Life at the Top Chapter 2201-Julian, who was hiding in the dark, witnessed everything and his eyes were full of anger. However, his rationale told him that he must not be impulsive at this time.

Normally, Julian would rush over and deal with those people as soon as possible, but right now, he had to endure it. He understood that a little neglect might breed great mischief.

The hunting game could not officially begin until the old members of Red Scorpion showed up.

After waiting patiently, Julian finally saw several people appearing in front of him. These men were armed with standard weapons and had distinctive Red Scorpion tattoos on their wrists.

Julian held his breath and continued to lie quietly on the roof.

The four old Red Scorpion members gradually came together, each of them looking surprised.

“Didn’t you all go in other directions?”

“We came over as soon as we heard gunshots.”

“So did we.”

After confirming with each other, it was clear that everyone gathered because of the sound of gunfire.

“Did you see who fired the shots?”

“You don’t have to ask. I saw the eagle head dog tags on their chest, so they must be from The Eagles!”

One of them put down their binoculars and gave specific information.

“Well, since we found out that they’re from The Eagles, let’s go back and report the news as per the boss’ instruction.”

This was the plan before departure, but at this time someone changed their mind.

“Why are you stopping me? Are you trying to disobey the order?”

“Of course not. We were originally ordered to search for the enemy in four directions. Won’t we be exposed if we go back together now?”

“Don’t think I don’t know what you’re thinking!”

Although everyone gathered because they heard gunshots, there was obviously a precondition for this to happen.

The four people who accepted the mission and set off were only interested in saving their necks.

After everyone separated, each of them hid without going far at all. It was not until The Eagles’ men entered the city and opened fire that they slowly gathered together.

As soon as this was said, they knew they had been exposed and they were slightly embarrassed.

“Then what do you think we should do?”

“Easy. There are three of us left, so we should just arrange for one of us to go back to give the tip off.”

Upon hearing this, the rest of the team nodded. Apparently, they unanimously agreed to the proposal.

“Well, since you proposed the plan. You should go. We will wait here.”

Obviously, everyone felt that the plan was fine, and then the person who had just asked the question set off.

After he left, the remaining three people knew that they should not rely on him, so they all hid.

They still had to pretend they had just run into each other when their boss Sena got here. Thus, it did not matter if they left early at this time.

The gunshots in the city were still ringing from time to time, and the three old Red Scorpion members were all like cowards.

Julian saw their discussion clearly from the roof. He quickly hid his dog tag and took off his gloves to reveal the Red Scorpion tattoo on his wrist.

He quietly snuck into the vicinity of a private residence, and through the window, he could hear a woman's heart-wrenching cry for help.

Without hesitation, Julian picked up the crossbow and aimed at the opponent through the gap. With a click, a crossbow arrow covered with rattlesnake venom shot out.

The guy who was shot was still in a state of passion and did not have time to react at all. However, when he did, he fell directly on the woman's belly and died slowly.

Life at the Top Chapter 2202 -The accomplices who were still waiting outside the house felt that something was wrong. It had been quiet for some time and no one had come out.

"You should go in and see what's going on."

After one of them finished speaking, another one nodded immediately and walked in.

When he went in, he only saw a disheveled woman curled up in a corner while his companion lay motionless on the ground.

"Wake up!"

He walked over, stretched out his hand, and patted the man. However, after turning the person over, he found that this guy was not breathing anymore.

He initially thought this woman was the murderer, but the crossbow showed the professionalism of the assassin.

"Stay vigilant! There are enemies around!"

After hearing the shouts in the house, everyone raised their guns.

The person in the house came out with the crossbow arrow. "Everyone, be careful. Get into groups of two. We can't give him another chance!"

So, everyone got in groups of two, while the other person acted alone. This man looked confident and should be the leader of this operation. Unfortunately, he soon paid the price for his confidence.

The team watched as the leader turned to the other side of the house. However, when they followed, they found the leader lying on the ground.

His gun was gone and there was a crossbow arrow piercing his back!

“Who’s there? Come out now!”

There were only two people left, and the endless fear in their hearts turned into anger.

They could only vent by shooting bullets into the sky. However, after the gunshot sounds ended, one of them collapsed suddenly.

The only guy left looked up and saw a man standing on the roof.

With the leader’s gun in his hand, he took out the remaining companion.

“It’s you!”

After the man said that, he heard another gunshot and the bullet hit his hand that was holding the gun.

When the man on the roof wanted to continue shooting, he realized that he had ran out of bullets. Meanwhile, the man who was shot ran away. Before he escaped, he saw that the shooter had a Red Scorpion tattoo on his wrist.

A sneer appeared on Julian’s face as he watched the other party escape. He had let the other party go on purpose to confuse him.

Julian jumped down, picked up a gun, and quickly disappeared again.

At this moment, Julian was wearing gloves on both hands. Only the eagle head dog tag that was hidden under his clothes was exposed.

Julian, who was hiding on the roof, had the absolute advantage. He raised his crossbow and shot one arrow at the three people from Red Scorpion.

Just like last time, he deliberately let one person live. He fired a shot on purpose, and the guy started shaking again.

When the other party seized the chance to escape, he saw the eagle head dog tag swaying around Julian's neck.

After deliberately letting the man go, Julian retrieved all three crossbow arrows. He took the guns of The Eagles' men and shot a few more times at the three corpses. This would make it more difficult for both parties to verify the cause of death.

After Julian did all this, he got up and climbed to the roof.

He saw a group of people rushing over from a distance.

"The show's about to start..."

After about ten minutes, Julian, who was hiding on the roof, saw that the two groups of people were slowly approaching. He had been waiting here for a long time, and he needed to start this show himself.

He pulled out the smoke and tear gas grenades he had bought yesterday and started jumping around the roofs.

As he jumped, he threw the smoke and tear gas grenades.

The two unsuspecting teams were instantly caught in the target area. They all thought that the enemy would appear around them, but they failed to pay attention to what was above their heads.

"Damn it! Shoot!"

After the first gunshot, the surrounding gunfire soon sounded as lively as firecrackers.

The two mercenary groups, The Eagles and Red Scorpion, fought hard. Even so, Julian was not idle, and would constantly remain the culprit hiding in the shadows.

Julian would shoot everyone above using his crossbow. After a fierce battle, the surrounding smoke gradually dissipated.

The series of gunshots finally stopped, and only two people were left alive on either side after the confrontation.

Life at the Top Chapter 2203-They were the leaders of the Eagles and the Red Scorpion.

Sena vomited blood. He was shot in the abdomen, but he still did not let go of the gun in his hand. On the other hand, Marco on the opposite side was not doing well either. All his limbs were crippled except for his right hand, which was also still holding a gun.

“Well, Sena. You knew that I was coming to silence you, so you bribed a killer who only uses crossbow arrows?”

After Marco finished speaking, Sena was naturally puzzled.

This should have been his line.

“What are you talking about? Didn’t you hire that crossbow killer who has been secretly picking us off?”

After Sena said that, Marco also felt that something was wrong.

“Nonsense! Do you think you will die if you tell me the truth right now?”

“Since you know that, you shouldn’t say that to me. We are all on the verge of death so there’s no need to lie!”

When the two were about to argue about this, a figure suddenly appeared in front of them.

“A crossbow? It’s you! Who the hell are you?”

Sena and Marco recognized the person in front of them almost at the same time because the weapon in Julian’s hands was too familiar.

Julian chose to show his true identity at this time, and he knew that he did not need to continue to hide in front of the two people who were about to die.

“Stop arguing. Neither of you hired a killer. I am the crossbow killer.”

Upon hearing this, how could Sena and Marco not understand that they had been played by Julian?

“Who the hell are you? I haven’t seen you before. Why did you do this to me?”

Sena and Marco questioned one after another, and Julian had a smile on his face.

“Don’t worry, I will answer you one by one.”

Julian then stared at Sena before him.

“It doesn’t matter if you don’t know me, but your boss, Woody, knows me as well as my boss, Jasper Laine from JW group... He took the trouble to transfer you from the United Kingdom just to kill us.

“Unfortunately, it seems that your skills are not worth the price of this ticket!”

After taunting, Julian looked at Marco pitifully.

“As for you, I don’t need to say much, right? You chose to retaliate against them at the right time, and I took advantage of it.”

After listening to Julian, Marco and Sena understood what had happened.

“Can you give me a chance? As long as you’re willing to let me go, I will do anything for you!”

Sena immediately began to beg for mercy, and Marco beside him also had a pleading look in his eyes.

“Really? I’d like to believe you, but can you really help me in such a semi-crippled state?”

“We won’t try to convince you with words, we will prove it with action.”

Julian smiled and decided to have a test of humanity. “I will give one gun to the two of you because I only need one person to help me... As for who gets to stay alive, it’s up to you.”

Julian dropped the gun in the center and walked away.

After seeing the gun on the floor, Sena and Marco looked at each other before fighting for it. The fight was not as intense as Julian imagined. After all, they were hurt, so in the end, Sena, who was not as severely injured, won the fight.

He had more mobility, so when Marco charged at him, Sena had already lifted the gun to point it at Marco’s head.

“Any last words?”

Sena looked coldly at Marco. Marco sighed and was about to say something, but with a click, Sena pulled the trigger.

Sena had to let Marco die with regret as Marco was a cruel person and an enemy who had lead his team to wipe out Sena’s men.

Life at the Top Chapter 2204-After the gunshot, Julian appeared in front of Sena again.

“I won! I’m the one who survived, please tell me what to do...”

Julian could see the strong desire to survive on his face. It was a pity that Sena had no idea that when he chose to follow Woody’s orders to attack Julian and others, his ending had already been determined.

“What you have to do is very simple, find two corpses among these many dead people. Then, burn their corpses and bring them back to report to me after completing your mission... At the same time, you should kill your boss, Woody Nason,” Julian said lightly.

Julian would not allow the person that threatened Jasper’s life to continue to exist. Even if Sena refused or if Sena could not handle this matter, he would still use his own means to solve this matter.

“Kill my boss? Urn...”

“You have no room to negotiate with me. Either he dies, or you die, think about it.”

Julian glanced at the gun in Sena’s hand with a meaningful look. Then, he turned and left the scene.

Sena slumped on the ground alone and thought for a long time. He did not even notice Woody, who was nearby.

“Hey! Sena, how did things turn out like this?”

Upon hearing this voice, Sena turned back slowly and saw Woody with two bodyguards. “Boss, although I am injured, I think I can still live for now. We just experienced a huge battle, most of the people on both sides are dead.”

When Woody heard that Sena was speaking in a weak tone, he said directly, "I will arrange for someone to take you to the hospital. You will be fine."

When Woody asked someone to take Sena to the hospital, Sena's gaze on Woody changed...

About five hours passed. It was nighttime.

There was a gunshot in the hotel Woody was staying at. At the same time, Julian also received a call from Sena.

"I've killed Woody just like you instructed. Please come to examine the corpse."

Julian smirked and replied, "Alright. I'll be there soon."

After Julian hung up the phone, he went to the sixth floor of the hotel as per Sena's instruction.

When he walked to Room 603, Julian knocked and the door opened automatically.

The moment he was about to open the door, Julian noticed seven to eight people inside the room aiming their guns at him.

Woody sat on the sofa with a pleased look on his face. Next to him was Sena, who was wrapped in bandages.

"Hmph, you're so delusional. How dare you bribe Sena to kill me? Don't you know how long I've trained him? Do you think you can order him just because you want to?"

Julian showed a look of surprise when he heard that, "How dare you go back on your word!"

Sena smirked coldly when he heard that. "I would have died a few years ago if it weren't for Mr. Woody. Thus, I would definitely choose to side with Mr. Woody at this moment."

Woody's face was filled with anger and malice. He immediately waved his hand.

‘What are you still doing here? Tie him up! We can go capture Jasper with this hostage.’

Woody’s men started taking action.

At this moment, Julian who had his hands on his head took action immediately. He pulled the room key at the door and the lights went off immediately. He shot outside the room, and it instantly caused a chain reaction.

Now, only gunshots could be heard.

Life at the Top Chapter 2205-Soon, the lights overheard brightened again.

Woody heard someone walking toward him. When he turned around, he saw it was Julian. Before he could fire, Julian kicked the gun in his hand to the floor.

After that, Julian dislocated Woody’s right arm with a flick of his wrist.

Woody could not hold a gun anymore, so he was no longer a threat. He on the floor looked at his people and Sena lying in a pool of blood on the ground.

“H-How did you react so quickly?”

Then, Julian took out a listening device from Sena’s gun as Woody looked at him in shock.

“I could hear your entire plan, idiot!”

This time, Woody knew he was utterly defeated. He thought he would make a huge achievement, but unexpectedly, this would be his grave...

He did not even see Jasper in person before he was taken down by Jasper’s subordinate. To the arrogant Nason family member, this was a fate worse than death.

“Damn it. Just you wait! If you kill me now, my family will never spare Jasper!”

The smile on Julian’s face became even more ruminating when he heard this.

“From the moment your plane landed until now, the Jasper you’ve been seeing was never the real Jasper. It was just his stunt double...”

Woody was dumbstruck when he heard this.

“No... Impossible! Even if my intelligence is not accurate, it wouldn't be this bad!”

“You don't believe me? He's here. Look for yourself.”

Before Julian came here, he notified Fidel. Right now, someone was knocking on the door. Julian opened the door and Woody saw someone who looked like Jasper.

“You're lying! If this isn't Jasper, who is he?”

“He's Jasper? Look closer...”

Julian walked over to take off Fidel's cap. Then, Fidel lifted his head to show his face.

When Woody saw Fidel's face, he finally understood.

“I see... This was just a ruse...”

“Where is the real Jasper?”

Julian took out his phone and walked in front of Woody. “Coincidentally, it's time for me to report back.”

After the video was connected, Julian pointed at Woody and said, “Jasper, I've caught this guy from the Nason family. The mission is completed.”

On the other end of the video, Jasper smiled when he saw that. He said, “Good job...”

He only replied with two words, but the blow to Woody was huge.

“Jasper!” Woody's voice sounded mournful.

“You did this to yourself,” Jasper only said five words.

Suddenly, Woody burst into laughter. “However, I've not lost to you completely. Look over there!”

Woody pointed at the window. Julian also keenly noticed an abnormal red dot. When he walked over, he saw a hidden camera.

“I left this camera for you. I wanted to use it to record your interrogation.”

“However, you overextended and now, things have become more beneficial to me. This is not that bad. The camera is connected to the Internet, and the scene here has been sent back to my family... Jasper, even if you escape this matter using a stunt double. If you ever dare to come to Qari, countless people will be waiting to seek revenge on you.”

“Kill me right now if you have the balls!”

Woody was using an indirect psychological technique on Jasper.

If Jasper could not control himself, he would ask Julian to kill Woody. By then, Woody's death would be valuable. This video would be sent back to the United Kingdom, and then the Nason family could take this video and make a song and dance with it.

Unfortunately, Woody underestimated Jasper. He was analyzing the situation with a frown.

Life at the Top Chapter 2206-Julian also reacted and immediately persuaded, “Jasper, it's very easy for us to get rid of him. We don't need to do it ourselves, we just need to throw Woody out of the city... Those local folks whom he injured will be glad to take revenge on him after they learn who he is.”

After Jasper heard this, he naturally understood. Woody should have acted arrogant after coming to Qari and he thought he had the final say here. Therefore, he did not pay much attention to his actions, leading to a lot of unnecessary trouble for himself.

“Good idea. Doesn't he like live broadcasts? Then bring the camera and film the folks who were harmed by Woody's employees... Let the whole world know the final outcome of this brutalist!”

“Got it, Jasper!”

Jasper and Julian worked together and quickly addressed the threat Woody had left behind.

Woody's tone obviously changed at this time. "Jasper! You can't do that!"

Julian saw that Woody was frightened, and sneered deliberately, "It's only right that the citizens of the city avenge their families."

Julian immediately tied Woody up and gagged his mouth with a towel.

Woody still wanted to say something but was knocked out by Julian with a knife. When he woke up again, he found that a raging fire had begun to burn around him. When he turned around, he found he was tied to a chair and placed in the middle of the cross.

There was also a car next to him. There was a loudspeaker telling all the surrounding citizens about Woody's identity and the crime he had committed.

After the truth was revealed, the local folks who had been harmed naturally step forward one by one.

They brought all kinds of weapons from their homes and appeared on the streets with fierce eyes.

"Let's kill this bastard and avenge our family!" Someone in the crowd shouted, and then the people rushed over to Woody like a tide.

The scene was a little out of control, and Woody did not even have a chance to call for help.

He quickly fell to the ground, and even though he had turned into a corpse, there were still people violently attacking him.

It was clear how much the locals hated Woody. The riot continued for more than an hour, and Woody on the ground could not even be pieced back together to form a complete corpse once it was all over.

The farce was about to end, and several locals looked back at Julian and the others. They all knelt. This caused a stir, and almost everyone started kneeling before Julian.

"Get up. What are you doing?"

“You are heroes! You are the heroes who saved our city!”

“What’s your name?”

Julian looked at the excited crowd around him, he said, “Remember, the name of the person who saved you is Jasper Laine. He is a great businessman from Somerland in the east. We Somerlanders love peace. He ordered me to help you solve the turmoil, avenge you, and restore peace and tranquility to everyone.”

From then on, Jasper’s name resonated throughout the city. Everyone was curious about this hero from the east.

After the farce, Julian told the good news to Jasper the second time.

“I became the hero? This all really thanks to you!”

Julian laughed and replied, “Jasper, you’re the one who deserves the credit. The people of Qari want to see this hero from the east in person...”

Life at the Top Chapter 2207-Jasper did not expect his unintentional actions to bring success to him, but this was fine. It would definitely be beneficial for him to go there in person next time.

“Good work!” Jasper said to Julian on the phone, “After you complete the task, you should go back to Somerland and spend time with your family.”

“Thanks, Jasper,” Julian smiled stupidly. If normal people saw this smile, they would not think of the gory scene just now...

Julian came to the hotel room and found Fidel.

“Are you ready? Time to hit the road.”

Fidel nodded, and he could guess that his mission was coming to an end.

Soon, Julian sent him on the plane, and he was somewhat reluctant as he looked at the scenery outside the window...

On the other side, the Nason family far away in the United Kingdom.

Rodney reached out angrily and flipped the table in front of him. “What a piece of trash! How could that incompetent bungler end up like this?!”

“Not only he couldn’t tell the difference between real and fake information, but he also lost his own life?”

Rodney’s face was full of anger, and the assistant next to him said, “Mr. Rodney, Woody’s actions have become a tragedy, but we can...”

Then, the assistant whispered some plans into Rodney’s ear.

About half an hour later, a piece of news that caused an uproar in the Western world spread to almost everyone’s ears.

Woody of the Nason family died in Qari, and the main culprit was Jasper from Somerland!

Then everyone saw Rodney appearing, and he looked extremely angry in front of the camera.

Rodney personally announced that he would block and attack Jasper’s industry on a global scale. At the same time, he would appeal to the international court. He had to arrest the culprit and bring him to justice!

As soon as news of this came out, people all over the world reacted differently. The other members of the united major families were all hopeful about this.

“Looks like Rodney is really pissed off this time!”

“Do you think we can count on him to get rid of Jasper?”

The representative of the James family swirled the wine in his wine glass. Then, he heard a mocking sound next to him.

“Everyone knows what you’re thinking. You can’t just think of yourself in this situation.”

He turned around and saw the representative of the Carl family speaking.

“Why did you say that, Mr. Wilhem?”

“Just think about it, Jasper caused all of us to lose out a lot at the last international trade show. The higher-ups won’t forgive him!”

Wilhem took the opportunity to sit next to him and continued his analysis.

“Although Rodney seems to have suffered a loss, at least he’s come out with a statement and taken action. Compared to him, are those of us who have been hiding behind the scenes really qualified to laugh at him?”

Wilhem Carl looked very sober, and his words were also supported by the representative of the Solomon family next to him.

“I think Wilhem is right. Us pots can’t call the kettle black... Rodney was stupid, but that stupidity just helped him show his loyalty. If we don’t act quickly, none of us will be able to escape if the higher-up decides to blame someone.”

The representatives of several major families gathered together, looking preoccupied.

All of them knew the higher-ups were the Rothschilds. As one of the vassal families, Rodney had handed in a barely passing assignment. The other families would soon have to show their work.

“Everyone, what do you think?”

After Wilhem finished speaking, Eddy Solomon spoke, “We must act now to get Jasper out of his comfort zone in Somerland!”

Life at the Top Chapter 2208-After the discussion, the major families immediately decided to start investigating Jasper. With their strength and means, it was easy to investigate Jasper’s recent movements.

“I have received information here that while the fake Jasper has been moving around in Qari, the real Jasper has been controlling the game in Harbor City.”

“Controlling the game? Who is he targeting?”

“Half the Harbor Langdon!”

Wilhem brought the information from his subordinates, and everyone inhaled sharply after seeing it.

“I originally thought that this kid arranged for a stunt double to go to Qari in order to dig up the truth and confuse us. It now appears that Half the Harbor Langdon was his real target.”

Eddy frowned, and the representative of the James family spoke again.

“It looks like Half the Harbor Langdon is in a very dangerous situation. He had fallen into a trap but has no idea.”

“Can we save him? After all, the enemy of my enemy is my friend. If we save this guy, it will definitely destroy Jasper’s plan!”

This idea was not bad. However, after Wilhem and others carefully analyzed the information, they finally shook their heads helplessly.

“Forget it, this Half the Harbor Langdon person is in a dire situation. He’s useless. Let’s quickly spread the news according to what we discussed earlier. As for whether this guy can realize it in time, it’ll depend on his own luck.”

Everyone nodded their heads at this time, apparently reaching the same conclusion.

Jasper, who was in Harbor City, received the news soon.

“Mr. Laine, we predict that the fact that you are in Harbor City will soon be known by everyone in Harbor City.”

Upon hearing this, Jasper’s expression remained unchanged. “So soon? It’s faster than I thought, but it doesn’t matter, I’ve been waiting for this moment for a long time...”

Jasper stood up and looked at Lord Alvarado. “Is your uncle ready?”

“Yes. Although my uncle couldn’t be there himself, he’s basically sent all the authority and documents to me.”

“That’s good, we’ll cope with shifting events by sticking to a fundamental principle. I won’t hold back on Half the Harbor Langdon,” Jasper said lightly, and then thought of one thing. “I may have to leave Harbor City in a few days. I should return to the Nauritus City.”

“Nauritus City?” Lord Alvarado was a little puzzled.

Henry smiled and said, “How long has Jasper been out? He hasn’t contacted Wendy once since he left. Wendy thought Jasper was in Qari this whole time, and she might be worrying about Jasper every day.”

“There’s such a big commotion in Qari, do you think Wendy won’t realize that Jasper didn’t go to Qari at all? Rather than being held accountable by Wendy, Jasper will of course choose the smarter option. He took the initiative to contact her today to avoid a war!”

Although what Henry said at the end was somewhat exaggerated, as a man, he knew everything.

If Jasper could not handle his love life properly, a war would break out!

Even though Henry looked like an expert now, in reality, he learned this through spending time with Jill.

‘Sigh, my sister is too smart. She found out the truth from just a few words I leaked. If not, Jasper would have to make two trips...’

Henry and Lord Alvarado put their arms around each other’s shoulders, and Jasper had already left before he finished speaking.

Jasper called Wendy as soon as he got in the car.

“Hey, Wendy, what are you doing?”

“Me? What else can I do? I’m watching the heroic deeds of the eastern hero in Qari, of course!” Wendy on the phone said with a smile.

However, even from across the phone, Jasper could feel the murderous intent hidden in her tone.

Life at the Top Chapter 2209-“Wendy, let me explain. My timeline very critical... I didn’t mean to hide it from you. This time, I didn’t tell anyone...”

Halfway through Jasper’s explanation, Wendy suddenly chuckled.

“Okay, I’m just kidding. Am I so naive to you? However, it’s also because you’re calling me at this moment and admitting your mistakes so nicely. Otherwise... Hmph!” Wendy snorted coldly, making Jasper, the all-powerful figure in the world, continue to admit his mistakes with a smile immediately.

“Of course not, as long as you don’t get mad at me,” Jasper answered with a smile.

“Remember, next time this kind of thing happens, I want to at least know that you are safe,” Wendy pouted, “You know how worried I was for you when there was turmoil in Qari? Who knew you were still living your best life in Harbor City.”

“I...” Jasper was at a loss for words as he heard what Wendy said.

He also realized what he had done this time was inappropriate. It was because he subconsciously forgot his position in Wendy’s heart.

He was only thinking about the gains and losses of the plan, but not how much psychological pressure Wendy would have to bear if something happened to him.

“Okay, this will not happen again.”

Wendy smiled sweetly, and with this, the tension between the two was resolved naturally.

“By the way, Jasper, the situation with May and my dad has become more and more worrying recently,” Wendy said seriously.

As soon as he heard this, Jasper suddenly slapped his forehead.

“Yeah, how could I forget?”

Wendy had successfully obtained May’s information before. Judging from the information, May was not someone powerful. The main thing right now was that May was connected to Dawson.

“I understand. Wait for me to go back to Nauritus City,” Jasper said.

“Can you make it in time tonight?” Wendy asked after looking at the time.

“Of course!”

After hanging up the phone, Jasper immediately arranged for someone to prepare a direct flight to Nauritus City.

By the time Jasper landed at the airport, it was already past nine o’clock in the evening. Wendy drove over to pick him up herself, and Jasper was a little puzzled.

“Why did you come to pick me up in person?”

“Usually, you will come to pick me up when you are free, so of course, I have to do the same. Get in the car!”

Jasper got into the car with a smile but felt a little weird when the car stopped.

“Huh? Why are we at a hotel? Don’t you live at home?”

Wendy sighed immediately at this time. “You’re not here, so you don’t know what’s going on. Do you want me to live at home and watch May put on a show to be intimate with my father?”

Jasper nodded slightly.

As a daughter, just imagining such a scene would make her feel very uncomfortable.

Wendy took Jasper back to the hotel room, and the two sat on the sofa to talk about this matter.

“Now that my father trusts May so much, what do you think can be done to knock some sense into him?” Wendy asked directly, and Jasper could see that Wendy was a little annoyed by May.

“Actually, it’s very simple. Since May’s acting is so good, let’s continue acting with her.”

“Continue acting with her? Won’t you be giving succor to the enemy?”

Wendy did not understand, so Jasper continued to explain.

“Don’t worry, let me explain it to you slowly...”

Life at the Top Chapter 2210-“We’ll continue playing along with May and let her get carried away thinking we totally believe her. Finally at the wedding, we’ll put out all the evidence to expose May... Your father will only come back to his senses if we do that.”

Wendy thought about Jasper’s words and thought they made sense. “Those whom God wishes to destroy, he first makes mad.”

“Yes, that’s right. It’s good that you understand.”

Jasper and Wendy followed up with a series of plans. Wendy thought Jasper was glowing as he was going on and on about his meticulous plans. Wendy got together with Jasper back then because she liked the way Jasper was now.

“It turns out I still have to depend on you. Otherwise, I wouldn’t know what to do...”

Wendy lamented, and Jasper immediately reached out and pulled her into his arms, patting her shoulder lightly.

He understood Wendy. If he let her deal with this matter, she would inevitably be in a dilemma because of the fetters of family affection.

If she let him do it, he would naturally approach every detail relatively rationally.

“By the way, there is one more important thing,” Jasper said suddenly, startling Wendy in his arms.

“What is it?”

“Us, of course!”

Jasper had a pleased smile on his face suddenly. Then, he threw Wendy on the bed.

At the same time, May brought Dawson a plate of cut fruit in his house.

“Here, eat one...”

“Thank you, May,” Dawson said with a smile.

He felt fulfilled and happy to be able to stay with May every day. He held May gently and asked her to sit next to him.

An awkward look flashed across May’s face, but she hid it perfectly. Dawson who was madly in love, did not notice it.

To be honest, May had thought about this more than once. If they did not meet because she had a purpose, they would be a normal couple. This would be pretty nice too...

Dawson was a very kind and gentle man. At the same time, he was loyal. He and his assets were ranked among the best in Somerland. Moreover, he also had an exceptional son-in-law.

May was in a dilemma. However, she understood she could only fantasize about certain things. She knew what that woman would do, and she also knew what would happen to her if she betrayed the Rothschilds.

After finishing the fruits, Dawson started feeling worried.

"Sigh, our marriage is right around the corner. My daughter has always been in Southeast Province, but my son-in-law has never come back... The marriage won't be good if we don't get their blessing. Most importantly, you will suffer."

May was concerned about this as well.

If Jasper came back, it would mean May was great at acting. Once everyone approved of her relationship with Dawson, her previous worries would vanish.

She still remembered Wendy rearranging her position in the company, which caused her to almost expose herself.

"Don't worry. We'll go talk to Wendy tomorrow. It'll be fine if we ask her to say something."

"Alright, let's go to bed."

The next day, Dawson heard knocking on the door the moment he woke up.

"Who came here so early? Is it Wendy?"

Dawson quickly went to open the door when he thought of this. However, he saw Jasper standing outside.
