

Life at The Top – Chapter 1473

“Greg, people will think you’re weak and easy to bully if you’re always compromising and overcautious when it comes to being a man and starting a company. We won’t bully others, but we also won’t allow others to step on us.

“We’ll chop off anyone who reaches their claws over, it doesn’t matter who it is, it doesn’t even matter if it was God himself. You may be asking what might happen next if we did such a thing. Well, at most, we’d start over. You’ve experienced so much, but do you think it will be even worse than what you’ve experienced?”

Greg gritted his teeth and replied, “I know what I should do now.”

Jasper nodded and said, “A person’s character is developed from the constant changing of their environment. You have to change, but this won’t be something you can do overnight. This time, I’ll take care of it, but since you know what you should do in the future, then I can rest assured it is worth my time.”

Greg’s character was a little problematic, but to Jasper, it was not something that could not be salvaged.

The main thing was that Greg had a very rare personality and ability that was hard to come by.

That was why Jasper was willing to help him and was willing to give him another chance.

If not, he would not be comfortable leaving a huge fund to Greg and not minding it at all, instead simply allowing Greg to do anything he wanted with it.

Even so, disregarding all this fuss, Greg was still his man. Now, a boss who was in the mobile phone business came out to slap Greg, which meant he was disrespecting Jasper as well. Therefore, Jasper had to show his anger.

This was for Greg, and also for the other employees.

“Julian,” Jasper called out.

The door to the office opened and Julian appeared at the entrance.

“Get me Vinny Goldman,” Jasper ordered.

Julian nodded and left without saying a word.

“Jasper, what are you doing?” Greg did not expect Jasper to ask his subordinate to kidnap Vinny. This was against the law, which obviously shocked him.

“He was the one who broke the rules first, so don’t blame us for resorting to extreme measures.

“I have a lot to take care of later so I don’t have the time to waste on this small fry. Didn’t he say he wants to buy Blau Mobiles with 5 million? We’ll just get him to come here to talk to me about it face to face,” Jasper said with a wave of his hand.

Greg chuckled bitterly and saw Eric looking excited at one side. Hence, he did not stop Jasper.

Perhaps Jasper was right.

“Let’s go. We’ll eat first.” Jasper got up and said, “I think he should be here by the time we’re almost done. I have two more friends coming over later too so let’s get to know each other during the meal.”

Of course, this was not a problem. After handling Greg's matter, they quickly confirmed a place. The place they went to was not a fancy place, but a normal noodle shop. This place was also specifically requested by Jasper.

A meal in a luxurious hotel was for clients, and since they were all his people, then it would be a bit inappropriate to go to such a formal place.

Inside the shop, Jasper picked up some of his noodles and mocked Greg, "Your secretary, Veronica, right? What's her relationship with you?"

"She's my secretary, so it's obvious. We're employer and employee," Greg said, feeling embarrassed.

Jasper smiled and said, "I don't oppose office romance."

Of course he would not. After all, Wendy was sitting next to his office. Thus, Jasper was the one person that was most unqualified to oppose office romance.
