

He looked at the Breakthrough Stones he had accumulated. He was very close to accumulating enough Breakthrough Stones to advance to the Body Integration Heavenly Pillar. Therefore, after some consideration, Zhu Wuwan took out the Breakthrough Stones he had accumulated over the years.

These accumulations included, but were not limited to, all kinds of spiritual pills, heavenly and earthly treasures, waste pills, waste medicines, and special ingredients that had not been tasted ... As the core of the cultivation world in the Dongyuan Continent, the Nirvana Tower's territory had all kinds of strange treasures and foreign objects that were as numerous as the stars in the sky, far surpassing the Southern Wasteland.

Although he had only been searching for more than ten years, it was already as long as he had searched in the Southern Wasteland. Now, he could use it to exchange for a breakthrough stone and advance to the Form Heaven Pillar Realm as soon as possible.

Only by mastering the power of teleportation could Zhu Wuyang be confident of being invincible, and his life would be greatly guaranteed.

Moreover, if he could advance to the Form Synthesis Pillar realm for the second time, he wondered if his teleportation technique would also be improved when he removed the seal.

At the thought of this, Zhu Wuwan grew more and more expectant. He began to swallow all kinds of spirit pills, heavenly treasures, waste pills, and waste medicine... The Breakthrough Stone began to increase at an unimaginable speed, making Zhu Wuyang feel that it was a little too fast.

The system notifications were like a continuous rainstorm, appearing continuously like a flood screen.

When Zhu Wuan consumed these spirit pills, heavenly treasures, and the like, he categorized them according to their different effects to avoid eating too much, causing the medicinal strength in his body to be excessive and affecting his cultivation foundation.

Or perhaps he had consumed too many useless pills and medicine, resulting in him being poisoned. He had consumed them in batches according to his physique, trying to consume as many as possible to obtain greater benefits.

Many elixirs and heavenly treasures were also beneficial to Zhu Wuyan's cultivation. They could increase Zhu Wuyan's strength and at the same time, allow Zhu Wuyan to obtain many breakthrough stones. It could be said to be killing several birds with one stone.

However, many of the elixirs, waste elixirs, and waste medicines had a rather strange smell, which made Zhu Wuwan frown. However, the more strange these things were, the more breakthrough stones they could bring to Zhu Wuwan. After all, these things could give Zhu Wuwan a deeper impression.

Therefore, even if Zhu Wuwan had to grimace, he had to slowly savor it. This way, he could obtain more breakthrough stones so that he could accumulate enough breakthrough stones as soon as possible and advance to the Body Integration Heavenly Pillar Realm.

Just like that, I wish you well and live a sour, sweet, bitter, spicy life ... However, in their daily lives, they were still urged by the three sisters of the Tang family to get married. This was because the three sisters of the Tang family were not young anymore. After so many years, they still did not have a happy ending with Zhu Wuwan, the hidden Incarnation Realm expert. This made many of the higher-ups of the Tang family a little anxious.

After all, if they didn't catch such a rich husband as soon as possible, what if he ran away?

The reason why the Tang family was able to prosper at this moment was mainly because of the power of this big shot. If it weren't for the fact that many hidden experts who were studying at night were still close to them and all kinds of indescribable things, the three sisters of the Tang family would probably be uneasy.

However, the three Tang sisters were also a little anxious. Occasionally, they would sound out Zhu Wuyan's intentions. Zhu Wuyan would put it off for the time being and then do what she had to do with Tang Mingyue and Tang Yelan. Only Tang Yelan remained chaste.

As for getting married, Zhu Wuyang couldn't possibly continue to hide her true identity and get married, right? That would be too much for the three Tang sisters. It was better to wait until the day when he no longer feared the Mind Control Sect and could walk out openly before holding a formal wedding.

As for the possibility of getting pregnant before marriage, Zhu Wuwan was a little eager to see it. For this reason, he had even used the great divine power of extracting primordial yang on Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli many times.

Unfortunately, Zhu Wuyan's talent and aptitude were too extraordinary. It was impossible for her to get pregnant easily. It was really a regrettable thing.

However, the heavens would not let down a man's painstaking efforts. As long as there were enough times and enough time, he might be able to succeed.

Although she had thought about using the essence adjusting technique, after some consideration, Zhu Wuwan decided not to use it for the time being. It was better to wait until Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli's cultivation speed slowed down and they had enough time to take care of the children before using the essence adjusting technique.

Of course, it would be even better if he could have children before that. After all, with Zhu Wuyang's current talent and aptitude, it was already very difficult for him to naturally give birth to children.

Several months had passed between eating and drinking. With Zhu Wuwan's tireless efforts, he had finally accumulated enough breakthrough stones to advance to the Body Integration Heavenly Pillar. At this moment, only about one-tenth of the good things he had accumulated over the years were left.

Zhu Wuwan came to the prepared underground secret realm and activated the surrounding layers of spiritual arrays, preparing to break through the shackles leading to the Heavenly Pillar Realm.

A large number of breakthrough stones surged into his body, and Zhu Wuyang's strength began to increase. His Nascent Soul, immortal meridians, and middle dantian all fused into his body.

Although he had already experienced it once, the breakthrough this time was still extremely difficult. After all, Zhu Wuyan's body refinement cultivation was extremely strong during the previous breakthrough and could better accommodate the Nascent Soul, immortal meridians, and middle dantian. However, Zhu Wuyan's body refinement cultivation this time was far inferior to the previous one.

Therefore, the difficulty of the fusion was not much less than the last time. He could only rely on experience to make up for it.

Zhu Wanhao's expression was solemn. Just like last time, he first raised his Nirvana consciousness. After his Nirvana consciousness broke through, he began to fuse with his body.

Time slowly passed. Zhu Wuyang's fusion was very, very slow. Every trace of fusion brought him intense pain.

Fortunately, after years of experience and bitter cultivation, Zhu Wuyang's endurance had improved a lot. She could already withstand this kind of pain, not to mention that the pain had been alleviated by the Breakthrough Stone.

The amount of breakthrough stones consumed this time was not much less than the previous time. After six nirvana, Zhu Wuyang's cultivation foundation was not inferior to the previous time, and it might even be even better. Therefore, the amount of breakthrough stones consumed during the breakthrough was also a lot.

Zhu Wuyan's entire mind was immersed in it, focused on breaking through, completely unaware of the passage of time.

After an unknown period of time, accompanied by the sound of a bell coming from inside and outside, Zhu Wuwan's body, Nascent Soul, immortal meridians, middle dantian...His fusion rate had reached 10%.

This also meant that Zhu Wuan had finally broken through the bottleneck and returned to the realm of the Heavenly Pillar of Integration. He now possessed the heaven-defying instinct that allowed him to stand on the Dongyuan Continent without being defeated, the art of teleportation.

It was just that this breakthrough had made it unknown to what extent Zhu Wuyang's teleportation technique had reached. How far could she teleport at most?

Chapter 778: Confidence Has Returned (1)

After advancing to the Form Heaven Pillar Realm, Zhu Wuyan's Nirvana Soul Consciousness and a portion of her Nirvana Nascent Soul had undergone a huge transformation and improvement. Even the Nascent Soul, Immortal Meridians, and Middle Dantian that had yet to fuse and transform had also received a considerable improvement.

Compared to the last time he broke through to the early-stage Body Integration Stage, Zhu Wuyan's spiritual sense and Nascent Soul were much stronger. It was far better than the last time. The world's number one inheritance was indeed worthy of its reputation.

However, if the Ten Thousand Poison Nascent Soul was combined with the Level Seven Zhu Wuyan's poison, the Nirvana Nascent Soul would still be a little lacking.

As for the toughness and flexibility of his body, it had indeed been successfully upgraded to the level of an Early Void Refinement Realm body cultivator.

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang's overall strength was not inferior to most Heavenly Pillars at the later stage of the Body Integration Stage and could compete with Heavenly Pillars at the perfected Body Integration Stage.

Although she had just entered the early-stage Body Integration Stage, Zhu Wuwan's strength had already reached the level of being close to invincible.

Of course, at this moment, Zhu Wuyang was more concerned about how many instants he could teleport. Filled with anticipation, Zhu Wuyang disappeared with a whoosh.

A hundred miles!

Zhu Wanwan smiled. She didn't expect that after breaking through to the Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillar Realm for the second time, she could still teleport up to 100 miles at most. Under normal circumstances, only the perfected Form Synthesis Heavenly Pillars could teleport up to 100 miles.

However, Zhu Wuwan had just advanced to the early-stage Body Integration Stage, and she could teleport a hundred miles with one teleportation. This meant that when Zhu Wuwan advanced to the perfected Body Integration Stage, she could teleport a thousand miles with one teleportation.

Under normal circumstances, this was something that only a perfected Mahayana Quasi-Immortal could do. However, Zhu Wuwan could do it at the Body Integration Realm.

When the next two cultivation bases merged together, he did not know if there would be a chemical change that would multiply exponentially. In that case, he would be able to travel a million miles in an instant.

Thinking of this possibility, Zhu Wuwan almost drooled.

However, Zhu Wuwan quickly wiped off his saliva because he knew very well that how could a heaven-defying instinct like teleportation produce a transformation that was multiplied by several times? Zhu Wuwan would be satisfied as long as it could be multiplied by several times. If it could be multiplied by three times, four times, five times, six times... That would be great.

As for 1,000 times, that was something that he didn't even need to think about.

A Human Immortal at the peak of the Tribulation Transcendence Realm could usually teleport for about ten thousand miles each time. How could Zhu Wuyang be able to surpass a Human Immortal at the peak of the Tribulation Transcendence Realm by ten times? It was better to wait until he advanced to the Mahayana Realm or the Human Immortal Realm.

With his previous experience and lessons, Zhu Wuwan quickly adapted to the sudden increase in strength and the instinct to travel a hundred miles in an instant. Her overall strength had soared more than ten times compared to before she broke through.

At this moment, Zhu Wuyang could finally relax a lot. At least, even if the Mind Controlling Sect came looking for him, Zhu Wuyang was very confident that she could escape. There was basically no possibility of being captured alive.

After the painful lesson from the last time, Zhu Wuwan would not casually take away the important things of the Heart Controlling Sect for the time being, lest the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes came again.

No, it seemed that the Three Celestial Sealing Hexes could only be used once on a cultivator and could not be used a second time on the same cultivator. In this case, Zhu Wuwan could continue to play around.

A smile flashed across Zhu Wuwan's face. She stopped thinking about it and continued to hide her identity. She controlled more territories and earned more breakthrough stones to advance to a higher realm.

After breaking through to the Form Heaven Pillar Realm, Zhu Wuwan became much bolder and dared to secretly control more empires and territories.

Of course, there was one more thing that could not be delayed. That was to master the Nirvana Scripture and the seventh level of the Nirvana Technique as soon as possible. Only then could he continue cultivating. Zhu Wuyang, who had broken through to the Form Synthesis Pillar Realm, no longer had any subsequent cultivation methods.

If it was possible, Zhu Wuyan still hoped to continue cultivating this number one inheritance in the world.

While earning breakthrough stones, Zhu Wuyang did not forget the main purpose of traveling, which was to study.

As the number one immortal sect in the Dongyuan Continent, the books and cultivation techniques that Nirvana Tower had were beyond imagination. In order to obtain these books and cultivation techniques, Zhu Wuyang had specially asked his servants to go to the headquarters of Nirvana Tower frequently to read the various books and cultivation techniques in the Sutra Depository.

Among the Void Refinement Realm giants and Divine Transformation Realm cultivators who were enslaved by Zhu Wuyan, many of them were official disciples of Nirvana Tower. Otherwise, they wouldn't have the qualifications to cultivate in the Nirvana Ceremony.

Moreover, those who could control these huge empires usually had extremely powerful backgrounds and had considerable authority. Therefore, they could easily enter the upper echelons of the Nirvana Tower's Scripture Depository and obtain good manuals and cultivation techniques.

Zhu Wuyan asked these servants to help him memorize a large number of books and cultivation techniques, and then transfer them into jade slips for him. At the same time, Zhu Wuyan was also cultivating secret techniques in concealment, preparing to take the time to visit the headquarters of Nirvana Tower.

With the help of these servants, Zhu Wuyan's journey to study was not delayed. Instead, he obtained a large number of ancient books and cultivation techniques, which were not much worse than before.

Apart from that, Zhu Wuwan would also sneak into some of the Nirvana Tower's subordinate forces and families to obtain the manuals and cultivation techniques she wanted to increase her knowledge and grasp more things.

Cultivation, breaking restrictions, studying, love... There was no delay at all. The Mind Control Sect thought that Zhu Wuyang was not far from death, but they did not know that Zhu Wuyang was living an extremely carefree life at this moment. The next time they met, she would definitely give the Mind Control Sect a huge surprise.

Tian Zhu was reading a book. This book was an important high-level secret skill of heaven and earth in Nirvana Tower. The content was very profound.

However, in the eyes of the people around him, what Zhu Wuyang was reading was just ordinary study notes and simple illusions.

Tang Mingyue, who had deliberately distanced herself from him, was composing poems and lyrics, taking some time out to relax. Tang Liuli was cultivating a secret technique, and even Tang Yelan had come over to mark the documents.

Wang Xinjing was also sorting out the accounts here. She had surprisingly treated Zhu Wuwan's Hundred Flowers Courtyard as a comprehensive office building.

By the way, the Tang family's residence had already been moved to the original Lijiang Manor. This was already the Tang family's residence, so Zhu Wuwan naturally came over as well. She was even given a good courtyard in the middle of the Tang family's residence.

Moreover, ever since she had close contact with that hidden expert, Tang Liuli no longer did things like checking her body. She began to become more obedient and tried her best to forget those strange things in the past.

Every time she saw Tang Liuli face him seriously, Zhu Wuwan would think of the girl's lively and pestering image when he was answering questions. Her heart would heat up. She hoped that Tang Liuli wouldn't eat him up on the night she died.

Chapter 779: Flower Eater Old Demon (1)

"Missy, something bad has happened to the Tiger Top Spirit Mine!"

Just as the few of them were busy with their own tasks and did not disturb each other, a sweet-looking maid rushed in from outside. This maid named An Tian was also the maid that the three sisters of the Tang family were trying to matchmake with Zhu Wuwan. She was currently serving Tang Yelan.

To be honest, An Tian's appearance was not bad. Although she was far from being comparable to the three Tang sisters, she could be considered a national beauty among ordinary people. Especially her sweet and cute temperament, which far surpassed Jingtian on Earth.

However, with the three sisters of the Tang family around, Zhu Wuwan really didn't have much feelings for An Tian. Therefore, she was currently in the state of a woman chasing after a man. An Tian was very satisfied with Zhu Wuwan and didn't mind that Zhu Wuwan was just a weak man who couldn't even catch a chicken.

Tang Yelan frowned when he saw An Tian's flustered expression. "What's wrong with An Tian? Tell me slowly, don't be anxious."

Tang Mingyue, Tang Liuli, and Wang Xinjing also turned their attention over to hear what was going on.

An Tian said in a panic, "Eldest Miss, news has just come from the Tiger Top Spirit Mine. When the miners of the Tang Trading Company were mining inside, they discovered a cultivator hiding in the depths of the Tiger Top Spirit Mine and healing his wounds. Sensing that this cultivator's strength was extraordinary, these workers politely invited him out of the Tang Trading Company's spirit mine. They didn't use violence or anything like that. They were quite polite."

"However, I didn't expect that he would still anger this healing cultivator. He brazenly killed everyone in our Tiger Top Spirit Mine and even said that he was Old Demon Flower Eater. He wanted to take revenge on our Tang Trading Company for disturbing him and destroyed the entire Tang Trading Company. Just now, news came from the cities around the Tiger Top Spirit Mine that the Tang Trading Company's businesses there had been destroyed by Old Demon Flower Eater."

"Moreover, I heard that the three young ladies of our Tang Trading Company are all extremely beautiful. They publicly announced that they would treat the three young ladies as human cauldrons and eat them after they are done harvesting..."

As soon as he finished speaking, Tang Yelan, Tang Mingyue, and the rest's expressions changed drastically. Zhu Wuwan's brows also furrowed slightly.

"Big Sis, if I remember correctly, Old Demon Flower Eater should be an expert at the peak of the consummate level of the Divinity Transformation Stage. It's said that he's the number one Semi-God Realm expert in the Eternal Empire. His combat power is beyond imagination, and he's done countless bad things in the Eternal Empire over the years. Many people said that the Emperor had once sent a giant to capture Old Demon Flower Eater, but all of them failed. If he really is targeting our Tang Trading Company, I'm afraid it'll be very difficult for us to protect it."

"I've heard of him as well. Many people say that he's the number one devil in the Eternal Empire and that he loves to pluck and nourish women. He's also extremely cruel and violent, which is why he's called Old Devil Flower Eater. Now that he's replaced us, what should we do?"

"Three young ladies, I think the most important thing now is to inform that hidden expert and ask him to think of a way to deal with Old Demon Flower Eater. Otherwise, our Tang Trading Company is no match for Old Demon Flower Eater at all. At that time, not only will the trading company be finished, but the entire Tang Family will also be finished. However, Old Demon Flower Eater is too cruel. Didn't he just ask him to leave our Tang Trading Company's spirit mine? He actually did such a vicious thing to our Tang Trading Company. He's really too much."

Looking at his sisters 'anxious and frightened expressions, Tang Yelan smiled bitterly and said, "" If he wasn't cruel, he wouldn't be Old Demon Flower Eater. Our Tang Trading Company is really unlucky to have accidentally offended such a demon. Old Demon Flower Eater is indeed as cruel and vicious as the rumors say. As for whether or not we should inform husband about this matter..."

Tang Yelan hesitated. Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli looked at each other and shook their heads together.

"Big sister, Old Demon Flower Eater is an invincible Soul Formation cultivator. How can husband deal with him? He's just an ordinary Soul Formation cultivator. It's best not to involve him in this matter. Otherwise, husband won't be able to stop Old Demon Flower Eater."

" That's what I mean too. Although husband is a Soul Formation Stage cultivator, he shouldn't be able to compare to the so-called number one Soul Formation Stage old demon, Flower Eater. Over the years, husband has already done too much for our Tang Trading Company and the Tang Family. We can't drag him down with us. "

Seeing how the three sisters were so considerate of him, Zhu Wuyang's eyes flickered. It seemed that he would have to show more strength this time.

Tang Yelan pondered for a moment. " Even so, I still have to inform my husband of this matter. Tell him to think of a way to leave this place so that he won't be targeted by the Flower Eater Old Demon. "

"Alright, we'll go back and leave a mark." Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli nodded.

"I'll go too," said Tang Yelan.

Looking at the few girls who left in a hurry, Zhu Wuwan was silent for a moment before disappearing from the Hundred Flowers Courtyard. In a few flashes, she had already left the Yinqing Imperial Capital and rushed towards the city where the old demon had last appeared.

With Zhu Wuyang's speed, it only took him about an hour to arrive at the Tang Trading Company branch in Tan City, which had just been destroyed by Old Demon Flower Eater.

Looking at the ruins of the Tang Trading Company and the corpses everywhere, and some of the female apprentices who had their most tender parts eaten, Zhu Wuwan's expression darkened.

Such a cruel and vicious cultivator was no match for the Eternal Empire's higher-ups.

Following the traces left behind at the scene, Zhu Wuwan used the high-grade Secret Skill of Heaven and Earth to chase after Old Demon Flower Eater.

At this moment, the Flower Eater Old Demon was indeed not far from here. He was only about ten thousand miles away. From the direction he was heading, it was obvious that he was preparing to head to the Changqing Empire to take revenge on the Tang Trading Company. Of course, there were also the three Tang sisters, who were also Zhu Wuyang's three fiancées.

A cold light flashed across Zhu Wuwan's face. His figure flickered as he blocked the old demon's path.

The Flower-Eating Old Demon was called Wei Shifei. He was short and fat, and his face was full of bumps. Because he was despised by women when he was young, he gradually developed the bad habit of picking flowers and eating people.

Wei Shifei's face was filled with disdain when he thought of the information he had learned about the Tang Family from the branch shopkeepers of the Tang Trading Company.

"It's just a trading company with only ordinary Divine Transformation Realm experts. Destroying it is as easy as lifting a finger. I can just destroy it on the way to the Yinqing Imperial City. It seems that I haven't killed anyone in half a year. It's time to satisfy my craving this time."

"I heard that the three sisters of the Tang family are all peerless beauties, and they are triplets. I haven't eaten them yet, so I wonder how they taste."

"In addition to the three sisters of the Tang family, this lord will also eat a few princesses of the imperial family this time. Only then will I be able to alleviate the hatred in my heart and let the Zhao imperial family know that this lord is not so easy to bully. Yi, who is that person in front? He still dares to block the path that this seat must pass through. He's really tired of living."

Chapter 780: Unable to Withstand a Single Blow (1)

Zhu Wuyang looked at the approaching Old Demon Flower Eater and was about to ask when he saw the old demon suddenly attack with a cruel expression.

He was sure that it was indeed Old Demon Flower Eater!

Facing Old Demon Flower Eater's claw attack, Zhu Wuyang didn't dodge or dodge. The aura on his body was calm, and Old Demon Flower Eater didn't sense it at all.

However, Old Demon Flower Eater only thought that Zhu Wuyang was better at hiding his aura. He did not think that Zhu Wuyang was a Fusion Heavenly Pillar that was far superior to his.

"Idiot, you still dare to fight head-on with me!" Old Demon Flower Eater sneered.

"Kacha kacha kacha..."

Their hands were clasped together like lovers, but what came out was not sweet words, but the ear-piercing sound of bones cracking.

"Ah..."

Old Demon Flower Eater looked at his right hand, which had turned into minced meat, and looked at Zhu Wuyang in disbelief. He turned around and wanted to escape.

"Kacha kacha kacha..."

However, with a series of bone cracking sounds, Old Demon Flower Eater didn't even know how Zhu Wuyang attacked. His other four limbs were broken and turned into a pile of meat paste.

Old Demon Flower Eater didn't care about the other limbs, but the one in the middle was related to his happiness in this life. Therefore, when he sensed that the middle limb was completely gone, he screamed in pain," Who are you? I won't let your family off. Just you wait! "

With a mournful roar, Flower Eater's body flashed and he disappeared.

Teleportation Talisman?

Zhu Wuan smiled. With a wave of his consciousness, he tracked down Old Demon Flower Eater's whereabouts. He used the teleportation technique, and after a few breaths, he appeared in front of Old Demon Flower Eater thousands of miles away.

Looking at Zhu Wuyang who had suddenly appeared, the Flower Eater Old Demon, who was about to find a place to hide his aura and heal his injuries, widened his eyes."You ... You're not a Void Refinement Realm giant, you ... You ... Are you the Fusion Heavenly Pillar?"

As it turned out, the old demon Flower Eater mistook Zhu Wuyang for a Void Refinement Realm giant who had come to hunt him down, which was why he dared to threaten him.

However, looking at Zhu Wuan who had teleported over, the old demon suddenly realized that he had guessed wrongly. The person blocking his way was not some ancient giant, but a Heavenly Pillar that could establish a sect and become a first-rate immortal sect.

If he had known Zhu Wuan's true strength, the Flower Eater Old Demon would never have threatened him. However, why would such a super big shot target him?

Old Demon Flower Eater was in despair. " Lord, you're the Body Integration Heavenly Pillar after all. Isn't it too much to deal with a Soul Formation Realm cultivator like me? When have I offended you? "

With death at hand, Old Demon Flower Eater stopped running and looked at Zhu Wuwan mournfully.

"Shouldn't a beast like you be punished by everyone?" "If I have to find a reason, didn't you give me the reason?" Zhu Wuwan sneered.

” When have I ever offended a Heavenly Pillar like you? ” Flower Eater’s expression turned ugly. ” I’m not stupid. Besides, I’ve never heard of the Eternal Empire having...”

At this point, Old Demon Flower Eater suddenly thought of something and looked at Zhu Wuyang in disbelief. “”You...Could you be the hidden expert behind the three sisters of the Tang family?”

“Good guess.” Zhu Wan’an was prepared to let Old Demon Flower Eater die with an explanation so that he would regret and suffer even more.

Old Demon Flower Eater looked as if he had been struck by lightning. He said in a flabbergasted manner,” How is this possible? How is this possible? Didn’t everyone say that the hidden expert was only a Soul Formation Stage cultivator? How could you be the Heavenly Pillar of the Form Synthesis Stage? ”

“How can they see through my strength? They’re just a bunch of ants.” Zhu Wuyang said with a smile.

Old Demon Flower Eater fell silent. He felt endless despair and regret surge into his heart. If he had known that the Tang Trading Company had such a big shot behind it, he would never have attacked the Tang Trading Company, much less publicly announce that he wanted to devour the three Tang sisters.

A single misstep could cause a thousand years of regret. Old Demon Flower Eater was so regretful that his intestines turned green. He suddenly knelt in front of Zhu Wuwan and said,”Lord, I know my mistake. As long as you let me go, I will be at your service in the future. You can do anything to me. As long as you leave me alive, I will do anything for you.”

“Moreover, this lowly one has accumulated quite a number of natural treasures, spirit pills, and the like over the years. I can give these to you. I only hope that you can leave one for this lowly one...”

“Bang...”

Before Old Demon Flower Eater could finish his sentence, Zhu Wuwan punched him in the head. Then, all the bones in his body shattered inch by inch. An unprecedented pain reverberated in Old Demon Flower Eater’s body, causing him to scream miserably.

Only after Old Demon Flower Eater had been tortured did Zhu Wuyang take his life and turn his soul into a Soul Lamp. He had to endure the pain of soul refinement day and night until Old Demon Flower Eater's lifespan was exhausted.

The Flower Eater Old Demon had killed too many people over the past few thousand years. Now, he had finally gotten what he deserved, not to mention that doing so would bring Zhu Wuyang an endless supply of breakthrough stones. Naturally, Zhu Wuyang would not let him off so easily.

He did not destroy Old Demon Flower Eater's corpse. Zhu Wuwan placed his corpse into his storage ring and rushed back to the Yinqing Imperial Capital.

The Flower-eating Old Demon, who was a natural disaster to others, and the heretic evil that had troubled the Eternal Empire for more than a thousand years, had been easily killed by Zhu Wuyang.

If the people of the Eternal Empire knew about this, it would certainly cause a great uproar. Countless people in the Eternal Empire would even hold a grand celebration to celebrate the death of the old demon.

The Flower-Eater Old Demons were truly too cruel and ruthless. They had killed countless innocent people in the Eternal Empire. The number probably exceeded hundreds of millions.

To put it bluntly, most of the people in the Eternal Empire had a grudge against the Flower-eating Old Demon. Otherwise, they wouldn't have been able to alert the ancient titans to take action personally.

However, neither the old demon nor the countless cultivators and ordinary people of the Eternal Empire had expected that an unexpected conflict would lead to the destruction of the old demon.

However, this seemed a little unexpected, but it was actually within reason. Even if he hadn't met Zhu Wuyang, with Old Demon Flower Eater's style of doing things, he would have offended other big shots sooner or later. What awaited him was death sooner or later. Of course, it was also possible that he would be lucky enough to die at the end of his life. Before that, he would be able to get away with it.

After more than an hour, Zhu Wuyang returned to the Yinqing Imperial Capital. At this moment, the Tang family was still on guard against a great enemy. Many of the higher-ups were in a constant state of panic. Some of the middle and low-level members had already packed their things and prepared to leave.

Chapter 781: The Desperate Tang Family (1)

" He's the number one Soul Formation cultivator in the Eternal Empire. Even the ancient titans can't do anything to him. The Tang family can actually fight him. We should hurry up and leave before it's too late. "

" Although the hidden master of the Tang family is also a Soul Formation Stage cultivator, how can he defeat the number one Soul Formation Stage cultivator in the Eternal Empire? Moreover, the hidden master of the Tang family has never openly said that he will protect the Tang family. Now that the Tang family has caused such a big trouble, that master will definitely ignore us. "

" You're right. All these years, it has been that hidden expert who has been helping our Tang family. Our Tang family has been unable to provide any help to that person. We haven't even married that hidden expert, so how could he possibly fight against the number one Semi-God Realm expert in the Eternal Realm, the Flower-Eating Old Demon, for us? "

"That hidden expert has already done his best for our Tang family and the Tang Trading Company. All these years, he has basically been helping us, and our Tang family has never helped him. It's normal for him to leave now. What right do we have to force him to help us?"

Most members of the Tang Family didn't think highly of the Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company. The Flower-Eating Old Demon's notoriety was too great. He was the number one Soul Formation cultivator in the Eternal Empire, and no Soul Formation cultivator would dare to compete with him.

The hidden master of the Tang family was only a great cultivator at the Soul Formation Realm. At least, that was what everyone thought. No one thought that the hidden master would be an ancient giant at the Void Training Realm, because that was too far-fetched.

It was already a great fortune for the Tang family that a Soul Formation cultivator had taken a fancy to them, let alone a powerhouse at the Void Training Stage. As for the Heavenly Pillar of Fusion, no one in the Eternal Empire had ever thought of it, let alone the Tang family and the Tang Trading Company.

If the Tang family really had the support of the Integration Heavenly Pillar, they would be able to become a first-class immortal sect family in the Dongyuan Continent in a matter of minutes. How could they still be holed up in this small Yin Qing Emperor's business?

With the strength and influence of the Integration Pillar, he could easily occupy an empire ten times larger than the Eternal Empire, let alone the Eternal Empire. With supreme authority and status, there was no need for him to stay here.

Fortunately, the Tang family was quite reasonable. They knew that Zhu Wuwan had helped them out in this matter, and even if she didn't help them, the Tang family should be grateful. If the hidden expert was dragged down because of this matter, the Tang family and the Tang Trading Company would feel bad.

His three views were quite upright, which made Zhu Wanhao's attitude towards the Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company even better. If there was an opportunity in the future, he could move the Tang Family's Tang Trading Company to the Great Zhu Immortal Dynasty in the Southern Wilderness or establish a force in the Central Plains with the Tang Family as the center. The Tang Family's potential was not bad.

However, when she thought about her own growth speed and the Tang family's current situation, Zhu Wuwan felt that she had to reconsider. The Tang family still had too few experts and could not support a large immortal sect.

In just one day, a small portion of the Tang family's servants with foreign surnames had left. The Tang family did not force them to stay, and even deliberately let them go.

Under such circumstances, more than half of the servants were left behind temporarily. It could be seen that the Tang family had won the hearts of the people. Many servants secretly cursed at the old demon before leaving. Unless they had no choice, they did not want to leave the Tang family.

Looking at the chaotic Tang family, Zhu Wuwan smiled and returned to his residence. He quickly sensed that the three sisters of the Tang family had set up contact marks and asked him to meet them at night. This was the first time the three sisters had contacted him at the same time on the same night.

In the past, the three sisters of the Tang family had always contacted Zhu Wanhao separately to answer their questions. Among them, Tang Liuli had the most questions, and Zhu Wanhao was also the most concerned about her. He often helped her check her body, urged her on her cultivation, and also did more practice and exercise. No, it should be more small-scale actual combat practice.

After the lively and cute sister-in-law had tried the benefits of actual combat a few times, she began to learn from him. She often looked for all kinds of difficult and miscellaneous diseases to ask Zhu Wuyang for advice.

Tang Mingyue was the second most frequent. Knowing Tang Mingyue's personality, Zhu Wuwan would bring her to the sky for actual combat every time. She would bathe in the starry sky and moonlight, making Tang Mingyue feel like she was in a dream. She was so romantic that she could not help herself.

Therefore, once she read a good work, Tang Mingyue's poetic and lyric emotions would explode and she would call out to Zhu Wuyang.

As for Tang Yelan, he had the least number of times. After all, he could only look at it but not eat it. Zhu Wuwan was also uncomfortable, and so was Tang Yelan.

However, under Zhu Wuan's supervision, Tang Yelan's cultivation speed was very fast. Once he took away Tang Yelan's Nine Yin Profound Accumulations, he would no longer have to be like this in the future.

The three sisters of the Tang family gradually formed a tacit understanding. They took turns calling out to Zhu Wuyang to answer their questions and carry out actual combat practice. Zhu Wuyang had always been thinking about when they would be able to fight together, but she didn't expect the opportunity to come so quickly. Old Demon Flower Eater could be considered to have died in a worthy manner.

No, to be precise, Old Demon Flower Eater wasn't dead yet. His soul was still alive, although he had already turned into a candle.

Sensing the call, Zhu Wuwan naturally wouldn't ignore the beauty. She was already prepared to properly answer questions for Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli at night. At the same time, she would leave a deeper impression on them through actual combat drills so that they could learn well.

Time passed very slowly while they waited. Be it for Zhu Wuwan or the three sisters of the Tang family, more servants and servants of the Tang family had left.

As for the Tang Trading Company, there was no need to mention it. Many people with other surnames left one after another, and their numbers far exceeded the Tang Family's servants and servants.

The Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company, which had been thriving, seemed to have encountered an extremely cold winter. They instantly became cold and desolate. Many forces that were originally on good terms with the Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company immediately distanced themselves from the Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company. They were afraid that the Flower Eater Old Demon would take revenge on the Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company along with them. If that happened, it would be too unjust.

The Tang family and the Tang Trading Company seemed to have suddenly become rats crossing the street. They were despised by the surrounding forces and families, and fell into a state of isolation and helplessness.

The infamy of the Old Demon Flower Eater could be seen from this. Just his words had caused the Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company, which had the support of a Soul Formation Stage cultivator, to become like this. If it were any other family or force without a Soul Formation Stage cultivator, they would definitely be in an even worse state.

Not only that, but most of the Tang family's higher-ups were also preparing for a way out. They were already prepared for the destruction of the Tang family and the Tang Trading Company, but before that, they had to leave a root for the Tang family.

They could die, but the Tang family could not be destroyed.

Chapter 782: Husband, Run!(1)

The Tang family was quite efficient. On the first day the news came, the higher-ups of the Tang family had already drawn up a preliminary list of seeds. After tomorrow's confirmation, they would let these seeds quietly leave the Yinqing capital and escape to all directions to leave a batch of seeds for the Tang family.

That night, Zhu Wuwan, who had received the summons from the three sisters of the Tang family, brought Tang Yelan and Tang Mingyue to her sister-in-law, Tang Liuli's room. She was prepared to answer their questions together and practice with them. Of course, Tang Yelan's actual combat was limited to harassment battles.

" Husband, have you heard about what happened to the Tang family? Because of the Tigerhead spirit mine, we accidentally offended the number one villain of the Eternal Empire, Old Demon Flower Eater. Now, he's saying that he wants to destroy the entire Tang family and the Tang Trading Company. You'd better leave the Tang family and hide as soon as possible, or Old Demon Flower Eater will also target you. "

" We don't expect husband to help us deal with Old Demon Flower Eater. I hope that husband can lend a helping hand to the Tang family's descendants in the future and leave some roots for our Tang family. We will be satisfied then. "

" Husband, I will go with you. The two sisters will have to stay here. When I become a giant of the ancient times, it will be the death of the old demon. At that time, even if I have to go to hell, I will find the old demon and burn his bones to ashes. "

The three sisters of the Tang family had never thought of relying on Zhu Wanhao to deal with the old demon. After all, the old demon was too infamous. He was the number one Semi-God Realm warrior in the Eternal Empire. How could her husband deal with him?

Therefore, the three sisters of the Tang family had the intention of persuading Zhu Wanhao to leave and only let Tang Liuli escape from this place alone. After all, Tang Liuli's talent was the best, at least in the eyes of the three sisters.

They didn't know that Tang Yelan's innate talent was actually the best. It was just that he hadn't fully revealed his innate talent yet. If he were to fully reveal his innate talent, it would definitely shake the world.

It was just that at that time, even Zhu Wuyan would find it hard to protect Tang Yelan. Hence, Zhu Wuyan had to take away Tang Yelan's Nine Yin Profound Connotation as soon as possible. This was the best way to protect Tang Yelan.

Looking at the anxious and concerned expressions of the three sisters, Zhu Wuwan smiled and suppressed them. "We'll talk about this after we're done with the actual battle."

The three Tang sisters were speechless and embarrassed. After all, the three sisters were in the same room. How could they do this during a combat drill?

However, thinking that everyone was not far from death, she decided to satisfy her husband's request and began to fight.

Zhu Wuyan's spear was like a dragon, piercing straight into the enemy's deepest part. Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli were struggling to defend themselves while Tang Yelan was cheering them on from the side, allowing his two younger sisters to hold on for a little longer.

Apart from that, Tang Yelan had also mobilized his harassment army, hoping to defeat Zhu Wuyang as soon as possible. However, how could the battle-seasoned Zhu Wuyang lose so easily?

Zhu Wuwan charged left and right, soaring into the sky and into the earth, coming and going, and sweeping across everything. He killed Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli until they were forced back step by step. They almost had no strength to fight back, and finally fell to the ground and let themselves be trampled on.

After this battle drill, Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli once again realized how powerful Zhu Wuyang was. They decided to cultivate hard in the future so that they could deal with Zhu Wuyang's bombardment. At least, they had to endure for a while longer.

At this moment, Tang Yelan had collapsed to the ground from exhaustion. After all, harassment battles were also very tiring, especially in a harassment battle where there was no direct confrontation.

However, what surprised Zhu Wanhao was that after Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli rested for a while and recovered, they actually provoked him again, especially Tang Liuli. He didn't know if she wanted to take this opportunity to leave a seed, but she was a little mischievous.

Since the two sisters wanted to continue their combat practice, Zhu Wuwan naturally sacrificed her life to accompany them so that they could master more techniques and secret arts. She used 360 types of secret arts of heaven and earth to teach Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli from different angles and directions.

"Heavenly Lightning Earthen Fire!"

"The roots of an old tree!"

"Strong waist lock!"

"One day!"

Zhu Wuwan used all kinds of secret techniques, spells, and immortal martial arts of heaven and earth. Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli did not want to be outdone and also used some secret techniques and spells to deal with it.

"Flying together!"

"Guanyin Seated Lotus!"

"Attack from both sides!"

Under Zhu Wuwan's meticulous guidance, the three sisters of the Tang family had all received considerable benefits. Of course, Tang Yelan had received the least benefits. Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli had already endured it and needed to slowly digest it.

All the difficult and miscellaneous diseases had also been solved by Zhu Wuwan, which made the three sisters of the Tang family come to a sudden realization and have more insights about their future cultivation.

Looking at the three Tang sisters who were lying on the bed and unable to move, it was obvious that they were exhausted from the actual combat exercise. Zhu Wuwan also lay beside them to comfort them and explained their future cultivation and various secret techniques to them.

After the official business was done, the three sisters of the Tang family talked about escaping from the Yinqing Imperial Capital.

“Husband, have you considered what we said before? Now that the old demon Flower Eater has set his eyes on the Tang family, he has even said that he wants to deal with the three of us. Under such circumstances, we don’t dare to run away. Otherwise, I’m afraid none of us will be able to escape. Only Ming Yue and I can stay behind and let my little sister escape. That way, one of us might be able to survive, and many disciples of the Tang family will be able to survive.”

“Don’t be sad. It’s only a matter of time before people part. Husband, don’t think about showing off. In the future, just help us take care of our little sister. I hope that this time, our little sister can keep your children. As for our Tang family, it’ll be fine as long as we can keep some of the seeds this time.”

“Husband, don’t feel bad. You can’t be blamed for this. It’s all our Tang Family’s bad luck. If you can break through to the Void Training Stage one day, it won’t be too late to deal with the Flower Eater Old Demon. Or, you can wait for me to break through to the Void Training Stage. Don’t be impulsive now. You still have to help our Tang Family leave some roots.”

As they were worried that Zhu Wuwan would act impulsively, the three sisters of the Tang family persuaded Zhu Wuwan together, hoping that he could escape from the Yinqing Imperial Capital as soon as possible tomorrow and not stay here. It would be best if he went far away, lest he was caught by the Old Demon Flower Eater and chased after. They didn’t even want him to care about the seeds of the Tang family and Tang Liuli.

It wouldn’t be too late to take care of Tang Liuli and the other descendants of the Tang family after confirming their safety. The three Tang sisters were also worried that the Old Demon Flower Eater might have mastered some secret techniques and spells that could trace bloodlines.

At that time, if Zhu Wuwan protected Tang Liuli and the Tang family’s disciples and escaped, wouldn’t they be hunted down very quickly?

Chapter 783: I’ve Already Killed Him (1)

Zhu Wuwan felt warm in her heart towards the three sisters’ kindness.

If it were any other person, they would probably only want Zhu Wuyang to fight against the Flower Eater Old Demon. After confirming that Zhu Wuyang was no match for him, they would talk about other things. At the very least, they would want Zhu Wuyang to leave some seeds for the Tang family.

He thought about how many women on Earth wanted to take out all their men's assets before they even got married. When they really did, they ran away.

The three sisters of the Tang family were truly thinking for their husband, and not those greedy and selfish women.

A friend in need is a friend indeed. Only when they encounter such a crisis can they truly see the character of the three sisters of the Tang family.

Zhu Wuan had not misjudged her, and her help over the years had not been in vain. At least, not only did the three sisters of the Tang family remember her kindness, but the entire Tang family did as well.

No one whined for Zhu Wuyang to take the lead. In their opinion, Zhu Wuyang did not have the obligation to do so, and she should not have done so.

Holding the shoulders of the three Tang sisters, Zhu Wuwan lay on the bed and said with a smile, "I understand what you mean, but there's no need to say anything else. I've already resolved this matter."

Solved?

The three sisters of the Tang family were a little stunned. They turned their heads to look at Zhu Wuwan together, not understanding what he meant.

"Husband, could it be that you know Old Demon Flower Eater, so you asked him not to find trouble with our Tang family. Has Old Demon Flower Eater already agreed?"

"How could husband know Old Demon Flower Eater? He must have used some kind of transaction to make Old Demon Flower Eater not pursue this matter. I wonder what husband gave him. Our Tang family will do our best to make up for it."

"Old Devil Flower Eater is notorious for his viciousness and extreme greed. He isn't that easy to deal with. Did husband promise him something? Otherwise, how could he let this matter go so easily?"

Looking at the worried faces of the three Tang sisters, Zhu Wuwan smiled and kissed them. "What are you all thinking about? When Old Demon Flower Eater announced that he was going to deal with the Tang family, I wasn't far away, so I went over and killed him. Tomorrow, you can hang his corpse on the door of the Tang family mansion and announce this matter. I believe it will bring the Tang family a lot of benefits.”

“Ah...” Zhu Wuan’s words made the three Tang sisters cry out in surprise. They looked at Zhu Wuan in disbelief, almost unable to believe their ears.

After some time, Tang Yelan stuttered, “”Husband ... Husband, you...You didn’t lie to us, did you really kill him? Is he really dead now?”

” Husband, Old Demon Flower Eater is the number one Soul Formation cultivator in the Eternal Empire. You’re also a Soul Formation grand cultivator. How can you deal with him? ” Tang Mingyue’s delicate face was also filled with disbelief.

Tang Liuli shook her little head. ” Impossible. Old Demon Flower Eater is especially terrifying. It’s said that even the ancient giants couldn’t do anything to him. He escaped many times, and Old Demon Flower Eater even took revenge. The ancient giants couldn’t do anything about it. My husband is only a Soul Formation cultivator. Could he be more powerful than a primordial giant and be able to kill Old Demon Flower Eater?”

Looking at the three sisters ‘incredulous expressions, Zhu Wuwan smiled and took out a human soul candle. “”Look who’s inside.”

“Ah...”

The soul that had been lit up like a candle kept screaming. Other than that, it could not make any other sound. From the fluctuations of the soul, the other party’s strength was extremely terrifying, far exceeding the imagination of the three sisters of the Tang family.

However, the three sisters of the Tang family were still stunned. It was obvious that they did not recognize the soul in the candle.

“He ... Is he the Flower Eater Old Demon?”

“Husband wouldn’t lie to us, right?”

Looking at the three sisters ‘confused expressions, Zhu Wuwan smiled and shook her head. “”If you don’t know him, there will naturally be people who know him. Tomorrow, just hang his corpse in front of the Tang family mansion and spread the news that Old Demon Flower Eater has been killed. At that time, there will naturally be people who will help you confirm the authenticity.”

“This is the Silvergreen Imperial Capital. There are many people who have chased after Old Demon Flower Eater. When they come to take a look, you will know whether this is Old Demon Flower Eater or not.”

“He really is the Flower Eater Old Demon!” Seeing how certain Zhu Wuwan was, Tang Yelan was the first to believe it. He stared at the human soul candle in bewilderment, almost thinking that he was dreaming.

Tang Mingyue was so excited that tears were streaming down her face.”If that’s really the case, doesn’t that mean that we don’t have to wait for death, and those seeds of the Tang family don’t have to escape? We can still live peacefully in the future.”

” My husband is too amazing. I like you so much. ” Tang Liu pounced on Zhu Wuwan and started to move.

Zhu Wanhao smiled and continued to practice with Tang Liuli. Tang Mingyue soon joined in, and even Tang Yelan was excited to join in. However, Zhu Wanhao rejected him with difficulty. He was still hoping to advance to the Mahayana Stage with the Nine Yin Profound Accumulations.

The artillery fire rumbled and did not stop throughout the night.

The three Tang sisters had never imagined that the Old Demon Flower Eater, who had made the entire Tang family feel as if they were facing a great enemy and was on the verge of destruction, and who had caused unrest in the Eternal Empire, would die at the hands of Zhu Wuyang.

If that was the case, didn’t it mean that Zhu Wuyang had replaced Old Demon Flower Eater’s position and become the number one Semi-God Realm warrior in the Eternal Empire? Moreover, it was very likely that even a Void Training Stage ancient giant couldn’t do anything to Zhu Wuyang.

The three sisters of the Tang family had never thought that Zhu Wuwan was also a Void Training Stage powerhouse. After all, this was too unbelievable and had already exceeded their imagination. As for being higher, it was needless to say.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyang was indeed not a powerhouse at the Void Training Stage!

Because they were busy with the actual combat drill, the three sisters of the Tang family had forgotten to inform the higher-ups of the Tang family about this matter in time. Therefore, at this moment, the higher-ups of the Tang family were still in a mess. They were busy packing up their things so that the seeds could be taken away when they escaped, leaving a root for the Tang family.

As for the Tang family's upper echelon, they were prepared to stay behind and fight to the death with the old demon. At the same time, they were stalling for time so that the Tang family's seeds could escape further.

As for escaping, many of the Tang clan's higher-ups had never thought about it. After all, if the Flower Eater Old Demon did not kill enough people in the Tang clan, he would definitely not let the matter rest.

Since the old demon had publicly declared that he would destroy the entire Tang family, it would be very difficult for the Tang family to escape. The Tang family had no confidence in escaping from this old demon, who was known as the number one Semi-God Realm expert in the Eternal Empire. They would be satisfied if they could leave some seeds behind.

He hoped that after killing enough Tang clansmen, he would spare the small group of Tang clansmen who had fled in all directions, giving the Tang clan hope of a comeback.

Chapter 784: Family Head, Don't Joke (1)

The higher-ups of the Tang family were all nervous, and the families and forces related to the Tang family were all thinking of ways to distance themselves from them. Only the three Tang sisters knew about the death of the Old Demon Flower Eater and were relieved to practice with Zhu Wuwan.

The night passed quickly. Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli were too focused and devoted to the task, so they were too tired to get up. It would take at least a few days for them to return to normal.

Only Tang Yelan was considered normal. At least, he could handle some of the matters that happened in the family. Therefore, she gathered all the higher-ups of the Tang family in the banquet hall.

"Head Shopkeeper, is there any urgent matter that you have gathered us so early? Could it be that Old Demon Flower Eater has already arrived, or is it that... That hidden expert has already left."

"If we leave, then so be it. We owe that person too much. Now that we're facing a villain like Old Demon Flower Eater, it's normal for that lord to leave. We shouldn't harbor any resentment."

"Even the families and forces that have been with our Tang family for more than a hundred years are busy cutting ties with our Tang family, not to mention how long that lord has known our Tang family and has always been helping our Tang family. Isn't it normal for that lord to leave?"

“Sigh, as long as that lord can take care of the Tang clan disciples outside in the future, then we can die in peace. I hope so.”

The Tang family’s higher-ups thought that Tang Yelan had called them for a meeting early in the morning because he must have bad news. They never thought that there would be any good news.

The Flower Eater Old Demon’s reputation was too great, and he was also an invincible Soul Formation cultivator. Even ancient giants couldn’t do anything to him, let alone a Soul Formation cultivator.

They hadn’t considered the possibility that something had happened to the old demon. They had thought that the hidden master had probably left a message and left the Tang family and the Yinqing capital.

After all, a Soul Formation cultivator was so powerful that it would only take a few minutes for him to leave the Yinjin Imperial Capital. Even Old Demon Flower Eater would find it difficult to chase after a Soul Formation cultivator who was fleeing at full speed.

Looking at the depressed faces of the higher-ups, Tang Yelan said, “” That’s right. That lord did come to look for us last night. ”

“Sigh...” Hearing Tang Yelan’s affirmative answer, the higher-ups of the Tang family could not help but sigh even though they were mentally prepared. After all, this meant that the hidden master had already laid his cards on the table with the three sisters of the Tang family and left the Tang family and Yinqing Imperial Capital.

Although they had already thought of this possibility and confirmed this matter, hearing the affirmative answer, the Tang family’s higher-ups still felt quite uncomfortable and could not help but comfort themselves.

” Isn’t this normal? That hidden expert doesn’t owe us anything. It’s us who owe him. It’s normal for that hidden expert to leave. Don’t be too depressed. ”

” That’s right, that’s right. This has already been confirmed. There’s no need for us to think too much about it. Everyone, just prepare for the battle and wait for the battle to the death with Old Demon Flower Eater. ”

“Don’t think too much about it. That hidden expert has done too much for our Tang Family. If it wasn’t for him, our Tang Family would have been finished long ago. It’s already good enough that we can hold on until now. We should be satisfied.”

“Quickly arrange for the seeds of the clan to leave the Yinqing Imperial Capital as soon as possible. We’ll set off today, in case the old demon Flower Eater comes. We can’t waste any more time.”

Looking at the despondent and despairing faces of the clan’s higher-ups, Tang Yelan suddenly smiled and shook his head, “” Everyone, you’ve misunderstood. In fact, that lord didn’t say that he wanted to abandon our Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company last night. ”

“Ah...” A group of Tang Clan higher-ups exclaimed, but they were not surprised. Instead, they tried to persuade them.

” But that lord is also a Soul Formation Stage cultivator. According to King Thunderclap, that lord’s strength is only around the Soul Formation Initial Stage and Soul Formation Intermediate Stage. How can he be a match for the Flower Eating Old Demon? ”

“Rather than dying in the hands of the Flower Eater Old Demon, it’s better to live as long as there’s life. As long as that lord can help the Tang family’s people who escaped in the future, that would be good enough. It’s better not to stay here and wait for death.”

“That’s right. Clan Head, please persuade that lord. Now is not the time to act on impulse. Old Demon Flower Eater is too powerful and extremely cruel. That lord can’t resist him at all. It’s better to leave as soon as possible.”

” We are already very satisfied that the lord has done this for our Tang clan. We are even terrified. Let the lord leave quickly. ”

Seeing that it was about time, Tang Yelan did not keep them in suspense any longer. He smiled and said, “”You don’t have to worry. Actually, that lord came to look for us last night mainly to tell us a piece of news.”

“That is...Old Demon Flower Eater has already been killed by him. Our Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company are safe now.”

As soon as he finished speaking, the entire hall fell silent. Everyone looked at Tang Yelan in disbelief, almost unable to believe their ears.

After a long time, some of the Tang family’s higher-ups laughed dryly.

“What are you talking about, Head Shopkeeper? Old Demon Flower Eater is an invincible Soul Formation cultivator. Although that lord is also a Soul Formation cultivator, he can't possibly kill an invincible Soul Formation cultivator. Moreover, it's only been a short time."

"It's already come to this. Family Head, stop joking with us. We should discuss how to better preserve the seeds of our Tang family so that they can safely escape from the Yinqing capital and the pursuit of the old demon. It's better not to think about those Arabian Nights things. It's simply unrealistic."

"Old Devil Flower Eater dared to offend a Void Training Stage ancient giant and even hunted down his family members. Even if the Void Training Stage ancient giant were to fly into a rage, he wouldn't be able to do anything to him. That lord is only a Soul Formation Stage cultivator, not even a Void Training Stage ancient giant. How could he possibly kill Old Devil Flower Eater? Patriarch, don't tease us."

"The news that Old Demon Flower Eater wants to exterminate our Tang Family and the Tang Trading Company has just spread. It's very, very difficult to even find traces of Old Demon Flower Eater in this short period of time, let alone kill him. That hidden expert must be joking with the family head, or the family head is joking with us."

Clearly, the Tang clan's upper echelons didn't believe Tang Yelan's words. After all, the Flower-eating Old Demon was an invincible Soul Formation cultivator. The Eternal Empire had been unable to do anything to him for so many years, and he had killed countless people.

Even the Eternal Empire couldn't deal with the Old Devil, so how could that hidden expert deal with him? Could that hidden expert be an ancient titan, and a relatively powerful one at that?

What a joke. How could such a big shot take a fancy to the Tang family, the Tang Trading Company, or the three Tang sisters?

Chapter 785: Shock (1)

Tang Yelan smiled when he saw that the higher-ups of the Tang Family did not believe him.

To be honest, even Tang Yelan himself did not believe it when he first found out about it. If Zhu Wuan had not taken out the Flower Eater Old Demon's soul lamp and corpse, the three Tang sisters would have thought that Zhu Wuan was lying.

Therefore, Tang Yelan was not surprised by the Tang Family's higher-ups' reaction. He smiled and took out a candle made of three souls and seven spirits. He placed it on the table beside him and said, "What do you think this is?"

“Eh...”

Looking at the souls that had been refined into candles and had to endure the pain day and night, the higher-ups of the Tang family were stunned. An unbelievable thought rose in their hearts.

A group of higher-ups of the Tang clan had gathered, staring at the pained Old Demon Flower Eater in astonishment.

“This ... I couldn't tell who he was with his twisted face, but his soul is so strong that it far surpasses ours. I'm afraid he's at least at the Nascent Soul stage, or even at the Soul Formation stage.”

“Could it be... Could it be that he really is the Flower Eater Old Demon? That hidden lord didn't lie to us. It's very likely that he's the Flower Eater Old Demon who possesses such a powerful aura.”

” Making souls into candles. That lord is really ruthless. But if this guy is really the Flower Eater Old Demon, using such a method to deal with him isn't ruthless at all. ”

” It's a little hard to believe. Are you sure he's really the Flower-Eating Old Demon? ”

Even though they could sense the power of the soul in front of them, the group of higher-ups of the Tang family still could not believe it.

After all, as the number of people he had killed in the Eternal Empire increased over the years, he had gradually become synonymous with the Eternal Empire's 'evil'.

After the few ancient titans failed to capture Old Demon Flower Eater, his fame grew even more. He was on the verge of becoming the number one Demon of the Eternal Empire. In other words, he could already be considered the number one Demon of the Eternal Empire.

Not only was he the First Fiend, but he was also an unkillable cockroach. The fact that so many powerful figures of the Eternal Empire had failed to capture him showed how powerful he was at escaping. He was also an invincible Divine Transformation Realm cultivator.

Was he really going to be lit like a candle?

The higher-ups of the Tang clan were still in disbelief. They circled around Old Demon Flower Eater's soul lamp, unable to believe it.

Tang Yelan smiled and threw the corpse of the Old Demon Flower Eater to the side.

Seeing the corpse on the ground, the group of Tang family higher-ups were stunned for a moment before they cried out in surprise.

“This ... I’ve seen him many times on the notice. He really does look like this, there’s no mistake.”

“Could it be that someone is pretending? Let me check carefully...That’s right, he should be Old Demon Flower Eater. He didn’t show any signs of disguise. Could it be that the hidden lord really killed Old Demon Flower Eater?”

“He looks exactly like Old Demon Flower Eater. If you look closely, you can see that his soul looks very similar to Old Demon Flower Eater. There should be no mistake. He’s probably really Old Demon Flower Eater.”

“No way, no way. Did the old demon really get killed by the hidden lord protecting our Tang family? No, he should have been captured alive and even made into a soul lamp. It’s a little unbelievable.”

A group of higher-ups of the Tang family circled around the corpse and the soul lamp. After walking around countless times, they finally confirmed this matter.

” That lord is too powerful. Even the peerless Divine Transformation Realm old devil, Flower Eater, is no match for him. How powerful is that lord? Could it be that he has already stepped into the Void Training Stage and become an ancient giant? Just thinking about it is terrifying. ”

“That’s possible. However, we can’t rule out the possibility that that lord used some special methods to kill the old demon, such as a Spiritual Array, poison, sneak attack, assassination, etc. However, to be able to kill Old Demon Flower Eater, that lord’s strength is definitely extraordinary. Even if he can’t reach the invincible Divine Transformation Realm, he shouldn’t be too far off.”

“Head Shopkeeper, when you saw that lord last night, was he busy? I’m afraid it won’t be that easy to kill an invincible Soul Formation cultivator like the Old Demon Flower Eater.”

“With that lord’s strength, it would be easy for him to hide his injuries. The clan head might not be able to see anything, but there should still be some abnormalities.”

Looking at the worried faces of the higher-ups of the family, Tang Yelan thought back to how Zhu Wuwan had fought in all directions last night and killed Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli until they threw away their helmets and armor, covered their heads and ran away like rats with tears streaming down their faces. Tang Yelan's little face turned slightly red as he said, "" It's a little abnormal, but it shouldn't be a big deal. That lord is also an invincible cultivator in the Divinity Transformation Stage, and he has mastered quite a powerful assassination technique. "

This was what Zhu Wuwan had vaguely revealed last night. It could be considered as an explanation, and indeed, the higher-ups of the Tang family believed it.

" I told you that he must have used some special method to kill a great devil like Old Devil Flower Eater. It seems like it's true. "

" But that's already very impressive. It's not like there haven't been any Soul Formation cultivators who have tried to assassinate him in the Eternal Empire over the years. Even a Void Training Stage ancient giant has tried to assassinate him, but he still ended up empty-handed. That shows how extraordinary his strength is. "

"That's right. Being able to assassinate the old demon is already very strong. If it were any other cultivator, they wouldn't even be able to assassinate him. It seems that the hidden lord's strength is far beyond our expectations."

"Our Tang family is finally saved. We don't have to run away anymore. After this matter is over, we must think of a way to thank that lord. The master and the two young ladies must serve and take good care of this lord."

That lord has saved our Tang clan once again. I wonder when he will be able to repay such kindness."

The higher-ups of the Tang family were excited and happy, and indescribable gratitude leaped into their hearts, making them almost unable to control themselves.

After an unknown amount of time, the Tang clan upper echelon finally remembered the important matter. They hurriedly took the Flower Eater Old Demon's soul lamp and corpse and hurried to the main entrance of the Tang clan mansion.

A group of Tang clan higher-ups quickly hung Old Demon Flower Eater's soul lamp and corpse on the main gate of the mansion. They also announced to everyone in the Tang clan and the trading company that Old Demon Flower Eater had been captured alive by the Tang clan's guardian. He had now become a soul lamp and corpse, suffering day and night.

However, the many members of the Tang family and the trading company who received the news did not believe it. Instead, they felt that the higher-ups of the Tang family were indulging in wishful thinking.

Chapter 786: A Sensation in the Imperial Capital (1)

As soon as they heard the news, many people gathered in front of the Tang clan's mansion, looking at the soul lamp and the corpse of the old demon and discussing it endlessly.

"Really? Did the Tang family really kill Old Demon Flower Eater? Why does it feel like it's a fantasy? The Tang family is just a medium-sized trading company. How can they deal with the world-famous Old Demon Flower Eater?"

"I've seen Old Demon Flower Eater's wanted poster. The corpse hanging on it does look like Old Demon Flower Eater, but this doesn't prove that the corpse is Old Demon Flower Eater's. After all, there are too many ways to disguise oneself in the cultivation world."

"The corpse might be a disguise, but what about the soul lamp? Everyone's soul lamp is different. The aura of this soul lamp is so terrifying. It can be seen that its owner is not an ordinary person. He must be at least a Soul Formation Realm cultivator."

"Is the expert hiding behind the Tang clan so strong? He can even kill the old demon Flower Eater. Is this true?"

Some people from the Tang family and the surrounding forces were in disbelief. While they were discussing, some Nascent Soul and Soul Formation clans also received the news. Some Nascent Soul old monsters and Soul Formation cultivators came to take a look curiously.

When they had first received the news, they had thought that the Tang clan was playing to the gallery. If the Flower-eating Old Demon had been so easily killed, the Eternal Empire wouldn't have been so helpless after so many years.

However, when they thought of the Soul Formation Realm cultivator behind the Tang family, some high-level cultivators couldn't help but come over to take a look. Then, they sensed the powerful and terrifying soul of the old demon. It was definitely something that only Soul Formation Realm cultivators could possess, and it was far superior to ordinary Soul Formation Realm cultivators.

As a result, some people began to believe it. More and more people began to gather in front of the Tang family mansion. There was no lack of Soul Formation cultivators among them. Even an ancient giant was alarmed.

"The Tang family is not bad. This is indeed the corpse and soul of the old demon Flower Eater!"

After an hour of careful observation, the Void Training Stage ancient giant who had once fought with the Old Demon Flower Eater gave a definite answer, which immediately shocked the crowd of onlookers.

"This ... This is actually true, the Tang clan really killed Old Demon Flower Eater. This is too inconceivable. Is that hidden lord of the Tang clan really that powerful? Even Old Demon Flower Eater was killed by him."

"Unbelievable! Old Demon Flower Eater actually died at the hands of the unknown Tang clan. This is actually true. How powerful must the hidden Soul Formation cultivator behind the Tang clan be? Could he also be an invincible Soul Formation cultivator and have mastered a special mystic technique? Otherwise, how could he have killed Old Demon Flower Eater?"

"Even the ancient giants couldn't do anything to Old Demon Flower Eater, and he kept escaping. How powerful must the hidden expert of the Tang family be? I didn't think that such an expert would actually take a fancy to the Tang family. The Tang family's luck is too good."

"I thought the Tang clan was finished. I didn't expect that the Flower-eating Old Demon would be killed by the Tang clan in such a short time. It seems that the Eternal Empire is about to rise to become a top-notch clan. It might even have the possibility of ascending to the throne and becoming a new king with a different surname."

In the face of this shocking news, the outside of the Tang family mansion fell into jubilation. Many people and forces could not help but go to take firecrackers and celebrate outside the Tang family mansion.

Since even the ancient tycoon had said that he was right, then the corpse and the Soul Lamp were definitely right. The Flower-Eating Demon, who had wreaked havoc in the Eternal Empire for more than a thousand years, was finally dead.

The news of the Tang clan killing the Flower-eating Demon spread throughout the entire Yinqing Empire at an astonishing speed. After confirming the authenticity of the news, more and more residents of the Yinqing Empire rushed to the Tang clan's residence, wanting to personally witness the death of the number one Demon of the Eternal Empire.

Over the years, the Flower Eater had killed too many people in the Eternal Empire. In order to cultivate demonic arts, the Flower Eater Demon had killed hundreds of millions of Eternal Empire residents. Almost all of the Eternal Empire's residents had a grudge against the Flower Eater, and many of them were mortal enemies.

But even so, the residents of the Eternal Empire could only cry out helplessly in the face of this old demon who was almost impossible to catch and kill. They secretly prayed that the heavens would have eyes one day and kill this hateful beast.

However, most of them knew that this was just an extravagant hope. Old Demon Flower Eater was so powerful and his ability to escape was beyond imagination. How could he be killed so easily? Therefore, their prayers could only be prayers.

However, just as everyone had given up on this hope, they suddenly received news that Old Demon Flower Eater had been killed by someone, and it was a medium-sized faction. This was especially so since this matter had already obtained the approval of the ancient giants.

The Yingqing Imperial Capital was immediately in an uproar. Countless people flocked over to see the suffering of the old demon. After confirming this, many people cried tears of joy. They set off fireworks around the old demon's corpse and soul lamp.

Some of the more excited ones even kowtowed to thank the Tang clan for avenging them. Although they hadn't killed Old Demon Flower Eater yet, the act of turning him into a soul lamp and candle was clearly more satisfying.

Especially when they saw Old Demon Flower Eater screaming in pain, it was like drinking a cup of cold water in the middle of summer.

"The Tang family is truly amazing. They actually killed Old Demon Flower Eater. I thought this news was fake. I didn't expect it to be true."

"To be precise, it should be done by the hidden invincible Divine Transformation Realm cultivator behind the Tang family. I really didn't expect the Tang family to have such a relationship. No wonder they have developed so quickly over the years. With that big shot secretly protecting the Tang family, even the giants of ancient times wouldn't dare to offend the Tang family easily."

"The Tang family is really lucky. However, who asked the Tang family to have three beautiful young ladies? If not for this, I'm afraid that big shot would not have taken a fancy to the Tang family."

"It's said that this time, that big shot killed Old Demon Flower Eater in order to protect the Tang family. Old Demon Flower Eater brought this upon himself. Of all the people he could provoke, he had to provoke the Tang family. He must have kicked an iron plate this time."

The surroundings of the Tang clan mansion had already sunk into a sea of jubilation. Countless residents of the Yinqing imperial capital had surrounded this place so tightly that not even water could leak out, preventing the Tang clan from entering or leaving.

However, in the face of such a joyous occasion, the Tang family was not much better off, let alone these people who had a grudge against the Old Demon Flower Eater. The Tang family understood this.

Moreover, after this incident, the Tang family's popularity and influence had increased dramatically. Their business would also be better in the future. The Tang family was also eager to do so. Even if there was a little trouble because of this, it was nothing.

Chapter 787: Plot (1)

As the news of Old Demon Flower Eater's death spread, even the Zhao imperial clan was alarmed and sent cultivators to confirm the matter.

After a thorough examination and confirmation, the Zhao royal family personally announced that the old demon had indeed been captured. His body was dead, and his soul had been turned into a soul lamp. There was basically no hope of him making a comeback.

After the official confirmation, the news of the capture of the old demon spread throughout the Eternal Empire at a terrifying speed, stirring up waves of commotion.

Many ordinary people and cultivators outside the imperial capital also rushed towards the Yinqing imperial capital. They wanted to see everything with their own eyes and see how the old demon was tortured. The more pain the old demon was in, the happier these people were.

Gradually, the Tang clan mansion became a scenic spot, attracting countless residents of the Eternal Empire to come and admire it. Seeing this, the Tang clan decisively built a plaza around it for everyone to watch the old demon.

The Zhao imperial clan had specially rewarded the Tang clan with a large amount of resources and treasures, allowing the Tang clan's development to soar even further. Many other clans and factions that had been harmed by the old demon had also given the Tang clan many resources and treasures. They had also taken care of the Tang clan in many ways, allowing the Tang clan's power to rise steadily. They had used this opportunity to smoothly enter the ranks of Deity Transformation clans.

In the eyes of the outside world, the hidden expert was able to do this for the Tang family. He definitely took great care of the Tang family, even more than the ancestors of many immortal families. He could already be considered a part of the Tang family.

Under such circumstances, the Tang family could naturally be regarded as a Soul Formation Stage family. After all, there was an invincible Soul Formation Stage big shot in charge. If the Tang family was not a Soul Formation Stage family, which family was qualified to become a Soul Formation Stage family?

Not only had the death of the old demon helped the Tang clan resolve its crisis, but it had also befriended countless factions and earned the gratitude of many factions. With all the resources and treasures available, the Tang clan immediately became one of the top clans in the Eternal Empire, second only to those clans with ancient titans.

Even the Tang family themselves did not expect that this matter would actually bring them such great benefits. It far exceeded their imagination.

The Tang family began to develop at a terrifying speed. The three sisters of the Tang family also became more and more gentle to Zhu Wuyan. Although Zhu Wuyan was not the ancestor of the Tang family, she was more of an ancestor than the ancestor of the Tang family.

Zhu Wuyang did not take this to heart. With his current strength, let alone a Soul Formation Realm cultivator, even if he was also a Heavenly Pillar, Zhu Wuyang was very confident that he could...

That was not right. Zhu Wuwan's poison had already been sealed and could not be used for the time being. Therefore, it was easy for Zhu Wuwan to defeat them when facing the Fusion Heavenly Pillar of the same level, but it would be harder than ascending to the heavens to kill them.

However, the Eternal Empire was nothing to Zhu Wuwan. She didn't care about the respect and admiration of the citizens of the Eternal Empire.

At this moment, Zhu Wanhao was taking the time to attack the Demonic Moon Empire, which was also the largest empire in the vicinity. It was far more powerful than the Eternal Empire, nearly a hundred times more powerful. The reason for this was that the Demonic Moon Empire had a Heavenly Pillar of Integration. It was said that behind it was an ancestor at the Great Ascension Realm, who was half a step into the Human Immortal Tribulation.

The reason why Zhu Wanhao had come to the Demonic Moon Empire was naturally because he had his eyes on the Heavenly Pillar of the Demonic Moon Empire. After spending several days, Zhu Wanhao had clearly figured out the location of this Patriarch Demonic Moon's seclusion and had taken control of the top-notch low-grade Spiritual Array group that protected him.

Apart from that, Zhu Wuwan had also set up a Soul Locking Gu Array in this top-notch low-grade spiritual array group. He was just waiting for the moment it was activated to enslave the strongest cultivator in the Demon Moon Empire, who was also the Fusion Heavenly Pillar. Then, he would think of a way to obtain the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony.

With Zhu Wuyang's attainments in array formations and gu techniques, it was not difficult to do this, even if he had to deal with the mid-Body Integration Heavenly Pillar, who had mastered the world's number one inheritance.

After spending about half a month, Zhu Wuyang finally set up everything. On a fine morning, Zhu Wuyang suddenly activated the Soul Locking Gu formation that was specially set up to enslave the Fusion Heavenly Pillar. At the same time, the surrounding spiritual formation groups assisted Zhu Wuyang.

"Dong..."

Patriarch Yao Yue, who was cultivating, felt a jolt in his head. Before he could react, he felt dozens of Gu worms darting into the depths of his Niwan Palace and nailing his soul. If he made the slightest movement, his soul might be swallowed by these Gu worms and he would be killed.

Even if they were lucky enough to escape, they would lose their bodies and their souls. It would be very difficult to recover, and they might even fall to the Body Integration Realm.

Patriarch Moondevil's face was ashen as he looked at the cultivator who slowly appeared in front of him. "Who are you? Why do you want to deal with me? Are you not afraid of the number one immortal sect in the world, Nirvana Tower?"

"Let's not talk about this nonsense anymore. Since I have spent so much effort to deal with you, I am not afraid of Nirvana Tower." Zhu Wanwan waved his hand and said, "You should be able to sense the power of the Soul Locking Gu formation. Although it might not be able to kill you, it definitely has a chance to make you fall to the Body Integration realm. You won't be able to advance any further. At that time, you won't be able to live for long, so why don't we make a deal? "

"What deal?" asked Patriarch Moondevil.

Help me plunder the resources and treasures of the Demonic Moon Empire and help me recover my strength as soon as possible. At the same time, help me sell some treasures and resources in exchange for what I want. "After you've done all this for me, I'll teach you how to break through to the late-stage Body Integration Stage. What do you think?" Zhu Wuwan smiled.

When he heard Zhu Wanhao's words, Patriarch Moondevil raised his eyebrows. "If I'm not wrong, the empires around the Monster Moon Empire are all under your control, and you're making them do this?"

“How did you know?” Zhu Wuyang was a little surprised.

Patriarch Moondevil heaved a sigh of relief and smiled bitterly. “Our Monster Moon Empire is so close to these empires. In the past ten years or so, the flow of resources and treasures in these empires has been so abnormal. How could we not detect it? We just don’t know what’s going on. Now that you came to me to tell me about this, I naturally thought of it.”

Zhu Wuan nodded. “That’s right. You guessed correctly. These empires are also under my control in secret. They collect all kinds of resources and treasures for me. When my strength recovers, I’ll naturally return your freedom.”

“May I ask who you are?” Patriarch Moondevil could not help but ask.

Zhu Wanhao thought about it and knew that this matter could not be hidden, so she said straightforwardly, “I did steal the Heart Controlling Sect’s treasure vault and inheritance land, but I was also ambushed by the Heart Controlling Sect and my strength dropped a lot. I’m recovering now.”

Chapter 788: A Living Restriction (1)

After knowing that Zhu Wuwan was “probably” a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal, Patriarch Moondevil was like the other high-ranking officials of the empire who were enslaved by Zhu Wuwan. He immediately became obedient. This was also Zhu Wuwan’s intention.

Since this method could save some trouble, Zhu Wuyang wouldn’t reject it just because of some problems such as face.

After learning that Zhu Wuan was a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal, Patriarch Moondevil’s thoughts were dispelled. Especially after Zhu Wuan took out a large number of treasures unique to the Heart Control Sect, Patriarch Moondevil no longer suspected this matter and began to do as Zhu Wuan instructed.

In order to keep this matter a secret, Patriarch Demonic Moon assisted Zhu Wuyang in enslaving some of the higher-ups of the Demonic Moon Empire. Basically, he controlled the entire Demonic Moon Empire.

Of course, Zhu Wanhao had also used the power of the Demonic Moon Ancestor and the Demonic Moon Empire to slightly cover up the impact of the resources and treasures that had been plundered over the years, so that Nirvana Tower would not notice anything unusual.

At the very least, it was best not to let Nirvana Tower discover this matter before Zhu Wuyang had enough strength. Otherwise, what awaited Zhu Wuyang would not be good news.

Ancestor Yao Yue's reminder also made Zhu Wuyang wary. After all, in order to avoid being discovered by Nirvana Tower, Zhu Wuyang had made these empires under his control pay taxes on time. They had never been in arrears and had deliberately done all kinds of concealment methods.

However, he did not expect that even the Monster Moon Empire would be able to discover the abnormality and become suspicious. Clearly, there were still many loopholes in their secrecy and concealment methods.

Now that he had the support of the Monster Moon Empire, he could perfect it to avoid being discovered so quickly. As long as he could hide it for a few more decades, it would be fine.

However, what the Demonic Moon Ancestor did not know was that Zhu Wuwan's main purpose for coming to the Demonic Moon Empire was not for the resources and treasures of the empire, but for the next part of the Nirvana Ceremony.

Patriarch Demonic Moon thought that the Soul Locking Gu Array was only used to threaten him. He did not know that the Soul Locking Gu Array that Zhu Wuwan had improved over the years, or rather, the Soul Locking Gu Array that was placed in his soul, was not mainly used to threaten him, but to obtain the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony hidden in his soul.

The Soul Locking Gu formation was set up by nine Level Seven modified Soul Locking Gu. Each Soul Locking Gu had a Soul Stealing Formation hidden in its body. Moreover, it was hidden layer by layer to avoid being discovered by Patriarch Yao Yue and the restrictions set up in the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony.

As the most important part of the number one inheritance in the world, the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony was naturally set up with layers of restrictions. Once it sensed that an outsider wanted to spy on the contents, it would self-destruct immediately and kill Ancestor Yao Yue at the same time. It would also spread the news to Nirvana Tower.

Therefore, it was very difficult for Zhu Wuwan to successfully obtain the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony. For this reason, Zhu Wuwan specially spent several years researching and exploring. In the end, she modified this Soul Locking Gu Array and used the array formation and the Dao of Gu worms to steal the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony.

However, even so, it was still unknown whether it would succeed. As soon as he returned to the Yingqing Imperial Capital, Zhu Wuwan sensed that the Soul Locking Gu Array he had set up in Patriarch Demonic Moon's soul was being examined by an inexplicable force. This force was like a living thing and had a certain level of intelligence. It was similar to the force Zhu Wuwan had discovered in the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony, but it was far superior to the restriction force in the middle of the Nirvana Ceremony.

Zhu Wuwan immediately realized that this power should be the restrictive power of the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony. It existed in the soul of every Nirvana Tower cultivator who cultivated the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony. Once they dared to leak the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony, they would die.

The power of this restriction could not only prevent the Nirvana Tower from leaking the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony, but it could also prevent outsiders from spying on the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony through various means. At this moment, the restriction in the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony had discovered that something unusual had entered the soul of Patriarch Yao Yue. Therefore, it was investigating to see if he wanted to spy on the treasured scriptures and secret skills of the Nirvana Tower.

Fortunately, for safety's sake, Zhu Wanwan had placed traces of the world's origin power into the Soul Locking Gu's body, allowing it to escape the detection of the restriction.

Sensing the life-like restriction power, Zhu Wuwan's expression changed slightly. He thought to himself that this was definitely not an effect that a top-notch top-grade Spiritual Array could achieve. Could it be a restriction formed by a top-notch Spiritual Array?

Everyone knew that restrictions were also a type of Spiritual Array, a variant type of Spiritual Array. However, even a top-grade Spiritual Array would not have such a situation where it was like a living thing.

It was said that only the legendary illusory immortal array that surpassed the spiritual array could have such an effect. Could it be that the restriction placed in the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony was an immortal array?

Zhu Wuwan thought in disbelief. Although she had heard of the name of the immortal array from some ancient books, she had never seen it before, so she could not be sure if this restriction was an immortal level restriction.

However, with such a magical effect, even if it was not an immortal level restriction, it should not be far from it.

Moreover, Zhu Wanhao was even more surprised to discover that although the strange restriction power did not discover the Soul Stealing Formation hidden in the Soul Locking Gu's body, it was slowly eroding the Soul Locking Gu Formation. If it continued for a long time, it would definitely be able to clear out the Soul Locking Gu Formation.

This was also one of the benefits that the restrictions in the Nirvana Ceremony brought to the Nirvana Tower cultivators.

How amazing!

Zhu Wanwan could not help but sigh. She did not know if she could successfully obtain the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony hidden in the depths of Patriarch Yao Yue's soul before the Soul Locking Gu formation was corroded.

However, Zhu Wuyan also discovered that the world's origin energy could effectively alleviate this corrosion. However, the world's origin energy that Zhu Wuyan had obtained over the years was not much. Now, there were only a few dozen points left.

In order to hide the Soul Stealing Formation in the Soul Locking Gu's body, he had used up a few points. If he wanted to alleviate the corrosion of that restriction, he would need to spend a lot of points. At least twenty points was not a small number.

However, thinking about it, if he could enter the 3,000 major worlds in a few decades, Zhu Wuwan would definitely be able to obtain a considerable amount of world origin. It should not be a big deal even if he used more now.

In order to obtain the number one inheritance in the world, this little sacrifice was worth it.

After some consideration, Zhu Wuwan had decided that when the power of the restriction reached a certain level of corrosion on the Soul Locking Gu Array, he would send in some of the world's origin power to maintain its existence and prevent the Soul Stealing Array from being discovered until Zhu Wuwan obtained the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony. This should not take too much time.

Chapter 789: Immortal Ascension Technique (1)

After placing the Soul Locking Gu array into Patriarch Yao Yue's soul, as long as the memories of the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony appeared in Patriarch Yao Yue's mind, Zhu Wuwan would be able to read them.

However, if Patriarch Moondevil didn't recall this information, it would be hidden in the depths of his soul, and Zhu Wuwan wouldn't be able to read it.

The Soul Locking Gu formation could only read shallow memories, which was Patriarch Demonic Moon's real-time memories. It could not read deep memories at all, and Zhu Wuwan did not dare to read them either.

The lower part of the restriction array formation of the Nirvana Ceremony was deep in Patriarch Moondevil's soul. That was also the strongest part of the restriction array formation. With the Soul Locking Gu formation that Zhu Wuwan had set up at the moment, it was impossible to read it.

Even if he tried to read it by force, he would be discovered by the restriction array and bring disaster upon himself.

Therefore, even though Zhu Wuwan had set up the Soul Locking Gu formation in Patriarch Moondevil's soul and could read related memories, there were various restrictions.

Zhu Wanhao did not dare to remind Patriarch Moondevil to recall these things, because doing so would arouse his vigilance and trigger the restriction of the Nirvana Ceremony. At that time, forget about reading the relevant information, it was unknown whether he could save the Soul Locking Gu formation and Patriarch Moondevil's life.

This was also one of the most powerful restrictions of the Nirvana Ceremony. Once they sensed that Patriarch Yao Yue had the intention or possibility of leaking the Nirvana Ceremony, they would activate it immediately.

Of course, this kind of activation was definitely not to directly kill Patriarch Moondevil. Instead, it was divided into levels. There was a reminder, a warning, and a small punishment...The most serious damage was naturally the destruction of his soul, causing his soul to dissipate.

Even with the help of the Origin of the World, it would be extremely difficult for Zhu Wuwan to obtain the inheritance of the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony. Moreover, without the Origin of the World, even if Zhu Wuwan could step into the Human Immortal Stage, he would not be able to do anything to the restriction in the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony.

Compared to the restrictions in the upper and middle parts of the Nirvana Ceremony, the restrictions in the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony were too terrifying.

Moreover, this was a mass restriction. Every high-level Nirvana Tower cultivator who had cultivated the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony had a restriction placed in their minds.

The power of each restriction was so strong. One could imagine how powerful Nirvana Tower was.

However, it was precisely because of this that Zhu Wuyan had the opportunity to find a loophole through these methods and successfully obtain the inheritance of the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony.

If not for that, Zhu Wuyan's chances of obtaining the Nirvana Ceremony would have been even slimmer.

Not only that, even if he had obtained the inheritance of the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony, Zhu Wuyang still had to be careful in the future. At least, as long as he had the strength to fight against Nirvana Tower, Zhu Wuyang would not dare to expose this matter. Otherwise, Nirvana Tower would definitely not let him off.

It would be fine if it was just Zhu Wuyan alone. However, Zhu Wuyan had friends and family. They could not hide from Nirvana Tower's all-pervasive methods.

Time passed slowly. Zhu Wuwan was constantly paying attention to the situation of the Soul Locking Gu Formation and the Soul Stealing Formation. In the following half a month or so, she successfully obtained the cultivation method of the seventh level of the Nirvana Technique and the seventh level of the Nirvana Sutra. This way, she could continue to cultivate and improve. Finally, the biggest problem that Zhu Wuwan was currently facing was solved.

In the following half a year, Zhu Wuwan took advantage of the difficulties that Patriarch Moondevil had encountered in his cultivation and recalled the later part of the Nirvana Ceremony to successfully obtain the eighth level of the Nirvana Technique, the eighth level of the Nirvana Sutra, and even the cultivation method of the seventh and eighth levels of the Nirvana Technique.

Since then, Zhu Wuyan had already obtained most of the inheritance of the entire Nirvana Ceremony. Only the cultivation method of the first level had not been obtained. It could be said that it was quite smooth.

Unfortunately, the seventh level of Nirvana required too many breakthrough stones. Zhu Wuwan had not accumulated enough for the time being, so she could only wait until she had accumulated enough breakthrough stones before cultivating.

The sixth to seventh level of the Nirvana Technique was also a great transformation. Once he successfully cultivated it, Zhu Wuyan's Nirvana Spiritual Sense and Nirvana Nascent Soul would truly reach the level of being invincible among those of the same level. Even in the vast Dongyuan Continent, no cultivator of the same level could surpass Zhu Wuyan in this aspect.

Unfortunately, the difficulty of cultivating the seventh level of the Nirvana Technique was definitely worthy of its power. On average, there would only be one heaven's pride expert who could cultivate to this level every 100,000 years or so. One could imagine how difficult it was.

However, Zhu Wuan had the Breakthrough Stone and the Special Encounter System. To other Nirvana Tower cultivators, the seventh level of the Nirvana Technique was as difficult as ascending to the heavens. To Zhu Wuan, it was just a matter of whether there were enough Breakthrough Stones.

Moreover, once he could cultivate the seventh level of the Nirvana Art, Zhu Wuwan's body would undergo another transformation. If nothing unexpected happened, this transformation would allow Zhu Wuwan's body's strength and flexibility to reach the level of a perfected Void Refinement Realm body cultivator, and he would be half a step into the ranks of Body Integration Body Cultivators.

Therefore, the seventh level of the Nirvana Technique was very important. It was a critical watershed.

The process of obtaining the seventh and eighth levels of the Nirvana Ceremony was very smooth, but the process of obtaining the ninth level was not so smooth. This was also the last level of the Nirvana Ceremony, and it was also the most profound level.

After all, Patriarch Demonic Moon was only at the Form Synthesis Stage. He would not think about the ninth floor of the Nirvana Ceremony. He would only think about the eighth floor occasionally. Therefore, he had gained a lot in the beginning, but he could not get the ninth floor after that.

Zhu Wanhao had also thought of using other methods to make Patriarch Yao Yue recall the ninth level of the Nirvana Ceremony. He had also taken some actions, but Patriarch Yao Yue had noticed something strange and suffered the punishment of the restriction. After that, he no longer thought about it.

Zhu Wuan was also speechless. He had specially designed some accidents in other aspects and did not dare to go too far. However, he was still unable to obtain the ninth level of the Nirvana Ceremony.

In the next few years, Zhu Wuwan paid more than 20 points of the World Origin Hidden Soul Stealing Array with heartache. Finally, in the tenth year, he obtained the cultivation method of the ninth level of the Nirvana Ceremony.

From then on, the number one inheritance in the world was completely obtained by Zhu Wuyan. The Soul Stealing Array was also destroyed by Zhu Wuyan, and there was no trace of it anymore.

From the beginning to the end, Patriarch Yao Yue did not know what the true purpose of the Soul Locking Gu formation was. He always thought that this was something Zhu Wuwan used to threaten him. However, he did not know that Zhu Wuwan had already obtained the lower part of the Nirvana Ceremony that he had inherited through the Soul Locking Gu formation, and had obtained all the inheritance of the Nirvana Ceremony.

This inheritance could allow Zhu Wuan to cultivate all the way to the perfected stage of transcending tribulation. In the lower part of the Nirvana ceremony, there was even a way to become an immortal.

Although he did not know if it was true or not, after all, it had been many years since he had heard of anyone becoming an immortal in the Dongyuan Continent. However, since there was a follow-up inheritance, Zhu Wuwan would definitely give it a try after he cultivated to a sufficiently high realm.

Perhaps he would become an immortal!

Chapter 790: Offering Your Body (1)

In these ten years, Zhu Wuyan's pace of earning breakthrough stones and cultivation had never stopped. At the same time that he obtained the complete inheritance of the Nirvana Ceremony, Zhu Wuyan's strength had also received a huge increase.

Late-stage Body Integration!

After ten years of hard work and bitter cultivation, Zhu Wuwan's strength had leaped back to the late-stage Body Integration Stage. She was only a small realm away from the perfected Body Integration Stage.

Once he could enter the perfected Body Integration Stage, Zhu Wuwan would be able to break the Seal of God and Seal of Essence of the Three Seals of Opening the Immortal. Most importantly, he would use this opportunity to break through the Mahayana Heavenly Chasm and step into the Quasi-Immortal Stage.

For this day, Zhu Wuyan had been preparing for a long time. Once he could successfully advance to the Great Vehicle Stage, Zhu Wuyan's strength would undergo an earth-shaking transformation.

Invincibility in the Mahayana Stage was just a basic operation. It might be possible to fight against a Human Immortal undergoing tribulation.

At that time, as long as he could upgrade Zhu Wuyan's mixed poison to level eight mixed poison, Zhu Wuyan would even be confident in killing a Dacheng Quasi-Immortal of the same level. It would definitely shake the Dongyuan Continent, and even Nirvana Tower would tremble in front of him.

Human Immortals who were going through the tribulation could forget about catching him. Zhu Wuwan would be invincible in Dongyuan Continent. If there was a coincidence, even Human Immortals who were going through the tribulation might be poisoned by him.

After experiencing seven nirvanas, the Nirvana Soul Consciousness and the Nirvana Nascent Soul had reached the invincible realm of the Form Synthesis Stage. In the vast Dongyuan Continent, there was no other Heavenly Pillar at the Form Synthesis Stage who could cultivate the Soul Consciousness and the Nascent Soul to such a level.

Zhu Wuan was also the only two peerless geniuses in Dongyuan Continent who had cultivated the Nirvana Technique to the seventh level. The other was the number one expert in Nirvana Tower, the Nirvana Ancestor who was in the middle stage of the Dujie stage. It was said that he had only managed to cultivate the seventh level of the Nirvana Technique when he was tens of thousands of years old. However, Zhu Wuan was only about a hundred years old.

With the help of the seventh Nirvana, Zhu Wuwan's body strength and flexibility had also reached the level of half-step Body Integration. She was just a little bit away from being comparable to a body cultivator at the beginning of Body Integration.

When Zhu Wuyang cultivated the divine arts and treasured books for body tempering, his body's strength and flexibility would definitely advance by leaps and bounds again. He wondered how far he could reach.

Being invincible in a body fusion was not enough to describe Zhu Wuyan at this moment. With Zhu Wuyan's strength and combat power at this moment, he could even compete with a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal. As for who would win in the end, the possibility of Zhu Wuyan losing was still relatively high, but Zhu Wuyan would definitely be able to escape.

Even a Quasi-Immortal at the Great Ascension Stage couldn't take him down, or even a Human Immortal at the Crossing Calamity Stage would find it very difficult to take him down.

It was a pity that the more he advanced, the more breakthrough stones he needed. Moreover, the cultivation of Nirvana required a lot of breakthrough stones. After advancing to this stage, Zhu Wuyang's breakthrough stones had already been used up. Even the resources and treasures he had obtained over the years had almost been used up.

If he wanted to accumulate enough breakthrough stones to advance to the perfected Body Integration Stage, he would still need a long time. Moreover, he would secretly control more empires, which would also increase the risk of Zhu Wuyang being exposed.

However, as long as he could cross that level and break through the Three Celestial Sealing Restriction, Zhu Wuan's strength would reach a new level. He could even bring the Great Zhu Celestial Dynasty to the top of the Dongyuan Continent by himself.

In the past ten years, the Tang family, which had successfully advanced to the Divine Transformation Realm, had also developed very quickly. With the help of a large number of resources and treasures, the Tang family had produced a large number of Foundation Building cultivators and Golden Core cultivators. Even a Nascent Soul cultivator had appeared. This Nascent Soul cultivator was Tang Yelan, who had been especially protected by Zhu Wuwan.

To be honest, even Tang Yelan herself did not expect that she would be able to advance into the ranks of Nascent Soul cultivators so quickly. Before this, whether it was her or the members of the Tang family, they all thought that the first to advance into Nascent Soul would definitely be Tang Liuli, who had the best talent.

However, with the rapid unlocking of the special constitution and the most crucial part of Zhu Wuwan's full nurturing, when Tang Liuli had just broken through to the advanced Aurous Core stage, Tang Yelan had already broken through to the ranks of Nascent Soul cultivators.

However, what made Zhu Wanhao feel a little regretful was that although Tang Yelan's cultivation had already broken through to the Nascent Soul Stage, his special physique had not been cultivated to the Nine Yin Profound Body Stage. Currently, he was only an Eight Yin Body and was still one stage away from reaching the Nine Yin Profound Body Stage.

Fortunately, Zhu Wuwan had yet to cultivate to the perfected Body Integration Stage. She also needed some time to accumulate breakthrough stones. She could use this time to cultivate Tang Yelan's special physique.

Tang Liuli's strength had also reached the Exceptional Gold Core Realm and was only half a step away from the Nascent Soul Realm. This was also thanks to Zhu Wuwan's nurturing. In addition, Zhu Wuwan often cultivated with her, which was why Tang Liuli's strength had improved so quickly.

In order to better nurture Tang Liuli and Tang Mingyue, Zhu Wuwan specially raised a top-notch dual cultivation technique to the Perfection Realm and spent a lot of breakthrough stones.

With Zhu Wuyan's promise-no, it should be him personally-it was impossible for Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli to not break through quickly.

Coupled with the help of the top-notch Heaven and Earth Immortal Art and all kinds of heavenly and earthly treasures, Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli's golden cores also advanced by leaps and bounds. Tang Liuli would soon be able to break through to the Nascent Soul stage.

Because Tang Mingyue had entered the path through martial arts, her talent and aptitude were slightly inferior. Therefore, she had only just broken through to the Golden Core Stage. This was also under the circumstances that Zhu Wuwan had taken advantage of the night to give special treatment many times. Otherwise, Tang Mingyue's strength would have been even worse.

However, as long as she could advance to the Golden Core Realm, Tang Mingyue would have a thousand years of lifespan. The time that followed was enough for her to cultivate slowly. Zhu Wuwan would also frequently nourish her. Sooner or later, she would advance to the Nascent Soul Realm or even the Soul Formation Realm.

Even without Zhu Wuan, the Tang family had become a Nascent Soul clan, fulfilling their long-cherished wish.

The Tang family had already become one of the most popular new top families in the Yinqing Imperial City. The resources and wealth they possessed were not inferior to some of the older top families.

The square in front of the gate had become one of the most famous scenic spots in the Eternal Empire. Every day, many people came to watch the tortured Flower-Eating Old Demon, and the more they watched, the happier they became.

No one doubted the old demon's identity anymore, because he had not appeared in the Eternal Empire since ten years ago, let alone committed murder and arson. This proved that the man in the square in front of the Tang family was indeed the old demon.

As long as Old Demon Flower Eater's soul lamp was still burning, the Tang clan's prestige and influence would not decline in the slightest. In fact, they would only grow stronger and develop faster.

No one in the Tang family could have imagined that a disaster would turn into a good thing just like that.

This Tian Zhu Wuyan was cultivating bitterly when a great piece of good news suddenly fell, making Zhu Wuyan pleasantly surprised.

Read I'm Leveling Up Too Quickly Chapter 791 - 791: The World's Strongest Body Tempering Technique (1)

Chapter 791: The World's Strongest Body Tempering Technique (1)

After the trip to the 300 worlds, Zhu Wuyan's luck had been pretty good. At least, it was a little better than before the 300 worlds. It should be because the world of Dongyuan Continent favored Zhu Wuyan more.

After all, in the journey to the 300 worlds, Zhu Wuwan had earned a large amount of the world's origin power for the Dongyuan Continent, which greatly supplemented the Dongyuan Continent.

Take the Heart Controlling Sect's plot against him through the inheritance as an example. In the end, not only did the Three Immortal Sealing Hexes not kill Zhu Wuyang, but it also became one of the biggest helpers for Zhu Wuyang to advance to the Great Vehicle Stage.

Zhu Wuan could even use the Three Immortal Sealing Hexes to further consolidate his cultivation foundation and greatly increase his strength. It could be said to be killing several birds with one stone.

Moreover, even if he ran away randomly, he would still be able to meet the three sisters of the Tang family. Not only would he be able to obtain comfort in his life, but he would also be able to obtain great help in his cultivation. He was a winner in life.

During this escape journey, Zhu Wuyang had obtained the complete content of the world's number one inheritance. Moreover, he had used the Nirvana Ceremony to return to the Body Integration Heavenly Pillar Realm and would soon return to the perfected Body Integration Realm.

Not only did a bad thing turn into a good thing, but it also brought a series of good things to Zhu Wuwan, such as now.

Just as he received the complete copy of The Best Legacy, Zhu Wuwan received a request for help from Tang Yelan. He went to her room at night and after some help, Tang Yelan finally understood what love was.

Unfortunately, he couldn't love her too deeply, or it would affect his breakthrough to the Great Vehicle Stage in the future. Therefore, Zhu Wuwan could only give it a try.

When it was time to rest, Tang Yelan took out a golden stone slab from his storage ring and handed it to Zhu Wuyang. "" Husband, this is a treasure dug out from a rare mine of our Tang family. It records an extremely powerful body refining mystic art, and it's the top Heaven and Earth mystic art. Take a look and see if it's useful to you. "

"Let me see." Zhu Wuwan smiled and took the stone slab. His Nirvana Divine Consciousness fluctuated and entered the golden stone slab. He sensed the words and various images that were like stars inside.

Thorny Glass Jade Body!

This was the name of the body tempering mystic technique in the stone slab. Zhu Wuwan was very familiar with this name. She had seen it in the ancient books of the Thousand Poisons Sect and the Mind Control Sect. Even the ancient books of the Five Poison Sect and the Earth Spirit Sect had a simple introduction to this body tempering mystic technique.

These introductions could only be summarized in four words, but they were enough to shock the entire Dongyuan Continent.

The world's strongest body refining mystic art!

It was not the first, but the strongest. The meaning was self-evident. This was the most powerful body refining mystic technique in the Dongyuan Continent. It was so in terms of power alone. As for other aspects, it was hard to say. At least, the Thorny Glazed Jade Body was not the world's number one body refining mystic technique.

There was no other reason. The difficulty of cultivating it was a little high. It was probably a little worse than Nirvana, but it was still harder to cultivate it to perfection.

However, once one succeeded in cultivating it, one could be said to be invincible among those of the same level. One could even easily cross realms to fight enemies.

Everyone knew that in the cultivation of Qi Refinement and Body Refinement, Body Refinement cultivators could easily suppress Qi Refinement cultivators. However, the cultivation of Body Refinement cultivators was too difficult and they lacked the help of many ancient treasures and elixirs, so they were gradually replaced by Qi Refinement cultivators.

However, if the difficulty of cultivation and the resources were similar, almost all cultivators would choose the path of body refiner instead of Qi Practitioner.

Body refinement warriors were synonymous with the strong among cultivators, and the Thorny Glazed Jade Body was the strongest body refinement mystic technique in the world. Once one could successfully cultivate it, one could imagine how powerful it was.

Previously, Zhu Wuyan had only seen descriptions of the Thorny Glazed Jade Body many times in ancient books. He had always yearned for this world's strongest body-tempering mystic technique. However, after learning that it had been missing for hundreds of thousands of years, Zhu Wuyan had also given up on the idea of cultivating it.

However, Zhu Wuwan had never expected that just as he had no thoughts about the Thorny Glazed Jade Body, this so-called strongest body-tempering mystic technique would land in front of him.

It was unbelievable!

If the Heavenly Cycle Stellar Scripture could be ranked in the top ten of all body-tempering mystic techniques, then the Thorny Glazed Jade Body was definitely in the top three. If it wasn't for the fact that it was difficult to cultivate, it would definitely be ranked first.

After reading it carefully, Zhu Wuwan realized that the Thorny Glazed Jade Body was divided into 81 layers. Every nine layers corresponded to a major realm, and every breakthrough to a major realm was a sublimation of the body.

The cultivation of the Thorny Glazed Jade Body was entirely on the body. It would not cultivate power similar to the Heavenly Cycle Stellar Essence. All the essence was concentrated on improving the body. Moreover, this improvement was all-round. Even for True Qi and mental strength, this body-tempering mystic technique had a certain effect.

However, this effect was not great. It was mainly focused on the body, including but not limited to the strength of the body, the flexibility of the body, the skin, muscles, bones, organs, eyesight, smell, hearing, and the strength and flexibility of the dantian. There were almost no shortcomings in any aspect.

At the very least, once one succeeded in cultivating it, they would be able to effectively resist all kinds of attacks, whether it was physical attacks, true qi attacks, divine sense attacks, poison attacks ... The Thorny Glass Jade Body could effectively defend and reflect.

Right, the greatest effect of the Thorn Glazed Jade Body was not only to improve the overall quality of the body, but also to deflect and reflect force. As the name suggested, it could deflect all kinds of attacks from others and reflect a portion of the attacks.

The higher the level of the Thorn Glazed Jade Body, the more it could deflect and reflect. If one could cultivate to the highest level of the eighty-first level, they could deflect and reflect almost ninety-nine percent of an attack. Deflecting and reflecting were complementary.

At that time, Zhu Wuyang would be almost invincible. He could stand there and let the Human Immortals who were going through the tribulation bombard him. Perhaps they wouldn't be able to do anything to Zhu Wuyang. On the contrary, they might be injured by the rebound.

The Thorny Glazed Jade Body did not seem to have many effects. It did not have as many effects as the Heavenly Cycle Stellar Scripture, nor could it compare to the various Eighteen Hell Scripture. However, each of these effects was terrifying.

Body Forging, Force Relieve, Rebound!

With just these three effects, the Thorny Glazed Jade Body could be ranked among the strongest body-refining mystic techniques in the world. One could imagine how powerful each of these three effects was, far surpassing any of the effects of the Eighteen Hell Scripture. Even the effects of the Heavenly Cycle Stellar Scripture could not compare to these three effects.

After reading through it carefully, Zhu Wuwan patted his chest and answered affirmatively. The Thorny Glazed Jade Body was worthy of the title of the world's strongest body-refining mystic technique, and it might even be better.

Chapter 792: This Soil Is Really Good (1)

Therefore, without even considering it, Zhu Wuwan decided to wait until his Qi Refinement cultivation reached the Mahayana Quasi-Immortal Realm before he began to cultivate the Thorny Glazed Jade Body. He would also use the Thorny Glazed Jade Body to break through the restriction of the body, thus allowing his body refinement cultivation to break through to the Mahayana Quasi-Immortal Realm.

At present, it was still important to focus on improving his qi refining cultivation. When he stepped into the Mahayana stage, Zhu Wuwan's safety would be guaranteed. He could also rely on his cultivation in the Mahayana stage to earn a large number of breakthrough stones, far exceeding his current speed.

At that time, it would be much easier for Zhu Wuwan to improve the Thorny Glazed Jade Body. With the Special Encounter System and the Breakthrough Stone in hand, Zhu Wuwan did not have to worry about the difficulty of cultivating the Thorny Glazed Jade Body at all.

To be honest, even without the special encounter system and the breakthrough stone, just with Zhu Wuyang's current talent and aptitude, he could still cultivate the Thorny Glass Jade Body to an extremely high realm. There was even a high possibility that he could reach the ranks of Human Immortal Body Cultivators. However, it would take a long time.

Through the transformation and improvement of the special encounter system and a large number of world origin, Zhu Wuyan's talent and aptitude had reached an invincible level in the human world. Although it was difficult to cultivate the Thorny Glazed Jade Body, it was not too difficult for Zhu Wuyan to rely on her talent and aptitude.

He firmly memorized the Thorny Glazed Jade Body and was about to put it away in his storage ring when Zhu Wuwan felt that the stone slab in his hand was strange.

He used his divine sense to examine the stone slab again, then carefully examined it with his hands. He even licked the stone slab, causing Tang Yelan's eyes to widen.

Myriad Mother Earth!

Zhu Wuan's eyes widened as well. He looked at the stone slab in his hand in disbelief. He had never expected that the material of this stone slab was actually Myriad Mother Earth, or the Mother of Earth. It was a legendary treasure of the earth attribute in Dongyuan Continent. It was said that its value was not inferior to a supreme-grade magic treasure.

One had to know that Zhu Wanhao had yet to obtain a supreme-grade Dharma treasure until now. One could imagine how precious a supreme-grade Dharma treasure was. However, the value of this Myriad Mother Earth was not inferior to a supreme-grade Dharma treasure in the slightest.

The most important thing was that besides being used to refine magic treasures, the Myriad Mother Earth could also be used as food to strengthen one's physique, especially for the improvement of one's physique cultivation.

In other words, Zhu Wuyang could use the Myriad Mother Earth to cultivate the Thorny Glazed Jade Body. The effect was quite good, and it could allow his Thorny Glazed Jade Body to soar by a lot.

Such a large piece of Myriad Mother Earth could at least raise Zhu Wuyan's body-refining cultivation to the Soul Formation Realm or above.

However, if he had the help of the Breakthrough Stone and the Special Encounter System, the effect would definitely be better. It could also help Zhu Wuyang create a more stable foundation for body refinement. Therefore, after thinking about it, Zhu Wuyang decided to wait until his Qi Refinement cultivation broke through to the Great Vehicle Stage before thinking about improving his body refinement cultivation.

Zhu Wanhao did not expect that he would be able to obtain such a treasure of heaven and earth from the Tang family. In addition to the Thorny Glazed Jade Body, he had really struck it rich this time. The Tang family was really his lucky star.

Although he had helped the Tang family a lot over the years, this help was really nothing compared to Zhu Wuwan's strength.

If there was another cultivator with Zhu Wuan's strength, he would probably help the Tang family after knowing that the Tang family had such a treasure.

However, the benefits that the Tang family had given Zhu Wuwan were hard to replace. If he were to investigate carefully, the Tang family did not owe him much.

In a good mood, Zhu Wuwan couldn't help but carry Tang Yelan up. "Ye Lan, let's go to the sky to learn foreign languages. No, let's go to the sky to practice. Tonight, I must train you well."

"But you can't plant it now." Tang Yelan pouted.

"Uh ... "Then let's call Second Aunt and Little Sister-in-law." Zhu Wuwan laughed dryly.

Before Tang Yelan could react, Zhu Wuwan had already rolled up Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli and brought the three sisters to the moon. In the midst of the layers of cotton-like white clouds, they were practicing to their heart's content.

After a few sleepless days, Zhu Wuwan returned to the small courtyard and focused on flipping through the ancient books and cultivation techniques, trying to remember as much as possible.

As he controlled more and more empires, Zhu Wuyang also obtained more and more cultivation techniques and books from the Nirvana Tower's territory. Many of them were useful for his cultivation.

Zhu Wanhao stored these cultivation techniques and manuals. When he entered the three thousand worlds and had enough time, he would properly comprehend and cultivate them. He would integrate them into the Heaven and Earth Mystic Art, Heaven and Earth Immortal Martial Art, Heaven and Earth Dharma Art, and Heaven and Earth Secret Art that he had mastered...In the middle.

However, just as Zhu Wanhao was concentrating on her studies, an ancient giant arrived at the Tang family mansion. He easily broke through the high-grade low-grade spiritual array group around the Tang family mansion and enveloped the entire Tang family mansion with terrifying power. He floated in front of all the higher-ups of the Tang family.

"Who are you? Why did you destroy our spiritual array group and seal off our entire mansion?"

"Your strength is so strong that you should be far stronger than ordinary Soul Formation Realm cultivators. I wonder how our Tang family has offended you. Our Tang family will apologize."

"He's not a Soul Formation Realm cultivator. If I'm not wrong, he should be an ancient powerhouse at the Void Training Realm. I've been in close contact with the ancient powerhouses of the imperial family before, and their auras are also so terrifying."

"Ah...How is that possible? When have we ever offended an ancient giant?"

Faced with this sudden disaster, the Tang family members were also extremely terrified. They did not understand how the Tang family had provoked this ancient giant, causing him to suddenly come and deal with the Tang family personally.

Looking at the terrified Tang family members, the black-robed cultivator's gaze fell on the leader, Tang Yelan, and Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli beside her. A trace of regret flashed across his eyes, “It’s a pity that she’s not a virgin. Otherwise, she would be qualified to be my woman. However, it’s not bad to enjoy it later.”

Because they had spent too much time together, even though Tang Yelan had yet to lose his virginity, to outsiders, it was almost the same as losing his virginity. This was also because Zhu Wuyang had deliberately concealed it to prevent others from suspecting Tang Yelan.

Hearing this, the three sisters’ expressions changed slightly, and anger flashed across their faces.

Even if this man was really an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage, it was still too much to say such words. Moreover, it was still uncertain whether this man was really an ancient giant.

Tang Liuli was the first to scold him. “You’re so ugly that even dogs despise you. How dare you covet us?”

“You have a sharp tongue. I’ll see how you can still be stubborn when we’re in bed later.” The black-robed cultivator sneered and stared at Tang Yelan, “The thing should be with you, the head of the family. Take it out and return it to me. If you serve me well later, I’ll let your Tang family off this time.”

Chapter 793: Shameless (1)

Looking at the fierce-looking black-robed cultivator, Tang Yelan frowned slightly. “When did I take your things? I don’t even know you.”

“What else could it be?” The black-robed cultivator said, “Your Tang clan is really bold. You actually dare to rob the things of my Black Sand Tower Master. It seems that after not taking action for a hundred years, even a Deity Transformation clan doesn’t put me in their eyes.”

Tang Yelan’s expression changed. “That purple earth mine belongs to our Tang family. The things mined from it naturally belong to our Tang family. Since when did it become yours?” If I’m not wrong, those who robbed our Tang Clan cultivators while they were escorting the body tempering mystic cultivation technique should be from your Black Sand Tower.”

“The Red-eyebrowed Bandits are indeed a peripheral force of our Black Sand Tower. Shouldn’t your Tang clan pay a toll when passing through the Red-eyebrowed Bandits ‘territory?’ ” “If that’s the case, then this body tempering mystic technique is a toll, so it naturally belongs to my Black Sand Tower,” the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower said shamelessly.

Upon hearing the logic of the Black Sand Tower Master, the members of the Tang clan looked at each other in dismay. They wished they could curse out loud. They had seen shameless people, but they had never seen such shameless people. This was the first time they had seen such logic.

Tang Yelan suppressed his anger and looked at the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower, “” Master of Black Sand Tower, we’ll give you the body refining mystic art in the next few days. It’s no longer in our hands. ”

“You gave it to someone else?” The Master of Black Sand Tower did not directly mention the name of the body refining mystic technique, which was clearly very cautious.

Tang Yelan could guess how the news of this body tempering mystic cultivation technique was leaked. After all, when the Thorny Glazed Jade Body was dug out, many miners from the Tang family were there. They must have seen the words on it, so it was normal for someone to talk about it.

Tang Yelan nodded. ” It’s in my husband’s hands now. I’ll contact my husband in the next few days to give you the body tempering mystic technique. ”

“Since you gave him that body refining mystic art, he should have read it, right?” The Master of Black Sand Tower sneered. ” And anyone who dares to read the core Xuan techniques of our Black Sand Tower without permission will have their memories erased. In serious cases, they will be killed. How do you think I should treat him? ”

Tang Liuli was about to curse at the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower again when she saw his overbearing manner. However, she was stopped by Tang Mingyue to avoid angering him.

After all, the Master of Black Sand Tower was an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage. He could crush the entire Tang family with a single finger, not to mention their husband at the Soul Formation Stage.

Tang Yelan took a deep breath and tried his best to suppress his anger. “” Tower Master Black Sand, you should be the clearest about the right and wrong of this matter. Please spare my husband and the Tang family for the sake of our Tang family digging out this body tempering mystic art. ”

"I can let you go, but it depends on how you three perform next." The Master of Black Sand Tower did not hide his desire." And the other women of the Tang family, come and accompany me. When your husband returns the body refining mystic art to me, I will punish the Tang family and your husband according to your performance. "

At this moment, many ordinary people and cultivators had gathered outside the Tang family mansion. When they saw the Tang family mansion covered in layers of black sand, many people were shocked.

" What's wrong with the Tang clan? They've been wrapped up by this strange black spiritual sand. I wonder what happened to the members of the Tang clan inside. "

"This layer of black spiritual sand is a little strange. If I'm not wrong, this should be the Black Sand Barrier, a high-grade magic treasure unique to the Master of Black Sand Tower. But why would the Master of Black Sand Tower want to deal with the Tang clan? How could the Tang clan offend the Master of Black Sand Tower?"

"Hiss...The Master of Black Sand Tower is an ancient powerhouse at the Late Spatial Tempering Stage, and his strength is unfathomable. He's also the strongest neutral powerhouse in our Eternal Empire. He hasn't joined any of the forces, so why would he want to deal with the Tang family?"

" The Tang family is really courting death. They offended Old Demon Flower-Eater a few years ago, and now they've offended the Master of Black Sand Tower. Indeed, it's a femme fatale. It's probably the three sisters of the Tang family who brought this disaster. "

"If it's really the Master of Black Sand Tower, I'm afraid that the Tang family won't be able to escape this time. The guardian of the Tang family is only a Soul Formation Stage cultivator. How can he be a match for a Late Spatial Tempering Stage ancient giant? I'm afraid that he won't be able to protect the Tang family this time. However, with that person's strength, he should be able to escape. After all, that person was even able to kill Old Demon Flower Eater."

The sudden attack of the Black Sand Tower Master not only caught the Tang clan off guard, but also caught the various factions in the Yinqing Imperial Capital off guard. They did not know how the Tang clan had offended the Black Sand Tower Master to actually attract the ruthless hands of such a giant.

Even some of the ancient titans were attracted to the scene and stayed around to observe the situation. Although the Master of Black Sand Tower was not a villain like the Flower-eating Old Demon, his reputation was not that great. At most, he was considered to be both righteous and evil. He had many enemies in the Eternal Empire.

Within the black sand barrier, the faces of the Tang Family members changed drastically when they heard the Master of Black Sand Tower's undisguised words. No matter how much they feared the ancient powerhouse at the Void Training Stage, many members of the Tang Family couldn't help it.

" Even if you're a giant of the ancient times, you can't humiliate our Tang family like this. Isn't this too much? "

"The three young ladies are the wives of our Tang family's guardian. Your Excellency's actions are a little too much. Although our Tang family's guardian is not an ancient giant, an ancient giant can't do anything to him."

" We're going to die sooner or later anyway. Let's fight it out with him. At most, our entire family will be exterminated. "

" Although I don't know what that body refining mystic art is, it clearly belongs to our Tang family. It's fine if you snatched it by force, but you actually backstabbed us. This is the first time I've seen such a shameless person in my life. "

" In this world, even if the strong are respected, there must be some reason. You're the number one neutral expert in the Eternal Empire, after all. Isn't it a little too shameless for you to not distinguish right from wrong? "

Looking at the indignant Tang clan disciples, a cold smile flashed across the face of the Master of Black Sand Tower." You're right. I'm bullying you. You're not as big as my fist, so I can bully you without any restraint. If you're not convinced, you can take out a fist that's bigger than mine. "

"Since you're so tactless, then I'll send you to the west. Before I die, I might as well tell you that I had a deal with Old Demon Flower Eater, but it fell through because of your Tang family. Coincidentally, this matter happened, so don't blame me for coming to exterminate your entire family. Of course, before that, I have to fulfill Old Demon Flower Eater's wish when he was alive. It can also be considered a memorial for our meeting."

Chapter 794: You Want to Bully My Woman?

After hearing the words of the Black Sand Tower Master, the Tang clan finally understood why the Black Sand Tower Master was so vicious. It turned out that he was just finding an excuse to deal with the Tang clan.

The Body-Tempering Mysterious Art was something that Black Sand Tower Master wanted, but destroying the Tang clan was also something that Black Sand Tower Master wanted to do. The Tang clan was even more astonished by the relationship between Black Sand Tower Master and Old Demon Flower Eater.

The fact that the Black Sand Tower Master was willing to exterminate the entire Tang clan for Old Demon Flower-Eater showed that the relationship between the Black Sand Tower Master and Old Demon Flower-Eater was definitely not ordinary. Otherwise, the Black Sand Tower Master would never have offended an invincible Soul Formation cultivator in order to exterminate the Tang clan.

If the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower could not do anything to the guardian of the Tang family, then nothing good would be waiting for them. Although the guardian of the Tang family was not a match for the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower, it would not be too difficult to get rid of the other members of Black Sand Tower.

Although the Master of Black Sand Tower was a neutral expert, there were many people following him. Among them, there was no lack of his relatives and friends. Once he was targeted by the guardian of the Tang family, these relatives and friends would definitely be in trouble.

Even a fool would not believe that the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower still did this under such circumstances.

It was just that the Tang clan did not expect that Old Demon Flower Eater would actually have such a relationship with Black Sand Tower Master. It was truly unbelievable.

Since the Master of Black Sand Tower dared to speak of this matter, it was obvious that he already had the intention of exterminating the Tang family. Otherwise, if this matter were to spread, the Master of Black Sand Tower would definitely lose his status as a neutral expert. This was quite disadvantageous to the Master of Black Sand Tower. The Tang family would probably be unable to escape death.

Thinking of this, the Tang family no longer feared. They would die sooner or later anyway, and they could not let the Master of Black Sand Tower feel happy before they died.

“I didn’t expect you to be an evil old thing and not a neutral cultivator. The people of the empire were wrong about you. You’re jackals of the same feather as the Flower Eater Old Demon.”

” It’s a pity that we can’t spread the news. Otherwise, we’ll destroy your reputation and make you lose your footing in the Eternal Empire. ”

” If you want to kill us, then kill us as soon as possible. Don’t even think about making us bow down to you. You, Black Sand Tower Master, are not worthy. ”

“So you old bastard are the good brother of the Flower Eater Old Demon. I really didn’t expect that I would kill you as well and make you into a Soul Lamp to hang there for thousands of years.”

Hearing the vicious words of the Tang clan, the Master of Black Sand Tower's expression turned cold. He raised his hand and said, "" Since you don't want to die a quick death, I'll let you die in despair and regret. Those women who want to commit suicide can go ahead and die as long as there are corpses. I don't mind that. "

Hearing the words of the Master of Black Sand Tower, the expressions of many members of the Tang clan changed. They did not expect that an ancient giant would actually be so shameless. For a moment, no one dared to commit suicide.

Seeing how frightened the Tang clan was, the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower laughed." Don't worry, I'm not that shameless. I'm a giant of the ancient times, after all. I won't do such a disgusting thing. You can kill yourself, and I won't do anything to you. "

The members of the Tang family looked at each other, not knowing what to do, especially those female clansmen.

The Master of Black Sand Tower laughed again. " Although I'm not that shameless, I've enslaved many Two-Headed Hounds. These Two-Headed Hounds are the most lustful. They definitely don't avoid meat and vegetables. "

The members of the Tang clan once again felt despair, and even some fear.

"Is it fun to play with us like this?" Tang Liuli couldn't help but speak up. " You villain. You can kill and plunder as you please. You're an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage. I didn't expect you to have such a bad character. "

The Tower Master of Black Sand Tower looked at Tang Liuli. " Since you can't stand me so much, you can just kill yourself. Or come and accompany me. I..."

"You want to bully my woman?"

Before the Master of Black Sand Tower could finish his sentence, he heard an indifferent voice coming from all directions, causing him to be unable to distinguish the direction.

"And you are?" Black Sand Tower Master's expression changed.

Without waiting for the owner of the voice to reply, the three Tang sisters could not help but shout.

" Husband, hurry up and leave. The Master of Black Sand Tower is an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage. You are no match for him. Hurry up and leave this place. "

“As long as there’s life, there’s hope. As long as you can survive, there will be a day when you take revenge. You can’t act on impulse.”

“Husband, the relationship between Black Sand Tower Master and Old Demon Flower Eater is not shallow. Other than wanting to obtain the body refining mystic art, he has come to the Tang family mainly to take revenge on Old Demon Flower Eater. You have to be careful.”

Seeing that the three sisters of the Tang family were still thinking about Zhu Wuan at this time, the Master of Black Sand Tower could not help but be moved.”Are you the Soul Formation Realm cultivator protecting the Tang family? It seems that you have good taste. The three women you found are all loyal to you and are still thinking of you wholeheartedly at this time. However, are you willing to watch them die like this?”

“You can try!” Zhu Wuan leaned back on the bamboo chair and said with a grim expression. His voice spread across the air to the surroundings of the Black Sand Tower Master, making it impossible for him to find any trace of Zhu Wuan.

Upon hearing Zhu Wuan’s confidence, the Master of Black Sand Tower’s expression changed slightly. He tried to reach out to the three Tang sisters.

“Dang ...”

Immediately, the Master of Black Sand Tower was stunned to discover that a transparent and colorless cage had risen around him. As he stretched out his hand, the color appeared. The shape was like a dog collar, firmly trapping him within.

“This ... This ...” The Master of Black Sand Tower was stunned. He poured a large amount of Nascent Soul power into his right hand and blasted it toward the cage that was like a dog collar.

“Dong...”

Accompanied by an ear-piercing vibration sound, the Master of Black Sand Tower felt his head spin. He actually could not hurt the cage at all. Instead, he was slightly injured by the impact of the vibration sound.

“Impossible!”

Feeling the injuries in his body, the Master of Black Sand Tower had an incredulous expression. He tried several more times, but not only did he fail to break out of the cage, he even suffered more injuries.

Most importantly, the Master of Black Sand Tower could clearly sense that the cage that was trapping him was not a formation or something like that. Instead, it was a Secret Skill of Heaven and Earth cast by other cultivators from a distance. If a Secret Skill of Heaven and Earth cast from a distance had such shocking power, one could imagine how powerful the other party was.

The Master of Black Sand Tower couldn't help but gasp. He felt that his mind was starting to go blank again. He had never thought that a Soul Formation Stage cultivator would suddenly become a Void Training Stage ancient giant, one whose strength was far greater than his.

If he had known this earlier, he would never have done such a thing for the old demon Flower Eater, much less for the so-called world's strongest body refining mystic technique. After all, what era was it now? The era of body refining cultivators had long passed. Even if he obtained the Thorny Glazed Jade Body, he would not cultivate it. He just wanted to refer to it.

Chapter 795: Husband Is Too Devoted (1)

The Master of Black Sand Tower would never have thought that his sudden impulse to avenge Old Demon Flower Eater and enjoy the three Tang sisters who had caused his death would bring about such a monstrous disaster.

To be honest, his relationship with Old Demon Flower Eater was quite good when he was still alive. The two of them were jackals of the same feather, especially fond of beauties.

However, Black Sand Tower Master was not as ruthless as Old Demon Flower Eater. After using the beauties, he actually wanted to eat them. Black Sand Tower Master only liked to enjoy himself, not eat people.

Thus, the Master of Black Sand Tower had a bottom line, and he hadn't been listed as a heretic for so many years.

However, with Old Demon Flower Eater's death, given Black Sand Tower Master's character, he really wouldn't go so far as to take revenge on Old Demon Flower Eater. At most, he would feel sorry for the deal that he couldn't reach.

However, before the Master of Black Sand Tower had even paid anything, Old Demon Flower Eater had died without even paying a deposit. The Master of Black Sand Tower had not lost anything.

The main reason was that as the news of Old Demon Flower Eater's death spread, the reputation of the three Tang sisters, who had indirectly caused Old Demon Flower Eater's demise, spread far and wide. They were gradually acclaimed as the most beautiful sisters of the Eternal Empire, and even Tang Yelan was hailed as the number one beauty.

The lustful Master of Black Sand Tower naturally began to drool. Coincidentally, the Red-eyebrowed Bandits under his command had unexpectedly obtained the news of the Thorny Glazed Jade Body, the strongest body-tempering mystic technique in the past. This also made the Master of Black Sand Tower somewhat curious.

Therefore, after some consideration, the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower decided to take a risk and take away the Glazed Thorn Jade Body and the three Tang sisters. As for Zhu Wuyang, the guardian of the "Soul Formation Stage", the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower did not take her seriously.

No matter how powerful a Soul Formation Stage cultivator was, he was only a Soul Formation Stage cultivator. How could he be a match for a Void Training Stage ancient giant? At most, he would be helpless against a Void Training Stage ancient giant. How could he possibly kill a Late Void Training Stage ancient giant?

Since she couldn't die, there was no problem. If her friends and family died, she could just nurture another batch. The most important thing was the number one beauty of the Eternal Empire. Furthermore, it would be even better if the number one beauty was a triplets.

Thus, the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower came to the Yinqing Imperial Capital. He would rather sacrifice some of his friends and family in order to enjoy the beauty of one of the top three beauties in the Eternal Empire.

However, the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower had never expected that the guardian who secretly protected the Tang family and possessed the three sisters of the Tang family was not a Soul Formation cultivator, but an ancient giant whose strength exceeded his.

This was f * cking...

Thinking of what he had just said, no one would let him off easily. The Master of Black Sand Tower considered for a moment and used the strongest secret skill he had mastered with all his might, wanting to break open the cage and escape.

"Black Sandstorm!"

"Sky Sand Spear!"

"Shadowless Salon!"

..

The Master of Black Sand Tower began to bombard the cage indiscriminately. Ear-piercing explosions continued to ring out, but they were basically isolated within the cage and did not affect the Tang clan members outside at all.

“Bang bang bang bang bang bang...”

“Puff! Puff! Puff! Puff! Puff! Puff!”

Accompanied by a deafening explosion, the Master of Black Sand Tower spurted out blood from the backlash, but he did not dare to stop. Compared to death, a little injury was nothing.

The Tang family members were all stunned when they saw the Master of Black Sand Tower, who kept spitting out blood while attacking the cage. They had never thought that the Master of Black Sand Tower, a mighty figure at the Void Training Stage, would not be able to break through this seemingly unremarkable cage.

Wasn't the guardian of the Tang Family a Soul Formation Stage cultivator? Was a Soul Formation Stage cultivator so powerful that he could trap a Late Void Refinement Stage ancient giant?

“Hiss...”

Soon, some members of the Tang family realized the truth of the matter and could not help but gasp.

” The Void Training Stage. That hidden expert must be an ancient powerhouse at the Void Training Stage. We've been mistaken. He's not a Soul Formation Stage cultivator.

“That hidden expert is not only an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage, but also not an ordinary ancient giant. Otherwise, how could he have imprisoned the Master of Black Sand Tower so easily? Our Tang family is going to be rich.”

” It's unbelievable. The big shot guarding our Tang Family is actually an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage, and at least at the Late Void Training Stage. Otherwise, how could he be so powerful? ”

” In the vast Eternal Empire, there aren't many ancient giants at the Void Training Stage. Our Tang family is so lucky to be protected by this ancient giant. ”

The three sisters of the Tang family were also so excited that their faces turned red. They had never thought that their husband would be an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage, not a Soul Formation Stage cultivator.

However, how could the two sisters be so favored? Every powerhouse at the Void Training Stage was a well-deserved overlord of the Eternal Empire, and every one of them had seventy-two concubines. Countless women cried and begged to be with them.

However, that Lord Husband who was secretly protecting the Tang family seemed, should, seemed... There were only three of them. She had never heard of him having other women. Otherwise, he would not have looked for them so frequently.

At the thought of this, the three sisters of the Tang family could not help but tear up. They wished they could be with Zhu Wuan immediately and let him practice in actual combat.

However, the three sisters of the Tang family didn't know that Zhu Wuwan had around 3,000 concubines in the Southern Wasteland. If they knew, who knew what they would think?

Oh right, other than these concubines, Zhu Wuwan had thousands of children. She even had a lot of grandchildren, many of whom were older than the three of them.

Some of their great-great-grandchildren and great-great-granddaughters were even older than them. Zhu Wuwan was actually the Sea God.

Even many of the higher-ups of the Tang family suddenly felt that as a hidden expert of the ancient giants, there were too few women around him. It seemed that there were only the three sisters of the Tang family.

This wasn't safe at all. Should he introduce some more women from the Tang family to Zhu Wuyan in the future, such as the cousins of the three Tang sisters, cousins, aunts, nieces, and so on...

Only then could he deepen his relationship with the hidden expert so that the hidden expert would not get tired of leaving and stay in the Tang family for a longer period of time.

Moreover, even if they didn't do this, when the various families and forces in the outside world learned of Zhu Wuan's true strength, they would definitely not let go of the opportunity. They would definitely do their best to send their outstanding women to Zhu Wuan's side.

She was an ancient giant, one who was at the Late Void Refinement Realm and above. How noble and noble was she? She should have three palaces, six courtyards, and seventy-two concubines.

That hidden expert was really too single-minded. He only had three women!

Chapter 796: Back and forth (1)

Zhu Wanhao did not expect that he would be praised for being loyal and affectionate again.

Although he really wanted to tell them that he already had more than 3,000 concubines in the Southern Wasteland, it would be a great spoil of scenery if he did so. Moreover, the reason why there were so many concubines at that time was actually because Zhu Wuwan was forced.

If it weren't for those powerful officials crying and shouting about their daughters, sisters, granddaughters, nieces...If she was sent to his bed, Zhu Wuyang would not make a mistake and have so many concubines all at once.

Thinking back, Zhu Wuyang was only about 20 years old at that time. She was at the age where her blood was boiling. How could she resist such temptation?

Moreover, Zhu Wuwan was in good health at that time, and her hormones were bursting. In addition, as the emperor, he naturally had to do as the romans did. Otherwise, how could he stand firm? Therefore, what he did at that time was indeed what he should have done.

Ever since she stopped being the emperor of the Nine Zhao Country, Zhu Wuwan had not acted recklessly. After so many years, Shu Fanruo was her only wife. She was really affectionate and devoted.

After all, he was a dignified Heavenly Pillar of Fusion, and he could faintly contend against the existence of a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal. Was it appropriate for him to have a few Dao companions? This was simply not appropriate.

The excited members of the Tang family almost prostrated themselves in worship. This was the first time in their lives that they had such an interaction with a Void Training Stage ancient giant.

In the vast Eternal Empire, there were only a few ancient giants at the Void Training Stage. The people of the Tang family had basically never seen an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage. They didn't expect that an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage would protect them in secret.

How honored, how terrified, how grateful!

“Bang bang bang...” Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang ...”

The Master of Black Sand Tower, who was in the cage, finally gave up. The frequency of the collision became smaller and smaller, and the strength of the collision also became smaller and smaller. Gradually, it stopped.

“Plop...”

The Master of Black Sand Tower was indeed a legendary big shot who was both righteous and evil. After realizing that he could not break through this cage and was far from being Zhu Wuyang's match, he decisively knelt on the ground. "Sir, I know my mistake. Please spare my life. I'm willing to offer all the resources and treasures I've accumulated over the years. I only hope that Sir can give me a way out."

Seeing the Master of Black Sand Tower, a mighty figure at the Void Training Stage, kneeling on the ground and begging for mercy, all the disciples of the Tang family were stunned. They didn't expect the Master of Black Sand Tower to be so cowardly that even they couldn't compare to him.

Previously, they still dared to fight against the Black Sand Tower Master, and it could be considered that they would rather die than submit. However, the Black Sand Tower Master was on his knees before that Lord Guardian could kill him.

You really can't judge a book by its cover!

"Hand over everything!" An indifferent voice came from all directions, without the slightest fluctuation of emotion.

The Master of Black Sand Tower was delighted. He hurriedly threw out his storage ring and magic treasures. "Half of my resources and treasures are here. The other half is buried in a secret place. Only after confirming that it's safe will I ..."

"Ka..."

Before the Master of Black Sand Tower could finish his sentence, huge bolts of lightning appeared out of thin air in the cage and smashed down on his face.

Dragon Tiger Nine Heavens Divine Thunder!

Facing this top-notch Heaven and Earth spell that extended from the Dragon Lake Treasured Bible, the Master of Black Sand Tower screamed in pain as he was bombarded. His entire body instantly turned into charcoal as he cried out in pain in the cage.

After a few dozen breaths, the Master of Black Sand Tower decisively revealed the location of the hidden treasure. He no longer dared to use this as a threat. In fact, Zhu Wuwan did not care about these resources and treasures.

How many resources and treasures could a mere cultivator at the Void Training Stage accumulate? Could they even compare to the fraction of the Heavenly Pillar of Fusion?

Over the years, Zhu Wuwan had secretly enslaved more than one or two Fusion Heavenly Pillars. The resources and treasures of the Black Sand Tower Master were only so important to him.

No, the surrounding members of the Tang family should also value it very much. Then, he would give it to them as compensation.

Zhu Wanhao told Tang Yelan the location of the treasure and asked her to find someone to retrieve it. Only then did he glance at the Master of Black Sand Tower, who was on the verge of death.

Zhu Wuan’s blunt words made the Black Sand Tower Master tremble. However, after hesitating for a moment, the Black Sand Tower Master still resolutely knelt in the cage and kowtowed to the three sisters and the disciples of the Tang family in apology. “I was wrong. I shouldn’t have insulted the three madams verbally, and I shouldn’t have come to the Tang family to cause trouble. I hope everyone can forgive me this once. I won’t dare to do it again in the future. I swear on the Heavenly Dao that if I go against my oath, I will never die a good death...”

The apology of the Master of Black Sand Tower was very sincere and profound. At least, it seemed so. The three sisters and the disciples of the Tang family were also moved. After all, the person who kowtowed to them was an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage, an existence that they could not reach in the past.

However, they did not expect that such a legendary expert would kneel in front of them and kowtow in apology like a dog.

Just how powerful was the guardian hiding behind the Tang family that the Master of Black Sand Tower was so afraid of?

Could it be that he wasn’t a Void Training Stage ancient giant, but a higher level...Fusion Heavenly Pillar?

Many of the Tang family’s disciples could not help but gasp. Thinking of the Guardian’s previous actions, every time they thought that the Guardian’s strength was only so, the Guardian would reveal even more powerful and terrifying strength.

If that was the case, perhaps it would be the same this time.

However, was it really possible to combine the Heavenly Pillars?

Most of the Tang clan disciples were still in disbelief. They forcefully suppressed their surging emotions and continued to look at the Master of Black Sand Tower, who was kowtowing non-stop, and silently recorded it down with the Photostone.

After an unknown period of time, the Master of Black Sand Tower had already kowtowed until his head was covered in blood. He said miserably, “Milord, I have kowtowed and Qian has fallen. Please leave me a way out. I have already sworn on the Heavenly Dao that I will definitely not target the Tang family in the future. Please rest assured."

"Cripple your own strength." Zhu Wuan remained unmoved and stated his next request.

However, this request caused the Master of Black Sand Tower to tremble. He stood up in disbelief."Sir, aren't you going too far? If I cripple my own strength, I'm afraid I won't be able to live for many years. Moreover, I have many enemies. Once they find out about this, I'll definitely be doomed. You might as well kill me directly."

"Boom..."

As soon as Black Sand Tower Master's words fell, countless lightning bolts appeared in the cage and struck down fiercely at him, attempting to kill him.

Facing this increasingly terrifying lightning, the Master of Black Sand Tower was struck to the ground at the first possible moment. He began to roll around in pain."Sir, I know my mistake. As long as you give me a way out and let me preserve my strength, I will do anything."

Chapter 797: Are You Worthy (1)

Zhu Wuyang was expressionless as he faced the Master of Black Sand Tower who was begging for mercy. Bolts of lightning struck down continuously, shattering the Master of Black Sand Tower's meridians, dantian, immortal meridians, and Niwan Palace...

Since the Master of Black Sand Tower was unwilling to cripple his own strength, then Zhu Wuyang would help him cripple his own strength.

Sensing the power that was disappearing bit by bit, the Master of Black Sand Tower felt like he was about to die. He said in a somewhat miserable manner,"Now that my strength is crippled, you can let me go, right?"

"Kill yourself, leave your soul to light the lamp!" Zhu Wuyang continued with her next request.

The Master of Black Sand Tower finally gave up. "Who are you? Why are you playing with me like this? Since you have no intention of letting me go, why did you make so many requests?"

"Are you happy?" Zhu Wuwan's indifferent voice remained.

The Master of Black Sand Tower was stunned. He gritted his teeth and said,"Are you taking revenge on me and giving me a taste of my own medicine?"

"Are you worthy?" Zhu Wuyang said.

The lightning was like a blade that destroyed the internal organs of the Master of Black Sand Tower, causing his body to die completely. His soul was also extracted and turned into an even brighter candle flame. In the future, he would have to endure the pain of refining his soul day and night.

Since he dared to do such a thing to his woman, then don't blame Zhu Wuyang for being ruthless. As for the other mistakes of the Master of Black Sand Tower, Zhu Wuyang did not care.

Everyone from the Tang family was stunned for a long time as they looked at the Master of Black Sand Tower who was screaming in pain under the candlelight. Then, they knelt down and thanked Zhu Wuwan together. Only the three sisters of the Tang family were still standing.

When they hung the corpse of the Master of Black Sand Tower outside and placed the Soul Lamp outside, the Tang family members were still dizzy, feeling as if they were stepping on cotton.

They still couldn't believe that the big shot who was secretly protecting the Tang family wasn't a Soul Formation cultivator, but a Void Training powerhouse.

It really felt like a fantasy.

Many individuals and factions had already gathered outside, waiting for news. Looking at the corpse and soul lamp of the Master of Black Sand Tower hanging outside, many onlookers were shocked.

"No, no, no. The Master of Black Sand Tower was actually killed, and even his soul was turned into a Soul Lamp. In the future, he will have to suffer day and night like Old Demon Flower Eater."

"Heavens! How powerful must the guardian of the Tang Clan be? Even the Master of Black Sand Tower, who was at the Late Void Refinement Realm, was beaten up like this. Could it be that the guardian is a peerless powerhouse at the Perfect Void Refinement Realm?"

"How many good deeds has the Tang family done? Their ancestral graves must be smoking. It's simply unbelievable that they can actually obtain the favor of such an expert. I really wish I had daughters like the three sisters of the Tang family. That way, I can give them to that lord."

"Look, there are so many Photostones beside the Master of Black Sand Tower. Let's open them and see what's inside."

The contents of the stone contained the words of the Black Sand Tower Master, which was the deep relationship between him and Old Demon Flower-eater. Upon seeing the contents of the stone, the spectators were stunned. They had never thought that the number one neutral expert of the Eternal Empire would be a good friend of Old Demon Flower-eater.

In addition, there was some evidence of Old Demon Flower Eater's crimes in his storage ring. There was no lack of unsightly photographic stones that the Tang family had released.

Upon seeing the evidence and the photographic stone, many onlookers were furious. In an instant, the Tang family's reputation and influence rose to a higher level.

"I didn't think that the Master of Black Sand Tower was actually such a beast. The bad things he has done are not much worse than Old Demon Flower Eater. All these years, he has been pretending to be a gentleman."

"No wonder Black Sand Tower Master suddenly attacked the Tang family. It's because of Old Demon Flower-eater. Now it makes sense. The Tower Master of Black Sand Tower is definitely not a good person to be able to befriend Old Demon Flower-eater. The Tang family has eliminated another pest for our Eternal Empire."

"This isn't a pest. This is an evil dragon. In the entire Eternal Empire, how many cultivators are a match for the Master of Black Sand Tower? If it weren't for the fact that the Tang clan had gotten rid of him, who knows how many more evil things the Master of Black Sand Tower would have done in the future?"

"Many factions have already confirmed this matter. The Master of Black Sand Tower is indeed not a good person. He has done many bad things over the years. However, many families and factions do not dare to say anything because of the Master of Black Sand Tower's strength."

With the fall of the Master of Black Sand Tower, many truths that had been hidden and covered up in the past surfaced. Only then did the people of the Eternal Empire know that the Master of Black Sand Tower had actually done so many evil things over the years.

However, because of the Master of Black Sand Tower's tyrannical strength, most of the families and factions did not dare to pursue the matter. This forcefully allowed the Master of Black Sand Tower to have the identity of the number one neutral expert. They did not dare to attribute him to the ranks of the heretics.

There was no other reason than the fact that the Master of Black Sand Tower, who was protected by layers of Spiritual Arrays in his lair, was not someone they could resist. It was even nearly impossible for the Imperial Family to take down the Master of Black Sand Tower.

If that was the case, it would be better to turn a blind eye to it, lest he angered the Master of Black Sand Tower and completely blackened him, making him go against the Eternal Empire at all costs like the Old Demon Flower-eater.

In truth, the Tower Master of Black Sand should have been hunted down long ago for his evil deeds. Unfortunately, the Eternal Empire was unable to do so.

To be honest, the Eternal Empire was more afraid of Black Sand Tower Master than the Soul Formation Realm Old Demon Flower Eater. After all, no matter how much the latter wreaked havoc, the Eternal Empire could suppress him. Even if they couldn't kill him, they could beat him into hiding and not dare to show his face or cause trouble.

However, the Tower Master of Black Sand Tower was different. Once he openly opposed the Eternal Empire, the Eternal Empire would be helpless. A fierce battle would be inevitable, and the chances of victory would be slim.

Now that the Tower Master of Black Sand had fallen, perhaps the members of the Eternal Empire's royal family were the happiest, apart from the Tang family.

The Zhao royal family immediately sent over a large number of rewards and gifts. Some of them were given to the Tang family, while the other part was prepared for Zhu Wuwan, an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage. They were quite tactful.

Some of the clans and forces that had a grudge against the Master of Black Sand Tower also sent a lot of resources and treasures. Some were for Zhu Wuwan, some were for the Tang family, and there were all kinds of different things. The value was quite considerable, allowing the Tang family's strength to increase further.

Zhu Wuyang's prestige and prestige in the Eternal Empire were like a great sun that rose into the sky, illuminating the vast Eternal Empire and making countless factions and individuals prostrate themselves in worship.

As an expert who had defeated Old Demon Flower Eater and the Master of Black Sand Tower, Zhu Wuyang deserved such glory and fame. However, he did not care about it. It was just a mere false reputation of the Eternal Empire. He did not need to take it to heart.

Chapter 798: Ultimate Fusion (1)

After Black Sand Tower Master was turned into a Soul Lamp, Zhu Wuyan's reputation was like a raging tide that swept through the entire Eternal Empire and even the surrounding empires.

Some people had even praised Zhu Wanhao as one of the top three peerless magnates in the Eternal Empire. The Tang family had also benefited greatly from this event.

Not to mention the resources and treasures obtained from Black Sand Tower, just in terms of reputation and influence, the Tang family had become a glorious family of the ancient family. After all, the Tang family had an ancient giant holding down the fort. Moreover, this ancient giant was willing to kill another ancient giant for the Tang family. How important was this to the Tang family?

Or rather, how much he doted on the three sisters of the Tang family!

The Tang clan took this opportunity to become one of the top-ranking super clans in the Eternal Empire. They sat still, and a large amount of resources and treasures descended to feed them.

And just as the Tang family was worried about, many families began to have crooked thoughts after seeing this. They wanted to send their outstanding women to Zhu Wuwan's bed to see if they could benefit from it.

Zhu Wuwan was so affectionate and devoted. If he could take a fancy to their woman, wouldn't it mean that their family would be able to soar like the Tang family?

Although the three sisters of the Tang family were beautiful, men liked the new and hated the old. Even if the girls in their family were not as beautiful as the three sisters of the Tang family, they were fresh. Perhaps Zhu Wuyang would like them.

If it wasn't for the fact that Zhu Wanhao's identity was unknown and that she came and went without a trace, she would have long been drowned by the virgins who had delivered themselves to her door.

Seeing the crazy looks of these families and sects, Zhu Wuwan could not help but shake his head and sigh. It was not that he was not affectionate enough or not loyal enough, but these women were too proactive.

In such a world, it was impossible for a strong cultivator like Zhu Wuyang to not be a playboy. Zhu Wuyang had already restrained herself enough to only have these few women after becoming a high-level cultivator.

However, the reason for this was also because he had learned his lesson from the Jiuzhao Kingdom in the past. In just a short year or so, he had forcefully married more than 3,000 concubines. After that, Zhu Wuyang also felt that it was a little too exaggerated.

Perhaps the people in this world didn't care, but for Zhu Wuyang, who had come from a modern monogamy society, she really felt a little guilty.

The people of the Tang family were also rejoicing. Fortunately, that hidden expert had always been hiding. Even the higher-ups of the Tang family did not know where that hidden expert was hiding. Otherwise, they would really not be able to withstand the wolf-like army of beauties.

Countless cultivators of the Eternal Empire were shocked to see that Zhu Wanhao didn't seem to care about any of the beauties she had offered. No matter how many families and sects in the Eternal Empire tried, they couldn't send any of their beauties to Zhu Wanhao's bed.

"The guardian of the Tang clan is too loyal and affectionate. The mighty ancient giant only has three women, and they can all be considered wives. He doesn't even have a concubine. This is the first time I've seen such a loyal ancient giant."

"The three sisters of the Tang family are really lucky to be able to obtain the companionship and favor of an ancient giant. Think about the women of the other ancient giants, which one of them doesn't have thousands of sisters?"

"It's a pity that such a loyal and affectionate tycoon didn't take a fancy to any of our family's women. Most importantly, this lord actually took a fancy to all of the Tang family's women. The Tang family's luck is simply heaven-defying. It's a little unbelievable."

"If one day I can find such a loving ancient giant as my husband, I will treat him wholeheartedly and never dare to have any other thoughts."

"The three sisters of the Tang family are a little too much. The three of them are hogging an ancient giant and not giving anyone else a chance. They are too greedy."

Zhu Wuyan's expression became a little strange when she overheard some discussions. Fortunately, the female boxers from Earth did not transmigrate over. Otherwise, they would definitely throw punches.

However, with the nature of many female boxers, they might be too happy to think about their home. After all, in this world where the strong were respected, male high-level cultivators could have three palaces, six courtyards, and seventy-two concubines, and so could female high-level cultivators. Both sides could be considered equal to a certain extent.

For example, many female high-level Cultivators in the Eternal Empire had thousands of gigolos. They were practically brides and bridal chambers every night, playing far more than Zhu Wuwan.

At the thought of this, Zhu Wuyang suddenly felt that what she had done in the Jiuzhao Kingdom was nothing. After all, Zhu Wuyang was the emperor back then. As an emperor, if he didn't have three palaces, six courtyards, and seventy-two concubines, would he want others to call him a eunuch?

He had successfully obtained the complete inheritance of the Nirvana Ceremony and helped the Tang family become an ancient family. For the time being, he did not have to worry about the restrictions and threats of the outside world.

In that case, he could earn breakthrough stones with all his might and advance to the perfected Body Integration Heavenly Pillar as soon as possible. He could break the God Sealing Restriction and the Origin Sealing Restriction and then advance to the Mahayana Quasi-Immortal Realm.

In order to earn a quick sum of money, after some consideration, Zhu Wuyang decided to give out another set meal after so many years. Of course, the set meal would be more difficult to describe.

This way, those who had accepted the set meal wouldn't casually say it out loud and cause trouble for Zhu Wuyang. After all, Zhu Wuyang had already delivered set meals to many places over the years, especially those set meals delivered in the Heart Control area. It was easy to associate them together.

Therefore, for the sake of safety, Zhu Wuwan decided to give away those packages that she couldn't say out loud, those that were more hidden, or those that would take many years to act up. She wanted to save up the breakthrough stones needed to advance to the perfected Body Integration realm as soon as possible.

After some consideration, Zhu Wanhao spent most of her time on delivering the set meal while chatting with the three Tang sisters occasionally. The breakthrough stones she earned began to increase at an extremely fast speed, and she was getting closer and closer to the breakthrough requirement.

At the same time, Zhu Wuyang was also secretly enslaving more countries, earning a large amount of resources and treasures from these countries. After a round of trading, they would be exchanged for breakthrough stones.

Unknowingly, Zhu Wuyang had already taken control of about one-third of the Nirvana Tower's secular territory. The resources and treasures in this area had also been plundered by Zhu Wuyang.

Therefore, on a dark and windy night, Zhu Wuwan successfully broke through to the perfected Body Integration Realm. In the following months, her strength rose to the pinnacle of the Body Integration Realm. Next, she should accumulate breakthrough stones and break through the shackles of the Great Vehicle Stage. From there, she would step into the Great Vehicle Stage.

As long as he could step into the Mahayana Realm, with Zhu Wuyan's solid foundation, he would definitely be able to dominate the Dongyuan Continent and be invincible. He would no longer be afraid of any large immortal sect in the Dongyuan Continent.

Chapter 799: The Mastermind Behind the Scenes Is Too Strong (1)

Although he had already stepped into the pinnacle of Body Integration, Zhu Wuwan still hadn't removed the God Sealing Restriction and the Origin Sealing Restriction of the Three Immortal Sealing Restriction, even though he could easily remove them with his current strength.

However, why should he lift the ban at this time? It was better to leave it until he advanced to the dacheng stage, so that the chances of breaking through were greater and he could get more help.

Therefore, after a brief consideration, Zhu Wanhao decided to wait until he had accumulated enough breakthrough stones before removing the God Sealing Restriction and the Essence Sealing Restriction. At the same time, he would also extract Tang Yelan's Nine Yin Profound Accumulations and successfully advance to the Mahayana Stage.

The shackles of the Heavenly Chasm leading to the Mahayana Realm and the Quasi-Immortal Realm were too indestructible. Even if Zhu Wuwan wanted to advance, it would be difficult, so he had to be prepared.

Moreover, Zhu Wuyan's life was very stable and safe at the moment. There was no need to be in such a hurry to undo the God Sealing Restriction and the Origin Sealing Restriction. If he really encountered danger, Zhu Wuyan could undo the God Sealing Restriction and the Origin Sealing Restriction at any time to further increase his strength and deal with the enemy's attacks.

Moreover, even if he had not unlocked the God Sealing Restriction and the Origin Sealing Restriction, with his current strength alone, Zhu Wuwan had absolute confidence that he could sweep across the invincible body. Even if he faced an ordinary early Dacheng stage quasi-immortal, he still had the power to fight.

Under such circumstances, Zhu Wuwan was not in a hurry to break through. Moreover, there were still decades before the opening of the three thousand major worlds, so there was no rush.

Therefore, it was better to consolidate his cultivation foundation and make full preparations before breaking through the shackles of the natural moat in one fell swoop and stepping into a new stage.

The number of breakthrough stones needed to break through from the pinnacle of the Body Integration Stage to the Great Vehicle Stage was not a small number. It could even be called terrifying. After all, Zhu Wuyan cultivated the world's first inheritance Nirvana ceremony, so the number of breakthrough stones consumed was slightly more.

In order to save up enough breakthrough stones, Zhu Wuwan's following days were quite fulfilling. Unfortunately, year after year and after so many actual combat drills, the three Tang sisters were still unable to get pregnant. To be precise, it was Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli who were unable to get pregnant. Zhu Wuwan finally realized how difficult it was for talented high-level cultivators to give birth.

If it weren't for the fact that she already had more than 3,000 children, Zhu Wuwan would have wanted to use the essence adjusting technique. However, if she really couldn't get pregnant after a long time, and Tang Mingyue and Tang Liuli were especially eager for children, Zhu Wuwan would also use the essence adjusting technique in the future.

Although Zhu Wuwan had already thought that what he had done in Nirvana Tower's territory would be discovered sooner or later, she didn't expect it to be discovered so quickly.

In Zhu Wuan's opinion, as long as he could drag it out for decades without being discovered, it would be easy to solve these things after he successfully advanced to the Mahayana Stage. However, many things could not be changed by personal will, even if Zhu Wuan's luck in Dongyuan Continent was quite good.

On top of the Heavenly Ancestor Mountain in the Monster Moon Empire.

The two Fusion Heavenly Pillars looked at the majestic Demonic Moon Imperial Capital at the foot of the mountain. Their expressions were rather ugly, and they even felt a chill in their hearts.

The two of them were the deacons of Nirvana Tower, second only to the elders. They were also the Heavenly Pillar of the late Body Integration Stage and had cultivated the first Nirvana Ceremony in the world. They were invincible among their peers. There were not many things that could make them moved, let alone something that made them feel cold.

Zhang Haiyan, the tall and sturdy Body Integration Stage Executor, looked at Zhu Wu, the tall and thin Body Integration Stage Executor, and said, "Is it the same in the Monster Moon Empire?"

"The situation in the Monster Moon Empire is even more serious." Zhu Wu's expression was solemn. "The Demon Moon Empire also has the Integration Heavenly Pillar. Moreover, this Integration Heavenly Pillar Demon Moon Ancestor has the support of a perfected Dacheng realm ancestor. I didn't expect it to be more serious than other empires with Integration Heavenly Pillars."

Zhang Haiyan's expression changed slightly, " It seems that we are getting closer and closer to that force. The further we go, the less serious it is. The closer we get to the inner circle, the more serious it is. I don't know who is so daring to secretly plunder the resources and treasures of so many territories of Nirvana Tower. "

Zhu Wu could not help but gasp. " So far, we have discovered that the resources and treasures of 626 empires have been plundered. Moreover, these resources and treasures have been sold to the territories of other large immortal sects. There are many specialties and strategic resources among them. The person behind all of this is really too unscrupulous. "

Zhang Haiyan sneered. " We only noticed something unusual, so we came here to investigate. I didn't expect to find such a big bomb. It's unbelievable. "

Zhu Wu frowned and said, " How about this? This matter involves too much. It's not something that the two of us can control. To be able to secretly plunder the resources and treasures of so many empires, this force is unimaginably powerful. There must be a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal guarding it. For safety's sake, we should report it as soon as possible. "

Zhang Haiyan shook his head. " We haven't even found the culprit. We don't even know who's behind this. If we report this to the authorities, how much credit do you think we can get? "

"This..." Zhu Wu was silent. He thought for a moment and said, " To be able to plunder the resources and treasures of so many territories without anyone noticing, there must be some high-ranking officials of these empires working together. There might even be more than one person. We can tell them that. "

"Who exactly are the spies?" Zhang Haiyan laughed.

Zhu Wu fell silent again, not knowing what to say.

" So what if he's a Mahayana Quasi-Immortal? " Zhang Haiyan said. " Although we're not his match, it shouldn't be difficult for us to escape with the teleportation technique. So, it's not dangerous. "

"Moreover, we've already reached this stage of the investigation. We're getting closer and closer to the center of that faction. Wouldn't it be a pity to give up just like that? If we can hand over the complete information of that faction to the sect, we'll definitely be able to obtain ten times or a hundred times more merits than what we have now. This is much better than reporting it now."

Zhu Wu thought about it and agreed, but he still said, "If that's the case, then we'll have to investigate for a while more. However, we must be extremely careful. If we hadn't discovered something unusual by chance, it would have taken at least a few decades to discover that someone was able to steal more than one-third of our Nirvana Tower's resources and treasures. We can imagine who the culprit behind this is. Perhaps it's the work of the other super immortal sects."

"Not bad." Zhang Haiyan also nodded seriously, "'To be able to do this, the strength and power of the person behind the scenes can be said to be earth-shattering. Ordinary Mahayana Quasi-Immortals can't do this. Perhaps it's really done by those other super immortal sects. We must be extremely cautious."

Chapter 800: This Isn't Scientific (1)

In Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu's opinion, the mastermind must be a very powerful force to be able to secretly control about one-third of Nirvana Tower's territory and plunder the resources and treasures in such a large area in just a few decades.

If it wasn't for the fact that it was a massive faction, how could it have plundered so many treasures and resources in such a short period of time? It should have secretly controlled many of the upper echelons of these empires.

Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu had never thought that the mastermind behind all of this was only one person. However, this person was proficient in the Dao of Array Formation, the Dao of Witchcraft, and the Dao of Poison...He had also mastered all kinds of Heaven and Earth Spells and Secret Skills of Heaven and Earth, which made him omnipotent. In a short period of time, he had gained control of a large number of higher-ups in these empires, and he could use the power of these higher-ups to plunder resources and treasures.

However, it could also be said that the one who plundered these resources and treasures was indeed a terrifying force. It was just that other than Zhu Wuwan, the members of this force were all formed by Nirvana Tower's own people.

To be honest, even if he told Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu about this, they would still think that someone was joking with them. They would never believe it.

However, Zhu Wanhao did not expect that Nirvana Tower would discover the clues so quickly. They even sent Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu to investigate this matter. Clearly, there were results.

However, thinking about it carefully, Zhu Wuyan's luck was already amazing to be able to hide from the number one immortal sect in the world for so long. Therefore, it was not surprising that she was discovered now.

Regrettably, Zhu Wuwan had yet to break through to the Mahayana Realm. Otherwise, it would be perfect.

While Zhu Wuwan was unaware, Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu's investigation continued and gradually locked onto the Eternal Empire.

As the number one immortal sect in Dongyuan Continent, how could Nirvana Tower not have a monitoring department for these empires? With the help of the monitoring department, Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu spent only half a month to lock onto the Yinqing Imperial Capital.

According to the result of the lock and speculation, the abnormality of the resources of the hundreds of empires under Nirvana Tower started from here. Moreover, the resources of these hundreds of empires had always been connected to this place. Therefore, if there were no accidents, the enemy should be hiding in the Yinqing Imperial Capital.

After a careful disguise, Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu arrived at the Yinqing Imperial Capital, ready to investigate the mastermind behind all this.

For the sake of safety, the two of them didn't even let the cultivators from the Nirvana Tower's special department in. Instead, the two of them personally investigated to avoid any abnormalities. It was obvious that the two of them were cautious.

Relying on Nirvana Tower's unique concealment technique, even Zhu Wuwan did not notice that Emperor Yin Qing had sent in two Heavenly Pillars at the late Body Integration Stage and above.

Time passed day by day. In the blink of an eye, half a month had passed. However, no matter how Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu dug three feet into the ground, they did not find anything unusual.

Not to mention the terrifying force hidden in the dark, even the big shots who were speculated to be above the Dacheng Quasi-Immortal level did not discover it. Many clues were cut off here as if they had been cut off by a knife, and no clues were found.

On this day, Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu arrived at the square in front of the Tang clan's mansion. They watched as countless residents from various regions of the Eternal Empire hurled abuse at the souls of Old Demon Flower Eater and Black Sand Tower Master. A strange look flashed across their faces.

"I didn't expect that such a day would come for a Soul Formation Stage cultivator and a Void Training Stage powerhouse. The Tang Family is really extraordinary. They actually have such an expert backing them."

"He's just a giant at the Void Training Stage. He can be easily crushed. Don't worry about him. It's just that we haven't found out who the mastermind is. It's really a headache."

Zhang Haiyan and Zhu Wu both sighed.

“That shouldn’t be the case. To be able to cause such a huge commotion in one-third of our Nirvana Tower’s territory, this force must be extraordinary. All the clues point to this place, which means that this place should be the place where those resources and treasures are gathered. Then, they are sold in all directions from here. Why is there no abnormality at all?” Zhu Wu was puzzled.

Zhang Haiyan nodded and said, “ There are no clues at all, let alone abnormalities. Many resources and treasures were clearly pointed to this place, but we couldn’t find anything. It was as if they had disappeared into thin air. Could it be that this place is just a place used by the enemy to mislead us, and the enemy’s headquarters are somewhere else? ”

” That’s highly possible. Otherwise, with their power, they wouldn’t have been found so easily by the two of us. ” Zhu Wu nodded. ” Moreover, since they dare to plunder resources and treasures in our Nirvana Tower’s territory, they must be stupid to place the gathering of resources and treasures in our Nirvana Tower’s territory. We were a little preconceived. ”

Zhang Haiyan smiled bitterly. ” That’s true. The other party is so powerful that they are definitely not ordinary people. How could we find them so easily? It seems that we still need to investigate the other resource gathering places and look for clues, especially those that lead to other forces in the surrounding area. ”

“We’ve been stuck at the Yin Qing emperor for such a long time, our brains must have been filled with water.” Zhu Wu patted his head. ” We should have thought of this before. But now, we suddenly realize that we’re really stupid. ”

Zhang Haiyan smiled bitterly. ” Exactly. We were scared by the other party and we were eager to make contributions. That’s why we made such a low-level mistake. By the way, have you noticed anything unusual since you’ve been at the Yin Qing Emperor? ”

“Abnormal?” Zhu Wu frowned and thought for a moment.”The abnormality is similar to other empires. It’s just that the flow of resources and treasures here is abnormal. As for other aspects ... That’s right, the Tang Trading Company that had risen in the past twenty to thirty years was quite unusual, especially the so-called guardian behind it. He had revealed his Golden Core, Nascent Soul, and Soul Formation stage one after another...It’s quite interesting to have the strength up to the Void Training Stage, but nothing else.”

“The strangest thing is that even with my strength, I can’t find out where the guardian of the Tang family is hiding. This isn’t something that an ordinary Void Training Stage ancient giant can do. I even guessed that the guardian of the Tang family isn't an ancient giant at the Void Training Stage, but a Heavenly Pillar like us."

" But thinking about it carefully, it's a bit exaggerated. It's already not bad for such a small family to be taken in by an ancient giant. How could it be taken in by a Heaven's Pillar? "

" So you can't find the guardian of the Tang family? " Zhang Haiyan was surprised. " Do you think this person is related to the force behind the scenes? "
