Chapter 81 - 81: Unexpected (1)

Chapter 81: Unexpected (1)

"Congratulations to the host for meeting the peerless expert, Blood Sea Scimitar, who is ranked tenth in the game for the first time in his life. You have received 500,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for meeting the seventh-ranked peerless experts in the world of martial arts, Kong Zhiwei and Kong Zhiwu, for the first time in his life. You have obtained 900,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being forced to enter by Returning Cliff, Kong Zhiwei, and Kong Zhiwu for the first time in his life. You have obtained 3 million breakthrough points..."

Zhu Wanwan was helpless. 'I originally wanted to use the moon, but the moon shines on the ditch. I already said that I don't want to be forced to increase my breakthrough points and continue to increase my strength. I didn't expect to obtain a few million breakthrough points in such a short period of time.'

Fortunately, the Tibetan Twins and the Blood Sea Scimitar did not have any killing intent towards the already "crippled" Crown Prince Zhu Wuyang. Otherwise, Zhu Wuyang would have died today.

"I, Gui Zhiya, pay my respects to Your Highness. I wish Your Highness the crown prince a long life ahead of time!"

"Pugilistic commoner Kong Zhiwei (Kong Zhiwu) greets Your Highness the Crown Prince. I wish the Crown Prince, Shou Binan, the new ruler!"

After entering the Crown Prince's bedchamber, the three top ten experts in Jianghu knelt down in front of Zhu Wuan. Many guards, palace maids, and eunuchs behind them witnessed it with their own eyes. They were stunned for a moment. They never thought that Zhu Wuan, the already "useless" Crown Prince, would have such charm that the top ten experts in Jianghu would kneel down in front of him.

"Congratulations to the host for being framed by the top ten peerless experts in the game, Gui Zhiya, Kong Zhiwei, and Kong Zhiwu, for the first time in your life. You have received 3 million breakthrough points. Due to the importance of strength, 90% of the breakthrough points will be automatically used to increase the host's strength! "

From the Special Encounter System's prompt, Zhu Wuyang had already understood the truth of the matter. However, no matter how resentful Zhu Wuyang was, she could only sit on the Xuan Bing bed and say with a pleasant expression for the sake of her own life when faced with these three evil villains. "Please rise. I wonder why you have come to visit. I don't seem to know you?"

Gui Zhiya, Kong Zhiwei, and Kong Zhiwu smiled at each other and explained their purpose for coming.

"We've heard that the Crown Prince is wise and powerful, that he's unique among the princes and princesses, and that he's the top scorer of his age in the Royal Family Tournament. Therefore, we've come to visit the Crown Prince in order to gain a better background. We hope that the Crown Prince can accept us. "

"The Crown Prince has been keeping a low profile. Although he has encountered some setbacks recently, as long as we are put in an important position, the Crown Prince will not have to worry about his own safety. We will also assist the Crown Prince in ascending to the throne. "

These three fellows were afraid that Zhu Wuyang would not be suspected enough by the Mad Emperor, Zhu Zhenwu, so they framed Zhu Wuyang with every word. Moreover, they were quite straightforward. The surrounding guards, palace maids, and eunuchs could all understand what they meant, and they were all speechless for a moment.

Even if Zhu Wuan used his toes to think, he knew that in less than two hours, the words of Gui Zhiya, Kong Zhiwei, and Kong Zhiwu would spread throughout the entire palace.

There were many people who knew that these three fellows were clearly trying to frame Zhu Wuyan, causing Zhu Wuyan to be suspected by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. However, it was inevitable that there would be some fools who would believe them and bring some trouble to Zhu Wuyan.

Moreover, with Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's crazy personality, even if Gui Zhiya and Kong Zhiwei's plan was so clumsy and obvious, he might still believe it.

Looking at the 'loyal' disguises of the ugly duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar, Zhu

Wuyang's expression was very calm. "In that case, everyone can stay in the Crown Prince's Palace as guards."

Err ...

Hearing Zhu Wuyang's words, the ugly duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar were slightly stunned. They looked at each other and secretly thought that there was something wrong with Zhu Wuyang's reaction.

According to the information they had obtained from someone, under normal circumstances, when Zhu Wuan, the "useless crown prince", heard them say this, he would only turn pale with fright and be extremely frightened. Then, he would tell them to scam quickly so that they could take the opportunity to leave. After all, their goal had been achieved.

However, they didn't expect that Zhu Wuan would actually let them stay behind as guards. Could it be that Zhu Wuan really harbored ill intentions towards the position of the Grand Commander and treated them as virtuous officials and experts who had sincerely come to assist him?

Thinking of this, the Tibetan Chou Duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar didn't know whether to laugh or cry. They were in a difficult position.

The expressions of the surrounding guards, eunuchs, and palace maids also changed. They looked at Zhu Wuyang in disbelief, as if they had finally seen the other side of Zhu Wuyang.

For a moment, the entire Crown Prince Palace fell into awkward silence.

"Congratulations to the host for deceiving the Ugly Tibetan Duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar for the first time in your life. You have obtained 1,000,000 breakthrough points..."

The Special Encounter System did not want to be outdone and jumped out to show its existence.

While the Crown Prince Palace fell into silence because of Zhu Wuyang's words, Shi Yixi also came to the Palace of Heavenly Purity. However, with her status, she could not meet the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu directly. At most, she could only meet Zhu Jinzong, who was in charge of the Internal Officials. "Manager Zhu, please save His Highness the Crown Prince!"

Shi Yixi hurriedly said as soon as she entered Zhu Jinzong's room.

"What happened to the Crown Prince?" Zhu Jinzong's expression changed slightly.

"Just now, the top ten masters in Jianghu, the Cang Bian Chou Duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar, broke into the Crown Prince's Palace and wanted to pay a visit to the Crown Prince. They are obviously up to no good. Please send some masters to kill them and save the Crown Prince." Shi Yixi said.

Zhu Jinzong was stunned. A series of thoughts appeared in his mind. "Did His Highness the Crown Prince ask you to come to the Palace of Heavenly Purity for help?"

“Yes.” Shi Yixi quickly nodded. “His Highness the Crown Prince does not know the Twin-faced Chou Duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar. When they visited, he rejected them. However, he did not expect them to break into the Crown Prince’s Palace by force. That is why His Highness the Crown Prince sent me to the Palace of Heavenly Purity to ask for help and kill these two crazy people.”

Zhu Jinzong raised his eyebrows slightly and a look of surprise flashed across his face. He didn’t expect Zhu Wuyang to make such a decision.

Zhu Jinzong, who knew everything in the palace like the back of his hand, immediately sensed a conspiracy.

If his speculation was correct, the so-called ugly duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar had gone to the Crown Prince’s Palace to pay a visit. There should be a prince and princess who were framing the Crown Prince, Zhu Wuan.

These guys were really too much. Zhu Wuwan, the crown prince, was already “completely crippled”, yet they still wanted to use him. They were really unlucky..

Chapter 82: A Wave Has Not Been Settled (1)

Zhu Jinzong, who was experienced in all matters in the palace, realized that Zhu Wuyang, the “useless Crown Prince”, had been framed from Shi Yixi’s few words.

It was obvious that the other party wanted to use Zhu Wuan, the “useless crown prince”, as a shield to divert Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu’s attention away from the results of the death competition. This way, he could escape this calamity and avoid being targeted by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu.

However, this method was a little too clumsy. What surprised Zhu Jinzong the most was the reaction of the “useless prince” Zhu Wuan. He could actually send people to the Palace of Heavenly Purity at the first moment to ask for help from the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu and kill the Zangbian Duo Chou and the Blood Sea Scimitar.

He was clearly using his actions to show Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu that he had nothing to do with the three top-ranked peerless experts in the pugilistic world, the Tibetan Chou Duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar. He had never colluded with them. Otherwise, he would not have asked Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu to kill them.

If the two clowns and the Blood Sea Scimitar did anything special, they would be framing him!

Moreover, the Chou Duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar were able to enter the Crown Prince's Palace so easily. They definitely had the help of an insider. It was definitely the work of a certain prince or princess.

Although Zhu Jinzong had already guessed that there was a problem behind this matter, and that the "Trash Crown Prince" Zhu Wuan's life should not be in danger, since the "Trash Crown Prince" Zhu Wuan had encountered such a thing and even asked for help from the Palace of Heavenly Purity, Zhu Jinzong could not take it lightly.

After thinking for a moment, Zhu Jin Zong hurriedly went to see Mad Emperor

Zhu Zhenwu and told him about this matter. He wanted to let Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu make a decision. After all, with Zhu Jin Zong's power, he was not qualified to mobilize peerless experts at the peak of the Connate Realm. The top ten martial artists in Jianghu were all peerless experts at the peak of the Connate Realm.

After learning about this matter, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was not a fool. He also realized that someone was framing Zhu Wuyang. This person was very likely to be the prince and princess who had better results in this Death Competition.

Mad Emperor Zhu Wuyang's suspicion towards Zhu Wuyang was naturally dispelled. However, he was furious at the person who had secretly sent the Zang Bian Chou Duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar into the palace.

The Palace of Empress Dowager and the Palace of Heavenly Purity were not far from each other. Since the other party could secretly send the three peerless experts into the Crown Prince's Palace, it was not impossible to send them into the Palace of Heavenly Purity to assassinate the Emperor.

Mad Emperor Zhu Wuyang immediately mobilized several peerless experts at the peak of the Xiantian realm to go to the Empress Dowager's Palace to kill the Zangbian Duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar. At the same time, he sent out his trusted eunuchs and trusted guards to investigate who was the mastermind behind this matter.

However, before the few peerless experts from the Palace of Heavenly Purity could reach the Crown Prince Palace, the Zangbian Duo and the Blood Sea

Scimitar realized that something was wrong. They immediately rejected Zhu Wuyang's appreciation in embarrassment and left the Crown Prince Palace in a hurry. The peerless experts sent by the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had failed.

The surrounding guards, eunuchs, and palace maids also realized something. It turned out that the "Trash Crown Prince" had been framed. Otherwise, the Zangbian Chou

Duo and the Blood Sea Scimitar had just said that they had high hopes for Zhu Wuyang and wanted to become Zhu Wuyang's men. However, they had inexplicably rejected the recognition of the "Trash Crown Prince" and fled in a hurry.

This ...

What a clumsy scheme and performance!

When several peerless experts from the Palace of Heavenly Purity stormed into the Crown Prince's Palace, the guards, eunuchs, and palace maids suddenly realized that the "useless Crown Prince" in their eyes could still use such a decisive plan.

Indeed, one couldn't judge a book by its cover!

The confrontation in a short period of time dazzled everyone in the Crown Prince Palace. It was only after that that they realized that although the "Trash Crown Prince" had already lost his martial path, he still had some brains.

After this incident, not only did the person who had secretly framed Zhu Wuyang fail, but his capable experts, the Zangbian Shuangchou and the Blood Sea Scimitar, were also wanted by the imperial court. It could be said that he had lost both his wife and his soldiers. The losses were quite heavy.

However, he had injured the enemy by one thousand and himself by eight hundred. After experiencing this matter, Zhu Wuyang had obtained a large number of breakthrough points and was very close to reaching the ninth level of Cast Vein.

Just as Zhu Wuyang thought that this matter was over, he successfully crushed the enemy's conspiracy. A wave of gossip began to spread quietly in the palace.

"Have you heard? The Zang Bian Duo Chou and the Blood Sea Scimitar are indeed peerless experts that Crown Prince Zhu Wuyang secretly recruited. That day, I originally wanted to secretly visit Crown Prince Zhu Wuyang, but some princes and princesses found out and leaked this matter. When Crown Prince Zhu Wuyang saw this scene, he immediately played along and put on such a big show, wanting to take the opportunity to dispel His Majesty's suspicion."

"I didn't expect Crown Prince Zhu Wuan to be so scheming. It seems that he's not as useless as everyone thought. It's obvious that he's just like some of the previous Crown Princes, pretending to be a pig to eat a tiger. He must have ulterior motives and is coveting the throne."

"Who said that the path of martial arts is no longer a threat to the throne? As a result, those martial arts experts are more and more eager to rely on him. This way, they can be valued. Fortune befalls misfortune, and fortune depends on it."

Crown Prince Zhu Wuyang's shrewdness is really earth-shattering."

" He can do what ordinary people can't and endure what ordinary people can't. Crown Prince Zhu Wuyan is not an ordinary person. In this month-end competition, Crown Prince Zhu Wuyan is the best among his peers. His literary talent and martial strategy are very shocking.

To be honest, such rumors were full of flaws. Many loopholes were clearly visible, not to mention that the matter of the Hidden Edge Twins and the Blood Sea Scimitar framing Zhu Wuyang had already spread to the entire Imperial City. Therefore, there was a problem with the logic of these rumors.

However, as these rumors became more and more intense, Zhu Wuyang, who was originally sitting on the fishing platform, frowned a little.

Although there were many problems with such rumors, as the saying goes, three people make a tiger. When enough people said it, the fake could become true.

Furthermore, the rumors were spreading so fast that it was obvious that there were many flaws. However, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu still ignored it. It was unknown if it was intentional or not.

However, with Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's current crazy personality, after hearing so many rumors and rumors, coupled with the power of someone with ulterior motives behind the scenes, he might still suspect Zhu Wuyang.

Zhu Wuwan didn't have much hope for a lunatic who was extremely jealous of talents.

After some consideration, Zhu Wuan felt that he should do something.

However, he did not have many trusted aides in the entire Crown Prince Palace. Even if some of the courtesans and palace maids had already been conquered by him, how much use could these weak and beautiful women have?

Before Zhu Wanhao could think of a solution, he received news that Ning Taiyu, the imperial physician who ranked third beside Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, was about to arrive at the bedchamber to examine his body..

Chapter 83: Life and Death Check (1)

Knowing that Ning Taiyu would soon arrive at the Crown Prince's bedchamber, Zhu Wuyang's expression darkened.

He was quite helpless about this. The enemy had already made it so obvious that he should not be too eye-catching in framing him. In the end, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu still became suspicious of him.

No wonder he had killed more than a hundred of his children in just a few decades.

The imperial palace of the Nine Zhao Nation was really dangerous. He had thought that he would be able to live a good life in the future. He did not expect that because of a rumor full of flaws, he would once again face a life and death crisis.

As one of the top three imperial physicians beside Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, not only was Ning Taiyu's medical skills superb, but his strength had also reached the late stage of the Connate Realm.

If Zhu Wuan had not used her supreme comprehension ability to fuse the Green Dragon Concealment and Mustard Secret Technique to advance to the Mythical Secret Technique Green Dragon Mustard a few days ago, once Ning Taiyu examined her body, all her strength would definitely be exposed.

Even with the Mythical secret technique, the Green Dragon Mustard, protecting him, there was only a 70% chance that Zhu Wuyan could hide from Ning Taiyu. If he was not careful, he would be doomed.

Previously, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had also sent people to check on Zhu Wuyan's recovery. However, he had only sent ordinary imperial physicians every time. Their strength was at most at the Foundation Meridian stage, and they could not find any abnormalities at all.

Now that the rumors had just started, the person in charge of examining his body had been replaced by the trusted imperial physician of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. Even a fool would not believe that there was nothing fishy about this.

The imperial physicians were above the imperial physicians and were in charge of the emperor's body. There were only thirteen imperial physicians in the vast Nine Zhao Country, and each of them was a top figure in the country's medical field. The weakest was a high-ranking official of the third rank and above.

Especially the top three imperial physicians, each of whom was a first-grade official. To be able to be compared with the important officials of the court, one could imagine how high their status was.

Usually, these imperial physicians were only responsible for treating Mad

Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's body and basically did not pay attention to the princes, princesses, and concubines in the harem. Now, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had sent Ning Taiyu, a medical expert, to examine his body. He must have become suspicious of Zhu Wuan.

Zhu Wuyang did not know if Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu really could not see through it or if he was deliberately playing along. He took this opportunity to properly examine Zhu Wuyang and confirm that he was indeed crippled. His future path of martial arts was completely cut off and he could no longer threaten his throne.

The possibility of this was very high. After all, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was not a fool. There was no reason why he could not even see through such a simple framing.

Zhu Wuyang sighed. Even so, there was nothing he could do. Facing the imperial physician Ning Taiyu sent by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, he could only obediently allow himself to be examined and did not dare to disobey.

Ning Taiyu quickly entered the Crown Prince's bedroom and bowed slightly to Zhu Wuyan before he began to examine Zhu Wuyan's body.

"Congratulations to the host for meeting Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu for the first time in his life. You have obtained 30000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being examined by Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu for the first time in your life. You have obtained 100,000 breakthrough points..."

As expected, Ning Taiyu's inspection of Zhu Wuyang's recovery was fake. His main purpose was to investigate Zhu Wuyang's strength realm, as well as whether her meridians were damaged and her primordial yang was lost.

The vigorous innate inner essence was like a hungry wolf and tiger, roaring as it entered Zhu Wuwan's body. It checked every part of Zhu Wuwan's body without any scruples. Once there was the slightest abnormality, it would confirm it again and again.

Ning Taiyu, who looked kind and kind, was rather ruthless when he attacked. His strong innate inner yuan penetrated deep into Zhu Wuyang's meridians, almost without any concern for whether he would hurt Zhu Wuyang's meridians.

Zhu Wuan circulated the mythical-level secret technique, Azure Dragon Mustard, to the extreme, trying his best to hide his strength of the eighth tier of Cast Vein. His inner Qi was hidden in his mustard seed, his blood, Qi, and body were weakened, and even the meridians in his right leg, which were already intact, were transformed into an injured scene by the Azure Dragon Mustard.

Ning Taiyu was also circulating his probing technique with all his might, once again probing Zhu Wuyan's damaged meridians, the qi and blood in his body, and the parts of Zhu Wuyan's body that had not been tempered on the surface... Again and again...After checking it more than six times, he slowly withdrew his innate inner essence.

" Congratulations to the host for being spied on by Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu for the first time in your life. You have obtained 300,000 breakthrough points..."

" Congratulations to the host for being spied on by Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu for the second time in his life. You have obtained 200,000 breakthrough points..."

" Congratulations to the host for being spied on by Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu for the third time in his life. You have obtained 100,000 breakthrough points..."

What made Zhu Wuwan rather helpless was that Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu's actions had brought Zhu Wuwan another few hundred thousand breakthrough points. His strength would increase by a large margin again.

In addition to the breakthrough points that he had obtained previously, Zhu Wuyang had stored more than a million breakthrough points in her body at this moment. Fortunately, Ning Taiyu had finished his inspection and should leave soon. After he left, Zhu Wuyang could absorb this wave of breakthrough points in peace.

" Eh, there's a place that I haven't investigated clearly just now. I need to check it again. I hope Your Highness doesn't mind. "

Just as Zhu Wuyan thought that Ning Taiyu's checkup was over and heaved a sigh of relief, Ning Taiyu suddenly turned around and wanted to check Zhu Wuyan's body again.

Faced with the 'small request' of this late-stage Connate expert, who was also the trusted imperial physician of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, would Zhu Wuwan dare to say no?

"Alright, thank you Imperial Physician Ning."

Zhu Wuwan forced a smile and said with tears of gratitude, letting Ning Taiyu do whatever he wanted.

Seeing how straightforward Zhu Wuyang was, Ning Taiyu's suspicions lessened even more. He smiled and nodded, then began to examine Zhu Wuyang's body for the seventh time.

This time, Ning Taiyu checked even more carefully. It could be said that he checked inch by inch, not missing a single spot.

Faced with such an all-round inspection, Zhu Wuwan's expression changed slightly. He circulated the Green Dragon Mustard to the limit and tried his best not to let any abnormalities appear in his body.

Ning Taiyu's check-up was almost as good as some of the instruments on Earth. It was so detailed that even Zhu Wuwan couldn't accept it. After all, they were both men. Didn't you feel awkward doing such a check?

If it was a female imperial physician, it would be fine. Since her body had been examined to such a state, at most, Zhu Wuyang would just marry her. However, Ning Taiyu was a man, and an old man. Under such circumstances, how could Zhu Wuyang marry him?

However, on the surface, Zhu Wuyang appeared rather obedient. She was like an obedient little white rabbit, lying there and letting the strange uncle touch her all he wanted.

"Congratulations to the host for developing a strong killing intent towards Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu for the first time in his life. You have obtained 200,000 breakthrough points..."

A smile and a look of gratitude appeared on Zhu Wuwan's face, as if she was very touched by Ning Taiyu's painstaking examination and was on the verge of tears.

However, under the goosebumps, there was a slowly rising anger!

Chapter 84: Crown Prince Jiuzhao Is a Eunuch

Inch by inch, bit by bit, bit by bit...Ning Taiyu slowly examined her like a strange uncle who had met a loli he liked and wanted to understand the advantages of every part of the loli he liked.

Zhu Wuan could no longer care about his embarrassment and anger. While he suppressed the restless breakthrough point, he circulated the mythical-level secret technique, Azure Dragon Mustard, with all his might to avoid being discovered by Ning Taiyu. Otherwise, what awaited him would be death.

Zhu Wanhao had never thought that before Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu died, he would be able to live a peaceful and peaceful life for a few days.

However, he did not expect that the month-end competition would actually bring him so much trouble. If he was not careful, his head would fall to the ground.

It turned out that he had never been safe. The so-called eating, drinking, and having fun every night was just wearing shackles.

As long as Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu didn't die, no, as long as he didn't control his own fate, he might be killed.

At this moment, Zhu Wanhao was like a fish on the chopping board of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. If Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was willing, he could send Zhu Wanhao to the afterlife at any time.

Just a rumor that was full of flaws had caused Zhu Wuyang to fall from heaven to hell. One could imagine Zhu Wuyang's situation.

Zhu Wuwan completely woke up from her false happiness and became extremely vigilant. However, the most important thing now was to hide herself as much as possible to avoid being discovered by Ning Taiyu.

Two hours later, Ning Taiyu's examination finally came to an end. With Zhu Wuwan's "full cooperation", Ning Taiyu also let down his guard.

In addition to the power of the Mythical Secret Technique, Green Dragon Mustard, Zhu Wuyan had finally successfully escaped the disaster and was not discovered by Ning Taiyu. Otherwise, today would have been the day of Zhu Wuyan's death.

"Your Highness, you need to take good care of yourself!" Ning Taiyu pretended to be concerned as he instructed. As he prescribed the prescription for Zhu Wuwan, he heaved a sigh of relief.

This "useless prince" was indeed a pig. He wasn't pretending to be a pig to eat a tiger, but a pig that was close to being castrated.

Zhu Wuan "passionately" sent away the Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu who 'cared about him' and watched Ning Taiyu's figure leave the Crown Prince's chambers. Only then did he sit down on the bed and lie under the blanket, beginning to carefully absorb the breakthrough points that swarmed over.

Although he had managed to muddle through this time and was not discovered by Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu, it could be considered that he had avoided a fatal calamity. However, it was hard to say what would happen next time.

If even such an obvious framing of Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was suspicious, how many more times would he be suspicious?

It just so happened that Zhu Wuyang was currently "unwell", so it would be easy for her to find a reason to perform a full checkup on him. Perhaps the next checkup would come soon.

This time, Zhu Wuyang was lucky enough to escape, but what about the next time?

The crisis of death that he thought was slowly fading away yesterday had suddenly arrived again, completely shattering all the fantasies in Zhu Wuwan's heart.

As long as Mad Emperor didn't die, the battle wouldn't stop!

If one's strength was not enough, their future would be bleak!

As for when his strength would reach the standard, he would have to surpass Mad Emperor and be able to dominate the entire Jiuzhao Nation's martial arts world. No other martial artist would be a match for Zhu Wanhao.

However, in the face of an increasingly dangerous situation, should he let go of the restrictions on earning breakthrough points and stop deliberately reducing the amount of breakthrough points he could earn?

Zhu Wuyang was still a little hesitant.

However, just as he was hesitating, the Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu had already seen Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. "Old subject Ning Taiyu greets Your Majesty!"

'Get up. How is the Crown Prince's health?' Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu waved his saber and asked casually.

As Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's trusted aide, Ning Taiyu naturally understood what Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was concerned about. ""The Crown Prince's meridians have been damaged, and his recovery is extremely slow, especially in the past few days. Perhaps it's due to the lack of a large number of natural treasures, his recovery speed has become even slower.'

"According to the current speed, it will be very difficult to recover without two to three months. In addition, His Highness the Crown Prince has been indulging himself in debauchery every night, and his Yang Qi has been severely depleted. This has further weakened the effect of the medicinal power. Therefore, it is basically impossible for His Highness the Crown Prince to recover his meridians and break through to the Golden Bone Refinement realm.'

"Is that so?" Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu heaved a sigh of relief from the bottom of his heart. He confirmed that some of the rumors were indeed false.

However, it made sense when he thought about it. Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu might not know everything that Zhu Wuan had done over the years, but he was at least clear about it. No matter how he observed him, he did not seem like the kind of demon who hid his strength and bided his time.

Zhu Wuyang was indeed weak, incompetent, stupid, and useless...

Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu confirmed once again, dispelling Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's suspicion of Zhu Wuan hiding his strength. "" According to my observation, His Highness 'meridians are damaged, his foundation is weak, his vital yang has been lost, and his body is weak. '

' In that case, I'll bestow the Crown Prince with some precious treasures so that he can recover as soon as possible. " Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu smiled faintly.

"I understand." Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu nodded hurriedly.

At this point, Zhu Wuyan had finally passed the initial stage of this calamity. However, just as Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu thought that Ning Taiyu would retreat, he realized that Ning Taiyu was still standing at the side with a troubled expression on his face.

"Imperial Physician Ning, is there anything else you want to tell me?" Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu looked at Ning Taiyu in confusion.

Ning Taiyu was a little hesitant. This ... There is something that I don't know if I should tell you." freewebnovel.com

"If you have anything to say, just tell me in detail. You are my confidant, so there is no need to hide it from me." Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu waved his hand.

"Alright, then this old minister will be straightforward. Your Majesty, please don't blame this old minister for spouting nonsense after hearing this." Ning Taiyu hurriedly bowed. " According to this old servant's examination of His Highness the Crown Prince, this old servant discovered that His Highness the Crown Prince is not only physically weak and his meridians are damaged, but his human roots are also somewhat weak. It might affect..." It affects fertility."

"Affects fertility?" " What? " Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was a little stunned. ' What does this mean? '

Ning Taiyu lowered his head and said, " To put it bluntly, it's very difficult for His Highness the Crown Prince to get a woman pregnant. With His Highness the Crown Prince's current physical condition and human root condition, perhaps..." Perhaps it will be difficult for her to have children in this lifetime." Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was stunned!

He remembered Zhu Wuyang's response to him losing his primordial Yang a few days ago. He wanted to have a hundred children and a thousand grandchildren to contribute all their strength to the reproduction of the Zhu royal family, even at the expense of destroying their future.

However, he didn't expect that it had only been a short while, and he had already found out that there was a problem with the human root. He wondered how Zhu Wuyang would feel when she found out.

And the people of the Nine Zhao Nation had a name for this kind of man who couldn't let women get pregnant, and that was "fake eunuch"!

Chapter 85: It's Good to Be Wronged (1)

The Crown Prince of Jiu Zhao Country, Zhu Wuan, was a "fake eunuch". If this matter were to spread, it would cause a huge commotion. One could imagine with one's toes.

This wasn't just Zhu Wuyan's sorrow, it was the sorrow of the entire Nine Zhao Country.

If it wasn't for the fact that Zhu Wuan had only been the crown prince for half a month, the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would have deposed this "completely crippled" crown prince.

After a long silence, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu could not help but ask, "Is there any possibility of a cure?"

"This..." Ning Taiyu thought for a moment and nodded slightly. "If you take more targeted tonics and sow more seeds, you might still be able to get pregnant."

"In that case, let's treat the Crown Prince first. If there's still no reaction after one or two months, then..." Zhu Zhenwu took a deep breath. Then consider deposing the Crown Prince!"

"This old minister will obey." Ning Taiyu hurriedly knelt down.

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was no longer in the mood to practice his saber arts. He turned around and walked towards the study. "Also reward the Crown Prince with ten peerless beauties that he can give birth to. Try your best to let him have a child. Otherwise, the face of our Nine Zhao Country will be completely lost by him."

The Nine Zhao Nation had a certain definition for women who could give birth.

They had big butts, beautiful looks, and tall mountains...Therefore, Zhu Wuyang quickly received ten butts, beautiful appearances, and towering mountains from the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. The most beautiful woman.

Looking at these ten beauties who had many similarities, Zhu Wuyang was also a little puzzled. Was this Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's compensation for suspecting him and checking him out? However, since it was compensation, according to the condition of his body, it should be some kind of panacea, heavenly treasures, or something like that. Why were there ten such beauties?

Could it be that Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu was complaining that he wasn't weak enough and hoped to send more beautiful women over to extract Zhu Wuyang's essence so that he could die on the bed? freewebnovel.cm

However, when Ning Taiyu brought over the medicine that could nourish the body and the human root, Zhu Wuwan finally understood what had happened.

It was likely that Zhu Wuan had concealed his strength too much when he used the Green Dragon Mustard to conceal his strength. He had also disguised his human roots as weak and lifeless, which was why Ning Taiyu and Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had misunderstood that it was very difficult for him to get pregnant. That was why he had sent so many beautiful women and nourishing medicines over.

In fact, Zhu Wuyang was really very healthy, to the point of bursting with health. She was far healthier than any of the princes and princesses in the palace. She did not have a weak human root at all.

This was a huge misunderstanding!

Zhu Wuyang didn't know whether to laugh or cry at this. Then, she received a series of notifications from the Special Encounter System.

"Congratulations to the host for being mistaken as a fake eunuch by Imperial Physician Ning Taiyu for the first time in your life. You have received 100,000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being mistaken as a fake eunuch by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu for the first time in his life. You have obtained 1 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being mistaken as a fake eunuch by Zhu Jinzong, the internal official supervisor, for the first time in his life. You have obtained 200,000 breakthrough points..."

The news that Zhu Wuyang was a weak person and was a fake eunuch began to spread like a storm to every corner of the palace.

“Zhu Wuan is actually a fake eunuch. It’s basically impossible for her to have children. This ... Our Zhu royal family actually produced such a thing. Most importantly, he’s the crown prince of our Nine Zhao Country.”

‘ If we knew this would happen, we wouldn’t have pushed Zhu Wuan to become the Crown Prince. Now that he’s embarrassed, it’s fine. The entire Zhu royal family will also be embarrassed. I hope that the Mad Emperor won’t vent his anger on us. Otherwise, everyone will be in trouble. ‘

” Which f * cking b * stard did this? It’s fine if he couldn’t frame Zhu Wuwan, but he actually caused such a mess. Is his brain flooded? ‘

“Zhu Wuyang is really unlucky. It’s fine if he’s weak and incompetent, but he’s actually a fake eunuch. A few days ago, he was still clamoring for a hundred children and a thousand grandchildren. To be honest, if I were Zhu Wuan, I would commit suicide right now to avoid embarrassing myself again. After all, he’s not only embarrassing himself now, but also the entire Nine Zhao Country. In the vast Southern Wasteland, I’m afraid there has never been a eunuch or crown prince. Our Jiu Zhao Country is really going to become famous because of Zhu Wuyan.”

All of these, the princes and princesses in the palace, the concubines in the harem, and even some well-informed dignitaries and ministers outside...They all confirmed this news and mistook Zhu Wuyang for a ” fake eunuch. ” This action naturally brought Zhu Wuyang a huge number of breakthroughs.

Zhu Wuwan could only stare blankly at the Special Encounter System’s screen that kept refreshing. In a short period of time, millions of breakthrough points swarmed in. Zhu Wuwan still did not understand what was going on. The forced breakthrough points were enough to raise Zhu Wuwan’s strength to another level.

This was f * cking...Had he backfired again?

Zhu Wan’an wanted to cry but had no tears. She endured the waves of impact from the breakthrough point in despair as she mechanically circulated Jiang He’s Vein Forging Record, absorbing a large amount of strange energy and advancing firmly towards the 9th Tier of Vein Forging.

Lotus Chakra Meridian!

This was the chakra meridian that the 9th Tier of Cast Vein needed to be forged. It connected the lower dantian and the head. Once it was successfully forged, it could allow a martial artist’s comprehension to increase by a large margin. When cultivating, one’s heart would also be as clear as ice. It would be easier to enter the state and improve faster.

Everyone knew that there was a soul in the head, which was one of the most vital parts of a martial artist. Therefore, during the process of forging the lotus chakra, a slight carelessness could hurt the martial artist's head. At the very least, he would become a fool, and at the very least, he would die on the spot.

The forging of the lotus chakra meridian had to be done with extreme caution. In addition, the pressure required to forge the ninth chakra meridian was even greater. Therefore, the lotus chakra meridian could be said to be the most difficult chakra meridian to forge.

Even though many Foundational Meridian Stage martial artists obtained the cultivation method that could create the Lotus Chakra Meridian, for safety reasons, they were still unwilling to create this Lotus Chakra Meridian. Instead, they directly started to break through to the Innate Realm.

In fact, most martial artists with resources would choose cultivation techniques that didn't involve the lotus chakra when they chose the Foundation Establishment stage cultivation technique. This was to avoid the dangers in the process of establishing the lotus chakra.

Even though Zhu Wuyan had the help of the peerless martial technique, the River Meridian Casting Record, the flawless Dao foundation, and the breakthrough point, he was still extremely careful in the process of forging the lotus chakra meridians. He was afraid that any mistakes would definitely bring him unbearable consequences.

In order to avoid being disturbed, Zhu Wuwan hid in the secret training room and temporarily locked it up. With the defense of the secret training room, even a peerless expert at the peak of the Connate Realm would find it difficult to break through the secret training room..

Chapter 86: Aptitude Increase (1)

The lotus chakra was being forged bit by bit, but the speed was extremely slow. It was not even a fraction of the speed of forging the other chakra meridians.

Even Zhu Wuyang, who had all sorts of advantages in his hands, felt like he was pushing a huge rock up the mountain when he forged the lotus chakra. One could imagine how difficult it was for others to forge the lotus chakra.

It was precisely because of this that even though many people knew that once the lotus chakra was forged, it would be extremely beneficial to a martial artist's comprehension and aptitude, but these people would often give up on forging the lotus chakra.

The reason was simply too difficult and dangerous!

Since forging lotus chakras was not necessary to advance to the Xiantian realm, for safety reasons, why not skip it?

Therefore, many people chose to slack off and save trouble. Even the genius Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had the thought of giving up before he forged the lotus meridian.

With such a shocking difficulty, once he successfully forged the lotus Chakra Meridian, the benefits he could obtain were also shocking.

The increase in talent and comprehension were the basics. It could also allow a martial artist to maintain calmness and focus in future cultivation battles. Whether it was the efficiency of cultivation or the power of martial arts, it would also increase.

Therefore, even though it was difficult and dangerous, Zhu Wuyang still persisted in forging, allowing time to pass bit by bit.

At some point, there was a knock on the door from outside. However, the lotus chakra in Zhu Wuwan's body was only half-formed, so Zhu Wuwan ignored it and continued to slowly form the lotus chakra.

From morning to afternoon, then from afternoon to midnight, all the way until the wee hours of the morning, Zhu Wuyang finally managed to forge the lotus chakra meridian with great difficulty.

9th level of Cast Vein!

With the forging of the lotus chakra meridian, Zhu Wuyang clearly felt that his mind had become much clearer. It was as if his entire person had been enlightened, becoming extremely agile and intelligent.

His comprehension had been greatly improved, and his talent had also been strengthened. He had a greater understanding of cultivation techniques and secret techniques.

His already terrifying talent, aptitude, and comprehension had improved by leaps and bounds, showing signs of breaking through his limits.

The forging of the lotus chakra meridian had also allowed the quantity and quality of Jiang He's inner Qi in Zhu Wuwan's body to soar, and his body had also been tempered to a deeper level.

Zhu Wuwan's overall strength at this moment had completely reached the level of a quasi-first-rate expert. Under normal circumstances, it was impossible for an ordinary person to advance to this level without more than 60 years. In fact, they might not even be able to step into the ranks of quasi-first-rate experts in their entire lives.

To put it bluntly, with Zhu Wuyang's current strength, if he encountered those first-rate experts who were lucky enough to enter the Innate Realm by relying on three or four chakra meridians, he might be able to win.

Of course, if the other party's strength had already reached the middle stage of the Xiantian realm, it would be very difficult for Zhu Wuwan to defeat them.

However, under normal circumstances, martial artists who could step into the Connate realm could basically forge more than four Chakra Meridians at the Cast Meridian stage. Therefore, with Zhu Wuwan's current strength, it was still very difficult for her to defeat a first-rate expert at the initial stage of the Connate realm.

However, a seventeen year old Quasi-First-Rate Master was considered a peerless monster in the entire Southern Wasteland, let alone in the Nine Zhao Nation.

Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, who was invincible in the Nine Zhao Country, only stepped into the ranks of quasi-first-rate experts after the age of 30.

Moreover, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's strength at that time was far inferior to Zhu Wuwan's current strength.

At this moment, Zhu Wanhao's strength was not considered to be at the bottom even in the entire Imperial Palace. At any rate, he could be considered to have stepped into the upper middle level.

However, with his current strength, it was still impossible for him to escape from the pursuit of the imperial guards, so he could not think of escaping for the time being.

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the 9th Tier of Cast Vein for the first time in his life. You have obtained 1.6 million breakthrough points..."

After breaking through to the 9th Tier of Cast Vein, it brought Zhu Wuwan a large amount of breakthrough points. With this wave of breakthrough points, not only did Zhu Wuwan stabilize her strength at the 9th Tier of Cast Vein, she even took a step forward and was a little closer to the 10th Tier of Cast Vein.

The 10th level of Cast Vein was the great perfection of Cast Vein. The cultivation of this realm did not require the forging of new chakra meridians. The main thing was to connect the nine chakra meridians that had been forged together to form a whole, or to put it in another way, to form a small cycle with the lower dantian.

The veins were connected, the circulation was endless, and inner Qi was self-generated. This was the great circle of the Cast Vein Realm.

Feeling the raging Inner Qi in his body, a bitter smile flashed across Zhu Wuwan's face. He had wanted to keep a low profile and improve as slowly as possible, but who would have thought that in just half a month's time, his strength had already improved to this extent.

The Special Encounter System was really...It was a great harm!

"Congratulations to the host for being mistaken as a fake eunuch by the richest man in the Nine Zhao Nation for the first time in your life. You have received a million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being mistaken as a fake eunuch by the Empress of the Nine Zhao Kingdom for the first time in your life. You have received 2 million breakthrough points..."

The notifications from the Special Encounter System were still coming in non-stop. From time to time, a large number would pop up, making Zhu Wuwan extremely annoyed.

However, this was not the time to be frustrated. The people outside had already begun to forcefully break through the door. Zhu Wuwan could not continue to stay. Otherwise, if she attracted the Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu, things would be serious.

However, before going out, he had to first manage his expression.

Zhu Wuyang had some experience in managing expressions. After all, she had seen so many beautiful girl groups on Earth in her previous life, and she had seen many of their magical expressions.

As the saying goes, if you haven't eaten pork before, you've seen a pig run. You'll naturally learn a little after watching more.

After a moment of consideration, Zhu Wuwan forced tears out of her face with the help of Jiang He's inner Qi, and opened the door to the secret training room in a daze.

"Your Highness, what's wrong? Are you alright? ' freewebnovel.com

"His Highness the Crown Prince has come out. There's no need to find something to smash the door."

"Crown Prince, wuwu ... You scared this servant to death."

As soon as he opened the door to the secret training room, he saw dozens of guards, eunuchs, and palace maids waiting outside. Fortunately, the people from the Crown Prince Palace had not reported this matter to Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu. Otherwise, there would be even more people coming, and the possibility of Zhu Wuyang being exposed would be even higher.

Looking at the group of beautiful women who were concerned about him, Zhu Wuwan said a little guiltily, “I’m fine. I just thought that it would be difficult for me to have a hundred children, so I was a little sad and stayed in the secret training room for a while.”

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief when they heard what Zhu Wuyan said. They had thought that Zhu Wuyan had committed suicide because of her root problem.

If something happened to Zhu Wuan, this ‘fake eunuch’ and ‘useless crown prince,’ they would be in trouble as well..

Chapter 87: I’m a Real Man (1)

Zhu Wuyang felt like she couldn’t hold on any longer!

He could tolerate being called a “good-for-nothing”, a “fool or an “idiot “... But as a pure man, he could not tolerate others calling him a eunuch.

One had to know that Zhu Wuyang was a fitness expert on Earth, the kind with six-pack abs. Every time she showed off her six-pack, countless girls ‘eyes lit up and they kept shouting “macho man”, wishing they could immediately pounce on Zhu Wuyang.

Therefore, even though Zhu Wuyang was not a handsome man in her previous life, she did not lack women by her side.

Not even a fake eunuch!

Therefore, Zhu Wanhao wanted to prove that he could get pregnant. No, he should be able to make women pregnant, so he was not a fake eunuch.

As for the method of proof, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had sent over so many beautiful women who could bear children. Zhu Wuyang could let them bear a child for him to prove that he was not a eunuch.

Although this was against the normal routine of many time-travel novels, according to the plot of many time-travel novels, the main character usually only considered leaving behind a descendant after he became famous or possessed world-shaking martial arts.

However, Zhu Wuwan was in dire straits and could face a calamity at any time. His strength was only at the Foundation Meridian stage, and there were Connate experts everywhere who could kill him.

Under such circumstances, it was not a good time to have children.

Unfortunately, they had already been forced to this extent. How could Zhu Wuyang back down?

Moreover, there were so many girls around him who yearned to be pregnant with the royal bloodline and reach the top in one step. Even if Zhu Wuyang really died in the future, the Zhu Royal Family would not let them live a hard life with the bloodline they were pregnant with.

At the very least, they would be related to the royal family in the future. The Zhu royal family would not ignore them, and the Nine Zhao Kingdom would not ignore them either.

One was willing to hit, and the other was willing to suffer. No, it should be said that the two of them were in love with each other. Zhu Wuyang began to make a baby.

Regrettably, after some hard work, he still followed the experience gained from modern society and conceived at the right time. Zhu Wuwan was shocked to find that it seemed to be really difficult for him to get women pregnant.

It wasn't because he had a "problem". There was nothing wrong with his root. On the contrary, he was very healthy.

The main reason was that his genes were too perfect. Compared to the intelligent life forms of the Nine Zhao Nation, Zhu Wuyang's genes were perfect.

Once they had descendants, Zhu Wuyan's descendants would at least be peerless prodigies that appeared once in a thousand years.

It was precisely because of this that, according to the basic rules of this universe, the more amazing the genes, the more powerful the intelligent life form, the lower the possibility of having offspring.

Zhu Wuyan's genes were too shocking, so it was very difficult for ordinary women to withstand his genes. Or rather, it was very difficult for Zhu Wuyan's bloodline to grow in the bodies of ordinary women.

These ordinary women were weaker, and their physical fitness was far inferior to Zhu Wuyang's. In addition, their talent and aptitude were far inferior to Zhu Wuyang's...It was basically impossible for her to carry the essence of Zhu Wuyang and get pregnant smoothly.

After Zhu Wuan observed this, he also felt a little hopeless. Although this was a good thing to a certain extent, if he didn't have children for a long time, he might really be labeled as a "real eunuch" as a fake eunuch.

Humiliation!

Zhu Wuan was a little heartbroken. At the same time, the news that Zhu Wuan, the Crown Prince of Jiu Zhao Country, was a fake eunuch became more and more intense. Especially after Zhu Wuan failed to get pregnant in the Crown Prince's bedroom, this matter spread even more.

"Congratulations to the host for being mistaken as a fake eunuch by the millions of residents of Moon Capital for the first time in your life. You have obtained 3 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being mistaken for a fake eunuch by the citizens of the Jiuzhao Kingdom for the first time in your life. You have received 8 million breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being mistaken for a fake eunuch by the citizens of the Nine Zhao Nation for the first time in your life. You have received 20 million breakthrough points..."

Whether it was the uniqueness or influence of this matter, or the deep impression it had on Zhu Wuyang, it could be said to be unprecedented.

Therefore, as the incident became more and more intense, the special encounter system also brought more breakthrough points to Zhu Wuyang. After several waves of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuyang's strength should have broken through again.

Speaking of which, he had just broken through to the 9th Tier of Cast Vein two days ago and had yet to adapt to it. It looked like he was about to break through to the next realm.

What a sin!

Was the news that the Crown Prince of the Nine Zhao Nation was a fake eunuch really that sensational and special? But this daddy really wasn't a fake eunuch. This daddy's genes were too perfect, so it wasn't easy for him to give birth to children. The last time he was checked, it was because he had gone too far in his disguise.

You must believe in this king!

Zhu Wuwan wailed endlessly before being drowned by the overwhelming number of breakthrough points. Under the effect of these breakthrough points, the chakra meridians in Zhu Wuwan's body connected with each other at an astonishing speed, forming a near-perfect, endlessly mysterious internal circulation.

This internal circulation effectively connected the nine chakra meridians and the lower dantian in Zhu Wuwan's body. At the same time, it connected every corner of Zhu Wuwan's body, bringing huge benefits to Zhu Wuwan.

As the Chakra Meridians connected and interacted with each other, the Jiang He Inner Qi in Zhu Wuyan's body increased at an astonishing speed, becoming stronger and purer.

The stronger the Inner Qi, the more powerful and deeper the nourishment for the body. Jiang He's Inner Qi also began to surge towards various parts of Zhu Wuwan's body, constantly nourishing and improving Zhu Wuwan's body.

Zhu Wuyan's strength was soaring...

Zhu Wuyan's defense was soaring...

Zhu Wuyang's speed was soaring...

Zhu Wuyan's spirit was soaring...

Zhu Wuyan's inner Qi was soaring...

Zhu Wuwan's overall strength had improved greatly. The nine chakra meridians had gathered into one, forming a transformative power. Naturally, it had also brought about a transformative improvement to Zhu Wuwan.

The feeling of every corner of her body improving really intoxicated Zhu Wanhao.

Compared to other martial artists who had only connected three or four or five or six chakra meridians at the Cast Meridian stage, Zhu Wuyang, who had connected nine chakra meridians in one go, had undoubtedly obtained greater benefits.

The breakthrough point obtained in this wave was extremely shocking. Very soon, Zhu Wuwan stabilized her strength at the tenth stage of the Cast Meridian stage. With Zhu Wuwan's current strength, she could completely fight against ordinary first-class experts at the initial stage of the Xiantian realm. Moreover, she was a first-class expert who had formed five or six Chakra Meridians at the Cast Meridian stage.

In other words, although Zhu Wuan was not a first-rate expert in the Connate Realm at this moment, his combat strength was not inferior to some first-rate experts in the slightest..

Chapter 88: You Forced Me (1)

The news that Zhu Wuan was the " Crown Prince Eunuch " had caused such a huge impact. How could it not cause a commotion in the court?

Therefore, Zhu Wuyang was impeached again and again!

As a 'fake eunuch' Crown Prince who couldn't even bear children, how could he be qualified to be the Crown Prince of the Nine Zhao Kingdom?

Although the Nine Zhao Nation was only a mid-level empire in the Southern Wasteland, it was not a nameless country. After several decades of continuous victories, it had gained a lot of reputation.

How could such a great country allow a fake eunuch to be the Crown Prince?

As a result, the imperial censors filed a petition to impeach Zhu Wuyang, requesting Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu to abolish Zhu Wuyang, the 'eunuch' crown prince, and appoint a real man or woman as the crown prince.

In the Dongyuan Continent, because both men and women could cultivate, many powerful female warriors had emerged. Among them, there were many peerless experts, so the status of women was quite high.

In many dynasties in the Southern Wasteland, princesses were allowed to be crown princes. Among the seventeen crown princes before Zhu Wuan, three of them were female crown princes.

However, they all died quite miserably, even more miserably than many male princes.

"Congratulations to the host for being impeached by Censor Li An for the first time in his life. You have obtained 1000 breakthrough points..."

"Congratulations to the host for being impeached by Censor Wang Qiang for the first time in his life. You have obtained 1000 breakthrough points..."

Although the impeachment of these censors didn't give Zhu Wuyan many breakthroughs, and only when some of the higher ranking censors impeached Zhu Wuyan did she gain a little more breakthroughs. However, there were too many censors.

There were also many powerful officials who impeached Zhu Wuyang, hoping to change the crown prince.

In the face of this snowflake-like memorial, Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu had a splitting headache, and the 'fake eunuch' Zhu Wuyang also felt his scalp go numb. He was forced to break through 24 hours a day, and even Zhu Wuyang was a little unable to withstand it.

Can't they rest well? Can't they focus on a certain point and impeach him together?

There were 24 hours in a day on the Dongyuan Continent, and each hour was equivalent to two hours on Earth. At the beginning, Zhu Wuwan was still a little uncomfortable, but as time passed, he gradually got used to it.

In the face of so many accusations, it wasn't that Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu didn't want to depose Zhu Wuan, this "trash" incompetent "fake eunuch" Crown Prince, but it was still the same sentence. Zhu Wuan had only been the Crown Prince for more than half a month. If he was deposed so quickly, Jiu Zhao Country and Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu would undoubtedly lose even more face.

Moreover, they had already lost face. Even if they changed to a new Crown Prince, they wouldn't be able to save much face. It would only make the Nine Zhao Country and Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu lose even more face.

Since that was the case, why did he have to change the Crown Prince so quickly?

In addition, some princes and princesses who might be forced to become the crown prince were exerting pressure, and some powerful officials who supported them were also doing their best. Therefore, although Zhu Wuwan was impeached by many censors, she did not have to worry about being deposed as the crown prince in the short term.

Although this wasn't what Zhu Wuwan wanted, if it was possible, he would rather not be the Crown Prince of the Nine Zhao Nation. He just wanted to cultivate in peace.

Otherwise, if he sat in this position, not only would he be constantly watched by Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu and many princes and princesses, but even the slightest action would cause a commotion in the court.

Speaking of which, the previous Host was also such a good-for-nothing, but she had never heard of being given so many insulting nicknames.

For example, a useless prince, an incompetent prince, a eunuch prince, an idiot prince... The folk proverb "I'm more outstanding than the Crown Prince" was born from Zhu Wuyang. "The worst Crown Prince in history" was also used to describe Zhu Wuyang.

If he hadn't sat in the position of Crown Prince, would Zhu Wuyang still be able to obtain so much "glory"? The answer was naturally no.

Before becoming the Crown Prince, the original owner was weak and incompetent, trembling with fear, with poor grades and low comprehension... However, it didn't cause any commotion. Why did it cause such a huge commotion when it came to Zhu Wuwan?

What made Zhu Wuwan even more speechless was that perhaps it was because so many negative infamy accumulated together and finally transformed. Just when Zhu

Wuwan thought that the breakthrough point he had obtained had reached its limit, another large wave of breakthrough points came with a bang.

“Congratulations to the host for becoming the laughing stock of the Imperial City for the first time in your life. You have obtained 3 million breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for becoming the laughing stock of the Nine Zhao Nation for the first time in your life. You have obtained 9 million breakthrough points...”

“Congratulations to the host for becoming the laughing stock of the Southern Wasteland countries for the first time in your life. You have obtained 26 million breakthrough points...”

Looking at the last three system notifications, Zhu Wuyang knew that things were serious.

Zhu Wanhao had never expected that with the help of the Mythical secret technique, Azure Dragon Mustard, he would successfully hide from Ning Taiyu's seven inspections and luckily save his life.

However, this checkup would bring him so much trouble later on. If he couldn't handle this trouble properly, Zhu Wuwan would probably die soon.

With the help of the previous wave of breakthrough points, Zhu Wuwan's strength had already reached the limit of the tenth tier of Cast Pulse. The Inner Qi clouds in his lower dantian had already gathered to a radius of nine meters and turned black. He was only one step away from breaking through to the Xiantian realm.

At this moment, he had obtained nearly 40,000,000 breakthrough points, 90% of which had been forcefully poured into Zhu Wuwan's body. With Zhu Wuwan's current strength and attainments in the Azure Dragon Mustard, he could only suppress 10,000,000 breakthrough points at most. Facing the impact of so many breakthrough points, Zhu Wuwan could not suppress it at all.

Therefore, he could only break through. It had only been dozens of hours since his last breakthrough. He did not expect him to break through again.

Could this be the legendary saying that good deeds do not go out, and evil deeds travel a thousand miles? It had been less than ten days since he was misdiagnosed as a "fake eunuch" by Ning Taiyu, and the news had spread to this point. It had even combined with the previous negative reputation and transformed. In the end, Zhu Wuyang, the new Crown Prince, had become the laughing stock of the entire Imperial City, the entire country, and even half of the Southern Wasteland.

This was f * cking...How can I bear it!

He thought that by hiding in his bedroom and lying on his bed every day, he could avoid the "trap" of the Special Encounter System. However, he did not expect that even if he was already like this, he would still advance to this level in just over 20 days.

Was there such an embarrassing transmigrator in the myriad worlds?

If those people who had caused Zhu Wuyan to become the laughingstock of the Nine Zhao Empire through gossip were to know about this matter, who knew what they would think. freewebnovel.com

After all, not only did their actions not bring any harm to Zhu Wuyan, but on the contrary, it caused Zhu Wuyan's strength to continuously soar, soar, and soar...

This speed of increase far exceeded the speed at which Zhu Wuyan normally earned Breakthrough Stones. He had really overreached himself time and time again.

I really don't want this to happen!

You forced me to do this!

Chapter 89: Connate Realm (1)

Dragons and snakes danced wildly, and the wind and clouds changed!

Zhu Wuyan's lower dantian was undergoing an earth-shattering transformation. Once the transformation was successfully completed, Zhu Wuyan's strength would receive a huge increase.

To advance from the Cast Meridian stage to the Xiantian stage, the most important thing was to gather clouds and form rain!

Clouds were the clouds of Inner Qi, while rain was the clouds of Inner Qi that had been condensed to the extreme. From there, a fundamental change would occur and transform into Innate Inner Qi.

The core of breaking through to the Connate stage was to compress and condense the Inner Qi clouds in the body into Connate Rain. It was just like when a martial artist was in the Body Tempering stage, he had to condense the power of blood and Qi into blood and Qi rain.

However, compared to the power of blood essence, the transformation of inner Qi, which was extraordinary energy, was clearly more difficult.

Lightning snakes were moving inside Zhu Wuwan's body. The turbulent clouds of Inner Qi were spinning and condensing according to a specific pattern, becoming thicker and deeper.

As the dark clouds collided, lightning flashed!

Zhu Wuwan was completely immersed in it, doing her best to control the river of inner Qi in her body. The strange power that was transformed from the breakthrough point came endlessly, or merged into the clouds of inner Qi, or transformed into a powerful pressure, or protected Zhu Wuwan's body and chakra meridians...It was orderly and orderly.

The difficulty of breaking through from the Cast Meridian stage to the Xiantian stage was self-evident. It far surpassed the opening of the Earth Pass. The two could not be mentioned in the same breath.

However, with the breakthrough point as a wing, the difficulty of Zhu

Wuyang's breakthrough was undoubtedly reduced by more than ten times.

Moreover, with the protection of the breakthrough point, the benefits Zhu Wuyang could obtain after breaking through would be even greater.

"Ka ka ka..."

Zhu Wuwan seemed to be able to hear the sound of thunder coming from his body, and his internal organs also flickered. Whether it was the River Internal Qi in his lower dantian or the River Internal Qi in his nine major chakra meridians, they were all circulating and gathering at an extremely fast speed.

The dark clouds grew darker and darker, and the lightning flashed more and more. The pressure that Zhu Wuyang was under also grew greater and greater.

Threads of lightning spread to every part of Zhu Wuwan's body. While it caused harm to Zhu Wuwan, it also tempered Zhu Wuwan's body, causing threads of grayish-black smoke to rise around Zhu Wuwan. Those were the impurities in Zhu Wuwan's body that had been evaporated.

Under normal circumstances, a body part damaged by lightning could only be completely repaired by a martial artist who had broken through to the Xiantian stage with the help of Xiantian Inner Yuan. There would be no future problems.

Once they failed to break through to the Xiantian realm, these injuries might be forever imprinted on their bodies and could not be removed for the rest of their lives. Naturally, it would also affect the martial artist's attempt to break through to the Xiantian shackles again.

Therefore, in the process of a martial artist trying to break through to the Xiantian realm, the success rate was the highest the first time, slightly weaker the second time, and basically impossible the third time.

However, Zhu Wuwan was different. When the abundant breakthrough point sensed that Zhu Wuwan's body was injured, it immediately transformed into another strange healing power that seeped into the injured parts of Zhu

Wuwan's body and repaired them at an extremely fast speed.

Zhu Wuyan's injured body recovered very quickly. Even if Zhu Wuyan could not break through to the Connate stage this time, it would not affect his next attempt.

However, with the support of tens of millions of breakthrough points, how could Zhu Wuwan not break through this barrier?

"Boom..."

After an unknown period of time, a loud rumbling sound came from Zhu Wuan's body. Accompanied by the rumbling sound, a drop of Connate Inner Essence appeared in Zhu Wuan's lower dantian.

Then, this drop of innate inner essence began to circulate in Zhu Wuwan's lower dantian and nine chakra meridians according to a mysterious but different trajectory from Jiang He's Meridian Forging Record.

This was the Vast Sea Origin Scripture!

It was also the only Mythical-level cultivation technique that the descendants of the Zhu royal family could see in the library. The original owner had already memorized it a few years ago. Unfortunately, after spending several years, she could not understand it at all. freewebnovel.com

This was the highest level cultivation technique of the Zhu Royal Family, but it was also the most difficult cultivation technique. It was said that other than the first generation of ancestors of the Zhu Royal Family, no one could cultivate this mythical-level cultivation technique. They could not even reach the beginner level.

However, a few days ago, Zhu Wuan had already gained a preliminary understanding of this technique, which was known as the most difficult technique of the Zhu royal family. It was a peerless divine technique that even Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu could not cultivate.

All rivers converged, and rivers flowed into the sea!

The Immensity Sea Essence Codex could perfectly connect with the Jiang He Vein Building Record, thus nurturing a stronger, purer, more inclusive, and more ever-changing body...Immensity Sea Inner Essence.

The inner essence of the Eternal Sea was far superior to Jiang He's inner qi, and the difference between the two was at least ten times. Moreover, it was endless and formed its own cycle. Coupled with the small cycle formed by the nine major chakra meridians and the lower dantian, it could almost make Zhu Wuwan's innate inner essence never run out.

Of course, if Zhu Wuyan kept using some high-consumption moves, the Vast Sea Essence Opus and the nine great chakra meridians would not be able to withstand it.

However, Zhu Wuyang could perform ordinary moves and martial arts almost endlessly.

Jiang He's Vein Forging Record and the Eternal Sea Essence Codex were perfectly connected. With the appearance of the first drop of Eternal Sea Inner Essence, the second drop, the third drop...They appeared one after another.

Everything was difficult at the beginning. With the first success, it would be much easier to succeed in the future.

The river's inner Qi in Zhu Wuan's body was decreasing at a speed visible to the naked eye, and it was replaced by the ever-increasing Vast Sea Inner Essence.

When all the river's inner Qi in Zhu Wuan's body was converted into Vast Sea Inner Essence, it also meant that Zhu Wuan's strength had broken through the shackles of the natural moat and advanced to the last stage of martial artists.

Innate stage!

He lived for more than a hundred years, like an immortal, far surpassing ordinary people.

The circulation trajectory of Jiang He's Meridian Forging Manual in his nine great chakras and lower dantian was perfectly taken over by the circulation trajectory of the Vast Sea Essence Opus. The Vast Sea Inner Essence had almost inherited all the advantages of Jiang He's inner Qi, and it had amplified them, making it even more powerful.

When inner essence sublimates, it would naturally nourish the body!

Zhu Wuyan's body was like a piece of land that had dried up for a long time. It was absorbing the inner essence of the Vast Sea at a terrifying speed. The method of tempering the body in the Vast Sea Origin Code appeared in his mind. Zhu Wuyan methodically hammered, tempered, and improved...Every part of his body.

Strength increased, speed increased, defense increased, spirit sublimated . Zhu Wuyan's overall quality was soaring at a terrifying speed, far surpassing when he was at the tenth tier of Cast Vein. The two could not be mentioned in the same breath.

Zhu Wuwan felt as if she had been freed from layers of shackles, and everything in the world became clear.

The lower dantian and the nine major chakra meridians were also nourished and tempered by the Vast Sea Inner Essence, becoming harder and more flexible. They could accept more innate inner essence and could easily withstand some ordinary injuries.

Zhu Wuyan's strength had increased by more than ten times..

Chapter 90: Time to Take Off (1)

"Congratulations to the host for breaking through to the early-stage Connate realm for the first time in his life. You have obtained 10 million breakthrough points..."

Breaking through the shackles of the natural moat and advancing to the Connate stage had given Zhu Wuwan a total of 10 million breakthrough points as a reward, of which 9 million was forcefully poured into Zhu Wuwan's body.

He had yet to use up the tens of millions of breakthrough points from before, and now there were nine million breakthrough points. Zhu Wuwan also felt a little bloated, as if she had eaten too much.

Without thinking too much, Zhu Wuwan focused all his attention on cultivating and improving. He circulated the Vast Sea Essence Opus to the extreme, and a large amount of Vast Sea Inner Essence continuously appeared, gradually forming a small pit in his lower dantian.

Then, the small pit began to expand at a speed visible to the naked eye. It was the size of an apricot...The size of an apple...The size of a bowl...The size of a basin...

The lower dantian was the same as the nine chakra meridians. It was between illusion and reality. It was as if it existed in another space. Therefore, when one looked inside, there was a certain difference between what one saw and what was real.

In Zhu Wuan's perception, the inner essence in his lower dantian had already formed a water-tank-sized pit. However, in the eyes of outsiders, the inner essence of the Immensity Sea existed in Zhu Wuan's body, so it could not be the size of a water tank. After all, how old was Zhu Wuan?

Ordinary people didn't understand and only felt that it was extremely magical. They might even think that some martial artists were bragging. However, only martial artists who had entered a sufficiently high realm knew that all of this was true.

A large number of breakthrough points turned into pure and strange power at an extremely fast speed. It could be easily absorbed and digested by the Vast Sea Essence Opus, and finally turned into Vast Sea Inner Essence, driving Zhu Wuyang's strength to continuously soar.

The vast and pure inner essence of the Vast Sea brought more nourishment and improvement to Zhu Wuwan's body. Her skin, muscles, bones, and five internal organs, which had already reached a certain limit ... They advanced one step further and broke through their limits, becoming more and more tenacious and powerful.

This was a perfect cycle!

The refinement and advancement of the path of martial arts far surpassed the high-tech industry on Earth. The high-tech industry on Earth had only developed for a few hundred years, but the path of martial arts in Dongyuan Continent had developed for at least millions of years.

The two were not on the same level at all. Even if the intelligent life forms on the Dongyuan Continent were all pig brains, they had spent so many years perfecting the path of martial arts, which was far better than the high-tech industry on Earth.

From the Body Tempering stage of Skin Refining, Muscle Refining, Tendon

Refining, Golden Bone Refining, Five Organs Refining, Bone Marrow Refining, Blood Transfusion Refining, Inner Qi Seed, Earth Pass stage to the Foundation stage of Earth Chakra Meridian, Sea Floor Chakra Meridian, Life Qi Chakra

Meridian, Heaven Swallowing Chakra Meridian, Seven Heart Chakra Meridian, Heaven Eye Chakra Meridian, Illusion Sound Chakra Meridian, Myriad Ying Chakra Meridian, Lotus Chakra Meridian, all the way to the Connate stage!

They were closely linked, pushing a martial artist's strength to peak after peak, breaking through limits one after another, and thus possessing terrifying strength that ordinary people could not imagine.

This was something that the advanced technology on Earth could not achieve for the time being. Although it was due to the Spiritual Qi of Heaven and Earth, the efforts of the martial artists of Dongyuan Continent were also indispensable.

From the Tempered Body stage to the Cast Meridian stage, all the way to the Connate stage, Zhu Wuwan had relied on the advantage of having a flawless Dao foundation and breakthrough points to choose the best and most solid peerless martial arts and legendary martial arts to gain an advantage step by step.

It was only at this moment that he broke through the shackles of the natural moat and advanced to the Connate stage. His cultivation foundation was so strong that it was unimaginable for ordinary people. Even Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu's cultivation foundation was more than ten times weaker than Zhu Wuyang's.

Such a solid cultivation foundation naturally gave Zhu Wuyang strength that far surpassed ordinary people. Compared to martial artists of the same level, Zhu Wuyang was enough to dominate.

At this moment, it would not be an exaggeration to say that Zhu Wanhao was invincible in the early stage of the Connate Realm. In fact, most of the mid-stage Connate Realm martial artists were not Zhu Wanhao's match.

If he had encountered some weaker late-stage Connate Realm martial artists, perhaps Zhu Wuwan would have been able to compete with them. In other words, with Zhu Wuwan's current strength, she was barely qualified to be called a quasi-top expert.

In the vast Nine Zhao Country, such a martial artist was not considered weak. He could easily become the overlord of a county or even a prefecture, possessing terrifying combat strength that ordinary people could not imagine.

Even in the Imperial Palace, where experts were as common as clouds, Zhu Wuwan's strength was ranked among the top.

One had to know that Zhu Wuyang had the fourth-tier Nine Dragon Fist in combat, the small success of the Illusion God Steps in dodging, and the unpredictable power of the Saber Drawing Skill. He had been nurturing it for a long time. Once the Mysterious Cloud Saber was unsheathed, its power was far stronger than the Nine Dragon Fist.

With all these combined, Zhu Wuyang's combat strength was truly formidable.

By the time he had absorbed all the breakthrough points, Zhu Wuwan's strength had completely stabilized at the early stage of the Connate Realm and had advanced a lot toward the middle stage of the Connate Realm. If nothing unexpected happened, Zhu Wuwan would be able to break through the bottleneck in a few days and advance to the middle stage of the Connate Realm.

His strength had already increased to such an extent that he could not suppress it no matter how much he suppressed it. Moreover, if he continued to suppress it, it would seem a little hypocritical. In that case, it was time to increase his strength with all his might. frēewebnovel.com

Compared to pretending to be a turtle and waiting for Mad Emperor Zhu Zhenwu to die on his own, for the current Zhu Wuwan, it was the safest and fastest way to increase his strength and surpass Zhu Zhenwu.

Just a month ago, Zhu Wuyang was still thinking that with his speed of improvement, even with the help of the Special Encounter System, it would take him at least a year or two to reach the point where he could rival Zhu Zhenwu.

However, Zhu Wuwan never expected that even though he had tried his best to suppress the growth of his strength, in order to earn less breakthrough points, he had hidden in his bedroom for such a long time without going out even once. He even did not hesitate to "self-immolate" "self-harm" and "destroy his reputation"

In the end, not only did the speed at which his strength increased not slow down, but it also became faster and faster. Every time, he outsmarted himself and made Zhu Wuyang earn breakthrough points even faster. It was so fast that even he was dumbfounded.

Especially this time, he had unexpectedly become a fake eunuch, which had made Zhu Wuyang 'famous' all over the world. It had brought him a huge amount of breakthrough points, and his strength had risen steadily.

What should Zhu Wanhao say?

My heart was set on the moon, but the moon shines on the ditch!

The tree wants to be quiet, but the wind does not stop; The son wants to be raised, but the parents are not here!

I really don't want to break through!

However, when she thought about the speed of improvement in just over 20 days, Zhu Wuwan felt that it was a little hypocritical to say that. You broke through so quickly even if you didn't want to. If you really wanted to break through, how fast would it be?

Why don't you go to heaven!

In fact, Zhu Wuwan really did not want to break through, but who knew that he would always overreach himself? With the help of some princes, princesses, and concubines, Zhu Wuwan's strength soared!

It seemed like he had been bitterly suppressing the growth of his strength, but in fact, he had allowed his strength to grow even faster. This was an outcome that even Zhu Wuyang had not expected..
