

Life at The Top – Chapter 1478

What could someone like this achieve? Moreover, Jasper was also supporting him.

Greg did not know what Jasper was planning, but at this moment, he was very excited. He lifted his hand and slapped Vinny across the face savagely.

Vinny was the one who bullied him. Greg went to Vinny seeking a compromise while playing it safe, but he ended up being kicked out by Vinny in such a horrendous way.

However, since Jasper was here, he did not want to waste his breath. He did not even explain why they had kidnapped Vinny before he immediately started slapping him after he arrived.

Greg was thrilled at this startling difference. At the same time, he felt that this was how a man should be living.

Slap slap slap!

After a few slaps, Greg felt amazing, while Vinny was shocked stupid.

“This is insane, you’re insane, you’re f*cking... Ah! Stop slapping me!”

Initially, Vinny appeared fierce while actually being cowardly at heart. Now, he was wailing in pain while begging for mercy. This change would make anyone feel sorry for him.

With a thud, Vinny fell to the ground, sobbing. A man was being hit until he cried. When he fell, he fell right under Todd’s feet.

He subconsciously lifted his head and his eyes met Todd’s disdainful gaze.

Vinny was dumbfounded. He did not expect to see Todd here.

“M-Mr. Puller?”

Vinny called out.

Todd frowned and looked away.

“Sorry, I don’t know you.”

Vinny began treating Todd as his savior now. He turned around and held Todd’s legs before wailing, “Mr. Puller, help me. These people are insane. I’m Vinny Goldman, the boss of Fliegen. We worked together many times before. Please save me!”

“Who worked with you many times before?”

Todd was annoyed after he heard that.

He finally gave Jasper a good impression of himself, and he did not want Vinny to ruin it.

“I’m telling you one more time that I don’t know you.”

Todd’s dark eyes were like two sharp knives as they met Vinny’s gaze.

Even if Vinny was stupid, he would still be able to tell that there were people here that he could not afford to offend. Even Todd could not afford to offend the said person.

“W-What’s going on?” Vinny asked timidly.

At this moment, Jasper stood up and said, “I’m full. Let’s go back.”

“I’ll let you handle this, Greg. You can decide what you want to do.”

After he said that, he led the gang out of the private room.

Henry got up as well and looked at Vinny with an icy smile before sauntering away.

Todd was the last one to stand up. He looked coldly at Vinny who was dumbfounded. He scolded, “Do you really think you’re god just because you have a stupid mobile phone company? Look who’s behind the other party next time you want to put on such a stupid act. You’re nothing, yet you dare to offend Mr. Laine?”

“Starting from today, Nawait Semiconductor Manufacturing will not provide anymore chips to Fliegen. Not even a single one!”
