Life at the Top Chapter 2211-“Jasper, you’re back. How great! Aunty May and I were just trying to reach you! Come in, come in...”

Upon hearing this, Jasper smiled and walked into the house with Wendy, his gift to Dawson in hand.

“Uncle Dawson, you’re more than welcome. I’m your junior. You can just tell me anything you need from me.”

As Dawson sat Jasper and Wendy down, May came downstairs at the same time.

“May, come here and see who’s here!” Dawson said with a smile.

“Oh, Jasper, you are here! What a pleasant surprise! Please sit, I’ll make tea for you!”

May seemed to be very diligent, and she basically handled all the big and small things in the house. The whole house was indeed filled with warmth. If Jasper and Wendy did not know the truth of the matter, they would have been confused by this illusion.

Dawson spoke at this time.

“Jasper, Wendy, as you all know, I have nothing going on at this age except for my marriage with Aunty May.”

Jasper lifted his head and looked at Wendy. The two of them then shared a smile.

“Uncle, don’t worry, I will handle your wedding. I won’t let you down or let you be humiliated,” Jasper said with a smile.

“Really? That would be great!”

Needless to say, Jasper was very competent. Dawson was very relieved to be able to hand over the wedding to him.

May also nodded happily, but the smile on her face was a little stiff. Dawson, who was enjoying this moment, did not see it, but Jasper next to him could see it clearly. However, he did not point it out. After all, he knew it was useless to expose May's identity now. They had to do this according to the plan in order to bring Dawson back to his senses.

"Okay, you two should continue resting... Wendy and I will head to the company now."

After chatting for a while, Jasper did not intend to stay and left with Wendy.

When Jasper and Wendy left, Dawson opened the gift from Jasper with a proud face.

"That kid Jasper is always so considerate..."

In comparison, May was not in a good mood. She also had some doubts in her heart. It was because Wendy's attitude towards her was not so friendly some time ago, and last time, Wendy even took the initiative to change her position. Hence, this made May somewhat alert.

After a few days, things gradually became peaceful again.

When May looked at Wendy today, it did not seem like she had discovered her identity.

'Was I overthinking back then?' May thought about it and finally decided to continue to observe.

In truth, she also hoped she was just overthinking. Because only in this way could she continue her mission and complete the tasks that Miss Bella entrusted to her...

After returning to the company, Jasper met up with Baz and others. Out of his trust in Baz, Jasper did not shy away from talking about May.

"I have discussed with Wendy before, and we must find a suitable opportunity to expose May's identity. What do you think?"

Baz also frowned and nodded in agreement.

"That's right, as the saying goes, to catch a thief you must find the stolen goods too. If there is no evidence to reveal her identity, not only will it not solve the problem, but it will lead to a deadlock. By then, things will progress in a bad direction...”

“Why not...” Halfway through Baz’s sentence, he turned to look at Jasper and Wendy.

Jasper knew the guy was asking for his opinion, so he smiled and patted his shoulder.

Life at the Top Chapter 2212-“Alright. In that case, I’ll go ahead.”

Baz told Jasper about a prospective plan.

The company had been doing well lately. The weather was perfect as well. They could take the opportunity to hold a company trip.

“Won’t the company be empty during the trip?”

“As a mole within our company, she definitely won’t be able to let go of this opportunity, right?”

Jasper approved of Baz’s plan as well. However, Wendy did not really understand the plan.

“Will this method really work?”

“May is one of the employees in our company right now. Her position is rather high up as well. How can we not bring her along with us during the company trip?”

Jasper smiled understandingly. He understood the implications behind Baz’s words.

He then spoke up, “Well, there’s something else that you don’t know. May won’t go anywhere before she gets married since Uncle Dawson will be there.”

Wendy finally realized what they were planning to do. It turned out that Jasper and Baz already had everything planned out. Therefore, Wendy nodded as well. The three of them came to an agreement.

“Since we’ve decided to carry out this plan, let’s take action at once!”

Wendy announced the start of a meeting at the company's headquarters. She set up the perfect facade during the meeting. She made it seem like a quarterly meeting where she would be providing recognition to individuals that performed well.

After the meeting, Wendy announced their decision to hold a company trip while everyone was in a jovial mood.

"Since our company has performed exceptionally well in the past quarter, I came up with an incentive for everyone. We'll organize a company trip for everyone!"

"The company will pay for all your expenses!"

As soon as she made the announcement, everyone was beyond thrilled.

May, who was in the meeting as well, was the only one who had a different expression on her face.

Everyone else thought that it would be a great opportunity for them to go out to have some fun since the company would be bearing all their expenses. However, May thought about how the company will be empty during the company trip.

This was simply an excellent opportunity!

Therefore, May looked for Wendy after the meeting.

"About that...Wendy, can I not join the company trip?"

Jasper happened to be standing nearby. He feigned a shocked expression as he questioned her.

"Aunty May, don't you want to go on the trip? The company rarely organizes any large-scale group activities. You should join us for the experience."

"I know. However, I'm getting old. I'm not as lively as young people like you." May then gave them a great excuse. "Besides, I can look after Dawson if I stay at home."

Jasper and Wendy nodded understandingly after hearing what she said.

“What you said is completely true. In that case, you should stay at home to keep my dad company. My dad is completely inseparable from you right now!” Wendy chuckled as she said.

She spoke to May in a respectful tone.

“Alright, that’s that. Wendy and Jasp, you should continue working. I’ll head back first.”

May left after saying this.

Wendy watched May’s silhouette as she asked, “Shall I leave the key to my office here as well?”

Jasper knew what Wendy planned to do. However, he shook his head and said, “I know what you want to do, but I’m afraid that she’ll be hypervigilant right now. It’s rather risky especially since you previously suddenly promoted her.”

Wendy thought about this as well. “May wouldn’t have discovered our plans, right?”

“No. Besides, it’s useless even if she did...” Jasper patted Wendy’s shoulder to comfort her.

“Based on the information that we have on hand, Bella might have planted May in our company.”

“May knows better than anyone else the fate that awaits her if she returns empty handed after working hard for such a long time. Therefore, May would never let this opportunity go!”

Life at the Top Chapter 2213-Wendy understood that Jasper was conspiring openly, and he had May’s every move and plan in the palm of his hand.

“I see, what should we do next?” Wendy asked.

“It’s very simple. Wendy, you should go to organize the outing, and while you’re at it, create a fake confidential document and hide it in the computer,” Jasper said with a smile.

“Okay, leave it to me.”

Then, after Jasper and Wendy spent some time together, he turned and left Wendy's office. He did not leave the company but instead looked for someone.

"Last time you said you needed to tell me something, what exactly is it?" Jasper looked at Baz in front of him, and the latter nodded repeatedly.

"Actually, those are some secrets I discovered in the surveillance videos. I can only rest assured after I hand them over to you personally, Mr. Laine..."

Finally, Baz took out the video he extracted from the surveillance cameras.

Jasper took a closer look and understood Baz's intentions.

The video showed that May was not behaving herself in the company. At this moment, she was flirting with another man who looked to be in his fifties.

Jasper knew this old man. He was Brooks Rivers, the deputy director of the company's security department.

May was able to utterly mesmerize Dawson, so this proved that although May was already old in the eyes of young people, she was still charming in the eyes of people Dawson's age. Because of this, it did not surprise Jasper that May was able to charm Brooks.

Apparently, Baz also felt that this matter might be related to Wendy's family scandal, so he did not spread the news casually.

Jasper patted Baz hard on the shoulder. "I know you're protecting the privacy of our family, and you're doing the right thing."

"Then what shall we do next?" Baz asked, and Jasper smiled.

"May has already charmed Brooks, so you should know better than me what she will do next, right? Brooks is the deputy director of the security department. After she handles Brooks, May will be able to carry out her plan without hindrance... Every step she takes is planned. We just need to wait patiently for the right time that she makes herself an easy target."

Baz nodded and finally left with Jasper.

At night, Wendy made a special trip to tell Jasper what was going on.

“Jasper, I replaced the computer in my office as per your instructions. This computer’s password is my birthday and everything’s been set up.”

Jasper nodded with a satisfied smile. “Alright, you can take everyone on the outing tomorrow. I’m going to stay with Baz and spy on May.”

“No problem!”

Jasper and Wendy split up their jobs and they were waiting for May to jump into their trap.

That evening, May came home and lied to Dawson.

“I’m sorry, Daw. The company’s performance has been good recently, so Wendy organized for all the employees to go on an outing. I also want to get along with other people in the company and cultivate workplace relationships. I can’t allow others to keep saying that I only got in because of my relationship with you...”

“Thus, I don’t think you should go this time, otherwise, I will feel sad every time I hear gossip in the company.”

May had an apologetic look on her face as Dawson waved his hand magnanimously.

“It’s okay, I’m not so old that I can’t move anymore. I can take care of myself... Since you have this opportunity, you should go have fun with my daughter.”

Life at the Top Chapter 2214-May breathed a sigh of relief. To be honest, every time she lied to Dawson, she would feel guilty because Dawson was so kind to her. He was so good that it would sway her. However, every time May thought of Bella’s tricks, she would shudder...

The next day, May set off early and even changed her clothes.

After seeing how beautifully May dressed, Dawson smiled and told her to be safe.

It was a pity that Dawson did not know that May took a taxi and did not go straight to the company, but instead, she went to the private room of a coffee shop.

After arriving at the private room, May waited until she entered the room before taking off her huge sun hat and sunglasses.

Inside the room, an old man in his fifties had obviously been waiting for a long time. Then, he directly pulled May into his arms.

This old man was Brooks!

“Oh, my darling! I missed you, I missed you so much!”

Although May was disgusted with Brooks, she still chose to endure it due to his identity.

Brooks had backup keys for almost all the offices in his office.

Without Brooks’ help, May would not have been able to get in, let alone steal the confidential documents she was targetting. Obviously, May and Brooks had planned this meeting.

May did not let Brooks take much advantage of her after they spent some time in the room.

“This cafe has a very high rating! See if you want something to eat or drink, honey.”

Brooks obviously knew this was a rare opportunity and he had to grasp it well, so he put on his best performance. Of course, May did not care. Her only purpose was to get the key and then act at night. Unfortunately, the two had no idea that someone was watching them when they were in the room.

Jasper and Baz were nearby. Since they had set up surveillance in the room early on, they could see everything when looking at the surveillance screen on their mobile phone.

“Good, let her continue this... It’s best if she leaves more evidence so we’ll have a bigger opening.”

At this point, Brooks drank the water infused with the sleeping pills that May had prepared early on, and it began to take effect.

“Wake up... Wake up...” May stretched out her hand and patted Brooks’ face, and then saw that the other party did not respond.

She knew the time had come, so she immediately took Brooks’ key. At the same time, she called another person to come and take care of Brooks before going straight to JW Group.

In the middle of the night, May went to the entrance of JW Group and was immediately stopped by the security guard.

“Stop! What are you doing?”

“It’s me, don’t you recognize me?” May showed her face and the security guard backed away in fright.

“It’s you. Why are you here so late at night?”

“Well, I forgot something in the office, so I want to go in and get it.”

“Please come in.”

May successfully entered the company after relying on her identity. Then, she trotted all the way to Brooks’ office. She took out Brooks’ key and opened the office door. After walking in, she saw that Brooks’ office looked rather modest.

May opened the drawer, and sure enough, she saw a variety of keys inside, each with a label on it.

After searching carefully, May finally found the key to the chairman’s office.

“Hmph, this doesn’t take much effort...” May sneered, and then she went to the monitoring room first to turn off all the surveillance cameras.

After taking enough precautions, May went straight to the chairman’s office and opened the door.

Life at the Top Chapter 2215-She quickly went to the computer and turned it on.

Soon, she saw the pop-up requesting the login password.

‘Oops, how could I forget about this? What should I do now?’

May knew that there was no turning back after she started this, so she decided to try different passwords. Perhaps God was on her side. When May tried Wendy's birthday, it worked.

May quickly took out the USB flash drive with an excited face and began to search for confidential documents in the computer in the chairman's office.

At this time, May did not look stupid at all at this moment. She did not appear as dumb as she seemed before. After all, she had been working for Miss Bella and could be regarded as a talent Miss Bella cultivated. Therefore, May quickly cracked several firewalls and found the secret file on the computer.

After seeing the secret file, May took action immediately and took out the USB flash drive. She watched the data on it being continuously transmitted and felt extremely excited in her heart.

Sadly, May did not notice a small red dot lighting up in the corner on the right side of the ceiling. This little red dot was the pinhole camera that Jasper told Wendy to install. Even if May turned off all the cameras in the monitoring room, she would definitely miss this one.

After the data transmission was completed, May turned around and quietly left the office. Before leaving, she turned off the computer and wiped off her footprints. She looked as if she had done this many times before.

This made Jasper, who was sitting in front of the monitor, sigh.

"I can't believe she's a seasoned spy..."

"Yeah, thankfully we installed the pinhole camera in advance!"

After Baz saw this, he also felt scared.

When Wendy first gave Baz the task of investigating May, he considered it. As the investigation got deeper, May's purpose became more and more obvious, and it also sent shivers down his spine. It was because May had too big of a plan, or in other words, the people behind May had too big a plan...

"It's okay. Her days are numbered... Let her live her life for a few more days!"

May quietly left the company, pretended to be nothing, and returned to the secret place. After that, she transferred the stolen secret information to Bella's mobile phone.

Bella did not expect May to actively contact her in the middle of the night.

"Why is she contacting me? Didn't she say her identity was about to be exposed last time?"

Bella picked up the phone.

"Miss Bella, did you see the email I sent you?" May's voice came from the phone.

Bella opened the email on her phone and then replied, "I saw it, but I haven't opened it yet. What's in it?"

"That's the secret document I got after I snuck into Wendy's office tonight!" May said in a relaxed tone.

She knew that if this document was of great help to Bella, she would get a huge reward.

Bella asked, "The confidential documents you stole? Didn't you say they were suspecting you? Is this confidential document legit?"

May pondered Bella's question for a while. Then, she said, "Miss Bella, maybe I was too sensitive before. Jasper and Wendy did doubt me, but at that time they just thought I was here to scam them of money... They probably don't know that what we're after is not their coins but the confidential documents that I managed to steal. You will understand after you look at it."

Bella did not click on it immediately because she was suspicious.

After listening to May's explanation, she clicked on the email hesitantly and saw the confidential document in it.

Life at the Top Chapter 2216-After careful review, Bella believed May's words.

The main reason was that this confidential document was too realistic. Even if it were a fake, it was impossible to take into account so many details.

“Very good, you did well. Now, your task is half completed. I will reward you well.”

Bella’s satisfaction made May extremely excited.

People who worked under Bella had a common understanding that it was very difficult to get Bella’s approval. As the eldest daughter of the Rothschilds, Bella’s reward would obviously not be small, and this made May feel that all the efforts were worthwhile.

“No problem, Miss Bella. I will stay here and be your eyes.”

Early the next morning, Wendy returned from the outing with the company.

Jasper naturally came to her immediately and quietly closed the office door.

“How was it? Did you get anything yesterday?” Wendy asked.

“Of course, you can take a look...”

After Jasper brought up the images captured by the pinhole camera yesterday, Wendy looked at it and felt crept out.

When she saw May’s skillful and vigorous movements in the surveillance, she knew that she could no longer be soft-hearted.

“I didn’t expect this woman to be so proficient and her plans to be so meticulous! Everything she did was all for the final goal,” Wendy sighed.

Jasper also smiled, “Right? From now on, let’s just pretend that nothing happened, and let everything proceed as usual. We’ll wait for her to expose herself...”

Wendy also understood what Jasper meant. That fake confidential document was not groundless. In order to prepare this, Wendy secretly invited a hacker to create an advanced computer virus.

After that, they hid the computer virus in that fake confidential document.

In the beginning, this computer virus would be very hidden, and none of the known antivirus firewalls would be able to stop it.

It would take three days for the computer virus to fully start functioning.

That night, Bella was sitting on the sofa while drinking a glass of red wine in the office of the Rothschild Tower far away overseas. There was the sound of footsteps outside the door.

Then, Paulson walked into the office and frowned when he saw Bella using his computer.

“Miss Bella, why are you so interested in my computer?”

“Don’t worry, I won’t bother stealing any commercial secrets from your computer. If I want them, I can just ask you for them...”

Facing Bella’s dominance, Paulson could only choose to turn a blind eye since he was scared of her.

Bella shook the red wine glass in her hand and said with a smile, “Back then, you thought it was risky for me to arrange for someone to approach Jasper... But everyone knows that high risk means high return. Come and see!”

When Paulson saw the contents of the email, he could not conceal the surprise in his eyes.

“You have nothing to say, right, Uncle Paulson? I have already said that your ancient mindset would no longer work.”

Paulson was silent for a while after seeing Bella’s current state. Then, he could only ask more practical questions.

“Since you have obtained such important information, what are you going to do?”

“It’s very simple. In the old saying of Somerland, I want to have my cake and eat it too!” Bella did not hide her confidence. “I will immediately notify the factory in Munich and ask them to block more of Somerland’s automobile industry technology!”

Life at the Top Chapter 2217-“Considering Jasper’s idea of entering the international luxury market. I also want to contact the most famous luxury company in the world and put him in a chokehold.”

After she said that, Bella's eyes suddenly became fierce. She thought of all the things Jasper had done before and felt a sense of vengeance.

"As for their plan to make a big splash in Qari, leave it to me to use as a chess board. I'll have fun over there with Jasper!"

Although Bella was not the leader in the economic war last time, she still lost miserably to Jasper. Since there was such a good opportunity this time, Bella naturally wanted to take revenge to resolve her shame.

"We must be cautious when dealing with Jasper."

When Paulson mentioned the name Jasper, his expression was extremely solemn, and he could not help but visualize that smart Somerland man in front of him. Although he was young, he had an incomparable temperament.

In the next three days, preparations for Dawson and May's wedding began according to the original plan. Dawson was very happy these days and it felt like he had a new lease on life and was reborn.

When May found out that the wedding was approaching, and the people around her were really working hard to prepare for these things, she gradually let down her guard. She figured what she had done had not been discovered.

What May did not know was that Bella had already taken the wrong information she sent and started plotting the next strategic plan.

Jasper received a video call from Rowan and said directly, "Are you calling to urge me to go to Qari as soon as possible?"

Rowan immediately shook his head, responding with vigilance.

"Of course not, Jasper. I think you will know best when to go. I will take your time as the standard... I'm calling for something else. Recently, the blockade of automotive technology in Munich has escalated again!"

As soon as Rowan said that, Jasper suddenly smiled knowingly.

"Jasper, why are you smiling? I don't think this is good news, right?"

Rowan looked puzzled, and Jasper continued, "Don't worry, since you have received the news, it means my plan has succeeded."

"Your plan?" Rowan was even more confused.

Jasper briefly told him about his plan to capture the spy and it suddenly dawned on Rowan.

"Now you understand, right? The ban over there in Munich just shows that Bella had received the fake confidential documents May stole... Only the Rothschilds can give orders of this level nowadays," Jasper said with a smile.

Rowan nodded too, but his face was still full of worry.

"Having said that, their blockade still exists. If things go on like this, it will really be detrimental to Lane Automobile Factory!"

Of course, Jasper considered Rowan's concerns before taking action.

"It's okay, this blockade is only temporary... Believe me, the blockade will be lifted soon. You should give yourself a vacation for the next few days."

The video call with Rowan ended here, and Jasper arranged for someone to check the news of the international luxury goods market.

Half an hour later, a beautiful woman in a uniform who exuded an air of intellect approached Jasper's side with a stack of documents, and said in a soft voice, "Mr. Laine, here are all the documents you want. There is a huge shock in the international luxury market!"

Jasper glanced at the information and a faint smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

Life at the Top Chapter 2218-The ban was the first to be issued.

At present, several major industry giants in the international luxury goods market suddenly jointly issued a statement.

They claimed that in order to integrate regional resources, they needed to temporarily prohibit the injection of any local financial resources.

In Jasper's eyes, this statement was very straightforward, and the only thing they did not do was call him out directly. However, the pressure Bella's behavior invited onto herself was not small either, and Paulson has begun to question it.

“Look, these are the letters of complaint we received today, do you know what you are doing?”

Paulson held a stack of complaint letters and placed them in front of Bella. He just wanted to use this to deter Bella so that this arrogant junior would learn to restrain herself. It was a pity that Paulson underestimated Bella’s stubbornness.

Bella glanced at the letters without any expression. Then, she threw them all into the fireplace in front of Paulson.

“What are you doing?”

Paulson froze for a moment and hurried to rescue the letters. Unfortunately, it was too late, and a raging fire soon ignited in the fireplace.

“Why should I keep the complaint letters that are criticizing me?”

“Miss Bella, are you saying you are not willing to accept anyone’s opinions and criticism now? This is not good for your growth! You must do something about your impetuosity and arrogance!”

Bella turned her head at this moment, staring at Paulson blankly.

“Stop labeling me indiscriminately here! If I’m in the mood to respect you, I’ll call you my Uncle Paulson, but if you p*ss me off, you’re nothing! The person who can educate me has not been born yet!”

Paulson saw that he could not continue talking with Bella while leveraging seniority.

He had to change the subject.

“I’m not going to discuss this with you. Let’s just talk about work. You put pressure on the luxury giants to issue a joint statement, but do you know how much they will lose by doing so?”

Paulson tried his best to persuade her, but it was a pity that Bella was obviously too stubborn to listen.

“You are deliberately interfering with and destroying the market, which will arouse public outrage!”

After Paulson finished speaking, Bella waved her hands impatiently. “What age is this? Your rhetoric is useless on me! Now, they’re clamoring that they’ve lost their overseas investment and suffered a huge loss, yeah? They should be grateful to me in a few days after learning what kind of opponent I helped them stop!”

“And... If there is nothing else, you should leave!”

When Paulson heard this, he immediately left angrily. It was only after he closed the door that Paulson suddenly realized.

“Wait, isn’t that my office?”

It was only then that Paulson realized that he was indeed blinded by rage, but Paulson did not want to go back to face the perverse Miss Bella Rothschild.

In a blink of an eye, three days passed by.

On this day, May and Dawson were taken to a luxury hotel by Jasper early on.

“This is the place where the wedding ceremony will be held for the two of you, so I’ve decided to come and visit in advance with you!” Jasper pointed to the back, and May and Dawson saw the arrangement behind them.

The huge drawing room and the stage had been decorated with flowers, and the surrounding lighting had also been adjusted.

One would feel that this place was gorgeous just from standing here and looking at it.

Even though May sounded like she was criticizing Jasper, the smile on her face could not hide the joy inside her.

Life at the Top Chapter 2219-Dawson could not describe his happiness with words, and May naturally felt that since Jasper and the others were paying more attention to the wedding, it would mean her cover had been amazing.

After a while, Wendy also arrived. She seemed even more enthusiastic, and she followed May to help her change clothes and so on.

Seeing such a considerate and gentle Wendy, May's heart almost melted.

Jasper and Wendy had obviously manipulated May's heart. The same was true for Dawson on the other side. He changed into a white suit and kept looking in the mirror.

Jasper was the one who took care of everything these days. Many of his old friends had also sent him their blessings.

They all asked Dawson why he did not inform them a few months in advance so that they could be prepared.

When the two were immersed in joy, Jasper pulled away and started another arrangement.

What was Jasper's identity?

The marriage of his prospective father-in-law was such a big event. It was no joke to say that even the head of Southeast Province would need to come to congratulate Dawson.

Jasper naturally did not want to make matters worse and let everyone watch the farce surrounding his family.

At the same time, once this matter rose to a serious level, it would also be a devastating blow to his reputation and status.

Many of Dawson's relatives and friends had come to Nauritus City to prepare for Dawson's wedding.

Jasper understood that he had viewed this matter too naively. The very fact that Dawson was going to get married had already affected all aspects of his life, including the people around him and even the locals in Nauritus City.

If everyone found out that this wedding was just a farce, he would not be able to recover fully. Therefore, Jasper made more comprehensive arrangements for this matter.

Wendy would explain and resolve the problems with Dawson's relatives and friends, while Jasper would do the same to his relatives and friends.

Moreover, he directly told everyone the truth. Because of his special status now, the rise of JW Group was too fast and powerful, and the intrusion of foreign forces became more pervasive and was even directly targeting his closest relatives.

As for May, he would handle her himself.

“Baz, have you done the work I asked you to do?” Jasper asked Baz behind him.

“Of course, it’s ready, don’t worry!” Baz assured him.

With Baz’s guarantee, Jasper was relieved.

Wendy appeared behind him at this time, wrapping her arms around Jasper. “I’ve also helped May change her clothes.”

“Well, since everything is ready, let’s start the final process!”

As soon as Jasper waved his hand, the staff at the scene immediately started to play out.

As they played romantic music, Jasper and Wendy brought out the elders respectively.

After Dawson was brought out, Jasper said to Dawson, “Dad, let’s rehearse with Aunty May.”

“Come on, let’s invite our two newlyweds to the stage!”

The master of ceremonies was fairly professional. He had a powerful and influential voice.

Dawson and May walked onto the stage arm in arm. Both of them had happy expressions on their faces. However, at this moment, the lively wedding music stopped abruptly, and different photos kept appearing on the big screen.

“Hey? What’s that on the big screen?” The staff on the sidelines asked.

Life at the Top Chapter 2220-May looked back and suddenly froze in place.

“W-Where did this photo come from?” The shock in May’s heart was beyond words, and the big screen was showing the photo of her and Brooks’ intimate encounter.

Dawson also saw this and immediately questioned, “May, is that you..?”

“Um... Of course, it’s not me. Can’t you see that the photo is not clear?” May sounded flustered, but she also clearly had a stronger heart than that of ordinary people, so she quickly calmed down. “Besides, with current technology, you can fabricate all kinds of photos...”

“Daw, don’t be deceived! Someone is setting us up!”

May was still quibbling, but at this time, Jasper walked onto the stage slowly with the microphone in hand.

“As expected of the spy sent by Bella. It’s so amazing how you can continue to lie without blushing in this situation. I’d like to see what else you’ll say...”

After Jasper stepped onto the stage, May was still refusing to admit it.

She was trying to save herself for the last time, “Jasper, what are you talking about? Who is Bella?”

“Even if you don’t agree with our relationship, there’s no need to fabricate photos to deliberately humiliate us in public, right?”

Upon hearing this, Wendy stood up. “Dad, please come to your senses. May has had ulterior motives so that’s why she got close to you in the beginning. Now that the photos are all in front of you, why are you still so muddleheaded?”

Dawson had been in a daze.

It was clear that all these sudden changes had affected him deeply. He knew very well in his heart that his daughter and son-in-law would not lie to him about this kind of thing.

Who was Jasper?

Furthermore, Wendy was his daughter.

Would she deliberately fabricate such a lie to deceive him?

Dawson just did not want to accept the reality. He did not want this dream to end so soon.

“Let’s enjoy a video,” Baz stood up at this moment and said loudly.

The scene of May breaking into Wendy’s office at night was shown on the big screen.

“May, let me ask you, why did you break into Wendy’s office late at night when everyone in the company was going on an outing?” Jasper’s question made everyone’s hearts jump.

May panicked as she was faced with Jasper’s questioning.

It was only then she realized Jasper and Wendy’s respect for her was fake. They were just waiting to expose her on this occasion!

She knew that Dawson was her last hope now. That was why May quickly turned to look at Dawson next to her.

“Daw, don’t listen to their nonsense! I-I never did those things at all! This video is also fake!” May was still desperately struggling.

Wendy stood in front of Dawson at this time and said loudly, “Father, this May person has always been an undercover agent arranged by the West to deal with us. We finally caught her! Now that we have proof, do you still want to protect her?”

Dawson did not speak. It was obvious that he was struggling. He stared at May as if trying to see through her heart.

After May saw Dawson’s eyes, she did not avert her gaze. Her tears flowed down slowly as she said, “Daw, I don’t want to lie to you anymore...”
