'Someone must have noticed, but who cares? As long as am not the last take over.'

The fun still continued, according to the planned timeline, and so the event would take flight years later, which would be 2008.

However, Jasper wanted to expose the person who was being pretentious and get rid of the support of the United States now.

Old Master Law was shocked after hearing

these words from him.

Not everyone would have the courage to say such things.

It was certainly fine for citizen to speak casually, but the words from people who had reached the level Jasper terms of strength and status were mostly facts. Even the arrogant ones would not dare speak on anything even mildly related to breaking the financial support of the United States.

However, Old Master Law did not.

question it in detail. Instead, he just asked a simple

These seven words showed put all his support and trust in Jasper.

Jasper, who felt the affection, took a deep breath and said, "Old Master Law, all you and the Laws need to do is to try your hardest to short the subprime credit market in the United States. That's all."

Old Master Law was silent for a moment,

then spoke up, "Alright, I'll ask Zachary t o contact you."

He did not even ask why, nor did he ask about the probability of this turning out successfully.

Jasper clenched his fists. With just the support and trust from Old Master Law, he had to try his best to make a better future.

After he ended the call with Old Master Law, he made a second call.

The call was made to Gale.

The phone was answered by his chamberlain. After passing the message, Jasper had to wait a few moments before Gale came to the line.

"I really didn't want to answer the phone when I knew it was you calling, Sly child."

Jasper laughed after hearing Gale's voice. "Is this a compliment from Old Master Hurlbutt to me as a youngster?"

"Hmph, just spit it out." Gale snorted coldly.

"Lend me some money to spend."

Jasper's answer was simple and crude as he chuckled.

Although Jasper could not see Gale's expression, he could tell that it was bad.

Seeing that Gale did not say anything, Jasper could only continue. "Old Master Hurlbutt, don't be upset. just need 800 billion."

There was a clear sound of glasses dropping and breaking on the other end of the line.

Gale growled and said, "Jasper Laine, what do you take me for?! Are you here to rob me?! Even if you were here to rob, you should at least take a reasonable amount of money. Even the coffin cost is not as much as the money you asked for. You just ask for 800 billion Somer dollars the moment you open your mouth?"

Jasper was smart enough to move the phone away from his ear, then continued after Gale finished speaking. "Look at you, you get angry so easily. It's better to control your emotions well, especially when you're already old."

“Old Master Hurlbutt, let’s be real. You might not have so much money but the moment you ask for it from the Chamber o f Commerce, they will definitely find their way to get the money for you.”

“If you are here for money, get lost!” ” Gale raged as he said,

Jasper shrugged his shoulders and said, ” Alright then, it’s fine if you don’t give me money. I will take down the business people from Haddock that I come across with. Besides, with the strength of JW, even if we can’t vanquish them, we can at least drive the business people from Haddock out of the four major Chambers o f Commerce. I’m pretty sure nothing is wrong with that, right?”
