

Life at the Top Chapter 1869

“What you said is very important to me. Back then, I always ignored the possibility of the three families joining forces. Now that they have really come together, I have to guard myself against them.

Henry was even more proud when he heard what Jasper said.

“Don’t thank me too much. When you have finally taken care of those idiots named Fabian Atticus and Kayden Langdon, don’t forget to let me have a go at them.”

“Okay, I won’t forget that,” Jasper agreed happily.

After he hung up, Jasper glanced at the United States subprime market and stopped doing anything. Instead, he started laying out his plans for the United States high-tech giants with Jake.

Next, Jasper’s focus would gradually shift to the domestic financial market. What he needed to do with the United States was to maintain the pressure on the subprime market and press on with the acquisition of stocks of those technology giants.

Since the subprime mortgage crisis had completely erupted, the storm it brought was enough to sweep the entire United States economy. Hence, it was inevitable that they would suffer heavy losses.

Jasper intended to let JW Foundation come out from the dark and start planning its future. He would take advantage of this chaos and absorb as many of the technology giants that he could. These benefits would ultimately be safe in his pockets, and he was doing this for the development of JW in the next 20 years.

While Jasper and Jake were planning the future of the United States financial market, a private jet landed in New York in the United States amidst a storm.

Kayden personally greeted them at the runway.

At this critical moment, only Kennedy, Fabian, and Sawyer had the power to make Kayden come out and greet them at the airport while risking getting swamped by reporters.

The group of people got off the plane and met on the ground.

This group of people was divided according to age. Kennedy and Sawyer belonged to the same generation and although Kayden and Fabian were in the same generation, Kayden was much older than Fabian.

“Mr. Kenney, Mr. Sawyer, hello.”

Kayden smiled and greeted them politely.

In reality, according to their relationship, Kayden and Half-the-Harbor Langdon seldom participated in the grievances between the old Harbor City giants, so their positions seemed very different. Especially after Kayden and Jasper’s cooperation, it would appear that Kayden was closer to the Laws. Although Kayden was not enemies with Fabian and Sawyer, they were definitely not friends.

However, after things developed to this point, it was completely unnecessary to mention this anymore. Everyone was facing a common enemy, so there was always a possibility of cooperation.

“Kayden’s temperament and demeanor could be said to be the best among the younger generation of Harbor City,” Sawyer said with a smile.

Kennedy also nodded. Indeed, Kayden’s excellence had been taken note of by all of the top families in Harbor City. There had always been a saying before this that any family with an heir like Kayden would have no problem flourishing for the next 30 years.

However, the problem came with Jasper's appearance.

Even the older generation had suffered a crushing defeat by Jasper's hands. Hence, no one dared to mention this saying anymore.

When Kennedy thought of Jasper, he gritted his teeth and an unpleasant expression appeared on his face.

"Mr. Kennedy, do you have something on your mind?" Kayden asked when he saw that Kennedy looked slightly off-color.

"Who here doesn't have something on their mind?" Kennedy replied.

As soon as he said this, Sawyer started to look off-color too. He walked toward the car and said, "Let's go. We came all the way here, and we need to visit Half-the Harbor Langdon first."

The two walked towards the car one after another. Then, Kayden and Fabian followed.

Although Kayden was regarded as the host, his status was lower than Kennedy and Sawyer. Hence, he was very humble.

He had been educated since young so others would not nitpick on him regarding this small detail.

"Did you enjoy getting educated by Jasper that f*cker during this period? I heard that you're even beaten up by Jasper's lackey Henry when you were in Harbor City?" Fabian and Kayden walked side by side as Fabian sneered.

Kayden glanced at Fabian and replied, "It seems that you are well informed."

"Hehe, who in Harbor City doesn't know about this? Everyone says that Jasper is the reason you are unable to go back to your home to Harbor City and the mainland. I wonder how many people are laughing at you and your father now that Layman has gone bankrupt."

Kayden stopped suddenly when he heard that. Then, he stood still and stared at Fabian.

Fabian frowned slightly. He was a little spooked by how Kayden was staring at him.

Although his self-esteem kept him from showing any timidity, his refusal to look into Kayden's eyes exposed his weakness. The moment Fabian looked away, Kayden spoke.

"Everyone in the world is qualified to laugh at me, but you are the only one who has no right to stand here and do so. You couldn't even withstand three moves from Jasper, so who are you to make fun of me?"

"In the past, our grievances were just child's play, and I'll let it go. I don't plan to split hairs about anything, but from now on, if you still don't get your attitude in check, it will undoubtedly affect the cooperative relationship between the three families. I don't think your father Sawyer would want to see this, right?"

"I heard that your father's position as the head of the family was threatened because of you. If it weren't for the solid foundation of his business over so many years, I wonder if you two would still be the ones coming here on behalf of the Atticus family."

Kayden's words made Fabian's face gloomy.

Before Fabian could retort, an enthusiastic smile suddenly bloomed on Kayden's face. He said, "Mr. Fabian, it's getting late and it's very windy and rainy in New York today. It's really not suitable to stay out here, why don't we get into the car soon so that the two elders won't be kept waiting for too long?"

Fabian, with a stiff complexion, realized that he had been completely crushed by Kayden. With a snort, he got into a car after lowering his head.

As he looked at Fabian's figure, Kayden's eyes turned dark for a moment.

However, the darkness disappeared immediately and was then replaced with a gentle and noble smile. After that, he bowed his head and got into the car.

The convoy started slowly and headed towards the upper-class area on the outskirts of New York.

At this moment, Sawyer and Kennedy were sitting in the same car ahead.

Sawyer glanced at Kennedy and smiled. "It seems that our old opponent can't hold it anymore."

"He was scammed by the United States out of tens of billions in just one business deal. It was even in US Dollars. No one can bear such a blow. Since he's still standing tall, it means that Fongroup is really powerful," Kennedy said.

Sawyer narrowed his eyes slightly and said, "What do you think he will offer for our cooperation?"

"It's nothing more than giving up some of the existing interests, but no matter what the conditions are, cooperating with him is our best option at the moment. Did you not notice that we've been isolated in Harbor City for some time?"

Kennedy's words made the corners of Sawyer's mouth twitch and he had a very expression.
